Protection For Culture

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has signed into law a bill aimed at protecting culture, from brasseries. The bill passed without debate by the 1961 legislature, prohibiting the name of nonprofit organizations for commercial advertising purposes without permission. Rockefeller's office was directly silent on the reason for the legislation. From other sources this was learned. Some well-known cultural organizations in New York City, such as Carnegie Hall and the Metropolitan Opera Association, have been distressed about advertising connecting the organizations with such items as brasseries. One advertisement cited by legislators pictured an attractive young lady dreaming that she is singing in Carnegie Hall in her

Cooley Hears Kidnap Plot Daughter Tell Case Closed

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. E. Baughman, chief of the Secret Service, says four Cubans who were questioned about the reported kidnap plot against Caroline Kennedy may have been victims of spywork. The Secret Service declared Thursday the reported plot against the President's 13-year-old daughter was closed but not forgotten. Baughman said it appeared that the four suspects, one reportedly a woman, were telling the truth when they denied hatching any plot against Caroline. Baughman said the four were kept under close surveillance by the Secret Service. Actually, he said, they are against the present Havana regime, but recently made trips back to Cuba to see if their home was intact. A reported remark of a Cuban employe in a Miami garment plant touched off the alarm which the Kennedy family was in Palm Beach, Fla., over the Easter holiday.

OH, OH, WHO'S DAT?—This is a scene from the act "Sleeping Beauty," we won't tell you who the characters are, but if there is anyone who enjoys a good laugh, better be on hand for the FOLLIES of 1961 tonight or Saturday night at the High School auditorium. Curtain time is 8 p. m. There is never a dull moment in this year's presentation. Oh yes, the cast is all local talent.

JACK MCCLENDON

Follies Director Is Noted Personality

By KAYE POPE
The people of Scurry County and surrounding areas will have the pleasure of enjoying one of the best musical presentations to ever appear in Snyder.
This thanks will go to Mr. Jack McClendon, director of the Follies tonight and Saturday night at the High School auditorium at 8 p. m. His able talent assistant, Mrs. T. F. Hartley, also has a special role in her role as talent chairman.
Mr. McClendon was born in Gainesville, Tex. and reared in Wichita Falls, so he is considered one of us. His knack of getting the cast to discover their talents is amazing. It is credited, I guess, to his winning smile and pleasing personality.
Jack was taken to New York by Billy Rose and has been in the theatrical field ever since. He has danced in Broadway shows, including "Louisiana Purchase," "Panama Hattie," "Pal Joey," "Higher and Higher," "Oklahoma," "New Faces" and many others.
He was also signed by Metro Goldwyn Meyer as a dancer and actor, appearing in such films as "30 Seconds over Tokyo," "Meet Me in St. Louis," "Zeitgeist Follies," "Girl Crazy," "Summer Stock" and "Royal Wedding."
Also to his credit is the appearance in 16 Republic westerns; assistant choreographer at MGM for Robert Alton and Eugene Loring; directed and acted in one of the first small six people revues for Las Vegas; did couple of swell-tramp numbers, with Judy Garland at Palace comeback, which ran 21 weeks with two shows a day for an all time record; and toured the show nationally.
Not being outdone by other noted personalities, Jack appears in night clubs nationally, including "Doodles and Spider" pantomime. He has worked at Houston's Alley Theatre as a co-director with Nina Vance.

This will give you somewhat of an idea why this lovable personality can win a cast, when he brings a city like Snyder and whip a good show together in just three short weeks. It takes a bit of know-how and Mr. McC. does certainly have that with his experience.
We heard from the grapevine that Jack has written a play that will be published in the near future.
Oh, yes he was also associate producer on Judy Garland's Metropolitan tour.
Come Sunday, we hate to see Jack leave our midst, but maybe he will return at another time.

Find Summer Job That's Different

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer
Do you plan to work this summer? It may be a breeze if you find a job that is different, advises pretty Diane O'Dell, 18, Northwestern University freshman.
She found a job last summer "with an element of newness, a challenge," as a U. S. mail carrier.
"I'd never seen or heard of a girl mail carrier when I began entertaining the idea," she explains, "but I reasoned that I couldn't lose anything by applying."
"The postal executive at Wilton, Conn., her hometown, did a double take when she asked for a job. I thought it was a brushoff when he said he'd let me know, so I was surprised when he called me to report for work," says Diane.
Her regular job was special delivery carrier, but she also sorted and sacked mail, working split hours during the week, and a long day Saturday until 11 p. m. She earned $90 some weeks, including overtime.
"The big drawback for a girl is dirt from the constant traffic in mail bags. The trucks are dirty, and sacking mail is like working in a coal bin. It gets your arms and clothes filthy, especially around the first of the month when bills make the mail heavier. But it can be lots of fun, particularly for a girl."
"There are people who look at a mail lady in disbelief, she says, questioning whether you're rehearsing for a play or being initiated into a sorority. Others stare as if you are absconding with government property, particularly when you are on 'pickup.'"
Women are more suspicious than men, who try to help lady carriers. And every individual seems to think his special delivery letter has come straight from the post office.
"The popular conception of a special is that the carrier drops everything at the post office and speeds out in the mail truck to deliver the letter."
Special mail follows the same routes as other mail, Diane explains. "Those on the first part of the route are friendly, those who get their letters late are likely to growl." She delivered 94 letters in one day.
Diane says she's an "odd sort of person for doing things nobody else is doing," and it paid off in the mail job. The $1000 she earned in 2½ months helped pay her college tuition.
If you'd consider a mail carrier, she says, the first consideration is not the money, the hours or the working conditions.
"The most important qualification for the job is strength and a good set of muscles. Those sacks are heavy," warns Diane.
Her plans for next summer aren't certain. She's looking for still another odd, challenging job.

Cards Top 16-B Crown

Wall Shines In Conquest

By Jerry Jackson

Hermleigh's rip-roaring Redbirds continued their mastery over their District 16-B foes here at 71-0 at Stadium yesterday, as they left no doubts in swooping to a successful track and field title defense, racking up a healthy 227 points to runnerup Ira's 118.

Other point totals included those of Loraine, 45; Westbrook, 36; Hobbs, 28; and Fluvanna, 2. Last year saw Loraine coming within a single point of upsetting Hermleigh for the crown in losing out by a whisker.

Records tumbled with abandon during the day's firing, as no less than five of the old high school means but to dust under the onslaught. Cardinal dot-aller Wallace Wall accounted for three of some in the 100 and 220 dashes and the broad jump. His 9.9 second 100-yard dash effort in the preliminaries of yesterday morning smashed to smithereens the existing 10.3 which he had set just two years ago. He topped an identical six-sixths of a second of the old 220 mark, also, and his leap of 20'10" in the broad jump left the old '39 mark of 18'8" in tatters.

Card tumbled Joe Paty set a record distance in the discus heave, lofting the platter 133'3" to top the 1930 mark of 125'7" as held by Donnie Ranefeld, another Hermleigh star, who had to settle for second in the event this year but copped a first in the shot put.

Donnell Edmond, Ira's handyman, established the other record as he upped his own height of 9'6" as set last year in the pole vault to a reading of 9'9".

Wall, in addition to setting the three new standards, was the high point man of the meet with 45 to his credit. Eubank tallied a carbon copy 35—the same as he had last year when he tied for high point honors with Hermleigh's since departed Mickey Winter—to nab second place in the individual point standings.

In freshman division play Loraine was an easy victor, running up a total of 137 points to second place Fluvanna's 38, while Hermleigh reign supreme in the elementary end of things with 94.74 to runnerup Loraine's 61.5-10.

The meet was run off under clear skies, but was hampered to some degree by intermittent spasms of wind gusts.

'STRAW HAT DAY?'—A bright sun beamed down on the District 16-B track meet here yesterday, and this group of lodes watching the proceedings came prepared for it. Blustery winds spunked the field and sent dust whirling throughout the day, but didn't "creep the styler" of the performers who went on to set new high school records in five events, plus four in the freshman division and three in the elementary competition. ## 19 TEAMS SIGHTING IN Junior High Track Meet Unfolds Here Tomorrow

Junior High athletes from near and far will converge on the city tomorrow, with some 600 aspirants expected to cram the local confines for the running of the sixth annual Snyder Junior High Track Meet which is to be held on the Tiger Stadium oval.

Some 19 track and field outfits from a large segment of West Texas will grace the entry list. In addition to Snyder's Travis and Lamar, Abilene will send four teams (Jefferson, Franklin, Lincoln and Cooper); San Angelo a like number (Lee, Edison, Washington and Blackhawk); Big Spring two (Goliad and Rannels); plus teams from Stamford, Lamesa, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Graham and Hamlin. Lincoln of Snyder also plans to enter a limited number of athletes in the annual carnival of the thinculds.

Divisions of competition include those of 7th, 8th, and 9th. South Abilene is defending champ in both the 8th and 9th grade divisions, while Lincoln of Abilene last year copped the 8th grade title.

Lamar of Snyder last week was an easy victor in the junior division of the District 3-3A meet, but will be faced with stiffer and more abundant competition in tomorrow's runnings. Abilene, a hot-bed of track activity, is expected to field the strongest teams once again, with Lincoln, Franklin, and Jefferson looking the strongest.

The Lincoln '9k graders rate the most well-defined pre-meet nod, as they are blessed with one Rusty Harris, a performer who has been "dishing the woods on fire" in the dashes in every meet, as entered to date, many of his clockings standing as new records. In addition to his dash prowess, he is also a broad jumper of repute.

Lamar's ace-in-the-hole comes in the form of Hayley Byrum, a high-stepping hurdler. He has been a steady point producer the season through, and was a triple winner in last week's 3-3A meet as held in Sweetwater, copping "firsts" in both hurdle events and tying for the top spot in the pole vault.

Coaches Bill Haskfield of Travis and Roy Carter of Lamar have indicated that they will field the following entrants in the events as listed:

WITH MARCUM IN THE SADDLE

Loop Reverts To Colt-Pony Setup

A major revision in the teenage baseball program was made here last night, when at a meeting of officers and parents it was decided to junk the Teenage League set-up as was utilized last year in favor of the Pony and Colt leagues which has been in operation prior to the past summer.

The election of loop officers was another highlight of the meeting. D. V. Marcum was elected as overall coordinator, while Broadway

Browning was chosen to head up the Pony League (13-14 year olds) and Duane Walton the Colt League (15-16 year olds).

The switch back to the old set up was made due to the lack of interest among the 17-year old boys which was encountered over the past summer season. Under the Teenage League system boys of that age were eligible, but will not be following last night's re-vamping of the program.

GREENFIELD TO TOIL

Tiger '9' Facing Lobos Tomorrow

Snyder's diamond Tigers cap off their non-district class of games tomorrow, when they hit the trail for Loveland and a 2 p. m. return engagement with the Lobos of that city.

Coach Speedy Moffett's Bengalmen who now stand at 15-8 for the year and are currently nursing along a four-game winning streak, look on the same team here at Towle Park Tuesday, giving them a thorough trouncing, 23-9, in a wind-rattled slugfest.

Lumber leathersher Bennie Greenfield is Moffett's mound choice for the day. He will carry a 3-1 record into the contest, and sports the team's lowest earned run average.

Starting for the Tigers will be Spencer Dyer, third base (.442); Steve Frier, shortstop (.282); Mike Moffett, center field (.328); Weld on Ware, first base (.307); Charlie Gladson, left field (.340); Tim Marcum, second base (.187); Joe Fowler, right field (.300); Ronnie Wylie, catcher (.263); and Greenfield, pitcher (.263).

Following tomorrow's non-conference swansong the local nine will be "playing for keeps," as they open their 3-3A campaign Tuesday at 4 o'clock in Colorado City.

The remainder of the schedule reads as follows: April 22—Lamesa here, 2 p. m.; April 23—Sweetwater here, 4 p. m.; April 29—Colorado City here, 2 p. m.; May 6—Towle Park, 4 p. m.; May 6—Sweetwater here, 2 p. m.

14 Lettermen Among Razorback Returnees

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas opens spring football training today with 75 candidates reporting. Among them are 14 lettermen.

Five lettermen are passing up spring training, several because they are in other sports and others because they have the privilege as seniors.

Paul Dudley, who was on the 1939 team but missed last fall, will return next season. This will give Arkansas 20 lettermen all told.

IF you had faith as a grain of mustard seed... That's not much faith. But just look what God said you could do with so little. The mustard seed is the tiniest of seeds. Here the huge microscope enlarges it many times... yet, one can scarcely see it. The Lord said, If you have that much faith you can do anything! You can say to a mountain, "move over" and it will be done. You can endure anything... you can become anything—IF, you have a wee bit of faith. Faith is the root of all blessing. The man who is without it is dead as a cinder. The Pilgrims had faith. Martin Luther and John Wesley had faith. Jesus was supremely a man of faith and waits to share his blessings on men who can be trusted... men of faith. How much faith do you have? Is your faith as big as the mustard seed?

QUESTION: Do turtles make sounds?

ANSWER: Turtles are usually quiet creatures. There have been reports of turtles which have whistled and made other sounds, but scientists have not been able to verify most of them.

FOR YOU TO DO: If you are given a small turtle, read up to its eating habits and be sure to feed it regularly.

'Carnival' Spins Charm On Broadway

By WILLIAM GLOVER Associated Press Drama Critic NEW YORK (AP)—Anything is possible—so somewhere there may be someone immune to the magical charms of "Carnival," Broadway's new musical. With a rich talent array led by the soubriqueted Anna Maria Alberghetti, the production arrived Thursday night at the Imperial Theater, and spun a gamut of golden make-believe.

A lot of familiar ingredients have been imaginatively discarded in narrating a wistful search for happiness against the raffish background of a small circus somewhere in Europe. Overture, eye-filling spectacle, frenetic pace yield to the engaging soft-sell of romance, humorous intimacy and inventive stagecraft. The show has big numbers, of course, but the total effect never breaks the elusive bewilderment created by Gower Champion's direction.

Based upon a story by Helen Deutsch which eight years ago served a memorable movie "Lili," the new musical is otherwise completely new. Heroine Lili is a singer instead of a dancer, in Michael Stewart's adaptation of the fable, and Miss Alberghetti is a gamine genius as the wanders among the jugglers, harpist dancers and magicians.

Playing to the love focus with her are James Mitchell, a slick trickster; Jerry Orbach, a crippled puppeteer; and Pierre Oclaf, a mighty mile with wry smile and breakaway step. Kaye Ballard makes a lusty and ribald carry queen. Among the songs which Bob Merrill has supplied in liberal variety are "I've Got to Find a Reason," "Humming," "Yes, My Heart," "Beautiful Candy," "Her Face" and the theme melody. The settings by Will Steven Armstrong, a flexible assortment, are strong mood assets, and the costumes by Freddy Wittop exhibit a sort of bedraggled elegance.

Other kudos go to Tom Fiebner's puppet company and to Roy Benson's optical illusions. "Carnival" arrived under the production banner of David Merrick, the White Way's leading impresario of the season. He's found himself a smasheroo.

Simulated Attack Slated April 23

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States will undergo a simulated attack at 4 p. m. Eastern Standard Time Friday, April 23. At that hour, a Conelrad radio alert drill will silence all normal television and radio broadcasting for 30 minutes. Sirens will be sounded in many areas, traffic will be halted and take-cover exercises will be carried out in some states.

This will be part of the Civil Defense annual training exercise, Operation Alert 1961, defense mobilizer Frank B. Ellis announced Thursday.

A two-day increased readiness buildup will precede the mock attack. The first phase of the exercise will end April 30. Other phases, for state and federal field staffs, will be held in September and October.

Rev. Fletcher will address the Men's Club of St. Nicholas Church in Midland on Monday at 6:30 p. m., and will address St. Nicholas Church Women on Tuesday at 10 a. m. His subject will be "Your Role as an Evangelist."

Ministers Agree There's No Justification For Deceit

By JULES LOH NEW YORK (AP)—It's the time of the year when folks once again are constrained to render unto Caesar the things that—well, that aren't deductible.

It's safe to say that in more than a few instances the annual chore involves as many struggles with conscience as with mathematics. Is it sinful to chisel on your income tax?

How about if you don't outright lie—just maybe claim a few deductions that aren't explained too clearly in the instructions on the chance your return won't be checked closely?

A sampling of clergymen who have studied the moral questions involved agree on one fundamental point: There never is justification for-out and out deceit. Cheating violates two commandments, said the Rev. Dr. George F. Harkins, secretary of the Lutheran Church in America. "Stripped of all rationalizations," he declared, "it is stealing and bearing false witness. Defrauding Washington is no different in degree or in kind than cheating one's wife or neighbor or employer."

The Rev. Dr. Cameron Hall, director of the National Council of Churches' department of ethics and economic life, expressed it differently. "Morality is essentially a personal matter," he said. "If I owe you a sum of money I am under a moral imperative to pay you, and I can readily recognize it because it's a personal obligation. "Owing the government is so impersonal it may become difficult to see how your little contribution could make enough difference to matter."

"But the imperative is there nevertheless," he said. "Cheating Uncle Sam essentially is no different than cheating your Uncle Joe."

In another respect, the question is not so clearly defined. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John E. Kelly, information director for the National Catholic Welfare Conference, says the basic criterion is whether the tax is imposed justly.

"It doesn't take a moral theologian to decide whether the tax is justly imposed," said Msgr. Kelly. "Any person may decide for himself, according to his conscience."

In Msgr. Kelly's view, "there is no possible excuse for studied evasion—it always is wrong to lie."

"But suppose, for example, a taxpayer feels in all honesty and good conscience the law is unjust in not allowing him a certain deduction. "I can see nothing morally wrong in that case for him to enter the deduction—provided he labels it plainly for what it is."

Supervisor Will Visit Witnesses

Circuit supervisor and minister, Arthur W. Avey, will visit the Snyder congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses April 18-24. It was announced by the local presiding minister, J. D. Cook, today.

A special week of activity is planned beginning Tuesday night at 7:30 when the weekly congregational ministry school will be held at Kingdom Hall on Clairmont Road, followed by a ministry development class.

Mr. Avey will then give his first talk of the week on a vital Bible subject. Each day following this Mr. Avey and members of the congregation will be engaging in preaching from door-to-door in the locality in imitation of Christian methods followed by Christ and his disciples.

Wednesday through Friday evenings Mr. Avey will meet with diligent Bible study groups. Saturday night he will again address the congregation. Various local ministers of Jehovah's Witnesses will also participate in highlighting answers to Bible questions.

Mr. Avey has been an ordained minister since 1964. Sixteen years of this time was spent at the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society's international headquarters in Brooklyn, N. Y. He has also served as supervising minister in Missouri, Ohio, Wisconsin, Illinois, and New Mexico. The highlight of the week will be the public lecture "Materialism or Spirituality—Which Do We Need?" to be delivered Sunday April 23 at 2 p. m. at the Kingdom Hall on Clairmont Road (Bookland Addition). The public is invited to all meetings and lectures.

Ike, Mamie To End Vacation Today

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Dwight and Mamie Eisenhower are to end their sojourn in the sun here today.

They say they plan to return next winter. The ex-President and his wife came here from their Gettysburg, Pa., farm last Feb. 8—when the East was clogged with snow and midday temperatures here were in the high 70s.

Maximum readings are now ranging into the low 90s here. They are to go to San Bernardino, 60 miles away, by auto, and then board a train for Gettysburg.
