Jimmy Leggitt Shows Grand Champion Calf

Jimmie Leggitt, veteran exhibitor in the Youth Project Show, carried off the grand championship in the beef calf division, top honor in the livestock event, Saturday, April 7, in what both sponsors and participants believe was the best show held in recent years.

Trustees Named Saturday in District Elections

Velman Warrick was re-elected a member of the Wellington school board in the election Saturday, April 7, and Jack Gibson was elected to replace Bill Hughes.

Vote in the election included:
Warrick, 161.
Gibson, 120.
Hughes, 54.

Mr. Warrick and Mr. Gibson will be installed at the next meeting of the school board.

Reports from the other schools of the county showed the following results:

Buster Filpot with 12 votes and Farris Cornelius, with 7 votes, were named to fill the two places on the Dodson board. With Dodson district's usual write-in election procedure, the following received one or more votes: Howard Hunt, 2; Thurman Crownover, 1; Floyd Teutsch, 5; Jack Stewart, 1; Marvin Wynn, 5; and Ulric Davis, 1.

Three incumbents were returned to the Quail School board: Z. J. Neeley with 27 votes; J. C. Emmert, 28; and Jim Tidwell, 33. Others running for places were Robert Lary, 15 votes; Bill Waddell, 13; and Henry Langford, 7.

T. B. Cunningham was re-elected to the Samnorwood School board, receiving 9 votes. Joe Rountree was elected to fill the unexpired term of Jack Lowry of the Lutie community. Mr. Lowry had resigned earlier to become a member of the county board, taking the place left vacant by the death of Floyd Thompson.

Herbert Massey, who received 6 votes, was named trustee of the Lone Mound district over two opponents, Bob Willoughby and J. C. Breeding, who received four each.

No election was held in the Needwood district.

In the election for the county school board, Claude Whitfield was returned from Precinct 4, and Jack Lowry was returned Precinct 2.

School Building Program Announced by Board

A school construction program, financed by a bond issue of from $125,000 to $150,000, has been proposed by the Wellington School Board as a solution to the overcrowded condition and to provide for certain other badly needed building. The bond issue will be submitted to a vote as soon as it can be prepared, probably about two months, and if it carries, contruction will begin immediately.

The proposed building program includes the addition of six class rooms to the Elementary School building; rebuilding the east side stadium of Powell Field, to replace the one destroyed by fire this winter; lighting and redecorating the high school building; a lunch room at the high school; and certain structural improvements of Booker T. Washington School, C. T. Roberts, superintendent of schools, said.

The school board, in a meeting last week, awarded a contract to Y. C. Hedrick, architect, of Fort Worth, for drawing preliminary plans and estimates on the proposed construction. Should the bonds fail to carry, the school will be under no obligation to Mr. Hedrick, Mr. Roberts explained.

The superintendent estimated that the procedure for calling the school bond election, which will include final approval by the attorney general, can be completed in time to secure a vote in two months, or around June 1. All property owning taxpayers in the Wellington school district are eligible to vote, and a simple majority will carry or defeat the election.

The proposed six-room addition to the elementary school will be of brick to match the present structure. This building was completed and classes moved into it approximately two years ago. Almost immediately, it was felt that it was too small to care for the future needs of the school system.

The proposed stadium will be of wood construction, similar to the one which burned.

The cafeteria for the high school, Mr. Roberts said, would be of brick, to harmonize with the present high school-junior high building.

Booker T. Washington work will include adding indoor rest rooms and other minor improvements.

The board believes that it will be possible to complete the work by the time school opens in September, Mr. Roberts said.

THDA OFFICIALS

Two outstanding guests here Thursday, April 12 for the District 3 meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association are Mrs. E. S. Dockery of Vernon, left, and Mrs. B. M. Harris of Plainview. Mrs. Dockery, vice president of the district, will preside at the meet whole Mrs. Harris, at the morning session, will attend as the official representative of the Executive Committee of the organization. She will review 25 years of achievement of the Texas Home Demonstration Association in a talk at the morning session.

"Listen to Your County Agent"

Business Men Must Take Definite Stand On Conservation of Soil, Porter Says

"If the top soil of the United States depreciates as much in the next 150 years as much as it has in that same period just passed, we, the farmers of the nation, will not be able to produce enough food for our nation, let alone feed over half of the world as we do now," warned J. C. Porter, head of the agricultural department of the First National Bank of Wichita Falls as he spoke before a Rotary-Kiwanis luncheon in Wellington April 5.

Mr. Porter, a noted soil conservation expert, was invited to speak to the farmers and businessmen of Collingsworth County by Dick Wiley, president of the local Frst National Bank.

In telling of the depreciation of Texas top soil, Mr. Porter gave examples of the great reservoirs used to supply Texas with electrical power are rapidly filling up with sand and silt that have been washed from the farms of the state. He pointed out that some of these resources of power now hold only one half as much water as they did at the time they were completed.

"I am sure the farmers of the county have heard your county agent tell of the benefit of the practices of soil conservation, and I am equally sure that many of you have taken what he said lightly. But this is the worst thing that could happen to American agriculture. Listen to your agent when he explains that terracing of the land can hold your rainfall and increase your crop yield, for it is true. Look around you to the farmers who have used practices. The land that formerly produced only a few hundred pounds of cotton to the acre now yields one third to one half a bale to the acre, with the yield tripled and even more," Porter added.

The use of fertilizer to replenish the soil was stressed by the speaker. He pointed out that the soil makes for the health of a nation. If sufficient minerals are not in the soil that produces food for the nation, there is much sickness. In definite soil belts of the United States, the health of the men who were inducted into service in World War II were vastly different. Men coming from the belts where the soil was rich in minerals, seven out of ten passed physical examinations.

On the other hand, men seeking

Funeral Thursday For W. P. Davis, Retired Teacher

W. P. Davis, 82-year-old retired teacher and one of the staunchest supporters the Wellington Methodist Church had, died at his home in Wellington Tuesday night, April 10. He had been in failing health for a number of months, and critically ill for several days before his death.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, April 12, at the Methodist Church at 3:30 p.m., with the Rev. Lester L. Hill, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in the Old Wellington Cemetery under the direction of the Ellis Funeral Home.

William Preston Davis was a native Texan, born at Lufkin March 24, 1869, the son of James and Sarah Renolds Davis.

A man of high education, Mr. Davis taught in the schools of Texas for many years.

He was also a trained geologist, and had worked in this capacity for a number of oil companies through the years he had been in Collingsworth County. Mr. Davis had complete faith in the oil future of the area, and from the time he moved here, talked and worked for the development of the county along this line. Although he did not live to see the realization of his dream, he did live to see major oil companies taking an interest in the section in which he had so much faith.

The Wellington Methodist Church has had few such staunch friends as Mr. Davis. He worked for it and prayed for it, and he gave his full share of encouragement to each pastor who served the church.

Mr. Davis is survived by his wife, Mrs. Maggie Chapman Davis; and eight children: Wiley C. Davis, Mrs. Ruth Downing and Mrs. Earl Goforth of Amarillo; Roy F. Davis of Fort Worth; Mrs. M. C. Brooks of Modesto, Calif.; Mrs. Margaret Jones of Madera, Calif.; Mrs. G. E. McCaskill of Wellington and William Preston Davis Jr. of Tokyo, Japan.

Seven grandchildren also survive: Betty Brooks of Modesto, Calif.; Don Frank Goforth of Amarillo; Ruth McCaskill, Mary McCaskill and David McCaskill of Wellington; Arnold Davis of Tokyo, Japan; and Fred Beck of Yosemite Valley, Calif.

Jim Reynolds, Life-Long County Resident, Dies

Jim Reynolds, 56, died unexpectedly at his home Saturday morning, April 7, at 3:00 o'clock. He was a life-long resident of Collingsworth County and his death came as a shock to his many friends throughout the area.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Church of Christ, with Min. Paul Lusby officiating. Pall bearers were Herman Harris, Loren Reynolds, Alva Wood, Ray Scott, Floyd Chandler and Roy Scott. Flower bearers were Alva Nell Wood, Dora Reddoch, Flora Dell Chandler, Mrs. R. B. Uselton, Mrs. J. Mr. Thomas will base his statements on his own observations and on those of Oklahoma and Texas state entomologists who were in this area recently checking the insect buildup. He will also discuss the insecticide outlook for the year and discuss with the farmers the use of insecticides to combat the various pests.

During the short business session, officers for the coming year will be elected, and Mr. Sweat will read the financial report for the past year.

The light in the "Lab"

In the research laboratories of hospitals, clinics, and medical schools throughout our country, the lights burn late . . . as scientists strive to halt humanity's greatest enemy — CANCER.

The hope for a cure grows brighter . . . and here's why:

Cancer Research Is Paying Off Through research — which you help to support by donating to the American Cancer Society — medical science has effective new weapons to combat the disease.

Drugs—there is evidence that a chemical treatment for cancer may be perfected. Certain drugs will prolong the lives of cancer victims . . . other promising compounds are being tested.

Hormones — treatment with hormones, such as ACTH and Cortisone, has brought about dramatic, although temporary, effects in some types of cancer. Other hormones have helped control advanced cancer of certain organs.

X-rays—the development of more powerful machines promises to make this form of treatment more effective.

Isotopes—radioactive chemicals are becoming increasingly useful in treating certain rare forms of the disease.

Surgery—technics have greatly improved, so that once hazardous operations can now be performed safely. And progress is being made in the development of tests to detect cancer in its earliest stages when the chances for cure are best.

But much more research needs to be done before cancer can be dealt the final blow!

THE "GREEN" MARKET

Sen. Harry Flood Byrd, of Virginia, is probably the best informed man in Congress on the Federal government budget and related public fiscal matters. During his 17 years in the Senate, trying to establish the practice of thrift in the Federal government has been almost an obsession with him. Since 1941, he has been chairman of the Joint Committee on Reduction of Non-essential Federal Expenditures composed of the Secretary of the Treasury, the Director of the Budget, five Senators and five Representatives.

Senator Byrd's continuing Congressional battle against waste and extravagence in government spending is, I believe, beginning to rally the support of important numbers of people throughout the nation. At Harding College we have just concluded our ninth Freedom Forum, a seminar in Americanism, economics and public affairs, for industry and community leaders. In attendance were 160 people from 27 states, including corporation presidents and department heads, union labor men, educators, clergymen and various community group representatives. An extremely heavy schedule in Washington prevented Senator Byrd's attendance but he sent me a personal message to be read to the Forum conferences.

ON BORROWED MONEY

Senator Byrd has coined a new phrase—"the green market"— to describe government deficit spending. "We have some chislers and black markets," he explained in his Freedom Forum statemen. "We've some profiteers and gray markets. But our inflated 50-cent dollars are principally the product of the 'green market' operated by the government itself in the form of deficit financing for 18 of the last 20 years. More than half of these years have been without emergency of either the war or depression.

"If we were to continue short-of-war Federal spending on a level which the president will ask for in the coming year, the expenditure budget probably will be $75 billion annually. If we continue the revenue budget at the current rate, after two 'quickie' tax raises already granted. Federal revenue will total about $55 billion. (On the other hand) of the President's February tax request were granted, we would be raising Federal taxes 60 per cent within a year!"

ONLY HOPE

Our leaders, says Senator Byrd, "have assumed (for our nation) the responsibility for propping up the economy of half the world and defending more than half the countries of the world from military attack by Communist dictators who control the other half of the earth. In addition we must see our military defense precautions, and sustain the one remaining economic system capable of such miracles.

"Our only hope to meet the responsibilities we have assumed and to preserve our free way of life lies in the capacity of the free enterprise system to produce in mass quanities those goods, materials and engines which are needed under such conditions, in better quality than our adversaries combined. The free enterprise system will not operate at maximum capacity in fiscal insecurity. It cannot survive confiscatory taxes."

BASIC RECOMMENDATION

Senator Byrd's primary recommendation is for a reduction in the spending budget. "If," he says, "the expenditure budget requested by the President for the year beginning July 1, were reduced 10 per cent ($7.5 billion), the new taxes he has requested could be cut 50 per cent. This can be done without impairing any essential function of the government, either military or civilian. I vouch for this statement on the basis of my own item by item analysis of the proposed budget."

Since inflation and our government's present practices in the realm of public financing is so important to the future of every citizen, this column next week will set forth some details of Senator Byrd's specfic budget reduction recommendations. "We cannot afford to be discouraged in efforts to reduce Federal spending while our debt is soaring above a quarter of a trillion dollars," he warned in his statement to the Harding Freedom Forum. "We must make the effort to encourage confidence in our fiscal solvency.

CAP Repairs Building at Marian Airpark

Complete remodeling of the interior of the administration building at Marian Airpark is under way and the exterior will be repainted and removed, Bill Hughes, commanding officer of the Civil Air Patrol, has announced.

At present, the interior has been painted and papered. Material was furnished by the city and the work was done by CAP members and reserve officers under the direction of City Manager Bura Handley, Weldon Cleveland, and Randy Hunt.

A picture window has been installed at the back of the building so that spectators may more conveniently watch planes landing and taking off at Marian Airpark.

In addition to the exterior paint job, a porch will be built onto the back. The group meets each Friday night at 8:00 p.m. to work on the building.

Each member of CAP is being urged to co-operate in the blood typing drive, and a first aid class is being planned.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

The response of the public to the blood typing campaign has been tremendous and it is not over yet. I am wondering about what caused it to succeed more than some others that were equally as worthwhile and needed. I believe that the answer lies in the large dramatic display ads that were run by the Chamber of Commerce, the Jones-Watkins Clinic and other individual firms. This paper ran the usual amount of publicity about this event just as we do for the Red Cross drives and other desirable goals. But the dramatic display advertisements do something about any drive that plain publicity can't do.

* * *

Of course a lot of public spirited citizens worked free of charge in the blood typing campaign. But they do that in the other drives. I think the answer lies in the advertisements.

* * *

I have been thinking about the city election and the school election. Less than one-fourth of the people who could have voted in the city election did vote. Less than one sixth of the people who could have voted in the school election did vote. Our liberty and the efficiency of our government, local state or national, depends on how intelligently and how industriously we use the right of a free ballot. Such a small vote is not good. Personally, I feel that those who did not vote do not have the right to criticize the elected officials. But you can depend upon it that some of the non-voters will be the most heated critics.

* * *

There is something invigorating about a genuine sandstorm. It is a pain in the neck to housewives. It is tragedy to sandy land farmers who have not practiced the right method of soil conservation. But the plain facts happen to be that most people feel exhilarated after a sandstorm.

* * *

As a result of the wind Tuesday, many of the east and west roads in the sandy land of part of the county are impassable to all but tractor and jeep travel. The cost to the county will run into the thousands of dollars. The damage to the land due to wind erosion cannot be estimated.

* * *

Went over to Norman, Oklahoma, last Saturday to a journalism conference. Driving back, I stopped in Lone Wolf. A filling station owner told me that the farmers were plowing up their wheat and were going to plant cotton and combine maize. I hear the same reports as far north as Gray county and from the southwestern part of the Panhandle. They might hit if it rains just right all summer long; but the odds are that these farmers will lose three crops in a row. It would be better odds to summer fallow the land and take a chance on a bumper wheat crop next year; but of course many of them feel that they can't wait that long for another cash crop.

* * *

Frank Dennis, assistant editor of the Washington Post, was one of the speakers at the meeting in Norman, Oklahoma. He said the revelations of low morale in high places brought out by the investigation of the RFC would seem mild if the Kefauver Committee is continued and they investigate another bureau on their list. Mr. Dennis believes that the greatest danger from public officials is not in illegal acts, which can be punished, but in the low morale of people in a position of public trust who seem to think that any low practice is OK if it is not illegal.

* * *

Mr. Dennis' observation reminded me of the thinking of the criminal mind. To a criminal, the only crime is to be caught. For instance, a counterfeiter does not consider himself a criminal. He considers himself a benefactor of society. He is putting more money into circulation to buy more things which will make more jobs and more prosperity for more people just like the Federal Government did in its calculated program of inflation from 1933 to when? In his own mind the counterfeiter is doing good not only for himself but for a lot of other people. To him the crime is to make the mistake that caused him to be caught.

to enter the service from the belts where the land had no mineral value, only three out of ten were acceptable for military service.

In speaking to the business men, Porter explained that they must take a definite stand for conservation of the soil as well as the farmer who works it. When the purchasing power of the farmer is reduced, the business of a trade area drops off sharply.

"It has been said that the dollar of a farmer passes through seven hands — the doctor, the merchant, the dentist, the grocer, the implement dealer, the banker, and the minister of the church. Let's all of us work together so that dollar may have as much purchase power as possible. Let's begin with a campaign to save the soil," Porter concluded.

Before speaking at Quail Thursday night, Mr. Porter visited that area and saw for himself the thing that is the major problem in front of farmers of the sandyland area.

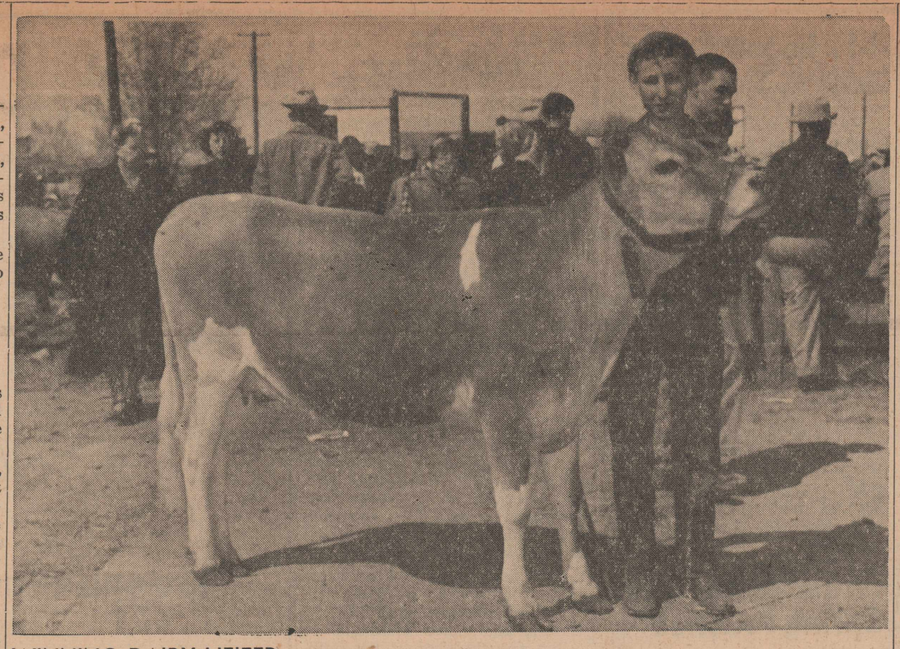

Speaking to the group, the soil conservationist urged the farmers to put more organic matter in their soil, to plant crops that will build up the land, and to practice rotation.

He stressed especially a grass and legumes program that will support a livestock industry on the land, much of which is now too poor to support the families living on them.

Mr. Porter outlined the things that the farmers could do for themselves — land management methods they could put into practice that will mean higher yields from their farms.

But every where he talked, and to everyone he met, J. C. Porter, soil conservationist, stressed one thing, build the soil of Collingsworth.

Mrs. Harold Maddox, Mrs. C. L. Stafford of Oklahoma City visited Mr. and Mrs. Otis Robertson and Patsy, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hall Monday.

WINNING DAIRY HEIFER

John Knoll, Samnorwood Future Farmer, is shown here with the fine Jersey heifer that won for him first place in that division of the Project Show. Spectators agreed that this year's dairy division showed great improvement over that of last year, and much of this was due to the work of the Samnorwood boys, where interest in dairying has picked up considerably in recent years.

Red Cross Urgently Needs $2,400 Quota

All persons who have not made their contributions to the Red Cross fund raising drive are urged to do so within the next few days, C. T. Roberts, chairman, said this week. The total contributed to date is $2,113.17. The quota is $2,400.

Miss Katherine Boverie, home service chairman for the Red Cross, pointed out that every dollar of the county's portion of the fund is needed more urgently this year than at any time in the past few years.

The Red Cross is receiving more calls for help, and while a majority of these do not entail the expenditure of a large amount of money, the calls are constant.

Contacts which the Red Cross makes with the armed services in behalf of service men or their families have increased greatly in recent months, Miss Boverie reported.

"These are calls which the local chapter must answer and it will take the contributions and co-operation of every one of us in the current drive," she emphasized.

Recent contributors include Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Jones, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Mitchell, all of Wellington, and Mr. and Mrs. David Armstrong, Mr.

Mrs. Harris will be the first speaker of the day, reviewing 25 years of progress of the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

"Soil and National Unity" will be discussed by Mr. Tidwell, and "Civil Defense" by Mr. Land.

After lunch, the meeting will be opened with special music by Rufus Johnson and the high school chorus. A 4-H team demonstration will be given by a local group.

Mrs. L. R. Copeland will discuss "Marketing from the Consumer Angle," and a discussion, "United We Stand," by Mrs. Johnson, will close the discussion program for the day.

Election of a new vice-preident to succeed Mrs. Dockery will be the high point of the business session. At present, there is only one candidate, Mrs. C. C. Huggins of Wichita County.

Mrs. Dockery has served as vice-president for the past three years, and will retire from office at the state meeting in College Station August 29, 30 and 31. She has been active in Home Demonstration Club work for the past 24 years.

Home Demonstration Club members will attend the district meeting in Wellington from clubs in Foard, Archer, Hardeman, Cottle, Childress, Collingsworth Wichita, Willbarger, Baylor, Knox, Motley, Dickens and Floyd Counties.

Christian Meeting To Close Sunday

The evangelistic meeting being held at the First Christian Church under the direction of Rev. Archie Gray, pastor, will continue through Sunday night, April 15.

"Good crowds and splendid responses are being enjoyed," Rev. Gray announced this week.

"Services will be held every night including Saturday night until the end of the meeting and the public is cordially invited to attend," he continued.

Most women are CRAZY to get married.

Quail Girls Sing At Clarendon

LUTIE
By MRS. JACK LOWRY

(Intended for Last Week)

Mrs. F. W. Thompson and her mother, Mrs. J. W. Banks, and Mrs. Verda Berger returned recently from College Station where they visited Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ames for several days. They came by Dallas to see Mrs. Thompson's brother, A. H. Banks. The group attended the Easter sun rise services at the Oak Cliff Methodist Church there.

A large group of youngsters enjoyed the egg hunt at Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Terry's Easter Sunday afternoon.

C. M. Simpson, Jim Light, and Possum Lowry spent a few days recently fishing at Possum Kingdom Dam. Believe it or not, "They didn't all get away."

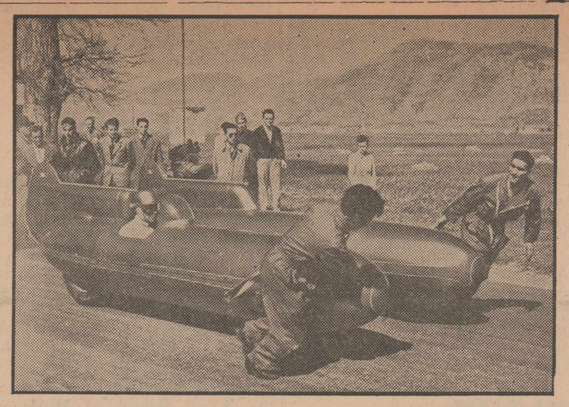

These youngsters spent the Easter holidays with their parents: Sue, Carolyn, and Wayne Whitson, students in Abilene Christian College, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Whitson; Wanda Browning of Wayland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Browning; Betty Fain of Canyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Fain; Joe Deger of N. T. S. C. in Denton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Deger, and the sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lowry, Boyd of Sul Ross and Corky of E. N. M. C. in Portales.

Mrs. C. M. Simpson and Dennis spent the week end in Brownwood with Mrs. Simpson's brother, Roy Hawkins, and her mother, Mrs. Ed Julian, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Clevenger and James of Oklahoma City visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Isbell, this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Webb had visitors in their home recently. They were Mrs. Webb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Killingsworth of Sayre, Oklahoma, and a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Killingsworth and family.

WORLD'S FASTEST CAR—At the wheel of his "Double-Torpedo," Italian racer Piero Taruff gets towed in by two maintenance men after whooshing around the Appian Raceway in Rome at the record shattering speed of 186.25 miles per hour. The unique car, which set a world's record, has two bodies. one for the driver and the other for the engine.

Work on the road east from Lutie is progressing nicely. The crushed rock has all been dumped and is now being leveled off and wet down. The rock crusher that is set in Alec Martin's pasture, just west of the Lutie store, is really an interesting thing to watch. Rock is dug from the ground on that place and pulverized to a very fine dust. This was hauled by dump trucks to the road. At one time there were 17 trucks busy.

The meeting at the church at Lutie is still going on. Large crowds have been attending and a great deal of interest has been shown. There were seven additions to the church and they were baptized in the baptistry fo the First Baptist Church in Wellington Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Simpson and P. M. Simpson have gone to Fort Worth to visit Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Simpson. Their plans are to spend some time in Cleburne with Mr. Simpson's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Crouch.

Mrs. Mona Jackson of Wichita Falls came by here for a short visit on her way home from a visit with her parents, Mr and Mrs. Lewis Marshall of Clarendon. While here she visited a cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Deger, and other friends. The Marshall family are former residents of here.

Rev. Robert Webb has his ball court about ready for use. He is working with young boys to have a play ground ball team. He has special rules and regulations they must follow. They meet on Saturday afternoon.

Ask Direct Mail Route to Amarillo

In an effort to secure better mail service between Wellington and Amarillo, H. A. Davis, owner of the Davis Motor Freight, is circulating a petition asking that a contract Star Route be established.

This proposed route would serve Wellington, Quail, Hedley, Clarendon and Amarillo.

The petition will be presented to the proper postal authorities when Mr. Davis feels a sufficient number of signatures have been secured. After working only a few hours, he had approximately 175 on the petitions.

Persons wishing to sign this will find a copy at the Palace Drug Store, he said.

The proposed mail route would leave Wellington at 9:00 a.m. and get back here between 5:00 and 5:30 p.m., Mr. Davis said.

"This would give us one-day round trip mail service into Amarillo. As it is, mail leaving here in the evening does not get to Amarillo until the next day, and anything mailed after 6:00 p.m. does not arrive until the second day," he pointed out.

Mr. Davis emphasized that he is not trying to get this contract route for his business, since the contract would be let on a competitive basis.

Firecrackers Start Spring Practice

Spring training for the junior high school boys team started Monday, April 2, and will continue until April 19, when spring training for the Skyrocket opens, John Lee, junior high coach, announced.

Approximately 40 boys will wear suits for the Firecrackers, this spring, coach Lee said.

These boys are sixth and seventh grade students--next year's seventh and eighth grade boys, and the future Skyrocket players.

Due to a change in interscholastic League rules, and to the Rockets being moved up into AA football, they will have spring football practice for the first time in several years. All members of the coaching staff will assist Coach Maxey McKnight.

Loco News

They say everything is quiet after a storm, and after the duster of Wednesday, it should be extra quiet for a while. The real estate here has changed hands a number of times recently without bothering to change the names on any deeds.

But in spite of the dust storm, the farmers still have faith that enough moisture will fall so they can plant their crops. They are busy having their cotton seed delinted. Some have already planted early corn patches, and others are gardening some.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of J. A. Richerson, who passed away recently. Mr. Richerson had many friends in this community who mourn his death. A number here attended the funeral services at the First Methodist Church in Wellingon.

Sid Clark has been a medical patient in the St. Joseph hospital in Wellington for the past few days. However, he is much improved, and is at home now. We hope he will soon be up and about again.

Rev. H. E. Long and daughter, Beth, of Wellington visited in the G. W. Adkins and W. M. and W. D. Durfey homes Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton B. Hamman of Oklahoma City spent the week end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hamman.

We received about one half inch of rain Monday. Some of the roads were pretty slick after the rain.

The Loco Co-op Gin will hold its annual meeting for the election of directors at the Loco school house April 16, 7:30 p. m. Your presence is needed at the meeting, so please fill your place there on the night of the 17th.

Harry Gilbert, manager of the gin, is in Dallas this week for the Texas State Ginners Convention.

C. A. Williams of Childress was inspecting the wheat on his interests here Saturday. Some green bug and cut worm damage has been reported by the farmers.

Cloy Thomas of Dallas spent week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown and children visited her mother and brother, Mrs. G. K. Patterson and Billy Joe, in Wellington Saturday afernoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. King of Wellington attended church here Sunday. They were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Adkins and Bethine.

Miss Zora Dell Austin of Denton spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Austin. Mrs. Austin, who has been in poor health for the past several months, is slowly improving. We hope she will soon be home again.

The orchards on the R. H. Lacy and Waymon Moody farms have been the beauty spots of the community for the past week. They have been arrayed with lovely pink and white blossoms.

Georgia Ann Durfey, Nell Thomas, and Dortha Hagerman were part of the Wellington F. H. A. area meeting in Amarillo Saturday. Gorgia Ann modeled a dress she had made.

Darryl Keith and Bill Durfey were given special soil conservation awards, checks, this week. They will be given medals at the gin meeting on April 17.

Puryear Barn Burns Sunday

Fire, believed to have started from faulty electric wiring, destroyed the barn on the E. C. Puryear farm two and a half miles northeast of Wellington Sunday afternoon, March 25. The loss was valued at around $7,000 and was partly covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Puryear were away at the time, but his father, John Puryear, arrived in time to save a horse and saddle from the barn, although a sow and six pigs were lost.

Also destroyed was a quantity of cottonseed, oats, alfalfa seed, alfalfa hay and harness.

The Wellington Fire Department's rural truck answered the fire call and while the blaze had gained too much headway for them to save the barn, the members were able to save the corral fences.

There should be more teaching of land use and management.

NORWOOD DAIRY JUDGING TEAM, COWS WIN HONORS AT WHEELER

The Samnorwood Future Farmers presented themselves in an unparalleled achievement on Thursday, April 5, at the Wheeler Dairy Day. In the dairy day, the animals were from Wheeler county plus Samnorwood community. The Samnorwood Future Farmers were represented with 7 head of outstanding dairy animals and a dairy cattle judging team. The animals were judged on the basis of individual merit instead of the usual system of being in competition with one another. This is the same system as is used by official classification of the breed associations. The classification was done by Mr. Burleson, Dairy Specialist for the Extension Service at Texas A & M College.

The highest rating awarded to any animal in the show was "very good." The highest rating is "excellent," which is awarded to very few dairy animals. The members of the Samnorwood F. F. A. Chapter owning animals that were rated as blue ribbon animals or "very good" were Wayne Johnson — 1 bull; Franklin Knoll — 1 bull and 1 cow; Don Knoll — 1 heifer; Charles Dougherty — 1 heifer and Bob Baxter — 1 heifer. Don Knoll has a cow that classified as "good plus" or a red ribbon animal.

The judging team that represented the Samnorwood F. F. A. Chapter was beaten only by the Wheeler 4-H Club. The team was composed of Don Knoll, Marland Sheffield and Earl Bryan, with Franklin Knoll as the alternate. Marland tied for second high point individual in the contest with a F. F. A. member from Canadian, Earl Wayne Bryan tied for sixth place in individual rating. The boys were coached and the animals were fitted under the direction of O. L. Christie, Vocational Agriculture teacher at Samnorwood.

W. W. Carter of Dodson, Resident Since 1907, Celebrates 84th Year

By MRS. Z. O. McKINNEY

A birthday dinner honoring W. W. Carter on his 84th birthday was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Carter of Dodson Sunday, April 1. Mr. Carter is one of the pioneer residents of Collingsworth County coming here on January 24, 1907.

Mr. Carter was born at Steelville, Missouri, March 31, 1866, leaving there with his family at the age of six months. His parents, Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Carter, settled near McKinney, Texas.

To fill his place in community life, and to gain the respect of his fellow men — these are the things which many men seek in life. And these two things, W. W. Carter has attained, for few men in Collingsworth County are more beloved than he.

Since he came to this county, Mr. Carter has engaged in farming and stock raising. But years before that, in the early 80's he worked as a cowboy on the open range from Stevens County to Collingsworth County. But other than saying that he had many dangerous and thrilling experiences, Mr. Carter does not say much about these.

Mr. Carter was the son of a Presbyterian preacher, and the early training which he received in his parsonage home has continued in the simplicity of faith and the love he has for the church. When the Carter family moved to Collingsworth County, they united with the Kelley Methodist Church.

In spite of his 84 years, Mr. Carter enjoyed reasonably good health, and enjoyed the occasion very much. He makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. Walter Robertson.

A lovely dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carter of Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carter and family of Hollis, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Carter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Terry and son of Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robertson, and Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Carter.

Other members of the family were unable to attend because of illness.

Simplicity Steals Show in Home Decorating Dramas

BY EDNA MILES

ELEGANT simplicity is the keynote in today's decorating themes. There's nothing stark or barren-looking about truly modern room settings, only a clean-cut, dramatic look as the designs of furniture and fabric are allowed to take the spotlight instead of gew-gaws.

The unfurnished-barn look that some faddish modernists achieved in the early days of functional furniture is out, too. Up-to-date decorators—amateur and professional—are striving for the warm, home-like interior of grandmother's days—minus the clutter.

If you're dissatisfied with the old-fashioned look of your home, the first step is not the tossing out of every piece of furniture you own—as many homemakers sometimes would like to do—but the elimination of accessory furnishings that don't actually add anything to the general decorating scheme.

Ranking high among these are unsuitable wedding presents, such as lamps, vases and candlesticks, which many homemakers wrongly feel they must keep on display for all of their married lives.

When choosing new pieces for your home, determine in advance just what effect you'd like to achieve. This is particularly important when your furniture must be bought piece-meal—a chair this month, and a table later when the budget gets padded again.

It makes no difference what period or type furniture you select, so long as you keep it consistent. Don't mix traditional furniture with abstract sculpture, for instance.

Whatever your choice, make sure not only that the piece is pleasing to the eye, but that it will make living easier for you as well. This is the secret of good design.

This handsome room spotlights the interesting design of furniture, fabric and carpet rather than knick-knacks. Legs of table (above) are curved, not only for airy grace, but to supply ample knee room for diners seated at ends. Beauty is thus combined with function.

Gold From The Sky

Faced with another possible crop failure due to dry weather, Plains farmers have more than academic interest in hearings now going on which look to the licensing, or perhaps, limitation of activities of the "rainmakers."

Interest in the possibilities of producing "artificial" rain has been on the increase for years, and much money has been poured into various methods. But the hearings by the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee have brought out some facts which our own farm and allied interests should consider.

Dr. Irving P. Krick, noted meteorologist and long-distance weather forecaster, told of rain-making tests involving large areas of New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona, as well as on the West Coast, Dr. Krick, who heads the Water Resources Development Corporation, a "rainmaking" set-up, says that he produced rainfall three or four times more than the normal.

In the state of Washington, Dr. Krick says his rainmaking operations in the wheat growing area of the eastern part of the state, brought a crop of 27 bushels to the acre after the crop forecasters had set the yield at 7 bushels. The increased yield, according to Dr. Krick, followed rains his company had produced which brought the total for the area to about twice its normal fall.

One member of the Senate sub-committee, Clinton Anderson, of New Mexico, interrupted the testimony at this point to remark that about 85 per cent of the ranch land in his state was covered by rainmaking contracts.

Picking up after the interruption, Dr. Krick said that the rainmakers could also produce snow. He told of meeting success in efforts to bring snow to the southern Colorado-northern New Mexico range areas.

After going into some detail as to the methods employed for producing rain, Dr. Krick voiced opposition to Mr. Anderson's proposed bill for bringing the operators under control. He took the view that methods were not yet perfected and that any restrictions imposed now would stop short the experiments needed to perfect the techniques.

One other important fact brought out is that bringing more than normal rainfall to a specific area doees not interfere with natural weather conditions over adjacent areas. In other words, rainmakers bringing needed moisture to one region do not take it from another. The experts maintain that the moisture is present in the upper stratas of air and that all their "seeding" does is condense it so that it falls to the earth in the form of rain.

But the point of interest to Plains farmers is that "rain to order" may be in the offing, and with it will come an entirely changed agricultural picture here in the Tri-State area. And the time may not be far off for our farmers and business people to get together and formulate plans for drawing down some of the gold from the skies—Amarillo News.

No Reassurance For Any State

No state of the forty-eight is secure in the possession of its own soil.

No state in the forty-eight can rely on constitutional safeguards against nationalization of its minerals or anything else.

Not if the Federal Supreme Court's decision in the tidelands case stands.

Regardless of the United States Attorney General's soothing words in his Tyler press interview Saturday, these three statements are true. The meat of the coconut is in the decision itself.

J. Howard McGrath made it plain that, as Attorney General, he is after oil only. He glossed over the fact that what the Supreme Court endorsed in its decision was the seizure of the lands. The oil is what Truman & Co. are after, but it is only incidental to the land. They could not seize the oil without seizing the land. And when they did that they transferred to the Federal Government all of the other properties on those lands. As The News noted Monday, regardless of his sentiments in the matter, it is McGrath's plain duty to demand accounting and surrender of all state receipts from these lands.

Reassuring the states as to the lands under their inland waters, the Attorney General declared that "title there has long been established." Any longer, Mr. Attorney General, than the Texas title to its offshore lands acquired as an independent republic? Any better, Mr. Attorney General, than the Texas title which the United States agreed formally to respect? Come again.

The court decision can be used to destroy every vestige of any title which Mr. McGrath asserts exists and which he respects. And who is Mr. McGrath? A transient human being who may die or be fired tomorrow. The next Attorney General, the next President, are not bound by what he says or thinks.

What the current Attorney General thinks is not important. The damage will occur from what he has succeeded in doing.

Credit the President and his Attorney General with honesty of conviction and integrity of intention. They say themselves they think of oil only.

They are not concerned that inevitably the multiple evils of federal cupidity, corruption and oppression will pour out of the Pandora's box they have opened.

Religion Will Pave Way for Honesty

What happens when God is forgotten and people neglect their soul's welfare? The answer is in the Old Testament.

Centuries ago the citizenry of Israel wallowed in prosperity and forgot the God that had guided them through the wilderness. It was not long before the nation dedicated to the glory of Solomon went down in ruin.

This nation is in many ways a modern-day Israel. We are wallowing in prosperity. That morality has been subsequently forsaken is evidenced by the sorid examples of crime and corruption on federal, state and municipal levels bared by the Kefauver Committee's recent hearings.

Trusted public officals have been revealed as the companions—in some instances as accomplices—of ruthless racketeers. And testifying to the lax and tainted values of our modern-day youth has been the college basketball bribe scandal.

Everywhere pollution seems to raise its ugly head. But how can among us?

The answer lies in religion. Not until we turn to good old-fashioned religion can we replace evil with old-fashioned honesty. Formal worship, however, is not enough. God's will must become the theme of our life. Lip service must give way to heartfelt adoration an unwavering will to serve.

Where men join hands and hearts in the light of God there can be no room for shadows of evil; and there can be no fulfillment of the warning that the ill-fated Israel of long ago chose to ignore.

Jesus made this plain in word and deed many centuries ago.

The fellow who plays second fiddle usually has to listen to a lot of chin music.

Women are all alike. They just have different figures so you can tell them apart.

Once upon a time man looked forward to tomorrow, instead of fearing it.

We know one bag of wind that has quite a following. It's the football.

Music Week Plans Begun

Plans for an elaborate music week observence for Wellington have been discussed in two recent meetings of the Wellington Music Club. Joining the club in the observance of the event is the City Federation of Women's Clubs, which has taken full charge of the week during the years when Wellington had no music club.

Benny Karnes, talented young Wellington pianist and organist who is now a student in North Texas State College, will be presented as one of the guest artists. Programs on other nights will include local musicians.

Plans for the event are rapidly shaping up, and Mrs. John Holton, president, has named a majority of her committees to take care of the observance.

At the first of the two recent meetings, Mrs. Pat Swift and Mrs. Jack Brisbin were hostesses in the home of Mrs. Swift. Preceding the regular program, Dr. C. B. Jones spoke on organizing the community for an emergency. The story of Wagner's "Ring of the Neblung" was told by Mrs. Sam Gholson. Vocal numbers were given by Mrs. William Barjenbruch, Mrs. Jack Kopp, and Mrs. A. L. Elliott, and a piano solo by Mrs. John Harper.

Mrs. Kelly Pigg, vice president, was in charge.

Present were Mmes. Harper, Kopp, Barjenbruch, Elliott, Gholson, Pigg, Charles Allen, Velman Warrick, Wayne Staples, Lowell Wells, Clark Anderson, Luther Gribble, Ed Poole, Frank Anderson, Dr. Darlene Hunter, Misses Nancy Elliott and Virginia Robey, and the hostesses.

Hostesses at the second meeting were Mrs. Argie Jones, Mrs. Harper and Miss Robey.

A vocal number was given by Mrs. Barjenbruch, a piano solo by Mrs. Pigg, and a talk, "Handel's Sacred Music" by Mrs. Howard Jones.

Present were Mmes Barjenbruch, Elliott, John Holton, Howard Jones, George Kopp, Daryin Nix, Pigg, C. B. Anderson, Warrick, Dr. Hunter, Mrs. Argie Jones, Mrs. Harper and Miss Robey.

Clarendon to Have Final Concert Number Sunday

Blanche and Florence Zucker, duo pianists, will appear at Clarendon Sunday afternoon, April 15, at 3:00 p.m., at the Methodist Church, sponsored by the Donley County Mutual Concert Association, Phebe Ann Buntin, secretary, has informed Wellington Concert Association members.

This is the last concert to be given by any association in the immediate area for the 1951 season.

"We would like as many as possible of the Wellington members to attend," Miss Buntin said.

A well-rounded program which includes popular as well as classic music will be given by the sisters.

The first group of numbers include three by Russian composers, "Waltz" from "Eugen Onegin" by Tschikowsky; "The Lark" by Glinka; and "Sabre Dance" by Kchatchaturian.

"Rhapsody on a Theme by Paganini" by Rachmaninoff will immediately precede the intermission.

The first group following intermission will include "Festivals" by Debussy-Ravel; "Clair De Lune" by Debussy; and three numbers from Milhaud's "Suite Scarmouche," "Vif," "Modere" and "Braziliera."

A treat for popular music lovers concludes the program: a "South Pacific" album; a group entitled "Beat Americana," which includes "Dancing in the Dark," "Tea for Two," "Night and Day," and "I Got Rhythm," "Blues-Boogie" arranged by sisters, will conclude the program.

Blanche and Florence Zucker studied at the New York College of Music and Juilliard School of Music, as well as with private teachers. During the war they played for many army camps, service men's organizations and hospitals.

Concert engagements throughout the east and a successful tour of summer colleges and universities in the west followed. Many of the engagements on this present tour are repeat performances.

Earlier in the year they were honored by being guest artists, along with Arthur Godfrey and Danny Kaye, at the White House Correspondents' Dinner in honor of President Truman.

Regulation 7 Forms Available

FILING DEADLINE FOR PRICING CHARTS EXTENDED TO APRIL 30

April 30 is now the deadline for filing the List Date Pricing Charts with the district Office of Price Stabilization, Victor Womack, regional price executive for OPS at Dallas has announced.

Official word was received at the Chamber of Commerce office this week of the extension of the filing date under provisions of CPR-7. Word was also received that Lubbock has been designated as the district office for Wellington.

Delay in the distribution of the regulation and OPS Form 3 to firms affected by the provisions and the supplementary regulations was cited as the cause of the amendment of the regulation by the Office of Price Stabilization.

A thirty-day extension from the deadline date of March 29 for filing the pricing charts also applies to the filing of the gross margin reports, according to the official announcement.

This amendment also extends to May 30 the deadline after which the retailer cannot sell any item covered by CPR-7 unless he has received acknowledgement from the Office of Price Stabilization of the filing of his chart.

Retailers may begin to price under their List Date Pricing Charts upon receipt of acknowledgment that their pricing chart has been filed in the district OPS office at Lubbock. On and after April 30 the retailer covered by CPR-7 must price under his chart.

Regulation 7 is the new marginal pricing ruling governing sellers of wearing apparel, furniture and floor coverings, yard goods and other articles.

"Many retailers complained that, because of the press of Easter business, they would be unable to prepare the charts by the March 29 deadline," Womack said. "Similar requests from all parts of the country led to Washington's granting the extension."

Sellers of the affected types of merchandise may begin to price under their charts as soon as a copy of the chart is filed with their nearest OPS office, Womack said. In Texas there are district offices at Lubbock, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio, in addition to the regional office in Dallas. Affected merchants must price under the chart beginning April 30.

Raburn-Bollen in West Texas Squad

CANYON—West Texas State's defending Border Conference football champions opened spring training here this week with Coach Frank Kimbrough looking for a 'power-speed' combination to replace his effective 'Wright-Cross' duo who graduate this spring.

A total of 55 prospects answered the first call with 26 of them being varsity lettermen and another 16 lettermen up from last year's mediocre frosh squad. New students and transfers made up the remainder.

"We have a long, long way to go," said Kimbrough on opening day. "We will sorely miss those 14 seniors and the loss of Tommy Jinks to the Marines and R. C. Dalton, Jerry Glass, Jim Bob Newman and Sonny Windom to the Air Force are mighty big blows."

Only two regulars from the conference and Sun Bowl champions of last fall will be back. Joe Spann, Munday end, and all-conference center Bob Kelly, Bovina, are the two returning regulars.

A great portion of beef in the defensive line will be back for 1951-52 duty. However, the big problem faced by Kimbrough is assembling an entirely new backfield hinged on a quarterback capable of taking the place of graduating Gene Mayfield. At present four boys are in the running for the post----Joe Means, Phillips, and Lonnie Rice, Dimmitt, both varsity lettermen and Tommy Sherrill, Sudan, and Bobby Lane, Turkey, up from the frosh team. Lane has been looking exceptionally well in the passing department.

Coach Kimbrough wasted little time before putting his charges into head-butting drill. The first day saw a 15-minute actual scrimmage session. Daily scrimmages will be held throughout the 25-day training period with a long action-drill each Friday.

Railbirds around the Buffalo training camp seem to have a mythical 1951 starting eleven picked out---however, much can happen between now and season kick-off time.

At center the well-wishers rate all-conference center Bob Kelley (218) Bovina as a cinch. He will be backed by Don Patterson (195) Olton, and Bill Pevehouse (210) of Newcastle.

Starting left guard assignment may be in the hands of John Spann (190) of Munday with Sam Raburn (205) of Wellington, and frosh Bob Wall (185) and Kenneth Ringo (180) close on his heels. At the right guard slot Darold Roberson (205) Spur should get the nod. Howard Pilcher (225) and Garland Rattan (210) will be tough competition.

The right tackle post should find Jerry Bollen (205) of Wellington at the helm with a dogfight between Tommy Christian (225) of Claude, Pete Williams (205) of Slaton and newcomer Hal Bradley (205) of Amarillo for runnerup honors.

Boisterous John Poindexter (215) of Baird should scoot into the left tackle spot without too much truoble. Competition will come from Virgil Patterson (210) Borger and Ross Hammock (210), Sudan.

End candidates are good and numerous for Coach Kimbrough. It will be difficult to replace all-conference end Roy Lee Dunn but enough material is ready to give it a good try. Joe Spann, returning regular (195) should have little trouble keeping his post at left end. At the other end of the line will either be C. H. Keeton (205) or Kenneth Echols (190). Out to break in at one of the spots are Toby Booth (190) of Farwell, Norman Phillips (190) of Borger, Marvin Smith (205) of Perryton, Junior Perry (190) Floydada and newcomer Gleason Eakin (190) of Sudan.

Replacing Gene Mayfield at quarterback will be Joe Means (170), Phillips; Lonnie Rice (185) Dimmitt; Tommy Sherrill (160), Sudan or Bobby Lane (190) of Turkey. Starter in that department is a toss-up. Joe Ogden (185) speedster from Lefors has been shifted from wingback to tailback and looks like a sure first-stringer. Tom Airhart (195) Canyon should hold down the regular fullback post and newcomer Jim Bob Harris (180) of Vega seems headed for the starting wingback slot.

Other topflight backfield talent in the race are James Pendergraft (196), Darrouzett; Walker Bateman (180) of Levelland; Bobby Clark (185) of Rotan; Kenneth Means (175) of Ropesville; Gene Hubbard (195) from Wheeler; Melvin Eldridge, (132) speedmerchant from Phillips and Kenneth Clark (185) of Rotan.

In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McClaskey, Sgt. Richard D. McClaskey told of his trip from the United States to England by boat. Sailing the Atlantic took eight days, two days longer than usual, since the ship spent the two days searching for the Globe-Master airship that went down in the Mid-Atlantic.

The ship docked at South Hampton, England, and McClaskey was immediately transferred to a base near London. In three weeks, he will be transferred back to South Hampton.

In speaking of his trip, he said he did not become seasick going over, but was land sick upon arrival there. He said he thought he would like the country after he got used to the climate.

McLean Sponsors Three-Day Rodeo April 20, 21, 22

McLEAN — The rodeo season will officially open here on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, April 20-21, and 22, when the annual three-day rodeo is sponsored by the Floyd-Corbin-Florin Post 315, American Legion.

The three performances will be held in the rodeo arena in the northwest part of McLean. The first performance will be Friday night at 8 o'clock; the second Saturday afternoon at 2; and the final performance Sunday afternoon at 2.

A parade, featuring scores of beautiful horses, plus numerous floats, will be held Saturday morning, George Terry, commander of the Legion post, stated. Any organization, or neighboring town is invited to enter floats.

Six events will be held, with a total purse of $1,200 in prize money. The events will be saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, bull riding, bulldogging, calf roping, and ribbon roping. The purse in each event will be $200, with an entry fee of $10 for each event.

Stock for the show is being furnished by Tom Harlan of Kellerville.

Highlight of the rodeo performances will be the clown antics of Buddy Heaton and his educated horse, "El Rocho." Heaton, from Kansas, appeared in the Legion rodeo here last year, Bob Sherrod, general chairman of rodeo arrangements, explained.

The American Legion will also sponsor two dances, the first Friday night following the rodeo performance, and the second Saturday night at 9 o'clock.

Two boosters trips are being planned under the chairmanship of Howard Horne. The first trip to advertise the rodeo will be Saturday, April 14, and the second Monday, April 16.

CHRYSLER TO SET PACE IN INDIANAPOLIS '500'

This is the car that will set the pace on Memorial Day for the fastest fleet of racing cars ever assembled. The Chrysler New Yorker Convertible, equipped with the new 180-hp V-8 "FirePower Engine" — most powerful power plant of any passenger car — has drawn the coveted honor, and here is shown on the famous Speedway at Indianapolis where the 500-mile race will be run. At the wheel is D. A. Wallace, president of the Chrysler Division of the Chrysler Corporation, who will guide the 33 racing cars around the 2½-mile brick and asphalt track. At his side is Wilbur Shaw, president and general manager of the Speedway and three-time winner of the "500," and seated in the rear seat is Tommy Milton, chief steward of the track, who was a fabled racing driver of the Twenties, when he brought home two winners at Indianapolis. This is the fourth time in twenty-five years that a Chrysler has been selected as the Pace Car, motor thoroughbred of the year.

The Buck Creek Philosopher

Editor's note. The Buck Creek Philisopher on his Johnson grass farm on Buck Creek must be misinterpreting another government program, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editar:

With everything I buy too high and everything I sell not quite high enough, I've been thinkin about inflation lately, the same as you, and this mornin I run across a new explanation of the situation.

As I walked around the southwest corner of my barn I met a newspaper head-on, which the wind had picked up and sailed into my face, and while I appreciated the fact I didn't have to bend over to pick it up, just pull it off my face, it's un-nervin to have a paper blow into you so suddenly, did you ever see what happens when one blows up in front of a mule?

At any rate, I kept the paper and got out of the wind and sat down and read where all the bankin and investment companies in the country have gotten together at the government's request in a voluntary credit restraint program. The reason is that, accordin to one theory, inflation is partly caused by too much credit in the country.

Now I'll admit this is news to me, not that inflation results from too much credit, maybe it does, but that there was too much credit. What I want to know is where is it? There may be too much credit in New York, maybe in Dallas, maybe in Houston, but around Buck Creek I personally ain't run into it.

On the contrary, seems like my trouble all my life has been a lack of credit, and if I got to have still less, believe I'd just as soon keep inflation.

Accordin to this item, all the banks in the nation are bein asked to cut down on the amount of credit they extend, unless it's essential to the needs of agriculture, industry and commerce, but as far as I can tell all the bankers I know have been doin this for years. And as for the stores cuttin down on the amount of credit they extend, the ones I know are way ahead of the Federal government.

Somebody in Washington has got the thing backwards. What this country needs, if very many people are in my shape, is more credit, not less. No use starvin yourself just to whip inflation.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Lord Jim Says--

By Bill Hughes

"Say, Boss, there are a few people who want to know how you feel about taking such a licking."

Well, pal, here is how it is. The majority that voted got what they wanted. The much greater majority that did not vote, regardless of what they may or may not have wanted must be satisfied and can have no fault to find with the will of this actual minority decision.

To my friends who gave me their support and backed their approval and belief in me with their vote I am most grateful and do very much appreciate them. This I want to say to all. We have a good school and a good school personnel who are ever trying to increase their ability and to improve the school. We have a good school board; and Jack Gibson will add to it for he is a sincere man. I congratulate him.

To the members of the board with whom I have served I want to say that the association was exceptionally pleasant. This along with the opportunity to learn about the reality of educational problems, to learn to understand the complexion of my community, the privilege of being allowed to try to serve it far out ways the so-called thankless headaches.

As for myself, most naturally and quite frankly, since I am just as human as the next guy, it is never any fun to lose. Yet, in this case there is not a member of the board with whom I served that can or will say that I was a thorn in their side, that I ever attempted to impose my will on them by any means beyond the reasonable right to express my opinion and vote my conviction, that I ever politicked or tried to steam roller them inside or outside of a meeting, that I ever failed for personal or political reasons to give the best I had to the best interest of the children, the school, the school personnel as I honestly saw it.

Therefore since as I saw it does not fit with how the majority who voted see it, my defeat was most proper according to my beliefs and my conception of democracy.

This conception holds to the idea that it is not the retention of public office by any individual that counts for the best interest of either an incumbent or the public good. Instead it is integrity that counts for both. Consequently if the concepts of the two differ then a change in office should take place rather than compromising integrity.

As for judging or changing concepts it can and should only be done in sincere honesty upon careful impersonal re-examination of all facts for their accuracy and validity in the light of our wisdom, principals and faith. Done rightly and justly this is a process of hard thinking and searching over a considerable period of time imposed by the sheer need of much actual experience.

I have no regrets. I have gained so much more than it cost by actually participating in the obligations utterly necessary to the Democracy in which we believe.

The only weakness upon which I wish to comment is that a majority privileged to vote once again failed to exercise the one great right and "must" by which freedom and justice can be maintained. It does not matter for whom one votes. It does not matter how seemingly insignificant or unimportant the contest may be. It is the habit of voting on all occasions by all those eligible to vote that matters.

It is in the little things that we humans form the habits that decide the great issues.

We too often regret that without the presence and constancy of the tiniest grain of sand there could never be land on which to live.

Letters From The PEOPLE

San Angelo, Texas
April 5, 1951

Dear Mr. Wells:

I am enclosing three dollars, for which please send me the Wellington Leader again. We like to hear from the old home town people. We had to quit for a while for we didn't feel able to spare the money.

We find we miss the paper very much and want it for another year.

Russell has been to see us for a few days, but he left Monday night, and we are very lonely.

I now have cancer of the stomach added to all my other afflictions. The Lord is good to me and I have no fear or dread, for I know He will make it bearable and give grave enough for every trial.

Myrtle is still sick in bed. We know there is a sweet home of perfection awaiting us when we leave this world of sorrow. Pray for us.

Give your dear mother our love.

May God bless you all.

Mrs. Maude Christian,
21 East 17th Street,

The Farmers Co-op Gin Has Just Completed

Another Successful Year

$20,231.95

In Rebates Will Be Paid Members At The Annual Meeting At The Community Building

Sat., April 14, 2:00 p. m.

TheFarmers Co-op Gin is paying $20,231.95 in Rebates to growers who ginned with us during the past season.

Every officer, director and employee of the gin is grateful for the wonderful co-operation that the customers have given us during the ginning season.

The 24th annual meeting will be held in the community building next Saturday, April 14, starting at 2:00 p. m.

Patronage dividend checks will be handed out at this time and new directors of the Society will be elected.

At this time the financial affairs of the gin will be explained in detail. We urge your attendance. Since a tremendous cotton acreage is in sight which may mean a very large crop in the number of bales, we are glad to advise you that our equipment is the best that money can buy and by fall all of it will be in first class condition to better serve your needs.

And at this time we would also like to thank you for the wonderful support you have been giving our seed delinting, grading and treating plant.

We will be looking for you next Saturday.

Toxaphene For Sale

At the present time we have a considerable quantity of Toxaphene on hand. Because cotton pest control is going to be more inportant in 1951 than ever before we urge you to make arrangements for your supply now.

The supply is going to be very limited this year we have been advised. The present supply is all that we can stock at the present time.

However, if quite a number of farmers will get their supply now we will be in a position to reinvest the money in an additional supply at this time when we feel we can still get it. This is very important for the demand for this insecticide is going to be tremendous due to the large acreage in the entire cotton producing area.

Rebate This Year $4.00
