Roosevelt Maps Big Experiment

PLAN IS DESIGNED TO HERALD BIRTH OF A NEW AMERICA

(By The Associated Press)

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Feb. 2—A gigantic experiment designed to provide 200,000 jobs and herald the birth of a new America from which the curse of unemployment would be lifted was proposed today by President-elect Roosevelt.

The rugged highlands and fertile industrial valley of the Tennessee watershed were chosen by the next president for this "most interesting experiment a government has ever undertaken."

Tells Of Dream

Seated before the blazing fireplace of the "Little White House," he told newspapermen of his dream for a vast internal development encompassing reforestation, reclamation, water power and agricultural rehabilitation. The aim is to balance the national population anew between cities and the country.

Mr. Roosevelt expects this huge laboratory experiment to provide employment for 200,000 men in the Tennessee valley alone. More than this, he hopes to carry the scheme into other sections of the nation from Alleghenies to the Pacific coast and through it to re-establish American life on a basis that will mean the end of unemployment, the decentralization of industry and a people protected by the watchful eye of a government.

Projects Listed

The great Tennesse valley project involving half a dozen states is to include:

1.—Reforestation.

2.—Creation of flood control basins in the upper valleys, first at Cove creek in the Clinch river.

3.—Water power development to be available for cities, states and farm homes.

4.—Reclamation of the fertile bot-

ROBBER SLAIN IN OKLAHOMA

VILLAGE BLACKSMITH KILLS ONE OF FOUR BANK BURGLARS

(By The Associated Press)

SPENCER, Okla., Feb. 2—A 50-year-old village blacksmith, Jim S. Doyle, shot and killed one of four burglars as they emerged early today from the Spencer State bank.

The others escaped as Doyle's shotgun jammed. Officers were trying to identify the slain man, described as about 38 years old.

The burglars were able to obtain but $20, which they took from a cash drawer after knocking the combination from the safe and attempting to remove the door with blowtorches.

Erected Barricade

Doyle, who lives next door to the bank, was awakened by the men prying open the bank door. Unable to give an alarm because he had no telephone, he erected a boiler-steel barricade at his bedroom window and waited for several hours before opening fire.

Spencer has something of a reputation as a bank robber nemesis. Over a year ago a robber was fatally shot by vigilantes after he had robbed the town's bank.

Today's victim carried a new automatic pistol and wore brown trousers, a gray coat and a raincoat. Doyle did not know whether his three companions escaped on foot or in a motor car.

County Abolition To End Feud Urged

Sewell says has been "notorious for nearly half a century" because of factional violence, is made in a report submitted to Gov. Ruby Laffoon by the examiner.

Abolition of the Kentucky mountain county under the examiner's plan would entail division of its territory and assigning the various sections to adjacent counties.

COURT RULING IS AFFIRMED ON APPEAL

EFFORT TO RESTRAIN TEXAS COMMISSION PROVES FUTILE

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 2.—The third court of civil appeals today affirmed a judgment of the Travis county district court in denying an injunction to James E. Ferguson and others to restrain the Texas highway commission from contracting construction based on "estimated receipts."

The injunction had been denied by Judge Carl Runge of Mason, sitting for Judge J. D. Moore. Previously Judge Moore had granted the applicants a temporary injunction restraining the commission from contracting to spend further money from the highway funds. The temporary injunction then was vacated by the third court of civil appeals on application of James V. Allred, attorney general. Ferguson, husband of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, governor, and the other applicants have appealed from that decision to the supreme court.

Appeal Expected

Today's decision was on trial of the case on its merits after the temporary injunction had been granted, then vacated. It was expected appeal to the supreme court in this second decision will be perfected.

Ferguson claimed that the commission was contracting against the highway fund in excess of its ability to pay.

The Telegraphen-Union Press association heard that orders were issued to Prussian police to prevent communist demonstrations during the election campaign.

LUBBOCK WOMAN FREED ON BOND ON CHARGE OF BOOTLEGGING CIGARETS

Mrs. Ethel Boles of Lubbock this morning was free in bail of $750, posted after she was arrested upon filing in county court Wednesday of three charges of selling cigarets without tax stamps.

A local merchant, A. H. Little, pleaded guilty of violating the cigaret tax law, and was fined $25 and costs of $18.25 by Judge E. L. Pitts in county court Wednesday.

The arrests came after a week of investigation by two representatives of the state comptroller's department.

Ten other charges have been prepared for filing in connection with alleged violations.

Boyd Rhea and C. E. Meador have made the investigation in Lubbock. They said they probably would remain here several days longer. Penalty for selling cigarets without the tax stamps is a fine ranging from $25 to $500, with a possible jail sentence.

For using cancelled stamps the punishment is a penitentiary sentence.

Both Rhea and Meador said numerous means had been devised in an attempt to evade the tax. One frequently used is to sell two packages of cigarets for 35 cents, with only the package on the top bearing the stamp. Other evaders have stamped only the top layer of packages in a carton. The tax, totaling three cents, is equally divided between the school and general funds.

STATE SOLONS FRIENDLY TO MOVEMENT

DEMONSTRATIONS ARE HELD; FORECLOSURE SALE PREVENTED

(By The Associated Press)

Friendly state governments and successful demonstrations to prevent mortgage foreclosure sales were hailed with joy today by farmers in widely scattered sections fighting to save their homes and lands.

In the south the Arkansas legislature prevented foreclosure measures by passing a moratorium suspending jurisdiction of circuit and chancery courts.

Governors Sympathetic

The situation has been recognized by the legislatures of Alabama and Georgia and sympathetic statements for the farmer have come from the governors of Texas, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Kentucky and Mississippi.

In Georgia moratoria on all farm mortgages were declared by 15 life insurance companies doing business in the state.

From other states came reports of mortgage sales that did not succeed.

At Cherokee, Okla., such a sale resulted in the organization of a Farmers' Marketing Association with the Rev. Claude R. Hill, the promoter. He obtained a 60-day leave of absence from his duties as pastor of the First Christian church.

Property Returned

At Aurora, Neb., 10 cents was top bid as farmers banded to prevent competitive bidding for implements put under the hammer on a chattel mortgage. Following widespread procedure, the purchasers returned their newly acquired property to its original owner.

In Illinois the cry of "anarchy" was raised when like methods were adopted. W. A. Doss, holder of a chattel mortgage, said he sent the following telegram to Governor

GROUNDHOG SEES HIS SHADOW; PREDICTS COLD

Six more weeks of winter!

That was the traditional prediction today, the groundhog having seen his shadow and scampered back into his den for another nap.

A bit thin and emaciated, the groundhog squared himself so as to cast a clear shadow, and commented:

"You see that cast, boys? I haven't made a clearer one in many years and it means you'll have plenty of ice in March.

"We have had a lot of unseasonable weather this winter, I can tell. It has been much warmer than normal, but there'll be a change soon and shorts will go into the moth balls.

"There will be snow, mixed with rain an a lot of ice. Blizzards are due and winter will not only linger in the lap of spring, but it will chill summer's knees, too."

SEEK ECONOMY IN SCHOOLS

ADDITIONAL SAVINGS TO BE SOUGHT IN LOCAL SYSTEM

Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, president of the board of trustees of the Lubbock independent school district, has named a committee to investigate expenses of the school district to determine whether additional economies can be effected.

Members of the committee are: B. Sherrod, Maple Wilson, and R. F. Bayless, board members, and George Dupree and J. O. Jones.

Follows Reduction

Action of the board, taken at the January meeting Tuesday night, followed a reduction of $57,000 in expenses for the current year, as compared with the 1931-32 session, it was said last night.

The committee, although not requested to return a report at a specified time, is expected to announce its findings within two months, if not by the next board meeting, February 28.

Objects Explained

The objects of the investigators, it was said, are to determine in what ways expenses may be reduced and economies made, without detriment to the school system. Recommendations, if approved by the board, will be placed into effect prior to the beginning of the next school year. Two persons who are not members of the board were named to aid in the investigation because "persons not closely connected with the system might suggest changes which officials have not found."

Under present conditions, it was said, the board had felt it should make an effort further to reduce expenses, if possible.

His hats with crowns sometimes four inches high in back and lower in front, shattered the old decree of low crowns.

Flat wools, linens, silk crepes, bright plaid, and striped taffetas were widely used for blouses and scarves.

GINNINGS FOR AREA HIGHER

INCREASE SHOWN FOR SIXTEEN COUNTIES OF SOUTH PLAINS

Of the 1932 cotton crop, 16 South Plains counties to January 16 ginned more than 17,000 bales in excess of the total they ginned to that date a year ago, a United States bureau of census report shows.

The total was 474,724 bales, counting round bales as naif bales, the report shows. For the 1931 crop the total was 457,511 bales, a difference of 17,213 bales in favor of the 1932 crop.

Lubbock Is Second

Lubbock county jumped into second place with a lead of 2,500 bales over Ellis county. Jones county was first, with 98,809 bales; Lubbock second with 90,569; Ellis third with 87,799 bales; Hill fourth with 79,848 bales and Haskell fifth with 78,068 bales.

This gives West Texas first, second and fifth places in the state. Total of the state was 4,166,937 bales as compared with 4,947,977 bales last year at this time.

The report shows 29 counties in the state that have ginned over 40,000 bales. Fifteen of these are in West Texas and six are on the South Plains. They are: Crosby, Dawson, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock and Lynn counties.

Other Rankings

Lubbock county ranks second in the state, Lynn 9th, Lamb 14th, Hockley 22nd, Crosby 24th and Dawson 27th. Scurry county ranks 21st.

Ten of the South Plains counties show a gain over the same period for the 1931 crop: Briscoe, Cochran, Crosby, Floyd, Garza, Hale, Lubbock, Lynn, Motley and Dickens.

By counties, the comparative figures are:

County	1932	1931
Bailey	11,364	17,357

TUMBLE-WEEDS PROVE NEW MENACE TO TRAFFIC ON PANHANDLE-PLAINS ROADS

AMARILLO, Feb. 2 (AP)—A new menace to traffic—Russian thistles that drift into the highways and pile up to a depth of several feet—has appeared at intervals on Panhandle-Plains roads this winter.

The thistles, commonly known as tumble-weeds, grow extensively in wheat fields and along fence rows, then drift before the Panhandle wind during the fall and winter months, coming to rest against any sort of obstruction.

Prevent Harvest

Continued rainfall throughout the small grain area delayed the harvest last summer until in many fields the thistles grew higher than the wheat, preventing the harvest of the grain. In some instances the thistles were so thick they made immediate preparation of the land for re-seeding impossible.

The strong winds of January drifted the weeds into huge piles in cuts and low places along the highways and especially on country roads. Workmen have been able to keep state highways pretty well clear of the thistles, but roads not carefully maintained actually have been blocked by the weed drifts, which in some instances were 10 feet high.

Had To Detour

J. W. McFolk of Amarillo drove into such a drift between Silverton and Floydada, and spent 35 minutes backing his car out of the entanglement. He said it was necessary to make a detour of several miles to avoid the weeds.

"Sometimes the thistles were piled up around me as high as the car," McFolk said. "I had the worst scare of my life. If those weeds had caught on fire from the exhaust I would have been roasted alive."

Because of the unusual amount of heat which the thistles give off when burning, scientists have experimented with the possibility of compressing the weeds into fuel.

Many miles of wire fences are torn down each winter and spring by the tumbling weeds which pile up in huge drifts against the fences. The drifts act as an agent for the wind and in many instances the posts have pulled out of the ground and the fences flattened.

POST FARMER INJURED

POST, (Special)—Louis Gollehon, a farmer near here, received a misplaced shoulder and severe bruises about the head and face when the car he was riding in rolled off the new highway on No. 84. Gollehon was riding a Model T which was being pulled by another car. The farmer was unable to steer the car, so great was the speed.

Thought For Today

Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; I shall observe it with my whole heart.—Psalm 119:34.

Not liberty but duty is the condition of existence.—Mathilde Blind.

Mrs. Coolidge

Apparently Congress will not take any action at this session on the proposal to pay a $5000 annual pension to the widow of Calvin Coolidge.

It has become more or less customary in recent years for such a pension to be paid to the widow of a president. Whether the hitch in the present case comes from the legislative jam which is causing so many bills to die, or whether it comes from the current demand for economy, is not quite clear. One report says that many congressmen feel that this pension is not necessary because Mr. Coolidge left his widow a fairly sizable estate.

Luckily, Mrs. Coolidge is not in want, and the delay will not cause her any hardship. But as a matter of principle it might be well to put the pension enactment through anyway. This country is rich enough, in bad times as in good times, to provide for the widows of its presidents. It might be a good thing to make a settled policy of doing it in all cases, without delay.

Those ponies that came home winners because their jockies "spurred" them from batteries hidden in the saddles weren't the only ones shocked. Heavy charges, doubtless, were felt in the grandstands.

Since the Eugene O'Neill influence has put that "thinking-out-loud" wrinkle in the movies, there ought to be a lot of silent films.

Barter now makes it possible to trade a "peck-of-potatoes-worth" of parsnips for a "bushel-of-corn's-worth" of artichokes.

Familiarity may breed contempt, but the fellow who knows his job real well these days is sticking to it.

There's nothing that touches the modern girl's heart so deeply as the tender sentiment of a valentine—unless it's the five pounds of assorted bonbons she knows she'll find under the cover.

You can't expect much of the spokesman who won't put his own shoulder to the wheel.

THERE is some talk going around town that there ought to be a big spelling bee—one of the old-fashioned kind—held in Lubbock sometime before spring and thrown open to the spellers from all over the South Plains.

Some of the people who have been talking about it seem to want The Avalanche-Journal to sponsor the feature and have suggested that we get Dr. Bradford Knapp to act as the spelling master.

Doctor Knapp, of course, is busy as the dickens and will be at least until the spring term is out. But maybe he'll do it and if he can't, maybe someone else can be found to fill the bill.

The Plainsman will do some poking around on the proposition, find out how much interest there would be in a South Plains spelling bee and will see if prizes can be dug up for the champions.

There is no doubt but that the people of this country—and every other locality, for that matter—need some sort of good, clean and cheap amusement to take their minds off their worries and troubles.

If a spelling bee will help make life a little happier for a few score or a few hundred people we ought to have one and The Avalanche-Journal will do all it can to make a success of the proposition.

If you're in favor of the stunt and would like to see it pulled off, drop a letter to The Plainsman and tell him so.

A LOT of people have asked your humble servant how come this department was missing in yesterday's paper. It's more or less of a personal matter but honest confession allegedly is good for the soul.

This column was missing in yesterday's paper because the rent came due.

The Plainsman, in short, was following the adage that it's cheaper to move than pay rent.

We are now almost settled for at least a month but don't be surprised if this department's missing again along about March first.

The rent's due again then and in this day and time you never can tell what will happen when the rent comes due.

DOES any reader know anything about corn as a fuel? Not corn in the jug but corn on the cob. A reader wants to know.

"I understand", he wrote, "that some of the farmers have a surplus of corn and are using it for fuel. They claim that corn on the ear at $4 per ton is worth more as fuel than coal at $8.50, which is the present market price for lump coal on cars and it will cost you an additional dollar to have it delivered. I wish someone who has had the experience in the use of corn as a fuel would write relative to it. Have been thinking of buying a couple of tons as they would cost $1.50 less than a ton of coal delivered."

The Plainsman doesn't know anything about corn as a fuel. Also, the price of coal may not be identical with that of the above paragraph and the price of corn on the cob might be greater.

But if anyone knows anything at all about the problem write The Plainsman and maybe we can answer the reader's plea for information.

That Man on Avenue Q says the amount of insurance some people carry flatters them.

Senator Long may be successful in saving civilization but it will never be the same again.

COL. Bill Talbot from Dallas, the well known evangel of "What Texas Makes Makes Texas", was in yesterday and as usual was fighting the battle of the Texas manufacturer.

Bill is worried over the possibility of the wrong kind of a sales tax being passed in Texas and has a pretty good suggestion to make.

He suggests that manufacturers in Texas who use nothing but Texas products be exempt from the tax.

And he argues, logically, that such a ruling would do more than anything else to build up Texas industry and to furnish outlets for Texas products.

One thing is certain: that is we don't want any kind of tax in Texas that will work a hardship on our own manufacturers and pour water on the paddles of manufacturers in neighboring states.

We need to protect what few manufacturing concerns we have and to foster others.

Bill's got a good argument, as usual.

TWO friends met on the street shortly after one had met with an accident in which a dog chewed his leg rather badly.

"Hello, Bill", said the first man. "How did you come out in your suit against the owner of the dog that bit you?"

"Rotten", returned Bill, "I had to pay him $50."

"How did that happen?"

"Why his lawyer proved I bit the dog!"

Reversing the Usual Game

Roosevelt Still Smiling And Is Friend Of Everyone But He'll Make Enemies When He Takes Position On Issues

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2. —Everyone who visits Mr. Roosevelt goes away happy. This ability to impress people with his enthusiastic interest, his full sympathy and his intention of helping is one of the most remarkable things about the president-elect.

Dutcher

Newspapermen after stories—which they don't get, politicians after promises—which are not given, all seem to fall under the spell of this consummate politician who can deal shrewdly yet with a warm, human understanding which convinces them that their case is in the best possible hands.

"He has a good heart," reported an intelligent American Indian who recently told Roosevelt the troubles of his race.

The rambunctious Huey Long, the pugnaciously nationalistic Hiram Johnson, the idealistic, fighting George Norris, who now expects his Muscle Shoals dreams to come true, the progressives LaFollette and Cutting, who urged federal famine relief at Warm Springs, are as enthusiastic after their conferences as the most hidebound reactionary Democrats who cover the president-elect with sweet butter in the hope of future patronage and other favors. They all beam as they leave the great man's presence.

Most of the country also seems happy about the imminent change of administration, sharing the feeling of those who have talked with Roosevelt that a beneficial new deal is at hand.

One need not be unduly snooty or bother to bring up the many instances in which Roosevelt will have to make enemies if he takes a position, in order to wonder how long this honeymoon is going to last. The awful fate of Mr. Hoover is so recent that you can't help speculating.

Mr. Hoover enjoyed a happy honeymoon, too—from election day right up to the crash a year later. And whereas Hoover stepped into office at the very height of the prosperity period with apparently little to worry about, Roosevelt takes the helm in the most serious economic storm of our history with an unprecedented number of enormous problems dead ahead. No one has any business begrudging him the hope, confidence and good will of the nation which he possesses as he starts out.

Lately there has been much fuss here about Roosevelt's Huey Long problem (somehow that man's name pops up every time a fellow tries to write) and it must be admitted that if Roosevelt solves Huey easily the confidence in his ability to handle other problems will be increased.

He probably will. He might try stepping on the Kingfish, but the sort of thing he does will be demonstrated if he keeps his finger on Huey, retains his support and makes him a help rather than a hindrance.

After March fourth there will be an early fight to unseat Joe Robinson of Arkansas as Democratic leader in the Senate. The progressives don't like Joe and they may look to Roosevelt to help them demote him. Certainly Huey will start a terrific fight on Robinson, who happens to be his especial hate. Already he has damaged the Arkansas leader considerably.

There have been various guesses as to just when Joe would double up his fists and start trying to wipe up the Senate floor with Huey—literally, not figuratively. Joe has a reputation as a fist-fighter who drops his man.

Around the RADIO Clock

(Time Is Central Standard)

NEW YORK, Feb. 2. (AP)—Preliminary auditions have just been held for a new program series believed to be in keeping with the next trend expected in radio.

The production is a musical extravaganza designed particularly for the microphone but so constructed that it can be put on for a visible audience in addition. Both the plot and the music are especially written for radio.

The first show in the tryout is "Robinson Cruso," to run over eight 30-minute episodes. There is a chorus of 16 and matter of fact announcing is replaced by narration.

Billy Smith of Broadway is the producer. Hal Dyson wrote the lyrics and Paul Specht is musical director.

Boog-Scott Looks After Field Work

J. E. Boog-Scott, jr., of Coleman, a field foreman for the U. S. Biological survey, has been assigned to the Panhandle-Plains territory and will work under J. M. Hill, jr., junior nicologist, Mr. Hill announced.

"Mr. Boog-Scott will look after field work in connection with a prairie dog killing campaign we are starting over the territory," Mr. Hill said. "He will work in this area until about June 30."

The new federal worker has been working in the Big Bend country, he said. He will work out of Lubbock. Mr. Boog-Scott is a son of J. E. Boog-Scott, well known Coleman rancher and former candidate for the Democratic nomination for congressman-at-large in the July primaries. He is a graduate of Texas A. and M.

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

But No Cooks

LOUISVILLE—An elaborate cafeteria, fully equipped with ranges, refrigerators, pots and pans and with facilities to serve 1,200 people but no cooks or groceries stands idle in Louisville's new federal building.

Under government regulations, employes are the only ones eligible to operate it. James P. Thomas, custodian, says no employe has shown a disposition to start. Postmaster G. Barney Cross says he hopes no one does, because he believes it would be unsuccessful.

Cross says final disposal of the shiny new equipment is a problem for the treasury department.

This Is Moving

GARY, Ind.—Gary's board of works is puzzled by George Filgutt's thoroughness as a mover. He moved his family and furniture to Chicago. Then his four-room cottage was jacked and trundled down the street. Next he came back for the concrete block foundation, and finally he ended by removing the sidewalk slabs.

The board of works, which claims Filgutt owes for special assessments, wonders what to do about it.

Hog Shoots Owner

OSAGE CITY, Kas.—A hog with a desire to scratch its back—chose a loaded rifle which leaned against a fence post. The porker rubbed against the trigger and the bullet went through the thigh of Will Regeneld, who owned both the rifle and the hog.

Cold Aids Police

DALLAS—A jail cell was preferred to cold night air by a burglar suspect, who, clad only in underwear, leaped from the second story window of his hotel room as detectives knocked on his door. The detectives sat down and waited. Presently the telephone rang.

"I'm ready, come and get me," the suspect begged.

Folks who started the new year with household budget books know by this time why all that extra space was allowed for "miscellaneous expenses."

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseless calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish,—no danger.

Calotabs are sold in 10c and 35c packages at drug stores.—Adv.

Work Progressing On Hockley Road

By Staff Correspondent

ROPESVILLE, Feb. 2.—The Hannah and Hall Construction company, has put up fences across state highway No. 137 at both the Terry and Lubbock county lines. No dirt work has been done, but it is expected to start in a short time.

Detour signs will be put up in a short time. Weeds and trash along the right of way are being burned. Fences have been set back along the right-of-way across Hockley county.

This is the first state road construction for Hockley county. The eight mile grading and drainage structures are expected to be finished in about 30 working days unless weather conditions cause a delay.

PAIN DEADENED CHEST COLDS LOOSENED WITHOUT DRUGS

Get quick relief from neuralgia pain, sciatica pain, neuritis pain, rheumatic pain, lame back, stiff neck, headache, strains and chest colds by rubbing plenty of Baume Bengue (pronounced Ben-Gay) on the spot. It doesn't blister or stain. Rub it in till it sinks down and soothes the pain or breaks up the chest cold. Take no drugs, for any drug that is powerful enough to "deaden" pain or loosen a chest cold may not be good for you.

But beware of imitations. Ask your druggist for Baume Bengué by name (called "Ben-Gay" in English). There are many analgesic balms, mostly cheap imitations of Ben-Gay made out of synthetic drugs. That is why they are cheap. That is also why they are ineffective. Insist on Ben-Gay and you will get real results.

GOLDBUGS AND MATADOR CAGERS TO TANGLE AGAIN TONIGHT

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

BASKETBALL TONIGHT at Texas Tech gymnasium. Oklahoma City university Goldbugs versus Tech Matadors. Tip off at 8 o'clock.

There is to be an important meeting of baseball committees and fans at Hotel Lubbock tomorrow night. You are urged to put the date and time on your calendar now. It's an important meeting. It may be that the life or death of the Lubbock club is determined tomorrow night. The session starts at 7:30 o'clock.

It is agreed by one and all with whom this department has contacted that Lubbock COULD put baseball over here—COULD make it a paying proposition—IF the efforts of a few interested parties were put forth with energetic force. Nobody will say that Lubbock is too poor to support baseball.

The City of Lubbock has given the Lubbock baseball club a site on which to build a grandstand and construct a playing field. It is absolutely free. The city has put men to work clearing off the ground. Right now it is ready to receive the foundation for a grandstand.

You won't be asked for a cash payment if you come to tomorrow night's meeting. You are invited out to hear a review of the work done and to hear Marty Fiedler, organizer of the West Texas-New Mexico league and owner of the Albuquerque club, give a resume of what has been done in the other towns.

Texas Tech will play host to the male citizens of Lubbock Monday night at its first "Fun and Fite Nite" of the new year. Attractive boxing and wrestling cards have been arranged; there will be special music, and introduction of Tech's 1932 football letter men.

Fun nights in the past have drawn the biggest indoor crowds of any and all other sport entertainments. This might be attributed to the fact that no admission has been charged. For the past few years these fun night programs have provided the only boxing and wrestling matches in town, and they've been well received.

Texas Tech has an official wrestling and boxing team this year. Matches have been scheduled with other schools and the program will be carried on in much the same fashion as basketball and football. The first local appearance of the Tech teams will be made early in March, but the Matador ring artists will invade New Mexico Military institute this month. The institute is known for its good boxing and wrestling teams, but before the spring is over Tech might have some of that type of publicity.

SHORT SPORT STORIES: The world's broad jump record set in 1928 still stands . . . it was set by Sylvio P. Cator in a meet in Paris when he leaped 28 feet and one-eighth of an inch. . . . A number of southern and southwestern colleges have turned to "flivver trips" as methods of transportation of their basketball teams . . . the Oklahoma City university team travels by automobiles . . . Jock Sutherland, coach of the University of Pittsburgh, was a cop on the Sewickley (suburb of Pittsburgh) police force . . . he reports he never made a pinch and used his pay to further his education . . . . The Amateur Trapshooting association of North America is the only body of its kind in the world—don't shoot, we'll tell where we hid the tiara! . . . . A pigeon, released at Arras, France, August 15, 1931, was captured at Saigon, Indo-China, September 9, 1931—a distance of 7,200 miles.

MORE SHORT ONES: Texas Tech is the only school in Texas which meets the West Texas State Teachers Buffs on the painted court this season . . . . Gene Sarazen, in the third round of the 1932 open, predicted he would shoot the last 10 holes in 34 . . . . He did exactly that, and won the tournament . . . David McMillan, University of Minnesota basketball coach, in his earlier days set an all-time record for free throws . . . 199 points out of 200 tries in one season . . . Babe Ruth made only one homer in his only year in the International League—but he hit ten triples . . . and two doubles. . . . There are 2,500,000 horseshoe pitchers in the United States, of which more than 200,000 are women—what would we do without horses? . . .

DANIEL BAKER WINS

BROWNWOOD, Feb. 2. (AP)—A scoring splurge in the last five minutes of play enabled Daniel Baker's basketball team to defeat McMurry here last night, 32 to 25. The score was tied at 23-all until the Daniel Baker cagers broke loose. Harris, Daniel Baker guard, was high scorer with 13 points. He shot a foul and a field goal in quick succession to break the tie.

TECH QUINTET WINS FIRST CAGE TILT

OKLAHOMA CITY TEAM NOSED OUT, 37-30, WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Oklahoma City university Goldbugs remain in Lubbock for another game with the Texas Tech Matadors tonight. The second and final game of the series starts at 8 o'clock at the Tech gymnasium. There is no advance in ticket prices.

Last night's game ended, 37 to 30, favoring the Matadors. Polk Robison of Tech and Captain K. Peppers of Oklahoma City engaged in a scoring race that ended in a draw, but Robison's mates were a bit more consistent on the offense. Peppers and Robison shot five field goals and three free goals each to tie for scoring honors.

Goldbugs Ahead Once

The game was close and hard fought throughout, but the Matadors gained a lead in the first half that held. The Goldbugs at one time had a 3 to 1 lead, and tied the count at 5-all a few minutes later, but never again got within four points of Tech's lead.

Coaches Dell Morgan and V. Green alternated their lineups but it was the starting team which accounted for the scoring. Collins and C. Peppers hooped three field goals for the Goldbugs to lead the Matador individuals, but all of Morgan's regulars scored.

Considerable Fouling

Both sides committed numerous fouls, C. Peppers and White being banished after their quota, in the fast struggle, but neither team showed a great defense.

Playing a careful game from the outset, the Goldbugs executed a neat passing game, keeping the ball moving like veterans, but careful shots failed to go down and as the game grew older the visitors threw caution to the winds shooting from all angles in a desperate attempt to rally.

Lose Scoring Chances

Tech's cagers, making their first appearance before the home folks in three weeks, played their usual dribbling and goal-shooting game, missing enough shots to win two average contests. Each team had plenty of opportunities to score, but there were few accurately placed shots.

Tonight's game should prove more interesting than the first. The Goldbugs arrived by automobile from Oklahoma City yesterday at noon, and had little time to rest or practice before game time.

The genial Coach Green, who has turned out more than one championship basketball and football team at O. C. U., during his six years there, was of the opinion that a little sleep and relaxation might serve to lend accuracy to his lads' shots. He also was of the opinion that Tech had a good basketball team, capable of mixing up with the best of Oklahoma college quintets.

BOZEMAN TO TRY FOR A DEADLOCK

CHICAGO, Feb. 2 (AP)—Back in title contention after the best game of the tournament, young Jay Bozeman of Vallejo, Calif., tonight will attempt to throw the battle for the world's three cushion billiard championship into a three-way deadlock by defeating Welker Cochran of San Francisco.

Bozeman, standing on the verge of elimination from the major portion of the $20,000 prize money, last night survived by defeating Augie Kieckhefer, Chicago's deposed champion, 50 to 30, in a near record-breaking match that lasted only 28 minutes. If Cochran defeats Bozeman and Johnny Layton of Sedalia, Mo., the crown is all his. But if Bozeman hands Cochran a setback all three will be tied.

Coaching Staff Of Lubbock High Feted

Members of the Lubbock High school coaching staff were honored guests of L. M. Drown, manager of the Hilton hotel last night at an informal dinner in the Chimayo room of the hotel.

A sumptuous four-course dinner was served after which a round-table discussion regarding athletics and the outlook for 1933 was held by those present.

Coach Weldon Chapman commented briefly on the eight-semester ruling and said his team would be badly handicapped during the coming season if the rule was enforced. He added, however, that other teams would be affected in a like manner. The rule will slow down high school football, he said.

Members of the staff present were: Chapman, Assistant Coach Burl Huffman, Basketball Coach John McMurry, Business Manager E. J. Lowrey and Lewis Spears, captain of the 1932 team. Pete Cawthon, Tech head coach, E. J. Parsons and C. W. Ratliff, were other guests at the dinner.

NO WORD GIVEN BY METCALF

NEXT CHICAGO COACH STILL IN DOUBT; RUMORS HEARD

BY PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Feb. 2 (AP)—Sports writers, who are accustomed to digging up important scoops on the news happenings of the Big Ten athletic conference season after season, were just about ready to toss away their pencils and pads today after almost four months of skirmishing with Thomas Nelson Metcalf.

The tight lipped successor to the veteran Amos Alonzo Stagg as director of athletics at the University of Chicago still had them guessing over his choice of the next football coach at the midway. The only thing he has told them or even hinted at since he was asked to get a new coach last October was that the man would not be Stagg.

Metcalf, however, was expected to make the long awaited announcement within a few days. He conferred with President Robert M. Hutchins of the university yesterday while the latest rumor, which had Dr. John W. Wilce, former Ohio State coach, slated for the post was published in the newspapers.

"Haven't anything to say," Metcalf replied when confronted with the Wilce rumor. "Nice weather we're having."

Clark Shaughnessy, present coach at Loyola university at New Orleans; Glenn Thistlethwaite, former University of Wisconsin and Northwestern coach, and Pat Page, chief assistant to Stagg, were other reported candidates.

LABARBA BACK TO SCHOOL

FAILURE TO CONQUER SEAMAN TOM WATSON CAUSES DECISION

NEW YORK, Feb. 2 (AP)—From champion to freshman, from title contender to sophomore—that is the course of Fidel LaBarba who sticks to his idea of getting a college education through the ups and downs of being one of the nation's outstanding boxers.

Fidel, who retired once before to enter Stanford university, has decided to give up the ring again and return to his studies with the ultimate object of becoming a writer. The cause for his decision was his failure to whip Seaman Tom Watson, British featherweight champion.

In 1927, when he still held the flyweight championship, LaBarba retired and began his college career. His intention then was to enter the brokerage business. But after finishing one year in good style, he succumbed to the lure of big purses and came back for shots at the bantamweight title and more recently the featherweight championship, now held by Kid Chocolate.

Before his recent bout with Chocolate, LaBarba decided to go back to college if he lost. The decision was so close, however, that he gave himself another test against Watson and the way he faded out in the closing rounds settled the matter for him.

DOG FEUD IN ON AGAIN IN DIXIE

ALBANY, Ga., Feb. 2 (AP)—The dog feud is on again in Dixie.

This is the field trial season and dogs from all over the land are making the show circuit and working until their hearts pound against their ribs so their masters can boast a winner.

From January through March trainers take dogs from Texas to Virginia and run them in trials for the sheer fun of the thing.

The Pinehurst, N. C., trials have been run. Frosty Frank—a white and liver pointer that handled singles masterfully—won the all age stake.

That was one up for the pointer clan.

Noria's Boy—another pointer—won just about everything at the continental trials in Mississippi except the club's license and the pointers went two up.

The southern amateur which will be run here beginning February 20 and the grand national in Tennessee are two of the biggest—the tournament of noses.

TERRY LIKELY TO SEEK NEW PLAYERS

GIANTS MANAGER HAS TWENTY-ONE SIGNED FOR THIS SEASON

NEW YORK, Feb. 2. (AP)—With 21 players under contract and Manager Bill Terry due to reach town today, the New York Giants are expecting to hear of something happening soon.

Terry, who first set the pace in trading during the major league meetings in December and then led the way in getting players' names on contracts, has the annual baseball writers dinner as the principal purpose of his visit with some discussion of the situation with club officials on the side but Giant fans will be rather disappointed if he returns to Memphis without doing any dickering for new players. It is known that he is looking for another good outfielder and a starting pitcher, perhaps Dazzy Vance of Brooklyn.

Three More Sign

Three more signed contracts reached the Giant offices yesterday to make up the 21 total. They bore the names of Gilbert English and Arthur McLarney, young infielders, and Harry Danning, who caught for the Giants' Winston-Salem farm last season.

System Continued

The one-a-day system of the Brooklyn Dodgers was continued today with the word that Clyde Sukeforth, reserve catcher who did comparatively little work for the Dodgers last season, had sent in his contract with signature affixed.

Sox Sign Two

The Boston Red Sox reported the signing of two important members of their prospective 1933 cast. They were Dale Alexander, slugging first baseman who led the American league batters after coming from Detroit last year, and Bob Seeds, outfielder obtained in a trade with the Chicago White Sox.

Meat Show Will Be Bigger Than Ever

The third annual cured meat show, scheduled for March 23 and 24 will be "the largest we have ever had," Sterling Evans, district county agent leader, said while in Lubbock. Mr. Evans has made a tour of the district recently and discussed the show with county agents and others.

"We will have more hams than we have ever had," he said. "There is a growing interest in the show all over this section."

Many club calves will be shown and Mr. Evans predicts the show of calves will be one of the largest in the entire Southwest.

BUILDING SIDEWALKS

LAMESA, Special)—Twelve hundred feet of sidewalk is being built around the school house grounds with R. F. C. funds meeting the labor bill. The local committee approved the plan. One walk will connect the two buildings and another will be on Bryan street.

BUYS FEED STORE

O'DONNELL, (Special)—Jeff Musik has bought the buildings and equipment of the feed business he leased some time ago from Fred Henderson. He also bought a residence on the lot and has moved family there to live.

BABE RUTH NAMES GREATEST FEATS; EVENTS SHOW VERSATALITY AS GREAT PITCHER, OUTFIELDER AND BATSMAN

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 2 (AP)—It isn't because he has read much of Rudyard Kipling's poems that Babe Ruth has seldom stopped to consider the work he has done.

The slugger whose exploits take up page after page of baseball's record books does not go in much for self-analysis or retrospection.

Lists Big Thrills

Consequently it was something like prying candy away from a small boy to get him to concentrate on an examination of his big league record and list as his most thrilling diamond experences:

1. The 2-1 victory he pitched for the Red Sox over Brooklyn in the 1916 world series holding the Dodgers scoreless after the first inning and beating Sherrod Smith in a 14-inning battle, longest game ever played in the championship round.

2. The one-handed running catch he made off Frankie Frisch for the last out in the fourth and last game of the 1928 world series, abruptly ending a desperate rally by the St. Louis Cardinals in their home park.

3. The dramatic home run he hit off Charley Root in the third game of the 1932 world series at Chicago, a tremendous clout over the centerfield barrier, his second of the game and a blow that knocked Root out of the box besides knocking the last resistance out of the Cubs.

At the time it did not occur to Ruth that he had, off-hand, named three events that promptly emphasized his amazing versatility, first as a great southpaw pitcher, later as a brilliant defensive outfielder and, lastly, as the most destructive batsman in the history of the game.

TAHOKA GIN RECORD

TAHOKA, (Special) — Ginnings for the 1932 cotton season here amounted to 11,441 bales, check of the gins here show. This is said to be the largest number in the town's history. Between 500 and 1,000 more bales are expected.

Horsewoman

Marina Chaliapin, 20, is the daughter of Feodor Challapin, whom many call the greatest basso of h's time. She's meeting New York's musical and equestrian circles during their present stay there. Chaliapin used to be a blacksmith's apprentice on the Volga, and the other day tried out his old skill in a New York blacksmith shop. This new photo of Marina was taken then.

The Store That Saves You Money

"I want my telephone put back, please"

HARDLY a day passes but that some person who gave up his telephone service in recent months orders it restored. In many cases, people feel that it is false economy to be without a telephone . . . that the small cost of the service is repaid many times each month in convenience, in time and actually in money saved.

Some miss the close and personal contact with friends that telephone service makes possible.

Others mention the loss of many pleasant, impromptu social "get-togethers" when their friends are unable to reach them by telephone.

It is all true . . . what these customer friends of ours say. Telephone service costs so little and its value is so great that in most instances it really doesn't pay to try to do without it.

If you are missing your telephone . . . just get in touch with our business office. We'll send a man out with a telephone in a hurry. Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

tom lands of agricultural use.

5.—Elimination of the unprofitable marginal lands from farm pursuits.

6.—Eventual flood control of the great Mississippi river.

7.—Eventual improvement of navigation.

Mr. Roosevelt announced that as soon as he takes office next March 4th, he will ask the various government departments involved to make surveys with a view to putting the proposition up to congress at an early date.

Sure Of Success

Confident that the whole project will be self sustaining, he has no doubt of the "bankability" of it and the availability of bonds for the undertaking.

"If it is successful, and I am confident it will be," he said, "I think this development will be the forerunner of similar projects in other sections, particularly in the Ohio and Arkansas valleys and in the Columbia river basin of the northwest.

"We have about 12,000,000 wage earners unemployed. If we return immediately to the high level of 1929 I think we would still have 5,000,000 men out of work and on a dole. Our population is out of balance. If by government activity we can restore the balance we will have taken a great step forward.

Trend Toward Farm

"The normal trend now is back to the farm movement. For those who have had experience in agricultural work I think we will do well to provide a living."

CAR TAX DELAY

tive session today, decided to start public hearings tomorrow on protests against the confirmation of two appointees named by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson.

The appointees to be considered are F. L. Denison of Temple, named chairman of the highway commission, and R. L. Daniel of Victoria, selected life insurance commissioner. Senator George Purl of Dallas asked for the hearing.

Two Others Appointed

Mrs. Ferguson sent up four appointments yesterday. Besides Denison and Daniel they were Jack Flynn of Houston, state labor commissioner, and Henry P. Edwards of Dallas, state tax commissioner.

No opposition to confirmation of Flynn and Edwards had been expressed.

Denison would take office on February 15, and Daniel on February 10. Denison would succeed W. R. Ely of Abilene as chairman of the commission and Ely would become a member in place of Cone Johnson of Tyler, whose term will expire.

Oil Probe Delayed

Investigation of the Texas railroad commission's administration of oil conservation and conservation laws in the East Texas oil field, scheduled to start today by the house oil, gas and mining committee, has been postponed until 2 p. m., Monday, Representative R. J. Long, chairman of the committee announced today.

Postponement was at request of the railroad commission.

Agitation of some kind of legislative action that would bring about a let-up in the foreclosure of mortgage on farms and homesteads met with the favor of Ferguson, who indicated the governor would issue a proclamation calling on mortgage holders to withhold foreclosures until remedial laws could be passed.

WOMEN BANDITS

in the Louisiana state prison and Cramer is held in Shreveport, La., Sheriff L. V. Hightower said. Sheriff Hightower and York collaborated in the investigation.

York said authorities expected to solve a dozen bank robberies if they can apprehend the two women, who, he asserted were the ones that planned the robberies and assisted their male confederates in carrying them out. He said they scouted the banks.

Information gathered by the women was given to the men, who, heavily armed, looted the banks and later picked up the women. York said the woman usually drove the "getaway" cars and arranged for disposal of loot. They were the ones who changed large bank notes into money that could be handled more easily.

Sheriff Hightower said the women had been charged but he refused to divulge their names.

One member of the alleged gang was identified yesterday by Vice President Murchison of the Security State bank at Pineville, La. Sheriff Y. P. Downs of Alexandria, La., who accompanied the banker to Houston, said charges against the man named as gunman in the Pineville holdup will be filed soon.

WORK RELIEF

tree-planting campaign; it likewise approved the tree pruning project now under way, future work on the fair grounds and recent improvements put in at Shannon park east of the city. It was also decided that married minors, jobless and in need of relief, could be employed if waivers were signed by parents, the minors themselves or, in case of orphans, by their legal guardians.

Aid To Shallowater

A request of a committee from Shallowater, composed of Bob Crump, V. J. Farris and J. G. Matt, for work relief there was approved.

A $100 fund for February will be made available for relief at Shallowater.

The committee was unanimous in its decision to hurry work projects of all kinds in an effort to afford more labor for thase needing it. It also decided to make a request for additional funds to be used through March and April.

The Campbells' son, Harry L. Campbell, 26, was injured fatally in a motorcycle-taxicab collision here last June.

principal of the Seagraves school for five years and that he had had legal dealings with Oscar M. Herring. Herring, he said, approached him one time with a proposition of robbing the bank and said Elmer Slaughter 'could get a man to get the job done". He said it would be an "inside job". Baker testified.

The bank had insurance and no local people would lose, Baker testified Herring explained to him. He said Herring spoke to him on several occasions regarding the proposal.

The afternoon before the robbery, Baker said Herring came to him with details of the plan to rob the bank. He (Baker) was to be in the bank and get his statement at noontime and he was to agree not to be able to identify the robber. He said Herring told him Slaughter had used his car to get the man.

Friday morning, Baker testified, Herring asked him to drive him to the Slaughter farm and there he met a man in a barn he later learned was Jodie Edwards. He said the two men had it planned to have two men inside the bank.

Baker declared he tried to "get out of being in on the game" and Edwards said, 'It wouldn't be healthy to talk about it'.

He said Edwards asked about the safe and Herring told him it would be open. He said Herring drew a diagram of the bank on the floor of the barn, explaining the layout to Edwards.

Four Are Freed Of Blame In Slaying

ROSWELL, N. M., Feb. 2 (AP)—Authorities today said they were convinced four men held here after a liquor still was raided had no connection with the slaying of Sheriff J. C. Moseley at Tulia, Tex.

Mission Unsuccessful

An officer sent by Doss to seize mortgaged property sold for $4.90 at the sale was met by irate neighbors and his mission was unsuccessful.

Nearly 1,300 farmers showed a mortgage company representative the nearest way home as he attempted to foreclose on a widow's farm near Cherokee, Okla.

The Texas house proposed a mortgage moratorium and the Iowa senate adopted a mortgage arbitration bill, only to have disagreement with the lower house which asked a stronger measure.

In the North Dakota senate, a proposal was heard asking for an association of allied farm legislatures. The North Dakota senate already has passed a bill legalizing farm strikes.

Meanwhile a senate committee in Washington began study of a house bill to ban foreclosures. An amendment was proposed by organized agriculture to provide "conciliation commissioners" to adjust debts between farmers and mortgage holders.

ATKINS SERVICES CONDUCTED TODAY

Funeral rites for Mrs. W. B. Atkins, 53, prominent civic worker and church woman, were read at 10 o'clock this morning at the First Baptist church. Public schools had no classes this morning, as Mrs. Atkins was the wife of a member of the board of trustees of the Lubbock independent school district.

Rev. R. C. Campbell, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated at the funeral. Burial, directed by Rix Funeral home, was in Lubbock cemetery.

Mrs. Atkins a Lubbock resident since 1911, died early Wednesday in a sanitarium here.

Fast days observed at the four seasons of the year by the Roman Catholic church are called Ember days.

POISON TAKES LIFE OF MAN

ARSENIC BLAMED FOR DEATH OF EMORY M. BUTLER WEDNESDAY

Arrangements for the funeral of Emory M. Butler, 68, a pioneer Lubbock county stockman who died of arsenic poisoning at 9 o'clock Wednesday night in a sanitarium here, were incomplete at noon, Sanders Funeral home reported.

Becoming violently ill Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Butler told his wife he had taken a box of rodent poison before noon. A doctor was called. Mr. Butler was taken to the sanitarium at 8:30 p. m.

The retired rancher last March 2 attempted to inhale chloroform from a handkerchief in his home two miles south of Lubbock on state highway No. 9. He was found before he lost consciousness, neighbors said. The aged man was reported to have told his wife what he intended to do, and she ran across the highway to a neighbor.

Mr. Butler came to this region about 40 years ago. Survivors are the widow, the former Mrs. Ella Baber, whom Mr. Butler married about 15 years ago, one sister, Mrs. S. W. Jarvis of Lubbock county, and one brother, Charles Butler of Muscatine, Iowa.

Mr. Butler, a member of the Methodist church, was well-known in this section. At one time he was considered moderately wealthy, and at his death owned Lubbock county property.

The rodent poison which Mr. Butler told his wife had been swallowed contained arsenic, it was said. An entire box was said to have been taken.

DAILY MARKETS

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Feb. 2. (AP)—Unusual steadiness characterized grain values early today. Enlarged estimates of yesterday's export business in North American wheat were current, ranging upwards of 2,500,000 bushels, with European continental countries the chief buyer.

Opening unchanged to 1-4 off, wheat later made some advance. Corn started at a shade lower to a shade higher and subsequently held near the initial range.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 2 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today despite the fact that Liverpool cables were much lower than due. March opened one point up and the later months were unchanged. As there were fair trade buying orders on the market at the start, prices improved in the early trading. March trading at 5.80, May at 5.92 and July to 6.03, or one to two points above yesterday's close.

Later in the first hour prices turned somewhat easier on a weak opening in stocks which caused selling by recent buyers. March declined to 5.75, May to 5.88 and July to 6.00, or 3 to 5 points down from the earlier highs and three points under the close of yesterday. Near the end of the first hour, the market was quiet and at the lows.

There was a fair business in cotton contracts during the entire morning, but prices gradually eased off in sympathy with weakness in stocks which brought out additional liquidation. There was also some hedge-selling. March dropped to 5.72, May to 5.86 and July to 5.97, or 6 to 8 points down from the earlier highs and 5 to 6 points below yesterday's close.

Around noon the market was a shade steadier on some short covering and prices recovered one to two points from the lows.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 2 (AP)—Cotton opened steady, unchanged to 3 lower on March liquidation and southern selling which were offset by a good trade demand. March 5.76; May 5.91; July 6.03; Oct. 6.21; Dec. 6.35; Jan. 6.39.

There was some further selling through houses with continental and Japanese connections and active months showe net losses of about 4 to 5 points immediately after the call. March sold down to 5.75 and July to 6.00. Early action of the stock market seemed to bring in a little selling but offerings were absorbed by continued trade buying and some local observers saw indications of commission house buying. There may also have been some purchases for a rally following the decline of about 68 points from the high reached on the advance early last month. The market at the end of the first half hour was steady at net losses of 2 to 3 points.
