Men Report For Spring Football

Thirty-five men reported for Spring training in football when Coach Murley blew the bugle last week.

With about ten letter men back and much new material, the Cranes expect to have a very successful season next Fall. The reserve material from last season will be in much better condition than last year.

The Spring training will consist of passing, punting, tackling and blocking. The fundamentals of football will be the principle things taught at Coach Murley's practices. A punter, passer, quarterback, must be found. Coach Murley will spend most of his time doing these things.

Crane Has Article in Texas Outlook

"Crane Has Excellent Educational System," is the title of an article appearing in the current issue of the Texas Outlook, official magazine of the Texas State Teachers' Association.

The article states that during their three years of existence the schools have so developed that today Crane is able to boast of one of the best school systems in the West Texas oil belt.

PROFESSORS PREFER MUSIC TO MATH

A statement has been issued by the professors of the University of Chicago, that in their opinion music was more important than mathematics, and that every child should be encouraged in music and the playing of some musical instrument.

Their findings were based on exhaustive study of the schools of Chicago. Their statistics showed that 90 per cent of the children who averaged A's in their studies knew something of music. The juvenile courts also revealed another fact in favor of encouraging music in the young. Their records showed that less than two per cent of the juvenile delinquents knew anything of music.

ORDERS PLACED FOR CAPS AND GOWNS

Orders have been placed this week for the caps and gowns for the seniors. They are being supplied by the E. R. Moore company, Chicago.

The caps and gowns will be of grey poplin, which is the conventional color and material for high schools.

Vernon Pettis visited in Abilene last week-end.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB ACTIVE THROUGHOUT YEAR

The girls glee club was organized in September with Carol Kidd as president. The club has grown rapidly and now practically three-fourths of the girls in high school are members.

The glee club has been one of the most active of the organizations in school, and has made many public appearances. The first appearance was for the Armistice program, followed later by a Christmas program. The crowning success of the year in the musical way was the three-act operetta, Yanki San, presented February 23. The club also sang at the one act play, "The Call of the Campus," April 23 they entertained in Odessa high school.

Uniforms for the club are white poplin vestments such as are worn by the choirs of the city.

HIGBEE WILL DELIVER BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Rev. C. C. Higbee, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon in the high school auditorium on Sunday, May 18.

The school is to be considered particularly fortunate in securing Rev. Higbee to perform this service.

GET THE MUSIC HABIT

We are now in the midst of music week, when everyone hereabouts is requested to do something in the way of harmony. Music is one of the great differences between heaven and the other place. They sing constantly in heaven. We have imagined, and they grow in the other place.

Martin Luther says, "Music is the art of the prophets, the only one that can calm the agitations of the soul, it is one of the most magnificent and delightful presents God has given us."

Music is more important in this country than people imagine. There are more musicians and music teachers than clergymen and lawyers. There is more money spent for music than for electrical machinery and nearly as much as for automobiles.

Music, too, is "the food of love," and worshippers and lovers are called upon this week to sing and play. The object of the effort now being made is to bring music before the people, to have them carry it into their homes—it already is in the churches.

Get the music habit. Hear music, make music, and enjoy music.

HOW TO ACT IN SKOOL

By Ettie Ket

Always come in tardy and cheerfully give a good excuse.
There is nothing a teacher likes better than a good excuse.

When the bell rings, be the first one out of the room. This impression every one that you are a speedy sort of a fellow.

Always step on the grass in the patio at least once or twice each day. This not only demonstrates to the coach that you are a good track man, but it is good for the grass as well.

Be sure to forget your books,
pen, ink and paper, for teachers always have a good supply of these commodities, and are only too glad to lend them.

Hold your girl's hand during recitation, as every one likes to see how affectionate you are.

Perform tricks of magic, if you know how, as they entertain the teachers and pupils and help to relieve the drudgery of their existence.

In the library put your feet in a chair as the other pupils can well find seats in the other end of the room and so not disturb your ease.

New Station at Dallas Plans All Night Radio Spree

Dallas, Texas, May 8.—On Saturday night, May 10, radio microphones in The Dallas News Station, WFAA, blaze the air for the first time, in an all night program, words and music, to the strength of 50,000 watts.

This event will mark the formal opening of the South's first super-power broadcasting plant. It is one of the eight 50,000-watt transmitters in America and represents a capital investment of more than a quarter of a million dollars.

The voices of many prominent men and women will be heard in a ten-hour broadcasting ceremony. A special hour's program, complimentary to the new powered station, will be sent from New York City by the National Broadcasting Company's artists. The station's own staff, which composes a galaxy of well-known stars, will give the best in radio. Among the visitors scheduled to be in Dallas are Governor Moody, Dr. Daniel A. Poling, New York City, well-known radio speaker; Josephus Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy, and Tom Kennedy, voice of R. K. O., New York City. Motion and sound pictures will be made during the celebration.

Radio listeners of America will find WFAA on 800 kilocycles, or near the center of every dial.

CROOKS

A couple of crooks once did some business with each other.

The seller loaded a profit of 100 per cent on his work. The buyer made a down payment of sixty per cent of the invoice.

That was the last the seller ever saw of the buyer.

Both came out even on the deal, the net result being identical with a regular transaction between honest men. The seller made a legitimate profit of ten per cent out of the buyer's cash payment. The buyer got full value for his down payment, and no more.

JUDGE ALLEN PERFORMS MOCK WEDDING IN SCHOOL

Miss Snell, civics teacher of the junior high school, invited Judge Allen to give a talk to her seventh grade class last week.

Now, as you know, Judge Allen is always gettings boys and girls into trouble (which sometimes will last a lifetime, since he marries them), so to illustrate his talk he asked if there was anyone in the room who desired to be united in the holy bonds of wedlock.

So the athletic groom with his broad stomach and spindly legs was married to the plump, rosy cheeked, blushing bride. Then the seventh graders congratulated the groom. They didn't think the bride got much of a bargain so they didn't congratulate her.

"But Judge, we didn't have a license," wailed J. L. Smith and Evans Wood. "Ah! that's all right," beamed Judge Allen, as he walked out with visions in his mind of the fat divorce fees he would get later.

Observation has convinced me that this is the way crooks get along. Each expects to cheat and be cheated, but the net result paralyzes an honest deal.

The tragedy occurs when a crook is on one side of the bargaining table and an honest man on the other. Under such circumstances the honest man is stuck.

The crook's psychology reminds me of an old golf story.

"What kind of a game do you play?" asked one man.

"Oh, about 115," was the answer. "What do you play?"

"About 112 on a good day."

"Well, let's shoot at a dollar a stroke."

That night the "115" man told his wife that the "112" man was a crook.

"He made it in 78," was the complaint.

"What was your score?"

"Eighty!"

Digging in a garden often improves one's philosophy more than the reading of books.

H. E. CLASSES CARRY ON HEALTH CAMPAIGN

A health campaign is now being carried on throughout the entire school by the members of the senior high school home economics class.

On each day two girls from the class visit in each of the grade school rooms for the purpose of checking up on the cleanliness and sturdiness of the children. A chart indicates the number of children who brush their teeth, eat vegetables, and drink milk daily.

This work will continue until the close of school.

Senior rings were received last week from the Star Engraving company, Houston, Texas.

The ring is a yellow gold in unique design.

Grade School News

PUBLIC SCHOOL MUSIC TAUGHT IN GRADES

Public school music has been taught for the first time this year throughout all the grades in the Crane public schools. Classes are taught daily in all grades and the high school. All grade school pupils and approximately two-thirds of the high school pupils are enrolled in the music classes.

The courses consist of the following: ear training, sight singing, terminology, theory, simple harmony, folk songs, symphony, orchestra, note singing, unison and part singing and some biography.

The classes are under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Marshall. Mrs. Marshall holds a B. M. degree and has in addition done graduate study in New York and Chicago. She has taught for a number of years in Breckenridge and Cleburne schools.

SEVENTH GRADE HAS PICNIC

The seventh grade, with Miss Deedie Mae Smith as sponsor, celebrated May Day by having a whole holiday picnic, given by Mrs. Howry.

They were provided with five gallons of ice cream, lunches and fruit. J. L. Smith received the prize for eating the most ice cream, which was eleven bowls. They climbed mountains, played games, and had a special program. Mrs. Dahl, Mrs. Dunn, and Mr. and Mrs. Baker were guests.

SIXTH GRADE HAS EASTER EGG HUNT

An Easter egg hunt was given to the pupils of the sixth grade by their room mother, Mrs. E. R. Pettis, at the twin windmills, on Easter.

Mrs. Passur furnished ice cream for the group and Mrs. Pettis furnished the eggs.

FIFTH GRADE HAS EASTER EGG PARTY

The fifth grade reading class met at the home of Mrs. Head for an Easter egg party, Saturday, April 19.

They first enjoyed an Easter egg hunt, in which Alma Powell and Robert Harris won prizes for finding the most eggs.

Next various outdoor games were played. They were then served ice cream and cake.

Mrs. L. P. Cox, room mother, Mrs. Howry, and Maxine Jackson of Ft. Stockton, former pupil of the fifth grade, were guests.

SECOND GRADE RECEIVES PICTURE, "THE GLEANERS"

"The Gleaners," by Millet, is the name of the new picture which now hangs in Mrs. Miller's second grade room. It is a tinted print of the famous painting.

The picture was presented to the room as a reward for their having had the most mothers present at two consecutive meetings of the Parent-Teachers Association.

MAY BASKETS MADE BY FIRST GRADE

May baskets were made in the first grade last week under the direction of Miss Hattie Marie Harris, teacher of the first grade. The baskets were made in class and filled with wild flowers, and given to the mothers of the pupils who made them.

GRADE SCHOOL BRIEFS

Mrs. Sweeney, mother of June and Zelma Sweeney, was hostess at a dinner given last week for Misses Anderson, Cox, Snell and Hambright, and Mrs. Nichols.

Beryl Harris from Austin has entered the fourth grade.

Miss Snell's sixth grade class recently gave a fruit shower for Gladys Burton. Gladys had the misfortune to break her leg two weeks ago.

Frances Miller is leading the library contest in Mrs. Miller's second grade. She has read twenty books.

Arthur and Naomi Copeland have withdrawn from school.

The pupils of the English class in Miss Sewell's room are making illustrated books, containing poems they have learned.

FOURTH GRADE MAKES GEOGRAPHY BOOKLETS

Mrs. Patrick's fourth grade have recently made geography notebooks and covers for the notebooks.

The covers are imitation leather made from crushed wrapping paper and colored with water colors. The inside of the covers are decorated with stick print designs. The children worked out their own designs for the covers. The stick prints were made from potatoes, ink, bottle stoppers, corks, and spoons.

To Pay Homage To Pioneers At San Angelo Fair

San Angelo, April 23.—San Angelo will pay homage to pioneers of West Texas and will seek to determine the oldest of their number at the Old Settlers Reunion, which will be an opening feature of the West Texas Exposition, September 22 to 27, inclusive.

The Exposition will open at the San Angelo fair grounds with a band concert following a parade through the principal streets of the city. Members of the bands will be conveyed to the fair grounds where the group will be formed into one band to play a concert before the grandstand complementing the pioneers.

Plans for the 1930 West Texas Exposition already are under way, with more attractive features than have ever marked an exposition here.

Newspaper men and officials of chambers of commerce throughout West Texas will be honor guests on the opening day of the exposition, according to John P. Lee, member of the exposition board of directors.
