Colorado City, Loraine & Westbrook

County to get new jail

Bond election passes

Mitchell County voters have approved a $8.2 million bond for the construction of a new jail facility.

Voters approved the jail only bond with 407 votes for and 156 votes against.

A separate vote defeated the addition of a district courtroom and offices with voters casting 319 votes against and 228 votes for.

The new facility will house the jail, sheriff's office, DPS, drivers' license and game warden offices.

Plans for the 36,000 square foot facility will provide 48 prisoner beds and adequate booking area for processing prisoners in and out of the facility. The infrastructure will also allow for future growth, enabling the facility to serve Mitchell County for several decades.

Mitchell County Sheriff Patrick Toombs expects the construction of the new jail could begin as early as January 2012 and be completed by summer 2013.

Out of 4,453 registered voters a total of 576 ballots were cast; 245 in early voting and 330 on election day.

"That's a 12.94% turnout," Debby Carlock, county clerk said, adding an 8% turnout on constitutional amendments was average for the county.

Voting on the state propositions was divided with the county for half the propositions: P1 439 for, 96 against; P2 243 for, 273 against; P3 280 for, 250 against; P4 190 for, 324 against; P5 305 for, 205 against; P6 232 for, 294 against; P7 186 for, 310 against; P8 196 for, 306 against; P9 281 for, 235 against; P10 265 for, 234 against.

LOCAL COTTON GINS sit eerily silent (left) as the drought means a greatly reduced cotton harvest for 2011. The first bales (right) were ginned last week at Mitchell County Gin, with 500 bales of an estimated 1500 for the season. The three local gins hope to gin 4000 bales total.

Ginning season looks dismal

By Carol Parsons

Ginning season, like this year's cotton crop, looks pretty dismal according to local gin managers.

Estimates of under 4000 bales for the season fall far woefully short of last year's cotton crop.

Of the three gins, one started last week with a total of 500 bales for the week, one started this week and the third doesn't plan to begin ginning season until December 1.

Mitchell County Gin processed 500 bales, then had to wait on producers, according to Mike Gage, manager. "This is the worst year we've ever had."

Normally the gin operates 24 hours a day and employs 20 people. Today, the gin is running with seven. "I didn't hire anybody this season," Gage said. "Tons of people are looking for work and we can't hire 'em."

The gin expects a grand total of 1,500 to 2,000 bales for the year.

Dave Carreon with Loraine Co-Op Gin has been ginning for 16 years and says his gin "is looking at about 800 bales."

Over the past five years, the gin has averaged

Local teams in playoffs, local field gets playoffs

Wolves enter playoffs

The Wolves of Colorado City open up their playoff campaign this Saturday, when they travel to Wolfthorpe to face the Childress Bobcats. The Wolves come into the game as the second place Region I representatives from District 2-2A, finishing behind undefeated Wall. Meanwhile, Childress barely squeaked into the playoffs with a 5-5 record (4-3 in district), barely outlasting three different teams with 3-4 records.

The Bobcats will come into See WOLVES page 5A

Bulldogs face Indians

The Loraine Bulldogs roll into the playoffs Friday night for the second year in a row. The 'Dogs will play the 8-2 Paint Rock Indians in Blackwell.

The Indians went 3-0 in district play to claim the district title, while Loraine suffered a 46-20 loss to Sterling City in a game last week between two teams undefeated in district play.

The game Friday night is a rematch from last season's Bi-District round of the playoffs, a game which ended with a 70-63 Loraine victory.

Playoff games here

The new turf at Wolf Stadium has sparked lots of interest in playoff action.

This Friday night at Wolf Stadium, Ralls (4-6) will play Munday (8-2) in a Class A, Division II, Region II matchup.

Next week, Eastland will play the winner of the Alpine-Littlefield game here. The date has not been set, probably a Thursday or Friday game.

Also, Bronte will play Hamlin next week if the Pied Pipers defeat Electra.

Court changes dates for election filing

The primary filing period for candidates in the 2012 election has been changed.

Last week a panel of three federal judges changed key rules for elections, including delaying and shortening the filing period for the 2012 congressional and legislative elections.

The primary filing period will begin November 28 and end December 15 and was adjusted to allow the Department of Justice to complete rulings on new district boundary lines.

Originally the filing period would have run from November 12 to December 12.

The changes were made in Senate Bill 100, Chapter 1318, 82nd Legislature, 2011 which also changed the runoff primary election date to May 22.

"We knew some changes were coming," Geory Martin, Mitchell County Clerk said.

Hunters' dinner draws large crowd

This year's annual Hunters' Appreciation Dinner in Mitchell County drew close to 500 hunters from all over, even as far away as Pennsylvania.

It is a life-long passion for most, often starting in childhood with fond memories of father-son bonding time.

"I was raised on a farm," said Don Narrell, who has been hunting for 60 years. "All I ever done was hunt."

His favorite animal to hunt is elk because of "the country you hunt in. It's different from here," he said.

His long time hunting buddy Stan Hackfeld loved the white tail deer. "My dad would take us when we were young," Hackfeld said, who has been hunting 50 years and whose favorite place to hunt is behind Narrell's house. "Right across the road," he said. For Belinda Rich, hunting is also a family affair - one that involves the ladies of the family.

"I go hunting with my two daughters Crystal Mauldin and Kayla Beavers," she said.

She has gone hunting with her husband Gary for 33 years and always took the daughters with them.

"Taking girls is no different than a guy," Gary said.

Only recently has Belinda gone hunting on her own.

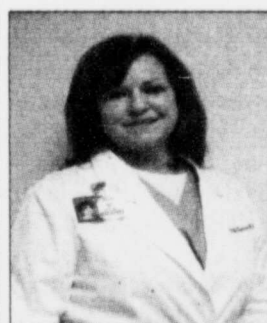

"I like to sit in the deer blind where it's peaceful and quiet and watch the wildlife," she said. "The first time I shot a white tail deer, I shot it in the lung and it ran off."

Rich says her favorite deer recipe is chicken fry deer and deer chili.

This year, two and a half year old granddaughter Stormy is going with Grandma and Grandpa

Hospital welcomes new mid-level practitioner

Anna Burton

Mitchell County Hospital District welcomes mid-level provider Anna Burton to the district's expanding family of services.

Burton, a registered nurse and family nurse practitioner, is a Sweetwater native and has been working at the Rolling Plains Hospital.

Because most of her career has been in the surgical ward, "most of my patients have been asleep," Burton said. "So I'm ready to start talking to them more."

Burton will expand the hospital's current women and children's services, working with women and children from birth to geriatrics and "providing another option and health component for women out of this area," Burton said.

"I really like keeping up with health screening, a preventative type medicine to help catch abnormalities early," she said. "My interest is to create long term relationships, to be a trust worthy practitioner people can confide in for anything they need."

Burton began her medical career with a desire to go into pharmacy. With only two schools in Texas, she applied for a pharmacy school in Oklahoma, which didn't work out. She went on to obtain her BSM and a nursing degree.

CMS hosts veterans program

The Colorado Middle School will honor local veterans at a Veterans' Day program on November 11 at the middle school cafeteria.

The program will begin at 10 a.m. and will recognize several local veterans, including Vietnam veterans Jesse Gonzales and Oscar Garza and WWII veteran Frank Cash.

Sharon Davis, of the WASP Museum, Sweetwater, will be the featured speaker at the program.

All area veterans, as well as the public, are invited to attend the event.

Cornelia Clark Fort will also be honored. Fort was a pre-WASP (Women Airforce Service Pilots) female pilot who was killed in action during the days before Congress acknowledged the WASP's contributions to the war effort.

LUCKY TO BE ALIVE — Dallas driver, Bharat Channabasavaiah escaped with only a nosebleed after sideswiping an 18-wheeler on I-20 last Friday.

Driver survives wreck after sideswiping truck

A car which sideswiped a tractor trailer on I-20 last Friday left the driver with a bloody nose, but demolished the side of the car.

DPS Trooper Frank Casares said the tractor trailer suffer minimal damage.

The driver of the car, Bharat Channabasavaiah from Dallas, was fatigued and drove off the main lane of eastbound I-20 traffic, according to Casares. Channabasavaiah over-corrected and crossed into the westbound lane where he sideswiped the tractor trailer.

The accident occurred at the 207 mile marker at 11:20 a.m. November 4.

Channabasavaiah was issued two citations; one for failure to drive in a single lane and a second for driving with an expired license.

Kiwanians accepting toy drive applications

The Kiwanians will accept applications for families who wish to be recipients of the Toys4MCKids now through noon on November 30.

Qualified applicants may sign up for the Toys4MCKids toy drive at the Community Mission on 3rd and Chestnut.

The November 30 deadline will give the Kiwanians time to shop locally without overly depleting the local merchant's stock, according to Jan Lemons.

"We're doing the best job possible, while keeping your donated dollars with the community," Lemons said. "By moving up the enrollment deadline, it will allow us to budget better, contribute to the local economy and give Mitchell County kids a merrier Christmas."

Louella Hall 1923-2011

COLORADO CITY -- Louella Byrne Hall lost her long fight with cancer November 4, 2011; she is at peace with her Lord and Savior. Louella was 88 years, 25 days young. She was born October 10, 1923, in Mertzon to Lottie Stedham Davenport where she lived till moving to Mitchell County. She joined the First Christian Church at the age of 12 and was an active member. She was an active member in the Colorado City church and raised her family there as well, but she attended the First Methodist Church of Colorado City, then the Westbrook church with her daughter.

She was a single mother with three young children, Robert Haley, Ronald Haley, and Sharon O'Neal. She worked as a telephone operator in Mertzon. She was introduced to Bruce Byrne Jr. by a girlfriend on the next ranch over. They married in August of 1951 and moved to the ranch south of Colorado City and became a family.

In 1954 along came a surprise, one more son, Byron B. Byrne III, and then in 1960 along came another surprise, one more daughter, Datha C. Byrne.

She was active in several groups in Mitchell and Scurry counties. She was classroom mother for all the kids' classes, went on senior trips as sponsor, 4-H trips, camp and was stock show mother. She joined the Looney Club Home Demonstration in 1951.

She served in offices at both the county and district level for some 60 years. She also joined the Eastern Star, some 28 years ago, and was an active member in Scurry and Mitchell counties until they closed both chapters. She served on the board of directors at Lone Wolf Electric from 1974-1979.

"Maga" was what the grandkids and great-grand kids, as well as a fair amount of people that were connected to her through the family and friends, called her. She always had cookies made with "Maga dust". If it could have been bottled, she would have made a small mint. (We know that it was the love she added, but the kids say otherwise.)

She always had hot sauce, banana muffins, and some chocolate chip cookies made when you went to her house. At holidays, the Maga apple and pecan pies were always made. If you wanted some other kind, it was your turn to make it. We all think our mother's cooking is the best, but we all know that if you had the privilege to eat her cooking, you know that she was wonderful.

After the passing of Byron Bruce Byrne Jr. in October 1977, she worked as a checker at E-Z Way Grocery until she met N.F. "Punk" Hall and later married him in November 1984. She moved to Hermleigh where she lived until the passing of Punk Hall in March 1994. She returned to the ranch, south of Colorado City.

She is survived by one brother, Buster Davenport of Midland; one sister, Lucille Covey of Mertzon; five sons, John D Hall of Hermleigh, Robert Haley of Austin, Ronny and Laura Hall of Hermleigh, Ron and Betty Haley of Garden Dale, Byron and Phyllis Byrne of Colorado City; three daughters, Donna Hall Beavers of Lubbock, Nikki Westcott Haley Wilson of Las Lomas Ranch in the Hill Country, Datha Byrne and Curtis Johnson of Colorado City; 28 grandchildren; 35 great-grandchildren; two nieces, and one nephew.

The family wishes to celebrate her life. Graveside services were held Sunday, November 6, 2011, at 2 p.m. at the Colorado City Cemetery. Please, in lieu of flowers, make gifts to favorite charity in her name or Hendrick's Hospice or the Hendrick's League House.

Julian Reyes 1933-2011

COLORADO CITY -- Julian Lopez Reyes, 78, passed away, Saturday, November 5, 2011 at Mitchell County Hospital. Funeral services will be 10 a.m. on Thursday, November 10, 2011 at St. Ann's Catholic Church. Father Michael Udegbuma will officiate. Rosary was held at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 9, 2011 at Kiker-Seale Funeral Home.

Julian was born on July 20, 1933 in Sonora to parents Guillermo and Sophia Reyes. He married Gregoria Reyes on August 21, 1955 in Colorado City. Julian worked most of his life with heating and cooling systems repair. He was a member of the Saint Ann's Catholic Church, where he was a Guadalupeano.

Survivors are his sons and daughters, Julian Reyes Jr. of Amarillo, Diana Acuña of Sweetwater, Judith Rivera of Colorado City, Danny Reyes of Overton, Arthur Reyes Sr. of Odessa, Lupe and Alice Gamez of San Angelo, Charles Reyes of Colorado City, Miguel and Carmen Rivera of El Paso, Manuel Reyes of Colorado City, Anthony and Maria Macias of Irvine, California, Christopher Reyes of Colorado City; 22 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; brothers and sisters, Enrique and Ophelia Garcia of Bridgeport, Santos Reyes Sr. of Colorado City; numerous nieces and nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by the late Sylvia, Cynthia and Tracy Reyes; brothers, Guillermo Reyes, Ismael Reyes, Macedonio Reyes; and sister, Olga Reyes.

Thanksgiving service slated

The Colorado City Ministerial Alliance will host a Community Thanksgiving service this Sunday, November 13. Services will be held at the First Baptist Church and begin at 6 p.m.

Reverend Dennis Bosley, priest of the All Saints Episcopal Church, will present the Thanksgiving message.

A benevolence offering to meet local needs will be taken at the service. This is one of two annual fundraisers the Ministerial Alliance does throughout the year.

"It goes to help the needs of folks in town," Paul Smith, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church said.

Light refreshments will be served following the service and everyone is asked to bring a dessert or finger foods.

Pallbearers will be Julian Reyes III, Jacob Reyes, Benjamin Gomez, Jose Acuña, Christopher Reyes Jr., Jesse Gamez, Miguel Rivera III, and Santos Reyes Jr. All services are under the care and direction of Kiker-Seale Funeral Home.

Kenneth Hamilton 1957-2011

NORMANGEE -- Funeral services for Kenneth Hamilton were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, November 1, 2011 at First Baptist Church in Normangee. Burial followed in the Wealthy Cemetery in Normangee. Arrangements were under the direction of Cozart Funeral Home in Normangee.

Kenneth Hamilton was born August 7, 1957, in Monahans to Ottis Hamilton and Elizabeth Mosier, and died Friday, October 28, 2011.

He was well-loved by all his friends and family, the type of person who found good in everyone and never met a stranger. Kenneth was a classic car man, who loved to ride his motorcycle and spend time fishing with his grandchildren. He had a big heart and took great joy in spending time with his children and grandchildren who were the light of his life. Kenneth cared deeply about the community and would donate his time and equipment to help out anyone.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ottis Hamilton and Elizabeth Mosier and a grandson, Payton Kidd.

Survivors include his son, Jeremy Kidd; his daughter, Serina Otts; six stepchildren, Jack Eastland, Judge Eastland, Ricky Cook, LaJuana Kelly, LaDonna Hebbe and Michelle Crouch; three sisters, Debbie Garrett, Kathy Hamilton and Sharon Hamilton; 25 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.

Leonard G. Porter 1936-2011

COLORADO CITY -- Leonard G. "Leo" Porter, 75, formerly of Big Spring, died on Saturday, October 29, 2011, at his residence. Memorial services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, November 12 at the pavilion at the Big Spring State Park in Big Spring.

Leo was born on February 23, 1936, in Chicago, Illinois. He grew up in North Carolina and came to Big Spring when stationed at Webb Air Force Base. He was an aircraft mechanic for the United States Air Force and later became a pumper in the oilfield, retiring from Tamerit Petroleum.

Survivors include one daughter, Jennifer Wilcox and husband, Steve of Midland; two granddaughters; one grandson; and two sisters, Margaret Toburen of Raleigh, North Carolina, and Doris Jones of Alpharetta, Georgia.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Leonard and Margaret (Nungesser) Porter.

The family suggests memorials be made to Home Hospice of Big Spring, 111 E. 7th St., Suite A, Big Spring TX 79720.

Arrangements under the direction of Nalley-Pickle & Welch Funeral Home & Crematory of Big Spring. Online condolences can be made at: www.npwech.com.

L.C. Devorce 1930-2011

COLORADO CITY -- L.C. Devorce, 81, passed away Monday, November 7, 2011. Funeral Services will be on Saturday, November 12, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. at House of Hope Church in Colorado City. Reverend Floyd Green will be officiating services. Family visitation will be at Kiker-Seale Funeral Home on Friday, November 11, 2011, from 6 to 7 p.m. Interment will be at Mitchell County Cemetery.

L.C. was born on March 23, 1930 in Red River County to parents Ellis and Corine Devorce. L.C. married Verna Scott in Colorado City on October 29, 1949. He was a member of House of Hope Church.

L.C. served in the United States Army during the Korean Conflict and was in law enforcement for many years, served with police and sheriff departments.

City commended as Main Street community

Colorado City has been commended for its successful annual progress as a designated Main Street community. The Texas Historical Commission (THC) and its Texas Main Street Program (TMSP) made the announcement November 2 at the annual statewide downtown revitalization conference co-hosted by the TMSP and the Texas Downtown Association.

The 55 National Recognition cities, which represent the real places of Texas, include: Amarillo, Bastrop, Bay City, Beaumont, Brenham, Bridgeport, Canton, Canyon, Carthage, Celina, Colorado City, Corsicana, Del Rio, Denton, Electra, Elgin, Farmersville, Ferris, Georgetown, Go-liad, Gonzales, Graham, Grapevine, Greenville, Harlingen, Henderson, Hillsboro, Huntsville, Kerrville, La Grange, Laredo, Levelland, Livingston, Llano, Longview, Lufkin, McKinney, Mount Pleasant, Mount Vernon, Nacogdoches, New Braunfels, Odessa, Palestine, Paris, Pecos, Plainview, Rio Grande City, Rockwall, San Angelo, San Marcos, Seguin, Taylor, Waxahachie, Weatherford and Winnsboro. These cities will be further recognized as Nationally Accredited by the National Trust for Historic Preservation next April in Baltimore, MD at the annual conference of the National Trust Main Street Center.

"Throughout 2011 we have been celebrating the Texas Main Street Program's 30 years of progress, having taken our first designated cities in 1981. Recognizing these cities for their efforts in revitalizing their historic downtowns takes on special meaning this year. The programs being acknowledged are large and small from all areas of the state, showing that the Main Street model is appropriate for all kinds of communities with historic downtowns," said Debra Farst, TMSP state coordinator.

National accredited Main Street cities show above average performance in 10 categories on an annual report. Selection criteria focus on planning, partnerships, staffing, volunteer effort, preservation ethic, training and program assessment through reporting. For additional information about the national Main Street effort, visit the National Trust Main Street web site at <http://www.preservationnation.org/main-street/>. For more information on the Texas Historical Commission's Main Street program visit www.thc.state.tx.us.

The THC's Texas Main Street Program is a revitalization program for historic downtown and neighborhood commercial districts. It is based on a Four-Point Approach™ — organization, design, promotion and economic restructuring, all within the context of historic preservation. Implemented in 1981, the program has assisted approximately 165 communities throughout the state. For more information, contact Debra Farst at 512/463-5758.

Kiwaniannes begin annual toy drive

Toy boxes are beginning to appear around town as the Kiwaniannes begin their annual Toys4MCKids (Toys for Mitchell County Kids) toy drive.

The Kiwaniannes will accept brand-new, like-new and gently used toys, "anything the Kiwaniannes can sterilize, clean up, add new batteries and make appear as new," Jan Lemons said.

If you are interested in making a monetary donation in lieu of a toy, those donations can be sent to Kiwaniannes c/o Jan Lemons, 314 WCR 145, Colorado City, Texas 79512. Like-new toys may be delivered to one of the drop off boxes located in the following

TxDOT to refresh streets

A contractor for the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) will refresh pavement markings on roadways in 11 counties within the Abilene District over the next few months.

More than 200 miles of pavement will receive new markings under the contract. The reflectivity of pavement markings diminishes over time due to wear and tear from traffic, sunlight and weather conditions, said Roy Wright, P.E., Transportation Operations Director for TxDOT.

LISD offers college scholarships

The Loraine ISD Educational Foundation is extremely excited to announce an outstanding opportunity for Loraine ISD graduates beginning with the graduating class of 2012.

The Loraine ISD Education Foundation will award scholarships to LHS graduates with at least a 2.5 GPA on a 4.0 scale to attend a 2 year, 4 year, trade or technical school. The total amount awarded will be based on $1000 per year of attendance at Loraine ISD with a maximum possible scholarship of $12,000.

In an effort to include as many students as possible this year, the amount will be based on the total number of years that a student completes at Loraine ISD. Beginning with the class of 2012-2103, the amount awarded will be based on consecutive years of attendance at Loraine ISD.

NAP deadline nears

USDA Texas Farm Service Agency (FSA) Acting Executive Director, James B. Douglass urges producers who want to purchase coverage through the Noninsurable Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP) to do so before the sales closing date of December 1, 2011.

NAP provides financial assistance to producers of noninsurable crops when low yields/grazing loss, loss of inventory or

Men and women in uniform sacrifice every day across the globe for the freedoms we enjoy here at home. Veterans Day gives us the opportunity to thank them and recognize their dedication.

We recognize the many sacrifices made by our men and women in uniform both today and throughout our nation's history. We honor their courage and dedication, and we thank them for their contribution to our country.

"Freedom isn't free." That's not a catch phrase - it's a price tag. The cost? Too many times - a life - but that's not all. War has taken its payment in limbs, families and even sanity. Some scars you see, some you don't. But anyone who goes to war pays a price. What do they get in return from those they fight for? We can't speak for others, but from First National Bank, heartfelt gratitude.

OPINION & COMMENTARY

TUMBLEWEED SMITH The Texas Hamburger

Rick Vanderpool got to Texas from Georgia some years ago and found a home here. He settled in Commerce where he excelled in putting on events like the Bois d'arc Bash, an event to honor the bois d'arc tree. Many homes in Commerce are built on sturdy stumps from that tree. Rick wrote poetry and songs about the bois d'arc. Among his other accomplishments, he became publisher of the Commerce Journal.

He makes his living mostly as a photographer, although he has authored two books, written a screen play, designed fabric, created posters and puzzles on everything from coffee to wildflowers and has some outstanding commissions. He did the photography for my book on East Texas folklore. His pictures hang in some of the most prestigious buildings in Texas. I know lots of photographers and Rick Vanderpool has found more ways to make a living with his camera than any of them.

When the 500th anniversary of Columbus coming to America rolled around in 1992, Rick visited every city in the US named Columbus. He took pictures and designed a gallery showing of them. He doesn't think small. Recently he photographed thousands of images of the Permian Basin, South Plains and Panhandle for the Texas Plains Trail. He likes the area so much he has moved from Commerce to Lubbock. More recently he spent four months traveling 11,000 miles visiting hamburger joints in Texas. The result is his latest book, The Texas Hamburger, History of the Lone Star Icon. He also developed a poster containing pictures of hamburgers and places that make them. He wrote a hamburger song and it's now in the hands of some prominent musicians.

"The good folks in Athens declared me their Ambassador," Rick says with a chuckle. Athens is the legendary birthplace of the hamburger and Rick went to that city and told the folks he wanted to gather stories about hamburgers. They liked his idea and even gave him some expense money. He and the Athens people emailed 2,000 people and asked them to list their three favorite hamburger places. "I call them my hamburger helpers," says Rick. "It was a wonderful network of county judges, ag extension agents, tourism professionals and friends from every county in Texas. I ended up with a list of 750 Texas hamburger joints."

Rick visited all 750 of them, took pictures, listened to people extol the virtues of their favorite hamburger and was surprised to find some of the places where good hamburgers are made. "Little convenience stores with an 11 by 14 flat top griddle make hundreds of burgers during the lunch run. All the cooks have their secret seasonings and spices." His book contains stories about people's favorite hamburgers. It's published by the History Press.

The legendary story says a man named Fletcher Davis made the first hamburger at an Athens café in the 1880's (meat, bread, pickles, onions, mustard) and later took his concoction to the 1904 World's Fair in St. Louis.

The unique beauty of a geode

By Monte Wike

My first experience with a geode was when the folks would vacation in the Ozarks and pick up these big rough-looking rocks. Then back home dad would hit them with a hammer and reveal an inner world of absolute beauty. Some were like caverns lavished with lavender crystals, others with thicker walls of bright rock. All had a space inside, and each one had a unique inner beauty not visible or imagined from the rough exterior.

Some years ago on one of our trips west we visited a lapidary shop and I bought a half geode with bright bands of blue and white inside and a crystal hollow in the middle. It is on proud display in our home. In the same shop was a "stained-glass" window of very thin slices of geodes lit from behind so that all their individual and blended beauty could be clearly seen.

Of course, I had to buy some of those slices, too.

Our lives are much like this. No matter the outward appearance of public display, there is an inner beauty in every person. In fact, this is a great Bible principle: "Man looks on the outward appearance, but God looks on the heart." Both areas are true and vivid.

So many of our actions, reactions, dress and behavior patterns are not for comfort but display, however rough or pleasing that might be. If that were not so, we would all wear a uniform, have robotic voices and movements. No, we are uniquely individual and I am happy it is that way. It is still amazing to me how God could create so many fingerprints, facial features, heights and shapes of individuals.

But down inside the heart of every person is a spot of beauty, a potential, an inner drive, a stunning display of individuality that is unmatched anywhere. What it takes is something or someone to open the beauty to be seen.

However, sometimes all that is there is a heart of hard stone, the geode has failed to develop and the beauty has been sealed shut.

What secrets lie in the heart of people, what sins have been committed and glossed over, what pain and agony are disguised as anger and rebellion are almost as amazing as the real beauty. So often there is a hard crust, built on the outside and we don't want anyone to probe beneath. Yet this is the cause of so much unhappiness and grief. It may be necessary to get some help to break open the outer layer and see the need deep within. Then the real beauty will shine through, and what once was a dark void will be exposed to the light of appreciation.

Remembering the faces of war

By Carol Parsons
My Two Cents

Like many of my generation the great wars that formed this nation are places and dates in a history book.

I have been privileged to live in a country that enjoys a peace and freedom purchased with the blood of those I do not know.

However, while typing the list of names of Mitchell County veterans who were killed in service to their country, I was struck by the richness of our heritage.

The roll call is a litany of brothers in arms: white, black, brown, male, female. They come from all walks of life, from all socio-economic and educational background. On the battlefield there is no distinguishing mark, no separating, dividing tags of the caste system into which we force those around us.

The oneness of spirit and camaraderie forged in the mud, blood and deprivation of battle is still evident in the freedoms we often take for granted.

While history came to an abrupt halt for these men and women, their sacrifice extends forward to new generations in the air we breathe, the streets we walk, the dreams we accomplish.

Our homes are not bombed out hovels, our fields are not mud-churned cemeteries, our children do not sit in the dust wondering if their teacher will return.

Instead of a struggle to survive, we struggle through the throngs at a ball game, struggle to watch our weight, struggle to have the latest cell phone.

Veterans Day, like Memorial Day, is a time to reflect on the price of freedom and comfort. It is a time to remember those who have gone before us and those who hold the line today.

To our veterans, past, present and future, I offer a heart-felt thank you: for my home, my freedom, my family.

Drought kits available on line at TPWD

AUSTIN — Record drought is taking its toll in Texas on everything from wildlife to water bills and that has many people seeking new ways of coping with nature. In an effort to help, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department this week converted its main, water resource website to feature an online Drought Survival Kit at <http://www.texasstateofwater.org/>

The new online resource comes in three sets of web pages.

The Help Wildlife (<http://www.texasstateofwater.org/resources/wildlife.php>) section explains how Texas critters handle drought and advises when and whether to intervene with Mother Nature. For example, it tells how to help birds and butterflies with native plants, and why people should never feed wildlife such as raccoons, deer and opossums.

The Save Your Yard (<http://www.texasstateofwater.org/resources/> yard.php) web section recognizes that trying to keep St. Augustine grass and other non-native "water hogs" alive during the drought can be expensive and frustrating. It suggests how, as weather conditions improve, it's time to think about replacing drought-stricken yards with native "wildscapes" that are better suited for surviving Texas weather. These are colorful, require little water or care, and attract birds, butterflies and other native wildlife.

The Cut Your Water Bill section covers a few simple ways to save water and money, and links to more information on the Texas Water Development Board's Water IQ website.

TPWD's Drought Survival Kit also links to several other useful resources:

Information on current burn bans, wildfires and more from the Texas Forest Service

Current stream flow conditions from the U.S. Geological Survey

Current reservoir levels from the Texas Water Development Board

The survival kit main page also links to Texas Parks & Wildlife magazine water resource special issues from the past 10 years. And, it showcases video documentaries TPWD has produced in partnership with Texas PBS stations.

ell County Democratic County Chairman said, "but it caught us all off-guard."

Changes to the filing period and subsequent dates came about as a result of lawsuits filed against Texas concerning changes in redistricting lines and charges of unfairness to minority groups.

"At this time, it is not clear what legislative lines and districts will be ordered by the court, and this delay in their ruling has necessitated the changes in the election calendar," John Beckmeyer, Mitchell County Republican County Chairman said. "We do expect that the federal panel will be handing down interim maps later this month."

Because of the uncertainty of district lines, the judges have ruled as follows:

"Since the composition of House and Senate districts in which candidates might offer themselves are uncertain until the Court enters an order pertaining to the districts of the offices described above, and to be fair to the present officeholders, potential candidates and the citizens of Texas, the court finds it necessary to modify the foregoing residence requirements."

Therefore, it is ordered that for the 2012 elections to the Texas House of Representatives and Texas Senate a person must be a resident of the district the person seeks to represent from December 15, 2011 until the date of the General Election, and it is, further ordered that an incorrect precinct designation on an application for a place on the ballot shall not render the application invalid if the designation is corrected on or before December 19, 2011."

Seats up for re-election next year are county sheriff, commissioners in Precinct 1 and 3, district judge, district attorney and both county chairs.

Candidates who are interested in filing for a place on the 2012 primary ballot should contact their respective party county chairmen: For the Democratic ticket, call Geory Martin at 325-242-0130. For the Republican ticket, contact John Beckmeyer at 325-242-2147.

es around 15,000 bales a year.

"When you take into consideration a gin operates only three months out of a year for a producing income, that's very detrimental to a small time gin," Carreon said.

The Loraine Co-op Gin is one of the few gins in the area that doesn't have an alternate income source, such as farm or feed stores, delinting processes, etc.

"Weather the storm is what we're going to do," Carreon said. "I'm optimistic. The five inches we got are right on track as far as next year's crop."

Carreon said he's never seen a farmer destroy a crop under a pivot until this year. "It's real hard on a farmer who spend thousands of dollars an acre to get to September and then destroy it."

But the harsh reality is the farmers and gins aren't the only ones to suffer this year's cotton crop loss.

Peripheral companies and businesses take a hit, as well, from cotton warehouses, diesel sales, parts and equipment suppliers, soft drink suppliers, advertisers and even community youth and charitable organizations.

Last year Loraine Co-op Gin donated $200 to the Loraine ISD junior class fundraisers. "This year we gave $20," Carreon said. "We make a lot less, we give a lot less. It hurts all the way around."

Carreon let go 75 percent of his staff back in June. "We're employing eight people for four weeks and we're done. We don't have a back up plan but hopes and prayers."

Producers Gin in Colorado City won't begin ginning until December 1 and estimates 1,000 bales for the season.

the Bi-District game, playing to their strength - running the two-back spread offense which has kept them competitive this season. Dashoud Hughes and Deontre Harris, the premier backs for Childress, fit perfectly in the system with their size and speed.

"We've got to stop the run and force them to pass," Head Coach Frank Johnson said Monday. "We can't let them have a cheap touchdown on special teams."

This is Childress' first trip to the playoffs under Coach Cody Chisum who is in his third season as head coach.

The last time Colorado City played Childress was in 1998. The Bobcats ran up the score and beat the Wolves 56-14.

This is defensive coordinator Dan Gainey and Coach Johnson's 10th season and in those 10 years, the Wolves have been to the playoffs eight times, five as district champion, two as the second place team and one time as the 3rd place team. The two coaches have combined for 72 wins and only 38 losses in their 10 years together.

Senior Linebacker Tyler

Hammond is practicing this week and is expected to play. He suffered a broken bone in his leg several weeks ago.

The game is going to be played at People's Bank Stadium, located at Frenship High School in Wolfthorpe, just southwest of Lubbock.

year has proved that natural disasters can directly affect the profitability and recovery of agricultural operations," he said.

In order to meet eligibility requirements for NAP, crops must be noninsurable, commercially-produced agricultural commodity crops for which the catastrophic risk protection level of crop insurance is not available.

In the event of a natural disaster, NAP covers the amount of loss greater than 50 percent of the expected production based on the approved yield and reported acreage.

Eligible producers can apply for coverage using form CCC-471, "Application for Coverage." Producers must file the application and service fee by the Dec. 1st deadline. The service fee is the lesser of $250 per crop or $750 per producer per administrative county, not to exceed a total of $1,875 for a producer with farming interests in multiple counties.

DOT's Abilene District.

Modern technology helps the district maintain pavement markings. Workers use a computer-controlled laser, called a mobile retro-reflector, to measure and record the reflectivity of the pavement markings on district roadways each year. The data generated from the device helps the district determine which markings are most in need of replacement, and work can be scheduled according to need and available funding.

Flat Line, Inc., of Childress was awarded the $1.4 million contract for this year's project and will apply pavement markings on various highways in Calahan, Fisher, Howard, Jones, Kent, Mitchell, Nolan, Scurry, Shackelford, Stonewall and Taylor counties. They will begin work this week and should be finished by the end of the month, weather permitting.

Although the contractor will attempt to work during non-peak traffic hours, drivers are urged to be aware of the striping truck and wet paint in the work zones and avoid crossing fresh pavement markings.

Hay Hotline offers help for ranchers

As ranchers try desperately to feed and save their herds in the wake of the worst one-year drought in Texas history, Agriculture Commissioner Todd Staples announced recently the Texas Department of Agriculture's Hay Hotline now lists 1,082 hay producers from 42 states selling forage. The Hay Hotline was recently updated with several improvements and now includes hay prices, information on transportation services to deliver hay and available grazing lands.

"The Hay Hotline is a perfect example of farmers and ranchers hearing the call and stepping up to help their fellow producers," Commissioner Staples said. "We're thankful to those hay producers across the country who have reached out to ranchers here in Texas during this time of devastating drought, and we continue to encourage farmers to sign up on the Hay Hotline to assist our ranchers. These efforts, coupled with the recent Hay Hotline improvements, will connect more ranchers with hay producers across the nation who have much-needed forage. Texas is the national leader in cattle production so it is critical that we preserve the herds on which all of America relies."

In an effort to help drought-stricken Texas ranchers, Commissioner Staples has taken the following actions:

- Updated Hay Hotline tools;
- Sent a letter to all commissioners, secretaries and directors of agriculture in other states requesting assistance in locating hay donations for Texas ranchers;
- Sent request to states that have available grazing land or hay to list it on the Texas Hay Hotline;
- Encouraged commissioners, secretaries and directors of agriculture in other states to follow the Lone Star State's lead in waiving transportation size restrictions for hay shipments. So far Texas, Alabama, Louisiana, Kansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Tennessee and Wyoming have eased restrictions on transporting hay.
- Sent a request to U.S. Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack to allow grass baled on land enrolled in the federal Conservation Reserve Program to be donated to struggling ranchers;
- Facilitated a hay drive from Indiana to Texas; Indiana producers donated hay and the Indiana Motor Truck Association transported it to ranchers in North Texas.

According to Texas AgriLife Extension, agriculture losses due to this year's drought have already reached $5.2 billion and are now the costliest in state history for Texas farmers and ranchers. Last summer State Climatologist Dr. John Nielsen-Gammon declared the 2011 dry spell the "most severe one-year drought on record," while the National Weather Service called it the second-worst drought in Texas history.

The Hay Hotline can be accessed by visiting www.TexasAgriculture.gov/hayhotline or by calling (877) 429-1998.

How To List Hay For Sale Or Donation On The Hay Hotline

- Go to www.TexasAgriculture.gov/hayhotline.
- Click the "Register Hay for Sale or Donation" link under the middle box labeled "Hay Hotline Services".
- Enter information in the required fields marked with an asterisk (*).
- After entering your information you will be prompted to create a password. This will allow you to update your hay listing at a later time.
- You are now listed on the Hay Hotline.

Westbrook Correspondent

This week went by in a flash! I have had many comments on the new Westbrook Happenings in the paper but no added news from anyone. What's the deal? Come on join in and share your happy news. Sorry for missing last week, as many of you know, I had to work.

Around Town

I hear Warren Lee Zant had a birthday on November 1st. He is now, as he says, "getting on up there." Best wishes for Warren Lee on his special day.

Our little fire chief Brennand Hale turns the big 2. You know what that means.

From all the pictures I've seen he sure was a happy camper with lots of tractors around.

Anna and Warren Zant had a visitor in from the Austin area, Ms. Marcy. Marcy and Dale, at one time, owned the Westbrook Country Store right downtown. I remember very well going there and buying goodies, along with milk, bread, and even cheese.

Marcy lost her beloved Dale this last May. I'm thinking we will sure miss him.

Marcy is looking great! I'm also thinking she ages very well. She looks exactly like she did when she lived here in Westbrook all those years ago.

Sue, Becky and Neal Hawley returned from their haunting adventure in Louisiana, where they visited a plantation they say has a history of being haunted. They also visited their family while adventuring. Glad you guys are back.

Ms. Janell Rich had a house fire a week ago Monday very early in the morning. The Westbrook Fire Department was at her rescue very quickly.

I believe they said she lost the kitchen part of her home, but she was safe.

We are blessed to have our Westbrook Fire Department who did another great job.

My family and I went out to Loraine to their Annual Cotton Festival and while I was there I also saw another ex-Westbrookian, Elena, formerly Elena Lopez, sister to Nick Lopez.

She says she enjoys reading this section of the Westbrook Happenings in the paper and hopes to see more. So, again keep me informed.

WESTBROOK HAPPENINGS

Westbrook ISD News

Several weeks ago, K. Morris qualified for regionals in the district cross country meet held a few weeks ago, on October 24th in Lamesa. Kaylea Holbrook, placed 16th. Overall, the high school girls' team placed 4th at the meet.

The annual Thanksgiving meal at school will be November 16th. Anyone wishing to eat with their kiddos or just wanting a take-out should please RSVP by Monday, November 14th.

Guys, our cafeteria ladies really work hard on this day and the meal is wonderful! Sets us right in the mood for our Thanksgiving holiday that follows.

Wednesday, November 23rd our kiddos will have an early release for the Thanksgiving holiday. School will be dismissed at 12:30 p.m. They will be out the 24th and the 25th.

Our Lady Cats played a great scrimmage game against the Mustangs last week, and let me tell you, they look great.

We didn't come home with the win, but we didn't just hand it over either. Way to go, Westbrook Lady Cats! Keep up the good work.

BIRTHS

Amanda Free and Eric Gonzales are proud to announce the birth of their son, Eric Elias Gonzales, born November 6, 2011.

Eric was born at Cogdell Memorial Hospital in Snyder at 5:24 p.m. He weighed 8 pounds and was 20 inches long. Paternal grandparents are Elsa and Jason Free of Colorado City. Maternal grandfather is Elias Gonzales of Colorado City. Eric will be welcomed home by his sisters, Analyciah and Lilyana Free.

While Rebecca Kirkland doesn't hunt yet, she does go out with the boys sometimes. "It's fun just getting out in the open and the camaraderie and watching the guys have a good time," she said.

First time hunter, Tammy Vinliew from Lubbock said it took her husband 20 years to talk her into going hunting.

"The kids, grandkids, everyone else goes hunting, so I figured why not?" Vinliew said. Her husband's hunting party had an opening this year so she went.

"I shot a dove. Actually I didn't kill it. I had to chase it down and wring its neck," she said.

Winners for the 2011 Hunters' Appreciation Dinner were:

Betsy Anderson, Remington 700 "BTL" 270; Shelly Coldiron, Henry Golden Boy 22 Magnum; Larry Dyer, Weatherby Vanguard 250-06; Corey Beavers, M&M Wildlife Shoulder Mount; Larry Courts, Savage Hunter 22-250; Jeremy Rivera, Remington Express 20 gauge youth; Clayton Cannon, Remington Express 12 gauge; Maria Rubio, St. Louis Hawkins 50 cal kit; Patty Ross, Ruger 77.243; Brian Dudley, Daisy Red Rider; Gorman Finley, Marlin 336C 30-30; Kenneth Rich, Ruger 77.223; Glenn Sullivan, Diamond Deadeye archer kit; Tyler Martin, Capsule deer feeder; and Brad Howell, Buffalo Hunt.

"Hope" program offers children "family" time

Sara Ballard Wims spoke on the "Hope" program during the Colorado City Garden Club's monthly meeting at Bama's on Friday, November 4.

Hope, sponsored by the First United Methodist Church, is an after school program for marginalized children within Colorado City.

Wims worked as a preschool director in a Christian preschool at the First United Methodist Church in Plainview in a similar program.

The program was designed to have each child in a family group, leader and a group of not more than 10 children. Meeting three times a week, the program taught them how to be part of a family and how to sit down and have a family conversation as well as homework help and fun activities.

The success of the Plainview program became the foundation for the Colorado City program.

At present 37 children have been approved for the afterschool program and 57 have applied. The program is in need of more volunteers to accommodate the additional children.

The club finalized plans for the upcoming Holiday Tour of Homes to be held December 10 from 10 a.m. until 12 noon.

The four featured homes are: Richard and Kitten Arthur, 1001 E. 16th; Pete and Julie Kampfer, 845 Hickory; The Heritage House, 425 Chestnut; Randy and Kim Anderson, 1208 E. 18th; and Dennis and Glenna Wilson, 1949 W. IH 20 Business.

Cookies, muffins, coffee and wassail will be served at the Heritage House during the tour.

The club welcomed new member Lorie Ann Lindsey and two guests, Ira Helen Lee and Georgia Harris.

GET A PEEK into the lives of Santa's helpers at Dennis and Glenna Wilson's home during the Tour of Homes on December 10, sponsored by the Colorado City Garden Club.

Annual holiday tour set

The Colorado City Garden Club will host a Holiday Tour of Homes on Saturday, December 10 from 10 a.m. until 12 noon.

Tickets for the tour are $10 per person and the ticket must be presented at each home on the tour.

The tour of homes will feature the homes of Pete and Julie Kampfer, 845 Hickory; Richard and Kitten Arthur, 1001 E. 16th; Randy and Kim Anderson, 1208 E. 18th; and Dennis and Glenna Wilson, 1949 W. IH 20 Business.

Refreshments will be served at the Heritage House at 425 Chestnut, courtesy of the Heart of West Texas Museum.

Tickets may be purchased at the Heritage House or any tour home the day of the tour. Tickets

Art Show to be held

The West Texas Art Guild is sponsoring its Third Annual Regional Art Show at the Civic Center in Colorado City on November 19. This show is unique in that it lasts only one day so that artists can enter their artwork that morning, have it judged, and pick it up that afternoon. Prizes will be offered and there will be five categories: Watercolor, oils/acrylics, dry media, photography, and 3-D.

For further information go to: www.westexasartguild.net or call 325-728-2184

ing a painting demonstration in acrylics and this is for any interested persons. The demonstration will take place in the Civic Center and will be starting at 10:00 a.m.

In the afternoon, the show will be open for public viewing and anyone may come and see the artwork. There is no charge for this.

WALK AROUND THE LAKE

By Ginny Harmon

Hello, everyone! Have to share that on October 10, I drove into town and delivered my column to the paper early that morning and came home in such a happy mood.

I went out to the backyard to get a sticker out of our dog's paw. I walked down the steps and carefully bent over and pulled the sticker out and turned to go back into the house. My cane got stuck in the mud, and I fell backwards, flat on my back.

I called out for my daughter, Vickie, and she came as fast as she could. I yelled so loud even Ed heard me. They tried to pull me up but couldn't. Vickie called Sharon and Ron Mayberry to help, and they were at the house in a flash. God bless those two wonderful people. They got me up and into the car and off to the ER we went.

Nothing was broken, but Lorin Scott said it looked like the hip dislocated, and I was taken by ambulance to Odessa. Bambi Redwine and her assistant were wonderful to me. Nurse Cindy in the ER kept me calm, and I appreciate them all so much. I was released from the hospital after four long hours, but they found nothing was wrong after the CT scan.

Ed and I stayed with our daughter, Donna and her husband, Greg, for 12 days until I could walk and ride home. Still sore but getting great care from Vickie and Ed. Thanks to all who came over and took care of the cats and the house when we were gone.

Speaking of the cats, Chloe and the now famous Linda Baum, were just a bit upset that we were gone from home so long. It took a couple of days for Linda to warm up to me, but soon she realized that I was there to stay.

No rumors to start here, but Linda Baum did sleep with me at the end of the bed and she would look up at me with those green eyes and clean herself and go back to sleep.

The dog, Dorie, who LB despises, would chase her off the bed every chance she could, but LB would find a way to be near me.

News in the neighborhood! Everyone is so excited and happy for the Matt Syler family and their new house being built. Can't wait until it is done, and they have years and years of happy times and memories.

I understand that Wayne Shawn would be happy to tell you about his foot garden. Lots of green vegetables.

Betty said Wayne was fighting off pesky raccoons and is sure he could give all of us several tips and hints on how to get rid of them.

Betty Shawn's knee is better. She said their grandson, Carlin, is in med school at the University of Texas in Houston.

Talked to Pat Shackelford last week. She said her sinuses are giving her heck, but other than that, she and Johnny are doing fine.

Sad about the lake and the rainfall, or lack of it.

Shirley Howell had her best friend from Arlington come for a visit. They came to visit Ed and me and brought over a great dinner.

Judy Wynn called to say that she was saddened by the loss of two of her friends, Gary Hale and Leo Porter. She said these were two good men who will be missed by so many.

Linda Archer had a garage sale over the weekend. Hope you did well, Linda. Sure was a lot of cars!

Dorn Methodist Church will host their Thanksgiving dinner on November 13th at 12:30 p.m. The Christmas program will be held on the 10th of December this year at 6:30 p.m. All are invited.

Noticed that the sand hill cranes are back again this year. Not much water, but good to see them back.

Gaylynn Gamble is under the weather. Hope she gets better really soon!

I want to thank everyone who checked in on us while I was recuperating. Friends are such a blessing.

Please call me with any new that you may have, visitors that you might have during the holiday or something you just might want to say. Phone me at 728-8887 or email at vlharmon@yahoo.com.

Happy Thanksgiving! C-City Opry show slated

November 17

The CCity Opry will be back on stage with a fresh line up of artists on November 17th.

"We're lining up as many of our regulars as we can find to entertain you," Debby Mitchell said.

The Opry is also always on the look out for new talent.

"If you have talent and would like to perform, or you know someone who does, give us a call or shoot us an email," she said.

Doors open at 6 p.m. and the show starts at 7 p.m. Visitors are invited to come early and enjoy a cold drink and hamburger before the show, sold by the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department.

Tickets may be purchased at the door or by calling 325-737-2163.

For more information visit the CCity Opry's website at www.ccityopry.com.

International Gold, Silver and Diamond Buyers paying on the spot for valuables next week in Sweetwater!

By David Morgan
STAFF WRITER

Sweetwater-area residents are in for a rare treat when the International Gold, Silver and Diamond Buyers (IGSDB) host an event here, from November 14th - 18th, at the Hampton Inn. The company has identified this region as prime territory for purchasing your precious metals—especially gold and silver. The IGSDB estimates that local residents have millions of dollars worth of valuables that they no longer need or want. That is where the IGSDB comes in—they specialize in buying those items from local sellers in the U.S., Canada and Europe.

Items like gold coins, scrap gold, sterling silver and tea sets also diamond rings are in high demand right now, and IGSDB is purchasing massive quantities of them on behalf of their global network of collectors, dealers and refineries.

Currently on an international tour, IGSDB has included Sweetwater on its list of stops for next week. Residents are urged to mark their calendar for this special opportunity to meet one-on-one with gold, silver and diamond specialists.

Because of IGSDB's low overhead, extensive resources and massive volume, the company is often able to pay out more than other dealers and retailers. Many customers are surprised at how much they are offered for seemingly small amounts. "I had two bent herringbone necklaces, a class ring, and some outdated earrings that I brought to a show. I walked out with $425 in less than 15 minutes," said a satisfied guest.

Providing an economic boost to each region it visits, the IGSDB projects to pay out $350,000 at each event—a testament to the high volume of items they purchase and the prime prices being paid. Offers are made based on rarity, numismatic value, condition and market value.

Company spokesman Matthew Enright says, "We just paid $4,700 for a loose 1.25-carat diamond. Our mission is to pay local residents on the spot for sterling silverware, fine jewelry, coins and precious metals—especially silver and gold." The company has seen a huge influx of gold lately. "Customers have been scrambling to cash into the record-high value of gold," adds Enright. For those who are unsure if their items are genuine gold or silver, or simply costume, company will test it for free. "The best strategy is to bring all items to the show for a free evaluation from our specialists. It always amazes me how a small handful of gold and silver can turn into hundreds of dollars in just a few moments. We test, weigh, and buy items right on the spot," Enright says.

At a recent show, a small-town dentist had a nice pay day. "I have been collecting dental gold for years from patients who didn't want their extracted teeth. It really added up—my check is for over $31,000!"

While most people don't have buckets of dental gold at their fingertips, they do have $750 worth of scrap gold scattered throughout their homes or mismatched earrings.

In addition to scrap gold, fine jewelry and diamonds, coins are a big hit. Offers will be made on all coins dated 1965 and earlier—gold coins, silver, silver dollars, half dollars, quarters, nickels and dimes. Enright explains, "U.S. coins made before 1970 are worth more than their legal tender amount because they contain 90% silver. Rare dates and mint marks can make them even more valuable. We recently paid $78,000 for an amazing coin collection. One couple brought in a rusty coffee can filled with silver coins, sawdust, and a dead spider. The can had been in the basement for years. We were happy to send them home with a check for more than $700!"

Sweetwater-area residents should start collecting their valuables now to bring to the free event, which runs next Monday - Friday. Deals will be made and money will be paid on the spot. Attendance is expected to be high, but no appointment is needed. Enright encourages everyone to take advantage of this special opportunity to meet directly with specialists from the International Gold, Silver and Diamond Buyers. He concludes, "It's a great chance for people to cash in their old diamonds, jewelry, coins and scrap gold. This is a seller's market, so don't miss out!"

Wolves swat Yellowjackets, 38-0

By Alvie Faulkenberry

Coach Frank Johnson's playoff bound Colorado City Wolves journeyed 150 miles to Kermit Friday night to play their final district game. The Wolves swatted the Yellow Jackets 38 to 0 to nail down 2nd place in District 2-2A.

At Walton Field, home of the Yellow Jackets, the Wolves opened up a 21 to 0 lead with only 8 offensive plays in the 1st quarter.

Kermit took the opening kickoff at their 31 yard line and moved to their 47, running a mixture of plays from their option-oriented offense. They made 3 yards to the 50 yard line when Kermit running back Aaron Pando fumbled. Wolf line-backer Jake Johnson scooped up the ball and returned it 48 yards to the Kermit 8 yard line.

The Wolves scored from the 8 on 2nd down with an option pitch from Derek Gainey to freshman tail back David Sanchez. Gainey's PAT was true, and with 9:24 left in the 1st quarter, the Wolves led 7-0.

Kermit fumbled the Wolves' kickoff but fell on it at the Yellow Jacket 18. They made a 1st down then were stopped by the Wolves and punted. The Wolves took the punt at the Colorado City 40 yard line.

Gainey, sporting number 31 in honor of his granddad, Hollis Gainey, whose number has been retired, lost 5 yards on a roll out, then passed 12 yards to Tylor Lorenz. On 3rd and 3, Gainey ran 9 yards and on 2nd and 2, tossed a 36-yard touchdown pass to Lorenz. Gainey's PAT was good, and the Wolves led 14-0 with 4:30 left in the 1st quarter.

Kermit took over at their 20 after the kickoff. They made a 1st down, moving the chains to their 32. The Wolves' defense stiffened and Kermit had to punt.

On 1st and 10 from the Wolves' 29 yard line, Gainey hit wide receiver Mark Henderson on a fly pattern for 71 yards and the Wolves' third touchdown. Gainey's PAT was good, and with 2:25 to go in the 1st quarter, Colorado City led 21-0.

Kermit began again, this time from their 17. Once again, the Wolves denied them a 1st down and the Yellow Jackets punted.

The Wolves took over at the Kermit 48. They made a 1st down, moving the ball to the Yellow Jacket 37. An incomplete pass on 1st down, a 4-yard gain by Sanchez and then an interception by Kermit defensive back Erik Montoya stopped the Wolves.

From Kermit's 21, the Yellow Jackets couldn't muster a 1st down because the Wolves held Pando for no gain. Anthony Rivera tackled Pando for a 3-yard loss on 2nd down and Kermit quarterback Joe Pearson passed incomplete, forcing the Yellow Jackets to punt again.

The Wolves' next drive began at their 48 yard line. Gainey hit Corbin Castillo on a wide receiver screen for 32 yards and a first at the Kermit 20. Sanchez lost 6 yards on an option pitch then the Wolves were called for holding, moving the ball back to the Kermit 36. An incomplete pass, an 8-yard run on a draw play by Sanchez and another incomplete pass, forced the Wolves to give the ball back to the Yellow Jackets on downs.

From the Kermit 29, the Wolves held the Yellow Jackets to 5 yards, and for the third time in a row, forced them to punt.

After the punt, the Wolves took over at their 29. Gainey hit Castillo for 19 yards and a 1st. From their 48, Sanchez broke loose for 47 yards before being tackled at the Kermit 5 yard line. A missed hand-off between Gainey and Sanchez forced a 7-yard loss. On 2nd and 12, Gainey's pass fell incomplete. Gainey ran for 5, moving the ball to the 7 yard line. On 4th down and 1:31 left in the first half, Gainey kicked a 28-yard field goal with Jason Rodriguez holding, bringing the score to 24-0.

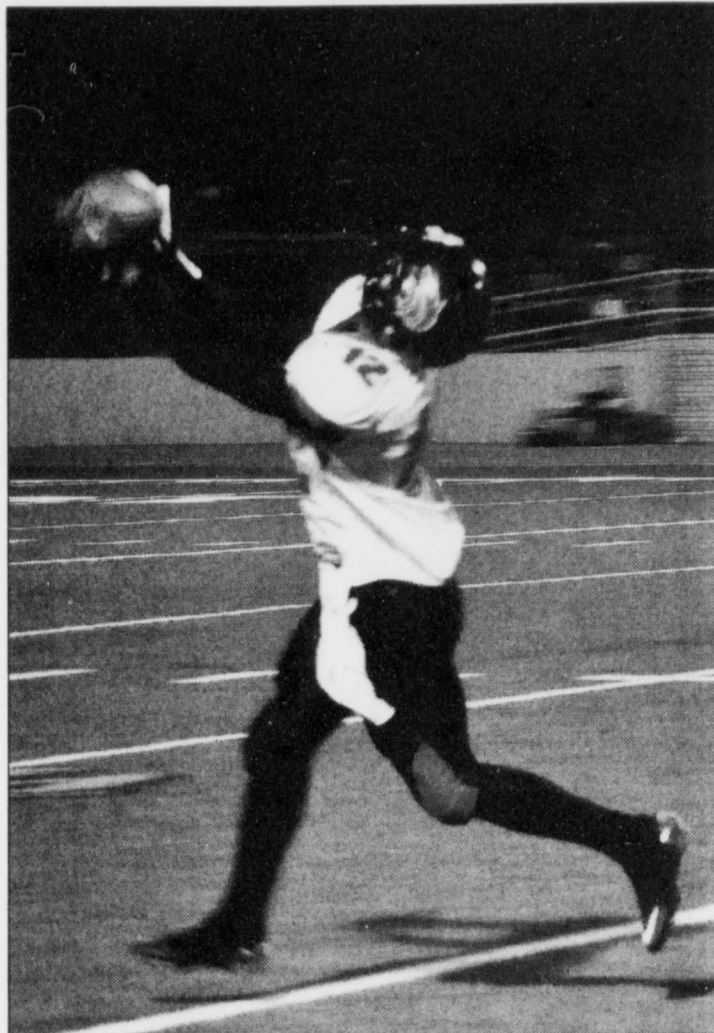

Colorado City squib-kicked the kickoff with Kermit taking over at their 39. Kermit's Pearson ran for 3, 7 and 17 yards, making two firsts and moving the chains to the Colorado City 34. On 1st and 10, the Wolves slammed the door shut and Pearson fumbled which was recovered by Anthony Rivera at the Wolf 36.

The Wolves took a knee and the half ended.

The opening kickoff of the second half began with the Wolves starting from their 19 yard line. Gainey hit Henderson for 5 yards on a wide receiver screen and then Sanchez romped 14 for a 1st at the Wolf 38. Gainey passed 14 more yards to Lorenz, then ran a quarterback draw for 17 and another 1st at the Kermit 31.

Kermit defensive lineman Barry Kilgore broke through and sacked Gainey for a 4-yard loss. A holding penalty moved the ball back another 10 yards. A 2-yard loss and then a fumble recovered by Rivera, and the Wolves had to punt for the first time.

The Wolf punt hit a Kermit blocker in the leg, and Lorenz recovered the ball at the Kermit 20. From the 20, Gainey's pass to JUNIOR WIDE RECEIVER Mark Henderson showed his ball handling skills in the Wolves' victory over Kermit Friday night, making three catches for 78 yards. This reception was good for 71 yards and a touchdown.

Castillo was caught for 17 yards. On 1st and goal from the 3, Sanchez scored his second touchdown, making it 31-0 after the PAT.

The on-side kick by the Wolves was taken by Kermit at their 47. Once again, the Yellow Jackets went 3 and out and punted to the Wolves.

Colorado City took over at their 11 yard line. Sanchez ran for 21, Gainey hit Castillo for 18 and Rodriguez for 6, moving the ball to the Kermit 44. Sanchez lost 2, then Gainey hit Castillo for 11, moving the chains to the Kermit 35. Sanchez ran a delayed draw 29 yards to the Kermit 6. Two incomplete passes, then Gainey found Rodriguez in the end zone for the touchdown with 1:26 to go in the 3rd quarter. The PAT was good, making the score 38-0.

Kermit took the Wolves' kickoff at the 38, and engineered their best drive of the evening. Pearson ran for 19 and a 1st. They ran for 1, 2, and 10 yards for another. From the Wolf 30, they ran for 1, 7, -2 and 7, moving the chains to the 17 yard line. A scramble by Pearson brought the ball to Colorado City's 3. On 1st and goal, Pearson was crunched by the Wolves' defense, causing him to fumble. Rivera recovered at the 3, stopping the Yellow Jackets' drive.

From the Kermit 3, Alex Her-andez ran for 21 yards and a 1st. He ran for 1 yard on 1st down and Gainey's pass fell incomplete on 2nd, before hitting Aaron Mendoza for 12 yards and a 1st at the Wolves' 37. Pip Jackson ran for a 1-yard gain, then a roughing penalty moved the ball to the Kermit 47 and a 1st down. From there, the Wolves' offense sputtered and they had to punt.

Kermit, from their 20 yard line, managed a 1st down before the Wolves held them on 4 plays, causing the Yellow Jackets to give the ball back on downs. Henderson, playing quarterback, took a knee as the final regular season game came to an end with a 38 to 0 win for the Wolves.

The Wolves travel to Lubbock Friendship Saturday to take on the Childress Bobcats at 1 p.m. The Bobcats are a running team from the spread formation. The winner will play Merkel in the next round.

Bulldogs face tough Sterling City

By Aimee Adams

The last game of regular district play pitted the Loraine Bulldogs against the Sterling City Eagles, and the Bulldogs suffered their first district loss at the hands of the Eagles, 46-20.

First quarter play was a defensive matchup between the two teams, and it was a full 5 minutes into the quarter before the Bulldogs were able to get into the end zone with an 8-yard pass from Nate Martinez to Brandon Gibson for 6 points to put the Dogs up, 6-0.

In second quarter play, the Eagles answered back with 8:24 to go. With their first score of the game, Sterling City took the lead by two points, 8-6. With 3:52 to go, Bulldog Martinez connected on a 13-yard pass to Gibson again and Matt Sanchez's extra point kick was good, putting the Dogs up 14-8.

During the second half of the game, the Eagles held the Bulldogs at 14 points while they added three more touchdowns. All PATs were good and the third quarter ended with the Bulldogs trailing by 18 points, 14-32.

Sterling City opened fourth quarter play with a rushing touchdown, bringing the score to 14-38. Unable to convert, the Dogs turned the ball over and with 2:28 seconds left, the Eagles scored again, 14-46. With only 1:45 left to play, Martinez connected on a 15-yard pass to Este Benivamondez for the last touchdown of the night, 20-46.

The Bulldogs wrapped up regular season securing a play-off berth for the second year in a row. The Dogs will travel to Blackwell to face Paint Rock at 8 p.m. Friday.

Mesothelioma

EXPERIENCE COUNTS
Lawyers with over 100 years combined expertise.

may occur 30 to 50 years after exposure to asbestos. Many workers were exposed from the 1940s through the 1970s. Industrial and construction workers, along with their families (second hand exposure) are among those at risk for mesothelioma, lung cancer or gastro cancer (throat, stomach, colon). Call us for professional insight.

Lest we forget the price that was paid

"We often take for granted the very things that most deserve our gratitude." -Cynthia Ozick

"A people that values its privileges above its principles soon loses both." President Dwight D. Eisenhower

"The price of freedom is eternal vigilance." President Thomas Jefferson

"There are some who've forgotten why we have a military. It's not to promote war, it's to be prepared for peace." President Ronald Reagan

"The willingness with which our young people are likely to serve in any war, no matter how justified, shall be directly proportional to how they perceive the Veterans of earlier wars were treated and appreciated by their nation." President George Washington

"It is easy to take liberty for granted, when you have never had it taken from you. -Author unknown, sometimes attributed to M. Grundler

"We have enjoyed so much freedom for so long that we are perhaps in danger of forgetting how much blood it cost to establish the Bill of Rights." Felix Frankfurter

"They that can give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty or safety." Benjamin Franklin

"For those that will fight for it...Freedom...has a flavor the protected shall never know." -L/Cpl Edwin L. Craft, B Co. 3rd AT's, Khe Sahn Combat Base, February 1968

Tribute to America's Veterans

Copyright 1994 Marion G. Mahoney

"Those Honored Dead"
"Why do you fly the flag today?"
My Grandson wants to know.
I fly it for the graveyards
Where the countless crosses grow.

I fly the flag for children
Whose fathers are a name.
A half-remembered memory of a face within a frame.
I fly it for the families of sons and daughters lost.
They know the price of liberty
How terrible the cost!

I fly the flag for veterans who lost their youth in blood.
And saw their comrades slaughtered in the carnage and the mud.

I fly it for the ones who marched
In cadence off to war
To close their eyes forever
Upon some foreign shore.

I fly the flag for grief poured out
Upon a granite wall.
The laying-on of hands that heals
The scars within us all.

I fly it for the sound of Taps---
That melancholy tune
That lays to rest those honored dead
Who always die too soon.
