LEE CARRIES FARM PLEA TO HARDEMAN CO.

West Texas Chamber Of Commerce Head Speaks At Banquet

OVER 200 ATTENDED

Big Meeting Held in Quanah Hotel Wednesday Night

BY BEN MEYER.
Record News Staff.

QUANAH, Jan. 20.—R. Q. Lee, president of the west Texas chamber of commerce brought his message of diversification of farming to Quanah tonight, in speaking at the annual banquet of the Quanah chamber of commerce, he stressed this plea as one on which depended the future prosperity of the farmer.

Mr. Lee's address was one feature of the dinner, served in the Quanah hotel, which drew some 200 or more Quanah business men to the event. Other addresses were made by Porter A. Whaley, general manager of the West Texas chamber; by B. M. Whittiker, exhibit manager of the same organization; and by Charles Y. Welch, Hardeman county judge who made the address of welcome.

Music for the evening was furnished by three Wichita Falls visitors, Misses Juel and Adele Ray and Miss Ray Walker, all of whom delighted the banqueters with their entertainment.

Millions of Wealth.

"The single crop in the south has caused more poverty and more trouble than any one single thing," Mr. Lee declared. He then went on to point out that, if a wide diversification had been practiced in southern agriculture, it would have meant untold millions in wealth for the section. More cotton alone would have been produced in the last ten years, he said, than could ever have been sold.

Turning from this, the speaker complimented Hardeman county on the interest it had taken in chicken raising and remarked that the poultry industry of the section had been and would bring more results in the form of material wealth for the raisers. In this connection, the banquet had a poultry touch about it inasmuch as the Hardeman county poultry show has just opened. Walter Burton, famed poultry judge from Arlington, attended the banquet. The banquet hall decorations carried out a poultry motif.

That the poultry industry increase had not been carried out in other lines was indicated by Mr. Lee when he said that in 1919 Hardeman county had only 10 head of sheep and 44 goats; and that now there had been no increase. He urged more close attention to these.

Rail Dream Comes True.

Porter Whaley's talk included a reference to the long-established dream of a Frisco extension through west Texas to El Paso—a dream, Mr. Whaley said, that now appeared possible of realization. In commenting on west Texas generally he declared that this section was building on a far more stable and lasting basis than Florida, now in the midst of a world-famed boom. Florida, he said, was making its growth in the cities, while west Texas was expanding in the rural regions where producers were making possible the increase.

Tonight's meeting was something in the nature of a homecoming for Mr. Whaley, who some 10 years or so ago was secretary of the local chamber of commerce. He heard himself and other officers of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce lauded at some length as being men who were doing much for this section of the state and who were making possible its great development.

To conclude the program, readings were given by Jean Rogers of this city. R. R. Gilliland acted as toastmaster and Rev. H. H. Neely, pastor of the First Christian church, gave the invocation.

That Quanah and Hardeman county are facing a prosperous and successful year in all respects was the concensus of opinion of those attending the banquet tonight.

Now We've Got Proof Positive Of The Devil's Potency in Liquor's Manufacture; Just Look At This

Mooneshine Held as Evidence in Washington Sprouts a Pair of Horns to Confound Chemist; Pickled Lizard Comes From Jar of Chinese Booze

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—There may be something after all in this notion that "likker" is a concoction of the devil.

Two half gallon jars of moonshine being held as evidence in the prohibition laboratory here have grown pairs of horns.

The chemists who analyzed the fire water attempt no explanation. They merely point out on the zinc cover of each jar, a perfect little pair of horns just the same as used to adorn the head of Beelzebub in the wood cuts in the old family Bible.

They think the liquor was highly acid, became volatile; that the fumes ate their way through the zinc tops and as they passed off into the air formed the little crystaline horns by a combination of the metal and the acid.

There may also be some reason why a consumer of "likker" sometimes sees snakes. In a jar of confiscated Chinese whiskey the chemists found a pickled lizzard. The jar was said to have been captured from a pickled lounge lizzard.

Injured Trader Turns On Foes Who Capitalized On His Hurts

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Lying on a sick bed in Post Graduate hospital where he was taken about ten days ago with injuries received in a railroad accident in Florida, William C. Durant, automobile manufacture today distributed buying orders for thousands of shares of stock among his brokers the execution of which turned the course of prices upward after an early period of weakness.

M. Durant communicated with his brokers by telephone through a third party, as he was not permitted to have a telephone by his bedside.

News of his injury earlier in the month was followed by aggressive selling of stocks in which he was interested by professional bear traders, but beyond giving orders to his brokers to support them on his return to this city, his interest in the market was largely passive. He is said to have been grieved, however, by the fact that attempts should be made to capitalize his misfortune and apparently was waiting for a favorable opportunity to turn the tables on the bear party.

HANK DENIES HIS O. K. ON 30 CENT CONTRACT

Former Highway Engineer On Stand in State's Road Suit

18 CENTS ENOUGH

That, He Says, Would Be Equitable Price For Asphalt Surfacing

AUSTIN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Thirty cents a square yard was an unreasonable price to pay the Hoffman Construction company for asphalt surfacing, and had he been consulted he would have so told the highway commissioners, R. J. Hank, former state highway engineer, testified today in the state's $421,000 suit against the Hoffman Construction company. He said 18 or 20 cents would have been fair if a two-course treatment was required, and that 10 or 11 cents a square yard would have been equitable for a single course treatment. The state contends the contract imposed only a single course treatment of half a gallon to the square yard, while defense contends the state could have required a two-course treatment over the 600 miles named in contract.

Ousted by Mosley.

From May 1, 1925, until Jan. 15, 1926, Mr. Hank was state highway engineer. He resigned at request of the highway commission headed by Chairman Hal Moseley.

About three months ago, Mr. Hank disputed published statement of Joe Burkett, former highway commissioner, that he (Hank) had approved a price of 30 cents a square yard stipulated in the American Road company asphalt surfacing contract for 1,056 miles.

Specifications of the Hoffman contract are identical with those of the American Road company's surfacing contract, Eugene Smith, highway commissioner, said. He said to best of his knowledge, the Hoffman surfacing contract was awarded April 28, 1925, but that no reference to letting is in the comission mnutes. Proposals, identical with the contract consummated, were delivered to him by C. R. Starnes and F. G. Hoffman, stockholders of the defendant company, Smith testified.

Signed by Burkett.

Through Smith, Attorney General Dan Moody developed the only surfacing contract awarded the Hoffman Construction company mentioned in the minutes is the Potter county project mentioned in May 11 proceedings. This contract an all others are signed by Chairman Frank Lanham and Joe Burkett, members at that time. Mr. Smith said it was customary to spread contracts on the minutes.

Martin Durkin, Deluxe Gunman and Thief, Is Caught On Katy Train

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Trailed three months by department of justice agents, one of whose number he had slain, Martin J. Durkin, 26, notorious Chicago criminal was captured here today.

The much sought slayer, described in police circulars as "very dangerous and quick to draw," fell into a trap prepared by department agents, city detectives and railroad employes and was overpowered in the drawing room of a Frisco-Katy train upon arrival at Webster Grove, a suburb, from San Antonio, Texas.

Well Armed.

A revolver, an automatic pistol and a belt of cartridges were lying on a card table in the drawing room.

"I would have shot it out with you if you had given me a chance," Durkin told his captors. "You got me too quick."

With Durkin was an attractive woman, his bride since December 4. They were married in East St. Louis, she said. She was formerly Miss Irma Sullivan, 21, of Cornell, Ills., and had no idea her husband was wanted by the police. She did not become suspicious, she said, until he abandoned an automobile at San Antonio.

Durkin has been variously called the "sheik robber" and "prince charming." He continued to smile after his arrest and nonchalantly admitted his desperate escapades.

The couple waived extradition and was taken under heavy guard on a Chicago and Alton train leaving late today for Chicago.

Durkin is charged with the murder of Edward C. Shanahan, department of justice operative, who was shot to death at Chicago October 11, when he attempted to arrest Durkin for automobile theft. He also is charged with murder of Police Sergeant Harry Gray, who was fatally wounded October 29 when he trapped Durkin in a Chicago house, only to have Durkin shoot his way out. Lloyd Austin, a civilian was killed in the exchange of bullets.

The capture of Durkin was accomplished neatly. Durkin and his bride had been trailed by government agents through an automobile license from East St. Louis to Los Angeles, then to San Antonio, where he yesterday engaged a drawing room on the train for St. Louis, intending to obtain employment here.

Detectives Aboard.

As the train pulled in 11:05 a. m. four detectives took positions on either side and the others boarded the coaches.

Dowd knocked on the drawing room door. It swung open and Durkin stood before them.

Detective Sergeant Leonard Ising, a wrestler and expert in Jiu-Jitsu, sprang at the fugitive and clamped a wrist lock on his right arm. Dowd seized him around the waist and both began to draw him from the room.

"Durkin, we've got you," Dowd said. "We've got you at last."

"You've made a mistake. I'm Valentine," the gunman protested, trying to pull away.

"Valentine?" Dowd replied, shoving him into a seat. "I'd know you in a million, Durkin."

The prisoner then admitted his identity.

Durkin was taken before Chief of Detective Kaiser to whom he talked freely. He admitted killing Shanahan but denied firing the shot which killed Gray and Austin.

"Oh, those fellows were shooting at each other half the time," he said.

Durkin related that after his last escape, he went to New York and in all returned to Chicago four times. He said he stole automobiles in New York, Detroit and Chicago to make various trips and finally drove to Cornell, where he got Miss Sullivan and drove to East St. Louis.

70 Now, Beggar In Dallas To Keep His Cash For Old Age

DALLAS, Jan. 20.—Rather than pay a $50 fine assessed against him for begging alms in violation of a city ordinance, an aged blind beggar, who was found to have $7,000 in currency on his person, when arrested last night, chose to go to the city farm today.

When arraigned the beggar stoutly defended his right to beg "if people want to give me money," while the municipal judge told him a man with $7,000 had no right to ask alms.

"I'll rot at the city farm before you get my money," the old man told the judge. "I've begged for it all these years and I am going to keep it for my old age." The beggar is 70 years old.

U.S. FIRE LOSS 500 MILLIONS

Nation Impoverished By This Waste, Speaker at Oil Meet Says

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20.—(AP) The United States is being impoverished by a fire waste that is intolerable, Franklin H. Wentworth of Boston, secretary of the national fire protection association told members of the American Petroleum Institute in convention here today.

"The destruction of more than $500,000,000 per year in created resources by fires of which eighty per cent are easily preventable, is a delinquency no competent people can possibly defend," Wentworth said.

Good Step Taken.

He paid tribute, however, to the steps for fire prevention taken in the oil industry and said the move of the institute in promoting construction of improved oil storage lands and selection of their sites with reference to community safety, will eventually, when completed, make the burning of oil tanks as infrequent as it ought to be.

Pictures Used in Court To Decide Custody Of Child

DETROIT, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Moving pictures today delivered a four-year old child to its foster mother when Judge Vincent Brennan in circuit court awarded custody of little Mabel Irene to Mrs. Irene Goosen. In doing so he denied the habeas corpus petition of the child's natural mother, Mrs. Julia Praybyia.

The child has been under Mrs. Goosen's charge since a few weeks after birth. In an effort to arrive at a just decision on the petition of the natural mother for the retun of he child, Judge rBennan had the two women and the child stand before him last Saturday when he announced that the child was to be sent to an institution. Concealed moving picture machines showed the reaction of the two women to this decision.

Judge Brennan and several psychologists yesterday viewed the film. He said today that he was giving custody of the child to Mrs. Goozen because the film showed a much more biological emotional reaction on her part" and also because of the willingness of the real mohter to permit the child to be sent to an institution.

COOLIDGE IS ASSAILED

President Rapped For Shortcomings By Black of New York.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP) President Coolidge and his cabinet were accused of numerous short comings in a speech in the house today by Representative Black, democrat, New York. He described the president as "weak' and for that reason "the most dangerous man who has ever appeared in American politics."

"The issue in the next republican national convention," he said "will be 'Freeze with Cal' or 'get hot with Cliff'—but Governor Pinchot hasn't a chance while Mellon has the delegates in Winston's brief case."

Aged Recluse in Chicago Suburbs, After Living Eccentric Life For Years, Leaves Fortune of Stocks

Three Wills of Ambiguous Nature Show Bonds And Securities of Value in Safe Deposit Boxes; Also Owned Eastern Lands

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—(AP)—For a score of years Mary E. Sterling French, aged recluse, lived in the attic of her boarded up and tumbledown house in Park Ridge, a suburb, where residents told stories of seeing a ghost, clad as a bride, moving about with a lighted candle. She left and entered by a ladder, drawing it up after her.

She died January 6, leaving three wills of clashing provisions, safety deposit boxes in which $50,000 in securities have been found, tax receipts for property in Massachusetts and papers indicating she may have possessed a fortune.

Wierdest of her legacies were two gravelike mounds, each marked with a stick with a teacup over the end, in the back yard. The police will dig into these, hoping to find something to shed light on the disappearance of her husband 19 years ago.

It was after he left that she had the house, in which she lived 20 years, boarded up. The rooms down stairs were left exactly as they had been 20 years ago. Furniture was undusted and in a bed chamber a man's coat and vest and a straw hat, seemingly thrown aside as if they had just been discarded, were found covered with mould.

Music And Dance In Profusion At Olympic Vaudeville

Music and dancing with some novelty stunts thrown in will be included on the vaudeville bill to be presented at the Olympic Thursday, Friday and Saturday. With the five acts of Bert Levy vaudeville will be Viola Dana in "The Great Love," one of her latest and best pictures; a comedy picture "A Maid in Morocco," and a news reel.

For the vaudeville:

Bob Marshall presents what is perhaps one of the greatest novelties of its kind seen in local theatres. He combines a nifty line of chatter with contortion tricks that are different. Mr. Marshall has just concluded a tour of the world and should prove a highly entertaining feature on this week's bill.

With a Smile.

Sandy Morrison is a young man with a delightful smile, a taking way, and a voice that will carry him anywhere. His offering is conceded to be one of the most interesting and entertaining bits in vaudeville.

Miller and Jackson present a singing act that is out of the ordinary as they use special scenic and lighting effects for several of their songs. Both members have nice voices and their closing number, the trio from "Faust" is sure to bring a spontaneous applause.

Miller and Ives are two men that do a variety of things to amuse their audience, including a roller skating finish. Comedy is their keynote and they live up to their billing.

Babe Dupree and company, a quintet of novelty entertainers who present an offering consisting of singing, dancing music that will unquestionably furnish royal entertainment. They are clever steppers; sing most delightfully and are expert musicians, an unusual combination for top-notchers.

BUSINESS LOOKS TO THIS CITY

C. C. Besieged by Inquiries At to Industrial Possibilities

Since the announcement has been made that the chamber of commerce of Wichita Falls would in 1926 devote much attention to the bringing of new industries to this city, the office of J. W. Chatham, industrial and traffic manager of the Wichita Falls chamber of commerce, has been besieged by numbers of representatives of sound business enterprises interested in the possibilities of Wichita Falls as branch house point.

Many houses of established reputation in the north and east have shown inclination to consider this city. A number of representatives of sound business concerns were in the city Wednesday conferring with Mr. Chatham, seeking personal interviews and letters, he stated.

The industrial survey of Wichita Falls and the Wichita Falls trade territory has already begun, and it is expected to be finished within the next 60 days.

Mr. Chatham left last night for Dallas where he will meet in conference representatives of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea and Coffee company who may stablish a house in this city.

"We are fortunate in having him and his wife to come here, even for only a day."

Blue Law Advocate Fails To Appear

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP) After the house committee having jurisdiction over affairs of the District of Columbia had made room on its program today for Noah W. Cooper, Nashville, crusader for Sunday laws, Mr. Cooper failed to appear.

It was pointed out that a bill designed to bring about strict observance of the Sabbath in the district was pending before the sub-committee on judiciary.

Representative Blanton, democrat, Texas, said the judiciary sub-committee had arranged to hear Clarence Darrow, defender of evolution in the Dayton case on January 29, on a bill to prohibit capital punishment in the district.

FOR

Sour Stomach

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Hereafter instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

BETTER THAN SODA

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this sour-ing waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

TRY A 25 CENT BOTTLE

Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug store.—Adv.

CLEANER RIVERS IS BOARD'S AIM

Some Department Will Start Anti-Pollution Campaign

AUSTIN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Campaign against pollution of streams in Texas, especially in the coastal oil regions, will be conducted shortly by the Texas game, fish and oyster department, Judge Fred E. Morris, special deputy commissioner, announced today. He returned from Brazoria county where, he reported, three big oil companies were permitting oil to float on the waters of San Barnard river. The oil was killing the fish.

Rigid enforcement of the oil and basic sediment law will be made, he said, explaining that if fish were allowed to be killed in this manner, it was useless to have fish hatcheries to supply the streams.

POOR LIKE TO PET

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP) Petting places for the poor were urged upon the national recreation conference today by Ethelbert Stewart, commissioner of labor statistics in the department of labor, who pleaded for the opening of public spaces in American cities to the "blue jeaned" workers in great industrial plants.

"Nellie from the shoe factory," he said, "can stand a little petting in a public park furnished by the city, even though Joe from the stock yards who spends his days cutting of the feet of sheep, does the petting."

Things to Know Before Baby Comes

THE expectant mother's comfort and well being is very important. And one of the most important things for her to do is to use a non-irritating, safe penetrating lubricant to keep the skin, muscles and ligaments soft and pliable—thus aiding the tissues and muscles to relax and adjust themselves to the changes during motherhood. Mother's Friend is just such a preparation. It is the formula of an eminent physician and has been used by expectant mothers for over three generations. No woman awaiting the joy of motherhood should allow the days to pass without using Mother's Friend.

Mrs. Laura Hendrix, Gracemont, Okla. writes: "I used Mother's Friend with all my babies and I think it is the greatest help that has ever been discovered for expectant mothers. I can't say too much for it."

Mother's Friend has saved thousands of expectant mothers from much useless suffering. It relaxes those drawing, stretching pains so common during expectancy.

Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and meanwhile write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 31, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

WEAVER HOST TO CHRYSLER MEN

35 Present Wednesday Night at Banquet In Kemp

Lloyd Weaver, head of the Lloyd Weaver company, distributor of the Chrysler motor cars in 13 counties of northwestern Texas, entertained dealers, salesmen and others connected with the organization with a banquet at the Kemp hotel last night. There were 35 persons present representing 17 different dealers in the Lloyd Weaver organization.

Mr. Weaver acted as toastmaster at the banquet. In his opening address he stated that at least 20 out of town representatives who had intended to be present, were kept away on account of the sudden change of cold weather and announced the purpose of the banquet as "a get-together-meeting" for the purpose of promoting the sales of the Chrysler cars, especially the new Imperial 80.

Remarkable Growth.

In telling of the remarkable strides Chrysler has made in placing itself at the head of the class, Mr. Weaver said that the Chrysler two years ago had scarcely even been heard of.

Robert C. Hockett, field secretary of Dallas who is just back from Detroit, gave a detailed account of the workings of the Chrysler factor. He said, in part:

"The new plant which Chrysler has bought to make its own bodies is eight floors with 700,000 feet of floor space. It is the finest body works in the world and when the contracts with other automobile concerns are completed, will be in shape to turn out 1,200 Chrysler bodies daily. By early spring it is expected to use the entire output for Chryslers.

"We will buy, cut and dry the lumber for our bodies in the south, which will mean a saving alone of 700 pounds in freight on each car body. This is only an exampie of the saving and the plan that Chrysler uses in saving money to make a better car for the customer.

"The Chrysler firm spent $2,500,000 in the plant to manufacture six-cylinder cars in 1924 and last year we spent a million more in this department for improvements. We made and sold 32,000 cars in 1924 and 54,000 last year.

In the promotion of "good will and making customers satisfied," Mr. Hockett announced that all dealers throughout the nation are asked to cooperate in aiding Chrysler tourists, who happen to be away from home. In the event of defective parts, each Chrysler agent is instructed to replace the part without cost except for labor and to send the broken parts to the home of the car owner, to be adjusted by the dealer.

Haskett Speaks.

Fred Haskett, editor of the Childress Index, when called upon by the toastmaster related that he personally knew Mr. Chrysler back in 1906 when, as an employe of the American Locomotive Works, he rebuilt the engines bought by the Fort Worth and Denver railway at Childress and brought them up to standard requirements.

"I well remember back twenty years ago in Childress, when Mr. Chrysler demonstrated to me a miniature steam engine, 20 inches in length, which he built when a boy age 17 years. The engine would run with steam and had air brakes. He used to say then that he intended to enter the automobile business."

L. E. Gowan, local field representative and Ed Hatfield of Dallas, district supervisor, each made short talks.

In his final remarks, Toastmaster Weaver announced that his firm at present carries a stock of parts valued at $8,000 and that the stock will be almos doubled by June 1, so as to give three hour service, to agents in this territory. The agents who attended the banquet, were as follows:

Ralston & Munden, Iowa Park; Thrasher Motor Co., Electra; Holloway Motor Co., Vernon; Smith & Williams, Olney; B. H. Busby, Megargel; Cope-Self Co., Seymour; C. R. Snider, Archer City; Alvey Motor Co., Bowie; R. P. Elkins, Nocona; Hawkins Motor Co., Quanah; W. R. Womack, Crowell; Paducah Auto Co., Paducah; W. W. Allen, Ringgold; C. O. Sneed & Co., Burkburnett; D. H. Bolin, Graham; Barnhart Auto Market, Childress, and Massey & Barton, Munday.

A LESSON FOR THE JURY

PROSECUTING officers and others charged with enforcing the law in Wichita county have grounds for complaint, it would seem, in the kid-glove treatment confessed criminals receive at the hands of juries.

The solemn responsibility resting on a juror's shoulders has been stressed times without end by judges of the local district courts and, no dubt, by judges of other courts throughout Texas. It is a responsibility the law recognizes, but in the light of past events in Texas and particularly in Wichita Falls, it is responsibility the jurors themselves are accepting all too lightly.

Justice, tempered with mercy, is the mission of the courts. They are created to see that law is respected and obeyed, but the success they attain in this mission depends largely on the support they get from John Doe and Henry Roe in the jury box.

Jurists have long been of the opinion that the apparent break-down in American law-enforcement has been due primarily to a misplaced sentimentalism on the part of jurors who pay too much attention to high-powered oratory, the tears of the wives of crooks and the softening influence of a bright-eyed baby playing about a defendant-daddy's knee in the court room. These same jurists, however, have thus far been unable to devise any remedy.

The Record News does not attempt to pass on the judgment of the juries which a few days ago gave Jack Russell minimum sentences on a serious charge after the district attorney had earnestly begged for a maximum plea. Perhaps the minimum sentence was thoroughly justifiable. But in the light of his melodramatic escape, it would appear that the district attorney was not making an unreasonable request when he asked for a stiff sentence.

If Russell's case can serve as an example he will have accomplished some good to offset the black marks on the other side of his ledger.

LARGEST AMERICAN INDUSTRY

NOW it has been made known that the value of motor products was $3,000,000,000 in 1925. It has been made known that the automobile business is the largest industry in the United States, the rating being based on the wholesale value of the product.

This isn't guess work, as the rating was made by the experts of the federal department of commerce, and they say the wholesale value of the record 1925 production is $3,000,000,000.

Now the motor manufacturers say the future will provide low priced and high quality motor transportation; more efficient and more comfortable means of travel; continued development of our national resources and foreign business, which will help the trade of Americans and of the world.

And yet Henry Ford says the flying age is coming, when commercial and pleasure planes will transact most of the commerce of the world.

AMONG HIS FRIENDS

SENATOR GERALD P. NYE of North Dakota classifies himself as a republican progressive. There was no seat for him on the regular republican side of the senate, so he found one on the reservation of the democrats and republican insurgents, who voted him into the senate.

He smilingly said that the seat was all right, that it placed him among his friends which was a rather cryptic remark and not at all pleasing to the administration senators who voted for him to return to the corn patches and wheat fields of North Dakota.

IT OUGHT TO BE EASY

A GREAT preacher said the other day that the world seemed to prefer mediocrity to ability.

That is largely true. Mediocrity is after all only average intelligence. It is natural for people to be a little uneasy in the presence of those who think differently and who have ideas that the general run cannot readily understand.

Looking at the multitudes you see around you, listening to their conversation, considering the stupid things that they are constantly doing; it would seem that to surpass them ought to be easy.

An editor of my acquaintance once said that brains had so little competition in the world, that nobody ought to have an excuse for not being a success.

Yet there are a great many people of high intelligence and originality who never succeed brilliantly in their own generation.

Shelley was one of them. Keats was another. Both were so far ahead of their times that they were misunderstood and under-rated.

Byron, far more showy, achieved a tremendous reputation, and would have kept it till the day of his death had his conduct not brought him into disgrace.

The other two, with perhaps greater genius, died without ever tasteing the public applause that followed Byron. Today they have come into their own, and, let us hope, are aware of it in the Heaven that is reserved for the great benefactors of the race.

The man of ability who is determined to get along will get along.

But his way will not be easy.

He must overcome a great deal of opposition from those who do not understand him first in his little town, if he is born in one, next in the organization where he begins.

The world is slow to admit that any one man is greater than the general average.

In business organizations there is always sullen opposition to the advancement of those who show more enterprise, and a great deal of holding back on the part of subordinates when they are promoted.

In "The Ugly Duckling," Han Christian Anderson tells a story that one could tell over in every generation many times, and never want for a hero.

Yet the alert and the industrious do rise, and their rise is being constantly recorded by the newspapers.

For even the average citizen in time learns that there are men in the world deserving of honor, and then they are glad to give it, for the instinct of hero worship is widely scattered.

Ambition is a useful and natural quality. No attainment is possible without it.

But no ambition can be attained merely by doing one's work in the best way one knows how to do it.

He must convince others that it is good work, and he will find that a far more difficult task.

However, difficulties are necessary to development. And there is no time in this life to sympathize with those who become discouraged merely because they are not immediately appreciated.

RAILROAD PROSPERITY

THE Pennsylvania railroad, one of the great transportation systems of the world, has announced its net income for 11 months of 1925 as $91,000,000. The New York Central, another great system reports net profits of $63,000,000 for the same period. The Santa Fe, as great as either of the other two, turned in $48,000,000 in net profits while the Southern reports $46,000,000 for the same 11 months.

The Florida East Coast railway is spending $95,000,000 on an improvement and building program for 1926, included in which is rapid construction of a big double-tracking project.

Railroad prosperity is not a dream or a myth, at least where the big systems are concerned.

"Love Bound In Wichita Falls"

By the Author of 'The Flapper Wife'

READ THIS FIRST:

FLOSSIE and MARY ROSE MIDDLETON are two pretty sisters, the daughters of a widowed mother. They work for the Dexter Automobile company.

Mary Rose is secretary to JOHN MANNERS, the sales manager, and is in love with him. But he's engaged to DORIS HINIG, an heiress. Because of her feeling for him, Mary Rose repeatedly refuses to marry DR. TOM FITZROY.

Flossie, a born vamp, does a very poor job of keeping the office flies. Mary Rose discovers she is carrying on a flirtation with the president of the company, HILARY DEXTER although she's going to marry his secretary, SAM JESSUP. She accepts valuable gifts from him and goes joy-riding with him at all hours. Her mother can do nothing with her.

John Manners falls in love with Mary Rose as he never has been in love with Doris Hinig, and tells her so. And Mary Rose is in seventh heaven.

That night the two sisters quarrel, and Flossie to get even tells Manners that Mary Rose is "just stringing him along" and really intends to marry Tom Fitzroy. Manners believes Flossie's convincing lie, and Mary Rose is hurt and puzzled by his sudden coldness.

MRS. DEXTER finds out about her husband's love affair with Flossie. When she comes to the office, she mistakes Mary Rose for Flossie, and loudly accuses her of trying to steal her husband. The door is open and the whole office force hear the tongue-lashing Mary Rose receives and they begin to snub her. Flossie, the real culprit, begs Mary Rose to take the blame because she's afraid that if Sam hears the truth of the story he won't marry her. So Mary Rose shoulders Flossie's blame, but she decides to leave the Dexter company. Dexter manages to soothe his angry wife and she promises not to divorce him.

One night he goes too far in his love making and Flossie learns how little respect a married man has for the girl who runs around with him. Next day she elopes with Sam Jessup. The pair wire that they are coming home after their two weeks' honeymoon, and Tom Fitzroy tells Mrs. Middleton that he is going to marry Mary Rose himself the next week!

(Now Go on With the Story)

"Well, I mean to encourage the girl!" Tom told her. "We'll give her all the household utensils that grow in the hardware stores and turn her loose among them! She may surprise us all, and turn into a regular Mrs. Rorer. Who can tell?"

Tom was almost as pleased with the marriage as if it had been his own. Not a day passed but he came to the house laden with wedding presents —absurd things for the most part, like wicker bird cages and smoking stands that fell over if you touched them.

"I certainly get an awful kick out of buying these things," he told Mary Rose, seriously a little later when the two of them were in the kitchen making sandwiches and coffee, for Tom was hungry as usual.

"You do?" Mary Rose asked innocently. "Why?" She knew perfectly without his telling her.

"Because it makes me think of the time when I'll be buying 'em for you," he said, just as she had known he would. "Brooms and vacuum cleaners and dishmops and—and cradles and things—"

He would have kissed her but the door bell rang just then and she pulled herself away from him and went to answer it.

A boy stood there with a special delivery letter from Flossie.

Mrs. Middleton read it aloud:

"Dear Mother:

"Kill the fatted calf and get ready the wreaths, for the honeymooners will be home tomorrow. We're on each other's nerves so terribly that if we don't see somebody besides ourselves there'll be a divorce in the family before the wedding announcements are out. Love from Flossie."

"Well, well, so they're coming home!" she observed, smiling slyly, as she pulled her shawl around her shoulders and started for the front door. "And I must be going! See you all tomorrow. Good night."

Tom watched her disappear with a twinkle in his nice blue eyes.

Moving picture of Aunt Henny, hating it to tell the street!" he commented. Then he turned to Mrs. Middleton.

"Let me give the kids their wedding breakfast," he said to her, and as she started to shake her head he went on:

"Why not? You know I'm going to be one of the family in a few days, don't you. Mary Rose is going to marry me next week!"

CHAPTER LII

The first cheerful look that Mary Rose had seen on her mother's face since Flossie's marriage lighted it up now.

It cost her a pang to say the words that she knew would drive that look away. But she said them as lightly as she could. "Of course Tom's only kidding you Mother! He knows I wouldn't dream of marrying him next week—"

"How about the week after, then?" Tom asked. His blue eyes twinkled with humor, but Mary Rose knew that he was in deadly earnest nevertheless.

She shook her head. "I'm not going to marry you any week!" she answered.

"Well, I wish you were going to," Mrs. Middleton broke in sharply. "I wouldn't be half so upset about Flossie bringing this Sam into the family if I thought I could have Tom for my son, too."

"You can as far as I'm concerned," Tom answered, throwing one of his arms around her small, drooping shoulders. "But Mary Rose won't have me."

"She'll live to regret it, too!" her mother said, picking up Flossie's letter and smoothing it between her fingers. "I've told her time and time again that she'll never meet anybody she'll like better than she does you, Tom. She's in love with you, and she doesn't know it! That's all that ails her."

But Mary Rose knew—and Tom knew it, too —that she was not in love with him.

"Why are you leaving the Dexter company?" he asked when Mrs. Middleton had gone upstairs to bed and left them alone in the back parlor. "I thought you were so crazy about that guy, Manners, that nothing would pry you loose from your job with him."

Mary Rose shrugged her shoulders, looking into the flames that flickered in the old-fashioned iron grate.

"You always tell me that I'm in love with him," she said in a low tone.

But Tom noticed that she did not deny that she was.

"One of the reasons I'm leaving Dexter's is because there's a wild story going around the office about me and Hilary Dexter," she began, after a long silence that seemed to palpitate in the air of the little room with its warm firelight and late chrysanthemums.

"About you and Dexter?" Tom asked, sitting bolt upright in his chair. "Why, how in the dickens could there be a scandal about you and Dexter? There couldn't be—"

"There is, all the samey," Mary Rose told him calmly. "Floss left her vanity case in Dexter's car one night and Mrs. Dexter found it. She came tearing down to the office and I happened to be taking his dictation that morning. So she jumped to the conclusion that it was I who'd been out with Dexter—and I let her jump to it! You see, if Sam Jessup had ever found out that Flossie'd been running around with him, he just never would have married her! As it is, Sam thinks I'm too terrible for words, and that Flossie is a gilded angel!"

Tom scrowled darkly at the flames. "And I suppose that's what your friend, Manners, thinks about you, too—and that's why you're leaving him," he said grimly.

"No, I dont' believe he ever heard about it until I told him myself," the girl replied. "He didn't seem to think anything of the story, one way or the other. I suppose he's so busy thinking about Doris Hining that he doesn't waste much time or thought on any one else."

A note of bitterness crept into her voice, as she went on: "You wouldn't marry me now, with a story like that hung on me, even if I said I'd marry you, would you?"

The flame of eagerness that leaped up in his face startled her with its intensity. "I wouldn't?" he exclaimed. "Say, just try me—"

He turned in his chair and took both of her listless hands in his, pressing them until she winced.

"Listen to me, Mary Rose," he said seriously. "If nobody on earth would speak to you, I'd marry you if you'd let me. It doesn't matter a darn to me what other people ever say or think about you. You're the only girl I've ever wanted, and I'll always want you. Nothing can make any difference—"

She raised her eyes, with their long, curled lashes, and looked at him for a long time without speaking.

"Why can't I care for him the way he does for me?" she asked herself, as she had asked that same question a thousand times. "If I could, everything would be so simple, so easy, so perfect. He's so good and I do like him—"

She got up, sat on the arm of his chair and laid he lips lightly on his crisp, red hair. Instantly he turned and took her in his arms in a grip that was like a band of steel around her. He was on fire for her, but no answering flame rose in the heart of Mary Rose.

That was the difference! When John Manners took her hand or brushed her shoulder with his a tingling went all along her nerves. The mere sound of his voice thrilled her as everything Tom Fitzroy had ever said had not been able to thrill her.

"Don't Tom!" she said suddenly and pushed him away. She felt that, somehow, she had been untrue to John Manners when she had kissed Tom in that sisterly way—untrue to John, who didn't care whether she lived or died!

"Oh, I won't care about him, either!" she told herself angrily, late that night when Tom had gone and she stood undressing before her mirror. "I won't let myself feel this way about him. I hate him! I hate him! I hate him!"

But the next morning she found herself dressing herself for his eyes. It was her second last day at the Dexter Company, and way down deep in Mary Rose's heart was a shamed hope that he wouldn't let her leave, after all.

"Are you going to the office today?" Mrs. Middleton asked in surprise, when she came down to breakfast in her only new fall dress—a soft, plain thing of dove gray crepe romaine. She nodded.

"Well, think you ought to stay home and help me get things ready for our little celebration for Flossie—and Sam, tonight," he mother said. She choked on Sam's name.

She had called him "that whipper-snapper" and "that jumping jack" and "that nitwit" so long that his Christian name came to her lips slowly now.

"There won't be much to do. The house is clean and Tom's going to send all the food from the caterer," Mary Rose told her. "I'll go down for half a day, and when I come home at noon I'll bring a lot of flowers along and we'll decorate the house with them. How will that do?"

POEMS THAT LIVE

To the Evening Star.

Star that bringest home the bee,
And sett'st the weary labourer free!
If any star shed peace, 'tis thou
That send'st it from above
Appearing when heaven's breath and brow
Are sweet as hers we love.

Come to the luxuriant skies,
Whilst the landscape's odours rise,
Whilst far-off lowing herds are heard
And songs when toil is done,
From cottages whose smoke unstirr'd
Curls yellow in the sun.

Star of Love's soft interviews,
Parted lovers on thee muse;
Their remembrancer in heaven
Of thrilling vows thou art,
Too delicious to be riven
By absence from the heart.

—Thomas Campbell.

Lyrics of Life

LYRICS OF LIFE.
By Douglas Malloch,
A Friendly Thought.

(On receiving a round-robin" of goodwill signed by thirty-two members of the Victory Bible Class, of Roanoke, Va.)

If we would give a friend a gift
We need not always look for gold.
Love has a greater pow'r to lift
Than all the trinkets ever sold.
And proves, when someone is alrigt,
A firmer thing to which to hold.

Oh, there are things that may be had,
Are many things that may be bought.
And yet, when someone's heart is sad,
I know of nothing that is wrought
To make the heart of someone glad
As lovely as a friendly thought.
The chains of friendship are not made
On any anvil, fashioned of
Silver or gold or gem or jade—
The things all other things above,
The treasures that will never fade,
Are things we fashion out of love.

Yes, we may search the world to find
Some gift some stranger could have bought,
And yet the richest are the kind;
Who gives but gold may give far naught.
They give a gift by God designed
Who send a friend a friendly thought.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

By MRS FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

A VOICE IN THE WILDERNESS

Peter's question was answered in a way entirely unexpected to himself, and so suddenly that the boy jerked his head backward and struck it on a jagged edge of the rock against which he found himself sitting.

"Where are you? What a foolish question! You're in Hyenaland, of course. Why you should have any doubt about it I can't understand. Look about you! What do you see? Nothing but bare rocks and one lonely palm tree. Who but outcasts like Hyenas would ever live in a wilderness like this? If you can't get your bearings by the landmarks, haven't you any sense of smell? Doesn't your nose know where you are? The wind has whispered to me that 'tis fun to watch the Fourt-Feet run when they catch my scent. Even the fiercest and strongest animals don't like it and hurry off in another direction when they think I am coming. Only the Two-Legs alone are not afraid. Dear me, dear me, how stupid you must be!"

This was a long speech for any one to make at one time, and it was uttered in such a snarling voice that at first Peter did not dare make a move to find out who the speaker was. To be called stupid, though! The boy jumped to his feet and turned the corner of the rock, crying as he ran:—

"I am not stupid. I am a stranger in a strange place, that is all. How much would you know about a country if you had never stepped foot in it before? 'Tis you who are not very smart. If you were, you would guess I was a visitor here and be a little polite to me!"

Then Peter stopped scolding. A short distance from the rock was a huddled heap of spotted fur rocking violently from side to side. Peter supposed it must be Hyena, but could see nothing of the creature except a sprawling paw and the tip of a bushy tail. Where was the fellow's head? Peter ventured nearer. Why, it was buried in his front paws! That was a queer way to greet a stranger! What was Hyena doing? Would he be bowing low before a Two-Legs? Or didn't he wish to look a human in the eye?

YOU TELL 'EM!
By Louis Siegel

Tell me, Bill, in gleeful phrases,
Of that "Lady of your Heart!"
Sing me of her countless praises,
Set her with the Gods apart!
Tell me that no mortal creatures
Ever did possess her charm;
Tell me her exotic features
Fill you with a wild alarm;
That her presence is unnerving,
There is magic in her eyes;
That you're truly undeserving
Of so exquisite a prize!

Tell me all about Miss Waldron—
Gentle-mannered as the dove—
Tell me that your heart's a cauldron
Seething with tremendous love!
Tell me how you've turned ambitious,
Spurred by all these ecstasies;
Tell me there is much delicious
Myst'ry in her subtleties.
Tell me that no earthly ransom
Ever purchased such a gem.
Tell me everything you can some other time than 3 A. M.!

Tres Clever, Oui?

Several years ago my father broke his arm and was obliged to carry it in a sling for several weeks.

After seeing him on the street, a little girl friend of ours ran to her mother and said: "Oh, mother, Mr. Newman can't go to heaven and be an angel."

"Why not?" asked her mother.

"Because," said the little girl, "he broke one of his wings."

LITTLE PEEPS BEHIND THE SCENES
The Jury Room

Foreman—That yarn reminds me of that one about Pat and Mike. It seems that Pat was—

First Juror—In the room at the hotel?

Foreman—Yes, and Mike came in, and—

First Juror—Haw, haw. I've heard that one!

Second Juror—So have I. That was a good one. Have you heard the one about the traveling man and the waitress? Stop me if you've heard it. A traveling man asked a waitress if there was any chicken on the menu—

Third Juror—And the waitress said that there was a few minutes ago.

Fourth Juror—But she wiped it off. Haw! Haw!

Fifth Juror—That reminds me of a good one! Let's see, are there any women on the jury? I guess not. Well, it seems that a traveling salesman registered at a hotel and—

Sixth Juror—Ha, ha, ha, ha! I've heard that one. Go on and tell it!

Foreman—By the way. Just a minute boys. We've got to come to a verdict. Is the prisoner guilty or not guilty?

Chorus of Jurors—Darned if we know. Let's flip a coin—tails he's guilty, heads he's innocent!

Foreman—And if it stands on edge it's a hung jury. Let her go!

Ankles Instead Of Knees Coming Back

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Ankles instead of knees are again coming into style.

Evening gowns during the coming season are going to be ankle length, according to models displayed at the annual fashion show of the National Garment Retailers association. The lower hem line, however, is confined to evening dress, for sports and afternoon costumes are still dashingly short, most of the models seldom reaching to more than three inches below the knees.

Civic League To Collect Rummage

Members of the Civic league are endeavoring to collect rummage for a sale to be held in the near future, and are requesting their frends to send anything they can spare in the way of canned goods, discarded furniture, toys, clothing, books—either story or good fiction, the latter for the colred school library, to the nearest school to them today and Friday. The date of the sale will be announced when the rummage is collected, according to Mrs. Bleakley, chairman of the league.

Those who have no way to send their rummage to the nearest school building, are asked to phone Mrs. B. M. Hester, 6596, Mrs. O. W. Harvey, 5956, and Mrs. H. J. Strief, 4553.

The league is also planning considerable work for the next few weeks in the way of a clean-up, and also work for parents during the summer months, Mrs. Bleakley announces.

Women Urged To Pay Up Poll Tax

Have you women of Wichita Falls paid your poll tax? If not pay it before February 1 and vote, it is a civic duty, is the admonition given by Mrs. A. R. Bleakley, chairman of the civic department of the Woman's Forum.

Quoting part of a civic talk given on a recent occasion, by a prominet Wichita Falls man, "Too Many Fools Are Voting Now," Mrs. Bleakley says does not apply to the women voters. Women have proven that this is the wrong view of the question and that the casting of their vote will not be an addition to this class.

By careful study of the political question and an unbiased casting of their ballot women have raised the standard of society, home, morals and whatsoever they have undertaken prompted by serious thought.

They can raise political standards and it is their solemn duty to do so since it was in their power, and it is not only a duty but a privilege and a sacred one, according to Mrs. Bleakley.

Poll taxes to the amount of $25,000 should be paid this year by men and women, and so far only $6,670 of this amount has been received. In the year of 1923, $16,801 was paid on poll taxes, while in 1924 the amount was lowered to $13,094, according to figures submitted by Mrs. Bleakley, who is chairman of the civic department of the Forum is launching "women pay your poll tax" drice.

Oil Trial To Be Closed Thursday

Conclusion of the argument in the case of R. D. Scott et al vs H. E. McConnell, a suit for $80,000, trial of which has been under way in the 89th district court before Judge P. A. Martin gor the past two days, will be heard this morning.

The plaintiff alleges that in 1922 he paid a 10-cent per acre rental on a 200-acre lease in Crockett county, Texas, then considered worthless, with the understanding between him and McConnell, owner of the lease, that if ever a profit was deriver from the property, it was to be shared half and half between them.

The lease recently sold, it is alleged by the plaintiff, for $160,000, $60,000 of which was in cash and the remainder in oil. The suit is for half of the $160,000, or $30,000 in cash and $50,000 in oil.

COURT DROPS D. & R. G. SUIT

$200,000,000 Accounting Claim Dismissed In New York

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The $200,000,000 accounting suit brought by 6,000 minority stockholders of the old Denver & Rio Grande railroad against former directors was dismissed today by Supreme Court Justice Mullan.

The dismissal was granted soon after Abraham Benedict, counsel for the stockholders, conceded that none of the defendants had profited personally as the result of the railroad's failure. Mr. Benedict, however, took exception to the court's dismissal of the case.

Following the procedure provided for such motions to dismiss, Justice Mullan amended the motion of counsel for the defendants so that it might be deemed that the defendants had rested their case. The court then gave judgment to the defendants on the merits.

Newly Invented Glass Bounces Like Rubber Ball

LONDON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The new glass invented by Austrian chemists which bends, bounces and breaks without splintering is soon to be manufactured in England. Experts declare it can be made at the same cost as the ordinary brittle glass.

Describing the new substance the magazine Motor says it retains its clarity under all atmospheric conditions and that in resiliency tests it bounces like a rubber ball.

"Windshields and windows of automobiles made of the new material," said one expert, "will have the transparency, whiteness and durability of glass with a degree of flexibility which will remove all danger from splinters or jagged breaks."

DEATH TAKES 2 STARS

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Death has taken two ends of a famous Yale football team within a month—Frank Hinkey, one of the foremost wingmen of all time, and John Campbell Greenway, who had to bear the heaviest burden on the defense because opposing teams considered it next to impossible to circle Hinkey's line.

Greenway, who died here yesterday after an operation, was a mining engineer and a veteran of two wars.

FEDERAL JUDGE IS UNDER FIRE

Tennessee Jurist Charged Incompetence and Immorality

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP) Federal Judge Harry B. Anderson of the western district of Tennessee was charged with falsifying records in cases pending before him in documents laid today before a senate judiciary subcommittee.

The charges were in the form of specifications which the committee was asked to make a basis for investigation of Judge Anderson's acts. He was accused also of failing to administer punishment "in the manner, grade and degree required by law in the particular cases then pending for consideration and in failing to uphold the law and properly administer the law in cases pending before him."

Another charge was that the judge "is without legal training and legally incompentent and morally incapable of properly discharging the duties of the high office" and that he was not a resident of the district when he took office.

Judge Anderson was given a recess appointment last September and his confirmation is now contested.

Unblemished SKIN

Gives You confidence
HOW conscious we are of our skin! Even one little pimple or blackhead will so embarrass us that we want to hide right away. And eczema, boils, blotches and rashes! Why, these awful things simply destroy all our ambition!
But what confidence we have in ourselves if our skin is clear and unblemished—free from any eruptions or breaking out! A clear skin is one of the greatest possessions in the world—and it is so easy to have it. All that is necessary is to keep our systems full of rich, red, pure blood. S. S. S. helps Nature build this blood. And the impurities that cause these so-called skin disorders are driven right out of the system.
If you want the kind of skin that captivates men and compels the admiration of other women, just remember that you can't have it if your blood is impoverished. But, just build red-blood-cells in your blood with S. S. S. and your dream of a soft, rosy, velvet skin, clear of blemishes, will be realized. Then notice the difference in the way you feel.
S. S. S. has proven for generations that it helps Nature build the rich, red blood that makes beautiful skin and healthy bodies. Let S. S. S. prove it for you.
Get S. S. S. from any drug store. And get the larger bottle. It's more economical.

OIL INDUSTRY RETAINS HUGHES

Former Secretary of State To Appear Before Board

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Employment of Charles Evans Hughes, former secretary of state, to represent the oil industry in hearings before the federal oil conservation board, and receipt of a $25,000 donation for scientific research and scholarships, were outstanding features of today's session of the sixth annual convention of the American petroleum institute here. These were matters developed in the meeting of the board of directors.

Before the group meetings, devoted to special subjects, important matters included presentation of the "general balance sheet" as first unit in a uniform system of oil accounting for the industry, and announcement that the industry has developed fuels for high compression automobile engines and is waiting upon the automobile industry to take the next move for advancement of automobile development.

Is Important Step

The selection of former secretary of state Hughes as counsel marks an important step by the industry, its leaders said, in relations with the federal oil conservation board. The appointment as expressed in a letter of acceptance from Mr. Hughes made public by the board is based upon the understanding of a cordial and thoroughgoing cooperation with the federal board.

"It seems to me," Hughes' letter said, "that such an impartial inquiry, conducted by men so eminently competent and disinterested as are the members of the federal oil conservation board, should be welcomed so that all the exigencies of the industry and all practicable methods of promoting the economical production and use of oil may be carefully considered."

$250,000 Pledged

The $250,000 donations to the institute was pledged by the Universal Oil Products company of Chicago in a letter read before the board by H. J. Halle, its president. That company, of which J. Ogden Armour was one of the founders is a technical and scientific organization exclusively engaged in technical and scientific activities with the petroleum industry. The donation follows and supplements a $500,000 donation by John D. Rockefeller announced this year.

The fund will be available over a period of five years at the rate of $50,000 a year, and was suggested for use in establishment of scholarships in universities and colleges for the study and development of petroleum science.

Tomorrow the board of directors will elect officers.

Mexico Building Good Road System

LAREDO, Texas, Jan. 20.—In a few years Mexico will have finished the task of building the great national system of highways that will extend over the entire breath of the country, "Good Roads," an organ published in Mexico City and dedicated to good roads in Mexico, declares.

"The most important of these will be the Laredo-Mexico City highway and the road to the Guatemala border," the magazine states. "These roads will form a direct line of communication between North and Central America and will doubtless become in future years the main arteries of Pan-American tourfist traffic.

"Guatemala, Salvador and Costa Rica, inching in rail communication, have fairly good automobile roads. Salvador and Guatemala are criss crossed with a network of roads. Guatemala is at this time building a number of important roads. The revolutionary period in Honduras, during the past six years, has greatly impeded the progress or road building in that country, but it is certain that in the near future that country, too, will realize the need of adequate communication and take steps accordingly.

Bankers Protest U. S. Estate Tax

The special committee on taxation of the American Bankers association has filed a brief with the United States senate finance committee urging elimination of the federal estate tax. The tax, it declares, is not logically a federal matter since federal law does not control transmission of property at death. Such a tax should be reserved for emergencies, is no longer needed for federal revenue, constitutes greater interference with state revenues than at any time in our history, decreases state revenues and imposes a heavier administrative burden on estates than in the case of state inheritance taxes, the committee declares. It also opposes the estate tax provisions of the House revenue bill because the emergency justifying the tax has passed.

SENATE PROBES JUSTICE PROBE

Seeks to Find Out Just How Far Investigation Went

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Francis Walker, in charge of the federal trade commission's investigation into the Aluminum Company of America, told a senate committee today that the department of justice inquiring into the same case apparently had not fully understood the question of price discrimination involved.

The committee is seeking information whether the justice department diligently followed up the case against the company, in which Secretary Mellon is a stockholder.

Walker corroborated the testimony of other witnesses that the trade commission did not promise to keep confidential the evidence it secured from the company.

Senator Walsh asked Mr. Walker how long it would take him "to determine upon the basis of your report" whether the aluminum company had violated decrees of the federal court.

"A few hours," Walker replied.

He said a comprehensive investigation such as the justice department undertook last January could have been completed within three or four months.

PROPOSES NEW FLEET BOARD

New York Solon Would Separate Existing Condition

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Separation of fleet corporation and shipping board which would be supplanted by a merchant marine commission of three members with regulatory and semi-judicial duties, and creation of a federal shipping council and regional advisory councils were proposed in a bill today by Representative Bacon, republican, New York.

This measure and one introduced recently by Chairman Scott of the house merchant marine committee follow recommendations of the national merchant marine conference. Curtailment of shipping board powers and the placing of fleet control under a single executive also were recommended by President Coolidge in his annual message to congress.

The federal shipping council proposed by Mr. Bacon would be authorized to develop ocean trade routes and would comprise the secretary of commerce as chairman, the secretaries of the treasury war and navy, postmaster general, president of the fleet corporation and seven other regional members to be appointed by the president.

MOODY SEEKS ROAD REVIEW

Files Brief With Supereme Court on Archer Bond Case

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The United States supreme court today took under advisement a petition submitted by Attorney General Dan Moody of Texas, for permission to ask a rehearing of the case decided January 4th, holding as contrary to the federal constitution the Texas law under which road district No. 4 of Archer county was organized.

Moore Steps Out.

In presenting the motion, G. Carroll Todd, representing Attorney General Moody said the motion had been put in its present form because County Attorney John R. Moore, who defended the statute in an appeal brought by Perry Browning and other property owners in Archer county, had refused to seek a re-hearing and had announced his intention of asking the court to hand down its mandate giving full and final force to its opinion.

General Moody in the motion, stressed the importance of the case to Texas. He said $204,000 of the permanent free school fund had been invested in bonds of road districts organized under the law which was held invalid, and that about $75,000,000 of such road bonds now were held throughout the United States.

Won't Collect Taxes.

Officers of certain counties of the state, he addad, were unwilling to collect taxes levied to pay the interest and principal of such bonds because they believed the taxes illegal and were unwilling to pay interest coupons now due on the bonds.

Masterson of Amarillo, owner of the largest gas well in the world, who drove a herd of cattle to the Panhandle plains in 1880 and settled there, returned to his old stamping grounds in the Texas capital for a visit today. He said when he bought the JY ranch of 103,000 acres north of Amarillo, which he calls his "pasture" he bought it for grass not gas, but he does not mind that the Masterson number 4, owned by the Amarillo Oil company, is spouting 107,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day.

He mentioned casually that "they are drilling for oil on my JY pasture in King county. Asked how large the "pasture" was, he said "only 84,000 acres."

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

Gray hair however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance.
Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.
Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, for only 75 cents." This is merely the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready to use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Adv.

FORD MAKES 2 MILLION UNITS

All Branches of His Great Industry Turn Out Huge Number

The Ford Motor company, in all its divisions, produced a total of 2,103,588 cars, trucks, tractors and airplanes during 1925, according to figures just given out at the general offices of the Ford Motor company. Exclusive of airplanes, which is a new industry with the company, this is an increase of 20,033 automotive units over 1924.

In the production of Ford cars and trucks during the year, domestic plants in the United States assembled 1,775,245. Foreign plants of the company produced 136,461 cars and trucks and the output of the Ford Motor company of Canada, Ltd., totaled 79,289. Fordson tractor production was 104,168 and the Lincoln division of the company produced during the year a total of 8,415 Lincoln cars. In the newest division of the company, the airplane factory, the output was ten all-metal planes since the factory was acquired by the company on Aug. 1, 1925.

The remarkable output of Ford cars and trucks was reached in spite of the fact that for a period of more than 30 days during August and September domestic production was almost negligible due to the introduction of the improved types. The same condition prevailed later on in the foreign assembly plants as the change to the improved cars were made in these places, some of which are just now getting into appreciable production with the improved types.

Better Service To Come to Motorists

More efficient service stations with lower charges to the consumer were predicted by Alvan Macauley, president of Packard, and the paper of Alfred P. Sloan Jr., president of General Motors, speaking before the Second World Motor Transport congress, concluding in New York today. Delegates from Great Britain and Australia likewise expressed the view that a more thorough organization of repair work will yield lower prices to the buyer as well as better returns to the merchant. S. D. Black, representing the parts makers, pointed out the value of modern equipment in reducing service station costs.

Occupation Army Is Likely To Stay

PARIS, Jan. 20.—(AP)—There is little prospect of a favorable reply to Germany's request for a decrease in the number of allied troops of occupation in the Rhineland, it was said in official circles today.

There now are about 60,000 French troops in the occupied territory, including service of supplies, guards and line communications, it was stated, while the British and Belgians have about 8,000 each.

The French require many more men than their allies because they have far greater ground to cover.

The German demand will be referred to the council of ambassadors for consideration at its next meeting, the date for which has not been fixed.

Fruit Growers To Oppose Changes

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Passage of the Gooding bill to prevent the granting by railroads of lower rates for long than for short hauls would work hardship on the California fruit industry, Seth Mann of the San Francisco chamber of commerce told the senate interstate commerce committee today.

If railroads were not permitted to participate in revenues from traffic now being carried by ship lines through the Panama canal, he said, they would have to increase their rates on California perishables. The condition of the California fruit industry, even now, he said, is precarious and it should have a reduction in rates.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga.—Adv.

MILLIONS DIE OF INDIGESTION

Most Common, Yet Insidious of Fatal Diseases Strikes Like Lightning and When Least Expected.

Protect yourself by strengthening your digestive organs with Ferraline—then eat what you please without fear of trouble.

Nature, with her infinite wisdom, has provided in Ferraline a quick and sure relief for the millions who are living in constant fear of that dreaded disease—Indigestion. Ferraline is not a concoction made by man but is a strictly natural product, and contains the essential elements which Nature has provided to strengthen and tone up the weakened organs of digestion.

Indigestion and weak blood march hand-in-hand. No dyspeptic can have pure rich blood until his digestion is made perfect again. Stomach disorders always weaken the blood and weak blood causes anaemia, weakness, and nervousness.

If you have had warnings of Indigestion, do not delay another day to accept the positive guarantee that your money will be promptly and cheerfully refunded if the very first bottle of Ferraline does not give you relief. Don't me misled into believing that heart-burn, gas, bloating, constipation, billiousness, sick-stomach, heart and kidney pains will gradually go away. These are danger signals warning you that the dread diseases, Indigestion, is gradually sapping your very life. Regenerate your digestive organs at once with Ferraline, then you can eat three good meals every day without discomfort. A ten-days' treatment of Ferraline will cost you only One Dollar at your druggists.—Adv.

Better Than Whiskey For Colds and Flu

The sensation of the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsful. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel the distressing symptoms of your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

Take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and children, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for children as well as adults. Quickest relief for catarrhal croup and children's choking up at night.—Adv.

WALTON RAPS TEXAS FARMERS

Says Agriculture of State Is On a "One-Sided Basis

DALLAS, Jan. 20.—(AP)—President T. O. Walton of A. and M. college criticized Texas agriculture as being a "one-sided business" and charged that Texas farmers were robbing themselves and their soil, in an address before the Texas Hardware and Improvement association convention here today.

Failure of farmers to balance their crops and their traditional policy of planting only cotton was compared by the speaker with a hardware dealer who should refuse to carry anything but cast iron stoves and wagon axles.

Need No Sales.

"I hope the time will never come when the sale of commercial fertilizer will become profitable in Texas," he said. "Commercial fertilizer means that the farmer has let his land go to waste, that he has worn it out.

"At present this state does not spend much on commercial fertilizer as compared with some other states. Only 6.2 percent of Texas farmers buy fertilizer. But the time is certainly coming, unless we do something, when we shall be in the position of South Carolina where 90 percent of the farmers buy fertilizer and of Georgia, where 88 percent are forced to the same procedure.

"In 1920 Texas farmers spent one million dollars for fertilizer. South Carolina farmers in the same year spent 48 million and Georgia farmers 52 million."

Turning from this, President Walton severely criticized the custom of buying feedstuffs out of the state.

ASK RATE REVISION.

AUSTIN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Western Produce company of Abilene today filed petition with the Texas railroad commission for revision of rates on carload shipments of poultry from Abilene to El Paso. It will be heard Feb. 9. A $1 per 100 pounds rates is proposed.

Coal Parley Hits Another Obstacle

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Proposed legislation for control of anthracite mining struck an obstacle in the Pennsylvania legislature today when two bills sponsored by Governor Pinchot were virtually killed by the house committee on mines and mining. Action on one bill, proposing to make coal a public utility was "indefinitely postponed" by the committee. The other bill providing for state compacts to regulate production and marketing of coal, was given a "negative recommendation." The committee action was not formally reported before the legislature adjourned today until next Monday night.

Morhiser, age 83, who died at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of his nephew, Will Hursch, 1200 Broad street, will be held at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon from the chapel of the Merkle Undertaking company, Rev. $75,000 NOW IN C. C. TILL

Balance of $100,000 Budget To be Raised in Few Days, Is Belief

With $75,000 accounted for and still more in sight, chamber of commerce officials announced Wednesday that their campaign for a budget of $100,000 in 1926 was continuing to get results. Confidence was again expressed by J. C. Mytinger, president of the chamber, that the full amount would eventually be raised. This $25,000, it was said, would probably be forthcoming in the next few days.

The reports Wednesday of the follow-up committee brought in several thousand dollars additional, and plans are now being made to go back over the rated cards of those whose investments have not come up to the original figure given them. It is here the additional money will be found.

There still remain a number of out-of-town prospects, home office concerns maintaining branch offices in Wichita Falls, who have not returned their pledge cards and checks. These will aid in swelling the totals materially.

ROBBERY CHARGE FILED

Charges of robbery with firearms were filed Wednesday against Ella Mae Benson, negress identified Tuesday night by F. T. M[illegible]aney as the one who held him up and robbed him of $40 on the night of January 9.

Women Need a Mild Laxative —Not a "Physic"

Countless girls and women now know how foolish and needless it is to "purge" and "physic" themselves to avoid sick headache, dizziness, biliousness, sallow skin, colds, or sour, gassy stomach.

They have found that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even for those heretofore chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate girl or woman. Besides, it is absolutely harmless and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine and just see for yourself.

Bleeding, even badly protruding hemorrhoids are assuaged immediately by these wonderful little comforters.

Cramping Spells

"FOR six years I suffered as bad as a woman can and still keep going," says Mrs. Edd Burton, of Depew, Okla. "I was good for nothing, was lifeless and pale, unable to eat anything. At times I had such bad pains in my sides and back I would have to go to bed.

"I had cramping spells and would faint if I stood on my feet for any length of time. My nerves would become upset at the least thing and I would have spells of crying that were so exhausting they left me prostrate. All this was caused by womanly weakness. I knew it, but nothing I took ever got to the source of my trouble.

"Several of my friends suggested that I take Cardui. They told me of their experiences with it and at last I decided to try it. In a few weeks I could see that I was improving, so I kept on. I did not expect the troubles of years to disappear in a few days, nor did they, but in time I was much better. I kept up the Cardui treatment for several months and, thanks to it, I am a well woman now, so I gladly recommend it to other women."

Cardui is obtainable at all drug stores.

ELECTRA, Jan. 20.—The Tarleton drug store of this city was broken open by robbers some time after midnight Tuesday and over $1,000 in money, checks and merchandise removed from the place. Officers are of the opinion the job was done by expert yeggs.

A sledge and cold chisel were then used in breaking into the safe, indications being that experienced thieves did the job.

More Truth Than Poetry

CHICKADEE

He hasn't any snug attire
Nor fleecy woolen hose,
He hasn't any glowing fire
To warm his little toes.
And when the old world wears a thatch
Of snow or icy sleet,
Good Gracious! how he has to scratch
To get enough to eat!
But when the western skies grow dim
And twilight comes along—
He sits upon a popular limb
And sings a cheerful song!

If we should have to stay out there
A long hard winter through
With snow flakes flying through the air,
We'd feel almighty blue.
We might at times cheer up a bit
And chirp and hop about,
And thereby summon all our grit
To stick the winter out.
But when the sun was sinking low
We'd sit with drooping wing—
And though still stout of heart, we know
We should not tr to sing.

But never storm that wings its flight
From yonder near the pole,
However hard it blows can fright
That dauntless little soul.
When snowdrifts hide his pantry shelf
He does not droop or pine,
But murmurs softly to himself:
"Tomorrow I may dine!"
This life would never go awry
When hard luck came along,
If only folks like you and I
Could meet it with a song!

FITZ'LL BE BACK.

Current Associated Press story out of Chicago in speaking of the Cub outlook for a successful summer forray calls attention to the fact Wrigley's enterprise recalled Howard Fitzgerald. There is no need for palpitation of the heart nor elevation of the eyebrows among Spudder fandom. Southpaw Howard will be in that outfield this spring at Spudder park, all right, all right, so the powers in the local baseball office have intimated clearly all along.

* * *

The chances are just about 10 to 1, Fitz will find his way back to the home lot before the season opens Those odds aren't bad.

* * *

Stormy Davis returns to Cowtown and tells Pop Boone Fitzgerald, Dock Smith and a number of other Texas leaguers are cavorting high and handsome in winter league play out Florida way. Fitz ought to be in fairly good shape by time the training camp opens here in March. His batting eye should be pretty good.

* * *

More misery for seven other Texas league clubs: Stormy declares the veteran spitballer, Paul Wachtel, is making 'em all break their backs swinging. Says the rest of the gang has thoughts seriously of banning the saliva ball. Maybe, after all, the impending season is not the one in which the oldtimer is slated to die off or lose his effectiveness. And the Texas league has awaited long for Wachtel to shoot his wad, waited long for Joe Pate to wear out, and now one of 'em seems to have just as much stuff as ever and the other goes up to the big show.

* * *

EULAS WHIFFS 'EM.

Our Eulas Morgan has been heaving 'em right across the platter and hooking 'em over the corners in the Wichita Falls crook's league. Big Dick in conjunction with his battery mate, Fred Stengel (no relation to the famous Casey) has either snared a car thief or recovered a stolen car every night the past week, it's said down at headquarters.

* * *

Plainclothes Officer Morgan and Stengel Tuesday night made a catch in record time. They had been notified but a short time about an auto theft down in Bellevue when they romped out and nabbed the missing car, purloiner and all here in Wichita Falls.

* * *

American boxers are wonderful performers abroad, says Ed Hughes. Some 20-odd years ago, Frankie Neil lost his bantam championship in London to Jen Bowker. Later Willie Ritchie lost his lightweight crown to Freddy Welsh in the same ring. But of all the hundreds of Yankee boxers who have traveled to Europe those are the only ones I can recall losing championships. Europe has ever been mft pickings for first-class American mitt pushers, and it rates just that right now.

* * *

LESSONS PLAUSIBLY.

Lucien Vinez, French lightweight champion, and Papyrus, the English colt who came here to race Zev a few years ago, will tell you there is another important element to be considered in the well-being of a visitor. Even the law plays a part in the campaign for success. Papyrus was a beer-drinking colt, but he wasn't allowed to sip any of it in this country, 'twas said, Zev beat him. Vinez, 'tis said, was missing his usual shot of cognac in the recent clash with Terris. The Frenchman explains that he's not half his best in a prohibition country.

Which, by the way, might be said for most of us.

GORMAN-GOTCH ENCOUNTER TO BE TOUGH ONE

If Sensational German Puts On Stuff He Meets Greek God

THE CARD.

Jack Gorman versus Young Gotch. Lightweights, finish match.

John Emohizer versus Joe Rogacki. Heavyweights, hour limit match.

Place: 812 1-2 Scott Street gym.

Time: 8 o'clock tonight.

If John Emohizer, the German giant and heavyweight sensation who invaded American shores three months ago, makes good his promise to throw Rogacki twice within an hour or in failing to beat the Pole that decisively lives up to the rep caused by his recent performances around New York he will be given Jim Londos, the Greek heavyweight champion, here Jan. 28, announces Matchmaker Ross.

Londos has agreed to meet any wrestler Ross may obtain for him next Thursday. The great Greek athlete has never stepped onto a mat with the huge German nor has he seen Emohizer in action.

German a Sensation.

The German's advent into the United States, his sensational performances in New York state where sports writers and mat followers have gone wild over him, and his general strength and hugeness recall the days when George Hackinschmidt invaded America to do battle with this country's best.

Emohizer has defeated every wrestler put on the canvas before him since his arrival in this country and has beat them speedily. His match here tonight is the first of his western invasion. He agreed to throw Rogacki, the woof-woof creature, twice within an hour or receive no recompense for his services. The Pole will be remembered as the big fellow who roared and woof-woofed vociferously at the Majestic theatre during a match with Santel a couple of months back.

Tough Match.

It is practically assured Emohizer will live up to expectations tonight unless he has developed ptomaine poisoning or cracked an arm in the meantime, and in doing so the match with the famous Londos is cinched.

Jack Gorman and Young Gotch both are ready for the renewal of their feud. Having fought to draw verdicts twice each is now on the rampage and swears by all the gods of matdom he will take the number of the other. They are battling for a chance at Matty Matsuda in their respective home towns. If Gotch wins he meets Matty in Dallas. If Gorman wins he takes on the Jap in Wichita Falls, said the promoter.

The match is expected to be one of the toughest ever staged in North Texas.

DRAUGHON TAGS STEPHENS FIVE

Draughon Business college stepped on Dixie-Stephens in the second game of a doubleheader Wednesday night on the Junior college court, 44 to 30.

The Sharpe outfit was forced to depend on its guards for baskets, the forwards failing to hit the hoop with any regularity. Covington at center and Tyson and Foster at guards did all the heavy work on the heaving end for the losers.

Metzger showed his team mate how to do it, sinking eight field goals and a free throw to grab high scoring honors and lead the business crew to a victory. Buchanan and Moore were rather riotous, too, hoisting two-pointers into the ozone frequently.

The score:

Jabs and Hooks

Jack Matlock put in a fairly hard workout Wednesday at the 812½ Scott gym in preparation for his mill with Buster Martin Monday night under the legion auspices. Jack intends to work every day this week during the afternoon. The sessions will be open to the public.

The coast light heavy appears confident of stopping Martin this time. He came near to putting the Tulsa puncher away in the early rounds of a ten-round battle here several weeks back, but failed and was fought to a draw in the late frames on a riotous and bloody fracas. Jack declares determination to stop Martin cold.

That proposed Mickey Shay-Buckshot Peoples eight-rounder is off. This column declared yesterday there is quite a possibility of Shay running out on the bout.

Matchmaker Wofford when asked about the Shay affair said: "I don't think I'll be able to use him. When Shay heard I had matched up with Peoples he immediately bandaged his hand."

Spike Flanagan, evidently Assyrian or Turkish, or something, probably will be seen in action with Buckshot. Spike has just been discharged from Fort Sill. The bout will be a six-rounder.

There'll probably be a large negro battle royal Monday night. Don plans to corral five untamed black boys and chase 'em into the ring all at once.

Martin is expected in Wichita Falls today. Should he arrive in time he will immediately begin training at the gym this afternoon.

Tabby Levine has been working away pretty hard the past several days. The speedy featherweight expects to return to the ring inside of four weeks.

Moco Carpenter writes in declaring he wants another shot at Jack Hurst and a bout with Martin.

NIGHT HAWKS TO PLAY ELECTRA ALL-STAR FIVE.

Olen Smith, business manager of the Electra All-Stars, announces the club will journey to Clara Friday night to take on the Clara Nighthawks. The Nighthawks have been setting a dizzy pace this season and have been hard to stop. They defeated the All-Stars early in the season. The Stars now boast a much stronger team, and is seeking blood. With the addition of Jim Reese and Vincent Trammill at center and guard the Stars have a considerably stronger lineup.

HOLTON HONOR GUEST

AUSTIN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—G. N. Holton, father of Barry Holton, coach at Trinity university, Waxahachie, will be the honor guest at the banquet given by the citizens of Waxahachie to the 1925 Tiger football squad there Thursday night. Theo Bellmont, athletic director of the University of Texas, will be the speaker of the event, it was announced here today.

DAWES MAKES AN APOLOGY

Vice President Finds Himself in Hot Water in His Campaign

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Vice President Dawes, in his campaign for a change of the senate rules, found himself in a position today where he felt it necessary to issue a public apology.

Taken to task in the senate by Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, for his radio speech last night criticizing senate procedure, the vice president disclaimed any intention of assailing the Missouri senator explaining that his reference had been "to the senator from New York."

This aroused the ire of Senator Copeland, democrat, New York, who declared the reference in radio speech about the reading of the magazine article in the senate record was "inaccurate" as applied to him. He pointed out that several newspaper clippings offered by him for the record yesterday had been accepted without reading.

Later the vice president explained privately that he meant another senator and then issued a public apology to Senator Copeland.

BURGER TOURNEY OFF.

The Jim Burger golf tournament scheduled over the Wichita Falls Golf and Country club links Wednesday was called off because of poor weather conditions.

REYNOLDS OWLET LEADER

HOUSTON, Jan. 20.—George P. Reynolds, graduate of Oak Cliff high school, Dallas, was elected Freshman track captain of Rice at a meeting held at the institute here tonight.

Subbing for Marberry Much Like Being Beer Tester's Aid, Says Allan

Allan Russell, capable pinch pitcher of the Washington Senators, may retire from baseball before the coming season opens. Russell, it would seem, has had little chance to show his stuff due to the greatness of his own teammate, Fred Marberry, as a relief hurler. "It's like being a beer tester's assistant and waiting for the boss to get tired of his job," says Russell.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

'Twas winter—as they say in the thrillers.

A bleak, dreary Winter in Detroit—filled with rain, snow, sleet and dirty Fords.

There hadn't been any baseball news for a week so the club decided to let somebody go.

So Wallie Pipp, who has been trying to win a job at first base ever since the afternoon of the preceding Aug. 20, was sold to the New York Yankees at the waiver price. The deal was made Jan. 7, 1925. Pipp became the regular firstbaseman of the Yanks that very campaign.

The other day the Yankees sent him to the Cinci Reds, at the waiver price. The date was Jan. 15. And it was announced the same day that Wallie would be the first string first sacker of the Reds next summer.

In the meanwhile Pipp has helped write some very pretty baseball history in New York. He labored six years in the vain effort to help lift the team into the pennant winning class.

Then, in 1921, Miller Huggins got the outfit going and Pipp drew his measure of reward. He played in all of the three consecutive series in which the Yanks participated, winning his share of the purse, the glory and press notices.

Then, last spring, a young broad-shouldered gentleman from the Eastern League, named Lou Gehrig, blew into camp at St. Petersburg, Fla., to receive again the once over of the bosess. He had socked out some 40 home runs for the Hartford team, had hit .389 and had made a reputation for himself as an all around ball player.

Huggins worked him at first base (the lad is a lefthanded beaver) and liked his looks. So much so apparently the Yank boss decided that Gehrig and not Pipp would play first the coming season.

Consequently the change.

Of course, this is just one of a number of moves the Yanks will make in the next few months in their efforts to rebuild the club to inject youth and fire in it for another chase after the flag.

Huggins will go into the campaign with a young shortstop and has hopes of replacing Aaron Ward with a younger and harder hitting second baseman.

Hug is more than pleased with the showing of Earl Combs in the outfield last season.

So other old boys are liable to follow Pipp soon.

Cub's Prospects Bright and With Wealth of Material, Scheduled To Swing Into Training Grind Feb. 14

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The Chicago National League baseball club, the Cubs, have turned to the Irish to recover from their disastrous season of last year, and Owner William Wrigley has thrown away the rubber band on the bank roll.

The leader of the Irish invasion is Joe McCarthy, former manager of the Louisville American association team, who will pilot the Cubs this year.

McCarthy brought with him from the Louisville club Maurice Shannon, shortstop, who will fill the gap left by the departure of "Rabbit" Maranville for Brooklyn.

Mighty Kelly Up Again.

Joe Kelly of Toronto, home run king of the International League last year, was McCarthy's next purchase. He slammed the ball over the fence for 30 round trips last year.

Jimmy Cooney, an infielder, was obtained from St. Louis in a trade for Vic Keen, pitcher.

Howard Fitzgerald, a Texas League outfield prospect, was recalled from Wichita Falls.

As coach and assistant coach McCarthy has obtained the services of Jimmy Burke, former manager of the Toledo club, and Mike Doolan, once famous as a shortstop for the Phillies.

These seven, McCarthy, Shannon, Kelly, Cooney, Fitzgerald, Burke and Doolan, are the majority of the new talent infused into the Chicago North Side club this winter in the hope of lifting it out of the cellar.

The club today has one of the greatest arrays of young talent for outfield berths in its history. There are a dozen from whom McCarthy may select his regulars.

Wealth of Material.

The infielder list also has been lengthened by several newcomers, but new pitchers are scarce as the club already was fairly well fixed in that respect. There are a dozen twirlers from whom McCarthy will select about eight to carry through the season.

The catchers include the same old trio, "Gabby" Hartnett, who as a fellow Celt will welcome the visiting Irishmen, Mike Gonzales and Jack Churry.

In short, the Cubs have a wealth of material and a new manager who brought pennants frequently to Louisville in the American Association race. The squad will make the earliest start for the training camp in the major league history, arriving February 14 at Catalina Island, off the Pacific coast. McCarthy has announced he will abandon the mountain climbing workouts of some of his predecessors and expects to bring the squad slowly into form so that they will not go stale early in the season.

YANKS BUY ADAMS

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Balked so far in their efforts to obtain Marty McManus, hard hitting St. Louis second sacker the New York Yankees today purchased another second baseman, Spencer Adams from Washington, in a straight cash deal.

ELECTION IS CALLED

Announcement is made that the board of education of the Wichita Falls independent school district has called an election to be held January 20 to vote on the raising of the school tax to $10 on the $100 valuation in the new addition two and one-half miles west of Indian heights, and south to the glass factory including Westmoreland and Fairview additions, and a part of Highland addition, and that part of the city lying between the M. K. and T. tracks and the Clay county line and the Wichita river.

KIRKWOOD READY

Joe Kirkwood is all set for his performance at the Golf and Country club this afternoon, announces Bill Strachan.

Joe's on hand and ready to step.

The great Australian golfer tees off in foursome with Strachan against Tom Cochran and Dud Golding at 2 o'clock. The match is to be an 18-hole affair.

Along about 5 o'clock after the foursome play, Joe will give a 30-minute golf lecture and a demonstration of his trick shot wizardry.

NEAL'S QUINT SLAMS IT ON OILERS 49-33

Chubby And Beck Lead Landon-Hill To Victory

Chubby Neal's Landon-Hill team displayed a surprisingly powerful five-man defense last night on the Junior college court and an equally efficient attack.

Gerard Boone's Texhoma basket outfit went down under a barrage of goals, 48 to 33, but it was not until after a pretty tough struggle had been enacted.

The fast-stepping sporting goods quint lobbed 'em through the hoop almost at will during the initial half and snowed down a belated Oiler crew, 31 to 14. It seemed the Neal loopers couldn't miss 'em whereas the Texhoma bunch couldn't hit 'em.

Captain Faichney led his Oilers back with a rush in the last half and for a few minutes it appeared Texhoma might overcome the heavy Landon-Hill lead. Faichney and Allen sank baskets freely and the Texhoma defense was tighter. At the close of the third period the score had been narrowed down to 37 to 25, but in the final period Landon-Hill more than held its own greatly through the passing and goaling work of Neal and Beck. Van Horn came in for a looper in this round, and Clary waged a sweet bit of defense and team play.

Beck specialized in "impossible" shots, hooking several from near mid court. Beck and Faichney split high point honors. Each looped eight field goals for an even 16 tallies apiece. Neal deposited seven in the ring for a total of 14 points. Van Horn shot five field goals and three foulers for 13 points.

The score:

LANDON-HILL:	FG	FT	TP

Tigers Prep For Archer City Go

ELECTRA, Jan. 20.—The Tiger cage crew is still working away in preparation for its Friday night clash with the Archer City Wildcats at Archer City in what promises to be a fast match.

Coach Jim Reese continued to drill his charges on the five man defense and the scrubs have found this defense hard to go through in the scrimmage sessions. In the Tuesday afternoon scrimmage, the scrubs resorted to long shots mainly as the regulars kept them well out of the danger zone. Lonnie Grisham and Sylvan Cloninger continue to wage hard guard games while Louis Kent, Harry Preston and Willis Carnahan seem to have regained their stride on the offense, these lads chunking goals from almost any angle in the Tuesday scrimmage.

For the second stringer, Dennis Head and Joe Miller continued to shine both on the defense and offense while Owen Parr came through with a number of neat baskets. Ray B. Dickey and Mike Brown performed nicely on the defense.

Jack In Earnest

Jack Matlock's taking this match of his next Monday with Buster Martin is dead earnest. Jack realizes Buster packs a mighty mean wallop and is tough all over with exception of the point of the jaw, but he expects to beat the Sulsa heavyweight. Matlock's working hard in preparation for this mill.

Are Phils Ready to Ditch Sand, Man Who "Came Clean" in Scandal?

Now comes the report from Philadelphia that Art Fletcher and Owner Baker are looking for a new shortstop, having decided that Heinie Sand, the courageous gent who exposed the O'Connell-Dolan bribe plot, doesn't stack up to big league rating. Heinie's future in the game will indicate quite clearly the measure of gratitude the big league moguls have in their systems.

Winter League ForagE

Picked up at Random

They want to know if Gardner acquired another pitcher or so while at the baseball meeting in California. The Spudder president won't be home before the first of the week, and not until then can this be learned. And it's doubtful anything will be given out by Gardner at that time, for had he completed any trades for new mound talent he would have announced it out of Los Angeles, but if he has started negotiations and has not completed them he will keep mum until he's got 'em in the sack, so to speak.

* * *

With the acquisition of two more hurlers, Manager Snipe Conley of the Steers is pretty well satisfied with his prospects and is willing to take a chance on the staff roster as now made up. Five new throwers altogether were annexed by Walter Morris at the minor league meeting. From these, Snipe hopes to get a couple of winners.

* * *

Potts, a left-hander from the Kansas City Blues, and Ahman, a right-hander from the Springfield, Mo., club are the latest acquisitions. Three others were picked up previously by the Dallas traders. Slim Love has announced he will continue to hold his railroad job and play on the Ennis club this year, while Tink Riviere is undecided what he will do.

* * *

However, Sniper doesn't seem to be worrying much over these two bozos. They're good pitchers, all right, but Snipe is open in saying he looks for both of them to come charging into the orchard when hostilities open early this spring. In other words, Sniper knows the call of the game is pretty strong and when training starts the old-timer loses no time in getting started with the rest.

* * *

Only the return of Paul La Grave and the status of any deals he may have made can determine what the Cats dragged in at the meeting. Word from Los Angeles says Jim Blakesley may not join the Cats because of the sale of the Vernon club to R. Stanley Dollar, millionaire shipowner of San Francisco.

* * *

It is doubtful if La Grave will have any news to give out, for he is always inclined to wait until he has the papers locked up in the safe before he springs his deals. He must have the right system, too, for it has worked admirably so far. He is said to have himself well protected in the matter of outfielders in case Blakesley failed to come through.

Clara Runs Over Electra All-Stars

ELECTRA, Jan. 20.—The Electra All-Stars lost to the Clara high school basket squad Tuesday night by a 41-20 tabulation. Although the score was top heavy, the two tests battled on about even terms throughout/most of the contest. The game was marked by numerous fouls against both teams, the Clara crew getting 13 points from the free-throw line while the Stars were getting seven. The game was played on the Iowa Park high school court. For Clara, Schon at center and Walkup at forward were the outstanding performers, each of these lads getting a number of neat baskets from the floor as well as playing nicely on the defense.

For the All-Stars, Jim Reese, Ed Walker and Vincent Trammill were the leading defensive players while Lawton Thomas and Babe Gonce were the best offensive bets. The Stars uncorked a fast passing game but were considerably off in their goal chunking.

Ho Hum! Again

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 20.—(AP)—The Miami Herald will say tomorrow that Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight boxer, today received an offer of $500,000 to fight Harry Wills, negro heavyweight contender for the world's heavyweight title.

8TH CORPS WINS.

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 20.—Headquarters Eighth corps area defeated the artillery team from Fort Reno, Okla., 12 to 5 and Austin (civilian) won from Fort McIntosh, 22 to 11, at Harbord field this afternoon in the second day of the southwest mid-winter polo tournament.

HELEN WILLS IN FIRST TEST ON RIVERIA

American Star Drops Two Games to Young British Maid

CANNES, France, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Helen Wills received her first genuine tennis test of her Riveria season today in her second match of the metropole tournament. The American woman champion's string of love games was ended after running to 15 straight when Peggy Saunders, one of England's brightest youthful hopes for world tennis honors, captured the fourth and fifth games in her match against Miss Wills today.

Miss Saunders went so far in her les majeste against the American queen of the courts to win the fifth game at love, but Miss Wills, always playing well within her best game, won the hard fought match, 6-2, 6-1.

Meanwhile Suzanne Lenglen, the great rival of the American girl champion was having a busy day on the courts. She played in the women's doubles paired with Mlle Vlasto and in the mixed doubles with Jacques Brugnon, winning both matches with ridiculous ease.

New They've Billed Jack With Gene??

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The Evening Telegram says today that negotiations are nearly completed for a heavyweight championship match between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney in July at Boyle's Thirty Acres, the Jersey City arena controlled by Tex Rickard.

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Surprise over the report from New York that tentative agreement had been reached to match Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight, and Gene Tunney, one of the ranking challengers, in a title bout at Boyle's Thirty Acres, July 4, was expressed here today by the champion and the light heavy contender, both of whom are on vacations at Miami Beach.

LOTS OF BALL DEALS.

Baseball deals announced over the week-end were numerous. Nick D[illegible]maggio returns to the league and will wear a Ruff uniform; Dutch Hoffman and Bill Whittaker go to Shreveport from the Pels; Sam Ross, former Cat left-hander, has been bought by Beaumont; Santone bought four additional players, Pitcher McCall from Shreveport, two amateur outfielders and Foy Rankin, semi-pro pitcher, from Big Spring.

TRAMMILL INELIGIBLE.

Vincent Trammill, star running guard, who was expected to make the main-stay of the Elektra Tiger machine after mid-term was ruled ineligible for basketball early this week by Roy B. Henderson because of the four-year rule. Trammill has been kept out of the practice games this season for fear of ineligibility and Sylvan Cloninger has cared for his running guard and has been playing a bang-up game at this post, both on the defense and offense.

Paris Montmarte Comes To Majestic Stage Via Apache Dance of Duo

There is a bit of Paris' Montmartre at the Majestic this week. A lean, lank denizen of the French underworld and a somewhat browbeaten, cast-about partner, Bralle and Pallo they call themselves, bring it there in a real Apache dance, danced just as it might be danced at the notorious Cafe de Blank, just off the main boulevard in old Paris itself.

Braile is the woman. It is her lot to tango at Pallo's pleasure, to suffer his kicks and rebuffs, grovel at his feet at his will and dance again when he wishes to discard the plaything for the partner. They take their audience from one Parisian cafe to another and then back to Main street where the Charleston replaces the tango.

"Sweet Papa."

The act is the finale to this week's Majestic program, a program made up of Johnny and Molly roller-skating to school, Thomas and Maria of the Cat family (themselves), a one-act skit entitled "Static," and winsome Julie Ballew in a hot sketch "Sweet Papa."

Thomas Cat does his usual backfence warbling before Marie Cat responds to his serenade. The result is a really touching depiction of feline courtship, whatever they may be. It is very real, and needs only an alarm clock or a shoe from the balcony to set it off in the style of a true cat romance on the back fence at midnight when all the world's trying to sleep.

The title "Nash and O'Donnell," leaves out the name of the third party in the third act of the bill. The anonymous one plays the part of a little girl, who is everything that a little girl should be. The skit strikes straight to the heart of the radio fan's home.

Bob Carleton and Julie Ballew, remembered from late year's bills, sing some new songs and some old. Yes, Julie is still pretty.

Kenny Mason and school offer something new in roller skates, and demonstrate that skating de luxe is comparatively simple when you know how.

EL PASO LOSES FIGHT.

AUSTIN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—El Paso lost in the supreme court today in the Empire-Links industries, when writ of error was denied. Check for $7,211 to the city tax collector, on a bank which failed before the city was paid, was the cause of the insurance company suit, while the city lost $2,401 in the industries case.

AIR HOPEFULS ARE REBUFFED

War Department Reiterates Stand Against Separate Air Service

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The war department today officially reiterated for the third time within a year its opposition to the proposal to give the airplane co-equal status with the land and sea armaments.

Secretary Davis appearing before the house military committee summed up the position of the department on the question thus:

"Our answer is no."

Called to give his own and the department's views on a bill to create a department of a national defense the secretary said he agreed with the findings of the president's air board and quoted the following paragraph from its report:

"We do not recommend a department of national defense, either as comprising the army and the navy or as comprising three co-ordinate departments of army, navy and air. The disadvantages outweigh the advantages."

The secretary's testimony duplicated to a large extent his views as set forth before the air board and also those expressed by his predecessor, Secretary Weeks, before the house aircraft committee of the last congress.

Mr. Davis said his opposition to the proposed department resulted from a careful analysis of the report of numerous investigating boards and committees and of "opinions of men who have devoted their lives to these problems."

Emphasizing that he gave especial weight to the views of General Pershing, Mr. Davis read a letter written by the general on Jan. 20, 1925, to Major General Charles T. Menoher, thes chief of the army air service.

Potato Prices Show Big Slump

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Potato prices have suffered another relapse. However, there is no chance yet for potato pancakes to undersell corn cakes.

According to a report today by the government bureau of agricultural economics, fresh developments in the rapidly alternating trend of potato prices will depend much hereafter this season on the acreage and production of new potatoes in the south. As yet, the official early advices do not indicate any great increase of southern plantings.

Chicago potato prices have fallen 20 cents a hundred pounds in the last week and Cleveland reports large quantities of Ohio-grown potatoes being used at relatively cheap prices.

30,000 Legionnaires Will Visit France

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—President Coolidge was told today by a committee arranging for the American Legion in Paris in 1927 that more than 30,000 members of the organization would make the trip to France.

They estimated that 20 liners would be necessary to transport the veterans and that in addition to the legionnaires 20,000 others would take advantage of special rates to visit Paris and the battle fronts.

The committee included Assistant Secretary of War MacNider, a past commander of the legion.

Bonds Approved

AUSTIN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The attorney general's department today approved $1,675,000 worth of the city of Houston bonds, bearing five per cent interest an dmaturing serially. They are:

Farmer's market, $350,000; Bridge building $400,000; Macadam paving $100,000; Roadway to turning basin, $250,000; subway, $100,000; Sanitary sewer $75,000; drainage sewer $100,000; street improvement $200,000; and park improvements $100,000.

FRENCH HERE ON DEBT ISSUE

Berenger, Ambassador To U. S. Says Settlement Will be Made

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP) Henry Berenger, the new French ambassador, told President Coolidge today that "France is resolved to settle the debts contracted for her defense * * * as promptly and as fully as her present and future possibilities will allow."

Presenting his letter of credence to the president the ambassador said:

"With special regard to the financial settlement of the obligations contracted in connection with the late war of 1924-1918, France again declares herself true to the principle of the sancitity of international contracts.

Resolves to Settle.

"Even in the midst of the difficulties of restoration which the ravages of the late invasion still cost her, France is resolved to settle the debts contracted for her defense and for that defense civilization as promptly and as fully as her present and future possibilities will allow.

"France knows that the economic world cannot be brought back into equilibrium unless every one in the world meets internal and external obligations by a strict restoration of credit and of confidence.

"We are convinced that the traditional friendship of the United States of America will make easier for France a progressive and orderly liquidation of the obligations bequeathed to her by the last war.

Hope For Adjustment.

In accepting the letters of credence President Coolidge took occasion in his reply to the ambassador's remarks to say it was his "bones hope that a fair and honorable adjustment" of the Franco-American war debt "will be reached in the near future."

"There should be no insuperable difficulty in arriving at such an adjustment," the president said, "since you have only now reiterated the fidelity of your government to the sanctity of contract and since you know the spirit of royal friendship in which the American debt [illegible] commission is prepared to do the matter."

Co-operation An Aid To Shippers

DALLAS, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Closer understanding and co-operation between shippers and carriers has been established at the Dallas meeting of the Southwestern Claims conference, R. L. Truitt of Fort Worth, chairman, declared today at the closing session. The future would see even more efficient handling of claims originating from lost and damaged goods, he said.

J. L. West of the Dallas cotton exchange declared that the past year or so had witnessed a greater improvement in the claims department of the railroads and express companies than would be found in any other organization. The next conference will be held at Wichita Falls, it was announced today.

Robbers Get Off With Cash, Jewels

DALLAS, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Two armed robbers entered Melrose Court, a fashionable family apartment hotel here at 1 o'clock this morning, held up three employes and escaped with two watches valued at $140 and $10.40 in cash. They overlooked between $250 and $300 in a cash box.

J. F. Marble, house officer, who was seated in the lobby was forced to the floor, while Jack Marshall, night clerk and a bell boy were made to stand against the wall.

One robber took Marble's pistol and watch. He was asked to turn over all the money in the place, but Marble responded that it was all in the cash register, which contained $10.40. After searching the officer the two men took Marshall's watch and escaped in an automobile.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Following a somewhat easier opening the cotton market rallied slightly but soon eased off and towards noon prices were 8 to 17 points below the close of yesterday. The market rallied during the afternoon on covering and practically all of the early loss was recovered and in the case of the more distant months, particularly new crop positions prices reached levels 9 to 12 points above the previous close. Near months eased off a little from the highs in the final trading but late months continued at or near the highs to the end. The close showed net losses of 4 to 6 points on near months, no change on May and net gains of 7 to 11 points on more distant months.

One of the features of the day was the transferring from near months to the more distant positions, particularly the new crop months which at one time were 10 to 13 points above yesterday's close while near months barely paralleled the previous close. At the start the market opened easier, although cables were about as due. Prices fluctuated somewhat in the first part of the morning but later on eased off until March traded down to 19.53, May to 19.01 or 14 to 17 points below the previous close. October at the lowest traded at 17.52 or only 8 points down.

The market improved during the afternoon and near months recovered to about yesterday's close while October was 12 points up net. The close was a little off from the top on near months. Exports for the day totaled 34,951 bales.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Cotton futures closed steady at net 4 points down to 5 points up.

	High	Low	Close	Prev.
Mar.	20.29	20.13	20.28-29	20.32

Oct.	18.25	18.07	18.24-25	18.17
Dec.	18.04	17.88	18.03-04	17.88

Opening: March 20.20; May 19.66; July 19.98; October 18.10; December 17.90.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—An opening decline in the cotton market today was followed by rallies which were led by the new crop positions and appeared to be influenced by apprehensions of boll weevil damage to the coming crop. October sold up from 18.07 to 18.25, or 14 points net higher, while May, advancing from 19.59 to 19.78, was only three points above yesterday's closing quotation. The final tone was very steady at a net decline of three points on March but 2 to 15 points higher on later deliveries.

The market opened barely steady at a decline of 11 points to an advance of two points under a renewal of near month realizing and selling inspired by relatively easy Liverpool cables.

Old crop positions soon showed net losses of 12 to 18 points, while the new crop sold back to or a few points below yesterday's closing price. Demand for the late months increased as October approached the 18 cent level. Part of this came from houses with foreign trade connections and may have represented a renewal of the buying movement which had previously appeared at the lower level of prices.

Demand broadened later on the report of the department of agriculture indicating that there were more boll weevil in hibernation this winter than at any time previously since 1915. This was regarded as emphasizing the possibility of a relatively heavy emergence of the insects from hibernation next spring in the event of mild weather during the next month or two and seemed to stimulate some commission house buying of later deliveries. March recovered all but a couple of points of its early loss while later months sold three to 16 points net higher in late trading and the close was within a point or two of the best.

Reports that there had been a falling off in spot demand yesterday may have been responsible for some of the early selling. But the afternoon advance was accompanied by reports of a generally steady to firm basis.

Exports for the day 34,951, making 5,163,906 so far this season. Port receipts today 28,039. U. S. port stocks, 1,577,635.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Stock prices turned abruptly upward towards the close of today's stock market after an early period of weakness resulting from heavy liquidation inspired by the decision to give publicity to brokers' loans. The rally heralded the return to active stock market operations of William C. Durant, motor car manufacturer, who distributed buying orders for thousands of shares from his sick bed in the post-graduate hospital.

Closing quotations disclosed considerable irregularity, but U. S. Steel common General Electric, DuPont, American Can and a number of other popular industrials showed net gains of 1¼ to 3 points. Trading showed a marked expansion in volume, the day's sales running over 2,000,000 shares.

Speculators for the decline hammered stocks in the early trading on the theory that the federal reserve board's request for more data on brokers' loans, coming within a relatively short time after an increase in the New York federal reserve re-discount rate was intended as a warning against excessive speculation in stocks. Scores of stop-loss orders placed by nervous holders of long stock were touched off but strong banking support soon made its appearance and kept the decline in check. The market had quieted down into a specialty affair in the early afternoon when it was suddenly stirred into activity by the execution of large buying orders in the standard industrials.

The day's news developments were largely favorable. Call money opened at four percent, the lowes renewal figure in ten days, and held steady at that figure. Directors of the Stewart-Warner Speedometer raised the annual dividend rate from $5 to $6, an extra cash dividend of $1 and a stock dividend of 10 percent, payable in class "B" common, were declared on common stock of the Liggett and Myers Tobacco company and dividend were resumed on the preferred stock of the Consolidated Coal company, another sharp decrease in the daily average of crude oil production was reported for last week.

Market Gossip

Booth and Burmeister, brokers, basement Waggoner building, today received the following from their New York, New Orleans and Chicago correspondents:

Cotton.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—There was no special news during the afternoon, the principal feature of trading being the transferring of short hedges from the distant positions into the near months, while Wall street interests and local traders were fair buyers in the latter part of the day.

With the fulfillment of heavy January and February commitments which undoubtedly is about complete, we look for an easier undertone and somewhat lower levels during the next few weeks.

Grain.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Wheat: Market was rather dull with a break of over 2 cents early on selling by scattered longs on the pronounced weakness in Liverpool and Buenos Aires, latter being 2¾@3¼ cents lower at mid-day but buying by commission houses brought about a rally of over 1 cent from the low point. Trade on the whole is largely of a professional character and the erratic fluctuations so noticeable of late are expected to continue until the situation becomes more clearly defined one way or the other. Can see nothing to bring about a sustained advance and feel that the selling side should be taken on the sharp bulges. Export demand since the turn of the year has been decidedly slow and it is very probable that foreigns will continue to buy on a hand to mouth scale the same as they have for the past six months.

Coarse Grains—Coarse grains dull and somewhat easier with scattered selling appearing on all the bulges in corn. Hedging pressure is becoming gradually heavier, and with no eastern outlet look for local stocks to become burdensome, especially as with small holdings of hogs in the country the normal percentage of the crop will not walk to market this year. Feel that lower prices will ultimately be made for corn. Oats are passing into consumption at a rapid rate, but the futures market is in a rut.

Grain

CHICAGO CASH GRAIN.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Although good rallying power was shown by the wheat market today, sellers had the advantage the greater part of the time. Snowfalls in Kansas and Nebraska were a bearish influence, but milling demand was fairly good and the world's available supply showed a decrease with the total about 19,500,000 bushels under the aggregate a year ago.

Wheat closed unsettled, ⅛ to 1⅜c net lower, corn ⅛ to ⅝c off and oats ⅛ to ¼@⅜c down.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—(AP)—With the movement of new wheat in Argentina reported to be increasing and with timely snow falls in Kansas and Nebraska, the wheat market today showed a downward slan. Despite rallies, wheat closed unsettled ⅛ to 1⅜c net lower, May (new) 1.76⅝ to 1.76½ and July 1.52⅛ to 1.52⅜. Corn finished ⅝c to ⅞c off, oats ⅛c to ¼@⅜c down and provisions at 12c to 22c decline.

Corn and oats swayed with wheat. Trade in corn and in oats was light and prices of both were easily influenced.

Provisions gave way chiefly as a result of a decline in the value of hogs.

Oil Gossip

Oil operators at the Kemp, who owns controling interest in the Lobby Drilling company, are seriously debating the filing of a complaint before the Texas railroad commission, demanding that the telephone company cease charging money for reports on calls. One member of the lobby syndicate claims that he had to pay $1.25 for reports Wednesday, and that the man's wife whom he was calling in Oklahoma City, said her husband was in Cisco, Texas, and that a few hours previously, the girl told him that the man was in church

D. M. Whittekin, formre Shreveport and Eldorado oil operator, now located in Wichita Falls, with an office at 508 Perkins-Snider Building, has plans underway for drilling of 12 wildcat wells during the year 1926. Contract for the first two has been let to Lanning and Newby and derrick is being built today for the first well which will be on the Weeks land about half mile south of the end of the pavement on the Henrietta road. This well will be just a few feet over the Wichita county line and is about five miles from Wichita Falls. The second will be on the McGrath land and located about seven miles from the city on the Archer City road. Both will be 1,800-foot tests. These are the closest wells drilled to the city in some time.

Russell, 3 Guns On His Hip, Believed To Have Escaped From the City

That R. J. "Jack" Russell, convicted hi-jacker and prime factor in Tuesday evening's sensational jailbreak here, is gone for the time being, at least, was the conviction of Wichita county officers late Wednesday when 24 hours of searching the city and surrounding country had been rewarded with nothing more than a lot of possibilities. It was generally held that Russell was well on his way to a place remote from the city.

In the meantime his wife is being held by District Attorney Allred at the county jail, and will probably have charges of aiding and abetting a prisoner to escape filed against her today, it was stated Wednesday. Mrs. Russell was arrested Tuesday night. She sat with her husband throughout the period of the trial in the district court room, the two taking turns in holding a year-old infant in their arms.

To Be Indicted Again.

That Russell's name will come up once more before the grand jury which reconvenes next Tuesday was indicated Wednesday when Judge H. R. Wilson stated it his intention to act favorably on a motion to quash the third indictment on which Russell was originally to have been tried Wednesday morning. This, it was said, was a faulty bill. The grand jury will be asked to return another bill of indictment to replace this.

Officers were prone Wednesday to connect various happenings over the city Tuesday night and early Wednesday morning with Russell's disappearance. An hour or so after the escape a man answering to Russell's description appeared at the back door of a house on the outskirts of the city in a manner to entail suspicion on the part of the owner. Two automobiles were stolen during the night in various parts of town, either of which may have been the means of Russell's getaway. A man about four miles out on the Henrietta highway was held at the point of a gun and relieved of a purse containing some papers, but no money, by a man answering generally to Russell's description.

Has Three Guns.

"Blackie" Evans, companion in the jailbreak, when captured about 1 o'clock Wednesday morning in the railroad yards by Patrolman Ogle, stated that Russell had in his possession all three guns which he had at the time of the escape.

Russell was under two sentences for highway robbery, one for seven years and one for five years, assessed following pleas of guilty in the 30th district court Monday and Tuesday. He escaped from the county jail Tuesday night by holding his jailers at the point of a gun until he and Blackie Evans could get away.
