Armed Clash In Balkans Is Reported

France Yields To Axis Terms; Nazis Get Sea, Air Bases

Two Nations To Join Forces To 'Restore Peace'

Cabinet Okays Agreement Made By French Heads

(By The Associated Press)

VICHY, France, Oct. 26 — France moved officially into the Axis lineup in Europe tonight with her government's announcement that Adolf Hitler and Marshal Philippe Petain, France's chief of state, had agreed in principle to work together to restore peace in Europe.

The announcement, endorsed by the French cabinet, marked an historic about-face for France and put

TERMS OF PACT

BERN, Switzerland, Oct. 26—Diplomatic onlookers tonight said they believed France would pay for Axis concessions by: "loaning" to Germany and Italy her Mediterranean air and sea bases near East Africa, and under much the same conditions as Britain now holds Egyptians bases.

The government of old Marshal Petain is expected to get more "unoccupied" territory under her deal with Hitler; use of Paris for its capital and gradual release of French prisoners of war.

this vanquished country on the threshhold of negotiations on concrete points of agreement with her German conquerors.

It followed a 75-minute meeting of the Vichy cabinet where Petain and his second in command, Vice Premier Pierre Laval, explained what they talked about this week in conference with Hitler and Joachim von Ribbentrop, the German foreign minister.

"The council of ministers unanimously approved their declarations," the announcement said.

The terse communique said merely that Hitler and Petain had held a "general examination of the situation and, in particular, the means of reconstructing peace in Europe," and were in accord on "the principle of collaboration."

This, two days after Petain's meeting with the Fuehrer in Nazi-occupied Paris, seemed to political observers to be a clear sign of an impending "peace offensive."

May Ask U. S.

They said it might be started with a bid for the good offices of the United States in seeking an end to European hostilities.

Hitler's meeting with Petain beside a railroad car in a still undisclosed village near Tours, in the German-held zone, was pictured as formal but cordial.

"I know you did not want war and I regret meeting you under these circumstances," the Fuehrer was said to have told France's 84-year-old marshal.

Record Income For 1941 Is Predicted

BY FRANK MAC MILLEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 26. — With industry booming at levels of fabulous 1929, business men this week looked forward to a record $85,000,000,000 national income in 1941 and laid lines to hold war-pushed prices to reasonable levels.

Creation of a "priorities board" at Washington to assure a steady flow of critical materials to the war plants—if necessary by denying or delaying them to civilian industry—threw into sharp focus the problem of possible runaway prices later on in the defense drive.

Economists have long agreed the basic factors of an upward spiral of prices—some call it inflation—is an increase in the supply of spending money in the hands of the public, combined with a decrease in the supply of things for which the public can spend.

Keynote Of Precaution

Thus they watched closely, took precautionary steps, to see that as profits and payrolls which comprise the national income climb toward a probable new high in the history of the country in coming months, prices shall not rise out of proportion.

Prominent was the warning of Tom M. Girdler, Cleveland steel maker, against "speculative buying" in that defense metal.

The business records of the week lent point to calculations of many observers that some time next year, with defense production at flood, and with the country's spendable income ahead even of the boom years of the twenties, would be the critical point in the fight to hold prices down.

Steel mills operated at about the highest percentage of capacity in history, around 95, with actual amount of steel turned out undoubtedly the greatest on record.

Rush Construction

Automobile production was the largest for this part of the season in three years. Orders from dealers were said to be heavy.

In retail trade, snappy weather drove people to stores for winter clothing. Sales in steel and heavy

Germans Claim Liner Is Sunk

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Oct. 26.—The Empress of Britain, majestic Canadian flagship liner which carried King George VI and Queen Elizabeth home to Britain from their North American trip in 1939, was reported in informed German quarters to have been bombed and left in a sinking condition north of Ireland today.

"German combat planes" attacked the liner in the waters which Germany has proclaimed as the scene of total blockade, these sources asserted. By forenoon, it was stated, the crew had abandoned the ship and she was foundering.

(The British admiralty declined comment.)

The German high command made no mention of the Empress of Britain.

Texas Farm Income In August Drops

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. (AP)—The bureau of agricultural economics in its report covering farm income for August disclosed that Texas suffered a decline of 21 per cent as compared with the same month last year.

The bureau reported that because of the later movement of the cotton crop this year, income from crops throughout the entire south was smaller in August than in the same month of 1939.

Texas alone among all South Central states showed a drop from the previous year in income received in August from sales of livestock and livestock products. In addition, Texas was one of the few states which showed a drop during the month in the total amount of government payments received as compared with August a year ago.

Fire Sweeps Business Area Of Aspermont

ASPERMONT, Oct. 26. (AP) — A Saturday night crowd that packed the Queen theater here from balcony to front row on the first floor fled from the building in safety at the alarm of "fire" tonight—and then joined other street spectators in watching the blaze sweep the two-story showhouse, lap through an adjoining beauty parlor and into a variety store.

Aspermont and Stamford firemen still were fighting flames as midnight neared, but spread of the fire was believed checked. It started in the theater's projection room a few minutes after 10 p. m.

There was no immediate estimate of damage, but three buildings on the westside of the square were believed lost.

Hull Strikes At Dictators

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Secretary Hull described the rulers of Germany, Italy and Japan tonight as "would-be conquerors" engaged in a rentless attempt to reduce mankind to "a master-and-slave relationship among nations and individuals, maintained by brute force."

Speaking before the national press club over a nation-wide radio hookup, (NBC), the secretary of state listed efforts by these nations "to take by force what they say they need or want" as he reviewed what he called "the whirlwind developments of one of the saddest and most crucial decades in the history of mankind—that of the nineteen-thirties."

Respect Violated

"The rulers of these nations," the secretary continued, "have repudiated and violated in every essential respect the long-accepted principles of peaceful and orderly international relations.

"Merciless armed attack; unrestrained terrorization through slaughter of non-combatant men, women and children; deceit, fraud and guile; forced labor; confiscation of property; imposed starvation and deprivations of every sort—all these are weapons constantly used by the conquerors for the invasion and subjugation of other nations."

Do Not Dare

These same nations, Hull declared—presumably in reference to Germany's reported efforts to secure the French fleet and Japan's warship building program—have as an objective "the securing of control of the high seas."

"They threaten peaceful nations with the direct consequences if those nations do not remain acquiescent, while the conquerors are seizing the other continents and most of the seven seas of the earth."

"We are in the presence not of local or regional wars, but of an organized and determined movement for steadily expanding conquest.

Liquor Trade Is Said Worst Fifth Column

AUSTIN, Oct. 26. (AP) — Asserting the liquor trade was America's most dangerous "fifth column," Mrs. Claude de Van Watts, president of the Texas Woman's Christian Temperance union, today announced completion of plans for the organization's 59th annual convention in Waco Monday and Tuesday.

"It is not a totalitarian foe from the outside," declared Mrs. de Van Watts, "but one entrenched behind millions of invested capital and behind federal and state laws written under its political pressure, threatening the security of our homes, the prosperity of our industries, the purity of our politics and our very rights as free people."

Mrs. de Van Watts said the convention theme would be strengthening of the nation through Christianity, the home and building of a happy environment for citizens.

Congratulations To:

Lewis Political Stand Splits CIO Unions

New Deal Strikes Back; Willkie Welcomes Aid

(By The Associated Press)

THE Roosevelt administration struck back Saturday at John L. Lewis' denunciation of the New Deal and support of Wendell Willkie while evidence piled up that a deep political schism had developed in the CIO itself.

Stephen Early, presidential secretary, said Lewis had "chosen to go down the lonely road." Many CIO leaders, Early declared, had "repudiated" Lewis' stand in messages to President Roosevelt.

Secretary of State Hull said that Lewis was "100 per cent wrong in his effort to prejudice the American people by the baseless charge that President Roosevelt is seeking to get this nation into war."

Other Developments

Otherwise, the day brought such developments as these:

President Roosevelt decided definitely to make a political address in Boston next Wednesday in addition to one Monday night at New York, then began a weekend of speech-writing in the seclusion of the White House.

Willkie campaigned again into the New York City area, telling crowds that "we are on the march—we are going to win. I promise you we can't lose." Republican headquarters announced that the nominee had cancelled a radio broadcast scheduled for last night because of the "complicated nature" of his tour through New York City boroughs.

Willkie had expressed pleasure Friday night at receiving Lewis' support.

The CIO, he said, was "torn with dissension, divided politically because its leaders seek to compel it to support a political party." The AFL, he added, "has evolved and followed a non-partisan political policy."

Some officials of the United Mine Workers, foundation stone of the CIO organization, disagreed with Lewis. Hugh V. Brown, president of district 7, a Hazelton, Pa., unit and one of the big UMW locals, said the district membership would "go down the alley battling" for Roosevelt. On the other hand, Ray Edmundson, Illinois district president of the UMW, made public a resolution by 16 UMW officials pledging support of Lewis and a "vigorous campaign" against a third term for President Roosevelt.

Draft Registrants! Your Serial Number Is In Section 3!

Britain, Germany Exchange Attacks

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The channel area resounded today with a furious British counter-offensive and great columns of smoke rose in the clear, bleak air above the Nazi-held French coast areas set aflame by British bombs.

Nazi shipping was attacked within sight of watchers on the English shore—a German convoy was heavily bombed by RAF squadrons and it appeared that at least one vessel had been hard hit—and English coastal batteries bombarded a covey of eight German torpedo boats which maneuvered along the French shore.

Across the Dover straight, British pilots went into heavy action against a new long range gun brought up by the Nazis alongside their sixth battery near Cap Griz Nez.

All this—a visual evidence to the people of coastal England of the heightening tempo of the British counter-attack—followed assaults in which the RAF had winged afar over Nazi territory, spreading bombs inland in Germany and over hundreds of miles of the Nazi front.

One of the most important objectives thus attacked, in raids of last night and early this morning, was the vital German naval base at Kiel, where shipbuilding yards were declared to have been left in flames.

Five At A Time

Fire bombs and high explosives, falling from as many as four and five bombers at a time, splattered over wide areas of London early today as Nazi raiders stepped up the pace of their 50th successive night of air attack.

The raiders' return at dusk after seven daylight stabs yesterday put the capital under eight air raid alarms during the day—a number never exceeded in a like period and only twice equalled since the start

Plans For Draft Drawing Made

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Draft Director Clarence A. Dykstra, announcing that four cabinet members and a congressman would draw the first numbers in next Tuesday's historic "conscription lottery," assured the nation today that there was "no possibility of favoritism" in the process.

"In this momentous operation of the law of chance," Dykstra said in a statement "representatives of all walks of life will receive identical privileges."

The drawing, to determine the order in which 800,000 men will be called for a year's military training by next June 15, is to be held in the interdepartmental auditorium between the Capitol and the White House.

No Tampering

As officials rushed preparations for its conduct, word went out to local selective service boards that all registration cards must be given a serial number and the list of numbers posted publicly before the drawing starts.

President Roosevelt will open Tuesday's ceremony with a brief address, and Secretary of War Stimson will draw the first of the 8,500 blue capsules containing the serial numbers from the gold fish

Message Sent To French Head By Roosevelt

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 — The United States' deep concern over the German-French negotiations was evidenced today by disclosure that President Roosevelt had sent a message to Marshal Henri Phillippe Petain, chief of the French state.

The communication was delivered to Gaston Henry-Haye, the French ambassador, last Thursday by Sumner Welles, undersecretary of state. The fact of its dispatch was a closely-held secret until today.

Secretary Hull, in disclosing that Mr. Roosevelt had communicated with the 4-year-old World war hero who now heads the Vichy government, declined to reveal the nature of the message. No reply, he said, had been received.

Purport Not Disclosed

Although lacking official confirmation, it was reported that the president's message had been sent and perhaps contained an appeal—designed to influence Petain against signing any "collaboration" pact with Germany which would imperil France's future as a free nation and possibly bring about a clash between French and American interests, especially in the western hemisphere.

The nearest Secretary Hull came to disclosing the purport of the Roosevelt communication was a statement that the United States had exchanged ideas and viewpoints with the Vichy government regarding the action taken by the 21 American republics at Havana.

The Havana conference provided for the American governments to take over administration of any European possessions in this hemisphere if necessary as an emergency defense measure.

Two Are Killed In Plains Accidents

Two persons, a 4-year-old Mexican girl and a negro man, died Saturday night of injuries suffered in South Plains vehicular accidents.

Francis Mendeita, daughter of a Post Mexican, died at 7:05 o'clock in a Brownfield hospital after a collision of two machines about two miles west of Brownfield.

Investigators said Ted Myatt, 36, of Brownfield was driver of a car that figured in the accident and that Gregorio Mendeita, father of the girl, was driving a coupe, occupied by seven persons. The other six members of the Mexican party were treated in the hospital and all dismissed. None was injured seriously.

An Avalanche-Journal correspondent in Morton said a negro, identified only as Hosey, was killed instantly in a head-on collision of two cars, both filled with negroes, about 11:30 o'clock five miles north of Morton. Another of the negroes was said to have been critically hurt.

Deputy Sheriff Albert Morrow of Morton was investigating the crash and was not available early today to give further details of the mishap. The dead negro was said to have been a worker on the F. O. Masten farm near Morton.

Highway Patrolmen Billy Johnson and E. B. Underwood investigated the Brownfield accident.

False Teeth Will Be Traded For Wheels

Someone stole the tires and wheels from a trailer owned by Joe Moss.

Now Joe is willing to trade back for the set of teeth he found beneath his trailer after the thief had fled.

Greek Soldiers And Albanians In Skirmish

More Hostilities Feared; Fascist Drive Predicted

(By The Associated Press)

ROME, Oct. 26.—Italy announced officially tonight that Albanian troops had fought off "armed Greek bands" in a frontier clash on Albanian soil, and foreign observers considered the incident might set off a long expected outbreak of hostilities in the Balkans.

The Rome radio identified the Greeks as "soldiers."

A communique put the scene of the clash in the vicinity of Koriza (Koritsa), which is some 15 miles from the Greek border.

It added that the Greeks had attacked Albanian outposts with rifles and hand grenades, saying:

"The prompt reaction of an Albanian patrol and the successive intervention of other units helped throw back immediately the enemy band which had penetrated into Alabanian territory."

Six Greeks were declared captured; two Albanian soldiers killed and three wounded.

Investigations Made

The communique likewise asserted that three bombs exploded last night near the headquarters of the Italian lieutenant-general at Port Edda—formerly known as Santi Quaranti and renamed after the Italian occupation of Albania—and that two persons were slightly wounded.

"Greek or English agents" were blamed and it was said they were being sought.

"Investigations are being made into the two episodes," the communique added. "Meanwhile calm has returned to the two zones."

It was believed that the fighting might lead to the dispatch of an Italian punitive expedition to "avenge" the Albanians and to fulfill their demands for Greek territory.

Such an action also would be in pursuit of the Axis aim to drive British influence out of southern Europe.

Today Italy was reported to have suddenly suspended air service to Greece until Nov. 4 under circumstances suggesting to some foreign observers that the Fascists were thus settting a deadline for that little country to end its friendship with Britain and bow to the Axis.

Hitler's Ambition Said Retreating

By J. W. T. MASON
United Press War Expert

Hitlers ambition to make the European continent economically and financially subservient to Axis interests is beginning to beat a retreat. Indications that the Germans are realizing an economic dictatorship for Europe is impossible are revealed by instructions Hitler issued today to Reich Marshal Goering to continue plans for German economic self-sufficiency for another four years.

One of the major reasons for Hitler's preparations for the present was was to expand German trade so that the Reich would not have to struggle against the handicaps of self-sufficiency. Germany's lack of essential raw materials and the failure of the German people to appreciate artificial substitutes for natural products make normal international trade imperative if the Reich is to elevate its standard of living.

Must Make Extension

The plans to make Germany self-sufficient started in 1936, and were given four years to run because by the end of that period Hitler believed he would be able to break down the barriers interfering with expansion of overseas commerce. The four-year term expired last week with Germany in control of most of the European continent but blocked by the British fleet from overseas trade.

It has become essential, therefore, for Hitler to extend the strain of making Germany self-sufficient for another similar period. The Nazis have discovered that conquests on the European mainland are inadequate to give Germany entrance into markets that will release the German people from economic stringency.

The word "self-sufficiency" has become a synonym for economic want and even suffering for the German people. During the past period of self-sufficiency, the German standard of living has not been able to rise. Though the cost of living has advanced, the German working people have not gained an increase in wages and there is no prospect of their doing so.

Can't Make All Laws

Despite the control Hitler is supposed to have over the smaller European countries at the present time, he cannot make economic and financial laws obedient to his will. Thus, German currency today is at a heavy discount in all the Balkan countries. It is being quoted at forty per cent below par in Rumania, despite Nazi domination, and elsewhere in the Balkans the discount on Germany currency averages more than twenty per cent. At the same time in the same markets the British pound and the American dollar are now being quoted above par.

Germany cannot march troops into its continental neighbors and confiscate goods. Such procedure would invite revolution. Germany can bring pressure on continental Europeans to sell, but some return in money or goods must be made. Even Hitler, with all his power, cannot actually enslave other people. Otherwise, they would cease to produce.

Faces Breakdown

Hitler therefore, is facing a breakdown in the plans to make himself economic dictator of continental Europe. Realization of this fact among the German people is tantamount to acknowledgement that the kind of economic victory the Nazis have been preaching is impossible. Economic dictatorship within Germany is very different from similar control by Hitler over foreign peoples.

Extension for another four years of the search for means of making Germany self-sufficient is bad war news for the Germans. It must gradually cause them to realize that the war for which they are fighting does not promise the return of economic improvement that they were told would be certain. Here the German people may see economic defeat beginning to cast its shadow before.

Hitler Spends Week Trying To Widen Diplomatic Front

BY LOUIS F. KEEMLE
United Press Cable Editor

Germany, without relaxing its air war on Britain, moved on a wide diplomatic front this week to create an almost total Axis front in Europe to force Britain to come to terms.

An atmosphere of high drama surrounded Adolf Hitler's meetings with the French and Spanish heads of state. He consulted Francisco Franco of Spain at the French-Spanish border and summoned — Berlin used the word "invited" — Marshal Petain of France in his private railway car somewhere in France.

Many Developments

Reports naturally arose that Hitler was trying to bring both France and Spain actively into the war so that he could start a drive for Gibraltar and Suez that would break British power in the Mediterranean and place Britain in hopeless isolation.

Washington watched the trend of events with the closest attention because Hitler's attempt to present a new world order as an accomplished fact appeared to extend even to the Orient, where United States interests are directly affected.

Developments of the week included the following:

Coast Is Ravaged

On Sunday, Britain struck hard at German "invasion points" along the channel coast, blasting possible embarkation points with airplanes and long range artillery. The Germans in turn made extensive day and night raids on London and elsewhere in England. London's defenses stood up well and it was mostly single planes that got through there, instead of mass formations of bombers. Italian planes made a spectacular long distance flight and bombed Bahrein island in the Persian gulf and Saudi Arabia, where United States interests have extensive oil holdings.

On Monday, British planes again ravaged the coast of occupied France and flew over the Alps to bomb industrial northern Italy for the first time in more than a month. Berlin threatened "thousand fold" revenge for thebombings of the German capital. Prime Minister Winston Churchill, in a broadcast to the French people, appealed to them to stand by Britain for their own good against the "common enemy."

Conferences Held

On Tuesday, Hitler conferred in France with Vice-Premier Pierre Laval, second in command to Petain, in the start of his campaign for a "new order." The R.A.F. made an extensive raid on Hamburg. London's defenders drove off most of the German raiders, but Liverpool and other centers came in for a strafing. Britons were advised by their government to leave Japan and Japanese-occupied China.

On Wednesday, Hitler continued his diplomatic drive by conferring with Franco. The Vichy government declared it would not go to war against Britain nor send the French fleet against her. The weather gave London a respite from bombing. Carol of Rumania and Magda Lupescu were detained in Spain, from which they were trying to get to the United States. Washington announced the dispatch of two squadrons of pursuit planes to Manila to reinforce the Philippine defenses.

Big Vessel Downed

On Thursday, Hitler had his meeting with Petain. They were reported to have agreed on "peaceful collaboration" and even on the use by Germany of French naval and air bases. Russia entered the picture by agreeing to attend a conference with Germany, Italy and Rumania on control of the Danube.

On Friday, Laval conferred with Count Ciano, Italian foreign minister, presumably on plans for the reported pan-European bloc. After a mid-week lull, the German aerial attack on London and the British Isles was renewed in full fury. Berlin and Rome said Italian planes took part in the attack from a base in France.

On Saturday, King George VI reinforced Churchill's plea to France not to give in to Germany. He sent a message to Marshal Petain, declaring Britain can win the war and that France will benefit. The German aerial assault on Britain went on unabated. Berlin claimed that the big Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Britain had been sent down by aerial bombardment.

Baby Cures Girl Of Sneezing Ailment

CLARKSVILLE, Ar., Oct. 26. (AP) A six-months-old "incubator" baby whose mother died shortly after his birth apparently has succeeded in curing Juanita Lollia, 21-year-old Lamar girl, of an attack of sneezing that started three weeks ago.

Treatment by medicine, garlic and nasal appliances failed to stop sneezing paroxysms which at times occurred as frequently as twelve a minute. Miss Lollis less than a week ago was described as being in a "serious" condition with severe nausea complicating her affliction.

Then hospital attaches interested her in young Jimmy, son of an unemployed miner, who has been the pet of the institution since his birth.

Today they reported the sneezing girl "well on the road to recovery." Her attacks have virtually ceased, she is in high humor and keeps constant watch over little Jimmy, refusing to allow any one to disturb him while he is sleeping. She has been able to eat normally and hospital officials said she probably would be discharged next week.

Pathos, Tragedy And Occasional Humor Mixed Into World War Draft, Jones Recalls

BY OPAL McMAHON
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

"WILL you please have some member of the board investigate my wife's conduct?"

That was one of the unusual requests received by the Northern Judicial district draft board, of which President Clifford B. Jones of Texas Technological college was a member, during the first World war.

A soldier made the request in writing to the board that his wife had failed to keep her promise of giving half of her allotment to the soldier's mother. The wife, the soldier wrote, was reported to be "keeping regular company" with other men.

Same Seemingly Extraneous

That was but one of many requests, some seemingly extraneous to service, which came before the district draft board.

Pathos and tragedy and even an occasional bit of humor were contained in records of the district draft board.

An uncanny request, reflecting on the one hand fear of war and on the other fear of loss of business, was one regarding a negro. The registrant, an embalming company employe, was, according to affidavit from his employer, "The onnlyiest negro man left hereabout that knows how to take care of fresh bodies. The employer made reference to the impossibility of use of "unskilled labor".

Board Severely Condemned

"The district board," said Dr. Jones, "was severely condemned by one community for having deferred a man who apparently was far from essential". According to comments of residents of the community, "loafing" seemed to be the man's principal occupation. The facts were that, by request of the department of justice, the man had been deferred from service. Fact that he was connected with the department of justice could not be announced in the community. Even the local draft board was unaware of his connection.

Because of the present interest in conscription due to the recently passed selective act, Dr. Jones was asked to relate some of his experiences as a member of the Dickens county draft board and later the appellate draft board of the Northern Judicial district of Texas at Fort Worth during the first World war.

During the Civil war, a soldier could hire a substitute. Such, of course, was not true during the first World war nor is it true during the present conscription for defense purposes.

Total registered, between ages of 18 and 45, during the first World war was 23,908,576. Of that number, 1.41 per cent "wrongfully sought to escape military service. When armistice was declared, number in military service was approximately three and one-half million and of that number 2,758,542 had been furnished by selective service organizations, the remainder through voluntary enlistment.

To cover expenses of the draft work, Congress appropriated $54,896,903, of which amount $30,847,000 was expended. On that basis, the cost per man accepted in camp was $11.34. The cost by voluntary enlistment was $28.95 in the army, $30.23 in the Navy. Cost of recruiting Union soldiers under the Civil war enrollment act was $227.71.

Boards Had Authority

A great deal of authority was placed in hands of the local and district boards. The decision by the circuit court of appeals was the last word said by the courts on questions growing out of operation of the selective draft.

"The duties and responsibilities of draft boards were enlarged during the progress of the war and comprehended not only the selection of men for military service and their forwarding to camp, but the duty was placed upon the draft boards to examine into the merits of cases of applications of persons of military age desiring to leave the United States, and to issue the necessary permit in meritorious cases in the name of the provost marshal general, E. H. Crowder," in addition to other duties, said Dr. Jones.

Of the total of 23,908,576 registered, all but 6,319,728 had been classified at close of the war. The draft offered a complete survey of the nation's industrial and military man power. The assemblage and care of the data was a tremendous undertaking involving the offices of 4,648 local boards, 155 district or appellate boards, 1,319 medical advisory boards and 52 state headquarters.

Center Of Draft Information

Offices of the boards became the center of draft information for those wishing to learn dates of call, status of classification, dates of entrainment, issuance of questionnaires, filing of applications for extension of time, questions involving allotments and allowances for soldiers' dependents, furloughs and leaves.

"These duties, together with enormous correspondence and inquiries concerning frequent changes in regulations, not to speak of innumerable changes in classifications, kept the draft boards busy day and night. I recall a telegram from the provost marshal general, saying, 'War knows no day, nor night, nor holiday'".

Board Members Threatened

Classifications frequently met with "disapproval and an occasional bitter denunciation on the part of registrants and their relatives," he said. "There were instances when board members were threatened and friends expressed anxiety for the safety of draft board members, but in the main the citizenry proved loyal indeed and volunteered much valuable information for benefit of classification and in matters involving delinquencies and desertion. Especially were the telegraph companies, telephone companies, peace officers and department of justice helpful to the draft board.

"There were frequent efforts to evade service just as there were conspicuous examples of outstand-patriotism and sacrifice."

Of those evading service the so-called conscientious objector aroused perhaps the greatest contempt on the part of draft boards and the public, said Dr. Jones. He added that he was not referring to Quakers, Dunkards or those Congress had in mind when it created a special deferred class for those members of churches of sincere, long standing convictions against war.

Many Cases Of Falsification

"There were many cases of falsification of claims and I shall always feel that the boards were too lax, especially with those who signed improper supporting affidavits," he continued.

In Texas there were many prosecutions under the law known as the Hobby Loyalty bill, a Texas enactment which provided penitentiary sentences for persons proved guilty of slandering by letter or speech the United States government, its entry or continuation in war or the United States flag.

There were cases where wives of registrants, "perhaps under duress," signed the supporting affidavits with their husbands and where the wives later voluntarily came to the boards, urging induction into service of their husbands because of non-support or cruelty or both, he said. "The wisdom of the statute which provides that the testimony of the wife not be accepted as evidence against the husband in certain matters without supporting testimony was evidenced in some cases which came before draft boards," Dr. Jones said.

Typical Letter Cited

In a typical letter to the draft board at Fort Worth, one woman wrote on Sept. 27, 1918, that she was enclosing the questionnaire of her husband. "He sent this questionnaire to me requesting me to sign the supporting affidavit of dependency". She continued by writing that her husband was not contributing "one penny" to support of herself or her children. "I could not live with him because he was not what a husband should be," she wrote.

She enclosed this letter, which she had received from her husband." . . . . , Texas, Sept. 24, 1918 . . . I am sending you my war papers for you to sign. I am trying to keep out of the army, and you are all that can keep me out—you and the kids. You sign where it says, "Supporting Affidavit". You many not feel like signing it, but I would do that much for you, for I know I would never get back. Sign this up and send it back at once for the time is out now. I have made it a little strong, but I hate to go so bad. You will have to go before some lawyer and sign it. You can have the car, and I will turn everything over to you and the kids and I will walk off and leave it. I can make a living anywhere. Life is not much to me, but I hate to go to the army."

Calculated To Be Funny

Many answers received by the board to questions were calculated to be funny, some showing utter indifference to exemption or deferrment. For example:

"Question: What is your business?

"Answer: Druggist.

"Question: What are your duties?

"Answer: Selling medicine and paying taxes".

To a large extent, the boards depended on papers for their determination, and because the papers were improperly made out, intentionally or otherwise, the questions and affidavits frequently did not reflect the true merits and "this at times became the basis of perhaps improper classification".

Dr. Jones stated, "I am not defending the general findings of the boards. Their records are made and must stand or fall on their merits. Mistakes were made and then, too, there were borderline cases which perhaps could be decided either way and defended." He recalled the sad reflections by the draft board one morning when the daily press carried the name of an infantryman killed in service. The soldier's case on appeal had been before the appellate board. "It was a most difficult one to decide and our opinions differed regarding the essentiality of the man to the business in which he was employed," he said.

Members Are Listed

"It was rare that we did not ask divine aid in each day's work that our classifications would be based on justice to the government and justice to the individual."

Members of the district board were Signey L. Samuels, Fort Worth attorney, chairman; the late Col. Louis J. Wortham, newspaper publisher and former state senator and regent of the University of Texas; Dr. William E. Howard, Dallas, surgeon-general of Spanish-American war veterans; the late M. F. Barnett, Dallas; the late Ben E. Cabell, Dallas, former Dallas mayor, Dallas state prison system and United States marshal; the late Lee Bivins, Amarillo, cattleman, and Dr. Jones.

Appeals were made to the president of the United States from 289 decisions of the appellate board. The board was sustained in 281 of the decisions.

Defeat For FDR Would Be "Construed As Repudiation Of Foreign Policy"

Statement Made By Connally

NEW YORK, Oct. 26. (U.P.)—Sen. Tom Connally (D-Texas) said today that the defeat of President Roosevelt in the Nov. 5 election "would be construed as a repudiation of foreign policy by every dictator and every totalitarian government on the globe."

Connally, member of the Senate foreign affairs committee, said at a press conference at national Democratic headquarters that the administration's foreign policy was the reason why "so many Republicans and Independents are backing Mr. Roosevelt."

Cause Is Approved

He said that Republican Presidential Nominee Wendell L. Willkie had approved the president's course in foreign affairs, but that "only in one instance he makes complaint, not as to purpose or result, but merely as to method."

"If the American people approve our foreign policy, and Mr. Willkie approves that policy, he can raise no issue here at home as to that subject," Connally said. "But the issue of foreign policy is not confined to our shores. It extends abroad to many lands. Foreign nations know what that policy is under Roosevelt. They know that Roosevelt knows what has been happening abroad, both that appearing in the open and that which goes on behind the scenes. They know he is better prepared, and better equipped to maintain American foreign policy because of his more than seven years of intimate knowledge of and contact with foreign developments than any other person.

Resistance Asked

"Willkie's election would be proclaimed and broadcast, not alone in Europe and Asia, but in Latin America, throughout the western hemisphere, as a rejection and condemnation by the people of the Roosevelt foreign policy. Foreign nations would be encouraged to resist and challenge that policy. . . . It (the United States) can stand more firmly and staunchly with Roosevelt at the helm; Roosevelt who knows the dangerous foreign waters and has sailed them seven years, than with a new and untried pilot, however good his intentions."

Knows Of No Pacts

Asked whether he knew of any "secret commitments" between the United States and any foreign power, Connally said he felt certain there were none. He said he had no information regarding charges by Vice Presidential Candidate Henry A. Wallace that Nazi agents in this country had been ordered to spend money in an effort to defeat Mr. Roosevelt.

The Texas senator praised the efforts of the administration to build an adequate national defense and asserted that Republican congressional opponents had attempts to balk those efforts from the beginning.

Praise for the administration's national defense program also was given by Henry I. Harriman, past president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, now editor of the New England Power association.

No Third Term Problem

In a telegram to Mr. Roosevelt, a copy of which was released by the Democratic national committee, Harriman said, "I am convinced that you can better serve America in this defense period than Mr. Willkie . . . . I cannot conceive that a new secretary of state, no matter how great his ability, could quickly and effectively replace Mr. (Cordell) Hull and his associates."

"All other issues," Harriman said "even such vital ones as the third term and the wise attitude toward business, sink into insignificance compared to the problem of national defense for if Mr. Hitler and those who believe like him in Europe and America there will be no third term problem in the future and there will be no free enterprise."

Santone School May Name Student Leader

The association, in the final session of its convention, awarded the vice-presidency to the girls high school of Louisville, Ky., and the secretary-treasurer to Memphis, Tenn.

Hockley, Cochran And Terry County Oil Tests Spotlight Oil Developments In Area

By JOHN B. BREWER
Special Oil Writer

INDICATED thinning of the section in Cascade Petroleum Co. No. 1 J. M. Walker, Hockley county wildcat; topping of the salt by Atlantic Refining and Ray R. Rhodes No. 1 C. S. Dean, Cochran county wildcat, and staking by Gulf Oil Corp., of a wildcat in Terry county about two miles west of the south extension of the Slaughter pool were highlights of oil developments this week in the most northerly active counties in the West Texas Permian Basin.

Forest No. 1 A. C. Whisenant, Yoakum county wildcat, cored promising lime near contract depth, 5,500 feet, and ran casing preparatory to testing; another test in the original Wasson field in Gaines county drilled deep and Humble completed a one-half mile west extension to the Means field in north central Andrews county.

Other Developments South

Principal developments in the district farther south included a flow of 528.13 barrels of oil in 17 hours by Forest No. 1-H Paul Moss, 1½ miles south extension to the South Cowden pool in Ector county, and promise of a three-quarter mile north extension to the one-well Magnolia-Sealy (South) pool in northern Ward county.

Magnolia finished two producers and Stanolind one in the Slaughter field in Hockley county. Magnolia No. 2-A Mallett, quarter-mile southeast of Magnolia No. 1 F. L. Woodley, 1½-mile north extension to the indicated link between the Duggan and Slaughter fields, registered a daily potential of 831.60 barrels of oil for completion at 4,989 feet. It was treated with 10,500 gallons of acid. Location is 580 feet out of the northwest corner of labor 5-50 Scurry.

Potential Of 477.40 Barrels

Magnolia No. 1-H Mallett, west offset to Osage No. 1 W. R. Blake, producer in the Duggan east extension and 440 feet out of the northeast corner of labor 2-53-Scurry, was finished at 5,062 feet with daily potential of 477.40 barrels of oil. It was treated with 10,500 gallons of acid. Stanolind No. 10-B Slaughter, 2,442 from the north, 440 feet from the east line of labor 19-37-Zavalla, flowed at a rate of 598.92 barrels of 33 gravity oil daily, bottomed at 5,055 feet. It was treated with 7,000 gallons of acid.

Approximately 99 feet of thinning between the anhydrite and brown lime in Cascade Petroleum No. 1 J. M. Walker, Hockley county wildcat, was indicated by topping of the brown lime by samples at 3,900 feet, 456 feet below sea level. The marker was correlated 70 feet higher than in Bates and others' No. 1 Lockett, a failure 3½ miles to the southwest, while the anhydrite top had been 29 feet lower. No. 1 Walker drilled ahead below 4,300 feet in anhydrite and lime. It is in tract 22, league 22, McCulloch county school land, nine miles east of the Slaughter pool.

Terry Wildcat Staked

Gulf staked No. 4 Mallett, Terry county wildcat, 440 from the south, 1,631 feet from the east line of section 5-X-psl, 12,590 feet west of the nearest producer in the south extension to the Slaughter pool from Hockley county, and 1½ miles north of L. E. Hults No. 1 Ross, a dry hole.

Atlantic Refining and R. R. Rhodes No. 1 Dean, Cochran county wildcat, three miles west of the Duggan field, with elevation 3,733 feet, topped the Yates sand at 3,010 and the frosted quartz grains at 3,030 feet. It drilled ahead below 4,470 in lime. Location is in league 89, Lipscomb county school land.

Plans Deeper Test

Amon G. Carter filed notice of intention to carry his No. 5-D Wasson in the original Wasson field in Gaines county to 6,000 feet unless production is obtained shallower. Drilling early in the week had reached 5,505 feet in lime. The test is in the southeast quarter of section 50-AX-psl, 1,700 feet due south of Carter No. 4-D Wasson, which had passed 7,640 feet. No. 4-D Wasson in September swabbed three barrels of light green oil hourly after acidizing when bottomed at 6,610 feet.

Phillips Petroleum Co., which last week staked two more tests in southwestern Andrews county near its No. 1 M. Bar Ranch, a deep gasser, staked another this week. It will be No. 1-120 M. Bar, 1,980 from the south, 660 feet from the east line of section 8-44-2n-T&P. Reported plugged back from 4,355 to 4,245 feet, No. 1 M. Bar was to be reacidized in an effort to increase gas, which will be used for fuel in further drilling in the area.

Andrews Test Finaled

Humble No. 82 J. S. Means, half mile west extension to the Means field in north central Andrews county, was finaled at 4,530 feet on gas lift with a daily potential of 205.20 barrels of pipe line oil. It had been treated with 10,000 gallons of acid in three stages. Location is in the northeast quarter of section 18-A35-psl.

Forest No. 1 Whisenant, Yoakum county wildcat, in the southeast quarter of section 861-D-John H. Gibson, ran 7-inch casing to be cemented at 4,900 feet after samples from 5,410-85 feet indicated a possible lower pay. Goring had reached 5,500 feet, contract depth. The test is 1¼ miles northwest of Geo. P. Livermore (formerly Sloan & Zook and Tom N. Sloan) No. 1 Waples-Platter, completed late last week at 5,297 feet for a flow of 161 barrels of oil in 24 hours.

Flows 528.13 Barrels

Forest No. 1-H Moss, South Cowden south extension in Ector county, was completed temporarily at 4,300 feet with a 17-hour flow of 528.13 barrels of oil through 2-inch tubing. It had been shot with 1,600 quarts of nitroglycerin. Location is 1,980 from the north, 660 feet from the west line of section 48-43-2s-T&P. Forest No. 1 W. L. Bradley and others, Ector wildcat seven miles southeast of the Harper pool, in the southeast corner of section 18-43-3s-T&P, showed sulphur water after drilling plugs and apparently obtained a shutoff by plugging back from 4,410 to 4,380 feet.

Magnolia No. 1-41 Sealy in Ward county cored porous white lime showing oil and gas between 2,896 and 2,901 feet, the total depth, and on flowed an estimated 10 barrels of pipe line oil with an estimated three million cubic feet of gas daily during the last six minutes of a 10-minute drill stem test from 2,882 to the bottom. It flowed an estimated four barrels of oil with an estimated half million cubic feet of gas daily, during the last five minutes of a 20-minute drill stem test from 2,896 to 2,901 feet. Seven-inch casing was cemented on bottom following the tests. Location is 990 from the south, 2,310 feet from the west line of section 41-F-G&M M&B&A.

Humble No. 1 W. T. Shearer, quarter-mile northwest outpost to the Apco Ordovician field in northern Pecos county, recovered one barrel of oil on each run in swabbing through tubing, with total depth 4,719 feet in Simpson lime. Culbertson & Irwin No. 1 Mary Heiner, scheduled Ordovician wildcat nine miles west and slightly south of the Apco pool, was moving in rotary after spudding. It is 660 feet out of the northeast corner of section 589,GC&SF Ry. Co., survey.

Son Rallies To Aid Of His Father In Waggoner Trial

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 26 (U.P.)—W. T. Waggoner II of Fort Worth, Texas, came to the defense of his father, Guy L. Waggoner, today in the elder man's attempt to divorce his seventh wife, pretty Mrs. Virginia Green Waggoner of Dallas.

Mrs. Waggoner's contention in a motion filed here that New Mexico courts had no jurisdiction in her husband's divorce action because he was a resident of Texas was denied by young Waggoner who testified his father left Fort Worth in 1937 with the intention of making his permanent home in New Mexico.

Only a short time previously the elder Waggoner had married Virginia Green, mannikin in a Dallas department store. He left Texas after that state's legislature repealed the law permitting pari-mutuel bets racing and the $2,000,000 Arlington downs race course built by his father, the late Col. W. T. Waggoner, was closed.

Tax Exemption Shown

With his bride, Guy Waggoner supervised the building of a costly residence on his ranch near Mosquero, N. M.

The younger Waggoner testified in today's hearing that he had occupied the Waggoner home in Fort Worth since his father moved to New Mexico.

Mosquero residents, including Ray Schulenbarger, store proprietor, testified that the cattleman and his seventh bride made their home on the ranch near Cosquero for three year. Mrs. Mary L. Mitchell, Tucumcari hotel proprietor testified similarly.

When Waggoner filed suit in Las Vegas, N. M., for a divorce, his wife countered with a similar suit in Fort Worth. She then filed a motion here contesting New Mexico jurisdiction. She introduced documents tending to show that he received a $3,000 homestead tax exemption in Texas in 1938, 1939 and 1940.

HOUSING SHORTAGE

BROWNFIELD, (Special) — In spite of construction of many new residences, a housing shortage is still felt, officials of the Chamber of Commerce announce. A large number of oil company employes have moved here and more are expected. At the present time all available houses and apartments are occupied. Local hotels are overcrowded continually, officials said.

Teachers Will Meet Monday

George W. Dupree, Lubbock attorney, will be principal speaker at a meeting of Lubbock county branch of the State Teachers' association at 7:30 o'clock Monday night in Senior High school auditorium.

Joe E. Webb of Slaton, president of the group, estimated more than 300 Lubbock county public school teachers will attend. Election of new officers will be held at a business meeting following the program, he said.

To Name Delegates

After an invocation by John R. Freeman, of Lubbock, Miss Laura Belle Halliburton of Slaton will sing. J. W. and E. E. Day will present a violin duet.

Candidates for offices in the association have already been selected by a nominating committee. They are: for president, G. L. Farrar, Frenship, and A. L. Faubion, New Deal; for vice president, Dan W. Powers, Lubbock, and Roy Boyd, Slaton; for second vice president, Boyd Crooks, Roosevelt, and G. L. Farrar, Frenship; for secretary, Miss Bella Altman, Lubbock, and Miss Virginia Tapp, Frenship; for treasurer, Carroll Thompson and R. W. Matthews, both of Lubbock.

Fifteen delegates will be chosen to represent the county at the West Texas District convention to be held in March, Webb said.

Pact Said Dependent On Action Of U. S.

ANKARA, Turkey, Oct. 26. (AP)—Usually reliable sources declared today a recently-concluded trade agreement between Turkey and Rumania could not become effective unless the United States released at least $6,000,000 of the Rumanian funds frozen in America.

It was understood Rumania had requested that such an amount be released and earmarked for Turkey in order to purchase Turkish cotton. If the request is not granted, it was said, a new agreement may be worked out whereby Turkish copper would be exchanged for Rumanian oil.

FDR Tells United States Navy It Is "Deterrent Of Heel Of Dictatorship"

Navy Day To Be Observed Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. (AP) — President Roosevelt told the American fleet tonight on the eve of the 19th annual Navy day that it was "a deterrent to those nations who would plant the heel of dictatorship across this hemisphere."

"I pray," he said in a letter to Secretary Knox, "that it will continue to emphasize, by its strength, our determination to remain a free people, marching steadily along the open road that holds peace of the spirit as well as a full and worthy material life."

Greetings Exchanged

The chief executive's letter was published along with an exchange of greeting between the army and navy on the eve of a Navy day observance which is to be restricted "in the interests of national security."

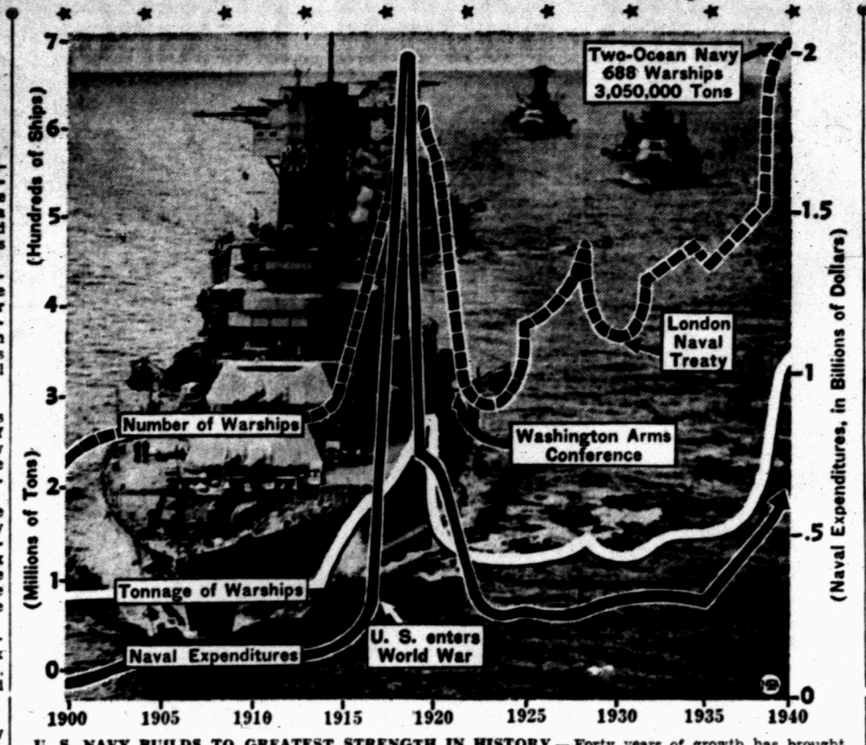

Progress toward realizing of the ultimate goal of a two-ocean navy was disclosed, meanwhile, by an official compilation showing that six new fighting ships were added to the fleet last month, four others were launched and keels of four more laid.

With the start of work on the 45,000 ton battleship New Jersey, six new Dreadnaughts are on the ways, and two others have been launched and are nearing completion.

Others To Speak

Mr. Knox, Assistant Secretary Lewis Compton, and Admiral Harold R. Stark are to speak tomorrow on a world-wide radio broadcast, but there will be no general visiting of ships of the fleet or shore stations. Vessels assigned to training reservists will receive visitors and drills and demonstrations are scheduled at many cities.

A 3-day observance of the occasion which coincides with the birthday anniversary of Theodore Roosevelt was opened today with a ceremony at the monument here to John Paul Jones, "father of the American navy," where wreathes were places by patriotic organizations.

U. S. NAVY BUILDS TO GREATEST STRENGTH IN HISTORY — Forty years of growth has brought the United States Navy from a 200-ship youngster following the Spanish-American War to the two-ocean navy that will be the world's greatest when present authorized construction is completed. Chart traces encreases and decreases in number of ships built or building, with their tonnages, and shows naval expenditures. Many ships decommissioned by disarmament, but not scrapped, have been refitted to provide auxiliary strength in today's navy. The Washington Arms conference of 1932 scrapped 28 U. S. warships, totaling 750,000 tons. (Copyright, 1940, NEA Service, Inc.)

Air Corps Given More Prestige

By EDWARD E. BOMAR
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. — The army clothed the air corps with new importance in the military setup today by making its head a deputy chief of the war department general staff.

Major General Henry H. Arnold was advanced the to newly-created general staff post, while Major General Delos C. Emmons, commander of the mobile general headquarters air force, was promoted to lieutenant general and made coequal in rank with commanders of the nation's four field armies.

Helped Train Fliers

There was no hint of intent, however, to follow the example of Germany, Great Britain and most other powers by making the air corps an entirely separate military arm. Both the army and navy have opposed such a move, which has been advocated by many fliers and others.

The GHQ air force, which includes virtually all the army's aerial striking weapons, was made responsible to the new army general headquarters like the land forces. Previously it was responsible to the air corps chief.

Established in 1935, the GHQ force for the last 18 months has had to help train new fliers. The war department said "the time is now arrived" for a return to the status of a "tactical fighting force."

Major General George H. Brett was made acting chief of the air corps to succeed General Arnold.

Reshuffling of the air corps high command was announced after President Roosevelt disclosed the temporary promotion of 26 other officers to brigadier or major general.

They included Colonel Benjamin O. Davis, the first negro to be advanced to the grade of general officer, who was promoted to brigadier general of cavalry. A veteran of 42 years of military service, he was assigned to command a brigade of negro troops in the army's second cavalry division.

Another raised to brigadier general was Lieutenant Colonel Lewis B. Hershey, selective service system executive.

Secretaries To Texans In Congress Set Job Records

By L. T. EASLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—The years of service of five Texas congressional secretaries totals nearly a century, a record probably unparalleled by the secretaries of any other state delegation.

Cloaked in anonymity, these aides do a great bit of the work that is credited to the representatives they serve. In his name they transact business daily with various governmental departments for constituents, for the tasks which fall a congressman's way usually are far too numerous for him to handle alone.

First in length of service among these Texans is Miss Alla Clary, who on Oct. 1 had been secretary to Speaker Sam Rayburn for 21 years. Next is Jules G. Leverett, who in December will have completed 21 years as secretary to the congressman serving the district which includes Galveston. (The boundaries of that district have been changed in recent years. It now is represented by J. J. Mansfield, but when Leverett took his position in 1919 the congressman was Clay Stone Briggs. For two years Clark Thompson was congressman, from 1933 to 1935).

One Totals 28 Years

Miss Nellie A. Lindley has been a secretary of Representative Luther Johnson of Corsicana for 28 years, but this includes nine years as his assistant before he entered congress in 1923. The congressman then was practicing law in Corsicana.

Mrs. Kate George has been secretary to Representative Ewing Thomson of El Paso since he came to congress 10 years ago, and for eight years prior to that served as secretary to Thomson's predecessor, Claude Hudspeth.

Mrs. Lotus Van Huss for 17 years has served as secretary to Representative Marvin Jones of Amarillo, and is to continue as his aide next year when he becomes a judge in the United States Court of Claims. She obtained her law degree several years ago at a local university and has been admitted to practice before the Texas bar.

There's A Secret Here

Miss Marion Greer has been secretary to Representative Fritz Lanham "over 15 years." She won't say just how long, but Lanham entered congress 22 years ago and before employing Miss Greer had two other secretaries whose terms totaled approximately four years. Modest in the extreme, Miss Greer would say little of herself, but only the highest praise for her efficiency came from Lanham.

With the advent of the new deal and the creation of many governmental agencies which reach out to affect the lives of the man in the street and on the farm, the correspondence which a secretary must handle has greatly increased, they all agreed. Once the bulk of mail concerned veterans' and pension cases. In recent years letters from persons seeking jobs has comprised a large portion, although these have fallen off the past few months.

When Speaker Rayburn went to Bonham to attend a celebration in his honor, he designated as Speaker of the House in his place Representative Ewing Thomason of El Paso. Thomason, like Rayburn, once served as speaker of the state House of Representatives in Austin.

* * *

Has Elaborate Suite

When he became speaker, Rayburn inherited the offices that go with that position. He has an elaborate suite — the speaker's office, just off the House chamber, and another suite for handling the affairs of his congressional district. He spends much of the time in the latter, located near the rotunda of the capitol. Purely by coincidence, the life-size stature of Stephen F. Austin stands at the entrance of the narrow corridor leading from the rotunda and through which one must walk to reach that suite.

The long, black 16-cylinder limousine which goes with the speaker's position also became available for the Texan's use, but he still likes to walk. For many years Rayburn has lived at an apartment hotel some two miles or more from the capitol and almost always has walked all or part of the way to work for his daily exercise. He keeps that up, occasionally having the chauffeur of the official speaker's car meet him along the way.

* * *

CONSCRIPTION registration day found Albert S. Jones of Paris, Tex., en route by automobile to Washington. He stopped in suburban Alexandria, Va., eight miles from the district of Columbia, to register. When he reached the capital he discovered that the registrar had put down the correct street address on his card but had given the home town as Alexandria instead of Paris. Too late to get the error corrected, he went to Speaker Rayburn's office and was advised to look up his draft board as soon as he returned home, and tell them the mistake.

As deputy federal loan administrator, Will L. Clayton will have office in the new Federal Loan Agency building and devote his time assisting directors of the export-import bank in connection with Latin-American loans. He will come in daily contact with a fellow Houstonian, Federal Loan Administrator Jesse H. Jones.

In announcing the appointment of Clayton to the post by Jones, the agency issued a press release stating that the former had severed his official connection with the cotton firms of Anderson-Clayton company of Houston, and Anderson-Clayton and Fleming of New York city. It was announced also that he would continue his association with Nelson Rockefeller, coordinator of commercial and cultural relations between the American republics, "bringing the activities of Mr. Rockefeller's committee and those of the inter-American development commission, of which Mr. Rockefeller is also chairman, in closer relations with the activities of the export-import bank."

Netherlands West Indies banks are discouraging installment plan buying.

H. G. Wells Believer In Own Predictions

DALLAS, Oct. 26. (AP)—W. G. Wells, English author, is a prophet who believes in his predictions.

If man does not quickly adapt himself to this 20th century world, a new dark age will ensue, he assured interviewers here today.

"I still believe," he added, "that when I am dead, I should be buried beneath a little stone marked 'I Told You So.'"

Sharon Ridge Is Holding Interest

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

SNYDER, Oct. 26.—Attention of operators in the Sharon Ridge oil field was focused today on D. & R. Oil company's No. 6 W. F. Burney test, 330 feet from the north and west lines of Section 143-97-H & TC Survey, which resumed drilling operations following cementing of oil string at 1,678 feet.

Upper pay saturation is expected to be encountered in this important northwest extension test. Monday D. & R.'s next location will be south of their No. 5 and 6, zig-zagged on 20-acre spacing.

Pearson-Sibert Oil company and Ordovician Oil company's No. 1 Robinson-Dobson-Wetzel et al test in the northwest one-fourth of Section 146-97-H & TC, resumed drilling operations Saturday after cementing oil string at 1,525 feet, and is scheduled to make another good producer for the rapidly extending Sharon pool. Another drilling rig has been moved in to speed up the operators' development program.

To Develop Tracts

On the pool's southwest front, and over the river in the extreme northern edge of Mitchell county, Ehman & Wagner of Wichita Falls have contracted with owners to develop three 40-acre tracts located in subdivision 13-9 and 10, J. Reigler Survey. Harry Ratliff is handling the legal end and the title work.

Hamilton & Leidecker will drill a south offset to the Hilbun well in Section 82-97-H & TC Survey. Hamilton & Leidecker are two well known Wichita Falls operators.

Resume Drilling Operations

Green resumed drilling operations Saturday after cementing oil string at 1,531 feet on his test in the Mills tract, southeast part of the northwest quarter, Section 195.

Anderson was drilling at 420 feet in his test, located in the northeast part of the northwest one-fourth of Tract 10, J. P. Smith Survey.

Wagner et al has moved in a heavy Wichita Falls spudder, and are rigging up to spud today on a farmout from Continental one mile northeast of the Hilbun well, and about the same distance west of the Green well.

Applies For 17 Permits

H. H. Simons, drilling contractor who holds two proven tracts in the heart of the southeast extension area, has applied for 17 permits and plans to go into the production of crude in a big way.

In the center of the filed, Magnolia Petroleum company has erected a second steel derrick over its No. 2 Rufe Sterling test and moved its big steel rotary drilling outfit to their No. 3 Rufe Sterling test, offsetting F. W. Mrrick's No. 4 First National bank of Snyder producer. Magnolia has 160 acres in this lease, the northeast quarter of Section 130-97-H & TC Survey.

To Start Development Work

Falcon Oil company of Fort Worth has the offset lease to Merrick's No. 4 Dora Roberts test, and will start development work as soon as Roy D. Golston returns from his Colorado ranch. Falcon's lease is in the southwest one-fourth of Section 131.

Merrick has cemented oil string in his No. 4 Dora Roberts test, in the southeast corner of the north one-half of the southeast quarter, Section 130. Test will be shot Monday.

Golston's Blue Streak Oil company will drill in the near future its second well on its proven First National bank of Snyder lease in Section 129.

Farther to the southeast in Section 100, Pat Moran is starting additional tests on his proven lease.

Throughout the entire 12-mile length of the Sharon Ridge oil field, one is never out of sight of a drilling rig, with more independent operators moving in every two or three days. The long heralded boom for the Sharon pool is now underway at a "Boom Town" pace.

Railways of Mexico are to be guarded against activities of malcontents.

HIYA, TOOTHS! — That charming smile is due to the most photogenic teeth in Hollywood, according to a recent selection by southern California dentists. The prize teeth belong to Margaret Tallichet, young actress who was formerly a Dallas, Tex., society reporter.

Location Of New Hangar May Appear A Bit 'Cock-eyed' At Municipal Airport But It Is In Accordance With U. S. Approved Plan

Location of the new hangar to be built soon at Municipal airport may look a bit "cock-eyed" at first, but it will be in strict accordance with the U. S. approved master plan for the port.

This was the assertion Saturday by A. F. Holt, chairman of the city aviation board.

Contract for the construction of the new hangar, he explained, was awarded recently to Allied Steel Products company of Tulsa on a bid of approximately $5,625. The city is to build the concrete foundation and floor at an additional estimated cost of about $1,000.

Will Face At An Angle

Holt explained that the new hangar will be located so that it will face at an angle from the front of present buildings. The result undoubtedly will be a "cock-eyed" appearance, he commented. But it will be located at the spot approved by the Civil Aeronautics board and in accordance with the master plan for the airport as approved by that board.

Thus it will fit into the long range plan for the development of the port which will include, among other things, at least four runways each nearly a mile in length to be laid in such directions that a plane always can land or take-off "into the wind." A landing or a take-off in any manner other than into the wind always is dangerous, according to Holt who is himself a pilot of long experience.

Students Warned To Pass Or Join Army

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 26. (AP)—University of New Mexico students were given to understand today they could pass their studies or take their chances on doing "squads right."

J. L. Bostwick, dean of men, in a letter published today in the student paper, said:

"It is probably safe to presume that the proper interpretation of the draft law would mean that a student, in order to have his call postponed until July first, would have to be doing satisfactory work in his courses.

"In other words, the university cannot recommend deferrment of service for students who are doing less than passing work."

The conscription law states that college students within the draft age may not be called until July 1, 1941.

STREETS OILED

WHITEFACE—The main street, from the street leading from the Santa Fe depot to the highway, is being oiled for three blocks, to the school building. Oil companies donated the oil, a truck was furnished by a contractor and Commissioner E. C. White arranged for gas, oil and a driver for the truck.

Forms For Conscientious Objectors To Military Service Given Draft Board

Blanks To Be Distributed When Claims For Deferment Are Made

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Special forms that must be filled by conscientious objectors to military service were distributed to local draft boards today to aid in determining whether such men should be deferred from training.

They will be passed out to men who file claims for deferment on these grounds in the regular draft questionnaire which will be filled out by all registrants in the order in which their numbers are drawn in next Tuesday lottery.

Mut Be By Religion

The form is divided into two classifications: Those willing to do noncombatant service and those unwilling to serve under any circumstances. In either case, the objector must establish that his opposition is "by reason of my religious training and belief."

Draft Director Clarence A. Dykstra pointed out that the conscription act provides that men establishing such claims cannot be indured into the army if they "object to all forms of military training." Such men, he said, can only be assigned to work of national importance under civilian direction.

Lottery Plans Progress

Meanwhile, plans for the lottery moved forward rapidly. Eight girls who were locked in a room at draft headquarters to place the registration numbers in small opaque capsules for use in the lottery completed the task last night. Every precaution had been taken to prevent any capsule from being left empty or any number from being left out.

The capsules will be loaded into an armored truck and taken to the treasury, there to be placed in a vault for storage until Tuesday. They then will be transferred to the interdepartmental auditorium and deposited in the glass bowl used in the World war draft lottery.

The last barrier to posting of serial numbers issued to all draft registrants were removed with the appointment of local boards in the state of Georgia.

THE SKATING ROCKETS

Skating Rockets To Be Seen With Cole Bros. Circus Here

The Skating Rockets will contribute much to the glamour of Cole Bros. circus when it appears in Lubbock Thursday for afternoon and night performances on the East Broadway grounds.

The six girls comprising the troupe are described as presenting the most spectacular act of its kind on tour.

Meanwhile, preparations went forward Saturday to provide for the needs of the huge organization while it remains in Lubbock.

The routine of feeding the hundreds of people and animals aboard the two special trains will be a gigantic job—and incidentally it will mean quite a bit of business for Lubbock. Circus officials explained that as many of the day-to-day needs as possible are purchased in the cities where performances are given.

Such items as six thousand pounds of hay, three thousand pounds of straw, two hundred bushels of oats, four hundred pounds of bran, three hundred or more loaves of bread for each meal, butter, milk, cream, coffee, sugar, meat, eggs, and so on for 2,000 meals each day served to staff, performers, and workingmen.

As a result of the recent disaster in winterquarters the show has been entirely rebuilt, new wild animals from Singapore, Africa and American zoos, added to the already huge menagerie, new wagons, props, cages, and other equipment . . . new acts and features have also been added this year including Ken Maynard, greatest of all wild west moving picture stars, The Brannock troupe of acrobats, The Loyal-Repenski family of bareback riders, The Escalante Troupe of aerialists from Spain, The Skating Rockets from Oslo, Norway, Joan Spalding, world's greatest lady gymnast, and many others.

Undefeated Raiders Rumble Over Marquette, 20 To 13

DEFENSIVE DEMON!—That's the title Newman "Red" Ledbetter, 213-pound right tackle for Texas Tech, won for himself in Milwaukee, Wis., Saturday afternoon as he stood out defensively in the Red Raiders' convincing 20 to 13 triumph over Marquette's Golden Avalanche. Hailing from San Benito, Ledbetter is a junior, has been coming along all the time and at last took his bow in the spotlight.

Techsans Score In Last Stanza To Clinch Win

By COLLIER PARRIS
Avalanche Sports Editor

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 26. — Texas Techs better conditioned Red Raiders wore the bigger, huskier Marquette University Hilltoppers down to their size, then whipped out a 20-13 victory here today to take the "sugar game" of the series.

The clubs battled along on fairly even terms during the first half, after which the Marquettes began to wilt. They were penalized three times for too many times out in the last half, and there were frequent substitutions for Hilltoppers bowled over hard by the crashing Tech offense and defense.

Dvoracek Scores Winner

Marquette scored early in the contest following a Tech fumble deep in Red Raider territory, but the raiders struck back with a vengeance, carrying the ball 90 yards, including Milton Hill's 45-yard runback of the kickoff after touchdown. With big Charles Dvoracek carrying and C. L. Storrs passing, the Raiders scored without losing the ball, Dvoracek going over from the one-yard line after two punches at the stubborn Marquette forward wall.

Tech was behind going into the second period, McKnight having failed to kick extra point to match the Marquette conversion. Early in the second, however, Storrs heaved a pass to McKnight good for 45 yards and a touchdown, and this time McKnight's try for point was good.

Passing Constant Threat

The Golden Avalanche came right back and scored without giving up the ball, James Richardson topping off a run-and-pass drive with a 32-yard sprint behind fine blocking around Tech's left end. Robert Kemnitz missed the uprights and the score was tied at 13-all from then until big Dvoracek cut loose over his own left tackle and sprinted 24 yards for the winning touchdown, Roger Smith place-kicked the extra point, and Tech had won its fourth game of the season against no defeats.

The Raiders threatened frequently, drove like the wind between the 20-yard lines, gained 248 yards net on running plays to 104 for Marquette and threw in 130 more paces on forwards to 104 for Marquette. From the first, the Techs seemed to have the game under control, but the pitching of Richardson and the receiving of Captain Don Vosberg, truly a great end, and William Phillips constituted a serious threat to the bitter end.

Weather Cuts Crowd

Line play of "Red" Ledbetter, tackle; Rafe Nabors, center, and the guards, Primo McCurry and Will Allbright, stood out like beacon lights for all linemen to follow, and the Red Raider backs did just what the statistics show. Dvoracek, Milton Hill, Don Austin, Red Amonett, Tom Douglas and Jumbo Webster gave the Parents Day crowd of 9,000 an offensive show the like which is seldon seen. They circled the ends, bashed the line, even gained ground over "All-American" Ray Apolskis and finally got him out of the game altogether. A lot of plans went wrong, but on the whole the Techsters clicked well.

An anticipated crowd of 15,000 probably was crippled by a sudden cold wave. The skies were murky but no moisture was evident.

Milton Hill, hip-twisting halfback who was to go down as one of Tech's standouts, started off as the "goat" of the game. He made a couple of nice gains early in the first quarter, then fumbled and lost the ball to Kemnitz on the Marquette 37-yard line, setting up the first touchdown spree. Baerwold promptly tore around right end, cut back for a 14-yard gain, first advance of any consequence for the hosts. He and Renzel carried to the 22, and Baerwold cut loose with a goalward pass. Hill, instead of knocking it down at the goal line, intercepted it and was tackled there. He tried to

Aggies Roll Over Baylor; Rice Upsets Longhorns

Miami Eleven Invades City Friday Night

Texas Tech's hard-rolling and undefeated Red Raiders will play their next three intersectional games at Tech Stadium, and the first of the trio will be next Friday night at 8:30 o'clock against the University of Miami Hurricanes.

All local fans recall that Miami blasted Texas Tech out of Florida last season by a smothering 19 to 0 score.

The Crimsons, victorious Saturday over Marquette, 20 to 13, will return to Lubbock at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning, and after attending classes, will stage their first practice drill Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Miami, with three victories and one defeat this season, hasn't met a defense which has really bothered it greatly this fall and has tallied at least three touchdowns each game.

Michigan Drops Penn, 14 To 0

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 28.—Michigan's great Tommy Harmon raced 19 yards to one touchdown and passed 15 to a teammate for another to lead the Wolverines to a 14 to 0 victory over Pennsylvania before 60,000 impressed fans today.

Any doubts the Michigan star would retain the All-America laurels accorded him last season were erased as he turned in one of the most brilliant performances of his career against the previously undefeated Quakers. By scoring a touchdown and kicking two extra points, Harmon ran his total points for five games to 87 and left his most prominent rival, Frank Reagan of Penn., far in the rear.

Tommy Was Terrific

The heralded duel between Reagan and Harmon never did develop. The diminutive Penn ace neither could pass nor run to advantage against the stout Michigan defense, and he was jerked from the game by Coach George Munger early in the final period.

The best Reagan could do was toss a couple of 11-yard passes, and his longest run from scrimmage was seven yards. Harmon, in addition to his two scoring plays, streaked through and around the Penn line for gains of 23, 17, 14, 14 and 12 yards, and completed two other long passes of 24 and 14 yards. In addition, his kicking was splendid. He was, in a word, terrific.

Michigan scored its touchdowns in the first and third periods. Penn lumbered down as far as Michigan's two-yard line at the start of the final quarter, but couldn't score through the bunched Wolverine defense.

Meadowbrook Is Site For Tourney Today

Bradley Says Harris Will Be Considered

CLEVELAND, Oct. 26. (AP)—President Alva Bradley of the Cleveland Indians admitted today he had talked with Bucky Harris, Washington, manager, about piloting the Indians in 1941, but said he had made no offer.

"Bucky is simply one of several whose names will be submitted to our board of directors when we met Monday," Bradley said. "Oscar Vitt's name is also on the list."

Cadets Measure Inspired Bear Eleven, 14-7

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

WACO, Oct. 26.—The growing Texas A. and M., snowball flattened gallant, geared-up Baylor today, 14-7, tumbling to its sixteenth straight triumph in one of the stoutest tests of the Aggies' long string.

Hobbled at critical moments by the famed Baylor line, the Cadets drew deeply on their power, experience and passing game to build a two-touchdown lead that withstood Baylor's last minute surge.

Ags Lead Statistics

Battered, weary, the screams of 20,000 fans beating their ears the last 20 minutes, the Aggies were glad to leave Municipal Stadium and a Baylor team that had been pointing for them since the playing date was announced months ago.

The Aggies outgained and outscored the Baylors, but they had to fire All-America John Kimbrough, big Jim Thomason, Marion Pugh's aerial darts and their great line for sixty minutes to get on the winning side. The Aggies swept to 263 yards on a slightly slippery field, 155 of it from running, while Baylor rolled up 145 yards.

Late Surge Threatens

The first down margin went to the big red touchdown machine, 14 to six, and many times they lost scoring opportunities on their own errors and Baylor's valiant stands, but still they had to scramble to stifle Baylor in the last period.

Only one minute remained when the Aggies finally got the situation under control again. Then, on Kimbrough's battering forays outside the tackles, they were sweeping ahead down on the Baylor 13 yard line as the game ended.

Passes Start Clicking

Dwight Parks' meek kick-back that sailed out on the Baylor 40 started proceedings. Kimbrough and Conatser jabbing the tackles and skirting the ends, took turns about upsetting the Bruins. Just as Baylor's line girded down on their four for some of Kimbrough's bull rushing, Conatser tailed out around left end for the score, untouched. Pugh kicked the point.

Parks started connecting with passes to Witt that gained 22 and 11 yards in a drive that started from the Baylor 32 and ended in futility on the last play before the half when

Arkansas Drops Rebels, 21-20

(By The Associated Press)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 26.—Fighting a grim, uphill battle, Arkansas' valiant Porkers punched over a pair of touchdowns in the final period to defeat a favored Ole Miss eleven 21-20 before approximately 12,000 roaring fans here today.

Fullback Bob Forte, a 185-pound back from Lake Village, Ark., set up the winning touchdown, scooping in a partially blocked Rebel punt on the Ole Miss 37 and racing to the one. Jay Lawhon bulled over for the score and Simington kicked the vital extra point.

Aerials Pay Off

It was a bitter defeat for the unbeaten bowl-minded Mississippians, seeking their fifth victory of the season. Fighting desperately in the last few seconds and sparked by their brilliant "H" boys," little Junie Hovious and Merle Hapes, the Rebels marched to the Arkansas 19 but one of Eubanks two field goal attempts was blocked and the other fell short.

The "passing Porkers" opened their bag of tricks five minutes after the game started. After working to the Rebel 14, Hamberg pitched to Ramsay for the score. Simington kicked the first of his three extra points.

The Rebels rallied and plowed through for a touchdown two minutes after the start of the second quarter little Junie set up the score with a pair of passes to Popp which carried to the Porker seven. In two tries Hapes crunched over. Hovious booted the extra point.

Minutes later, after Ole Miss

Sandies Whip Game North Side, 19-7

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

AMARILLO, Oct. 26—Rallying after a slow and unimpressive start, the Golden Sandstorm bowled over a fiercely fighting North Side eleven of Fort Worth, 19 to 7, here this afternoon.

The Sandstorm didn't have much wind in its sails in the first period and for the first time this season permitted the opposition to score first.

The Steers pushed over their lone tally on passes just as every team which has counted against the Sandstorm this season has done.

Midway in the opening period, Mosley passed to Wilson for the touchdown which climaxed an aerial drive of 52 yards. Boorman, one of the game's greats today, added extra point.

The Sandies caught up with North Side with a 34-yard drive in the second period.

In the third, they went to town with two quick touchdowns and then dropped back into their sluggish ways. Johnson passed eight yards to Baker for the first six-pointer, and he added the second one on an 11-yard dash around end and the third on a brilliant 55-yard sprint.

Heralded as the team to beat in the Panhandle, the Sandies invade Borger next Saturday afternoon to open their District 1-AA campaign. The contest will

Bates' 77-Yard Punt Highlight---

Tech's Freshmen Grab 21-7 Victory From New Mexico University Frosh Eleven

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

ALBUQUERQUE, Oct. 26.—Texas Tech's Freshmen footballers scored twice in the final period here today to crush the hard-fighting New Mexico Freshmen, 21 to 7, before 1,500 fans.

A 77-yard punt by J. L. Bates, star Tech back, on the first play in the final period broke New Mexico moral after the two teams had fought three quarters to a 7-7 standoff.

Lobo safety Ed Klein, standing on his own 40, watched the ball carry over his head in a strong wind and made no great effort to retrieve it until it stopped on the Lobo one-yard line.

Loboes Score In First

New Mexico recovered, but Clyde Hill's punt was partly blocked by Vernon Ray. Picador end, and veered out on the 12-yard line. Bob Baker hit the line twice to within inches of the goal and Marvin McKown carried it over.

A few minutes later, the Picadors blocked a New Mexico kick for a safety. Then, after recovering a Lobo fumble, Tech scored again with Bates going around end for the counter.

Early in the game, Fullback Vic Crocco cut loose on a delayed line buck, crashed 85 yards for the Lobo score. Tex Rankin made the placement for extra point.

Penalty Kills Counter

The Loboes threatened five times more, but couldn't cash in on the breaks.

Tech struck back to tie the score within four plays of the Lobo counter. A 40-yard pass, Baker to Rowden, landed them on the Lobo 13. Two plays later, Jack Everett passed down the grove to Howard Alford for the touchdown. Everett converted successfully to tie the count.

A clipping penalty nullified another Tech touchdown in the first quarter after George Odom had made a sensational 35-yard runback of a Lobo punt.

Sooners Annex 20-7 Victory

AMES, Ia., Oct. 26. — Oklahoma's Sooners, big strapping fellows from the Southwest, had to use all their power here today to pull through a 20 to 7 victory over a hard-fighting band of Iowa State Cyclones.

The gallant Cyclones, battling to please a Homecoming crowd of 14,000 fans who sat in an uncomfortably warm October sun, fought on almost even terms with Oklahoma until late in the fourth period when rip-roaring Johnny Martin broke their hearts with a 53-yard touchdown dash.

Second Big Six Win

Martin's scoot through the left side of the Iowa State line and down through the secondary provided the Sooners with their second straight Big Six triumph.

Until then, however, Big Hank Wilder and company had the Sooners hustling all the way and it might have been an entirely different story if big Hank hadn't lost an apparent touchdown with the score tied in the third period.

Touchdown Called Back

Wilder grabbed a flat pass on the Iowa State 48 and dodged his way through the entire Oklahoma team for a 52 yard sprint. Iowa State Homecomers moaned, however, when the play was called back because of a clipping penalty.

The Cyclones threatened on various occasions and once had a rally choked off by the big Sooners on the one yard line.

Oklahoma, with slippery Jack Jacobs, the triple-threat Indian flash, and Martin providing the spark, drove 65 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter, Martin finishing the powerhouse attack with a one yard plunge. Jack Haberlein came off the bench to kick the extra point and Oklahoma led, 7 to 0.

Wilder, an in-an-outer who definitely was "in" today, grabbed a toss from Larry Owens and rambled 32 yards for the touchdown. Paul Darling kicked the extra point to tie the score.

There were several scoring threats by both teams before Oklahoma finally cracked the deadlock late in the third quarter with another long drive. The Sooners, mixing passes with power, ripped 64 yards for a touchdown, Jacobs taking the ball over on a plunge from the 4-yard mark. Haberlein again did his extra point kicking stunt and Oklahoma led, 14 to 7.

Bill Jennings set up the final Oklahoma touchdown by intercepting a pass to give the Sooners the ball on their 43. They picked up four more yards and then Martin dashed off with his game-clinching run.

Oklahoma Aggies Lose To Arizona, 24 To 0

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 26. (AP) — Three flashing touchdown passes and a fourth score on a pass interception gave the University of Arizona a 24-to-0 football victory over Oklahoma A. & M., here tonight.

Arizona's aerial game worked to perfection as the Wildcats gave early evidence of their superiority by marching 73 yards in seven plays to score midway in the first quarter.

Italy High Boasting Perfect Grid Record

ITALY, Oct. 26. (AP)—Italy High school's Gladiators pointed today to a record of 224 points in six games, while keeping their own goal line uncrossed, and wanted to know if any Texas team can top that.

Last night the Gladiators defeated Milford 27-0. They previously held victories over Mansfield, Whitney, Frost, Blooming Grove and Hubbard.

Owls' 13 To 0 Triumph Stops Steer Streak

By WILLIAM T. RIVES
Associated Press Sports Writer

HOUSTON, Oct. 26.—Rice Institute, playing its grandest game of the young season, struck down the colors of unbeaten, untied Texas University today, bursting loose for two terrific surges for a 13-0 victory.

The bonfire eager Rice students had built on the campus last night still smouldered as the Owls set out in their first Southwest conference clash, underdogs against the league's leading ground-gainer.

Weems Is Hero

With shocking suddenesses Rice showed it was no respector of reputations, racing across for a touchdown in the first 4½ minutes.

T.A. Weems, the tall Rockdale sophomore, who wrote his name indelibly on Rice's roll of honor today, touched off the explosion.

Rice took the ball on a punt on its own 31, on the first play from scrimmage, Weems zig-zagged 41 yards on reverse around right end to the Texas 28. Bob Brumley and Price shook the Texas line to the 6 and Brumley carried it over in three tries. Weems kicked the point.

Strike Again In Third

The third period lasted only four plays before Rice scored again. Weems snuggled the kickoff and churned 56 yards downfield, finally being run out again on the Texas 29. Three plays later, from the 24, Brumley broke through the Longhorn forward wall and lateraled to Weems just as he was being tackled along the 10-yard line. Weems cut behind two tacklers and raced over. He failed on his conversion attempt.

Jack Crain, the wraith of Texas University, was just another ballplayer today. His net gain in five tries was four yards, compared to Weems' 94 in 13 efforts.

Crain Is Bottled

Crain played about 26 minutes. He was injured in the Arkansas game last Saturday and did not suit up this week until Thursday. Coach Dana Bible apparently was content to use him no more.

Rice rolled up 201 yards rushing, holding Texas to a meek 94. The Longhorns, however, plucked 102 yards on Pete Layden's and R. L. Harkins' passes. Rice completed no passes but tried only three in view of its whacking success along the ground.

Frogs Defeated By Tulsa, 7-0!

By BEN PUNK
Associated Press Sports Writer

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 26.—An inspired University of Tulsa football team smashed the famous Texas Christian university aerial attack today and launched a vicious running and passing offensive of its own to score a startling 7-0 upset victory before 10,800 Homecoming day fans at Skelly field.

The Golden Hurricane, in the season's greatest demonstration of speed and power, stunned the Horned Frogs with a touchdown thrust in the first three minutes of the game and protected the lead by dominating all phases of play for the remainder of the afternoon.

Desperate Drive Fails

Fifteen-yard penalties for holding stopped two Tulsa drives inside the TCU ten yard line and a third march which carried to the seven yard stripe failed to procure a score when Halfback Roy Buffalo's attempt for a field goal went wide.

Texas Christian tried desperately to tie the score in the fading moments of the second period but the timekeeper's gun sounded with the ball six yards from the Hurricane goal.

Glenn Dobbs, Tulsa's great kicker, gave the crowd one of its biggest thrills with a mighty 70-yard boot that went out of bounds on the Frog one-yard line and paved the way for the game-winning touchdown.

Tulsa Kicking Superb

Halfback Jimmy Vickers took the return punt on the 38 and raced back to the 23. On third down, Dobbs passed to Vickers on the one-yard line and as two tacklers smashed him down hard he fell with the ball inches across the goal. End Bill Grimmett's kick from placement connected beautifully for the extra point.

The Horned Frogs completed 16 passes out of 28 attempts but many of them gained only a yard or two as the alert Tulsa secondary smashed the receivers down in their tracks.

Altogether, TCU gained 90 yards with its aerial game, while the Hurricane, with seven completions out of 15 tries, piled up 98 yards.

WAYLAND LOSES, 7-18

SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 26. (AP)—Coach Stu Clark's New Mexico Normal university Cowboys chalked up their second win of the season here today, trouncing the Wayland college Jackrabbits of Plainview, 18-7.

The Harvesters Are Next!

By Collier Parris

By JAY HARRIS
Pinchhitting For Parris

THERE is a new alignment in District 1-AA—one which is shattering tradition and making state champions.

Time was when both the turkey and the Panhandle grid crown were served to Amarillo's Golden Sandies on the same platter. Not so of late. And as a result, this section of the state's schoolboy world is in a mid-season lather that rivals comparison.

Where there usually is one or more blots on most conference eleven's records in the District, this fall finds three teams—a "Big Three" with a darkhorse if you please—rolling along undefeated and untied, each with six scalps for the season's work.

• • •

Lubbock's state champion Westerners, the Golden Sandstorm and Plainview's surprising Bulldogs are riding high, wide and very handsome.

• • •

The "experts" say the Sandies have it. Lubbock partisans argue that somebody has made another colossal blunder and not until the sun sinks behind Tech Stadium the afternoon of Thursday, November 21 will the 1940 titlist be known.

Just as confident, Plainview fans think Coach Vernon Hilliard will explode a sleeper on the boys in the stretch.

And there's basis for all beliefs.

• • •

Boasting a string of 15 consecutive triumphs, Coaches Goober Keyes and Walker Nichols Saturday afternoon will send their Westerners against Pampa's dangerous Harvesters—the team against whom they inaugurated their amazing streak with a stunning 6 to 0 upset last fall.

Their goal line crossed by only four teams during this impressive march, the Black and Gold powerhouse will invade Harvester Park with their second District conquest their goal.

But even the "invincible" fall—and heavily. Testimony to that is Longview's 7 to 14 loss to Kilgore, an upset that thundered from border to coast; Waxahachies 2 to 0 defeat of a favored Bryan aggregation; Texas' nemesis at the hands of Rice, 13 to 0; Penn's defeat by Tommy Harmon, Fordham going down under St. Mary's, Ole Miss falling to Arkansas and on down the line of headaches that are causing those "how'd that happen" looks today.

All of which is a lengthy way of saying:

That no matter how good Lubbock High is today, somebody else may be better tomorrow!

• • •

There's a special train planned for the Pampa trip, over the Santa Fe route. The fare is $2.65 for the round trip. Departure from Lubbock is scheduled for 8 o'clock Saturday morning, arrival in Pampa at 11:45 o'clock, return trip to start

Nebraska Takes Missouri, 20-7

BY HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 26. — Introducing Mr. Harry Hopp, father of a 10-day old son and work horse of the University of Nebraska football team in today's 20 to 7 Big Six victory over Missouri.

You won't find the name of this stolid, black-haired Husker halfback in the scoring summary but he did everything else. He blasted through the Missouri line, twisted around the Tiger ends, passed for a touchdown and punted.

Passing Attack Clicks

The reason the 21 year old junior didn't score in this battle of the bandages that attracted more than 38,000 Homecoming fans — largest outpouring ever to see a Big Six contest—was that Roy Petsch forsook his old job of blocking to gambol 53 yards for the first Husker tally. It was a double reverse, Vike Francis to Walt Luther to Petsch, that brought the touchdown.

Then Herman Rohrig shook off the arnica and doctor's wrappings long enough to hoist two consecutive passes to Luther for a total of 48 yards and a second marker. In the final period Hopp tossed to Luther for the third touchdown.

Get Extra Point, Anyway

For 58 minutes Paul Christian and his Missouri mates were stymied by the tough Huskers, who were determined that there would be no third consecutive victory for the Tigers.

Missouri got some consolation—in the first conference defeat for them since late in 1938—when Ted Leibig, sub guard, added the extra point. It was the first successful try in 11 attempts for the Tigers.

JOCK'S DODGERS ROLLING

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26. (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles needed a doctor "tonight—but not Dr. Jock Sutherland—as they lost their seventh consecutive National league professional football game, 21 to 7, to Jock's Brooklyn Dodgers before 6,000 shivering fans at Shibe park.

WASHINGTON 7; CALIFORNIA 6

SEATTLE, Oct. 26. (AP) — Washington came from behind in the fourth period to defeat hard-driving and stubborn California, 7 to 6, before 25,000 fans today. California scored in the third quarter on a 56-yard touchdown run by Gene Pickett; then missed the extra point.

Vandy Licked By LSU, 7-0

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 26. (AP)—Louisiana State university unleashed a 40-yard scoring drive in the final period tonight to defeat Vanderbilt 7-0 before about 20,000 spectators for its first southeastern conference victory. Fumbles were frequent.

Louisiana State gained 164 net yards to Vandy's 43 and led 10 to 5 in first downs.

The Louisiana forwards rushed the Commodore passers so hard and smothered them so often that in 16 attempts Vandy's net passing yardage was minus three.

Lamesa Poloists Play Here This Afternoon

Game time is 2:30 o'clock.

The two aggregations, perhaps the best in this circuit, will be playing off a tie, each having won one game apiece. The last game went in favor of the Lubbocks, 7 to 2.

Today's contest is free.

Plans to entertain a crack delegation of players from Mexico City are under way, the visitors to play here some time during November. The tussle will highlight the season's polo activities here.

Lineups for today's game follow: Lamesa Blacks— Lynn Parkinson, Spencer Barron, Bob Koger and Elmo Smith.

Lubbock — Claude B. Hurlbut, Charles Smith, Bobbie Wiley and Guy Smith.

OREGON STATE WINS

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26. (AP) — Oregon State defeated the University of California at Los Angeles on a soggy field, 7-0, in a Pacific Coast conference football game today. Attendance was 25,000.

Tulane Defeats Tar Heels, 14-13, In Fading Minutes

(By The Associated Press)

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 26. A third string quarterback who entered the game in its closing minutes rushed through the line, blocked a North Carolina kick and helped Tulane to a 14-13 victory over the Tar Heels today.

A Homecoming crowd of 20,000 saw the contest in clear, hot weather.

The substitute quarterback was Tom Glass, a Tulane home town product from New Orleans. With the Green Wave trailing 13-7, with the ball in North Carolina's possession on Tulane's 43, with less than two minutes to play—he turned defeat into victory.

Knifing through North Carolina's line, Tom blocked a kick by Harry Dunkle. Albert Dodney of Gary, Ind., Tulane end, grabbed the ball on North Carolina's 45 and raced untouched into the end zone. Jimmy Thibaut, another New Orleans product, cooly booted the deciding extra point from placement.

Trojans Lose To Stanford

PALO ALTO, Calif., Oct. 26. (AP)—Stanford scored two touchdowns in the last minutes of play today to defeat Southern California 21 to 7 in their annual Pacific Coast conference football classic before 55,000 spectators.

The thrilling contest saw Stanford drive 80 yards to break a 7-7 deadlock. With less than 60 seconds to go, quarterback Frank Albert intercepted a USC pass and ran 24 yards to clinch the game.

Stanford scored in the opening period and USC tied the count in the second.

Surprises Mark Saturday's Games As Texas, Penn, Fordham, Trojans Fall

Perfect Record List Sliced In Day Of Upsets

BY HERB BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 26. — Football form took a terrific drubbing today as Fordham, Texas, Mississippi, Columbia, Southern California and Penn dropped off the unbeaten list, and upsets were the rule all along the line.

Still undefeated and untied when the firing was over for the day were Cornell, Navy, Georgetown, Boston College, Penn State and Lafayette in the east; Michigan, Notre Dame, Minnesota, Northwestern and Detroit in the Midwest; the Texas Aggies in the Southwest; Tennessee and Clemson in the South; and Stanford in the Far West.

Harmon Tops Stars

All-America Tom Harmon paced Michigan to a decisive 14-0 victory over Penn, scoring one touchdown on a 19-yard sprint and passing to End Ed Frutig for the other. A crowd of 60,000 saw Penn's ace, Frank Reagan, shackled all the way. Fordham bowed to St. Mary's of California, 9-6, on Joe Aguirre's fourth period field goal; Mississippi surrendered to Arkansas' great fourth quarter surge, 21-20; Texas, with Jack Crain unable to get going, fell before Rice, 13-0; Columbia was topped by Syracuse, 3-0, when Leland (Buck) Morris drop-kicked a field goal in the last 40 seconds.

Cornell spotted Ohio State a touchdown and then came back to rout the Buckeyes, 21-7, before a record Ithaca crowd of 34,500. Lou Bufalino scored twice in the last quarter to salt the decision away and run Cornell's unbeaten streak to 16 games.

Irish March On!

A crowd of 63,186, biggest at Champagne in 11 years, looked on as Notre Dame, boasting its finest team in years, rolled over Illinois 26-0 with Steve Juzwik counting twice.

Navy, Georgetown, Boston College, Lafayette and Penn State, the other unbeaten Eastern outfits, won decisively. Georgetown ran its unbeaten streak to 21 games with a 26-0 rout of New York university. Navy hammered Yale into submission, 21-0; Lafayette knocked over hapless Army, 19-0; Penn State ran up an 18-0 count on Temple, and Boston College spilled St. Anselm's, 55-0.

Dartmouth Surprises

Dartmouth surprised with a 7-6 decision over Harvard and Brown's 6-6 victory over Holy Cross also was cause for eyebrow-lifting. Princeton handed Rutgers its first defeat, 28-13 and Wesleyan defeated Amherst, in an upset, 14-6 in the first game of the little three series.

Minnesota turned loose all its power and trampled Iowa, 34-6, before 63,000 as George Franck scored four touchdowns. Northwestern, with Bill DeCorrevont on the sidelines because of an ankle sprain, had to come from behind to stop Indiana, 20-7. Wisconsin pulled a surprise by beating Purdue, 14-13, in a lively duel that saw all four touchdowns scored in the final quarter.

Michigan State and Santa Clara played to a scoreless draw but Texas Tech outpointed Marquette, 20-13.

Big Six True To Form

Form held fast in the Big Six where Nebraska was too powerful for Missouri and won, 20-7; Oklahoma subdued Iowa State, 20-7, and Kansas State tripped Kansas, 20-0.

The Texas Aggies needed to call on every resource at their command to turn back Baylor's Bears, 14-7, and remain unbeaten through their 16th successive game. Texas Christian dropped a surprise 7-0 decision to Tulsa.

Tennessee had to shake Bill Nowling and Buist Warren loose for two long runs to defeat Florida, 14-0. Georgia Tech came a cropper against Auburn's fine team, 16-7 in another Southeastern conference fray.

Stanford Stops Trojans

Al Rodney's 45-yard touchdown run after a blocked kick and the ensuing extra point gave Tulane a 7-13 decision over North Carolina.

Duke's Southern conference hopefuls walloped Wake Forest, 23-0, but upsets were general in that sector otherwise. Richmond topped Virginia Military, 9-7 and Virginia Tech trounced Washington and Lee, 21-0. Furman ran up a 40-7 count on Davidson. William and Mary surprised with a 13-6 decision over non-conference Virginia.

Stanford's amazing Indians pushed over two touchdowns in the final quarter and walloped Southern California, 21-7, to remain the lone unbeaten, untied team in the Far West. It was Southern California's first defeat although the Trojans had been tied twice.

Washington had to come from behind to nip fighting California, 7-6; Oregon State gave U.C.L.A. another beating, 7-0; and Oregon surprised by holding Washington State to a 6-6 draw.

Utah threw the Rocky Mountain Big Seven into an uproar with a 25-14 defeat of Denver. Colorado romped over Wyoming 62-0.

Denver City Looking For November Foes

DENVER CITY, Oct. 26. (Special) After a week's rest from competition, Coach Hatcher Brown's Denver City Mustangs will meet Whitharral here next Friday.

Coach Brown is seeking games for Nov. 8 and Nov. 15.

While the 'A' team was resting, the 'B' squad swamped Seagraves 'B', 25 to 0 Friday night. Sparked by Lawson, shifty halfback, Denver scored at will on the ground and through the air. It was the second straight win for the 'B' team.

Air mail service has been inaugurated between Shanghai, China, and Thialand.

Sensational Trial Puts Gamblers On Spot---

Jockeys Admit Taking Bribes As Testimony Explodes Big California Racing Scandal

(By The Associated Press)

SAN MATEO, Calif., Oct. 26.—California's biggest horse race scandal in years came to light today with testimony of seven jockeys before the state racing board that they had accepted money from a San Francisco gambler for "pulling" horses at four major tracks.

The jockeys, appearing before the board as sworn witnesses, were named by board Chairmen Jerry Giesler as Leonard Scott of Sabinal, Texas, Steve Packer of Sparks, Nev., Thomas Mansor of Lawrence, Mass., Ellis Gray of Thatcher, Ida., Gus Dye of Boise, Ida., W. F. Ward of Wichita, Kas., and Freddie Miller of Salt Lake City.

All seven were suspended after sensational testimony that Bernard Mooney, identified as a bookmaker and gambler, paid them off with bribes of $100 and $200, depending on the race odds, for holding their horses back.

"I don't blame these boys," Giesler declared, "Mooney is the real culprit. He is not the type wanted around California tracks."

Geisler, an attorney from Los Angeles, recommended that Mooney, alias Einstoss of Los Angeles, be prosecuted on charges of conspiracy to commit theft, actual theft, and contributing to the delinquency of minors. Many of the pockeys are under legal age.

Cowhands Wallop Bullpups

LaMaster's Boys Win, 39 To 7

By JOE PIERCE
Avalanche-Journal Sports Writer

High-scoring football teams seem to be the order of the week for Lubbock. First the Dunbar Panthers smacked Amarillo's colored team, 53 to 7. Then the Westerners rolled over Borger, 51 to 0. Yesterday afternoon the Red Raiders beat Marquette, 20 to 13.

And last night in Tech Stadium Lubbock's Cowhands finished off the week by trampling Plainview's Bullpups, 39 to 7.

That was the fifth victory of the season for Coach Cy LaMaster's eleven, the high school second team which serves as a training ground for future Westerners.

Three Teams Used

LaMaster used three full teams, with the so-called first team playing less than half the game. The shock troops started the game and allowed the visitors to pile up a 7 to 0 lead in the first quarter. Then at the beginning of the second quarter, the top eleven came into the game and proceeded to score 20 points without delay. In the third, with the third team playing most of the period, Lubbock added 13 more points. With all three elevens playing alternately in the final quarter, six more points were added.

The scoring routine was something like this: 1. After an exchange of punts in the first period, Plainview took the ball on the 22 and scored in four plays, Dameron carrying over from the one-yard line. Kick for point was good.

Wallace Scores On Freak

2. In the second period, Plainview held for downs on the five-yard line, but the punt from behind the goal line went straight up and Ezell Wallace caught it coming down for a touchdown. Wayne Odom kicked point.

3. Lubbock scored in the second after recovering a blocked kick on the 20. Odom carrying firm the 15.

4. Jack Pipes scored from the three-yard line to culminate a 68-yard drive, to end the first-half scoring.

5. After one touchdown play had been called back and Plainview had held for downs on the one-yard line, Curly Ellison caught a punt on the 29 and raced it back for a touchdown. The plunge for point was good, making the score 27-0 early in the third.

6. Still in the third, Robert Brewer carried over from the one-yard line, where Lubbock had recovered a blocked Plainview punt.

Pass Ends Scoring

7. After Plainview had held for downs again on the six-inch line and kicked out, Lubbock scored a 15-yard fourth-down pass. That was all the scoring.

The starting lineups: Lubbock—Glaze and Laxon, ends; McCauley and Hacker, tackles; Forbes and Pirtle, guards; Liddell, center; Allison, Norcross, Johnson and Brewer, backs.

Plainview—Ruth and McAdams, Ends; Scribner and Dawes, tackles; Scheele and Tudor, guards; Winkle, center; Dameron, Ward, Hall and Vaughn, backs.

Aggies Stop Baylor

Odell Herman, Aggie center, intercepted on his own five and dashed 32 yards before smashed out of bounds.

The second Aggie score came deep in the third period after Baylor had them back from the five yard line on Moser's fumble. Back on the Baylor 45, where Witt's kick settled, reserve back Marland Jeffrey spun a 15-yard pass that sophomore Bill Henderson, a gangling, six foot, six inch end, grabbed and took across on a beautiful sprint. Jake Webster kicked the point.

A 40-yard runback of a kickoff by Jim Witt, a grand ball carrier and leader, started the Bruins on their touchdown sally. With the ball on the Baylor 40, he started passing to Sophomore Jack Russell and Milton Crain, finally working down to the Aggie 29. Tiny Dwight Parks took over the chunking there and lofted a 15-yarder that Witt bagged at the 14 and took across for the score.

Ole Miss Falls

had battered into Arkansas territory. Hovious twisted through the line and ran 38 yards for the second score.

Most brilliant play of the game came on the third period opening kickoff when Les Dodson, a Columbus, Miss., boy, took the ball, and behind perfect interference, raced 90 yards for the third Rebel score. The try for extra point, which seemed unimportant at the time, was blocked.

Gophers Smash Iowa, 34 To 6

(By The Associated Press)

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 26.—Scoring four touchdowns, George Franck helped Minnesota's Golden Gophers to a 34 to 6 victory today over Iowa before 63,000 Homecoming fans.

The sturdy Huskies from the corn state put up a great fight, but the Minnesota crusher got them along with two second period touchdowns that found the speedy Franck snatching long passes from Bruce Smith.

Iowa got into Minnesota's territory only once. A fumble was recovered by Iowa on the Minnesota 33 in the first period. Bender passed 12 yards to Gilleard. Bill Green lost six trying to pass. With the Minnesota defense scattered for another flip, Green darted through a big hole at center cut to his left, hit the sidelines and ran 27 yards for a touchdown.

Hill Almost Gets Away

Marquette took over from there. Richardson gained two yards, then flipped a pass to Goodyear who received on the one-yard line. On the next play, Renzel crowded over right guard for six points, and Goodyear kicked goal.

Then Hill did a turnabout and almost got away for a touchdown on the kickoff. He took the kick on his 12-yard line, raced down the sideline, cut back to the center of the field and was finally hauled down six yards past midfield.

Big Dvoracek, who bids fair to rivaling Mule Dowell, Harold Crites and others for line-bucking history at Texas Tech, then plowed his way through the middle of the line, actually shook off four tacklers and gained 16 yards for a first down on the Marquette 28. He hit the line for two more. Then Hill gained two. Storrs tried the line for a yard, then passed to Bing Bingham for first down on the 13. Dvoracek took over then and rammed his way to the 4-yard line, showing disdain for Mr. Apolskis by going right over his position.

"Score" Three Times

On his next try he made first down on the one-half yard line, and there are plenty of persons who will say that he bucked the line three times for touchdowns. On the third try the officials called it six points, but observers said one plunge, especially the first, was as good as the last.

Anyway it was a touchdown and McKnight missed the point, but it wasn't important, as things turned out.

The teams played in that end of the field for the rest of the quarter, Tech scoring another touchdown that didn't count late in the period because on the play the Raiders were charged with holding and penalized from the 7-yard line back to the Marquette 22. Storrs had fired a 32-yard pass to Prince Scott, completed on the 7, rifled the oval to McKnight across the goal line for the touchdown. It was called back and the penalty assessed. The Raiders got back to the 13-yard line on two runs by Hill and one by Dvoracek as the quarter ended, losing the ball on downs.

McKnight Snares Aerial

The Avalanche couldn't gain and got off a fine punt to the Tech 43. Vosberg making the kill there. Dvoracek started back with an 8-yard dash through the line. Hill and Dvoracek moved up to the Marquette 45, then Storrs let go with a long aerial to McKnight, who snagged it on the 4-yard line and took two paces getting across. He kicked the conversion from placement then to put the Raiders ahead.

McKnight kicked off 42-yards and Richardson returned it to the Marquette 41. The Tech line rushed to smother two line plays, Tech drew an offside penalty, then Richardson passed to Sleske for first down on the Tech 40. Milton Hill tackled Rice after an 8-yard gain. Two pass attempts were broken up, then Richardson faded back as if to pass, cut to his right, and behind good blocking that eliminated practically all the Raiders, ran for touchdown.

New Backfield Rough

Kemnitz' try for conversion was low, and the score was all square.

Coach Cawthon sent in a new backfield then, and to all appearances Don Austin, Tom Douglas and Red Amonett were just as mad about the tying touchdown as the starters would have been. Austin took over on the Tech 25, after Marquette's kickoff had gone out of bounds, and raced 12 yards. Douglass, at fullback, worked through the line and made 17 yards for another first down on the Marquette 36. Amonett ran 7 yards, Austin two, and Douglass made it first down on the 18-yard line. Austin and Douglass made four yards, Amonett was trapped and lost them on the next play, however. Austin got two of them back and the ball went over.

Pass Defense Better

The Tech line held for no gain on three tries, and Marquette kicked out.

On the first play, Amonett gained 11 yards, but the play was nullified by a holding penalty. Austin got the 15-yards back in one run, but unlucky Amonett was caught back of the line for a 14-yard loss.

Douglass, punting from the 40, was rushed and his punt was blocked for a loss, and Marquette took over on the Tech 38. Douglass himself batted down a pass effort, then Glenn Lowe quickly inserted in the Tech backfield, intercepted a pass from Richardson, racing it back nearly to midfield. Amonett cut loose momentarily and twisted and squirmed his way to the Marquette 38, a gain of 15 yards, for first down on the last play of the first half.

Line Hold Too

Tech threatened early in the third with Webster running and Storrs passing, but a penalty was costly, although made up on third down by a pass from Storrs to Webster in the flat. Storrs passed to Amonett for first down on the Marquette 30, but Goodyear intercepted a pass to stop the rally. He ran it back to the Marquette 42. Tech drew an offside penalty, Richardson passed to Phillips for first down on Tech's 21, two passes were knocked down by the improved Tech pass defense, but a third found its mark for first down on the 7-yard line.

The Texas Tech line then bowed its collective neck and allowed nothing to come its way. On first down, Richardson did get to the 1-yard line, but three times the Marquette offensive surged, and three times it was thrown back as Dutchy Smith's line and Pete Cawthon's linebackers, featuring Ty Bain and Hill, held their own.

Webster Sparks Drive

Peter Blanda went in to punt from a station even with the goal posts, and it was returned by Richardson to the 20. But again the Tech line held against runs and the pass defense allowed no completions, and Tech took over on its own 10.

There began a drive headed by Jumbo Webster, who came into his own as an "off-angle" line hitter and end sweeper today. On two plays he gained 14 yards, then Hill got loose for a long one. Milton then blocked for Webster on another, but Marquette line, still trying, held in midfield.

Early in the fourth, after breaking the Marquette backbone with its sturdy play, the Tech machine

Big Red Takes Buckeyes For 16th In Row

(By The Associated Press)

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Cornell's fine football team had to come from behind today to keep its record intact, but was tremendously impressive in doing so as it walloped Ohio State, 21-7, in the Big Red's first and only intersectional game of the year.

In its first three games this season, Cornell was able to get off in front and keep rolling. But this afternoon, before a capacity crowd of 34,500 in Schoellkopf stadium, the Ithacans were rocked back on their heels by the Buckeyes' powerful opening drive, yet, had poise, power and all-around proficiency enough to make it a runaway in the second half.

Won 16 Straight

Almost any other team might have been thrown completely off stride by the 89-yard scoring march Ohio State put on the first time it got the ball.

But not this team, now unbeaten in 16 straight games. Cornell came back to go 47 yards for the tying touchdown in the second quarter, and in the second half not only throttled the Ohio State attack down to 44 yards but drove 61 yards once, to go out in front and capitalized on a break for the final score.

Transfer Of Pierson To Rusk Is Asked

AUSTIN, Oct. 26. (AP) — Sheriff Jim McCoy today asked the state board of control to transfer Howard M. Pierson, 26-year-old parricide, to the state hospital for insane at Rusk but the board took no action.

Dr. C. H. Standifer, superintendent of the Austin state hospital from which Pierson escaped in 1938 and whom a district court has vested with sole authority to act, said he had made no request for Pierson's transfer.

The former University of Texas student, who shot his parents to death in 1935, remained in the county jail.

Members of the board, which must pass on all patient transfers, asserted no action would be taken unless a formal application is received from Dr. Standifer.

No Clues Found In Hijacking In City

Members of the police and sheriff's departments Saturday questioned several negroes without uncovering a clue in connection with a Friday night robbery, in which R. P. Fuller, automobile dealer, reported he lost approximately $500 in cash, checks and a money order.

Fuller said he was stopped by a negro man and two negro women shortly before midnight at Seventeenth street and Avenue C. The women took slightly more than $100 in money, and checks and a money order amounting to $400 from Fuller while the man held a gun on him, Fuller reported.

Bill Mabray, assistant police chief, and Grady Harrist, deputy sheriff, said no persons were held.

Reductions In Automobile Liability Insurance Rates Over Texas Announced

Local Rate Cut From $22 To $17

(By The United Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 26.—Reductions in automobile liability insurance rates, estimated by Casualty Commissioner Reuben Williams to amount to $850,000 annually in premiums, were announced today to become effective on Nov. 15.

A public hearing on the proposed changes will be held Nov. 4 by the state insurance commission to consider protests or changes.

The rate changes will affect all parts of the state for both private and commercial vehicles. Special rate classes for fire and police emergency cars and for hearses have been reduced to reflect good experience records.

Dallas Safety Is Factor

Private passenger bodily injury rates in Houston will be lowered from $23 to $19. The safety campaign carried on in Dallas will reduce its classification from $24 to $18, a change which Fort Worth will share.

San Antonio, El Paso, Wichita Falls, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Texarkana, Lubbock and other cities in liability territory three will have a new rate of $17 compared with $22. Smaller cities and rural areas will get a reduction from $16 to $14.

Bodily injury rates for commercial classes which take in nearly all trucks except the long-haul certificated carriers, were reduced in all territories. Largest single reduction was the rate on a heavy class three truck in Houston. It was cut from $172 to $129.

Although London apparently still bore the brunt of the German bombardment, Liverpool reported night raiders attempting vainly to break through its ring of anti-aircraft fire and southwest Scotland had a second straight night of air attack. The midlands also were raided.

Fires Extinguished

One brief lull in the attack on London ended when raiders slipped and dropped incendiaries and earthshake explosives. The missils fell in groups of eight and ten at one time.

Fire engines raced through the streets to fires which were rapidly extinguished.

A movie audience in a southeast town was watching news reel shots of Captain Robert Davies, who became a hero in removing a time bomb from the vicinity of St. Paul's cathedral in London.

"There's no need for me to talk to you about bombs," the reflection was saying on the screen when bombs fell outside the theater. The audience laughed.

Heavy construction awards — largely for factories which will later add to swelling employment and payrolls—topped $127,000,000, nearly 100 per cent ahead of the same period last year.

Not only in steel, but in textiles, motors, electric utilities, and elsewhere expansion appeared to be in the offing. The aircraft companies, with an estimated $3,500,000,000 of orders on their books, and more likely to be added as these are filled, already is rushing millions in plant construction completion.

Collection Of Very Old Branding Irons Presented To Tech Museum By Local Man

A collection of very old branding irons was recently discovered in an unused shed in Lubbock and presented to the Tech museum by J. G. McKinnon, a local contractor.

Some of the better known brands in the collection are as follows:

"Spade"—The Spade brand was registered in Lubbock county in 1891 by Isaac L. Ellwood. Ellwood purchased this brand on the Canadian river near the Oklahoma line. From 1889 to 1924 the cattle with this brand averaged 25,000, there were 440,000 acres in the ranch. The brand is being run today on 14,500 Hereford cattle in Mitchell, Sterling, Coke, Lamb, and Hockley counties.

Still Being Run Today

"Mashed O"—This brand was used by W. E. Halsell and later by the Halsell Cattle company. From 1895 to 1898 20,000 cattle carried the brand. It is still being run today in Lamb and Bailey counties on 5,000 white-faced cows on 100,000 acres.

"S Long S"—Jess Slaughter, Big Spring. This iron was found on the old Rattlesnake Ranch of the "Long S" outfit. Slaughter's father was for many years manager of this ranch, and he himself worked on the C. C. Slaughter ranches many years before they were divided. There were around 500 sections of land in the "Long S" ranch located in Howard, Borden, Dawson, and Martin counties. There were several ranches besides the headquarters outfit—the Rattlesnake, Buffalo, Indian Canyon and Sulphur Camp Ranch.

Registered In 1702

"Lazy S"—Paul Slator, Odessa. "Registered in 1902 in Llano county and in Ector county about 1914 by J. D. Slator. It was selected because of it being his initial, and because he wanted a stamp iron of only one letter. Between 1902 and 1925 there were approximately 3,500 cattle on 95 sections of land. Today there are about 2,000 Hereford cattle on 66 sections of land."

"Nunn"—Its use began in 1866 in Hays county by J. W. Nunn and was moved to Scurry county in 1877. In 1889 it was sold to Evans, Snider, Bewell company, who closed out in 1891. It was the greatest in importance between 1878 and 1886. I think there were more "NUN" cattle than any other brand owned by just one man. They were scattered from Hays county to Terry county."

"9 H 6"—Brand of David Kritser, Shelby Kritser and Tom Kritser (Kritser Bros.), Amarillo. The brand is now run by them in Moore county. It had its beginning in 1856 in Travis and San Saba counties.

Herefords On Ranch Now

"D"—Registered about 1897 in Young county by T. B. Donnell. In 1930 there were about 1,000 head of cattle on 12,000 acres being run by W. T. and T. B. Donnell. Today there are about 900 head of Herefords on 10,000 acres in Young and Throckmorton counties.

"Frying Pan"—W. F. Scarborough, Midland. This brand was registered in 1897 in Motley county by Bill Scarborough and in Winkler, Loving, and Andrews counties, Texas and Lea County, New Mexico, in 1909 and 1912. From 1918 to 1925 about 8 to 10,000 cattle were run on 200,000 acres. The ranch now contains 160,000 acres; 80,000 owned in fee.

"D"—Started about 1886 as a road brand on herds belonging to Blocker, Driscoll and Davis. In 1886 several thousand head of cattle were on the trail under the 'D' brands. Ab Blocker drove one of these herds.

"I O — open A"—This company was organized by the Western Land and Live Stock company in 1884 at Davenport, Iowa. One of the directors, David Boaz was installed as general superintendent to purchase the land and cattle and start the ranch off. He decided that Yellowhouse canyon, in Lubbock county was the most likely place and within two years had leased or purchased approximately the south half of Lubbock county. His first purchase of cattle amounted to 20,000 head and he installed J. K. Willwee as ranch manager.

Brief Bits Of Local News

Milton E. West, accountant and auditor with offices in Lubbock National building, is in Abilene to attend funeral services for his father, F. W. West, who died Saturday. Funeral arrangements had not been completed Saturday night.

Sam White, 53, a negro, was assessed a one-day jail sentence and court costs on a plea of guilty of liquor law violation Saturday in county court. Another negro paid a $5 fine in corporation court for gambling and a third man entered an innocence plea to similar charges. The trio was arrested early Saturday morning at White's residence.

A Mexican man, about 25, peeled $13.15 from a roll of bills Saturday to pay a $1 fine and court costs on a charge of theft of a hat in justice court of Walter Davies. Officials said the Mexican's roll contained approximately $200 and the hat, valued at less than $5, went back to the department store from which it was stolen. Arrest was made by L. W. Bell, special officer.

Perfect attendance every day since the opening of school has been reported for all teachers in George M. Hunt school and the principal, McElroy Ray.

Ben Driver of Seminole, Gaines county deputy sheriff, asked Lubbock police to watch for an 11-year-old runaway girl who left Seminole late Saturday. She was described as 4 feet 6 inches tall, with dark brown hair and eyes and was wearing a blue dress when last reported seen. She was carrying a bundle and presumably was coming toward Lubbock, Driver said.

Miss Mary Carter of the home economics department of Hardin-Simmons university, Abilene, this week-end attended the Texas Home Economics association of College clubs convention here and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Flynn of 1903 Twenty-fourth street, both former students of Hardin-Simmons university. Miss Carter arrived Saturday morning and will return to Abilene today. She was accompanied here by two students, Misses Constance Bridge and Fay Marie Partridge.

Stimson will be followed, Dykstra said, by Navy Secretary Knox, Treasury Secretary Morgenthau, Attorney General Jackson and Representative Paul Kilday, Texas Democrat, in that order.

Meanwhile, extraordinary precautions were taken to insure that no one tampered with the capsules. Secret service men and armed treasury guards, transferred them in an armored car from draft headquarters to treasury vaults for safe keeping.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. (U.P.) — The army today designated commanders for four of the 13 new combat wings to be created in the air corps expansion program.

Brig. Gen. John F. Curry who has been nominated for promotion to major general, was assigned to command the 19th pursuit wing at Hamilton field, Calif., his present station.

Brig. Gen. Henry B. Clagett was assigned to command the 6th pursuit wing at Selfridge field, Mich., his present station.

Brig. Gen Millard F. Harmon, now at Randolph field, Texas, was named commander of the 7th pursuit wing at Mitchell field, N. Y.

Brig. Gen Lewis H. Brereton, now at Barksdale field, Shreveport, La., was appointed to the command of the 17th bombardment wing at Savannah, Ga.

Utility Sales Show Increase

NEW YORK, Oct. 26. (U.P.)—The New Deal's electric power program has stimulated electricity consumption to an "amazing" degree without any impairment of electric utility corporation earning power, according to Prof. James C. Bonbright, chairman of the Power Authority of New York State.

In fact, public ownership has even eliminated some of the evils of the holding companies, including the profit-making service charge, has brought about a strengthening of the companies' financial structures and forced company managements to "house-clean" their personnel, says Professor Bonbright.

The reform of uniform accounting systems of the operating companies was credited to members of a few, vigorous state commissions by Prof. Bonbright. He said that farm electrification under the Rural Electrification Administration has made "its greatest advance on record."

Fear of business men that the government would pit "ruinous and wasteful" competition against private companies has not materialized, he said.

He admitted serious mistakes have been made and the public ownership program needs revisions, but "at least the real issues have been met head on, instead of being ignored as they were in a core complacent period of our political history."

The widespread belief of business that public ownership of utilities would eventuate to socialization of of all major industries is not held by Prof. Bonbright.

"The recent policy of giving new life to public ownership," he said, "while leaving the major part of the power industry in private hands, should give the country much better evidence than it now possesses as to the relative efficiency of public and private operation. Quite possibly each system will be found to have such distinct merits that both of them should remain in wholesome rivalry, but in separate areas."

Liner Ends Last Trip In Merchant Fleet

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 26 (AP) The American export liner Exochorda—ending her last voyage as a merchantman before entering service as a U. S. navy submarine tender — arrived today from Lisbon with 186 passengers—60 of them American citizens returning from the war zone.

Among the passengers was Konrad Heiden, German-Jewish author who had been placed on the Nazi death list for writing a book criticizing Hitler. Interned in a French prison camp near Tours, he said he escaped when German planes bombed and machine-gunned the prison. During the excitement, he said, he escaped to Lisbon "with the aid of American friends."

Casualty Insurance Rate For City Down

AUSTIN, Oct. 26. (AP)—An annual savings of $850,000 was foreseen today by State Casualty Insurance Commissioner Reuben Williams as a result of new automobile liability schedules and classifications effective Nov. 15.

Williams declared downward adjustments could be credited directly to improved driving by automobile operators.

Rate changes affect both private and commercial cars.

El Paso, Waco, Wichita Falls, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Texarkana and Lubbock will have a rate of $17 compared with $22.

Parliament Session At Once Demanded

LONDON, Oct. 26. (AP) — Leslie Hore-Belisha, former British secretary for war, demanded tonight that Parliament be called into session at once because of the Hitler-Petain agreement.

In a statement given to the semi-official press association, Hore-Belisha called for an immediate session "to consider the policy of the government toward the Vichy government, the French empire and French navy and the implications of the agreement reached in principle between Hitler and Marshal Petain."

Mother Love With Cattle Ends Quickly

Cowhands from the S. M. Swenson ranch in Dickens county returned to Lubbock Saturday night from Dodge City, Kans., to report only "so-so" results in an attempt to gather clinching evidence in a cattle theft case.

The ranch hands, with Ed Russell, an inspector of the Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers association, left here Wednesday night with three cows from the SMS ranch. They had evidence that three of the calves stolen from the ranch had been sold to a man in or near the Kansas town.

Neal Arthur, Texas Ranger, was told the calves had developed a travel fever and udders of the cows were virtually dried up. Under the circumstances it was believed a day or two more might be necessary to gather the evidence expected.

One of the calves did follow one of the cows and after a night with her showed signs of having been licked mother-like, the cowhands told Arthur. It had been hoped that kinship of the cows and calves, by their mutual recognition, would be proved at their meeting.

Two Dickens county youths were charged in justice court of Walter Davies, in connection with theft of the calves. A fourth calf has not been traced.

Bob Dixon, foreman of the SMS ranch, assisted Capt. Maney Gault of the rangers and Sheriff Johnnie Koonsman of Dickens county in tracing sale of the calves from a Lubbock auction ring.

Arthur said other lines of investigation would be followed if the test of mother-child did not give conclusive evidence the calves were those stolen from the ranch.

Mrs. Roosevelt Sends Encouraging Message

LONDON, Oct. 26. (U.P.)—A message of encouragement to the women of Great Britain from Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt has been received by the newspaper, Manchester Guardian.

"The women of this country have watched with increasing admiration the calm with which the women of England are meeting their supreme trail," the message said. "Their endurance, faith, self sacrifice and wonderful organization will go down in history because it is backing of this kind that makes it possible for men to win out in any situation.

"My congratulations to the women of England! may we keep faith as they have done."

Big Labor Funeral Is Held For Riot Victim

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 26. (AP)—Thousands of union members paid tribute today to Upton Hammond, 69 year old construction worker killed in a labor riot, at what was described as the biggest labor funeral ever held in St. Louis.

Police estimated the crowd at more than 10,000.

During the services, Hammond eulogized as "a martyr to the cause of organized labor."

He was slain Wednesday in a fight between union and non-union workers on a suburban house-building project.

Sportsman Shot And Suspect Is Arrested

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., Oct. 26. (AP) — Andrew Weinman, wealthy mine operator and sportsman, was shot fatally early today and another mine operator was charged with murder.

Deputy Sheriff Jack McCoy said John Knight, longtime business associate of Weinman, surrendered shortly after the shooting and a murder charge was lodged against him.

Sheriff George Gaddis said Knight made no immediate statement and he had been able to learn little about the shooting.

Pure Oil Company Is Granted Increase

AUSTIN, Oct. 26. (U.P.) — The Texas Railroad commission today granted the application of Pure Oil company for 3,500 barrels increase in the daily allowable oil production of Van field.

The company announced at the time of the application was heard that the oil is needed for refinery purposes and that it would not reduce the company purchases of Texas oil from other producers if permitted to produce more at Van.

Allowable production of sour gas in the Panhandle field was set at 686,000,000 (m) cubic feet daily for November and December.

A hearing was set for Nov. 8 on an application for increased allowable oil production in South Houston and Turtle Bay fields.

Head Of Washburn College Quits Post

TOPEKA, Kas., Oct. 26. (AP)—Dr. Philip C. King has resigned as president of Washburn college, Paul B. Sweet of Topeka, chairman of the board of trustees, announced today.

Frank L. Ripley, Topeka businessman, has been named chairman of a committee to recommend King's successor.

King will remain with the college, Sweet said, until a successor also has been selected for L. W. Feezer, who resigned Monday as dean of the law school.

Negroes Given Defense Posts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. (U.P.) — Three negro leaders today took over important defense posts. All were appointed yesterday.

First, President Roosevelt promoted Col. Benjamin O. Davis to become brigadier-general—the first negro to hold that rank in the army's history.

Then, national selective service director Clarence A. Dykstra announced he had named Major Campbell Johnson, negro educator and former professor of sociology at Howard university here, as an executive assistant.

A few minutes before midnight, the war department said that Mr. Roosevelt had appointed Judge William H. Hastie, dean of the Howard university law school, as civilian aide to the secretary of war. Hastie, a Harvard law school graduate, will be "concerned with the development and administration of policies looking to the fair and effective utilization of negroes in all branches of the military service."

Mexico City-U. S. Air Route Licensed

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 26. (AP)—The ministry of communications announced today a license had been granted American airlines to establish freight and passenger service between Mexico City, Monterrey and the United States.

The company agreed to incorporate as a Mexican corporation within 30 days, to spend a million pesos (about $200,000) within six months constructing modern airports at Mexico City and Monterrey, and to employ only Mexican ground staffs, the ministry said.

Pan-American airways and its subsidiaries have dominated air traffic in Mexico heretofore.

Citizen Is Held For Neutrality Violation

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26. (U.P.) — Frank McElherron, 45, an Irish-born naturalized United States citizen, today was held on charges of violating the neutrality act by sailing to a belligerent port.

State department officials said McElherron's arrest was the first under the law forbidding American citizens to enter war zones without official permission.

McElherron, held in $4,000 bail, became a citizen in June and was said to have shipped as chief engineer on a Greek steamer bound for Glasgow a month later.

New Swarthmore Head Speaks Out Plainly

SWARTHMORE, Pa., Oct. 26. (AP)—John W. Nason, taking office as president of Swarthmore college at the age of 35, declared today that the "basic demand" of American educational institution "is not to produce people who can oppose Hitler, but people who will."

"To do that," he said in an address prepared for his inauguration as Swarthmore's eighth and youngest president, "our colleges and universities must produce people whose ideals are the ideals of freedom and whose hope is the preservation of a civilized way of life."

Section 2: Grantees shall pay to the City Tax Collector of the City of Lubbock an annual franchise tax of $25.00 for each bus operated by said grantees under the terms of this franchise; the first yearly payment to be made on acceptance by grantees of this franchise, and future annual payments to be made in advance each year on the same day and month of said year, except that if additional buses are started in operation at any other time of the year, there shall be paid at the time for the remainder of said year the pro rata part of said franchise tax for said year.

Section 3: A bus or motor bus, under the terms of this franchise, is hereby defined to be a motor driven vehicle, used for passenger service between fixed termini in said City of Lubbock, Texas, and having a seating capacity of not less than twelve (12) persons, with an aisle of approach to seats and with a distance from the floor to the ceiling of the bus of approximately seventy-six (76) inches, except that in cases of emergency only the grantees herein shall have the right to operate smaller motor vehicles of a different type and of a carrying capacity of less than twelve (12) persons.

Section 4: All buses operated under the terms of this franchise shall be of modern construction and shall meet all safety requirements as prescribed by the ordinances of the City of Lubbock and the laws of the State of Texas, and shall have their entrances on the front of the right side.

Grantees shall operate buses on a fixed schedule and at such hours and at such intervals of time as may be required by the public convenience and necessity. Said grantees shall reduce their schedule to writing and file a copy of the same with the City Secretary and said schedule shall be subject to the following provisions, to-wit:

Said schedule may be changed from time to time by and with the consent of the City Commission.

Said schedule shall contain the number of hours each bus is to be operated, the route it shall follow and the time required to make a complete round trip.

On special occasions such as football and baseball games, fairs and circusses, etc., the grantees are hereby given the right to operate extra buses in such numbers as may be required to meet the transportation needs of the general public.

The City of Lubbock shall have the power at all times to compel the grantees to change their then existing schedules of operation in such a way as to meet the public necessity and convenience, provided that no change shall ever be made or demanded by the City Commission except after thirty days' written notice to the grantee and after the adoption by such City Commission of a resolution ordering such change, which resolution shall be adopted only after due and reasonable consideration of the public convenience and necessity, and the taking into consideration of the net earnings of grantees from such operations and the then value of the franchise or grant here made providing further, that no such change or demand shall be made by the City Commission until the expiration of 3 months from any prior change made or demanded to be made by the City Commission.

Section 5: The grantees and their agents, servants and employees shall at all times comply with all the traffic regulations and ordinances now in effect in the City of Lubbock or which may be hereinafter passed or enforced insofar as applicable.

Section 6: The fare or charge for each continuous passage from terminus to terminus shall not exceed five (5c) cents except that by resolution of the City Commission upon due and reasonable consideration of the benefit to the public, the net earnings of the grantee from operation hereunder, and the value of the franchise herein granted, the said fare or charge may be by and with the consent of the City Commission increased to an amount not in excess of ten (10c) cents for each continuous passage from terminus to terminus.

Section 7: The routes to be traversed by buses of the grantees under this franchise shall be fully set forth in the schedule and the termini of such route shall be set forth in said schedule.

Section 8: This franchise is granted and shall remain in effect only on the condition that the grantees herein shall make rendition of all their real and personal property taxable by the City of Lubbock on or before the first day provided by law for rendering thereof, and shall pay all their taxes owing the City of Lubbock when due.

Section 9: The grantees are required and shall at all times keep each and every bus operated by them under the terms of this franchise, fully insured, with a minimum of property damage in the sum of $2500.00, and a minimum of public liability in the sum of $5000.00, in some reliable and thoroughly solvent insurance company authorized to do business in the State of Texas, and failure to so provide such insurance shall automatically terminate and cancel this franchise and all rights and equities herein granted.

Section 10: Non-use of the franchise granted herein or failure on the part of the grantees thereof to use or exercise the rights, privileges and franchise herein granted or to comply with the conditions herein or to perform the duties herein provided for a period of ninety days (90) shall ipso facto operate as a cancellation of said franchise and said franchise shall thereupon become null and void and of no effect.

Section 11: All the rights, privileges and franchise herein granted shall be subject to the provisions of the City Charter of the City of Lubbock as it now exists or may hereafter at any time, be amended. In particular, the rights, privileges and franchise herein granted shall not take effect or become operative or vest any rights in the grantees herein except in accordance with the provisions of Section 18 of Article 2 of the City Charter of the City of Lubbock or as the same may hereafter be amended, provided that specific reference to this Section shall not operate to limit the provisions of any other part of the City Charter applicable. The rights and privileges and franchise herein granted shall never be sold, transferred and assigned by any person, firm, association or corporation by the grantees herein without first giving the City Commission of the City of Lubbock sixty (60) days notice of such intention to so sell, and name of the proposed purchaser. The City Commission shall have thirty days' time within which to investigate such person, firm, association or corporation as to their financial ability and moral fitness and if, in the opinion of the majority of the City Commission, such intended purchaser is not financially able or morally fit to operate buses within the City of Lubbock, then and in that event such sale and transfer shall not be made and should the grantees violate the terms hereof, said franchise and all rights hereunder shall terminate and be of no further force and effect.

Section 12: All ordinances or parts of ordinances having reference to the operation of buses or other motor vehicles in conflict herewith are hereby repealed insofar as the same may be applied to buses operating under and by virtue of this ordinance, provided, however, that all traffic ordinances and other ordinances affecting the operation of automobiles and motor vehicles are continued in full force and effect, unless the same are in conflict herewith.

Section 13: If any part of this ordinance shall be held invalid for any reason, no valid part thereof shall be affected thereby.

Section 14: This ordinance shall be binding upon the acceptance thereof in writing by the said J. A. Fortenberry and Ray Farmer within thirty (30) days after its final passage and taking affect thereof, and IT IS SO ORDERED.

The foregoing ordinance was read the first time and passed to the second reading on the 24th day of October A. D., 1940, and ordered published.

STEELS LEAD ADVANCES

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—Steels led the stock market on an upward swing today in the liveliest Saturday dealings of the past four months.

Gains ran to a point or so for a handful of issues although fractional advances were the rule elsewhere. Top marks were reduced in most cases at the close.

Despite occasional slow-downs, transfers for the two hours were in the neighborhood of 400,000 shares, the largest turnover for a brief session since the middle of June.

While sobering speculative influences were plentiful, brokers said, political optimism seemed to have revived sufficiently in Wall Street, in the wake of last night's outburst of campaign oratory, to bring in considerable short covering and a moderate amount of new investment purchases.

At the same time, lack of definite knowledge as to what is going on among the axis powers in the war on England still served as a chilling factor in boardrooms.

Stocks out in front during the greater position of the proceedings included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, Wheeling Steel, Republican Steel, U. S. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, Glenn Martin, du Pont, Dow Chemical, Eastman Kodak, Texas Corp., Standard Oil of N. J., and American Smelting.

Particular attention was paid to U. S. Steel as guesses on this corporation's earnings for the third quarter, to be released late next Tuesday afternoon, ranged from 2.50 to 2.75 a common share, or as much as in both the first two quarters.

Bonds tilted forward selectively and commodities were narrowly mixed.

Supported in the curb were Jones and Laughlin, Electric Bond and Share, American Cyanamid "B" and Gulf Oil.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—Cotton futures sold in a 3-point range today. Final prices were 1 to 2 points lower. Most operations were routine price fixing by the trade and week-end evening up.

Spot houses sold December and July when the market showed rising tendencies. Principal support for later months came from brokers with Bombay connections.

Worth street expressed satisfaction with the week's textile business which many brokers felt presaged broader interest in the near future. Prices held firm at recently advanced levels.

Exports Friday 478 bales; season so far 284,503 port receipts 20,239; port stocks 2,989,256.

DALLAS, Oct. 26. (U.P.)—One of Dallas' absentee voters casting their ballot today was U. S. Rep. Hatton Sumners.

"I may have to flip a coin to decide about J. E. McDonald."

Suspect Held In Threat On FDR

CROCKETT, Cal., Oct. 26. (U.P.) — Federal agents planned today to take Willard M. Whiting, 31-year-old sugar-refinery worker, before United States Commissioner E. E. Williams in San Francisco to answer a charge of sending a letter threatening death to President Roosevelt.

The letter, mailed here Sept. 21, said in part:

"If you are elected in November, your life will not be worth a cent because this time we will get you and not the man in front of you. Remember?"

Did Not Write It

Secret service agents said the reference was to the attempted assassination of the president in Miami, Fla., in 1932, following his election but before inauguration. Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago was killed.

The letter was signed "Sensible Citizen" and bore the return address of "W. W. Whiting, 917 A street, Crockett, Calif."

Whiting admitted addressing the envelope but denied to Thomas Foster, chief of the secret service in San Francisco, that he wrote the letter.

Whiting, a former University of California biology student, a Republican and member of an AFL union, is a brother of L. C. Whiting, Democrat, secretary of the CIO Warehousemen's union, and an unsuccessful candidate for the state senate last August.

He was held in the Contra Costa county jail pending arraignment.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 26 (AP)—Wheat prices tumbled almost three cents a bushel today after an early fractional advance in a wave of liquidation touched off by uneasiness regarding the recent sharp upturn and eagerness to take accumulated profits.

Selling out of professionally held lines of futures contracts occurred at the first signs of weakness after the market had staged an opening upturn of about ½ cent. Stop loss orders added to the market's burden. Some selling was attributed to hedging operations against actual wheat redeemed from government loans although trade reports indicated redemptions were small and scattered, with no signs of any definite change in the producer holding policy.

Some traders put stock in renewed peace talk coming from Europe but this only served to emphasize the uncertainty of the domestic and foreign political situation.

Despite scattered mill support and short covering attracted by the price break, wheat closed 1 to 2¼ lower than yesterday, December 84½@84⅝, May 83⅛@83; corn 1 to 2 lower, December 60⅜@60⅝, May 61¾; oats ¾ to ⅞ down.

Morale Of Britons And Nazis Tested

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

There is every indication that civilian morale in both Germany and Britain is going to be deliberately subjected to a grueling test from now until spring.

Each nation is bent on smashing the spirit of its opponent by starvation and other hardships so terrible as to cause despair and capitulation.

An important feature of this war of strangulation is the fierce bombing of industrial areas and supply centers which inevitably must result in loss of civilian life and impose a nerve strain highly dangerous to moral. Last night's violent bombing duel across the channel emphasized the vast importance attached to this line of strategy by both sides.

Other-Type Bombings

What with the battle of the Mediterranean boiling up, and the negotiations between Hitler and France, we may be inclined to overlook this more sombre operation of economic strangulation. But we should, for it represents one of the vital features of the conflict and one which, to my mind, will have more to do with determining the outcome of the war than will bullets.

Lest there be any doubt as to what is happening, both Nazis and British are openly bombarding each other with radio broadcasts, with literature dropped from the air, and with word-of-mouth propaganda spread by agents, luring the people to revolt against their governments.

I dare say some of the inspiration for these attacks on public morale comes from the fact that it was largely a collapse of the spirit of resistance among the German public which caused the surrender of Germany in the World war.

Just An Intensification

Actually, this struggle through the cold winter months, which in themselves will add to the privations of the people, means no change in Britain's procedure excepting an intensification of operations. She laid down economic strangulation as her fundamental policy at the outbreak of the war, and hasn't deviated from it an inch. This is natural in view of her command of the seas, which has permitted the establishment of such an air-tight naval blockade as virtually to sever sea-borne supplies to the continent.

Hitler at first paid little attention to the blockade, being convinced that he was going to win the war by blitzkrieg. He was forced to change his tactics in mid-summer, however.

This was due partly to the fact that it began to look as through England would weather the storm, and partly because Britain had made the blockade effective on the whole continent after the Nazi occupations of neutral countries. This extension of the blockade cut off huge supplies which were being imported by neutrals and re-exported to Germany.

Since then the Nazi chief has made a fierce drive on British shipping, both by submarines (which he reportedly is building in large numbers) and by bombers.

This is wide divergence between the German claims of shipping sunk and British admissions of losses. However, the sinkings have been heavy.

British Minister of Agriculture Hudson summed the position up succinctly only last Tuesday in the House of Commons. He said, Britain's food position had been improving rapidly. He added, though, that rigid economy was necessary because "I cannot foretell the shipping position this winter."

SCATTERINGS

NOMINATION for the most amusing story of the week: That incident in Barranquilla, Col., South America, when Alexander Brailowsky, concert pianist, stepped onto the stage of the Municipal theater to perform but alas, no piano, an oversight on the part of the management. That would never have happened in Lubbock, where Mr. Brailowsky played last season on the Civic Music association series, since the concert committee is always concerned that an artist be pleased with the piano and test it before his concert . . . Nomination for the cleverest letter organization of the week: That Gotta Koppa Poppa sorority formed of girls in an Aviation Corporation in Elmira, N. Y. Here's wishing you luck, girls! . . . Gus L. Ford, former head of the history department at Tech college, is writing a history of early Dallas county. He and Mrs. Ford spend most of their time on their farm near Dallas . . . Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bean and small children of Brownwood have moved here to make their home. Mr. Bean is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Bean and an uncle of young George R. Bean, II.

THE brothers Read, Charles, Wesley and John, receive our nomination for a trio of courteous, civic-minded and interesting citizens . . . Lois Smith is a Tech student we should like to meet. According to her cousin, Preston Smith, personality is a quality that surrounds her in chunks and since people of that nature are few and far between we'd welcome a sight of her . . . Even before the Declaration of Independence was signed, we had a chocolate factory in Dorchester, Mass., and this month the company celebrates its 175th anniversary . . . KINDNESS

So many Gods,
So many creeds,
So many ways that wind and wind
While just the art of being kind
Is all this sad world needs.

• • •

THE above quotation is under the glass-topped desk of one of our business friends. One realizes the truth of it more and more as he mulls over it. It takes time to be kind but this is a simple fact that the woman who fills her life with clubs and committee meetings is inclined to overlook.

It takes time to arrange a party to honor the guest of a friend, to go by the hospital to cheer up an old woman who is taking a long time to recover from an injury. It takes time to prepare a favorite dish, to buy just the right gift for the friend who has a new baby or to listen to a tale of woe.

• • •

Yes, all the little thoughtful things that only women think of doing take time but the woman who fills her life so full of superficial duties that she hasn't time to be nice is making a big mistake.

The woman who makes a real place for herself in life is the one who has time for friendship, time for kindliness and time for helping those who need help.

Jersey, Which Lends Itself To Many Moods, Is Important Fabric

Designers Find It Is Versatile Enough For Almost Every Use

BY MARIAN YOUNG
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Jersey is important fabric news this season. American designers like it because it lends itself equally to draping, pleating, shirring and simply tailored effects. They can dress jersey down for the schoolgirl or dress it up for her sophisticated older sister. They can. And they do.

There are wool jersey dinner suits and evening gowns as well as day dresses and little suits in almost every important, American-designed collection. Such creators as Sophie Gimbel, Hattie Carnegie and Germaine Monteil make wool jersey evening gowns, often trimming them lavishly with paillettes and gold or silver embroideries.

SATIN-BACKED JERSEY FOR SENSITIVE SKINS

WOOL jersey in soft blues, light pinks, beige, even white, makes smart day dresses for the "light look" that fashionables will strive for under fur coats this winter. It is used also for hostess gowns, simple lounging costumes, negligees and various other at-home outfits. And it also is widely seen in draped turbans, blouses, separate skirts. Wool jersey gloves are new.

William Heller, important creator of the type of beautiful fabrics on which designers depend for inspiration as well as the successful carrying out of their own ideas, makes a wool jersey with a satin back for the woman who always says, "But I can't wear jersey next to my skin."

The Heller jersey collection includes materials as heavy and strong as tweed, others as fragile and sheer as cobwebs, and many as-soft-as-down cashmere types. When wool jersey is given a satin back, incidentally, the material will not cling to the figure.

BLACK SILK JERSEY FOR EVENING GOWNS

SLICK jersey is seen in suave "little black dresses." And repeated in white and pastels for evening and dinner. One particularly stunning evening gown, by a famous designer, is of white silk jersey with a wide girdle-belt of crushed gold kidskin, studded with vari-colored stones. The sleeves are long and full; the neckline semi-nude. White silk jersey flowers, with gold kid piping on the edges of the petals, make a headdress to wear with it.

Another evening gown, of bagherra jersey, has a daring, diamond shaped, cut-out midriff. Designed by Jo Copeland, it molds the figure becomingly, has a heart-shaped decolletage and tiny sleeves.

Among the daytime creations of wool jersey, Hattie Carnegie's bright green dress, shown with a brilliant purple tweed coat, is outstanding The dress has a shirred yoke at the top of the skirt as well as at the neckline.

Hattie Carnegie shows a vivid, billiard green dress in suave wool jersey with a royal purple topcoat in shaggy wool. The line of the shirred yoke on the top of the dress is repeated below the waistline. Dress and topcoat make a smart travel outfit.

Hallowe'en Is Featured Decoration

IN traditional Hallowe'en style the Ko Shari club of Texas Technological college entertained with a Hallowe'en dance Saturday night from 9 to 12 o'clock at Hilton hotel. Jack York and his orchestra played for dancing.

Between the doors and windows in the ballroom were hung black cats and skeletons. The balcony was decorated with lighted pumpkins and a huge black cat was perched on the balcony rail.

Black, orange and yellow streamers of twisted crepe paper covered the ceiling. Confetti and serpentine were distributed.

Seventh District Club Women To Go To Austin In Special Buses For Convention

PLAINVIEW, Oct. 26 (Special)—A trip to Austin for $5 the round-trip will be available to every federated club woman of the seventh district, whether or not she is to be a delegate.

Club women of Plainview, interested in promoting the election of Mrs. J. W. Walker as president of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, first made arrangements for buses to carry all the voting delegates from the approximately 200 clubs in the district.

So widespread has been the enthusiasm, numerous requests from non-voting club women have been pouring in to the chamber of commerce office for permission to take advantage of the special bus rates.

The result is the arrangement with Joe Bowman, president of the South Plains, New Mexico and Oklahoma Coaches, Inc., for a sufficient number of buses to transport every club woman in the district to Austin the second week of November Reservations must be made by Nov. 4, however, with Pete Smith of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce

Buses Go Straight Through

The buses will be first class, comfortable in every way, and will travel straight through to Austin, where they will be available throughout the convention for transporting the delegates and other club women of this district to and from the Federation Headquarters and the Driskill hotel, where the seventh district women are making reservations.

Plainview club women are urging all who can to go by bus rather than by automobile, because the trip will be "safer, less expensive, will help designate the district as one lively unit and create the proper spirit of pep and enthusiasm."

A hostess on each bus will be responsible to the bus driver and represent the passengers. She will carry a list of all the passengers, points where they join the bus, instructions in detail as to the plans for the district women after arrival in Austin, seventh district badges to be worn at the convention and other information.

Here is the schedule of departure. Tuesday, Nov. 12: buses will leave Amarillo at 5 o'clock in the morning. One will be routed through Claude, Memphis, Childress and Quanah; another will go through Happy, Canyon, Plainview, Lubbock, Slaton, Post and Snyder. Women from the towns en route will be told the hour at which the bus will reach their towns when they receive their tickets. The early hour for departure is necessary in order that the buses may reach Austin in time for important events scheduled for that evening.

The Plainview bus or buses will go through Floydada, Matador and Spur. The women of the area along that route will be advised as to where and at what time they may join the bus when their tickets are sent to them. The buses will leave Plainview at 7 o'clock in the morning.

The Lubbock bus will also leave at 7 o'clock, going by way of Tahoka, Lamesa, and Big Spring.

For All Club Women

Any club woman in the district is invited to join the seventh district bus invasion of Austin. Her only instructions are to send $5 immediately to Pete Smith, Chamber of Commerce, Plainview, giving her name and address and the name of her club. The ticket and instructions for boarding the bus will be sent by return mail.

Mrs. W. S. Izzard of Amarillo has reported a landslide of original "Walker for President" songs, written to familiar tunes by the club women of the district. These songs will be mimeographed and presented to the passengers for singing on the buses which will be decorated with "Walker for President" banners.

This is the largest district in the state, and indications are that it will make the most noise at the convention.

Assembly Club Is To Have Dinner-Dance

The Assembly club is to attend a Hallowe'en dinner-dance Thursday night at 8 o'clock at Hotel Lubbock Guests are to come masked, although not in costume.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Mansell are chairmen of the hosts, assisted by Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Canon, Dr. and Mrs. O. R. Hand, Messrs. and Mesdames George Langford, S. A. Scott, A. V. Weaver, jr., and D. K. Bondurant.

OCTOBER BRIDE — Pictured above is Mrs. Don. D. King, who was Miss Oleta Cole before her marriage here last week. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Cole of 2323 Thirteenth street and Mr. King is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. King of Brownfield. The couple is to be at home in Lubbock.

Trip To Be Described At Meeting Of AAUW

Miss Ruth Horn of the faculty at Texas Technological college will speak at a meeting of the Lubbock branch of American Association of University Women at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Seaman hall Her topic will be "Flight Over Central America."

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Henderson and daughter, Mrs. Odessa Brown, of Hollywood, Calif., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lockhart of 1611 Broadway. They went to Tahoka Saturday and left for California today.

Exhibition Of Currier And Ives Prints To Be On Display In Museum For Three Weeks

AN exhibition of "American Primitives" by Currier and Ives will be displayed at the West Texas Museum, beginning today and continuing for three weeks, courtesy of Mrs. A. B. Cunningham.

There are many originals in original frames in the collection and also many reproductions and as Mrs. Cunningham pointed out, for historical purposes, the reproductions are just as interesting as the originals. An explanation of these famous prints was given by her as follows:

Nathaniel Currier was born in 1813 at Roxbury, Mass., and when he was 15 he went to work for the first lithographing company in America, located in Boston. Five years later he went into business for himself in Philadelphia and later moved to New York. The fire of 1836 that swept New York City was fortunate for Mr. Currier as four days later while embers were cooling, he offered for sale a lithograph depicting the ruins of Merchants exchange.

He took James Merritt Ives into partnership in 1852. Ives was a bookkeeper by trade but he took a keen interest in all about him, painting pictures, tying up bundles to go to distant points and covering the greatest disasters to secure pictorial material and figuring largely in the financial success of the firm.

From 1835 to 1885 there was not a steamship disaster, a large fire, a great invention, a notable death or a visit to this country by a notable person that was not faithfully recorded by Currier and Ives. When in 1862 Queen Victoria sent the Prince of Wales, later Edward VII, to mend England's fences here, his likeness was on sale at every four corners in America. Mrs. R. T. Canon has one of these prints.

To understand the reason for the vast market for these prints, we must realize that they were made long before the day of photography and long, long before the movies.

To the pioneers grubbing homes from the wilderness of the midwest, Currier and Ives portrayed the more abundant

Poppy Day Will Be Observed Saturday

Poppy Day will be observed in Lubbock and throughout the nation Nov. 9, the Saturday before Armistice Day, Mrs. W. L. Daniel, president of the Allen Bros. unit of the American Legion auxiliary, announced today. On that day all Americans will be asked to wear memorial poppies in tribute to the World war dead and to aid the living victims of the war.

The flowers will be distributed here by women and girls of the unit, under the direction of Mrs. H. D. Stanley, chairman of the Poppy Day committee. All contributions received for the flowers will go to Legion and Auxiliary welfare work for the disabled veterans, their families and families of the dead.

"We feel that Poppy Day will have increased meaning to America this year," said Mrs. Daniel, "because renewed warfare in Europe has renewed the memory of those boys of ours who gave their lives 'over there' 22 years ago. It is for them that we put on the poppy sale each year, to show that we still remember and honor their sacrifices. It is the flower which grew where they fell and now blooms on the coats of Americans who appreciate their service."

Currier And Ives

life. The women who had never had a dress for which they had not woven the cloth and made by hand, loved to gaze on Sophia, dressed in regal splendor and twanging her harp. In their secret hearts all aspired to be useless and ornamental, although probably no one west of Pittsburgh had ever seen a harp.

Pets were a favorite subject, although the cats and dogs portrayed by Currier and Ives never did exist. The dogs were of breeds unknown to America, except a favored few on the eastern seaboard. They were aristocratic and lifeless.

While the people on the frontier loved to gaze on the luxuries of life, the ones who were settled and affluent longed to see the worst that the wild west had to offer. For them were pictured Indian raids, buffalo hunts and all sorts of dire calamities incident to life on the road and on the frontier.

The prints were run off in black and white, then placed on large tables where they were colored by hand by women. As a rule the more highly colored ones brought the highest prices. The colors are crude and raw, but the very rawness makes them unique.

Currier and Ives prints were sold all over Europe since the Europeans liked to "see how the Yankees lived."

To us, Currier and Ives primitives are the living record of a day that is dead.

Inter-Club Council Attends Luncheon

On two occasions each year the women students of Texas Technological college who are members or pledges of the five social clubs get together for a breakfast or a luncheon. Each club presents a part on a program and special guests are invited to attend.

Miss Patti Hicks representing Las Chaparritas club played a piano solo and Miss Mona Lou Pierce of Ko Shari club gave a reading. Sans Souci club program was given by Miss Eunice Klett who played several piano selections.

From Lou To Louella

DEAR LOUELLA: Happy birthday to Margaret Cammack who is 18 years old today. She feels that she is a very, very lucky girl (we do too) because she received a new 1941 sedan and a fur coat from her mother and father.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Samson of Plainview visited Mr. and Mrs. James Samson here last week. We think that the younger Mrs. Samson looked especially pretty when we saw her.

Does this mean anything? John Brooks of Tech was wearing his ROTC uniform the other day and in his back pocket was a book "Modern Methods of Dyeing."

Mrs. Sam Lybrook of Phoenix, Ariz., is visiting friends here. She is the former Miss Joyce Squyres and attended Tech last year.

Musical Selection Please

Lubbock women who attended the recent school of instruction for P-TA members in Slaton are talking about the lovely musical selections played by Mrs. K. L. Scudder on the dulcimer. The instrument is new to us, but friends tell us that it is an instrument stretched with metalic wires over a trapezoidal board and is played with hammers. We hope that Mrs. Scudder will come to Lubbock and appear on a program.

Susan Clare is the name chosen for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Philbrick, born Oct. 20 at West Texas hospital. The father is assistant coach at Perryton High school and the mother is the former Miss Marian Hurmence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hurmence of this city.

* * *

THE Centaur club of Tech will be the first to entertain with a Sadie Hawkins dance next Saturday night. Guests are to wear "Dogpatch style" costumes and there is a surprise in store for those who attend including a "catch your man" contest.

Two Lubbockites were pictured in one issue of the Pampa News last week. They were Mrs. J. T. Baisden, president of this district chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, teachers fraternity. The regional meeting is being held there this week-end. The other was Edouard Blitz who played a concert at Senior High school there. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Julien Paul Blitz.

A Tip For Beauty-Seekers

We know of someone who has an ambition to sit in a cashier's box of a theater, look pretty all day and not have her hair blow. We would enjoy that too if we thought we could look as attractive and be as charming as the cashier at the Tower theater. She is the blonde haired young woman who works at night.

Mrs. Dock Teague and her son, William Teague of Gainesville have returned to their home after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gamble and family. William is a talented young organist and presented a recital for the Lubbock Music club and the public Friday night. He is the youngest concert organist in the State of Texas. Mrs. Teague visited Carlsbad Caverns for the first time while she was here.

* * *

ASIDE from the usual native girl, cowboy outfits and other costumes that you see at Hallowe'en parties and dances several were unusual at the Ko Shari dance Saturday night. Jane Brownfield wore a gold satin Russian costume with hat and white maribou trimming on the skirt. She wore white boots and a high Russian hat.

Earline and Evelyn Jones, sisters, wore very attractive costumes. Earline wore a white Indian dress with knee-length leggings just like the Indian squaws. Evelyn wore a Cuban dancer's costume with red ruffled skirt that looked like it came from the island itself.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Cole celebrated their 36th wedding anniversary last week. Congratulations!

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Peters of Longview are visiting friends here.

There is certainly a nice list of eligible young men in today's paper, the draft registrants, if you can pick out which are married and which are not. It is a boon to the bachelor girls.

Love,
Lou.

WTCC Goes On Record In Opposition To Red River County Amendment

Proposal Waives Debt Limitation

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

ABILENE, Oct. 26 — The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has gone on record in opposition to one of four constitutional amendments coming before the Texas electorate in the November election. This is the so-called Red River county amendment which, if adopted, will waive for that county the constitutional limitation on tax rates and permit it to levy an additional 25-cent tax, and to issue bonds, to refund its present outstanding general fund debt.

The WTCC's position was set out in news letters signed by President J. S. Bridwell, to its directors, affiliated chambers of commerce and the West Texas press. Through its Public Expenditure commission the regional chamber contends that approval of the Red River county amendment would be a blow at efficiency, economy and better financial control in public affairs; that it will constitutionally nullify the constitution itself and result in waste and extravagance by making legal the illegal issue of warrants for expenditures not authorized by election or by a local budget.

Opens The Door

The amendment also violates the principle of equality, says the WTCC and opens the door to all political subdivisions to violating constitutional debt limits—for, says the President's News Letter, "if this amendment is written into the constitution for Red River county, surely the legislature and the voters will have no reason for denying the same privileges to every county, city and school district. Any other Texas county could justly point out, and many would do so, that this amendment, if it is adopted, frees one county from obedience to the constitution itself while forcing the other 253 counties to adhere to it. Sheer chaos would result."

Concluding, the president's news letter notes that "The present need is for reduced public expenditures and for better financial planning, control and budget making. This amendment violates those principles and will greatly increase public expenditures and local taxation."

Red River county is in Northeast Texas, bordering on Oklahoma, and was created in 1836 while Texas was winning its independence from Mexico. For the year 1938 the county's tax values amounted to $10,087,100; total values, $16,811,833. Its present total debt is equal to $8.39 per $100 of the true value of its taxable property, and to $13.99 per $100 of its assessed value. A tax survey of the county is authority for the statement that $410,000 of this debt was never voted by the people.

TO PRESIDE—Presiding at the breakfast in honor of the chapter, state, and national officers attending the regional meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma in Pampa, this morning, will be Miss Odessie Howell, above. Miss Howell is vice president of Beta Delta chapter and was the second recording secretary of the chapter. She is vice president of the White Deer Parent-Teachers association; chairman of the English association of the Pampa area of the Texas State Teachers association; a member of the National Council of Teachers of English; and Federation Counselor of the Venado Blanco Study club of White Deer. She has an M. A. degree from Texas university, and teaches English in the White Deer High school.

1938 Needle Club Has Meeting At Slaton

Mrs. T. C. McCall of Slaton entertained the 1938 Needle club Friday afternoon. A Christmas party for husbands will be held in December. The next regular meeting will be Nov. 7 at the home of Mrs. Marvin Porr, 1643 Thirteenth street.

PLANS DRAWN HERE

A plan for a chapel in Price Memorial college, Amarillo, drawn by O. R. Walker, Lubbock architect, was approved by Bishop Robert E. Lucey and the building committee and a contract later awarded to C. S. Lambie of Amarillo. Contract price was given as $17,991, exclusive of furnishings such as stained glass windows, the altar, organ and other items, which Countess Katherine E. Price will donate to the college.

JUDGE RETURNS HOME

LITTLEFIELD — Stanley Doss, county judge of Lamb county, who has been residing at Olton the past year, has moved his family back to their home in the Duggan addition. The house has been leased.

Five white nationalities are found in Nova Scotia: English, Scotch, French-Acadian, Irish and Hanoverian.

JUST AN IDEA—Neat, but expensive. Winged diamond clips, valued at $3,300, lift these black suede pumps to winged Mercury level. A nice idea, but maybe imitation sparklers for your shoes.

Maedgen To Attend Braniff Meeting

C. E. Maedgen, chairman of the chamber of commerce aviation committee, tentatively plans to attend a meeting to be held at the call of officials of Braniff airlines in Oklahoma City Monday, according to information given at the chamber Saturday.

Invited to attend, according to information here, are representatives of all cities on an airline Braniff is seeking permission from the Civil Aeronautics board to establish from San Antonio through Lubbock to Denver.

Representatives of the cities are to assemble in Amarillo Monday morning to be taken by plane to Oklahoma City. At the conclusion of the meeting there, they are to be returned to their home cities in one of the latest model 28-passenger planes belonging to the Braniff lines, officials here have been advised.

Convention Dates Set By Lubbock B And PW

The convention committee of the Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club headed by Mrs. Allie M. Dyer, met Friday. Dates for the state convention to be in Lubbock this year were set for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 6, 7 and 8. Headquarters will be at Hilton hotel and the president's banquet and a luncheon will be at Hotel Lubbock.

Plea For Funds With Which To Complete Community House Here Made By Women

A strong plea for funds, approximating $1,500, with which to complete erection and furnishing of the community house at Sixth street and Avenue B is being made by members and officers of the Church Women's Federation, said Mrs. Tom Foster, chairman of the federation material need's committee.

Last summer I. A. Stephens, who bought the old Nicolett hotel at Broadway and Avenue H donated the building to the federation and funds were raised to tear it down and move it off the location. The group also raised funds for purchase of a lot.

Carpenters Donate Services

Union carpenters have donated their services for the erection of the community house and men are working each night in starting construction.

"Federation officials believe that $1,500 will finish the job," Mrs. Foster said. "We will need to build partitions, put in new floors and a roof, besides furnishing it.

"A pre-school nursery, for children of parents who must leave them while at work, is needed. We have an offer from WPA to help, if the proper location can be had. We also have been asked by the Salvation Army for permission to move their feeding work for Sanders school to the community building, if we ever get one. The Red Cross also wants to get a place to do work there.

Plan Girls' Club

"We have plans for a girls' club to be operated in the building. It is the aim of the federation to concentrate on family life, rather than one group. They want to develop a stronger family life among the people."

Religious services are held each Sunday afternoon in the Congregational Methodist church. A service for adults is held as well as for children. Mrs. H. E. Blocker and Mrs. Paul Laverty are in charge of the children's work.

Mrs. A. W. Evans has been president of the federation, to which nine church groups belong. Mrs. R. A. Mills is the incoming president; Mrs. D. M. Davis is treasurer and Mrs. W. H. Johnston, who has had experience in Dallas in similar work, is chairman of the community work committee.

Lutheran Broadcast Hour Starts Today

First broadcast of the Lutheran hour in South Plains area will be heard from KFYO at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, according to W. G. Loesel, pastor of Redeemer Lutheran church, 1715 Nineteenth street.

More than 200 radio stations in the United States, Central and South America and the Philippines will broadcast the series of religious programs, which will continue every Sunday until April 20, Rev. Loesel said.

Speaker for the program is Dr. Walter A. Maier, professor at Concordia seminary, St. Louis, Mo., editor of Walther League Messenger, Lutheran youth magazine, and author of several books.

Plans have been made by the Lubbock church to hear the program in connection with an annual Mission Sunday observance, at which Rev. A. R. Allmann of Friona is scheduled to speak. Dinner and an afternoon lunch will be served at the church by women members, it was said.

"Education For The Common Defense" Is Theme Of American Education Week

Lubbock Schools Plan Programs

"Education for the Common Defense" is the theme of the American Education week celebration being planned by schools of Lubbock in cooperation with the schools of the nation as they combine for the twentieth observance. Last week principals in Lubbock schools met with their teachers to formulate plans which are to be carried out in the schools of the city.

"We are anxious that parents feel free to visit our schools all during the year," Dr. W. B. Irvin, superintendent, said as he pointed out that parents usually feel more free to visit schools during American Education week when they are extended a special invitation by the schools themselves.

Visiting Night Scheduled

At Senior High school Miss Linnoel Hilliard, guidance chairman, has already issued mimeographed material to all guidance teachers containing suggestions for special guidance programs. The visiting night at Senior High is to be held on November 5 when a patriotic play is to be presented in the auditorium.

Dupre school is planning a parents night school on November 13. One half of the students will report at 7 o'clock with their parents and attend school until 7:25, and the other half of the students will come to school at 7:35 and stay until 8 o'clock. Regular school work will be carried on by the teacher and the pupils so that the observing parents may see the methods by which their children are being taught.

Parents To Be Invited

At Roscoe Wilson school, parents are to be invited to attend school on November 14. Parents will be asked to view a short program in the school auditorium at 7:30, after which they will be invited into the room attended by their children for a short social hour.

Each day during American Education week will be opened with a patriotic program at Central Ward school as a special general assembly. Parents of this school are to be invited to attend school just any day during the week. On November 14 special exhibits are to be given for the patrons, and special letters for patrons are being prepared explaining the activities of the week. The school mimeograph which prints the "Central Mirror" will have its part in the week's observance, as well as the observance of Book week. The mimeograph will be set up to print a page of good books for students of all ages attending the school to be given to every parent.

Special Program Planned

At 3 o'clock on November 14 a special assembly program is being planned by the Sanders school, although all day is to be set aside for visiting of parents. George M. Hunt school has planned to use Thursday as visitation day for parents, with a Parent-Teacher meeting at 3:15 p. m. Dr. Irvin will be the speaker, having as his subject "Teaching Democracy at Home and at School." Open house is to be held all week at this school.

On November 13 all mothers of George R. Bean students are to be invited to come and spend the morning so that they may see the work as it is conducted under normal conditions. On November 14 there will be a night meeting of the Parent-Teacher association and an educational movie will be shown. After the movie parents will visit the rooms of their children, where teachers will meet and explain the children's work which is to be on display.

Letter-Writing Course Is New Study For Senior High Students; Information From Course Being Compiled Into Booklet

"What is the one type of writing that almost everyone has to do sometime in his life?" D. M. Howell, instructor in English in Senior High school, asked his senior English class several weeks ago when introducing a new study which has brought results for students both in learning and in materials which have aided in the study and have added to the information which students have about their chosen vocation.

Out of 76 students in three English classes, ninety-five per cent have not only received instruction in the correct forms of business letters, but they have found an interest in a certain vocation and have set about to get information so they could write to successful persons in their chosen field to get further information and advice. Replies have been received from hospitals, aviation schools, politicians, beauty experts, designers, musicians, school teachers, and dozen of others.

General Rules Drawn Up

From the material which the students have learned during the unit, they have drawn up a few general rules for letter-writing, which they are making into a booklet called "A Guide to Better Business Letters." Each class has selected a different division of the booklet to work on, and the students hope that the result of their work may be useful to other students who become interested in the art of letter-writing, Howell says.

The information which has been received by the students has been particularly helpful because the letters give students concrete advice as to the vocation in which the students are interested. In some of the answers, the students were asked to call on the writer for an interview in order that they might give more definite information.

According to Howell, this unit of work for high school seniors might not prove to be a cure-all for the problems involved in teaching students to write good letters, but the results which were obtained from this unit are much better than those obtained from a stereotyped study of letter-writing, even if the value the vocational training students are receiving wert not considered.

School Rating Period Is On

Entering a two-month's period of evaluation, teachers of Senior High school are now beginning actual work which will lead to a rating of the school before Christmas, according to Dr. W. B. Irvin, superintendent.

This work was begun when the Evaluative Criteria conference was held in Lubbock for the local schools and schools of the South Plains. Dr. J. G. Umstattd of the University of Texas started the teachers on the work.

For the first step teachers will take part in formulating a philosophy of secondary education as it is applied in Senior High school. In view of pupils, curriculum, the method of instruction, the staff, the relation to state and society in general, and objectives to be attained, each teacher in Senior High school is to be asked to give his individual philosophy and from these statements a philosophy for the entire school will be formulated, Dr. Irvin said.

While this work of formulating a philosophy is being done, other committees will be getting acquainted with their evaluation sheets, and will be thoroughly familiar with the work they have to do so that after the philosophy is completed the evaluation work may be concluded.

Standards by which the school is to be judged include the following: the curriculum and courses of study, the pupil activity program, the library, guidance program, instruction, outcomes of the educational program, school staff, school plant, and school administration.

Play Scheduled At Senior High

Parents and patrons of Senior High school are to be invited to be guests of the school at a patriotic program and play to be given by members of the dramatic department on November 5, according to R. W. Matthews, principal. This night of visitation to the school will be a part of Senior High's observance of American Education Week.

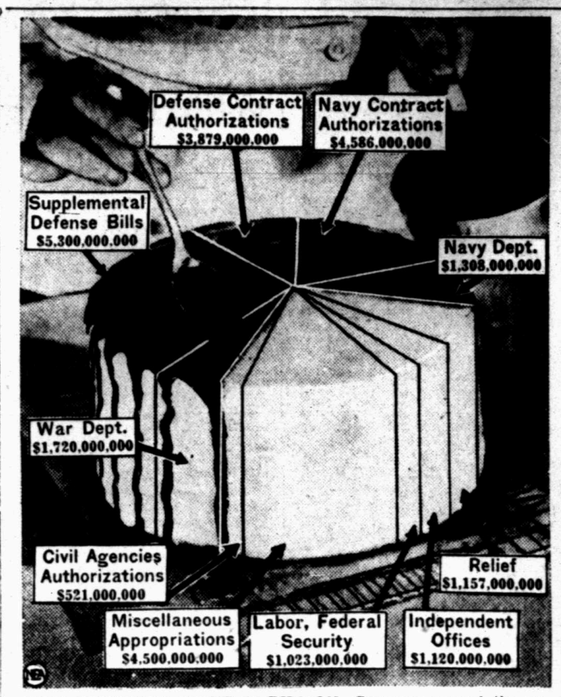

Directors for the play, "Moonset", will be Mrs. E. Waldo Trotter, music; Mrs. Bruce Bryan, scenic design; Miss Marie Cook, dramatics. "Moonset" by Helen Clark is a play with setting during the first World war. A small group of American soldiers is separated from their army and trapped by the enemy. The soldiers wait for the setting of the moon and certain death that comes with the daylight, either from attack or thirst. Throughout the play, war is depicted as a problem which men themselves must solve.

Characters for the play are: Gregory, Bill Kennedy; Peter, Byron Varner; Neil, Jack Tippit; Gillis, Teddy Waldrip; Moffatt, James Venable; peace, Bernice Cocanougher; God's spokesman, Sylva Wheelock; Death, Wanda Sue Wilhite, Inez Duncan, and Reader, John Tom Miller. Billy Tucker will play taps, and Jimmy Williamson will be the sound technician.

Central Ward Plans Family Frolic Night

A frolic night for the entire family is being planned by the patrons, students, and teachers of Central Ward school on November 1 from 6:30 until 9 o'clock. Funds taken in at the fun night are to be used by the Parent-Teacher association to furnish needs for the school.

Admission will be 5 cents, and the admission price will entitle the guest at the fun night to enter any one booth. Food is to be served throughout the evening, and all the family may eat supper at the school, according to those in charge. Activities will include a picture show, a fish pond, a country store, Mexican dancers, an amateur show, and bingo games.

HOW CONGRESS SPENT 25 BILLION—Congress covered the national cake with a 25-billion-dollar icing this session, voting cash appropriations or authorizations to that amount, to be spent over a period of years. National defense bills accounted for two-thirds of the money, as shown by dark sections of cake.

Invitations Out For Press Meet

Invitations have been mailed to approximately 100 high school newspapers to attend the fourth annual West Texas Scholastic Press Clinic, sponsored by the Texas Technological college journalism department Nov. 15-16. Purpose of the clinic is to bring together sponsors and students in the West Texas area to hear informative discussion on journalism, to exchange experiences in panel discussion, and to receive criticism of their high school publications.

Rating of publications will be substituted this year for awards, David Bergin, Tech journalism instructor and director of the clinic, said today. Next spring engraved plaques will be awarded those showing most progress throughout the year. The four types of high school publications judged on the basis of typography, make-up, and content are newspapers printed commercially, school page in community newspaper, mimeographed papers, and yearbooks.

To Limit Delegations

Last year 269 delegates from 22 schools attended. Delegations will be limited to ten this year, Bergin said, to facilitate discussion. Delegates will be guests of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce at a banquet Friday evening, Nov. 15. The Tech-Wake Forest football game will be an attraction for the visitors Saturday afternoon, Nov. 16.

Student officers this year are Stuart Condron of Canyon, president; Henry Ray of Borger, vice-president; Louise Willson of Floydada, corresponding secretary; Glenn Curry of Snyder, recording secretary.

Nation's Automotive Industry Pledges Anew Its Skill To National Defense

Plane Building Plans Mapped

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor

DETROIT, Oct. 26—The nation's automotive industry has pledged anew all its productive skill to the rapid fulfillment of the national defense program.

In closed meetings with William S. Knudsen of the National Defense Advisory commission, representatives of the airplane section of the commission and a group of army air corps officers, heads of the industry heard outlined a program of airplane parts production totaling $500,000,000.

Contracts To Be Allotted

Contracts for manufacture of these parts, intended for the construction of huge bomber planes, are to be allotted to the automobile industry between now and next spring, Knudsen said. With commitments already made for aviation engines, trucks, tanks, shells and other war material, they would bring to approximately $1,000,000,000 the total of contracts assigned to the automobile industry.

As a step toward mass production of aircraft, it is planned that the motorcar makers, cooperating with body, tool and die and parts and equipment manufacturers, shall make standardized airplane parts for final assembly in established aviation factories elsewhere.

Top Executives Attend

Knudsen came to the meeting armed with blueprints and specifications of the parts needed. He said the gathering of top executives of the automobile industry, including Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor Co.; C. E. Wilson, acting president of General Motors corporation, and K. T. Keller, president of Chrysler corporation, was called at his request.

It was to determine, he said, just what facilities the automobile industry could make immediately available to speed up the defense program.

"I received assurances", he said, "that all the productive skill of the industry will be available for the prosecution of the defense program. I expect great help to come out of this meeting."

To Subordinate Models

"I told the car manufacturers last week that we needed help in the airplane procurement program and they immediately agreed to subordinate new model changes to defense requirements. I came here today to talk over this offer."

Asked if he thought the tool situation would interfere with 1942 model work, he said:

"Let's wait until these new contracts are allotted next spring. Perhaps we can superimpose this job upon the present facilities."

MERCY ON WINGS—Soldiers pose as "stretcher cases," as the U. S. Army's new "flying hospital" is demonstrated at Bolling Field, Washington. A converted passenger transport ship, the plane carries 12 cots, a doctor and nurse, and is the first of a new aerial ambulance corps now being organized.

Hundreds of lives, normally lost in wartime because of slow military transportation from combat area to hospitals, are expected to be saved by the new flying ambulance service being organized for the army. Above, Medical Corpsmen transfer a "casualty" from the first of the new mercy planes to an ambulance during demonstration at Bolling Field, Washington.

U. S. Rearming Said Way Ahead

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Oct. 26 — Declaring "we have not been caught napping—no matter who says so," the Army's ordnance chief said last night "in point of time we are at least six months ahead of our record in the World war."

"In contracts placed we are at least 500 per cent" ahead, asserted Maj. Gen. C. M. Wesson in an address for the inaugural meeting of the Army Ordnance association's Cleveland post, held in conjunction with the National Metal congress.

States With Confidence

"I may state with confidence . . . our fighting forces at this stage never had the relative degree of armament progress which now prevails," General Wesson continued.

"Our six manufacturing arsenals have been largely equipped with modern machinery. They are now employing over 25,000 men and are daily increasing their force. During the past three months they have increased production in general nearly 50 per cent. In the World war it took over a year after war was declared to expand and equip several of them and get production started."

Contractors Take Hold

Private contractors "have taken hold" and "are going ahead just as fast as is possible," General Wesson asserted. "Despite the ingenuity of other peoples of the earth, none can match American genius in the solution of production problems.

"All this is so because we have undertaken our rearmament program according to a definite plan. The army and industry have planned jointly for the past twenty years to face an emergency such as the present."

West Coast Aviation Training Launched

MOFFETT FIELD, Calif., Oct. 2 (AP)—A veritable "assembly line" of pilots went through intensive training at this Army Air corps basic school today in the Far West's first contribution of its kind to the new program of national defense.

And for Brig. Gen. Henry W. Harms, commanding officer of the West Coast air corps training center, "there won't be any finer combat fliers in the world."

At Moffett Field, last of the nation's three great basic aerial training schools to get underway — about 100 "flying cadets" and 25 second lieutenants from West Point constituted the initial class. Another class will start in five weeks. Each will last 10 weeks. The annual output here was estimated at 1,200 pilots.

The other two basic training centers, Randolph Field in Texas and Maxwell Field in Alabama, were expected to produce about 1,600 and 4,000, respectively, every 12 months under the current program of the Army Air corps to obtain 7,000 pilots annually.

1666 "THE GREAT FIRE" 1940—In 1666, London went through a great ordeal by fire, when a conflagration destroyed most of the city. The tall shaft in the background marks the spot where the Great Fire started. It stands amid the wreckage caused by London's current ordeal by bomb.

Convict Hides Sixty Hours, Then Escapes

HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 26 (U.P.)—After a week's investigation, Capt. R. H. Baughn, manager of Wynne prison farm, disclosed today how a convict hid for 60 hours in a roof and escaped when the search for him died down.

Charles Duffield, Dallas robber serving 30 years, was sealed by fellow convicts between a tile roof and rafters in a prison building on which they were working Friday, Oct. 18, Captain Baughn said he learned.

Convinced that Duffield still was on the prison premises, a mile north of Huntsville, guards stationed themselves around the construction job while the grounds were searched.

When the unsuccessful hunt was relaxed last Monday, Duffield removed pieces of tile from the roof and walked away from prison before dawn. Captain Baughn said state and local officers were notified.

Anita Loos Changes Her Mind And Now She Says Redheads Preferred By Gentlemen

BY ARTHUR WHITNEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 26 — Anita Loos, author of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," announced today that she had changed her mind and now considers redheads the greatest peril to blonde and brunette feminine charm.

Miss Loos said that "an awful lot of peroxide has flowed out to sea" in the 15 years since she wrote her brochure on blondes.

Wants Long-Stem Roses

Blondes prefer to be courted in the moonlight, she said, in the moonlight that "flows through the windows of the Ritz or Ciro's and she wants her long-stemmed roses to come from the florist at six dozen a clip.

"Blondes do not flourish in drab years," she said, in reference to the depression. "Men can no longer afford them. The gentlemen took to the redhead and the more durable brunette to take their place."

These are times of violence, said Miss Loos, and "ladies with red hair have always flowered in time of violence."

Cites Several Examples

"I quote you the wife of Nero, Poppea-Hypatia, Nell Gwynn, Madame de Maintenon, Ninin de L'Enclos. In our own country, Mrs. Leslie Carter was the best redhead of the lot. Others include Mrs. (Sarah) Bernhardt.

"To come down to our own time, Magda Lupescu, Ann Sheridan, Lana Turner and Jeanette McDonald reign among the titian-haired beauties."

She recalled the depression days, when the prophets predicted that "the time will come when we will look back on this period as the good old days." That time, said Miss Loos, is here.

Blonde Wilting Away

"The average man's time is taken up with death, destruction and world revolution," she said. "The blonde, who needs the sunshine of prosperity for her full flower is wilting away like a potato vine in a damp cellar."

Brunettes, she said, are "hustling for their country, her cause, her politics and her charity," leaving the ladies with red hair, "who will break your front door in with an axe, and that's the only method I know will stand up against world conditions today."

In contrast to the axe-methods of the redheads, blondes, "coo" their way into a man's affections, while the brunette is a "pal," said Miss Loos.

"Nature always meets man-made conditions, gentlemen," she said in recapitulation. "One can always spot a redhead in a blackout."

FLOYDADA—Second mattress allotment manufacture is starting in the Baker community, with other communities to follow. One hundred mattresses are to be made, 102 were made in the first program.

Complete Plan Of Defense For U. S. Mapped By War Department Heads

Constant Change Of Plans Made

BY W. B. RAGSDALE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Poke around the War department and ask questions and you will find that it has a complete plan of defense worked out to flatten any type of attack upon the United States that skilled officers can imagine.

Officers fresh from the field, familiar with the areas covered by the individual plans, are continually going over them at the Army war college, suggesting changes which the strategists in the war plans division ponder—and frequently adopt.

Rest Upon Two Points

Thus they keep the defense plans a live and ready instrument, fully cognizant of changing weapons and modes of warfare. And though the strategic location of the United States narrows and sharpens the underlying philosophy of the war plans, it also widens the possible theaters of operations.

Basically, the war plans rest upon two points:

Keep the Panama canal clear at all times for the quick movement of the fleet from one ocean to the other.

Imagines Broader Possibilities

Unlike European nations such as, say, France, which envisaged a theater of operations along the German border and built the Maginot line, or another possible one along the Italian border and established garrisons, the United States has to imagine broader possibilities. France got crossed up when Germany used its own plan instead of the one the French strategists had worked out for Germany to use.

But it is not any battle along the Mexican border or the Canadian border that the United States Army is thinking about. Of course, a few marauding chickens have been shot in the wrong garden a few times in the past along the Rio Grande, but those things worked out. The United States expects no trouble along either its northern or its southern borders.

Are Last Ditch Plans

It hopes to do whatever fighting it may have to do farther away from home than that. Plans that exist for meeting any hostile army on its own continental borders are last ditch plans. For the United States, these borders would be something less than the one-yard line. They would be the last pair of inches before touchdown.

The far flung areas of the Pacific, the Atlantic, South America, the Panama canal and Central America are what hold the watchful eyes of the war and navy departments.

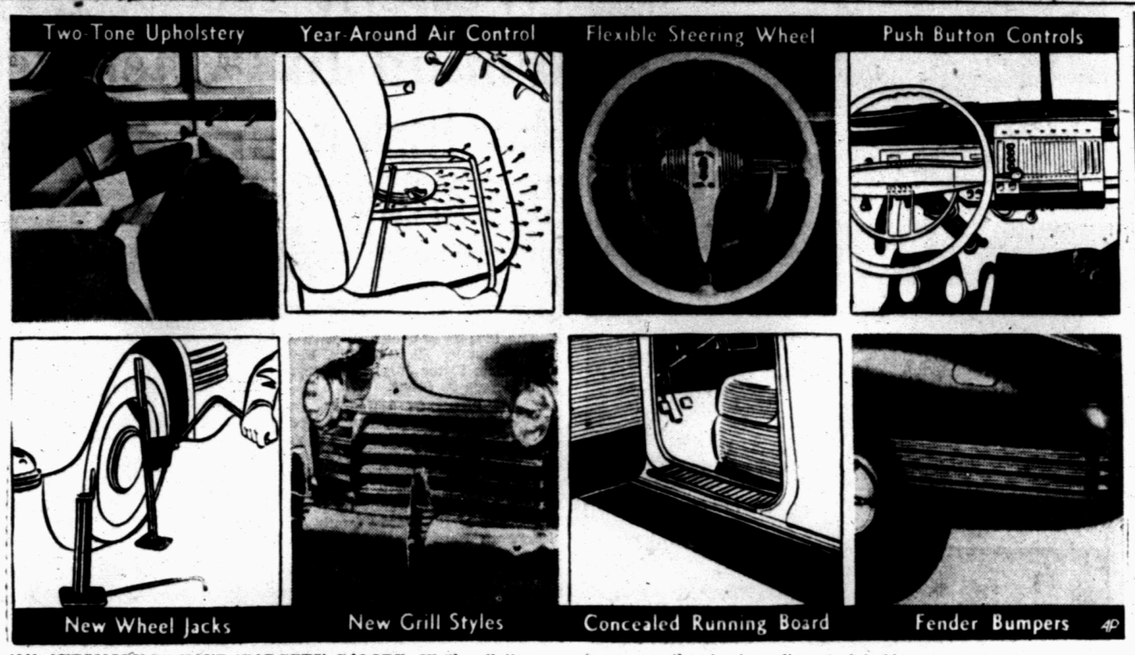

Wake, Midway, Guam, the Hawaiian and Philippine islands, all of them signboards on the route to the Orient, have been made increasingly important by the Japanese flare-up.

Each Shortens Distance

The Army does not regard them as offensive outposts for use in any attack upon Japan. But each of them shortens the distance an attacking force would have to travel in moving against the West coast.

And north of Hawaii lie the immensely rich territory of Alaska and the Aleutian islands. Both the Army and the Navy are establishing new bases in Alaska, putting reconnaissance and surveillance outposts in the Aleutians. The Army figures that if they be held in reasonable strength, no enemy will try any invasion of the northwestern United States and thus lay itself open to a flank attack.

In the Atlantic and Caribbean, the Army and Navy are prepared to operate as a team to watch over the new bases obtained from Great Britain. They help to fence off attack upon both the Atlantic coast and the Panama canal.

1941 AUTOMOBILES HAVE 'GADGETS' GALORE—We'll call them "gadgets" although the terminology isn't sanctioned officially by motor-makers. 1941 models have gadgets for everything. If milady wants to raise the window, she need only press a button. If she gets too warm, there's air-cooling. And hubby won't have to swear any more when that %@&$ driver turns too sharply. For fender bumpers also are among the new gadgets shown above.

Dr. Craig To Direct Local Arrangements For Science Session

Dr. William M. Craig will be in charge of local arrangements for the twenty-first annual meeting of the Southwestern division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science to be held in Lubbock April 28 through May 1, 1941.

That announcement was made Saturday by Dr. C. V. Newsom of the University of New Mexico, president of the division. Dr. Craig, professor of chemistry at Texas Technological college, is vice president.

The Southwestern division includes Colorado, Arizona, West Texas, New Mexico, and Sonora and Chihuahua in Mexico. The national association is the largest of its kind in the world, with a membership total of more than 21,000 last year. The Southwestern division met at Tucson, Ariz., in 1940.

Several other scientific societies have been invited to participate in the meeting, it was said. The West Texas section of the Texas Academy of Science and the West Texas Museum association have already agreed to cooperate. Replies have not been received from Panhandle-Plains section of the American Chemical society of Amarillo, the West Texas Geological society of Midland, and the Panhandle Geological society of Amarillo.

Other Lubbock officials in the Southwestern division are Dr. H. M. Hefley, chairman of the biological science section; Dr. W. C. Holden, chairman, and William Pearce, secretary of the social science section. Dr. Hefley is instructor of biology at Texas Technological college. Dr. Holden is dean and director of the historical, anthropological and social research, and Pearce is instructor of history.

Film Production At Lowest Point, So All Are Grumbling

BY PAUL HARRISON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 26.—Behind the screen:

Movie production is at its lowest point in many years, with only about 25 companies actually working. This doesn't herald an entertainment depression, though. Most of the studios have pushed along in advance of their schedules and now are getting ready for a winter boom.

Nevertheless there's grumbling all along the line, from top stars on enforced layoffs to extra, whose total earnings this month will be about $100,000 under par. Martin Greene says things are getting so tough that pretty soon nobody will be paid twice what he's worth.

Fine Drama Is Tower Feature

"Down Argentine Way" has everything a musical should have—and more, for good measure. Songs—there are eight of them, with a South American flavor. Stars—who could ask for more than a roster headed by Don Ameche, in a new and lively role; Betty Grable, fresh from her triumphant Broadway appearance and the sensational Brazilian star, Carmen Miranda, in her first appearance on the American screen.

Romance Far-Reaching

The romance between Ameche and Miss Grable covers 6,000 miles from the staid atmosphere of Westchester to the alluring Argentine. The story concerns the scion of a wealthy South American family who is sojourning in America for the purpose of selling some of his father's choice horses.

But horses become irrelevant when Ameche meets Miss Grable. Despite the fact that enmity exists between their families, they fall in love and when Don returns to Buenos Aires, Betty hops a plane and follows him.

The featured cast includes Charlotte Greenwood, J. Carrol Naish, Henry Stephenson, Katharine Aldridge and others.

Awakens To Truth

The powerful story of a girl's awakening to a bitter truth and her heroic sacrifice is told in "A Bill Of Divorcement," now showing at the Tower theater.

Maureen O'Hara plays her first modern character in the film. With the support of such players as Adolphe Menjou, Fay Bainter, Herbert Marshall, C. Aubrey Smith and Dame May Whitty, the picture is superbly acted.

The story starts with the unheralded return from an asylum of Menjou, a shell-shocked composer, years after his case had been diagnosed as hopeless. His wife, already divorced from him, is about to remarry, and his daughter (whom he has never seen) is engaged.

The conflict, tense and heartbreaking, revolves around the father, finding no place for himself in this new world; the mother, torn between duty to an old love and need for the new love; and the daughter, submitting to the tragic truth that her father's mental taint is her inheritance. The daughter makes the heroic decision that means an end to her happiness, but that solves the problems of her mother, who deserves love, and of her father, who needs companionship and sympathetic understanding.

Wants To Go Straight

The case of the ex-convict who wants to go straight is eloquently pleaded in "Invisible Stripes," a picture based on a book by Warden Lewis E. Lawes, which shows starting today at the Texan.

Contrast is used to brilliant effect by drawing a parallel between the lives of two men who come out of prison on the same day, one a confirmed criminal, played by Humphrey Bogart, the other a one time offender determined to rid himself of the prison stigma and go straight. George Raft is cast in the latter role. Bogart is cynical enough to believe it is only a matter of time before he is back in prison but Raft returns to his family anxious to find a job and be able to marry his old sweetheart as soon as he has finished his parole. The sweetheart, however, removes some of his illusions when she refuses to marry an ex-convict.

He has further trouble when his jobs only last until his employers learn he is on parole.

The futility of his efforts to go straight at last becomes apparent and he joins with Bogart and his gang and stages several bank holdups in order to raise a stake for his brother and save him at least from becoming a criminal.

Films Are Free

MOVIEMEN are aroused by the flood of Nazi propaganda films which are being shipped into this country and distributed in Central and South America. They're not such hot entertainment, but many are shown because they're offered free to exhibitors. This is one of the headaches awaiting John Hay Whitney, appointed director of the movie division of the U. S. group now seeking to cement "cultural and commercial relations" with the Latin nations . . . Dolores Del Rio is about to do some cementing of he own; she'll go to Mexico to star in a big picture.

• • •

ORSON WELLES has finished his own role in "Citizen Kane," so while directing the remaining sequences he hasn't been wearing makeup. A minor actor in his own company stopped him at the stage door the other day and asked, "Gotta cigaret, sonny?" Welles was so upset it took him two hours to get back into his big-executive mood.

Total Wheat Stocks In U. S. Are Increased

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—Combined stocks of wheat in interior mills, elevators, warehouses and on farms October 1 totaled 548,364,000 bushels, the agriculture department reported today.

Similar stocks a year ago totaled 494,520,000 bushels.

Stocks in interior mills, elevators and warehouses were reported at 188,618,000 bushels, leaving 359,746,000 bushels on farms.

The Commodity Credit corporation reported simultaneously that 227,170,750 bushels of this year's wheat crop had been stored under government loans to growers through October 22. It said $162,966,717 had been advanced on this grain.

Loans by states in farm and warehouse storage October 22 included: Oklahoma 20,394,000 and $14,631,846; Texas, 18,436,000 and $13,527,557.

THEATER IMPROVED

MULESHOE—The Palace theater here has been remodeled, a new front having been installed. A new sign will be installed.

BUILD BANDSTAND

OLTON—The Olton Lions club is building a band stand for the high school band at the football field. President A. D. Melton named Jack Straw on the committee.

Western Action Aplenty Is Found In "Cherokee Strip"

Andy Hardy Is Back At Lyric

THE period before the opening of the Cherokee strip to settlers is made the background of the picture, "Cherokee Strip," which shows currently at the Broadway theater.

The idea is embellished with a cast including Richard Dix, Florence Rice, Victor Jory, Andy Clyde and George E. Stone.

Plenty Of Action

Laughs and a goodly share of tense drama is brought to the Lyric screen today in the showing of another one of the Hardy family series, "Andy Hardy Meets Debutante."

The story begins in Carvel with Mickey Rooney, as the ebullient Andy, falling in love with magazine pictures of a glamorous New York debutante. His secret is surmised by his high-school sweetheart, Ann Rutherford, and one of his school chums and he becomes the victim of some vigorous heckling for being so silly as to lose his heart to a girl he doesn't know. He answers their taunts by boasting, not very truthfully, that he really knows the glamour girl and that if he could just get to New York he would bring back a picture of them together to prove it.

Forced To Make Good

Fate, in the person of Lewis Stone, as Judge Hardy, steps in by transporting the whole family to New York, where the Judge is to fight a legal case involving the financial welfare of the Carvel orphanage, and Andy is forced to make good on his boast. How he does it, employing an etiquette book published in 1881, a swank night club, a top hat too big for him and General Grant's tomb, makes for situations that are hilarious to an audience if agonizing to Andy.

Perhaps the most dramatic sequence is that in which Judge Hardy and Andy, who is disgusted with life and humiliated by his treatment at the hands of the Four Hundred, visit the Hall of Fame at New York University. There the Judge proves to Andy by a dozen examples that American youth has everything to be thankful for and very little to be disgusted about in comparison with the youth of other nations. And Mickey Rooney's transition from deep despair to quiet pride in his country is a bit of acting that has not been topped in any of his previous performances.

Judy Garland, who appears with Mickey for the third time in their film careers, is a lovely foil to the comedy of Andy and the glitter of the New York scene. She plays a sub-deb who admires Andy and helps him finally to meet the debutante, and contributes two song numbers, "Alone" and "I'm Nobody's Baby," in her best manner.

ANDY JACK EXPANDS

BROWNFIELD—After being crowded for space for several years, Andy Jack Stricklin, publisher of the Terry County Herald, has built an addition in the rear of his building. It will be 12x25 feet and of tile. The sterotype department will occupy a part and the rest used for a storeroom.

"Edison, The Man" Returns To City Today At The Tech

Super Western Is At Arcadia

ONCE more illustrating the fact that truth is stranger and more dramatic than fiction, "Edison, The Man," filmization of the career of Thomas A. Edison, opens today at the Tech theater with Spencer Tracy in the starring role.

Biographies have proved among the most popular offerings in Hollywood during the past few years and the story of Edison is replete with dramatic events which are so thrilling they might be considered the product of a fiction writer's mind.

Many Amazing Events

In fact, so many amazing events and so much intriguing humanness were found in the inventor's life that the producers' greatest job was in selecting the most entertaining and weaving them into a dynamic story.

Every back ground in the picture is authentic to the smallest detail and all of Edison's early inventions were accurately reproduced to a point where they actually operated as they did in Edison's day.

The story is basically a young man's story since it begins when Edison is only 22, arriving in New York as an unknown and almost penniless young man seeking opportunity. It carries him through his courtship, his family life as a husband and father, and through his most fruitfitious years.

With Tracy in the picture will also be seen Rita Johnson, Lynne Overman, Charles Coburn, Gene Lockhart, Henry Travers and Felix Bressart.

Big Westerr At Arcadia

Rip-snortin' action and excitement are to be found in "Dark Command," super western production which is part of a double feature program today at the Arcadia.

With sweeping strokes and at a breath-taking clip it deals with the looting of Kansas during the early days of the Civil war by guerrilla organizations while through the theme is woven a romantic story of three persons caught in a mad maelstrom.

Claire Trevor and John Wayne are the stars and the supporting cast includes Walter Pidgeon, Roy Rogers, George Hayes, Porter Hall and Marjorie Main.

The story, with a behind the scenes in Hollywood slant, is an adequate picture of comedy, action and hokum, in which Jane is the niece of Henry Wilcoxon, movie director. Tired of attending boarding school, Jane treks to Hollywood to be with her uncle, only to find that he is a down-and-out drunk.

Ann Sheridan and Humphrey Bogart, appearing now at the Cactus in "It All Came True."

Senior High Revokes Eighteen-Year Ruling

Feeling that the eighteen-year ruling recently passed by the faculty was unduly penalizing some students because of their age, the faculty of Senior High school this week revoked the rule which they made three weeks ago in favor of a new ruling which has as its basis scholastic attainment.

In keeping with the Interscholastic League ruling that students who were eighteen-years old on or before September 1 should not be eligible for activities, the faculty of Senior High school voted three weeks ago to make that rule apply to activities of Senior High school in which a student represented the school. For the past three years the rule for eligibility to participate in school activities has been the same as that of the league, the eight-semester rule. When the faculty imposed the eighteen-year rule, no evidence that some students would be penalized because of their age was presented.

The new ruling is being called a two-semester ruling, since a student is eligible to participate in all school activities if he is passing in three solid subjects, and should he fail to do so he is not passing in three solids, he must prove himself by passing for two semesters before he is again eligible to take part in school activities in which he represents his school.

Adventure In The Tropics Will Be Found At Midway

Lamour, Hall Film's Stars

The plot has the two stars cast as young natives of the island who are married during a great festival.

Their honeymoon is cut short when Hall has to rejoin his ship. In Tahiti he is sentenced to six months in prison after a brawl, and his sentence is lengthened because he tries to escape.

Does Finally Escape

Eight years later he does escape. Because of injustice the governor of the island has become unpopular with both natives and white people. He is determined to find Hall and bring him back to prison, so Hall seeks shelter on another island.

When all is in readiness for the capture an ominous wind sets in and it is around the hurricane that the climax of the production is reached.

Threat Of War Is Real

It's Time For Peaceful Talking

THE government-controlled Japanese press doubtless was stating an exact plan of action when it declared recently that "we must resort to armed force" if more peaceful methods of obtaining petroleum fail.

The suggestion of force was made immediately after the Japanese had failed in their negotiations for the purchase of oil in the East Indies. Not long before that they had been shut off from Mexico supplies. They no longer can obtain oil from the United States. They can't get any from Britain.

Thus the Japanese position as regards to oil may have been rendered so desperate that the threat of "armed force" cannot be discounted as another instance of Oriental bluffing. The nation must have oil, and it has none of its own. Without petroleum, all its armed forces are helpless, its commerce paralyzed and its industry at a standstill because Japan is not much better situated in the matter of coal and other fuels than it is in oil.

The situation may become such that the Japanese may be convinced that they have nothing to lose from attempting to seize oil resources by force. They may theorize that even if they fail in such a war, they will be no worse off than if the effort had not been made. If they are convinced that oil means the difference between national life and death to them, who can blame them if they choose to fight for life?

The problem of oil for Japan is, without question, one of the most ticklish in the world today. Perhaps it is more dangerous to the peace of our own nation than any other. What would we do if Japan attempted to seize the oil fields of the East Indies? What would we do if Japan should begin to fill the fuel tanks of her navy, air fleet and army for possible use against us? The possibility of war cannot be ignored in answering any of those questions.

If there is a solution to the problem it certainly has not been disclosed. Perhaps there is no solution. But, on the contrary, it would appear to be a matter which might be adjusted at a conference table. Possibly a temporary solution might be to enable the Japs to secure enough fuel for uses based on peace-time needs.

For the sake of our own conscience, this nation must leave no stone unturned in its effort to find the peaceful solution. If we should have any part in placing Japan, or any nation, in the position of feeling it had to fight or die, we could not escape a guilty responsibility for having brought war upon ourselves if that nation should choose to fight.

"Gush" Won't Fill The Bill

PLEA by Miss Muriel Lester, described as a London social worker, that Americans forego one meal each week for the sake of relief in Europe is typical of reasons why foreigners usually are flat failures when they attempt to appeal to the compassion or generosity of our people.

Obviously, she had failed to acquaint herself with the people to whom she was appealing and with the conditions about which she was talking. Otherwise she would have known that she was proposing a further aggravation of our problem of surpluses—surpluses which we have no earthly way of getting to Europe. She would have known that Americans wishing to contribute to relief funds don't have to forego a meal to do so. She would have learned that we regard as foolish a sacrifice which is wholly unnecessary, which is entirely without purpose and which would benefit no one.

If there was any way that hungry Europeans could eat the meals we might forego, then we would tighten our belts and share without being begged to do so. But where is the sense in a hungry man leaving food on his plate to be wasted because someone else 3,000 miles also is hungry?

Miss Lester doubtless was sincere. Her cause unquestionably is a worthy one. But her kind of impractical gush is about as appealing as a handful of syrup on a hot day. Pleas of such kind, which suggest the bland assumption that we recognize and accept the superiority of the British viewpoint, would be better if left at home.

OUR PLEDGE

WE pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States, and to the Republic for which it stands; One Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

Here's How Princeton "Listening Center" Goes About Its Labors

Nazi Radio Propaganda Is Analyzed

BY TOM WOLF
NEA Staff Correspondent

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 26—"Hello America. This is Berlin calling in the North America transmission."

For a year of war these words spoken in a curiously Germanicized Oxford accent, have announced that Berlin was about to bombard the United States with perhaps the most powerful weapon in its peacetime arsenal—shortwave radio propaganda.

Princeton university's Rockefeller-financed "Listening Center" has just completed a study of the nearly 80 hours a week of news, talks, and commentaries that have been hurled across the Atlantic from Germany to America during the war's first year.

Outstanding aspect of this study, soon to be made public, is the sudden change in attitude toward America which the German broadcasters took immediately following the invasion of the Low Countries. Prior to the end of May, with the exception of a short period preceding the Norwegian campaign, the Nazis' commendatory references to the United States overshadowed critical remarks.

Vilification egins

Suddenly this "honeymoon" period ended. Criticism and vilification rose sharply, starting May 25 and lasting through the first of September. In September they fell off, again without apparent reason unless, as some of the Center's students are inclined to think, the invasion of Britain had already been called off.

In that case, these students reason, Berlin would have had no need to try to arouse internal dissatisfaction in America which would in itself be an obstacle to united American action for aid to Britain.

• • •

CRITICISM PRECEDES ATTACKS

PERHAPS it is coincidence, but criticisms of the United States have been sharpest just before Herr Hitler has loosed his armed might. This was true directly before the invasion of Norway, again directly prior to the start of intensive bombing of Britain.

It did not hold true on the other hand, before the invasion of the Low Countries, perhaps because at this time the military situation in Norway was occupying most of the German commentators' attention.

Won't Guess

The "Listening Center" declines to guess whether one could predict Hitler's moves on the theory that whenever Berlin's radio most bombastically attacks America, then Der Fuerher is ready to strike.

Most of the Nazi criticism of America has been aimed at press, radio, American policy makers, and as always in Nazi propaganda, the Jews. The press is particularly berated.

• • •

LETTERS FROM PITTSBURGH JOE

ON the "Hot Off the Wire" program, one Gertrude Hahn monologues on U. S. press bias. She pretends to be the switchboard operator of the Pittsburgh Tribune (the Nazis either don't know or don't care that the Tribune is a negro paper) and often reads letters from her boy friend, "Joe." Joe is the "Berlin Correspondent" of the Tribune and his letters bemoan the fact that the Tribune censors his dispatches when favorable to the Reich.

Fred Kaltenbach's widely known "Letter to Iowa," which begins "Dear Harry," also carries out this theme with some frequency.

A listener at Princeton records a shortwave broadcast. Lord Haw Haw, inset, famed Nazi propagandist, is often heard from Berlin.

Since September 1, however, the Germans have apparently taken a slight shift in emphasis. At present Berlin's commentators devote much of their short-wave time calling attention to U. S. domestic problems—unemployment, maldistribution of wealth, etc.

With this tack, the Listening Center believes, the Germans hope to turn American eyes off Europe's war. To do this would be to accomplish the aim of all Berlin's hours of short-wave broadcasting—keeping America out of the war.

British Bargain Suspected

(The National Whirligig)

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

ACTUAL American participation in the European war in the spring if Britain withstands the Nazis' winter attacks and if President Roosevelt is reelected is now foreseen here as a distinct possibility. It is common talk in all military, naval and diplomatic circles. It lies behind definite promises by Churchill that "the United States is on the right track."

London has assured Washington that it will hold out against bombings—even against attempted invasion—until April. But by that time it will need more than "aid short of war" if it is to continue its resistance, or to carry the war to Hitler, as the prime minister has promised. It will want at least two-thirds of the planes then manufactured here, and the figure for export has been fixed at 2,000 a month. It will require loans and credits, active naval aid in the Far East, the Mediterranean and around the British Isles. To smash Germany once and for all—to "reduce the Reich to ashes"—it will have to call for American troops.

There will be official denials that such a program is contemplated, for the administration's edging into war has become the dominant issue of the political campaign. It is freely predicted, however, that national defense preparations and conscription of additional men will be stepped up in order to execute our part of the "bargain." It is believed that future crisis will so affect public sentiment that Congress will be high-pressured into approving this program.

• • •

SUPPRESSED: It is the prospect of American entry sooner rather than later which has blocked persistent efforts for a negotiated peace between Germany and England, according to confidential information among diplomats here. Powerful interests in London, Berlin and Rome—religious, economic, political — have never abandoned behind-the-scenes moves to terminate the conflict which may plunge Europe—and thhe world—into a hundred years of darkness.

The pope is understood to have labored quietly and discreetly for an end to the war which distresses him and handicaps the Catholic church, and he has tremendous influence with two Hitler aides—Mussolini and Franco. There is a peace party in both Germany and England, consisting of men who fear universal catastrophe unless mass destruction of lives and properties is stopped. Under informal terms proposed, Germany would be recognized as the dominant Continental power. Britain would retain her colonial empire. The United States, Russia and Japan would also sit at the table when world spoils are divided.

President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill are holding out against such a solution. Their bases-destroyer deal — with Churchill's promise never to scrap or surrender the British fleet—was timed to head off any progress in these peace talks. The prime minister's recent address to the French people—FDR's reelection—another sensational American gesture on behalf of Britain—are expected to suppress new overtures and negotiations. American participation in the war—openly instead of secretly—will probably kill all chances of any negotiated peace.

HOPE: Russia — naturally enough — has regularly tossed a monkey wrench into any termination of the war short of a collapse of the capitalistic system and nations. The proposed peace would obviously wreck Stalin's schemes under which the Soviet will emerge as the only winner of the war.

Diplomats do not expect Moscow to become a belligerent on either side. Neither do they believe that Stalin will fall for belated Anglo-American attempts to win him away from Hitler. They look for Moscow to remain on friendly terms with Der Fuehrer while making all the trouble she can for the warring powers to East and West. She will supply China with weapons but not become involved with Tokyo. She will egg on the Turks to resist Nazi penetration of the Balkans and Asia Minor, but the Soviet schemers will not tangle with Germany in that area. In recent days Stalin's newspaper has given encouragement to the British by praising the bravery and skill of the RAF.

Unlike political leaders of the western nations, Stalin is not swayed by his prejudices or emotions in his management of Soviet diplomacy. He thinks only of the gains he can make for Russia and for Communism. Although he once abandoned Lenin's vision of a world revolution, the spectacle of a world at war—especially involving the United States—has reawakened his hope of the doom of capitalism. Then he will pick up the pieces.

NEW YORK
By Richard Waldo

ONLY a few diplomats know that the recent treaty between France and Japan which gives Tokyo the Indo-China bases has a New York background. When Japan began tightening the screws on the Government of France's Asiatic colony, its governor made a quick exploratory checkup with the de Gaulle wing in London, with the palace guard surrounding Petain in Vichy, and with the anti-Hitler Frenchmen in New York who stand high with the U. S. President.

Indo-China wanted to resist Japanese demands, provided that London and Washington express their moral backing with guns and planes rather than with resolutions of sympathy. Encouraged by certain ex-officials of France now in New York, the Malayan colony flew a delegation all the way to Washington. These men described Japan's military weakness in such terms as to make the success or failure of resistance turn on the acquisition of only 100 American first-line combat planes. This number, said the delegation would be a match for 500 of Japan's antiquated crates, a force which Japan would neither spare nor risk.

Since this happened immediately following the administration's destroyer-bases deal, the State department was still studying the headlines to gauge the public reaction. Not wishing to be on record with 50 destroyers to England and 100 fighters to the Orient in one month, the delegation was turned down by Sumner Welles in a half-hour interview—and given the alternate suggestion to dicker with Petain for the American-made planes now bottled up on the Island of Martinique. This was so absurd that it soured all French factions involved, those plugging for Vichy and those working with England. The delegation returned home with bitter words for the good faith of the American government and told Laval to come to a settlement with Japan on the best terms possible, since Indo-China could not stand alone.

OFFSETS: With two weeks to go before the disputed New York vote is counted, both political parties have suddenly realized that the Brooklynites are the gents who may possibly swing the city, and perhaps the state. This and the record-breaking registration account for the President's last minute decision to visit the borough, and for Al Smith's similar decision to make it a debate.

By design or by coincidence Al is also making five speeches. And while the famous former governor will stick to orthodox political issues (he roars at the suggestion that he has a lien on the Catholic vote) many astute Republicans say Smith's Brooklyn appearance will crystalize the voting unity of the faith. Smith refuses to believe that religious lines are cutting across the bigger issues, the third term, foreign policies and collectivism. But there are many cool dopesters in both parties who have become convinced there is a considerable Catholic feeling against the leftism of President Roosevelt which will work for Willkie.

In this connection, Jim Farley continues to be as much a factor in the Brooklyn conversation as though he were campaigning actively. The conviction prevails that Farley was short-changed by the same boss who heaped honors on others, Communistically inclined, in his official family. It's a full-house cinch that the President will take the Brooklyn occasion to toss a flower to the beloved Jim Farley. And that Al Smith's presence on a neighboring platform will dampen the gesture for the same audience.

Hates, Loves, Fears Of Man Are Revealed

Wolfe's "You Can't Go Home Again" Is Think-Book

"YOU CAN'T GO HOME AGAIN", by Thomas Wolfe; (Harpers, New York).

HE who goes with Thomas Wolfe sees the structure of literary creation as one sees a cathedral half-built with the metal lath and rough plaster showing around the naked, half embedded ugliness of red leaded girders. Wolfe writes of a man who writes. Through his chief character, George Webber, we see the process of evaluation, discard and selection that a writing being goes through in his effort to find characters and to make them say the thing that he wants said.

Ignoring all intricacies of plot and planning, the author lets his leading actor drift from one place and social group to the next. He shoves the keen analytical mind of Webber into the fundamental motivation of human action revealing sometimes all too plainly, the little hates, loves and fears that direct the conduct of man, the pretender. Nor is this weigher of thought and impulse content with calling an emotion "hate" or "love" but must rather go farther into the recesses of the tangled maze that is the human mind and drag forth the stuff of which these things are made. He shows the outerplay of the forces behind thoughts. His finding that functionism classifies people more than race, that French waiters and German waiters are more waiters than Frenchmen or Germans, is an example of the way in which people are seen in these pages.

Exposes Dual Role

To a merchant, humanity appears as a great congregation of buyers. To an undertaker, beauty operator or doctor, the race of men is raw material. Wolfe exposes the dual role of the mass of mankind in an author's work. They are the substance of which his product is compounded and the market that will receive or reject it. In this instance, the noise of the impact of the people upon the writer is lost in the resounding echo that rolls away from the cracked sounding board that is the public's reaction machinery. The men with which he has peopled his pages see themselves exposed naked and howl against the writer.

It is a think-book, not a play book. One reads each passage twice, once to see what Wolfe has said, and again to see what he meant. When men walk in this story, the creak of their shoes and the crunch of grinding grit on the sidewalk can be plainly heard. George Webber, who is really the author himself covered with a veneer of fiction to fit print, is an inconoclast. Sometimes, though not often, he works as a calloused ruffian with a rusty double-bitted ax. Much more frequently he approaches some long-established and generally accepted thought pattern with a smile and a half-bow that is really a preparatory gesture for the verbal uppercut with which he knocks accepted belief from its pedestal.

"Comebacks" Impossible

"You Can't Go Home Again" shows the impossibility of a person or thing's ever returning to a former state of being. Webber cannot return to Lybia Hill, the home town that he has written into his first book, nor can he return to hishis old

Early Wheat Prospects None Too Good In Area; Allotments Are Announced

Lubbock County Given Increase

By J. SAM LEWIS
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

October rains over the South Plains and the entire Panhandle area have been insufficient to get the wheat that was "dusted in" in September and early October, to do more than germinate and prospects of early fall pasture are none too good.

The rains started many farmers to sowing wheat. The crop is spotted generally, some sections having had heavier showers than others, the sprounted wheat has come up to a fair stand, while in other places the green is barely showing.

Fair In North Panhandle

Through efforts of the recently formed Texas Wheat Improvement association, and in cooperation with extension service men, an improved type of wheat with a better baking quality, has been sown this fall.

Fourteen Above 100,000

Fourteen counties in the state have allotments of 100,000 acres or more. They are: Deaf Smith, 295,879; Ochiltree, 246,156; Swisher, 218,440; Hansford, 212,757; Castro, 200,827; Sherman, 199,630; Hale, 189,965; Randall, 179,978; Floyd, 173,605; Carson, 170,890; Parmer, 123,273; Moore, 121,274; Lipscomb, 115,282; Gray, 105,538.

South Plains counties, with their 1940 fall planting allotments compared with those of the fall of 1939, are:

Agriculture Marketing Service Is Making Study Of Mill Needs For Cotton; Data Is To Be Passed On To U. S. Cotton Growers

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—During the last few years a lot has been done to improve the quality of American cotton. Last season, farmers in more than 1600 cotton-growing communities were members of cotton improvement organizations. But in their improvement work, farmers need to know the kinds of cotton the mills want to buy, for mill demand is a price factor.

To meet this need for information as to the grades and staple lengths mills need for the various products they manufacture, the Agricultural Marketing Service is making a study to find out what the mill operators want. Fred Taylor who was a mill man before he ever went to work for the Department of Agriculture is handling this work for the service. And here is what Taylor reports about the work.

Study Has Just Begun

Calls have been made on a number of mills to find out what grades, staple lengths, and fiber characteristics they prefer. Though the study has just started, more calls will be made on mills both in the South and in the North.

In the past, many Southern mills have bought local or nearby cotton. For many years the quality of that cotton didn't vary to any great extent. The mills became accustomed to using the grades and staple lengths produced by nearby farmers. But as the cotton improvement work improved the quality of the cotton in many of these nearby communities, some mills found that they couldn't get the kinds of cotton they had been using from their nearby farmers—at least not enough of them to take care of their needs.

What did the mills do about this new situation? Well, some of them changed over to the improved cotton and continued to buy from local and nearby farmers. But other mill operators wouldn't change. These operators had to go outside for more of their cotton than they had in the past. Maybe the mill operators who stuck to the shorter lengths couldn't very well change over to the improved cotton for the products they were manufacturing. That possibility exists. And because it does exist, Taylor is attempting to find out just what the needs of the different manufacturers are.

Has Proved Satisfactory

In his calls so far, he has been told by some mill operators that the change over to the longer staple lengths has proved fully satisfactory. These mill operators say that although they pay a few points more for the better cotton, they have less waste than they had with 7-8th lint. And that the cost of spinning the longer cotton is lower than for the 7-8ths lint. They say the smaller waste and lower spinning costs have offset the higher prices for the improved cotton. And here's another important point—they say the improved lint is turning out better finished products.

The department doesn't want anybody to get the idea that recommendations have been made as the result of Taylor's initial calls on the mills. None have been made. But if farmers continue to improve the quality of their crops, they need to guide that improvement so their crops will turn out the grades and staple lengths mills will buy. The main point in these new studies is to get that information for farmers and for persons who buy and sell cotton. Of course—along with this information—the Agricultural Marketing Service may secure some information that will help mill operators.

FLOYD GINNINGS

FLOYDADA—Approximately 3,000 bales of cotton have been ginned in Floyd county for the 1940 crop, according to estimates. Shortage of pickers is delaying harvesting. Staple has held up well, it is said by cotton men.

ABERNATHY GINNINGS

ABERNATHY—The three gins here have turned out 1,603 bales of cotton for this season. At Monroe, in Lubbock county south of here, 1,667 bales have been ginned.

AMHERST GINNINGS

AMHERST—Latest ginnings here show 2,745 bales for the season ginned. Plants are running day and night. Farmers state yields are above expectations.

U. S. Flag Flies From Pole At Sudan Gin

SUDAN, Oct. 26.—What is said to be the only flag pole at a South Plains gin was erected this week at the Cooperative gin here by Manager John Dean.

Dean had some pipe welded together and then set in concrete. He is flying an American flag from the top of the pole every day.

Many farmers have told Dean they were attracted by the sight of the flag, something unusual except from a school building, postoffice or other federal building and an American Legion hall.

Tech Cows Make Good Records

Two registered Holsteins, owned by Texas Technological college, have recently completed herd-test records that show more than 520 pounds of butterfat, or more than three times the country's dairy cow average as reported by the U. S. department of agriculture, said W. L. Stangel, head of the college department of animal husbandry.

Tech Matchless Alcartra, a five-year-old cow, produced 523.6 pounds of butterfat from 16,816 pounds of milk in 326 days. Tech Inka Creamelle Hartog, a senior four-year-old, produced 520.17 pounds of butterfat from 14,929 pounds of milk in 296 days.

Each cow's production will be recorded by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America at its office in Battleboro, Vt. The association keeps a herd improvement record. Testing was approved by Texas A. and M. college in cooperation with the association.

"Incubator" Baby Is "Cure" For Sneezing

CLARKSVILLE, Ark., Oct. 26 (AP)—A six-month-old "incubator" baby whose mother died shortly after his birth apparently has succeeded in curing Juanita Lollis, 21-year-old Lamar girl, of an attack of sneezing that started three weeks ago.

Treatment by medicine, garlic and nasal appliances failed to stop sneezing paroxysms which at times occurred as frequently as twelve a minutes.

Hospital attaches interested her in young Jimmy, son of an unemployed miner. Today they reported the sneezing girl "well on the road to recovery." Her attacks have virtually ceased, she is in high humor and keeps constant watch over little Jimmy.

'Total Defense' Against Soil Erosion And Loss Of Rainfall Is Aim Of Dawson Man

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

LAMESA, Oct. 26.—"Total defense" against soil erosion and the loss of precious rainfall by runoff is the aim of W. E. Wall who operates a 640-acre farm 13 miles northeast of Lamesa. Wall always has made farming a 12-month job and he intends to make soil and water conservation a year-round program.

The farm is owned by Fritz G. Barre of Yoakum, but he leaves its management almost entirely to Wall. The owner recently visited the farm for the first time in three years, and was agreeably surprised at the soil and water conservation program that Wall had installed on the place. He is very proud of this conservation program because he realizes that it will assure him a permanent farm as well as more rent money.

Observed Conservation Practices

Wall became interested in soil and water conservation work largely as a result of observing conservation practices on neighboring farms. Early in 1940 he made an application to the soil conservation CCC camp at Lamesa for assistance in laying out and installing a conservation program on his place. The land had not suffered severe erosion because it is comparatively level, but the loss of runoff water from some of the tighter soils was greatly reducing the potential crop yields, he felt.

Terrace lines were laid out by the conservation specialists from the CCC camp last spring, but it was too late to build terraces before the planting of the summer crops. Wall planted strips of Sudan grass on the terrace lines so that the terraces could be built in the late summer or fall without disturbing the cotton and feed crops that were grown between terrace intervals.

Stopped Nearly All Erosion

The contour farming and strip cropping on this farm stopped practically all soil erosion this year, but more important, Wall feels that the water conserved by the contour lister furrows has greatly increased his crop yields. He said, "The present good crop is due to early rains being conserved by contour tillage and strip cropping, and by continuous clean cultivation."

Cotton and milo are the principal crops on the Wall farm. He has just harvested a crop of milo that made approximately one and one-fourth tons of heads per acre, and he estimates that he will get three-fourths of a bale of cotton to the acre this year. It has been a dry year in his community and his yields are much higher than on most surrounding farms. He feels that his continuous cultivation in order to keep the weeds from sapping the soil moisture also has helped in securing the good yields of crops.

Although the pastures on this farm were in comparatively good shape, Wall also is conserving moisture on these lands by contour furrows. The furrows will be constructed at seven-foot intervals in order to hold rainfall on the pasture land for grass production. He also watches the pasture closely during drouth periods in order that it will not be overgrazed.

Special Venire Called In Case

FLOYDADA, Oct. 26—Special venire of 72 men to hear the murder case of the state against T. E. Hough, 36, charged with the slaying of R. C. James of Plainview, Sept. 27, 1939, has been ordered to report Wednesday in 110th district court here.

Hough appeared before Judge Alton B. Chapman last week and entered a plea of not guilty. He had been placed under $5,000 bond following the shooting, having surrendered to peace officers.

James was employed by the Texas State Employment service at Plainview. He had come here on business. Hough is said to have fired five shots at James, three of which took effect. James was seated in his car. Mrs. Hough and her husband were separated and he had filed suit for divorce; asking custody of two children.

Mrs. Hough was employed as a housekeeper in Plainview.

Derailment Costs Santa Fe $62,000

MULESHOE, Oct. 26 — Property loss sustained by the Santa Fe in a freight train derailment near here Monday was $62,000, railroad officials said.

Officials said the wreck was the most serious on the Slaton division since one near Post in 1922 when a fruit train was wrecked. Equipment loss was placed at $35,000 and merchandise at $27,000. Thirty of the 31 cars involved in the wreck, caused by a broken flange, were classed a total loss.

Twenty cars were loaded with potash from Carlsbad, N. M.; five cars were loaded with pinto beans, three cars were loaded with cotton, one was an empty tank car and one an empty box car. Two wreckers, one from Slaton and the other from Clovis, cleared the wreck.

James was survived by his wife and the following children, Garland, Maynard, Glen Roy, Ward, Patsy Nell and Helen Fay James, all of Plainview and Mrs. John Marshall of Lubbock and Mrs. E. L. Reese, Brownfield.

New York's Fair To End Tonight

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—The lonely wail of a bugle will sound the official requiem at midnight tomorrow for the New York World's fair, after a two-year run that has drawn nearly 45,000,000 visitors to Flushing Meadows.

The bugler sounding "taps" on the shores of Liberty lake in the amusement area will signal the official end of the $150,000,000 exposition, but funseekers will be permitted a final fling into the morning hours before the gates finally are closed. To keep their frolicking within bounds, 1,000 uniformed patrolmen will be on hand.

On the basis of a "preliminary forecast" made public recently by Harvey D. Gibson, fair board chairman, investors stand to receive about 38.4 cents on the dollar. The total debt is $26,862,800.

Americans Can Begin Whetting Appetites For Roast Turkey

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. (AP)—Americans can begin whetting their appetites now for extra large servings of roast turkey for their Thanksgiving dinners.

There will be a bountiful supply of turkey meat. The largest crop in the nation's history is being fattened and prepared for market. Farm officials estimate that at least 15,000,000 birds of this year's 33,138,000 crop will be sold within the next five or six weeks.

These birds, added to supplies already in cold storage, would provide sufficient meat, officials said, to give each American man, woman and child about two pounds for holiday consumption. And that with all the trimmings is a lot of eating.

Largely because of the huge supply, prices are expected to be slightly less than a year ago.

Poisoned Liquor Is Blamed For Deaths

MARSHALL, Oct. 26 (AP) — Miss Nora Perkins, 38, and a 50-year-old farmer, both of the Harleton community, died today as a consequence, officers believed, of being poisoned. Harleton is in northwest Harrison county.

Assistant County Attorney Harry W. McGee, jr., who investigated, said it was his opinion Miss Perkins drank a small quantity of liquor without knowing it contained poison.

McGee said his investigation showed the farmer went to the store operated by Miss Perkins, produced a half-pint bottle containing the poisoned liquor and asked that a "toddy" be prepared for him. Instead of fixing only one drink, McGee said, Miss Perkins apparently prepared two and took one herself.

Book Reviews

place in the hearts of those whom he has so ruthlessly shaped into characters for his work. To prove this point further, Wolfe shows the blind, futile gropings of ruined financiers for their old secure places after the stock market crash has wrecked these places.

With so much to say, the author forgets that he has a story to tell and launches into such thought-provoking stretches of description and analysis that the reader forgets that he came to hear a story.

Situations are often twisted from the natural so that the intellects of different characters may play upon each other, and sometimes the style descends to choppy fragments of sentences. The writing character and the writing character's creator often seem in conspiracy to baffle the reader. They understand each other so well that it is often difficult to comprehend either of them.

After reading this book, we turn to look askance at our fellow beings, to see the truth of some of Wolfe's portraits and to frantically hope that he is mistaken in a few of his evaluations of us—of whom he writes with much understanding and little sympathy.—Louie Johnson.

National Cooperative For Fruit Authorized

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—Organization of a national fruit and vegetable marketing cooperative was authorized today by a group of representatives of farm cooperatives, growers and shippers.

Conferees said they represented more than 250,000 farmers in all sections of the country and the organization might eventually distribute more than one third of the nation's fruits and vegetables.

The new cooperative, including producers of all commodities in the fruit and vegetable field, resulted from conferences here the last three months among various farm leaders and with government officials.

John Snively of Florida, head of an executive committee which will complete details of the organization in a statement said that "the aims and purposes of the new cooperative, as outlined at the organization meeting, indicated that it would deal with all distributors in order to streamline the channels of distribution, cut down costs of marketing, increase consumer demand and bring a larger return to the grower."

War Brings New Low For Addresses

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26—The war has brought a new low in fashionable addresses.

City Commission To Set Tax Rate In Session On Monday

Final consideration of the city budget and setting of the new city tax rate are scheduled at a special meeting of the city commission set for Monday night at 8 o'clock, according to Mayor Carl E. Slaton.

Members of the commissio agreed several days ago that the new rate would be set at $1 on the $100 of assessed valuation—a reduction of five cents from the rate last year. However, legal formality delayed the official setting of the rate until Monday night.

V. R. Plummer, city assessor-collector, said that several days will be required after the setting of the rate before collections of new taxes can be started.

Treasury Ruling Made On Defense Program

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—The treasury ruled that only construction which actually takes place after June 10 could qualify for the accelerated depreciation provisions for national defense plant expansion under the recently enacted second revenue act.

This means, officials said in explaining newly issued regulations under the act, that rapid amortization for income tax purposes could not be claimed for any part of a building constructed prior to June 10 although the whole building was used for defense emergency production.

Immigrations Official Dies In Galveston

GALVESTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—Owen F. Lindsey, 61, inspector in charge of the local U. S. immigration service, died in a hospital here Friday.

He was born near San Saba, Tex., Feb., 25, 1879. Brought up on a home place of 25,000 acres of open range near there, he became a skilled horseman as a youth and, as a young man, a cowboy. Later in Edwards county, Tex., he engaged in cattle and sheep ranching.

Scout Course Is To Be Conducted

Plans for a Boy Scout cubs' leadership training course to start Monday night, Nov. 4, in a place to be obtained were announced Saturday by Dr. C. C. Schmidt, cub commissioner of South Plains scout council.

A meeting of a committee to recruit attendance at the course will be held in his home, 2206 Eighteenth street, Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock, Dr. Schmidt said. Members of the committee are Rev. W. Jack Lewis, Syrian Marbut, Allen Strout, Paul Laverty, F. H. Parker, Monroe May, Charles Ross, Paul Hardwick, L. A. Coward, P. T. Callaway, George Langford, and K. T. Miller.

To Consist Of Six Sessions

The course will consist of six sessions set for the nights of Nov. 4, 7, 12, 14, 18 and 25.

Announcement also was made Saturday that a meeting of a scout "good reading" committee will be held in the office of Dr. W. B. Irvin, city school superintendent, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Members of the committee are Isadore Garsek, Claude Hale, Mrs. J. A. Humphries, A. B. Davis, J. F. Chinn, John Wilson and George Langford.

Meanwhile, preparations are going ahead throughout the council for cooperation in the national emergency program, of which Sam A. Henry, sr., is council chairman. The week of Nov. 11-16 has been set for inspections of troops and packs, and the week of Nov. 25-30 for a council-wide mobilization.

Other Events Scheduled

Other events scheduled in the council during the week were listed by Jack O. Stone, executive, as including:

Monday—awards to be made to several members of cub pack 81 at Abernathy at a parents' night program; court of honor in Brownfield school auditorium with Judge R. E. Simms presiding and with Larry Miller and Billy Hinson, members of troop 49, sponsored by Brownfield Rotary club, scheduled to receive eagle badges; and the first session of a leadership training course in Lockney.

Tuesday—Court of honor in Tulia American Legion hall with Allan Heard, chairman, presiding after a meeting of the northern district executive committee of which Bob Hooper of Plainview is chairman; meeting at 7:30 p. m. of cub pack 10, sponsored by Lubbock Junior High school, in the school at the call of Dr. Marshall Harvey, cubmaster.

Wednesday night—meeting of Sea Scout ship, Plainsman, of the First Methodist church to which all 15-year old scouts are invited, according to C. C. Crenshaw, jr., skipper.

Huge Grain Firm Sued For $1,890,000

CHICAGO, Oct. 26 (AP)—Cargill, Inc., huge Minneapolis grain firm, its president and an Illinois subsidiary were sued for $1,890,000 in federal court today as another aftermath of the alleged attempt to corner the September, 1937, corn futures market on the Chicago Board of Trade.

The suit was filed by the Farmers National Grain corporation, former Farmers' Cooperative Grain Trading house, which was technically dissolved more than two years ago, but has continued its existence to liquidate claims.

Named as defendants were: Cargill, Inc., John H. MacMillan, jr., its president, and the Cargill Grain company of Illinois, a subsidiary.

FAILS TO REGISTER

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 26 (AP)—J. Percy Priest, Nashville newspaperman running as an independent in an effort to unseat the Democratic nominee, Joseph W. Byrns, as fifth district congressman, said today he had been so active in his campaign that he had failed to register and would be unable to vote in the November 5 election.

MAN IS KILLED

GREENVILLE, Oct. 26 (AP)—Jester Leroy Bailey, about 30, of Dallas was killed near here early today when his automobile overturned after being struck by another car.

ORPHAN PIG WINS RIBBON

COOK, Neb. (AP)—Robert Johns, Cook farmer, picked up a lost pig on the hikhway last April, tried unsuccessfully to find the owner and took it home to feed it. Exhibited at the county fair this fall "Orphan Annie" walked away with a blue ribbon.

Veil From Double Star, Xeta Lyrae, Said Lifted; Gigantic Pinwheel Is Generated

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Oct. 26—A Chicago astronomer last night lifted the veil from the Xeta Lyrae, double star that has baffled scientists for centuries.

Dr. Otto Struve, director of Yerkes observatory, said the twin star generates a 100,000,000-mile pinwheel that flashes an array of colors across the heavens when gases of the two bodies unite.

Scientists have spent more than $1,000,000 trying to fathom the mystery. They have long agreed that the star consists of two suns revolving around each other in 13-day cycles and that one set of spectral lines comes from the larger body. They never before have been able to explain the other set of lines which Dr. Struve describes as a "nebulous ring of gas," espiraling around the larger star.

So Hot It's Blue

This larger body is a supergiant so hot it is blue. The cool and smaller star, which turns around it, cannot even be photographed.

"The spiral revolves around the star," Dr. Struve explained, "and matter is constantly streaming along the arms of the spiral form from the supergiant into infinite space at 100 miles a second. The whole object is like a pinwheel firecracker.

"Imagine a giant sun, so large that a good portion o fthe solar system mcould be hidden within its confines. A short distance away is another sun, yellow and relatively cool, though hotter and considerably larger than our sun."

Route-Shortenings To Be Celebrated

AUSTIN, Oct. 26 (U.P.)—Two route-shortening projects under way for a long time in Texas are due for completion next month.

One, known as the Houston airline route, will be eight miles shorter than the present travel route between San Antonio and Houston over U. S. highway 90.

A celebration is to be held at Stephen F. Austin park, three miles east of Sealy, on Nov. 3 to mark the opening of the air-line for traffic.

The other project shortens travel from the lower Rio Grande valley to both Houston and San Antonio. Its completion is to be celebrated at Raymondville on Dec. 1, after state highway 96 is completed through Kleberg and Kenedy counties.

It is the first highway to pierce the large ranch holdings in Kenedy county.

Lipstick, Stockings Are Defense Needs

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. 26 (AP)—Willard Chevalier today valued lipstick and silk stockings nearly as high in the national defense program as tanks and planes.

The armament program, he said before the Association of National Advertisers, is going to put $5,000,000,000 of extra purchasing power in the hands of the public next year, and unless people have a chance to spend a good share of it they "will lose morale and therefore diminish in productivity."

Chevalier, publisher of Business Week magazine, confessed worry about suggestions from many sources that luxuries should be cut out to make more industrial production facilities and materials available for armaments.

REACH 151

PHILADELPHIA (U.P.)—The $1,000,000 Round-Table, consisting of men who have written that much insurance, now has 151 members. Of the group, it was revealed at the convention of National Association of Life Underwriters, the majority are married, college graduates and believe that business will be "good" the coming year.

TURNIPS TELL "TURN-DOWN"

Including Names And Numbers Of County Draft Registrants

"FIRST In Lubbock—FIRST On The South Plains"

Lubbock Avalanche-Journal

Lubbock, Texas, Sunday, October 27, 1940

Section Three
* * *
Including Names And Numbers Of County Draft Registrants

If You Registered For The Draft And Live In Lubbock County, Your Name And Serial Number Are Published On This Or Following Pages; Complete Information Given

THE serial numbers of every Lubbock county man between the ages of 21 and 36 years, who registered October 16 for selective service in the U. S. army, are published on this and succeeding pages of this section.

Men who lived elsewhere than Lubbock, but who registered here, need not look through the list for their serial numbers because their cards were forwarded to their home counties. Likewise, men who registered in other counties but who live here will find their numbers listed here, their cards having been sent to the Lubbock county boards by the boards where they registered.

After all of the cards for Lubbock county have been received from other sections of the country and serialized, numbers will be drawn by chance in a national lottery in Washington, D. C., next Tuesday, October 29. The order in which these numbers are drawn will determine your order number. Your order number will determine the order in which, in your local board area, you may be called for training and service unless you are deferred.

If you live in Commissioners' Precinct No. 1, Lubbock county, your name and serial number will be found in the Draft Board No. 1 list. Names of men living in Commissioners' Precincts Nos. 2, 3 and 4 will be found in Draft Board No. 2's list.

YOUR serial number does not indicate the order in which you will be called for service. No. 1 serial number might be drawn out last in the national lottery and consequently all men in the U. S. with No. 1 serial numbers would be the last ones called for service. If No. 313 is drawn first in the national lottery, then all men with that serial number will be given Order No. 1 and must report first to draft boards.

After the order numbers have been assigned, your local draft boards will mail you a questionnaire when your turn comes. The questionnaire is a printed list of questions which you must answer. The answers will be used by your local board in deciding whether you are to be called for military training and service. Your questionnaire must be returned to your local board within five days from the day of mailing by the local board.

There is one way you can be sure about the time your questionnaire is due. Your local board will post outside its office a notice of the order numbers of the men to whom questionnaires have been mailed. Watch for this notice. If your order number is on this notice and you do not receive your questionnaire in the mail at once, go to your local board, get another questionnaire, answer the questions and return it at once.

"HELLO, MUMMY . . . WE'RE WELL AND HAPPY . . . IN AMERICA"—"New York is lovely; we've been on picnics and parties"—"You'll be glad to hear that Mitzi had three puppies." Little snatches of inconsequential gossip? Yes, but the gladdest sounds parents and children ever heard—part of the short-wave radio program from refugee children in New York to parents in London. Above, Rona and Neville Whitaker laugh for joy at the sound of their parents' voices. But it was too much for brother Allan, right. He's dissolved in tears. Announcer is George Hicks.

OUT OF THE WAR CLOUDS—A NEW TOY—This trio of English youngsters, wandering in fields near a southeast coast town, discovered a grand new toy and seems to be having fun with it, unmindful of its grim associations. It's a parachute, discarded by a pilot after landing safely from a bullet-riddled plane. Censored caption failed to state whether pilot was British or German.

NIGHTS AREN'T QUIET IN GERMAN CAPITAL, EITHER—This spectacular blaze of light is no giant July Fourth celebration. It's fireworks in earnest, as German searchlights grope skies and anti-aircraft batteries spit tracer bullets "against British air pirates during their attack on a German city," according to Nazi censor's caption.

EERIE SKIES RAIN DEATH ON LONDON'S LITTLE PEOPLE—A new London joke scoffs at men who enlist in the army, because they are "deserting the front line during action." The grim witticism holds a grain of truth. For England's little people—the old men, the children, the women—are on the real fighting front. They stand steadfast at home under an onslaught more terrible than any uniformed army ever faced in the field. So they go on holding the fort, these little people who were never meant to be soldiers. They hold the fortress that is Britain, a fortress as much of the spirit as of steel and stone and earth. Meanwhile death rains on them from eerie night skies, kin and comrade die beside them, their homes go, their lifeworks are blasted, their own and their children's lives are twisted and warped.

CREW OF DOOMED ITALIAN SUBMARINE SURRENDERS—An Italian submarine, blown to the surface by a depth charge, surrenders to British ships, according to British sources. After the crew was captured the submarine sank.
