SHOWING IN THE ASTRODOME

Fourmentin's Steer Sells for $23,465

The Astrodome Rodeo announcer reeled off his introduction: "Ladies and gentlemen, let's welcome the superstars from the entertainment, rodeo and livestock world."

And Wellington High School senior Mark Fourmentin was one of the stars Friday, March 6 as the owners of the top 28 steers in the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo walked their calves onto the Astrodome floor in front of more than 40,000 rodeo fans.

Fourmentin's steer had been judged Simmental Reserve Champion earlier in the day.

And the steer proved its star quality Saturday, March 7 in the Super Sale Salon of the Astrodome next door when it brought $23,465 in the junior livestock auction.

Buyers of Fourmentin's steer were three women, Trudie Underwood of Conroe, Nadine Dunn of Houston and Pat Boenker of Navasota.

Fourmentin's steer, weighing 1,235 pounds, sold for $19 per lb.

The Grand Champion steer set a world's record for $112,000 and the Reserve Grand Champion sold for $90,000 a few minutes before Fourmentin's steer went in the auction ring.

Standing on the Astrodome floor Friday night behind Fourmentin were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fourmentin, his sister Patricia, County Agent Don Reeves, and Earl Patterson, all of whom had helped in one way or another with the calf project.

The calf was raised by the Fourmentin's in contrast to the Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion which were bought by their owners as young calves last year. Fourmentin bred an Angus cow to a Simmental bull and the calf was born September 26, 1979.

Deaf Smith County's Randy Vogel showed the Grand Champion. Vogel paid $7,900 for his steer, and the Reserve Grand Champion was Tamara Myers, also of Deaf Smith County, Myers paid $1,100 for her steer last March.

Five other Wellington and Samnorwood students showed calves at the show: Patricia Fourmentin, lightweight Hereford; Paul Estes, heavyweight Simmental; Darvin Nix, middleweight Charolais; Lynn Tate, middleweight Limousin; Stan Tate, lightweight Main-Anjou.

Patricia Fourmentin's steer stood eighth in the class, but a permanent tooth had come through the night before judging, and the steer was disqualified in the ring after judging.

Stan Tate's Main-Anjou steer stood eighth in its class and sold in the premium auction.

"The quality of the steers was the highest it has ever been throughout the show," County Agent Don Reeves said. "All of the kids had their steers well prepared and presented in the show ring. All of the 4-H'ers and their parents pitched in and helped get each calf ready."

The show set new world's price records for all categories. The Grand Champion lamb brought $60,000, the Grand Champion Pen of 5 broilers brought $33,000, the Grand Champion Market Barrow sold for $51,500 and the Grand Champion Turkey brought $20,000.

The total price of the 391 steers selling through the premium auction was $1.68 million, all of which went to the 4-H and FFA students who exhibited the animals.

Also attending the show from here were Dr. and Mrs. Bill Estes, Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Patterson and Jerry Nix and Henry Wells. Dr. Herman Purdy of Penn State judged the livestock show. He said it was the largest show he had every judged.

Purdy commented on Fourmentin's steer in comparison with the one he judged breed champion: "They were very close. The Grand Champion was a little more nicely balanced, the Reserve had a little more firmness, but Reserve didn't have the overall strength of the Champion. But they were very close."

Two Track Teams Open Season In Silverton Meet Saturday

Twenty-six Skyrockets make up the 1981 varsity boys track teams with a speed that is raising speculation as to possible meet and championship honors.

They, along with the girls track team, will compete in the Silverton meet Saturday, March 14.

It will be the first time this spring for both teams to compete.

At the core of the Skyrocket team are 7 returning lettermen. "We expect to be strong in the 440 relay, as we have all four members back, Darrell Thomas, Chris Lynch, Jody Coleman and Tim Anderson," said Coach Mark Reason. "We have fairly good depth in all events. Our weakest points are in field events. We have boys who are suited to running."

We expect to be strong in the hurdles, with Coleman, and in the 100 yard and 220 with Anderson," Reason continued. "Thomas should be fast in the 440 yard dash."

"We have young talent, and we're going to have to depend on the younger boys to be second and third man on the events."

Although the Rockets and Rockettes will be competing with some of the smaller schools, Clarendon is also entered in the Silverton event.

"The Rockets will meet Clarendon right off, and they will be the strongest team besides us in District 2-AA," said Reason.

One new event appears in the track lineup this year, the two mile run, and right now, it looks as if Jerry Lee will be the strongest man in that category, according to the coach.

Other running events will include the 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes; 880 yard dash and mile run. There will be two relays, the 440 and mile.

In field events, Wellington has men in the long jump, high jump, pole vault, discus and shot put.

Men on the track team are Tim Anderson, Darrell Thomas, Jody Coleman, Lennie Archie, Juan Granados, Jerry Lee, Sid Herring,

County Pioneer, Miss Willard Dies March 6

Miss Willie G. Willard, the last surviving member of one of the first families to settle in Collingsworth County, died Friday, March 6, in an Amarillo hospital. She was 88 years of age. She grew up in the Needwood community and continued to live in this area most of her life.

A few years ago she moved to a home in Wellington and approximately three years ago she moved to Amarillo, where she lived with a niece, Mrs. Tommie Judd.

Miss Willard, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John H. Willard, was born April 11, 1892 in Columbus, Colorado County. She was only six weeks old when she came with her family to Collingsworth County and settled in what later became the Needwood community.

Her family valued education above much else, and

1981 Rodeo Date and Chairmen Announced

Plans for the annual Chamber of Commerce Rodeo were begun by directors Monday night, March 9, when chairmen were named and the date set.

The two-day rodeo will be on Friday and Saturday, July 24 and 25. This is held traditionally in the VFW Arena in Northeast Wellington.

Mary Ann and Bill Lowe are the chairmen and will be in complete charge. A rodeo dance was also approved and Dorothy McGill, chamber treasurer, was appointed to head this committee.

New rodeo producers this year will be C&C Rodeo Co. of Childress, highly regarded among rodeo performers and fans of the sport in this part of the state. Freddy Cordell and Vance Vest are the owners.

"They will give us a good show," declared Lowe in his meeting with the chamber directors. Events will be the same as those in last year's successful rodeo.

Don Reeves, a director, pointed out that C&C rodeo stock is always excellent, and those who saw the action in the Amarillo Livestock Show Rodeo recently were actually seeing C&C bulls. These livestock leasing arrangements are a standard procedure.

Again this year, the VFW rodeo grounds, chutes and arena will be put in top condition.

Chamber directors than voted to support the attempt by United Postal Service to secure authority for intrastate service within Texas (both pickup and delivery.) This is being sought through legislative action.

Directors also voted to support the nomination of O'Brien Thompson of Amarillo as the Texas member of the Canadian River Compact Commission.

This three-man commission has one member from each Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

It is the chamber's belief that his appointment will have a beneficial effect on any water development programs on streams south of the Canadian.

An in-dept community audit, covering the entire county, was approved. This will utilize the findings of two current community audits of Wellington by West Texas Utilities and Lone Star Gas as well as a body of other information relating to the county and its resources.

The audit will be made in preparation to inviting an industrial consultant to meet with the board and members of the business community.

The chamber will take up the search for suitable industry in the county this year, but it was emphasized that those industries already

Spelling Champion To Be Determined

Collingsworth County's champion speller will be determined in the annual spelling bee Thursday, March 12, in the county court room of the courthouse. It will begin at 10 a.m., according to Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson, director.

Students from Wellington and Samnorwood schools will compete and both junior and senior divisions will be held.

The winner of the senior division, will be designated the Spelling Bee Champion and will represent the county in the regional spelling bee at Amarillo, April 25. The winner of that event will represent this part of Texas in the National Spelling Bee at Washington, D.C. later in the year.

The winner of the Junior

Spelling Bee will be invited to attend the Amarillo event but will not participate in spelling.

Both junior and senior winners from the various Panhandle counties will be honored at a luncheon.

Each student on the county level has the rules governing the spelling bee. They have studied at home and with their instructors.

Mrs. Wilson will pronounce the words in the bee Thursday, and judges will determine the winner.

The Collingsworth Bee is sponsored by the county unit of National Retired Teachers association.

In order to compete in the senior spelling bee, a student must not have reached his or her 16th birthday on the day of the national finals and must not have passed beyond the eighth grade at the time of the school finals.

Junior contestants must be in the sixth grade or below. Both a senior and junior champion will be selected for Collingsworth County.

This event is open to the public, and Mrs. Wilson invites all persons interested in competence in spelling to hear these young students.

Winner of the 1980 senior spelling bee was Le Ed Oswalt of Samnorwood. The junior winner was Amanda Massey of Wellington.

Collingsworth County has had one student to participate in the National Spelling Bee, Alta Jackson Wheeler, wife of Don Wheeler.

RENEE LACY, LESLIE BIRKEY AND TONI TRAMEL

Three Qualify in Band

Three members of That Skyrocket Band received Division I ratings in the regional UIL solo and ensemble competition at West Texas State University Saturday, February 28, George Mills, director, has announced.

These qualifiers for state competition were Leslie Birkey, baritone; Toni Tramel, French horn; and Renee Lacy, cornet. Each competed in the solo classification.

"They received the highest rating and their solos were the hardest in that division," Mills said. It was explained that each division has several categories, depending on the difficulty of the piece.

The girls will probably go to the state finals in Austin in May or June.

No Uncontested Places In Four April 4 Elections

There are no uncontested races in the April 4 elections, including city, hospital board and school trustee elections.

Absentee voting will begin Monday, March 16, and continue through Tuesday, March 31.

The last deadline, for the hospital board election passed at 5 p.m. Tuesday, March 10.

WELLINGTON SCHOOL
Late filings in the school board election, just before the Wednesday, March 4 deadline sent to 10 the number of men and women seeking the three places on the Wellington board.

Three men are running for the unexpired one-year term, now held by Jim Ingram, who was appointed to the place.

Ingram is seeking re-election, and others in the race are Bill Hall and Sammy Jett.

Six men and one woman are running for the two regular three-year terms. Filing within the last 24 hours were Bob Goforth, Shelba Lacy, John Barton, and David Caison.

Earlier, Danny Martin, Reed Souder and Kirby Campbell filed to have their names on the ballot. Campbell is running for re-election. Frank Coleman, Jr., had announced he would not be a candidate for another term. Absentee votes in this election may be cast at the school tax office in the elementary school building.

HOSPITAL BOARD
The last to have petitions filed placing their names on the hospital board ballot were Dr. J.M. Orr and J.D. Coleman.

Candidates whose names were announced earlier were Ineva Bowen, Yates Parker and Clara Boyd of Dodson.

Mrs. Bowen and Coleman are running for re-election. Elmer Feemster, the third member whose term expired, had announced he is not a candidate.

Absentee votes may be cast at the business office of Collingsworth General Hospital.

CITY OF WELLINGTON
The filing deadline for city candidates Wednesday, March 4, passed without additional office seekers filing.

Henry Sullivan and Ralph Owens are candidates for Mayor of Wellington, while four candidates are running for the two vacancies on the city council. These are A.C. Shipley, John Rainey, Sam McGill and Perry Hiatt.

Mayor Bill Hatch is not a candidate, and of the two council members whose terms expired, Owens is running for mayor and Tom Wilkins had announced he was not a candidate.

Absentee voting in the city election will be at the city offices in Bura Handley Community Center.

SAMNORWOOD SCHOOL
Five candidates are in the race for the three places on the Samnorwood School Board. Rudie Tate and Richard Bentley are candidates for re-election, and others running are Jimmy Breeding, Ray Dwyer and Guy Brandvik. Jim Ray, veteran board member and also its president, had said early in the race that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

Residents of the Samnorwood Independent School District who want to cast absentee ballots may vote in the tax office of the Samnorwood High School.

Hospital Board Pushes Debt Collections

The Collingsworth Hospital Board on Monday night heard a presentation by representatives of National Revenue Corp., a collection agency with headquarters in Columbus, Ohio, then decided to allow time for a second bid should any other agency want to present one.

This is a move by the hospital board to collect slow payments and bad debts.

Insurance on the hospital building and its contents was awarded to two Wellington agencies, Wells & Wells and 1st Wellington Agency.

Insurance on the building is $500,000 and the contents $300,000, said Ineva Bowen, board secretary.

The premium, which totals $16,000, will be payable over a three year period, with 40 percent to be paid now and 30 percent in each of the next two years.

Sut Braselton, administrator, told the board that the February average census was 22.14 patients. On several days the 28-bed hospital was full.

He also told the members that the staff has been cut from 55 to 46, and although there were more patients, he felt the employees were doing their work well.

Present were Robert Owens, president; J.D. Coleman, Mrs. Bowen, Elmer Carter and Mrs. Willie Faye Henard, board members, Dr. Reynaldo Perez and Braselton. Absent were members Lyman Daniel and Elmer Feemster.

Miss Willard attended the University of California in Berkeley and received her degree from the University of Texas. She taught in schools in Colorado, Kansas and Texas. The last two years of her teaching were in the Samnorwood School during the World War II period.

An avid reader, through the years she held an intense interest in learning. She valued her Texas and Collingsworth heritage, and she could describe vividly the years of the county's development as she grew up.

Miss Willard had the self-reliant qualities of those pioneer families that never left here.

She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Miss Willard continued to hold land interests in the Lutie community.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in Guy Owens Chapel, with the Rev. James Boswell, pastor of First Methodist Church, Memphis, officiating. Burial was in North Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Guy Owens Funeral Home.

UPS Asks Increase In Rural Service

DALLAS--A dramatic increase in package delivery service to the rural areas of Texas would be the immediate result if United Parcel Service were granted the right to pickup and deliver between all points in the state, UPS region manager Joe Dobransky said today.

To gain those rights, UPS must be granted authority by the Texas Railroad Commission. However, the Commission has maintained for some years it has no jurisdiction to grant the type of all-points coverage UPS seeks to offer. Clarification of the Commission's jurisdiction is the subject of two bills currently before the state legislature--H.B. 1116 by Rep. Craig Washington (D-Houston) and S.B. 513 by Sen. Chet Brooks (D-Pasadena.)

"Many rural communities desperately need direct service, or at least an alternative to the kind of service they're currently getting," Dobransky commented. "Our service is available today to every address in Texas that is reachable by road, but only for packages coming in or going out over state lines."

Even on a "half-service" basis, UPS delivers almost 300,000 packages a day to Texas residents and businesses and picks up another 150,000. Dobransky estimates over half of the stops made by the company's package vans in communities of less than 10,000 people.

"And thousands of stops a day are made to places that aren't near a town of any size. Places like drilling sites, ranches, souvenir shops, service stations and other off the beaten path are getting direct service every day."

Dobransky added: "It is not unusual for one of our drivers in area like the West Texas mountains, the Panhandle or the Rio Grande Valley to travel over 250 miles a day to make less than 50 delivery and pickup stops." UPS offers this service at rates comparable to U.S. parcel post.

The outcome of the proposed legislation, H.B. 1116 and S.B. 513, is expected in the near future. In addition to giving the Railroad Commission jurisdiction to hear applications for an as-needed, door-to-door service such as UPS wants to offer, the bills mandate that carriers cannot pull service out of rural areas once they have sought and been granted the rights to do so, or their authority will be canceled.

Court Approves ROW Payment

Payment for right-of-way at the rate of $1,000 per acre on a county road one-mile east of Wellington was approved by the commissioners court Monday, March 9.

This is along the east side of the Farmers Co-op Gin property which would connect Highways 203 and FM 338. When completed it would enable farmers bringing cotton to that gin to reach it without coming onto the heavily traveled US 83. Row payments will be out of the road and bridge fund. Most are less than two acres.

County Judge Bob Watson said the road would be brought up to Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation standards with the hope that funds to surface it can be obtained from money left over from a highway project.

In his report to the court, Sheriff Kenneth Maxwell told the court that the jail is staying full. The stainless steel lavatory and stool for the women's-juvenile cells have arrived and are being installed.

An inspector from the Texas Jail Standards Commission will be here April 1 to inspect the jail, Judge Watson said. The court must be able to certify the jail at that time.

The commissioners also passed a resolution urging the passage of HJR 35, which would give commissions courts the authority to set the number of justice of the peace and costable precincts in a county, ranging from one to four precincts according to need. Court members took under advisement a road problem in Precinct 1 on the road extending north of Dodson 1.5 mile leading into Oklahoma.

Kenneth Hudson and Walter Camp, landowners on that road, requested that it be graveled and some sand moved out. Judge Watson pointed out that this sand washes into the road from cultivated fields on the sides.

Members of the county historical commission were approved and these will be announced as soon as the nominees agree to serve.

Finstad New Senate Ag Staff Member

Senator Bill Sarpalius, Chairman of the Senate Agriculture Subcommittee, has hired a long-time agriculture teacher from Cal Farley's Boys Ranch to head the Subcommittee's staff. Guy Finstad, who has taught vocational agriculture for the last 22 years, will help the Senate panel.

Finstad's main duty will be to review every piece of legislation the Senate Natural Resources Committee sends to the Subcommittee. He said the number of bills referred to the Subcommittee so far has been small, but should grow rapidly as the session wears on.

"We revise legislation with which the Senators have a problem; we also do a lot of research and evaluation," Finstad said.

Finstad who is a Texas Tech graduate was at Boys Ranch for the last 20 years.

"There's just no doubt that Guy Finstad has the qualifications we need to help staff our Agriculture Subcommittee," Sarpalius said. "We are glad to get someone who really knows the subject matter of the Subcommittee. He's not a specialist in one area of agriculture but has a good broad background in all areas of agriculture. With the range of bills the Subcommittee handles, that's the knowledge we need."

Corny Seafood Bake

If you think America is a corny country—you're right.

Some folks say America is a "corny" country and they're right. We love corn. The love affair started with the Pilgrims who found it was easy to grow and wonderfully versatile, then found its way to the South where they made it their own. Early Southern cookbooks are filled with recipes for preparing corn, using it in desserts, as one-dish meals or to accompany meats.

Now, some two hundred years later, we're "cornier" than ever and still finding new uses for corn. One of the latest is an easy seafood bake that uses several varieties of fish, dipped in a pre-seasoned corn bread batter. Simply take any available fresh fish filets or shellfish and cut into serving size pieces. Dip each piece into a beaten egg mixture and coat with finely ground Pepperidge Farm Corn Bread Stuffing Mix. Bake in a moderate oven for about 20 minutes and serve with any seafood sauce.

CORNY SEAFOOD BAKE

White fish filets
Scallops
Shrimp
Clams
1 egg, beaten
1 tablespoon water
1 package Pepperidge Farm Corn Bread Stuffing, rolled fine with a rolling pin
Salt and Pepper
1/4 cup melted butter

Any assortment of seafood may be used, allowing three servings per pound. Dip fish into beaten egg mixed with water and then roll in stuffing crumbs. Season with salt and pepper and drizzle melted butter over fish. Place on baking sheet and bake at 350° for 20 to 25 minutes. Serve with tartar sauce and cocktail sauce.

Fort Worth Woman Guest Speaker As Excelsior Club Meets March 4

Mrs. Thelma Lee of Ft. Worth was the guest speaker when Excelsior Club met Wednesday, afternoon, March 4. Miss Marie Shadid was hostess in her home.

Mrs. Lee told of her work in Christian leadership that has taken her to many countries of the world, including the Philippines, Japan, German, Holland, Wales, Scotland, England, Switzerland, France, Italy, Greece, Israel, Columbia, Peru, Bolivia, Jamaica, Bermuda, Mexico and Canada.

She shared incidents, both those that were humorous and others that were a hardship, or at least a discomfort.

Mrs. Lee speaks for various churches and church groups, including Church Women United. She also appears at retreats, Christian camps. She is associated, she says, with people from all churches, working for a belt of prayer around the world.

She has been in this work for twenty years, but only after the death of her husband, 14 years ago, did she begin her overseas mission.

Her work is ecumenical, with both Catholics and Protestants.

She recounted one story of the strength of Christian faith among German youth. As she was working in a youth camp in West Berlin, handbills were distributed among them for the film, "The Cross and the Switchblade," showing at a theatre. The boys and girls were enthusiastic, and they marched to see it, 2,000 strong, filling a square that was against the Iron Curtain. "I could look through the iron fence dividing the city and see the East German soliders guarding the entrances," said Mrs. Lee.

She is a long-time friend of the Shadid family and she is also the aunt of Sut Braselton, who came here recently as administrator of Collingsworth General Hospital.

Mrs. Russell Yates, president, conducted the business meeting.

A dessert plate was served to Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Braselton, and to these members: Mrs. Yates, Mrs. Louise Vaughan, Mrs. E.F. Bartlett, Miss Bonnie Willis, Miss Dorothy Robertson, Mrs. L.W. Wells, Miss Hattie D. Wells, Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch, Miss Rose Shadid and Miss Marie Shadid.

U.I.L. Vote

We read that University Interscholastic League members have voted to add second-place teams to state play-offs in football, basketball, baseball and volleyball with the new rule to go into effect for the 1982-83 season.

We read this news with joy in our hearts and only wish U.I.L. had made these changes way back when, at least two decades ago when we began covering sports in this area.

U.I.L. members also voted to cut the number of basketball games, reducing the number of non-district games. The new basketball rule limits teams to 22 regular season games plus three tournaments. Under current rules, teams could play 24 non-district games, three tournaments, in addition to district games. In districts with 10 teams, and a double round-robin schedule, schools now play 18 district games. "By the time they got to the state tournaments they were up in the 40s," UIL Athletic Director Bill Farney said. The vote was 850-211 to limit basketball games.

In football, teams will play 10 games in 10 weeks during the regular season. Play-offs will begin with games pitting district runner-ups against winners of adjoining districts. Teams from the same district, if they advance, would not meet until the state quarterfinals. Another change in the football play-off system says game sites will be selected on an alternating basis for teams which previously have met in post-season play. The team that was the visitor the last time the schools met may insist on play at its field.

The new basketball and volleyball play-off rules say teams from the same district would not meet until the regional finals. In all the voting, the new proposals passed heavy majority.

Over the years, we have seen many times outstanding teams fail to reach the play-offs due to one call by an official in football or basketball. When U.I.L. allowed first and second place finishers to advance in track, tennis and golf, we have seen times that the same district had the first and second place finishers at the state track meet.

Our high school athletes do not always play their best in crucial situations. By advancing the first and second teams, we feel this state will see the time when a district 2nd place team will eventually be the state champion in a team sport.

We feel sure, one of the main reasons U.I.L. members approved these changes is the economics involved. By having twice as many play-off games, revenue to member schools will be increased because play-off games attract the best attendance, the biggest gates. We feel it is good for the schools as well as the athletes.

In talking with winning coaches over the years, it is often the feeling of these coaches that their hardest contests to win were the district contests.

Thinking back over the years, we have seen many, many second place district teams hang up their uniforms when we felt these second place teams were probably the best in the district, but on the night that really counted, a bad break or a bad call was the eventual cause for the loss.

Injuries also play a big part in deciding winners in all athletic contests. A team which has an injured player in a key position, or even a sudden illness, will not play up to its potential. Athletes spend months and even years preparing for the opportunity to advance into the state play-offs. We welcome the news that U.I.L. is soon to advance two teams from each district into play-off ranks.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — State agriculture officials last week closed the Texas border to California trucks carrying citrus fruit . . . and California wants the U.S. Supreme Court to re-open the Texas gates.

Texas Agriculture Commissioner Reagan Brown imposed the quarantine to halt California produce unless it has been fumigated or placed in cold storage to kill adult Medflies (Mediterranean fruit flies) and their maggots.

The action touched off a legal war between the states.

Allied with major growers there, the State of California sued directly in the Supreme Court, and won the Justice Department's help in seeking a restraint on the quarantine.

The Justice Department officials argued that Texas "speculative concern" about the potential damage from the fruit flies was far outweighed by the real damage the quarantine is inflicting on the California economy.

In response, Brown said that Texas growers are going to sue for damages if the Medflies are allowed into the Lone Star State.

He quipped that if he had not ordered the quarantine, those same growers would have tarred and feathered him.

The federal government's support of California came as no surprise to Texas officials. The U.S. Dept. of Agriculture had supervised the California program to get rid of the flies and may not want to admit the program failed, said one official. And, too, the home state of President Ronald Reagan has political clout all the way to the White House.

Unemployment Aid Cutback
The Texas House last week approved a bill making it harder for persons who voluntarily quit working or who are fired to collect unemployment benefits.

If the bill becomes law, a person cannot receive unemployment compensation until he or she has worked for at least six weeks in another job.

The version by Rep. Bill Messer, D-Beaton, was only a bit more moderate than the Senate-approved version. Messer's bill makes allowances for servicemen who do not re-enlist and for a person who quits a job to move with a spouse to another city. The toned-down bill goes back to the Senate for approval.

Motor Fuels Tax

The Legislature has long had a problem seeking ways to replace depleting highway construction revenues. The state's highway system has been funded by a "user's tax," the nickel-per-gallon tax on gasoline and diesel, but Texans have been driving less in recent years, apparently because of the rising cost of fuel.

Governor Bill Clements and House Speaker Bill Clayton have dusted off the plan to raise the state's motor fuels tax, currently lowest in the nation.

Clayton said last week that Clements had predicted gasoline prices may be going down in four to six months because of a glut in supply, and that a 2-cents-per-gallon increase was supported by the pair.

The state would receive about $100 million per year for every penny it raises the tax and Clayton estimated that inflated highway construction costs would probably drain $900 million from the general revenue fund in 1982-83.

Clements Lore

For his part, Clements made political friends in some areas and enemies in others in two non-related incidents last week which add more color to the already-rich "Clements lore."

STATE REPRESENTATIVE
FOSTER WHALEY

I do not intend to make a "Dear Abby" column out of this space, but I thought you would enjoy one of the hundreds of typical letters I get each week and my reply.

Dear Mr. Whaley:

"The value and worth of the arts is immeasurable in the total education of young persons. What with federal funding to be cut off, state and local moneys have become of utmost importance and an absolute must if we are to wholly and completely educate the future citizenry of Texas.

"For this reason, additionally to the enrichment of our own lives--both my husband and I have long supported the Amarillo Symphony and the Amarillo Art Center. The production 'Texas' in Palo Duro Canyon each summer season is another both historical and cultural venture which hopefully will continue to be shown.

"The 10.5 million dollar request by the Texas Commission on the Arts is indeed a very small percent of the total budget.

"We urgently request that you support this figure and vote for it. How will you vote?"

"Respectfully submitted,
"(s) Mr. and Mrs. P."

My Reply

Dear Mr. and Mrs. P.:

Last week two ladies brought a 5-year-old blind and mentally retarded youth by my office and pleaded with me to recognize the tremendous needs of the school for the blind and multiple handicapped students. Instead of asking for $10.5 million as you have for the arts, they were asking for $9,950,000.00.

ONE OF THE WORST

Although this is not a Collingsworth County picture, the black duster of April 14, 1935 was one of the worst to cover the Panhandle during the Dust Bowl days of the 1930s. Several county residents who were students in West Texas State University were returning by bus, and were caught just outside Amarillo. The rolling, boiling blackness was awesome as it came toward them broadside. Several bus passengers were from the north and east and their fright was real. Perhaps to reassure them, the bus driver said that these things happened every few days in Texas. Not a passenger disputed his statement. The blackness of this and other storms like it cannot be imagined by those who live in the area 47 years later. This was rich black soil, stripped from land in Kansas, the Oklahoma Panhandle and North Plains.

But the Legislative Budget Board had cut their request back to $9,154,000.00.

Last summer I made an 85-mile trip from Pampa to Wellington in an effort to prevent the Texas Department of Human Resources from turning 4 ladies (74-88) out of a nursing home because of a curtailment of funds. One of these had no relatives and no place to go.

The State now awards only $33.00 per month aid to dependent and poor children. Many teachers are leaving the profession because they can make a great deal more with industry.

Every day we get from 20 to 40 letters from people representing what they believe is a worthy cause.

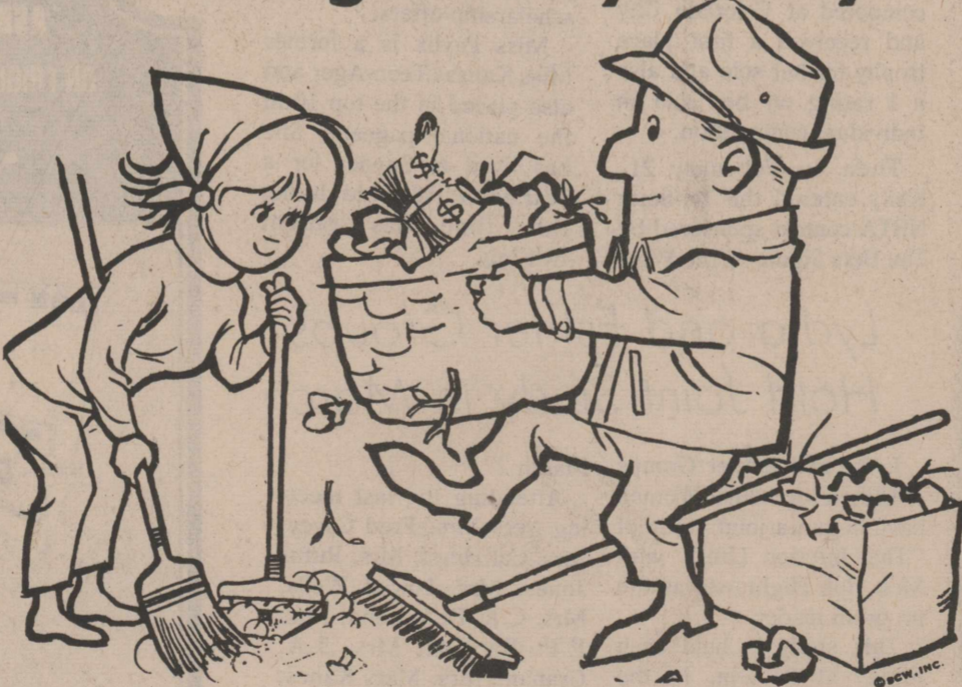

Every day I have untold cards, letters and phone calls telling me to hold down spending, cut taxes and not to be voting new taxes. Now, I would like to ask you what kind of priority would you give to supporting the arts under these circumstances? Would you neglect the dependent children, the blind, the old people in nursing homes the teachers and yield to those who have the best lobby?

Please Mr. and Mrs. P., how would you vote?

Sincerely,
Foster Whaley
State Representative

P.S. In 1967 I helped plan a statewide convention to be held in Amarillo that brought families from almost every county in Texas. It was my suggestion for this group to view the musical drama "Texas." We have been advised this has had a most dramatic affect on attendance of Texas from that day forward. We, too, appreciate the Arts.

Norwood Loses in 1st Christian Bi-District Game Hears Guest

"I think we got everything out of every player they could possibly get out," declared Coach Ralph Decker of the Samnorwood Eagles, but size and number of reserves was against them and they bowed to Valley High School 62-55 in the bi-district game in Clarendon Tuesday night, March 10.

The Eagles were gaining on their opponent. "With 5 more minutes we'd have won," believes Decker.

He and the Samnorwood community are justly proud of the team which could field no more than 5 or 6 players all year long, and who went into a game that with reserves counted 9 or 10.

Valley's Ray Williams was hard to handle. "They just had us outmanned. We played a 1-2-2 zone most of the game, but when they're taller than you are, you just have to play super the whole game."

Samnorwood's tallest player was 6-1 Steve Knoll, who spent much of the game in foul trouble, finishing with four. The Eagles had no one else over 6 foot. The 6-1 Richey Williams-and in the fourth quarter, Fuston-took advantage by scoring from inside often.

Samnorwood had upset on its mind throughout the first quarter as it took advantage of numerous Patriot fouls to build a 16-10 lead.

The Eagles hit 6 of 8 free throws in the first quarter. Arturo Alfaro, hit 3 of 4 from the Charity Strip. Points from the free-throw line again were available for the Eagles in the second stanza, but they hit only 5 of 10.

Samnorwood, finishing the season at 20-11, got within seven (62-55), but not until the game clock had run inside of 20 second.

Valley, in the playoffs for the first time in the eight year history of the school, will take on Hartley, a 64-53 winner over Follett last Friday in an opening round regional contest at Level-land's Texas Dome.

Kathleen Reeves Plays In Golden Spread Game

AMARILLO--On Saturday, March 28, The Golden Girls High School All-Star Game will be played as part of the National Women's Invitational Tournament sponsored by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Sports Committee through its N.W.I.T. Committee. Game-time is 7 p.m. in the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum.

Kathleen Reeves, who has starred for four years on the Rockettes, will represent Wellington. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Reeves and will play on the east team.

Tickets for this game are available here and may be purchased at the Chamber of Commerce office, according to Mrs. Margaret Vines, secretary.

"This game will give deserved recognition to 30 girls who represent the cream of high school girl's basketball players in the area," according to Ed Mills, All-Star Game Coordinator.

"It has become an annual event giving outstanding high school seniors an opportunity to play before large crowds of basketball enthusiasts," he continued.

The NWIT begins Thursday, March 27, and features 8 top women's collegiate basketball teams from throughout the nation. It is the tournament's 13th year and the 10th year for the High School All-Star Game. Action begins 1 p.m. daily and continues to about 10:30 p.m. Four women's collegiate games are scheduled Thursday and Friday. On Saturday four NWIT play-off games will be supplemented by the Golden Spread All-Star Game at 7 p.m.

"Many Golden Spread All-Stars become outstanding women's collegiate basketball players throughout the country. College coaches involved in the NWIT have the opportunity during the tournament to observe the area's top women's athletes compete before large crowds. Several scholarships have been awarded based on seniors' performance in the Golden Spread All-Star Game," Mills explained.

Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $2.00 for students. They are good for all games each day of the tournament. Children under 12 accompanied by a parent will be admitted free.

Watson at THFC Hearing

County Judge Bob Watson appeared Tuesday, March 3, before the Texas Health Facilities Commission in Austin to testify for the Panhandle Health Systems Agency, which he serves as president.

This hearing concerned an application of South Plains Provider, Inc., application to place a National Health Service dentist in Dimmitt.

The action was approved by PHSA prior to the Austin hearing.

Judge Watson also attended the Panhandle legislative breakfast Thursday morning, when all members of the Panhandle delegation gets together. He also spent the day visiting representatives and senators at the other state agencies.

This UT Clinic Gives No Shots

AUSTIN--University professors are no more immune from what Hollywood calls the "Middle Age Crazy" years than the average citizen.

Those are the years when adults in the 35-to-45 age range feel consumed by pressures both from their own children and from their aging parents.

In order to improve the performance of its teachers, The University of Texas has recognized those pressure years by offering Mid-Life Transition Workshops for faculty members. The sessions help teachers to understand the dilemmas of midlife and to manage stress.

The First Century Told in Pictures

AUSTIN--More than a thousand photographs in a new picture book will bring to life the past events of The University of Texas.

Photographs in "The University of Texas: A Pictorial Account of Its First Century" range from the first eight-man faculty in 1883 to the Tokamak fusion research device in 1980, from a 1922 Varsity Circus parade where women students carried signs "No votes-no babies" to a party raid in the 1950's.

The book was compiled and written by Dr. Margaret Berry and published by The University of Texas Press.

Tennis Team Wins 12 Matches in Vernon Play

The Wellington High School tennis team opened its season by winning 12 matches in the Vernon Tournament Friday and Saturday, March 6 and 7. The freshman team finished in second place behind Vernon by only one point.

"Vernon was much tougher this year than last," said Coach Ronny Williams, pleased with the showing his players made.

Wellington players will compete in the Spearman tournament Friday and Saturday, March 13-14, Williams said. Only 8 teams will play.

"Spearman is a strong 3A school and they really promote tennis," he added.

Thirty six teams played in the Vernon Tournament, with all seniors competing in A division; sophomores and juniors in B division and freshmen only in C division.

Williams announced the Wellington results:

In the senior division, Channy Wood lost to Curtis Curry of Burkburnett 8-2.

Brent Long lost to Mark Smith of Vernon 8-9 and 7-5 in a tie breaker.

Wade Williams beat Terry Foster of Memphis 8-4, then lost to Leland Giles of Amarillo Caprock in the quarter finals in the B division.

Lynn Bartlett beat Steve Snider of Holiday 8-0 and then defeated Manual Jolana of Quanah 8-0 and then won over Todd Roberson of Wellington 6-2, 6-4, in the finals.

Roberson had defeated Pat O'Brien of Holiday 8-3; Robert Rasmussen 9-7 and Mike Masie of Iowa Park 8-1, before losing to Bartlett in the finals.

In the girls division, Jannon Thomason won over

Angela Mayo of Petrolia 8-2 before losing to Louetta Barton of Iowa Park 8-2 in the quarter finals.

Debbie Bergvall lost to Lu Ann Luedtke of Northside Wichita Falls 8-6.

Shanna Urban and Cathy Crelia lost the girls doubles match to Richardson and Fisher of Memphis 8-6.

Belinda Crelia and Carla Nunnelley in another doubles game beat Moore and Shae of Petrolia 8-0, then lost to Jones and Keisling of Vernon 8-2 in the quarter finals.

Lynette Spillman lost to Tracey Hall of Iowa Park 8-2. Lesa Powell beat Annette Wilhelm of Holiday 8-6, defeated Lorane Lane of Vernon 8-6; and Michelle Montgomery of Memphis 6-4, 4-6 and 6-2 before losing in the finals to Melissa Parish of Holiday 6-2-6-7 and the tiebreaker, 7-5.

Volleyball Tournament Set April 4

Wellington Young Homemakers met Tuesday, March 3, in the Heritage Room for a program by Jean Chandler on "Decorating with Fabrics."

The hostesses were Juanita Upchurch and Rose Mary Throne. Members present were Mrs. Throne, Mrs. Upchurch, Dian Souder, Mary Lou Souder, Carol Campbell, Julie Barjenbruch, Vicki Porter, Lonetta Ingram, Freida Hartman and Nancy Harris.

YH members also made plans for the Volleyball tournament they will sponsor on April 4, for both men and women.

The number of teams will be limited and those wishing to play are urged to get their entries in early.

The team name, names of players and entry fee of $6 should be sent to Freida Hartman, Route 1, Wellington.

Trophies will be presented to first, second, third and consolation winners.

Nazarene Revival To Close Sunday

The Rev. Linard Wells, an evangelist from Grand Prairie, is preaching during the revival at the Wellington Church of the Nazarene.

The meeting, which began Tuesday, March 10, will end on Sunday, March 15. Services are at 7 p.m.

A graduate of Bethany Nazarene College, Rev. Wells has been a pastor of churches for 18 years and in addition has preached in many revivals.

The public is invited to attend, according to Rodell Byers, one of the members helping with plans.

Benefit Tournament Set For Melissa Guthrie

The Hedley School is sponsoring a pee wee basketball tournament Thursday through Saturday, March 19, 21 and 22, with the proceeds to go in a fund to benefit Melissa Guthrie.

Miss Guthrie, now a student in Hardin Simmons University, Abilene, will enter M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston in June for plastic surgery.

Clovis McCary, junior high coach, announced plans. Eight teams are entered, boys and girls from Samnorwood, Hedley, McLean and Wellington. Each team will play all other teams. Players will be in fourth grade and below.

Play will begin at 4 p.m. Thursday when Samnorwood and Hedley girls meet. Other games that evening include:

Samnorwood and Hedley boys, 5 p.m.; McLean and Wellington girls 6 p.m.; and McLean and Wellington boys, 7 p.m.

Friday games are: Samnorwood and McLean girls, 4 p.m.; Samnorwood and Wellington boys, 5 p.m.; Wellington and Hedley girls, 6 p.m.; and Wellington and Hedley boys 7 p.m.

The final session Saturday will include:

Samnorwood and Wellington girls 4 p.m.; Samnorwood and Wellington boys, 5 p.m.; McLean and Hedley girls 6 p.m. and McLean and Hedley boys 7 p.m.

There will be 5-minute quarters. Every team will receive a trophy.

Melissa, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Guthrie, who live northwest of Wellington, was stricken with bone cancer involving part of the facial bones when she was in the fifth grade and received treatment over a long period of time at the Houston hospital.

Because of her age, plastic surgery could not be done successfully, as this must be done after full bone growth is reached.

She will be in Houston most of the summer. Miss Guthrie will be hospitalized part of the time, and at other times she will receive treatment as an outpatient. Her mother will be with her.

"The tournament is being sponsored to help this courageous young girl to win a battle that so few of us have to fight," said McCary, a former coach of Miss Guthrie.

There will be a concession stand, and anyone wishing to donate brownies or rice crispies should contact Mrs. Cary Don Neeley, 447-5893; Mrs. Ben Carson, 447-4778; or Mrs. Donald Langley, 447-5413.

Parks and Wildlife Hearing Set

Collingsworth landowners are reminded that the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department will conduct a public hearing Tuesday, March 17 at 7 p.m. in the county courthouse.

The purpose is to gather information on the landowners wishes concerning proposed hunting, fishing and trapping regulations for the county.

The findings will have a bearing on the seasons, bag limits and means and methods of taking wildlife in this county.
