Red Demands Hold Back All Progress At Talks

Only Military Ships Not Tied Up By Strike

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. (AP) — Insurgent stevedores ended their boycott of military piers today, but otherwise, there was only a small dent in the dock strike that has immobilized the world's biggest port.

For the first time since the billion-dollar, 16-day waterfront shutdown began, defense loading and unloading jobs apparently were fully manned by regular longshore crews.

Picket lines disappeared from the military docks in Staten Island, Jersey City and at Brooklyn's huge navy base, where more than 500 rebel strikers streamed back to work.

Elsewhere along the miles of idle docks, pickets still marched. Only on one Hudson river pier did nonstrikers succeed in circumventing the picket barriers.

The more than 20,000 strikers, here and in Boston, are in revolt against a new contract and have defied orders of Joseph Ryan, president of the AFL International Longshoreman Association, to return to work.

Recovery From Pennsylvanian In Borden Test

A Pennsylvanian lime producer appears to be assured in Northeast Borden County at Dana, Shay & Barker No. 1 Mrs. Myrtle McKnight, northwest stepout to Vickers Petroleum Co. No. 1 McKnight, discovery well of the Cedar Crest field.

The new Pennsylvanian area is 14 miles northeast of Gail. Both the projects are in section 367-97-H&TC.

The Dana, Shay & Barker No. 1 McKnight ran a four - hour drillstem test in the top of the Pennsylvanian lime at 7,747-87 feet. Gas surfaced in 19 minutes although no fluid came to the top while the tool was open. Recovery was 4,550 feet of oil, mud and gas with no formation water in evidence. One-half gallon of drilling water was recovered in the bottom of the tool.

The fluid unloaded most of the way out of the hole with the drillpipe. Open flowing bottomhole pressure was from 500-1,450 pounds. Shut-in botomhole pressure after 15 minutes was 2,950 pounds.

Operators have run electric logs and are now preparing to set five and one-half inch casing at 7,747 feet to test the zone at 7,747-87 feet.

This project topped the Pennsylvanian lime at 7,650 feet. Elevation is 2,516 feet. It is a little high to the Vickers No. 1 McKnight, which topped the Pennsylvanian at 7,650 feet on an elevation of 2,469 feet.

The Vickers well was completed through perforations at 7,732-44 feet for a potential of 11 barrels of 38 gravity oil on the pump.

NO. 3 SORRELLS

Humble Oil & Refining Co. No. 3-B Sorrells, indicated Wolfcamp discovery in Southwest Scurry County, recovered 90 feet of drilling mud with 4,875 feet of salt water on a drillstem test from 5,506-26 feet yesterday. Tool was open one hour.

Operator is now drilling ahead below 5,595 feet.

KENT COUNTY

Sun Oil Co. No. 2-D Bilby Wallace, Clairemont - Lower Pennsylvanian field location, is at total depth of 1,286 feet in lime and waiting on cement.

Seaboard and Republic No. 1-C Girard, Salt Creek field stepout, is waiting on orders after running electric log surveys. It is at total depth of 7,290 feet on a datum of minus 5,160 feet.

ROYAL ENGINEER

Princess Elizabeth receives instructions from the engineer on the locomotive of the Royal train before she took the controls to run the train from Yates, Alta., to Peers, Alta. The trip was a little more than 14 miles. The Duke also was in the locomotive. He was fireman while the Princess was engineer.

Instructions From 400 Miles Away Brings Plane In Safely

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 30. (AP)—An airliner carrying 40 persons came down safely Monday night after getting instructions 400 miles away for lowering a jammed landing gear.

The Chicago and Southern Constellation circled Moisant Airport for two hours and 13 minutes while Memphis worked on the landing gear.

Acree, baffled after emergency measures failed to lower the giant liner's left wheel, asked C&S headquarters at Memphis for advice.

The maintenance department there broke out a diagram of the plane, diagnosed the trouble and teletyped the airport control tower here instructions how to lower the wheel manually. The tower radioed Acree.

Wiggling through a narrow emergency hatch in the plane's belly, Acree cleared away stacks of heavy luggage, squeezed through another emergency compartment, and shutoff a hydraulic gear that controlled the landing mechanism. Then he lowered the wheel by a manual lever.

Safe aground, 35 passengers, many with tear-filled eyes, praised Acree and the four other crew members.

James R. Mary of New Orleans said, "The crew is really to be commended. They didn't tell us anything. But we knew the landing gear was stuck."

Truman Signs Postal Hikes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (AP) — President Truman signed today the postal rate increase bill, which dooms the penny post card as a part of a $117 million annual boost in postal charges.

The new two-cent rate on post cards goes into effect Feb. 1.

There will be a 10 per cent boost in mailing charges for newspapers and magazines April 1. Two other 10 per cent increases on this type of mail will take effect April 1, 1953, and April 1, 1954, making a 30 per cent hike in all.

An increase in the charge for third class mail — largely circulars and advertising — will take place July 1, 1952. This is achieved by hiking the minimum bulk rate from one cent to one and one-half cents a piece.

Charges for most postoffice special services — such as insured mail, special delivery, registered mail and C.O.D. deliveries — will go up next Feb. 1.

The special delivery stamp will be 20 cents instead of the present 15.

Demonstration Against West

TEHRAN, Iran, Oct. 30. (AP) — Five thousand Communist-led students, shouting "down with British and American imperialists," battled past barricading police today and paraded in defiance through Tehran's streets.

At least 20 were injured in a brief, bloody clash outside the gates of Tehran University.

Students, including girls, charged through heavy police lines and wielded fists, bricks and sticks to break the cordon drawn up to keep them inside the university area. The government had banned their scheduled anti-British parade.

Shouting "death to the United States" and cheering Russia, the students kept up their noisy demonstration for an hour in Parliament Square.

Speakers used terms like "the vile American imperialists" and the "rotten British." Approval was shouted for resolutions denouncing the Americans and British, and praising Egypt, Red China, Malaya and other areas where the Reds are active.

Two Airmen Killed In East Texas Plane Crash

CHICKASHA, Okla., Oct. 30. (AP)—Two airmen from Perrin Field, Tex., were killed when their training plane crashed at the municipal airport Monday.

Witnesses said the air force trainer undershot the concrete landing strip.

Negro Exodus From South Is Census Report

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (AP)—There was a definite trend of Negro population away from the South to industrial areas during the 1940-1950 decade, census figures showed today.

The Census Bureau hasn't issued its final figures on population by races, but a tabulation of its preliminary figures on White and non-White population for each state shows the trend.

The bureau classified as non-White the country's Negro, Indian and Asiatic population. Except in certain instances the non-White population is all Negro.

From 1940 to 1950 the non-White population of the 13 Southern states was virtually at a sandstill, showing a net gain of only 55,637. Seven of the 13 states showed declines.

During the same period the White population in those 13 states gained 4,453,354 —nearly 100 times the gain shown by the Negro population.

In that decade the non-White population of eight major industrial states — California, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania — rose from 2,808,549 to 4,364,000 a gain of 1,555,451.

In that same decade the White population of those eight states rose 7,887,652.

In other words, in the South the White population gained about 16 per cent and the Negro population gained a half of one per cent.

But in the eight industrial states the White population gained about 14 per cent and the non-White population nearly 55 per cent. Of the 13 Southern states, seven showed actual declines in non-White population. They were Mississippi with a drop of 87,000, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Oklahoma and Texas.

14 Deaths In Ship Collision

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 30. (AP)—The Coast Guard said today the death toll in the fiery collision of three vessels in Buffalo harbor might reach 17.

Three men burned to death when the 454-foot Great Lakes Freighter Penobscot rammed a loaded oil barge Monday night. The barge blew up, showering its pusher and the freighter with 800,000 gallons of gasoline.

Fourteen of the 40 crewmen were missing and feared dead. Fourteen were injured, none seriously. Nine escaped injury. One of the dead was not identified.

Capt. Louis Guyette of the Penobscot and his helmsman, Roy Richardson, 56, died heroes' deaths in the freighter's pilot house.

They backed the ship away from the flaming barge and rammed its stern into a nearby dock. Crewmen scrambled down a rope to safety.

Edward Myers, 57, a watchman on the Penobscot and an old hand on the lakes, told of his skipper's heroism simply:

"The Old Man and Roy stayed in the tower, put her in reverse and sent her back toward the dock. They were both dead when we rammed the dock."

"I tied a line and about 12 of us slid down it."

The bodies of Guyette and Richardson were found in the forward deckhouse. They were burned so badly neither could be recognized.

Small Gains By UN Infantry

8TH ARMY, Korea, Oct. 30. (AP) —Allied infantrymen in Eastern Korea beat back an attack near Heartbreak Ridge by 1,000 Chinese in predawn darkness today, then drove ahead 1,000 yards in daylight.

On the Western Front, United Nations forces gained more than half a mile northwest of Yonchon with little trouble.

Reinforced Chinese who had hurled day-long attacks at the Allies southeast of Kumsong in the center of the line Monday made only two small probing attacks Tuesday. Both were turned back.

The shrapest fighting Tuesday was in the mountains between Kumsong and Heartbreak Ridge. A battalion of screaming Chinese stormed against Allied infantrymen in the early morning blackness.

Patrolmen Fire At Car But Cannot Overtake It

Police last night engaged in a running one-way gun battle with an unknown person who they believe is wanted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for murder in New Mexico.

Patrolmen Mark Search and A. D. Williams chased the car about nine miles north on the Clairemont road after it refused to stop on a speeding violation in North Snyder. They fired two shots at the car, but it outdistanced them and continued north along the Clairemont Road.

Search said the car matched the description of one described by the FBI as being driven by a man under indictment in Tucumcari, N. M., on a charge of murder and unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

BLIND MAN SAVES CHILD IN WATER

LOUVAIN, Belgium, Oct. 30 (AP) — A blind man rescued a drowning child from the River Dyle here.

Karel Thimmerman was walking along the river when he heard a child shouting for help. He jumped into the water, trying vainly to get hold of the child he could not see. Onlookers shouted out to Timmermans where to swim and he brought the child to shore.

Barkley Said Available For Another Term

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (AP) —Sen. Anderson (D-NM) predicted today the Democrats will come up with a Truman-Barkley ticket again in 1952.

Anderson, who heads the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, said he believes Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) will be the Republican nominee.

A lot of speculation will be aired about the Democratic ticket when the national committee meets Wednesday to ratify the selection of Frank E. McKinney, Indianapolis banker, as party chairman. McKinney was endorsed Monday night by Retiring Chairman William M. Boyle, Jr., and thus obviously by President Truman.

Anderson said he thinks the Democrats will win handily next year. He listed as "excellent" his party's chances of retaining control of the Senate.

Democrats now outnumber Republicans 50 to 46 in the Senate. Seats of only 13 Democrats, as compared with those of 20 Republicans, are at stake in 1952. Most Democratic seats are in the South.

Sen. Clements (D-Ky.) agreed with Anderson that Vice President Barkley acts "25 years younger" than his age. Barkley will be 77 Nov. 24 but has indicated he will be available as a candidate. His candidacy was endorsed by Secretary of Labor Tobin.

Sen. Brewster (R-Me) said he can go only part way with Anderson in the latter's predictions. Brewster said he is betting Taft will be the Republican nominee.

"Taft will win the nomination and he will win the election," Brewster declared. He said he had thought until recently Mr. Truman would be the Democratic candidate but now is not so sure.

Brewster said Gen. Eisenhower will not be available for months and reiterated that the general "is still the indispensable man in Europe."

Martin County In Injunction

AUSTIN, Oct. 30. (AP) — A temporary injunction giving the Colorado River Water Conservation District freedom to drill water wells in Martin County and pipe the water to Big Spring and Odessa was granted in 126th district court Monday.

The writ was issued against the Martin County Water Conservation District No. 1, which had attempted to set up spacing rules for drilling water wells in its 14 mile long water field.

Use of water wells to supply the dry Big Spring-Odessa area is planned for a five-year period prior to completion of a dam on the Colorado.

A further hearing is scheduled Nov. 12 when state's attorneys defend issuance of an area designation to the Martin County district by the Board of Water Engineers. The Martin County district had set up its spacing rules under authority of the designation.

Testimony before Judge Jack Roberts was concerned principally with need for the water conservation project planned by the Colorado River district and productivity of water wells in Martin County.

Martin County Judge James McMorries represented his water district. The Colorado River district was represented by Houston Attorney Victor Bouldin.

The program is scheduled for 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. Only persons who hold membership and season tickets in the association will be eligible to attend. No tickets will be sold at the door.

Association members are asked to present concert tickets rather than receipts for membership paid, A. T. Nicholas, association vice president, said. Membership tickets are transferrable.

U. S. Proposes Iran Oil Move Now, Talks Be Resumed Later

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (AP) Reaction to an American plan appears to have bouyed State Department hopes that Iran and Britain may reach a settlement uncorking the flow of Iranian oil to the West.

Premier Mohammed Mossadegh of Iran is sufficiently interested in American suggestions to prolong his stay for further talks on the problem. He originally was to have flown home last weekend, but is still here.

Responsible informants said American mediators are trying to pursuade Iran and Britain to resume direct talks and to agree on a stop-gap plan for moving refined oil to the West.

This two-fold approach is based on an American belief that weeks, perhaps months, of detailed talks may be necessary before the British and Iranians agree on a permanent settlement and put it into effect, even after they resume face-to-face conferences.

Nasrollah Entezam, the Iranian who is president of the United Nations general assembly, said in New York he expects a settlement outside the U. N.

The State Department believes some temporary arrangement to move $40 millions worth of Iranian oil products now stored in huge tanks near the Abadan refinery should be worked out.

The refined products would be sold, with receipts from sales to tankers going to Iran. Who would get the products and collect distribution profits, was not reported.

About two million tons of refined oil is involved.

The State Department has thrown tight secrecy around the talks between Mossadegh and American negotiators, led by Assistant Secretary of State George McGhee, a former oil man.

McGhee is reported fairly optimistic of persuading Mossadegh and the British to agree on a blueprint which will guide future direct talks between them.

No oil has moved from Iran since late July, when British tankers pulled out rather than sign receipts testifying the oil they would haul was Iranian and not owned by the British-dominated Anglo-Iranian Oil Company.

Britain's reaction to American suggestions has been kept secret. The British are reported reluctant to agree to move oil from Iran before a definite long-range settlement has been signed.

Cool Front On Way To State

By The Associated Press

October was treating Texans today to almost summer weather. Colder weather was coming, however.

Bright sunshine was dissipating low clouds and ground fog that covered many parts of the state this morning and the prospect was for clear skies and temperatures in the mid and high 80's.

The Weather Bureau reported no prospect for additional rain today but a cool front due to move into the state early tonight is to bring a drop in temperature and scattered showers. A low of between 30 and 35 degrees is forecast for the Panhandle tonight.

During the 24-hour period ending this morning only Galvestoh and Texarkana reported sizable rains. Galveston had .70 inch and Texarkana .20. Dallas, San Antonio, Fort Worth and Palacios had light rains while other points reported only sprinkles.

Laredo with 90 was the warmest reported spot in Texas Monday while Texarkana was the coolest Monday afternoon with a high of 65. The overhight low was a 46 at Dalhart.

Mahon in Lubbock, To Visit in Snyder Soon

George Mahon, U. S. representative from the Nineteenth district, has returned to Lubbock following the adjournment of the eighty-second Congress.

Mahon is chairman of the House appropriations sub - committee on military affairs and third ranking member of the appropriations committee itself. He has written the Daily News that he will visit in Snyder soon.

Third A-Bomb Set Off Today At Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Oct. 20. (AP)—The third atomic detonation in the Atomic Energy Commission's current test series — a bright glow in the sky northwest of here — went off at 9:01 a.m. (CST) today.

It was the largest of the present series, which has included a baby blast from a tower and a slightly more spectacular drop from a plane.

About a minute after the flash, a column of mushrooming cloud literally shot up into the sky.

The light itself was white, much like a giant camera flash bulb. There was a light purple ginge at the start.

The mushroom was a beautiful thing, observers agreed. The top burgeoned out at the apex of a towering stem.

No shock was felt in Las Vegas within the time limit necessary for sound waves normally to travel from the Yucca Flat range more than 75 miles from here.

That would indicate it was considerably less severe than several during a series last February, two of which broke windows in Las Vegas.

Presumably today's, like last Sunday's, was a drop from an airplane. The airlanes between here and Albuquerque were ordered cleared of other craft during the night.

Seismographic equipment has been set up in Las Vegas to measure shock waves.

Among the top ranking military men on the scene were Brig. Gen. Clare Armstrong and Brig. Gen. James R. Pierce.

The military observers included a specially selected cadre of 250 officers and men, chosen by the Army from posts throughout the nation.

Atomic tests involving troops are expected Thursday or later by which time members of the Atomic Energy Commission, including Chairman Gordon Dean, should be on hand. Defense Secretary Robert Lovett and top officers also have been invited.

Wiman to Hospital

3-Hour Meet Gives No Hope To Settlement

MUNSAN, Korea, Oct. 30. (AP) —A United Nations truce negotiator said today "we're trying to get this war settled" but the Reds are making "no attempt to get a reasonable solution."

The statement came from Maj. Gen. Henry I. Hodes, chairman of the U. N. truce subcommittee, during the sixth joint subcommittee session at Panmunjom.

The negotiators met three hours but failed to make headway toward creating a Korean cease-fire line. Another meeting is scheduled for 11 a.m. Wednesday (8 p.m. Tuesday CST).

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, U.N. spokesman, said:

"The Communists continued to press for their proposal which would trade indefensible territory in West Korea in the Ongjin area for important military positions along the battlefront. No progress toward a solution was made."

REDS UNREASONABLE

At Panmunjom, within sight of bursting allied shells, Hodes said the Communists "have made no trade, no offer, no attempt to get a reasonable solution.

"They say they will withdraw from the Ongjin and Yonan Peninsulas. This is absolutely meaningless. It makes no difference to us and it makes no difference to them. There isn't any argument for it."

The two peninsulas are west of the battle line. They protrude below the 38th Parallel, old political boundary line between North and South Korea. Ongjin is cut off by water from the rest of South Korea.

The Allis want U.N. troops left in a defensible position along whatever case-fire line is created for the armistice. Their latest proposal is for 2-mile wide buffer zone along present batlle lines. Under the Reds' countrproposal U.N. troops would have to retreat five to 15 miles southward from their present ridges.

A newsman commented to Hodes that the Red plan would mean Allied withdrawal from newly won Heartbreak Ridge on the Eastern Front. The general chief of staff of the U. S. 8th Army replied:

"There are a hell of a lot of Heartbreak Ridges as far as I'm concerned — a couple of hundred of them."

Hodes said the Communist negotiators objected to giving up Kaesong, former site of truce conferences, as asked in the U.N. proposal.

"They said that we are not anywhere near the area," Hodes commented. "That is true today. Prior to the negotiations last July, our people were in as much control of the area as the enemy."

He said the Reds got Kaesong "by default."

WEATHER

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy cloudy and warmer east of Pecos Valley turning colder in Panhandle late this afternoon. Considerable cloudiness with scattered showers and colder Wednesday and in Panhandle, South Plains and upper portions of Pecos Valley eastward tonight. Much colder with low temperatures 30-36 in Panhandle and 36-42 in South Plains tonight.

EAST TEXAS: Partly cloudy and warmer in north and west central this afternoon. Scattered showers and turning colder in northwest tonight and in north and west central Wednesday. Low temperatures 34-38 in Upper Red River valley tonight.

County Judge to Inspect All-Steel Hangar for New Airport

Edgar Taylor, county judge, was authorized by the commissioners court yesterday to go with either Wilbur Ash or John Wilson to Eau Claire, Wis., to inspect an airport hangar for sale.

Judge Taylor said they would probably leave here tomorrow.

The court action came after Ash, partner of the Ash - Wilson & Associates engineering firm, which designed Winston Field, told the commissioners of the hangar which the city of Eau Claire is offering for sale at $27,500.

CAA LETTER

Ash presented the court with a letter from the Civil Aeronautics Administration telling of the offer. The letter explained that the price included loading it on railroad cars for shipment. Total cost, including the freight expense, concrete flooring, and erection on the field, would be less than $40,000, Ash estimated. This would be "a bargain," he said, if the hangar is in good condition.

He further described it as a 50-plane hangar (light aircraft) with overall measurements 130 by 160 by 39 feet, also having a lean-to for rest rooms and a shop. Manufactured by the Butler Manufacturing Co., it is all steel. The letter stated it was purchased as army surplus and had never been uncrated from overseas shipment boxes.

"Pilots and others in Snyder own about 30 planes which are kept in hangars at Big Spring and Sweetwater," Ash said, "and I am certain that at least 30 plane owners would rent space here if we had a hangar. There is no doubt it would pay for itself." He added that it was his understanding rent for small aircraft in the hangars at Sweetwater and Big Spring was about $1 a night, and that rates were graduated larger for bigger planes.

BUILDING COMPLETE

The court also agreed to pay the Norcross Construction Co. $5,224 as final payment on the administration building just completed at the airport. This amount was 10 per cent of the total cost which, according to contract, was to be retained until completion. The other costs were paid as construction progressed.

The commissioners voted also to pay the J. W. Moorman & Son contracting firm, which handled most of the airport project, as much as possible of about $82,000 due and to make arrangements for borrowing the rest.

The county has not yet received all the federal aid appropriation due the county for approximately half the construction costs, Judge Taylor said, and the county will seek to borrow about $20,000 needed to pay Moorman. The county can repay this amount when the rest of the federal appropriations are received.

This will leave a debt to the firm of about $25,200—or 10 per cent of the total contract price—to be paid when the project is finished next spring.

SEEDING, WIRING

The only phases lacking in the project are the seeding of grass and electrical wiring for field light. The grass seeding cannot be done until spring, and the wiring will be done as soon as materials can be purchased. The field's tower beacon is already up; and the county has been awarded priority for electrical materials.

All paving for both runways and taxiways is finished. The administration building is finished except for Venetian blinds which have been ordered and are due to arrive any day.

Dedication of the field has been set for Dec. 12.

POLICE HOLD BACK PICKETS

New York City policemen (right) hold back a surging crowd of pickets (left) to permit about 100 longshoremen wishing to return to work to enter pier 90. The liner Queen Elizabeth docked at the Hudson River pier. The incident was the first major break-through of a picket line in the longshoremen's 15-day strike.

Little Chance For Play Off Between Triple, Quadruple A

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff

DALLAS, Oct. 30. (AP)—When the city conference was being operated in Texas schoolboy football, cries came from the schools in the Class AA that the big boys had formed their own league because they were tired of taking a licking from their brethren in the smaller cities.

The public even protested — it stayed out of the city parks in droves. The city conference lasted three years. Schoolboy football was reclassified with AAAA, AAA, AA and A divisions for state championship purposes.

To crown a state champion ever, however, the Interscholastic League allowed Classes AAAA and AAA to vote on whether their titlists would have a play-off. AAAA voted it down. So, once more came the cry that the big schools were afraid to play the smaller ones.

This is the first season under the new set-up, so it will be apropos to check on the relative strength of the two major divisions of schoolboy football.

There have been 99 games between the two classes. The results can be taken as an accurate indication of relative strength because each class is the same size and there's no question of one showing an advantage through superior force of numbers.

Here is the check:

Of the 104 games, Class AAA teams have won 50, AAAA 44 and there have been five ties.

This is the final check for the season. There will be no more interconference play.

The figures show AAA is about as strong as AAAA. It must be taken into consideration that the top teams of AAAA were better than the top teams of AAA. Odessa, Lubbock, Lamar, Houston, Baytown, Port Arthur, Pampa and Ray of Corpus Christi are considered the top teams of Class AAAA. Temple, Palestine, Stephenville, Breckenridge, Grand Prairie, Gladewater and Brownwood are leaders in Class AAA. Pampa, Lubbock, Ray and Lamar are undefeated; Baytown lost only to Lamar; Port Arthur lost only to Lamar. Temple lost to Baytown, Breckenridge lost to Abilene. The other Class AAA biggies didn't play the top Class AAAA elevens.

But that's drawing the line rather thin.

The two divisions are near enough to each other in strength to call for a play-off of the two champions. The AAAA boys, probably never will agree to it. The coaches don't want to take a chance of having their season ruined by winning their own title then losing to the champion of the so-called lower divisions.

Denver of the Western League is going independent in 1952. It will be interesting to note what the attendance will be. As a farm subsidiary of the Boston Braves, Denver drew over 400,000.

Why is this of particular interest to Texas? Because Texas ball players are going to make up most of the personnel of Denver next season.

Owner Bob Howsam of Denver has been in Texas ten days making player deals and looking for a training site. He bought these players:

Bob Moyer, first baseman; Ray Mink, pitcher-outfielder, and Jack Trench, catcher, from Corpus Christi of the Gulf Coast League.

Bob Ramsey, pitcher, and Joe Tepsic, outfielder, from Harlingen of the Gulf Coast.

Bill Goff, pitcher, from Temple of the Big State League.

Lou Kovalcik, outfielder, from Sherman-Denison of the Big State League.

Lee Roy Jones, pitcher; Ed Santulli, pitcher, and Bill Ankoviak, first baseman, from Austin of the Big State League.

Charley Schmidt, shortstop, from Abilene of the West Texas-New Mexico League.

That means Howsam has four pitchers, three outfielders, a shortstop, two first basemen and a catcher from the Texas circuits.

Pretty good ball club to start with. All were outstanding last season. Tepsic, got $17,000 to sign with Brooklyn in 1946 but refused to go to a minor league club that season. He was bought by Harlingen last May and sold for twice as much as the purchase price.

Fred Hartman of the Baytown Sun ought to make a fortune teller if he ever decided to get out of the sports writing business.

Fred was uncanny in predicting on the games in the Southwest Conference's "upset Saturday" — Oct. 20 — when Texas lost to Arkansas, A&M to TCU and SMU to Rice.

"So out of a blue Saturday Arkansas will rise again," Fred wrote the day before the game. Of Rice he said: "I believe they will stop Benners." He forecast that Rice would rush the SMU passer with three men and have eight players back defending against passes — everyone would accept it as such, and that's what Rice did.

His master stroke was this: "The Frogs will take the Aggie thrusts in stride, and then as the shadows begin to hover over the field, the Purple will rally their forces and in a final surge sweep the Maroon aside." TCU scored 20 points in the last quarter to beat A&M 20-[illegible]

But if Fred had just stopped there he would have been hailed as the swami of all time. He spoiled it a little by picking Texas Tech to beat Baylor. Baylor won 40-20.

But please give the fellow the silver bicycle for coming nearer to predicting that "upset Saturday" than any other known person.

Williamson Puts Illinois In Top Place, Michigan State 2nd

By PAUL B. WILLIAMSON

As the Williamson System anticipated, last week wasn't nearly as upsetting as the previous one. Most of the really big upsets — and some of them were truly astonishing — occurred in lower-bracket ranks.

The System's percentage for the week was 86.1 correct on 363 scores reported, including 44 last ones from previous week.

Because of sheer ability and shake-ups among other leaders Illinois barged to the top spot last week in the Williamson NATIONAL ratings, with a standing of 97.8.

Michigan State moved into second place in slashing Pittsburgh by 53-26, after coming from behind for the third time this fall.

Southern California, in squeaking by Texas Christian by a mere 28-26 score, dropped from No. 1 to No. 3.

Maryland, in running up the biggest score (53-15) by anybody against Cornell U. in many years, jumped to position No. 5.

The remaining five leaders in order were Tech (barely won over Vandy by 8-7), Tennessee (rested against Tennessee Tech by 68-0), California (came back over Oregon State by 35-14), Auburn (confounded Tulane and the experts by 21-0), and Wisconsin (slaughtered Northwestern by 41-0).

The Williamson System, besides ly good picks to its credit last week age on correct had many unusual gaining its good over-all per cent on closely-rated games.

WILLIAMSON 1951 RECORD THROUGH OCTOBER 27 REPORTS

Season	2033	1738	[illegible]	[illegible]
Consistency	2033	1987	12	98.3

Ties were ones inconsistent with pre-game and post-game Williamson preliminary ratings. Prediction and consistency percentages figured without ties. Consistency means that all teams involved in this season's 2033 games reported to the Williamson System to date are ranked as consistently as "unfixable upsets" allow, to put winners-over-losers and tying opponents close together. Number at right in rating table is the CURRENT Williamson rating; at left is consecutive rank in the nation. Difference in ratings rather than in ranking indicates earned comparison of team strengths. Only the 81 leading four-year institutions are listed below and the first 10 Service teams and 10 Junior Colleges in each of those last two groups. Week's record includes 44 late scores from previous weeks.

NOTE: The above 101 teams, leaders in their respective classifications, have played this season in 395 games. In each of only 13 instances was a (Williamson) presently higher rated team defeated by a (Williamson) presently lower rated team and in no instances were there ties between respective opponents whose present ratings are more than 3 rating points apart. That gives a consistency for the above 101 leaders of 96.7 per cent to date, which does not sound like "a big upsetting season to date." That is to say that only about 3 games out of 100 among the leaders to date were actual upsets. Upsets against pre-game opinion and the "line" is something else — but the latter isn't a matter of cold statistics.

Newcastle Is Biggest Threat In Class A

WICHITA FALLS Oct. 30. (AP)—Newcastle continues to roll along as the big threat in District 9-A football.

The Bobcats have defeated Burkburnett, Olney, Throckmorton, Valley View, Jacksboro, Henrietta and Holliday.

No Predictions On Title Taker

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, Oct. 30. (AP) — One fellow turned off the radio and took a nap when Texas A&M had a 14-point lead on TCU going into the last quarter. He awoke and heard that TCU had made 20 points in the final period to win 20-14.

The fellow is going around giving himself a swift kick these days.

Nobody else is known to have left the stadium or turned off the radio on a Southwest Conference football game recently.

Just who's going to win the title and play in the Cotton Bowl New Year's Day will also probably be decided in the last 30 seconds of the last game.

As Jere Hayes, sports editor of the Dallas Times Herald, said the other day: "I can come nearer naming the team that will play the Southwest Conference champion in the Cotton Bowl than the team that will represent the Southwest Conference."

Hayes was talking about Tennessee and Georgia Tech as the hottest prospects for visiting team.

TCU leads the race by a half-game. Baylor is the only undefeated team but it was tied by Texas A&M 21-21.

The Frogs have to play Baylor and Texas — two of the best bets for the title — away from home. Rice, which is in as good shape as Texas looks better off having three of its four remaining games at home — Arkansas, Texas A&M and Baylor.

Baylor scored two touchdowns in the last quarter last week to tie A&M. And it's going on that way all season. Two games have been decided by two points, one by six, one by eight, one by 10 and one by 21.

PICKFORD, Mich. Oct. 30. (AP)—A grim story of battle and death has come from the North Woods.

Two big buck deer, each with 10-point antlers, fought it out lunge for lunge and with knife-sharp hoofs. Both died.

Warring in the mating season is characteristic of bucks. Almost never, woodsmen say, do their fights end in death for both.

Horns of the two animals were locked together so tightly the winner was helpless to free himself.

Carcasses of the 400-pounders were found by Sam Watson, of Iron River, Mich.

Tennessee Takes Over In AP Poll, Baylor Running Eighth

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. (AP)—Tennessee remained a solid choice as the top team in the country in the Associated Press fifth weekly football poll today.

The unbeaten Vols, who swamped Tennessee Tech Saturday, 68-0, garnered 1,213 points and 59 first-place votes from the sports writers across the nation.

Trailing in second place was Michigan State, the runnerup last week. The Spartans notched 1,131 points but had only 25 first-place votes. They defeated Pitt, 53-26.

The rest of the first ten included Illinois, No. 3; Maryland, No. 4; Georgia Tech, No. 5; Princeton, No. 6; Southern California, No. 7; Baylor, No. 8; California No. 9 and Wisconsin, No. 10.

The first six teams are among the nation's undefeated and untied elevens. Southern Cal has been beaten once, while Baylor has been tied.

Stanford, with a 6-0 mark, could do no better than eleventh. San Francisco, another team with an unblemished record — 6-0 — is No. 20.

Only one newcomer joined the first ten. That was Wisconsin, after its 41-0 triumph over previously undefeated Northwestern. Texas, which scored a 14-6 victory over Rice, dropped out of the select circle, winding up 12th.

Georgia Tech, which had been hot on the trail of Tennessee and Michigan State, dropped to fifth. Southern California and Baylor also slipped one notch each.

As a reward for its startling 53-15 shellacking of Cornell, Princeton jumped from eighth to sixth. Illinois and Maryland also advanced.

The first ten, with team records in parenthesis:

Team	Points
1. Tennessee (5-0)	1,213
2. Michigan State (6-0)	1,131
3. Illinois (5-0)	1,022
4. Maryland (5-0)	905
5. Georgia Tech (6-0)	904
6. Princeton (5-0)	891
7. Sou. Cal. (6-1)	664
8. Baylor (4-0-1)	345
9. California (5-1)	319
10. Wisconsin (3-1-1)	287

TALK OF THE TOWN

By SUE HOLMES

Before it's time to turn another leaf on the calendar and bid farewell to October, here's one of William Morris's sonnets to mediate for a few sentimental moments:

OCTOBER

O love, turn from the unchanging sea and gaze
Down these grey slopes upon the year grown old,
A-dying mid the autumn-scented haze,
That hangeth o're the hollow in the wold,
Where the wind - bitten ancient elms infold
Grey church, long barn, orchard, and red - roofed stead,
Wrought in dead days for men a long while dead.
Come do, Own love, may not our hands still meet,
Since still we live today, forgetting June,
Forgetting May, deeming October sweet - -
O harken, hearken! through the afternoon,
The grey tower sings a strange old tinklin tune!
Sweet, sweet and sad, the toiling year's last breath,
Too satiate of life to strive with death.

Besides giving us poetry, Morris is credited with raising the standard of household taste both in England, his home, and in America. His varied occupations included manufacturing wall paper, stained glass and artistic furniture ... and of course, the Morris chair.

To look at patched yards the last couple of months one would think flowers an impossibility. But flowers in abundance bedecked the Country Club yesterday at the Garden Club flower show.

The colorful array began at the registry table where a copper bowl held an arrangement of shades of rose mums, cannas, dahlias, coleus foliage and castor bean leaves. The register book itself was colorful with a sprig of sumac foliage lending the harvest theme.

Mr. and Mrs. HUNTER PENDLETON had quite a once-in-a-life time present for their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Oct. 16. Their daughter, Mrs. FRED STEPHENS of Fort Worth, gave birth to a red-headed daughter, Susan Locke Stephens, at one minute past midnight.

Had the new granddaughter made her appearance a minute or so earlier, Mrs. Pendleton says the present wouldn't have been so timely.

Gen. Clark Well Qualified For Post At Vatican If Approved

By FRANK O'BRIEN
(For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON Oct. 30 (AP)—If Gen. Mark Clark becomes the first Ambassador of the United States to the Vatican he will be ambassador to one of the youngest states in the world.

The State of the Vatican City, as it is officially known dates only from 1929. But its monarch is Pope Piux XII and the papacy is one of the oldest sovereignties in the world. The present city state was established — as a temporal kingdom of the Pope — by agreement in 1929 with Mussolini then dictator of Italy.

Gen. Clark if he becomes ambassador to the Roman Catholic Church state will be a diplomat at the only country in the world that hasn't even enough room to house its official guests.

Yet he will be a representative to a world power.

Those are a few of the contradictions that make the question of diplomacy with the Vatican confusing apart from purely religious considerations.

President Truman has asked the Senate to approve sending Clark to the Vatican. The Senate has to give its consent. Clark would be the first full U. S. ambassador to the papal court.

The decision involves something new in U. S. diplomacy. Leaving aside the religious dispute it is a interesting decision because of the unique character of the state to which Clark would be accredited.

The general if he becomes ambassador will have no surprises in store for him. As the World War Two conqueror of Rome, he is familiar with the Vatican set-up and is a personal friend of Pope Pius XII although Clark is an Episcopalian.

The Vatican City state consists of but 108.7 acres. Its population is only a little over 1000. But because the Pope is the supreme religious authority to the world's Roman Catholics he has a powerful voice around the world — inside and outside the Iron Curtain — in public opinion.

So an ambassador to the Vatican is envoy to one of the world's great powers.

Johnson Urges UMT Action

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (AP)—Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) said today he would urge that universal military training legislation be given top priority when Congress returns next year.

The new national security training commission urged Sunday that UMT be started as soon as possible. The commission was established by Congress when it passed, at the session just ended, legislation approving the general idea of UMT. The commission was set up to plan UMT.

Under the law, the Senate and House Armed Services Committees must go right to work on the commission's UMT plan after the new session begins. UMT cannot go into effect until Congress approves a detailed plan. Several lawmakers have predicted a hot fight over the enabling legislation.

Johnson, chairman of the military preparedness subcommittee and an assistant Democratic Senate leader, said "a victory is now in sight in the struggle for a realistic military manpower policy for the United States."

"In these troubled times," he said, "I believe that legislation to establish a permanent military manpower policy should have the very highest priority.

"Final passage of the legislation will serve notice to the aggressors that America is ready to settle down for the long pull.

"I believe it will have a deterrent effect on aggression and, at the same time, will assure America's young men of the fairest treatment that can be accorded them when they are faced by the grim necessity of carrying out their obligations to serve their country."

Two Of Family Die In Crash

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 30. (AP)—A mother, trapped 20 hours in a wrecked plane with her dead husband, told Monday night of watching her son die as help approached.

Mrs. Maye Mortensen, 33, and her daughter, Kathleen, 5, were pulled alive but seriously injured from the jammed-up wreckage.

Richard G. Mortensen, 33, was killed outright in the crash, and the son, Russell, 8, died hours later of a skull fracture.

The Seattle family crashed Sunday night on a wooded ridge near here while returning in their private plane from Bellingham, 80 miles north. They were not located until Monday afternoon.

"I knew Dick was dead," said Mrs. Mortensen; "But Rusty lived for a long time as we lay there. I believe he died just a little while before the rescuers came. Perhaps if they had come sooner he would have lived."

THE STARS

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 30. (AP)—Robert Taylor's career, which resumed none too strongly after his return from the navy, is to get a hypo.

It's a high-powered injection, too. His studio has such faith in his draw that he is coming out in $12,000,000 worth of pictures. That's the studio's figure and it could be correct.

The big item is "Quo Vadis," which MGM says will cost $8 million before it brings in a nickle. The figure sounds a trifle high, but then doesn't everything else these days?

The other films are quickies compared to that one. Even so, "Westward the Women" and "Ivanhoe" cost over $2,000,000 each.

Taylor doesn't seem overawed, but he indicated he is much happier than he has been in years.

"I wasn't exactly happy with the pictures I had after I got out of the Navy," he remarked.

His last five pictures have been made in England, Italy and the rugged West. All were costume pictures requiring his presence nearly every shooting day.

"I thought I would have some time off on 'Ivanhoe,' which I just made in England," he said. "But when I was still on the boat, they messaged that they had gotten all the scenes without me out of the way and could I start to work immediately? I told them, 'Sure, just slap a wig on me and I'll be ready to go.' And that's just what they did."

Taylor said he would like his next picture to be a modern story filmed in Culver City. But that's not a requisite.

"Anywhere they want to send me, I'll go," he said.

OLD TIMBERS IN CHINA ROOM

Old timbers of the White House, removed during recent remodeling, are used by workmen for paneling and trimming in the ground floor China Room of the executive mansion. This room was used by past Presidents to display china used on special occasions. The photo made by the Department of the Interior earlier this month, was released by the White House.

Boyle for Halloween As Cure For Global State of Nerves

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. (AP)—The kids have had Halloween too long.

It is time for the grownups to take it over for themselves.

Halloween gives a chance to let off steam. In the tension - filled world of today who needs a holiday from reality most — adults or children? Why, adults, of course.

They should have a Halloween, too, a day on which every worm in the land could turn and lash out in petty revenge against the small frictions and daily responsibilities.

Have the neighbor's kids — the neighbor who always borrows things from you — been soaping your windows on recent Halloweens? Well, go over to his house and soap his new picture window with signs saying, "Stop, thief!" or "I never yet bought anything I could borrow."

How about that bus driver who always greets you with a surly snarl? Surprise him by squirting him in the eye with a water gun. Joy will spread throughout the vehicle.

And the bus driver himself? He can hand out change in pennies to all the passengers who insist on handing him a dollar bill.

But it is in the office where adults can enjoy most hilarious Halloween. Imagine the insulting slogans you can chalk up on the men's room mirror!

Does the boss go for cigars? Light him up an exploding cigar. When it blows up his jaws drop open, say "Gee I made a mistake."

And the boss himself could enjoy a "real get-even" day, going from desk to desk, telling the hired hands, "Never mind the labor relations board today, Muscle head. I'm going to tell you a few things I think about you."

On the way home you could stop at the butcher's and . . but, no, every man has his own daydream of how to get even with a butcher these days.

But you get the idea of the kind of Halloween grownups need?

Only one thing about it. After a Halloween like that you'd have to follow it up the next morning with a "National Forgiveness day."

Otherwise the world would be in even greater chaos than it is now.

Socialism Robs British Hospitals Of Bequests

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 30. (AP)—British Socialism has cost two London hospitals bequests left them by a Newport millionaire.

The State Supreme Court voided gifts Monday to the London Hospital and the Elizabeth Garrett Anderson Hospital, because they are operated under the National Health Service Act of 1946.

The first represented the income from $35,000 worth of real estate.

The court ruled that because of nationalization it could not be reasonably sure the money would go to charity as specified by the will.

Churchill Fills Highest Posts

LONDON, Oct. 30. (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill's cabinet was shaping fast today as Britons wondered where the Tory chief would make his first domestic policy move.

Churchill was expected to come to London from his country home for continuing talks with other party men today.

He already has selected eight cabinet men which is slated to meet for the first time Wednesday, shortly before the first session of the newly elected Parliament.

Indications were that Churchill's cabinet may total 16 or 17 members. He has nearly 70 more key government posts to fill.

The new Prime Minister's party won a scanty majority of 18 seats Thursday, has been assembling his new government since he took office Friday.

The aging Churchill already has been making preliminary moves abroad. Britain's ambassador to Iran, Sir Francis Shepherd, was summoned home to discuss with his new boss, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, the deadlocked British-Iranian oil dispute.

Eden also was planning a new British note to Egypt, which is trying to force British forces out of the Suez Canal area and the Sudan. There was talk that Britain's envoy to Cairo, Sir Ralph Stevenson, also might be called home for conferences.

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express demanded today the introduction of an emergency budget to provide a revision in the tax setup.

The strongly Conservative Daily Mail said the government's first job is to tackle "finance and food — or the kitty and the kitchen."

Siamese Twins Born To Couple In Ohio

DAYTON, O., Oct. 30. (AP)—Siamese twin boys, born Sunday to Mrs. Wesley Galyon, 25, were doing fine in an incubator today. The hospital disclosed their birth Monday.

Joined at the abdomen, they weighed 11 pounds, 11¼ ounces at birth. Doctors said they have not decided if they could be separated.

"We were expecting twins and were hoping for them," said the 27-year-old father, "but this came as a terrific blow to us."

The Galyons have two other children, a boy 1, and a girl, 12.

Commissioners Pay $87,659 To Road Builder

The county commissioners yesterday afternoon voted to pay $87,659.11 to W. O. Pelphrey of Fort Worth, as second payment due the contractor on the road project under way in precinct No. 1.

Pelphrey is paid according to his contract as the project progresses. The payment is for work already completed on a 26-mile [illegible] retained until final completion. He had previously been paid $53,215.83 as the first month's payment on the seven - month contract.

The court also authorized that the Lubbock firm of Hasie & Green, engineer on the program, be paid $2,353 as 40 per cent of the total engineering fee for work on the Pelphrey phase of the program. The fee is six per cent of the total construction cost of about 77 miles handled by the firm.

The firm was previously paid 30 per cent of its total program fee when the surveying was completed, 30 per cent when plans were completed, and is being paid the remaining 40 per cent as the construction is being completed.

George P. Green of the firm discussed with the court the manner of letting contracts for the rest of the program under the Hasie & Green handling. No action was taken on the method of contract letting. Green advised that contracts should be let as soon as possible in order to have the roads ready to asphalt next summer. Otherwise, they may have to wait until the summer of 1953 he said, because asphalt cannot be applied in cold weather.

The court is to decide whether to let the remainder in two contracts or more. Whether to issue time warrants to provide funds for part of the roads was also discussed. The cost of construction is higher than was anticipated when the county voted a bond issue of $12,500,000 to pay for the program, and consequently, there will not be enough funds from the bonds to pave all the roads proposed in the program.

90% For! 10% Against

Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Time to settle...

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employes and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employes Accept

Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employes—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse

But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employes. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employes are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?

They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?

Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $.34 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19½ cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?

The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employes covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?

The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employes in yard service. The employes can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?

The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated

The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed

With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employes.
