PERIOD OF ANARCHY CONFRONTS MEXICO

BELIEVED FURTHER REBEL SUCCESS WILL PROMOTE LAW-LESSNESS.

DIAZ IS STILL DOMINANT

Reports of Rebel Victories at Juarez and Elsewhere Received—Jealousy May Endanger Success.

(By Paul Wooten in the Dallas News.) City of Mexico, May 10.—That it will require almost a miracle to save the Diaz government from complete collapse is admitted by the most conservative men here, regardless of their political affiliations. Justly or unjustly, the success of the revolution seems certain.

It is not true that all the people are with the Maderistas. There is a considerable portion who will and are giving their fortunes and their lives to the support of the present administration. Nevertheless the great task of the Maderistas from now on is not going to be the military occupation of the important points of the Republic, but the prevention of anarchy in the sections where the government authorities have been driven out. The reconstruction period which must follow the fighting promises to be a sad epoch in the country's history.

Federalists Still Resisting.
The federalists have not given up yet and still count on resources sufficient to make further insurrecto victories the result of hard and soul trying work. But with the rebellion blazing at nearly every point of the horizon it is not possible that anything will satisfy the demands of the insurrectos other than a complete change in the government.

Added strength is given to the view that the government will keep up its resistance by editorial appeal in the government organ, Imperial this morning.

"The worst government is better than an absence of government," it says. This is the basis of a defense of the course of President Diaz. The terrors of anarchy are pointed out with all the resulting horrors.

The looseness of the Maderista organization is evident on all sides and factional jealousies are manifest. Even if Gen. Diaz should step out of office today there is a great question whether the combat would cease for a single day. Gen. Madero is not believed to be a man of strength, but rather to have been caught on a wave of public opinion, which was swelled by government persecution, and thus to have become the head of a force which he can control and has not the ability to direct. His bravery is undoubted, as is the purity of his motives. The idea of reforming Mexico expressed by Gen.
Diaz in the Creelman interview two years ago appealed to him, and regardless of the fact that the government officials stooped to the use of every influence against the campaign he started, he kept on. This minute he is in a position to dictate the policy of the present Ministry in exchange for his personal effort for the restoration of peace.

Rebel Successes Reported.
While today all interest was centered on the events at Juarez, from the interior comes news of the occupation by the rebels of towns in the majority of the states of the Republic. The importance of many such captures is insignificant, as they are Indian villages without garrison or means of defense and offer little opposition to looters.

Government officials announced yesterday that peace in Morelos and Guerrero had been practically established by an agreement with Gen. Figueroa, leader of the Guerro rebels. Gen. Figueroa, leader in Morelos, who it is said to control 2,000 rebels, today sent a bitter letter to the War Department denouncing the action of Figueroa's in treating at all with the Federalists.
He says that all negotiations must go to Madero. Word from Figueroa acknowledges that the negotiations are

Maine Governor May Speak At Anti-Statewide Rally

Houston, May 11.—Representative Isaac Standish returning today from Maine announced that Governor Frederick Plaford of that state would probably be a speaker at the Fort Worth anti-statewide rally.

$350,000 Hotel To Be Built.
By Associated Press.
Corpus Christi, Texas, May 11.—A movement for a $350,000 hotel here progressed to the point where it is expected that contracts for its erection will soon be awarded.

TWO MOTORCYCLISTS SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

Special to The Times.
Fort Worth, Texas, May 11.—Earle Magill, 1604 Illinois avenue, a collector for the Star-Telegram, was probably fatally injured, and E. R. Mc-Comb, a bicycle repairer at 1417 Cooper street, was seriously hurt in a motorcycle accident at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Jennings and Pennsylvania avenues. The two men were riding double on the motorcycle, Magill perched on the handlebars.

WOOL AND HIDE RATES SUBJECT OF INQUIRY

Comprehensive Investigation Ordered By Interstate Commerce Commission.

By Associated Press.
Washington, May 11.—A comprehensive investigation into the alleged unreasonable rates on wool, hides and pelts from western points to the east was ordered by interstate commerce commission. Today the inquiry will effect these commodities throughout the country.

PAID $30 TO HEAR A PARROT.

An Atlanta Woman's Pet Talked 500 Miles Over a Telephone.

Atlanta, Ga., May 11.—Overcome by a desire to hear the notes of her parrot's voice Mrs. W. H. Wall of Atlanta, while on a visit to Cincinnati last week, employed the long distance telephone to converse with her feathered pet which was pining in Atlanta, five hundred miles away.

When connections had been made between Cincinnati and Atlanta Polly was perched near the mouthpiece while a servant held the receiver to the bird's ear.

When the mistress spoke Polly responded. The bird talked quite freely.
Other members of the household could not get the other side of the conversation, but they think from the expression on Polly's countenance it ran much to "Doll Baby" and other endearing terms.

Incidentally the connection cost $50.
It was worth it, according to Mrs.
Wall and Polly.

progressing, that no agreement has been signed.

Concentrating Government Forces.

Federal forces throughout the country are being concentrated in the state capitals, as the impossibility of successful resistance in the interior in small bands has been demonstrated.

The battle is still raging at Atlixco, the key of Puebla. The Campana foundry near Atlixco has been taken by the rebels to be devoted to the manufacture of munitions of war.

Torreon is still bravely resisting.
Durango is doomed. The rebels are closing in on San Luis Potosi. A terrific explosion of dynamite yesterday destroyed a portion of the barracks of that city. Parras, Coahuila, the home of the Maderos, is now entirely in the hands of rebels after an eleven-day fight.

WICHITA FALLS YOUTH WINS DISTINCTION

R. E. Huff, Jr., Awarded Medal as Best Drilled Cadet at Peacock's Military College.

Mr. R. E. Huff today received a telegram from Professor Wesley Peacock of Peacock's Military College of San Antonio, Texas, stating that his son, R. E. Huff, Jr., had won the Gold Medal in the competition drill for the best individual drilled cadet in the school.

The pupils of Peacock's Military College have the advantage of a United States army officer being stationed with them and owing to the recent concentration of United States soldiers at Fort Sam Houston near San Antonio, the pupils of the school have been exceedingly anxious to make a good showing, and we are glad that a Wichita county boy took the medal.

The school closes this week for the term.
Mexican and Confederate Wars Veteran Dies.
By Associated Press.
Vernon, Texas, May 11.—B. G. Kelly, aged 85, a Mexican and Confederate veteran died here last night. He had numerous relatives throughout Texas.

When the machine struck Miss Elah Hale, the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hale, 716 Jennings avenue, she was thrown to the ground and severely bruised while the two cyclists were thrown head first to the pavement.

The young girl was taken to her home while McComb and Magill were placed in Rev. Frank Norris' automobile and hurried to the All Saints hospital. Miss Hale escaped serious injuries.

Mr. Magill's wife is a patient at the hospital having been operated on recent for appendicitis. Knowledge of her husband's injury was kept from her although they occupied adjoining wards.

The motorcyclists were speeding along Jennings avenue when the accident occurred.

INSURRECTOS WILL DEMAND THAT DIAZ FIX EXACT DATE FOR HIS RESIGNATION

They Will Also Probably Ask That They be Allowed to Name Four Members of the Cabinet—Conservative Leaders Urge Renewal of Peace Negotiations—Others Plan Vigorous Campaign

Juarez, Mexico, May 11.—The Insurrectos announced today that they plan to hold Juarez and to prevent further fighting here by sending a force southward to meet Rabago, probably at Casas Grandes. Juarez is quiet today. General Navarro spent the night in the same house with Madero. Navarro is not visible much about town today because it is said several Insurrectos cherish a grudge against him for the alleged bayonetting of the wounded by Federals in previous battles. The Insurrectos, by the capture, have come into possession of 450,000 rounds of ammunition, several machine guns and field pieces, seven hundred mauser rifles and enough fighting sundries to wage war for some time to come. Conservative leaders are inclined to renew peace overtures and the go between, Obregon and Braniff, are seeking a way to reopen negotiations. The Insurrecto demands this time will be stronger, probably will be that Diaz fix the exact time for his resignation.

The Insurrectos already have 300 men at Casas Grandes. The rebel officers have strict orders that no federal prisoners are to be harmed and the previous discipline maintained by them indicates that no misdeeds are likely to occur. Some of the leaders are eager to pursue a conflict throughout Mexico with increasing vigor, not withstanding the attitude of the most conservative governing power.

Rebel political leaders went over their new demands with Madero in his new capital today. It is probable that they will now demand a real participation in government affairs, including the naming of four cabinet portfolios and fourteen governors.
The rebels claim their demands are merely steps toward a gradual readjustment of the administration and will not lead to anarchy. They say an automatic transfer of power to their own political party will follow in a short time.

In having publicly announced that they will consent to the naming of de la Barra for the all important postof provisional president, Dr. Gomez claims the rebels—practically—have consented to a continuation in power of the present government.

The rebels claim to have information from Mexico City that Diaz has not participated in some of the government's most important moves and that Limantour and the cabinet have assumed full control.

General Orozco and his men at the international bridge this morning refused to allow any one to cross from El Paso because of the American soldiers refusal to permit him and his officers to cross into El Paso last night to accept the invitation of Mayor Kelly of El Paso to a banquet. The situation regarding the passing between the cities is becoming aggravated.

DISPENSARY TO FIGHT FOR LIFE

Referendum Vote On New Prohibition Law Being Petitioned.

Special to the Times.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 11.—The state liquor dispensary, which has been thrice killed and twice revived is to have still another chance for its life as a result of the circulation of petitions for a referendum on the new prohibition enforcement law passed at the last session of the legislature, which provides among other things for the repeal of the entire dispensary law. The referendum is made possible by the fact that the bill was passed without the emergency section. The emergency probably could have been added to the bill, but was omitted at Governor Bruce's request, in order that time might be given for winding up the affairs of the dispensary. The bill was to become effective on June 9.

John M. Hayes, who has been closely connected with the dispensary as assistant enforcement attorney, filed the notice of the circulation of the petitions with the secretary of state and seems to be taking the lead in the movement, but just who is back of it seems to be something of a mystery.
Both prohibitionists and anti-prohibitionists disclaim any connection with it.

Dr. John Threadgill, who is at the head of the Sons of Washington, says positively that that organization has nothing to do with it and declares furthermore that no financial assistance can be obtained from the source outside the state which have financed previous anti-prohibition campaigns.
Senator Harry Beeler, who had charge of the local option campaign on the east side of the state last year, is strenuously opposing a referendum on the present bill or anything else that would continue the dispensary in operation. H. T. Laubach, attorney for the Anti-Saloon league, says that he does not expect to worry about the proposed referendum until the petitions are actually filed with the secretary of state, and that there will be time enough to organize a fight against it then.

Without strong financial backing, it is believed that it will be very difficult to get the required number of signers to the referendum petitions. In the short time now remaining and very great doubts are expressed as to whether the movement will ever get beyond the petition stage. The petitions ask the governor to submit the question either at the next general election or at a special election to be held on September 5, 1911. If the required number of signers should be obtained, it would of course have the effect of suspending the operation of the law until a vote could be taken.

FURNITURE SCATTERED IN A RUNAWAY

Occupant Thrown From Wagon and L.
E. McConnell Slightly Injured.

McConnell Bros. delivery horse ran away yesterday afternoon as a result of which L. E. McConnell has a badly bruised knee, a cooking stove was torn to pieces and several pieces of furniture were scattered along the alley back of the store. The wagon was not injured and the animal was stopped before damage other than that indicated above was done.

It seems the horse became frightened just as they were starting to make a delivery and in turning quickly Mr. McConnell and two boys who were in the wagon with him were thrown to the ground, both boys escaping unhurt.
The cook stove which was the only piece of goods injured, was literally torn to pieces.

Elks Show a Scream of Fun and Melody from Start to Finish

A scream of fun and melody from the rising of the curtain until the pistol smoke ended. Huda, Hawkins Ball, adequately describes the third annual Elks Minstrel at the Wichita Theatre Wednesday night and there is every indication that tonight's performance will surpass the first.

Every seat in the theatre was occupied last night and the performance was a big success from every viewpoint.

The black face comedians, eight in number, were grotesquely and gorgeously costumed, and their comment on local and personal topics following the opening song by Clint Draper, "Listen to That Jungle Band," were original funnygrams that kept the house in one fit of laughter after another.

Alex Brittan acted as interlocutor and the comedians included Claud Woods, Frank Griffin, Wes Clasper, M. A. Brin, Wade Hampton, Abe Marcus, F. A. Gaston and E. Leopold.
Solos, both humorous and sentimental contributed to the program that closed with Huda Hawkins Ball, which must be seen to be appreciated.

EASTERN BOND MEN VISIT CITY

WILL MAKE TRIP OVER NORTH-WESTERN TO VIEW PROPOS-ED EXTENSIONS.

SPECIAL LEAVES TODAY

Men Here Represent Bond People Who Are Interested in Securities of Wichita Falls Route Lines.

A party of eastern capitalists arrived in the city today and accompanied by Mr. Kell and other officials of the Wichita Falls Route, left this afternoon on a special train for a trip over the Northwestern, the objective point being Hammond, from which place the proposed extension to Woodward, mentioned which was made in yesterday's Times, will be made.

The party, the members of which have invested largely in the securities of this road, are here, it is understood, in connection with the proposed extension of the line and their presence would indicate that the work is to be undertaken at an early date. That this is contemplated was outlined in an interview with Mr. Kemp on yesterday and it may be expected that active operations in connection with contemplated improvements by the road will be begun at once.

Prior to leaving over the Northwestern the party visited Lake Wichita in a special car in company with Mr.
Kemp to take a look at this popular pleasure resort and to note the extensive improvements being made.

CARS WILL BE OPEATED TO THE NEW BALL PARK

The extension of the street car line to the new ball park has been completed and cars will now be operated to the entrance on the occasion of week-day games, thus making it much more convenient for those who wish to attend.

In this connection it is announced by the management of the traction company that special cars will be used for passengers to the baseball games and these will be in addition to the regular cars operated for the general public. The baseball cars only will be run to the park and those who take the regular cars will have to walk from the main car line or pay the extra fare. The special cars will be conspicuously marked and it will be well for the public to bear in mind this arrangement in order to save inconvenience.

It is also announced that the special cars and trailers will be held at the ball park in readiness for the return trip to the city immediately after the game.

TO MAKE KANSAS A REAL SAHARA

DRY AS A BONE TO BE THE MOT-TO OF GOVERNOR STUBBS.
LAW TO BE ENFORCED.

OUST UNWILLING OFFICERS

County Officers Who Won't Enforce the Prohibitory Law Will Be Ousted—Penitentiary Sentence Law to Be in Operation Next Week.

Topeka, May 11.—The campaign against the liquor interests in Crawford and Cherokee counties last week is only the beginning of a general cleanup of the state under the direction of Governor Stubbs and Attorney General Dawson. Five special agents of the governor have been gathering evidence of violations of the prohibitory law two months. The jump into the southeast corner of the state was only the beginning. The governor has the evidence for the same sort of a crusade in half a dozen other counties in Kansas.

"I have been planning this work with the attorney general and the officers of the state temperance union several months," said the governor today. "There will be no let up in the enforcement of the law this summer and Kansas will be dryer than it ever has been before. I am going to see that the law is enforced strictly up to the letter."

"In most of the counties the local officials are doing good work, and only occasional help is needed. If they need help they can have it. I am getting letters by the score from different counties telling of liquor violations.
As fast as possible the complaints are being investigated. If the county officials do not take care of the violators the matter will be in first class working order, and I believe we will be able to get someone who will do the business."

"Kansas has tolerated the bootlegger, speakeasy, basement, attic and every other kind of liquor violation too long. It must stop if the state has any power to be driven out of business and they are going to stay out.
I believe that is as definite as it is possible to make it. The attorney general and the help I have hired to assist him will visit every county where there is persistent violation of the law and they will stay until the liquor men are willing to be good or are put where they cannot violate the law."

The statute book will be published next week and it is expected that this will have a considerable effect on the bootlegger, as the penitentiary term law becomes effective at that time.
The law provides that if any person is convicted the second time of violating the liquor laws that the punishment for the second offense is one year in prison instead of sixty days in jail and $100 fine. Both the first and second convictions must come after the publication of the statute book. It is believed that the law will not be needed very often, as most jointkeepers have no particular hankering to serve a term in the penitentiary. The statute of limitations does not run on prohibitory violations.

ALLEGED MURDERER OF THREE WOMEN TO HANG

Special to the Times.
Savannah, Ga., May 11.—J. C. Hunter, the alleged murderer of three women, is to die on the gallows in the Savannah jail tomorrow. Hunter's alleged victims were his wife, Mrs. Maggie Hunter, and Mrs. Amada Gribble and her daughter, Mrs. Ohlander. The tragedy occurred in the Gribble home on December 19, 1909. Mrs. Hunter is said to have had trouble with her husband and was staying temporarily at the Gribble home. The neighbors found the three women in the house, their skulls crushed in from blows with a hammer.
A storm of feeling threatened the city.
Owing to the suspicion that a negro was guilty of the murders a general raid was made by the authorities on all the negro resorts in Savannah and a half thousand negroes were taken into custody. Later, suspicion related to Hunter as the perpetrator of the outrage. He was convicted of the murder of his wife and sentenced to death. His case was carried to the highest courts, but the efforts to save him from the gallows have proven fruitless.

TEXAS EDITORS MEET AT PORT LAVACA

Port Lavaca, Tex., May 11.—Newspaper editors and publishers of the Lone Star State gathered here in force today for the annual meeting of the Texas Press Association. The forenoon was occupied with the exchange of greetings and the annual address of the president, J. P. Ransome, Jr., of Cleburne. The business sessions began this afternoon and will continue until the end of the week. The entertainment programme is the most elaborate ever prepared for a meeting of the association and provides numerous features for the visiting ladies as well as the members of the association.

In his address President Ransome said:
"There are some things for which the press of Texas has a right to be thankful. The right of contract has been restored through the intelligent and persistent efforts of Senator Perkins and other friends of the press.
Governor Colquitt's very kindly attitude upon this measure, his platform utterances, his remarks upon the stamp and his friendliness in permitting the bill as amended to become a law, should be commended. This return to us of our inherent right is a vindication of the press of Texas from the unwarranted attacks and false charges of corruption made by cheap politicians and demagogues. The editors of Texas are as honest, as patriotic and as fearlessly independent a lot of gentlemen as you will find in any other profession or calling. They are contributing more largely in proportion to their capital than any other class of citizens to the upbuilding of the educational, the moral, the civic and the commercial interests of the state."

"During the coming contest over statewide prohibition there will be members of this association who will differ as to what is for the best interests of the state. Some zealots outside the calling will go so far as to cry subsidized press. I recommend that while we conduct our editorial columns our conscience dictates that we bear in mind at all times that we will be citizens of Texas, neighbors, and ought to be friends, long after the smoke of the battle shall have cleared away. So let's be careful of our language according to our fellow citizens the same honesty of intent that we feel ourselves. Then the accusation 'subsidized press' will be as futile as it was made during the agitation of the anti-pass law. No matter which way the election goes, Texas will march on to her great destiny as radiant as the sun and as matchlessly beautiful as the lily whose heart is bathed in sparkling dew drops and there will be plenty of work left for all of us to do in peace and harmony."

"Let us strive to give Texas a clean press, not shrinking or dodging real news, but minimizing those dastardly deeds committed by moral perverts, the acts that affect the sacredness of the home, and the misdirected conduct of the unfortunates of the underworld, those poor creatures and their depraved companions, who have stepped beyond the light into the shadow, where sin, shame, sadness and sorrow side by side. The world is full of good deeds, noble efforts, commendable sacrifices, civic advancement, educational uplift, commercial achievements and everywhere there is the good, the beautiful and the pure to be written about and applauded."

KANSAS MAYORESS TO FIGHT COUNCIL

Arkansas City, Kas., May 10.—May-oress Ella Wilson of Hunnewell, Kas., is certainly having her troubles. It now appears that the city council, composed of 5 men, are going to refuse to meet with her at a recently appointed place. Monday night the first meeting was to have been held for which notices calling attention to the time and place had been posted by the mayoress. This formal notice was made upon the advice of the city attorney. Mrs. Wilson is in possession of all the city records, they having been turned over to her by the former city clerk.

At the appointed hour, Mrs. Wilson and the city clerk, Mrs. Hilton, resulting appointed, appeared at the place designated in the notice and waited patiently for the council to assemble.
After an hour had elapsed a messenger appearing with word from the council that they had assembled in a certain bedroom designated in the second story of the city hotel and asked her to bring the records and the city clerk and meet with them. Mrs. Wilson took it as a rank insult and inasmuch as there was no quorum present she adjourned the meeting until Monday night, May 15, notices to this effect having been posted by the mayoress, and she proposes to at least have the temporary quarters and have the council chamber at a proper place.

Mrs. Wilson today said she had put the matter up to the county attorney of Sumner county, who in turn called attention of the attorney general to the action of the very obstreperous members of the Hunnewell council.
Upon being asked today what the council meant by such action, Mrs. Wilson said that she did not know, unless it was to discredit her in a manner that would tend to make a laughing stock of the present administration. "However," says Mrs. Wilson, "I intend to stay with the situation now that I am elected, in spite of all, the council can do and I will see that they attend to the duties of their offices correctly or I will certainly have the governor to bring action to have them ousted from office."

What will happen next Monday night is hard to predict. In this connection, however, it is said that some of the councilmen propose to resign if they are compelled to serve with a woman for mayor. Members of the council refuse to say whether they will meet on the Rohatch's Mineral Water. is highly recommended by physicians and patrons who have tested its merita, for indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, kidney and bladder trouble.

This water stimulates the secretions of the stomach, increases digestion and favors a more complete absorption of the food, and prevents the action of germs that cause typhoid and other infectious diseases.
This water can be purchased at the well or delivered in jugs or cases.
This well is located one mile south of Alamo school building in Floral heights, two deliveries daily morning and afternoon. G. J. Rohatch, Own-

Those Mexican insurgents evidently feared that Diaz resignation was of the Bailey kind.

The Tenth Commandment has been broken on Erie avenue. Furthermore, a woman not only coveted her neighbor's servant, but by the power of coin of the republic has possessed her, and the way of it has broken a lifelong friendship, dampened a bridge party and set many gossip-tongues to arguing the affair in that section of Tioja. It all happened thus: Mrs. B. had a negro maid whom she described as a jewel. She engaged the girl several years ago, when she was green from Virginia, and trained her carefully and painstakingly. As the maid waxed more capable her wages were increased until she was receiving $5 per week. She seemed happy and contented until a few weeks ago, when she announced suddenly that she was going to leave. She said that she had been offered $6.50 per week elsewhere, but she would not tell where. Mrs. B. argued and pleaded, but she was unwilling to enter into a monetary competition by the estimated wealth of 108 citizens of the little city of Wichita, Texas, is placed at $43,000,000, which if true, makes it the richest city of its size in the United States. There are eight millionaires, forty worth $500,000 and sixty who give their wealth at or above $250,000 each. The population of Wichita is less than 4,000 people, and the total assessed value of Wichita county for the year 1910 is given at $11,286,000. From this it seems that much of the wealth possessed by the citizens of Wichita is not located there, but if so, then it is very evident that they are past-masters at the art of tax-dodging.

again raising the girl's wages, and she left.

The negro took her departure. Now a great many women on Erie avenue are arguing the pro and con of the affair.—Philadelphia Record.

The stockholders in the Frederick Fair Association state that their stock has paid a dividend of 25 per cent each year since the institution has been in operation. Frederick has only two railroads and no better farming country surrounding than Altus. With four railroads running into our city is it not almost a certainty that a Jackson County Fair would prove a paying proposition? The crowd which came last Sunday over two railroads, gives some idea of the number of people who would attend such a fair when every road running into the city would make excursion rates. The Orinda railway has signified its willingness to make a cheap rate as far North as the Kansas state line, and the Frisco would undoubtedly make reductions, while the Northwestern has never been known to fall down on any proposition of this kind. There is absolutely no argument against a Jackson County Fair, and all that is lacking is a little enthusiasm on the part of more of our merchants and business men and the farmers surrounding Altus. Let's organize a fair association, and do it now!—Altus Times.

Wichita Falls gets an automobile factory because she has the get up and get. She aut to have one.—Denison Herald.

AS OTHERS VIEW IT.

A-Maying.

Come, let us go a-maying down the dewy glen, where breezes soft are playing and blossoms nod again; come, let us pluck the daisy and eke the violet—but as it seems quite hazy, your gums do not forget.

How bright the sun is gleaming, how velvet is the grass; observe the dewdrop seeming to greet us as we pass; the dandelion golden is as a star of day, rich with a glory older than a drier way.

The breezes gently murmur the blithest songs of spring—Ah, now the breeze grows firmer and has a wintry sting! But who cares though 'tis chilly? We're forth to greet the spring—You're cold? Now don't be silly and spoil the whole blamed thing.

Ah, see the petals, drifting—What? Can those flakes be snow? The clouds soon will be lifting and the sunshine be aglow. So puff upon your fingers and button up your throat. 'Tis odd how winter lingers. Where is my overcoat?—Chicago Post.

Women's Hats.

They look like the tip end of a hard winter soaked in woe. They are without form and void; they are ugly, ugly, shapeless, colorless, freaky and grotesque. Put those hats on the men or the dogs or horses and they will look like the devil before breakfast.—Emporia Gazette.

May Find It Is a Hornet's Nest.

Secretary Fisher tackles the Cunningham claims case with a courage that is worthy of all admiration. It remains to be seen whether his judgment is equally admirable.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Rainbow Will Be a Black Number.

Jack Johnson is going to the coronation. Well, we are glad that the stuff and trumpery of that event is to be relieved by some real Galveston-colored style.—Houston Post.

Strain Tied to Both?

Some Texas poet has eulogized Sen. Bailey as a man who never goes back on a friend. Or a job either, although he came close to doing it once.—Detroit Free Press.

THIS IS MY 48TH BIRTHDAY.

Robert J. Aleo.

Dr. Robert J. Aleo, the new president of the University of Maine, was born in Coxi City, Indiana, May 11, 1862, and was educated at Valparaiso College and Indiana University. After leaving the university he began his career as a teacher in the public schools of his native town. From 1888 to 1891 he was professor of mathematics at Indiana University. He was on the faculty of Leland Stanford Junior University from 1894 to 1895, and then became editor of a prominent educational publication. In 1903 he was elected State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Indiana and continued in that position until chosen head of the University of Maine last September. Dr. Aleo is regarded as one of the foremost American authorities on geometry, algebra and mathematics in general. He has been a voluminous writer on mathematical topics in professional periodicals and has been honored with membership in the American Mathematical Society and the kindred organizations of England, Scotland and Germany.

IT'S THE BABY.

It's because of baby fingers around our growing fingers clinging.
It's because of baby voices in a glad-some chorus singing.
It's because that baby doing all our plans and hopes enfolders.
That this grand old world grows better with each sunrise, and is sweeter each night when the sun is setting;
That the future has grown brighter and the past more worth forgetting;
We are steeper and cleaner, more reliable, less flighty.
Every time we love and snuggle a wee baby in its nightlie.

It's the baby shapes the future, it's the baby glides the present.
It's the baby makes the pathway we are going green and pleasant.
It's the baby puts the sweetness in the wild bird's song that soothes.
It's the baby makes us see the pink rose petals on the breezes.
It's the baby puts soft whispers in the knee-high windblown grasses.
It's the baby makes us see the brightness when the dark cloud passes.
It's the baby big-eyed, laughing—it's the baby roly-poly.

Touches all our tasks with loving, and in touching marks them holy.
It's the baby struggling onward on undown the past a minute Gurgles somewhere way off yonder and puts worlds of sweetness in it.
It's the baby when we turn to look certain legs to meet us.
Arms out and makes us splendid so no reverses may defeat us.
It's the baby gone before us that has bridged death's dark abysses.
It's the baby that has healed us, soothed our hurts with baby kisses.
It's the baby that has saved us—of this heavy life the heaven.
It's the baby leads our footsteps to the path that climb to heaven.

A CITY'S UNENVIABLE RECORD.

The Greater Per Cent of Chicago Babies Die of Preventable Diseases.

Chicago kills its babies faster than half the cities of the civilized world. This startling fact will be demonstrated to the visitors to the child welfare exhibit by means of a unique flashlight system. As the visitor enters the Coliseum he may see a light flash above his head and fall upon these words over the entrance to the section on health: "Every time the blue light flashes a baby dies in the civilized world of a preventable disease. Every time the red light flashes the ratio of preventable deaths in Chicago is shown."

Now, the blue light will flash every twenty seconds. And the red light will flash every nine and a half seconds. For Chicago stands far down in the list of the cities of the civilized world when it comes to the death of her babies.

These figures, which investigators worked months in collecting, before turning them over to the mathematicians for their deductions, have to do only with babies under 1 year of age. It is the age when the death toll is always the heaviest.

The count was made on a basis of twenty-one countries. In that list the United States holds the unenviable place, eleven. And Chicago, standing as it does, far down the list in its own country, has nothing to be proud of in its record. Of course, a baby does not die in Chicago of a preventable disease every nine and a half minutes. But one dies every two and a half minutes, and the computation of the population of Chicago as against the ratio to be charged against that city. Working on that basis, Chicago beats the world record by just ten and a half seconds in allowing her babies to die of preventable diseases.

Overfeeding, malnutrition and summer complaint are among the most common of these preventable diseases.

COMEDY OF ERRORS PUNK EXHIBITION

FEATURELESS FARCE, SO LONG DRAWN OUT, THAT IT WAS CALLED ON ACCOUNT OF DARKNESS.

THE ALTUS SERIES ENDS

Eighty-seven Runs and An Even Hundred Hits Is Record of Three Games.

Altus trimmed the Irish Lads yesterday afternoon to the tune of 19 to 14 in a game that for rank of team work is perhaps without an equal in the history of the Texas-Oklahoma League. To express it plainly and to point the exhibition was a comedy of errors, a specimen of school boy tactics and a disgusting diversion from the good work that should characterize teams with the reputation of those engaged. So long drawn out was the featureless farce that the umpire was compelled to call the game in the eighth inning on account of darkness. There was nothing connected with the game worthy of special mention with the possible exception of the sensational catch of Guthrie in the second inning when Crawford slammed the ball to left field in a direction that seemed absolutely out of reach of the fielder. Guthrie made a long run and hooked the ball with his mitt just as it seemed destined to pass for a two or three-bagger.

At the end of the fifth inning Altus had 10 runs and in the next added 6 more, making their total 16 at the conclusion of the sixth inning, to which they added 3 in the eighth. The Lads secured 5 in the fourth, 5 in the sixth and 2 each in the seventh and eighth.

A peculiar characteristic of the game was the fact that each team secured an equal number of runs and hits. Wichita Falls touched Bergman and Malloy for 14, while the Altus pliers were only able to find Lefty Miller 19 times.

This game closed the series with Altus and it is a remarkable fact that during the three games played 87 runs were made by the two teams, while a total of an even 100 hits were secured, a record doubtless without a parallel in baseball history.

ARDMORE 4, CLEBURNE 1.

Visitors Outplay Locals, Who Are Still Handicapped by Failure of New Men to Arrive.

Cleburne, Texas, May 11.—Ardmore defeated Cleburne by a score of 4 to 1 yesterday. The visiting team outplayed the home team, as the latter had several chances to score, but could get only one man over the home plate. The players expected to arrive, to strengthen the home team, failed to show up. The management will make an effort to strengthen the team right away. The fans and rooters are crying for recruits, as they are not like the team's "cellar" position. The score:

BONHAM 2, DURANT 1.

Fast, Cleanly Played Game Is Won By Locals—Batting of Rayburn The Feature.

Bonham, Texas, May 11.—Bonham made it two out of three with Durant here yesterday, winning yesterday afternoon by a score of 2 to 1. Yesterday's game was the fastest seen here this season. Corrine was not at his best, while Shaw was in good form, the big twirler yielding only three hits, only one of which was clean. The feature of the game was Rayburn's batting, he getting three hits out of four trips, to the plate, one of which was a three-bagger. The score:

DIAMOND DUST.

Durant is this afternoon contesting with the Irish Lads, the game being the first of a series of three to be played.

It was Art Naylor instead of Dick who touched the Loeb-Liebold sign on Tuesday for $5 worth of merchandise.

Art Naylor was on the sick list yesterday and the right garden was well cared for by Morris, captain of the team.

Pitcher Nels Jones has about recovered from his recent illness and is expected to be in shape to pitch the Sunday game against Bonham.

W. E. Gilreath, the new umpire, is expected to handle the indicator during the Durant-Wichita series which began this afternoon.

Altus has a third baseman who is above the average in McMahan.

Three home runs were made in the game of yesterday, one of which was knocked by McMahan of the Altus team, the first man at the bat. The others were secured by Witherspoon and Taylor of the home team.

Wichita Falls is not showing up in the matter of attendance, but the reason is largely attributed to character of ball being played and it is expected that there will be a decided increase in the attendance in the event of an improvement of the games.

The Umps have trouble in the Texas-Oklahoma League just as they do everywhere. At Gainesville yesterday, the police were called to prevent an attack by the crowd on Naylor. Probably the most effective method of restoring order would have been to have permitted a few of the mob to get close enough to the "Old Man" to have learned what a real fighting buzz was when he gets stirred up.

ICE WATER IN BARRELS.

Will Irrigate Ants at Fort Worth Meeting—Beer in Bottles Will Supplement Aqua Pura.

Fort Worth, Tex., May 10.—Committees to perfect arrangements for the 10,000 people expected here for the anti-prohibition campaign, opening June 5, were appointed tonight.

The all-day meeting will be at the Coliseum on the North side. Refreshments will be served to the city until the meeting is over. A supply of ice water in barrels will be placed along the street. Various committees to cover every detail of the entertainment of the delegations will bring bands, and it is probable a dozen or more will be here to play all day.

Big Woodmen Log Rolling Is Planned

ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED HERE THIS AFTERNOON FOR THAT PURPOSE.

Will Be Held In Fall

Planned to Make It Biggest Affair of Kind Ever Pulled Off In This Part of State.

Delegates representing the Modern Woodmen of America in session here today decided to hold a grand picnic or log rolling in this city some day during fall week, and to make the event the biggest and best affair of the kind ever pulled off in this part of the state.

One of the big features in Woodmen—fraternal affairs in sections where the order is represented has been the annual picnic wherein gathered members of the woodchoppers from all parts of the country. In the northern states, where the order is strongest, these picnics have come to be recognized as the biggest affairs of the year, and in some instances they have grown to such magnitude that only the largest towns can entertain them.

The Woodmen of Northwest Texas have long desired to make a mark in this line, and the gathering here today was for the purpose of formulating plans to that end.

At the meeting more than one hundred delegates were present, covering all the territory from as far east as Sherman and on the south from Seymour.

Without opposition Wichita Falls was chosen as the place for holding the picnic and an organization for furthering the plans and providing the entertainment was effected.

The organization is called the Northwest Texas Log Rolling Association. Mr. J. C. Ralston of Iowa Park was chosen as president, Mr. J. M. Thomas of Seymour, secretary, and Mr. Tom Joehrendt of Wichita Falls, treasurer.

The following committees were appointed: Finance—C. R. McConnell, Wichita Falls; P. F. Keenan, Seymour; O. E. Harbin, Petrolia.

Transportation—Ira E. Brown, Wichita Falls; O. J. Waller, Bonneton; J. C. Donnell, Sherman.

Advertising—E. G. Cook, E. E. Perry, C. B. McConnell, Wichita Falls.

Diaz Himself Was Once An Insurrecto Leader

It was after a campaign of revolution strikingly similar to that against which he has been struggling recently that Porfirio Diaz became President of Mexico in 1876, driving from the head of the Government Lardo de Tejada, then President of the country. Revolutionists were as frequent then in Mexico as they are today in the banana states farther south which have furnished the librettos of so many present-day musical comedies and comic operas.

From the time he became President thirty-five years ago until now, Porfirio Diaz has been the government of Mexico. In that time he has built up industry, has founded a strong central government, has built railways, improved the monetary system of the country and brought about conditions which have led financiers from other countries to invest capital in many Mexican enterprises. Cattle ranches, great mines and plantations of all sorts have added immensely to the material prosperity of Mexico. One thing Diaz has failed to do. He has not succeeded in making the Mexicans forget how to rebel, although revolts and revolutionists have been sternly discouraged ever since 1876. Diaz is 81 years old. His parents were of mixed Spanish and Indian stock. His father, a blacksmith and veterinarian, died when young Porfirio was 3 years old and the boy was brought up in poverty. By the time he was 15 he was working as a carpenter to support his mother and relatives. At this time he planned to become a priest, but there were a number of changes yet to be made before Diaz selected a profession that suited him. He soon gave up his church studies to study law.

Santa Anna was at this time military dictator of Mexico, and perhaps the memory of the mistakes Santa Anna made helped make Diaz a successful dictator later on. An election was ordered a "free" election it was to be about this time. There were only two men in the service of Diaz, however, who had the temerity to vote against the dictator. One of the men was Diaz, and a warrant was issued for his arrest, as a "false patriot." The young lawyer fled and joined the nearest revolutionary army. This was always a party of bands of revolutionists in those days.

From that time until 1876 Diaz was almost constantly in the field. He became commander-in-chief of the army of Benito Juarez, president of Mexico and when Juarez was driven from the city by forces of French troops and the empire of Maximilian was set up, it was Diaz who successfully commanded the Juarez forces and finally crushed the imperial troops and destroyed the government.

When Juarez had become president again, however, his commander-in-chief was not satisfied. He stirred up powerful opposition to the man of whom he had fought, and entered a plot to drive him from the presidency. Before the conspirators had succeeded, Juarez old and enfeebled by fifteen years of campaigning died.

His successor, De Tejada was one of the men who had been active in trying to drive out Juarez, but that did not endear him to Diaz, who continued against De Tejada the activities begun against Juarez. In 1876 Diaz became president.

There were at this time a provision in the Mexican constitution which forbade the re-election of a president. This clause, indeed, had been one of the reasons given by Diaz for his revolt against Juarez. Diaz was clever enough not to disregard the clause, nor chance it immediately. When his first term expired he allowed a successor to be elected without protest. So unopposed was the successor's administration that everyone was glad to see Diaz chosen president again four years later, and a provision inserted in the constitution making it possible to re-elect the president as many times as seemed best. Since then the constitution has been remodeled in a number of ways to fit the Diaz administration.

The re-election of President Diaz every six years became a mere matter of formality, like voting for Bryan on the Democratic ticket—except that Diaz was always elected. Last June, however, there appeared a small, brown bearded man, who announced that he was going to be opposition candidate for president. Nobody took his announcement seriously at first, but then a humorous light until the small man began to travel around the country and do some active campaigning on his own behalf. Then he was seized and thrown into jail, where he was kept until after the election, at which, according to the official vote counters, Diaz was re-elected by a large majority.

The small man's name is Francisco I. Madero, Jr., and there doubtless have been many times since last June when Diaz wished that he either had never thrown him in jail, or that he had kept him there permanently, for the man with the beard has never come within arm's reach again, and his activities in the hills of Northern Mexico have been largely responsible for forcing the resignation of the president.—Kansas City Star.

CHURCH FEDERATION MATTER DISCUSSED

JOINT COMMISSION OF METHODISTS TO CONSIDER PLANS BEGINS SESSIONS

NO AGREEMENT REACHED

Believed That Proposed Unification May Be Submitted by This Body to General Conference.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 11.—Executive sessions of the joint commission on federation of the Methodist Churches, representing the M. E. Church, the M. E. Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, began at the Hotel Patten this morning and were resumed in the afternoon and will continue tonight. While nothing in detail could be given out of the information was authorized that a plan of federation, emanating from the subcommittee of nine, had been submitted to the general commission and this plan is the basis of discussion now. The three sessions yesterday, it is thought, probably half completed the work of the commission, which the members hope to finish by tonight. It was learned that the commission probably will reach a conclusion to submit the proposition of federation to the general conferences of the M. E. Church and the Methodist Protestant Church, which meet next spring and the general conference of the M. E. Church, South, which meets in two years. Consequently, whatever conclusion is reached in the deliberations of the commission at the present time can not come before all the general conferences inside of two years from this time, and some of the commissioners express the opinion that federation, if decided upon at all, can hardly be reached inside of six years from the present time.

Differences Presented Calmly.

The spirit of the commissioners has been, without exception, fine; although there have arisen sharp points of difference in opinions not only as to details, but as to the general proposition of federation. The question has been raised, in friendly discussion between commissioners as to whether union is desirable, or whether more effective work can be done by the separate rival organizations as they now exist. Whatever differences have cropped out have been candid, and with the best interests of Methodism as a whole, that there will be no serious friction and the recommendations of the joint commission to the various general conferences will be practically unanimous.

Opening of Conference.

The first session of the joint commission on federation of the Methodist Churches opened at 1:30 o'clock yesterday with a brief public session during which prayer was offered by Dr. C. M. Bishop and addresses of welcome were delivered by President W. F. Anderson of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Dr. W. E. Thompson and Creel F. Bates of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and a response by Bishop Denny of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Bishop Denny is a member of the commission. Following these exercises the commission went into executive session to consider the report of a subcommittee on a plan of federation and unification. Dr. T. H. Lewis, president of the Protestant Methodist Church, presided at the opening session. The commission will hold another meeting today, when it is expected that final action will be taken on the report. The commissioners were guests at a banquet at noon tendered by the com-

Extinction of Plover Almost Certain.

"You can only find one plover now where you could find ten, yes even a hundred, a few years ago," said an old timer, who had just returned with a good bag of birds after a day's hunt on the prairie.

"The plover is going the way the wild pigeon, the prairie chicken and the wild turkey," he continued. "In a few years the plover will be extinct. Automobiles and automatic shot guns will be responsible in a great measure for the disappearance of these birds. The plover has no chance against this combination and a party of shooters armed with automatic guns can make a rip of thirty-five or forty miles and in a few hours bag the limit. The same experience awaits the birds on their northward migration all the way from the Gulf of Mexico until they reach the uninhabited portion of Canada, where they have their breeding ground. Fewer and fewer of the birds reach their breeding grounds each succeeding year and the time is soon coming when they will no longer feed on the Texas prairie."

The migration of the plover extends from the Brazilian forests to northern Canada.

Nebraska State League.

Fremont, Neb., May 11.—The Nebraska State League managers have everything in readiness to start their championship series tomorrow. Superior will play its opening game at Grand Island, Hastings will line up at Kearney, Seward at Columbus and York at Fremont. Sunday ball will be played and the club owners are optimistic over the financial outlook for the year. A season of 112 games will be played ending September 6.

Mississippi Athletic Meet.

Gulfport, Miss., May 11.—The cream of the College Athletes of the state accompanied by large delegations of students and other visitors, gathered here today at the opening of the annual track and field meet of the Mississippi Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The program for the meet extends over two days and calls for hurdle races, long distance runs, high jumping, pole vaulting and other field and track events. Gold and silver medals will be presented to the victors.

Strawberries for All.

Roseburg, Ore., May 11.—Roseburg opened her third annual strawberry festival today to emphasize her claim large and much more comprehensive of being the center of the finest strawberry-raising country in the world. Hundreds of visitors poured into the city from every direction and were given their fill of plain strawberries, strawberries and cream and strawberry short cake. The city is decorated as never before in her history. The carnival program covers three days and is replete with attractions in the way of parades, band concerts, outdoor sports and illuminations.

For Reform of Criminal Law.

New York, May 11.—A notable conference to discuss the reform of criminal law and procedure assembled today at Columbia University. The participants include lawyers, jurists, professional and business men and social workers from various parts of the country. The conference will close with a banquet at the Hotel Astor Saturday night, at which President Taft, Attorney General Wickesham and United States Senator O'Gorman will speak.

Child Welfare Show in Chicago.

Chicago, Ill., May 11.—Chicago's Child Welfare Association, for which the claim is made that it is twice as woman in a bifurcated skirt. A black carnival today to emphasize her claim large and much more comprehensive than the similar show recently held in New York, was opened to the public this afternoon and will continue for two weeks. Exhibits showing what is being done in Chicago and elsewhere to improve the moral, mental and physical welfare of the child fill more than 70,000 feet of the floor space of the coliseum annex. Children actively engaged in various arts and crafts, including printing, bookbinding, sawing and woodworking and gymnastic exercises form one of the features of the show.

SKIRTS THE SUBJECT OF A BILL

A Lawmaker Thinks Women Should Be Compelled by Law to Change The Styles.

(From Cleveland Plain Dealer) Hobbie skirts, which prevent a step longer than a hop, and harem skirts, which allow a full, free stride, fall alike under the ban of a bill introduced in the house. Edward J. Murphy of Chicago is the lawmaker who has taken up arms against the sylphlike figure that is the Parisian ideal of feminine grace and also against the zouave apparel that makes the wearer look like a character from the "Arabian Nights."

Coming from Emerald Avenue the other day Mr. Murphy saw a sight that made him rub his eyes. It was a woman in a bifurcated skirt. A black carnival today to emphasize her claim large and much more comprehensive took three women who were progressing with the hippy-hop movement. Murphy rushed home and draped a tablecloth about his waist and adjusted it until he could walk with ease. Then with a tape line he made measurements. These he made the basis of his bill, which prohibits a woman from appearing in public in a skirt that is less than one and one-half yards in circumference at the bottom.

To head off the habit makers from going to the other extreme and resurrecting the crinoline skirt form, Murphy also provides that no skirt shall be more than three yards in circumference at the bottom. Any women who dares to appear in garb that does not conform to the bill is to be fined from $10 to $50 for each appearance.

Florida for Conservation.

Tallahassee, Fla., May 11.—Pursuant to an invitation extended by the Florida senate a conference met here today for the purpose of agreeing on a conservation bill to be presented to the next legislature. The lumberjacks, stock, naval stores and other industries having to do with the natural resources of the state were well represented at the conference.

In Memory of Sailors.

Annapolis, Md., May 11.—The first memorial to be placed in the Naval Academy in honor of the brave seamen of the Revolution was unveiled today with impressive ceremonies conducted in the presence of President Taft, representatives of the Navy Department at Washington and many naval officers. The ceremonies were in charge of the General Society, Daughters of the Revolution, from whom the memorial was a gift to the Naval Academy. The memorial consists of a heavy bronze panel that has been given a conspicuous place in Hancock Hall of the academy. The panel, which was designed by William Cowper of New York, is a bas-relief showing a sailor in action. The panel is about 10 feet long and five feet wide.

Mrs. John Drew Better.

McLeansboro, Ill., "About five years ago," says Mrs. John Drew, of this place, "I was afflicted with pains and irregularity every month. I suffered continually, was weak and despondent, and unable to do my housework. I took Cardui, and in one month, I felt like a new woman and worked hard all summer. I am now in perfect health, and recommend Cardui to all suffering women." Every day, during the past 50 years, Cardui has been steadily forging ahead as a result of its proven value in female troubles. It relieves ache, backache, womanly misery and puts fresh strength into weary bodies. Try it.

THE HAREM SKIRT IS IMPOSSIBLE

Sensible and Pretty, But Worn By the Wrong Kind of People, London Dealer Says.

A special cable to the Chicago Tribune says:

"It is dead air; dead as a door nail, and the sooner it is buried the better." This was said yesterday by a stall holder at the clothing exhibition at Agricultural Hall. Among the hundreds of dresses on show there were only three or four of these garments, and even they were kept in the back-ground.

"I wanted to exhibit harem skirts," said one stall holder, "but I dared not. They have been worn by the wrong people; their reputation has been spoiled, and they have become impossible. The name was almost enough to kill them, and what the name began the vulgar crowds in the streets completed. A costume that is stared at is desirable, but a costume that is mobbed is out of the question."

"And yet it was a most sensible and pretty skirt. It is a thousand pities that it failed, because the failure of a fashion is bad for trade."

Thumb rings, magpie chains, and ankle bracelets are in favor in Paris at present. An actress started the thumb ring fashion. She wore one of a design so wide that it reached nearly to the nail, and the emeralds which composed it, matched her green gown and hair ornaments. After that theatrical first night the jewelers received orders for thumb rings of unique designs and there are many to be seen now.

Serpents set with rubies or emeralds are also fashionable. The short tight dresses make ankle ornaments a necessity, it is declared, and when the ankle gowns are long the lower hems are of lace or chiffon so the ankles can be seen and appreciated.

TREVATHAN BROS.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To the Sheriff or any Constable of Wichita County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, that you summon by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the county of Wichita, for four weeks previous to the return day hereof, M. B. Garrett, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. County Court, at the next regular term thereof, to be held in the county of Wichita, at the court house thereof, in Wichita Falls, Texas, on the first Monday in June A. D. 1911, being the 5th day of said month, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 7th day of February A. D. 1911, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 1409, wherein First National Bank of Wichita Falls, Texas, (a corporation) is plaintiff and Garrett Brothers, (a firm composed of M. B. Garrett and W. D. Garrett), and M. B. Garrett, individual, are defendants.

The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows: to-wit:

Plaintiff alleges that on July 2, 1910 defendant's executed to it their certain promissory note for $258.58, bearing date aforesaid, payable to Plaintiff's order Oct. 2, 1910, bearing 10 per cent per annum interest from maturity until paid, and providing for usual ten per cent additional on principal and interest as attorneys fees; that plaintiff is now the legal owner of said note and same is past due and unpaid, and, though often requested, defendant's refuse to pay same, or any part thereof, to plaintiff's damage, $500.00; that for the purpose of securing said note defendant, M. B. Garrett, on July 2, 1910 executed to plaintiff a certain chattel mortgage on the entire set of furniture and fixtures, including scales, register, safe, etc., used by defendant's in conducting a grocery business in Wichita Falls, Texas, including show cases; that the mortgagors in said mortgage are described as Garrett Bros., and said mortgage is only signed by M. B. Garrett, who is a member of the firm of Garrett Brothers; that said mortgage was intended to be and is a mortgage on all the interests of said Garrett Brothers, as well as all interest of said M. B. Garrett and W. D. Garrett; that said mortgage is duly filed in the office of the County Clerk of Wichita County, Texas, and that by the terms of said mortgage it is agreed that said property should be sold in case of default in payment of said note and proceeds applied to payment thereof.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for judgment for its debt, interest and attorney's fees, for foreclosure of its said mortgage lien on said property and that same be decreed to be sold in satisfaction of plaintiff's debt, for costs of suit and general and special relief.

Herein said not, and have you before said court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, this, the 1st day of May A. D. 1911. W. A. REID, Clerk County Court, Wichita County, Texas. (By) CARL YEAGER, Deputy. KING TO OPEN EMPIRE FESTIVAL

London, May 11.—In the famous horse coach drawn by cream-colored horses and with outriders in scarlet livery, King George and Queen Mary will drive through the streets of London tomorrow to attend the formal opening of the great Festival of Empire at the Crystal Palace. Aside from the importance of the exhibition itself the opening will be notable as the first of the series of elaborate functions and ceremonies that will mark the coronation season. The colonial premiers and other representatives who have arrived in London for the Imperial Conference will be present at the opening of the Crystal Palace exhibition, as will also the ministers of state, members of parliament, foreign diplomats and many other persons of prominence.

The Festival of Empire, with its Imperial Exhibition and Pageant of Empire, was originally arranged for last year, but was abandoned in consequence of the death of King Edward VII. Under the plans as rearranged the affair is to be conducted on a scale of magnificence never before attempted in the history of London. The seven divisions of the empire have erected large and handsome buildings to house the wealth of exhibits illustrating their resources and industrial and social development. The Canadian building alone cost $1,000,000, in addition to the respective colonial pavilions there is an All-English exhibition occupying the greater part of the main building of the Crystal Palace. In this section the industrial, commercial, and productive resources of the British Empire are fully displayed.

One of the most interesting features of the festival will be the pageant, to be held under the direct patronage of her royal Highness, Princess Consuelo, where historical scenes of the empire's history will be enacted. The arrangements and production of the pageant are under the personal direction of Frank Lascelles, the famous master of pageantry who was in charge of the memorable historical pageant held in connection with the tercentenary celebration at Quebec two years ago.

No fewer than 15,000 performers will take part in the pageant. There will be altogether twenty-four scenes, eight of which will be presented daily in the great open-air amphitheatre designed by Sir Aston Webb.

Besides the two principal features of the festival—the exhibition and the pageant—there will be innumerable other attractions, such as carnivals, naval and military tournaments, aviation demonstrations, athletic contests and theatrical and musical entertainments.

The festival will continue until October and it is estimated that the attendance of visitors will equal if not surpass that at any previous international exhibition held in any part of the world. The entire profits of the festival will be devoted to King Edward VII's Hospital Fund.

SWAT THE FLY.

Swat the fly!
Spot the fly!
Get not the fly
Get by!

Whack the fly!
Crack the fly!
Attack the fly,
Or die!

The dirty, rascal plants his feet. On filth, and then on what you eat. He cackles through a garbage can. And light at once on a frying pan. He gathers poison with his toes. And leaves it on the baby's nose. He's on the friendliest of terms With all of the death-dealing germs. One dirty, nasty little fly Can spoil a whole day's milk supply. The peck, buzzing, mean galoot Exists but to be foul, pollute. He isn't very hard to please. He's happy if he spreads disease. Make friends, if you wish, of a rabid dog. A rattlesnake, or a slimy hog. But every time you see a fly Buff him squarely in the eye.

Draw the fly!
Swat the fly!

Fly a Tramp in Insect World

Like the troublesome tramp who wiped on the food you eat, on the faces and on the lips of your sleeping children. Physicists are united in the opinion that the common house fly is one of the greatest enemies of humanity and one of the most dangerous. It is essential that houses be well screened and the occupants instructed not to allow screen doors to be opened more than is necessary. It is often observed that occupants of a house when speaking to outsiders will partly open the screen door and "hang on to it," gossiping in such a position that a large number of flies, taking advantage of the opportunity, will buzz in. Flies will turn away all flies as well as mosquitoes and no family is so poor but can afford to install screens when health conditions are taken into consideration.

Flies do not like darkened places and they can be easily driven from the dining room and kitchen by drizzling the same, allowing a small light place as an exit. Where adult flies become numerous in dwellings and can not be easily driven out the following means may be employed to capture or poison these pests: A 5 per cent or 3 per cent solution of formaldehyde sweetened with sugar, honey or syrup, placed about the house in shallow dishes kills flies and is not as dangerous as arsenical baits. Blotting paper dipped into sweetened tea or quassa bark allowed to dry and then moistened slightly as used, kills large numbers of flies. Where flies are very numerous the house should be fumigated with pyrethrum.

Throughout the winter months these pests can be found as adults hibernating in houses, sheds and other protected places. When the spring months come they emerge and begin to deposit their eggs upon filth and decaying vegetable matter. Within a few days fullgrown flies are to be found, showing that a large number of generations are reared in a single season.

The common house fly is distributed over a large area. It is not only an annoyance to mankind, but is exceedingly dangerous in the fact that it disseminates typhoid fever, tuberculosis, cholera infantum, dysentery and many other diseases.

All the germs, all imaginable microbes fasten themselves to the spongy feet of the fly and the fly brings these germs into the house and there wipes them off his feet. His feet are

The Commissioners Court has been engaged today in dealing with routine matters including the consideration of the report of the Tax Collector, which work had not been concluded at the hour of going to press. It is expected that the court will take up the rolls of the tax assessor as a board of equalization tomorrow morning.

General Passenger Agent Fontaine of the Wichita Falls Route stated to a Times reporter this afternoon that the Wichita Falls and Northwestern would run two special trains to this city on next Sunday week and that they expected to bring two thousand people from points in Oklahoma. One section of the train will start from Wellington while the other will be made up at Elk City and both will make the run through in order to accommodate those who expect to take advantage of the low rate to be made. This excursion, mention of which was made in the Times of yesterday promises to be the largest ever run into Wichita Falls and in addition to the crowd expected over the Northwestern as indicated above the Southern, the Katy, the Ft. Worth and Denver and the Wichita Valley will also have excursions on this day.
