 of $5,000 and over will share at least to some extent in the additional tax burden resulting from the present emergency.

The excess profits tax feature, it added, have been designed to hit firms "whose profits are higher than they probably would have been in the absence of hostilities and a large military budget." But the report said the committee aimed to prevent the measure from working any hardships.

The Senate bill contains numerous excess profits tax exemptions and exceptions, and is proposed by the House. Many of these are designed to help young and growing corporations, and others which complained that the House version would be unfairly harsh to them.

PHONE BILL

 Tom Rose, in a series of questions to Perry, got the answer to most people's question: what was the 1949 revenue from long distance billings collectable at Pampa. Perry stated the company collected a gross of $258,814 at Pampa during 1949.

Perry, however, explained that his was not all profit and the method of bookkeeping made it next to impossible to determine actually how much of that amount was earned by the Pampa exchange. Most of the complication there arising from the fact that the same lines and equipment used by those long distance calls were also used by calls emanating from other cities, and the cost of going through various connecting points.

The telephone men said, too, that toll and local service were considered as separate operations, each having to stand on its own feet, bearing its part of the overall cost.

King detailed the method of appraising the value of different units used in plant operations including depreciation and deterioration, a highly involved and complicated subject, and declared flatly that the local plant, exclusive of long distance charges, had a present value of not less than $500,000.

Estes, before the group for a very short time prior to adjournment of the meeting, pictured projected costs, or investment, involved with installation of dial, stating extension of the distributing system, poles, wires, cables, etc., would run to $365,000, construction of a new building and equipment, $28,000, routine expenditures, $514,000, and improvements on long distance service, $160,000. This figure, he said, was considered a factor in a rate base. The total, and overall cost, he added, would amount to $2,250,000.

The flood of telephone parlance and figures, cleared up some of the things not fully understandable before. Mayor C. A. Huff told SWB personnel at the close of the meeting, adding, "I've thought much of this has been over our heads."

A meeting of the City Commission with Ed Ernest, division manager of SWB, A. O. Thomas, district manager and George Zwickert, for further negotiations on the company's rate increase application will be held at 2 p. m. today.

Asked the probable nature of his address, Mr. Hoover said it might be proposed to a public address, but he said he was not sure.

No promise, he said, should be made at Brussels to land any more American land forces in Europe until the American people and the Congress have had an opportunity to explore the whole question.

Congress may have surrendered much of the right to make war or peace, but in our form of government, if we are to have any policies before we are committed.

The former Republican President's views on the question of bulwarking western Europe with additional American forces, compounded with those expressed by President Truman.

In designating Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower yesterday as supreme commander of allied forces in Europe, Mr. Truman said that more United States troops would be dispatched there as quickly as possible.

Mr. Hoover's address will be carried over the radio network of the Mutual Broadcasting Co. at 8 p. m. (EST) and rebroadcast by the National Broadcasting Co. at 10:30 p. m.

Famous Foursome At It Again

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Today we find that famous foursome of North, East, South and West playing away. Both sides need 120 and at his second turn to play, North melds joker-joker-king and discards an eight. East discards a black three and South draws and discards without melding.

West draws and holds A-K-K-8-8-7-6-3-2. Not a very pleasing hand when he needs 120 and the other side has already melded. He looks it over carefully and sees one ray of hope. If he freezes the pack he should be able to play safe forever. Of course, he has a partner, but maybe the partner can protect himself. Anyway, West decides that his only chance to avert a severe loss with the hand is to freeze the pack and does so.

West's next draw is a joker and not only does he have his count, but also he sees visions of getting the discard pile himself. He throws the black three and sits back comfortably.

Unfortunately for his plans poor East gives away the pack first and North and South win the game.

In the ensuing discussion it turns out that East held a pair of eights at the time he gave the pack with some other card. West then said, "I thought you would realize that when I froze the pack and followed by throwing an eight that I was showing you a safe discard."

East replied: "Quite the contrary. I felt that the eight was the most dangerous card I could throw. North did not want eights; apparently you did not want eights. Therefore the remaining eights were either still in the pack or nesting in South's hand. Then the discussion took a different tone. East said to West, 'If you had melded joker-ace-ace and three eights I would have been able to get the pack from North. His discards kept hitting me but I never had the count. And, if he had missed me, I would have known that my eights were safe since I would have seen yours face up on the table.'"

At this point West thought it best to change the subject. He said, "Let's cut for the next game." They did, but poor East was still stuck with E.N. as he always has been.

Telephone Aids Fire Department

TELL CITY, Ind. — (P) — A volunteer fire department was organized for the hamlet of St. Mark's, 10 miles north of here, by the Rev. Eugene Weideman, Catholic priest. Farmers in Anderson township chipped in and bought a $10,000 fire truck, 18 of the younger men volunteered as firemen, and the department was ready to go. The first call came after the house had burned down.

"Wasn't much we could do," said the priest. But he then tackled the telephone system and wound up by organizing the St. Mark's Telephone Co., a co-operative with 83 subscribers.

The siren on the firehouse was hooked up to one of the dial numbers, so anybody in the township could dial the number and start the siren wailing.

Bridegroom Slips on Joint Account Slip

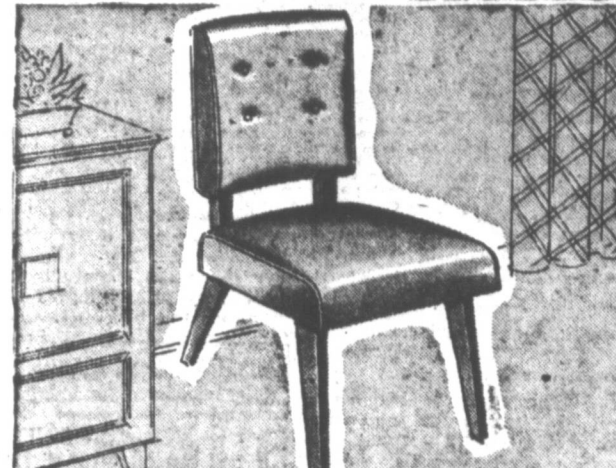

LONG BEACH, Calif. — (P) — "This is the start of our joint bank account," the bridegroom told the teller. The clerk took one look.

"I'm afraid it's a poor start," he said. "You see this is the stub you keep, not the check." The blushing newlywed returned to his home and found the check in his waste basket.

Claunch Takes Scoring Honors With 21 Points

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK (AP) — Horace Gillom is given credit for the most sensational play of last Sunday's Browns - Giants pro football playoff. The 55 yard punt from the dead run after scooping up a bad 4th down pass from center. A couple of others have hit the headlines by performing that running punt feat this season. But one guy, Harry Beck of San Jose State, apparently made it a part of his repertoire. A former rugby player, Beck pulled the trick at least a dozen times and was the only one to think of anything that would have a more demoralizing effect on the opposition. Hamilton Richardson, the New Orleans youngster who has been rated as the nation's No. 1 junior tennis player, also is a high school baseball and basketball star. He plans to enter Tulane.

Just to show the difference between two guys. At Monday's basketball gathering someone (recalling Happy Chandler's unhappy remarks in St. Peter) asked garden maestro Ned Irish what he thought of the recent statement that sports would have to shut down in case of total mobilization. The usually sunny Irish couldn't suppress a grin as he answered: "I don't even know who said that, but in such a case I imagine the proper authorities in Washington will tell us what to do."

Al Weil confides that Kild Gavilan is going to claim the welterweight title "because he says he knows Ray Robinson ready is signed to fight Jake LaMotta." Johnny Wilson, former Anderson (Ind.) College basketball player who performed with the Harlem Globetrotters last season, now is working for Uncle Sam. He gets in a little playing and coaching between drills at Camp Custer, Mich. Brad Rowland of McMurry College has just been named most valuable football player in the Texas Conference for the third time in four years. The guy who beat him out in 1948 was Vitamin T. Smith, now with the Los Angeles Rams. Kansas U. basketballers Clyde Lovellette and Jerry Waugh competed on the "break the bank" program (NBC radio version) during their recent visit here. They were stopped by a baseball question. A Dolphin Rupp must have rung that one in.

Twelve of the 45 Oklahoma U. footballers who'll make the Sugar Bowl trip are students in the business school. Likely they earned passing grades by voting to take the $95,000 bowl money. Paul Wyman, New Hampshire defensive end, recently passed the written examinations as a state board basketball official. Ken Hansen of the Jersey Jolters and Howie Raines of the New York Chiefs in the National Roller Derby League both were minor league baseball players. Now they've found where they can get their hits. Holie Fughita, who has the record at Hialeah, has a record of some sort in training for one outfit for 45 years. If he'd run over to Sunshine Park, he'd know by find some nags who knew him when he was a yearling.

The Harvesters got their "second wind" in the third period at Spearman Tuesday night and annexed their fifth cage victory of the year by knocking off the Spearman Lynx, 48-33.

Pampa roundballers jumped into a 9-0 lead in the first quarter, but Spearman narrowed the margin to 19-16 by halftime. Guard James Claunch meshed 21 points to spark the Green and Gold cagers.

Marvin Bond opened second half with a field goal, but Buck Tucker added a point on Bond's foul, and Jim DeArmond followed with two field goals to knot the game at 21-21 with three minutes gone in the third period.

Claunch's quintet then went to work and scored 19 points in two minutes while holding Coach Garland Head's purple cage crew scoreless. Claunch, Bond, Duane Jeter, and Tommy Smith caused the Lynx, with Claunch hitting two of the five fielders.

Ray Martin, who notched 14 points for Spearman, and Tucker contributed two points to cut the gap to seven points. Claunch, who hit 60 percent of his field goal attempts, dribbled in for a set up and later chipped in a free throw to wind up the third quarter with Pampa on the long end of 34-21 score.

The Harvesters opened the final stanza with a seven-point scoring spree before Spearman chalked up one at the gratis line.

With Pampa's second string taking over, Rudy Cockrell, Elmer Wilson, and Roy Pool made it 46-25 with three minutes left to play. Spearman's Martin and DeArmond netted eight points scoring for the evening. Cockrell hit a two handed jumpshot to make the final score 48-33, Pampa.

Pampa's next cage engagement will be with Lubbock's Westerners at 8 o'clock Friday night in the junior high gym. Lubbock defeated the Harvesters, 41-39, at Lubbock last Saturday night.

NEW YORK (AP) — Brooklyn's fielding feat of the season was achieved by Wally Westrum, the durable sophomore was guilty of only one miscue while working in 139 games, to set a new record. That displaced the old record of .998 set by Earle Grace of the 1932 Pirates. Westrum had 21 assists, participated in 21 double plays, both high among the receivers, and handled 680 total charges.

Ibamen Defeat Golden Bears at Berkeley, 36-35

NEW YORK (AP) — Oklahoma basketball teams invaded the East and West Coasts on only one still sports an unbeaten record today.

The Oklahoma Aggies squeaked past California at Berkeley last night, 36-35, to make it six straight victories. But Holy Cross dropped Oklahoma at Boston, 53-50, in a rematch of the 1947 NCAA final. Cross won in '47 too.

No. 2 Bradley fought off ninth-ranked UCLA, 79-74, for its seventh straight success.

Miami (Ohio) center Dick Wall sank two free throws in the last minute to drop Toledo from the unbeaten list, 53-51. No. 10 ranking Toledo had won eight straight.

Several other unbeaten fives kept on winning: St. Louis (7-0) defeated Wisconsin, 53-48, in overtime; Washington (5-0) of the Pacific Coast Conference solved Pittsburgh, 54-44; Duquesne (6-0) downed Wake Forest, 54-44; the score had been tied 14 times; Boston College (5-0) drubbed Harvard, 76-48; Michigan State (3-0) whipped Marquette, 74-42; Siena (9-0) fought off Lincoln (Pa.) 59-56; Hamline (8-0) defeated Emporia, 70-49; Columbia (5-0) took Tulane 63-51, and Evansville (7-0) downed Xavier (Ohio), 71-69. In an intercollegiate battle, Stanford defeated Baylor, 83-67.

Grid Attendance Off 3.5 Percent

NEW YORK (AP) — College football attendance held up surprisingly well in 1950, dropping off only 3.5 percent a game from the all-time high of last year according to an Associated Press survey. Big league baseball was off 14 percent.

The East and Far West where television takes its deepest bite suffered severe setbacks but a sharp increase in the Southwest held up the over-all average. The Midwest was up slightly and the South dipped about 3 percent, close to the national trend.

Returns from 89 schools, covering 448 home games showed today that the major colleges played to average crowds of 26,678 last fall as compared to 27,651 in 1949. The figures ranged from 36,744 in the Midwest to 25,868 in the Southwest to 19,807 in the East.

The Southwest average was up 11 percent, the Midwest 2 percent and all the others dropped from the South's 3 percent to 10 percent in the East and 12 percent in the Far West.

Poor weather, particularly the late November snow and wind storms, hurt the gate in the Midwest and East, but most schools were inclined to blame television competition.

In the Southwest live telecasts are permitted only when a game is an assured sellout in advance. Many of the Midwest schools, with the exception of Notre Dame, did not televise. Michigan, as usual, led the nation in attendance with 501,522 for six games in the 97,000-seat stadium. But the Wolverines were hurt at the gate, declining from their 563,363 of a year ago—roughly a drop of 10,000 per game.

Ohio State was second in the nation with 368,021 and would have had more except for the blizzard that almost obliterated the Michigan game, Nov. 25. They sold 82,500 seats and only 50,503 showed up.

California had another good year with 385,000 paying to see their unbeaten champs in seven home games. But Stanford and Southern California took terrific lacerations at the gate. Rain ruined Stanford's chances of a sellout for the Army game with only 40,000 on hand.

Culmone Starts Riding Thursday

MIAMI (AP) — Jockey Joe Culmone plans to resume riding at Tropical Park tomorrow but has virtually abandoned hope of breaking a racing record that has stood for 44 years.

Culmone had ridden 370 winners when he was injured in a spill Saturday and was driven to break the record of 385 set by Walter Miller in 1906.

He was released from the hospital Sunday but a specialist said an old ear fungus infection returned, delaying his plans to resume riding.

Officials said it would be too much to expect him to bring home 18 or more winners in the nine days remaining.

Newsom, Cox to Play With San Angelo Rams in Bowl

FREDDIE NEWSOM

SAN ANGELO — (Special) — Former Pampa High School athlete Jimmy Cox, right halfback, and Freddie Newsom, fullback, both Angelo College Rams football team will be in the Junior College post-season Oleander Bowl at Galveston on Jan. 1, 1931.

The San Angelo College Rams' opponent will be Wharton College. The Wharton team came through its 1930 season with the championship of its conference—without a defeat. The team is rated the number one Junior College team of the nation.

Freddie Newsom, number 32, plays fullback and line backer on defense. Freddie is the kick-off artist and is a tough runner with a lot of ability according to the coaches. He carried the ball 22 times for 126 yards and scored a total of 12 points.

Statistics compiled on the Rams' games indicate that "team-play" rather than outstanding individual performances won the Pioneer Conference championship for the Rams.

Friends Say Broken Heart Kills Fighter

FORT WORTH — Dandy Dick Griffin is dead. From the corner's view, it was "heart failure." But, say his friends, he actually died of a broken heart. Griffin was the uncrowned champion of the bantamweights years ago. He was one of the greatest fighters of his time. He suffered blindness after a fight in one eye and destroyed his sight. That caused the other eye to fail.

But he fought on in the interest of boxing. Single-handedly, without funds, he brought back legalized boxing to Texas. He got the law changed through strength of character and persuasiveness, his friends said.

Griffin promoted boxing after he quit the ring. He put on some of the best fight-shows Texas ever saw. But it was the failure of a boxing promotion that caused him to die of a broken heart.

Last summer Griffin tried to put on a show with Joey Maxim, the light-heavyweight champion, as the attraction. It was at the North Side Coliseum here where over 30 years ago, Dandy Dick, the Irish bantamweight, fought some of his greatest ring battles.

Jack Kearns, Griffin's friend since the days when Jack Dempsey was king, had brought in Maxim. Maxim was to meet a former Golden Gloves star. The fans didn't come. Kearns knew the crowd wasn't big enough to pay the rent but he said he'd put his champion in the ring if Dick said the word. But some of the hungry preliminary boys wanted at least part of their money in advance. There wasn't any. The show was called off.

Griffin thought only 52, never was a well man after that night. Griffin made a lot of money in his day as a boxer and a promoter. But he gave it all away. He was the sortest "touch" in town.

It was in 1921 while Griffin was preparing for fight with Johnnie Buff, the champion, in Madison Square Garden that he got resin in an eye. The fight was called off — and his chance at the title was gone. He went completely blind in 1935.

In recent years, annual flood losses in the United States have averaged more than $110 million.

SPORTS AFIELD

BY TED KESTING
Picking tackle to suit the angler, if he's beyond the novice stage, is a pretty tricky matter. If the purchaser isn't an angler, he or she is more than likely to buy something expensive, and pretty, but completely useless to the recipient. With a little ingenuity you can discover what will please him. Here are a few general suggestions from Jason Lucas:

Rods — Strangely, with everything else sky-high now, never before were there such good values in rods — fly, casting or spinning. There are many distinct varieties of rods, even fly rods alone, each technically suited to some certain purpose, or at least to the user's firm belief as to what's suited for that purpose. Just buying somebody a rod would be like buying him a pair of shoes without knowing the size he wears. Find out what he wants.

Reels — In reels, too, never were there such good values. Believe it or not, $5 will now buy a casting reel that will cast much better and more smoothly than the $50 reel of a generation ago. However, there are also some very poor casting reels on the market now. Better stick to the product of a maker known to be reliable. But this same advice goes for all articles of tackle. Tackle making is a highly specialized business calling for accurate technical knowledge of its minute points.

Lines — Find out what sort of casting or spinning line the person uses, and get him a new one like it; he probably won't want to change. Don't give anyone a cheap fly line. The line must be of the right size to fit his rod or it's completely useless.

Other things — Waders? Be sure to get the long enough in the legs, so they'll be baggy and wrinkled as he walks around. Trout creel? Only recently available, so his old one may be pretty much of a wreck. Wading jacket? See that it has plenty of pockets. Tackle box? Lots of nice ones are made now.

Stanford Stops Baylor, 83-67

(By The Associated Press)
Baylor took another drubbing at the hands of a California team last night after holding a half-time lead.

The Stanford Indians scored almost at will in the final minutes to defeat the Bears 83-67 in the San Francisco game. Baylor led 41-35 at the half.

In other games, with Southern Conference teams, Southern Methodist downed Mississippi Southern 73-60 in Dallas, and the University of Houston beat Texas A&M 62-45 in Houston.

Monday night Baylor lost 65-53 to the University of San Francisco. Fred Freeman and Jack Brown combined to pitch in 38 points for SMU against Mississippi Southern. Freeman got 20 of them.

Nick Revon of the visitors was high man with 24 points. Mississippi Southern led 34-29 at the half.

Big Royce Ray led the University of Houston in the win over the Aggies. Ray scored 23 points, nine of them in the opening minutes. The Houston team led 26-21 at the half.

Tonight Baylor tries California at Berkeley, Calif. Rice and Northwestern meet in Houston. Texas Christian plays the University of Chicago in Fort Worth. Arkansas and Mississippi meet at Memphis.

Four Shamrock Gridders Make All-Regional

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Four Shamrock linemen made the All-Regional football team announced in Amarillo last week.

Four groups of 11 men were chosen, 44 men in all, representing the four Class-A conferences in the Panhandle and South Plains areas. There were no first, second, etc., teams.

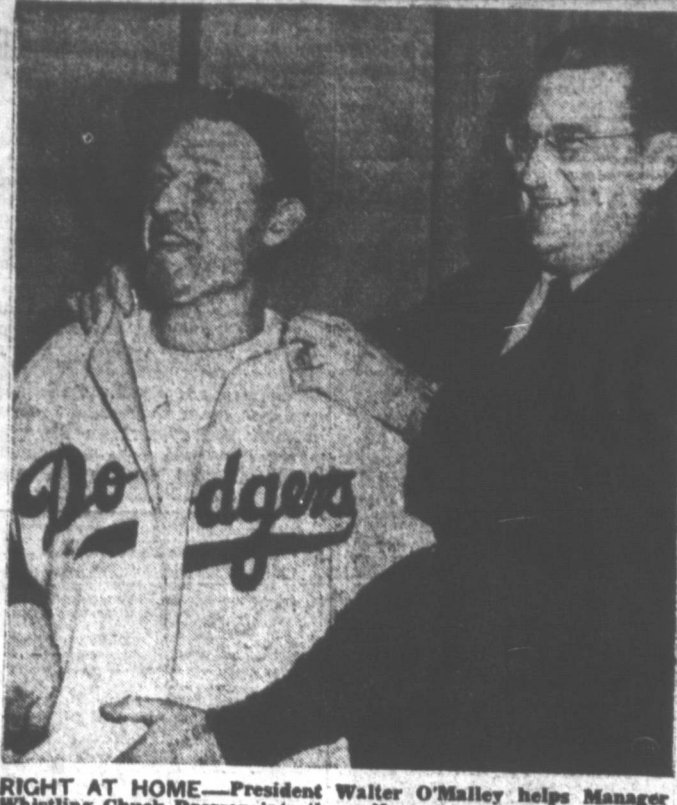

Shamrock winners: Vaughn Terry, senior end and outstanding linebacker; Mack Terry, junior guard; Eugene Collinsworth, junior guard who intercepted two passes for TD's; and Billy York, center, a tower on defense.

Van Pennington, pass-catching sensation and junior end, was given honorable mention at a wing post.

Many Shamrockers were disappointed to find none of the Irish backfield in the sixteen backs on the All-Regional. They felt that Vernon Tarbet, running ace and defensive star, and passing star Haral Dunnam, quarterback, deserved the honor.

L. M. Watson of McLean and Littlefield's Gene Rendon were named co-captains of the mythical crew.

Amarillo Lists Many Names for Head Coach Job

AMARILLO — (AP) — Amarillo High School officials say the job of head football coach at the school is "wide open" and numerous calls have been received inquiring about the position.

The school board announced Monday night that the contract of Howard (Bull) Lynch, head coach for 14 years, would not be renewed.

Possible candidates for the job include Truitt Owens, former Arlington Heights coach at Fort Worth; Chisty Walker, Phillips; Jack Mitchell, Tulsa backfield coach; Tugboat Jones, Midland; Cooper Robbins, Breckenridge; Paul Young, Muskogee, Okla.; Joe Coleman, Odessa; Fats Cranfill, Demson, and Jewell Wallace of Thomas Jefferson, San Antonio.

However, Wallace said last night that he was not applying for the position.

ROUGH GAME

DETROIT — (AP) — End Dick Rittenburg of the Detroit Lions isn't sure that football is so much more rugged a sport than basketball. The Lion wingman completed his first year in pro football without a single injury. They, after the season, he tried his hand at the cage game. Only seconds after the opening jump, Rittenburg was clouted across the eye by a stray elbow and had to retire. It was the worst injury he received all year.

Henry Sees Many Values of Corned Beef Hash for British

By HENRY McLEMORE

My first reaction when I read the news item from London was one of sympathy.

Deep sympathy.

Then, after considerable reflection, my feeling of sympathy turned to envy.

The news item, in case you have missed with me this far, said that Britishers, due to the scarcity and high prices of turkeys and geese, would have corned beef hash as their main Christmas Day dish.

Why am I envious? Well, let us first consider what this means to the British husband.

The corned beef hash, while not as sporting a bird as the turkey, or as plump and prettily plumed as the goose, is a good all-around, all-purpose bird. Its meat provides vitamins A, B, C, D, and according to the Society

The British husband won't need to spend half a day sharpening carving knives. The meat of the corned-beef hash is superbly tender, and can be carved with a spoon.

As for the British wife, the idea of having corned beef hash for Christmas dinner must make her all but leap out of her apron and accept with joy.

No wasteful trussing and sewing. The corned beef hash is as plain as a wash cloth parson's face flannel. The smallest child can ready it for cooking.

No endless basting with the hand fingers and wrists that usually accompany this back-breaking labor.

No borrowing of a toaster from a neighbor. The corned beef hash will fit into almost any pan.

No stuffing to make, with the endless arguments over what kind of stuffing to have. The corned beef hash comes already stuffed. No room inside that practical bird for chestnuts, oysters, sausage, or anything else.

And, when the corned beef hash is served, no fights over the best pieces. The corned beef hash is just as good in one place as it is in any other place. The wing is just as good as the drumstick, and the drumstick is just as good as the back, neck, or breast.

And the corned beef hash saves the housewife from worrying about making the hash the day after Christmas, as she would have to with the turkey.

Corned beef hash is hash, so all she has to do is warm what is left from the carcass and presto! there's corned beef hash again.

On "to be in England, now that corned beef hash is there!" (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Before World War II about 40 percent of U. S. exports went to the British Empire.

Rangoon Reinstates 'All's Well' Watch

RANGOON — (AP) — You don't have to be an insomnia victim to have sleepless nights here. The night watch keeps you awake.

Last year at the height of the Burmese rebellion there was a threat to Rangoon. Citizens banded themselves into ward committees to sound the alarm if the enemy approached. A night watchman was appointed in each street.

His duty was to strike the hour of the night on an iron pipe serving as a gong. The rebels have retreated, but the night watch has remained. Consequently all is quiet in Rangoon except at hour intervals. Then the night watch clumps his "gong", clears his throat and assures the populace "all well".

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

The Spirit of Christmas Yet to Come led Scrooge to a dismal graveyard. Upon the stone of a neglected grave, he read his own name—EBENEZER SCROOGE.

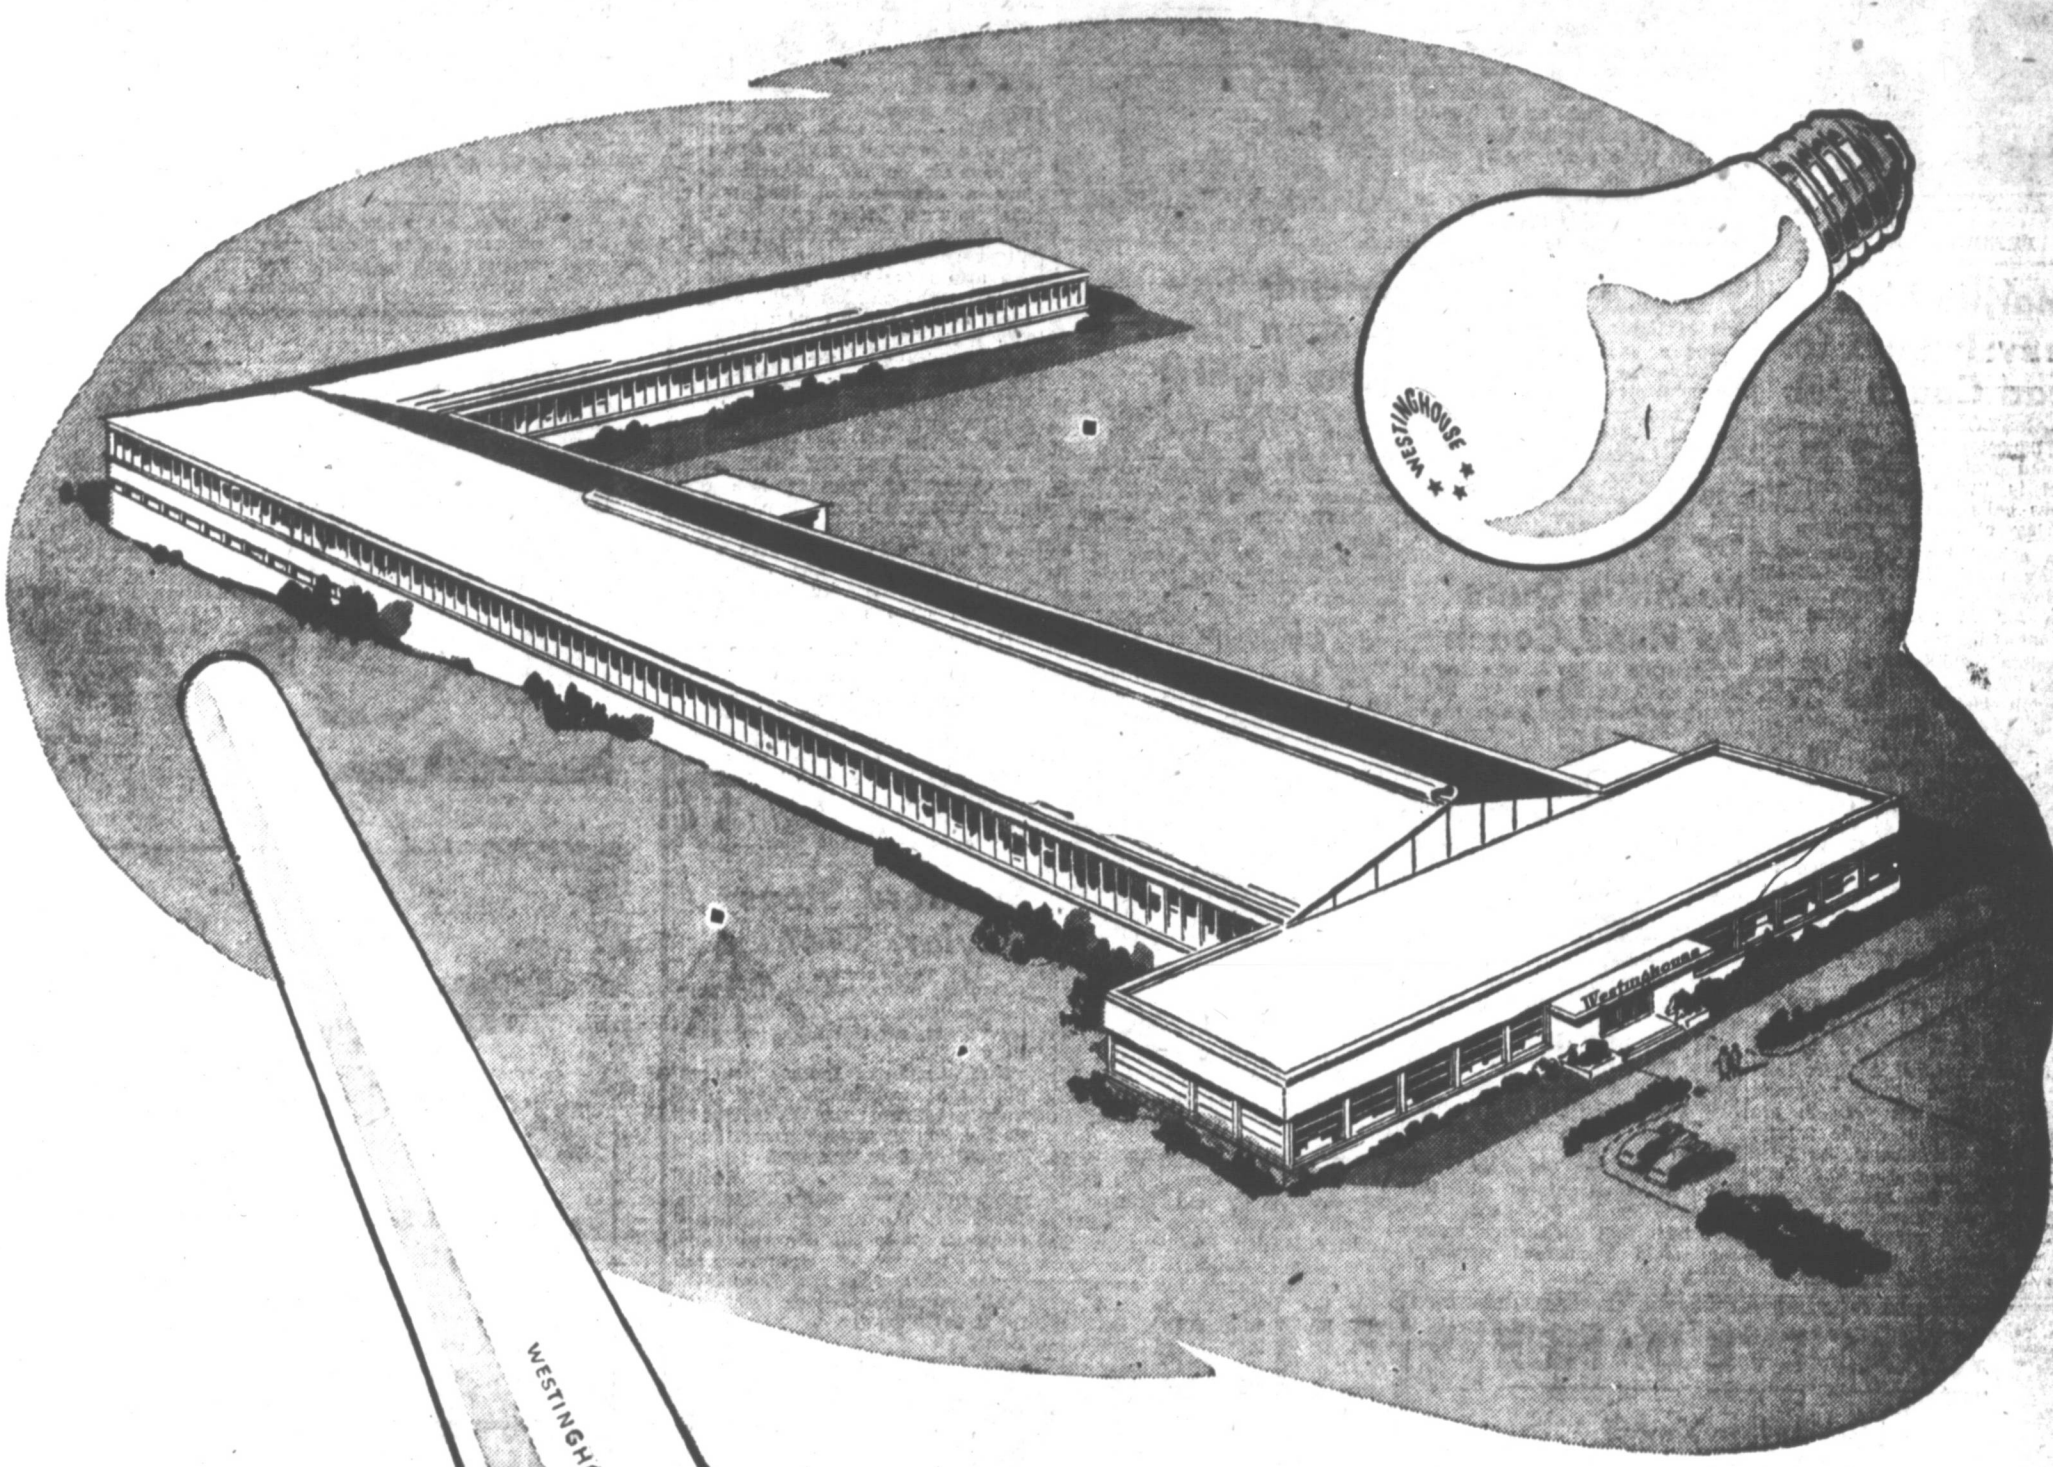

Scrooge asked the Spirit if he could change these prophecies by leading an altered life. The Spirit nodded. Then Scrooge made a mighty vow: "I will honor Christmas in my heart and try to keep it all the year," he swore.

Still praying for another chance, Scrooge found himself in his own bed. The Spirit of Christmas Yet to Come had disappeared.

Westinghouse

LAMP DIVISION

COMES TO TEXAS

The Westinghouse Lamp Division is pleased and proud to come to Texas.

Westinghouse Electric Corporation will build a Lamp Division Plant in Paris, Texas, 100 miles N. E. of Dallas. It will be the first Westinghouse plant in Texas to make consumer goods.

Early in 1951, the Westinghouse Lamp Division (which makes light bulbs in 10,000 different types and sizes) will begin construction of the new 75,000 square foot, L-shaped factory. The plant will employ between 400 and 500 people, nearly all of them from Paris and nearby areas, where live the kind of people we like to have working for Westinghouse.

The lamp factory, on a 19½ acre site, will be the ninth Westinghouse lamp plant. The location was chosen because of the availability of electric power and natural gas (which are necessary for plant operation) and, of course, because of a recognition of the unparalleled growth and tremendous importance of the Southwestern market. Moreover, transportation is ideal; the building will lie between the main line of the Texas & Pacific Railroad and U. S. Highway 271.

Already in Texas are Westinghouse Manufacturing and Repair Shops in Houston and Fort Worth; and Sales, Engineering, and Service Departments in Dallas, El Paso, Houston, Beaumont, Amarillo, Corpus Christi, Fort Worth, Lubbock, and San Antonio. All of these serve Texas.

We're happy to be here—Westinghouse Lamp Division, Bloomfield, N. J.

The term "collective bargaining" was first used by Beatrice Webb in 1891.

Mr. Gladstone Meredith, R. No.
1, Box 261, Valley Station, Ky., who works with the Korphege Florists in Louisville, says that while he's not an expert on flowers and plants, he does know that when they get the proper soil, sunshine and minerals they really do blossom out, and that folks are the same way—if one doesn't get the proper Vitamins and Minerals needed one feels miserable a lot of the time.

Here is Mr. Meredith's own statement on how HADACOL helped him:

"Before, I started taking HADA-COL I didn't have a bit of appetite —seems like food didn't appeal to me a bit. Couldn't sleep either—sometimes I'd lay awake for hours before I'd get some rest. I was just as jumpy as I could be. I was really in sorry shape. Then I heard how other folks with the same trouble I had were being helped by HADACOL. I can say that after the first few bottles I could tell a definite improvement.
Now I feel first rate—have a wonderful appetite—get plenty of sleep and am the least bit nervous. I think HADACOL is wonderful—would never do without it myself."

There Are Thousands of folks all over the country whose systems were deficient in Vitamins B-1, B-2, Iron and Niacin and who HADACOL has helped.
HADACOL can help you, too, if you will just give HADACOL a chance—if you suffer from stomach distress, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to upset stomach, vague aches and pains, or a general run-down condition when they are due to such deficiencies, let HADACOL help you as it has helped others, all over the country.

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance. Remember you have nothing to lose. HADACOL will make you feel better after the first few bottles you take, or your money will be refunded. Only $1.25 for trial Size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

Texans In Washington

By TEX HASKLEY

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Texas farmers are learning that they need to know a lot more about electricity than simply flicking a switch.

Reports O. B. Bryan of Stanton, who is in charge of a power use educational program in the rural areas of the state. He has been here for conferences on the subject at Rural Electrification Administration headquarters.

"Sometimes a farmer buys a set of electric appliances in town," says Bryan, "and when he gets home with them he finds they won't work at all on the type of current on his place."

"It may sound a little technical, but put as simply as possible, our rural electric co-ops are single phase designed to operate up to 10 horsepower motors. Most of your city lines are set up to handle up to three-horse motors."

He cited the example of the farmer who bought a feed grinding machine and sorrowfully discovered after he had installed it that it wouldn't operate on his farm. And, Bryan continued, occasionally farmers pick up what they think to be good second and bargains, or buy from a one-too-scrupulous dealer, and find they can't return equipment that they can't use.

"Texas cooperatives are taking the lead in an educational program to reduce these unhappy occurrences to a minimum," Bryan said.

"But that is only part of our program."

Mayor Carrol Shiffer of Texas, here for a meeting of the American Municipal Ass'n., took time out for a tour of the Capitol. His hometown congressman, Wright Patman, took him into the House chamber where workmen are finishing a $3,000,000 remodeling job.

Miss Diana Sander of Abilene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gib Sander, was chosen "Sweetheart of A&M" for the big Texas A&M-Georgia U. Presidential Cup football game sponsored by the American Legion.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

One Good Lead Can Ruin Contract

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

When you make the opening lead, you can see only your own thirteen cards. Later on, when you can also see the dummy, you may follow entirely different principles in selecting a lead. A good player does not confuse the two situations.

West opened the four of spades, and South won with the king. South could count only six top tricks in the major suits, and one possible club. He therefore had to bring in the diamonds in order to make his game contract; and he quite properly went after the diamonds at once. At the second trick, South led the ten of diamonds and let it ride for a finesse to East's queen.

At this point East could defeat the contract by returning clubs; but he had to lead the correct club.

East actually chose to return eight. West would win the diamond continuation and return his remaining club. This would permit East to take his three top clubs, setting the contract.

Measures to Control Fires Discussed at Lefors Meet

LEFORS — Thirty farmers, ranchers, members of the Lefors City Council, and delegates from McLean and Pampa attended a range fire control meeting in the Lefors High School Auditorium, at 7:30 p. m., Monday. Fred Blackwell, city council member, directed the meeting.

Speakers on the agenda included Blackwell; Boyd Meador, McLean fire chief; Ernest Winborne, Pampa fire chief; W. R. Combs, mayor of Lefors; Bill Hease, representing the oil companies; Ralph Thomas, Gray County Agent, and Roy Tibbets, Pampa Daily-News farm editor.

The general discussion centered around a new fire truck which was to have been purchased by Lefors, Tuesday, from Pursley Motor Co., Pampa.

The truck will be used mainly for range fires and for city fires if necessary. Blackwell, in explaining the reasons for buying this new truck, stated that their old 1931 model fire truck could not stand up under the severe strain placed on it when combating range fires. He said the city council had a number of complaints from Lefors citizens against taking the truck out of town and leaving the city unprotected.

After the volunteer fire department burned the rods out of the old truck, it was decided by citizens to buy a new one. The city of Lefors appropriated $900 to start a fund and area landowners and residents have swelled the fund to $1550.

Meador, chief of the McLean Fire Department, stated in connection with the discussion, that his organization started about six months ago to purchase range fire fighting equipment. They bought a two-ton truck and had a 225 gallon tank made to fit the truck. The estimated cost of all their equipment, including truck, tank pump and accessories, will come to about $4,000, Boyd revealed.

Chief Winborne of Pampa explained the use of the booster truck in his department. The Pampa Fire Department spent about 50 hours during the months of March and April of this year, fighting range fires.

Winborne stressed the need of an ample water supply and cautioned fire fighters never to use all their water. He pointed out that to do so might result in serious damage to the truck and injuries to the men should they be trapped by fast moving flames.

Both Winborne and Meador offered the use of their equipment wherever it might be needed.

A short discussion of the organization of a county-wide fire fighting unit was discussed by Tibbets. He quoted most of his information from Joe Burnside, fire fighting expert who spoke in several Panhandle counties last month. Tibbets pointed out that in Lipscomb and Hemphill counties a county organization has been laid out with the county sheriff as general director. The sheriff is assisted by several lieutenants who, in turn, have their right-hand men and fire-fighting teams.

It was pointed out that with some sort of organization and cooperation between county fire departments and ranch teams, the job of controlling fires might be made easier and faster.

Mayor Combs urged area residents, especially those around Lefors, to carry sacks and a bucket in their cars in case of emergency. He pointed out that it might be possible to stop a fire before it got started good, if some sort of fighting equipment were handy.

The mayor suggested that something be done about sightseers who often block roads and highways looking at the fires but offer no assistance in putting it out. Such work, he said, could be done by the Texas Highway Patrol, county sheriff's department or city police.

As an unofficial representative of the oil companies around Lefors, Bill Hease pointed out that water alone will not extinguish an oil or gas fire. He said the use of chemicals was necessary and that such chemicals should be available at all times.

No definite action was taken on organizing the county-wide fire fighting unit, but a meeting will be called sometime soon to make some definite decisions, Blackwell said, in closing the meeting.
