DEATH CAR DRIVER TRAILED

TURKS IN DRIVE SEVER ARMENIA FROM ALL HELP

Pasha Leads Force, Georgians Prepare to Defend Batum.

Communications Cut Between Alexandropul and Tiflis; Red Cross Active.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Erivan, capital of the Aremian republic, has been evacuated; communications between the great railway junction of Alexandropol and Tiflis, capital of Georgia, have been cut, completely isolating Armenia from the outside world, and the road from Ardahan to Ardanucht is swarming with Armenian women and children, fleeing down the valley of the Tchorok river toward Batum, according to cable dispatches received by the headquarters of the near east relief here today.

At the same time reports were received that Mustapha Kemal Pasha in person is at the head of the Turkish nationalist forces operating against Armenia, and has ordered the Georgian government to evacuate Batum, on the Black sea, and that the Georgian army has been mobilized to defend that port.

A cable message to Mrs. Vericona Harris of Santa Cruz, Cal., temporary head of the near east relief work at Tiflis, says :

"Following official communication received from the commandant of the forces of the Armenian republic November 8:

Armistice Necessary.

"The military command of the Armenian republic was obliged to send part of our troops operating against the Turks in the region of Alexandropol against the Tartar rebels who were acting in our rear at Mount Ag Baba. These circumstances made necessary negotiations, the result of which was a temporary armistice (with the Turks) from November 7.

"The French mission in Tiflis reports Alexandropol taken. Have no news from Alexandropol or Kars, but all Americans believed to be safe. Communications between Alexandropol and Tiflis cut indefinitely."

Cable dispatches reaching the Near East relief headquarters Friday from Captain Serge Bekzetian, Armenian diplomatic representative in Tiflis, stated that the remants of the Armenian army retreating from Alexandropol had withdrawn directly northward along the Arpa-Chai (barley river) into the Georgian providence of Okahalkalaki.

100,000 in Flight.

One hundred thousand refugees were said to have fled before the Turks across the frontiers of Armenia into Georgia, as well as into the interior of Armenia. The cablegram said these refugees were without food, clothing or shelter and that the country into which they had fled was barren of supplies.

Charles V. Vickey, general secretary o fthe Near East relief, said today that cargoes were now on the seas bound for Batum, consisting of 5,813,000 cases and bales of old clothing and shoes; 5,220 bags of rice, 1,680 bags of sugar and 260 tons of soap and other supplies. The boat Gul Djemal, leaving New York November 20, will carry 1,000 tons of wheat flour, 400 tons of rice and 100 tons of sugar for relief purposes in the stricken district.

"Every precaution will be taken to prevent these supplies reaching other than the refugee population," Mr. Vivrey declared.

Troops, says the dispatch, have occupied all localities of the district of Castua without struggle or incident.

Chester Leaps to Freedom From Flying Train

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 15.—Dennis Chester, who was being brought back to Kansas City from Great Falls, Mont., in custody of detectives to face a charge of murdering Miss Florence Barton, Kansas City society girl escaped tonight by a sensational plunge through the window of a state room on a Burlington passenger train as it pulled out of Broken Bow, Nebr., according to advices received here.

Chester was aided in his escape by confederates who fired a volley of shots into the stateroom after he leaped through the window of the moving train, it was reported.

Chester was alone in the stateroom with E. E. Beasley, a Kansas City detective, and was not handcuffed at the time, it was said.

GOLD MINING IS BEGGAR'S TASK

Production Drops Two-Thirds in Five Years, Miner States.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 15.—Gold miners "are engaged in a hand-to-mouth existence," and the output of gold has decreased two-thirds in five years, George E. Collins, governor of the Colorado chapter, told the American Mining congress at tonight's session of the twenty-third annual convention which opened here today.

Mr. Collins said the gold output in the last five years has fallen from $22,000,000 to $7,000,00 a year, "and the bottom has not yet been reached."

"The nation's gold reserve" he said, "great as it is, would not begin even to meet the Victory notes and War savings stamps which mature early in 1923."

Pleading for a recommendation by the American Mining Congress for re-establishment of the war finance corporation, Eugene Myer, Jr., former general manager of that body, told the convention the most important commodity of the country are "backed up at the ports, failing of export."

He said during its career, the war finance corporation had loaned "about $400,000,000 of which about $280,000 has been repaid."

SHIPPING BOARD GETS DEFENSE FROM BENSON

Admiral Benson Points to Size of Undertaking; Fault-Finding Easy.

Promises All "Wrong-Doers" Exposed by Probe Will Be Prosecuted.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 15.—Replying to critics of the shipping board and emergency fleet corporation Rear Admiral William S. Benson, chairman of the board, declared in an address here tonight before the South Atlantic Ports Association, that his "fellow countrymen" could depend upon it that no wrong doer connected with the board "will escape if his wrong doing is called to my attention."

"Not only have I insisted upon the closest watch upon all matters," said Chairman Benson, "but I have followed the work of the shipping board in every port of the world with the one thought in mind that we now reach that crucial moment which spells either the success of failure of a permanent merchant marine.

"There is no effort on our part to shirk whatever responsibility we have assumed. We have insisted that all times, the records are open to the public. Every facility is offered to those who desire information.

Easy To Pick Flaws

"It is an easy matter for any one to pick flaws in an organization like the shipping board. We had to train 300,000 shipbuilders and in the manning of our ships we have had to train thousands of men. Of course, in an organization of this magnitude, you will find here and there evidences of wrong doing and now and then you will uncover a systematic effort to defraud.

"It was necessary for the shipping board to employ men whose sole responsibility was uncovering of wrongdoing and these men were charged with a heavy responsibility. The men who were depended upon to be checked upon those who might be tempted to wrong, bear a heavy responsibility if they failed us, but in an organization spending more than three billion dollars, whereas, the largest steamship operator in the world, millions of dollars are expended from day to day, it would be humanely impossible to prevent all wrong doing or to do business without suffering financial losses from time to time."

Men of vision will take into consideration the whole picture presented by shipping problems, Chairman Benson asserted, recalling the work done by the American merchant marine during the war and precising the vision of Edward Hurley, who as chairman of the board after the armistice went ahead with the shipbuilding program.

Had Heavy Responsibility

"My predecessor, John Barton Payne, had a heavy responsibility placed upon him, when he stepped into the office made vacant through Mr. Hurley's resignation," Admiral Benson said. "Thousands of claims amounting to millions of dollars, the jobs of more than 300,000 men involved in the settlement of these claims, problems of reconstruction are only a few of the many pressing matters that came before him in a day's work."

Responsibility for the establishment of a permanent merchant marine rests with the American people as well as the board, Chairman Benson declared adding that "it is the responsibility

HARDING DEFIES PERILOUS ROADS

President-Elect Makes It to Brownsville by Automobile.

By Associated Press.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Nov. 15.—President-elect Harding permanently abandoned his storm besieged vacation cottage at Point Isabel today and found refuge in Brownsville from the wintry norther that has broken up his outing on the gulf coast.

He made the trip by automobile, travelling in luck and covering the twenty miles across the desolate prairie in a little less than two hours. The dirt trail over which he came, pronounced impassable yesterday, had improved over night and except for a few detours and much harmless skidding the journey was without incident.

The motor road was chosen by the president-elect despite the fact that the narrow gauge special train on which he made an unsuccessful attempt to escape last night from the marooned point had been held in readiness for a renewed essay today. The rescue party of automobiles spent most of the forenoon picking a practicable way to Point Isabel, and Mr.

STATE SEEKING YEGGS' DEATH

Prosecutor Questions Jurors Closely on Extreme Penalty.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Nov. 15.—Tom Slaughter and Fulton Green, who are alleged to have confessed to robbing banks in Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, Arkansas, Missouri and Kentucky, were today placed on trial for their lives, under indictments charging first degree murder for the killing of Deputy Sheriff Row Brown in this city on October 10.

The state is battling hard in the preliminaries for the death penalty, questioning each prospective juror closely on the question of conscientious scruples against the extreme penalty of the law.

Judge W. L. Crawford of Dallas, who came here presumably to take part in the defense, will not represent the men at the trial. The reason was not assigned.

The entire court house is under military protection by a detachment of machine gun company men detailed from Pine Bluff.

Every person who enters the court room is searched for weapons.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Storm warnings were displayed tonight on the gulf coast east of the mouth of the Mississippi river and on the Atlantic coast from the Florida straits northward to Delaware breakwaters as the result of the disturbances now centered over the east central gulf of Mexico. The influence of the storm is widespread, according to a weather bureau announcement, being attended by general rains in the south Atlantic, middle Atlantic and east gulf states.

Teperatures remain below normal in virtually all parts of the country east of the Mississippi river and decidedly blewo normal in the gulf states.

'THE CITY THAT FAITH BUILT'

BRITONS IN U. S. AGAIN WARNED OF IRISH THREAT

Little Rock Police Urged By Consul to Protect English There.

Three to Die for Each Irishman Is Warning to Embassy.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 15.—Little Rock police today were asked in a letter from British Consul W. Runarkerker of St. Louis to protect British subjects in this district.

The consul's letter quoted a warning purporting to be from the "amalgamated Irish societies of America" which declared that the lives of three Englishmen in the country would be taken in reprisal for the death of every Irishman at the hands of English soldiers or police, on or after November 14.

The warning quoted in Mr. Runarkerer's letter, it was said, was sent to the chief secretary for Ireland and is being distributed in this country by the British Ambassador at Washington.

There are few unnaturalized Englishmen in Little Rock and vicinity and so far as could be learned no Irishmen connected with the organization credited with sending the warning.

SAW HORSE'S OWNER IN N. Y. EXPLOSION

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The appearance in Wall Street shortly after the explosion September 16 of the man supposed to have driven the horse that hauled the wagon load of explosives to the scene was discovered today by Raymond C. Clark, a former labor foreman questioned by Chief Assistant District Attorney Talley.

Clark was called in connection with the investigation of the theory put forth last week by the New York Evening World that the disaster was the result of a labor "war." The theory was scouted by Clark in his examination today.

Saw Horse's Owner

"I saw one man, excited, who was pleading 'that's my horse' " said Clark. The man, he added, was on the "bridge" occupied by the construction company above the sidawlk at Wall and Broad streets and when other spectators were put off the "bridge" this man was allowed to remain. One of the foremen later put him off.

Clark declared he had not been warned by members of any labor organization not to talk and that, while he had been shot and wounded since the explosion, the attack had no connection with any labor disputes.

Knew Nothing of Explosion

Asserting he knew nothing of the explosion, Clark told the assistant district attorney that the day before Albert Volk, his former employer, testified before the joint legislative committee investigating the alleged "building trust" the contractor "all but begged me to say I was shot as a result of a labor dispute."

"He asked me who shot me" Clark continued, "and when I asked him why he wanted to know, he said a cloud was hanging over his head in connection with the explosion. I do not know what he meant."

Clark asserted that the driver of the wagon made no mention of any load that had to be delivered to the wrecking company.

Vernon Garage, 36 Automobiles Burn; Loss $80,000

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Nov. 15.—Fire said to have originated from defective wiring destroyed the White garage together with 36 cars and two trucks stored in the garage, about 3 o'clock Monday morning.

The loss will aggregate $80,000 with a number of high priced cars in the garage covered by insurance. About half of the cars burned were Fords, and the rest expensive ones.

The stock of accessories, vulcanizing and repairing plant was owned by H. C. Baker and the building by Will Piper of Denton, both oil men with extensive interests.

Insurance was carried by Baker & Piper. The garage was the largest in the city and at all times was filled with cars. The fire company was handicapped by the extreme cold weather.

VENIZELOS MAY LOSE ELECTION

Returns of Greek Balloting Show Opposition Ahead.

ATHENS, Nov. 15.—The opposition claims a sweeping victory, even the personal defeat of Venizelos in the city of Piraeus.

The election is a great surprise to the government, which announces it will resign if it is defeated. The Venizelists are alarmed, but consider that nothing is certain as yet because the results of only 400 out of 3,000 districts are known.

Incomplete returns of the voting in Athens indicate a slight majority in this city for the opposition to the Venizelist party, while scattered returns from the provinces show opposition gains.

GALVESTON LIFTS WHEAT EMBARGO

Sullivan of the Great Lakes naval training station, as a part of the naval machine HS-2L, which left Great Lakes last Wednesday and is believed to have been wrecked in a storm shortly afterwards. Search for the bodies of the three members of the crew was continued today without success.

SEEK MEXICAN AS SLAYER OF ARCHIE MARTIN

Car Which Brutally Killed And Deserted Boy Is Partly Traced.

Man 'In Desperate Trouble' Telephones to Girl Here; Police Net Spreads.

At midnight Monday police and officers here and in every city between Wichita Falls and Fort Worth and Ranger and Failed in their efforts to apprehend Joe Torreas, garage mechanic, whom the officers are seeking in connection with the investigation as to who was the driver of the "death car" which ran over and fatally injured Archie Martin, aged 10, of 904 Scott street, at noon Monday where Tenth and Scott streets intersect.

The driver of the car was traced in his flight out the Archer City road to the general store of F. J. Block, about three miles south of Lake Wichita. He telephoned back to Wichita Falls to talk to a young woman here whom police later investigated. The driver gave the grocer a gallon of gasoline as pay for the long distance telephone toll to Wichita Falls.

"In Serious Trouble"

He explained that "he was in serious trouble and that he had no money." He could not get in connection with the girl he wanted to talk to. Police say that he called the Oklahoma Garage here, where he formerly worked, and asked that someone there call the girl to the telephone.

A man by the name of Joe Torreas was under arrest on a speeding charge at Scott and Ninth streets a few minutes before Martin was killed Monday. He suddenly broke away from conversation with Motorcycle Officer Bobo, opened his engine and started out Scott going south at the rate of fifty some odd miles an hour.

Killed Small Boy

A man answering the description of Torreas drove the car that killed Martin. The boy was crossing Tenth street with a woman on the north side of the street. The car knocked him in the air, caught him on the radiator and bore him across the street and fifteen yards farther out Scott until it dropped the human burden.

The body rolled off the car to the pavement. The driver sped on, Motorcycle Officer Bobo in pursuit. After a run of three or four blocks the police motorcycle suddenly went out of commission and the driver of the auto made his getaway.

Lives Hours Despite Wreck

Passersby called an ambulance from Merkle and Lunn, undertakers, and the boy was driven to a local hospital. His skull broken, head mutilated, arms and legs broken, thoracic cavity smashed in and many ribs broken, yet he lived for about three hours. The car probably ran over the body when he hit the sidewalk because the tire left its bloody imprint at regular intervals along the pavement for a block distant from the scene.

"The boy looked like a bundle of rags atop the radiator of the machine," a negro witness told the police. "By the time the car got across the street I saw that it was a boy and a few yards farther on I saw it 'unload'. Everything happened so quickly that I could not tell when the auto hit the lad. He was walking with a woman. She stopped and he stepped in front of the speeding car."

After the motorcycle chase ended other automobiles here took up the pursuit. Peace officers at Henrietta, Seymour, Archer City, Fort Worth, Ranger, Graham and Bowie were notified of the racing Hudson car and given a description of the driver.

Trades Gas For Phone Toll

Long distance telephone calls by The Record News to Bowie, Archer City, Henrietta and Seymour brought the reports late Monday night that the driver of the car had not been seen in those cities. Coupled with the fact that the driver was evidently without funds, because he had to trade gasoline for the telephone call to Wichita Falls, these reports led the police to believe that he had probably sought to turn back to Wichita Falls.

Detectives DeGraffenried and Jackson were working on that theory at a late hour Monday night.

They were trying to find him by seeking the woman in the case. The driver telephoned a woman here whom the police know, but he failed to get her. She is a woman of good family. Married, she deserted her husband here, the police say, sometime ago to travel to another state with a new lover. The police brought her back at that time.

Watch the Woman.

She is said to be very closely connected with the same Joe Torreas who was under arrest on Scott street at Ninth just before the accident. Torreas was arrested by the police

PROXY WEDLOCK OF COUPLE SEPARATED IN ONE MANSION BY BARRED DOORS IS AIRED

GENEVA, Ills., Nov. 15.—The proxy wedding of Elida Piza, daughter of Emil Piza, wealthy planter of San Jose, Costa Rica, and Herbert P. Crane, millionaire son of the late Richard T. Crane, the iron master, was described in court here today by Mr. Piza.

The Costa Rican coffee planter came here from his home in Central America to answer charges contained in his son-in-law's cross-complaint to Mrs. Crane's suit for separate maintenance.

The sixty year old millionaire posed as a man of fifty when he met the youthful Costa Rican belle four years ago, Mrs. Crane's father said. Mr. Crane, he said, voluntarily offered a marriage settlement when the details of the proxy wedding were arranged, but the promise, he added, was never carried out.

Mr. Piza was questioned by his daughter's attorney regarding his acquaintance with the late Gaby Deslys, the Parisian dancer. In his cross petition Mr. Crane declared he was forced to intercede and affect a monetary settlement with the dancer on behalf of his father-in-law. Mr. Piza denied the claim and said his acquaintance with her was only casual.

The Cranes have occupied separate quarters in Mr. Crane's Wild Rose farm here more than two years, with locked and barred doors between them, according to the testimony today. Mrs. Crane is the mother of a two-year-old son who the father had never seen until they met in court here a few days ago.

on October 3 and charged with speeding and with running with an open muffler. He spent the night in jail. The next day the fine was paid. It is believed that Torreas may seek to come back to borrow money from the girl.

The police at Ranger and Cisco told Night Chief Humphries over the telephone Monday night that they knew Torreas.

Various reports that were current here early Monday night that the driver of the car had been arrested at Henrietta or at Archer City proved unfounded, at least up to 10 o'clock when The Record-News talked over long distance to the officers in those cities. Sheriff McDonald's men arrested a suspect in Archer City but officers from Wichita Falls ordered him released. He did not fit the description. His car carried four passengers.

The case attracted probably more attention than any other such accident in recent local experience. Thirty or forty persons called The Record-News Monday night to find out if the driver was apprehended. Threats of violence were freely made in the event of his capture.

Martin lived with his mother, Mrs. Lennie Martin, at 904 Scott street. He is the brother of Mrs. E. L. Foreman, whose husband shot himself Saturday night. He was employed at the Western Union Telegraph company's local office.

CITY CHARITIES BODY FORMED; LAW TO STICK

The passage of a general traffic ordinance on its first reading, and the decision to abide by the present ordinance covering solicitation of chairty with the appointment of a Charities commission by Mayor Cline featured the regular meeting of the council Monday night.

The employment of a purchasing agent was discused with general approval by members. Finance commissioner Shepherd will make definite recommendations regarding the employment of a purchasing agent at the next regular meeting.

The general traffic ordinance will in its final passage make void all present traffic regulations, including the famous one-hour parking ordinance on Eight street. For the first time since the latter ordinance was enacted over six weeks ago it found no defenders in the city council Monday night.

Outstanding features in the new ordinance are provisions for the ranking of cars the entire length of Tenth street, a ten mile speed limit for cars within the fire limits and 18 miles an hour limit for the remainder of the city, and the prohibition of double decking.

Park at Angle.

With the exception of Tenth street cars are to be parked at an angle of 30 degrees to the curb. All crossing or turning in the streets must be done at the street intersections. The ordinance regulates the driving of other vehicles.

J. C. Hunt, chairman; Mrs. C. E. Ousley, secretary of the Welfare council, and N. H. Martin were appointed members of the charities commission by Mayor Cline. The appointments were announced after the council had decided not to enact a new ordinance regulating soliciting. The present ordinance under which the city will regulate begging on the streets was enacted in 1914.

Commission to Govern.

Under the ordinance the city's interference in the soliciting of charity either by an individual or organization depends upon the recommendation of the charities commission. The commission recommends or disapproves requests for privilege to solicit for charitable purposes and may also revoke the privilege after it has been given.

The session of the council was opened with an airing of a police court trial of Monday morning. F. A. Smith, who had been convicted of violation of a city traffic ordinance was present and made complaint as to the manner in which his case has been handled by the police department. Although no action was taken by the council it was the attitude of the council that the police department had not exceeded or abused its authority.

Commissioner Bonner read a petition from several residents in the 1600 block on Magnolia street requesting electric light service. Judge Bonner said that the electric light company had made the service conditioned on payment by them of the cost of a pole and wire to the house. After scoring this attitude of the company he moved that the company be ordered to furnish the service as soon as the houses were wired. The motion passed.

By action of the council, City Clerk Thorburn was authorized to pay back all license fees paid by service car owners under ordinances passed before the one now in effect. The former ordinances were never enforced by the city.

The discussion of the advisability of a purchasing agent for the city centered around a report read by Finance Commissioner Shepherd as to methods used in the city government of Dallas. No opposition to hiring of a purchasing agent was expressed by the members of the council or other city officials present. Final recommendations will be made by Mr. Shepherd.

Specifications on the kinds of paving on which bids will be asked for the fifteen blocks of paving authorized by the council at the last meeting were approved. Mayor Cline announced that the sale of the $700,000 sewer bonds had been approved by the attorney general.

Representatives of the Elemite lubricating system and street sweeping manufacture were present. Street Commissioner Curlee was authorized to purchase a street sweeper

AD CLUB TOLD TO STICK TO STUDY OF JOB

The Wichita Falls Ad Club is an organization to study advertising and it should be kept separate and distinct from the activity of a booster club. Boosting is the job of the Chamber of Commerce and the other civic organizations already here.

That was the central idea which three visiting advertising men, all big men in the game, conveyed Monday when they spoke before the Wichita Falls Ad Club at a luncheon in the Kemp Hotel. The speakers were Fred E. Johnston of Dallas, former president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World; W. R. Patterson, president of the Dallas Ad League; H. C. Burke, Jr., Fort Worth district vice-president and organizer of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World. About 75 persons attended.

The speakers all agreed that Wichita Falls had the nucleus of a strong, working organization. They advised the affiliation of the local club with the national association and their advice was accepted. Mr. Patterson invited the members to be guests of the Dallas Ad League when they were in Dallas. He pointed out that there was "every reason for co-operation between the advertising clubs of the two cities and none against it."

Mr. Johnston declared that men who got their practical training from the Dallas Ad League studies have since mounted to highly paid positions as advertising executives.

Mr. Burke told the club that it had a "big job and an important one cut out for it." He explained the workings of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the world.

The speakers illustrated the advantages of an ad club with the Dallas News advertising copy, copy written by men trained in the Dallas Ad League. He said that the Dallas News copy showed the results of the training in that it was better written, better displayed, more carefully censured for cleanliness and wrong suggestion and for elimination of the unnecessary and emphasis upon the vital points.

Walter Daugherty, president of the club, introduced Hubert M. Harrison, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Harrison promised the co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce and declared that organization would look to the Advertising Club for advice and help to benefit Wichita Falls.

LEAGUE BODY IS SPLIT UP IN WORKING FORM

GENEVA, Nov. 15.—Working organization of the assembly formed this afternoon, consists of six committees, each with 41 members, representing all the states attending. All questions on the Agenda will be divided among these committees and will come up for debate on the floor only when the reports are submitted. The presidents of these committees will be ex-officio vice-presidents of the assembly.

The debates today clearly indicated that Lord Robert Cecil, Leon Bourgeois, Rene Viviani and Signor Tittoni are likely to become leading figures on the floor and that the small states are showing a spirit of independence and will not accept prearranged programs without having their say.

Asks U. S. About Shipping Chinese -er - Pigtails

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Establishment of carload rates on Chinese pig tails dressed into cloth from Houston to various parts of country, was asked of the interstate commerce commission today by the Oriental manufacturing company of Houston.

Clifford Thorne of Chicago, representing the applicant, told the commission that the pig tails pressed into cloth were used for filtration, straining soups and similar purposes.

Mr. Thorne explained that prior to the war European supplies of goat and camel hair were drawn on for filler purposes, but that when this source was cut off, the industries he represents turned to China where the fall of the Manchu dynasty was followed by abolishment of the edict directing Chinese subjects to wear queues.

The Houston company, which is joined by the Southern Cotton Oil Crushers' association, chief users of hair cloth pig tails, in the petition has accumulated 800,000 pounds of Chinese hair, the equivalent of the former pig tails of 2,400,000 Chinese and now seeks carload rates to move it north for the customers, 19 carloads already having been ordered and the prospects being for 60 more to move to move during next year.

Harding quickly accepted their offer to bring him in.

Just before the departure the sun broke through the clouds and smiled on Point Isabel for the first time in nearly a week, but the stinging gale showed no signs of abatement and the president-elect's last look to sea revealed his cherished fishing grounds in Laguna Madre as an abounding field of white caps.

From first to last Mr. Harding's vacation at Point Isabel, which began last Monday has amounted to two fishing trips, one game of golf and many hours of hovering about the little wood fire with which he sought to keep his cottage comfortable.

Texans said the storm was the worst that locality had experienced in twenty years, but the look of relief on the faces of the Harding party tonight seemed to be-lie any prediction that the Point ever would become the country's "winter capitol." Mr. and Mrs. Harding will spend the remaining two days of their visit to Texas at the Brownsville home of R. B. Creager, a lawyer here, whose guests they were at Point Isabel and on whose advice the trip to the gulf coast was undertaken. They will leave by special train Wednesday for New Orleans to take the ship for Panama.

To Play Golf

During his stay in Brownsville Senator Harding will devote himself largely to golf. As soon as he reached here today he organized a foursome at the Brownsville Country Club and he probably will repeat tomorrow.

He will receive a number of informal calls of courtesy, however, before he departs, Governor Hobby of Texas and Senator A. B. Fall of New Mexico being among those on his engagement list. Governor Hobby will come tomorrow on a special train to extend the hospitality and good wishes of Texas. Senator Fall, an authority on Mexican affairs, already is in Brownsville, but said tonight that his visit had no particular significance.

In some quarters here interest has aroused in the fact that Elias Torres, who negotiated the surrender of Francisco Villa and who now is connected with the Mexican embassy in Washington, also arrived in Brownsville today. Mr. Torres would not discuss his mission here and said he had no appointment to see Mr. Harding or anyone authorized to speak for him.

OH DADDY IS FEATURED BY PRETTY GIRLS

"Oh, Daddy," the rather risque musical comedy from the book by Richard C. Maddox, which appeared at the Wichita theatre Monday night, and which will again be presented Tuesday, proved to be a piece figuratively swamped with somewhat pretty women in abreviated costumes.

The entire comedy was woven about the affairs d'amour of "Daddy" Dr. Rudolph Gray as played by William W. Colton. The interest and savor of the dancing and musical numbers was due in part to the presence in the cast of the Earle sisters and Miss Marie Van, Miss Jane R. Darrow and Billy Earle.

Though the opening chorus was somewhat of a disappointment to the audience, the feature number of the first act, "Oh! Daddy" sung by Miss Peggy Earle, William Colton and a chorus of "Daddy's Dainty Darlings," delighted. The song was featured by the girls who came into the audience and won their encore by scattering the perfume of flowers upon their enthusiastic admirers.

Miss Marie Van and the Earle sisters won approval by their musical interpretationo f "When I look Into Your Wonderful Eyes," "I Love to Fall Asleep in My Mammy's Arms" and specialty numbers.

A novel and thoroughly approved local feature of the evening program occurred during the intermission when William Vinery introduced Eddie Showers, one of the popular Shrine candidates for the Maskat diamond ring offered by the Shrine this week. The ring is a very beautiful specimen. It was presented by Dave Paul also present. Judging from the applause it may be safe to infer that those present would use their pulling power for Mr. Showers.

The finale of the comedy was a very pretty presentation of snow-ball maidens who bombarded the audience freely and received a little encouragement, although the anticipation of the audience attending "Oh! Daddy" was hardly justified in the last numbers, as the closing of the comedy was made conspicuous by the number of vacant seats in the house.

TO DRILL LEASE SOUTH OF PARKEY

Announcement was made Monday that E. G. Crump of Cleveland, Ohio and W. B. Buck of Wellsville, N. Y., would drill a lease south of the Bissonet-Ceseaux test on the Parkey ranch, drilling to start at once. The lease is owned by J. C. Haynes, trustee. The first well will be drilled by the Sibley Drilling Company.

The second test of Bissonet-Ceseaux offsetting the discovery test is now drilling around 600 feet. A final effort is now being made to shut off the water trouble that has delayed the completion of the discovery test.

of every newspaper publisher in America and I have time and again called upon the press and they have met me in a noble manner to spread this message before the world—that America is now ship independent."

"We are engaged in no child's play" Mr. Benson concluded. "Our effort is world-wide. Our work reaches into every part of the world, it affects every interest. It is your business to watch this development and to critically examine our work from day to day. It is your business to question what we do. It is a good thing that men are awakened to the splendid opportunities shipping affords, but while it is no child's play to build up this vast world-wide organization, I do say it is a child's play to any who heedless speaks erroneous impressions which tend to destroy confidence in our ability to maintain, support and develop a permanent merchant marine, privately owned. All we ask is constructive criticism."

WILSON WAS TOLD

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Alleged defective riveting on ships constructed for the emergency fleet corporation was not only called to the attention of President Wilson, but "evidence" in the form of a package of the rivets was sent to him, a witness before the Walsh committee inquiring into shipping board affairs testified today.

The witness was Thomas H. Purtell, who described himself as "an expert riveter of the old school," In 1918 he was engaged as an inspector of hulls at the plant of the submarine boat corporation. Some of the riveting work in his yard he described as "fierce." He said his superiors would not support him in his contentions of poor work—therefore, he sent President Wilson "some samples" in the form of defective rivets.

He could not say if the president ever saw the "evidence" but he did know he was "fired for sending it."

Later Reinstated

Later on, he said, the president answered his complaints through his secretary, Mr. Tumulty. As a result he was reinstated as an inspector and given back pay. He did not return to the submarine boat corporation yard, but was sent to the standard shipbuilding plant. "It was evident," the witness testified, "that my record had preceded me—for I found I was in bad favor there."

He also testified that the riveting situation at the latter plant was also "something fierce."

He complained to his superior, he added, without satisfaction. He then threatened to go direct to the emergency fleet corporation headquarters at Philadelphia and was warned not to do it. "I went to Philadelphia and was again fired," he added.

Covered Poor Work

The witness told how alleged poor work was covered up by "doping with red lead and other materials."

Chairman Walsh asked how it was that ships on which the alleged poor riveting was done were still afloat and the witness said he could not tell. He afterwards said poor work might not cause a ship to break down for four or five years.

He asserted it should take at least one or two years to train a riveter properly, but admitted that during the war emergency ships were needed quickly and that skilled men could not be had. He testified there were instances of work he had condemned now being done over. It was a "spirit of patriotism," he said which prompted him in an attempt to correct "slack work in riveting." He explained he did not want it to be his fault if a ship went down with men on board.

Complained to Hurley

Eventually, Purtell asserted, he did talk with Chairman Hurley in New York and was told to put his complaints in writing.

"I told the chairman that I had a cramp in the arm from writing" the witness said.

He presented a letter signed by R. H. Bailey, Jr., assistant to Chairman Hurley, in which he was informed that his complaint had been investigated and found to be unwarranted. He was also told his charges were without foundations and for various named reasons the shipyards would be just as well off without his services.

The witness condemned the competition in riveting that took place during the construction period. He said it led to poor work.

Replying to a question, he said, he had never heard of a ship that had gone down through defective riveting.

Wildar, Captain Arthur Forbes and the 27 members of the crew reached here late today on the rescue tugs Iowa and C. E. Ainsworth, none the worse for their experience except for minor bruises and exposure.

Rescue of the crew was effected at noon today when a yawl from the Iowa braved heavy seas to make three trips to the Wildar, which lies in imminent danger of breaking up on Pancake Shoals near Whitefish point.

Seek New Witness In Suicide Probe

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—The inquest into the deaths of Marie Ramey and Tildan Thompson, actresses whose bodies were found yesterday in Grant Park, was adjourned suddenly today, when a report was received by Coroner Hoffman that a new witness who might give valuable information had been found. The witness was said to be a woman who accompanied the two actresses on a party at a cafe the night of their death.

James G. Meeks and Robert McCarthy, stage electricians, with whom the two acresses were said to have been living prior to their death, were the chief witnesses at the inquest. They were questioned particularly as to any disagreements they might have had with the two women but declared their domestic life had been unmarred by quarrels. Meeks and McCarthy testified they had been living with the women for five months and that they brought them here from New York.

What Shall I Do?

Good manners are necessary to success and happiness in this world of people. They add immeasurably to the pleasure of our social life, and to the profit of our business life—because, usually, we are liked and wanted around if we have the charm of good manners.

So good manners are infinitely worth while consedireing and practicing—and learning, if one does not already know them.

Certain points of good breeding are conceded to be the necessary rules of good society. Many times— in most cases, perhaps—each one of us can figure out these proper forms for ourselves, merely by observing the actions of persons of refinement with whom we are associated and by cultivating the quality of true courtesy—which is only consideration for the rights of others.

But now and then, some new point arises, some new circumstance confronts us, wherein neither our experience nor our common sense satisfies us as to what to do. Then—

Won't you write to me, as your friend, and each day in this column I will try to answer, briefly and helpfully, your questions as to "What Shall I Do?"

The "Miss" Is for Others.

"Dear Miss Page: How should I sign my name to a business letter? I am 18 and writing to college about my credits. Should it be Miss Brown or Miss Ellen Brown?—Ellen."

Just Ellen Brown. You must never call yourself Miss Brown, but always say, "I am Ellen Brown." If it is necessary to emphasize the fact that you are unmarried, in a letter, then sign your name and write before it the word "Miss" in parenthesis.

Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—(Adv.)

IRRIGATION WORTH THE COST.

"Anyhow a big lake there would be worth a great deal more to the country at large than a railroad," editorializes the Quanah Tribune Chief in commenting adversely on the declared intention of certain business men of Vernon who had threatened to go before the commission in Austin to fight building of the big Wichita lake near their town.

Now why should a business man oppose an irrigation project?

Why should any Texan oppose an irrigation project?

Why should any man who loves his state and believes in the development of its latent resources or the reclamation of its idle lands oppose the building of irrigation dams, the conservation of the flood waters, the reclamation of semi-arid lands or bottom lands which are subject to overflow?

Those who build reservoirs for the impounding of flood waters are public benefactors as well as builders of the Southwest.

Those who build levees for the reclamation of overflow lands are public benefactors.

Those who reclaim swamp lands by building ditches or dykes or drainage canals are public benefactors as well as builders and developers.

Texas has millions of acres of idle land in the arid or semi-arid sections of the state. All that these lands need to make them as productive as the valley of the Nile is water and water may be obtained by impounding the floods of fall and spring time and by building of irrigation ditches in the territory contiguous to the reservoirs created by the genius of man, his inventive skill, his money and his labor.

For more than a quarter of a century champions of irrigation in some sections and drainage in other sections of the state battled for legislation that would enable them to build vast reservoirs for storage purposes in order that thousands of home owners and tillers of the soil should be permitted to build for themselves and to add to the material wealth of the Lone Star State.

It has been a long fight and a costly fight but the builders and developers won when the reclamation and conservation amendment was adopted as part of the organic law of the commonwealth by the people of Texas. Texas has millions of acres of land which should be reclaimeded—millions of acres of overflow land in the river valleys; millions of acres of swamp lands which are as rich as the acres made by the irrigation achievements of Lord Cromer under Egyptain skies; millions of acres of socalled semi-arid land which only needs moisture to make it blossom like a rose garden in spring.

There are vast irrigation projects on in America and one of the greatest, at least to Texans, is that which was launched in the Panhandle by the builders and developers of Wichita and adjoining counties.

Away back a quarter of a century ago, two Texans were the leaders of the little band who favored irrigation and drainage legislation. J. A. Kemp and Frank Kell were the leaders of a then forlorn hope. They fought on until the amendment to the constitution became part of the organic law. They fought on until irrigation laws were enacted by the lawmakers of the state.

These builders and the thousands who have caught their spirit will continue the battle for progress and development until 500,000 hardy and industrious creators of wealth, who are tillers of the soil, shall be added to the population of Texas and billions added to its material or taxable wealth.

There is scientific way to prevent droughts. Build vast storage reservoirs, conserve the flood waters for the use of the tillers of the soil. Give mother earth the moisture she demands or requires and then will be banished the so called arid wastes of the commonwealth and the droughs which come at intervals and bring disaster to the producers of the foodstuffs and feed stuffs of the state.

God Almighty did a vast deal for Texas; man but little. Now it is up to man to do something to add to the productive acreage of the state vast tracts which are nonproductive or idle for the want of moisture and all that is necessary for man to do is to impound and store the rivers of flood waters which fall annually and are permitted to carry the rich alluvial soil of the valley regions into the Gulf of Mexico.

All the cities and towns of the Panhandle are interested in the big lake irrigation project. All the dwellers in the rural districts of the Panhandle and the plains are interested.

Nothing succeeds like success. Fort Worth genius and daring created Lake Worth and Lake Worth has a nationwide reputation of being the largest body of impounded water in the south or the southwest. Other Texas cities are building great lakes. Object lessons are lasting lessons.

The big lake irrigation project launched by Wichita Falls citizens will be a success, one of the greatest successes in the irrigation annals of the country.

There are men who dream and make their dreams come true. There are men who stand still. There are men who are born without vision; there are men who are born with vision; the latter are the builders and developers of the waste places of the earth. They are the benefactors of their kind. They build for posterity as well as for themeslves.

SHORT CUT TO WHITE HOUSE

When William Jennings Bryan suggested that President Wilson resign in favor of Vice-President Marshall and that Senator Harding become secretary of state and then president the novel proposal hardly awakened a friendly echo in the nation's press. The unprecedented suggestion, however, did stir up a discussion of a change in our laws to shorten the gap between election and inauguration. To many writers, of course, Bryan's utterances are, as the Omaha World Herald (Ind.) puts it, enough "to make a man with a toothache laugh," or, in the words of the Houston Post (Dem.) are merely the expression of "a vindictive nature."

The Meridian (Miss.) Dispatch (Dem.) considers "very foolish and unwelcome" the advice that the Commoner offers and adds that "if silence were ever golden it should become a diamond with William Jennings Bryan just at this time." The Hartford Times (Dem.) speaks in similar strain. To the Roanoke Times (Dem.) the idea of the administration heads resigning is "a crazy suggestion, and while the Sioux City (Ia.) Journal admits that it is "within the letter of the law," declares that it is not within the spirit. Even the staunchly republican Rochester Democrat and Chronicle believes that Bryan's "blunt and brutal" statement "might better not have been made."

Many writers call attention to the fact that resignation of the heads of a party whose policies have met with defeat before the people, while successfully operative in Europe represents a system not contemplated by the framers of the constitution. Granting that the idea of a change as Bryan suggests may have merit, the Greenville (S. C.) (Ind. Dem.) suggests that as champion of the last four amendments of the constitution the Peerless Leader might see about drafting a fifth.

Several newspapers regard the step sympathetically insofar as it merely affects the withdrawal of Mr. Wilson. Let Mr. Marshall take charge, says the St. Paul Pioneer Press (Ind.):

"With Vice-President Marshall in the executive chair there is reason to expect disappearance of friction that has practically stilled the wheels of the government. It is believed that Mr. Marshall has the breadth and practicality to conceive the situation and in view of the election result for which he is without personal or official accountability, to lend himself broadmindedly to a program without partisanism in the interest of the nation."

Republicans have no desire to take office before the moment allotted by the constitution, the Steubenville Herald Star (Rep.) believes, but agrees with the Pioneer Press, that during the "short session" the vice-president would encounter little friction. The Wheeling (W. Va.) Intelligencer (Rep.) considers the suggestion absurd as nobody would consent to it, least of all President-elect Harding.

But while papers like the Boston Herald (Ind. Rep.) proclaim the practical impossibility of the scheme, many write in the opinion that "the theory and practice of our presidential elections have not coincided, "and explains the delay of four months between election and inauguration:

"The theory of the constitution," declares the Herald, "is that the electors who are chosen in November shall have time to meet and deliberate and, moreover, if a full majority of electors should fail to agree on any one choice for president, there shall be ample time for the House of Representatives to make its decision, as the constitution provides, prior to March fourth. An interval of four months did not seem to be too long for all this."

But since the function of the electors has become a mere formality the Herald dodes not see the need of the long delay. The Chicago Daily News (Ind.) recognizes the chance for making the government "more truly responsible" by reducing the time between election pledges and the time for their fulfillment, a delay which "dulls the edge of the most explicit of mandates." The Ohio State Journal (Rep.) predicts that this idea of Mr. Bryan's may turn out to be another which the people have laughed at but which they have been willing to turn to later. There is nothing personal in his suggestions, it asserts.

"They merely call attention to the absurdity of the time-honored situation and seek to correct it. As things are, an administration discredited after its appeal to the people, and the congress representing them, is obliged to hang on for four months, during which national accomplishment is virtually impossible. These four months in Washington are more than likely to represent nothing but sheer waste."

The Chicago Evening Post (Ind.) has no illusion that "a short cut to the White House for the president-elect" will be provided this year though it concedes that the argument for avoiding the four-month delay never had "greater weight than now."

"But," it continues, "the way to accomplish this end is by constitutional amendment and legislation, rather than by such circumvention such as Mr. Bryan suggests. It is as important that the term of congress should be readjusted as that presidential terms should be made to conform to modern conditions. A lame duck congress executive approving and enforcing them."

"Sound sense" is the democratic Johnstown Democrat's assessment of the Bryan scheme, while the Norfolk Ledger Dispatch (Ind. Dem.) remarks that if Mr. Wilson did resign, "he would certainly gain great sympathy for himself," and "he might give Mr. Harding an earlier opportunity to show how much easier it is to promise than to perform." Perhaps Americans will be set a-thinking, the Kansas City Times (Ind.) hopes, about some of their political inconsistencies:

"But that is about all that can be expected just now. Mr. Wilson will probably prefer to serve his term out, particularly as Mr. Bryan thinks he shouldn't. And probably Mr. Harding will prefer to enter the White House by the front door."

Under the caption "Bryan back from Elba," the Fargo Forum (Rep.) prints an editorial in which it predicts that his great following "may restore him to party leadership." And it concludes, "the finger of fate points to a recrudescence of Bryan."

SNOW MURDER CASE SET FOR TRIAL TUESDAY

"Doc" Snow, alleged oil field gambler, will face trial here today before Judge P. A. Martin in Eighty-Ninth district court, charged by indictment with the murder on September 30 at Kemp City of Marvin W. Caples, of this city.

A special venire of 200 jurymen has been summoned, from which 12 men will be chosen to hear the evidence in the case.

Two true bills of indictment charging murder were returned against Snow by a special grand jury in connection with the slaying of Caples and William S. Toney, also of this city, in a gambling den at Kemp City. They were assisting authorities in a raid on the place.

Snow was arrested by Sheriff McFall three days later in a tent on the banks of the Red river and taken to the Tarrant county jail at Fort Worth upon reported threats of mob violence.

He was recently returned to the county jail here. He entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of murder when arraigned before Judge Martin.

The defendant will be represented by Attorney R. Shields Heyser, and two associates. District Attorney Fletcher S. Jones and C. C. McDonald, special prosecuting attorney, will prosecute the case for the state.

'THE NEW YORK IDEA' ON MAJESTIC BILL

Besides seeing the smartest clothes of the season and a bully horse-race, patrons of the Majestic theater last night learned the answer to a very stiff problem in geometry—or domestic mathematics—said problem providing the plot theme for the photoplay, "The New York Idea," in which Alice Brady again shows her skill as a high-powered emotional actress.

The problem has nothing whatever to do with the eternal triangle. Nay, nay! The triangle problem is elementary stuff compared with Langdon Mitchell's satiric comedy of marriage and divorce. The hackneyed triangle gives place to the quadrangle and then the dramatist, like a clever sleight-of-hand performer, turns the quadrangle into a circle before your very eyes. Which, without implying for an instant that either dramatist or actors go around in circles in this amusing play, does mean that the interested parties in two society divorces, after changing partners, very much like an old-fashioned square dance, then begin to yearn for their original mates and in the end swing round to them again. While they are playing this hectic pussy-wants-a-corner game, however, and following it with "Here we go round the mulberry bush," the audience is treated to very good comedy, some rather tense dramatic situations, no end of lavish settings, sumptuous raiment, unusual photographic effects, and the aforementioned horse race, which was no studio fake but an honest-to-goodness race specially staged at the famous Belmont park race track on Long Island.

TEXAS FARM BOYS WIN EUROPEAN TOUR JUDGING STOCK

The Texas farm boys above have won a trip to the royal stock show in London, a tour of France and Holland and side trips to the islands of Jersey and Guernsey by defeating all other teams in the southwest and twenty eastern and northern teams in judging stock at the Southeastern fair at Atlanta, Ga. The trip will be for the purposes of education. It is said to be the first time that such a contest has been won by farm boys. The team sails in the near future.

"THE BRUTE MASTER" APPEARS AT EMPRESS

"The Brute Master" at the Empress theater today is a tale of the sea—of a relentless rover who rules by a right of might in a little floating world of his own. His sole motive is to command and dominate his fellow-men by inspiring terror in them for his super-human strength and domineering will. Chance brings a society girl and a wealthy young idler under his charge, they being compelled to ship on the first available ship and the former's delicate beauty awakens the animal passion of the man. A brutally maltreated sailor, out for revenge, sets fire to the schooner and locks the skipper in his cabin. The rest of the crew get away in boats and find refuge on an island, while Bucko escapes and reaches an adjoining island.

Through a perfectly logical and consistently developed series of incidents and events, McAllister comes in contact with the others and assumes command. Here the thin veneer of the idler's civilization is revealed with the result that he is punished by the skipper, who, influenced by the girl's nobility of character, undergoes a transformation. This regeneration has been merely suggested, adroitly, rather than blatantly completed and made ridiculous. The story throughout is sincere, convincing and logical. The scenes have been handled splendidly and they compose a production which should interest every type of patrons.

GEM TO PRESENT "HELD IN TRUST"

May Allison worked in a model kitchen at Metro's West Coast studios in Hollywood the last few days of filming scenes for her latest production, "Held In Trust," showing today at the Gem theater. And what a charming cook she made—or rather—cook's assistant.

Clad in an exquisite negligee of orchid shade, the lovely blonde star runs downstairs—so the story goes—trying to forget her worries in a bit of gossip with the old Irish cook. There she sits on the table, surrounded by sugar, flour, salt, eggs—all the necessary ingredients used in compounding delectable delicacies, her eyes brimming with laughter, while she listens to the fat old cook relate how she managed her husband!

Miss Allison is a southern girl, too, and says if John E. Ince, her director, would only give her a few minutes to herself, think of the friend chicken, creamed sweet potatoes, corn bread, oh! just all the wonderful southern dishes that she would make to tempt the appetities of the members of her company.

The model kitchen is an art setting specially designed by the company's technical director. The photoplay is an adaptation by Sarah Y. Mason of George Kibbe Turner's novel, "Held In Trust," which ran serially in the Red Book Magazine. W. M. Edmond is the camera man. Miss Allison plays the part of a shopgirl who is transplanted into surroundings of luxury and wealth because of her resemblance to another woman.

PLAZA WILL SHOW "SERVANT QUESTION"

William Collier, light comedy star, is featured in "The Servant Question," a Select Picture, which will be shown at the Plaza theater today.

Collier as a bogus butler on the trail of a trio of diamond thieves, is said to be as amusing as Collier at his best on the stage. The photoplay is declared to be crammed full of laughs and calculated to make one forget that the cook just served notice. Of course Mr. Collier is most of the show, but the cast is just what one would desire—a lovely heroine, a villianous looking villian, and a good-looking young man to play second fiddle to Mr. Collier.

NEGRO RIOTERS TO BE HANGED, SAYS GOVERNOR

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 15.—No clemency will be shown in the cases of six negroes under sentence of death for participation in the Elaine, Ark., riots last year, and the fixing of dates for their execution awaits only official notice from the United States Supreme court that the cases will not be reviewed by that tribunal, according to a statement issued late today by Governor Charles H. Brough.

In this statement, the governor said he had reached a definite conclusion that these negroes were guilty of murder in the first degree and that the sentence imposed by the courts of Arkansas would not be commuted by him. The statement was made at the end of a conference with several residents of Elaine who urged the governor to allow the sentences to stand.

The cases in question are those of Frank Hicks, Ed Hicks, Frank Moore, J. E. Knox, Ed Coleman and Paul Hall.

Doomed Negro's Hunnger Strike May Save Life

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 15.—A hunger strike at the state penitentiary, now in its fourth day, may save the life of Charles Cooper, negro, sentenced to be electrocuted next Friday.

The negro, who was convicted of the murder of a white farmer in Ouchita county, has refused food since last Friday and as a result Governor Brough today directed the prison physicians and Dr. C. C. Kirk, superintendent of the state hospital, for the insane, to make an exabination as to his mental condition, so that if he is found insane his sentence may be commuted.

The governor stated that he would not allow an insane man to go to the electric chair.

FREIGHT SHOWS BUILDERS FEEL MORE SECURITY

A slight improvement in industrial feeling toward further investments in building and additions is showing itself here through increased orders, according to Assistant Manager Fontaine of the Wichita Falls and Southern railway, one of the Kell short lines.

In an interview Monday Mr. Fontaine reported that a number of firms which have been holding up orders for materials and equipment are giving release orders or putting them in the railroad's hands for execution now.

Without showing an outstanding increase in any one branch of freight the orders now show some better business in a general way, he said. Mr. Fontaine attributes the improvement to the settlement of the disturbed political situation by the election of November 2.

at about 11:30 we saw a friend of ours standing at the corner of Ninth and Scott without his Overcoat.

And it aroused our curiosity to know why the possessor of a fine Michaels-Stern coat should be out so late in his figure.

So we ventured the query, "Aren't you afraid you'll catch cold?

And he replied, "That's just what I'm trying to do—I'm on the program to sing bass next Sunday." There are hundreds of reasons for wearing a Michaels-Stern coat home—but this is the first reason we ever heard for leaving it home.

Welcome to Wichita Falls

Every thing is in readiness for the Shrine Ceremonial and parade to be staged here Wednesday. The members of Maskat Temple held a practice rehearsal Monday night in the basement of the First Baptist Church, where the ceremonial will be held. Various committees in charge of the work and entertainment were held.

Upwards of two hundred novices will be given the Shrine degree Wednesday. The candidates will come here from Vernon, Burkburnett, Iowa Park and other cities of the Panhandle oil district to supplement the ranks of local men who will travel the hot sands of the desert for the first time.

A special feature of the day's events will be the election and previous campaign of at least three candidates for the Shrine Ring, a very costly and handsome souvenir that the Temple awards to the novice who wins the most votes from his comrade novices. Eddie Showers, and R. L. Eckerty of Wichita Falls and C. H. Thompson of Vernon are the announced candidates.

Tris Speaker, famous baseball player and an enthusiastic Shriner, is confidently expected to be here, although he has not yet wired Potentate Cline formal acceptnce. Prominent Shriners from various parts of the state have been invited. The parade in the afternoon, the ceremonies in the afternoon and evening and a "feast" for all Shriners, and the comedy stuff and by-lays of the novices campaign will constitute the program of the day.

SHRINERS, MEET E. A. SHOWERS

Candidate for the Maskat Ring.

Since Mr. Shower's invitation published in yesterday's Record News inviting every novice to be his guest at a theatre party to be given at the Wichita Theatre Thursday night and volunteering to furnish each guest with a lady, three telephone operators at the City National Bank of Commerce exchange have gone into nervous breakdowns. The strain was too much. Thousands of names were taken and still there remains a long list of ladies in Eddie's note book who have not as yet been provided for. All you who can attend are urged to notify the genial host immediately—specifying the particular type of lady desired.

Please note that the above is only one of a series of entertainments which are planned for the supporters of "Eddie" Showers. He is giving in addition to his loyal supporters meal tickets on the dining room of the Kemp Hotel.

RICE DEFEATS FARMERS OVER OOZING FIELD

KYLE FIELD, College Station, Nov. 15.—Playing on a field that oozed mud and water at every step, and with a brisk north wind working havoc with punts and forward passes at all times, the undefeated and unscored upon A & M college team defeated the Rice Institute eleven here Monday by the score of 7 to 0.

A fifty-yard run by Morris proved the turning point of the game for the Aggies. It came early in the first quarter. Higginbotham tried for a place kick which failed. The ball was brought out to Rice's 20-yard line. At the same time, Rice was penalized five yards and the ball was given to the Aggies. Coach Bible's men pecked away at the Owl line for a few yards until they reached Rice's 8-yard line. Here Weir was sent through on a cross buck for 8 yards and a touchdown. Higginbotham kicked goal and the only score of the game had been made.

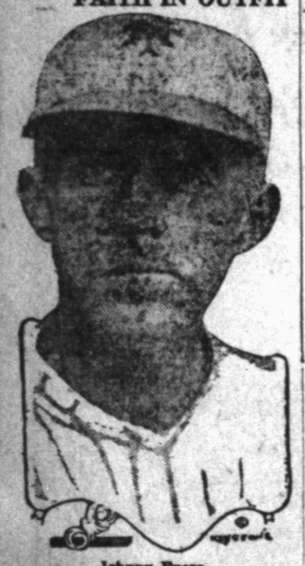

The line-up:

NORMAN WOMAN SETS JUMP RECORD

CAEN, Normandy, Nov. 15.—Mademoiselle Elise Constant of the Caen Gymnastic society cleared the bar at one metre and forty-two centimetres (about 5 feet six half inches) at the Cormelles stadium. The performance was under the control of the athletic commission of Lower Normandy. The French claim this is a world's record for the women's high jump.

RETURN OF EVERS TO CUBS RESTORES FAITH IN OUTFIT

Johnny Evers.

The Chicago Cub owners made a ten-strike when they picked Johnny Evers to manage the club next year. The "little crab" is a fighter and one of the gamest men in the sport. His heart and soul is in the game. Cub fans remember him as the star second baseman of that old famous combination, "Tinker to Evers to Chance," and not as the manager of the club for one year a few seasons ago. Fred Mitchell is a heady manager and was in no way to blame for the scandal attached to the club last year, but the change was necessary.

FROM THE JUDGES' STAND

Assorting the News From the Sport Realm

Official averages of the Western League for the season of 1920, compiled by the demon statistician, Irwin M. Howe, and released recently, show former Texas Leaguers setting a merry pace in Al Tearney's favorite pastures. Palmer Snedecor, once a Dallas idol, got into fifty games after being sold by the Spudders last year and ranked fourth in Western League hitting. He compiled a .346 average for Joplin.

Other .300 hitters are the Beefy Crouch of Sioux City, who used to pastime for Joe Gardner, 305; Harper of Oklahoma City, once with Fort Worth, 305; Mike Hauser of Joplin, most of last year with Galveston, 303.

Batting .299 Frank Metz of Sioux City, who played several seasons with San Antonio and led the Texas League hitters in 1912, is batting 299. Up among them is Ray Querry, now with Tulsa, once with Dallas and Houston.

The players of the Harvard football team will not be numbered in the game with Yale this year. Coach Robert Fisher announced recently. The Grimson head coach said the principal reason was to protect the system of play which Harvard has been years in building.

From all over the world Tex Richard already is being besieged for tickets for the proposed Dempsey-Carpentier fight. Even from far away China has come a request for reservations, while folks in every section of the United States are filing applications. Enrique Gil, lawyer, in Argentina, in a letter to Tex, recently congratulated the latter on getting the big bout and asked the promoter to be sure and reserve three seats at the fight for Dr. Thomas Lebrexton, Argentina minister to the United States.

Forward passing, instead of being used as an expedient for keeping the secondary defense back far enough to prevent immediate assistance to a defensive line to stop running plays, rapidly is developing into a consistent ground-gaining adjunct of every well rounded offense. And not only that, but passing the ball still is in somewhat of an elemental stage, and probably coaches will not in years bring out anything like its full possibilities.

The French Olympic Committee has sent an official request to the International Olympic Committee that the Olympic games of 1924 be held in Paris.

The intermediate Olympic games, to be held in 1922, have already been awarded to Brazil. They will be known as the South American Olympic Games. The next meeting of the International Olympic Committee will be held in Geneva in June, 1921, at which time applications for the games in 1924 will be passed on.

In addition to Paris, formal applications have been received from, Atlantic City, Chicago, Pasadena, Calif., Rome and Christiana, Barcelona, Spain, is also in the field for the big event. Paris is probably to hold the games in the Pershing Stadium, the gift of the United States, through the A. E. F. to the people of France.

GO TO CHAMP IN LOVING CUP TO GO TO RUN-OFF

Announcement was made yesterday by A. E. Easley, vice-president of Wichita Falls Tennis association, that a local firm would donate a loving cup to the winner of the Consolation or Class C tennis tournament to be played off among the men who lost the first match in the recent city-wide men's singles tennis championship play conducted under the auspices of the Record-News.

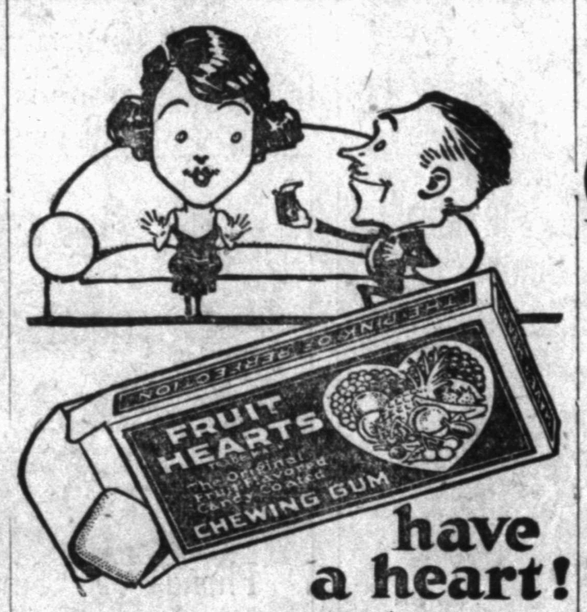

They are 26 men eligible to enter. They have already paid the initiation fee—the one dollar fee required for entrance into the first tournament.

Use of the Spencer court, 1607 Thirteenth street, the Overton McDowell court at Indian Heights and the Tilden and Tenth street courts had already been tendered. President Ferguson of the Wichita State bank announced Monday that he would give the use of his court at Tenth and Broad streets for tourney play.

Six men drew "byes" in the consolation tourney. In other words, they do not have to play in the first round. The men who drew "byes" are T. E. Hale, Mooney, Capers Curran, Bainbridge, Lyle Stone and Overton McDowell.

The following matches have been arranged and contestants are expected to play them off as the weather permits:

Shoffner vs. H. S. Rogers.
R. M. Meyers vs. Gerock.
John Lesch vs. P. S. Richardson.
Brooks vs. E. P. Harwood.
Prof. Ryder vs. J. E. Hall.
H. S. Gray vs. Wayne Davis.
R. V. Pite vs. W. W. Silverman.
Wilbur Lea vs. Lory Gardner.
A. E. Easley vs. Paul Hines.
B. Prothro vs. Bolding.

BALL TOSSERS HARD TO SIGN IN '21--SALM

Seventeen new baseball leagues have applied to national authorities for admission, Walter Salm, president-manager of the Spudders, said Monday in commenting on the approaching 1921 baseball season. All of which leads Mr. Salm to believe that good baseball players are going to be as scarce as hen's teeth next season, or rather he would say it if it wasn't for having to sign contracts and pay checks 'neverything.

On the other hand the introduction of new leagues serves to build up a larger field for development of diamond talent, brings out good men who otherwise would probably never be heard of and keeps players in the game long enough to teach them the game.

The big leagues will draw heavier this year than in many seasons upon the minors. The clean-up in baseball has left many a vacancy. It promises to create still more before the American and National clubs start south on their annual spring cruise.

Mr. Salm has been signing only younger players, for the most part, because of the expected increase in the rating of Texas League ball to Class A. He expects to have an ample string of material on hand when the spring culling out begins.

2 HELD IN BAIL ON LIGUOR CHARGE

W. H. Barnes and Harry Barnett waived preliminary examination and were held to await action of the federal grand jury under $500 and $1,500 respectively by United States Commissioner J. A. Lantz late Monday, charged with violating the national prohibition act.

The two men were transferred Sunday night to local federal agents following their arrest at Quanah in a raid on a still which was said to have been owned and operated by them.

Ernest was found guilty of a similar offense at the last term of United States district court here and fined $300.

Camel CIGARETTES

Dear Old Boy Pete:

Dallas, Texas, Sunday.

This corner of the U.S. mainland is so wonderful in its bigness and hustle I guess I go mouth wide open and eyes staring! Why, Pete, Texans don't talk in miles—it doesn't mean anything! They'll tell you that this place, or that, is an all day trip, or two days and a night distant, etc! And, old yardstick, you've got the feet, just let it sink in deep that Texas is not only over 800 miles wide but it is our fifth state in population!

Heard a bird in the Adolphus hotel say that when he comes off the west border he figures he's close home to Baltimore when he's across the Lone Star state! Say, try that jump between Texarkana and El Paso! Some jaunt!

Pete, everything grows big down here—business as well as folks hearts! I like the way they never forget! Here I was walking on Main Street yesterday when as fine a type of man as ever wore one of those broad Texas smiles came up to me. "How are you, lieutenant," says he. "Maybe you'll call back that day at Camp Dick when I brought over a bunch of Camels for the boys," he continued. Right there a Camel conference started!

Golly, Pete, this party coins Camel compliments faster than the mint makes money! "Lieutenant," says he, "I know when I'm set! I've smoked cigarettes for five years! (NOW LISTEN, PETE!) I know Camels and I know their marvellous mild, mellow body and refreshing flavor and wonderful Turkish and Domestic blend! A million Camels wouldn't tire a smoker's taste!" Pete, that's some testifying!

Between you and me, I'll be gazing at tall buildings and things around 43d and Broadway—N-e-w Y-o-r-k—about the hour this note hits Boston's Back Bay! Write me at the same old stand!

Sincerely
Shorty.

ABILENE NOBLES BACK ECKERTY FOR SHRINE RING

The popularity wave appears to be growing slightly beyond the control of the modest press agent for Russell L. Eckerty, the oil men's candidate for the diamond ring in the Maskat popularity contest. Just when the press agent had it all figured out that he would disregard the peculiar assertion that another candidate had been endorsed by Governor Hobby, and would only claim that Eckerty was being supported by "home folks," along came the following telegram today:

"Russell L. Eckerty, 614 Waggoner Building, Wichita Falls, Tex.

"We assure you the entire support of the Abilene Shrine club, through the solicitation of your friend, J. E. Toliver, for the diamond ring.

(Signed) "C. J. CRANFORD."

The entire club, you will notice, volunteered royally to support "Sunshine" Eckerty and his "Go and Get It" candidacy—not merely the support of one lone individual.

Attention also is called by Eckerty's press agent to the fact that Governor Hobby endorsed and supported Reuben Rubottom when the latter was a diamond ring candidate during the Maskat Temple institutional ceremonies here last August—and Oral Jones promptly proceeded to wipe Reuben off the map. The same misfortune now will undoubtedly befall Governor Hobby's second candidate; it's a tough year for the democrats, any way you care to look at it!

In view of the fact that Eddie Showers is running on a platform, the basis of which, as his managers have announced, is cleanliness, "Sunshine" Eckerty sincerely regrets that Showers has become personal in his advertisements, and has used such words as "bull" and "horses." The poor but polite society in which "Sunshine" moves would never tolerate such expressions—never.

Horses! Horses!! Horses!!!

RULES INSURANCE ON SUICIDE PAYABLE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—An insurance policy on the life of a person who commits suicide is payable, if all conditions of the policy are complied with, the supreme court ruled today in sustaining lower court decrees in a suit brought against the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company by a beneficiary under a policy obtained by her husband.

The company withheld payment on the ground that it was contrary to public policy to pay indemnity on the life of a suicide.

WILSON TAKES UP CONFERENCE ISSUE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—President Wilson has taken personal direction of the major American policies to be adopted with regard to matters before the international communications conference now in session here.

Under Secretary Davis of the state department, chairman of the American commissioners to the conference, has been in frequent consultation with the presidence since covening of the conference.

The president's interest in the subjects before the communication conference is known to have been inspired by the discussion in Paris at meetings of the council of five of the disposition of the German cables and other matters relative to international agreements on communications.

RING AMERICAN OFFICIALS INTO JAP SPY STORY

TOKIO, Nov. 15.—Another spy story affecting American officials is published in the Yomi Uri Shimbun, which states that Sergeant Major Hasegawa, of the Formosa garrison, was arrested recently outside the American consulate at Taihoku, which he was visiting, it declares, in connection with the disposal of stolen plans of fortifications. The newspaper says that Hasegawa confessed that he stole the plans in April last and offered them to Henry R. Hitchcock, American consul at Taihoku, who, Hasegawa alleged agreed to purchase them for $50,000.

Hasegawa took the plans home, awaiting the money, the newspaper continues. Consul Hitchcock went to America in October, Eugene H. Dooman, formerly consul at Kobe, succeeding him. When Hasegawa again visited the consulate he was arrested.

The facts of the case, according to the American charge d'affaires here, are that in April last a Japanese visited Consul Hitchcock and offered him the plans. Hitchcock declined to discuss the matter. Later the man visited Consul Dooman, who telephoned to the police and caused his arrest.

All grandstand seats, which were reserved for alumni, have been sold for more than two weeks, all boxes taken, and practically all seats in the student rooting sections. Seats remaining are at the ends of the field, and are being sold out rapidly.

VENIZELOS CARRIES CAPITAL OF EPIRUS

PARIS, Nov. 15.—The Venizelist ticket in Sunday's Greek election polled a big majority in Janina, the capital of the Epirus, it was announced by the Greek legation here today. The result might possibly be close in Athens, it was added, but the army vote was strongly on the Venizelist side.

SOONER SHERIFF HOLDS WARRANT AGAINST 'CHICK'

Sheriff Berryman, of Frederick, Okla., arrived here Monday with a warrant for the arrest of James L. Barnhart alias "Chick," whose trial on a charge of robbery with firearms was begun late Monday before Judge P. A. Martin in Eighty-Ninth district court.

Although Sheriff Berryman would impart no information relative to the charges contained in the Oklahoma warrant, references to it during the trial by attorneys for the prosecution indicated that he is wanted there in connection with the theft of an automobile.

Trial of the case was continued until Tuesday morning after the defendant had been cross-examined and the testimony of several witnesses taken.

It is charged in an indictment returned against Barnhart at a special session on the grand jury that he held up and robbed a man in the oil fields on the night of October 15.

Barnhart denied the charges, stating that he was at his home in Oklahoma on the night in question and that he did not return to Wichita county until two days later.

District Attorney Fletcher S. Jones and Attorney C. C. McDonald are prosecuting the case for the state and Attorney R. Shields Heyser is acting as counsel for the defense.

BALLOT COUNT IN ELECTION STILL ON

After working until late Monday afternoon, the official canvass of the vote cast here in the general election, which was begun Monday at a meeting of the county commissioners court was continued until Tuesday morning. It was expected that work on tabulating the returns would be completed by noon Tuesday.

Ed C. Wilson was appointed as justice of the peace of precinct No. 4 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. G. Corder recently.

R. J. SULLIVAN TO REPRESENT KELL

"Mr. Sullivan, being well known to almost every man in our employ, we trust that it will be a pleasure for you to take orders from him and render him such assistance as is in your power."

HAD NERVOUS BREAK-DOWN

But Health Restored to Texas Lady, Who Is Now Well and Strong, Able to Do All Her Housework and More.

Rosebud, Texas.—Mrs. Annie Lange, of R. F. D. No. 4, this place, writes as follows regarding her experience with Cardui: "Some time ago I had a nervous break-down of some kind . . . I was very weak, and so nervous. It all seemed to come from . . . trouble, for at . . . I had fainting spells and suffered a great deal, but more from the weak, trembly, no-account feeling than anything else. I knew I needed a tonic, and needed it badly.

"I began the use of Cardui, to see if I couldn't get some strength, as I knew of other cases that had been helped by its use. I felt better . . . I soon saw a great improvement, so kept it up.

"I used seven bottles of Cardui, and can say the money was well spent, for I grew well and strong. Now able to do all my house work and a great deal of work besides."

If you are run-down, weak, nervous, and suffer from the ailments peculiar to women, it is very likely that Cardui will help you, in the way it has helped thousands of others, during the past 40 years.

Take Cardui, the woman's tonic.—Adv.

The answer of most fat people is that exercise and dieting is too hard, too troublesome and too dangerous a method to force the weight down. However, in Marmola Prescription Tablets, all these difficulties are overcome. They are absolutely harmless, entail no dieting or violent exercise, and have the added advantage of cheapness. One little tablet after each meal and at bedtime—as pleasant to eat as candy—will reduce your weight two, three or four pounds a week, and leave no bad results such as wrinkles or flabby skin. A good size box is sold by druggists at the reasonable price of one dollar, or if preferable they may be obtained by sending the amount to the Marmola Co., 94 Garfield Building, Detroit, Mich. They will reach you by mail, prepaid, in plain, sealed cover.

Now that you know this you have no excuse for being too fat, but can reduce two, three or four pounds a week without fear of bad after-effects.

A Demonstration of Practical Economy that Concerns Every Housewife in America

Two pounds of Mazola fried 208 Doughnuts—2 pounds of Lard fried only 138

MRS. A. Louise Andrea—awarded the gold medal at the Panama-Pacific Exposition as lecturer on food and culinary topics—in a comparative test recently fried 208 doughnuts in 2 lbs. of Mazola, while only 138 could be fried in the same amount of lard.

At the same time this expert fried 24½ lbs. of potatoes in 2 lbs. of Mazola, as against 7 lbs. 14 oz. fried in 2 lbs. of lard.

Also, she fried 25¾ lbs. of fish steak, cut to a uniform thickness of one inch, in two lbs. of Mazola. Two lbs. of lard fried only 16½ lbs.

Equal to Butter at Half the Price—Better than Lard

This means that Mazola is from twice to more than three times more economical to use than lard, on the basis of actual accomplishment.

In each test, 4 lbs. each of Mazola and lard were fried down to 2 lbs.

This confirms the experience of the seven million housewives who already use Mazola, the Great American Cooking Oil.

Mazola is a 100% pure vegetable fat. There is no loss from evaporation, nor loss of bulk from heating. It remains sweet and clean, and can be used over and over again—merely strain it.

Quality and Economy—a Problem Solved

The wonderful economy and high quality of Mazola teach a lesson that no thrifty housewife can ignore. Not only will the cost of cooking the daily meals be cheaper, but the food more delicious and digestible.

Mazola is sold at all good grocers in pint, quart, half-gallon and full gallon cans.

Once you try Mazola for Salads you will prefer it to the finest imported olive oils. The price of Mazola is about half that of olive oil. No customs duty—no ocean freight charges on Mazola.

GRAIN COTTON

WEATHER SENDS COTTON FAR UP; REACTS PARTLY

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 15.—Unfavorable weather conditions in the belt put the cotton market strongly higher today and the advance continued until heavy realizing was met from the long side after which there were reactions. In the last few minutes of the session the rise was more cotton thrown up on it than it could absorb.

The rains of Sunday and cold weather following with a forecast of freezing temperatures for a good part of the belt were responsible for fears that a great deal of cotton had been or would be so lowered in grade that it would not be picked. For the greater part of the day there was no staying the advance.

Heaviest buying followed reports from Texas that no picking had been possible in a week in some localities and the rumor that a large line of short contracts was being covered.

NEW YORK RECOVERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The cotton market recovered about 50 to 75 points of last week's losses during the day's earlier trading, but just about lost them in the last half hour.

The opening was steady at a decline of 4 points to an advance of 10 points, near months being generally lower.

Prices firmed up after the opening on covering and trade buying said to be for the purpose of fixing prices on call cotton. There was very little southern selling and the market showed considerable firmness during the middle of the day. There was realization or liquidation on the advance, and the market was weak and unsettled late in the afternoon, owing partly to rumors that banks were calling cotton loans in the southwest.

While trade buying was a little more in evidence on the advance from the early low levels, local brokers attributed the bulk of demand to covering.

GROWERS MEET IN WACO TODAY TO POOL CROP

CORPUS CHRISTI, Nov. 15.—More than thirty signatures are attached to a call issued to the farmers of Texas to meet in Waco Tuesday for the purpose of considering a statewide pool of low grade cottoh, to be shipped and sold to Europe.

Following is the call:

"We, the undersigned cotton growers of Texas, hereby call a massmeeting of all citizens of this state who are now holding low grade cotton, to meet in Waco, Texas, on Tuesday, November 16th, at 10 a. m., at the office of the Chamber of Commerce, for the purpose of considering the advisability and practicability of pooling all low grade cotton in this state for shipment and sale to European countries.

"In view of the fact that low grade cotton has been accumulating during and since the Great War, it is absolutely necessary that some effective measures be adopted at once to dispose of this low grade cotton before next year's crop is put on the market. After a careful investigation and conferences with leading farmers and cotton growers of this state, it is deemed wise and proper that the best course to pursue is the one outlined above.

"An investigation shows that Germany alone today needs two million bales of cotton; Bohemia needs half a million bales, and other European nations need at least a million bales. These countries today are idle for lack of cotton.

"The time is too short to rely upon any export corporation yet to be organized to handle the enormous quantity of low grade cotton now on hand in this country.

"We urge the citizens of every county and community who are holding low grade cotton to attend this meeting or send representatives.

"If we can succeed in disposing of this low grade cotton through a pooling system, next year's crop will bring cost of production plus a profit, but should we fail to accomplish this purpose, every bale carried over will be a liability against next year's crop to hammer down the price.

"This is your business and needs your attention now. We are counting on you to be present at this meeting and to do your part."

RECEIVER IS NAMED

WACO, Texas, Nov. 15.—On application of one of the stockholders in the Central Texas Electric Railway, the company organized to build an interurban railway from Waco to Temple, a receiver was appointed by Judge H. M. Richey of the Seventy-fourth district court today. John Maxwell, formerly assistant attorney general, was named as receiver.

TEXAS DEALER SOLD 'FAKE' AS SUGAR, CHARGE

BOSTON, Nov. 15.—Indictment by a federal grand jury of W. M. Foster, of the Early-Foster Company, commission merchant of Waco, Texas, for an alleged fraudulent transaction in Mexican sugar involving $13,000 was announced today.

The Narragansett Wholesale Grocery Company of Providence, R. I., acting as broker for a local firm, contracted for delivery of two cars of Mexican brown sugar which, accordingto to circulars, the Waco firm held at the border for delivery at 16½c a pound. The order is alleged to have been given after a sample of the sugar had been asked for and a high grade brown sugar received.

The "Mexican brown" received at Providence, however, it was complained was "pilonchillo," a sticky substance in cakes worth only 3 to 4 cents a pound. Arrangements have been made to bring Foster here for trial December 7.

GRAIN RISES ON EXPORT BUYING TO HIGH LEVEL

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Material upturns in price of wheat took place today with much of the buying ascribed to export houses. Bolsheviki success in southern Russia was construed as a bullish factor. The market closed firm 5 3-4c to 5½c to 5½c net higher, with December 1.83 3-4@ 1.84 1-4 and March 1.75 1-4 to 1.75 3-4. Corn finished unchanged to 3-4c higher, oats up 1-8 to 3-8c and provisions unchanged to an advance of 95 cents.

Selling pressure on corn and oat forced them to the lowest prices yet this season, but wheat strength brought about rallies.

'ALWAYS AUDACIOUS' COMES TO OLYMPIC

The fashionable guests of the palatial St. Francis hotel of San Francisco were startled some time ago when a rough-looking sailor, attired in blue overalls, black sweater and knit sailor's cap, and wearing a heavy growth of black whiskers, came down the elevator and sat down in the lobby to wait for someone.

"What a nerve!" said one aristocratic old woman as she inspected the "creature" through her lorgnette.

"They should not allow such a rough looking person in the hotel," responded her companion.

"Sh-h-h! That's Wally Reid!" said a bell-hop, sitting nearby, who could not hold the secret any longer. And then the feminine critics sought an introduction.

Wally and his company under the direction of James Cruze had gone to the St. Francis to film scenes in the star's latest Paramount picture, "Always Audacious," which is being shown at the Olympic theater today and not wishing a mob, the director had kept the star's presence in the city a secret.

AFTER FAKE PROMOTERS

STAMFORD, Texas, Nov. 15.—Decapitation of fake stock promoters in many West Texas towns has occurred as a result of the effective warnings which have been sent out by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, according to local offices. Many West Texas towns have established a very effective bureau of investigation which has resulted in the wholesale turning down of concerns which cannot bear the rays of rigid inspection. Several communities in the west have been saved considerable sums by being wary of the wiles of the stock wizards.

"The usual fake promoter receives as much subscription as he can get, takes his 20 per cent commission, leaves the remainder in the bank for diminished redistribution and hikes to more fields," says the organization.

TREASURY EXTENDS TIME ON DISCOUNTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Extension until next June 30 of regulations permitting national banks to purchase or discount six months commercial papers up to 10 per cent of their capitalization, was announced today by Comptroller of the Currency Williams. The paper must be secured by 105 per cent of the amount in Liberty bonds or certificates of indebtedness.

DECLINES TO REVIEW GREEK SHIP CLAIMS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. — The supreme court today refused to review lower court decrees dismissing suits aggregating nearly $1,000,000, brought against the National Steam Navigition company, Limited, of Greece, for damages growing out of the loss at sea in January, 1916, of the steamship Thesaloniki.

STOCK MARKET OPENS GLOOMY BUT RECOVERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The week in the stock market opened with a resumption of the recent pronounced reactionary trend, but this was checked before mid-day after several new low records had been established by speculative industrials and affilliated specialties.

Gross recessions extended from 1 to almost 4 points, but most of these were recovered when buying of a supposedly substantial character set in among the seasoned rails and industrials of the type represented by the railway equipments and popular oils.

Sales 1,100,000 shares.

Some comfort was found in the money situation, last Saturday's better clearing house report doubtless contributed to ease shown by call loans. This form of accommodation opened at 8½ percent, the lowest rate in about three weeks.

The early strain in the stock extended to bonds. Most Liberty bonds were lower with active domestic issues.

Total sales, par value, $16,775,000.

RAW SUGAR QUIET

NE WYORK, Nov. 15.—The local raw sugar market was quiet today.

Refined was quiet with the demand limited to near by requirements [illegible] as buyers are anticipating lower prices. Advices from the west side that beet sugar there was reduced to 9.90.

Sugar futures opened unchanged to 10 points lower but soon firmed up on covering and buying by trade interests.

CONNECTICUT TAX ON CORPORATIONS O.K.'D

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The Supreme court today upheld the validity of Connecticut laws requiring corporations doing business with the state to disclose to the tax commissioner the amount of federal taxes paid and to pay to the state a two per cent tax on such portion of the net income upon which the federal tax was imposed and was derived in the state.

PRODUCE TURKEYS

DUBLIN, Nov. 15.—Twelve cars of dressed turkeys will be shipped by a local packing house by January 1, according to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Four cars have already been billed out. Each car brings about $7,000, of which amount the farmer gets the bulk. Dublin has never strived to become a great turkey country, but it can so become if it desires.

The cost of spikes, labor, grading, gravel and connection pieces is additional.

ENDS CLOTHING MYSTERY

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—The mystery of the 2,000 men's suits said to ordinarily wholesale at $45.70, which were placed on sale at the United National Clothiers' Convention here last week at $16.50, was explained today by E. C. Hermestroff, auditor of the association, who said they came from a Chicago manufacturer who "needed the money and wanted to unload."

Mr. Hermestroff declared he knew the suits cost the manufacturer $18.50 for workmanship alone.

Great U. S. Navy.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 15—America's program is to make her navy the greatest that ever has been floated by any nation in any times, Secretary of the Navy Daniels declared today in an address to Portsmouth Rotarians.

CITY NATIONAL BACKING "EDDIE"

Through an error the name of the City National Bank of Commerce was ommitted from an advertisement which appeared in Monday's Record News supporting the candidacy of E. A. Showers for the Maskat Temple ring. The officers of the bank are anxious for public to know "Eddie" is their candidate and that they are supporting him for this coveted honor.

MASKAT RING DRAGS IN ENTRY FROM VERNON

VERNON, Nov. 15.—Switchyard shanty dope at Vernon is that Charles H. Thompson, chief clerk in the Fort Worth & Denver offices here has had it violently forced upon him to be a candidate for the diamond ring to be given to the most popular Novice at Wichita Falls on November 17, when Maskat Temple at that place will escort across the burning sands a band of unregenerated sons of desert. The Thompson contest isn't going to be the real stuff—it is going to be a champion six-reeler affair that will make Eddie Showers and Lowell Eckerty shiver in their B. V. D's and his campaigners are smiling a four-bit-six reeler plus war tax. His campaign managers are somewhat enraged however over the cheap clap-trap thunder put out by Showers and Eckerty in their efforts to "Go Out and Get the Votes." The bird that chirps their platforms and gets it across is running loose and swears he doesn't eat it, snuff it, or take it in the arm. The Vernon candidate is running on the "wild wemin and bootleg whiskey platform," and his opponents will have to offer something different in the various brands of bootleg whiskey. Like little Eddie, Thompson knows no evil and absolutely will not allow any one to creep into the canvass, and it will be conducted on a high moral plane.

His opponents have even accused Thompson of casting the lone vote in Wilbarger county for the black and tan party, but this accusation has been branded as false. Thompson has not as yet expressed his views and convictions to the public on the political situation of yesterday, but he and his managers are busy outlining a stand on the important subjects of the day and they will be expressed at Wichita Falls on Wednesday. He is expected to make some startling revelations to the foreign policy and the new stand taken by Harding on the League of Nations, and may be counted upon to throw a bomb into the ranks of the Bolshevik.

The railroad men are with him strong. Regardless of Speaker's and Hobby's stand, the railroad men say Thompson can clip the mattress off the chests of Showers and Eckerly. Notice is hereby given that the Vernon delegation will be at Wichita Falls strong and will bring their own liquor.

Moonshiner Gets In Bootlegger's Shoes in Kansas

TOPEKA, Kans., Nov. 15.—"The moonshiner has taken the place of the bootlegger in Kansas" Warren Wilson, chief federal prohibition enforcement officer of Kansas, stated today at a gathering of officials of the Kansas branch of the anti-saloon league here.

Fred L. Crabbe, the newly elected superintendent of the Kansas League, was introduced. He said the plan now is on foot to organize every Kansas county for law enforcement that the "anti-saloon league has started the steam roller's law enforcement through the state," said Mr. Crabbe. "It is not the purpose of the league to enforce the law itself, but to create and maintain public sentiment for law enforcement; to back up law enforcement officials who do their duty and to turn on the light where officials fail to do their duty."

DEFINE "INVESTED CAPITAL" JAN. 3RD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The spreme court was asked today by the government to set next January 3 as the date for hearing appeals from lower court decrees in a suit which is expected to result in a final ruling as to what shall be considered "invested capital," within the meaning of section 203 of the 1917 revenue act.

The suit was brought by the Labelle Iron Works company to recover more than $1,000,000 in taxes alleged to have been illegally collected by the federal government. The section of the revenue act, the meaning of which the court is asked to determine, permits for taxation purposes a deduction from the gross income of an incorporation "of an amount equal to the same percentage of the invested capital for the taxable year which the average amount of the annual net income of the trade or business during the pre-war period was of the invested capital for the pre-war period."

TO SAVE BIRDS

DUBLIN, Nov. 15.—Slaughter of innocent birds in the Dublin country must cease. Such a fiat has gone forth from the farmers of Erath county, says the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The increased boll weevil depredations of 1920 are directly attributed to the destruction of birds, farmers assert.
