STATE COUNTY OFFICERS ARREST MANY HERE

McCRAW SEEKS TO CONFISCATE ILLEGAL CRUDE

WOULD SEIZE NEARLY 2 MILLION BARRELS FOR STATE

AUSTIN, Feb. 20 (AP)—Attorney General William McCraw filed suits today for confiscation of 1,732,311 barrels of oil allegedly produced in excess of allowances fixed by the railroad commission.

C. V. Terrell, chairman of the commission, said that group was cooperating in the drive to sweep East Texas clean of hot oil.

McCraw said the suits were filed in a Travis county district court as a result of information gathered by commission agents which revealed allegedly excess crude stored in 54 open pits and 33 steel tanks in Gregg, Smith, Rusk and Upshur counties.

The suits were directed against 1,069,821 barrels of fuel oil or reduced low gravity crude, 159,131 barrels of weathered crude and 167,357 barrels of crude of a gravity comparable to that of fresh East Texas crude.

McCraw said each suit was filed primarily against the oil. Also named were approximately 150 defendants many of whom, he said, probably would not claim ownership. They were named because of ownership of property upon which the oil was stored.

In a joint statement the attorney general and commission chairman said the suits would place "virtually all hot oil in East Texas under jurisdiction of the court, thus preventing litigation, instituted by claimants of the oil, seeking to move it."

The receiver will be asked for the entire amount of oil described in the 37 petitions and will be compensated on an expense basis only, it was stated. Meantime McCraw will push through the appeal courts two pending cases in which constitutionality of the hot oil confiscation law will be tested.

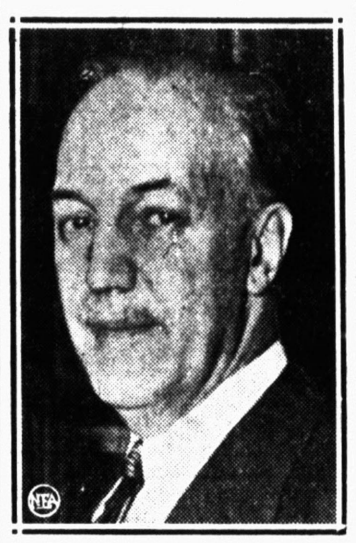

"Should the courts, in these two cases, uphold the law," McCraw said. (See No. 1, PAGE SIX)

APPLICATIONS FOR CCC ENROLLMENTS ASKED

Applications for CCC enrollments were thrown open in Gray county again today with announcement from A. W. Long, of Amarillo, district TRC administrator.

Mr. Long notified the local relief office in the courthouse that enrollments are expected to be made between April 10 and 20 and that all quota requests must be in the state office by March 15.

DUST DELAYS PIONEER TRIP

'WAGON WHEELS' IS THEME SONG OF BLACKLEDGE

By WARREN MARTIN. ABOARD COVERED WAGON (En Route to Groom), Feb. 18.—Well, old rockin' chair nearly got us yesterday, but now that the dust has settled we are out on the road again headed for Groom—one day behind schedule.

One-Gun Blackledge (Kenneth) took stock of the situation and decided we might get into some trouble if we got out on the highway and an automobile would come tearing down the road in near-zero visibility right behind us.

He figured that if that did happen the trip might be ended suddenly. So we just jammed off the trail all day and never moved. The spot we selected was not so far from a farmer's house, but you'll have to give Blackledge credit—although I suggested several times that the farmer might put us up in the house, One-Gun wouldn't take the hint.

Eating our meals out in the open with a dust storm at its height isn't just exactly everything, you might think it is cracked up to be. In order to get an idea of what dust was like when the next duster comes along you might try it. No matter what you are eating at the time, it is cracked up to be.

We are the butt of a lot of wisecrackers who slow down, pull alongside and give it to us with both barrels. The general opinion seems to be that we are a bit "tetched in the head." Well, far be it from me to dispute a general opinion, having Blackledge still has a zero score on his hunting prowess. As yet he has killed nothing but time. Of course, he used the dust storm as an excuse, saying he couldn't get close enough to a rabbit to see the whites of its eyes.

And we rumble along humming the tune of our official theme song, "Wagon Wheels."

We probably will have to alter our schedule and may not get back into Pampa until Saturday. More later.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Ken Blackledge, of Pampa, is taking this covered wagon trip to prove that modern man still has the pioneer spirit. He also is trying to collect some publicity out of it. But, don't kid yourself; he isn't having his difficulties. Warren Martin, high school journalist, is on the trip to check on Blackledge and keep a diary of the happenings. They left Pampa Tuesday morning.

Crop Insurance System Urged By Roosevelt

PAMPANS WILL SEEK MEETING FOR AMARILLO

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 (AP)—President Roosevelt recommended to Congress today adoption of a system of crop insurance to provide the farmer with a buffer against disastrous crop failures.

He said such insurance coupled with a system of storage reserves for crop surpluses in good years "would assist in providing a more nearly even flow of farm supplies, thus stabilizing farm buying power and insuring the security of business and employment."

"A program of crop insurance and storage of reserves," he said, "should be part of the foundation of agricultural policy which we are building and which must include the conservation of soil and water, better land use, increased farm income, and alleviation of distress in rural areas arising out of factors beyond the control of individual producers."

The president sent to congress with his message a report of his special committee of government officials which planned the insurance program.

Under the program the insured farm would be protected against such natural hazards as drought, grasshoppers, and hail.

The farmer would be protected up to 75 per cent of his normal yield. Thus if his wheat crop would have returned him 12 bushels to the acre, he would be protected against nine bushels of the loss. He would be paid in the commodity or its cash equivalent.

The president recommended that crop insurance be extended to wheat for the crop year 1938.

"I believe legislation should authorize application of similar programs to other commodities," he said, "when it is established that producers desire them and application of the plan to wheat has provided a back log of experience in applying the principles of crop insurance."

Holdup Bandit

Booked as Norma Parker, 25, New York's one-woman gang (above), was charged with assault and robbery when caught by a restaurant cashier whom she tried to hold up with the toy pistol below. She was identified by the cashier of another restaurant as the scar-lipped girl who robbed him earlier and was linked with several other holdups.

YUMA, Ariz., Feb. 18 (AP)—Mary Astor, of screen and diary fame, eloped here today from Hollywood, kissed her new husband, rushed by auto with him to the Mexican border and saw him leave alone for Mexico City.

The bridegroom is Manuel del Campo, Mexican City insurance salesman, who had aspirations to become a movie actor. She is 30 and he is 25.

The couple arrived here after midnight in a chartered airplane. Hollywood friends and Dr. Franklyn Thorpe, divorced husband of Mary Astor, were taken by surprise. Those who knew the couple were flying from Hollywood thought she was merely accompanying him to Mexicali, Baja California, where he was to embark on an airplane for Mexico City, where del Campo's father died yesterday of pneumonia.

The elopement plan landed here. The couple, Mary wearing dark glasses, sped to the home of Superior Judge Henry C. Kelly and were wed. She gave the name of Lucille L. Campo, her maiden name having been Lucille Langhanke.

After the wedding they drove to Mexicali, where del Campo boarded a plane for Mexico City.

Interviewers caught up with her there but she sought to suppress the news of her elopement, blandly saying she simply accompanied the insurance salesman to bid him farewell on his flight south. She did not attempt to explain, however, the devious route of airplane to Yuma, with a visit to the marrying judge, thence by auto to Mexicali, was taken.

LUBBOCK MAN 'ROLLED' FOR $40 HE DECLARES

City police officers this morning received a complaint from a Lubbock man that he had been "rolled" of about $40 in a South Pampa hotel last night. Soon after, city police officers arrested two women. They expected to make a third arrest during the day. The man identified the two women, Police Chief Art Hurst said.

VICTORIES BY FASCISTS DOT SPANISH MAP

AIR ATTACK LEAVES MANY DEAD IN MADRID

(By The Associated Press) Insurgent victories dotted the Spanish map today as Generalissimo Francisco Franco's men were hurled against Government troops in mass offensives south-east of Madrid and a triple air attack left many dead and wounded in Madrid streets.

While the civil war raged with renewed intensity, Portugal remained aloof from intervention efforts in London, again refusing to join 26 nations in a plan to stop foreign help from reaching Spain.

In France, however, President Albert LeBrun signed a decree prohibiting Frenchmen from joining either side in the war. The general ban on foreign volunteers to Spain is effective Saturday midnight.

Severe fighting was concentrated in the siege of Madrid. Insurgents reported they crushed a mass onslaught of government forces on the La Maranosa Chemical factory settlement in the bullet-swept Jarama river sector. Heavy casualties were reported among government troops.

Ten persons were reported killed and more than 70 wounded in the Vallecas district of Madrid alone as insurgent planes three times swooped down out of a moonlit sky.

In the Jarama river sector, 17 foreign volunteers in the government cause were reported slain when trucks in which they were riding drove directly into insurgent lines.

At Valencia, Dr. Norman Bethune of Montreal described the "terrible evacuation" of Malaga by 150,000 persons who choked the single-road exit. He told of picking up dead children from the pavement.

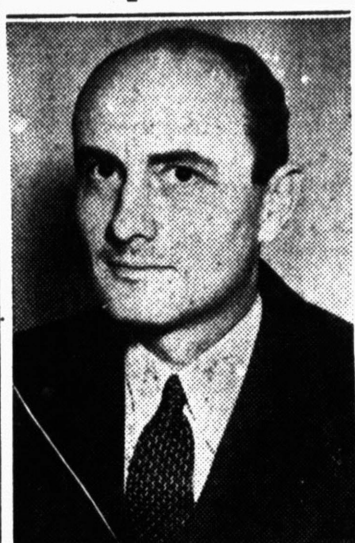

Gen. Guiseppe de Liano of the insurgents charged the government staged the bombing of two British destroyers last week to make it appear insurgents were guilty.

Testimony was begun today in the lawsuit of Burns Moore against the Sinclair Oil Co., seeking to collect damages for alleged negligence and wrongful acts which the plaintiff complains were committed by the defendant while his family was occupying one of the company's lease houses last year.

Moore's petition charges that in an attempt to evict him several months after he had been unable to work, gas was turned off in the home causing suffering to members of his family.

Members of the jury hearing testimony in the case are W. H. Gray, C. H. Coy, Leo Paris, J. S. Seary, Ennis Jones, R. E. Byrdston, Roy Sullivan, M. M. McMillan, J. H. Moore, Rio Heasley, M. M. Kidd, and C. B. Bond.

To Speak Here

C. A. JOHNSON, Fort Worth, assistant director of the Public Works Administration, pictured above, will be principal speaker tonight when Pampa high schools new $80,000 auditorium will be dedicated. The program, open to the public, will be at 8 o'clock in the beautiful auditorium at the rear of the high school building on Central campus. Music will be by the high school band and the high school glee club.

SCOUT DRIVE GETS RESULTS

WORKERS ARE TOLD TO MAKE REPORT AT HEADQUARTERS

Have you made your pledge to the Boy Scout fund for operation of the Adobe Walls center? No. Well a solicitor will be calling on you within the next few days. Have your check made out and also have your employees' contributions collected to save the solicitor time, urged Guy McTaggart, drive chairman, this morning.

"The drive is going over satisfactorily despite the dust storm," Mr. McTaggart said. "Contributions, solicitors report, are larger than last year in many instances."

Any person not contacted within the next day or two and who wishes to donate to the worthy work, should go to the Scout office in the city hall or telephone 1560 to have a solicitor call on them.

Mr. McTaggart urged workers to get busy and make a report to headquarters so that a check on the amount raised can be determined. He estimated today that nearly half of the $3,500 goal had been reached.

BRITISH PLANS STUDIED WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 (AP)—The navy high command studied British building plans today to determine if three new battleships would be required to keep the United States navy second to none. It is a fair presumption, said the navy's ranking officer, Admiral William D. Leahy, "that if any other power expands its fleet, the United States may find it necessary to do likewise."

Every ballot received in the supreme court poll this morning was against President Roosevelt's proposal to appoint additional justices, but the chief executive's court plan still was away out in front in the local voting. Most of those who have voted for the plan have brought their ballots to the NEWS.

It is now obvious that the proposal has brought on a debate that probably will be recorded as one of the greatest in American history.

13 CHARGED IN VIOLATIONS OF TRAFFIC LAWS

HIGHWAY PATROL AIDS DEPUTY SHERIFFS IN DRIVE

A concerted drive to make Gray county autoists traffic law-minded was going into its second lap today with the arrest of 13 persons for infractions of state highway regulations.

Arrests were made by two members of the state highway patrol, working in conjunction with the county sheriff's department.

Ten persons already have pleaded guilty to charges and have been fined in justice court here.

Those who pleaded guilty were D. C. Collingsworth, operating motor vehicle without a chauffeur's license; A. M. Shirley, operated overloaded truck; L. F. Nelson, operating overloaded truck; Thomas Combs, operating car without driver's license; L. O. Clark, operating truck without registration.

C. W. Hays, operating truck without registration; Cecil Samara, operating truck without chauffeur's license; R. B. Sheppard, operating without a chauffeur's badge.

Each of the men cited was fined $1 and costs, a total penalty of $14. They appeared in the court of Justice of the Peace E. F. Young.

One man, L. D. Hartwell, charged with driving his car without lights and with a cut-out was fined $10 and costs, a total of $23.

Three others, Judge Young stated, have been cited by the officers but have not yet appeared in court for arraignment.

Sheriff Talley stated today that the officers were to continue their drive until they check violations of traffic laws down to a minimum.

Deputy Sheriff George Inman has been working with the state highway patrolmen in the Gray county roundup of violators.

"Two many persons get the idea that they can get away without living up to the state laws in some respects," Sheriff Talley said. "Persons who do not have all the needed requirements of the law, had better get them. Otherwise they may find it to be an expensive oversight."

NEW AUDITORIUM WILL BE DEDICATED TONIGHT

All arrangements had been completed this afternoon for the public dedication of Pampa's new school auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight.

Principal speaker at the night program will be C. A. Johnson, of Fort Worth, assistant State PWA director.

Two other programs were held today at the auditorium. The high school dedication was held at 10:30 a. m. with the high school student council, headed by Mickey Ledrick, in charge. R. P. Jarrett, dean of the West Texas State Teachers College, gave the main address.

A similar program of dedication by Junior High school students began at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, with Wallace R. Clark, head of the music department of W. T. S. T. C., as the principal speaker.

Tonight's program will be for the public. There will be a demonstration of the new stage scenery, music by the Harvesters band, and presentation and acceptance of the auditorium, in addition to Mr. Johnson's address. The program will be in charge of R. B. Fisher, superintendent of Pampa schools.

WOMEN SPIES SHOT BY FASCIST FIRING SQUAD

GIBRALTAR, Feb. 18 (AP)—A ring of women spies—one of whom died before a firing squad as she cried "Viva la republica!"—was held partly responsible today by Spanish insurgents for Gen. Francisco Franco's failure to smash Madrid's defenses.

The rings' center, reports reaching here said, seemed to be at Grinon, 18 miles southwest of Madrid, where a large base hospital was made the main theater for the women's work.

Fill Out and Send In This Ballot Supreme Court Poll Editor: Pampa Daily News, Pampa, Texas President Roosevelt has asked Congress to pass a law providing that when a federal judge who has been a judge 10 years or more reaches the age of 70 and does not retire within six months thereafter, the president shall appoint an additional judge to his court. PALL OF DUST STILL HANGS OVER SECTION

GUYMON SCHOOLS OPEN AFTER BLACK BLIZZARD

(By The Associated Press)

A dust fog of varying intensity hung today over that portion of Texas extending from Dallas west to Wink and from the middle Panhandle south to San Antonio. The pall was fanned by light variable winds.

The United States weather bureau reported visibility at Dallas and Waco of one and one-half miles. Westward the fog thickened. Abilene had visibility of three-fourths mile, San Angelo one-quarter mile, Big Spring three-quarters.

San Antonio, in the south, reported visibility of one mile.

Dust was thinning in the Panhandle. Bonger reported clear weather. Amarillo, the bureau said, had a three-quarter-mile visibility.

Street lights at Lubbock were hazy. Observers said the dust was like a thick fog.

Wichita Falls reported silt and a new "duster" at Woodward, Okla., headed in that direction on the wings of a fresh wind.

Airplane pilots at Big Spring reported the dust cloud 5,000 feet thick. Dr. J. L. Cling, meteorologist in charge of the Dallas weather bureau, said there was little chance of immediate rain in the northwestern portion of the state, needed to settle the dust. He said winds from the gulf would prevent dust extending as far south as Tuesday when clouds enveloped the Rio Grande valley for the first time in two years.

GUYMON, Okla., Feb. 18 (AP)—Dust thinned slightly over the Oklahoma Panhandle today and Guymon schools reopened after a shutdown yesterday at the height of a "black blizzard."

Citizens could see approximately 100 feet through the pall as they went to work. There was no prospect of rain to bring a respite from five days of dusters.

Most of the remainder of Oklahoma breathed air free of dust particles, but Harry Wahlgren, federal weather observer at Oklahoma City, warned the storms could be expected to sweep the state once more late today should the wind veer to the northwest.

Visibility increased to three miles at Oklahoma City, after dropping to one-half mile in yesterday's duster.

It Die In Hugoton

A "black blizzard" subsided at Hugoton, Kas., where eleven persons have died of influenza and pneumonia in the last few days but blowing soil still plagued parts of Colorado and Texas.

Schools closed here yesterday. Only about 50 of the 250 high school pupils appeared for morning class. Those who had braved the weather sat in dusty classrooms, playing games, a few couples danced in the auditorium to piano music. Some read.

But the one-holiday was to go no further.

"The whole day was lost," said E. L. McNeill, school superintendent, "but classes will resume today, dust or no dust."

At Hugoton, two church basements were turned into emergency hospitals to aid the stricken community of 1,500. There were as yet no patients. The Red Cross announced two nurses had been ordered there to meet the emergency health situation.

Mrs. McLemore Is Hostess at Bridge

A bridge party entertained two tabs of players at the home of Mrs. C. I. McLemore recently. Mrs. H. B. Combs made high score, Mrs. Lowell Kendrick second high.

Sandwiches and hot chocolate were served to them and to Misses Garnita Boydston, Alaka Tomlinson; Misses Hale Smart, Frank Walker, Leah Phern Morris.

Lincoln Bests Justice Taney In 3 Battles

By MORGAN M. BEATTY.

WASHINGTON—Abraham Lincoln got all the breaks in his struggles with the Supreme Court, and he used them to score three complete victories.

The groundwork for Lincoln's belligerence, ironically enough, was laid by the Supreme Court itself in the ill-starred Dred Scott decision four years before the Civil war.

The ruling was written by the same Roger B. Taney that Jackson had elevated to the highest tribunal 20 years before. Taney was close to his 80th year and the possessor of sound mental and physical health when his decision was written that left Dred Scott in servitude and, in effect, validated slavery north of "36-30" on the ground that the Missouri compromise was unconstitutional.

Senatorial Candidate Lincoln caught the issue early out in Illinois and used it to the hilt against Douglas in their famous debates. The lanky Illinois lawyer announced boldly the nation should decline to abide by the decision.

Lincoln Speaks Out.

"We think the court's decisions, when fully settled, should control not only the particular cases decided but the general policy of the country," he argued. "But we think the Dred Scott decision is erroneous."

The towering Taney, austere, now somewhat stooped, but firm, silently held his ground, and it is small wonder that the war was only a few months old before he ran into trouble with the equally determined Lincoln.

The first skirmish came when the military forces arrested John Merryman and imprisoned him in Fort McHenry, near Baltimore, on charges of raising rebel forces.

The prisoner asked for a writ of habeas corpus and got it from Taney, who was sitting as circuit court judge. By authority of Lincoln, the army declined to produce the prisoner. Promptly, Taney held the Fort McHenry command in contempt. This decision likewise was ignored.

Taney Strikes Back.

The chief justice then proceeded to write an opinion pointing out that the circuit courts were still clothed with full authority. He sent a copy to the President.

Shortly after he took this decisive step, the 84-year-old justice remarked on leaving home for court one day:

"It is likely I will be imprisoned at Fort McHenry myself before nightfall, but I am going to court to do my duty."

Lincoln merely obtained an opinion from his attorney general that the President, as commander-in-chief of the army, was acting for the public safety. Taney's orders were ignored.

Meanwhile, the harassed President was absorbed in the war, and allowed three vacancies to accumulate in the high tribunal by 1862.

Lincoln Wins.

Whatever the reason, Lincoln suddenly turned his attention to the empty seats, and sent the senate three nominations which were approved in rapid order.

Before the court were the famous "prize cases," involving the right of the union to blockade southern ports. When the decision came down, Lincoln's three new justices swung the tide, and the union won. The margin was 5-to-4.

The third and last encounter between the Lincoln administration and the tenacious Taney was a minor difference over the deduction by the treasury of 3 per cent of the justices' salaries—part of a government-wide war economy measure.

Taney protested in vain.

"I see no hope," he wrote despairingly to a friend, "that the Supreme Court will ever again be restored to the authority and rank which the constitution intended to confer upon it."

Score Stands Even.

The fact remained that Lincoln gained his immediate ends—and the

YOUNG WHITE GIRL MARRIES OLDER NEGRO

SEATTLE, Feb. 18 (AP)—A mother in the city jail today stoutly defended her youthful daughter's marriage to a 38-year old negro with the declaration, "love is all that matters."

Police, striving to break the marriage, held the bridal couple, Delta Palmer Menefield and John Lee Menefield, and the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Palmer. No charges were filed.

Weeping over difficulties that have arisen because of the marriage here Sunday, the 50-year old mother said she and her husband intended to stand by their daughter, a grade school pupil, and their dusky son-in-law.

"They've lived together like man and wife and should now," Mrs. Palmer said in an interview in the city jail.

Both parents contended the girl actually was 18, as a marriage license showed, although Seattle school records listed her as 14 in January. "They love each other," said Mrs.

PROPOSED INCREASE ON SULPHUR TAX PUSHED

AUSTIN, Feb. 18. (AP)—A proposal to increase the tax on sulphur from the current $1.03 to $2 a ton today was on the list of revenue-raising bills approved by the house of representatives revenue and taxation committee.

The sulphur tax proposal, by Rep. Harry Graves of Georgetown, late yesterday joined a recommended 700 per cent tax increase on corporation franchises and a bill to boost the oil tax from the present 2 1/2 to 10 cents a barrel.

Reported favorably by an 11 to 6 vote, the proposed sulphur increase barely missed being raised to $2.50 per ton, Chairman Alf Roark of Saratoga voting "no" to the count and kill the amendment.

Graves told committee members sulphur companies of Texas produced the commodity for $8 and sold it for more than $16 a ton. He declared his bill would take "just one-fifth of that profit."

L. Mims of the Freeport Sulphur company, Harry Webb of the Texas Gulf Sulphur company and Kenneth McCalla of the Jefferson Lake Oil company argued the sulphur industry was the highest-taxed in the state.

During the 14 days he acted as governor of Kentucky between Dec. 10, 1935, and July 1, 1936, Lieut.-Gov. Keen Johnson performed 122 official acts.

FOUR PROBES LAUNCHED IN BRIDGE CRASH

10 WORKERS DIE IN 200-FOOT FALL TO BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18 (AP)—Four investigations were launched today into the 200-foot death plunge of 10 Golden Gate bridge workers from a collapsing scaffold.

State officials said the scaffold was twice declared unsafe. Bridge builders asserted it never was criticized.

The 10-ton moveable structure, suspended on wheels beneath the giant span, fell without warning when a wheel slipped from a girder on which it ran, tilting the scaffolding into its fatal plunge.

It crashed into a safety net, tore out a whole section of the net and plunged into the water. Several victims were tangled in the costly rope net, built to save them if they fell while working.

Only one body had been recovered early today, the other nine presumably were tangled in sunken wreckage or carried far away by swift tides which sweep in and out the harbor entrance.

Officials of the Pacific Bridge Co., who expect to complete the $35,000,000 structure in May, listed the following as victims of the only major construction accident so far:

Gustave Dummitzen, whose body was recovered; W. W. Bass, Chris Anderson, Charles Lindros, E. Hillen, T. Hallinan, Jack Norman, Nol Flowers, C. A. Anderson, O. Dester.

Nearby boats rescued Oscar Osberg and E. C. Lambert, who fought clear of the entangling net while holding onto the body of Dummitzen.

"Ten of my friends are dead," Lambert said at a hospital. "I saw them die all around me and I couldn't do anything about it. When the strapper gave a funny shudder, I shouted to the rest of the fellows and jumped."

"I landed in the net. A moment later the net tore like tissue paper. Men were screaming. A piece of timber hit me on the head. I was almost unconscious. The icy water brought me to."

"A few seconds later I saw Dummitzen. I was afraid he was dead, but I couldn't take a chance. I don't know much more. I only know I keep hearing the cries of my friends."

Investigations were launched by the bridge builders, the state industrial accident commission, the San Francisco county officials of the Golden Gate bridge and highway district, which financed the world's longest suspension span.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief. Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are the chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to kidney trouble, causes rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney cases that poison waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Scouts to Sponsor Marionette Show

Rufus Rose Marionettes

Above are shown principals in the Rufus Rose Marionettes which will be seen in two performances here Feb. 24, Wednesday, under the auspices of the Boy Scouts of Pampa. "All children who wish to leave the school and attend the show in the afternoon will be excused for that purpose," Supt. R. R. Fisher stated, and it is likely that whole rooms will turn out for the afternoon performance. Both shows will be held at the city hall auditorium. The afternoon performance will begin promptly at 1:30 p. m. and the night show at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 10 cents for children in the afternoon and 25 cents for adults and will be 15 and 30 cents at night. The afternoon show will be "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" and the Marionette carnival, and the night show will be "Treasure Island" and the marionettes carnival. The Rose marionette show was the top-ranking attraction of its kind at the Century of Progress for two years. Recently Mr. Rose won a contest in competing against all well-known marionette companies. A two-ton truck carries the show, and the four people, headed by Mr. Rose, who operate it. More than 70 marionettes comprise the cast.

A hike was planned for next Wednesday, when the new Girl Scout troop sponsored by Woodrow Wilson P-TA met at the Little House yesterday. Nita Evans was a new member, and Mrs. J. R. Posey was a visitor. Three adult leaders and 24 members were present.

Cards were sent to members who are ill. Tests on laws and story telling were passed by 18 girls.

This troop meets every Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mary Astor Elopes And Weds Mexican

YUMA, Ariz., Feb. 18 (AP)—Mary Astor, film star, was married here early to Manuel del Campo, Mexico City insurance salesman, after a secret plane elopement from Hollywood.

The red-haired actress, once widowed and once divorced, identified herself to a county license clerk as Lucille L. Thorp, 39. Del Campo said he was 25. Superior Judge Henry C. Kelly performed the wedding ceremony at his home at 4:30 a. m. (MST) (5:30 CST).

Following the marriage the couple departed by automobile for Calexico, Calif., where del Campo and possibly Miss Astor were to board a Pan-American transport for Mexico City. Del Campo's father died at the Mexican capital of pneumonia yesterday.

Miss Astor, born Lucille Langhanke at Quincy, Ill., May 3, 1906, wore dark glasses and maintained determined silence on her brief marital dash through this southwest "gretna green." She and del Campo hurried away with scarcely a Yuma resident aware they had even arrived.

SOFT COAL PRODUCERS FIGURES ARE DISPUTED

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (AP)—Soft coal producers estimated today the increased wages and shorter hours demanded by the United Mine Workers would increase the country's coal bill by at least $270,000,000 a year.

Philip Murray, vice president of the Miners' Union, immediately challenged this figure. He told reporters the 30-hour work week and 15 per cent pay increase the miners ask for in their new agreement with the operators would "not by any means" cost 60 cents a ton.

The operators maintained their estimate was conservative. Their spokesman, Charles P. O'Neill, said they had not included the miners' demand for a guaranteed annual income of $1,200 in their calculations.

"No one can tell what they would gain," O'Neill said. He called the miners' demands "amazing" and "utterly impossible."

The conferees prepared today to argue for a few hours and then turn over negotiations to a sub-committee.

Night Club Plays Bridge Yesterday

A party in Washington birthday theme was given for Wednesday Night bridge club yesterday at the home of Mrs. H. B. Combs. The hostess served a salad course after games at two tables.

Mrs. Paul K. Sterns received high score award for members and Miss Atalika Tomlinson for guests, and the traveling prize went to Mrs. Evon Walker.

Duster Reported Coming Back Home

FORT WORTH, Feb. 18 (AP)—The "duster," which struck here bound for the gulf coast several days ago, was passing through Fort Worth again today on the way home to the Texas-Oklahoma-Kansas dust bowl.

The first dust storm of the season was borne on a hard north wind. "The 'duster' today was on a south wind. "Just the old one going back," commented Weatherman Paul Cook.

Farmers Rally Behind Court Program of FDR

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 (AP)—The American Federation of Labor rallied today behind President Roosevelt's court program simultaneously with a prediction by Secretary Wallace that farmers generally would approve it.

William Green, Federation president, said the executive council preferred Mr. Roosevelt's proposals to the "slow, tedious process of a constitutional amendment" as a means of realizing social and economic advancement.

The organization will campaign, Green said, to acquaint congressmen with the desires of "labor and labor's friends for favorable action upon the President's recommendation at the earliest possible date."

The Federation's announcement followed endorsement by labor's Non-Partisan League and by John L. Lewis, chairman of the Committee for Industrial Organization. It is one of the few issues on which Green and Lewis, leaders of opposing labor factions, have united in recent months.

Wallace said he believed its enactment would give administration farm measures a better chance. "It would seem to me if the President's proposal was adopted," he said, "there would be a higher percentage of men on the court who would interpret the constitution to assure the general welfare, and not as designed to block progress."

The House committee's hearings probably will result in a recommendation to provide federal funds with which tenants can purchase farms on an extended payment plan.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 (AP)—Secretary Wallace brought to a congressional committee today his opinion that the far-reaching legislation proposals to aid 2,865,000 tenant farmers would not injure large land owners.

"I don't subscribe to the doctrine that if you help the people at the bottom, you hurt the people at the top," Wallace told reporters. "In the long run you help everybody."

He was called before the House agriculture committee shortly before Congress expected to receive from President Roosevelt a message recommending a crop insurance system.

A third segment of his farm program will go to Congress in the next week or two. It will be a presidential message suggesting a processing tax on sugar.

ESPIONAGE ADMITTED BY CHEVROLET FIRM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 (AP)—Alfred Marshall, Chevrolet Motor company personnel chief, testified at a Senate inquiry today that his firm enlarged its factory espionage service rapidly after 1933 when "labor unions began to present quite a problem."

Detective agencies originally were engaged to investigate "thefts, sabotage, and the indiscretions of foremen," he told the LaFollette civil liberties committee. "There was very little spying on union activities before 1933."

Senator Thomas (D-Utah) told the committee "all the biggest employers in the country" were prepared to "present a united front" against labor unions, using espionage as a weapon.

Marshall yesterday testified he had ordered $4,000 or $5,000 worth of tear gas and equipment from Federal Laboratories, Inc., during the last months of 1936.

He said these munitions were delivered to plants at Detroit, Saginaw, Mich., and some to the Flint, Mich., chief of police.

Assuring the committee the gas was not deadly, Marshall said it was intended only for plant protection.

"the state will be able to retain the custody of the oil until it can be sold for the use and benefit of the state's general fund. This fund already has been enriched by more than $1,000,000 from sale of confiscated oil."

Validity of the confiscating statute will be determined in appeals of the Curtis Oil company case and the Skipper, Bevens case. One of these is on appeal. The other is en route to the appellate court.

"A very large expense," said the joint statement, "is imposed on the commission, the attorney general and the taxpayers, in contesting lawsuits for the payment of unlawful oil into commerce—all to which the state claims title under the confiscation law."

The confiscation suits were for the purpose of eliminating this expense, the statement explained.

If upheld, the confiscation law will deter operators from producing excess crude, it was pointed out, because they will hesitate if given to understand they will not be allowed to move it, and that a valid law under which the state can seize the oil is on the statute books.

Pointing out the difficulty in distinguishing one barrel of oil from another, one of the chief difficulties in enforcing the confiscation measure, the officials said it was hoped the courts will order the oil sealed off and placed under direction of the receiver who will receive active aid and assistance of the commission's agents.

my thoughts and ideas regarding a lake for Gray County. I guess I would be classed as a newcomer to the Panhandle as I have only been here seven years. But a man doesn't have to live a lifetime in a place to discover a few of the needs of a community.

And I think you have hit upon one of the greatest needs of this county. This county has everything—oil, gas, carbon black, refineries, farms, etc. It has everything but a place for outdoor recreation. And I for one think this is one of the most important things in a real man's life. After all what is a good job and money if there is no recreation? It is my conviction that there are as many anglers and hunters in Gray county as there is in any county in the state. But as all of us know these desires are held in abeyance for the want of a place where these desires might be obtained. A place where anglers might cast their bugs and flies and hunters might show their marksmanship shooting ducks.

There are only a few of the thousands of these men in our county who can get enough time from their work to go 100 or 150 miles to go fishing. As there are hundreds who only get one day a week off, and this makes it impossible for them to exercise these urges which have been man's since the beginning of time.

As for another angle as I look out this morning and try to see my neighbor's house in this dust, I wonder if a large lake would help induce a little rain in this country. As you know it is a known fact that countries that have large lakes and bodies of water receive more rain than countries that do not. If this lake did not create more rain the water could be used in irrigation of the surrounding land.

It seems to me that a county with the support which Gray county enjoys should stop for a moment and think of her supporters. For after all these men are the backbone of the county.

I think as you that if Gray county gets this lake she will have to build it herself. And I am sure that Gray county with the support she has can put this lake over in a big way, once she sets her head to do it. And I don't think we could have a bigger asset than a good lake with plenty of fish.

So come on men, let's get behind this lake project and put it over with a bang.

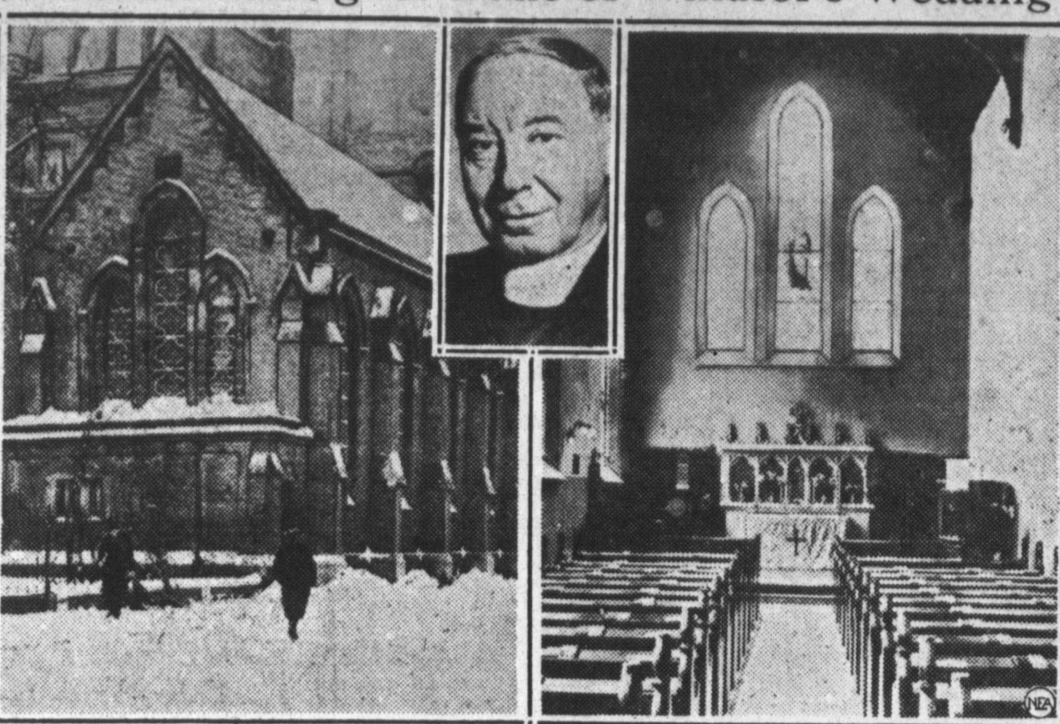

Yours truly,

W. A. NOLAND.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (AP)—Specialties and alcohol joined rails and metals in an even-paced stock market advance today. Fractions to a point or more higher were Evans Products, Byron Jackson, National Distillers, Schenley, Distillers Corp.-Seagrams, Missouri-Pacific, Freer, Southern Pacific, S. S. Smelting, Kennecott, International Nickel, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, Standard Oil of New Jersey and American Can.

U. S. Rubber preferred, a high stepper in the previous session, was again to the fore. Allegheny preferred was bid up briskly. Showing little energy were American Telephone, Western Union, Consolidated Edison, General Electric and DuPont. Bonds were irregular. Grains and cotton were narrow. The pound sterling and the French franc were steady.

Interest in alcohol issues was stimulated, brokers said, by intimations of federal officials that peak output of whiskey is near.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (AP)—Leading stocks sprang out of a rising stock market today. Up around 2 points were U. S. Steel and Bethlehem. Loss aggressive runners in this forward group were Youngstown Sheet & Tube and U. S. Pipe & Foundry. Transaction approximated 2,100 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Feb. 18 (AP)—Late upturns lifted prices of all Chicago wheat futures today to well above yesterday's finish.

Persistent dust storm reports from Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma were a stimulating factor. There were also reports that one half to two-thirds of the Argentine wheat surplus has been sold. At the close, wheat was 3/4-1/2 above yesterday's finish, May 1.94 1/2-3/4, July 1.19 1/2-3/4, corn 3/4 lower to 1/2 higher, May 1.07 1/2-3/4, July 1.04 1/2-3/4, oats 3/4 off, and provisions unchanged to 10 cents down.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lewright of Corpus Christi arrived in Pampa yesterday for a visit with friends.

The Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor of First Baptist church, was called to Chillicothe yesterday to preach funeral services for an old friend. Herman Pipkin and Jack Adkins, Amarillo attorneys, were Pampa visitors yesterday. Don Conley returned yesterday from a business trip to South Texas.

WHY PAVE STREETS WITH CONCRETE?

here's why —

- 1 Every street demands a gritty, non-skid surface for the protection of motorists and pedestrians.
- 2 At night you need a pavement with high visibility.
- 3 Safety also calls for a pavement that is free from chuck holes, ruts and bumps... and stays that way with minimum maintenance.
- 4 You want a pavement that drains quickly... that is easily cleaned and stays clean... no depressions to catch dirt.
- 5 You want a pavement that makes the whole neighborhood look modern, prosperous, attractive.

Concrete... and only concrete... completely meets all of these specifications.

AIR POCKET STRUCK IN BIG SPRING WELL

BIG SPRING, Feb. 18 (AP)—A "strike" reported in the Big Spring area by some sources today was that of an air pocket, encountered yesterday by the Westbrook & Graham No. 1 Great West, wildcat test four miles east of here.

Air, under tremendous pressure, blew in through the casing, lodging tools in the hole and causing a roar audible for several miles. The flow was gauged yesterday morning by the local gas company at 285,000,000 cubic feet per 24 hours, and in the afternoon at 256,000,000. The flow was believed diminishing further this morning.

The main pressure was issuing from the bottom of the hole at 1,480 feet in anhydrite. Other tests in this area have encountered air flows, but of less pressure. A gas company analysis showed the flow to be almost pure air of oil.

Force of the air kept the rig trembling and had loosened some of the superstructure. The derrick, however, was not wrecked.

PLANS TO COMMITTEE

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (AP)—The United Mine Workers and Appalachian soft coal producers turned over their wage and hour negotiations today to a joint committee. The full Appalachian joint conference then recessed, subject to the call of Chairman Duncan C. Kennedy of Charleston, W. Va. He probably will not bring together the full conference until the negotiating committee is ready to report an agreement or finds an agreement impossible.

TANK PRICE HIKED

TULSA, Feb. 18 (AP)—Phillips Petroleum company followed the lead of the Continental Oil company today with a half cent increase in the dealers' or tank wagon price of gasoline in every county in the state except Oklahoma county. This brought the tank wagon price to 14 1/2-2 cents for third grade, 15 1/2-2 for regular and 17 for Ethyl. If the raise were passed on to the consumer the retail price generally would be 16 1/2-2, 20 1/2-2 and 22 1/2-2, figuring a half cent increase on each grade.

MISSING CHOIR LEADER RECOGNIZES HIS WIFE

FORT WORTH, Feb. 18 (AP)—Roland Leath, 25-year old choir director who disappeared Jan. 19, was back home today after his discovery at Muskogee, Okla., Monday.

The Rev. C. E. Matthews, pastor of the church of which Leath was a member, said Leath was normal again except that he remembered nothing that occurred from Jan. 18 until this week.

Leath showed no signs of recognition when acquaintances met him at Muskogee but recognized his wife and mother upon his return. Church members gave thanks for his return at a prayer service last night. Daily services had been conducted since shortly after his disappearance.

told Mr. Roosevelt it was "too large an undertaking for private companies."

They said the federal government could "well afford" to pay "administrative" and overhead costs for the plan to protect farmers against crop losses by drought and other "unavoidable disasters."

Secretary Wallace, chairman of the committee, said the plan "would have the effect of storing up reserves of wheat in years of large crops and releasing them on the market in years of crop failure."

The insurance was not a "substitute" for any federal farm measures, he said, but rather "supplementary." Estimating more than $600,000,000 in federal funds had been expended in the last 10 years for distressed farmers who lost crops, the insurance committee said much of this would be eliminated by "assisting wheat farmers to assist themselves."

The committee report said "wheat crop insurance would probably find its greatest usefulness in the great plains states, where it is perhaps needed the most because of wide fluctuations in yield, and where most of the nation's wheat is produced."

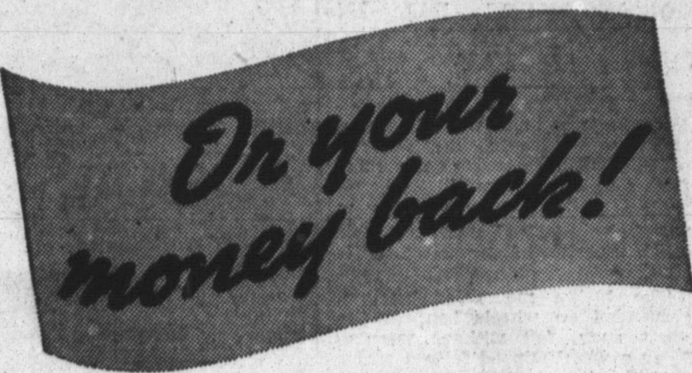

20 1-2 and 22 1-2, figuring a half cent increase on each grade.

Mrs. Phillip Wolfe of Corpus Christi is visiting friends here.

Bob McCoy returned yesterday from a business trip to Big Spring.

M. K. Brown of San Antonio arrived in Pampa yesterday. He drove from Ardmore where he left Mrs. Brown who is visiting relatives.

"I enjoy the comfort a light smoke gives my throat"

"I have smoked Luckies off and on ever since my first term in the Senate 11 years ago, and I have always enjoyed their taste and the feeling of comfort and safety a light smoke gives my throat. I have done a great deal of public speaking, on the floor of the Senate, over the radio and at conferences. Necessarily this results in a strain on the voice. So naturally, in smoking, I have to think of my throat—and I have found that a light smoke is suitable to my throat."

CRITICS OPEN FIGHT AGAINST ARMS PROGRAM

BRITAIN TO ATTEMPT TO RAISE 7 1/2 BILLIONS

LONDON, Feb. 18 (AP)—Labor and Liberal party critics opened a parliamentary battle today against Great Britain's huge $7,500,000,000 rearmament program.

The government's attempt to float a $2,000,000,000 arms loan and raise the other $5,500,000,000 by taxation in the next five years launched a debate by opposition leaders that was expected to grip parliament for two days.

Leaders of the fight against the vast peacetime defense measures, announced in an official white paper, charged the program was inflationary and would skyrocket the cost of living.

Included in the consequences of the greatest expenditure for war that Great Britain ever has contemplated in peace, they declared, would be increased speculation and an exaggerated boom, with its attendant bad economic effects.

Other critics opened fire on the program as lacking coordination. Financial observers estimated the increased burden on the British taxpayer would average a step-up in the income tax rate to 1.37 in every $5 of income. The average rate now is 1.18 to $5.

Despite the developing opposition, Premier Stanley Baldwin's government plunged ahead with grim determination to make Britain's navy the most up to date in the world, her air force as big as any on the European continent and her small army as efficient as that of any other power.

Although faced with a shortage of steel, iron scrap and raw materials, Britain is hastily building up a huge store of arms and ammunition sufficient to put more than two million soldiers in the field immediately it becomes necessary.

Crude Petroleum Stocks Increase

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 (AP)—The Bureau of Mines reported today stocks of crude petroleum totaled 286,116,000 barrels on February 6. The total represented an increase of 732,000 barrels over the figure for the previous week-end, and comprised an increase of 805,000 barrels in domestic stocks and a decrease of 73,000 barrels in foreign stocks of crude petroleum.

The bureau said crude production rose to a new high level during the week ended February 6 but runs to stills declined. Daily average production was 3,245,000 barrels, 25,000 barrels above the level of the previous week. Daily average runs to stills declined 15,000 barrels to about 2,990,000 barrels.

Dallas Policeman Is 'Biggest Cop'

DALLAS, Feb. 7 (AP)—Sure enough, Sergeant Patrick J. Kelly of the Summit, N. J., police force has lost the title of "nation's biggest cop," but it's not the fault of the renowned champion, B. B. "Tiny" Gardner, Dallas patrolman, because "Tiny" has been trying to reduce.

"I ride motorcycles for exercise," said "Tiny" as he heaved his 393 pounds on a scale for a "weighing in" this morning.

Sergeant Kelly went to a hospital Jan. 27 and was put on a diet. When he reported at headquarters last night he found the scale only 388 pounds. Formerly he pushed the needle around to 429.

"Tiny" used to ride in a patrol car, but he had so much trouble getting in and out he was assigned to the street. Lately he has faced angry traffic violators whose automobiles have been brought to the police garage.

He took news of his laurels this morning matter-of-factly.

"You see," he said, "I held the title for five years. Then Kelly passed me. He'll probably pass me again when he gets back on his feet."

CAR LOADINGS.

Santa Fe system car loadings for the week ending Feb. 13, were 20,039 compared with 18,835 cars in the same week last year, an increase of 19.3 per cent, according to an announcement by O. T. Hendrix, Pampa agent. The company received from connections 6,559 cars, compared with 4,716 for the same week last year, an increase of 39.1 per cent. Total cars moved were 26,598, compared with 21,550 cars during the same week in 1936.

INDEPENDENT MARKETS PROTEST CONNALLY'S 'HOT OIL' STATUTE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 (AP)—Independent markets protested today to a Senate finance sub-committee against a move to make permanent the Connally "hot oil" act.

W. R. McCain, Springfield, Mo., Purity Oil Company president representing four Missouri oil associations, said he opposed the law because "it results in price-fixing" and added he objected "in this instance" to the government aiding producing states in enforcing their conservation laws.

Others who gave similar testimony were: H. M. Welson, Des Moines, Ia., representing the Iowa Independent Jobbers of the Iowa Petroleum Association; Ira F. Walton, Roanoke, Va., representing the Virginia Independent Petroleum Jobbers Association; T. O. Baucom, Murray, Ky., of the Kentucky Petroleum Jobbers Association; and Fred E. Bergfors, Quincy, Mass., of the Oil Men's Association.

Welson attacked particularly a practice which he said developed under the act whereby major oil companies not only controlled prices but supplied capital for a "pool" which kept independents from obtaining enough gasoline to meet their requirements.

"Give me the name of one of these companies," Senator Loneragan (D., Conn.), sub-committee member, asked.

"I'm told the Barnsdall Refining Corporation of Tulsa, Okla., is one of them," Welson replied.

"If the government is trying to break up this practice, the interior department ought to know who is doing it and I think we ought to know all about this," Loneragan said.

Senator Tom Connally of Texas, sub-committee chairman and author of a resolution to make permanent the act bearing his name, placed in the record a telegram from W. B. Hamilton, of Wichita Falls, Texas, chairman of the oil and gas committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in which the organization said West Texas resources could not be conserved properly

FARM TENANCY BILL TO BE DRAFTED SOON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 (AP)—Democratic farm leaders in Congress, pressing general approval of the President's long term recommendations to aid tenant farmers, agreed today to hasten consideration of low interest loans for the purchase of land.

Chairman Jones (D-Tex) said the House agriculture committee would hear suggestions tomorrow from Secretary Wallace or another member of the President's tenancy commission and then would draft a measure.

The committee has been studying a proposal by Jones and Senator Bankhead (D-Ala) to set aside $500,000,000 for loans to tenants, sharecroppers and farm laborers desiring to buy farms.

This probably will be the basis of the final bill, the Texas said. Hearings within ten days on the commission's seven point program to help 2,885,000 tenants become independent.

These recommendations, submitted to Congress yesterday by Mr. Roosevelt, call for a confiscatory tax on quick profits from land speculation, a 40-year payment plan for tenants buying land with title withheld for 20 years, and retirement of between two and five million acres of poor crop land each year.

OFFSETS PLANNED.

VERNON, Feb. 18 (AP)—Plans to drill offset tests to the Phillips Ranch No. 51, which blew in in the Rock Crossing field, 12 miles southeast here yesterday, were rushed ahead today as completion of storage facilities was awaited.

The well sent a 6-inch stream of oil 15 feet above the derrick top yesterday as it tapped a rich sand at 3,076 feet, leading operators to believe they had opened an entirely new producing horizon. A test today showed a potential of 12,500 barrels. Some estimates went as high as 20,000 barrels.

THE MAIL MUST PHEW!

ARMONK, N. Y.—If the person who mailed that package of fresh skunk skins will call at the post office, Postmaster Charles Kaiser will be glad to relinquish it.

Definitely, said Kaiser, that package is not going through the mails. And, as it is, the clerks are having a pretty tough time going through the mails in the same building.

Texas cheers Gulf's KNOCKPROOF Gas!

NEW NO-NOX ETHYL

NO WONDER THOUSANDS OF MOTORISTS are singing the praises of Gulf's new No-Nox Ethyl!

Who wouldn't cheer a gas that ends—forever—the knocks you hear from a laboring motor? Who wouldn't welcome a gas that is more powerful, thriftier!

Gulf's new No-Nox Ethyl is stepped up to a brand-new high in anti-knock value.

It won't even "ping" in 1937's highest compression cars. It's the quickest-starting automotive fuel Gulf ever made! It fires like lightning—ends excess choking, crankcase dilution, battery wear.

All we ask is—try it. Costs no more than other premium fuels. Try Gulfpride, too—the world's finest motor oil. Both at the Sign of the Orange Disc.

THE DEATH LOTTERY

Last year, in an American city of something over 1,000,000 population, traffic deaths averaged approximately five per day. During the early part of January this year, deaths in the same city caused by motoring carelessness averaged seven a day.

The people read of this loss of life disinterestedly, turn the page and forget it. But the world would stand aghast if seven similar victims were selected each morning by lot and sacrificed at a public ceremony.

Of course, that would be impossible—but the idea may give you a new view of the automobile accident situation. In the city mentioned—which is no better or worse than many other cities and towns—the odds are about a hundred and fifty thousand to one against your being killed on any given day. Those are long odds—but they are considerably shorter than the odds against a man with one ticket winning a major prize in the Calcutta Sweepstakes which is participated in by hundreds of thousands of Americans.

Under the lottery system of selecting victims for sudden death, the papers each morning could list the names of those drawn, and the unfortunates could wind up their business and go quietly to their doom. That opportunity isn't given to those who are run down by speeding cars. We call these things to your attention in connection with Pampa's 90-day safety campaign, now in progress under Kiwanis club sponsorship.

So remember that the chance of your being killed by a motor car is a daily lottery and is greater than your chance of winning a prize in the sweepstakes in which you hopefully gamble a dollar or two now and then. Is dangerous driving worth its price?

THE LENTEN SEASON

The season of Lent is here. Coming in the midst of strife, unrest, war and natural disaster, it offers an invitation to calm meditation, soul-searching and peace.

It is an invitation that the world might well accept. There is a need of the spirit of Lent, with its reminder of the eternal nature of things of the spirit and the transitory nature of things of the flesh.

It is probably too much to hope that this season of denial and self-criticism will accomplish all that it should. Many will not even notice. But it is not too much to say that without such solemn observances there might not be today even that small measure of tranquility that does prevail.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—Some facts anent settlement of the General Motors strike are blurred, others completely hidden. Here is the real story:

John L. Lewis is kingpin of the American labor movement, victor of a major conflict in labor history—partly through his own force and sagacity, and partly through aid from the Roosevelt administration. The secret motto of officials here was: "We can't let John fail."

The prestige of President William Green of the American Federation of Labor has gone down proportionately as that of Lewis has gone up. Green's description of the strike agreement as a "labor defeat" is regarded here as a feeble effort to discount rapid progress of the Committee for Industrial Organization.

General Motors had one possible chance to vanquish sitdown strikers—use of legal violence to evict them. Fear of public reaction to inevitable bloodshed and death, coupled with Gov. Frank Murphy's promise to use National Guardsmen to prevent eviction during negotiations, prevented G. M. from using that weapon.

Refusal of state and federal officials to take a stern "law and order" stand against sitdown strikes until employers recognized the union's right to collective bargaining, made labor history of far-reaching implications.

Terms of the settlement agreement between G. M. and the United Automobile Workers as to wages, hours and working conditions are expected to come from subsequent negotiations. They probably will set the pattern of the entire huge automobile industry.

The U. A. W. had organized only 30 per cent of General Motors workers, according to secret figures of federal officials.

Lewis will now attempt to force the issue of organized and collective bargaining in the great steel industry. He is all set, also, for a battle over wages and hours with the bituminous coal industry this spring.

Meanwhile, he will enter the hot fight over Roosevelt's proposal to revamp the Supreme Court, supporting the President.

General Motors, second largest among American corporations, appears to be willing to abandon its previous labor policy which drew the critical attention of a Senate investigating committee. If this should develop, it will be another milestone in the history of organized labor.

The big thing the U. A. W. won was a signed agreement of union recognition for its members from the largest corporation engaged in mass production. This is a hundred per cent gain over what it had before. Enormously significant is the fact that Lewis and C. I. O. now have a period in which they can organize G. M. workers without coercion and intimidation by management.

The corporation's great weapon—fear—is removed, under terms of the agreement. This agreement promises exclusive collective bargaining with U. A. W. in plants on strike for six months. If these conditions are observed, and Lewis cannot organize a majority of G. M. workers in six months, he will have met a real defeat.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

The following poem is published in order to present a current attitude toward agricultural economy and one that necessarily reflect the viewpoint of this newspaper.

The Dust Bowl I am the prairie despoiled, denuded; robbed of my heritage, gashed by the plow. Gone are my lake-beds, vanished the blue-joins—blues as a sea wave against a white prow. Gone the velvet of broad rolling acres. Dust kills the bunch grass—cured on the stem. Drained are the marshes, stagnant the rivers. Trooping geese know I have nothing for them. Red water willows shining and slender break at the lightest touch, brittle and dead, I am now called America's dust bowl—I that once counted my wealth by the head. . . . Turn me back to the dust, the simplest way to be rid of a wart, is to have it cut off. The base being scraped out with a suitable instrument, perhaps a sharp spoon eurette. This of course should be done by a physician.

Small warts may sometimes be permanently removed by sandpapering them down to where "it begins to hurt." Here, too, antiseptic must be observed. The wart should be first painted with tincture of iodine, and the application should be repeated after the sandpapering.

Caustic chemicals, such as nitric acid, are not safe in the hands of the untrained, and should not be used to remove warts.

Plantar warts may be defined as ingrowing warts on the sole. They are considered infectious. Young people are frequently subject to them. This form of wart is very painful and may make walking impossible.

Plantar warts resist treatment. Also it appears that the sufferer is likely to re-inoculate himself with the wart-causing virus. Treatment of plantar warts therefore call for strict hygienic care of the feet to reduce as far as possible the hazards of reinfection. Surgical removal of the warts yields the best results.

John Barrymore, of the stage and screen Barrymores, wants "a little breathing spell so he can get his financial affairs straightened out."

The quotes are those of his attorney, Henry C. Huntington, who explained the debtor's petition the action filed yesterday in federal court was not "in an actual sense" a bankruptcy.

Although Barrymore's wife, Elaine Barrie, is suing him for divorce, she still figures in his financial problems, asking $2,525 a month temporary alimony.

Bankruptcy court attaches said that under Barrymore's petition a debtor may call his creditors into court and offer a partial payment on a percentage basis, or ask for an extension of time in which to make full payments. If the creditors accept either plan for the adjustment of his debt, the debtor does not actually go into bankruptcy.

William Woodward, New York bankersportsman, combined the name of the sire, Gallant Fox, and the dam, Merry Princess, in naming a 2-year-old stakes-winning son of the pair. The colt was called Gallant Prince. Oddly enough, his stakes triumph was in the King Philip handicap.

Talks to Parents

By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH

The family was exhausted picking up things for the baby. Whatever he took in his hands, he threw down, not in temper, but apparently in a reflex action. He threw things as naturally as a kitten jumps at a moving object.

Since he was not yet 18 months old and unable to talk, there was no use arguing with him. All he did when reproved for pitching his toys out of his pen, often breaking the heavier ones, was to smile sardonically and throw something more. His mother, new at the game of motherhood, was distressed at what seemed to her the child's destructive tendencies, and tried her best to cure him of a bad habit.

She was not, however, distressed at the baby's other forms of activity. The fact that he was creeping or walking every minute that he was at large seemed to her natural. She knew that he must exercise the muscles of his legs if he was to be an evenly developed human being.

The same is true as to a baby's arms. They too need exercise. Reaching, throwing, holding on to things, even raising his own weight by his arms, gradually do for the baby's arms what walking, crawling and climbing do for his legs.

During these months of throwing things about, breakable toys and valuable and fragile ornaments should be kept out of his reach. He should have every possible chance to obey his instincts without destroying valuable property. But he should not be hindered from obeying Nature's promptings to throw anything.

He has a great deal to do for himself during his second year, and should be helped, not hindered, in his self-education and training.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Pampa Daily News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for reply.

What is the size of the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation? R. S. A. The Foundation controls a tract of 1728 acres and has 135 employees. Facilities are maintained for the care of 110 infantile paralytic patients.

Q. Did Diego Rivera receive any money for his mural painting that was cut from the wall of Rockefeller Center? E. J. A. The artist received $21,000 for the destroyed mural.

Q. Does John L. Lewis, the labor leader, reside in Washington, D. C.? E. J. F. A. Mr. Lewis has a home in Alexandria, Virginia, and an office in Washington, D. C.

Q. When should care begin with a child's teeth? T. P. A. Long before the child is born. Anyone who is hoping to have children should aid nature by including foods in the diet which give a foundation for strong teeth.

Q. Does President Roosevelt have a white or colored valet? J. H. A. The President's valet, Irving Henry McDuffie, is colored.

Q. Did the North American Indian poison their arrowheads? C. W. N. A. It is extremely doubtful whether any poison of a chemical nature was ever used on arrows in North America. On the other hand, the use of magical poisons was very prevalent. Certain plants and animals which were supposed to contain power of a deadly nature were utilized for this purpose.

Actually, as far as can be determined, none of these substances had any poisonous effect whatever. Ordinary infection of arrow wounds was frequently interpreted by the early explorers as the result of poison, and the tales of the Indians who described the use of magical poisons as indicated found their way into print. The venom of rattlesnakes was said to have been occasionally used by some of the Southwestern tribes, but inasmuch as rattlesnake venom loses its potency very soon upon exposure, it is highly unlikely that its efficacy was based on the same idea of sympathetic magic rather than actual chemical effect.

Q. How much money is spent on patent medicines in this country? W. J. A. Approximately $369,000,000 annually is spent for patent medicine.

Q. Can moonlight be compared with lamplight in brightness? H. B. A. The total brightness of the moon is about equal to a 100-candlepower lamp at a distance of 22 years.

Q. What stimulated Abraham Lincoln to attempt national leadership? P. C. A. The repeal of the Missouri Compromise of 1854. While he had earlier served in the Illinois Legislature and a single term in Congress, he says, in his brief autobiography, that by 1854 he "was losing interest in politics." Five years later he was President of the United States.

Q. How many people attended the International Eucharistic Congress at Manila? H. C. A. It was estimated that 400,000 persons attended the Thirty-third Congress there.

Q. What is the name of the Japanese game which resembles chess? P. H. A. Shogi, much like chess. The name and moves of the pieces are different. In shogi, any captured piece may be used as an additional man against the opponent.

Q. How many women are engaged in active newspaper work in the United States? P. V. A. There are about 12,000 women editors, feature writers, and reporters.

Q. Please give a biography of Aldous Huxley, author of Eyeless in Gaza. W. R. F. A. Aldous Leonard Huxley was born at Godalming, England, in 1894. He was graduated at Oxford and was on the staff of the Athenaeum in 1919-20 and of the Westminster Gazette in 1920-21. Among his works are Antic Hay, Point Counter Point, and Brave New World.

Q. Is there a prize given in France for the largest family? W. H. A. The Cognocq Prize of 20,000 francs is awarded annually to the largest family in France.

Q. What are Barry's Beards? H. P. G. A. This is a phenomenon seen during a total eclipse of the sun. Just before the moon's disc completely covers the sun the narrow crescent of sunlight is broken in several places, giving an appearance roughly comparable to a string of beads. This is due to irregularity (mountains and valleys) on the edge of the moon's disc. These beads were named after Francis Barry.

Q. Where is Dwight L. Moody buried? H. K. A. The evangelist is buried on the Northfield Seminary campus at Northfield, Massachusetts. The inscription on the headstone is: He that doeth the will of God abideth forever.

This, That and Everything

By JESS KELLEY

In this scientific age we hear much about vitamins, ration. Doctors and dieticians, by analyzing the various foods and computing their nutritive values, have formed the slogan: "He who would keep must eat wisely."

It is an established fact that a person's mind, as well as his body, needs a diversified ration. Malnutrition of the psychic nature is as devastating to the human mind as a paucity of vitamins is to the physical body. Some of us overlook certain faculties of the mind and neglect others. For example, we often see a person who has played upon the chords of his emotion with such monotony that he has become frantic, and he finds himself estranged to the grace and efficiency of self-control.

On the other hand, we see those who have stifled their emotions that they have become excessively stern and mechanical in all they do. Now there is little excuse for either of these extremes in this age with its diversified appeal through all our modern facilities. Our present technique in communicating the varied products of human genius is widening the horizon of our personal outlook, and we are in a way to understand as never before the aspirations of those whose special talents lie beyond the boundaries of our own pursuits.

Let us make the most of this greater opportunity to understand and sympathize with our fellows. This can be accomplished only by a careful balance of the mental diet.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Feb. 18 (AP)—The weather man did his best to give the ceremony of inaugurating Gov. James V. Allred and Lieut.-Gov. Walter F. Woodul a happy setting, but failed signally.

The day before, members of the legislative committee in charge of arrangements sought him repeatedly, and he said in firm tone, the legislators reported, that while the sky would be overcast there would be no rain.

There was rain, however, a fine drizzle, which caused the event to be transferred to the hall of the House of Representatives.

Many persons were keenly disappointed because the ceremony did not take place out of doors.

The hall and galleries could accommodate only a part of the throngs that wanted to enter and the jam at the closed and guarded doors was so dense press correspondents were able to pass through and maintain contact with their wires only with great difficulty.

The big wooden platform in front of the capital where inaugurations usually are held was set up Monday night, but never was used, and Wednesday was knocked to pieces and hauled away.

State officials and employees of departments, as well as some members of the legislature, were glad when the inauguration was out of the way.

Things had been more or less marking time for several days until the government, at least the executive part, could be officially launched for another two years.

The legislature probably will begin committee hearings on important bills at an early date and otherwise begin to buckle down to work.

As possible evidence of a desire by the legislature to take some short cuts and get things done, the House moved to make committee actions on bills mean something. There is a similar move under way in the Senate.

The Representatives adopted a rule requiring bills to be signed by four, instead of two, committeemen before they may be brought to the floor on minority report. The four must have been present at the committee hearing and voted on the losing side.

Advocates of the rule argued it would keep the calendars from being clogged with bills which never have a chance of passing, but opponents charged it was an attempt to "gag" discussions, enable small groups to dominate, and prevent taxes on "interests."

Among the last state officials to take the oaths, other than the governor and lieutenant-governor, were Ernest O. Thompson as a member of the railroad commission for a new six-year term, and Edward Clark as secretary of state.

Thompson was sworn in by Judge Harvey Baugh of the Austin court of civil appeals, a "buddy" of World war days, and Clark by Judge M. B. Blair of the same court.

Clark, Governor Allred's first secretary, succeeded B. P. Matocha, who had served as secretary of state only a few months.

AUSTIN, Feb. 18 (AP)—Senator Weaver Moore of Houston thinks Gov. James V. Allred received legal advice from a new source.

After the governor's message recommending stricter liquor control and condemning sales of hard liquor by the drink, the Senator said: "I think Gov. Allred has obtained legal advice from Judge Jack Chevigny."

Chevigny, former football coach at the University of Texas, has been appointed attorney for the tax commissioner.

Submission of the governor's second message to the Legislature was followed by the reading of a speech he made in the oil fields during the campaign last summer.

Senator E. M. Davis of Brownwood, who lives in an area of small-producing wells, wanted to bring out

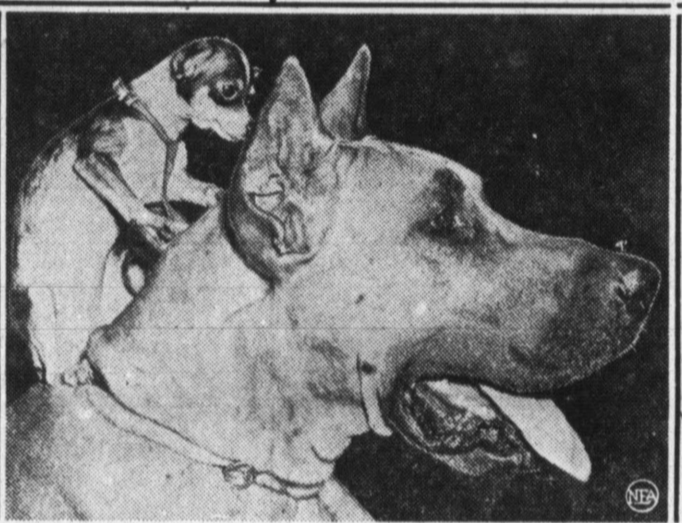

Annette Poses Nonchalantly

(Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc.)

"Let me see," Annette appears to be counting, "how many times does this make my picture's been taken today? Well, I'm just going to sit right here in this chair for the rest of them." And so it goes with Annette. Utterly indifferent, she goes about her own affairs, letting the shots fall where they may.

What's Called 'Putting On the Dog'

Of course, a dog show wouldn't be complete without a Great Dane-Chihuahua picture, but little Don Juan Alfonso seems about to put a flea in the ear of Steinbacher's King regarding photographers.

that the governor at the time advocated a "reasonable" tax on oil and decreed against taxes which would put the industry at a disadvantage in competing with other states.

Davis and Senator Will D. Pace of Tyler expressed alarm at the number of bills proposing higher taxes on oil.

The House of Representatives has a veteran parliamentarian, Reed Granbury, who also is a member of the engineering faculty of the University of Texas.

The position is important because on the parliamentarian's quick and authoritative decisions depends the effective functioning of the House. The Speaker officially voices the decisions but is advised constantly by the parliamentarian. A parliamentarian has much to do with the success or failure of the presiding officer.

Granbury held the post from 1915 to 1925, and again in 1931, "growing" into it through long association with the House and its committees. As a boy, he was a page, and is still a young man.

Rep. Roy I. Tennant, Jr., of Longview, is the shortest man in the House, being less than five feet.

At the reading clerk's stand recently, he was arguing a resolution, when another representative at the rear of the hall arose and boomed:

"I want to ask the gentleman to stand up."

Tennant laughed and went on talking.

The distinction of being the smallest in stature among the representatives was held by Harold M. Hankamer of El Paso, Tennant is serving his first term.

Modern Menus

(By NEA Service.) Plain desserts with taste uplift; old-fashioned desserts with modern sweetness—here are a few simple examples for the housewife on the search for something new, something different, yet something not too fancy for her skill.

Prunes in Sherry. (4 to 6 servings.) One-half pound large dried prunes, 1 1/2 cups hot water, 1/2 cup cooking sherry, 1/4 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 1/8 teaspoon grated orange rind. Wash prunes and stand in hot water for 3 hours. Cook in same water very slowly until soft. Add sherry, and sugar and simmer a few more minutes. Remove from fire and add lemon juice and orange rind. Chill thoroughly. Serve in attractive glass dish with a side bowl of whipped cream.

Apricot Crumble Cake. (4 to 6 servings.) One and one-half cups dried cooked apricots drained of juice, 1/4 cup apricot juice, 1 teaspoon chopped pistachio nuts, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup sifted flour, 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup sugar. Butter baking dish. Arrange drained apricots on bottom. Pour in juice and sprinkle in pistachio nuts. Work butter, flour, sugar and salt together. When thoroughly mixed and crumbly, sprinkle over apricots. Bake in moderate oven (375 deg. F.)

Tomorrow's Menu.

BREAKFAST: Grapefruit and orange juice, creamed dry beef, buttered toast, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Bacon omelet, rolls, baked apples, sour cream sugar cookies, tea, milk.

DINNER: Tomato juice, curried goose, steamed rice, lima beans, romaine and celery salad, orange and grapefruit pie, coffee, milk.

for 40 minutes. Serve with either hard sauce or whipped cream.

Orange and Grapefruit Pie.

(4 to 6 servings.) Ingredients: For crust—1 1/2 cups flour, 1/2 cup shortening, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup water. For filling—1 lemon, 1 grapefruit, 3 oranges, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 2 tablespoons quick cooking tapioca, pinch salt.

Crust: Sift flour and salt together. Cut in shortening. Add water drop by drop. Mix lightly, then toss out on floured board. Roll out bottom and top crusts.

For filling: Pare lemon, grapefruit and oranges. Lift out sections free of all membranes. Remove all seeds. Add sugar and tapioca to fruit and make sure the fruit and tapioca are thoroughly mixed. Place prepared fruit into unbaked pie shell. Then cover with top crust. Pinch edges and gash to allow steam to escape.

Bake in hot oven (425 deg. F.) for about 45 minutes.

Sports Roundup

By SCOTTY RESTON. NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (AP)-Eleanor Gehrig (Mrs. Lou) has written another son g entitled, "We Wrote Our Love Song Together." Her first, "Can't Get to First Base With You," would make a good theme song for Lou's comic skit with Col. Ruppert. The dope over here is that Gehrig will take $36,000 this year or stay home.

Bill Reid, Colgate director of Athletics, is running for mayor of Hamilton, N. Y. again soon. . . Virginia not only got one of the country's finest football coaches in Frank Murray, but as fine a poker player as the game ever knew. . . "Holy cow" is his favorite and most original expression. . . Alabama's boxers take salt baths and sleep without pillows, and as Lynn C. Doyle of the Philadelphia Bulletin remarks, sleeping without pillows is great preparation for a ring career.

Jack Dempsey celebrated the second anniversary of his entry into the restaurant business yesterday by declaring a general raise for his employees. . . Wealthy young Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Jr., is going to the races with Ginger Rogers. . . "How many lawyers are there in this country?" asks Joe Gould, Jimmy Braddock's manager. . . "And why do you suppose they're all having this fuss over the Supreme Court?" "Well, I'll tell you-it's because people break contracts. . . Any time that I'm going to do to that Schmeling-Braddock thing-break it. . . Bob Zuppke's still howling at the football rules committee. . . He doesn't like their recent tinkering, claiming, "there's no danger that no interference will be called against in extreme cases." . . This fall far below another of his retorts: "If they don't stop fooling with the rules, we'll soon have a round field with rubber goal posts."

POMPOON FULL OF RUN SAYS PRESENT TRAINER

THREE COUSINS STOCK FARM. Md., Feb. 18 (AP)-A big bay gelding galloped easily around a dirt track tucked in Maryland's rolling hills while a brilliant sun burned the early morning chill from the air.

Pompoon, winter book Kentucky Derby horse, rounded the turn with long, graceful strides. A negro stable boy rode him over a straw path, taking no chances of a fall on wet, icy dirt. A half dozen racing enthusiasts leaned against the rail. "Ain't he a beauty, now?" asked Pat Ryan who has charge of the thoroughbred while Trainer C. F. "Dan" Clarke is south with the Louheim string.

Pompoon was the outstanding 2-year-old last season. He won six of eight starts, lost once by a nose. He is now in New York and a Reaping Reward at Narragansett. He packed more weight each time.

Some experts say Pompoon won't like the derby distance of a mile and a quarter. Ryan only snickers. "He'll love it. Pompoon is full of run."

Owner Jerry Loucheim, a Philadelphia contractor, bought Pompoon at the Saratoga yearling sales for $2,000. He won more than $82,000 as a 2-year-old.

FAMILIAR BUG.

MEDINA, O.-C. E. Horn, 73, of Cleveland, needed a shave. Henry Schuler, 72, a barber, began to lather Horn's face.

"Well, I'm a son-of-a-gun," said Schuler, stopping suddenly. He walked to the sink, brought back a shaving mug with Horn's name on it.

"I've been waiting for 50 years for you to come after this," he said.

THE spreading buttresses of tropical trees still are somewhat of a mystery. Although they perform admirably in holding up the tree, it is not clear why tall temperate climate trees have not developed similar aids, since trees in the open have more need for support.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT ON BOLITHO BLANE

By Dennis Wheatley © 1937 by NEA Service, Inc.; William Morrow & Co.

K.: You rang for the steward? W.: Yes.

H.: To bring me some writing paper. When I asked for it before there was none, as the chief steward had only just returned from Miami and he had the key to the store where it was locked up. I have why I wrote first on a postcard. The steward came back with the writing paper about five minutes after I asked him for it.

K.: Where is that letter? H.: I see no reason why I should answer that question. The document is a secret one and can add nothing to your investigations.

K.: Mr. Hayashi, you don't seem to realize that you are under suspicion of having committed murder. H.: The steward can prove that. You should produce any evidence that will free you from suspicion.

H.: It may be true that I am under suspicion, but I hope sincerely, Detective Officer, that you will not do anything so foolish as to charge me with murder. I have assured you that that letter exists. It could be produced, and if produced it would clear me of suspicion immediately. It would also, . . . make rather a fool of you, so I pay you do not force me to produce it.

K.: Well, maybe we won't have to rake it up, but that largely depends on you. It's my duty to get the man who was with the good man Blane and, if you'll give me your assistance, I'll do my best to keep you out of this business as far as I can.

B.: That's very kind-very kind, indeed. Of course you must quite understand, Officer, that there was none at all, but naturally I should find it most distressing to have that horrible affair made public after all these years. I am afraid I don't see, though, how I can help you more than I have done already.

K.: You came below to your cabin at 7:05 on the night of Blane's death and you did not appear in the lounge until 8:05. What were you doing all that time? I want the truth now.

B.: I was in my cabin. I never left it, I assure you.

K.: Can you give me any proof that was so?

B.: No. I fear that I cannot.

K.: I wonder if you realize the seriousness of your situation, Bishop? Here is this man, Blane, who knew something which he might have published to your detriment. He writes you a letter from New York containing a veiled threat that in certain circumstances he may give you away. The moment he comes on board you go down to your cabin. If you had started to change then you had 40 clear minutes in which to do so, which would bring you round to 7:45, and then 15 clear minutes before you appeared in the lounge to kill that man who was holding a threat over your head. You were the only person on board who had ever met Blane before and you had a very strong motive for wishing him out of the way. Do you understand now how black this case looks against you?

E.: But surely you're not suggesting that-that . . .

K.: I certainly am.

E.: But my dear sir, this is well, really!

K.: It's really a very strong case against you, unless you can prove what you were doing between 7:05 and 8:00.

B.: Nothing, absolutely nothing, except changing in my cabin. I give you my word but unfortunately, there is no way in which I can prove it.

K.: All right, then, but I'm afraid I shall have to talk to you again later on. (TO BE CONTINUED.)

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

STATE OF TEXAS, County of Gray.

By virtue of an order of sale issued out of the District Court of Gray County, Texas, rendered in said court on the 5th day of January, 1937, in favor of A. J. Laycock, and against Mrs. Bertha Ramming; G. Gosset, Bank Commissioner of Texas; J. S. Morse; M. E. Morse; C. T. Ware; Paul A. Tharp; Amy B. Johnson; Clem C. Calhoun; Trustee, Flora Haugen and Lee Haugen, in the case of A. J. Laycock against Mrs. Bertha Ramming; G. Gosset, Bank Commissioner of Texas; J. S. Morse; M. E. Morse; C. T. Ware; Paul A. Tharp; Amy B. Johnson; Clem C. Calhoun; Trustee, Flora Haugen and Lee Haugen, No. 4340 in such court, I did on the 3rd day of February, 1937, at one o'clock P. M. levy upon the following described tracts and parcels of land situated in the County of Gray, State of Texas, to-wit: The property of the above named defendants, said land being described as all of sections sixty-seven (67) and sixty-eight (68) in block twenty-five (25) and all of section four (4) in block twenty-six (26), all located in the EAGAN BY COUNTRY SUBDIVISION, Texas, and on the 2nd day of March, 1937, being the first Tuesday of said month, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. on said day at the court house door of said county, I will offer for sale and sell at public auction for cash, in accordance with the judgment rendered in said cause, all the right, title and interest of the said Mrs. Bertha Ramming; G. Gosset, Bank Commissioner of Texas; J. S. Morse; M. E. Morse; C. T. Ware; Paul A. Tharp; Amy B. Johnson; Clem C. Calhoun; Trustee; Flora Haugen and Lee Haugen, in and to said property, and will make the purchaser thereof at said sale a Sheriff's Deed dated at Pampa, Texas, this 3rd day of February, 1937.

EARL TALLEY, Sheriff of Gray County, Texas. BY BUFORD REED, Deputy. (Feb. 4-11-18)

ORDINANCE NO. 179.

AN ORDINANCE prohibiting the parking of vehicles in alleyways within the City of Pampa, prescribing the penalty for violations and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF PAMPA:

Sec. 1. Hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person to park or leave standing any vehicle, when the same is unattended and unoccupied by some person in control thereof, whether the same be a motor vehicle or otherwise, in upon or across any alleyway within the City of Pampa.

Sec. 2. Any person violating this ordinance shall upon conviction be punished by fine of not less than one nor more than two hundred dollars; and.

Sec. 3. By the term "park or leave standing" as used in this ordinance shall mean to stop and leave standing any such vehicle for any length of time.

Sec. 4. Emergency Clause. The fact that many persons now park motor and other vehicles in the alleyways of the city of Pampa and that same constitutes a hazard endangering life and property in case of fire within said city, and that the health and lives of the citizenship of said city are by such practice endangered, as well as property therein, in event of fire, creates an emergency, and the rule requiring ordinances to be read and passed upon three different dates is hereby suspended, and this ordinance shall become effective and in full force and effect upon its passage and publication as required by law.

ALLISON AND BORGER WIN COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIPS; TOURNAMENT BEGINS

ALLISON WINS OVER CANADIAN BY 15 POINTS

GROOM, FAVORITE, AND DARROUZETT PLAY IN FIRST TILT

The Borger Bulldogs came to Pampa this morning for the annual District 2 basketball tournament after defeating Phillips of Whittenburg last night 20 to 18 in a wild game. The two teams had argued for nearly a week on the side of the deciding game. Phillips won the toss but lost the game.

Allison swamped the Canadian Wildcats in another "argument" game last night, winning by the comfortable margin of 15 points. Game score had not been learned here this morning. The two teams were also deadlocked over site of play until the last possible minute to decide a winner.

Darrouzett and Groom were the first teams to arrive in Pampa this morning. They were scheduled to take the floor at 9 a. m. Spearman drew the bye in the first round of play.

Eleven teams, all primed to be the quintet to enter the regional meet in Canyon next Friday and Saturday, will battle until a winner is decided at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

Admission to the seasons will be 10 cents for students and 25 cents for adults or season tickets may be secured at 50 cents for students and $1 for adults.

Coordination Is Secret of Champ Basketball Team

DENVER, Feb. 18 (AP)—About one second in coordination—that's the difference between a top flight college basketball team and a crack A. A. U. independent quintet.

Everett Shelton, coach of the Denver Safeway A. A. U. team in advancing that theory today, said the greatest advantage of an independent team has is "the maturity of its players."

"A team like those in the Missouri Valley A. A. U. league has older players," he said. "They are more mature than the college star, which means they are nearer their peak and their coordination is just about one second faster."

Shelton believes his theory will be proved in the national A. A. U. tournament in Denver March 14 to 20.

"I think there isn't much chance of a college team winning the national championship this year," he said. "No collegiate outfit has won the event since Washburn College of Topeka, Kas., triumphed in 1925, Shelton pointed out."

ATHLETICS READY TO LEAVE FOR OLD MEXICO

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18 (AP)—Connie Mack will leave tonight for Mexico with the first Philadelphia baseball players ever to go to a foreign country for spring training.

By Monday Connie's Athletics will be going through their paces under a warming sun in Mexico City.

Mostly pitchers and catchers will be in the first group to leave. Four more pitchers will meet the train at Laredo, Texas. Three players will go directly to the training camp from the Pacific coast.

A second unit of Athletics will leave February 25, so Mack's entire outfit will be preparing for the summer's American league campaigns by March 1.

'Belting Bellboy' Conquers Krieger

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (AP)—Fred Apostoli, the "belting bellboy" from San Francisco, moved into the middleweight title picture today as result of a decisive 10-round victory over the heavy hitting Solly Krieger of Brooklyn.

Apostoli, making his second New York appearance last night at the Hippodrome before 4,500 fight fans, impressed ringsters with his sharp-shooting ability in scoring for previous setback, at the hands of Ken Overlin, in his debut here.

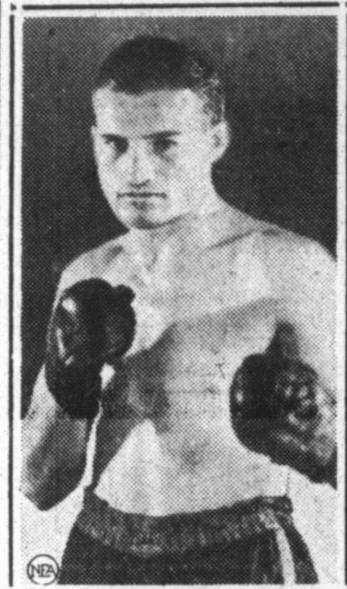

Before making any gestures in the direction of the American middleweight champion, Freddie Steele of Tacoma, Apostoli said he wanted to square accounts with Averlin, whose victory on points over the western youth was considered questionable by many experts.

Steele, who knocked out Apostoli on the coast, defends his 160-pound crown Friday night at Madison Square Garden against a former titleholder, Eddie (Babe) Risko.

WINNERS IN CLOVIS GOLDEN GLOVES TOURNAMENT ANNOUNCED

Sport Sparks

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT

DALLAS, Feb. 18 (AP)—Aggressive Fred Corcoran, tournament bugle manager of the National Professional Golfers' association, has plans going that could make Texas golfing center of the world for a month. . . Come next February, he would plant his professional nomads on Texas soil for four open tournaments. . . Houston will come up with a bigger and better tournament—possibly $5,000—while plans include Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio are progressing. . . Corcoran, successor to the ousted Bob Harlow, says the pros are anxious to visit San Antonio, once scene of the Texas open, again. . . There were more than 4,000 paid admissions scrambling over River Oaks course on the final day of the Houston meet.

Jim Fogarty, squat New Yorker, provided the biggest thrill of the hole. His spoon second shot on the 49-yard tenth hole found the cup for a double eagle. . . And then he faltered and finished with a 39, four over par. . . Ponderous Ed Dudley, stony visaged Georgia professional, holed a four-iron second shot on the par four ninth hole before 3,000 galleryites. Harry Cooper waited three minutes for the cheering to subside before shooting. . . Shouts of a huge gallery following Jim DeMaret, hometown favorite, could be heard a mile when he dropped a hole in one on the 15th hole of the final round that put him four under par and left him but a stroke behind Cooper. . . Moans were almost as loud when he bagged a six on the par four 16th.

William T. Tilden and his professional tennis troupe, encountered difficulties at Waco Monday night. . . Mr. Jim Tucker, eminent sports scribe, relates that the tall netter pulled his companions off the court during the doubles match because he believed there were more persons in the Baylor university gym than there were dollars in the till. . . It was explained that youngsters have a way of getting into "pay-as-you-enter" place without ever reaching for their pockets and the "no-play, no pay" edict was handed Tilden. . . The net master then declined to continue until all the balls that had been grabbed off the court for souvenirs had been tossed back. . . The balls were returned and the matches went on to completion.

Coaches Matty Bell and D. Bible both went on record last week as saying Morley Jennings, Baylor coach, was "one of the best in the business." Strangely, both gave the same reason: "He turns out fine teams from what appears to be none too promising material and is a credit to collegiate football."

Morris Norton, West Texas amateur golf champion, blasted a 290-yard hole-in-one shot at the Wichita falls country club course, his second in 28 days. . . He had only been trying 15 years for a dodo

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 18 (AP)—Joe Louis' victory over Natie Brown was booked as a fourth-round knockout today but more than a few of the 10,222 spectators at the Bomber's one-night stand in the municipal auditorium thought the real kayo was to their pocketbooks.

They paid $27,188 to see the Brown Bomber patch up his prestige last night at the expense of the punch-weary Washington Hebrew, who provided a burlesque ending that must have made journeyman wrestlers green with envy.

It was Louis' first start since his unfortunate foot race with young Bob Pastor, in which Louis trailed by two laps at the finish but was given the decision for trying.

The bout was as dull as the expressionless eyes of Louis. For two rounds, Brown carried the fight to the Bomber, but neither man landed a punch hard enough to dent a grapefruit.

Midway in the third Louis caught Brown coming and flailed him with short rights and lefts. Brown's face began to assume a well cushioned appearance. As the round ended he apparently was in a bad way, half out of the ropes and half out of his head.

The fourth was Louis' sub-par round. He started at the gong, driving in a barrage of rights and lefts which slipped through Brown's protecting gloves. Fifteen times the Bomber bombed without answering fire. Finally the weary Natie sank to the floor in a sitting position. Referee Walter Bates started counting, ceased abruptly as the apparently groggy Brown grabbed him by a leg and pulled him over.

Brown staggered to his feet and weaved an unsteady way toward Louis. Before Brown could make it, Bates recovered his footing, took a short cut to Louis and hoisted his hand aloft.

Bates said the timekeeper had completed the count before Brown regained his feet.

For his brief exercise Louis and his stockholders received $8,826.84. Brown's cut was $3,310, which was better than in the previous meeting, when his cuts were over both eyes.

CALDWELL SIGNS HIS CONTRACT WITH BROWN

WESLACO, Feb. 18 (AP)—Earl Caldwell, St. Louis Browns right hander, today signed his 1937 contract and predicted Roger Hornsby's entry finish in the first division of the American League race.

Caldwell, former San Antonio mound ace, said a better pitching staff, an improved infield, a strong attack at the plate and the new ownership were contributing factors to his prediction. Caldwell, former school teacher, is winter plant manager of a citrus company here.

MUSTANGS WIN OVER BAYLOR

METHODISTS WELL ON WAY TO FIRST TITLE

By The Associated Press

The Southern Methodist Mustangs, gunning for their first Southwest Conference basketball title, were well out in front today after a 25 to 20 triumph over the Baylor Bears last night.

The victory was the Methodists' seventh in eight starts. The accurate foul line shooting of J. D. Norton, Mustang Sophomore flash, and the air-tight defensive play of the entire quintet contributed to the win.

Norton sank his first five charity shots to keep the Fomes ahead early in the game. He also added two field goals to pace the Mustangs with nine points.

Wilson White of Baylor was high scorer, however, with 11 tallies.

The Rice Owls grabbed sole possession of second place and erased the University of Texas Longhorns from title consideration with a 40 to 35 victory over the Steers. Maxie Campbell, gangling Rice guard, found the hoop for two quick field goals in the closing minutes for the victory margin. The Longhorns took an early lead but the Owls had reduced it to a single point by half-time.

THREE RECORDS FALL

ABILENE, Feb. 18 (AP)—Three seasonal records fell last night as the league leading McMurry College Indians trimmed the Austin College Kangaroos 67 to 39 in a Texas conference basketball game. It was the highest total score of any game this year, the highest score tallied by a winning team and Max Arrant's 27 points were the most tallied by a conference player.

REDS SIGN CINCINNATI, Feb. 18 (AP)—Two of the Cincinnati Reds' promising rookies, Eddie Jost and Dick Barrett, signed their 1937 contracts today. Jost is an infielder up from the San Francisco Missions of the coast league while Barrett, a pitcher, won 22 and lost 13 games with Seattle, also of the Pacific coast league, last season.

RAMS BEAT TIGERS FORT WORTH, Feb. 18 (AP)—The Texas Wesleyan Rams won their fifth consecutive basketball victory last night as they turned back the Trinity Tigers 48 to 24. Decker, Ram ace, controlled the tip-off throughout and paced the scorers with 11 points.
