

OLE TOWN GOES KRAZY FOR DAY

A casual visitor to Olton Saturday may have thought the whole town had gone crazy. He would have been partially correct—the day was Olton's Krazy Daze, and local merchants set the mood for the affair by dressing "finest" krazy daze fair by dressing in their "Finest" krazy daze clothes.

Activities officially got under way at 2 p.m., when 44 youths paraded around the square for judging of the pet parade.

Susan Culwell, dressed in a black and orange Halloween costume and riding a horse to match took the prize for the owner of the largest, craziest dressed pet.

Chesna Dickenson went the reverse route, taking the "champeen" ribbon for the smallest craziest dressed pet. Her entry was a tiny poodle going by the name of Jacquelyn.

Sammy and Scotty Coleman with their billy goat for the craziest dressed pet.

Immediately after the pet parade, auctioneer Charlie Giles began selling items for Olton's women's clubs in a "white elephant" auction.

Proceeds from the auction go to build a permanent club house for the different groups.

Then, at 5 p.m., master of ceremonies Bub Holt announced winners of the craziest dressed contest.

Mrs. William Neinst took the top prize for her Cleopatra outfit, while Joe Moore took the second spot with his Super Save Superman's costume.

Mrs. Ezra Wittington rounded out the top threesome for her Gay '90's dress.

Mrs. Jim Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Struve and Kenneth Buck all took honorable mention spots in the contest.

Winners in the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture's prize drawing were also announced at 5 p.m.

Leonard Sanders was top money winner. He took the big prize of $50 in gift certificates.

Mary Dennis was next on the list, and the second spot was worth $25 in gift certificates.

Five $5 certificates were won by Mrs. Stella Cowart, Winton Hackler, Mrs. Domingua Bar-raera, Thelma Kersh and Emmett Burrows.

In the merchandise department, Leta Pruitt won a transistor radio from Whittington's, while Flake Price and J. M. Key both picked up new hats from Walter's.

Pat Key won a windbreaker, also donated by Walter's, and Julia Chappa was the winner of a sweater from Zakka's.

In a busman's holiday type of gift, Mrs. Jim Hyatt was the winner of a zipper bag donated by Olton Cleaners.

In a separate drawing at Cashway Food, three gift certificates for food were given away.

First prize of $15 went to F. E. Graham, second of $10 was won by W. L. Galloway and third prize of $5 went to R. J. Caviness.

Amendment Vote Goes With State

A light turnout of Olton voters went down the line with state ballot casters Tuesday and approved five constitutional amendments while rejecting five others.

Among those approved were an additional five-cent ad valorem tax for a college building fund, and a provision for loans to students attending colleges and universities in the state.

Voters also approved funds to be provided by the legislature to match federal funds for providing medical care and assistance to aged, blind, needy children and disabled persons.

Also approved was an amendment to clarify the investment of funds of the Teacher Retirement Fund through the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, and the automatic retirement of District and appellate Judges at the age of 65. The last amendment also gave the Texas Supreme Court the power to remove District and Appellate court judges for misconduct and disability.

Rejected by voters in both the area and the state were amendments to give the governor and other top state officials, and members of the Texas House of Representatives four year terms of office.

An amendment to allow the legislature to set salaries for the Lt. Governor and the Speaker of the House, and to increase the expense allowances for legislative members was defeated, as well as a move to allow charitable organizations spending at least $1.5 million a year for free hospital and medical care for indigent to be exempt from local ad valorem taxes.

Amendment no. 2, to allow an increase of $200 million in the Veterans' Land Fund, was narrowly rejected throughout the state, although late returns could change the results.

Homecoming Ruled 'Another Success'

Judy Miller Crowned Queen

Olton exes back in town Friday saw sights that would warm the heart of any ex anywhere. Activity started with a pep rally, continued with a parade, then with the Olton football team on top in a 6-0 pigskin battle.

The weekend actually started a little early, with a bonfire Thursday night setting the mood for the next two days of activity.

Then a pep rally at 2:30 p.m. Friday saw head cheerleader Judy Miller crown Joe Priest pep squad "King", just before school turned out to get ready for the annual Homecoming parade.

The freshman class set the pace in the parade, taking first place with a float representing the state of Florida and the 'Gator Bowl, complete with the 'gator.

The junior class took second place honors with their Georgia theme, while Olton's Boy Scouts were third with a float depicting Arkansas.

Hawaii, brainchild of the sophomore class, received honorable mention.

Also included in the parade were both the High School and Junior High bands, and leading the whole affair was the Lamb County Sheriff's Posse.

Then, preceding the football tilt, Joe Priest returned the honor to Miss Miller, and crowned her Homecoming queen of the year.

Priest kept up his busy round of activity for the day by scoring the winning touchdown in the defensive battle between the Mustangs and Floydada.

Exes got their chance to gather just before the game at a chili supper sponsored by the PTA in the school cafeteria, and those who missed out on the first chance got a second at a coffee in the same location following the football game.

Students also attended a post-game function, this one a dance sponsored by the Youth Center at the Merry-Go-Round skating rink.

And just for good measure, the annual Halloween carnival was unreel Saturday night at the high school to top off a week-end of activity.

Sudduth Wins Grid Contest

The tie-breaker settled the score between a pair of football guessers this week in another close Enterprise football contest.

John Carl Sudduth came out the winner, with Roy Long second. Mrs. James Hall took third place.

Sudduth and Long both missed four games, but John Carl was closer on the tie-breaker, missing by 14 points. Long was off by 25 points.

Mrs. Hall missed five games and won out over four other contestants who missed the same number. Mrs. Hall was 26 points off on the tie-breaker, followed by Dale Chitwood, 28 off; Mike Phillips, 29 off; Jack Gray, 32 off; and Waldo Baxter, 34 off.

Sudduth will receive a check for $10 first prize money, while Long will get $6 and Mrs. Hall $4.

There's still time to enter the contest for this week. Simply pick up a copy of the Oct. 28 Enterprise, fill in the entry blank and turn it in to one of the sponsoring merchants by 4 p.m. Friday.

FFA, 4-H Farm Notice Served

Vocational agriculture instructors Max Malone and Calvin Horn served notice this week that the FFA farm here may be used only by the FFA and 4-H.

"All livestock belonging to other than bonafide members of the Olton FFA and 4-H at the FFA farm must be removed from the grounds by Nov. 8, or charges will be filed," the vo-ag instructors said.

TURKEY SHOOT

Olton Quarterback Club's annual turkey shoot is set here Saturday and Sunday Nov. 6 and 7 at Olton Co-Op Grain yard.

Pig Sale Tops $10,000

Buyers from as far as Colorado and as near as Olton were represented when 369 weaning pigs went on the block Saturday in Olton. Total sales were approximately $10,500.

Lanny Tucker, vocational agriculture teacher at Hart, sold the highest priced pig in the sale for $185 to a member of the Hart Future Farmers Association.

Average sale price for all the pigs in the event was $28.38 per head.

The Olton FFA Show Barn was the scene of the event, which saw approximately 325 barrows cross the auction ring, the rest of the pigs sold being select weaning-age gilts.

Pigs sold at the auction were farrowed in July, August and September, and Durocs, Hampshires, Berkshires, Poland Chinas, Chester Whites, Spotted Polands and crossbreeds were all offered for sale.

W. B. Dickenson Jr. was auctioneer for the event.

Youth Center Meet Monday

Election of officers and a discussion hour is scheduled here by the Youth Center Monday Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school study hall.

All interested parents and students are asked by Center officials to be present.

Mustangs Play League Leader

After squeaking by Floydada in a Homecoming thriller last Friday, Olton now must try a group of Chiefs on the warpath from Friona.

The Friona group pulled out a win in an escape trick of their own against Abernathy last week, downing the Antelopes 13-12. The win left the Chiefs with only a 4-4 season record, but three of those four wins have been in district competition, while none of the losses have been in the same category.

Olton's only real hope is to play the role of spoiler for the Chiefs, who last year lost out in the chance to represent the district in bi-district competition by losing to Floydada on the last night of the season.

Comparing teams played by both squads, the Olton club's chances seem dim. Both Lockney and Abernathy picked up big-margin wins over the Ponies, while Friona took a 12-7 decision over Lockney and the squeaker over Abernathy last week.

Coach Otis Holladay's charges will have their hands full with a combination running-passing attack spearheaded by quarterback Lonnie Ellis.

Ellis' favorite receiver is end Travis Graves, whose catch of an Ellis aerial early in the second half of the Lockney game broke up a Longhorn charge which threatened the slim lead held by the Chiefs at that point.

Halfbacks Larry Johnson and Joe Mabry are the heavy-duty ball carriers for the Friona squad, with both picking up heavy yardage in the first three conference tilts.

Fullback Ray Braxton, a tackle converted to the running position, is the man called on by Ellis on short yardage situations, and the big back will probably be called upon to do much of the pighide toting duties for the Chiefs.

Defensive leaders for the club are Terry Fite and Bobby Jordan, both defensive secondary standouts for the club. Jordan handles most of the punt return chores for the Chiefs, while Fite is the ballhawk on passing attempts by other clubs.

Friona worries will be passing arm of Joe Priest, who has completed 26 of 59 attempted aeriels for 277 yards thus far this season.

Priest is not afraid to run with the ball either, since he has rolled up a total of 581 yards in 138 carries this season, and has picked up seven touchdowns for 42 points to lead the ponies in that category as well.

Tommy Hall had his best night of the season in the Homecoming win, picking up 40 yards in 10 carries.

Olton Boy Scout Fund Drive Gets Send-Off At Lions Meet

Olton's annual Boy Scout fund drive, scheduled as a one-day campaign next Tuesday, got a send-off this week at the regular meeting of the Olton Lions Club.

Bob Hickman, Haynes district scout executive, told the group that Olton Boy Scouts will be counting on the community's help in "our program of citizenship and character building for boys."

Hickman cited the growth of the Haynes district in recent years and cited sponsoring organizations for their backing of the scouting program in Olton.

The Lions Club is sponsor of Boy Scouts here and New Century Study Club is the sponsoring unit for the Olton Cub Scouts.

Olton workers will try to complete the local campaign for funds in one day, getting an early start next Tuesday morning.

Bob Harber is the local fund campaign chairman.

In other activity at the Lions meeting, it was announced that the club's annual sale of Halloween candy netted approximately $250. The money will be used for local civic work.

The Lions also announced that a community sign, to be placed on the school grounds to announce coming events, has been ordered and should arrive here during the latter part of November.

Visitors at Tuesday's meeting included several members of the Lubbock Lions Club.

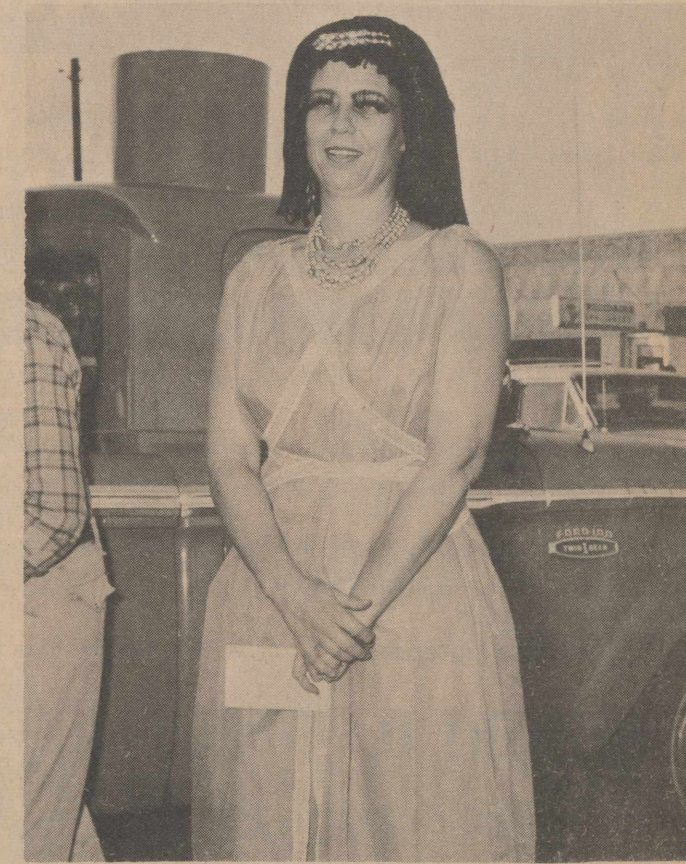

Programs for the rest of the month of November were announced by Don Spain, program chairman. They include: Allan Waldrop, General Telephone district manager, Nov. 9; FFA chapter Conducting team, Nov. 16; Bennie Martin, pianist, Nov. 23; and Louis Hair, a talk of the Lions' camp for crippled children, Nov. 30.

CRAZIEST DRESSED PET in the Crazy Daze parade here Saturday afternoon was this goat owned by Sammy and Scotty Coleman.

WINNING FLOAT—Florida and the Gator Bowl took honors in the homecoming parade here last Friday afternoon. Second place went to Georgia and third to Arkansas. Hawaii received honorable mention. SEE OTHER KRAZY DAZE, HOMECOMING PICTURES ON PAGES 10 AND 12

On Youth Center

What's going to happen to the Youth Center? This is a question we've heard knocked around a lot lately.

It seems there are a number of items coming up for discussion at the Monday night meeting and somebody needs to come up with some answers.

The Youth Center, started here last summer, has apparently been fairly successful and the dances usually draw good crowds. We must admit, that to the middle-aged observer, these run-hop-skip and jump routines hardly look like dancing—more like grade school hop scotch done with the stomach ache.

But, then, the jitterbug and the charleston were pretty far out, too.

On the whole, the Center seems to be filling a need in Olton.

But where does it go from here?

Will the group continue fund drives and attempt to build their own building, or disband and return a considerable amount of money already collected, or team up with other groups and start a drive for a community building?

This, of course, is strictly up to the youth and their parents in the Center but we feel the community building idea has considerable merit.

To disband would undo a lot of good work already done and to build a building for the Center alone would, in all probability, in this size town result in a nice building going unused most of the time.

There is a definite need in Olton for a community building and there are a number of organizations that should be interested, including Lions Club, Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, Olton Library and possibly some of the ladies' clubs.

The ladies have started their own club house here but since this is restricted to a few small clubs, its use is rather limited. Some of these club members might be more interested in a community building that could be used individually.

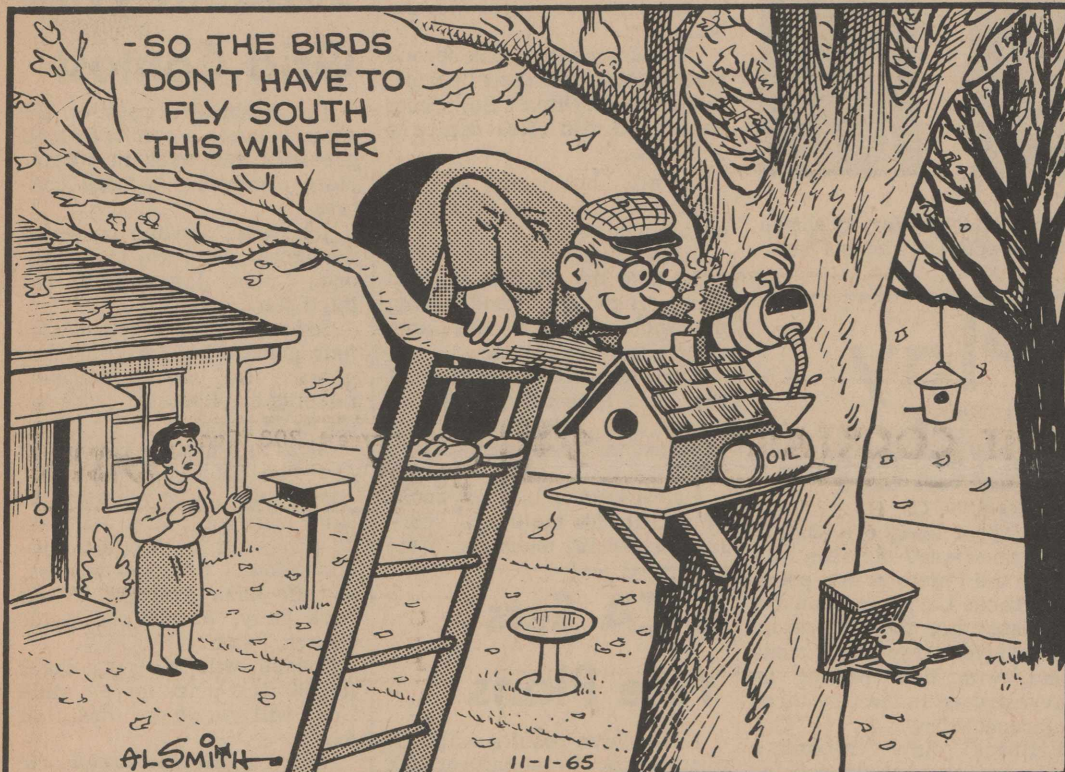

One large, nice building put to a lot of use just makes more sense to us than several smaller ones going unused most of the time.

Certainly, satisfactory arrangements would have to be worked out for all organizations involved, but, we don't really think this would present much of a problem.

At any rate, we think the idea is worth consideration by the Center and its members.

COW POKES

By Ace Reid

"Jake, if you'll vote for me as County Commissioner, I'll promise to fix your road jist like I did the last election!"

SPOUTIN' OFF

YOU JUST have to take your hat off to Charlie Jones, the county clerk.

He's a politician's politician.

Charlie asked us to run his announcement last week and we did.

We thought it was pretty unusual for anyone to say out loud this early that he would seek re-election. The Democratic primary isn't til next May.

But Charlie's a real campaigner. He was handing out cards shortly after his re-election last time.

He's always hearty with his greetings, free with his coffee money... and he takes time to help when people need something at his office.

At times, you can take a politician with a grain of salt. Some of them are friendly because they want your vote, but Charlie has that rare quality of making you feel that he is friendly just because he wants to be.

Put that together with the fact that he does an efficient job at the county clerk's office and he's a hard man to beat.

TRUITT SIDES really gave Howard Hall a hard time this week. Each week they try to out do each other at guessing football games, and its' been close between them all year.

But Truitt won out this week when he found out Howard forgot to circle some of the numbers on his score sheet.

Howard had decided on his picks, but forgotten the final step. Truitt's been asking Howard all week if he was so confident that he didn't even feel like he had to guess on all the games.

WE HAD a laugh on that big daily paper to the south last Saturday morning. In a sports story, they said it took the Mustangs "seven days" in their scoring march against Floydada, meaning of course, that seven-play drive the Ponies used in getting the game's only touchdown.

We know the Mustangs have had some tough going, but it ain't been all that bad!

OLTON goes into the Friona game the underdog, and some wag said Friona may be favored by as much as 45 points. Abernathy laced us by 44 points and Friona edged Abernathy by one.

That deserves a good horse laugh. Olton will play 'em real close and I'm picking the Mustangs to win, about 14-13.

Here's how I see the other games this weekend: Army over Air Force, Texas over Baylor, A&M over SMU, Texas Tech over New Mexico State, Georgia Tech over Tennessee, Arkansas over Rice, West Texas over Drake, Nebraska over Plainview, Hart over Texline; Perryton over Canyon, Dumas over Tulia, Abernathy over Dimmitt, Hale Center over Kress, Floydada over Lockney, and Hereford over Muleshoe.

SHE'S BETTING ON LOSERS!

Dear Amy:

I was born Feb. 12, 1927, but with the hard luck I've had, you would think I was born on the 13th. My problem is I can't hold money... and men just don't seem to want to give me any. I can't even hit a number!

There's a man in my life, my boyfriend Charles, whom I love very much, but he tries to act hard to get. Is there anything you can do to make him love me and run after me instead of me running after him? Help me to get some money in my hands and some love in my life.

I didn't know how much you charge, so I couldn't send any money in this letter. Will be waiting to hear from you very soon and thank you.

Mary C.

Dear Mary:

Your wants are universal! While I'm not a genie, profess no magic, am not clairvoyant, I can offer you safe, sane advice... free for the asking. Luck is not finding someone to pluck! An honest week's work will put money in your hands. And the only numbers that add up are those in a bank book.

Charles is a waste of time. Circulate and find a live one (the marrying kind) who will put the love in your life you are seeking.

(You share the birthdate of a great and famous man: Abraham Lincoln... who was fondly known as "Honest Abe.")

Dear Amy: I would like to comment on the letter written by J.A.M. about the cliques at school. Though I am long out of school, I can still remember these 'non-doers' complaining about any arrangements that were made for social functions, lack of a good showing by a team or the general conditions of the school. But that was all that they would do: COMPLAIN!

While these 'non-doers' were complaining, we 'doers' were busy, and I mean busy, trying in all fields to better the school. This meant time away from studies, time away from fun, but it was worth it... at least we tried and had the satisfaction of being recognized by the adult world of the school.

Naturally we formed groups of we were constantly discussing constructive ways of bettering the school... not tearing it down. Any person with one ounce of intelligence and really interested in the school was welcome. So actually we weren't a clique, but rather a forum of open minds that would accept, with an open heart, any student interested enough to become a 'doer' rather than a complainer. And I think the same situation prevails today.

A Former Student

Dear Amy:

It was with great interest that I read the letter from J.A.M. in which her voice was raised in protest against the "Cliques" at her school. Your reply was quite correct as I, too, have often tried to get disinterested students interested in their school and all of the extra-curricular activities and experiences that school can afford them.

The opportunity is available to all in sports, journalism, debating, clubs, student council, etc. There is certainly some area in the extra-curricular world of the school that every student can fit into, and by doing so, make the school a better one.

Money may build a fine building and buy fine teachers, but the real basis of a good school is the student.

A School Counselor

(Maryland)

Dear Amy:

I don't know if you have ever had to answer any questions regarding cats, but I would appreciate it if you could answer mine. I have heard pros and cons on the subject, and by now, I'm thoroughly mixed up.

My problem is this: Does a cat that stays in the house 100 percent of the time leave any permanent odor?

Charles

Dear Charles:

According to the United States Humane Society, only the neutered tom cat carries an odor. All other breeds are odor-free and can be kept indoors.

Food gathered will be carried to Milam's Children's home in Lubbock. After the children returned to the church, games were played and the children were ushered through a ghost room prepared by junior GA girls, Patti Muller and Debbe Oliver. Refreshments of cookies and hot chocolate were served to the children.

PONIES SNUFF OUT FLOYDADA WHIRLWINDS

Olton's Mustangs shook off a pair of stingy district defeats and came back strong Friday night, blowing down the Floydada Whirlwinds 6-0 in a stirring defensive battle before a cheering Olton homecoming crowd.

It was a three-yard run by Quarterback Joe Priest which put Olton's points on the board, but it was the outstanding defensive play of a host of Mustangs which actually won the game.

The Ponies found out early they could contain the Winds, holding them for downs on a first and goal situation from the Olton one.

And it was a good thing for the Ponies, because their offense sputtered most of the night.

The Mustangs were unable to go past the Floydada 42-yard line until the third quarter, when a 15-yard penalty against the Winds moved the ball to the 35.

That was as far as the Ponies could get until the fourth period when they started a seven-play, 62-yard scoring drive.

After taking a punt at the Olton 38, the Mustangs sent Tommy Hall for a six-yard pick-up, then used Priest for a 20-yard gain to the Floydada 36.

Dale DeBerry carried twice for 20 yards to the 16, and Priest broke to the Whirlwind six.

After a half-the-distance penalty to the three, Priest dove in for the TD. It mattered not that the extra point try failed, for it was 6-0 Olton with nine minutes left to go.

Olton was knocking at the door again as time ran out, driving to the Floydada 12 as the game ended.

Floydada had thrown a big scare into Olton fans at the start of the game, using five big plays to go 66 yards to the Olton one.

Kerry Bearden, the Wind full-back, started it with a 21-yard run to the Olton 46, then QB John Cantrell got loose for 27 to the Olton 19.

Two running attempts gained five and then Cantrell hit End Waldo West with a pass to the Olton one.

But Cantrell lost yardage on two attempts as the Olton defense perked up.

On third down, Eddie Hooper dropped the Floydadan for a yard loss and on fourth, Jimmy Schreier hit Bearden at the Olton two.

Olton couldn't move the ball, so Priest punted and the Whirlwinds had another crack from the Olton 38.

The Mustang defense again rose up, with Albert Key, Curtis Hall and Gail Bizzell coming up with big tackles. After three downs the Winds had lost 12 yards and West kicked to the Olton 21.

A couple of plays later, Bennie Akin broke for 34 yards to the Floydada 49.

Then Priest aimed a pass for DeBerry, who had slipped into the clear at the Floydada 25, but the throw was a bit too tall and it slipped off DeBerry's fingertips.

After that neither team could gain---and neither made a first down from late in the first quarter until three minutes were left in the half.

The initial first down after some 12 minutes of playing time came when Priest hit Edm. Jimmie Smith with a 12-yard pass to the Floydada 46.

Two plays later Priest aimed an aerial at a free-and-clear Akin, but the big freshman tailback was able to get only one hand on the ball and couldn't quite hang on.

Floydada moved into Olton territory when Cantrell hit Bearden with another 13-yard pass.

Opening the second half, the Mustangs moved to the Floydada 35 on some good running by Tommy Hall and Akin, but that was as far as the Ponies could go.

The teams exchanged punts until late in the third quarter, neither able to get closer than the other's 45-yard line.

On the last play of the third quarter, Olton's hard-running Hall started the touchdown drive with a six-yard run.

It took seven plays and 62 yards, but the Mustangs were able to get the only touchdown of the night.

Floydada scared the Ponies with a fine comeback. HB Joe Christian returned the kick-off 41 yards to the Olton 38. Bearden gained 11 and Christian picked up eight more to the Olton 19.

There a 15-yard penalty snuffed out the Winds. And on the fourth down three Mustangs, Fincher, Burleson and Schreier, dropped DeLeon for another 10-yard loss.

The teams played in their own ends of the field until Olton took over at the Floydada 43 with less than two minutes to play.

The Mustangs controlled the ball the rest of the way. Priest ran twice for eight and Hall got a first down with a seven-yard pickup.

Then Priest carried three straight times for 10 more yards and a first down at the 18 with 0:41 left.

Bobby Turner ran for three and Priest carried to the Floydada 12 as time ran out.

Akin and Priest led ball carriers with 62 and 59 yards respectively, while Tommy Hall had a good night with 40 yards in 10 tries. Bearden led Floydada with 44 yards in eight tries.

Priest had a good night with his punting, kicking nine times for a 37-yard average.

The Mustangs played without Charles Church, Jack Burkhalter and Don Mitchell -- all out with injuries.

But the team came up with a fine defensive performance, including outstanding play by Hooper, Bizzell, both Halls, Key, Turner and Schreier.
