10 STRAIGHT DISTRICT 3-AAA GRID GAMES SET

Slaton Elevated to AAA School Ranks

Slaton will make the big move to Class AAA in Texas Interscholastic League competition next year, joining a huge 11-team field in District 3-AAA.

News of the new TIL alignments were announced this past week, and 3-AAA officials met in Snyder Monday to work out the details.

In football, there will be no non - district games. Each team will have 10 consecutive league games, beginning Sept. 13 next year. Slaton drew Colorado City for the opener, with an open date halfway through the schedule, and will wind up at Levelland on Nov. 22.

Slaton, Lubbock Estacado, and Colorado City join the 3-AAA district which already was composed of Littlefield, Levelland, Brownfield, Lubbock Dunbar, Lamesa, Snyder, Sweetwater, and San Angelo Lake View.

The new district alignments become effective with the start of school next September.

Coach Ernie Davis said most coaches favored a zone setup for the district, but the uneven balance of five teams for one zone and six for the other created a problem. No one wanted to be in the five-team zone because of the scheduling problem.

The district members finally decided on the 10 district games, and held a drawing for the games. The basketball race will start early, too, with each team already having 20 games under the double round-robin system.

The news brought mixed reactions in Slaton, with some citizens enthused about moving up while others expressed disappointment. Slaton grid fans had hopes of a 4-AA grid championship next season, but think there's little chance in the larger classification.

Davis, athletic director and head grid coach, was disappointed that his Tigers want have the opportunity to challenge Denver City and other 4-AA teams next season, but he was cautiously optimistic about competing in the larger district.

Davis added that the jump to AAA sports might not be as difficult as some fans think. The Tiger mentor is confident that Slaton can compete in the grid district, but he pointed out that "year in and year out we'll be at a disadvantage because of the difference in size of schools."

The AAA schools are grouped in the 450 to 1,020 size average enrollment in high school. Slaton averaged about 460 high school students the past two years. It and Colorado City barely made the AAA ranks.

Lubbock Estacado has some 965 students this year without seniors, and it appears the new school will be in Class AAAA the next time around. TIL realignments are made every two years.

Slaton presently has 486 students in high school. A breakdown shows 92 seniors, 114 juniors, 125 sophomores and 155 freshmen.

An unknown factor on the sports scene this week was the girls' basketball program. San Angelo Lake View is the only 3-AAA member with the program, and they are playing in a district with Mineral Wells and Gatesville. There's a possibility, still to be explored, that Slaton might get into a district to the north with Tulia and several other schools.

City Endorses New Library Plan Here

Slaton City Commission approved the recommendations of a Citizens Library Committee during a regular commission meeting Monday night, authorizing the leasing of a downtown building for a City-County Library headquarters for one year's time.

In other business, the commission accepted a low bid on a water cooler for the police department, upheld a ruling in a zoning case involving a trailer house; and approved employment of two persons in the police department.

Mayor Jonas Cain had appointed the library study group following an appearance here several weeks ago of the Lubbock City - County Library Board. The city - county group had recommended more adequate library facilities here, expressing a desire for Slaton to have a "model branch library" -- if the local citizens wanted it.

The local study group appeared at the commission meeting Monday night with Bob Kern as spokesman. Glenna Englund and Lavon Nieman are the other committee members.

The present library is located in the Community Clubhouse, where crowded conditions and outdated facilities are factors in the proposed change. It has also been reported that the county is considering kitchen improvements in the clubhouse.

Kern said the committee proposed a "temporary" move of one-year's time to a downtown location, with a study to be made of library usage and traffic. At the end of this time, it is anticipated that a decision might be reached on a permanent location--with the study determining the size and site of the library.

Kern said his committee estimated the library project would cost the city about $100 per month plus janitorial service. The county pays for the librarian and supplies the books.

Following a short discussion after the committee departed, the commission voted unanimously to support the project.

Charges Filed In Robbery Of Slaton Station

Slaton Police reported charges were filed in county court this week against Linner Lee Younger in connection with the armed robbery of Wylie Shamrock Station on Sept. 28.

Police said station operator Edgar L. Herron identified the suspect as one of the two Negro males who robbed the station at gunpoint, taking about $30 in cash. Younger was placed under $10,000 bond.

Police reports also revealed that charges of aggravated assault against a police officer had been filed against two Slaton residents -- Willie Hardrick, 57, and Bernice Hardrick, 47. Police Sgt. Glenn Farmer filed the complaint. Bonds of $400 were placed on each of the suspects.

Police reported several other arrests for minor offenses, and investigated a one-car accident which resulted in heavy damage Saturday night.

Ray White of Lubbock was injured and taken to Mercy Hospital when the trailer he was pulling flipped on the US-84 bypass. The trailer was loaded with an antique show car, valued at $10,000. Both the show car and White's auto were damaged heavily, according to the police report.

A minor two - car accident occurred Monday at the intersection of Industrial Ave. and the Cemetery Road. Drivers of the vehicles involved were Arnold W. Morris and Nettie M. Hyatt. Damage was estimated at $700 ot both cars.

Slaton Receives Go-Ahead On Airport Job

Construction on Slaton Municipal Airport was cleared by the Federal Aviation Administration this week, announced Mayor Jonas Cain, after receiving a "proceed at your convenience" work order from the FAA.

Contract for the airport landing strip was awarded to Pioneer Pavers, Inc. of Lubbock in the amount of $85,485, and the airport lights went on a bid of $12,366 to Frazier & Goble Construction Co.

Citizens of Slaton approved a bond issue of $85,000 for the project; Federal funds were approved for a total of $90,912, and a state grant of $18,000 was recently approved by the Texas Aeronautics Commission.

The city purchased a 320-acre site for the airport and possible future industrial development. It is located on FM-400 several miles north of town.

EVANS IN HOSPITAL

R. E. (Dick) Evans remains a patient in the Santa Rosa Medical Center in San Antonio where he is receiving treatment for injuries sustained in a fall while vacationing in that city.

Evans, local manager for Pioneer Natural Gas Co., and his wife were in San Antonio for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Maranto and family.

He is in room 527.

No Freeze, Yet

The light freeze forecast for much of the South Plains Wednesday morning failed to reach the Slaton area, with the official reading at Pioneer Gas Co. showing a low of 36 degrees.

A low of 32 had been predicted for Lubbock Wednesday morning. The dry cold front did drop the mercury considerably after a low of 48 was recorded Tuesday morning.

Tuesday's high was only 68, but skies cleared behind the cold fron and the high predicted for Wednesday was about 72. No rain was reported with the cold front in the area.

Tigers Meet Stanton In Final Home Grid Battle

Slaton's Tiger will be out to claim a historic victory Friday night when the Stanton Buffaloes come to Tiger Field for a District 4-AA contest.

When kickoff time comes at 8 p.m., Slaton will be seeking victory No. 6 of the season, and the Tigers have not won six games since 1949 when Slaton met Littlefield in a zone playoff for the district title. Littlefield won and Slaton wound up with a 6-4 season.

Since that time, the Tigers have posted several break-even seasons at 5-5, but no "winning" seasons.

Coach Ernie Davis reported Wednesday the squad was in good physical condition for the game. Halfback Doyle Ethridge got a bruised leg from the Frenship game, but he is expected to be ready for action.

The probable starting lineup will be about the same. Guard Brice Hill will probably draw the starting offensive assignment, dividing time with Buddy Pettigrew who is a starter as linebacker on defense.

End Brent Lamb is scheduled to see action, subbing for Larry Allison on offense. Allison is the other linebacker on defense, and he may be tested as an offensive halfback.

Tiger coaches report that Stanton has been improving each game and that Slaton will have to play a good game to beat the Buffs. Stanton whipped Frenship by 37-0, while the Tigers won by 35-0 over the same team last week. Stanton lost to Denver City by 54-0 after trailing only 8-0 at halftime.

Stanton's offense is led by quarterback David Jones and big 197 - pound fullback Bert Decker. Soph back Alan Gregston provides the speed.

The Tigers rely on a well-balanced offensive attack guided by quarterback Jimmy Williams and featuring the running of fullback Richard Washington. The junior fullback is the top Class AA scorer in the area with 86 points this season.

The game will be the final home contest of the season. The Tigers wind up grid play in 4-AA next week at Midland, since Slaton moves into District 3-AAA next year.

Tiger JV Plays LCC High Here

Slaton's junior varsity Tigers will host the Lubbock Christian High varsity at Tiger Stadium tonight (Thursday) with the kickoff set for 7:30.

The Tiger JV was originally scheduled to play at Post, but the Antelope B team cancelled out. The Slaton freshman team will play at Post this evening.

The Tiger junior varsity is undefeated in four games this season. LCC High is playing its first season of varsity football. The visitors were originally scheduled to play the Post varsity, but that game was cancelled.

City, School Officials Meet

Slaton City Commission and Slaton School Board held a joint session Tuesday night in the Municipal Building to discuss the possibilities of a tax revaluation program.

The two governing bodies interviewed representatives from four tax appraisal firms.

Mayor Jonas Cain reported that no agreement has been made as yet between the City of Slaton and the school district to enter into such a joint project.

However, both of the local governmental units have been considering a revaluation program, and a joint project could effect considerable savings for both groups.

School Chief Discusses Coming Unitized Plan

A discussion on the Slaton School District's recent announcement that a unitized school plan will be in effect next year was conducted by Dr. Lee Vardy, school superintendent, at the Rotary Club meeting here last Thursday.

Dr. Vardy pointed out, as did news report at the time, that the school board wanted to keep the neighborhood pattern of elementary schools, but that a U. S. Office of Education ruling delivered by a trio of visiting officials made this impossible.

In view of the Federal rules, the board felt its only course was to announce a plan of assigning students to various buildings by grade levels. Tentative plan calls for the first three grades at West Ward, 4th and 5th at Stephen F. Austin, 6th through 8th at junior high, and the other four grades in high school.

Under Slaton's present zone system, Federal officials said there was a "racial imbalance" and still a trace of a dual school system.

Quoting from an Oct. 23 issue of "U. S. News & World Report", Dr. Vardy pointed out that the Supreme court has put southern school districts on notice that "there is no more recourse through the courts to delay segregation."

The same article states, without further comment, that "The Supreme Court has never considered a case calling on Northern cities to correct racial imbalance in their schools."

He noted the national magazine also made this interesting comparison:

"The Court let stand an order of the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit directing Southern States to desegregate public schools this year from kindergarten to high school.

"On the same day, the Court declined to review a ruling of the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit that held Cincinnati school officials had no constitutional obligation to end de facto segregation resulting from the neighborhood pattern of the schools."

The superintendent held a question and answer period at the end of his talk at Rotary Club last week. Rotarians asked a number of questions concerning the operation of the schools. Howard Swanner served as program chairman for the day.

High Quality Seen For Early Cotton

Early harvested cotton on the South Plains has been of high quality, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the USDA.

Most of the cotton harvested this season has been long staple varieties and grades have been predominantly Middling and staple has averaged nearly 1-1/8". Micronaire also has been excellent with over 90 per cent having a micronaire reading of 3.5 and better.

Middling cotton made up 55 per cent of all cotton classed at the Lubbock Classing Office during the week ending Friday. Strict Low Middling made up 19 per cent, Middling Light Spotted 11 per cent and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 8 per cent.

Staple length reflected the fine quality of the early harvested bales. Eighty per cent of all cotton classed at Lubbock last week stapled 1-1/16" and longer.

This year's harvest continued ahead of the pace of the 1966 harvest. Through Friday, October 20th, 9,000 bales had been classed at the USDA Lubbock Classing Office. At this date last year only 3,500 bales of the 1966 crop has been classed.

The seasonal classing offices at Brownfield and Lamesa will

Absentee Box Opens...Late

Absentee voting for the Nov. 11 proposed Texas Constitutional Amendments has started in Slaton at Kertan Studio.

Slaton almost lost its absentee box, but it was opened at noon Tuesday following a citizen complaint. Absentee voting actually started Monday at the county seat.

Bo Becker of Slaton told The Slatonite Tuesday that he complained to County Judge Rod Shaw when he heard the box was not scheduled to be open here. Becker said the box was omitted here because only five votes were cast in the recent hospital district election.

Four absentee votes had been cast here Wednesday morning. The box at Kertan Studio is open from 8:30 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 5 p.m.

Tunnells Open 'Unique Gifts'

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tunnell, Slaton residents since 1919, are opening a gift shop in their home this week and extend invitations to their friends and the people of this area to visit their shop which has been named "Unique Gifts". It is located at 105 N. 5th St.

Mrs. Tunnell started china painting in 1955 and was working with oil paints before then. She has been teaching china painting since 1957 and still holds classes in Lubbock and in her home.

Since Mr. Tunnell's recent retirement from Santa Fe Railway, they have enjoyed working together "to make gifts people like". Everything in their shop is handmade by them.

When Mr. Tunnell went to work for Santa Fe he had dreams of earning enough money to attend art school, and now 46 years later, he is in an art class. He makes beautiful wood items, such as frames and compotes.

A cake is likely to fall if too much sugar or fat or baking powder or liquid is used. Undermixing or insufficient baking, too low an oven temperature or moving a cake during baking before it has "set" also may cause a cake to fall and be soggy.

begin receiving cotton samples for classification on Monday, October 23rd, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of Lubbock's USDA Cotton Classing Office.

The Brownfield office classifies cotton ginned in Terry, Gaines and Yoakum Counties.

The Lamesa office classifies cotton ginned in Dawson County and a part of the cotton ginned in Borden, Howard, Martin and Lynn Counties.

Prices offered for these early bales indicate a strong demand for South Plains cotton. Prices, as reported to the Consumer and Marketing Service of the USDA, ranged from $1.00 per bale over the loan for high grade, short staple cotton up to $65.00 per bale over the loan for 1-3/32" and longer cotton.

Prices paid farmers for cottonseed ranged from $50 to $57 per ton.

CITY---

presented a report from the Zoning Board of Adjustmen. on the consideration of a case involving a trailer house being moved into a backyard on S. 20th street.

J. L. Reed had appealed the case to the city commission previously, after being notified the house was in violation of a city ordinance if it was rented. The Board of Adjustment sent the case back to the commission without a recommendation, stating that the board should have been presented the matter before the trailer house was moved onto the lot and enclosed by a fence.

The board did add, however, that the city might consider paying Reed's expenses if the trailer had to be moved. Commissioner Hugo Mosser pointed out that the trailer did not have to be moved unless it violated the ordinance. Trailer Houses can be placed in backyards for servant quarters or non-commercial purposes, he pointed out.

After a short discussion, the commission agreed unanimously that the ordinance would be enforced -- that a trailer house could not be moved into a backyard for rent purposes.

Approved as new personnel in the police department were Dave Sparks, patrolman, and Pat Farmer, dispatcher.

Elza Smith Plumbing was awarded contract on a water cooler for the police department on a low bid of $215. Four bids were received with amounts ranging from the low to a high of $269 on coolers from 5 - gallon to 14-gallon capacity. Bid was on a 5-gallon cooler.

Mayor Cain reported the State Highway Department will probably begin work on the paving and widening of S. 9th St. around the first of the month.

Commissioners Rudy Dominguez and Henry Bollinger were absent from the regular meeting.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Pedestrian Territory

Pedalling his bicycle along the sidewalk, a delivery boy collided with a woman shopper as she emerged from a market. Painfully injured, the woman filed a damage suit against the boy's employer.

But in court, the company denied liability.

"It is true that our boy didn't see her," acknowledged the company. "But it is equally true that she didn't see him. Neither one was watching, so it is a standoff."

However, the court ordered the company to pay the woman's claim. The judge reasoned that, since sidewalks are "pedestrian territory," the bicycle rider had a greater duty than the woman to keep a lookout.

As a rule, the pedestrian on a sidewalk enjoys a privileged status. He is entitled to protection not only against the wayward bicyclist but also against the intruding motorist.

Consider this case:

A motorist, backing down his driveway, kept his head out the window. But he looked straight behind him, not to either side. Nor did he sound his horn. Sure enough, his car struck an elderly pedestrian, approaching unseen on the sidewalk.

Result: the motorist was held liable for the accident.

"In the use of a public sidewalk," said the court, "a pedestrian has a superior right of way over an automobile."

In fact, the pedestrian is protected even against other pedestrians who disregard sidewalk etiquette. Thus, a man won damages after being bowled over by a youth scampering along the sidewalk without looking. The judge commented:

"Human legs, like an automobile, when used carelessly may be dangerous."

On the other hand, a pedestrian's own negligence—that is, something worse than just a moment's inattention—may count against him in court.

In one case, a woman sued the city after tripping over a slight break in the sidewalk. But it turned out that she had been walking with her gaze firmly fixed on a parade passing in the street. Holding her negligent, the court said:

"Ordinary care required the plaintiff to take some note of her own surroundings."

Junior Hi Grid Teams Defeated At Post Tuesday

Slaton's junior high teams lost a pair of games at Post Tuesday evening as the Post teams gained revenge for a tie and loss in Slaton earlier in the season.

Slaton's 8th graders lost a close 16-15 decision after leading most of the game, and the 7th graders were shutout by an 18-0 count.

The locals play Frenship teams here next Tuesday in the final games of the season. First game is set for 5:30 p.m. The 8th graders are 4-2-1 for the season, and the 7th graders have a 3-3-1 mark.

At Post Tuesday, the 8th grade Tigers built up a 15-0 lead after three quarters, only to have Post rally for two touchdowns and a pair of two-point conversions to win the game by 16-15.

Freddie Valadez returned a punt about 50 yards in the first half, and he added the two points for an 8-0 lead. Randy Davis broke on a 60-yard touchdown run in the third period, and Jackie Ford kicked the point for what appeared to be a comfortable 15-0 lead.

Post grabbed the one-point lead with about 2 minutes left, and Slaton broke Davis on another long run to the 15 where a fumble ended the scoring threat.

Both of Slaton's squads were trimmed by six-weeks report cards. The 7th graders, already with a short squad, are left with 15 players.

Slaton's 7th graders put up a valiant effort against the home team, trailing by 6-0 at halftime after Post got a Slaton fumble on the 35 and scored on a 15-yard run several plays later.

Post broke for two long runs in the final two periods. Slaton had one scoring threat after Steve Nieman broke on a long run and was caught from behind at the Post 20. A fumble ended that drive, however. Jerry Hopper was a defensive standout recovering two fumbles.

POLICE BEAT

BY WALTER HEAD
Slaton Police Chief

Offenses (crimes) come to the attention of your Police Department in a number of ways.

The telephone brings most of them to our attention. Also, a citizen may walk into the office and report that a theft or other crime has occurred, or an officer on duty sees, or suspects, a crime.

Each crime reported, regardless of how reported, falls within a classification on the basis of the facts developed by our investigation.

An example is: Vandalism -- consists of the willful or malicious destruction, injury, disfigurement or defacement of any public or private property, real or personal, without consent of the owner or person having control or custody. This offense covers a wide range of malicious behavior directed at property.

Injuring personal property is a very serious offense. When the value of the property destroyed or the extent of the injury inflicted is of the value of $50 or more, the punishment is confinement in the penitentiary not less than 2 nor more than 20 years.

When the value of the property destroyed or the extent of the injury inflicted is under $50, the punishment is a fine not exceeding $1,000 or confinement in the county jail for not more than one year, or both fine and imprisonment.

Let us remember how Halloween should be observed -- merry-making and the playing of pranks by children during the evening, not by malicious destruction to personal property.

Leaflet For Deer Hunters

With the deer hunting season just around the corner, hunters may be interested in a visit with the local county agent for a copy of Extension Leaflet L-634, "Field Dressing a Deer."

Since quality venison depends primarily on how the deer is handled from the time of the kill until it is placed in the freezer, field dressing is important, points out associate county agent Jerry DeBord.

The leaflet outlines one method of field dressing and skinning a deer. However, explains DeBord, any method which results in a clean wellbled deer is satisfactory. Unpleasant experiences with venison usually result from lack of care before the meat reaches the kitchen, he adds.

• Fire struck approximately 2,400,000 times in the U. S. last year, the National Fire Protection Association reports. This tragic toll is compounded by the fact that most of these fires could have been avoided.

Slaton PP&K Winner Goes To Dallas

A Wilson boy won first place in the 9-year-old division of the Zone 1 Pass, Punt & Kick contest in Lubbock Saturday, marking the first time a Slaton winner has advanced beyond the zone level.

He is Calvin Leach, son of Rev. and Mrs. Wendell Leach of Wilson. Leach is pastor of the Wilson Methodist Church. The nine-year-old was presented a trophy in Lubbock.

First place winners of the Slaton contest competed with about 17 entries in each age division. Other Slaton entries placing in the zone contest were Phil Bruedigam, who won second in the eight-year-old division and Brad Lamb who placed second in the 13-year-old division. Phil is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bruedigam and Brad is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lamb.

Steve Smith, local director for Smith-Ford, Inc., will be in Dallas with Calvin Leach Saturday when he will compete in the district competition with other zone winners from Texas and Oklahoma at Samuell Grand Park.

The PP & K contests were originated in 1961 and this is the first year Smith-Ford, Inc. has had the opportunity to take a boy to the contest in Dallas.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By VERN SANFORD

Most hunted game bird in Texas is the mourning dove.

It also is one of the most trying of all winged targets. And that probably is the reason it ranks so high with sportsmen.

When you go dove hunting, you don't just take along one box of shells. Most hunters take two boxes and sometimes more.

A few expert shotgun artists can grass a dove with almost every shot. But let's face it—only a minute percentage of hunters are expert marksmen.

The mourning dove is a small bird. It can't take a lot of punishment, and it's easy to kill. That is, if you can hit it. And hitting this bird is the real challenge in dove hunting.

To begin with, the dove flies very fast. Furthermore, its flight pattern is deceiving.

For example, most birds will tower for altitude when shot at . . . but not the mourning dove. It makes a shallow dive to pick up speed. This shallow dive confuses tyro gunners into believing they have a hit bird. Thus they don't follow up with a second shot.

The doves small size makes range estimation difficult. With field loads in a 12-gauge gun you can kill doves at 40 to 45 yards. But at that distance the bird looks mighty small. Some hunters pass up these shots because they think the bird is out of range.

Too many hunters wait until the bird is just 20 or 25 yards out. At this distance, if they're shooting a full choke gun, they must have the bird right in the pattern. Actually, at this short range, the pattern of a full choke gun doesn't open up enough.

So, quite often they'll shoot in front of or behind the bird.

A modified choke is best for this range. Open bore is even better. But an open bore gun is useless on long range shots.

Some hunters even wait to make their shots at 10 or 15 yards.

Unless it's a straight-in shot, they'll usually miss at this close distance because of the difficulty in swinging the gun on a target crossing at 50 or 60 miles per hour. And when they do hit on these short shots, they literally blow the birds to bits.

Doves are plentiful throughout Texas. Often you can get some choice shooting just outside the city limits.

There are several ways to hunt doves. In dry years the best hunting usually is around a pond or farm tank. Take a stand and pop the birds as they sail in for water. You don't even need a blind. Just squat down in the grass and keep still.

Good hunting is found in corn and rice fields to. Note where the birds are coming to feed and take a station accordingly.

Dove hunting can get tough in a wet year. Then the birds don't have to use ponds and farm tanks for water.

Wet-year hunting calls for jump shooting. Crisscross a field and take your shots as you jump the birds out of the grass.

It's a lot like quail shooting, except that doves will the air when you get or 40 yards of the have a lot of long it only adds to the

Former Resident Dies In Lubbock

Mrs. Ida Mae Banks, 79, of Lubbock died at University Hospital Saturday morning. She had lived in Lubbock since 1933 when she moved there from Slaton. She lived here from 1924 to 1933.

She was a member of the First Nazarene Church, Order of the Eastern Star, Loyalty Club and the Golden Age Club.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Monday in the First Nazarene Church with the Rev. J. R. Bell, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Resthaven Memorial Park under direction of Resthaven Funeral Home.

Survivors include her husband, I. E. Banks; one son, three daughters, including Mrs. Julia Mae Burton, now of Lubbock but a former Slaton resident; one brother, two sisters, nine grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Her grandsons served as pallbearers.

Federated Church Women To Meet Monday

The Federated Church Women of Slaton will meet Monday, Oct. 30, at 3 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

The program entitled "Let's Travel With Paul" will be given by Mrs. Earl Reasoner.

All ladies are invited to attend.

'The Restless Ones' Coming to Slaton

"The Restless Ones", considered the most successful motion picture yet produced by Evangelist Billy Graham, will be shown in Slaton on Nov. 8-9-10 in the Slaton High School Auditorium.

A local volunteer steering committee has been organized to handle the Slaton showing, with two performances each evening at 6:30 and 8:45 p.m.

Bill Smith, auto dealer, is chairman of the steering committee which also includes the Rev. Lowell Richardson, church director; Carroll McDonald, civic club director; Dr. Lee Vardy, student groups director; Robert H. Davis, counselling; Dee Bowman and Speedy Nieman, publicity; Harley Castleberry, ticket sales; Mrs. Neva Burns, prayer chairman; Larry Branscum, arrangements.

With the accent on youth, this feature - length film deals imaginatively and dramatically with the teen-age crisis. With a background setting provided by the 1963 Billy Graham Los Angeles Crusade, and artfully woven into the story pattern, "THE RESTLESS ONES" is a hard-hitting, bold approach to our social problems.

Here is a film which dares to be different, a story which will stir the heart and mind.

As one reviewer said, "Here is a picture that tells the world the truth and comes up with an answer, not an easy answer, but an answer from beyond us." This answer will satisfy, challenge and inspire young and old alike and will appeal to churchgoers and non - Church - goers. The Christian message comes through in the midst of a realistic teen-age situation, cleanly and without cloying. Swift - moving plot episodes highlight the opportunities facing the church.

Screen writer James Collier has skillfully brought into focus the contemporary plight of both teen-agers and parents. A sensitive script, produced by World Wide Pictures under the direction of Dick Ross, has resulted in a "break - through" in "THE RESTLESS ONES."

Former Resident Dies Monday

J. M. Porterfield, about 80, died Monday in Atlanta, Tex., where he had lived for the past 18 years.

A former resident of Slaton, Porterfield was employed with the Santa Fe Railroad in the water service department. He and his family moved to Atlanta in 1949 following his retirement.

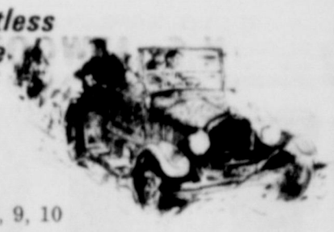

Funeral services were read Wednesday in the First Baptist Church at Bloomberg, and burial was in a cemetery there.

Survivors include his wife and one son, Jack Porterfield, of Clovis, N.M.

the Restless Ones are everywhere; in your city, in your schools, on your block, perhaps in your home. They are the future. Where have they been? Where are they going? See their action. Hear their cries. Sense their need.

From the opening scene of destruction to the surprising climax, there is a surging, pulsating crescendo of excitement and drama in The Restless Ones. This newest film release of World Wide Pictures is a searching portrayal of today's teenagers, set to the heartbeat of their trials and triumphs.

The Restless Ones are coming!

Government

"Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers."

The Christian ideal is embodied in these words St. Paul spoke to the Christians of his day on the subject of Roman government.

Government may not always be right and just. Yet revolution and bloodshed are not the Christian way.

In the final analysis, the determining factor in any form of government is the attitude of the average citizen. In a democracy such as we have in the United States, each individual has the privilege — and the right — to vote his convictions, to do his part to support and to elect responsible officials at all levels of government.

There's more to Wide-Tracking in a '68 Pontiac than meets the eye.

Wide-Tracking is performance.

Wide-Tracking is one of the great American sports.

Driving a new LeMans may be even more satisfying than looking at one. The standard engine is an Overhead Cam that delivers 175 hp from regular gas. You can order a 215-hp high-compression version. The Kiwi

National laws protect New Zealand's flightless Kiwi, a short-winged, long beaked bird which faced extinction until protected by the government. The bird, unique to that South Pacific country, is featured on New Zealand's national seal. The shrill "kee-wee" call of the male bird gives it its name.

Production

To assure survival of the species, the common North American toad can lay 28,000 eggs in a 10-hour period.

Slaton Scores 5th Victory, Blanks Frenship, 35-0

With high - scoring Richard Washington sparking the offensive attack and the Tiger defense recording its fourth shutout of the season, Slaton rolled to a 35-0 victory over winless Frenship at Wolfforth Friday night.

Penalities, a fumble and a stubborn Frenship Tiger team held Slaton to only a 7-0 lead at halftime, but they roared back to tally the first three times they got the ball in the second half.

Washington broke on a 58-yard scoring jaunt in the first period, and added scoring runs of 4 and 3 yards in the second half. Dale Harris plunged a yard for one, and quarterback Jimmy Williams also plunged a yard for a score. Truett Johnson kicked two points; Buddy Pettigrew kicked one, and Williams passed to Washington for a 2-pointer.

Guard Bobby Ball set up one Slaton score by recovering a fumble on the Frenship 3. Ball also claimed another fumble, and linebacker Buddy Pettigrew covered one in the Tiger end zone to kill a Frenship scoring threat. Larry Allison, Truett Johnson, Claude Stricklin and Harris were also defensive standouts.

Washington has his best night in the rushing department, racking up 181 yards on 21 carries. Harris was next with 43 steps on 8 attempts. Doyle Ethridge hauled in two passes for 40 yards to add to his team-leading total.

The Tiger defense allowed only 9 first downs to Frenship --including one on a penalty and two on passes.

Slaton kicked off to Frenship and forced a punt after three plays. The Tigers started moving and drove to the Frenship 22 before a 15-yard penalty stalled the march. The hometown Tigers took over on the 28.

Frenship had to punt again, but Washington was hit and fumbled on the second play to hand the ball back on the Frenship 48. Frenship still couldn't move and punted out on the Slaton 26.

Washington and Hall carried for a first down, then Washington knifed off the left side, cut to the sidelines and raced 58 yards for the first touchdown. Johnson kicked it thru the posts for a 7-0 lead with only 24 seconds left in the opening period.

Frenship finally marked up a first down, then gambled and lost on 4th down at their own 44. Slaton was stalled by two motion penalities, however and Ethridge's punt traveled only 9 yards.

Frenship then put on its best drive of the night, making four first downs and moving to the Slaton 11 before the Tigers held and took over the ball. Williams hit 2 of 4 passes in an effort to score before the half, but a fifth pass attempt was intercepted by Frenship's Johnny Carrizales on the Frenship 28 and returned all the way to the Slaton 25 as time ran out. Carrizales was the standout offensive performer for Frenship, accounting for most of their rushing yardage.

Hall took the second - half kickoff on his 10 and returned to the 38, where the Tigers got down to business. Slaton moved down the field with Washington, Harris and Ethridge toting the pigskin. Harris climaxed the drive by crashing over from the 1. Johnson's kick made it 14-0 with 7:38 left in the third stanza.

Several plays later, Ball pounced on a Frenship fumble on the Tiger 43, and the Tigers scored in 8 plays. Williams had a key 14-yard run, and Washington chipped in a 25-yard gainer, then Washington sailed around end from 4 yards out for the touchdown.

Slaton drew a 15-yard penalty on the extra - point try, so Williams hit Washington with a pass for two points.

Just as the third period ended, Slaton started another touchdown drive. Key play was a 25-yard pass from Williams to Allison that carried to the 1-yard line. Williams plunged in from there with 9:38 left in the game. Johnson's kick missed, and it was 28-0.

After exchanging possessions, Ethridge punted 36 yards to put Frenship in a hole on its own 7-yard line. On the first play, Ball covered a fumble for Slaton on the 3-yard line. One smash by Washington, and the Tigers had 6 more points.

Pettigrew got in on the scoring, booting the PAT thru the bars for a 35-0 reading with 4:44 left in the game.

Frenship's little Carrizales almost broke on the kickoff, going to the Slaton 38 before being hauled down. Aided by a 15-yard penalty, Frenship moved to a first down on the 15. Facing 4th and 16, Carrizales broke some tackles and made the first downs by inches on the five.

Carrizales then crashed to the 1-yard line, but lost the ball and Pettigrew covered it in the end zone for a touchback. Ethridge hit for 9, then Williams passed to Hall for 34 to move the ball out of danger.

Williams hit Ethridge for 20, but the play was erased on a penalty. With time running out, Frenship intercepted another Williams' pass, but had time for just one play before the final whistle.

ALMOST COMPLETED---Slaton's Claude Stricklin (81) almost hauled in the Williams pass Friday night at Frenship, but one of the defenders deflected just enough to break it up. Slaton rolled to a 35-0 victory over the Frenship in District 4-AA contest. (SLATONITE)

Frosh Beaten By Frenship

Two quick touchdowns in the third quarter by Frenship broke open a close game, and the visiting Tigers went on to score a 24-6 victory over the Slaton Freshmen last Thursday night at Tiger Field.

Slaton scored first in the opening period on a 31-yard run by Alan Fondy, but Frenship tied it up in the second stanza on a 20-yard run. Score at halftime was 6-6.

Frenship broke for a 40-yard run and went ahead by 12-6 in the third period. Moments later, Frenship intercepted a Terry Mosser pass and returned it 30 yards for a score. Frenship drove for another score in the final quarter.

The loss evened the freshman record at 3-3 for the season. One loss was to the Tahoka B-team. The freshmen have two games remaining -- both on the road. They travel to Post this Thursday and go to Floydada the next week.

Tiger JV Rolls Over Levelland

Slaton's scrappy junior varsity rolled to a 36-14 victory over the Levelland B team here last Thursday night, chalking up the 4th win of the season against no defeats.

Don Smith, who scored on runs of 3 and 51 yards, and Edward Cristan led the Tiger rushing attack, while quarterback Hobby Chapple hit one touchdown pass and plunged for a score. Tackle Dennis Meurer pounced on a Levelland fumble in the end zone for the other score.

Slaton, leading only by 16 -14 after three quarters, broke the game open in the final stanza. Fumbles slowed the Tiger attack, while Levelland drives were stopped on four pass interceptions by the Tigers.

Cristan set up Slaton's first scoring drive by intercepting a pass on the Tiger 20 and returning to the Lobo 48. The Tigers drove to the 2, only to give up the ball on downs.

However, on the Lobo's second play, Ronnie Howard separated a Levelland back from the ball, and Meurer covered it in the end zone for six points. Cristan ran for two points.

Slaton fumbled a punt on the Tiger 1-yard line to set up Levelland's first score. It took three plays and the Lobo point-attempt failed to leave Slaton in the lead, 8-6.

The Tigers scored again before the half, with Smith toting the last three yards. Chapple ran for the bonus points and a 16-6 lead at half.

Levelland intercepted a Chapple pass in the third quarter and returned it 35 yards for a score. Two extra points narrowed the margin to 16-14. Slaton took control early in the fourth period, halting a Lobo drive on the 25 with Nicky Farrell and Morris Dixon making key defensive plays.

The Tigers then drove for a score, with Chapple going in from the 1. Later, following a Levelland fumble, Smith broke up the middle and raced 51 yards for the clincher. Randall Partain intercepted a Lobo pass several plays later, but Slaton gave up the ball on a fumble.

Then, Robert Englund swiped another pass, and Slaton drove for its final touchdown in the fading seconds of the game. Chapple hit Partain with a 20-yard scoring pass, then passed to Englund for two points.

The B-team is scheduled to play at Post and Floydada the next two weeks.

Cooper Moves Up

With Slaton moving into Class AAA circles, several other changes were made by the Texas Interscholastic League in area schools.

Wilson was moved out of its familiar territory and will be in District 6-B along with Jayton, Sands, New Home, Roby, and Hermleigh. Amherst, Anton, Meadow, Ropesville, Sundown and Whiteface remain in District 5-B.

Cooper was elevated from Class B to District 5-A with O'Donnell, Plains, Seagraves, Wink, and Coahoma.

Roosevelt remains in District 4-A, while Ralls is scheduled to move up to 3-AA. Southland's 8-man district remains the same.

District 4-AA lost Stanton and Midland Carver, along with Slaton, but picks up Tahoka and Idalou. Slaton's old district will have Denver City, Idalou, Morton, Post, Tahoka and Frenship. Stanton and Carver move to 6-AA.

What Is A High School Coa

What is a high school coach? He is many things to many people. First, he is a man who lives in a pressure cooker.

The pressure comes from trying to compete and win. If he doesn't win, the sideline experts produce the pressure by making it hot for him. If he does win, the pressure builds as more victories are sought.

He is a man who comes trudging home late, in the wee hours, following a long road trip.

Generally a family man, he is a husband and father who sees little of his brood during the season of his sport. They don't like his absence and neither does he. Somehow, though, the family becomes resigned to the fact that dad has a job to do; and, because of it, he won't be around much.

At some juncture in his career, however, he suddenly realizes the wife is getting gray and the kids grown up. Where did all those years go to?

As an athletic coach, the man must be rooted deeply in the fundamentals of the sport he is trying to teach. Beyond that, he must be an amateur psychologist, father, confessor, a diplomat, and often a babysitter.

All coaches are human, but on occasions are expected to be super - human. He must lead an exemplary life off the court or athletic field and always champion the cause of good sportsmanship.

Some coaches thrive on the pressure. Others become old fast because of it. At the high school level the coach is a teacher first and a coach after hours.

Most schools pay an extra stipend for coaching. But a man is not hired just to coach. He must be a qualified teacher first, instructing in math, chemistry or some other academic subject.

He may be a top-notch teacher with a so-so teaching record, but it is the latter he hears most about because his teams are always on display, good or bad.

Some fellow faculty members may hold him in comtempt, but he soon comes to understand this is the price he pays for occasionally having a team good enough to get the headlines or attracting attention of the public.

The coach discovers early that athletic fame is fleeting. Last year's championship doesn't count when a new season rolls around. This, too, must be imparted to his athletes. And how do you go about telling a boy that the trophies of yesterday are already tarnished?

A bleak job? To some extent yes. But there are rewards in coaching. Helping to develop boys is the basic challenge and worthy of the best a man has to offer. While winning the next game is the immediate goal, the real satisfaction for a coach doesn't come until later - when the athletes are out on their own. No Upset Seen For Musta...

BY ROY McQUEEN
Area Sports Reporter

Football seasons--like players, coaches and teams -- develop distinguishing characteristics.

Sports word merchants gleefully tag star players with super names of one form and another. Coaches are branded, too, depending mainly on which side of the ledger the scales favor.

Some teams are powerful, some are talent - laden, others are scrappy while others simply play football like they invented it.

Ah yes, and seasons. 'member back in 1963 when the Longhorns finished as national champions. And the year Donny, that insurance man from Lubbock, led Tech to an 8-2 season--that was a perfect season.

After seven weeks into one season, the former three items have usually become common knowledge in the sports whirl.

By now, some patterns are beginning to develop in regards to seasons. And those seasons remembered most--when the favorite team isn't winning of course--are those years when the big ones are getting knocked off.

Although at least three games remain for most clubs, 1967 will undoubtedly go down as the year of upsets--everywhere except in District 4-AA.

Sporting a 3-0 district mark, the Mustangs' momentum has increased rapidly to such a degree that no one would be surprised to find Coach Don Orr's squad lined up against District 3-AA Olton in the post-season bi-district clash.

While the rest of the football world has seen such league powers are Texas, Notre Dame and Spur bow down, mighty Denver City remains a rare example of an undefeated conference favorite.

The last real challenge awaits the Mustangs this week when spasmodic Midland Carver comes to town. The Hornets, 3-2-1 for the season and 2-1 in loop competition, could find themselves in a healthy position should they accomplish an unlikely upset.

A win by Coach Johnnie Williams' Hornets would throw the district into a three-way tie or put Slaton out front, depending upon the outcome of the Slaton-Stanton skirmish.

It's possible but not probable that the Hornets can rise to the height necessary to pull even with the Mustangs.

Coach Williams, laboring his 18th year at the all-Negro Midland school, will likely have the Hornets in high gear for the tussel which could throw the gate to the 4-AA throne room wide open.

Last weekend, Denver City socked Morton, 42-2, in a tilt that caused little excitement. The Mustangs are now 6-1 for the season and the loss was the sixth of the year for the Indians against one victory. Coach Fred Weaver's crew is 1-2 in district.

96256. Why don't you drop him a line. I am sure he would be very pleased to get it!

Don Altman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Deames Altman of Post, formerly of the community, will be coming home on leave within the next few weeks. He, too, has been overseas serving with Uncle Sam's armed forces. I know that his folks are mighty thankful that he will be home with them for awhile.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mason, Mike and Mikey, over the weekend were Mrs. Norma Ruth Simmons from Houston, sister of Mr. Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Black and son from Hobbs, N.M. Mrs. Black is the daughter of Mrs. Simmons.

TO JAPAN

Mrs. Mariellen McNeely White received her 'Port-call' orders this morning, so she will be leaving for Yokota, Japan on Nov. 6 where she and her husband, A-1st. Class Charles White and their little son will be living for the next 3 years. Yokota is approximately 30 miles from Tokyo. Charles has been serving in Vietna, but he is here on leave now and he will be reporting back on the first of November. Mariellen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey McNeely. Good luck, Mariellen, I hope that you like it over in Japan. I think that would be quite exciting!

TO MARRY

Larry McNeely and his financee, Miss Nola Jones, from Ft. Worth will be visiting Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey McNeely this coming week-end. Larry and Nola are planning a November 24th. wedding. Congratulations and may God's richest blessing be yours.

Debra Crawford and Ann Monk ate supper with Brenda Belk Tuesday night to help her celebrate her birthday. They were served friend chicken with all the trimmings and for dessert, they were served birthday cake and punch. It was Brenda's seventh birthday.

Mrs. M. E. Beck, mother of Mrs. Elmer Belk, has been visiting in the Belk home for a week and then on Saturday, Mr. Beck came and spent the week-end. Their home is in Carlsbad, N.M. On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jolly from Slaton and Ocie Pate from Litdefield visited in the Belk home. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Belk, Jerry and Davy from Levelland, were dinner guests of the Belks. Sounds like the Belk home was the scene of a lot of activity over the week-end.

Mrs. Wes Donahoo spent several days last week visiting with relatives in Lubbock. Her son, Louis Donahoo, broke his foot recently, but is getting along just fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Beno Wilke from Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Limmer from Slaton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker on Sunday.

Mrs. Willie Becker talked with her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Foerster, Saturday. The Foersters recently moved to Monte Vista, Colo.

EAGLES WIN

Well, everyone that went to Dawson last Friday night to the ballgame, witnessed one of the best games of the season, I'm sure. It was quite exciting, from start to finish! All the boys played an excellent game. Seemed like all their plays just clicked just right--well, almost all of them---soooooo they came out the winners, 34-20! This was their second district game and they have won both! I just don't know who was the most excited and happy, the coach, the boys, or the fans?

AT EXECUTIVE MEET

Darrell Wayne Wilke attended a North West Texas Executive Meeting in San Angelo Saturday where the finishing plans were made for the Fall Retreat of the Luther Leaguers which will be held during the Thanksgiving holidays. He spent Friday night with Rev. and Mrs. Eckert in Lamesa.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Winterrowd and children went to Waco recently where they visited with Mrs. Winterrowd's sister who underwent surgery in a hospital there.

Bill Basinger and two of his daughters from Mercedes are here visiting for awhile. Bill is tending to some business and the two girls are visiting friends and relatives. Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Basinger.

Mrs. Harvey Louis Pennell is confined at West Texas Hospital awaiting the arrival of their baby.

Larry and Martha Wilke visited with Joe and Pam Hall on Sunday. I understand that Joe has finished his Highway Patrolman School and will be living in Austin. Good luck in your new job, Joe.

Mrs. Z. K. McKee spent the week-end recently in Lubbock visiting with relatives. She is expecting her niece and nephew from California to be visiting with her this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klaus and Mr. and Mrs. Werner Klaus have just returned from a trip to Sealy where they helped celebrate the 93rd birthday of their uncle, Herman Michaelis of Bay City.

Please give me a call at 996-2423 or 996-2651 and give me your news. I will see you next week, God willing.

Big Wash

The average homemaker with a family of four washes two tons of clothes a year and she walks almost forty miles to hand them on lines and take them down.

SOUTHLAND CHEERLEADERS---Leading the yells and cheers this year for the Southland Eagles are Dayneen Dunn, Karen Melcher, head cheerleader, and Sherri Wilke. Dayneen, a junior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dunn. Karen, a senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Melcher; and Sherri, a sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Wilke. Tech-SMU Clash In Cotton Bowl

LUBBOCK -- Texas Tech and Southern Methodist clash in a Southwest Conference contest as the Red Raiders visit the Cotton Bowl Saturday.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

Southern Methodist, who opened the season with a thrilling 20-17 win over Texas A&M, has lost to Missouri, 21-0; Minnesota, 23-3; Army, 24-6; and Rice 14-10. The Mustangs threw a scare into the high-flying Owls before bowing.

Coach Hayden Fry is expected to use quarterbacks Mike Livingston and Ines Perez in an aerial bombardment of the Red Raiders. SMU still has Jerry Levias, a top back who can break up a tight game.

The Mustangs spoiled homecoming for the Red Raiders last year with a 24-7 victory before 40,354 fans in Jones Stadium.

After a convincing 52-0 win over Iowa State and a superb 19-13 victory over Texas, Texas Tech has been derailed by Mississippi State, 7-3; Texas A&M, 28-24 and Florida State, 28-12.

Coach J. T. King hopes to get the Red Raiders back in the victory column with a strong running attack complemented with improved passing by quarterback John Scovell.

Running backs Mike Leinert, Kenny Baker and Jackie Stewart are expected to give the SMU defense problems. Haunting the Pony runners will be linebackers Ed Mooney and Dennis Lane. The Red Raider offensive line will be led by big Phil Tucker at left guard and center Jerry Turner.

Texas Tech and SMU are tied in a rivalry which opened with a Tech win in Lubbock in 1932 by a score of 6-0. Texas Tech is ahead 4-3 in SWC contests, beginning in 1960, with a 28-7 win at Lubbock.

Southland In 34-20 Victory

The Southland Eagles knocked off a strong Dawson Dragon team at Welch Friday night, 34-20, and return home this week for a Homecoming game against Klondike.

The game with Dawson was a District 2-B (8-man) contest, as will be the game with Klondike. Southland is 2-0 in league action and 5-1 for the season.

Darrell Wilke ran for two touchdowns and passed for another to spark the Southland triumph, while Bill Bevers also tallied two times.

Bevers scored first on an 11-yard run, then Wilke fired a 33-yard touchdown pass to Joe Basinger. Bevers crashed 5 yards for the next touchdown, then Wilke took over with two touchdown plunges.

Bevers ran across two extra points, and Wilke passed to Basinger for two more.

Wilson Title Hopes Dimmed by Anton

Wilson's championship express was slowed last Friday as the Anton Bulldogs pulled a 26-21 upset over the Mustangs.

The Mustangs, a week before, had knocked off the district favorite -- Meadow. Wilson still has to play four district games --including the strong Amherst Bulldogs. Wilson will celebrate Homecoming as the Mustangs host New Home this Friday.

Anton jumped to a 13-0 lead in the first period last Friday at Anton, and the Mustangs could never overtake the fired - up Bulldogs.

Wilson's Johnny Scott crashed 3 yards for a Mustang tally in the second period, and Gary Crews passed to Gary Moore for two points to cut the margin to 8-13.

Anton came right back with another score, however, on a 72-yard run by Donnie Buchanan and a 20-8 lead at halftime.

Scott covered another three yards for a score in the third period, but the kick failed as the margin narrowed again to 20-14.

Both teams tallied in the final stanza, with Anton chalking up one first on a 9-yard effort by Dicky VanHoose.

Scott scored again for Wilson on a 15-yard run and Keith Weid kicked the point to put the score at the final 26-21 reading.

Wilson is 3-1 in district action and has a 4-2 season mark.

When spraying aerosol paints, do not hold the can too close to the surface. This can result in overpainting, as well as dripping and running. Best results are achieved by spraying very thin, wet coats, and allowing drying time between each.

New Deal Tops Eagles, 46-14

Roosevelt's Eagles lost a 46-14 decision to the Lions at New Deal Friday night in a District 4-A grid contest.

The Lions' Joey Sherman marked up three touchdowns in the first half to start the scoring parade. He tallied on runs of 7, 1 and 27 yards. Tommy Haggard returned a pass interception 35 yards as New Deal roared to a 27-0 lead at halftime.

New Deal scored two more in the third before Roosevelt got on the scoreboard. Barry Blankenship scored on a 7-yard run. Leonard Brown tallied on a 7-yard run and Junior Brown added the points after.

Roosevelt will host the Idalou Wildcats this Friday.

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORDS

BY LINDA NORRIS

A most unusual LP is the new Music of the Flower Children featuring Sounds of Our Times . . . Co-produced by George Cates and Jack Pleis, this new boy-girl group debuts with a scintillating package of mod sounds, hitting home with stirring renderings of Up, Up and Away, Society's Child, Come to the Sunshine, Cherish, Don't Sleep in the Subway and Windy to name only some of the ultra-contemporaneous rock-oriented hits . . . It's music all age groups will dig.

In Sex, School and, Like Other Pressures, Andy Parks, 16-year-old son of actor Larry Parks, (remember "The Jolson Story?") makes his Capitol debut, waxing profound with Powerful Drives, Psychedelia, and Hair from a humorous and hard-hitting script by Bud Freeman . . . Also dealt with by young Parks are pill popping, addiction and sundry hangups more applicable to juves and adults . . . An auspicious bow, indeed!

LETTERS to EDITOR

Dear Editor:

It seems to me that people need to be reminded of the law about pulling over to the side of the street and stopping when an emergency siren blows.

For 11 years I have been riding with a volunteer fireman on his way to a fire. This Tuesday at 12:30 noon was the worst I've ever witnessed as far as people ignoring this law and preventing these men from getting to where they were needed.

Mrs. Darrell Eckols

Dear Mrs. Nieman,

I enjoy your column very much and I do hope you don't become too discouraged and quit writing it. It gives such a friendly "touch" to the paper. I look forward to it each week.

I cannot give enough praise to the Slatonite since you people have owned it. Like so many others I have failed to give the proper praise.

So many people miss the Slatonite when it's late in the mail. This is a sign they enjoy it. The community correspondents have such nice columns and I have heard so many nice things said about their area correspondent.

I read the paragraph on flag etiquette and was glad to see the reminder because I notice so few observing the rules. I question my own actions because no one around me seems to even notice the flag. Some people actually say, "What's with you?" We need to honor the flag of our country more than ever.

Sincerely,
(Name withheld by publisher on request)

Editor's Note: (I thank you and the rural correspondents thank you. Maybe this letter was just what we needed to keep up the job we are trying to do.)

To The Slatonite:

I wanted to tell you how much we appreciate your paper. Even Cheryl Annette (our 4 1/2 year old) sits looking at the pictures, pretending she can read. How about that?

Lavon, you are right. I didn't read your column week before last, but when this gal pushing this ink pen has time she reads it and plenty of other things.

Most of all we appreciate all the businesses that support the churches by sponsoring a church directory. God should always come first. At our house He does.

Thanks very much for a very good home town paper. Keep up the good work. Gotta go now before it is time for all the kids to pile out of bed and run them through the breakfast line.

Thanks again,

Mrs. Joe (Gustie) Gaydos

Editor's note: (This letter should be of interest to those fine businesses who make the Slatonite's church directory possible. Most of them were on the directory when we came to Slaton over three years ago and they along with the ones who have been added, certainly deserve some recognition for spending their money for this public service.)

Scouts Camp Near Post Area

Boy Scout Troop 125, which is sponsored by the First Methodist Church, spent the weekend at the U. Lazy S Ranch near Post.

Taking the boys on the overnight campout were Alex Webb, scout master, and Marvin McCain, assistant.

The 13 boys and their leaders bedded down at Sally's Lake, walked two and one half miles and then cooked supper and returned to their campsite by compass.

On Sunday, McCain took the boys on a hike and found three arrow heads. While they hiked, Webb cooked stew and cherry cobbler for the group. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Making the trip were Robert Englund, Tate and Joe Fondy, Gregory Parks, Bruce and Dick Jones, Randy Marshall, Craig Mann, Jack Webb, Curtis McCain, Mark and Clay Nesbitt, a guest, Bobby Breedlove, and the leaders.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

Over the years Internal Revenue Service continues to have problems with pranksters and unscrupulous individuals who pose as either Revenue Officers or Revenue Agents. On occasion these people extort money on the pretense of satisfying unpaid taxes.

Internal Revenue has a simple answer to this problem. Ask the Internal Revenue man for his Commission or identification. If he does not have identification you are not required to discuss anything with him, and you should notify the Internal Revenue Service.

A sidewalk interviewer asked an old timer what he thought of the two candidates for an election.

"When I look at them, Son," he said, "I just thank the Lord that only one of them can get elected."

The five - year - old daughter of a friend was playing in her room with a boy her own age who lives in the same apartment house. My friend overheard him ask, "Do you know how to make love?"

"Oh, sure!" the girl offered brightly. This was followed by several minutes of utter silence, which so unnerved the young mother that she literally lunged into the room to investigate.

There she found her little girl, earnestly printing "LOV" with crayon on a piece of paper, as her challenger watched over her shoulder.
