MacArthur Orders Japs To Turn Prisons Over To Yank Officer

A hundred thousand Americans will be in Japan by nightfall, Japanese radio reports said Tuesday and General MacArthur gave his armies authority to requisition anything they need within Japanese territorial limits. His forces are scheduled to occupy Tokyo itself on Friday.

MacArthur ordered the Japanese to turn over all prisoners of war camps to the highest ranking officer interned in each with authority to demand of the Japanese whatever food or medical care his camp required.

Details of the march into Tokyo will be outlined, radio reports said, at a meeting of the Japanese First Army commander with Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, American Eighth Army commander, at Yokohama Wednesday.

U. S. Seventh Fleet units meanwhile reached Russian-held Dairen, Manchuria, in a thus-far futile search for high-ranking prisoners from Guam, Wake and Corregidor, reported Associated Press Correspondent John Grover.

He found the port city completely under Russian control and virtually undamaged. Japanese offered no resistance as Soviet forces moved in with the aid of American lend-lease vehicles and seaplanes.

Jap Criminal List Grows
Fresh American landings ranging from the shores of Tokyo Bay to southern Honshu and southernmost Kyushu were proceeding, adding to the flow of liberated prisoners from whose stories of torture growing lists of Japanese war criminals were being compiled.

British warships rode at anchor in Singapore harbor for the first time in nearly four years, and Allied forces were expected momentarily to land there to accept the Japanese garrison's official capitulation. British marines also were prepared to occupy Penang Island, off Malaysia's west coast 375 miles northwest of Singapore, and Sabang, off the northern tip of Sumatra.

In China, American-trained troops of China's crack new Sixth Army were to land from transport planes at Nanking Tuesday, ready for the final surrender there Thursday of all Japanese in China. Other Chinese forces flowed quietly into several other cities that once were Japanese strongholds.

American Planes Land
American planes already were landing at Kanoya, on Kyushu, and surface units sent troops ashore at Takuso, on Kyushu's Kagoshima Bay, while a distant typhoon threatened. Naval forces also landed at Hamamatsu, southern Honshu, where evacuation of additional hundreds of Allied prisoners was proceeding.

Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger boarded a hospital ship in Tokyo Bay and heard prisoners' tales of brutality and torture as military interviewers from General MacArthur's headquarters recorded names after Japanese name for trial as war criminals.

Eichelberger's Eighth Army occupation troops crossed the Tama River—Tokyo's south boundary—but awaited further orders before moving toward the heart of the city. They occupied four more air- (Continued on Page Three)

Japs To Surrender At Nanking Thursday
CHUNGKING—(P)—Troops of the American-trained and American-equipped Chinese Sixth Army, which helped drive the Japanese from North Burma, will fly to Nanking Thursday for the formal surrender of Japanese forces in the China theater scheduled for Thursday, the high command announced.

The movement was scheduled to start several days ago, but was held up by bad weather.

Three Doolittle Fliers Arrive In Washington
WASHINGTON—(P)—Three drawn and weary men who took part in the Jimmy Doolittle bombing of Tokyo stepped on United States soil Tuesday for the first time in 41 months.

"This is the first piece of the United States I've seen since the deck of the carrier Hornet," said big, slow-talking Lt. Chase J. Nielsen of Hyrum, Utah, as he left an Army transport plane at National Airport.

Equally happy were Lt. Robert L. Hite of Earth, Texas, and Staff Sergeant Jacob D. Deshaizer of Salem, Ore. The three, rescued two weeks ago from a Japanese prison camp near Peiping, were flown here from Karachi, India.

Americans Find Hiroshima City Of Rubble And Hatred
HIROSHIMA, JAPAN—(P)—Street cars rattle along the streets where not a single building stands. A few deadpan civilians peddle slowly through the rubble.

Black after black contains only a thin covering of rusting tin, a few stones and some broken bricks. The twisted frames of less than a dozen buildings stand forlornly alone in the midst of ruin that was once touted as Japan's most modernized city.

That was the Hiroshima Tuesday with the first American postwar visitors to the world's first target of the atomic bomb.

By contrast, Berlin Untouched
For its size, no city in the world was so completely wiped out by bombs as was this war-swollen metropolis of 400,000, whose heart was smashed completely by a single application of atomic power. The buildings, once the most modern of the Japanese empire, were simply smashed—not split apart as from an ordinary demolition raid—but leveled to the ground.

By contrast, Bremen, Hamburg and Berlin seem almost untouched. Of the few recognizable pieces of buildings still standing, only one remains of possible service. In it Hiroshima's banks have set up counters and there several hundred Japanese waited to do business.

The Japanese newspapermen who had visited the city shortly after the leveling told me that the residents of Hiroshima "hate you and think you the most fiendish, cruel people on earth."

Hirokuni Dadai, chief of the police prefecture, told us we might be attacked, but we were not. Pedestrians and cyclists stared blankly but docilely as our party wandered for two hours through the ruins, photographing and staring in awe at the damage done by a single bomb.

Dadai, who was the first to telephone the news of the atomic bombing to Tokyo on August 6 and then assisted in aiding the wounded, said "we expect the death toll to pass 80,000."

Negro Shot To Death At Calf Roping Here

Charlie Toliver, 34, negro, of Odessa was shot and killed almost instantly Monday afternoon in the grandstand at the Midland Rodeo grounds which was crowded with spectators watching Toots Mansfield and Sunny Edwards compete in the last half of the championship calf roping match.

Witnesses said Toliver and two other negroes crowded into the white section of the grandstand. When they were asked to leave one negro flashed a knife. Three Military Policemen from the Midland Army Air Field were called to quell the disturbance.

One MP, Pfc. John Pinson, an aerial gunner, struck Toliver with his automatic revolver and knocked him down. When the negro got up he flashed a 32-caliber pearl handled revolver and pulled the trigger, officers said. The gun snapped but the cartridge failed to explode. Pinson fired two shots which entered the negro's shoulder and came out his stomach.

One of the negroes disappeared during the excitement. Another negro, V. W. Hall, also of Odessa, was placed in the county jail. He had a cut on his hand. Hall told officers he had a knife, but denied he opened it.

Recover Two Knives
State Highway Patrolman Russell H. Gifford recovered two knives, one open and one unopened. Toliver's body was left lying when he fell until Justice of the Peace B. C. Girdley arrived to make an investigation.

Witnesses were questioned by Major Pat R. Warren, provost marshal at MAAF, Gifford, Sheriff Ed Darnell, military police, and city and state officers.

Girdley said he plans to hold a hearing Tuesday afternoon. The body of the negro was taken to the Ellis Funeral Home after Girdley had made his examination. It will be taken to Waco Tuesday for burial.

Toliver moved to Odessa from Waco in June and was employed at a filling station.

Congress To Convene On Wednesday

WASHINGTON—(P)—Congress starts its first peacetime session in almost four years Wednesday.

It will be the "reconversion Congress" as distinguished from the war Congresses that have been in almost continuous session since late in 1941.

Facing the lawmakers returning from vacations cut short by war's end will be five administration-tagged "must" proposals dealing with:

1. Jobs for everyone willing and able to work. Congressional committees hope to work out a plan of cooperation between government, labor, industry and agriculture to create work for millions idle or facing idleness because of the shutdown of war industries.

2. Unemployment compensation. Senate and House committees are working on proposals to pay as much as $25 weekly for 26 weeks to workers unable to find jobs.

3. Surplus property disposal. A bill to substitute a single administration for the three-man board now in charge of getting rid of war-born surpluses will be ready for House action next week.

4. Reorganization of executive agencies. Truman wants authority to abolish or merge many agencies. The House Expenditures Committee starts hearings Tuesday on the proposal.

5. Termination of wartime controls and laws. Many emergency acts are nearing expiration and Congress must decide which to retain.

There will be no legislative business ready for either branch before next week. In fact, Speaker Rayburn (D-Texas) said he doubted if the House could count on a majority before then.

Attlee Blames War On 1931 Jap Aggression
LONDON—(P)—Prime Minister Attlee Monday night pinned the blame for the six years of war upon failure to deal sternly with Japanese aggression 14 years ago, and declared victory will have been in vain unless all are ready to shoulder "the heavy responsibility that our victory entails."

"It will be our task in closest association with other nations to seek to establish a world order in which war shall everywhere be banished," he told the British people in a speech marking the sixth anniversary of Britain's entry into World War II.

Sixteen Texans. Lose Lives Over Week-End
By The Associated Press
Sixteen lives were lost in Texas over a long Labor Day weekend.

Traffic accidents, fires and drownings caused most of the deaths.

America's first peacetime holiday since 1941 brought tragedy as well as celebration. At least 352 deaths were counted in the U. S. as Labor Day observance came to an end.

Eleven Rescued Nurses Get Army-Navy Awards

The nurses include Mrs. Basilia Torres Steward, Fairfield, Texas.

House Expected To Oppose More Executive Power

WASHINGTON—(P)—Budget Director Harold D. Smith goes to Capitol Hill Tuesday to back up President Truman's request for more control over federal agencies.

Smith was asked to explain to the House Expenditures Committee why Truman thinks he should have more authority to reorganize the executive branch of the government.

The budget director faces a group unconvinced that any major change should be made, particularly if it involves taking away Congressional powers.

Chairman Manasco (D-Ala.), for instance, told a reporter it would be "futile" to try to pass a measure along the lines suggested by Truman in a message to Congress last Spring.

Instead, Manasco placed before his committee a bill exempting 21 agencies from any Presidential re-organizing—unless both the House and Senate agree.

Truman said in his message that many of the agencies should be reorganized in order to achieve more efficient and economical administration.

The late President Roosevelt made a similar request, but Congress refused to go along.

Mansfield Wins Top Calf Roping Honors

Toots Mansfield of Big Spring captured top honors at Midland's championship calf roping Monday afternoon when he made an average time of 16.1 seconds on 12 calves against 19.9 seconds made by his opponent, Sunny Edwards of Odessa.

In the eight-calf contest between Walton Poage of Rankin and N. A. Pitcock of Aspermont, Pitcock was the winner with an average time of 17.8 seconds. Poage was leading after seven calves had been roped, but on his last calf he failed to rope the animal getting a "no time" to lose the match.

Mansfield had only one let down in his quick, smooth roping. On his fifth calf he made a time of 27.3. A short time later he roped five calves in 15 seconds or less.

Edwards got off to a bad start by drawing a 10 second penalty on his first calf.

The Sino-Soviet Treaty

The recently signed 30-year treaty between China and Russia holds every promise of becoming another mighty bulwark for peace and security both in the Far East and in the world as a whole.

It was a highly significant and most important document for a great many reasons. But if there is any one fact in connection with the treaty that is more significant than any other, it was Russia's action in conducting the negotiations and in signing the treaty with the Central Chinese government headed by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek instead of with Communist elements which dominate a large portion of North China.

Thus, an immediate result of the treaty appears to have been a termination of a condition approximating civil war between the Central Chinese government and the Communist elements in that nation. Deprived of the support they may have expected from the Soviet, the Chinese Communists immediately agreed to go to Chungking to confer with the Generalissimo, thus accepting an invitation they had rejected flatly on at least two previous occasions.

On the whole, the treaty seems to reflect a broad and generous attitude by the Soviet toward China. The Russians could have taken just about anything they might have wanted in China, and it is unlikely that anyone would or could have stopped them.

As one example, they might have taken Manchuria. Instead, the Soviet recognized China's full sovereignty over that huge and tremendously rich area. The Russians might have taken possession of Dairen and Port Arthur. Instead, Dairen was made a free port open to all nations for the next 30 years and Port Arthur will be operated jointly by the two nations as a naval base.

Everything considered, Russia seems to have demonstrated and acted upon the sort of foresight which should make for peace in the Far East. The Russians could have taken a great deal more than they did, but if they had done so, they might have sowed the seeds of another war in the future.

The treaty appears to have created the sort of atmosphere between China and Russia in which peace and good will can thrive. There is nothing in first reactions to the treaty to indicate that the agreement is distasteful to either nation.

It holds every promise of being the sort of foundation upon which a real peace can be built—a peace not alone between Russia and China, but for every nation which might be affected by suspicion and clashing between these two dominant powers of the Asiatic continent.

There are some signs—which one notes with extreme caution—of progress in the Chungking peace-parley between the Chinese Communists and the Nationalist government of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

A Communist spokesman in Chungking said Monday that the talks were still in a "preliminary stage" and that no agreement had yet been reached. However, any progress—no matter how small—is encouraging when we are dealing with the bloody quarrel which long has threatened to plunge China's millions into civil war.

The Generalissimo, yielding somewhat to his opponents, has issued a striking V-J Day message to the nation, declaring that now the Japanese war is over "we shall permit no further delay in the inauguration of constitutional democracy". He therefore proposes to summon the national assembly to get the reforms under way.

Equal Status to All Parties
Chiang promises equal legal status to all political parties and says the government is prepared to consider an increase in the number of delegates to the assembly, this apparently permitting inclusion of Communist delegates for the first time.

To get the full significance of what is going on in this fateful Chungking conference, we should note that Chiang's one party government is a totalitarian dictatorship.

So it's of vast importance not only to Asia but to the world at large when Chiang says that the fundamental policy of the Chinese revolution (the 1911 revolt under Dr. Sun Yat Sen) and the war against Japan was not only to defeat the enemy but to establish a new China based on three principles—Democracy, Nationalism and livelihood.

It will be a disappointment if now, with the Jap war out of the way, the Chungking government and the Communists can't resolve their differences and get a stable government which will permit a terribly disorganized China to get on its feet.

Europe Now Faces Severe Coal Famine

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Office of War Information declared nothing can prevent a severe coal famine in Europe next winter and it could be drastic enough to destroy "all semblance of law and order."

There is a world-wide shortage of coal, "the most critically scarce raw material needed by the European economy," the report said, with the United States and Russia affected along with Britain and the rest of Europe.

G&MMB&A survey, T-1-N, and it shows to be one-quarter of a mile south and same distance west of closest completed oil well in the area. It is to drill to 5,100 feet for San Andres-Permian pay.

Taking Potential
Texas Gulf Producing Company No. 1 Slaughter, Central Cochran County discovery, three miles west of the Slaughter field, and in league 113, Potter County School Land survey, was starting to take a pumping potential test Tuesday, to complete. Mechanical difficulties had delayed that test for several days. Total depth is at 5,063 feet.

Skelly Oil Company No. 1 Suggs, Irion County prospect in section 45, block 1, H&TC survey, was to drill ahead from 8,542 feet, in Ellenburger dolomite, after a drillstem test above that point had no shows of oil, gas, water or sulphur odor.

Three Wildcats Due
Drilling of three wildcats to 8,000 feet or production in the Ellenburger, two in Tom Green County and one in Coke County, is scheduled on blocks that have been leased by W. J. Green of Wichita Falls for his son, 2nd Lt. Howard W. Green, and Wichita Falls associates.

Green began blocking the acreage 15 months ago and paid Tom Green, Coke and Sterling county landowners $145,000 in bonuses for 10-year commercial leases bearing annual rental of 50 cents an acre.

Contracts for drilling the first two tests have been awarded to J. W. Sorrels, oil producer of Chicago and Abilene. The first wildcat, due to start within 60 days, will be in Coke on Bob Mims' ranch, in southeast quarter of section 300, block 2, H&TC survey, 11 miles north and slightly west of Water Valley. It will be on a 25,000-acre block in Coke and Sterling counties, leased in the name of Albert Phelps of Wichita Falls.

In Northwest Tom Green

The second exploration will be on a 40,000-acre Tom Green County block, leased in the name of F. U. Powell of Seymour. The site, not yet definite, will be northeast of Carlsbad.

The third test will be only four miles northwest of San Angelo, on a block of 40,000 acres taken in the name of M. H. McKiney, engineer, formerly of Wichita Falls, now with the Girdler Corporation of Louisville, Ky. It will be on Llano County School Land, all of which, 17,000 acres, was leased.

Wildlife Federation To Be Reorganized

SAN ANTONIO —(P)—Complete reorganization of the old Texas Wildlife Federation, with a full change of name and personnel, will be presented to Texas sportsmen at a convention to be held in Waco the middle of March.

Henry W. Flagg of Galveston, president of the federation since its inception at Austin in March, 1936, proposed the revitalization of the agency, which was chartered by the state to coordinate activities as a clearing house on local and general conservation problems.

Named chairman of the convention arrangements committee, Grady Hill of San Angelo, president of the West Texas Game and Fish Association, said:

Hunting Maps Redrawn
"The hunting and fishing map of Texas will be redrawn by the hundreds of millions of dollars to be spent on Texas soil and water projects within the next decade or so," Hill said.

He urged that every section of the state survey its potentialities for exploitation of wildlife and connected recreational facilities.

At Waco, the sportsmen organizations will decide finally on the future program of the statewide group and rule on financing methods.

Proposed initially here was a per capita membership fee. A minimum of 20,000 sportsmen and $10,000 a year operating expense allocation were envisioned.

The state of Washington has never adopted a flag officially.

Allies Take Suicide Boats

Japanese reports said nearly 15,500 Allied troops would occupy cities south and west of Tokyo preceding occupation of the capital, and said 20,000 others were landing Tuesday at Tachikawa Army Air Base, northwest of Tokyo.

American Naval forces confiscated 20 Japanese suicide boats in the Yokosuka Naval Base area on Tokyo Bay, and said nine more Japanese submarines and "many" midget subs and one-man suicide torpedoes were picked up, in addition to 44 flying bombs.

Premier Prince Higashi-Kuni chose a five-man brain trust and sat down to read "complaints" he had urged the people to send him.

The opening session of the Diet Tuesday, attended by the emperor himself, heard one good reason for surrender: bombings and blockade, with the aid of one comparatively insignificant earthquake, had cut Japanese plane production from 2,857 for June, 1944, to 1,003 for July, 1945.

Frances Jones And Lt. J. L. Rennard Wed In California Rites

Marriage rites for Miss Frances Jones of Midland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jones of Batesville, Ark., and Lt. Joseph L. Rennard, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Rennard of Los Angeles, Calif., were read Aug. 19, in the home of the bridegroom's parents, 1914 West 41st Drive.

Vows for the double ring ceremony were read by the Rev. Elbert E. Gates, Jr., pastor of the Los Angeles First Baptist Church, as the couple stood before an improvised altar formed by large baskets of white gladioli. Burning tapers outlining the handles of the baskets added soft illumination to the setting.

Soft recorded music preceding the bride march included "Oh Promise Me" and "Thine Alone."

The bride chose for her wedding attire a turquoise blue street-length dress with which she wore a small off-the-face hat with a white veil. Her other accessories were white and completing her costume was a white orchid corsage.

Matron Of Honor
Mrs. John H. Jardine of Santa Monica attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore a powder blue dress with navy and white accessories and a gardenia corsage. Best man was Capt. William Woodrum of Los Angeles.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Centering the dining table which was covered with a lace cloth was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride couple. An all-white floral arrangement completed the table setting.

Lt. and Mrs. Rennard went to Lake Arrowhead on their wedding trip. For travel the bride wore a powder blue suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Attends Arkansas Schools
Mrs. Rennard graduated from high school in Batesville, Ark., and has been employed by the University of Texas Lands in Midland for the last four years. She is a member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

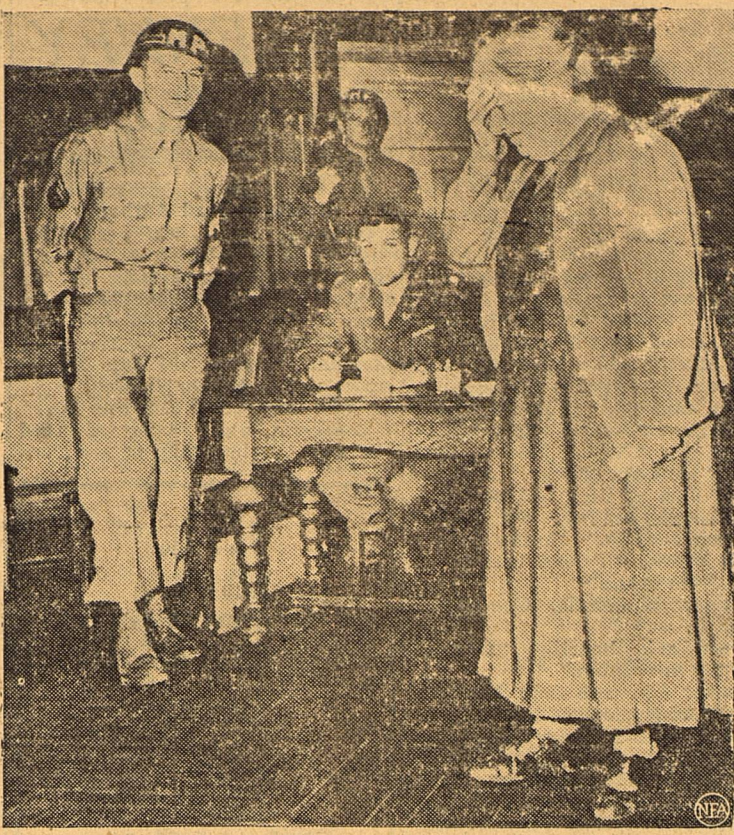

The bridegroom attended UCLA in Los Angeles before entering the armed forces. He was stationed at Big Spring Army Air Field where he received his cadet training and his commission as a bombardier. After serving two years with the 8th Air Force in England, Lieutenant Rennard was stationed at Midland Army Air Field. He is now a personnel officer at the air field in San Angelo where the couple will make their home.

Mary Elizabeth Collins returned Monday from a vacation trip to Houston. She enrolled as a senior student Tuesday at Midland High School.

FOREST GROVE, ORE. —(AP)—The golf bug—that incurable addict of the fairways—he finally went up in the air about something—and guess what?

Sunday golf pro Bill Martin saw a sports plane circle his course, and hurried out to see if someone was in distress and needing rescuing.

A moment later the plane banked and landed, then taxied up to the clubhouse lawn. Two men from neighboring McMinnville, Ore., stepped out, tossed golf bags to gawking caddies and announced casually:

"Just dropped in for a round or two."

So watch out for the warning signs—especially the tormenting, embarrassing rectal itch. Because now you can and should do something about it!

A highly effective way to deal with this ugly infection has now been made possible. It is based on the medically recognized drug known as gentian violet. This special drug is the vital ingredient in P-W, the Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son.

P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms. So, if you suspect Pin-Worms in your child or yourself, get a box of JAYNE'S P-W right away, and follow the directions.

Ask your druggist: P-W for Pin-Worms!

Hogan Beats Nelson In Nashville Open

NASHVILLE—(P)—Golf's great show—the barnstorming professionals—moved west Tuesday featuring a return of an old and popular attraction.

It's By-on Nelson and Ben Hogan in the renewal of their prewar rivalry for the sport's top paychecks and plaudits.

The diminutive Hogan, just out of the Army, reasserted himself as a threat to Nelson's fairway supremacy by winning the $13,333 Nashville Open Monday over the tight Richland Club course.

The former Air Forces lieutenant racked up a score of 265, just two strokes off the all-time tournament low, to hand Nelson one of his few setbacks of the year.

The Toledo shotmaker, winner of 16 of 21 major events in 1945, finished wobbly to record a 269 that gave him a tie with Big Johnny Bulla of Atlanta for second money.

The pros move to Dallas for the $13,333 open, then to Tulsa, and from there to the Northwest.

In scoring his first triumph since 1942, when he entered the service, the former Fort Worth caddy led all the way. He registered rounds of 64, 67, 68 and 66 to finish 19 under par.

Hogan trailed Nelson in previous tournament starts this year at Tam O'Shanter and Knoxville.

Detroit To Make Pennant Drive In Rivals' Territory

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
Opportunity is thundering on the Yankees' front door Tuesday as Detroit drags its two-game lead into the Bronx for a seven-tilt set with Joe McCarthy's revived contenders.

With the third baseball milestone, Labor Day, now a matter of record, the Tigers face the discouraging prospect of carrying their pennant drive into somebody else's back yard. Be it New York, Washington, St. Louis, Cleveland or some other enemy park, the Bengals' schedule calls for 28 more games and only four at home.

While Detroit tours the country, New York will be playing 26 of its remaining 29 contests in the friendly stadium where they have been able to look the part of a contending club. And Washington plays 19 of its 24 tilts at Griffith Stadium. Both St. Louis and Cleveland must play a major portion of their final games in the East during the next two weeks.

Ever since Charley Keller rejoined the Yanks they have found the old spark, recovering from a dizzy nine-game losing slump to cop 15 of their last 20 and move within 4 1/2 lengths of the top.

Yanks In Fourth Place
They're still fourth behind Washington and St. Louis, but they figure to be plenty tough at home with the fragrant scent of a World Series slice drifting through the September air.

The Tigers picked up a full length Monday by squeezing past Chicago twice by an identical 6-5 score. Tommy Bridges, making his first appearance since 1943 after his discharge from the Army, received credit for the first game. Jim Tobin clinched the second with a two-run homer and an effective job of pitching after the Sox had chased Al Benton with four runs in the opening inning.

Largest crowd of the year at Briggs Stadium, 53,953, paced the holiday major league total of 265,336 paying customers.

Washington lost ground in its two-month chase of the leaders, by dropping the second of a holiday double to Boston, 9-4, under the spell of Vic Johnson after knocking out Dave (Boo) Ferriss in an 11-5 opening romp.

Charley Keller, Nick Etten and George Stinewiss unloaded a barrage of extra base hits on Philadelphia as the Yanks swept two, 4-1 and 7-6 in 11 innings. Etten's double with the bases loaded broke a tie to give Floyd Revere his thirteenth victory in the first. Keller contributed a double, triple and homer and Stinewiss two doubles and two three baggers in the finale.

St. Louis whipped Cleveland twice, 6-3 and 5-4, in 10 frames to further complicate the Tribe's difficult uphill struggle. Heading east for 19 games they trail by seven. Bob Mumcrief, leading pitcher, earned his eleventh in the first and rookie Al Lamachchia of Toledo took the nightcap on relief. The Browns are only 3 1/2 lengths back of Detroit.

Chicago beat the Cincinnati Reds, for the nineteenth time in 20 starts, 7-2 and 7-1 before 43,161. Paul Derringer coasted home in the opener and Andy Pafko unloaded a grand slam homer and Hy Vandenberg saved the second when he came to the rescue of Hank Wyse who was tagged for three straight singles with nobody out in the opening session.

Pittsburgh dropped St. Louis four full games behind the leading Cubs by handing the Cardinals a double dose of disappointment, 6-5 and 6-2. Both Ted Wilks and Bill Donnelly failed to last two innings as the Bucs unloaded a total of five round trippers.

Giants Beat Phillies Twice
The New York Giants hit the million mark in home attendance for the first time (1,008,750 paid) when they knocked off the Phillies, 3-2 and 9-0, on a pair of neat pitching jobs by Harry Feldman and Sal Maglie.

A first fight between Ed Stanky of the Braves enlivened proceedings at Ebbets Field where the Brooklyn Dodgers took two from Boston, 4-0 and 4-3. Lefty Tom Seats went all the way in the first tilt and received credit for the finale on a tenth inning relief chore.

There are about 8,000 miles of railway track in the Chicago terminal district.

Lopez Of Pirates Ties 1,793 Catching Record

PITTSBURGH—(P)—Quiet, mild-mannered Alphonso Lopez squatted behind the bat and caught his 1,793rd game—thereby equalling the 20-year record set by Gabby Hartnett.

The Pittsburgh Pirate backstop, who tied the mark Monday, telescoped his record into 17 big league seasons. Now 37, he figures he still has several years of good baseball in him and is likely to set a mark that will stand for quite a while.

He needs to play in only 21 more games this season to tie the mark set by Bill Dickey of the Yankees of catching 100 or more games in each of 13 seasons.

SHORT CHANGE

Discovered in 1930, and now ninth among the planets in distance from the sun, the planet Pluto is so eccentric in its orbit that, in 1989, it will swerve in nearer than Neptune, thus becoming the eighth most distant world of the solar system.

Sgt. Parker Defeats Talbert For Title

FOREST HILLS, N. Y.—(P)—Sgt. Frankie Parker, the first two-time national tennis champion since Don Budge turned professional, doesn't agree with the fans who consider him lucky to win.

After turning back the limping Bill Talbert 14-12, 6-1, 6-2, Monday to retain the title in a match that many thought would have been closer if it hadn't been for Bill's injured knee, Parker commented that he "got a bigger kick out of winning this time than last year."

The reason, he added, was that a good many people thought he was lucky to win in 1944 on his thirteenth attempt. He was classed as a wartime champion who won because competition wasn't too strong. By repeating, Frankie figures he has earned the right to be called a real champ.

The day's most convincing performance, however, was turned in by the women's doubles champions, Louise Broughton and Margaret Osborne, who won that title for the fourth year in succession by beating their perennial rivals, Pauline Betz and Doris Hart, 6-4, 6-4.

Orders Boxing Bout To Settle Title Dispute

HOUSTON—(P)—To clear up a boxing muddle in Texas, State Commissioner Leonard Carleton has ordered a 10-round bout here September 12 between Fritz Zivic, former world's welter-weight champion, and Paul Altman of Houston with the state middle-weight title in the balance.

Previously Carleton had declared Altman the Texas champion following the defeat of Bill McDowell of Dallas but only after receiving reports that Zivic, who was the recognized titleholder, was retiring from the ring. This Zivic denied.

The fight here September 12 will be 10 rounds.

Two-thirds of the 37,000,000 occupied dwelling units in the United States had private bath or shower in 1944.

For Millions of Americans 1945 is the Year of Decision

In years to come, many millions of Americans will look back and remember 1945... not only because that was the year in which Germany surrendered, but also because that was the year in which millions grasped, or failed to grasp, their great opportunity.
