Ike Presents His 'Confident Budget'

Spending Cut Is Forecast

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today sent Congress a 77-billion-dollar budget forecasting a spending cut of nearly four billion dollars and a precarious surplus of 70 millions. He called it "is a confident budget" that assumes a surge of prosperity.

Eisenhower said the budget aims to restrain inflationary forces that "cheapen our money and erode our savings." He also said it paves the way for a tax cut "in the reasonably foreseeable future."

No tax cuts were proposed for the present. In fact, to help achieve the first balanced budget in three years, the President is asking Congress to boost postal rates and gasoline taxes. He also wants some tax loopholes plugged.

Any added postal revenues and proceeds from loophole plugging would increase budget receipts. Gas tax money would go into a separate trust fund which, Eisenhower said, would otherwise have to be replenished out of the budget.

Eisenhower said his fiscal blueprint, for all its emphasis on economy, promises to "increase our military effectiveness." The budget calls for hiking Defense department military spending by 145 million dollars but projects a cut of 462 millions in arms aid to other nations.

Democrats in Congress generally were critical of the budget. Republicans welcomed the plans for a budget balance and said the alternative is more inflation.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala) called the figures unrealistic, saying he found it hard to believe that congress will increase gasoline taxes or postal rates.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) said he hopes for a balanced budget but added "I don't see much chance for it under the President's proposals."

GOP Members Laud Proposals

For the Republicans, House GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck (R-Ind) praised Eisenhower's budget, which he said "will provide for a strong defense, for progress in meeting human needs, and for a prosperous and expanding economy."

Rep. John Taber (R-NY), senior GOP member of the House Appropriations committee, also said he thinks government agencies can get along on what Eisenhower proposed, but Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo) of the Appropriations group called the budget impractical.

Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson indicated that if Congress boosts spending in the new budget, a tax increase — rather than a cut—would become a real possibility.

Anderson said revenue estimates for fiscal 1960 assume personal income in calendar 1959 will rise more than 20 billion dollars to 374 billions. He said the Treasury believes corporate profits will increase 10½ billions to 47 billions and that the gross national product will advance nearly 20 billions to 470 billions.

The President disclosed that in the current fiscal year, which ends June 30, the government's finances will be even deeper in the red than had been predicted. He said recession-hit revenues will fall $12,871,000,000 short of matching indicated spending of $80,871,000,000.

He said this whopping deficit—the biggest ever in peacetime—will make necessary another request to Congress for an increase in the legal ceiling on the national debt.

For fiscal 1960, Eisenhower forecast revenues of $77,100,000,000—a rise of nearly nine billion dollars. He said tax receipts will be swelled to near-record levels by "a rapidly advancing economy."

Need Of More Revenue Seen

By the President's calculations, present revenue laws alone wouldn't produce a balanced budget. He is asking Congress to pass legislation that would increase budget receipts by 600 million dollars in fiscal 1960.

Eisenhower proposed raising 350 millions by again boosting postal rates, which went up only last August. He will submit details on this and other revenue proposals later.

The federal gasoline tax would be hiked to 4½ cents a gallon, from the present 3 cents. The added revenue—more than 600 million dollars the first year—would go into a special trust fund to finance roadbuilding. Eisenhower said the increase, designed to keep the trust fund in the black, should go into effect July 1 and expire on June 30, 1964.

Anticipating Democratic claims that he is being too thrifty, Eisenhower said his budget "responds to national needs, with due regard to urgencies and priorities, without being either extravagant or unduly limiting."

"We cannot, of course, undertake to satisfy all proposals for government spending," he declared.

The President said his proposals "are realistic and can be achieved with the cooperation of the Congress." He conceded a lot also depends on "popular support and developments in our economy and in the world."

The ease with which the budget could slip into the red was pointed up by, among other things:

1. The distinct possibility that Congress may not go along with all recommendations for increasing revenue.

2. The obvious guesswork involved in estimating outlays for farm price supports. The subsidies this year are running more than two billion dollars above the total estimated a year ago.

National Security Gets Most

As in all recent budgets, national security programs account for the lion's share—$45,805,000,000 or nearly 60 per cent.

Of this total, Eisenhower has earmarked $40,945,000,000 for the Defense Department, an increase of 145 millions. Security aspects of the atomic energy program account for an additional $2,745,000,000 — up 115 millions. Defense stockpiling and foreign military aid make up the remainder of the security expenditures.

Incidentally, the budget assumes extension of the one-year suspension of U.S. nuclear tests which began last Oct. 31. No money is provided for weapons tests in fiscal 1960.

Both the Army and the Navy would spend a bit more under the new budget. Air Force outlays, however, would be reduced by 318 million dollars, to $18,675,000,000. The Navy would spend $11,596,000,000 and the Army $9,264,000,000.

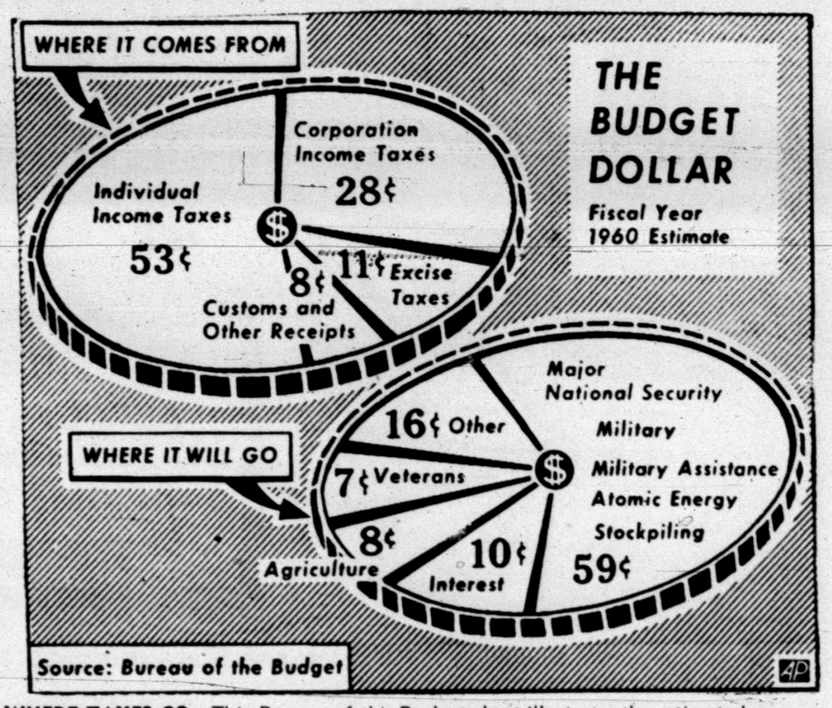

Eisenhower said outlays for missiles and research and development will rise more than 800 million dollars.

Eisenhower told Congress he plans a 383-million-dollar cut in the mutual security program. Military assistance would be trimmed by 462 millions to $1,850,000,000 but economic aid would edge up 79 millions to $1,648,000,000.

In a related area, Eisenhower asked Congress to provide $1,375,000,000 to increase the U.S. subscription to the International Monetary Fund. If Congress agrees, this sum will be added to spending in fiscal 1959—a big reason for the increased deficit predicted.

With the bigger deficit comes a bigger debt. The President said he wants the permanent debt ceiling lifted to 285 billion dollars, plus an even higher unspecified temporary increase. The ceiling is due to drop from 288 billions to 283 billions on July 1.

Eisenhower predicted the debt, now 283 billions, will be two billions higher at the start and finish of fiscal 1960.

FRONDIZI FLIES TO U. S.

Argentina Swept By Big Wave Of Strikes

By SERGIO MACKAY

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—A crippling wave of strikes swept Argentina today as President Arturo Frondizi flew to the United States for help to pull his country out of economic chaos.

With diehard followers of exiled dictator Juan D. Peron egging workers toward open revolt, government officials served notice they would call out troops if violence errupted.

The capital was in a virtual state of siege as orders went out to conscripts in the 24-26 age class to stand by for a call from the army "at any moment."

Frondizi was due in Charleston, S. C., today to start a two-week state visit. He arrives in Washington Tuesday to confer with President Eisenhower and other top officals.

Left at home to direct action against the strikers were Senate Chairman Jose Maria Guido, acting president, and Alfredo Vitolo, acting minister of national defense and interior minister.

Scattered violence Sunday pointed up the gravity of the situation.

One bomb went off in La Plata, 35 miles southeast of the capital, doing about $1,000 in damage to the building housing the U. S. Information Service. Another exploded in the capital, damaging the home of Rogelio Frigerio, economic adviser to the president.

Frondizi told newsmen during a stopover in Lima his regime stands ready to take strong action to prevent Peronist labor leaders from starting an uprising.

"Some union sectors think they can take the country over," he declared. His government meanwhile declared the strikes illegal, meaning that strikers lose their rights under the country's labor laws.

But orders to stop work mounted swiftly. Trolleys, buses and subways in Buenas Aires were paralyzed. Oil workers, utility workers, telephone, radio and telegraph operators, food and catering unions, white collar employes, newsmen, printers and a host of others were ordered out.

Motion picture houses were ordered closed. Newspapers were expected not to publish. Meat workers, textile workers, construction men and bank clerks were told not to work. Some of the strikes were for an indefinite period, others for 48 hours.

The strikes ostensibly were called in sympathy for workers at the government-owned Buenos Aires meat packing plan. Police and troops used tanks and tear gas Saturday to rout some 7,000 workers who had barricaded themselves in the plant protesting the government's decision to turn the plant over to private operators.

Mikoyan In New Effort For Trade

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Dep. Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan met with the State Department's top foreign trade official today in a renewed effort to break down U.S. barriers against the sale of strategic goods to the Soviet Union.

Mikoyan, accompanied by Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov, began his final round of talks here with Dep. Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon. He was scheduled to follow up with a second trade session with Commerce Secretary Lewis Strauss.

Between those two conferences he was due at the National Press Club for a last question and answer session with reporters.

Mikoyan renewed on a nationwide radio-TV network Sunday night the Soviet demand that the Western powers pull out of West Berlin. He described as "impossible" a suggestion that the Soviet proposal for a West Berlin free city be broadened to include Communist East Berlin as well.

The Soviet leader faced another and final round of Washington questioning today at a National Press Club luncheon.

His schedule included a conference with the State Department's top economic expert, Deputy Under Secretary Douglas Dillon. It was expected that he would also talk Soviet-American trade during the day with Secretary of Commerce Lewis Strauss. He has urged increased U.S.-Soviet trade in a series of meetings with bankers and businessmen during a coast-to-coast tour.

He leaves for Moscow by way of New York Tuesday.

Despite the lack of any new suggestions from Mikoyan for breaking the Berlin deadlock, U.S. officials believe that an East-West foreign ministers' conference on German issues is probable in a few months. They will begin consultations with the NATO allies this week in an effort to develop detailed Western proposals.

Mikoyan's performance before the TV cameras — NBC-Meet the Press—added up to an unbudging defense of every Soviet policy or action about which he was asked by a panel of four newsmen. His replies covered support for Red China over Formosa, crushing of the anti-communist revolt in Hungary and the handling of American news in the Soviet press.

Several times he accused the American press of distorted reporting on the Soviet Union, saying it "imagines facts" and "spreads untruths." But he maintained his composure even in the face of such questions as whether his boss, Premier Nikita Khrushchev, is trying to make himself into a Stalinist-type dictator. Mikoyan denied that is happening.

"I'm not afraid of questions," Mikoyan said when told beforehand that the questioning would be tough. "In Odessa it is said that the way to answer one question is to ask two more."

County Given Road Right; Park Named

The county commissioners court voted to accept free right-of-way for a short county road and officially named a county park in a brief session held this morning.

The right-of-way was offered to the county by N. R. Clements, according to J. C. Massingill, commissioner of precinct 4, and is located on his property east of the Starlight Drive-In Theater and west of the small creek on the east highway.

Massingill said a road from U. S. Highway 84 to Thirty-seventh Street on that property could line up with the Ennis Creek road, the paved road which runs north from the highway under the Santa Fe Railway tracks.

The court voted to accept the right-of-way provided it would be at least 100 feet wide.

The commissioners court named the county park on Thirty-seventh Street Winston Memorial Park. The park has been called by several names for the past several months, including "Winston Park" and "Park No. 2."

The name for the park came from the name of the family which sold the county the property for the park site. Harrie Winston and the late Wade Winston.

Jay Ramsey, county park superintendent, met with the court and asked whether a planned entrance marker for that park should be erected at this time, but the court decided to wait until it is determined how much right-of-way the state will need on Thirty-seventh Street for a widening project which has been proposed by the county before locating the Winston Park entrance marker.

Ramsey was instructed to proceed with landscaping at that park.

In other action, the court divided $200,000 from the county road and bridge special maintenance fund equally among the four precincts, an annual practice. The fund had a total of $271,277.92.

CHAMBER BANQUET TICKETS WILL GO ON SALE TUESDAY

Tickets will go on sale tomorrow at the Chamber of Commerce office for the annual chamber banquet, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Josh Lee of Oklahoma City, former senator and former member of the Civil Aeronautics Board, will be main speaker at the banquet, at which new chamber officers and directors will be installed and an outstanding businessman and outstanding farmer of the year will be honored.

The tickets will be $2.50 each. Those desiring to reserve tickets may do so by calling the chamber office at HI 3-3558.

Burglars Hit Restaurant

Burglars took $419 in cash from Starr's Drive-In restaurant on the Big Spring highway in south Snyder sometime this morning.

T. L. Steele, police chief and one of the officers investigating the burglary, said that the money was taken from a hiding place inside the cafe building.

"The burglar or burglars were either locked inside the cafe when it closed at 12 o'clock last night, or entered the building by crawling down an air conditioner vent," Steele said.

There was no evidence of forced entry into the building, but the burglars did break out of the building," Steele said.

Officers are investigating today.

Reaction To Budget Draws Party Lines

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional reaction to President Eisenhower's 77-billion-dollar budget presented today generally followed the usual party pattern.

Most Democrats were doubtful or critical. Republicans hailed the effort to hold down spending.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) said "I hope we can balance the budget but I don't see much chance for it under the President's proposals."

He said also that Congress is not likely to grant Eisenhower's request for authority to veto or to reduce individual items in authorization and appropriation bills.

House Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck (R-Ind) said the budget, as it stands, will provide for a strong defense, for progress in meeting human needs, and for a prosperous and expanding economy.

The Senate's assistant Republican leader, Sen. Thomas Kuchel of California, said the budget lays down a splendid formula for defense. But he said he does not agree with the President that there can be a breathing spell in asking new public works projects.

Rep. Clarence E. Cannon (D-Mo), chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said "this is a political budget based on contingencies which no one expects to materialize."

Rep. John Taber (R-NY), ranking Republican on the Appropriations Committee, said he would try to keep the appropriations within the budget.

Rep. George Mahon (D-Tex, chairman of the House Defense Appropriations subcommittee, said he feels "that in the interest of reduced spending, a laudable aim, the defense budget may have been shaved too close in the light of the sustained challenge of the U.S.S.R."

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala) called the budget unrealistic because, he said, it is hard to believe Congress will increase gasoline taxes or postage rates.

House Votes On Funds To Run Session

AUSTIN (AP)—The House voted 145-1 today on a bill aimed at paying the Legislature's expenses for the 56th regular session. Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria said the $1,750,000 would be enough.

The House backed down on previous plans to transfer $2,300,000 from two funds. The bulk, $1,700,000, would have come from the state disabled assistance funds.

Cory substituted this portion out to take $950,000 from the state insurance building fund.

Another $800,000 would be taken from the operators and chauffeurs license fund of the Department of Public Safety.

Rep. John Crosthwait of Dallas asked whether the money would be enough for the lawmaker's regular 120 days of work.

"We're a scant bit short of the money we spent last session when we ran over 16 days," Cory said. "But I think this will be enough."

Crossthwait said he believed the House would approve a Senate-passed resolution which would finally adjourn this session at 6 p.m. May 12.

"I'll guarantee you we'll get enough votes to pass it," he said. The temporary House Rules Committee approved the resolution 3-1 earlier this morning.

In a short session, the Senate passed some resolutions then quit until tomorrow.

All of tomorrow will be devoted to the inauguration ceremony and allied attractions.

Daniel will make his traditional budget address Wednesday to a joint session, telling what spending he recommends and how he thinks the money should be raised.

The governor estimated recently that a "minimum improvements" program would cost 175 to 185 million dollars in new revenue for the biennium. Other sources have estimated new revenue needs as high as 215 million for the next two years.

Today the powerful Legislative Budget Board—a joint study committee of senators and representatives—laid out a financial forecast that calls for a spending boost of about 28 million dollars. However, the estimates cut to the bone most requests from state agencies and departments.

The Budget Board estimated the cost of state government at $285,800,000 from the general revenue fund, compared to $281,000,000 for 1958-59. However, the current appropriations included about 23 million in non-recurring expenses.

"It was this 23 million dollars in non-recurring items that enabled the budget board to meet most of the basic, workload increases in governmental programs and still keep its total recommendations from general revenue at approximately the current appropriation level," the board said.

Adult Classes To Organize

A special meeting has been scheduled tonight for those interested in taking adult education classes at the high school during the next semester.

The meeting will be at 7 p.m. in the music room of the high school.

T. D. Wiman, high school principal, said there must be at least 15 persons enrolled in any one course before it can be offered.

Usually courses are offered in shop, arts and crafts, bookkeeping, typing, and shorthand. Other courses can be offered, however, if there are enough enrolled.

Tuition is $16 for 15 weeks in any course. Classes will meet two nights weekly.

County Asks Bids On Cars

Bids will be opened at 10 a.m. Feb. 4 by the county commissioners court for five county cars.

Four of these will be used by the sheriff's department, one by J. C. Massingill, commissioner of precinct 4.

The court has called for four of the cars to be four-door sedans of 3,400 to 3,700 pounds, V-8 engines of 200 to 250 horsepower, wheelbase of 118 to 120 inches, and other specifications.

One of the sheriff's cars is to be a four-door sedan of 4,100 to 4,600 pounds, 260 to 330 horsepower, wheelbase of 126 to 128 inches, and other specifications.

The county will trade in three 1957 Ford Custom 300 sedans, a 1957 Buick Century sedan, and a 1956 Plymouth four-door sedan.

Castro Invites Newsmen To Rally

By LARRY ALLEN

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Fidel Castro said today he has invited 150 newsmen and commentators from the United States and Latin America to attend a giant rally called in Havana Wednesday to show support for his speedy trial and execution of Batista henchmen.

The revolutionary chief said he also had invited U.S. congressmen who "in recent days have severely criticized the executions of war criminals by the revolutionary army."

A statement from Castro's press headquarters said personal invitations had gone out to the foreign journalists. A spokesman said five planes would be sent to Miami to pick up those wishing to attend and another plane might to on to Washington.

"We have extended the invitation," Castro's statement said, "so that the truth of what is happening in Cuba may be told to all citizens of every country in America. We believe that if the truth is known any misunderstanding that has occurred in recent days regarding the situation in our country will disappear."

Castro has called for a half million Havana residents to turn out Wednesday to back his regime's rejection of foreign criticism of the speedy execution of those convicted of killing opponents of ex-dictator Fulgencio Batista.

The auxiliary Roman Catholic bishop of Havana, Msgr. Alfredo Muller, Sunday night endorsed the executions, reported to have reached 207 throughout Cuba.

Appearing on a television interview with revolutionary chief Fidel Castro, Bishop Muller said he personally opposes capital punishment but that the church permits it in some instances.

"In this case it is justified," he declared.

Although Castro avoided saying when the Havana trials would get under way, he said they would be conducted under a military code and open to the public.

"I want everyone to see clearly," he declared.

Some 2,000 members of revolutionary groups gathered in Havana's Central Park last night. Women farm workers carried banners reading: "Let the executions continue." Peraza Venegas, 24, a Castro soldier, pulled back his shirt to display scars he said had come from torture by Batista police.

Navy Rocket Can Land From Space

By RALPH DIGHTON

CHINA LAKE, Calif. (AP)—The Navy has a new rocket engine which it says can land man on the moon—gently—and bring him back alive.

The engine was disclosed Sunday by the Naval Ordnance Test Station here along with another development: a safe new way of packaging dangerous fuels that scientists say will eliminate long countdowns.

Douglas D. Ordahl, head of the station's missile propulsion division, told a news conference "we hope to make a test vehicle within the next six months."

During ground tests, the engine has developed thrusts of up to 10,000 pounds — compared with the 400,000-pound thrust of the Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile.

But Ordahl said, "There is no limit to the ultimate size and power of the engine."

Some of the test engines, Ordahl said, have burned as long as four hours, throttled down.

"Current missiles burn up all their fuel in a minute or so," he said. "The new engine does not have to burn all its fuel at once. It can burn only what is necessary and save the remainder for later spurts."

"We have had engines that could go to the moon—if we had proper control over them," he said. "This new engine gives up that control.

"It means we can change direction and speed in flight, that we can slow down and make a feather-soft landing on the moon or any of the planets, and take off again. It also means we can bring manned satellites back from orbit without damage by controlling direction and speed as they re-enter the atmosphere."

Instead of kerosene and liquid oxygen, which is hazardous and difficult to store, the engine burns two secret fluids which ignite on contact with each other.

The fluids are fed through a valve which controls the flow into the engine's combustion chamber. This enables scientists to regulate the amount of thrust produced—either by a hand lever or by remote radio control.

"These liquids can be stored indefinitely without corroding their aluminum tanks," Ordahl said.

Lincoln Wins 1, Losses 2

Lincoln won one of three games in the Anson Negro Tournament Saturday.

Lincoln rolled past Abilene, 53-28, in the Class B Division (14-16 age bracket.) John Choyce and Randolph Williams shared scoring honors with 10 each, followed closely by Joe Arthur Phillips with nine.

Anson defeated Lincoln, 58-33, in the Class C Division (7-13 agate bracket). Ronnie Green was high for Lincoln with 14 with Lynwood Durst next with 10.

Breckenridge downed Snyder in the Class A game, 39-29. Williams and Phillips with eight and six points respectively led Lincoln.

Lincoln goes to Slaton tomorrow for district games in both boys and girls.

An exhibition game between Lincoln PTA and the Lamesa All-Stars will be played tonight at the Lincoln Gym, starting at 8.

Automobile Is Destroyed By Fire

A car was destroyed by fire about 8:15 o'clock last night on the Fluvanna road west of U. S. Highway 84 about 18 miles northwest of here.

Firemen said the carburetor on the 1955 Chevrolet two-door sedan exploded and set fire to the car.

The car was owned by Tommy Barton, an oil well driller, and was being driven by Homer Lee Fields.

The interior of the car was burned out and the body badly damaged, firemen said.

Cheesie Reminder

"Spare the heat and save the cheese". Use low oven temperature and gentle surface cooking heat when using cheese in recipes since cheese just needs melting, not cooking. If overcooked or cooked too rapidly, cheese becomes tough and stringy, hence unattractive and not as easily digestible.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Witnout Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

Girl Scout Troop No. 240 Elects Officers

The first meeting of the Girl Scout Troop No. 240 for the New Year resulted in elections of new officers and detailed plans for the coming month.

Elected for president of the troop Mary Minor who succeeds Delane Doty who held the position for over a year. Vice presidency went to Judy Armstrong, Sandra Skinner became the secretary, Nancy Meador, treasury and Victoria Crossum got the votes for reporter. Vickey Brown, and Judy Sanders retained their offices as patrol leaders of the troop's two patrols.

Reports were made from the troops Christmas Party held at the Scout House on December 20, given for parents and friends. Troop members cooked the menu themselves, consisting of cakes, pies, potatoes salad, egg salad sandwiches and punch. They sang carols, played pantomine quiz and bingo, with bingo prizes going to Judy Sanders and Sandra Skinner. The troop gave mothers attending rose corsages with matching earrings that had been made as a troop project. Braided key chains with rabbits feet were given to the fathers.

The troop won fifth prize in the 1958 Aladin coupon contest and received a check for seven dollars and fifty cents. They voted to purchase badge sashes for the entire troop in preparation of the Court of Awards in May.

The planned meetings for the next month includes completion of their sports and games requirements for the Second Class Rank badge; a party for friends for the homemaking requirements and a class of first aid for the health requirements.

This is a sign of LIFE

It takes time to see and time to act. That's why good vision is important to safe driving.

With 20/50 vision, you won't see a STOP sign nearer than 90 feet. At 60 miles an hour you will be 200 feet PAST the sign before you can stop.

And at night the problem is multiplied. That's why two-thirds of all traffic deaths occur at night.

Seeing quickly and clearly is vital to safe driving. An examination by a professional optometrist every year can tell you if you are visually prepared to drive. He might help you save a life — maybe your own.

Don't live to regret! Live to be thankful that you could see the Sign of Life.

Some Needed Laws

THE HOUSTON CHRONICLE:

Two bills that will come before the 56th Legislature, both concerning public records, should be enacted into law.

One is an act amending the penal code to make unlawful the taking of any public record from its lawful depository or from the possession of public officials.

Present law makes it a felony for anyone to willfully and maliciously change, alter, mutilate, destory or injure public records. This bill would make it a felony punishable by a three to seven-year penitentiary term to take and carry away any public record. It also would make it possible to prosecute the offense in an adjoining county or in Travis County, a provision which would permit impartial investigation and prosecution in instances where such would not be possible in the county where the offense is committed.

The other bill concerning public records adds teeth to the statutes providing open inspection of them by citizens. Present law provides that records, except for certain stipulated classes, shall be open to examination by any citizen but fails in most instances to prescribe a penalty for official refusal of such inspection.

This bill makes officials refusing to permit open inspection of records guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by fine of $100 to $500 and makes them guilty of official misconduct for which they can be removed from office.

State and local enforcement agencies over the state have received hundreds of complaints of citizens being denied access to public records. The most flagrant instances of the kind, of course, in recent years were in Duval County where reporters from Corpus Christi and Alice papers have been literally thrown out of offices when seeking to examine records.

Public records must not be tampered with. They also must be "public," except, of course, for those that are prohibited by law from being open to inspection by the general public. Both of these laws are needed.

Demos Favor LA For '60 Conclave

By The Associated Press

Los Angeles is the choice of the Democrats' site committee as the location for the party's 1960 national convention. It's still a toss-up where the Republicans will hold theirs.

Los Angeles won the committee's recommendation Sunday after putting up a $350,000 cash offer. Top offers also were made at the committee's New Orleans meeting by by San Francisco, Miami Beach and Philadelphia. Chicago and New York also were in the running.

The recommendation by the site committee is subject to final action by the Democratic National Committee when it meets Feb. 27-28 in Washington. Approval usually is only a formality.

Los Angeles and the other five cities will compete today and Tuesday for the Republican convention. A GOP site committee started two days of meetings in Des Moines, Iowa, in advance of a session of the full GOP national committee there Friday.

Proposed site of the Democratic meeting is the huge Los Angeles Sports Arena scheduled for completion in May. The five-million-dollar structure will have a floor as long as the playing area of a football field and wider—300 feet long and 160 feet wide.

Los Angeles, a city of 2,400,000, has never had a major national political meeting. Californians were prompt in expressing pleasure.

Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, the state's new Democratic head, said "It's great. It's wonderful. We'll give them a fine convention. The Los Angeles convention will be the start to the election of a Democratic president."

Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson said "we're honored and delighted. . .this is a great thing for Los Angeles." The mayor is a former Republican congressman.

More than 30 factors were taken into consideration in recommending Los Angeles, Democratic officials said. One of the most important was the air conditioned arena which will accommodate 17,000 persons. Space will be available for caucus rooms and press, radio and television facilities.

The arena's ceiling griders tower 70 feet, almost seven stories. There are no pillars that would obstruct the view of the 3,500 democratic convention delegates.

Oilman Edwin W. Pauley, finance chairman of a joint county-city committee on national political conventions, said Republicans will get the same offer Democrats got.

Message In Jar Ends Sea Drama

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A small jar containing a message washed ashore near Taft, Ore., Sunday and provided a postscript to a drama at sea.

Coast Guard headquarters here said the message read:

"Attempted to signal ship by use of light. Smoke-fire on stern. Never prayed so hard in my life. Hope to see plane or other boat. Yours truly, LeRoy Hall, Frank la Fazio, boat Jefferson."

The Coast Guard said its records showed the fishing boat Jefferson out of San Francisco was taken in tow Jan. 6 after being adrift four days. All hands were saved.

Novak Ready When Right Guy Appears

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Hollywood's most eligible bachelor gal is ready to say "I do."

But the sea-green eyes of Kim Novak still haven't sighted the right guy on the horizon.

"I'd like to be fulfilled as a woman," she said. "What is a woman without the right man? I'd like to marry and have children.

"But marriage isn't something to rush into just because it's popular or the thing to do. I want more than a good companion, and I want to be more than a good companion.

"Marriage is companionship — plus. You have to give all that you are, and I am prepared to do that."

Anyone particular in mind?

"No," she said. "But I'm not really worried about that. It will happen, I feel sure. And meanwhile it's a nice life, being a bachelor."

Actually, Kim gives the impression of being somewhat lonely and not sure whom she can trust. In five years and 10 pictures the slender blonde ex-model has soared from obscurity to become one of filmdom's top 10 stars at the box office.

Now she is paying the price all pay who stand in the limelight, the price of feeling misunderstood, of being gossiped about, or having her ability questioned.

Shy by nature, she is still a bit uneasy in the role of glamour queen. She also is weary of gossip column tidbits linking her with men she never has met in night clubs where she never has been.

Seated on a chaise lounge in the pink dressing room in the Bronx studio of her latest film, Paddy Chayefsky's "Middle of the Night," costarring Fredric March, she talked of her troubles.

"I have a feeling this is going to be a good year," she said. "Last year was such a bad year—so treacherous—this has to be a good year.

"They had me tied up with every man I ever heard of. That's what I get for being single. Maybe I should have got married when I first went into pictures. They let married women alone.

"It doesn't bother me any more what people say. Oh, yes, it does, too! One day last year when I went on the set I just broke out crying. But I finally got exhausted with it.

"I used to be all exposed. Now I'm covered up."

Some of the things her critics and detractors say about Kim is that she is moody, temperamental, and that her glamour lies wholly in her beauty and not at all in her acting ability.

But her present film crew is behind her to a man. And Chayefsky, no easy one to please, praises Kim.

"She's wonderful to work with, completely cooperative, not at all moody or temperamental," he said. "She has an amazing talent. She is a fine actress."

Kim said of her acting and herself: "It is what people like that is important to your career. They judge your ability, not you.

"I don't like professional things. It's kind of an insult to me when somebody says, 'You're a real pro.' I don't want to be a pro.

"I don't want to be systematic. It's boring when everything is pinpointed and in its place. I don't like life in a set pattern, or perfect people, or the manufactured look. I like the home-made touch."

As to glamour, Kim said: "I'm sure most people don't think of glamour as just looking beautiful or being beautifully dressed. Glamour is interior.

"It's either in you or it isn't. You can dress up glamour or add to it, but you can't take it away or cover it up if it's really there. I hope not, anyway."

A big star, Kim Novak, and also a nice kid looking for truth in a world of glitter.

Ike Still Shy Of Longevity Record

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower — a little over 68 and beginning his seventh year in office Tuesday — is still a couple of years shy — of being the oldest man who ever occupied the White House.

Andrew Jackson still has the distinction of being the oldest president in American history. But Eisenhower will have been the oldest by the time his second full term ends.

Jackson was almost 62 when he took office. He was just a few days short of 70 when his second term was up. Eisenhower was a little over 62 when he went into the presidency in 1953.

On the day he steps out — Jan. 20, 1961 — he will be 70 years, 3 months and 6 days old, or about 3½ months older than Jackson.

Today Eisenhower is 68 years, 3 months, and 5 days old. Two other presidents—James Buchanan and Harry S. Truman—were still in office at an older age than that—Buchanan was just a month younger than Jackson when he finished: 69 years, 10 months, and 11 days old.

Jackson was 69 years, 11 months and 19 days old. When Truman finished in 1953 he was 68 years, eight months and 12 days old, or five months older than Eisenhower is now.

William H. Harrison, who took office at 68, would have been the oldest president in history if he had finished out his term. But he died a month after becoming president. He was then 68 years, one month and 25 days old.

Harrison, at least, set one record: he was the oldest man ever elected to the presidency.

Of the 33 men who have been president only seven — including Eisenhower, Jackson, Buchanan, Truman and Harrison — were in their sixties when elected to office, 20 were in their fifties, and only six in their forties.

The seven, with their ages when they went into the White House: John Adams (61), Jackson (61), Harrison (68), Zachary Taylor (64), Buchanan (65), Truman (60), and Eisenhower (62). Taylor died in office at 65.

Here are the six presidents who took office in their forties: James K. Polk (49), Frankline Pierce (48), U.S. Grant (46), James A. Garfield (49), Grover Cleveland (47), and the youngest, Theodore Roosevelt (42).

There is now manufactured an executive's office chair with a built-in-massager.

Message In Jar Ends Sea Drama

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A small jar containing a message washed ashore near Taft, Ore., Sunday and provided a postscript to a drama at sea.

Coast Guard headquarters here said the message read:

"Attempted to signal ship by use of light. Smoke-fire on stern. Never prayed so hard in my life. Hope to see plane or other boat. Yours truly, LeRoy Hall, Frank la Fazio, boat Jefferson."

The Coast Guard said its records showed the fishing boat Jefferson out of San Francisco was taken in tow Jan. 6 after being adrift four days. All hands were saved.

12 Snyder Glovers Seek Region Titles

Twelve Snyder boxers will go after Regional Golden Gloves titles tonight in the championship finals at Rose Field House on the Hardin-Simmons University campus.

The Snyder team, co - sponsored by the Scurry County Boys Club and Optimist Club, will be strong contenders for the High School, Novice and Pee Wee Division team titles.

The locals have five boys in the High School finals, four in the Pee Wee finals and three in the Novice finals.

Snyder is already assured of one individual title in the High School Division. Two local lads will be fighting each other in the schoolboy Welterweight Class, Burle Overman, 146, and Lynn Atkinson, 140.

The other three Snyder boys in the High School finals are Lightweight David McKinley, Middleweight Leon Deere and Light-Heavyweight Eddie Watson.

McKinley will be going against a boy he has beaten twice this season, Ronnie Whittaker of Sweetwater. Both were close decisions, though, and another fine match is due between the two Lightweights.

Watson will spot his opponent 11 pounds tonight, Don Marshall of Midland. Marshall weighed in at 176 to 165 for Watson. Both Watson and Marshall advanced to the finals in convincing fashion. Watson won a first round TKO over Dale Smith of Brownwood Friday and Marshall knocked out Ronnie Boles of Woodson in the first round Saturday.

Deere will fight Tracy Barker of Midland in tonight's finals. Both Deere and Barker won semi-final victories Saturday night with first round TKO's. Deere stopped Gary Flatt of Woodson while Marshall defeated Ronnie Holladay of Woodson.

The Snyder finalists in the Novice Division are Featherweight Ruben Gonzales, Lightweight Bruce Taylor, Jr., Welterweight Larry Ainsworth.

Gonzales, who knocked out David O'Conner of Albany in the second round in his only start of the tournament, holds the only KO in the Novice ranks thus far. Gonzales will meet Kenneth Good of Albany for the title.

Taylor decisioned Johnny Easley of San Angelo and teammate Mokey Hale to gain the finals aginst Royce Jones of Woodson. Jones decisioned another Snyder lad, J. A. Martin, in his only tournament appearance to date.

Ainsworth recorded two wins to gain the finals, winning decisions over Don Sandefur of Brownwood Friday and Benny Ellison of Hardin-Simmons Saturday.

Three of Snyder's four Pee Wee finalists have won two matches in the tournament thus far. Joe Cates grabbed two victories by first round technical knockouts, over Bill Manner of Cisco Friday and Buddy Lamb of Cisco Saturday.

Cates meets still another Cisco lad in tonight's finals, Carl Blair.

Marvin (Pooter) Mayfield gained two decisions over Mike Garner of Abilene and Terry Brown of Wylie and will meet Tommie Lee Hill of Abilene for the title tonight.

D. Deere captured decisions over Hugh Dixson of Abilene Friday and Gerald Frank of Cisco Saturday to reach the finals. He'll meet Dickey Valdez of San Angelo for the title.

Jesse Castillo, the fourth Snyder finalist in the Pee Wee Division, made quick work of Joe Lester of Abilene Saturday in his only tournament match thus far. Castillo won a first round TKO in Saturday's bouts.

Tonight's finals will start at 7:30.

Following are the complete pairings for tonight's Regional Golden Gloves finals in Abilene:

Wall Falters But Wins Crosby Title

By ALAN CLINE

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Despite a $6,000-victory in the Bing Crosby golf tournament, Art Wall Jr., may look up his pro golfing buddies for a little help.

The lean Pennsylvanian credits three colleagues for making him the year's leading money winner, but he didn't look that way Sunday on the final nine of the 72-hole extravaganza played over three courses.

Wall carded a final nine of 41 while Gene Littler was closing fast. Only a shot hooked into the Pacific on the 18th removed the San Diego battler from contention.

He was nine down and in third place when the pair started the final eight holes. By the 18th he was only one down.

Littler came to the par five 540-yard hole with Wall anything but sharp. He had three-putted both the 16th and 17th.

But with a national television audience looking on Littler hooked his second shot into the ocean. He said he was not pressing, that he was trying for position for a good approach.

The TV program time ran out before the golfers putted but viewers must have known who would win.

Wall took a six and won with a 279 after shooting 34-41—75 for the day. Littler and Jimmy Demaret, who started the day in second place, tied for second with 281 and $2,150 apiece.

Wall won $4,000 for the individual pro and $2,000 for low pro-amateur score — 252 — with National Amateur champ Charles Coe. Littler added $1,200 to his haul as he and Art Anderson of Hollywood finished third in the pro-am with 259.

The big haul gave Wall $9,970 for three tournaments this year.

He said, however, he was worried about his recent bad finishes. He finished second at Los Angeles and tied for 12th at Tijuana.

He follows a pattern devised after work with fellow pros Doug Ford, a $1,250 money winner in the Crosby; Jay Hebert, who won $712 and Mike Fetchick, who finished out of the money.

After that final 41 Sunday, he indicated he might seek more advice before the Palm Springs Thunderbird Invitational starts Thursday.

Finishing behind Littler and Demaret were Californians Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto and John McMullin from Alameda with 283 good for $1,500 each, Don January, Eastland, Tex., and Ford, from Crystal River, Fla., 285 for $1,250 and Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex. and Lloyd Mangrum, Apple Valley, Calif., 286 for $1,025.

Ford picked up an additional $1,500 for finishing second in the pro-amateur with Art Anderson, Hollywood, Calif., in 257.

Baylor Leaves Decision Up To Nelson

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Will he or won't he? That's what Baylor football fans here wondered today about Dave Nelson.

Nelson, head coach at Delaware was supposed to let the Baylor faculty know today whether he'll take the job of head football coach and athletic director.

If he says yes, the job reportedly is his. Reliable sources say the field was narrowed last week to Nelson and John Bridgers, line coach for the professional Baltimore Colts. But they say Nelson has the inside track and he's the object of all the speculation.

Nelson said Saturday he would not make up his mind about the Baylor job until he conferred with Delaware officials today.

The Delaware coach visited the Baylor campus Thursday and flew back to Delaware highly impressed. He said the job was a wonderful opportunity and he was going home to talk it over with his wife and Delaware officials.

"It is a decision you can't make overnight," he said.

Nelson is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the originator of the famous wing-T offense. In 12 years of coaching, the 38-year-old mentor has won 67 games, lost 26 and tied 5.

Baylor Coach Sam Boyd resigned under fire after two losing seasons. The job of athletic director was left vacant when George Sauer resigned, also late last fall.

Roscoe Wins Cage Games

ROSCOE — Roscoe won three games from basketball teams representing Scurry County Boys Club here Saturday afternoon.

In the game for 10-year-olds, Roscoe triumphed, 7-2, with Powers Boothe scoring both of Snyder's points. Sid Wright had five for Roscoe.

Roscoe won the game, for 12-year-olds, 36-13, and the game for 14-year-olds, 61-29. Jamie Crossen's six points was high for Snyder in the 12-year-old game, while Tom Reeves and Bill Rhea had six each for Roscoe.

Gene Roe scored 18 points for Snyder in the game for 14-year-olds. Bob Allen was high for Roscoe with 15.

Teams from both Snyder and Roscoe will be in the Scurry County Boys Club invitational tournament next Saturday.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

SNYDER CERTAINLY DID its part in furnishing contestants for the annual Regional Golden Glove tournament which ends tonight in Abilene.

The local team had 23 entries in the tournament and through the first two nights Snyder boys have been in just about one of every two fights on the card.

Fourteen Snyderites fought on the 31-bout card Friday night and another 13 appeared on the 28-fight card Saturday night.

And tonight, 12 more Snyder boys will be fighting in the championship finals which will be a 27-fight card.

Sending 12 out of 23 entries into the finals is a remarkable feat for the local team, coached by Lacy Boles.

We missed the opening night action Friday but did make Saturday's semi - finals. The tournament officials do a good job in running off the tournament. There is never a delay between matches which is the way it should be, of course.

Saturday's 28 fights were unreeled in less than three hours when you knock off the 15-minute intermission. That's really running 'em through.

Tourney Director Praises Snyder Team

We noticed several Snyderites in the stands Saturday and we feel sure that there will be a huge delegation of local fans going to Abilene tonight.

In talking to Jack Holden, tournament director at Abilene, Holden praised the work of the Scurry County Boys Club.

"Your boys have shown real good sportsmanship during the tournament and we haven't had a bit of trouble with them," Holden said.

"Mickey (Brous) and Lacy (Boles) have done a good job with the Snyder boys," Holden said.

Illness Forced Reaves To Withdraw

Joe Reaves, who had planned to enter the tournament as an Open fighter, withdrew because illness slowed down his pre-tournament training program.

Reaves would have been a popular entry in the Open Division as fans still remember him from the 1957 tourney when he walked away with the High School middleweight title.

One ironical feat about the tournament thus far is the method that Leon Deere of Snyder and Tracy Barker of Midland won semi - final bouts in the Middleweight Class Saturday night.

Both won by TKO in the first round and in each instance the time was 51 seconds. They'll meet each other tonight for the title.

This will be Deere's third straight year to fight in the Regional finals.

Blue Devils, Frosh Host S'wter Tonite

Within the next two nights, all five of the schoolboy basketball teams of Snyder and Sweetwater will meet on the local hardwoods.

The junior high and freshmen teams of the two schools will get the ball rolling tonight. The two junior high games will be played at junior high gym with the 7th graders slated to meet at 6:30. The 8th grade game will follow immediately.

The freshmen teams will clash at Tiger Gym tonight, starting at 6:30.

Then tomorrow night the varsity and "B" teams of the two schools will clash at Tiger Gym. The B game tomorrow will start at 6:30 with the varsity game to follow at about 8.

Snyder 8th is undefeated in eight starts this season. Tonight's game will count as a first round game of the Sweetwater Invitational Tournament slated Jan. 30-31.

Tigers Try Mustangs Here Tomorrow Night

The Snyder Tigers and Sweetwater Mustangs, who'll be fighting to stay in contention for the District 3-AAA basketball title, will clash here tomorrow night in a conference contest.

Both the Tigers and Mustangs were victims in last Friday's district openers. While the defending champion Bengals were bowing to Colorado City, 56-43, the Mustangs were taking it on the chin at Lamesa, 53-31.

Feature game of tomorrow's 3-AAA slate is the Colorado City-Lake View contest. Lake View, the pre-season district favorite, will be making its fifrst conference start tomorrow. C-City, by virtue of its win over Snyder Friday, currently shares the 3-AAA lead with Lamesa, each with 1-0 records.

Lake View owns the top season record with 16-4. The Chiefs finished their pre-district slate Saturday with a smashing 61-36 victory over Sonora.

Lamesa is the only other 3-AAA quint sporting a season record of .500 or better. The Tornaodes have won 11 and dropped 10.

Jerry Haley of Colorado City took an early lead for the individual scoring title with a 25-point performance against the Tigers. Howard Westmoreland of Lamesa is next with 20 points and Bill Dubose of the Tigers is third with 15.

Following is the District 3-AAA cage calendar:

ONLY SWC GAME OF WEEK

Bears Eye 2nd In Texas Tilt Tonite

By WHITEY SAWYER
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Baylor Bears show their new-found teeth to Texas Monday and a victory over the hapless Longhorns would put Baylor a might close second in the Southwest Conference basketball race.

Texas Christian has the lead sewed up until well into next week because exams have cut the scheduled to slim fare. The Baylor-Texas game at Waco Monday is the only conference tilt this week.

A victory in that one would give Baylor a 4-2 conference mark, just a half a game behind TCU. The Bears are only 7-7 for the season. The Horned Frogs lead the league with a 4-1 record. Baylor, Texas A&M and Texas Tech are tied 3-2 for second.

Southern Methodist and Arkansas are 2-2 and Texas and Rice are 1-4.

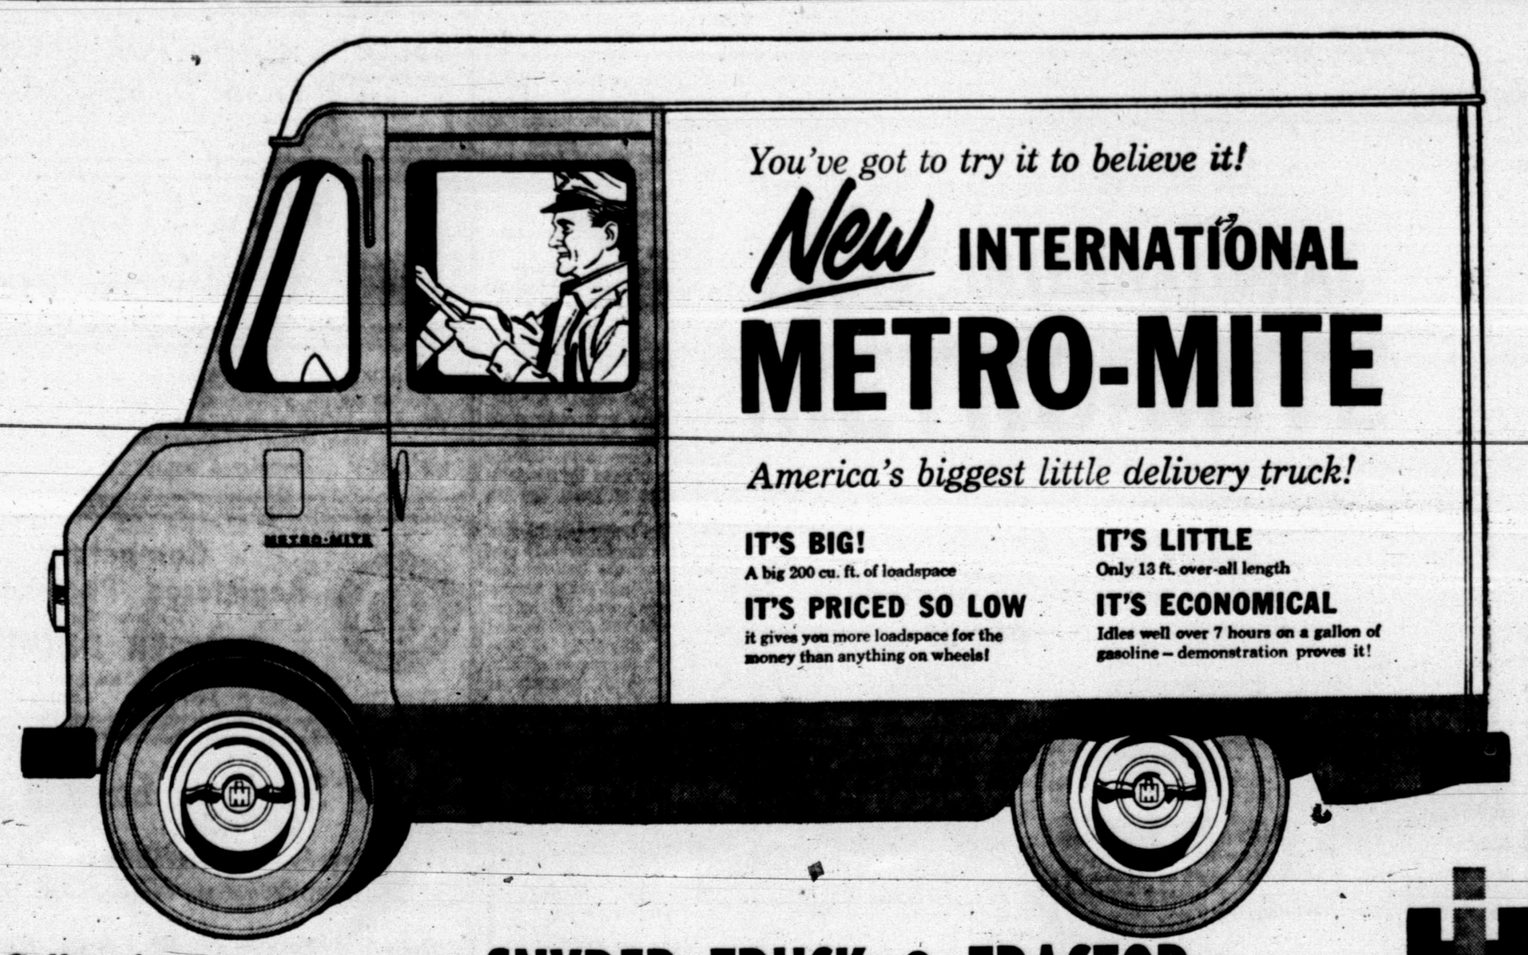

Baylor's late surge came, in a big way, on the shooting arm of Bob Turner, who is tied for the lead in conference scoring with 87 points. Leon Hill of Texas Tech also has 87.

Tom Robitaille of Rice leads the season scorers with 289 and H. E. Krichner of TCU is second with 257.

Gene McCarley of Baylor did the most damage against Rice, scoring six points for the night in the closing seconds. A McCarley free throw with time about to run out provided the margin as Baylor won 46-45.

Texas Tech upset TCU and handed the Horned Frogs their first conference loss Saturday night. Gerald Myers got five points in a closing rush for the 61-57 victory.

Other games this week match TCU and Oklahoma City University at Oklahoma City and Texas A&M and University of Houston at Houston Saturday.

AMONG THE RECENT metal buildings installed by Burchett Iron Works, Lubbock highway, was this 90 by 120-foot structure on the Alvin Koonsman Ranch, about 18 miles northeast of Snyder. The building is all metal except for a concrete block front. It is used for hay storage, implement storage, and livestock feeding. (Lee Watson photograph)

Carlos' El Rancho Restaurant Opens On East Highway Here

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Mijares, operators of the Little Mexico Cafe here for the past three years, have purchased and now operate Carlos' El Rancho restaurant at 500 East Highway in east Snyder.

The new restaurant is in the former location of the Ranch House.

Along with operation of the new restaurant, Carlos has added several new features and services.

One is the serving of a wide line of American foods in addition to the complete and appetizing menu of Mexican foods for which Carlos is already famous throughout West Texas.

Some of the more popular American foods include club, filet and T-bone steaks.

"However, our most popular foods are the Mexican dinners, especially the Deluxe dinner with chili con queso," Carlos said.

The new restaurant has two dining rooms, one large front dining room which seats about 70 persons and a smaller dining room which seats 30 more persons.

Another feature of Carlos' El Rancho is the serving of breakfasts. The El Rancho is open each day from 6 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night.

A special American Lunch is served at noon each Sunday and features a choice of meats, plus vegetables, desserts and drinks. Menu for the special Sunday American lunch will be published in the The Snyder Daily News each Sunday morning, Carlos said.

Carlos said that the Sunday lunch will feature ham, barbecue, chicken turkey or other popular meats.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Mijares have lived in Snyder for three years, having moved here from San Angelo where Carlos attended San Angelo Business College prior to several years experience with leading Mexican foods restaurants in San Angelo. Mrs. Mijares is a native of San Angelo, where she was graduated from San Angelo High School and San Angelo Junior College.

Carlos is a native of the Hobbs community 15 miles east of Snyder and attended Hobbs High School.

The couple and their four children reside at 3304 Avenue B. The children are Carlos Mijares Jr., 10, Nita Mijares, 9, Mary Mijares, 7, and Elizabeth Mijares, 18 months old.

The older children attend Katherine A. Rayn School, and the Mijares are members of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church here.

Carlos, since coming to Snyder, has been active in the civic life of the community as well as one of its leading businessmen. In addition to membership in St. Elizabeth's Church, he is a member of the Knights of Columbus, a member of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce; the Snyder post of the American Legion, the Loyal Order of the Moose Lodge, and American Business Club.

Carlos' El Rancho has a full staff of efficient, courteous and cheerful employes to provide both excellent food and service to its customers.

The restaurant also offers the service of prepared foods to take out, and anything on the menu may be ordered by telephone. However, Carlos requests that customers for take-home orders allow about 20 to 30 minutes for preparation of the orders.

Carlos and Mrs. Mijares invite everyone to visit their new restaurant at 500 East Highway, or to call them at HI 3-9169.

Sen. Douglas Claims Texas Too Powerful

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill) said here yesterday he thought it is "unfortunate that the image which the Democratic Party gives to the country is the image created by the political necessities of Texas and the South."

Asked during a radio-TV interview if he thought Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas was leading the Democratic Party with the idea of being the party's 1960 presidential candidate, Douglas replied:

"I do not regard him as an illiberal man," Douglas said, "but he comes from Texas. . . of necessity, the gas and oil interests of Texas, which control that state, must find representation at his hands."

Douglas said he did not blame Johnson "in the slightest" for taking his stand.

"This is a real world," he said, "but I do think it is unfortunate that the image which the Democratic Party gives to the country is the image created by the political necessities of Texas and the South."

He said the Democrats have a "considerable number of very real candidates" for the 1960 nomination. He mentioned Adlai Stevenson, the party's standard bearer in the 1952 and 1956 elections, and Sens. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, Stuart Symington of Missouri and John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts."

Welding Supplies Added By Burchett

A new line has been added at Burchett Iron Works, Lubbock highway.

It is a line of welding supplies, which the firm retails. The supplies include General Electric welders, acetylene welders, welding rods, gases, oxygen, and other equipment.

Burchett's, one of the Snyder area's fastest-growing businesses, has become well-known as a builder of metal buildings and as a steel supplier for contractors.

The firm is now furnishing some steel for a number of construction jobs here, some of the current projects which include the Highlands Shopping Center, a building being constructed for Mantha Landfried, and a new service station building being built by Prentis Bass.

Burchett's furnishes to contractors reinforcing steel and wire mesh, structural steel, and angles.

In the firm's plant on the Lubbock highway, it fabricates the steel, including that used in metal buildings for farm, industrial, business or home use.

Agricultural uses are varied for the steel buildings, both those fabricated by Burchett's and the Sioux metal buildings, for which Burchett's is exclusive West Texas dealer.

Burchett's has started work on a contract it was awarded for repair of the hangar at the county's Winston Field, which was damaged several months ago in a windstorm. The Snyder firm is placing 30-foot lengths of metal roofing on the building where the eight-foot pieces blew off. A large part of the roof had been blown away in the storm. Burchett's is also repairing the doors of the hangar and straightening a truss above the doors.

Burchett's not only fabricates steel for buildings but installs metal buildings of almost any size needed for multiple uses, including those for warehouse purposes, grain, cottonseed, and hay storage, tractor sheds, implement houses, barns, and many others.

Either quonset-style or pole-type buildings can be installed by Burchett's.

On Filing Cited IRS Requirements

A. E. Fogle, Administrative office of Internal Revenue Service, Abilene, today reviewed Federal income tax filing requirements for 1958 returns.

United States citizens, adults or minors, with gross 1958 income of $600 or more ($1,200 or more, if 65 or older at close of '58) must file a return with their IRS district director.

Most taxpayers file their returns on the calendar year basis. This means that Wednesday midnight, April 15, is the final hour to file that return for '58. "By filing as soon as possible, however," Fogle reveals "odds are in your favor for getting an early refund, if you are eligible for one.

"Taxpayers using the fiscal year basis must file by the 15th day of the fourth month following the end of their fiscal year."

Husbands and wives may file a joint return and take advantage of the income splitting provisions of the law; or they may file separately, if both had income. If either died during 1958 the other may file a joint return for '58. The next two succeeding years the survivor may file as a "surviving spouse" and continue the income splitting advantage, provided the survivor has not remarried and maintains a household which is the principal place of abode of a son or daughter who qualifies as a dependent.

Qualifications for filing as "head of household" include being an unmarried individual, or being married to a nonresident alien, and meeting one of the following conditions: (1) Furnishing more than one-half of the cost of maintaining a household which is the principal abode of (a) a dependent, other than one claimed under the multiple support agreement or (b) your unmarried child, grandchild or stepchild, even though not a dependent. (2) Furnishing more than one-half the cost of maintaining a household, separate from your own, which is the principal place of abode of your father or mother.

Fogle said that the instructions accompanying Form 1040's list tax schedules for all classes of taxpayers.

Good Balloon Test Goes For Naught

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Police gave a woozy young man a balloon test for drunkeness at the scene of an auto crash. He passed it like a teetotaler.

But his grin faded when a passerby appeared with a paper sack and said "here's the sack you put down on the parkway."

Inside police found enough marijuana to roll 1,700 cigarettes. They held the driver for state narcotics officers.

Mrs. Batista In America To Get Children

NEW YORK (AP)—The wife of ousted Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista is here on the first leg of a trip to gather four of their children in this country and take them to their father.

Mrs. Marta Batista arrived by plane Sunday night from the Dominican Republic, where her husband took refuge.

She was met by a heavy police guard who escorted her through a private customs inspection and rebuffed reporters.

Mrs. Batista was accompanied by Lawrence Berenson, Batista's attorney here. She went to the Waldorf Towers to meet two sons, Roberto, 11, and Carlos, 8, who have been staying there since Christmas—shortly before Batista fled Cuba.

Berenson said Mrs. Batista will leave soon with the boys for Daytona Beach, Fla., where two other children, Fulgencio, 4, and Marta Maria, 17 months, are staying with Mrs. Batista's mother.

The daughter is ill, Berenson said. When she is well, Mrs. Batista plans to take the four children to Ciudad Trujillo.

Patient Is Recaptured

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — An escaped mental patient who kidnaped three persons in Columbia, Mo., Friday was captured Sunday by detectives.

He is Eugene Lewis, 37, who escaped Thursday from the Colorado State Mental Hospital in Pueblo. He had been transferred there 10 months ago from Colorado State Prison where he was serving 27 years for armed robbery and assault.

In Columbia, Lewis kidnapped Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Reeves and their house guest, Jesse Blaylock of Sallisaw, Okla. He forced them at gunpoint to drive him to St. Louis. He released them unharmed after their car broke down.

The trio called police and six detectives burst into Lewis' dingy room in south St. Louis, surprising him before he could get to a loaded pistol.

Officers quoted Lewis as saying, "If I could have got to the gun I'd have used it."

Wreck Victim Faces Ordeal

ARCADIA, Wis. (AP)—A young mother who spent seven hours with her husband in a wrecked automobile during subzero cold, faced possible amputation of her limbs today. Her husband died Sunday night, several hours after they were taken to a hospital with their arms and legs frozen solid.

Mrs. Barbara Kupietz, 20, mother of two small children, was reported in extremely critical condition.

Dr. Bernard Dockenforff said her arms and legs probably will have to be amputated.

Her husband, La Vern, 26, a bakery employe, suffered internal injuries in addition to forzen limbs.

The couple was trapped in their automobile late Saturday after it careened off a western Wisconsin highway and plunged into a deep ditch, hidden from passing motorists. The temperature was 15 degrees below zero.

The persistent barking of a dog led a farmer to investigate. He summoned help.

Graham Will Take A Rest In Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP) — Told by Mayo Clinic doctors to take a rest evangelist Billy Graham plans three weeks of sleeping, eating, fishing and golf in Hawaii.

Graham and his wife arrived by plane Sunday night from San Francisco. They plan to leave Feb. 8 for Australia where he is scheduled to open a religious crusade Feb. 15.

Graham underwent examination in Rochester, Minn., last week for a nervous disorder stemming from overwork.
