NUMBER 38

One of the most exasperating examples of nuisance legislation ever imposed on the American public is the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA) of 1970. It has made absurd demands of employers causing them great expense in fines as well as a waste of time in making reports and a waste of money in complying with regulations. Obviously somebody in the bureaucracy is wising up to the situation, as indicated by the fact that Dr. Eula Bingham, Assistant Secretary of Labor for OSHA, has announced a "shift of the resources of OSHA to common sense priorities." Beginning this year, she said, "95% of OSHA's inspections will be devoted to industries with the most serious health problems, such as construction, manufacturing, transportation and petrochemical industries." She also said she plans to "get rid of unnecessary rules and simplify regulations."

A much better idea is embodied in proposed new federal legislation, HR 1348, which states in its entirety "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 be repealed."

West Texas Chamber of Commerce has written all of its members asking for support of this legislation by urging senators and representatives to join in the good work. A few reasons for its position were expressed as follows:

1. The federal bureaucracy has demonstrated that it is incapable of understanding, administering and implementing the broad scope of the act as passed.

2. Its lack of expertise and understanding has caused it to take advantage of the aged and the ignorant everywhere of issuing a deluge of incomprehensible regulations written in a veritable unknown tongue.

3. The act has loosened a swarm of bureaucrats upon the citizens to devour tax money at an incredible rate, and has harassed the citizens in the private sector who are trying to make a living.

4. OSHA has impeded and restricted many successful safety programs that have been used and followed by many different segments of our society. WTCC believes that OSHA has in many cases actually decreased the safety of people rather than increasing it.

5. OSHA as operated is another example of federal government intervention into matters of which it has almost no expertise or understanding and apparently refuses to acquire either.

HR 1348 reflects the sentiment of millions of people in this country. They are fed up with big government bureaucrats telling us what to do... on the pretext that they have a right to do it because it's for our own good. And their interference seems slightly more justified when they can push around an employer in behalf of the welfare of the employee. It creates the protective and solicitous image.

Occasionally the public gets a good laugh out of an OSHA buster but it's stuck nevertheless with the cost of the brainstorms and the absurdity of living with it.

Dr. Bingham's idea of ceasing inspections of the smaller operators seems to indicate that she knows about public sentiment on the matter and that her proposal is a compromise to keep the bureaucracy alive. Presumably the millions of little guys who are off the hook will become unconcerned about OSHA and the bureaucrats can continue with little objection.

In fairness we ought to admit that the regulations handed down by the various bureaus are not necessarily vindictive. Rather they're the result of a system in which eager beavers try to improve their pay and influence by thinking up things for our welfare. A lot of grief and expense could be avoided by firing them, but unfortunately that is not the way government operates.

Rite Held Thursday For Mrs. Huchton, 93

Mrs. Katherine Huchton, 93, a resident of the community for 36 of its 88 years, died at 1:15 a.m. Tuesday, August 9, in Muenster Memorial Hospital.

Funeral service was held Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church with Father Placidus Eckart officiating.

Salvage Paper Drive Resumes At Sacred Heart

Sister Mary John Seyler has announced a tentative plan to re-activate a paper drive at Sacred Heart School, with acceptable types of paper strictly regulated by the collecting agency.

She said her purpose is two fold: a paper drive lends an ecological boost to the community and gives a financial assist to the school.

The Wichita Paper Company said it will provide covered containers which will remain in place until filled. However, only newspapers will be accepted. No cardboard boxes, no books, no magazines nor any other paper products may be included, because the machinery of the paper company can handle only newspapers. The reclaimed product is recycled to produce more paper.

Newspaper bundles should be tied but not boxed and must be kept dry at home and at school. Sister Mary John cautioned that moisture-damaged newspapers will not be accepted by the paper company.

Proceeds of the drive will benefit Sacred Heart School.

Chamber Asks for Committee Staffs

A call for volunteers was sounded Tuesday to staff committees of the Chamber of Commerce. President Johnny Pagel explained that directors had created a number of standing committees to assume the responsibilities of the chamber, and now it needs people to assume the committee duties.

The committees are listed and described on sheets which were handed to members, who were asked to mark the committee preferred and return it to Pagel. The implication is that anyone expressing willingness to accept a job can be confident of receiving it.

Six committees were listed as follows: Public Relations, Retail Trade, Industrial Development, Community Development, Housing and Ways and Means.

A special project considered by the chamber was a personality upgrading course where by business personnel, both employers and employees, can improve their image with the public. A similar course was taught here some years ago and the chamber is willing to sponsor another if it can be arranged.

Another suggestion was inquiry about a child care center, the standards required of it by law, cost of construction, charges for its service, etc. The facility was suggested especially as a way to help working mothers.

Moster Cited for Reporting Weather

Steve Moster, official cooperative weather observer for Muenster, has been awarded a US government 30 year lapel pin and letter of appreciation for exceptionally faithful service to the community and the state for observing, recording and reporting weather conditions to the national weather service.

Rainfall measurements at the end of each month are mailed to the environmental data service's national climatic center, processed for computer storage and published as part of the permanent record of world weather. Moster received the coveted John Campanius Holm award last year for his service in weather observing and reporting.

46 Tigers Report For First Day of Football Practice

The most encouraging outlook of his career at Sacred Heart High cheered Coach Ed Stock Monday at first practice of the 1977 football season.

He said that he has a fine squad of 46 boys, including twelve seniors and nine juniors from last year's team, which had a record of 7-3 out of a rugged schedule.

Those boys are in good physical condition showing the benefit of voluntary workouts for about a month. They are more ready than either of the previous two years' starting squads, he said, and have good prospects of developing into a stronger team. About the only problem is a shortage of depth in a few positions, however, Stock expects to have a solid lineup of starters.

Tigers who reported for the first practice are Seniors: Kenny Felderhoff, Bernie Fette, Bobby Hartman, Roger Haverkamp, Joe Hoedebeck, Fred Koessler, Lloyd Reiter, Billy Rohrer, Joe Sicking, Chris Stoffels, Danny Walterscheid and Glen Walterscheid.

Juniors: Joe Bartush, Mike Bayer, Kent Fuhrman, Curtis Greewing, Billy Haverkamp, Jeff Hess, Bert Hesse, Angelo Nasche and Jesse Walterscheid.

Tigers lost in last year's graduation are Brent Hess, Tim Sicking, Danny Stock, Bob Greewing, George Luke and Craig Sangster.

Quarterback Club Will Meet Tuesday

Club officers extend thanks to everybody who helped the quarterback program during the past year and invite them to come back and join in another success season for 1977.

Tiger Cubs Start Practice Monday

Seventh and eighth graders of Sacred Heart School, faced with an early start on their schedule, will make an early start on their practice. It will be their first time to begin workouts before the first class day.

Coach Eddie Stock announced this week that the boys will work out 10:30 to 12:00 daily beginning Monday, August 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walterscheid returned Monday from a trip through Iowa and Nebraska where they visited relatives and went sight seeing.

Nearly one farmer in five is now under the age of 35.

Meeting Proposed On Establishing Golf Association

The first step toward organizing an association of golfers in the community was taken Tuesday in the Chamber of Commerce meeting when members voted to sponsor a meeting at which interested persons can get together and discuss possibilities.

Johnny Pagel, chamber president, said a number of people have been showing interest lately in promoting a golf course in relation to the city's lake project, and asked Leonard Endres of the city council to comment on possibilities that have been brought to the city's attention.

Endres pointed out that flood prevention and recreation features planned for the lake require a sizeable back up area for the lake when its level is high. Except at rare times when the land is covered by water the space could be used as a golf course. The possibility was shown, he said, by Soil Conservation Service engineers, who superimposed the drawing of a golf course over a map of the proposed lake area.

If the idea is carried out the golf course would be on city property, and it was suggested that the facility be leased to a separate organization.

Another consideration is that when owned by the city the golf course construction can qualify for a grant through the Parks and Wildlife Department. Combining possibilities, it seems that the project can be assisted by SCS in its cost sharing program and also by Parks and Wildlife.

50% Tax Increase Set by CCC Board

Trustees of Cooke County College have voted not to change their tax rate of 30 cents per hundred. However they increased tax assessments 50 per cent by adopting the county's raise of valuations from 20 to 30 per cent of actual value.

It means that property of $10,000 actual value will be raised from $2,000 to $3,000 on the CCC tax roll and the annual tax bill will be raised from $6 to $9.

Retaining the 30 cent tax rate was adopted after some discussion on reducing the rate because of a balance in the debt retirement fund. Collection at the former valuation was $72,000 a year when $52,000 was needed, and $36,000 more is expected from the higher valuations. The board's thinking is to pay off the debt earlier and then ask for voter approval on a fine arts and student union building at the same tax rate.

The college board also adopted a budget of $3.3 million for the coming school year.

Ervin Richard Walterscheid was transferred from Muenster Memorial Hospital to East Texas Chest Hospital in Tyler on July 27. Cards will reach him addressed to the hospital and Room 617, P.O. Box 2003, Tyler, Texas 75701.

County Fair Will Show Next Week

All next week will be show and fun time for Cooke County as the annual Fair presents its traditional agricultural, livestock, domestic and commercial exhibits along with a tractor pull, a rodeo, a carnival and various free entertainment. It will be open daily Monday through Saturday.

On display will be the usual big array of quality specimens from the county's field and garden crops and all classes of livestock and poultry as well as products from the county homes, such as canned and baked goods and an assortment of sewing and other crafts articles. All displays are eligible for ribbons and cash prizes.

Principal shows are the tractor pull and the rodeo, both to be presented in the rodeo arena. The fifth annual tractor pull, sponsored jointly by the Fair and the Red River Tractor Pullers Association is hailed as better than last year's highly successful show which featured a sled improvement that eliminated much of the time previously lost between events.

Formerly a two night show, the tractor pull is extended to the first three days. Starting time is 7:30 and admission charge is $3.00 per adult and $1.50 per child. Classes competing will be stock, superstock, modified, open and powder puff... and each class is further divided into weight categories.

Rodeo time is Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights starting at 8 p.m. and preceded by a downtown parade at 5 p.m. Thursday. Produced by Neil Gay of Mesquite, it will offer substantial prizes in the usual array of rodeo events.

In addition the Bill Hames Carnival will be back on the midway with its full line of attractions.

Also there will be three nights of free shows in the baseball park, beginning at 8 each evening. An old fiddlers' contest is booked for Monday and the Byron Reed Band of Dallas on Tuesday. Junior Hutchins Band of Era will perform for an hour and the First Baptist Sanctuary Choir of Gainesville will start at 9.

Mary Hess and Gary Endres United in 2 Ring Ceremony

Miss Mary Hess became the bride of Gary Endres during a nuptial Mass and double ring ceremony in Sacred Heart Church on Saturday, July 30. Father Placidus Eckart officiated at 5 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Endres.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a formal gown of diamond white Poly Knit and the Venice lace. The fitted bodice extended to form a high neckline framed with appliques of the lace. The short cap sleeves were edged with matching lace and lace overlaid the empire bodice line in front and back. The skirt fell softly into A-line and a cluster of fullness unfolded across the center back creating a lovely chapel train. A deep banding of Venice lace traced the hemline and completely encircled the train.

Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was edged in a matching lace and was attached to a caplet covered with Venice lace. Sentimentally and in keeping with tradition, something old was a rosary from her mother; something new was a white lace handkerchief, something blue, a garter and something borrowed was a gold cross from the groom's mother, worn at her wedding.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade of yellow roses, white stephanotis, yellow carnations and baby's breath and tied with blue and yellow streamers with lovers knots.

Attendants

The bride's attendants were friend, Debbie Reynolds of Dallas as maid of honor and other friend, Kathy Luke, of Muenster and a sister Gloria Hess of Grandbury as bridesmaids. They were identically gowned in blue knit, designed with cap sleeves and A-line skirt and made by Mrs. Robert Bayer. The maid of honor carried a nosegay of stephanotis, yellow carnations and white daisies, with blue and yellow streamers. The bridesmaids carried nosegays of stephanotis, yellow carnations and yellow daisies with blue streamers. In their hair they wore floral hairpieces of stephanotis and yellow feathered carnations.

The best man was the groom's brother, Phil Endres of Irving and groomsmen were his brothers Roger of Muenster and Stan of Irving. Ushers were Steve Taylor and John Eckart, both of Muenster. Mass servers were Lonnie Henschel and Hal Mollenkopf, both cousins of the groom.

Wedding music was given by a vocal group of which the bride has been a member. Electric bills higher?

For many thousands of TP&L customers, air conditioning is the biggest factor in electric bills during the summer and Texas is having one of the hottest summers in several years.

So, if your electric bills are higher, think about the extra work electricity has been doing to help keep you comfortable.

If your home is air-conditioned, you can hold down your electric bill by setting the thermostat on 78° or higher. Clean or replace filters every 30 days and keep draperies and blinds closed.

Pam Schneider, James McDonald Exchange Vows in Two Ring Nuptial

In a setting of tall floor candelabra entwined with smilax and stephanotis, with lighted candles and altar arrangements of white gladioli tied with blue satin bows, Miss Pamela Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schneider became the bride of James L. McDonald, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. McDonald, Sr. of Wolfe City.

Father Stephen Eckart was celebrant of the Nuptial Mass and officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride was presented at the altar by her father. She wore a formal wedding gown designed and created by her mother, of bridal satin em-hanced with Miramist. The fitted bodice was overlaid with a V-shaped applique of Alencon lace, and matching lace formed the wedding ring neckline above the sheer yoke. Long, full, sheer sleeves were gathered to close lace cuffs edged with a soft lace ruffle. Seed pearls were re-em-broidered into the Alencon lace throughout.

A triangular pattern of Alencon lace was applied to the front of the skirt, rising from the instep to a mid-point, and also encircling the cathedral length train which fell from soft, back folds. A deep, gathered ruffle of French lace swept along the entire edge of the skirt and train.

The tiered bridal veil of illusion was held with a crown of lace and seed pearls. A band of scalloped lace along the front edge framed her face, mantilla-fashion.

She carried her bridal flowers in a nosegay of blue carnations, pink sweet-roses, white gladioli and baby's breath, tied with white ribbons. The bride had a birth-date nickel and an old penny in her shoe. She carried a rosary borrowed from her grandmother, Mrs. Al Walterscheid and had the traditional blue garter.

The couple lit a wedding candle following their vows.

Attendants

Bridal attendants were her best friend, Lola Bright of Dallas as maid of honor and her sister, Deb Schneider of Muenster and the groom's sister Mrs. Frank Jarvis of Sherman and Mrs. Mark Blankenship of Greenville as bridesmaids. They wore identical, full length dresses of sky blue dotted Swiss organza over taffeta, designed with an empire bodice square halter neckline and an elbow length cape attached in front. The A-line skirt was finished with a wide-gathered ruffle. Their sky blue hats were trimmed with blue dotted Swiss organza matching their dresses. They carried nosegays of blue carnations, pink sweetheart roses and white gladioli, tied with blue and white streamers.

The best man was John Schneider, brother of the bride and groomsmen were Claude Klement, groom's friend and Don Schneider, bride's brother, and Jim Endres, bride's cousin and friend of the couple.

Ushering guests were Terry and Kim Walterscheid, cousins of the bride. Mass servers were Tim Schneider, bride's brother, and Hal Mollenkopf, Lonnie Henschel and Dale Swirczynski, friends. Mass gifts were presented at Offertory by Bren-

Reception

Following the church service, the bride's parents hosted a reception, dinner and dance in the Community Center for 300 guests. Wanda and Sandy Schneider, bride's sisters, were at the bride's book.

The bride's table held the three tiered wedding cake which stood over an ornamental fountain; also on the table were the bridesmaids' bouquets, two arrangements of blue silk tulips and fresh ivy leaves; also a silver ice bucket. A cascade of honeysuckle edged the front edge of the bride's table.

The groom's table held the horseshoe shaped chocolate cake, a white armbasket filled with blue net rice bags, a bowl of fresh fruits and a Raggedy Andy figurine.

Guests tables held souvenir match books, inscribed with the couple's names and wedding date.

There was a champagne fountain. A buffet table held an attractively arranged assortment of foods, highlighted by a basket-carved watermelon holding tiny pieces of fresh fruits.

Guests danced to music by Steve Eberhart.

The mother of the bride wore a sky blue long knit formal with Chiffon cape and the groom's mother wore a blue and pink formal.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride changed to a military blue pant suit. When they return from South Texas and Padre Island, they will be at home in Dallas.

The bride is a graduate of Muenster High School and is a secretary employed at Music and Sound, Inc. The groom is a graduate of Samuel Clemens High School of Schertz, Texas and served 3 years in the U. S. Army. He is a computer operator for Young, Stallings, Clayt, Robinson, Ehrlich, Inc.

IF YOU SMELL NATURAL GAS, FOLLOW THESE 3 STEPS TO SAFETY.

The natural gas industry has an excellent safety record.

The fact that you can smell natural gas is because we add a harmless chemical to it as an extra safety feature. Otherwise, it would be completely odorless. If you detect faint whiffs of what you think may be gas, investigate. It may be something that is as easily and safely corrected as a pilot light that has gone out, or a burner valve that's partially open.

If your equipment seems to be working properly and the odor intensifies and seems to be everywhere, please follow these precautions:

1. Do not switch anything electrical on or off. Do not use the telephone in your own home. Do not strike a match. Do not do anything that might cause a spark.
2. Have everyone leave the house immediately, leaving doors open to help ventilate.
3. Go to a nearby telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the source of the odor to determine whether it's safe for you to return to the house. You may never have a natural gas leak, but we want you to be informed in case one does occur. Please make sure your family is aware of these precautionary steps. And we suggest that you keep this message for future reference.

SI PERCIBE OLOR A GAS NATURAL OBEDEZCA ESTAS 3 NORMAS DE SEGURIDAD.

La industria del gas natural tiene un récord de seguridad excelente.

El hecho de que Usted pueda percibir el olor a gas natural se debe a que se le ha añadido un producto químico extra, que no es nocivo. De lo contrario, el gas no olería. Si detecta ciertas ráfagas de olor que cree son producidas por escape de gas, investigue. Es posible que se pueda corregir fácilmente y sin peligro, por tratarse de que una llama-piloto se ha apagado, o que una válvula de algún aparato está parcialmente abierta.

Cuando suceda que a pesar de que su equipo aparentemente funciona bien, pero el olor a gas se intensifica y se siente en todas partes, entonces siga estas precauciones:

1. No conecte ni desconecte ningún aparato eléctrico. No use el teléfono de su casa. No prenda fósforos. No haga nada que pueda producir chispas.
2. Haga que todos salgan de la casa inmediatamente, dejando las puertas abiertas para que se ventile.
3. Vaya a un teléfono cercano y llame informando a la Compañía Lone Star Gas Co., y espere hasta que los encargados de la Compañía investiguen las causas y determinen si se puede o no retornar a casa. Es muy posible que Usted nunca tenga que enfrentarse con escapes de gas, pero queremos informarle por si acaso le sucede alguna vez. Asegúrese que toda su familia conozca estas normas de seguridad. Le aconsejamos también que guarde este aviso como referencia para el futuro. Gracias.

Brown Says Wheat Glut Shows Food Policy Needed

AUSTIN — The current oversupply of wheat in the United States is a clear illustration of the need for a long-range national food policy, according to Reagan V. Brown, Texas Commissioner of Agriculture.

"We simply have to stop reacting to crises and start planning ahead to eliminate them," he said this week.

Brown added that the price situation in the wheat market will not be helped by a bumper crop which is headed to storage bins already brimming over from last year's crop.

"With production costs ranging from $3.60 to $4.10 per bushel and farmers being offered $2.06 as of last Friday, the situation can't get much worse," Brown commented.

Carryover wheat from the 1976 crop now totals 1.1 billion bushels in the U.S., the largest surplus since 1963. Texas Dept. of Agriculture officials are predicting this year's state harvest, which is already 98 per cent complete, to total about 110 million bushels in spite of extensive losses in acreage because of spring storm damage. The state has 63.5 billion bushels in carryover stock, a 63 per cent increase over a year ago.

"Wheat is one of our major export crops and the effects of the current glut in sales are extended beyond the U.S. to those countries looking to our crops for their food supply," Brown commented. He added that any type of long-range planning should be executed "with our own domestic needs in mind and in the interest of a hungry world, with political interests laid aside."

Discussing the acreage the 1977 winter wheat crop and the 1978 spring crop, Brown said a 10 to 20 per cent reduction in production would "do little to up the price of wheat this year or next."

"These reductions should have been instituted when the problem was in the making three or four years ago," he said, "when such a program could have had a long-term effect."

County Oil and Gas Production in '76 Was $50.8 Million

The massive energy needs of this nation continue to grow in the face of declining crude oil and natural gas production in Texas and nationwide. Because of this, Cooke County's 1976 petroleum production was as important as in any year since production began in 1926.

Economic conditions within the county were improved substantially by the marketing of crude oil and natural gas valued at $50.8-million and an industry payroll amounting to $8.1-million, according to compilations by the staff of the Dallas-based Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

Cooke was one of 200 Texas counties last year which produced crude oil and natural gas with a marketed value of $100,000 or more, the same number as in 1975. The county ranked 75th in the total estimated value of petroleum produced, realizing $49.5-million from the sale of 6.1-million barrels of crude oil; $1.2-million from the sale of 1.6-million Mcf of natural gas. Payments last year to owners of royalty in the county totaled $6.3-million.

In addition to the payment of local school and county property taxes, producers in the county also contributed to the support of state government through production tax payments of approximately $2.4-million, with $2.3-million coming from crude oil output, $92,782 from natural gas.

According to the Texas Employment Commission, 770 employees worked in the industry in the county last year. These direct employment figures do not take into account employment by the service and supply firms that support oil and gas company exploration, production, transportation, and processing activities and, as a result, do not reflect the industry's full impact on the county's economy.

The search for additional petroleum continued in Cooke County in 1976, with oil and gas developers spending an estimated $3.7-million in the drilling of 95 wells, including 10 classified as wildcats. Some $1.4-million of that amount was lost in 37 dry holes. The 58 strikes were oil wells.

Processing also contributed to the county's petroleum-related economy through the operation of two natural gas-line processing plants with a total daily capacity of five-million cubic feet.

Forestburg News

By

Some "Sky-Juice" began to make it's appearance over the Dewey and Burg area last week. It was a little spotted but by the time it was all over everyone had a little. Over our way we had 2/10 inch on the 26th, on the 28th we had one even inch, then another 2/10 on the 19th and Sunday nite another 1-1/10 fell. So now it seems it is beginning to rain on the "un-just" for a change. 'Tis somewhat cooler also.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Landers of El Paso have been in the area visiting with their relatives. They made their headquarters with Pete's brother Robert. They also visited with Mrs. Landers' sister Bess Orrell of Muenster and Mrs. Billie Poyner of the Burg.

The Forestburg United Methodist Church had it's Annual Mission Picnic Wed. p.m. July 27 at the Clifford Hudspeth Lake. Around 32 folks attended.

Monsignor Tommy Home for Birthday

Msgr. Thomas Weinzapfel came to Muenster Monday to observe his August 1 birthday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel. They were guests of the David Bright family for a patio supper co-hosted by the Henry Weinzapfel family. Dessert was a decorated birthday cake. After supper, Msgr. Thomas and his brother went fishing at Weinzapfel Lake. The next morning he prepared the fish, with special seasonings, for a brunch, before he returned to his parish duties at St. Pius X Church in Dallas.

Schilling Baptism

Michael Dwayne Schilling was baptized in Sacred Heart Church on Sunday, July 24 by Father Placidus Eckart. The service was held at 3 p.m. The little boy is the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schilling, Jr. His baptismal gown is a family keepsake worn by other family members and made by his maternal grandmother.

His baptismal sponsors were an uncle Leon Knauf of Muenster and an aunt, Mrs. Tim Wimmer of Lindsay.

Attending the baptism were his parents, his brother and sisters, John, Laurie and Lisa and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knauf. The same group gathered in the Knauf home later for refreshments of cake and ice cream.

Birthday for Stephen Schmitt

Stephen Schmitt's 10th birthday was observed Monday, August 1 when his mother, Mrs. Harvey Schmitt decorated a birthday cake in the motorcycle theme and served it with ice cream and coke to relatives who visited throughout the day. Special guests were Stephen's grandmothers, Mrs. Victor Hartman and Mrs. Al Schmitt, an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Yosten and cousins Paula and Christy Yosten, and Scott Wolf of Gainesville.

Vacation in Hill Country

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Mosier and son Chris vacationed last week in the Texas Hill Country. They spent two days in Fredericksburg and toured LBJ Country; rode the Sky-lift at San Marcos; toured the Capitol in Austin and the LBJ Library; and visited the Alamo and Tower of the Americas in San Antonio. Returning home, they spent overnight in Waco and visited relatives in West and Tours the next day.

YOU CAN BANK ON IT!

A realistic look at the money situation reveals that the rate of inflation will most likely increase until the end of next year. Economists predict accelerated price increase in the next 18 months, so that by the end of this year the rate of inflation will be 6 1/2% or more. If their predictions hold true, in 1978 it will be 7-7 1/2%. Then the rate will drop. A harsh winter caused the price index to advance 10% or more. Weather-damaged crops drove prices up, and frigid temperatures caused fuel shortages. Energy costs are certain to increase, and Agricultural Department economists are forecasting food price increases despite lower farm prices. The faster prices go up, the more attractive it is to borrow. More inflation argues for you to make necessary major purchases now instead of next year when prices will most probably be higher.

I REALLY PREFER RELAXING TO PAINTING

Colony Paints

THAT'S WHY I LIKE SATINTONE ... the easy paints

First, they are easy. They brush or roll like a dream, dry in minutes, and the tools wash up in water. More important still, they really last, and I do enjoy the longer time between repaints.

If you'd rather take it easy than paint, next time try Satintone, the latex paint by Colony Paints. We have Satintone for all surfaces indoors or out.

... you'll like the difference!

Tractor Pull Is Feature of County Fair

Tractor enthusiasts of the area are looking forward to a great show Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week when the Red River Tractor Pullers Association sponsors its fifth annual tractor pull as one of the principal attractions of the Cooke County Fair.

Starting nightly at 7:30 p.m., it will feature the outstanding power units from both sides of the Red River, plus some from far beyond, belching smoke and flame in a super effort for glory and prize money.

Encouraged by the success of last year's contests, the sponsor has increased the schedule from two to three nights. Johnny Sicking of the association says there is a record number of entries and lots of improvements to deliver more power.

Another welcome attraction is the improved sled introduced last year which reduces set-up time, thereby giving spectators many more events per hour.

Tractors competing will be in three classes. Stock tractors are like those used in the field and will be entered in 7-, 9-, 12- and 15 thousand pound sizes.

Another class is the super stock, with original frame, wheels and rear end gearing but souped up engines. They come in weights of 7-, 9-, and 12 thousand pounds.

Modified class requires only the original tractor rear end and tires. Otherwise anything goes... tractor, car or airplane motors with any kind of souping up. Their size limits are 7000 and 9000 pounds.

The tractor pull is the farmers' favorite feature at the fair... which is not surprising since it is so closely related to farm work. Like so many other sporting activities nowadays, this one can be traced back to the grim need of making a living and the very human competitive urge to see who can do a job a little better.

For instance there was a time when spears and arrows were vital in hunting or warfare. From that it was no great step to using the weapons in sport. Likewise swimming started with people who fished for a living, and log rolling with lumberjacks.

Rodeo activity developed from every day ranch work. Bronco busting started when horses were first broken to ride. Roping and bulldogging were part of roundup and branding. Cutting horse competition had its origin in separating animals from a herd.

Horse racing most likely grew out of men's pride in their mounts and an urge to bet on them, or it may have started when a man's life depended on the speed of his horse. Even the unglamorous work horse got into sports. Owners wanted to determine whose could move the bigger load.

With tractors gradually replacing horses as a source of farm power, it was inevitable that they too would get into the pulling game. They got started as early as 1929, but the method of competition was a carry over from the old time plow horse pulling contest. It consisted of pulling a long stone boat down a 300 foot track and men jumping on from both sides at ten foot intervals until the load stalled.

the tractor. The tractor that went farthest was the winner.

During the 60s some mid-west farmers put together a better system of increasing the load. It was a weight transfer machine which shifted the weight from wheels to a sled constantly increasing the tractor's load. In the years since that machine has been greatly improved. Weight of 50,000 pounds or more is transferred, tractors pull at fantastic speeds, and intervals between events are much shorter. And the improvements continue.

This combination of factors plus the fact that tractors too are constantly improving, explains why the show keeps getting better and the crowds larger. The country now has about 3000 tractor pulls a year.

Mrs. Neu Honored On 106th Birthday

Senior citizens observing birthdays in August were honored Tuesday during the SNAP luncheon at the Community Center.

Center of attention was given to Mrs. Joseph Neu, 106, who received a mauve satin banner inscribed with her venerable age. The banner was designed and donated by Mrs. Dan Luke and presented by Mrs. Gladys Lutkenhaus.

Other birthday honorees were Mrs. Philip Metzler of Lindsay, Mrs. Leo Henschel, Mrs. Felix Becker, Tony Wimmer and John Schmitz. Special guests for the noon luncheon at the MAP Center, of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Lutkenhaus were his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Trieb of Frankfurt, Germany and children Heiko, and Daniela who observes an August birthday and was included among birthday honorees and was privileged to celebrate in Texas.

Eighty six meals were served in the SNAP program on Tuesday. Directors have asked that a clarification of official policy be given: Guests under 60 years of age must pay $1.25 per meal. Senior citizens over 60 years of age asked to pay $1.00 per meal, or whatever they can possibly afford. Envelopes are available for each contribution and should be sealed. No one is aware of the exact amount enclosed. The directors emphasize, however, that all senior citizens are welcome and no one should hesitate to attend because of financial strain.

Mrs. Gladys Lutkenhaus is on duty in the office of the Community Center and may be reached by phoning 759-2922 or at home 759-4373.

Beginning in September, the birthday observance will be held on the third Thursday of the month.

School Continues Policy on Free or Cut-Price Lunch

As another school year approaches, Muenster Public School announces continuation of its policy to offer free and reduced-price lunches to children who are unable to pay the full price.

Superintendent L. B. Brun announced this week that the schoolboard has adopted a family income scale based on the gross incomes and adjustments for family size below which children may receive the free or reduced-price meal. A copy of the table will be sent to each child's parents.

Families falling within the scale or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for the free or reduced price lunches. They can do so by filling in application forms, which may be submitted any time during the school year. Information is confidential and used only to determine eligibility.

The form is reviewed and eligibility determined by the principal. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling he or she may appeal to the superintendent.

The policy provides that there will be no identification or discrimination against a student unable to pay the full price of a lunch.

labor bosses of the North and East creating obstacles for transfer of business to the South and West, it now seems that the same motive may also be involved in legislation on natural gas.

In case of a natural gas shortage, the Administration says, gas should be taken away from Texas industries and sent to domestic users up north. Obviously the thought of having one's gas cut off could discourage the person who's interested in moving south. Nor is the situation helped by the fact that the administration has no apparent interest in boosting the country's oil reserve.
