Faubus Holds Firm Against Integration

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today "I will never open the public schools as integrated institutions."

The governor made the comment after releasing a statement at a news conference.

He opened by reading a prepared statement which contained the sentence, "The only question is whether the facilities can be used by the corporation, or not used at all."

Reporters asked him to clarify this and Faubus, speaking with emphasis, said he would never open the public schools on an integrated basis.

Faubus said in his written statement he would assist private organizations—both white and Negro—to set up and operate private, segregated schools.

The Little Rock Private School Corp. is working to collect money, and find buildings and equipment, to establish private high schools for white children.

"I will support and assist the corporation," Faubus said.

Dr. T. J. Raney, president of the corporation, says his plan does not embrace a private school for Negro children.

"The matter of providing educational facilities for the Negro students has been mentioned," Faubus said. "I will assist the corporation or any other in providing education for Negroes as well as whites. However, the corporation will require Negro teachers, facilities and funds for this purpose. It may be that the help of the NAACP (National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People) will be needed, as well as some of the funds being received by Daisy Bates and the money being spent for attorneys' fees."

Mrs. L. C. (Daisy) Bates is president of the Arkansas chapter of the NAACP.

Commenting on next Monday's hearing in St. Louis by the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals on the Little Rock case, Faubus said: "It appears that the only question to be passed upon is whether or not the court will allow the private school corporation to exercise its legally acquired right to use the leased school properties."

Federal judges Monday issued a temporary order restraining anyone from leasing the Little Rock schools. The 8th Circuit Court has been asked to make this an injunction.

The Little Rock controversy settled into a lull while principals await the decision of court action in St. Louis.

Body Found In Car Trunk

AMARILLO (AP)—An Amarillo carpenter, John Wesley Hanson, was arrested today in Roy, N. M., in the slaying of Sam Lantrip, Dallas hoodlum.

A murder warrant was issued for Hanson, and he is being returned to Randall County, where Lantrip's bullet-riddled body was found yesterday stuffed in the trunk of an abandoned car.

Hanson was out on bond on an indictment charging burglary of an Amarillo drug store in which a large amount of narcotics was stolen.

He also was scheduled to go to trial in Clayton, N. M., on a charge of assault with intent to murder in the shooting of Dr. D. C. Daniels.

Daniels suffered a jaw wound.

Lantrip's body was found in the abandoned car near Canyon, about 20 miles south of Amarillo.

Papers in a pocket identified the man as Sam Lantrip, 37, a former Dallas hoodlum who had been living here.

Officers forced a trunk lock on an abandoned car and discovered the body, pierced by three bullets, yesterday.

Sheriff L. S. Johnston of neighboring Randall County advanced the theory of a possible underworld tieup but gave no details.

The car, bearing blood stains on the front seat, was left 10 miles south of Amarillo and about 4 miles off the highway to Canyon, another 10 miles south.

Ed Bagot, retired Amarillo hardware merchant who also has a home at the exclusive Palo Duro Club, spotted the abandoned auto and notified Deputy Sheriff Lem Pounds. It was parked on a road to the club, where a number of wealthy families have cabins.

Pounds ordered the lock broken after towing the car to Canyon. The body lay face down inside the trunk.

Judging from the slain man's "death grip on the lock mechanism," Pounds said he may have been loaded into the truck while still alive.

One bullet struck Lantrip in the back and two others, fired from in front, hit his chest and lower body, an autopsy disclosed.

Johnston theorized from dirt and grass in the clothing that the ex-convict was shot at a distance from the car and dragged to the vehicle. He said it was owned by Lantrip.

Lantrip was under indictment on a narcotics charge in Amarillo and free on bond. Officers said his former wife and daughter were reported to be living in Dallas.

Police records there showed he had been arrested in all parts of the state but had served only one prison term. This was a three-year sentence for burglary and theft starting in 1952.

Dallas detective Capt. Walter Fannin described Lantrip as an accomplished shoplifter, and other officers there said he at one time was identified with dope and prostitution rackets.

The Dallas records showed he had been arrested in San Antonio for burglary, in Port Arthur for robbery by assault and in Amarillo for robbery.

GM Plants Still Idle Despite Agreement

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors and the United Auto Workers reached agreement on a three-year master contract Thursday night, but GM's vast industrial empire remained shut down today by a strike of its 250,000 UAW members.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther hailed the new national agreement as "good for the nation, good for the UAW and good for GM," but he cautioned that GM workers at 126 plants across the country were authorized to remain on strike to back up local demands.

A companywide walkout against GM preceded the new pact by 12 hours. Before that, there had been a rash of wildcat strikes. The old contract ran out four months ago and tensions had mounted in recent weeks under no-contract operations.

A major complaint at local levels has been so-called wage inequities in GM plants—different pay for similarly classified jobs. The national agreement establishes a fund into which the company will pay half a cent hourly for each worker to narrow differences.

Both Reuther and GM Vice President Louis G. Seaton expressed hope the local grievances would be settled quickly so GM could get into full production of 1959 cars and trucks.

Reuther told the GM locals to press for speedy settlement of differences and to return to work as soon as they are settled.

GM, was the last of the automotive Big Three to agree with the UAW on a contract.

However, Chrysler and UAW negotiators meet again today in an effort to reach a contract for some 19,000 salaried employes and skilled tradesmen not covered in Wednesday's agreement.

Ford settled Sept. 17 after a seven-hour strike. Chrysler settled Wednesday without a strike.

GM's settlement followed the pattern of the Ford-Chrysler pacts. The three-year contract, replacing the agreement that ran out May 29, provides GM workers will get between 24 and 30 cents hourly increase over the life of the contract.

GM followed Ford and Chrysler in giving the UAW concessions, including continuation of pay boosts if the cost of living continues to increase, an increase in supplemental unemployment pay and a severance pay plan to take care of workers who lose their jobs when plants are closed or moved.

GM had insisted right up to the time of the strike that it would not give the UAW any concessions above those on which the union agreed with Ford and Chrysler.

But in the settlement, Reuther obtained these additional gains:

1.—An end to the 7½ hour work day for some GM employes. Reuther said both Ford and Chrysler had abolished the short work day in the past two years.

2—Five-cent an hour premium pay for workers scheduled for other than normal Monday-Friday weeks in operations requiring seven-day a week operation, such as boiler firing. The work previously had been done at straight time pay.

3—A GM agreement to study what the UAW had called wage inquities, under which GM plants in the same geographical area paid different wage scales for the same type of work.

Break Is Due In Weather

The Weatherman held some hope today for a break in the rains which have prevailed over Texas most of the week.

The Snyder area got its heaviest fall of the spell yesterday and last night, 0.39 of an inch was recorded on the official gauge by David Strayhorn.

Last night also brought the coldest temperature of the season, with a low reading of 45 degrees. This followed a maximum of 62 degrees Thursday.

Drizzle and light showers fell throughout the area.

The Weather Bureau said Panhandle conditions indicated showers probably would quit the state by Saturday.

Flood waters lingered around Presidio, on the Mexican border in far West Texas, and heavy runoff continued to pour down the usually calm Rio Grande.

Top temperatures in the state Thursday varied from 54 at Lubbock to 75 at Presidio. Readings before dawn today ranged from 41 at Dalhart to 64 at Galveston and Kingsville.

WEATHER

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Thursday, 62 degrees; low, 45 degrees; reading at 7:30 a.m. today, 49 degrees; precipitation, .39.

EAST TEXAS: Considerable cloudiness and cool this afternoon and tonight with few showers in extreme south. Saturday partly cloudy and mild.

SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Considerable cloudiness and cool this afternoon and tonight with a few showers. Saturday partly cloudy and mild.

NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Mostly cloudy this afternoon. Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday. A little warmer.

WEST TEXAS: Considerable cloudiness with no important temperature changes through Saturday.

Campaign Planned Against NAACP

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett has bared plans for an all-out campaign against operations of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. He blamed the organization for the South's racial problems.

An NAACP official promptly charged the planned attack was a spectacular effort by Arkansas politicians to divert attention from their failure to solve the integration dilemma here.

Bennett unveiled a six-point plan for hampering activities of the NAACP and said he has asked congressional delegations of 14 Southern states to join in what he termed a "Southern plan for peace."

Clarence A. Laws, Arkansas field secretary for the NAACP, said the Bennett plan undoubtedly would "shock decent, freedom-loving citizens everywhere."

Laws contended the state's political leaders had selected the NAACP as a "whipping boy" because they were perturbed about recent desegregation rulings of the U.S. Supreme Court.

He declared they wanted to throw up a political smokescreen to cover themselves "for having so miserably misinformed and misled the people of Arkansas in the school controversy."

Bennett's strategy calls for the withdrawal of federal tax deduction privileges for the NAACP, state pressure on the organization's attorneys, economic pressure and criminal prosecution of individuals allied with the NAACP cause.

He called the organization a "tool of the Kremlin."

Laws denied the NAACP had any ties with the Communist party and said the organization had been praised by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Meanwhile, the head of a newly formed private school corporation expressed a hope the city's white high school students could begin studies next week.

White and Negro pupils enrolled at Little Rock's four high schools have been on an enforced holiday since Sept. 15, the scheduled opening day of the fall term. Gov. Orval E. Faubus shut the schools before they opened to forestall integration.

Dr. T. J. Raney, head of the Little Rock Private School Corp., said a recent appeal for financial aid to the organization had brought a flood of donations.

Three Persons Die In Houston Crashes

HOUSTON (AP)—Three persons were killed last night in Houston area traffic collisions.

Two Negro women, Cleo Lawrence, 29, mother of four, and Bonnie Bell, 25, mother of three, were killed when their car collided with a parked vehicle in McNair station, a Negro settlement in Fort Bend County.

Theodore Rhodes, about 40, was killed in a Houston collision. Hansel Hart, 41, driver of the second vehicle, sustained head injuries.

DeGaulle Sets 5-Year Program For Algeria

CONSTANTINE, Algeria (AP) — Premier de Gaulle announced today a five-year program for resolving the stubborn Algerian nationalist rebellion. The program calls for more and better jobs and housing for the local population, land distribution and better educational opportunities.

He told a cheering European and Moslem throng, that last Sunday's constitutional referendum "engages Algeria and France forever."

He thus dashed hopes of Algerian rebels for independence.

"There are only two routes open today — war or fraternity," he said. "Algeria, like everywhere in France, has for its part chosen fraternity."

De Gaulle told a cheering throng of Frenchmen and North Africans at Orleansville Thursday that the overwhelming approval of a new French Fifth Republic in Sunday's constitutional referendum "proved that Algeria wants to remain with France."

Sunday's vote was also taken as an expression of confidence in De Gaulle to settle France's outstanding problems, and the Algerian rebellion is the greatest of these.

De Gaulle's program to settle the nearly four-year-old rebellion includes distribution of 625,000 acres of farm land to Moslem farmers, at least 10 per cent of public jobs to go to Moslems, housing for a million persons and greater educational opportunities for Moslems.

"The future of France and Algeria is linked in fraternity," he said. ". . . France is engaged in Algeria. They will have their destinies together."

The man who probably will become the first president of the Fifth Republic pledged an improvement in Algerian living conditions.

The general, wearing a khaki brigadier general's uniform he wore as the Free French commander in World War II, left his official cortege to mix freely with cheering thousands.

The work of French army propaganda officers was evident among the Arabs and Berbers. North Africans lining the roadside had clean, freshly issued French paper flags. Village head men proudly carried small, block-lettered signs naming their villages.

MIGs Attack Cargo Plane

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Four Chinese Communist MIG17s attacked Nationalist cargo planes over Quemoy today. One transport was heavily damaged and forced to land on a Quemoy beach, the Nationalist Defense Ministry announced. The radio operator and the navigator were wounded.

The attack occurred during an air drop of food and medical supplies to the blockaded Nationalist garrison on the island.

A ministry spokesman did not disclose how many planes were in the air when the attack occurred.

It was the first Communist attack on a Nationalist air drop mission since they began in mid-September. The Nationalists, with American help, have been trying to nullify the Communist artillery blockade.

The number of men aboard the damaged plane was not disclosed.

Department Store Sales Show Gains

DALLAS (AP) — The Federal Reserve bank said today Texas department store sales were up one per cent for the week ending [illegible] from last [illegible].

Dallas sales were down 6 per cent. Other reporting cities showed gains: El Paso 8 per cent, Fort Worth 7, Houston 5 and San Antonio 3.

Gromyko Fails To Rally Arabs In U. N.

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Arab leaders sat tight today despite Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's call for a full-scale General Assembly debate on the Middle East.

In a bitter speech Thursday, Gromyko urged a debate on the "removal of the consequences of British-American aggression" in the Middle East.

He accused Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold of presenting a onesided report on the Middle East and charged that Jordan was trying to obstruct implementation of an Assembly resolution aimed at withdrawal of British troops from the Hashemite kingdom.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge described Gromyko's speech as "unadulterated villification."

Gromyko, who has been prodding the Arabs to demand that the Middle East situation be made a separate Assembly item, refused to make any formal proposal of his own.

Arab diplomats declined to comment on the Soviet minister's speech. They are reported awaiting the arrival Saturday of Mahmoud Fawzi, foreign minister of the United Arab Republic, before taking any action.

Gromyko accused the United States and Britain of stalling on withdrawal of their forces from Lebanon and Jordan. He charged the United States was holding Lebanon's new government "at pistol point."

He said the report Hammarskjold submitted to the Assembly Tuesday did not give enough stress to U.S. and British troop removal. The report said the two Western powers had agreed to withdraw their troops as soon as the situation warranted.

Lodge declared that Gromyko had failed to offer "one scintilla of proof" to support his charges. Such speeches, Lodge said, "reveal all too clearly Mr. Gromyko's contempt of the United Nations. It insults the intelligence of the members."

Change Artist Is Sentenced To 30 Days

A change artist was given a 30-day jail sentence this morning when he pleaded guilty to swindling a local service stations operator out of $10.

He is Milton Gene Mills, whose long record of arrests in the past included one in which he was given a five-year sentence in Oklahoma for larceny.

Mills pulled the quick-change trick last night.

George Killam, county attorney, explains the trick this way:

Mills bought $1 worth of gas at the station and paid for it with a $10 bill. The service station operator gave him as change a $5 bill, two $1 bills, and four 50-cents pieces.

Mills put the silver in his pocket, pulled out three $1 bills and put them with the $7 in his hand, making one $5 bill and five $1 bills. "It looks like you need some change," he told the station operator.

When the station attendant agreed that he needed the change, Mills laid the $10 down on the counter and got a $10 bill from the station attendant.

He then dropped the $10 bill on the other bills and said, "Do you have a $20?" The attendant replied that he did not.

Mills then put the $10 bill in his pocket, said "Just give me your other $10," and shoved the $5 bill and five $1 bills over to him, which was already actually the station's money, got the $10 bill, and walked out with $10 profit.

Absentee Ballots Ready For Bond Vote

Absentee ballots for the Oct. 11 county hospital bond election have been received by the office of Dan Cotton, county clerk.

Cotton said absentee voters have through Tuesday to vote absentee or to have ballots mailed out to them from his office.

The $450,000 bond election is on proposed expansion of the hospital, with the addition of a two-story wing which would house 40 beds.

Dulles Plan Rejected Again

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The United States has reassured Nationalist China there is no change in its policy of refusing to give ground in the face of continued Communist attacks on Quemoy and of demanding a cease-fire.

U.S. Ambassador Everett F. Drumright relayed this information from Secretary of State Dulles to President Chiang Kai-shek Thursday night.

Chiang's reaction was not disclosed but the Foreign Ministry rejected again today Dulles's suggestion for reducing Nationalist military strength on the offshore islands if the Communists will stop shooting.

Thus the two governments held different policies on ending the Formosa Strait crisis, now in its 42nd day.

Communist Chinese guns encircling the Quemoy islands continued to batter away, firing 1,143 shells during the early morning hours.

But there was increasing belief the artillery blockade was losing its effectiveness as sea convoys and air drops kept on unloading supplies. A massive increase in their size is expected soon with the help of U.S. equipment now being turned over to the Nationalists.

The supply situation is very much improved, said Rear Adm. Liu Hoh-tu, Defense Ministry spokesman.

And Vice Adm. Roland N. Smoot, head of the U.S. Taiwan (Formosa) Defense Command, said in an interview the Quemoys can now hold out indefinitely under present conditions.

Any enlargement of the offshore war would come from the Communists, not the Nationalists, Smoot said. The Nationalists recognize the importance of keeping the Communists tagged with the blame for aggression, he added.

Smoot said the Nationalists understood the world desire for a negotiated cease-fire and would accept one if it did not prejudice their sovereign rights. He did not define those rights.

Dulles' message seeking to reassure Chiang was sent after Chinese Nationalist officials expressed fears that American policy was shifting in a way that might prejudice Nationalist rights.

Dulles told a news conference Tuesday it was foolish for the Nationalists to have 100,000 troops on the offshore Quemoy islands, which the Chinese Communists have been bombarding since Aug. 23.

The secretary of state suggested a reduction of the Quemoy garrison if a dependable cease-fire could be arranged. Chiang balked at any reduction and expressed incredulity that Dulles would make such a suggestion.

Dulles also said a cease-fire would have to apply both to Nationalist China and Red China and expressed the view that Chiang's return to the mainland was "hypothetical."

A Taipei Foreign Ministry spokesman today said Nationalist China's plans to return to the mainland were its own affair and not a topic for international discussion. He reiterated the policy of not reducing the offshore garrison.

"There should not be any misunderstanding in the United States on the determination of the Republic of China to defend the offshore islands," the spokesman said.

The United States has not approached the Nationalists on a reduction, he added.

The Defense Ministry said no trace had been found of a Nationalist PBY flying boat which disappeared Wednesday on a flight from the offshore Matsu Islands to Taipei. Four U.S. servicemen were among the 11 aboard. The search was continuing.

Aurora Mayor Names Woman Press Agent As Police Chief

AURORA, Ill. (AP) — Irate but ignored in his bingo war with Aurora police, Mayor Paul Egan has uncorked a real eyestopper in his bid for obedience and headlines—a lady police chief.

He announced that Lura Patricia (Patti) Counts, a red-haired night club press agent, is the new chief of police.

The 28-year-old green-eyed lass from Chicago has never dealt with the criminal element, but she says she's studied sociology. And she looked very well in a cheesecake pose for photographers.

"Press agentry," cried the opposition in this northern Illinois town of 55,000.

"It's just too ridiculous to comment upon," declared Donald Curran, whom Egan fired as police chief for not cracking down on bingo. Only he didn't go. And the City Council said he didn't have to.

Neither did the Police Department go when Egan suspended the entire 68-man force for listening to Curran.

But as far as the fiery little mayor is concerned, Miss Counts is the chief.

"Her success at Aurora will accrue to the benefit of the entire world," he proclaimed.

And said she: "I will fight those who oppose my appointment."

When somebody asked if she's tried to supplant Curran yet, she replied, "I've never met the man, but he's too much of a gentleman to throw me in jail."

Miss Counts will do her fighting without a gun, she says. She added that she's against capital punishment and will bank her success heavily on the sociology and economic courses she said she learned at Radford Teacher College in Radford, W.Va.

Miss Counts hasn't even been sworn in yet. Egan says he's waiting until the bonding company says she's good for $5,000 coverage.

Like the 10 police chiefs Egan has fired and hired during his hectic 4½ years as mayor, Miss Counts will have to know who's in charge.

In his official message to her Egan said: "I want the department renovated, improved and streamlined. But before you make any major decision I want to be consulted."

He told her she was to listen to no phony commissioner-mayors or anybody else.

Miss Counts is supposed to do this for the next 60-days. It's a temporary job, Egan said.

The tall (5 foot 8) Miss Counts says she's not worried about the possibility she may not get her paycheck.

"That'll be all right," she said. "I make twice as much as the chief's salary by free-lance writing." The chief gets $7,092 a year.

Sen. Taft's Widow Dies At Age 68

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mrs. Martha Bowers Taft who shared the campaign battles of her late husband, U.S. Sen. Robert A. Taft, is dead. She will be buried beside her husband Saturday in the Indian Hill Church Cemetary.

Mrs. Taft died unexpectedly at her Indian Hill home Thursday at the age of 68.

A son said heart failure caused her death. She had been confined to a wheelchair after a stroke in 1950.

After the senator's death on July 31, 1953, she sold their victorian home in Washington but maintained an apartment there for a year before returning to their home here.

The two complemented each other well—she friendly and vivacious, he sober and serious.

Taft was 31 years old when he plunged into politics in 1920 as a precinct worker and won election to the Ohio House the same year. His first and only defeat was in the 1932 Democratic landslide when he lost for state senator.

During this period, Martha Taft was a constant source of support. She made speeches and her speeches made friends.

In 1938, when Taft tried for the U.S. Senate for the first time, she startled old-line politicians by stumping Ohio for him, making speeches and arrangements in 85 of the 88 counties. One cleveland newspaper headlined his victory "Bob and Martha win."

She worked just as hard again in 1944 and in his unsuccessful tries for the presidential nomination. Her illness curtailed her activities, but in his last attempt—in 1952—she conducted a one-woman letter writing campaign for him.

Carr Claims A Majority

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—State Rep. Waggonner Carr of Lubbock declared today the withdrawl of Rep. Will Smith as a rival assures his re-election as speaker of the Texas House.

Carr said he now held pledges for 81 votes — "more than the majority needed."

"I am honored to have the support of a man who has served so many years in the Legislature as has Will Smith," Carr said in a statement.

"I appreciate his efforts to bring the race to a close so that we may begin to make necessary plans for an efficient and productive session."

Smith, who lives here, released the 81 first choice pledges he held last night and threw his support to Carr, who has been waging a hot fight with Rep. Joe Burkett of Kerrville for the speakership.

Smith praised both Carr and Burkett as "honest, sincere and capable men" and as "good presiding officers."

"I have chosen to give my support to the present speaker because it appears to me that the interests of the Southeast Texas area will be best served thereby," Smith said in a statement.

Two supporters of Smith, Rep. Rufus Kilpatrick and Rep. D. Roy Harrington, also announced they will support Carr.

Soviets Say West Cause Of Renewal

By HAROLD K. MILKS

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government said today it has resumed testing of its nuclear weapons because the United States and Britain have kept on with their test shots.

A special announcement made through the official Tass news agency declared the blame falls on the two Western powers since they did not follow suit when the Soviets announced suspension of test blasts six months ago.

The Soviets, who wound up a big series of experimental explosions before swearing off last spring, are known to have detonated four nuclear devices in a test area north of the Arctic Circle this week. The U. S. Atomic Energy Commission announced in Washington the detection of two detonations there Tuesday and two more Thursday.

Tass gave no details of the new tests.

It accused the United States and Britain of using the Soviet suspension "to secure the greatest possible military advantage for their side, thus ignoring the will of the peoples."

"This is evidenced," it said, "by the fact that precisely after March 31—that is the moment the Soviet Union suspended nuclear tests and called upon other countries to follow suit—the governments of the United States and the United Kingdom undertook the biggest ever series of tests of atomic and hydrogen weapons.

"The United States alone has set off about 40 nuclear shots during this period.

"Considering this, the Soviet government cannot allow the security interests of the Soviet state to suffer because of such actions of the United States and the United Kingdom. . . .

"Tass is authorized to state that, although forced by the actions of the United States and Britain to resume its own nuclear tests, the Soviet Union will in the future continue its struggle for immediate and universal termination of such tests."

Talks are to begin among Soviet, British and American representatives at Geneva Oct. 31 to seek an agreement on suspending tests under adequate safeguards.

'Jet Stream' Gives Shots

DETROIT (AP) — Health officials said a new "jet stream" device will be brought into action today in the battle against Detroit's polio epidemic, which has hit more than 700 in the area.

The health commissioner, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, said the jet stream machine will be employed at one of nine emergency vaccination centers in Detroit. It uses a stream of high pressure air to force the Salk vaccine through the skin, eliminating the use of expensive needles.

Dr. Molner said 62,000 persons were inoculated in the first four days of the emergency vaccination program. But he warned that the program might collapse because what he described as chiselers who refuse to pay the $1-a shot fee and are using up the supply of vaccine.

Detroit has had 517 cases of polio, with 16 deaths so far this year, compared with 157 cases and 2 deaths in 1957.

Strike Ended By Pressmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The end of a brief work stoppage by pressmen assured publication today of Washington's two evening newspapers.

The Evening Star and the Daily News were unable to put out editions Thursday because union pressmen stayed away from work after their contract expired.

However, the 175 pressmen voted Thursday night to return to work and publication of the city's only morning newspaper, the Post, was not interrupted.

At the urging of union officials, the pressmen agreed to continue working during negotiations on a new contract. Leaders of the International Printing Pressmen's Union had said the work stoppage was unauthorized.

Hospital Supt. Samuel Wick said Whalen and another inmate, Harold Bill, cut a wire screen on the porch of the security ward and fled into the night. Bill, 48, of Phoenix, was described as not dangerous.

October Is Doughnut Time

How many ways can you make a doughnut? Today it can be made quickly from refrigerated biscuit dough, cream puff mix, yeast roll dough, or you can start from scratch. Good cooks usually find one method and stick to it. The important point is to preheat the fat to 390 degrees and keep it at that temperature. If the fat gets too hot the doughnuts will brown before cooking through. When the fat is not hot enough they soak up grease. That's why the automatic top burner heat control on the range is becoming so popular for deep-fat frying. It senses the temperature changes and quickly compensates for heat loss each time cold dough is added to the fat. Every batch of doughnuts is uniformly cooked and the fat can be reused because it does not develop off - flavors which are caused by overheating.

Good Tip

Lots of scrubbing and washing of woodwork goes on at housecleaning time. An inexpensive soap dish bent over the edge of your scrub pail will keep the soap handy and also save on the soap as it will not be washing away in the water.

Prowling Homes Of Wealthy Delightful Part Of Rare Job

WENATCHEE, Wash. (AP — Isabella Charbneau Warren is one of the nation's busiest women at one of its most exclusive professions.

She gets paid to poke around in the finest homes in Amercia, putting a price tag on everything from that rare old bed linen in the household since grandmother's day to the oil painting purchased because it picks up the colors of the new sitting room drapes.

She is an inside residential appraiser, specializing in estates for a New York firm, are the only women senior members of the American Society of Appraisers.

Mrs. Warren came about her interest naturally. Her father is Jules Charbneau of San Francisco, famed collector of curios and an international authority on miniatures. All her life she has been near the precious things which make a home a haven or a heaven.

Being near these things is not enough, however, to qualify as a senior appraiser. It takes years and years of study and hard work. The intensive training started 25 years ago when the Charbneau family moved to San Francisco and she came under the guidance of the late A. L. Gump and Stanley Grohs.

First she learned about porcelains, chinas and rare art pieces in the swanky store operated by the Gump family. Then she shifted to the posh parlors of the gift department of Magnin store in San Francisco, there picking up a background in linens and housewares.

She topped this with work at the Saks Fifth Avenue-Beverly Hills store, becoming acquainted with names like Christian Dior, Valenciaga, Jacques Fath and others.

"First thing you know," she recalls, "I was appraising gowns, home furnishings and objects d'art for a whole lot of cinema celebrities." They included Eva Gabor, Dinah Shore, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Claudette Colbert, and Danny Kaye.

Right now, Mrs. Warren is totaling up the value of the contents of a "very large Park Avenue apartment — the value of which will run well into six figures." A while back she appraised the personal property of a California airplane company executive. That figure exceeded $300,000.

"He was very pleasantly surprised," she recalls. "And so might you be. The average man who invested $9,000 in the contents of his home 15 years ago would be hard pressed to replace it for 12 to 15,000 now. He probably only carries insurance to cover his cost — not what it will cost to replace."

On this she speaks with some authority, also. Her husband is an insurance executive and frequently utilizes her talents.

Advice for anyone who would like to get into her lucrative field?

"Study fine arts in college, then travel. Visit the factories of Sweden, Denmark, Italy, Spain, and elsewhere. Learn something about how the really fine things are made. About the traditions, the materials, the great craftsmen. I love it. It's always new, thrilling and beautiful."

Stuffed Toys Are 'Sew' Easy

THERE'S NO EXCUSE for any child to be denied a toy, when gay stuffed animals and pert pillows are so easy and inexpensive to make.

Consider, for instance a cheerful clown pillow, which may be made from cotton feed bags, fabric scraps and bits of yarn, with a standard pattern, at a total cost of only about $1.25.

You'll need two 50-pound bags, one plain and one print, to make the clown, say local sewing center experts.

Follow pattern directions for making the pillow. The clown's eyebrows, nose and mouth may be appliqued with a satin stitch on an automatic sewing machine, or with an automatic zigzagger attachment. Cotton yarn may be used for the hair and the tassel on his cap. If you want him washable, stuff him with shredded foam rubber.

Shiny black buttons are used for eyes, and bright bias tape trims the edge of his ruffled collar.

Save Egg Cartons

An egg carton makes a very convenient storage space in a drawer where miscellaneous small things are kept. One compartment can be used for pins, another for buttons and the rest for other small items thus keeping the drawer much neater and also making these small items much easier to find.

DOLLAR VALUE— PLUS

In an emergency the value of medicine can hardly be reckoned in dollars. Medicine is priceless when needed.

Yet it is an interesting fact that nationally the average cost of a pharmaceutical prescription is about $2.50 — and more than half of all prescriptions cost less than $2.00. Although higher than 20 years ago, the increase in the cost of medicine lags far behind that of other, and less essential, commodities.

When you purchase a prescription you are sharing in the fruits of scientific research. You are getting today's best buy.

Adams Finally Gives In

THE HOUSTON CHRONICLE:

Sherman Adams has finally quit, ending three months of dissension and dissatisfaction within the ranks of the Republican party. He had been on the firing line ever since a congressional investigating committee brought to light the fact that he had accepted sizable gifts from the industrialist, Bernard Goldfine, at a time when Goldfine's various companies were having difficulties with one or more federal agencies.

Few dared openly to demand the resignation of Adams, as presidential assistant, he was in a powerful position to be vengeful if he chose to. Furthermore President Eisenhower refused to disown him. He made it clear that the decision would have to be made by Adams. Yet there was a familiar ring in Eisenhower's plaintive "I need him." It recalled all to clearly the haughty "I will not turn my back on Alger Hiss" of Dean Acheson when he was secretary of state.

Yet not all the excitement in Lebanon nor all the guns booming over Quemoy and Matsu could still the insistent demand for Adams to get out. The clincher undoubtedly was the Republican debacle in the Maine elections. His retirement, however, may have come too late for, with the national election now less than two months away, it is certain the Democrats are not going to let his name be forgotten, regardless of codes and agreements on "mud-slinging." At best, the Adams affair was an unsavory episode in the current political arena. He protested his innocence of wrong-doing to the end: But, in his exalted position, it was his obligation not only to be free of stain but of suspicion.

Spotlight May Go Back To Mid-East

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — It will be a remarkable thing if the Communists—with all the initiative in their hands—permit any rest for U.S. policy in the Far East.

But the possibility by no means can be ruled out. Already there are indications Moscow anticipates a gradual easing of the Far East crisis.

The Soviets seem to be preparing for that, getting ready to swing the spotlight slowly back again to the Middle East.

The Communists do not have control over the rise and fall of crises in the Arab East. Their mode of operation there is to take fullest advantage of crises which do arise.

The Communists do have control over the Formosa crisis. When they want to start it going, they have only to order the shooting to begin. When they want it eased, they have only to ease off the shooting.

By pouring on pressure now, the Red Chinese might logically hope to wrest at least the offshore islands from the Nationalists. The United States clearly does not want to go to war over the islands. But there are a number of elements in the crisis which can spell danger to the Communists themselves.

Not the least of these elements is the possibility that the situation can damage relations between Moscow and Red China.

In an aside at his Wednesday news conference, President Eisenhower wondered why, if the Nationalist-Communist strife was really civil war, Soviet boss Khrushchev should say the Soviet Union might participate in that war.

However, Khrushchev has seemed rather anxious to avoid giving the impression the Soviets would join Red China in a war on the Nationalist Formosa regime. He said an attack by another power on Red China would be considered an attack on the U.S.S.R. The Peiping-Moscow treaty requires that Moscow probably would be unwilling to underwrite a real risk of war between Red China and the United States. The Soviets, however, still are in a position to persuade the Red Chinese to ease the crisis. Without Soviet help, Red China would find a long-sustained shelling of the offshore islands (now in its second month) an expensive proposition.

The Middle East offers a more fertile field for Communist endeavors. There the Soviets are not directly involved. They can keep their own situation relatively secure. And the Middle East does not raise the problem of aggravations between the two big Communist allies.

American and British troop withdrawals from Lebanon and Jordan may be a signal for the Soviets to concentrate the lion's share of their attention on the Arabs once again, for good reasons.

When Britain leaves Jordan, there's a good chance of a new Holy Land explosion. When the Americans leave Lebanon, a government which for all practical purposes is a revolutionary regime, will be in control.

There are evidences of a tug-of-war for power inside Iraq's revolutionary regime. The oil of Kuwait is of enormous economic importance to Britain, and the British will fight hard if Arab nationalist pressures threaten their presence in the little Persian Gulf sheikdom.

Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko apparently caught the significance of a single little word in the announcement of Britain's withdrawl plans. She would, said Britain, "begin" the withdrawal Oct. 20. In a U.N. speech, Gromyko called it stalling.

It's likely to be a slow and reluctant withdrawal, far too slow to suit the Soviets. Moscow hopes to apply the heat in the Middle East. The new explosion there, which by present indications could come some time around the turn of the year, cannot arrive too soon for Moscow.

Fuel Distributors Bid For Markets

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Some 46 million homeowners in the United States are facing up today to another economic fact of life—from now on the heating bills will start to mount.

Higher prices this year are likely in many areas as production costs and transportation charges rise. And the chances of price wars benefiting homeowners grows slimmer as more factories reopen and eat into fuel stocks.

But the householders' struggle to get up the approximately five billion dollars to meet this winter's home heating bill is relatively mild compared with the battle among various types of fuel.

Fuel oil dealers claim the biggest share now—almost half. But natural gas has cut in rapidly and now heats around 13 million homes for more than 1½ billion dollars. Coal still holds a market of nearly three million homes and has new heating gadgets out to entice the home owner.

Electrical heating system makers have come up fast and now claim nearly half a million homes. Heat pumps are used by 25,000 homes.

Mostly in the novelty stage now are the homes warmed by solar heat. And in the dream stage is the time when nuclear energy will heat homes.

The battle between fuel oil and gas is pointed up by M. J. Rathbone, president of Jersey Standard Oil, who says, "Natural gas has grown from infant to giant proportions as a competitor" since the war and offers a real challenge to the 40,000 individual oil heating companies in the field.

The National Oilfuel Council says oil's fast postwar growth gives it nine million customers in centrally heated homes and seven million more in noncentrally heated.

The American Gas Assn. predicts that new gas lines will soon bring gas heated homes well above the 13 million mark.

The Anthracite Information Bureau points out that in addition to the nearly three million homes, there are thousands of schools, apartment houses, public buildings and industrial plants to use the 25 million tons expected to be shipped this year.

Electricity's big handicap in the race has been expense. But Commonwealth Edison of Chicago has just put into effect a new low rate for home heating and has a big drive under way. This heating form is most popular in exurbia and in country homes beyond the gas lines. But Commonwealth officials say they are also gaining customers in Chicago because of the reported ease and cheapness of installation.

The electrical appliance industry reports selling 24 million electric supplementary heaters in the last 10 years.

Detroit Edison has exhibited in 15 shows and fairs in its campaign to further electric heating, which utilities in general see as a means of leveling off demand loads. The new winter business somewhat balances the summer demand for electric run coolers. Numerous utilities also are trying hard to sell electric heaters to the churches and schools rising in numbers around the land.

Two Farm Families Flee East Germany

MELLRICHSTADT, Germany (AP) — Two farmer's families from East Germany—five adults and three children—rolled across the Iron Curtain with all their movable possessions Thursday night.

A horse-drawn wagon, two tractors and two manure carts made up the convoy. On the wagon the two families, not named by police, had heaped all their mobile belongs, including the childresn' toys and a cat.

The refugees said they fled because the Communists planned to nationalize their farms in East Germany.

Moriarty In Top Form For Series

NEW YORK (AP) — When the opening lineup is announced at 11 o'clock Saturday in the cavernous offices beneath Yankee Stadium, poised, confident John Moriarty will be dressing out for another World Series start.

Wicker basket on white-jacketed arm, mustard stick in the alert position, he will coolly step before the assembled 65,000, rear back and fire the big one:

"Here yar, getcha red hot franks here!"

Moriarty, a port-sided coin flipper born almost in the shadow of the House that Ruth built, got his start in the big leagues as a second-string soda seller, gradually worked his way up to candy butcher and peanut vendor, and after several impressive appearances in relief drew a starting assignment as hot dog hustler, the cash clean-up spot to which all rookies aspire.

Three full seasons and two World Series behind him, Moriarty, now just turned 18, is at the top of his form. His delivery is shrill and commanding; his diction a gravel-based blend of Bronx and Brooklynese that assaults the ear drum with terrifying urgency. He can go deep to make change in the upper deck and make the turn at the mezzanine for a double sale in the box seats.

On a clear day, before a packed house, he can flip a coin 30 rows back into the stands and hit the strike zone with awesome regularity.

"For women," he confided, "we use an underarm motion, something like the submarine ball Carl Mays used to throw. Men like to have it burned over with a full thumb snap so they can show off on the catch. Control is everything. A wild throw can cost you several big sales while you're burrowing under the seats for a passed quarter."

Like all major leaguers, Moriarty has to contend with a certain amount of irksome horseplay from the sidelines.

"When you're passing a frank down the aisle, for instance," he cited past indignities, "some wise guy will always make like he's going to take a bite out it. Once or twice a character actually did.

Tiger-Levelland Tilt Tonight Rated A 'Tossup'

BILL DUBOSE . . .Tiger co-captains at Levelland tonight — DICK HAYES

The Snyder (Texas) Daily News, Fri., Oct. 3, 1958 5

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

THE PRIZE REMARK TO come out of the penalty-infested game last Friday night at Big Spring was made by Tiger line coach, Hal Battle:

Battle, commenting on the game at the Quarterback Club meeting Tuesday, said:

"Most officials are paid for the game and mileage but I believe those officials last Friday were paid for the game and yardage."

The Tigers are certainly "ripe" to be upset tonight at Levelland with Richard Mahan and Kenny Drake out, the going is apt to be pretty tough for the Bengals.

We look for Alex Cross to turn in a fine game tonight in the absence of Mahan but the junior 170-pounder lacks experience "under fire." And bad weather this week prevented Cross from getting in some extra work in getting ready for tonight's game.

The Tigers have come through before under adverse conditions, though, and we have no reason to believe that the Bengals won't give a good account of themselves tonight.

Breck Score Misleading

V. V. Shearburn, who scouted Levelland last week against Breckenridge, reminded the fans attending the Quarterback Club meeting this week that the Lobos aren't as "bad" as the final score indicated in the Breck game.

Shearburn pointed out that Levelland led Breck at halftime, 7-6, and that took some doing. By comparison, Breck led Sweetwater, 29-0, at halftime and we all know what a fine team Sweetwater has.

It was generally agreed that Breck just wore down the Lobos in the second half. Levelland isn't apt to be easy to "wear down" at home tonight where they're accustomed to the climate and weather conditions.

With Doug Cannon at the controls, the Tigers don't have to be told how tough the Lobos are. Cannon just threw three TD passes against the Tigers last year and it took a late score by the Tigers to overcome the Lobos, 27-21.

Opinions Divided

Opinions are pretty well divided on who'll win tonight's game at Levelland. Big Spring coach Al Milch predicts a 21-20 Levelland victory and the four sports scribes at Lubbock are divided on the prediction, two picking the Tigers and two selecting Levelland.

In most other points we have noted the Tigers are being given the nod but very few, if any, know of the Tiger physical condition for tonight's game.

We're sticking with the Tigers again tonight despite the injuries. The score: Tigers 22, Levelland 20.

2 More Tiger Regulars On Sidelines

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

LEVELLAND, Oct. 3 — Levelland's Lobos are being given an even chance of handing the crippled Snyder Tigers their first defeat of the season here tonight in a non-district game that is expected to draw a capacity crowd of 4,500.

The Tigers will go into the game without their offensive and defensive quarterbacks, Richard Mahan and Kenny Drake.

Mahan, the Tigers' fine field general on offense, will miss tonight's game with a shoulder injury and Drake, who calls signals on defense, is out with a broken hand. Both injuries occured in the Big Spring game last week.

Junior Alex Cross will take over Mahan's offensive quarterbacking chores tonight and Bo Brown will replace K. Drake on offense. Both Mahan and Drake also are defensive starters, Mahan at halfback and Drake at linebacker.

Stanley Woolever will replace Mahan on defense while James Fitzgerald will take over Drake's linebacker position.

Three other Tigers also are out for tonight's game. They are center Bill Rinehart, guard Jackie Pevehouse and halfback Johnny Drake, all of whom missed the Big Spring, too.

Levelland, after swamping two foes, Brownfield by 41-6 and Monahans, 38-6, fell from the undefeated ranks last week at the hands of the mighty Breckenridge Buckies, 40-13. Levelland, however, held a 7-6 lead over Breck at halftime before running out of gas in the second half.

The Lobos undoubtedly will fill the air with footballs tonight with junior Doug Cannon on the throwing end. Cannon is considered one of the finest passers in the state. As a sophomore last year, Cannon tossed three TD passes against the Tigers but the Bengals managed to escape with a 27-21 victory.

The Tigers will be shooting for their fourth straight win over Levelland. In their last appearance here, the Tigers walked off with a 2-0 victory in one of the finest defensive battles seen on the Lobo turf.

The Tigers also will be bidding for their fourth win of the season tonight. In the first three games, the Bengals racked up wins over Borger, 14-6; Andrews, 34-12; and Big Spring, 25-20.

Halfback Dick Hayes, the Tigers leading ground-gainer, and end Bill Dubose, will serve as Tiger co-captains tonight.

Starting lineup for the Tigers tonight is expected to be as follows:

TIGERS

Ends — Bo Brown and Bill Dubose.
Tackles — Ronnie Giles and Terry Lee.
Guards — Mickey McGrew and Tommy Minton.
Center — Devane Jones.
Quarterback — Alex Cross.
Halfbacks — Dick Hayes and Jimmy Allen.
Fullback — Paul Stanley.

Midland B Slips Past Tiger B 30-24

MIDLAND — Midland B scored with five minutes to go here Thursday night to take a thrilling 30-24 decision from Snyder B.

The late Midland score broke a 24-24 tie. Snyder had tied things up with two touchdowns and two conversions in the third quarter after trailing 24-0 at halftime.

Midland, on its winning touchdown drive, fumbled on the Snyder 20 and the ball was recovered by Snyder but the officials ruled the whistle had blown before the fumble although the ball carrier had not been tackled.

Quarterback Larry Patterson of Snyder hit halfback Jesse Crawford with a 35-yard touchdown pass to open the visitor's scoring late in the second quarter. Patterson ran over the conversion points but Snyder was penalized five for offsides. However, the visitors proceeded to make the conversion points good when Moore connected with Crawford in the end zone to make it 24-8 at halftime.

Snyder continued pouring it on as the third period got underway and ultimately tied up the score. Patterson climaxed an extended drive from four yards out on a keeper for the second Snyder TD and Moore passed to Crawford the two-point conversion, putting the score at 24-16 Midland.

Snyder held Midland following the kickoff and forced the homestanders to punt afterwhich the visitors launched another TD drive to deadlock the score.

Crawford made Snyder's third TD on a 30 yard pass from Patterson and Patterson hit Ronnie Wylie with a pass for the conversion points to make it 24-24.

That's the way it stood until Midland score in the final minutes for the victory.

Perry Cullwell stood out defensively for Snyder.

Rollicking Braves In 2-0 Series Command

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The first inning decided the second world series game in more ways than one.

The Yankees had their big chance with the bases loaded and none out. But the best the American League champions could do was one run scored on a forceout. Yogi Berra ended their hopes by hitting into a double play.

Although Lew Burdette gave up three homers, two to Mickey Mantle, he never was in serious trouble because the Braves scored seven runs in the bottom of the first, three of which came on his own home run.

So the Braves won the second game 13-5 and went two up on the Yankees.

But possibly there was a moment in that fateful first when things might have taken another turn.

Billy Bruton led off with a home run that had authority, and Red Schoendienst doubled. Bob Turley got Eddie Mathews on strikes and then ran into difficulty with Hank Aaron, after the count went to 3-2.

"They were hitting Bob's fast ball and he couldn't get his breaking ball over," Berra explained afterwards.

Turley walked Aaron and that was the turning point.

With two men on and only one out, Wes Covington singled to right center, scoring Schoendienst, and Duke Maas took over for Turley on the mound.

He got Frank Torre to fly to Elston Howard. Then he walked Del Crandall, filling the bases. Johnny Logan's single brought in two runs, and Burdette's big homer to left field added three more. That was the ball game.

The Braves kept piling up runs and the Yankees managed four more but it was never a contest.

With one out in the second, Mathews doubled and scored on Covington's single.

Mantle's homer to start the fourth made the score 8-2 but the Braves came back with two more in the seventh after Aaron hit a high chop to third for a single. Covington singled to right, and Aaron came home on Frank Torre's single. Covington scored on Crandall's sacrifice fly to center.

The Braves reached their imposing total of 13 in the eighth with Zach Monroe—the fifth Yankee pitcher—on the mound. After Burdette struck out, Bruton drew a walk, Schoendienst got a ground rule double on a drive to the right field corner, Mathews doubled to score Bruton and Schoendienst and later scored on Andy Pafko's sacrifice fly.

The Yankees opened their half of the ninth with a loud bang, but they were too far behind to do much more than have fun.

Hank Bauer hit a long homer to the left field bleachers, and Gil McDougald singled to left. Mantle hit his second home run of the day and the 11th of his World Series career. The Braves got restless and Juan Pizarro started warming up.

But Burdette settled down again. After Norm Siebern lined a single to right, the crafty pitcher got Berra and Moose Skowron to fly out, and the game was over when Crandall grabbed Bobby Richardson's bunt close to the plate and threw him out.

Lew's Homer His First In Milwaukee

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Lew Burdette found the home run range in Thursday's second game of the World Series, it was his first round-tripper in Milwaukee's County Stadium. Burdette had hit five homers previously but all had been on the road. Three were at the Los Angeles Coliseum this season and two at Cincinnati's Crosley Field in 1957.

Red Schoendienst, Murry Dickson and Enos Slaughter appeared in the same game to stir up some memories of the 1946 series. All three were members of the world champion St. Louis Cards that year.

The New York Yankees were the last previous team to score seven runs in an inning in series competition. They achieved the feat in the sixth inning of the first game of the 1937 series against the New York Giants enroute to an 8-1 victory.

Hitting two homers in a game is nothing new for Mantle. The Yanks' switcher turned the trick three others times in 1956.

Blue Devils Split With Big Spring

Snyder and Big Spring broke even in a junior high football doubleheader last night at Tiger Stadium, the locals winning the 8th grade game, 2[illegible] and losing to the Big Spring 7th grade, tilt, 6-2.

Rain fell intermittently throughout the doubleheader.

Snyder 8th, in blanking Big Spring, retained its record of not having been score upon this season. Snyder 7th, on the other hand, yielded its first touchdown of the season last night and because it couldn't get its offense to clicking, the one Big Spring TD was enough to insure victory.

Snyder 7th took a 2-0 lead in the first half when the Blue Devils blocked a Big Spring punt in the end zone with a Big Spring lad falling on the ball for a safety.

Snyder camped in Big Spring's end of the field throughout the first half, several times driving inside the visitors' 20 but the young Devils couldn't muster a scoring punch.

The Blue Devils 8th graders squared matters, however, in the second game by breezing to a 26-0 victory.

The locals opened their scoring early when William Robinson of the Blue Devils recovered a fumble on Big Spring's first offensive try on the Big Spring 41.

Snyder drove quickly to a touchdown with fullback Bob Pena ramming the final five yards. An attempted run for the conversion point failed.

Snyder moved further ahead in the second quarter when Luke Nigliazzo sped 23 yards to a TD to climax a 40-yard drive.

The Blue Devils made it 20-0 at halftime when Dalton Walton passed to Nigliazzo for 20 yards for a touchdown and Pena made a two-point conversion on a run.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Blue Devils closed out their scoring on a 60-yard drive to a touchdown which was climaxed by Walton on a keeper from the Big Spring two.

The Blue Devil reserves took over at this point and finished up.

Ag Freshmen Down Houston Frosh 12-0

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) —The Texas Aggie freshmen were off to a good start today. They won their opening game of the season last night, beating the University of Houston frosh 12-0.

The Aggies' Rodger McFarland of Fort Worth ran for 79 yards, passed for 83 and scored the first touchdown with a 2-yard blast.

Tiger Frosh Clips Sweetwater, 12-8

SWEETWATER — Snyder's Freshman footballers held on to a slippery football long enough to score two first-half touchdowns, which proved to be enough to defeat the Sweetwater 9th graders 12-8 here Friday night.

Mike Morris set the Snyder team up in business in the first quarter when he circled his own left end and sped 31 yards for the first touchdown. A running play for the extra points failed.

In the second quarter, Morris climaxed a 45-yard drive when he dashed over the double stripe from eight yards out. A pass for the extra points, Steve Free to Freddie Miller, was good, but a holding penalty nullified the play and another attempt from the 10-yard line failed.

Sweetwater got its lone touchdown in the third period when Royce Lane crashed over from the one-yard line. The Sweetwater team ran over for the extra points.

Actually the game probably was not as close as the score indicated. Except for its single drive for a touchdown, Sweetwater never crossed the Snyder 35 yard line and the Colts never were able to reach midfield in the first half.

Snyder drove to the Sweetwater 10-yard line late in the game before surrendering the football on a fumble. Sweetwater took the ball at that point for the final two plays of the game, and two stabs at the Snyder line left them on their own three-yard line when the game ended.

A steady drizzle fell throughout the game.

SMU, Rice Can Boost SWC Prestige

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

The Southwest Conference can roll back the curtain to 1934 for a situation similar to the one it faces Saturday. It can hope for a repetition of history to pull the league to a place in the sun.

That year found Texas beating Notre Dame 7-6 and Rice Whiping Purdue 14-0. Those victories on a single weekend gave the conference its greatest boost.

Saturday Southern Methodist substitutes for Texas in a battle with Notre Dame while Rice again meets Purdue. The conference needs victories in those games to regain prestige.

But neither SMU nor Rice is favored to turn the trick. And a couple of other intersectional tests also could hurt the league.

Texas A&M, winless in its last five games, takes on Missouri at College Station. Baylor, victorious in two games so far this season, tackles Miami at Waco.

In addition, the second conference game of the season is scheduled at Fort Worth, where Texas Christian starts championship play and Arkansas seeks to stay in the race. Arkansas already has lost one game and must win from TCU or fade out.

There's likewise a little family squabble at Austin, where Texas Tech — a member of the conference but not yet eligible to compete for the championship— takes on Texas. It's the only battle matching undefeated, untied teams in the conference schedule this week.

Almost a quarter million fans are due at the six games.

The Southern Methodist-Notre Dame game, sending a league member against the seventh-ranked team in the country, will be in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas Saturday afternoon with 65,000 expected.

The Rice-Purdue fracas will be at Houston with 50,000 due. It is a night game, as are Baylor-Miami, expected to attract 25,000; Texas Christian - Arkansas, looking for 25,000; Texas - Texas Tech, due to get 35,000 out, and Texas A&M-Missouri, expecting 17,000.

Finally did better than break even last week, picking four out of seven. Look these over:

Southern Methodist - Notre Dame — A great game but Notre Dame by a touchdown.

Texas Christi - Arkansas—the records indicate this ought to be an easy one: Texas Christian by two or three touchdowns.

Baylor-Miami—Baylor is in at least better condition that it was last season. A mild vote for the Golden Bears.

Texas-Texas Tech—Don't think Texas will find it easy, but the Longhorns ought to win.

Texas A&M-Missouri — About time for the Aggies to win one, and Missouri should furnish the best chance.

Rice-Purdue — The others say Purdue and that sounds about right.

Negroes Sue RR, Union

HOUSTON (AP) — Twenty-nine Negro employes sued the Texas & New Orleans Railroad Co. and their union for $1,885,000 yesterday, charging discriminatory practices.

Their federal court damage suit also is against Locals 783 and 991 of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America.

The 29 employes, including four women, said they had been laid off or feared they soon would be although they hold seniority over other workers.

Their petition further alleged the railroad has kept senior Negro employes on the job as carmen helpers while permitting others to gain seniority through promotions to temporary carmen.

Swallow Family Gets Free Transport Ride

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — The Scanadinavian Airlines System announced the arrival in Rome today of Mr. and Mrs. Swallow and their two little swallows who had been hatched somewhere between the Arctic Circle and Stockholm.

The company said it was asked by animal lovers to give the swallow family a free ride after the insect supply ran out above the Arctic circle because of snowfall.

The parents, SAS explained, apparently were on a delayed honeymoon in Northern parts "when this thing happened to them."

"Because of her two eggs Mrs. Swallow could not make the flight on her own," a spokesman added.

The members of your family, — the fellows in your office, — the stranger on the street ... ...none of them like it! Your family deserves better of you. Your neighbors expect better of you. God requires better of you. Go to church and break the swearing habit. Learn to respect and honor and reverence God's name. Please don't swear!

A NEW LIFE

(Question) "What is the full significance of the new birth?" (Answer) Likely the full significance could not be given. But when a person rises from the burial of baptism, believing in Christ with all his heart, and having turned from sin in complete repentance, he is then a new creature in Christ and must live a new life. At that point he is born again. (Romans 6:4) God then "delivers us from the power of darkness and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear son" (Col.1:12,13). Our entrance into the kingdom of God is spoken of as a new birth. (Jno.3:) A birth opens up an entirely new world to one and starts him in a new way of life. So, our birth into Christ sets our feet into new paths of living. "We must walk in newness of life." We must continue to live a new life after we become Christians if we expect to enjoy eternal salvation. (2 Pet. 2:20) God gives us the power to overcome the wicked one as we choose to use the power at our command. "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our Faith" (1 Jno.5:4). God's power is demonstrated in us through our faith which comes from hearing his word. (Rom.10:17) It is by this power (Faith) that we are kept. "Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time." (1 Pet. 1:5)

Junior Editors Quiz on HISTORY

QUESTION: Did cavemen really pull women around by the hair?

• • •

ANSWER: This seems to be a widely spread idea about how the gentlemen of the cave era behaved; a young cave fellow who wanted a wife is supposed to have walked up to some cave girl, grabbed her by the hair and dragged her into his dwelling.

Is this true? No one can say for sure. The cave men could not write and did not leave us a record of their customs. The weapons and pictures on cave walls tell us much about hunting but scarcely anything about family habits and ideas.

However, we do know certain things which might help us guess that in many cases the women were roughly treated. One is that in certain primitive societies the wife was regarded as the property of the husband. Quite possibly, as men grew brainier, they began to treat their women better — or maybe the women had grown brains too, and found out how to handle the men — as they do so well today.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO. Get a library book showing some of the marvelous cave paintings done by prehistoric men. Do you think such fine artists would have dragged women around by the hair?

Red Guards Are Lured By Cigarettes, Beer

By HANNS NEUERBOURG

ESCHWEGE, Germany (AP) — It started with a pack of cigarettes thrown over the Iron Curtain. Then followed eight bottles of beer.

Three happy-go-lucky guards of the East German people's police were at the receiving end. Their officers were away at a big sports meet, and there was nobody to see them violating nonfraternization orders.

It took them 15 minutes to empty the eight bottles of beer while sitting atop their watch tower. Puffing at the Western cigarettes, they tossed back the bottles with thanks.

But the salesman had brought new supplies from a nearby inn, meanwhile. A second shipment crossed the 30-foot-wide "dead strip" in which any illegal border crosser risks being shot without warning.

After a while, the empty bottles came back again—this time with the sentries carrying them over to the West.

They crept through the barbed wire with their guns and began unbosoming themselves to their host.

People's police food was terrible, they said. Then they had some more beer.

West Germany was not so bad, they added. More beer.

Matter of fact they would like to stay, the guards declared, after another round of beer.

Night had come—and they stood up and sang Deutschland Ueber Alles, the German national anthem.

Three relieving guards fired star shells into the dark sky and finally traced their comrades.

It took only a few words after contact and the East-West beer party was swollen to seven. But the noise and star shells had alarmed a West German border patrol, which came rushing to the scene. The six people's policemen stood up and declared in union that they were determined to stay.

After a long persuasive talk from the Western side, the six agreed to return to duty in the East. Nobody, it was agreed, would tell anything about the beer party.

The West German patrol feared that if one of the six changed his mind after he sobered up, he would claim he had been kidnaped while drunk and that there would be a new East-West incident.

Alas, there was a leak on the Eastern side despite the vows of secrecy. The Red bosses got word of the party. Two defectors from the same people's police unit said all six merry-makers were arrested by the Communist state security service. A large-scale probe into the incident is going on while the six are awaiting trial, the defectors said.

West German border authorities released the story after a three-day delay.

Pentagon Removes Unneeded Secrecy

By C. YATES MCDANIEL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon swung a major blow at unneeded secrecy today.

It ordered declassification of almost all military documents stamped top secret, and confidential before Jan. 1, 1946. Some date back to World War I days or before. Many millions of outdated documents are affected.

The declassification order was signed by Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy last Saturday, it was learned, and is due for formal announcement today.

The order also takes a preliminary jab at the continuing accumulation of classified papers. It orders the automatic downgrading, after a period of years, of documents labeled top secret.

Left for future action is a time-phased schedule that will remove all grades of secrecy from documents after they have been stored for a given number of years.

Specifically exempted from the mass declassification order are papers detailing U.S. and Allied war plans and almost everything connected with intelligence and counterintelligence.

Personnel and medical records also were excluded because their confidential nature is covered by numerous regulations, laws and customs that normally prevent the invasion of personal privacy.

No one knows how many papers have been tied up in security red tape. The estimates run into many hundreds of millions.

But they include an estimated 1,376,633 cubic feet of papers stored in 127,466 steel cabinets in military records centers, holding areas and the national archives.

These are the identifiable documents that the Pentagon can put its hands on. There are a lot more. The universities and some 23,000 industrial plants hold many still-classified papers from World War II.

Behind the directive lies 18 months of work by retired Vice Adm. John M. Hoskins and his small staff, set up for the purpose by then Secretary of defense Charles E. Wilson.

After sizing up the problem, Hoskins decided on a mass attack. He found that individual services and units had tried before to reduce the size and flow of classified material but that most of these efforts had ended in frustration because of the magnitude of the task.

One military department told Hoskins that it would take at least 8,000 officers and men to conduct an annual downgrading and classification review of its backlog of active files.

Bride Gets Cash Award

BALTIMORE (AP) — When the minister mentions that "for richer-for poorer" business to Shirley Kelin, at least it won't mean $2,500 poorer.

Miss Klein, a pretty 21-year-old secretary, had surrendered a court award for that amount earlier this week by refusing to postpone her wedding.

Injured in an automobile accident while driving with her fiance in West Virginia last May, she obtained a court judgment for $2,500. But the fiance's insurance company appealed and, under West Virginia law, a woman forfeits her right to contest such a case further if she marries her fiance before the appeal is heard.

After Miss Klein's decision to get married Saturday, as scheduled, rather than wait out a court case which may take months, the insurance company gallantly bowed to the bride-to-be.

Marvin Ellin, her lawyer, said Thursday the company had made "a gratuity" to her of a "substantial" part of the $2,500. He didn't say how "substantial."

Miss Klein's fiance, 24-year-old James A. Halloran of Woodbury, N.J., is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University.

Solon Says Farmers Will Vote Out GOP

HASKELL, Tex. (AP) — Sen. Ralph Yarborough says American farmers are going to vote the Republicans out of office.

Speaking at the annual barbecue of the Haskell County Farm Bureau last night, he said:

"Results of every recent election show that American farmers are aroused. The farmers will preserve their way of life by going to the polls and overwhelmingly voting the Benson-Adams-Eisenhower administration out of office.

Community Singing Set

A community singing which is expected to attract visitors from several area towns has been scheduled here Sunday afternoon.

The event is set for 2 p.m. in the Church of God, located at 2401 Avenue O.

The program will feature Gospel songs, and the new current Stamps-Baxter convention book will be used, according to Lawrence Devers.

The public is invited to attend, and several well-known singers from Midland, Stanton, Slaton and Lubbock have indicated that they will be here for the singing.
