The SDN Column

A postcard addressed to The Snyder Daily News from Mrs. Elmo Dunn, Route 1, Colorado City, conveys this brief message:

"Congratulations Snyder, for waiting until after Thanksgiving to emphasize Christmas and Santa Claus."

The obvious reference was to the Monday night festivities here, when the downtown Christmas lights were turned on, Santa Claus made his appearance on the courthouse square and merchants kept their stores open later than usual.

Thanksgiving and Christmas are so close on the calendar that some people have been concerned about overlapping for many years. As long ago as the Franklin D. Roosevelt Administration there was discussion on this issue and Thanksgiving was set for the fourth Thursday in November rather than the last Thursday in November, the date which had been observed for that purpose for many years. The feeling was that on years when there were five Thursdays in November, the Thanksgiving holiday came too close to Christmas when it was observed on the last Thursday of the month.

There's bound to be a lot of tension around Austin, Tex., and Fayetteville, Ark., as the date approaches for the Universities of Texas and Arkansas to pit their 1969 football teams against each other, but surely the two head coaches, Darrell Royal and Frank Broyles, must literally be shaking in their respective boots. Earlier in the season Broyles expressed sheer fear over the prospect of meeting Wichita State University, and Royal declared he was nervous before meeting the likes of Navy, Baylor and TCU.

Their records indicate that it pays to "run scared." Over the past 10 years, Texas and Arkansas have either won or shared the Southwest Conference title eight times. Their won-lost-tied records over that decade show Texas at 93-21-3 and Arkansas at 91-24-1. Arkansas has won three SWC titles outright and tied with Texas for three, while Texas has won two and shared three with Arkansas in the 10-year span. — WACIL McNAIR.

ROGERS PESSIMISTIC OF US PEACE EFFORTS

NATO Starts Annual Survey

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON
Associated Press Writer

BRUSSELS (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers gloomily told the other 14 foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today he is pessimistic about U.S. efforts to negotiate a peace with North Vietnam.

The United States, he said, is ready to negotiate everything at the Paris peace talks—except the right of the South Vietnamese people to determine their own political future. He said President Nixon will insist on this right for the South Vietnamese in any settlement negotiated with North Vietnam.

Rogers also expressed the astonishment and shock of Nixon's administration at allegations of American atrocities in the South Vietnamese village of My Lai. His hope was that any American soldiers proven to be responsible would be brought to justice and punished. None of the other ministers thus far have commented on the atrocity subject.

In the annual survey of world affairs, Rogers announced that the Strategic Arms Limitations Talks—SALT— in Helsinki, Finland, will be interrupted in about two weeks and that the American chief representative, Gerard C. Smith, will stop by NATO's Brussels headquarters to report to the council on his way back to Washington. The Soviets are proving extremely businesslike in those talks, Rogers said.

The gist of Rogers' remarks at the closed-door session was relayed to newsmen by officials who were present.

The foreign ministers were debating the international situation, focusing on a proposal by the Soviet-led Communist powers for a conference on European security. In their Prague declaration the six Communist states called on the Western allies to attend such a parley in Helsinki by June 30, 1970.

The consensus so far among statesmen favors negotiating precise new security arrangements in Europe, but they balked at Communist terms. As the Communists envisage the initial phase, European countries would first agree to abandon the use, or threatened use, of force in their relations and then launch a program of economic and technological cooperation.

Rogers, backed by Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart of Britain, cautioned his partners against hurrying into any ill-prepared parley, urging: "Let us be prudent."

No Hope For Survivors In Crash

By NORMAN N. BROWN

CARACAS (AP) — Rescuers pulled bodies, clothing and parts of an Air France airliner from the shark-infested waters of the Caribbean today, and said there was no hope that any of the 62 persons reported aboard the big jet had survived its plunge into the sea Wednesday night.

By early morning, the bodies of 11 women and nine men had been taken from the waters off La Guaira port, seven miles north of Caracas.

The search area was in waters 100 to 150 feet deep. Divers were to go down at dawn to seek clues to the cause of the crash.

The Boeing 707 jet crashed from 33,000 feet shortly after taking off from Caracas on a flight from Santiago, Chile, to Paris. It had stopped at Lima, Peru; Guayaquil, Ecuador; Bogota, Colombia; and Caracas.

Air France said 62 persons were aboard, including 21 members of the crew and a relief crew, 19 passengers who boarded the plane at Caracas, and 22 other passengers.

Early today, the nationalities of most of the passengers had not been established, and it was not known whether any U.S. citizens were aboard.

Officials in Stockholm confirmed that two of the victims were Folke Claeson, multimillionaire Swedish businessman and founder of the annual Stockholm international fair, and his wife.

Eyewitnesses said they thought there was an explosion as the plane dropped into the sea.

AS WAGE AGREEMENT REACHED

Rail Strike Averted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rail industry and union negotiators reached a wage settlement today for 48,000 shopcraft workers and Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz said "we will not be having any strike on the railroads."

The agreement was reached after 20 hours of nonstop bargaining.

Although it must be ratified by the members of four unions, chief union negotiator William W. Winpisinger agreed the strike threat was ended.

"It won't be necessary to inconvenience the public, the shippers," Winpisinger said.

Details of the agreement were withheld pending union ratification votes, except for the fact the settlement will cover 1970 as well as retroactive 1969 pay hikes.

"While we were not able to achieve every goal we set out to achieve, we did hit some milestones," said Winpisinger, vice president of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists.

"We are confident our membership, in evaluating it, will agree with us," he said.

In addition to the machinists, the unions involved are electricians, sheet metal workers and boilermakers.

"The carriers are very gratified," said John P. Hiltz, chairman of the industry's National Railway Labor Conference.

"Free collective bargaining has triumphed," Secretary Shultz said.

The agreement, if ratified by the workers, averts any need for action by Congress to prevent a nationwide rail strike, a politically painful possibility both for Congress and for the Nixon administration.

Officials said it would probably take the unions a week to 10 days to complete ratification votes on the agreement.

Haynsworth Will Remain On Bench

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon announced today that Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. will continue to serve as chief judge of the Fourth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

With Haynsworth standing at his side, Nixon went before newsmen at the White House to describe his rejected nominee for the Supreme Court as a victim of "brutally vicious" attacks. In the face of these, the President said, the judge might well have considered stepping down from the circuit bench.

"A weak man would," said Nixon, "A fearful man would. The judge is not a weak man."

Nixon said he was delighted by Haynsworth's decision and cited what he described as his own philosophy that an individual is never without defeat somewhere along the line but he should never be fearful.

Stepping to the microphone, Haynsworth acknowledged that "no one likes to lose."

But he said he had been greatly encouraged, since the 55-45 Senate vote against his nomination on Nov. 21, by thousands of letters.

Haynsworth said he has learned that the judges of the Fourth circuit want him to retain the chief judgeship and that the bar "wants me back."

Turning to Nixon, Haynsworth said: "I am very grateful to you for your steadfast support."

Nixon began by reminding newsmen that he had telephoned Haynsworth, immediately after the Senate vote, to urge that he remain on the circuit bench.

At that time Haynsworth said he wanted a couple of weeks in which to contemplate whether the Senate battle over his nomination would impair his ability to continue as chief judge of the fourth circuit.

Troop Pullout Decision Awaited

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is expected to delay a decision on further U.S. troop withdrawals from South Vietnam because of a step-up in North Vietnamese infiltration and increased American casualties.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler had left wide open the possibility Wednesday that Nixon would disclose a third-stage troop withdrawal at his next formal news conference announced for 9 p.m. EST Monday.

Other administration sources, however, discounted the likelihood of such a cutback, pointing to the latest casualties and infiltration statistics.

Although Nixon obviously will be asked about a possible new troop pullout—to come on top of previous withdrawals totaling more than 60,000 men—sources indicated the President is more apt to say Monday he has yet to reach a decision. He may well point to factors prompting a go-slow approach.

Administration officials said recently that infiltration from the north, which had fallen notably, had increased to previous high levels. American casualties also increased in recent weeks from previous all-time lows.

Nevertheless, many believe the chief executive wants to make a committment before the end of 1969 to bring total withdrawals to more than 100,000 men, a goal he set last summer in trying to top a recommendation by Clark M. Clifford, last secretary of defense in the Johnson administration.

There were suggestions from some officials that the third-stage withdrawal announcement, when it comes, may involve a longer time span than the three-month periods in which the previous two pullouts were accomplished.

Such a slowdown would permit the President to announce a large withdrawal figure while keeping open a choice to reduce the commitment if he decided battle developments made such a move seem unwise.

U.S. forces in South Vietnam now number somewhat under 480,000. The latest withdrawal announcement, in September, involved 35,000 men. Their departure from South Vietnam would have brought the total troop commitment to 484,000 but that figure already has been reduced.

24-Hour Cease Fire Announced

SAIGON (AP) The South Vietnamese government today announced cease-fires of 24 hours each for Christmas and New Year's. As usual, the U.S. Command said it would go along.

President Nguyen Van Thieu's office said the Christmas cease-fire would begin at 6 p.m. Dec. 24 (5 a.m. EST) and end at 6 p.m. Christmas day. The announcement said the New Year cease-fire would run from 6 p.m. Dec. 31 to 6 p.m. Jan. 1.

Both sides annually call cease-fires for the Christmas period. Action drops off substantially during these cease-fires even though each side accuses the other of violations.

Last year, the South Vietnamese announced a cease-fire for Christmas but refused to call one for New Year's Day.

With memories of the big enemy offensive during the 1968 Tet cease-fire still fresh, the government did not want a New Year's truce because that would commit it to a cease-fire for Tet, the lunar new year.

Tax Exemption Compromise Seen

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Albert Gore predicts his Senate-adopted proposal to raise the personal income tax exemption from $600 to $800 will survive the Senate-House conference and be in the final tax reform bill.

But other congressional sources said it is more likely the two chambers will compromise on a $700 exemption.

There are two major obstacles to survival of the Tennessee Democrat's amendment as it passed the Senate Wednesday:

—President Nixon, who indicated earlier this week he would veto the bill if it included the Gore amendment.

—Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, who has said many times an exemption increase is not the best way to give tax relief.

Nixon said that "to be acceptable" the tax reform bill "must meet the test of fiscal responsibility." The Gore exemption flunked this test, Nixon has indicated, because it would cause too much of a drain too soon on the Treasury.

However, White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler would not comment Wednesday on whether Nixon would veto the bill if it contained Gore's amendment. He said the President would want to see the entire bill first.

Congressional sources also said the conferees undoubtedly will make the bill more palatable to the President, and they discounted the likelihood of a veto.

Mills, who will head the House conferees, guided the massive tax reform bill through his chamber last August. It provided for cuts in individual tax rates.

The Senate, in adopting Gore's amendment 58-37 Wednesday, substituted an $800 exemption for all of the rate cuts in the bill.

However, some House sources indicated Mills might be willing to compromise the issue in conference, particularly if the Arkansas Democrat is convinced the exemption plan has strong House support.

Gore, who will be a conferee on the bill, declared he has strong talking points in the conference.

—The substantial vote margin in the Senate for his amendment, including 10 Republicans despite the strong opposition of Nixon.

—Statements by what Gore says is a majority of the House members in support of the exemption boost.

Wet Weather Returns To West Texas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wet weather returned to much of West Texas today, and clouds spread over the rest of the state's western half. It was mostly clear in other sections.

Southeast winds pushed moist air inland from the Gulf of Mexico and light rain widened from the El Paso area toward the north and east, covering scattered areas over most of the Panhandle.

Official observers credited a low pressure center aloft for touching off the moisture. They looked for it to move eastward and bring scattered light rain, showers or drizzle over the rest of Texas tonight or Friday.

Early morning temperatures were about normal for this time of year, running as low as 37 degrees at Lufkin, 38 at Longview and 39 at Wichita Falls. Readings at other points ranged up to 64 at Brownsville and McAllen in the south tip of the state.

Hippie Is Key Figure In Probe

By KEN HOSKINS
Associated Press Writer

INDEPENDENCE, Calif. (AP) — Charles M. Manson, accused in mountain-desert area of rustling four-wheel-drive vehicles, has emerged as a key figure in the investigation of the killings of Sharon Tate and seven others in Los Angeles.

The bushy-haired, wild-bearded little man with piercing brown eyes has been tabbed the leader of a hippie-type roving band whose members call him "God" and "Satan" — and now two attorneys say clan members killed the actress and others.

Manson, 35, who with others is accused here of running a stolen car ring from a commune near Death Valley, sat stolidly Wednesday through his preliminary hearing. After witnesses said they saw him driving stolen cars, he was held for trial.

There are no charges against Manson in Los Angeles. But two attorneys there said Wednesday that a woman member of Manson's mostly female "family" told them it was some of his followers who killed Miss Tate and four others after the pregnant actress pleaded, "Let me have my baby."

The woman, Susan Denise Atkins, 21, is charged with murdering a man with whom Manson once lived. If she waives immunity to self-incrimination, a deputy district attorney says she could become a key witness when the Los Angeles County grand jury begins a murder investigation Friday.

Shot or stabbed with Miss Tate, 26, blonde actress wife of Polish director Roman Planski, at her $200,000 home in Bel Air last Aug. 9 were Hollywood hair stylist Jay Sebring, 35; coffee heiress Abigail Folger, 26; Polish playboy Votyk Frokowsky, 37, and Steven Parent, 18, a friend of the caretaker. Stabbed fatally the next day at their Hollywood home were Leno LaBianca, 44, and his wife Rose Mary, 38, wealthy market owners.

Miss Atkins' attorneys Paul Caruso and Richard Caballero, said she was among those who dressed in black and invaded the two death homes. But they said she was under Manson's "hypnotic spell" and "had nothing to do with the murders."

Caruso said there were three women and two men. Caballero said it was four women and one man, and said Miss Atkins told him Manson was not among them. Police say the makeup of the group was different each night.

Under arrest on murder warrants in the Tate case are Patricia Krenwinkel, 21, in Mobile, Ala.; Charles D. Watson, 24, in McKinney, Tex., and Linda Louise Kasabian, 19, brought here from Concord, N.H.

Police say they will seek murder indictments against the three and "five others," unidentified, from the Los Angeles County grand jury. It is to convene on the killings Friday and is expected to conclude its probe Monday.

Miss Atkins pleaded innocent Tuesday to a charge of murder in the killing of a Malibu musician, Gary Hinman, last July. Police say Manson lived for a time with Hinman.

A codefendant, Robert K. Beausoleil, 21, described as a Manson friend, was tried previously but the jury could not agree and a new trial was ordered.

Los Angeles County Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger, whose office will prosecute the murder cases, expressed hope there will be no court-imposed "gag order" on information.

He said such an order in the case of Sirhan B. Sirhan, convicted earlier this year of murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, prevented clarification of "absurd rumors."

The Sirhan order forbids attorneys and public officials from discussing evidence or details in the case. He said he has no indication there will be such an order.

Alcatraz No Longer For Sale

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Alcatraz Island is no longer for sale, at least not for the present.

A spokesman for the General Services Administration broke the news Wednesday in the latest development involving the former prison site in San Francisco Bay.

The island is currently occupied by a group of American Indians who landed on the island two weeks ago and claimed it for Indian use under old peace treaties.

Those who have sought to buy the island include Lamar Hunt of Texas, who offered a couple million in payment. The Indians offered $24 in beads, a deal they described as similar to the purchase of Manhattan Island

Chair Had Hidden Value

CHILLIWACK, B.C. (AP)— June Berg couldn't stand the old chair she had picked up at an auction, so she burned it.

Shortly after she set the chair afire, her children ran up to her clutching handfuls of large-denomination bills that had appeared as the fabric burned away.

The Bergs recovered $1,100 but have no idea how much much money may have been destroyed.

Jarrell Is Speaker At FFA Meet

The local chapter of Future Farmers of America held its regular monthly meeting last Tuesday with John Jarrell, general manager of Ezell-Key Feedlots, as the guest speaker for the evening.

He presented a brief history of the development of feedlot operations over the United States and then discussed some of the problems of managing a feedlot and gave an overall view of the business. This was followed by an interesting question and answer session.

Experts Reject Claims

SAIGON (AP) — American experts reject claims by U.S. senators that Saigon's flourishing currency black market is undermining South Vietnam's economy.

"A black market doesn't destroy an economy," one expert said today. "What destroys an economy is runaway inflation and the unavailability of necessary goods. We don't have that, so the economy continues to function."

Illegal trading in money, he added, "has been there all along, and we've adapted to it. It's not as bad for the economy as the Senate investigators believe."

Witnesses testified before a Senate investigations subcommittee Nov. 15-21 that Moslem money changers from south India are running a multimillion-dollar international racket from Saigon.

The committee chairman, Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., charged that the illegal transactions seriously hindered efforts to stabilize South Vietnam's economy. Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., called the money hangers "profiteers of tragedy (who) undermine a war-ravaged country."

The day after the Senate hearings concluded, the South Vietnamese government started a crackdown on the currency market that netted less than $10,000 during the first week. A source familiar with the market described this as "peanuts." No arrests have been made.

The South Vietnamese piaster is not convertible legally to foreign currencies and has no official value outside the country. Piasters are available in some foreign countries at much less than the official rate in Saigon. They cannot be imported legally into the country, but some do get through.

Using freshly cut spinach, scientists at the University of California have almost exactly duplicated in the laboratory the long-mysterious Hill process known as photosynthesis.

Lodge Makes Farewell Address

PARIS (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, addressing the Vietnam peace talks for the last time, said today the United States will continue to participate fully in the negotiations and seek a compromise.

Lodge announced his resignation last month after 10 months as head of the U.S. delegation. His deputy, Philip Habib, is expected to lead the delegation until President Nixon names a successor for Lodge.

"The United States government seeks an early negotiated settlement," Lodge told the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong delegates at the weekly session. "It will continue to seek it. Although I am leaving these meetings, the President's representative will continue to participate fully in them.

"We remain ready for give-and-take negotiation in any meeting place. We remain ready for compromise. When you are ready, progress can be speedy."

Lodge spoke after listening to the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese denounce the United States for the alleged mass killing of civilians at My Lai by U.S. soldiers in 1968. The Viet Cong asserted U.S. and South Vietnamese troops are continuing the mass slaughter of civilians every hour.

South Vietnamese delegate Pham Dang Lam said the talks were deadlocked because Hanoi and the Viet Cong maintained an "inflexible and obstinate attitude, putting forth unreasonable demands and waiting for events outside of these meetings to bring you total victory."

He accused the other side of being "intransigent and absurd" in demanding an unconditional American withdrawal. He said the Viet Cong demand for a coalition regime would mean the South Vietnamese people would "take a step backward by accepting a government not elected by the people but rather designated by your side."

Shrimp Toast From Chinese Cuisine

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

DEAR CECILY: Some time ago I clipped a recipe of yours for Shrimp Toast, but I'm afraid I've lost it. Is is possible for you to send me that recipe or another one that's similar? — RECIPE FAN.

DEAR RECIPE FAN: Here's a brand-new recipe for Shrimp Toast fashioned by a young Chinese-American named Lucy Wing. Lucy grew up in Superior, Arizona and worked in her father's Chinese restaurant before studying home economics at the University of Arizona. So with this background it's not surprising that she has concocted a delicious and detailed recipe for Shrimp Toast. Good luck with it! — C. B.

LUCY WING'S SHRIMP TOAST

½ pound raw shrimp, peeled, deveined and minced (about 1 cup)
1-3 cup minced water chestnuts
1-3 cup minced scallions (green onions), including part of green tops
1 tablespoon cornstarch
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon ginger
1 egg, slightly beaten
9 slices thinly sliced white bread, crusts removed
1 pint corn oil

Mix together shrimp, water chestnuts, scallions, cornstarch, salt, ginger and egg.

Cut each bread slice into 4 squares, then cut each square diagonally into 2 triangles. Spread 1 teaspoon shrimp mixture on each triangle.

In heavy 1 ½-quart saucepan, over medium heat, heat corn oil to 375 degrees. Pan will be 1-3 full.

With shrimp side down, lower 6 to 8 triangles into oil. Fry until edges are brown — about 40 seconds. With slotted spoon turn and fry a few seconds longer. Drain well on absorbent paper. During preparation, keep warm by placing on baking sheet in preheated 350 - degree oven until thoroughly heated — about 10 minutes. Drain on absorbent paper.

SHRIMP TOAST — Delectable hors d' oeuvre to offer as a first course or snack.

Chef's Salad

1 can (5 ounces) boned chicken with broth, drained and cut into strips
¼ cup thin strips cooked ham
3 cups (packed down) torn romaine
½ cup cucumber slices, halved and seed removed
1 tablespoon minced sweet onion
1 tablespoon grated Parmesan cheese
3 tablespoons olive oil
2 tablespoons red wine vinegar
½ teaspoon salt
Seasoned pepper to taste

In a large salad bowl toss together the chicken, ham, Swiss cheese, romaine, cucumber, onion and Parmesan. Sprinkle with oil and toss; add vinegar, salt and pepper and toss thoroughly. Makes 3 servings.

New Mencken Biography Is Detailed, Researched

MENCKEN. By Carl Bode.

Books continue to roll from the presses on the Great Champ of American letters, H.L. Mencken. And in these days of uncertain, even shifty standards and values, both literary and political, this is a good sign.

From his earliest days as a superenergetic young newspaper and magazine editor — operating from the congenial atmosphere of Baltimore early in the century — to the eminence of America's most powerful single literary force in the 1920s, Mencken adhered to a simple but rigid standard. This made him extend the widest freedom of choice for the writer in subject and method while holding him firmly, often brutally, to account for style and achievement.

The latest entry in the Mencken sweepstakes is by Carl Bode, professor of English at the University of Maryland. Bode's own style is amiable, relaxed, and thorough, with painstaking research and meticulous documentation. This has its advantages for impartial examination of the Bad Boy of Baltimore's virtues and foibles. He thus skirts the almost irresistible magnetism of the Mencken personality, which has made various other writers see things through the refraction of the great critic's own prejudices, good and bad.

Bode's work does not have the special force of long and deep friendship with both Mencken and his wife, Sarah Haardt, which Sara Mayfield gave to her brilliant contribution to Menckeniana last year, "The Constant Circle." But Bode, while viewing from a greater distance, nevertheless has read everything of consequence by and about Mencken, except those tantalizing manuscripts he placed out of bounds for researchers until 1991. He also has talked at length with those who were close to Mencken — his family, friends, and professional associates.

What emerges is a three-dimensional picture — perhaps four-dimensional, if as we are told time is the fourth dimension — of a critical genius, flawed only slightly by a few limitations in his self-education and some good, healthy prejudices. Editing first The Smart Set and later The American Mercury, Mencken not only helped make the big names of his time in literature— Theodore Dreiser, Sinclair Lewis, James Branch Cabell, Willa Cather, and others. He devoted great patience and time to helping unknowns he thought showed promise.

Newspapermen will enjoy especially Bode's detailed description of Mencken's long association with the Baltimore Sunpapers. He was not only the most trenchant literary critic of our time he was an imaginative, creative and effective journalist, who brought inexhaustible energy, humor and elan to his profession.

Mrs. Barnes Has Program At Sorority

The Lambda Kappa Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Tuesday night in the community room at West Texas State Bank.

Mrs. Howard Limmer opened the meeting with the opening ritual. Mrs. David Palmer read the roll call and the minutes of the last meeting.

Mrs. Carson Clayton announced the "Phi' shields were made and for each member to pick theirs up after the meeting.

The Christmas party was announced to be in the home of Mrs. John Billy Koonsman and each member was asked to bring some kind of Christmas sweets and a gift for a secret sister. Mrs. Rex Mitchell and Mrs. Loyd Raschke agreed to fix the turkey sandwiches for the event. No other business was conducted.

Mrs. Howard Limmer closed the meeting with the closing ritual and prayer. Mrs. V. W. (Bud) McClanahan and Mrs. W. C. Cox served refreshments.

Mrs. James Barnes gave the program on "People," the enjoyment of people. Some of the quotations used were "Today, old friend, remember still that I am Joe and you are Bill." by O. W. Holmes, "Who can enjoy alone," by Milton. "Life is to be fortified by many friendships. To love and to be loved is the greatest happiness of existence," by Sydney Smith.

Questions were asked by different members about their acquaintances with young people and much older persons. As usual the program made one set back and take a good look at themselves and the ones around.

Pineapple Upsidedown Cake

1 can (1 pound 4 ½ ounces) pineapple slices
¼ cup butter
½ cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
1 ¼ cups sifted cake flour
1 ½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup granulated sugar
1-3 cup shortening
¼ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 large egg

Thoroughly drain pineapple; reserve ¼ cup pineapple syrup. In a 9 by 9 by 2 inch cake pan over low heat melt the butter; sprinkle with the brown sugar; add 9 pineapple slices in a single layer; quarter remaining pineapple slice and fit into vacant spaces at center. Into a medium mixing bowl sift the flour, baking powder, salt and granulated sugar; add shortening, reserved ¼ cup pineapple syrup, milk, vanilla and egg. Beat with electric mixer at medium speed until smooth — 2 minutes. Turn batter, spreading evenly, over pineapple layer in pan. Bake in preheated 350 degree oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out without any batter sticking to it — 35 to 40 minutes. Place cake in pan on wire rack to stand for 5 minutes. Turn out on large serving platter; allow to stand for several minutes; remove pan. Serve warm or reheat; top with whipped cream. Makes 9 servings.

Santa And The Dumbbell

Synopsis: Booby Bobby goes shopping to buy a friend but finds there is no such thing as a Friend Store. He decides to write to Santa asking for a friend for Christmas.

CHAPTER THREE
LETTER TO SANTA

THAT NIGHT Booby Bobby shut himself in his room to write to Santa Claus.

It was a very short letter — only one sentence — but he used 23 sheets of paper before he was satisfied with spelling and printing and neatness.

He put the letter in an envelope and ran downstairs to mail it. When he went into the living room he found his parents sitting with guests. There was a huge log fire burning in the fireplace.

Booby Bobby stood and stared worriedly at the fire.

"Why are you standing there like a dummy?" asked his father.

"I wanted to mail a letter," mumbled Booby Bobby.

"Then go mail it."

"It has to be mailed in the fireplace," said Booby Bobby unhappily.

"In the fireplace!" cried his father. "Oh, what would you do with a balmy boy like this?"

The guests tittered. Booby Bobby knew they were thinking, "What a scatterbrain." He couldn't tell them it was a letter to Santa Claus. He knew some grownups did not believe in Santa and they would have thought him a dumb bunny for sure if he tried to explain.

He went back to his room and tried to think where else a person could mail a letter to Santa. There was a hot air register in the wall and he decided that might do. He placed the letter against the register and sealed it there with wide strips of tape. Then he jumped into bed. In two seconds he was asleep.

In the middle of the night there was a swooshing and a whirring at the hot air register. Booby Bobby's eyes opened. Santa had come for his letter!

He lay quivering under the covers and listened to the coughing, moaning, sobbing in the walls. He could not imagine why Santa should make such sounds. Suddenly it came to him: "The letter is taped too tight. He can't get it off!"

He tiptoed to the register and carefully loosened the tape. There was a final mighty whoosh and the letter flew across the room. A white phantom burst from the register, swept over the head of the astonished boy and threw itself on the bed.

"W-who are you?" whispered Booby Bobby.

"My name is Stanley. I am a Ghost as you can plainly see," said the apparition. "I very nearly suffocated when you blocked the register. Moreover, closed places frighten me dreadfully. All in all, I have had a perfectly miserable night, thanks to you."

"I am sorry," said Booby Bobby meekly. "I was mailing a letter."

"Well," said the Ghost. "Considering the state of the mail these days it is very risky to mail a letter. It is wiser by far to make your delivery in person."

"But this letter is to Santa Claus!"

"All the more reason to take an important letter like that yourself." The Ghost stood up and straightened the sheets over his head. "What are you writing to Santa Claus?"

"Everyone thinks I am a dunce," said Booby Bobby. "No one wants to play with me. I'm asking Santa for a friend for Christmas."

"Not a bad idea," said the Ghost approvingly. "I think I'll go with you."

"Do you want a friend, too?" asked Booby Bobby in surprise.

"Not exactly," said Stanley. "I want a better place to haunt."

Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones of 1204 Twenty - ninth Street, Snyder, was promoted to his present rank while serving with Marine Fighter Attack Squadron 513, a unit of the Second Marine Aircraft Wing at the Marine Corps Air Station in Cherry Point, N. C.

His promotion was based on time in service and rank, military appearance, and his knowledge of selected military subjects.

The air station is the home of the Second Marine Aircraft Wing and other Marine aviation units. It provides air support for infantrymen of the Second Marine Division.

Sen. Jack Strong Plans To Retire

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP) — Plans to retire from office were disclosed by State Sen. Jack Strong at a dinner honoring him Wednesday night.

Former U.S. Rep. Lindley Beckworth said soon afterward that he will be a candidate for the post to be vacated by Strong.

First elected to the Senate in 1962, Strong said at the appreciation dinner that he will not seek another term because of family, business and personal reasons.

"My service in the Texas Senate has provided the happiest experience, the deepest friendships and the greatest feeling of accomplishment in my life," he said. "Under these circumstances you can understand how difficult it is to think of retiring....

"After agonizing for the past 15 months, the final decision has been made. I will not seek re-election in 1970."

Describing Strong as "a good friend and dedicated Texan who already has written his name in many places in the history of the state," Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes recalled he first met the senator seven years ago in Longview.

"To know Jack Strong is to respect him," Barnes said. "He has come far and fast, but with dignity. He brought to the Senate a spirit of unity as never before, and we are not here to say goodbye but to express the respect, admration and love. ...."

Strong was presented a big silver tray, a traditional gift of each president pro tempore of the Senate who has served as governor for a day.

Robert Strauss of Dallas, national Democratic committeeman from Texas, and several state senators were others paying tribute to Strong.

It was recalled that Strong has served as chairman of the Senate's Claims Committee and the Committee on Privileges and Elections, in addition to membership on numerous other committees.

Beckworth's announcement made him the first to seek the 2nd Senatorial District seat being left by Strong.

After 20 years in Congress as representative of Dist. 3 in East Texas, Beckworth was forced by redistricting to run in 1966 against Rep. Ray Robert of McKinney in the new Dist. 4. Roberts won the nomination and subsequent general election.

Presidet Johnson appointed Beckworth in January of 1967 to be a U. S. customs judge in New York. He resigned that post September of 1968 and returned to engage in law practice at Longview.

Texas Senators Split Votes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two Texas senators split Wednesday on the 58 to 37 roll call vote by which the Senate approved the amendment of Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., to raise the personal income tax exemption from $600 to $800.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, a Democrat, voted for the measure and Sen. John Tower, a Republican, voted against it. The Nixon administration had opposed the measure.

Seaman Perches On Flagpole

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A Greek seaman climbed up a flagpole high above his ship Wednesday and vowed to remain perched there following a dispute with his captain.

Jon Tsaousis, 26, of Komotini, Greece, scaled the pole apparently to escape efforts to deport him to Grece.

"He broke the rules," said Capt. Aristides Livanios. "I fired him."

Livanios refused to specify what rules Tsaousis had broken. However, reports from the crew members, who could speak little or no English, indicated working conditions led to the dispute.

One of the seamen said the National Maritime Union of America, AFL-CIO, in New York would be contacted concerning the situation.

As night fell crew members passed up a raincoat and two blankets to the shivering Tsaousis.

The ship, the Aristides Xilas arrived here Wednesday morning from Marseilles, France. It is expected to be in port three or four days.

Road Ice Warning Device Displayed

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — A highway ice warning device that reflects a red light when temperatures drop to freezing was displayed by a West German research firm.

The Batelle Institute which developed the device, said it is mounted on roadside guard rails and in headlight reflections shows red when temperatures drop to freezing, yellow when temperatures are slightly warmer and green when there is no chance of ice.

The stage is set for two important schoolboy football playoff contests in Tiger Stadium. Bronte's Longhorns tangle with Sundown's Roughnecks at 7:30 p.m. Friday for the regional Class B crown, and Sonora's Broncos collide with Clarendon's Bronchos for the Class A quarterfinals title at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Bronte - Sundown tussle matches teams with good balance. Coach Cecil Toliver's Longhorns have a 10-1 record and have scored 368 points while limiting the opposition to 75. Coach Bill Dendy's Roughnecks are 9-2 for the season and have scored 390 points while limiting the opposition to 112.

Bronte has one of the most explosive runners in West Texas in Nicky Arrott, 160-pound senior left halfback. He's carried the ball 139 times this year and gained 985 yards. He's caught 10 passes for 183 yards and has scored 137 points, five of them after receiving passes. Arrott doubles as a linebacker on defense.

Wingback Randy Barbee also has versatility. He is the team punter and has averaged 37 yards per punt. He's carried the ball 46 times for 268 yards, and he has received 20 passes for 250 yards. A 188-pound senior, Barbee has scored 82 points.

On the firing line is senior quarterback Keith McCutcheon, a 168-pounder, who has thrown 19 touchdown passes this year. He's completed 58 of 115 attempts for a respectable completion percentage of 50.4

Another one of his favorite targets, is end Willie Zuniga, who has made 20 receptions for 367 yards and eight touchdowns. Willie has scroed 65 points this year.

Bobby Skelton (142) or Jerry Graves (150) will start at fullback. Both are sophomores and they make a good 1-2 punch. Skelton has 32 carries this year for 161 yards. Graves gained 225 yards on 49 thrusts.

Despite these fabulous statistics; the fact remains that Sundown has scored more points than Bronte. Eddy Eberhart, a 155-pound senior right halfback, has gained the most yardage for the Roughnecks, and he has sufficient speed that he plays safety on defense.

Other Roughneck runners are James Hays, a 160-pound sophomore at halfback, and Jesse Perez, a 154-pound senior fullback. Robert Edwards, 150 - pound junior, quarterback, also is a passer of ability.

Statistics on the Roughneck offense were not available, but coaches who have seen them play say they have one of the fastest backfields in the area and a well-balanced attack.

The Roughnecks have a multiple offense. They prefer the slot T but can operate from the tandem I with equal effectiveness. Bronte will counter with a basically Winged-T attack.

The Longhorns have an edge in size, but the Sundown crew could be faster.

After an opening loss to powerful Eldorado (39-6) Bronte has knocked off 10 straight foes. Six of the triumphs were shutouts, including the 7-0 verdict over Ft. Hancock in bi - district last week. That game was played in the snow, and the Longhorns were weakened by a virus attack prior to the kickoff.

Sundown sustained a 20 - 0 opening loss to Sudan and was edged by Wilson, 13-12. Then, last week, the Roughnecks turned the tables by blasting Wilson 34-8 in bi-district. Most observers say they are a vastly improved team.

Each team sends in only one man on defense. Sundown uses a 4-3-4 alignment and sometimes switches into a 4-5-2 or a 6 man front. The Longhorns use a 5 man front with a 4-spoke.

"We've had good teamwork this year and that is the main reason for our success," said Sundown Coach Dendy.

Coach Toliver of Bronte said, "This team is as strong defensively as the one that won regional a couple of years ago."

James Vaughn, Roger Graves and Dana Sowell are outstanding linemen both ways for Bronte. Vaughn is a 190 - pound senior, and the other two are juniors in the 175 - pound class.

More information will be given on the class A opponents later, but both teams have good size and are experienced.

Bronte is favored in the Regional clash Friday night by about a 28-20 count.

Game Of Century Set

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —Choose your weapons for the "big shootout."

Texas' awesome ground attack, with a dash of passing, or Arkansas' more balanced offense, only slightly less impressive.

The top-ranked Longhorns and the second-ranked Razorbacks will match 9-0 records Saturday at Fayetteville in the game of the year and perhaps the game of the century. President Nixon is making a special trip to see it.

The Southwest Conference championship, a spot in the Cotton Bowl opposite Notre Dame and a possible national championship are at stake.

The Longhorns have three of the top 10 rushers in the SWC and only against inspired Oklahoma has the first team been forced to go all the way.

Sophomore Jim Bertelsen is third in the league with 711 yards on 94 carries and fullback Steve Worster is seventh with 555 yards on 111 attempts. Ted Koy, a 212-pounder with good speed, is 10th gaining 413 yards on 71 carries. Both Bertelsen and Worster were named to the all-conference team.

Quarterback James Street has addd 349 yards on 65 attempts for Texas.

"Whatever we decide to do," said Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles, "there is no answer. They've got nine backs who've averaged more than five yards a carry."

Street has thrown only 71 times, completing 34 for 575 yards. His primary receiver is Charles "Cotton" Speyrer, a speedster who has caught 26 for 427 yards.

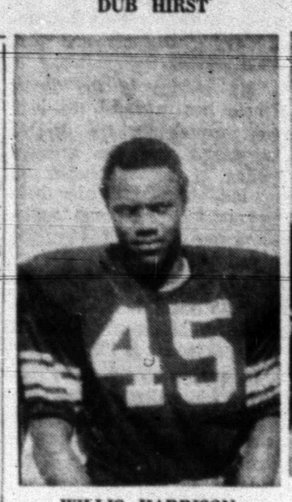

"They've got a basically sound passing attack, like any other team," said Arkansas secondary Coach Hootie Ingram "They just haven't had to use it."

The Longhorns' average total offense of 482 yards breaks down to 376 rushing and slightly more than 100 passing.

The Razorbacks have gained 415 yards a game, 224 on the ground and 191 in the air.

Razorback tailback Bill Burnett leads the conference in rushing and scoring. He has gained 818 yards on 190 attempts and has scored 19 touchdowns. Burnett, a junior who has scored 35 touchdowns in two years, is particularly adept at the goal line, slithering through a crack in the defense or hurdling defenders.

Fullback Bruce Maxwell, a devastating blocker who leads Burnett on the pro sweeps, helps keep a defense honest. Maxwell, a 212-pound senior, ranks sixth in the conference with 559 yards on 96 attempts.

Eleven Bengals Named To All-District Grid Team

As expected, Estacado dominated the District 3-AAA All-District football team, released today by the eleven coaches in the district, but Snyder's Tigers landed four boys on the first team and had six others named to the Honorable Mention list.

Willis Harrison, 157 - pound senior, and Randy Levens, 167-pound senior, both were unanimous selections to the first team All-District team. Harrison was named as a running back, and he also was named Honorable Mention as a defensive safety. Levens was a unanimous choice as a first team defensive safety.

Joe Hale, 205-pound junior, was named to the first team on defense at a guard position, and Rocky Land, 170 - pound senior, was placed on the first team as an offensive center.

Winning honorable mention or offense were Barry Welsh, 205-pound junior tackle; Dubby Hirst, 173-pound senior guard; Lee McNair, 181-pound senior quarterback; Eddie McClain, 180-pound senior running back; and, Steve Pierce 191-pound senior running back.

Placed on the honorable mention defensive unit were Ricky Glasscock, 198 - pound senior linebacker; and, Merce Hernandez, 175 - pound senior cornerback.

"I'm pleased that we had so many boys on the All-District team," said Tiger Coach Wayne Tyrone. "You know they selected the team from all 11 teams in the district." He said he felt there were other Bengals he would have named to the team, but coaches were not allowed to select their own players.

AT IRVING TOURNAMENT

Strong Richardson Is 1st Tiger Foe

Snyder's Tigers proved they're giant killers by clipping Ector 80-69 Tuesday night in Odessa. But, the next question is: Can they knock off a mammoth?

That will be the assignment when Coach Ned Underwood's crew takes on Richardson at 5:30 p.m. Friday in the first round of the annual Irving Invitational Basketball Tournament. Richardson has won eight straight games and is favored to win the tourney crown.

Other first round pairings find Irving MacArthur matched against North Dallas in a 7 p.m. affair while the lower bracket lineup pits Abilene Cooper against Paris at 4 p.m. and Irving High against Denison at 8:30 p.m.

Winners of the first round games in the upper bracket collide at 1 p.m. Saturday while the lower bracket winners meet at 2:30 p.m. Saturday. Loser's bracket contests are on tap for 9 a.m. Saturday and 10:30 a.m. Saturday. The battle for third place is set for 7 p.m. Saturday with the championship tilt slated for 8:30 p.m. The battle for 7th place is set for 4 p.m. Saturday with the Consolation finals set for 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Snyder team is the only team in the tournament in the Class AAA ranks. All of the other entries are of Class AAAA status. Cooper rates as a dark horse, but North Dallas will be hard to eliminate since it has a boy who has averaged 40 points per game.

"We plan on going with the same boys that beat Ector," said Coach Underwood yesterday as he sent his squad through a lengthy workout.

That means Wesley Bishop and Danny Farmer will be trying to get open inside while Bruce Almond, Glenn Rambin and Ronald Ward will be operating on the outside. Bishop and Ward are both 6-1½ seniors. Rambin, Almond and Farmer all are juniors and stand in the 6-0 to 6-2½ range.

Jeff Stewart, a 6-4 junior who is the tallest boy on the squad, didn't make the trip to Odessa due to illness, but he could be ready for action either Friday or Saturday.

As surprising as the victory itself over Ector was the manner in which it was accomplished. Underwood was able to empty his bench against the strong Odessa team. Also ready to answer his call during the tournament are Dennis Breedlove, Bid Cooper, and Ronal Gladson, Lee McNair, Jim Patrick. Gladson, McNair and Patrick are seniors; the others are juniors. Cooper is the shortest at 5-11½ while Patrick is the tallest at 6-2½.

SPORTS

JV Kittens To Host Tournament

There's plenty of basketball activity scheduled in Snyder this week and the action begins tonight with the attractive Lamar-Travis collision.

Travis 8th meets Lamar 8th at 5:30 p.m., followed by a 7 p.m. contest between Lamar 9th and Travis 9th. Both games will be held in Tiger gym.

Also today, the 7th grade teams inaugurate their program with Travis Blue meeting Lamar Red and Travis White tangling with Lamar Gray. The program was to begin at 4 p.m. in the Travis gym.

The junior varsity Kittens are hosts for a tournament in Tiger gym this weekend. Coach Bill Bundy's boys meet Big Spring in the first round at 8 o'clock Friday night.

Other first round pairings pit Abilene Cooper against Lubbock High at 3:30 p.m. Friday, Plainview against Seminole at 5 p.m. Friday, and Midland Lee against Lubbock Monterey at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

Winner's bracket games in the second round are on tap for 11 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Saturday with the battle for third place set for 6:30 p.m. and the championship clash scheduled for 8 p.m. Saturday. On the loser's side, contests will be held at 8 a.m. Saturday and 9:30 a.m. Saturday with the Consolation championship tilt to begin at 5 p.m.

Coach Bundy's team went through an arduous workout yesterday in preparation for the tournament, and he still was undecided about a starting lineup. If it is the same as appeared in the last contest, it will include Dubby Preston and Kent Horsley at double post, Jackie Murray, Ronnie Morse and David Thompson on the outside.

Coach Ned Underwood's varsity Tigers will be at a tournament in Irving this weekend. They play their first home game next Tuesday night with Andrews providing the opposition.

US Distributors Ask Court Ruling On Obscene Films

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Distributors of "I Am Curious (Yellow)" have sent a copy of the Swedish sex film to the Supreme Court along with a plea that would make legal history.

Grove Press, Inc., asked the justices Wednesday to conduct their own private showing of the erotic hit and conclude it is not obscene.

Beyond that, though, the American distributors asked the justices to rule that no official may prevent adults from seeing any movie in an American theater—whether it is obscene or not.

This plea seeks to expand a major free speech ruling by the court last April that possession of obscene films or printed matter in the privacy of a man's home cannot be considered a crime.

"There is no rational distinction," attorneys for Grove Press said, "between the right of a person to satisfy his intellectual and emotional needs in the privacy of his own home and his right to satisfy those needs in the privacy of a movie theater.

Besides, they added, "only adults who voluntarily elect to see the film will view it, and they are free to leave the theatre at any time if it does not meet their expectations."

The Supreme Court, in 1961, ruled the Constitution permits officials to censor films before they are shown publicly. Since then, however, the court has upset various film bans and warned that distributors must have a chance to test the censors' rulings quickly.

Customs officials seized "I Am Curious (Yellow)" when it was first imported from Sweden at the end of 1967. The U.S. Court of Appeals in New York City ordered it released for distribution in November 1968.

Since then more than 2½ million Americans have seen the movie in 25 states and the District of Columbia. But the film has been banned in several other states and is the subject of lawsuits in 13 states.

The current case comes to the high court from Maryland where the Court of Appeals decided in October "the dominant theme of the film, taken as a whole, appeals to a prurient interest in sex and is patently offensive."

Weyerhauser To Build New Mill

BROKEN BOW, Okla. (AP)—Weyerhauser Corp. announced Wednesday night it will build a $100 million paper mill, the world's largest, in McCurtain County of southeastern Oklahoma.

Gov. Dewey Bartlett, on hand at the banquet where Weyerhauser board chairman W. G. Weyerhauser announced the plant, called it "the greatest economic shot in the arm that Oklahoma has ever seen."

The board chairman said the plant will be built in three sections, the largest at Valliant and others at Craig and Wright City.

First work should begin within 90 days, Weyerhauser told the Chamber of Commerce banquet audience.

He said construction would be started by mid-1970.

The Weyerhauser executive said the Valliant plant will produce container boxes, and the Wright City plant will produce plywood and process logs. The Wright City installation also will include a sawmill and a woodchipping facility.

The plant at Crait will manufacture particle board.

CLAIMS HYPNOSIS — Susan Denise Atkins, 21, is shown at a news conference in Santa Monica, Calif., where her attorney said she was at the scene of the slayings of Sharon Tate and four others and of Leno and Rosemary LaBianca, but that she was under a "hypnotic spell" and had nothing to do with the murders." He said she was "hypnotized," and "intrigued" into joining a cult led by Charles Manson, now in jail at Independence, Calif. (AP Wirephoto)

Railroad Tax Here Totals $19,628

Current annual taxes paid to the various government agencies by Texas railroads in Scurry County totaled $19,628, it has been announced by the Texas Railroad Association.

That amount was the county's share of the nearly $11,000,000 the railroads paid in Texas on their right of way and other property.

The biggest railroad contribution was to the school systems throughout the state. Large sums were also distributed to city, village and county governments and for road and bridge funds.

In addition, of course, was the large total in taxes the more than 30,000 railroad employees in Texas contributed on their own property. The vast majority of rail workers, many of whom live in Scurry County, own their own homes.

"We are very pleased that nearly half of the taxes paid by the railroads in Texas go to support the schools," said Walter Caven, general counsel of the Texas Railroad Association. "The future of our country depends to a great extent upon the education of our youth," he said.

"Recognizing this need for education, many of the railroads operating in Texas also continue to make scholarships available to a large number of students every year."

Assemblymen Get Letters Of Apology

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz sent this letter to each of the state's 150 assemblymen:

"It has come to my attention that the consumer action bulletin from my office was sent to you in an envelope in which you were not addressed with your full title, but in an abbreviated form.

"It was careless of my office to have addressed you in this fashion and I'm sorry it happened."

The bulletin's address used the first three letters of the assemblymen's title.

"The challenge to survive makes getting to the moon look like pitching pennies. And if the challenge is not accepted, then we die and the earth dies with us."—Stephanie Mills, in the first sermon ever preached by a woman at Grace Episcopal Cathedral in San Francisco.

Sex Myths Discussed At Convention

By C.G. MCDANIEL
AP Science Writer

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — It is a myth that the average physician is well trained to deal with his patients' sexual problems, a Texas psychologist says.

Dr. James Leslie McCarty, professor of psychology at the University of Houston, spoke Wednesday about sex myths and fallacies to doctors attending the American Medical Association's clinical convention.

"It is a sad and unfortunate truth that except for adequate knowledge of reproductive processes, physicians as a group are grievously ignorant and actually rather prudish in matters of sexuality," he said.

Another fallacy, he said, is thet sex desire and ability decrease markedly after age 40 to 50.

Sexual intercourse among the married elderly "occurs considerably more frequently than is commonly realized," he said.

He said a statistical study showed: "Seven out of 10 healthy married couples who are 60 years of age or older are sexually active, and the consistent clinical observation is that of both men and women, the ones with the strongest sex drive during youth retain the greatest sex drive and virility in old age."

Another myth, Dr. McCary said, is that persons who commit sex crimes are highly dangerous, oversexed and usually get involved in progressively more serious crimes.

The sex offender "is rarely involved in nonsexual crimes," he said, adding that "only a small percentage use force or duress on their victims."

"Homicide seldom occurs in conjunction with sexual offenses," he said. "When homicide does occur in sex crimes, the offender is usually insane as well as sexually deviated."

The typical sex offender is undersexed rather than oversexed, Dr. McCary said, and is likely to be afraid of normal sexual contact.

California Newcomers Grumbling

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — This is the season of grumbling for a growing American minority group—the new Californians.

Each year they migrate, hopeful runaways from sleet and snow. Then the holidays come, and cheeriness dissolves into homesick gloom.

On palm-lined Sunset Boulevard, fronds sway over plastic Christmas trees for sale. And to immigrants from Dayton or Des Moines, white winters of Currier and Ives paintings seem a world away.

As a veteran of three California Christmases, I was prepared when the first groan came from a recently arrived friend: "It just doesn't seem like the holidays."

The blues began with Thanksgiving, he explained. The day featured 80-degree sunshine, so his mother-in-law dished up dinner on the patio. Turkey under the lemon trees and hibiscus seemed strange.

"How could I tell the kids about pilgrims struggling through a cold winter at Plymouth Rock?" he asked.

"Well," I remarked, "why don't you tell them to remember last winter when you were shovelling snow in Wisconsin and everyone had Hong Kong flu?"

He wasn't cheered.

Now another friend—here all of six months—notes fearfully that she's losing the compulsive consumer's most prized possession—her shopping mania.

"I go into department stores and I get panicky. What can I buy my mother for Christmas—a bikini?"

True, traditional gifts are out. No sleds for the kids. No mufflers, mittens or even thermal underwear. And a fur coat is a silly extravagance. Some fashion-conscious ladies have asked Santa for long, heavy maxi-coats, but if they get them, the ladies will roast like the Christmas goose.

Then there's the shopping atmosphere. "What's the pleasure of shopping," my friend wailed, "if you don't wind up with a sore throat?"

"Listen," I tell them, "in a year you'll get used to it; you'll even like it."

Meanwhile, nostalgia hangs heavy as smog.

Life Insurance And Mutual Funds Industries Merge

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Two industries with combined assets of nearly $250 billion—life insurance and mutual funds—swiftly are resolving the differences that made them enemies just a few years ago and are entering marriages of convenience.

The repercussions from this enormous merging of financial power haven't been fully felt yet, but they soon will be. Better financial protection for consumers might be one impact. And antitrust activity could well ensue if the mergers threaten to create too great a concentration of power.

By the end of the third quarter of this year, 153 mutual funds and 79 insurance companies, most of them life insurers, had in one way or another and to various degrees merged their operations.

By the end of September, a study by Wiesenberger Financial Services shows, some $8 billion or 16 per cent of the total net assets of the mutual fund industry were in the insurance fold, and that the trend was continuing.

Most of the initiative has come from the insurers, who have either purchased existing mutual fund management companies or have organized their own mutual funds from scratch.

Some of these arrangements dwarf the size of some widely publicized mergers among manufacturing concerns—mergers that in some instances have attracted comment, criticism and action from antitrust officials.

For example, Anchor Funds, with assets of nearly $2 billion, has been acquired by Washington National Insurance Co. Tsai Management Funds, with assets of $343 million, now operates with Continental Assurance Co.

The strength of the movement hardly could have been foreseen just five years ago. At that time the life insurers considered arrangements with the funds to be dangerous to the very foundation of life insurance.

Mutual funds offer purchasers a return on their investment that may float or sink with the state of the economy. During prolonged inflation, the funds very likely can ride crest: in a collapse, the funds would be forced to reduce their return.

Insurance men had for decades promoted the idea of fixed returns, regardless of the state of the economy. An insured person was guaranteed a stated return on death or at maturation of the policy.

This meant that the insured could get no more, but no less, than was agreed upon at the time the policy was bought.

But, as an inflationary psychology developed in the United States during the past two or three years, the thinking of insurance companies changed. Customers complained that because of inflation their fixed dollars were really shrunken dollars.

What had been a mere dalliance between a few insurers and funds soon became a torrid industry-wide romance. In 1968, Wiesenberger states, 13 mutual funds were sponsored by insurers, and in 1969 the total rose to 21.

In being able to offer mutual funds in a package with insurance, the insurers hope to effectively counter the complaints of their customers.

In recent years, the world has become somewhat easier for the sizeable minority of left-handed people. Manufacturers now turn out left-handed golf clubs, egg beaters, fishing reels, desks, and other articles. Some banks furnish left-handed checkbooks, the stubs to the right of the checks.

Car Shifts Gears Automatically

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. (AP) — Alexander Tonis parked the car in his driveway recently and left the engine running while he went inside for a moment.

The car, with an automatic transmission, shifted itself into reversed, backed across the street and shoved neighbor William Ebeling's car into his dining room.

Then, the vacant car shifted into a forward gear, crossed the street again and crashed into its owner's garage door.

No one was injured, but damage was extensive.

No one knows how long the El Molo have lived near Lake Rudolf in Kenya. European explorers discovered the tiny settlement only 80 years ago, when Count Samuel Telecki and Ludwig von Hohnel first sighted the lake.

Junior Editors Quiz on SAND DOLLAR

QUESTION: What causes the pretty design on the top of a sand dollar?

* * *

ANSWER: The sand dollar is an odd, attractive little creature that has worked out a particular way of life for itself which seems reasonable and safe, even if it lacks excitement. The ivory colored "dollar" with its five-rayed pattern, which one finds dried out on the beaches, is only the dead skeleton of the animal. Small but movable spines once covered the shell, which looked much darker when alive. Actually sand dollars did not live up on the dry beach where their round skeletons are found. They lived out in deep water often nearly buried in sand. Here tiny food animals were constantly washing around, and the little spines of the sand collar trapped them and worked them towards its mouth. That the little dollars are relative of the starfish is clear if one studies the five-pointed designs of the skeleton, suggesting the starfish's arms. The starfish has bony plates inside his arms, and perhaps some group of starfish got tired of the hard of pulling oyster shells apart and let their plates grow together. So we had the sand dollar. At least, that's our theory.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: When young people date one of a different race (and I mean "color") they tend to develop stronger relationships because they are defensive about the raised eyebrows and stares that follow them in public.

A child will say to his parents, "If I marry one of another race, it's MY life and MY business!"

This is not quite true, because the parents will have to bear the stares and raised eyebrows with him.

And if their "great love" miraculously survives the rejection they are sure to meet on both sides, their children will have to pay the price of never fully belonging to one race or the other.

Don't we have the right to speak for our unborn grandchildren who cannot as yet speak for themselves?

I am sure that if the truth were told, most Oriental and Negro parents are as much opposed to these mixed marriages as we caucasian parents. And where do the "white" kids get the supreme arrogance to think that other races have less pride and are better off diluted by Caucasian blood?

What is wrong with evaluating an individual for his own worth, but not accepting interracial marriages as the answer?

ACCUSED OF PREJUDICE

DEAR ACCUSED: Witness the unconventional appearance adopted by so many of our young people today, and it is obvious that they aren't as disturbed by raised eyebrows and stares as their parents.

I, too, believe that most Oriental and Negro parents would prefer that their children marry within their own races. I also think that many of our fine, liberal young whites go in for interracial marriage in a conscious effort to give more than lip service to the lofty ideals of "equality and brotherhood." But many are motivated by the unconscious desire to have that which has been forbidden by their parents. And parents who discourage such marriages are unfairly labeled "bigots."

DEAR ABBY: My husband is in the service and recently went overseas. Before he left he always took me to shop at the Community P. X. which was a big saving.

Now that he is gone, a friend of mine is all the time offering to drive me to the P. X. so I can do my shopping there. This is a big help as I have two small children and no car. Now I know why she is so anxious to drive me. She gives me her "list" and asks me to buy at the P. X. for her, too. I really didn't want to, but I didn't know how to refuse her without getting her mad at me, so I did her shopping for her a few times and she paid me back. Finally, I started feeling guilty and told her that I couldn't shop for her at the P. X. anymore. I said if I got caught they could take my card away, and even fine me. She laughed and said, "Oh, don't be silly! They could never catch you!"

Abby, what can I do? Buying at the P. X. is a privilege my husband has earned. (Hers has not.) But how can I do my shopping there and still get out of doing hers?

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: Tell her that you will not shop for her at the P. X. anymore because it's dishonest! Find other transportation there, and if you lose the friendship of this chiseling friend, you haven't lost much.

DEAR ABBY: We have a Tuesday afternoon bridge club, and the same women have been playing together for a number of years. I win my share, but this last year I found that I had been winning less and less. I just happened to check over the scores and I discovered that one of the girls has been padding her score, like putting a "one in front of a "200" when she added the scores for the day's game.

I am just sick to think that she would do such a thing. What is the best way to solve this problem without embarrassing her?

NO NAME OR TOWN PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Tell her privately. Of course she'll be "embarrassed," but the embarrassment will be minimized, which is more consideration than she deserves.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Tax Reform Will Help Big Families

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wage earners with large families and low income would be the big gainers from a Senate-adopted plan by Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., to raise the personal income tax exemption from $600 to $800 in two years.

For a four-person family with $5,000 income, the new tax would be $112 in 1972 as compared with $290 under present law and $200 as proposed by the bill drafted by Senate Finance Committee.

For the same family with $10,000 income, the Gore plan would mean a $962 tax, well under the current $1,114 but slightly more than the $958 proposed by the committee bill.

For a single person with $5,000 income who now pays $671, the amendment would cut the tax bill to $538 against $524 in the committee plan.

For a single person with $10,000 income who now pays $1,742, the Gore plan would mean a $1,640 tax; the committee bill would have meant $1,468.
