Sidney Richardson, the injured man, is in St. Joseph's Hospital suffering from a broken pelvic bone and other injuries, according to Ed Haynes, highway department maintenance foreman here.

Mr. Haynes said the accident occurred about 9:30 a.m. five and a half miles west of Wellington on FM Road 1056. He said Richardson called to the machine operator, John W. Rothwell Jr., to start it, and as he did, the loader rolled back on the mechanic, but did not roll over him.

Burglars Reach Through Window to Get at Loot

A barred window prevented burglars from breaking into Bob's Food Market Monday night, Dec. 3, but they were able to reach through and take an estimated 12 to 15 cartons of cigarettes, Sheriff John Rainey said.

The window, behind a small storage room, was not visible from the highway, the sheriff added.

Richard Owens is operator of the business.

City Fire-less Over 2 Months

The Wellington Fire Department has had two and one-half months with only one minor blaze, Fire Chief Richard Bailey reported this week.

That blaze was a cotton fire on the Dodson highway several weeks ago.

Fire department members answered two fire calls during the annual convention of the Panhandle Firemen's Association here Sept. 8, and a blaze at the Ham Holton home a week later when an air conditioner ignited.

Those were the last local fires.

Final Rites Wednesday for Chester Hunter

Chester Hunter, prominent farmer of the Wellington and Loco area, died in St. Joseph's Hospital at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 4, following several years of ill health.

The family home is at 1212 Bowie Street.

He was 58 years of age.

In spite of his ill health, Mr. Hunter continued to carry on the operation of his farms and was active until only a few days before his death.

During his years as a farmer in the Loco area, he participated in many community activities. He became a member of the Baptist Church when he was 17, and was active in the work of the First Baptist Church here.

Chester Jefferson Hunter was born at Roff, then in the Indian Territory, January 6, 1904, the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hunter. The family lived at Elida, N.M., several years before coming here.

C-C Directors Meet Monday

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, meeting Monday night, Dec. 3, passed a resolution authorizing the Collingsworth County Overall Economic Development Planning Board to act as its representative in preparing the overall economic development program for the county.

In other business, the board set the tentative date for the annual banquet as February, with the exact date to be determined by the convenience of the speaker.

A committee composed of Richard Bailey, Sandy Parsons, and Charles Allen was named to select the speaker.

Dan Henard, chairman of the Collingsworth County Water Control and Improvement District brought C-C directors up to date on the board's water development program.

New Construction for City Totals $332,630 During Year

Construction in the city limits of Wellington totaled $332,630 for the year ending Nov. 1, the Chamber of Commerce revealed this week.

Residential construction accounted for most of this—$281,512—the largest amount that has ever gone into new homes in one year in Wellington, N. M. Higdon, C-C manager said.

The remainder of the city's construction figure was accounted for by $18,118 in street, water and sewer improvement during the year, Higdon added.

"It surprised all of us when we took the survey," he continued.

Information came from records kept by the City of Wellington.

The total figure is one of the highest in the town's history, but not the highest. Total construction went higher in 1959 when the $325,000 low rent housing unit went up.

There was no new school construction nor were any new churches put up, as there have been in recent years.

Most of the new home construction has centered in the south and southeast parts of town.

In addition to the new construction, there was a considerable amount of remodeling, which was included in the figure.

While a few of the new homes cost as low as $6,000 and $9,000, there were several above the $25,000 figure. The top cost of a home as listed on the city's building permits for the 12-months period was

Cars Collide North of Town

Occupants of two cars escaped injury when their vehicles were involved in a collision two and three-fourths miles north of Wellington Sunday afternoon, Sheriff John Rainey reported.

The accident occurred as Oran Starkey, driving a 1963 Buick, started to pass Doyle Gerald Owens of Amarillo, as the latter made a left turn into a private road, the sheriff said. Owens was driving a 1962 Tanus.

Both cars were traveling north, Rainey said.

Riding with Starkey were his wife; his aunt, Mrs. Nannie Edmondson, and Mrs. Starkey's father, Walter Culp. Owens was alone, according to Rainey.

There was considerable damage to the front of the Starkey car, he added.

Rose Shadid has Knee Injury

Miss Rose Shadid received a badly cut right knee when she tripped over a water hose in the patio of her home and fell, her knee striking the concrete floor.

The accident occurred Wednesday evening, Nov. 28.

Eight stitches were required to close the cut, her sister, Miss Marie Shadid, said.

She is recovering at home, but will be unable to return to her work at the Fair Store for several days.

Santa Reaches City by Coach Friday

Santa Claus arrives in the courthouse square promptly at 3 p.m. Friday, December 7, riding in his handsome coach pulled by prancing Shetland ponies.

All the children in the Wellington trade area are urged to be down town awaiting his arrival, and advance notice has been sent the four schools of the county, and the boys and girls invited to be here.

Santa will alight from his coach and visit for a considerable length of time with his young friends, giving all of them an opportunity to tell him what they want under the tree and in their Christmas stockings.

No other town provides Santa with such colorful western-style facilities for travel . . . but then snow is too uncertain, and reindeers might become sore-footed without it.

The coach and ponies were used for the first time last year and were an immediate hit.

If the wheels are creaking when Santa rolls onto the square it will be because the coach is so heavily loaded with candies for young Collingsworth.

An advance peek at Santa's sack reveals it to be enormous! But then so is the appetite for candy.

Wellington merchants are cooperating to make this one of the biggest entries Santa has made in Wellington in years.

Christmas lights in town went on during the week end to add to the festive holiday appearance of the town.

The first of the Trades Day drawings is slated on the court house lawn Saturday afternoon, Dec. 8.

WHS Teams in Irish Tourney

Wellington Skyrockets and Rockettes will play in the Shamrock invitation tournament this week end, Coach James Stavenhagen announced.

The boys are due to play their first game Thursday, Dec. 6 at 8 a.m. against the Briscoe team.

The girls will play, also against Briscoe, immediately after the Rockets finish.

Velman Warrick Has Surgery

Velman Warrick underwent major surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital Monday, Dec. 3, for a stomach ailment.

His condition was reported Tuesday as satisfactory.

Warrick's mother, Mrs. J. E. Warrick of Hereford, is here to be with him.

December 14 Deadline on Wheat Sign-up

Friday, December 14 is the deadline for wheat growers to sign up for the special voluntary 1963 wheat program authorized by the Department of Agriculture.

The legislature raised the support price on the 1963 crop to $2.00 a bushel to farmers who participate in the special program, Millard Brown, county ASCS office manager said.

Under the 1963 program, a producer may sign up to reduce at least 20 per cent of the allotment, or up to 50 per cent of the allotment, if he desires.

This is a voluntary program, it was pointed out, but farmers who sign up must divert the agreed number of acres from wheat to comply with the program.

There can be no changing from the original intention after the deadline date, Dec. 14, is passed.

Farmers who participate will receive 18 cents per bushel price support payment on the normal production of the acreage planted to wheat, in addition to the diverted acreage payment.

Williams Farm Sale Announced

Hayden Williams, prominent county farmer who is retiring this year, has announced that he is selling at auction his farm equipment and other items.

The sale will be held Wednesday, Dec. 12, at 1:30 p.m. on the farm on which he has been living in the Fresno community. This is five miles east on FM Road 338 and a mile south.

Cleatus Calloway will be the auctioneer and John Robert Henard will be the clerk.

Narrators of the scripture will be Ike Gilbreth, Denzil Phipps and Dale Morris.

Mrs. Lowell Wells is directing the cantata, and those assisting with the manger scene are Mrs. Monty Mitchell, Mrs. Cal Sugg, Mrs. Bill Cooke and Mrs. Richard Gilbreth.

Christmas a Time of Joy?

CHRISTMAS time is traditionally a time of joy, for family companionship, for worship and remembering. But sometimes we wonder.

For example, we just received a communication this week from J. Edgar Hoover, the FBI Chief, who points out that 38,000 lives will be claimed in traffic deaths this year, if it is as bad as last year, and there will be 1,400,000 persons seriously injured.

The Christmas season is one of the worst traffic seasons of the year. The FBI Chief wonders when this perennial mass slaughter will stop.

The privilege of driving a motor vehicle is a responsibility that most of us don't appreciate. A driver of today's automobile is steering a couple of tons of sudden death down the highway and his car's big, smooth motor and ease of performance lulls him into going faster than he should.

Speed is one of the top causes of car wrecks.

There are those who persist in drinking and driving. A driver with a load under his belt thinks he is a better driver than he is, and he usually proves himself wrong by hitting something else.

Drunk driving is another leading cause of wrecks. Some studies show 50 per cent or more of the fatal accidents involve drinking drivers. Excessive speed causes 33 per cent of the fatal accidents. Both are prevalent at Christmas.

These two factors, drunk driving and excessive speed, are sometimes combined. Either one can be fatal by itself.

FBI Director Hoover says "It is indeed ironic that a society which owes so much to the advent of the motor vehicle is unable to cope with its devastating side effects."

Until we come up with better traffic statistics than we have, we are going to have to remain silent to this query.

Average Value of Texas Farms Continues Up

COLLEGE STATION. — The average value per farm in Texas increased from $48,378 to $64,950 between 1959 and 1962, according to C. H. Bates, economist of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

In this same period, the average size of farms increased from 631 to 710 acres. This year the land on the average Texas farm is worth $59,302. Buildings are worth an additional $5,648. The average value for land and buildings is about $91 per acre, he said.

The rate of sales of farm land accelerated some during the last year also. The number of farm title transfers in Texas rose from 51.8 per 1,000 farms in 1960-61 to 58.2 in 1961-62.

A study by USDA's Economic Research Service shows the average value per acre of farm real estate reached a new high of $123 per acre in the U.S. in 1962, 5% higher than in the previous year. The average farm has 336 acres, and is worth $41,400. About $32,800 of this is accounted for by the land, and the balance, $8,600 by farm buildings, Bates said.

Better than Home-Grown Roughage

Cottonseed hulls were found to be the most economical source of roughage when compared to silage and lespedeza hay in feeding trials conducted by University of Arkansas animal scientists.

They stated that if cottonseed hulls were used in the feeding program, farm land need not be diverted from profitable cash crops to the production of roughages.

In tests conducted at the Cotton Branch Experiment Station, Marianna, Ark., one pound of cottonseed hulls was worth 3 times the value of a pound of silage and slightly more than lespedeza hay.

The diversion of land from the production of cash crops must be considered when calculating the value of farm-produced roughages for beef cattle feeding.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where a crew of scientists has put it out as news that bees can communicate with each other.

Of course they can, but they don't carry it to extremes with telephones, TV, newspapers, etc., probably figuring they only need to communicate enough to tell the little bees about the birds and the people.

My buzzy neighbor says mankind suffers from over-communication, anyhow, and would be happier if we were like the bees, and had never heard of things like Khrushchev, taxes, and easy payments.

I see where a newspaper voice of the young social sophisticates says it is "compulsory patriotism" when schools expose children to arguments in favor of national pride and loyalty.

Which shows the thinking on people's rights which is being done by some under-developed types who figure anything compulsory is bad, except when compulsed by them.

My psychowacky neighbor says he guesses compulsory sales talks on moral responsibility will get sneered at by these people until somebody invents compulsory intelligence.

I see where the government is all the time worrying about whether us consumers are smart enough to keep the businessmen from rooking us.

But my ungrateful neighbor says the bureau boys haven't really got our personal welfare at heart; they just feel like all money belongs to the government, and as long as they let us keep some, they hate to see us wasting it.

After all, it must hurt them to watch us amateur wasters fumbling away at a job which the government's expert wasters could do so much faster.

I see where the Russians claim they are moving all offensive weapons out of Cuba, and some people believe them.

It is a natural human weakness, enjoyed by nearly everybody except credit men, that we can't hardly help believing even certified liars will maybe sometimes keep a promise.

But my low-hope neighbor says even if Khrushchev does move out the missiles and the bombers, we ought to further insist that Castro be dismantled, as he is pretty offensive, too.

Federal Bank Rate Reduced

The Federal Land Bank of Houston has announced that effective on Jan. 1, 1963, it will reduce temporarily to 5% the interest rate on all outstanding loans which presently bear a rate in excess of 5%. The contract rate on new loans will continue to be 5½% but interest on loans closed on and after Dec. 1, 1962 will be billed temporarily at 5% until further notice by the Bank.

In making the announcement, Hal Weatherford, president of the bank, said that of its $260 million of loans outstanding, more than $100 million bear contract rates in excess of 5% and that the savings to Texas farmers and ranchers by this action will be more than a half million dollars in the year 1963 alone. Weatherford said this is the fourth time the bank has voluntarily reduced the interest on its outstanding loans.

The Houston bank makes long-term farm and ranch loans through 73 Federal Land Bank Associations located throughout Texas. The one serving this area is the Federal Land Bank Association of Shamrock. Fewer Braceros on Texas Farms

Texas cotton farmers reacted to a US Department of Labor wage standard of 70 cents an hour for braceros hired to chop cotton, by resorting to almost exclusive machine harvesting.

While 45,000 Mexican contract laborers were hired in August of 1961, only 16,000 were used in August this year, and they also harvested vegetables and grain.

No Pay for New Senators until They Go to Work

Will Wilson, Texas attorney general, has ruled that state senators may not take their oaths of office until after the Senate convenes in January.

Attorney general recently held that state representatives could qualify for office on Nov. 23.

Dates of terms for senators and representatives are regulated by different sections of the state constitution.

Constitution provides no beginning date for the term of office for state senators, the opinion said.

Texas Schools Face Big Fund Loss

Texas school districts have been warned to desegregate by next September or lose certain "impacted area" funds.

Warning was contained in a letter from Wayne O. Reed, acting US Commissioner of Education, and was sent to 53 Texas school districts.

State education officials interpret the letter to mean that the federal government will build and operate schools on military posts and other places where its personnel is involved only if local districts do not desegregate.

Federal government has been paying about $12,000,000 a year for operating locally-run schools in Texas, attended by children of military and defense establishment personnel.

Latest announcement apparently covers only children living "on base" and not those whose parents work on a military post but reside off base.

Leon Graham, assistant state commissioner of education, said it is impossible to gauge the immediate effect.

Ruling poses a serious problem for districts still maintaining segregation, to any degree, and depending on federal funds for educating children who live on nearby bases.

Funeral Rites Thursday for Mrs. S. C. Kesler

Funeral services for Mrs. S. C. Kesler, who lived here from 1912 to 1940, were conducted at the Kelso Chapel Thursday, Nov. 29 at 3 p.m. with the Rev. Harvey Carroll of Crane, a relative, officiating.

Mrs. Kesler, who made her home with a daughter in Amarillo, died in Hobbs, N.M., on Tuesday while visiting another daughter.

Burial was in West Wellington cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Pall bearers were Chub White, Peck White, Bob Hightower, Grover Graham, Orville Vaughan, and Frank Kesler of Tulia.

Mrs. Kesler was the former Sarah Lois Cumming, daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Cumming. Her father was one of the early Methodist Missionaries to Texas, coming from Illinois.

She was born at Cooper July 16, 1875, and was married there to Mr. Kesler October 14, 1905. He preceded her in death on March 6, 1956.

Mrs. Kesler was a member of the Methodist Church.

Her survivors are five daughters and a son: Mrs. B. A. Wulfman of Amarillo; Mrs. H. M. Rapp of Houston; Mrs. R. A. Dosher of Hobbs, N.M.; Mrs. Fannie Willis of Happy Camp, Calif.; Mrs. D. E. Grimes of Ashland, Ore.; and John Kesler of Medford, Ore.

Other survivors are a brother, Craig Cumming of Dallas; a sister, Mrs. John Derrick, of Crockett; 19 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren.

No Runs at Gatesville Since September 4

The "run rate" at Gatesville State School for Boys has been reduced to zero since Sept. 4, when the new $2,000,000 Mountain View School for serious offenders was opened.

School was dedicated Dec. 1 in a public ceremony featuring an address by Gov. Price Daniel.

Weldon Brewer of the Texas Youth Council said the "run rate" has been cut down gradually over the past five years.

In 1958-59, when the average monthly population at Gatesville was 1,115 boys, there was a monthly average of 51 escapes. In 1959-60, with 1,197 boys, there were 44 escapes a month. In 1960-61, with 1,364 boys, there were 31 escapes. In 1961-62 there were 1,502 boys with only 24 escapes.

Since the 200-plus inmates most likely to run were moved into the double-fenced Mountain View campus, there have been no escapes.

"A walled home may seem cruel to some people," Brewer remarked. "But it's a very humane arrangement when you realize that the boys within are able to take part in a training program and group recreation."

Before the new school was opened, the boys who broke out had to be confined to a small room.

GIFT TO LIBRARY

Court Overrules RR Commission

AUSTIN.— Texas Supreme Court has negated an order of the Railroad Commission and revoked a specialized motor carrier permit to transport road building materials granted to Lively Trucking Contactorrs.

Decision to vacate the commission's order was made on the basis that findings on which the permit was based were insufficient.

In a concurring opinion, Associate Justice Joe Greenhill criticized the Railroad Commission's use of a printed form of "standard" finding-of-facts on which an order is based; filling in the date, names and authority.

He called this a "lack of procedural due process of law."

An estimated two million people now have or have had active tuberculosis — the oldest known respiratory disease.

Growing Menace of Obscene Books Discussed for 1954 Study Club

"The Growing Menace of Obscene Literature" was discussed for members of the 1954 Study Club by Mrs. Ben Ratliff, high school librarian, and the club's guest speaker Thursday, Nov. 29.

Mrs. Jack Aaron was hostess.

Discussing the problem in its national aspect, Mrs. Ratliff explained what obscene literature is, the effects on teenagers and how it is distributed to both teenagers and adults.

She told the group the best way to educate against obscene literature is through the home.

"A home should be pleasant enough for children and teenagers to want to be there, and good reading should be made available to them at home," Mrs. Ratliff said.

Mrs. Harley Hatch opened the meeting with the reading of the club collect, and Mrs. Billy R. Long presided at the business session.

She named a community improvement committee composed of Mrs. Edd Henard, Mrs. James Richardson, Mrs. Hatch and Mrs. Dick Pendleton. The club has joined the community improvement program sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Long pointed out. The committee will study a project for the club to undertake for the next two years and report to members at the December 13 meeting, to be held in the home of Mrs. A. J. Fires.

Mrs. Earl Clark was announced as winner of the mink hat given by the club in one of its fund projects, and it was also announced that another fund raising project is being undertaken. All monies will go to the club project for furnishing additional books for the school libraries.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Sam McGill and Ratliff, guests, and Mmes. Sam Adams, Fires, Hatch, Leon Hartman, Henard, C. T. Hubbard, Calvin Hurst, Long, V. K. Orr, Jr., Ray Peeples, Pendleton, Richardson, Paul Spillman, R. L. Templeton, Lynn Wright, Grant Wooldridge, and the hostess, Mrs. Aaron, and her daughter, Kim.

Club Hears Library Talk

Members of the Domestic Science Club heard a report on libraries, ranging from the famous libraries of the world to the facilities offered by local libraries, when Mrs. Clyde Drake presented the program for the Domestic Science Club Thursday afternoon, Nov. 29.

Mrs. Paul Guthrie was hostess in her new country home.

Mrs. Drake told the members that the Wellington high school library has 5,500 volumes, the junior high library about 2,000 and the elementary school library 1900. There are 4,327 books in the county library.

A history of the county library followed.

She had opened her discussion by telling of the first "libraries," on stone and clay tablets. She expanded her talk to discuss the famous libraries of Alexandria, Athens and Rome. as well as those of the monastaries of the Middle Ages.

Famous modern libraries are those of the Vatican, the National Public Library in Leningrad, the libraries of Cambridge and Oxford Universities, the New York Public library, Harvard library, and the Smithsonian Institute.

Andrew Carnegie, during his lifetime, gave $64,000,000 for libraries, many of which bear his name.

Mrs. Drake also told of visits to the public libraries of Corpus Christi, Dallas, and Little Rock during the time she was preparing this program.

Mrs. Farris Wood conducted the business session, and also gave a report on local nationalities.

Members voted to send a Christmas box to the State Hospital at Wichita Falls, and a cash donation to the gift bar of the Veterans Hospital, Amarillo.

Attending were Mmes. Drake, W. R. Orr, Deskins Wells, L. C. Hill, J. B. Stevenson, John Coleman, Bob Choice, Jerry Nix, Wood and Guthrie.

March of Dimes Helps Youngster With 'Assist' from Coincidence

Kathy Anderson is too young at 18 months to understand coincidence. This is the story of how it tipped the balance in a life-and-death battle for her—hopefully, in favor of life.

The first child of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson of Grundy, Va., Kathy was born in December, 1960 with spina bifida—a severe birth defect in which the spinal column fails to close completely. Its cause is unknown and there are too few specialists in its treatment.

Mrs. Anderson had been sent home, uncertain of her baby's future, while Kathy remained in the hospital. The doctors were undecided on the next move.

Helpful Neighbor Phones

Ten days passed. Then the Andersons' telephone rang. It was a neighbor who had just read a magazine story about Linda Breese of Columbus, Ohio, the 1961 March of Dimes Poster Girl.

The article, in the monthly publication of the Loyal Order of Moose, told how Linda, also a spina bifida victim, had undergone an operation at Children's Hospital in Columbus, and was now making steady progress under a program of treatment and rehabilitation at the March of Dimes-financed Clinical Study Center there.

Mrs. Anderson, whose father-in-law is a Moose member, read the article for herself and promptly called her family physician, Dr. Thomas McDonald. They agreed on an immediate call to the Breese family, 200 miles away.

Mrs. Breese confirmed the story. She also praised the skills of Dr. Martin P. Sayers who had performed the operation on Linda and of Dr. William O. Robertson, director of the March of Dimes-supported Center.

With Dr. McDonald making the arrangements, Kathy was soon taken to Columbus for surgery by Dr. Sayers. The operation was successful, but Kathy then began to develop hydrocephalus, or water on the brain, which frequently accompanies the open spine condition. Dr. Sayers inserted a plastic tube which drains the excess fluid from Kathy's head into her body to be absorbed.

During reassuring check-up visit to March of Dimes-financed Birth Defects Clinical Study Center at Children's Hospital, Columbus, Ohio, Kathy Anderson, 18 months, gets loving embrace from parents, Jim and Barbara Anderson of Grundy, Va.

Kathy went back home to Grundy in February of 1961 after spending a month at Children's Hospital, but she's been a regular visitor since.

Faithfully each month from March through October, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson drove 650 miles, round trip, between Grundy and Columbus, leaving home at midnight to reach Children's Hospital at 8 a.m. and returning the same afternoon.

Kathy Checked Closely

This enabled Dr. Robertson and all the other members of the Clinical Study Center's medical team to keep a close check on Kathy in the important early months and to act promptly on any changes in her condition.

Now that the critical stage is past, the Andersons must make that long auto trip only once every three months. But it doesn't seem so long to them now because it leads to hope for Kathy's future.

Despite her continued improvement, Kathy's problems are far from over. Says Dr. Robertson:

"Kathy is a cheerful little girl who seems to be responding well to much of the treatment we are prescribing for her. However, like most children with severe birth defects of the central nervous system, she has complications which we can't fully correct because we don't know enough about them yet."

Centers Fight Crippling

The expert medical team at the March of Dimes-supported center in Columbus and those in more than 50 other centers are working to improve diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation techniques to help make possible nearly normal lives for the victims of crippling birth defects, arthritis and polio.

Jim and Barbara Anderson can only hope that the work of Dr. Robertson and his associates will bring a promising future to Kathy. But they can personally endorse his diagnosis of their daughter's disposition.

"She's a lively, happy baby who loves to have people around her," says Mrs. Anderson. "We try to keep her from getting spoiled but it's not easy. What can you do with four grandparents who have only one grandchild to fuss over?"

Committee to Boost Education

Beating the drums for top quality education is the privately financed Committee of the Governing Boards of State Colleges and Universities.

It's membership consists of one representative from each of the 19 bodies which direct the institutions of higher learning in Texas.

These are business men. They stress the economic angle of education.

Texas must industrialize, they say, to insure our future prosperity. To get industry, we must have excellence in higher education.

Supporting that thesis, they quote such authorities as Governor-elect John Connally, Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, and Dr. John R. Stockton, director of the Bureau of Business Research, University of Texas,

These experts agree that industry follows brainpower and will go where brainpower is available.

Texas May Execute First Woman in 100 Years

The State of Texas may legally execute its first woman in more than 100 years.

She is Carolyn Ann Lima. Her death penalty has been affirmed by the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

Meanwhile, she is being held in the Harris county jail at Houston. She awaits the court's decision on a motion for rehearing. Such is rarely granted.

If she lives until Feb. 23, she will be 20 years old.

The Lima woman and a companion, Leslie Douglas Ashley, were given the death penalty for the murder of a wealthy antique dealer in Houston.

It was 1859 or 1850, when the State of Texas last executed a woman.

Only one woman has been sent to the Texas death house since the electric chair was installed in 1924 at Huntsville. However, her sentence was commuted on June 29, 1951.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wheeler had their entire family home for Thanksgiving, including Mr. and Mrs. Danny Wheeler of Portales, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Borger, Carolyn, Mike, Larry and Janis, of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wheeler, Theresa, Billy and Teddy, of Wichita, Kan.; Buford Wheeler of Garland; and the children at home, Clariece, Laura Faye and Eddie.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fleming of Mason were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Kelso early this week. The men went quail hunting Monday.

Longs Attend Shrine Service

Mr. and Mrs. Billy R. Long and children, Barry and Debra, were in Wichita Falls Sunday to attend the memorial services at the Maskat Shrine Temple honoring members who had died during the last year.

Among those honored was Mrs. Long's grandfather, the late Martin Crews of Childress.

The Long family also visited in Childress during the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Long; her mother, Mrs. Annie Ruth Bell, and her brother, who is leaving this week for the armed forces.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Duke were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bell, Mike, David and Teresa, of Wichita Falls.

Water Problem Caused by Texas Court Decision

Water districts which serve customers within the limits of a city are in a dilemma over a Texas Supreme Court ruling.

A court decision finds them in the position of trying to set rates to pay their costs and at the same time having their rates prescribed by the city.

Texas Supreme Court has upheld the power of Houston to fix rates charged customers within the city by a water district. Ruling applies equally to all cities served wholly or in part by water districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilsey of Vale, Ore., were guests early this week of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Whitson, of near Lutie.

Dwight Speaks at Norwood

Bob Dwight, principal of the Samnorwood high school, spoke on "Good Citizenship Through Education" at the meeting of the Samnorwood Parent-Teacher Association Monday night, Nov. 26.

Children of the fifth grade presented the playlet, "The First Thanksgiving," and those of the sixth grade paid tribute to Veterans Day.

The meeting was held in the foyer of the school gymnasium.

Changes Proposed in Sales Tax

AUSTIN.—Twenty changes in Texas' two per cent sales tax law are recommended by the Texas Commission on State and Local Tax Policy.

Some changes would result in decreased revenue and some would produce an additional $10,500,000 a year from a tax that is expected to bring $170,000,000 into state coffers this year.

Senator George Parkhouse of Dallas is chairman of the commission. Other members are Hugo H. Loewenstein of Amarillo; Dr. John R. Stockton of Austin; Senators Louis Crump of San Saba and Jep S. Fuller of Port Arthur; Representatives Charles Sandahl of Austin and Charles Wilson of Trinity.

Parkhouse predicted that if spending in the next biennium is in line with the present level, no additional taxes would have to be levied.

A large addition to income—if recommendations are adopted—would come from applying the state sales tax to motor vehicle sales in place of the selective excise tax now levied on vehicles.

Commission recommended repeal of the exemption on farm machinery and equipment, but suggested that feed for farm work animals, herbicides, defoliants and desiccants, and all fertilizer sales be exempt.

Some other recommendations:

1. Apply sales tax to all clothing sales, which would up revenue $10,000,000 a year.
2. Exempt vending machine sales of less than 25 cents, and all sales of less than 25 cents for retailers who derive 50 per cent of receipts from such sales.
3. Exempt sales made to state banks, since sales to national banks are exempt.
4. Exempt all sales of alcoholic beverages.
5. Permit grocery stores to pay sales tax in proportion to purchases of taxable and non-taxable items. Grocers with annual receipts of less than $100,000 would pay sales tax on the assumption that 85 per cent of receipts are from exempt items.

LOOKING AHEAD

THE LEFTWARD FRINGE

As the pre-election debates were tending more and more to concern themselves with American foreign policy, the Cuban crisis swiftly came to a head on the basis of aerial reconnaisance photos. The press services and editorial writers were soon observing that the nation was closing ranks behind President Kennedy so near unanimity prevailed in support of the President's firmness. The only exceptions, it was pointed out, were to be found on the far-left on the lunatic fringe.

The performances of this far-left periphery probably should concern us since it is partially identifiable from some 30 candidates that it had around the nation in the recent elections.

These candidates were talking up such platforms as banning the nuclear weapons and ending testing, giving foreign aid to Communist satellite nations, recognizing Red China and East Germany, and being fair to Castro.

With these and other proposals, for example, Harvard Professor H. Stuart Hughes was bidding for JFK's old Senate seat and for as much of the liberal vote as he could lure from Brother Teddy.

Idea Infiltration

It is not so much the possibility of being chosen by the electorate that interests us now, as it is the propaganda effect of the views held by these so-called "peace" candidates.

But what is perhaps of major concern is the success they often have in influencing the platforms of the major parties and occasionally in launching a kindred spirit or two into the orbit of the White House advisors. The service rendered by many of these people to World Communism in its recent drive to squelch anti-Communists was also a notable development.

It does seem to be a matter of serious concern that these Communist-sponsored ideas are infiltrated so easily into our society. If the process were limited to "ivory tower" poets and philosophers, perhaps little harm would be done. Unfortunately, however, some thought leaders are captured by the altruistic nature of these proposals. The harm is done when the Communist fifth-column sees to it that the greatest possible mileage is obtained from any idea or development that offers support of the Communist line.

The Fellow Travelers

More and more the U.S. Communists are finding ways to get others to serve them. As yet, largely unregistered as foreign agents despite Supreme Court directives, and still free to print whatever they please, U.S. Communist Party members work like beavers weaving their "peace" lines into every communications channel.

They even get into the government. One recalls policy-maker William Wieland, a Castro friend and apologist in the State Department, who only last year enjoyed a public defense from President Kennedy.

Barely four weeks before the Navy was blockading Cuba, the Fair Play for Cuba Committee sent out a sample copy of the magazine "The Minority of One," in an effort to raise money for itself and subscriptions for the periodical.

The magazine, according to the Committee, "has courageously supported the Cuban Revolution despite the mounting hysteria in our country that has been encouraged by a lying press that would like some 200 million Americans to believe that 7 million Cubans pose a threat to our national security."

Serving the "Line"

The periodical in its October issue runs an editorial on its front page whose second paragraph states: "Whatever pretext Washington will seize will be a smokescreen for its own aggression; Dr. Castro and his colleagues certainly do not propose to commit suicide by providing a legitimate reason for U.S. military attack. We must thus conclude in advance that when the U.S. government contends that Cuba has provided such a reason the contention will be false." A fair statement of the Communist "line".

One wonders what kind of support this periodical and the FPCC receive from the Soviet agitation and propaganda arm. It is hard to believe that this magazine lists among its contributors a justice of the Supreme Court, and includes in its board of sponsors at least two Nobel prize winners, several notable theologians and professors, a retired Army general, and a vice president of the Fund for the Republic!

The biggest name among the sponsors, however, is that of humanist Albert Schkeitzer.

How subtle the Communist line!

Law Suggested to Curb Hunting Deaths in Texas

Cecil Reid of the Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas urges hunters to put a stop to a tragic string of hunting deaths and injuries, by practicing coution in the field.

He cites three recent deaths where hunters were mistaken for game and killed.

Reid said no hunter should allow himself to shoot at anything which he has not identified fully as game.

He urges hunters to request passage of legislation such as the "careless and reckless hunting" laws in effect in some other states.

Get Rid of Poultry Parasites

"Most poultry parasites can be controlled through good management and wise use of insecticides," advises Joe N. Wakefield, poultry science department, Texas A&M. External parasites thrive under filthy, crowded condition so make sanitation the number one defense.

He suggests these simple steps for controlling parasites: treat and disinfect the poultry house after cleaning and before housing birds; don't overcrowd the house; keep litter loose and dry to eliminate hiding and breeding places for insects; keep all free-flying birds out of the poultry house through the use of screens on doors and windows and check with county agents on recommended insecticides.

Rockettes Win 54-36

Rockets Lose Thriller to Quails by 1 Point

Probably one of the most exciting basketball games of the year was decided when Quail's J. C. Saunders sank a free throw with 7 seconds of playing time left on the clock, to give his team a 41-40 victory over the Wellington Skyrockets.

The Rockettes defeated the Bobwhites 54 to 36 in the other game of the double header.

These games were played on Friday, Nov. 30 on the Quail court.

"Our girls are showing a great deal more hustle and their offense was good," Coach James Stavenhagen said.

"Quail has a young club, but they hustle real well. They'll be hard to beat before the season is over," the coach continued.

The Quails scored twice to open the game, while the Rockettes held a 0. Wellington pulled ahead to lead 16-9 at the end of the first quarter; 31 to 17 at the half; and 47-23 at the end of the third.

Rockette Betty Courtney was high pointer with 27 points, and the Bobwhites' Sue Saunders was next with 18. Kay Blevins scored 15 and Linda Millsap 8.

Starting the game for Wellington were Betty Courtney, Jane Orr, Jan Glenn, forwards, and Carol Blain, Nancy Gibbs and Vicki Glenn, guards.

Quail starters were: Blevins, Sue Saunders, and Sue Ward, forwards, and Pat Kimbro, Lonetta Neeley and Dianne Moseley, guards.

Rockets-Quails

The Rockets played good ball during the first quarter and had a 9-6 lead; in the second quarter they couldn't hit and Quail went ahead 22-12 at the half. Wellington buckled down again in the third period and the score was 30-30 at the end of that quarter.

The lead changed hands five times during the fourth, then Saunders sank his free throw to give the Quails the 1 point lead and 7 seconds to go.

Wellington got the last shot of the game, when Lynn McLain's toss hit the rim of the basket and rolled around—and around—and around—and off!

"I feel like the Rockets are really going to profit from these ball games. I think they will learn to play under pressure and therefore win the games that count later on," Coach Stavenhagen commented. "I'm real pleased with the showing so far, even though we haven't won a game.

Quail has a good ball club. They are young but they can hit the basket and hustle real well. It looks like there is going to be some good competition between the schools for several years."

High pointers were Lynn McLain with 18 and Johnny Ford 10 for the Rockets and Dale Morris, 16 and J. C. Saunders 9 for the Quails.

Quail starters were Morris, Joe Harris, Robert Russell, Carroll Kennedy and Saunders.

Wellington starters were Craig Bergvall, McLain, Raymond Sanders, Ford, Danny Martin and Bobby Hudson.

The Crackerettes won their game 23 to 16, while the Firecrackers lost theirs 35 to 11.

The Wellington girls held a 21-9 lead at the opening of the fourth quarter, when Coach Harvey Millsap ran in his second string. This group made 3 points during the period while holding their opponents to 4.

High scorer was Becky Brewer, while Paken was high for Shamrock.

Firecrackers-Shamrock

Shamrock juniors, who have had two weeks longer to practice than the Firecrackers, never let the Wellington boys get ahead in the game.

The Crackers scored 2 points in the first quarter, to 5 for Shamrock; 3 in the second to 8 for Shamrock; only 1 point in the third while Shamrock got 9; and 5 in the fourth to 13 for Shamrock.

Four Firecrackers made two points each, Steve Trapp, Joe Wood, Andy Bell and Andy Henard, while Randy West, Wesley Ward and Freddy Mayhugh scored one each. Hawley was high for Shamrock.

Who to Visit

TEXAS INDUSTRY PUTS OUT WELCOME MAT TO TOURISTS

AUSTIN.—Tourists interested in visiting Texas industries need wonder no longer which plants have the welcome mat out and how they may arrange to tour them.

The information is contained in a first-of-its-kind booklet, Visitor Tours of Texas Industry, published by the Travel Division of the Texas Highway Department.

It lists 324 tours in 70 Texas cities. The first section of the publication discusses 77 regularly-scheduled tours. The latter portion is devoted to 247 additional tours that can be arranged by appointment.

Each listing offers the name of the industry, its address or telephone number, name of the plant contact, the products it produces, days and hours of the tours, their approximate duration and whether linguists are available for the foreign visitor's benefit.

The data was supplied the highway department, Texas' official travel promotion agency, by chambers of commerce.

Need for such a guide was manifest by the increasing number of visitors, as well as Texans, who asked the Travel Division about industrial tours. Attempts to refer them to satisfactory existing material came to naught. So the decision was made to prepare a booklet in cooperation with the state's chambers of commerce.

The result is believed to be the most complete industrial tour guide ever produced in Texas.

Diversification of industries is pronounced, both in the scores of smaller communities listed as well as in Texas' major cities.

There are, for example, auto assembly plants and aircraft manufacturers, plants turning out hand-made boots and saddles, sugar refineries and sulphur mines. Also, port facilities, petroleum refineries and petrochemical plants, boat manufacturers and clothing plants.

Included too is the government's saline water conversion demonstration plant at Freeport, the nation's largest school for naval aviators at Corpus Christi, ranches, scientific research laboratories, barite and talc mines and food processing plants.

The Travel Division noted that industrial tours are becoming an increasingly important part of the average family's vacation particularly when there are children of school age. Adults too are curious about creation of the products with which they come in contact in their daily lives. This is particularly true of the many international visitors who come to Texas, people anxious to compare American production lines with their own.

In connection with the foreign interest, copies of the tour information have been supplied the United States Travel Service for inclusion in a national listing of industrial tours. This will in turn be distributed world-wide for the benefit of the American-bound tourist.

Complimentary copies of Visitor Tours of Texas Industry are now available upon request from the Travel Division, Texas Highway Department, Austin, and from the eight Tourist Bureaus operated by the Highway Department around the state.

Change in Election Laws Suggested

The Texas Election Law Study Committee released a 221-page report on proposed changes in election laws.

Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells, chairman of the committee, said the main goal is to remove conflicts and deficiences from the present code. The more palatable suggestions will be included in one bill for legislative consideration. More controversial items will be presented separately.

Public will have a chance to challenge the proposals at an open hearing in the Senate chamber. Committee also will hold hearings at the same time on a voter registration law and a proposal to change the dates of primary elections.

Some of the 120 proposed amendments concern:

1. Having voters check preferred candidates on paper ballots, instead of scratching those opposed.

2. Requiring write-in nominees and runoff candidates to pay the same fees as other candidates.

3. Fining voters who cast a ballot in one party's primary and then vote in the runoff of another party.

4. Requiring campaign expense reports by newspapers, magazines, billboards, printers, radio and TV stations, on all advertising contracts.

5. Requiring all voters over 60 years of age to get annual exemptions.

6. Permitting different parties to hold primaries in the same building, as long as there is no means of direct passage between polls.

POLIO COUNT

AUSTIN.—Latest polio count by the State Health Department showed 229 cases in Texas so far this year, with 174 of them paralytic.

Last year at the same time there were 29 paralytic cases on record. One new case was recorded in each of Bexar and Coryell counties.

Farrowing Time Harvest Time for Hog Raisers

"Farrowing time is harvest time for swine producers and the number of pigs saved has a strong bearing on whether there will be profit or loss," says A. L. DuRant, Clemson Extension Animal Husbandman.

"The attention given a sow during and just after farrowing can mean the saving of an extra pig or two and in some cases entire litters," he continues.

He offers the following suggestions to swine producers:

"Keep the brood sow hungry and in good condition but not fat. A fat sow has more trouble farrowing and her pigs are likely to be less vigorous at birth. The brood sow is often feverish after farrowing; therefore, provide plenty of clean, warm water and no feed the first day.

"Wheat bran added to the ration (about 20%) for 3 or 4 days before and after farrowing is recommended. Protect sows and growing pigs from cold, wet floors and drafty sleeping quarters.

"With favorable weather the sow and litter can be turned on to pasture lots when pigs are 7 to 10 days of age," said DuRant.

About one tenth of the land area of Boston is reclaimed swamp land.

WHS Teams Drop Double Header to Paducah

The last 20 seconds cost the Skyrockets their game with the Paducah Dragons 37-33 Tuesday night, Nov. 27.

The less fortunate Rockettes lost their game too, the Dragonettes taking it 40 to 20.

The Rocket-Dragon game was tied 33-33 with 20 seconds to go when Neskirk threw a field goal. Wellington had to go after their opponents, fouled them and this gave the Dragons two free tosses. Neskirk was accurate on both.

The Rockets took the lead during the first half, only to have the Dragons come back and hit the basket with uncanny regularity.

"The Rockets played hard and they hustled well," Coach James Stavenhagen said. "I feel like when they start hitting the basket consistenetly they will start winning most of the close games."

High pointer for the game was Paducah's Neskirk wtih 14; Johnny Ford was high for the Rockets with 10. Raymond Sanders of Wellington and Green of Paducah tied with 8 points each for second high.

Rocket starters were Craig Bergvall, Lynn McLain, Sanders, Ford, and Danny Martin. Dragon starters were Green, Neskirk, Taylor, Long and Mints.

Rockettes-Dragonettes

The Dragonettes, a fine ball club of older, more mature girls, eased the Rockettes out of the running to take the game 40-20.

"That makes a difference in the game," Coach Stavenhagen pointed out.

It just wasn't the Rockettes' night.

"We made a lot of mistakes. The guards threw the ball away a lot and fouled unnecessarily, and the forwards were cold and couldn't score much.

"Every team has those nights and there's not much you can do about it," the coach added.

Betty Courtney was high pointer for Wellington with 9, and Dragonette Paula Rodgers was game high scorer with 20.

Starting for the Rockettes were Betty Courtney, Jan Glenn and Jane Orr, forwards; and Vicki Glenn, Carol Blain and Nancy Gibbs, guards. Others playing were Frances Warrick, Linda Millsap, Lavelle Harper, Wynona Jones, Mary Martin and Ann Orr.

JUNIOR HIGH TEAMS TAKE DOUBLE HEADER OVER HEDLEY

Wellington Firecrackers and Crackerettes won a double-header over Hedley junior high teams Thursday night, Nov. 29. The boys' victory was by four points—30 to 26. The girls, however, put a wider margin, 25 to 12, between them and their opponents.

Wellington's Charlotte Allen made the only goal in the first period. Although the Crackerettes ran their plays well in the second, and pitched accurately at the basket, only to have the ball roll off the rim. At the same time, however, Hedley wasn't scoring either, and the half ended 9 to 1.

In the third, the Crackerettes hit their pace and scored 12 points, while Hedley made 2. Coach Harvey Millsap then sent in the second string.

In the fourth, most of the Crackerettes were seventh graders, and they scored 4 points to 9 for Hedley.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

Sometimes a writer becomes a little bewildered as to what topics to discuss in a column of this nature. Three weeks ago there were some comments in this space on the Hiss appearance on a TV show and three veterans of World War II stopped by at different times to comment on it favorably. At the same time there were some observations about Lige Wadley throwing my dahlia bulbs away and planting cannas instead, and everybody I meet is still tittering over the account.

Perhaps people get more of the heavy stuff in the dailies and over the air than they care to think about and expect something lighter or more local in a weekly paper like The Leader.

We drove to Lubbock Saturday to spend the week end with Dr. and Mrs. Ansel McDowell and their children and a most enjoyable time it was. Dr. McDowell is connected with the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock as a general surgeon. They have bought a home on 29th street about ten blocks south and a little west of the Tech campus and have settled down for what they hope will be a long stay in one place. My oldest granddaughter has lived in Galveston, Canyon, Friona, Norfolk, Va., Oceanside, Calif., Bakersfield, Calif., and now Lubbock in her short lifetime. Now she is in a place that she will be able to remember as home.

We have been going to Lubbock by way of Floydada, but this time we came back by way of Dickens, Matador, etc., and it is by far the most scenic drive. Another is by way of Memphis to Silverton. This latter one is slightly longer, but it is worth the difference if you start a little early.

We have a tremendous amount of cotton in the fields, but it is nothing compared to the irrigated cotton on the south plains. They have not even started on most farms. When a hard freeze and fair weather does return again they are going to have a cotton jam the like of which they have never experienced before and they have had some pretty bad messes in the past. For two months the ginners have been sitting around looking at the sky and playing dominoes and the weekly editors tell me that some of the cotton processors are about half insane over the delay.

A. J. Peters came by The Leader office to renew his subscription for the 37th consecutive time. He started taking the paper in 1925 and has been a reader since that date. That is a long time for a kindly gentleman to put up with the same editor. Mr. Peters was one of the first if not the first farmer to grow peaches on a commercial scale in the Wellington area. Peaches had been grown in this county for thirty years before that time, but they were planted on a small scale for home use.

In the story on the reception in honor of Mrs. Jennie Holcomb we left out the name of one of the mayors under whom she served and naturally it would be the one who served the city the longest as an elected official. That was Pink Sullivan. The present community building was finished during one of his terms. The advent of World War II stopped Federal assistance on the project when it was less than half finished. Mayor Sullivan persuaded the council to go ahead with city funds and Bura Handley completed the construction with local labor. It is one of the truly distinctive structures in Wellington.

The quail hunters went forth last Saturday but some of them did not bring back too many birds. The quail population is less this year than it has been. Some believe that the tremendous amount of poisoning required to control insects may have had something to do with the decline in the number of the quail.

Former Countian Ill in Galveston

Leon Tucker, who lived in the Lutie area for many years, is seriously ill in John Seeley Hospital, members of the family recently told Rufus Sweat.

Friends wishing to write or send cards may address them to Ward 6-A, John Seeley Hospital, Galveston.

The Tucker family has lived at Abernathy since leaving here.

SAMNORWOOD BETA CLUB OFFICERS

These five are officers of the Samnorwood Beta Club, the high school honor society. From left, they are Joyce Alexander, reporter; Darlene Rainey, secretary; Mike Wischkaemper, vice president; Polly Clark, treasurer; and Neal Lowry, president. Supt. Orville Cunningham and High School Principal Robert Dwight are sponsors. The club has a membership of 16, and in addition to high scholastic standing, a student must show leadership to be eligible for membership.

Steve Owens Dealer for Seiberling Tires

Steve Owens Supply has been appointed the local dealer for Seiberling Tires, and the first shipment was received late last week.

This shipment included a full railroad car of tires, in all the popular sizes needed for both cars and trucks, Steve Owens, owner, said.

"We are indeed proud to be appointed the dealer for this fine tire, which is nationally known, and which has been a household word among car and truck owners for so many years," Owens said.

"This move is in keeping with our policy of offering our customers the quality and kind of merchandise they want," he added.

Construction

$36,000.

There were as many homes in the price bracket just under $20,000 as there were in the lower $12,000 range.

It was noted that these are homes occupied by the owners. No new rental property has been put up, and it is here that a shortage still exists.

In addition to the new home construction, a number of farmers have moved good, substantial homes into town, locating them in the better residential sections, and have remodeled them, with an exterior finish of brick usually added.

These homes now compare in quality and appearance with the new homes built.

"We feel that this represents good, solid growth for Wellington," Higdon said. "It is indicative of the steady development of the town that is not dependent on any boom conditions."

While new business construction has been along Highway 83, there has been a face-lifting in the downtown area. Some of this work has been major in nature, but in other cases minor alterations have been all that was necessary to improve the property. Filling up of formerly empty buildings on the east and south sides of the square was noted during the year.

But the overall construction picture for Wellington remains to be projected into 1963. Although plans have not been released, indications are that at least two major business construction projects will be carried out, either within the city limits or adjoining it.

Overall Group

Bishop, Judge Luther Gribble, and Paul Spillman.

Before the county can qualify for assistance under the Area Redevelopment program, an overall county economic development plan must be submitted and this will be the first piece of work of the local economic redevelopment board.

This plan will present county background material, an assessment of labor, skills, and natural resources available, an analysis of roadblocks standing in the way of economic progress, and a program of action.

The executive committee, in its first meeting, appointed the board of directors of the Collingsworth Water Control and Improvement District as its water committee. That body will continue work already started on the development of the county's water resources.

Henry, Dr. Orr, and Sullivan form the industry and small business committee.

Millard Brown, Bob Crawford and George Sparkman were named to study other committees to be set up.

Henard, Teutsch and Thomas were named to select an agricultural committee.

Friday Night

Sophomores Slate Hayloft Jamboree

Western music! Jokes! Celebrities! Square Dancing!

These are the ingredients that will make Friday night's rip-roaring Hayloft Jamboree—Dec. 7—the liveliest occasion that has been celebrated on the stage of the high school auditorium in many a day.

All the performers will be seated on bales of hay—that is, everyone except Grannie (Beverly Singley). A rocking chair has been provided for her.

But as for the rest of the performers, well, they're too young for rocking chairs. For instance, seated in the hayloft will be the Bronc Buster Band, composed of King Bowen, Peck White, and Elmer James.

They will be on hand during the evening to furnish the kind of music that the public has been clamoring for.

Raymond Horton, Henry Sullivan and Danny Garcia will furnish the square dancing.

The highlight of the evening will come when Esta Faye Bennett of Hollis arrives just in time to be on the television program.

Since this is a television program, Hershel Tyler, as Mr. Perkins, the technician from the TV station, will televise the show. Assisting him will be Mr. Anthony, Raymond Horton.

The sophomores invite all of their friends to come out Friday evening to help make the Hayloft Jamboree a howling success.

Guardsmen Wait for New Armories

Waiting for approval of armories under the federal-state building program are 32 units of the Texas National Guard.

New Rules on Sizes of Envelopes Mailed

Effective January 1, 1963, there will be limitations to the size of envelopes and post cards that can be accepted at post offices throughout the United States, Postmaster L. B. Bratten reminded this week.

"People should remember this in buying their cards and stationery, and especially if they are preparing to buy in large quantities," he said.

The regulations are:

Post Cards: Not larger than 3 9/16 by 5 9/16 inches, nor smaller than 3 by 4¼ inches. They must be rectangular in shape. A ratio of width to length of less than 1 to 1.414 is not recommended. In other words, they should be half again as long as they are wide.

Envelopes: Less than 3 inches wide or 4¼ inches in length will not be mailable.

Envelopes more than 9 inches in width or 12 inches in length are not recommended.

Envelopes having a shape other than rectangular are nonmailable.

Envelopes having a ratio of width to length of less than 1 to 1.414 are not recommended (half again as long as they are deep).

On behalf of the state he has asked the Atomic Energy Commission to transfer control to the Health Department "as soon as possible."

Included in the governor's request is the licensing and regulation of by-products, source and special nuclear materials.

TEXAS TOURIST TRAFFIC UP

Reports to the Texas Highway Department indicate tourist traffic into the state is on the rise. Travel promotion is credited with ending the 5-year decline.

Gov. Daniel says his mail gives two good reasons why folks like to tour Texas: a fine highway system, and the friendliness of Texans.

STILL UNDER FIRE

AUSTIN.—Five top state officials are still under fire from Giles E. Miller, Dallas attorney, who seeks to stop payment of their salaries.
