City Approves Budget, Sets Street Work

No one appeared at the public hearing of the proposed city budget Monday, Oct. 5, and the plans to spend $644,640 in fiscal year 1981-82 were approved by the city council without dissenting vote. The entire procedure took about 5 minutes.

This expense figure is up $55,992 from that of 1980-81. Proposed revenues for 1981-82 are $693,590. Last year's actual revenue was $592,248.54.

City Manager Glen Taylor reminded council members that the city's evaluations figures have not been received from the county tax appraisal board and the tax rate cannot be set until evaluations are received.

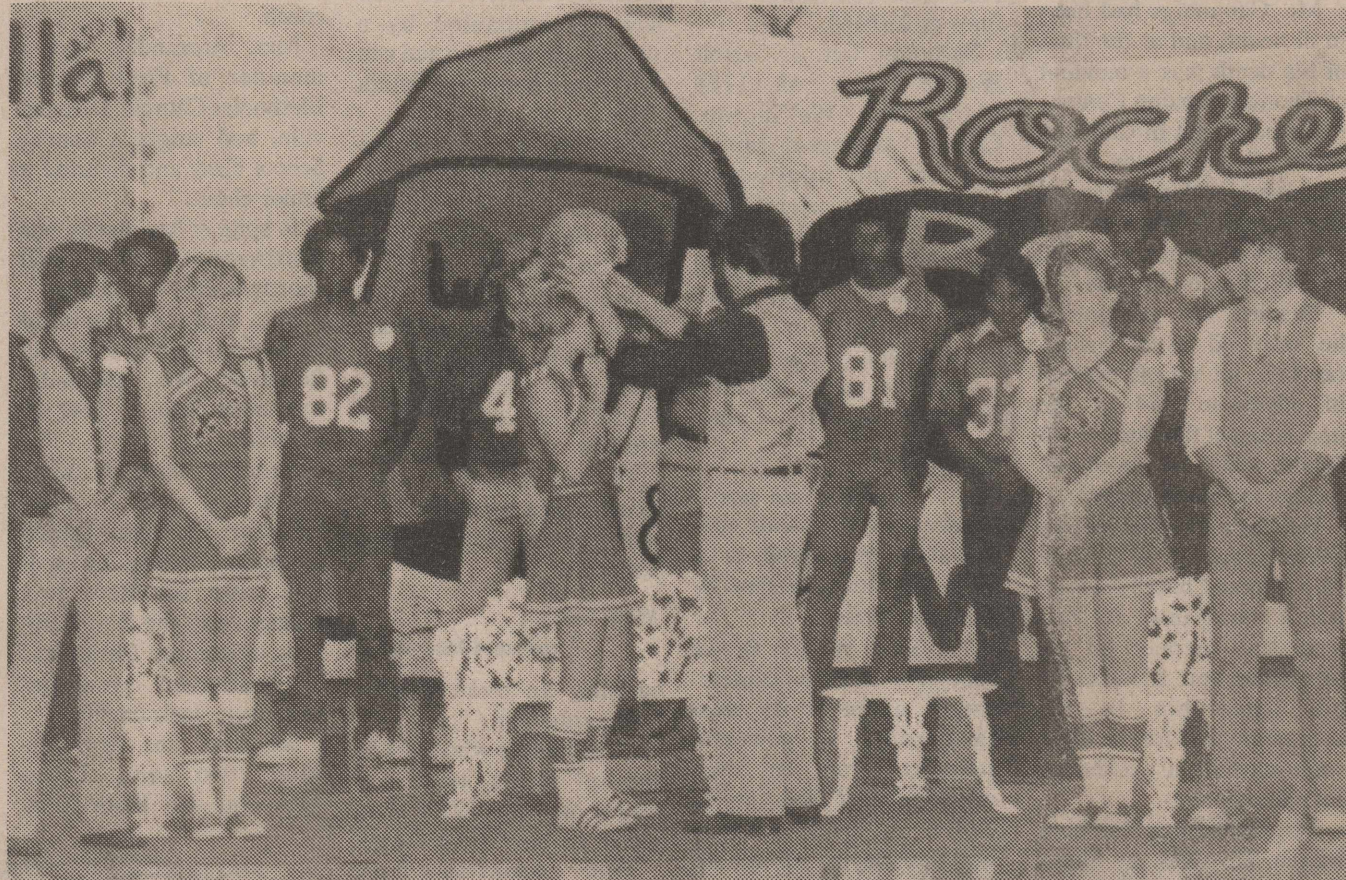

Scott Wesley Brown in Concert Here Saturday

Contemporary Christian singer and recording artist Scott Wesley Brown will appear in concert at Wellington High School Auditorium Saturday, Oct. 10, in an exciting experience aimed at teenagers and young adults.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. The appearance in southeast-Panhandle-Southwest Oklahoma, of one of the country's top singers with a ministry in contemporary Christian music is possible only because Wellington lies on a direct route, from California, where he has been appearing in concerts, and Nashville, Tenn., where his recording studio is located.

The concert is sponsored by the Collingsworth Ministerial Alliance and tickets are available in Wellington at Saied's Department Store and in Dodson from Rev. Dennis Hayes. The price is $2.00 each.

Brown's music is exciting and upbeat. It draws Barbecue and Business Attract 700 Farm Bureau Members Sat.

Between 600 and 700 Farm Bureau members, their families and guests are expected to attend the organization's annual barbecue, convention and election of officers Saturday, Oct. 10.

Serving the barbecue will begin at 6 p.m. and the business meeting should start about 7:30, said Denzil Lacy, president.

The big county-wide event will be held in Bura Handley Community Center.

All farm bureau members are urged to come in and help with the barbecue preparations, which will go on all day Friday and up to serving time Saturday.

Seven hundred pounds of choice meat will be cooked in a pit in the traditional method.

Willie Knoll, who for many years cooked all the meat, will prepare the barbecue sauce this year, by a recipe whose contents he has never revealed.

Lacy will preside at the meeting.

Approximately 15 resolutions will be voted on, primarily relating to various angles of the farm program, he said. There will be local and state issues up for voting also.

Two high school students who attended the citizenship seminar at Baylor University, Tim Harris and Leigh Myrick, will attend and have been invited to discuss the seminar.

Bob Low, Texas Farm Bureau field representative, will attend.

Members will hear a report on the year's activities on Farm Bureau Insurance.

Another major piece of business for FB members to take care of will be the election of 1981-82 officers.

Jerry Lewis will present the slate of nominees and nominations will be accepted from the floor.

Outgoing officers are Lacy, who is completing his second term as president; Andy Bell, first vice president; Mike Hughes, second vice-president; and Benton Wauer, secretary.

Kids Champion Fire Prevention Week

Wellington Volunteer Fire Department is observing National Fire Prevention Week October 4 through 10, with emphasis on teaching boys and girls to do just that--prevent fires. An open house is scheduled for Saturday from 2 to 5:30 p.m.

Under the leadership of Eddie Davis, assistant chief, several department members took firefighting equipment to Wellington Elementary School. The children saw the equipment, learned how it worked, and watched as it was demonstrated. Firemen handed out booklets, pamphlets, coloring books and other material that relates to fire prevention.

This week, children in grades K through 5 are making fire prevention posters which will be judged Thursday and exhibited at the school Friday.

Plaques will be awarded to winners of first, second and third places in three divisions: kindergarten and first grade, grades two and three, and grades four and five. Fire Chief Danny Gray announced. Plaques were donated by the Fire Department and Wellington State Bank.

Winning posters will be entered later in the state fire prevention poster contest.

Cub Scouts are making other fire prevention posters in a separate project, and these will be shown in the display windows of Wellington merchants, Gray said.

Wellington firemen will host the open house at the fire station Saturday. Firefighting equipment will be on display and new equipment acquired during the year will be explained to visitors.

"We want the people of Wellington to be proud of what we have. We're proud of it. Of course we'd like to have more, but we are adding gradually to what we have," said the fire chief. The last event which the Wellington volunteer department holds in relation to National Fire Prevention week is the annual election meeting on Monday, Oct. 12.

Fire department officers in addition to Gray and Davis are Keith Upchurch, 2nd assistant chief; Dan Langford, president; J.D. Sheer, secretary-treasurer; lieutenants, Elmer Green, Billy Wilkerson, Darrell Colson, Jeff Langford and

Multi-unit Housing Financing Available

Funding to construct multi-family housing for those in moderate and low income brackets is available to Collingsworth County as it becomes a part of the Panhandle Regional Housing Finance Corporation.

The corporation which includes all 20 counties in the Panhandle was established under the Texas Housing Finance Corporation Act of 1980. This enables sponsoring local government units (the counties) to sell revenue bonds to be loaned for construction of duplexes and multi-family units including apartments.

It is believed that single family housing units will be included in the program later.

County Judge Bob Watson was appointed by the Commissioners Court as the director for this county.

"This is a way to bring much needed housing to middle and low income people of Collingsworth County, concentrating first on multi unit structures with the possibility of single unit dwellings at a later date," he said.

Weekly meetings of the 20 directors are held in Amarillo.

This group includes not only county judges but bankers, savings and loan association heads and other lenders, builders, developers and insurance brokers.

Because this is a non-profit corporation, interest rates to the borrower will be lower than the current prime.

That is the key to the whole program, Judge

Watson pointed out. The corporation retains 1% of the total of any bond issue to cover operation costs.

Laws have prohibited this type of financing in the past.

The judge says that the term, moderate and low income "should be taken with a grain of salt."

Corporation directors have already set a maximum income of $40,000 for 70% of those in the moderate-upper level income bracket, occupying the multi-family units.

Judge Watson believes this will be a boon to Collingsworth County, with its constantly tight rental situation.

He also points out that all indications are that oil and gas drilling will move into the county in 1982 and

Non-District Schedule Ends at Quanah Friday

Wellington Skyrockets travel to Quanah this week to meet the Indians for the final game before district play begins.

Game time is 8 p.m. "As far as we know they haven't posted a win," said Coach James Williams, "but they have been playing real good defense and they haven't allowed a lot of points against themselves."

The Indians opened the season with Childress and lost 20-12. This was followed by losses to Clarendon 35-6, Memphis 14-13 and Shamrock 14-6.

"They had an open date last Friday night and they've had two weeks to get ready for us," said the Rocket head coach.

He believes this will be a different ball club to last year.

"It was mostly a senior ball club and they won the district championship last year and the year before. They had lost only two games out of 20 until this year.

The Indians and Rockets are about the same size, weightwise.

In Hodo, Quanah has one of the fastest backfield players the Rockets will meet this year. Williams compares him to Childress' Sims.

"Scouting reports are they've thrown the ball about 50 times - in the two games we've seen. We look for a good passing attack. We're going to have to get some momentum this week before we start district games. "On last week's loss to River Road, I felt we were a little flat. We didn't catch well and broke down in defense some. We need a little better block. We're going to have to overcome our loss to River Road and get ready to play.

An AA team, Quanah was sidetracked from last year's trip to the state championship by Rotan in a bi-district game that ended in a tie.

Because Rotan had more penetrations, that team advanced toward the AA championship.

The Rockets may be without Darren Hall, who cracked bones in his right hand in the River Road game.

"He probably won't be playing Friday," Williams said.

On the other hand, Matthew Hanna, who had an appendectomy two weeks ago, started running in shorts again Monday and coaches are hoping he will be able to play in the Wheeler game.

information regarding the sale became public last week, a local group showed intense interest in retaining independent ownership of City State, and the Wellington State officials deferred from the arrangement in order to give the group of businessmen an opportunity to make a bid on the bank.

Long and Diamond purchased Security Bankshares in December, 1977 and Long has served as City State Bank president since that time.

City State Bank directors are Jim Diamond, Paul Bell, Richard Fourmentin and Louis Allred.

Equalization Board Work Nearly Done

The Collingsworth County board of equalization completed Monday a marathon 8 days of hearings on new property appraisals. Although the board still has some details to finish, most of their work is complete. The board will meet again, but no date has been set at this time, chief appraiser John Duncan said.

Tax collector Ann Wauer's office is working this week to total the new valuations by Thursday in order to give the county and hospital district total tax roll valuations against which they will set tax rates at public meetings scheduled for Thursday. Corrections to the tax roll ordered by the board of equalization have been made on the roll.

Mrs. Wauer said that taxpayers who appeared before the board of equalization and whose property valuation was changed either up or down will receive notices of the new valuation. No one else will receive further notices before the tax bills go in the mail.

And Mrs. Wauer said that she expected the tax bills to be in the mail at least by November 1.

Holy Sanctuary Church Opens Revival Monday

A revival meeting will start Monday night, Oct. 12, at 7:30 at Holy Sanctuary Church of God in Christ, and continue through the following Sunday, ending at 3 p.m.

It is the first revival in the new church, which is located at 400 Dallas Street.

The pastor, Elder Jimmy Barber will conduct the meeting and the speaker each night will be evangelist-missionary Aida Sango, a member of the church.

"Guests from churches throughout the country are invited," said Elder Barber who called Mrs. Sango "a dynamic speaker."

Dinner will be served after services each night in the parsonage just west of the church.

"We want to invite all our friends and neighbors to come out and fellowship with us. We look for a great crowd each night," he declared.

There will be prayers for the sick each night, and those who are asked to come. "We look for the Lord to move in a big mysterious way," said the pastor.

Absentee Vote Begins Oct. 14

Absentee voting in the upcoming state constitutional amendment election will begin Wednesday, Oct. 14, and continue through Friday, Oct. 30, Helen Gollighugh, county clerk, has announced.

The election will be Tuesday, November 3.

Mrs. Gollighugh outlined the procedures for making application to vote absentee: Those wishing to cast an absentee vote by personal appearance must come to Mrs. Gollighugh's office and sign a form as to why they wish to vote absentee. They will receive a ballot and vote in the office.

Those wishing to cast an absentee ballot by mail may request an official application form which will be given to them and which they are to fill out and return to the clerk's office, or they may request the ballot by mail. The ballot will then be mailed to that voter.

Valid reasons for voting absentee include expected absence of the voter, 65 years of age or older, religious belief, sickness of physical disability, working as election clerk or poll watcher; confinement in jail, or administrator of elections.

The last legislature, in Senate Bill 531 effective August 31, dispensed with the requirement that a voter who is disabled must have the signature of a physician on his certificate of physical disability. Instead, the voter is now entitled to certify his own disability by signing a statement stating that he understands that giving false information in this certificate is a crime.

The clerk's office hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The average time between high tide and low tide is six hours.

When potatoes were first introduced into Europe, people were skeptical, ate only the leaves and threw the rest away.

New Measles Shot Rule for High School

All high school students who have not had measles or who have not already had a measles shot, are required under new regulations to have a shot, according to Freya Hammons, school nurse.

Students who have had measles must have a physician's statement verifying this.

Those who will need to get a measles shot may go to the free clinic Monday, October 12 at the Community Action Center, 612 East Avenue. The time is 1:30 to 4 p.m.

This is the regular bi-monthly clinic which offers vaccines that also give protection against polio, diphtheria, lock jaw, whooping cough, rubella and mumps.

Mrs. Hammons emphasized that those students wishing to have a measles shot from their family doctor should do so.

Speech Students To Conference

Gay McAlister, high school speech instructor, took two students to the annual UIL Student Activities Conference at WTSU, Canyon on Sept. 19.

This is not competition, but it is demonstrations for both teachers and students. UIL officials from Austin were present to answer questions.

Todd Roberson attended the section on prose interpretation and later the one-act play section.

Mrs. McAlister and Camille Smith attended the one-act play section. Demonstrations from other high schools and simulated judging were featured.

WE ARE ENJOYING A WHOLE LOT OF A GOOD THING

For many years now, most of us have taken a plentiful supply of electricity for granted. We've found more and more uses for electricity, because, as Reddy Kilowatt kept telling us:

Electricity is Reliable
Electricity is Clean
Electricity is Efficient
Electricity is Quiet
Electricity is Flexible and
Electricity is Low in Price

Electricity is still all of these things... even low in price compared to other goods and services. But there's no escaping the fact that costs of supplying it are constantly going up... and so is usage.

People in WTU territory are using more electricity than ever before (9,020 kilowatt-hours per residential customer in 1980, compared to 5,856 in 1970).

With the demand for its product steadily increasing, WTU can't stand still. It must grow, too.

The growth is carefully planned, with the customer's welfare foremost in mind. WTU is considering only the necessities. But to keep giving the kind of service you're used to, we're going to be involved in some costly updating of production, transmission and distribution facilities. And, of course, we must maintain a staff of people qualified to keep the system operating. You can depend on WTU to continue providing a reliable supply of electricity. But let's all realize what it takes to produce it, and use it wisely. It's too good to take for granted.

Shades of emerald and mint green were used in altar decorations, which included a heart-shaped candelabra and 15-branched candelabras at each side. They were entwined with foliage and flowers.

Aisles were marked with candles in hurricane globes, with garlands of foliage and satin streamers.

Wedding music was presented by Danny Kendrick of Amarillo, organist, while Mrs. Billy Wilkerson of Wellington and Teresa Polvadore of Amarillo were the vocalists.

Mr. Phipps gave his daughter in marriage. Her formal wedding gown was designed with lace sleeves and a Queen Anne neckline, edged in lace sprinkled with bridal pearls. Her floor-length skirt, with three tiers bordered in lace, swept to a lace-trimmed chapel train.

Her lace edged veil was elbow length and attached to a dainty headpiece. She carried a bouquet of silk miniature carnations, daisies and foliage, tied with lace streamers.

Deanna Hanes was the matron of honor and bridesmaids were Sheri Ewing, cousin of the bride and Glenda Keaton all of Amarillo, and Rhonda Phipps of Wellington, sister-in-law of the bride. Their formal length dresses alternated mint and emerald green chiffon over satin. They carried bouquets of daisies and miniature carnations, with foliage and satin streamers matching their dresses. They wore flowers in their hair.

MRS. LEE TEMPLETON

Stacy Urban of Wellington was best man and groomsmen were Pat McKay of Amarillo, Joe Ed White of Shamrock and Jim Phipps of Wellington, brother of the bride.

Ushers were Greg Ewing, cousin of the bride, and Don Lakey, both of Amarillo.

The flower girl and ring bearer were cousins of the bride, Janie Wilkerson of Wellington and Billy Ray Willard of San Antonio.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Phipps were hosts at the reception for the couple.

The bride's table was laid with a white tiered cloth, and punch was served from a crystal bowl used at many festive celebrations of the bridegroom's family. This was given to his grandparents, the late Judge and Mrs. R.H. Templeton, at their wedding by the Texas Farmers Union, of which his great grandfather, Newton Gresham, was a founder. The tiered wedding cake and foliage arrangements completed the table decoration.

Members of the house party were Hazel Ledbetter of Amarillo, great-aunt of the bride, Mrs. Bobo Castleberry of Wellington, aunt of the groom and Mrs. Pat Willard of San Antonio, aunt of the bride.

Upon returning from their wedding trip to Red River, New Mexico and Colorado, the couple will live at 6213 I-40 West, Amarillo.

The bride graduated from Canyon High School and plans to attend Amarillo College. A graduate of Wellington High School, the bridegroom attended Clarendon Junior College and West Texas State University. He is now employed by Bell Helicopter in Amarillo.

Wedding guests from Wellington included Mr. and Mrs. C.O. Wilkerson, Mrs. Amos Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wilkerson with Janie and Bobby, Judge and Mrs. Templeton, Mr. and Mrs. Bobo Castleberry, Miss Kim Castleberry, Mrs. Gary Lemons and Mrs. Boyd Derryberry. The group was joined by Miss Edyth Jackson of Pampa, Miss Suzy Castleberry of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. George Hutchings and Miss Mary Hutchings of Palestine.

Null Family Gathers for Reunion Oct 3-4

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. A.F. Null held their annual reunion at Bura Handley Community Center Saturday and Sunday, October 3 and 4.

The late Mr. Null came to Collingsworth County in 1908 from Ninnakah, Ok., and bought a 120 acre farm southwest of town. Ray Null now owns and operates the farm.

He built a half dug-out and lived in it until a year after his marriage to Docia Rankin in 1910. At that time they built a two room house, adding on to it as their family grew.

Mr. Null was born in Brown County March 4, 1880. Mrs. Null was born in Denton County August 5, 1894. Her mother died when she was two years old and her father, Robert Russell Rankin, went back to Alabama where he was raised and married a friend of the family, Virginia Ray. They later moved to the Quail community. Mrs. Elbert Watts of Wellington is a half-sister of the late Mrs. Null.

The Ray Nulls hosted a hamburger supper for the group Saturday night. Some of the family visited gravesites of Mr. and Mrs. Null early Sunday morning.

The Rev. Fred Null preached in the morning service at the Fundamental Baptist Church Sunday. This was the church where he entered the ministry before attending Bible College at Ft. Worth.

During the short business meeting, Ray Null was elected president and Mrs. Bonnie Jackson secretary-treasurer and chairman of the family news letter, which was started four years ago.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bishop of Marlow, Ok.; Mrs. Bonnie Jackson of Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Elam and Geraldyn of Skellytown; Mr. and Mrs. George Winegeart and Mrs. Colleen Lowe of Pampa;

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ray Winegeart and Sabrina of Lefors; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Smith and Mikie and Mrs.

John Lowe, Shana and Ollie of Pampa;

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Prestidge and Mandy of Shamrock; Rev. and Mrs. Fred Null of Ninnakah, Ok.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hughes of Matador; Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Cleveland and Marla of Glenrose;

Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Young of Pampa; Mrs. Charles Wright and Charlie of Olney, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Whitten, Mark Allen and Paul Bryan of Childress and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Null.

The spoon as we know it today, with its spatulate handle, dates from only the 18th century.

THANK YOU

We wish to express our deepest thanks and appreciation for all the food, flowers and phone calls we received at the loss of our loved one. A special thanks also to the Wellington Ambulance Service for their efforts and quick response. God Bless you all.

Other Editors Say . . .

To The Victors

"Them that has gets." That is an un-grammatical but unfortunately an accurate summation of Reaganomics.

The corollary is, of course, that them that have not get not.

In view of that, the government policy of maintaining interest rates at record-breaking high levels is perfectly understandable. High interest rates...now at the 20 percent level and up...are anathema to borrowers who must add the high cost of money to their other business expenses.
But they are fine for investors, who have substantial capital funds to put into those high-yielding money-market certificates at 16 to 18 percent.

"Them that has gets." Or to put it more elegantly, in the words of the parable, "to everyone who has, even more will be given; but the one who does not have, even the little that he has will be taken away from him." (Luke 18:26)

Reaganomics may be perverting the meaning of the Scripture, but is aptly applying the literal word.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Two Universal Studio trucks pulled up behind the State Capitol
last week, causing quite a stir among office staff experiencing a lull in political gales.

The trucks carried equipment for shooting a sequence of "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas," a play about former Gov.
Dolph Briscoe's closing of the famed La Grange institution.

Scheduled for filming this week is the scene where the villain pounds on the Governor's office door, demanding to know why the brothel remains open for business.

The filming comes at an appropriate time when most legislators are back home making a living and many state officials are out pounding the bushes for future
political races.

Except for the motion picture commotion, Capitol halls are strangely quiet as officials seek to renew their ties with "the people."

Political Races

For elected officials,
these autumn months are crucial because the political soundings and readings provide a basic shape of next year's general election and primary ballots.

In the governor's race,
incumbent Republican Bill Clements has indicated he will seek re-election and will formally announce in the near future.

Jockeying to win the Democratic primary are Briscoe, Tyler State Sen.
Peyton McKnight, and Land Commissioner Bob
Armstrong. Briscoe is said to be still making up his mind, while McKnight is out beating the bushes
across the state for support.

Armstrong said last week
he fully expects to get in the race and may make his announcement this month. After asking around and finding no "negative" feedback,

he will file this week so he can raise money.

His moderate candidacy
may well force either Briscoe or McKnight out of the race to avoid splitting the conservative vote.

Lt. Governor

Texas Secretary of State
George Strake was expected to announce sometime this week he would seek the post of lieutenant governor,
now held by Bill Hobby.

Hobby sat quiet about his intentions during the regular and special sessions, but now he is out mustering
support among Democrats.
No primary opponent is forecast now.

As a state official, Hobby
is said to be hardworking, but dull. A recent hunting story now going around,
and which Hobby sometimes tells on himself, certainly changes that image
somewhat.

Hobby reportedly was down in Mexico recently on a dove hunting trip provided by the Texas Chemical Council for 30 legislators.

He was standing in a field when he felt a stinging sensation in his legs and looked down to find a huge bed of red ants.

"There was nothing to do but drop my pants and run," he said, a sight which cracked up his colleagues
for days.

Another anecdote told about that junket is on State Rep. Bill Haley, D-Center. Haley was lifting his 12-gauge to shoot and prematurely pulled the trigger, blasting away the toe of his boot. Thinking he had just shot off his toes, Haley said he could only stare for minutes at the ripped leather, finally realizing he had luckily missed his foot.

Other legislators on the trip awarded him the "Mike

Martin Marksmanship
Award" after the incident.
Haley shoots much better on the floor of the House, where he is a staunch defender of public education.

Perot Medicaid

Dallas multi-millionaire
H. Ross Perot is thought to be retaining the state's lucrative Medicaid contract
after the Board of Human Resources last week approved new guidelines.

No bids will be taken until February, but potential competitor companies say it is now almost impossible to take the contract away from Perot-owned National Heritage Insurance Company.

Singing Treasurer

State Treasurer Warren
G. Harding, until now only a shower singer, has cut a country and western single featuring Texas patriotic songs.

Harding denies he is going to run for governor a la
"Pappy" O'Daniel, who composed "Beautiful Texas" to launch his 1940 campaign.

He cut the disc for sale
as a favor to his friends in a Dallas Lions Club, trying to raise money for charity.

Senator Bill Sarpalius Reports

PROPERTY TAX AMENDMENT

AUSTIN — Another important amendment on the November ballot for you,

the voters, to decide, is one that will allow local taxing entities to grant tax exemptions for homeowners.

HJR 81 would permit
school districts, counties,
and similar bodies to cut taxes for homeowners by as much as 40 percent until 1984. Then the exemption tapers down to 30 percent from 1985 until 1987, and 20 percent thereafter. Each home would receive an exemption of at least $5,000, whatever its value.

Support for this amendment came because of the effects of the Peveto (tax reform) bill.

The Peveto bill requires that each county create a tax appraisal district which will appraise all the property in a county. This system will replace the old method under which each county, city, school district,
etc., had its own appraisers.
The duplication of effort in the old system meant that many pieces of property have not been appraised in many years. This, of course, will change when the new boards take over.

What all this will mean is that property will be reappraised soon, and will be appraised at present values,
which are high.

Supporters of the amendment say the high tax rates for homesteads caused by the reappraisals are unfair
because inflation has pushed up the values of homes faster than the values of other property. The new re-appraisals will cause taxes to rise dramatically, forcing some people to sell their homes. The amendment merely cushions the blow of the new rates and allows homeowners to budget for the higher rates that return
shortly.

Opponents say the amendment provides no relief for renters, who pay property taxes in the form of rents. Also, the amendment provides the most relief for the most expensive homes.

Once again, it is up to you,

the voters, to decide whether you think homeowners need tax relief. As always, we are interested in hearing from you about what you think the Legislature should do about property taxes. Please write to Senator Bill Sarpalius,
P. O. Box 12068, Austin,
Texas 78711.

THOMAS ROLL CALL REPORT

Your Congressman's Votes

WASHINGTON---

Here's how area members of Congress were recorded
on major roll call votes Sept.
24 - 30.

HOUSE

HIGHWAYS The House
passed, 377 for and 25
against, a bill authorizing $8.2 billion in federal highway aid for FY 1982.
The bill emphasizes the repair of interstates rather than new construction and the rehabilitation of bridges.

Members voting "yea"
supported the bill.

Reps. Samuel Hall, D-1,
Charles Wilson, D-2, Ralph
Hall, D-4, Jim Mattox, D-5,
Phil Gramm, D-6, Bill
Archer, R-7, Jack Fields,
R-8, Jack Brooks, D-9, Jake
Pickle, D-10, J. Marvin
Leath, D-11, James Wright,

D-12, Jack Hightower, D-13,
Kika de la Garza, D-15,
Richard White, D-16,
Charles Stenholm, D-17,
Mickey Leland, D-18, Kent
Hance, D-19, Tom Loeffler,
D-21, Abraham Kazen,
D-23, and Martin Frost,
D-24, voted "yea."

Reps. James Collins, R-3, and Ron Paul, R-22, voted
"nay."

Reps. William Patman,
D-14, and Henry Gonzalez,
D-20, did not vote.

CONGRESSMEN'S

TAXES The Senate adopted, 50 for and 48 against, an amendment to repeal the $3,000 maximum tax deduc-tion that members of Congress can claim for Washington living expenses. Congressmen would be able to itemize and deduct Washington expenses such as housing and meals in the same way that businessmen are allowed "away from home" deductions. Although congressmen live the majority of the year in Washington, their "tax homes" in the eyes of the IRS are in their home states.

Senators voting "yea"
wanted to repeal the $3,000
maximum deduction that congressmen are allowed for Washington living expenses.

Sen. John Tower, R,
voted "yea."

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D,
voted "nay."

River Road Downs Rockets 14-6

River Road Wildcats rolled over Wellington 14-6 here Friday, Oct. 2, to hand the Skyrockets their first defeat of the season.

Shane Cobb's 67 yard punt after the Rockets' first possession rolled to the River Road 1 yard line where Calvin Culpepper downed it. But the Rockets next two possessions ended with a pass interception and a fumble recovery by River Road.

And as the second quarter began the Wildcats retaliated with a 43 yard punt that gave Wellington a starting position on their own 1 yard line. On fourth down Shane Cobb took a low snap from inside the 10 yard line, eluded a tackler and got the punt away, but it was only a temporary reprieve.

River Road came back with a drive keyed by a 36 yard pass from quarterback Jeff Reynolds to Ross Welch. Then Allen Sanders scored from the 15 yard line with 4:37 to play in the half. Duke Sanders' extra point kick made it 7-0.

The Rockets passing game deserted them in the first half. A receiver would run a perfect pattern, get open, and the ball would come sailing on target, but on several important occasions the receivers couldn't find the handle.

The tide seemed to turn for the Rockets late in the fourth quarter when Rand Johnson recovered a River Road fumble at the midfield stripe. On third down Bruce Alexander connected to Kenneth Warren with a 25 yard pass that saw Warren slip around a defender to the 22 yard line. Tim Harris picked up six, Kenneth Warren followed Willie Pennon's block for 3 more, and then in two plays Tim Harris used great blocking by the entire Rocket offensive line to take the ball to the one yard line. Harris scored from the 1 with 4:45 to play in the game.

ON THE FINGERTIPS

The football dances in front of Calvin Culpepper, 82, but he couldn't hang on to the pass—one of many passes that didn't go the Rockets' way Friday against River Road.

The Rockets went for the win with an extra-point run, but the effort fell short and the Rockets trailed 7-6.

But then on second down after Mark Hunnicutt's kickoff, River Road's Gary Martin broke through Rocket defenses with a great broken field running effort for a 62 yard touchdown to put the game away for River Road. Duke Sanders extra point kick made it 14-6 with 3:53 to play.

Program Cites WHS Senior

Eddie Hankins, Wellington High School principal, has announced that a senior, Valerie Van Pelt, is being commended in the 27th annual National Merit Scholarship Program. A letter of commendation has been presented to her and she will be recognized in an assembly program. She placed among the top 51,000 participants in the current competition.

"To be designated a Commended student is an outstanding attainment, deserving of public recognition," said a National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which conducts the Merit Program.

Of some 1.2 million students who entered the 1982 Merit Scholarship competition by taking a qualifying test in 1980, about 36,000 are being commended this month, as they begin their final year of high school.

These participants scored high, but slightly below students in their respective states who qualified as Merit Program Semifinalists.

Only the 15,000 Semifinalists, who were announced in a national news release on September 16, will receive further consideration for Merit Scholarships. In the spring of 1982, NMSC will announce the names of about 5,000 Merit Scholarship winners who will receive awards worth $15 million for college undergraduate study.

Firecrackers Win 6-0 Over Clarendon

An improved 8th Grade Firecracker team, with the help of some 7th graders, defeated Clarendon Junior High 6-0 Thursday, Oct. 1.

The game was at Powell Field.

Because Clarendon has only one junior high team, four 7th grade players were moved up to see action.

Mauro Villanueva, Kelly Goforth, Marvin Brown and Benny Encinia. "We played a lot better. We moved the ball real good," commented Coach Bryan Hill.

Wellington's lone score was by Johnny Nash, Jr., on a two yard run. He also set up the play, catching two passes for 15 and 30 yars. Then Chuck Brown moved in closer to the goal line and on the next play Nash took the ball over.

Clarendon was able to move the ball only once in the face of the Wellington defense. Just before half time, a Clarendon player broke for a long run, but Villanueva caught him before he could score and saved the play.

On the first play of the second half, Villanueva caught a 30 yard pass from Joe Jernigan.

Hill named as outstanding players this week Jernigan, Villanueva, Nash, Brown and Neal Duncan.

"The 7th grade did a real good job for us," he added.
