7,500-Foot Oil Test NW of City

A Midland firm has spotted a wildcat oil test in Mitchell County 15 miles northwest of Colorado City.

It is the F. W. Holbrook No. 1 J. C. Womack, which is scheduled to drill to a depth of 7,500 feet.

The deep prospector will be located at a site 660 feet from north and east lines of Section 17, Block 26, H&TC Survey.

Humble Oil & Refining Company has completed its No. 2 Bonita Phelan as a producer in the Westbrook Field of Mitchell County.

The No. 2 Phelan had a yield of 70.32 barrels of 24.9 gravity oil, plus 30 per cent water, after being fractured with 22,000 gallons.

Production was from open hole between 3,237 and 3,251 feet over total depth of 3,253 feet. However, pay was topped at 3,106 feet.

Learning Guard Assets

Texas National Guard officers and two of Colorado City's professional citizens talk over the advantages of civilian-type military service in hometown guard units in the shadow of a Battery C armored vehicle. They are, left to right, Capt. Truman Brown, San Angelo pharmacist; Dr. W. S. (Bill) Rhode, Supt. Frank Wilson and Capt. Bill Sorrell, San Angelo tool supply firm executive.

FOR TRAINING AT HOME

Seniors Told Battery C Among Top Guard Units

Twenty-five Colorado High senior boys Monday night heard from the toughest critic — the U. S. Regular Army — that Colorado City's Battery C is tops among National Guard units.

The seniors were guests at a Chamber of Commerce sponsored National Guard education dinner in Civic House.

Hosting the event were Colorado City businessmen, conspicuous by their absence from the dinner. In fact, only six business men were in attendance.

Ten officers from 648th Armored Field Artillery Battalion headquarters in San Angelo and Colorado City's Battery C — all units of Texas National Guard 49th Armored Division — were special guests at the dinner.

But it remained for Col. M. S. Kelley, U. S. Regular Army advisor for the 648th Battalion, to hand out the verbal bouquets for the guard unit.

"The 648th has been a leader within its division in training and performance for many years," Kelley reported, "and Colorado City's C Battery has been its best firing unit."

"I've never seen a National Guard organization perform so well as this battalion."

The Army colonel explained how young men can meet their military obligations to the country by serving in the National Guard at home — attending weekly drills, once-a-year training periods and one special six-month active duty period.

"You can join your hometown National Guard," Kelley emphasized, "and meet your military requirement with a minimum of interference with your civilian pursuits."

Other speakers at the Civic House dinner were Col. Ralph M. Trolinger of San Angelo, a trucking firm executive and commanding officer of the 648th Battalion, and Dr. W. S. (Bill) Rhode, representing the Chamber of Commerce.

The dinner was sponsored by the Chamber to educate high school seniors and business men to Battery C's National Guard program. It also emphasized the fact that unless membership in Battery C is increased to minimum requirements.

Dozens of items and products will be sold in the outdoor bazaar.

A bale of cotton and other articles will be sold in a special auction at 9 p. m., concluding feature of the festival.

READ IS TOP OFFICIAL

City Leagues Name Officers, Draft Expansion for Minors

Bob Read, office manager for Colorado Machine Shop, has been elected commissioner of City Leagues, top official for Colorado City's Pony, Little and Minor league baseball.

He was elected this week to succeed Joe Salter, former commissioner, who has moved to Odessa.

Re-elected to two other City Leagues major offices were Wayne Shaw, treasurer, and Ed Rothwell, equipment supervisor.

Officials also were elected for Pony League and Little League.

Heading the officials for Pony League is Therman Moore, who succeeds Bob Reilly. Other Pony officials are W. E. Harris, vice president, who will be in charge of securing umpires; Bill Carter, secretary, and Bob Reilly, player agent.

W. A. Hillhouse is the new president of Little League, succeeding Read, who moved up to the top City Leagues post. Hillhouse will direct both major and minor league play in the Little League program.

Other Little League officials are Ted Vinson, who will be in charge of securing umpires; Jack Burhalter, in charge of minor or farm league; Fred McKay, secretary; Brady (Pete) Warren, player agent.

Read revealed there will be one Pony League for the 1959 season with four teams.

For 1959 the Little League (major) will be increased to six teams. Last spring and summer it had only four teams.

Minor league program of the Little League will be expanded for the 1959 season, according to Read.

The minors next spring will include two leagues, including all boys who desire to participate. And the minors will be organized, too, according to age levels.

Expansion of the minors and setting up team play according to age is expected to be one of the most popular improvements for Little League program.

Representatives of Colorado City's Little League were in Sweetwater recently for a meeting of the District Little League. Ed Patton of Rotan was re-elected president of the district that includes Colorado City, one league; Abilene, seven leagues; Merkel, one league; Hamlin, one league; Rotan, one league; Sweetwater, two leagues, and Snyder, two leagues.

TO PLAN SEASON

Meeting Monday

Important meeting for the City Leagues' 1959 baseball program — Pony, Little and Minors — is scheduled Monday at 7:30 p. m. in Colorado Junior High.

All persons interested in the leagues' program for boys are urged to attend, according to City Leagues president, Bob Read.

Solicitation of team sponsors, assignment of team managers and coaches, expanded plans for the entire 1959 season will be major business topics for the meeting.

The meeting is for all interested persons — parents of potential players, league officials and all supporters of the youth baseball program, Read emphasized.

Conservation Work Speeds

Conservation work continues at a busy pace on farm and ranches of Mitchell County Soil District cooperators.

In the latest work are the completion of terrace lines on two farms, staking of two water ponds, signing and completing of Great Plains Conservation Program plans on two farms, plus preparation of Great Plains plans for eight other farms and ranches.

Terrace lines were run on farms of Thomas Gale and Hubert Howell, both receiving cost-sharing benefits from Agricultural Stabilization & Conservation. Systems at both farms are level with closed ends, designed by Soil Conservation Service personnel to hold all the water falling on the terrace-protected area.

Ponds were staked last week on the ranch of R. L. Solomon, west of Cuthbert, and the farm of Jack Walker, near Loraine. The projects are part of the conservation plan being applied by the pair as district cooperators.

Location and design of the ponds are for better distribution of livestock water.

Great Plains Conservation Program plans were signed and approved for the farm of Jasper Wood in the Buford community and the Rhode-Cowan farm in Longfellow community.

The Wood plan is for a three-year period and includes brush control, livestock water development, grass seeding, conservation cropping system, cover crops, deferred grazing and proper use of grass land.

Contour farming, terrace construction, diversion of stubble, seeding of cover and soil improvement crops, mesquite and cactus control, range seeding and pasture grasses, proper range use and deferred See WORK, Pg. 7

Christmas shopping season moves into high gear Thursday in Colorado City with Santa Claus and free candy for children, giveaway of 20 free turkeys and a special "Christmas Trees" money event.

It all will be downtown here Thursday afternoon and evening under the sponsorship of Chamber of Commerce merchants committee.

'Add A Festival Touch' Topic For 1949 Study Club Program

An out-of-town guest speaker, Mrs. John Sweeney of Odessa, was the highlight of the afternoon program of the 1949 Study Club Thursday, Nov. 20, in the home of Mrs. John Hale with Mrs. Dwayne Feaster as hostess.

"Add A Festival Touch" was the program topic and Mrs. Sweeney discussed principles of table arrangements and appointments, flowers, color and holiday party motifs.

"Have you considered how much pure stuff and nonsense surrounds this subject of table setting?" Mrs. Sweeney asked the group. "A lot of people believe there is something deep and mysterious about it. I do not believe there is any rule in the game that can not be broken."

"Remember setting a table for a flower show and setting a table at home, for fun, are two separate things," Mrs. Sweeney stated.

"First, you must learn the rules well — a few principles of balance, proportion and restraint—then apply the rules over and over until you get the look and feel you like," Mrs. Sweeney added.

"Decorating is just sheer fun! A delight in color, an awareness of balance, a feeling for lighting, a sense of style, a zest for life and an amused enjoyment of the smart accessories of the moment... or the treasures of the past," Mrs. Sweeney concluded.

Mrs. Jack Jordan Jr. introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Sweeney.

Mrs. Bill Carter, president, presided during a business session which preceded the program and a letter of resignation was read from Mrs. Joe Salter, who will be moving to Odessa with her family in the near future. The club voted to accept Mrs. Salter's resignation with regrets.

Mrs. Ben Sparks was elected to act as parliamentarian for the remainder of the club year.

Mrs. Jimmy Harrison, club treasurer, reported the chili supper sponsored by the club recently at the Primary School Cafeteria was a great success. This was a fund raising project of the club and the money will be used for various club projects during the year.

The hostess served refreshments to four guests, Mrs. Sweeney of Odessa, Mrs. J. K. Wood of Odessa, Mrs. Clyde Hall of Brady and Mrs. Benny Franks of Colorado City.

Members attending were Mrs. Max Caddell, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Garland Green, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Jimmie Kelley, Mrs. Fielding E. Lee Jr., Mrs. Sparks, Mrs. Gwan Strange, Mrs. H. Jene Steakley, Mrs. Ernest Larmer, Mrs. Bill Hudson and the hostess, Mrs. Feaster.

Mrs. Larmer will host the next meeting of the group Dec. 11. The program will feature a book review, "Merry Christmas, Mr. Baxter," presented by a guest reviewer, Mrs. B. J. Brown of Midland.

Mrs. White announced the third annual meeting planned for Tuesday Jan. 6, at the All Saints' Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Clarence Collins will present a film strip, "The Work of the World Council of Churches."

Rev. Don Mecoy will present the meditation and install the new officers.

Mrs. Bob Reilly, president-elect, was introduced by Mrs. White. Mrs. Reilly expressed appreciation for the work done by Mrs. White, retiring president. "Much of the progress made by the council was due to the time, effort and prayers, which Mrs. White has put into the work," Mrs. Reilly stated.

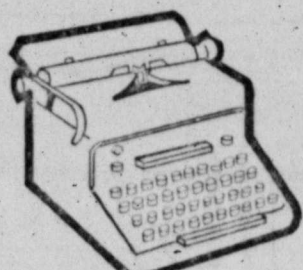

Mrs. Reilly spoke of her aims and named several proposed projects which included: Council sponsorship of a UNICEF project at Halloween. Sponsorship of a senior citizenship group. Change meeting dates of the council to coincide with dates of national observances.

Coffee Compliments Former Residents

Pleasant memories of a generation ago in Colorado City were recalled last Sunday afternoon during a coffee honoring Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Lindsay of Piedmont, Calif.; Mrs. Marguerite Looney Thomas of Castro Valley, Calif.; Mrs. Marcus Snyder of San Antonio, and Mrs. Juliet Looney Rowley of Ft. Davis in the home of Miss Martha Earnest and Joe Earnest.

The Earnests, their sisters, Mrs. Stewart Cooper, and Mrs. Lois Prude Bennett, cousin of the honorees, hosted the fete for sixty guests, who have lived here a great number of years.

The four entertaining rooms were decorated with bowls of autumn flowers, and white tapers, burning in crystal chandeliers and on mantels and buffets furnished a soft glow. The dining-table, covered with a heirloom handmade Normandy lace banquet cloth, held the silver service.

Mrs. Etta Doss Metley and Mrs. Carey Prude Jr., the latter a cousin of the honorees, poured coffee and tea.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gill of Abilene, and Mrs. Bennett's cousin and house-guest, Mrs. Sam Easley Jr. of Taylor.

RHODE, AINSWORTH SPEAKERS

'21 Club Program Features Discussion of Oil Industry

The 1921 Study Club program featured a discussion of the Oil Industry — Friday, Nov. 21, in the home of Mrs. J. T. Pritchett.

Mrs. O. E. (Oscar) Rhode and Mrs. R. P. (Pete) Ainsworth were speakers for the afternoon program.

Mrs. Rhode's topic was "Brief History of the Beginning of the Oil Industry."

"Mr. Dee of Texas" was the topic presented by Mrs. Ainsworth.

"The earliest record of the discovery of oil is 1775 in the state of Pennsylvania," Mrs. Rhode stated. "The early settlers in this forsaken country first noticed it as a scum on the water and since they had to bath in the creeks it was necessary to push the oily scum back."

"But soon they discovered that the oily substance made their skin soft and the worst of all cured their aches and pains and skin diseases," Mrs. Rhode added. "So they began to skim the oil from the creeks and put it in containers and use it for medicine. The bottles of oil were carried by horse back from town to town and sold as a cure for all ailments — human or animal."

Mrs. Rhode said. "From then until 1817 petroleum had no other value. The next step was the discovery of oil in the ground or oil springs by Sam Kier at Oil Creek, Penn."

Mrs. Rhode explained. "Then in 1859 a man by the name of Drake invented a way to drill a well — by using steam engines. This discovery marked the launching of the petroleum industry," Mrs. Rhode said.

Mrs. Ainsworth had this to say of "Mr. Dee of Texas" — "E. L. DeGolyer was an oil man, hook man, geologist, a successful man, who never thought of himself as such."

"Born in a sod hut in Kansas, he worked his way through the University of Oklahoma, but became a millionaire before he graduated from college by striking oil in Mexico," Mrs. Ainsworth told the group.

"Later—in his Mexican hacienda style house in Dallas White Rock Lake area, Mr. Dee had an incredible room of books that he started collecting in 1914. Not rare books, but books he liked. He gave his scientific books to OU and poetry collection to the University of Texas. He gave millions for charity, but not one cent for propaganda," Mrs. Ainsworth added.

"He took his own life, thus the same fierce independence which characterized his life also marked his death."

"A scholar first—a business man second," Mrs. Ainsworth concluded.

Mrs. P. K. Mackey was leader for the regular meeting of the club.

Members answered the afternoon roll call with a "By Product of Oil."

During the business session members voted to make a cash contribution to the State Hospital in Big Spring. The money will be used to buy Christmas gifts for the patients.

A letter was read from the club's pen pal, who lives in Greece.

Miss Virginia Sue Narrell Weds Fred L. Nebrig Jr.

The Grace Lutheran Church in Midland was the setting Thursday, Nov. 27, for the wedding of Miss Virginia Sue Narrell of Midland and Fred L. Nebrig Jr. of Fort Worth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Narrell of Loraine.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Nebrig of Wichita Falls.

Rev. A. Fuerber, pastor of the church, read the double ring vows at five o'clock in the afternoon before an archway entwined with white tapers and covered with greenery. Flanking the arch were large twin baskets of white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown fashioned from Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over taffeta. The molded bodice of lace was designed with a sabrina neckline and the bouffant skirt of tiny tulle ruffles was enhanced by a scalloped overskirt of the Chantilly lace.

Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls.

She carried a bridal bouquet of white fuji chrysanthemums tied with satin streamers.

Mrs. George Warfield, organist, of Midland presented traditional wedding music — "O Perfect Love," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Lois Bradley of Midland was the maid of honor.

Miss Bradley was attired in an orchid dress of peau de soire styled with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her headpiece was fashioned from orchid net and she carried orchid chrysanthemums.

Ushers and candlelighters were Bill and Garland Narrell, brothers of the bride.

Bob Morrow of Midland was best man.

A reception, in Fellowship Hall of the church immediately following the ceremony, honored the couple.

The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth over orchid and decorated with bridal flowers and a three-tiered wedding cake.

Members of the houseparty for the reception included Mrs. Miles Podlpin, Mrs. Roy Milks and Mrs. Bob Dean.

When the couple left for a short honeymoon, the bride was wearing a dress of brown faille and her accessories were brown and beige.

The couple will reside in Fort Worth.

The bride was graduated from Loraine High School and has been employed by the Bell Telephone Company in Midland for the past year and a half.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Wichita Falls High School, is employed by Western Electric in Fort Worth.

Out-of-town guests attended from Houston, Big Spring, Wichita Falls, Loraine and Roswell, N. M.

SWEETWATER DOMINATES SQUAD

Weaver, Simmons Named To 3-AAA All-District

Champion Sweetwater dominates the All-District 3-AAA team for the 1958 season with six of its players making the mythical team.

Snyder with three and Colorado City with two rounds out the first team. Lake View and Lamesa failed to land one on the first team but the two teams dominated the second team balloting with Lake View landing four and Lamesa three on the second unit.

End Pat Fraley of Sweetwater was the only unanimous choice of the coaches and sports writers who picked the official all-district team. The head coach and one sports writer from each member school made up the all-district panel.

Fraley was one of three repeaters on the all-district team. The other two were quarterback Richard Mahan of Snyder and fullback James Parker of Sweetwater.

In addition to Fraley and Parker, the other Mustangs making the mythical team were end Jackie Fielder, guard Don Bishop, center Eugene Creech and halfback Eddie Scott.

Joining Mahan for Snyder on the all-district team were guard Mickey McGrew and halfback Dick Hayes.

Colorado City rounded out the first team by putting both of its tackles on the team, Ray Weaver and Ken Simmons.

Balloting was pretty close at all positions with the tightest races being for quarterback and halfback positions. Mahan edged John Bryant of Sweetwater for quarterback by two points, 16-14, while Hayes and Scott each compiled 16 points at halfback to 14 for Larry Marshall of Lamesa.

Points were based at two for each first team vote, one for each second team vote.

The first team line averages 176 pounds per man to 170 for the backfield.

Eight seniors, two juniors and one sophomore make up the second team. The lone soph was tackle Billy Bryant of Sweetwater. The two juniors are Nat Self of Lamesa at end and fullback Howard Westmoreland also of Lamesa.

Three members of last year's second team, Weaver McGrew and Scott moved up to first this season, while one member of last year's first team, center Bill Rinehart of Snyder, dropped to the second team this year.

The Record Sports Editor's choices for All-District hit the bullseye again this year.

Joe Boatright correctly selected six of the 11 players on the first team.

Boatright picked Howard Westmoreland of Lamesa at halfback and Bill Rinehart of Snyder at center on the first team but they landed on the second team with Dick Hayes of Snyder edging Westmoreland and Eugene Creech of Sweetwater edging Rinehart.

Both Hayes and Creech were second team choices for Boatright.
