Wellington Second in '75 Governor's Community Achievement Program

Wellington has been named to second place in its category in the state-wide Governor's Community Achievement Awards Program for 1975.

Announcement of the honor was received late last week by the Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the entry, according to Henry Wells, president.

Winning first in Category II, for towns with 2,051 to 5,000 population, was Rusk, town of about 5,000 inhabitants.

A Certificate of Recognition will be presented to a representative of Wellington by Governor Dolph Briscoe at the Governor's Community Achievement Awards Recognition luncheon on June 11, at San Antonio.

The Governor's Community Achievement Awards Program, directed by the Beautify Texas Council, is an opportunity for cities in Texas to develop a coordinated program for community improvement and beautification.

Beautify Texas Council is an educational, non-profit corporation dedicated to a cleaner, more beautiful Texas, explained Mrs. Margaret Vines, C-C secretary.

Material submitted in the contest was prepared by Mrs. Barney Glenn, Lyman Daniel, and Mrs. Robert Lacy.

They cited the co-operation of the city and county governments, clubs, and other civic organizations, and the work of many individuals.

Beginning with the 1975 spring clean-up campaign, a first step toward a more community-wide beautification, they noted the removal of many abandoned houses that were no longer habitable, and general cleaning up of these areas. Some were on Highway US 83, which added greatly to its appearance. Some locations are visioned as ideal for future industry. Park improvement was noted.

Removing junked and abandoned cars, "a very real problem," was carried out in co-operation with Owens

Salvage Co. and the City.

Many businesses were credited individually for improvements during the year. New building during the year—apartments, homes, with the addition of houses moved in and mobile homes—added to the town's quality of life.

Economic development during the year was a factor in Wellington's selection. A tri-city industrial planning seminar started the year, and after this came concrete examples of expanded businesses, new businesses added and the expansion of sports activities.

Civic accomplishments and new or expanded public services were cited—in number so large as to astonish even the most avid Wellington-watchers.

Listed as highlighting the year was the arrival of Dr. Reynaldo Perez, surgeon and anesthesiologist. "This medical service is the big plus for Wellington and Collingsworth County," said the committee.

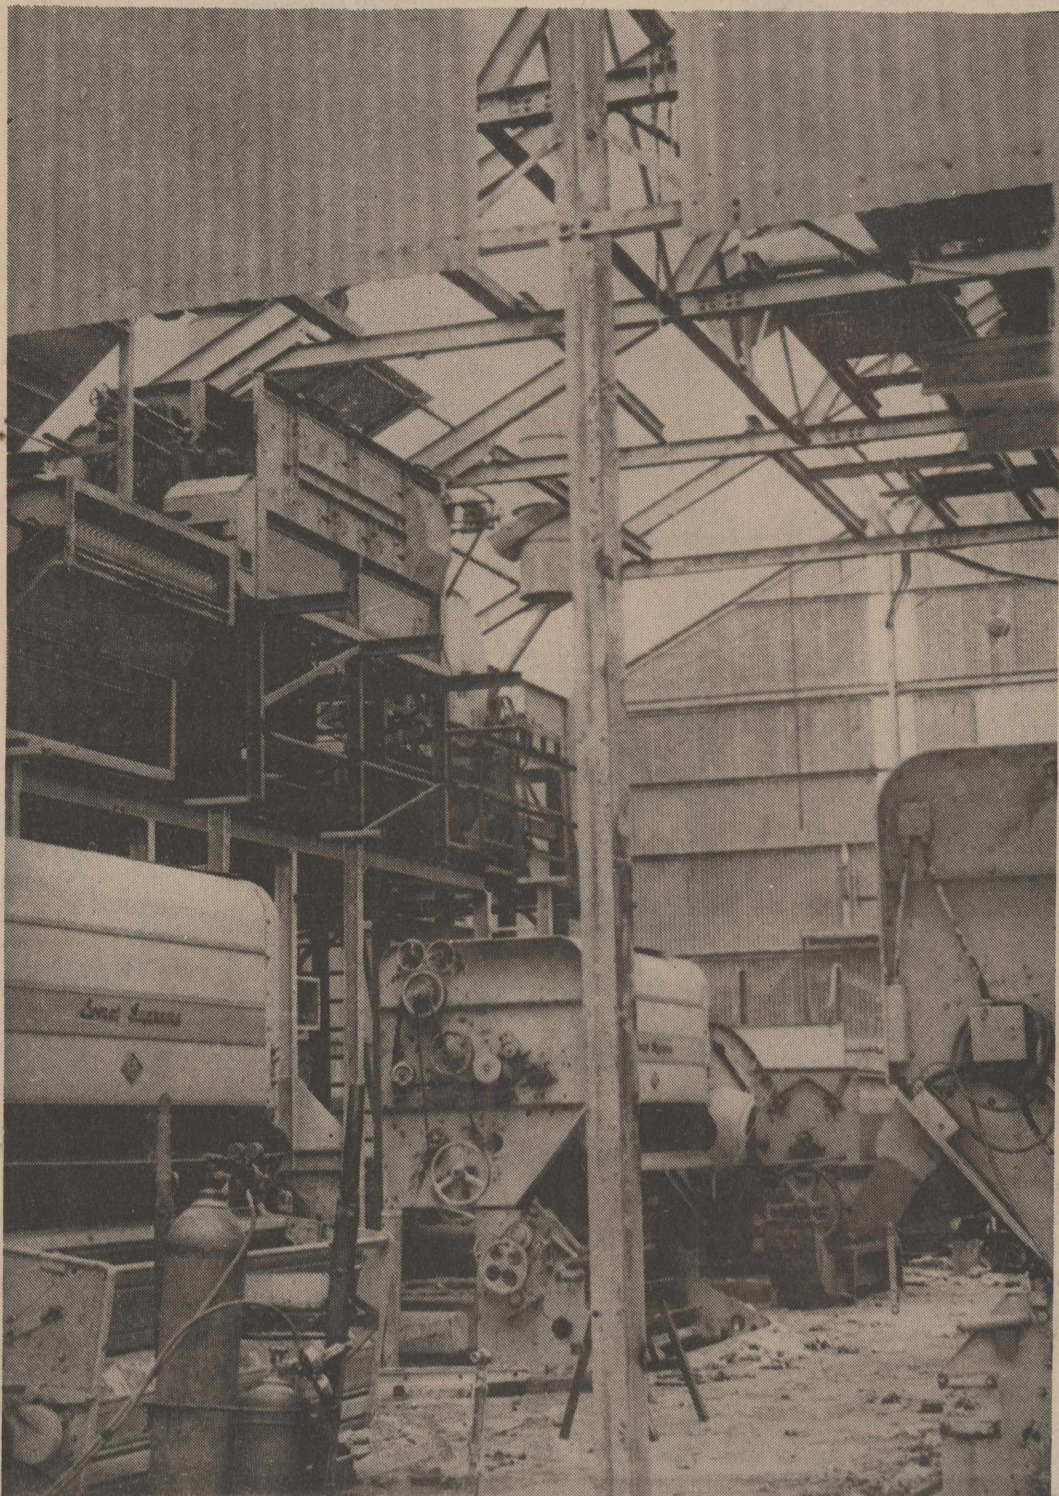

All of these might be summed up in the slogan chosen for Wellington's participation in the Governor's Community Achievement Awards Program:

"Wellington, Texas, in '75—Full of Pride and So Alive."

In summary, the Beautify Wellington Committee said:

"Through participating in the Governor's Community Awards Program we not only made our city a more attractive place in which to live and work, but through working on such a worthwhile project we have felt a sense of pride, a togetherness, a

RSVP Compiles Directory of Organizations

The Senior Citizens Organization of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program has compiled a new directory of Collingsworth County organizations and their officers.

Mimeographed copies of these were made by Mrs. Margaret Vines, Chamber of Commerce secretary, and are available in booklet form at the C-C office.

This includes federal, state and local government offices, civic clubs, veterans organizations, fraternal orders and study clubs.

Also listed are churches of the county and their pastors. Farm organizations and their officers are noted. Groups devoted to health care delivery are included.

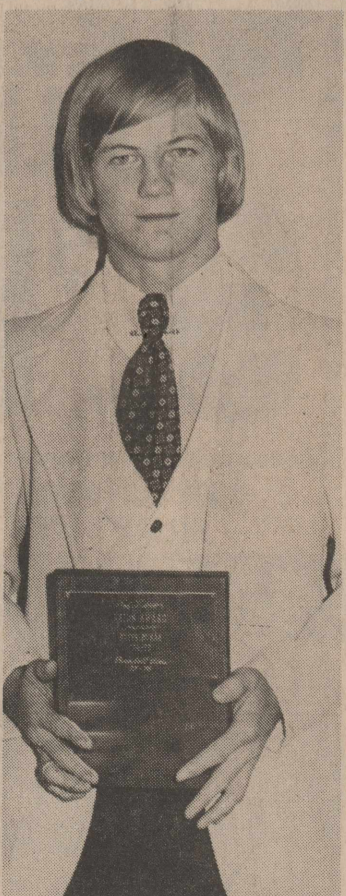

Organized Youth Groups are included.

In addition there are a number of organizations which do not fit into any of these categories, but are a part of the county's daily life.

The work was directed by Mrs. Mecca Manuel, RSVP director, and Mrs. Jean Reynolds, secretary.

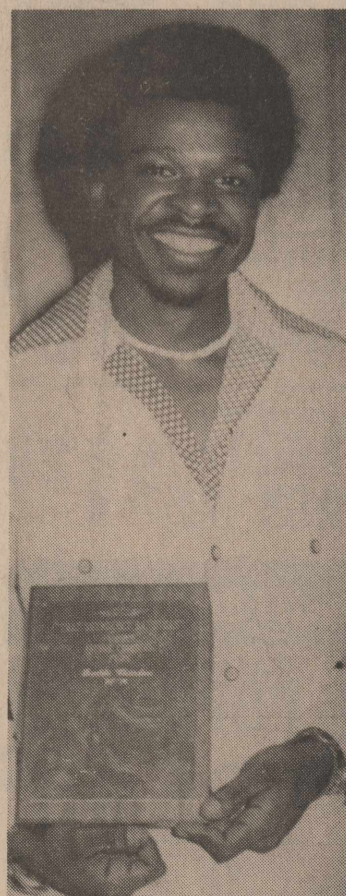

Wellington and Collingsworth County go into an intensive clean-up campaign Monday, May 24, that will continue this through Friday, May 28. Both residential and business areas are involved in this effort.

BAND AWARD WINNERS

Two awards were presented at That Skyrocket Band Banquet Saturday, May 15. Randall Sims, left, received the National Aerion Award and Freddie Chambers was presented the Skyrocket Bandsman Award.

Clean-up Week is sponsored jointly by the City of Wellington and the Chamber of Commerce, with the co-operation of Collingsworth County to move certain heavy items.

During this time residents are urged to clean up their premises of trash, rubbish and refuse, and in Wellington to put them in the alleys for city pickup.

City Manager Glen Taylor said that all other work by the city will stop during the week of May 24-28, and city employees will devote full time to working in the clean-up drive, except for unforeseen emergencies.

He gave this schedule: Tuesday, May 25, will be Free Pick-up Day. City trucks will begin picking up trash, rubbish and refuse in alleys and continue until the entire city is covered.

Residents are urged to put all rubbish in alleys as early as possible.

Those with items too large to be put in the city trucks or taken to the alleys, should call the Chamber of Commerce office, 5848, and special arrangements will be made. He emphasized that there is no limit to the size of items that can be carried off.

At the same time, he said that the city will not pull up trees this year. They will, however, carry off trees that the owner pulls up.

Hauling off trash and rubbish will continue until all of it is cared for.

Dead trees and heavy junk will be moved Thursday, May 27. The county is bringing in some of its equipment, to carry off things that require a front-end loader and dump trucks. People with this type of debris should notify the Chamber of Commerce also.

People cutting down trees are reminded not to let them fall on utility lines.

Vacant lots will receive attention. Mr. Taylor emphasized that owners or lessees of vacant lots are required to remove trash, refuse, garbage and rubbish at their own expense and to keep weeds under control throughout the season for protection against mosquito breeding and harboring places.

However, it has long been a practice for the city to mow vacant lots during clean-up week, where owners keep them clean and mowable, and this will be continued. Although work will be concentrated during Clean-up Week, the work will continue

Liberal Band Director Hired By School Board

Wellington School Board, Thursday, May 13, elected Gary Ray Bowen of Liberal, Kansas band director for 1976-77 and elected his wife, Patsy, to an elementary school teaching position.

Bowen has been band director of West Junior High in Liberal for the past two years. For the five years before that, he was high school band director at Clarendon. Mrs. Bowen has taught in elementary school for a year and a half at Liberal.

The Bowens plan to move to Wellington in June. They have three daughters, Donna Jo, 5; Carrie Lee, 18 months; and Amy Marie, 4 months.

The school board also heard proposals from McMurry & Craig, Lubbock architects, on remodeling plans for elementary school. The architects' proposals called for remodeling the present facility at an estimated cost of $138,000 and building additional rooms and buying new equipment at an estimated cost of $189,000, not including architects, lawyers and bond fees.

The board took no action on the proposal. Members of the board plan to visit in the next few months several Texas schools with structures similar to the elementary building that have been remodeled recently.

In other action the board hired Mrs. Will Sam Hill, of Shamrock, to prepare in conjunction with PESO, consolidated applications for federal and state education monies dispersed under the Title I, II and Part B Title IV programs and under the state compensatory program.

along Highway US 83, on 8th and 9th Streets, and FM Roads 338 and 1035 have already done toward cleaning up their premises. But he also urged that they make an effort to clean up any trash that may have accumulated.

"The impressions of our community are formed along these highways and roads," Mr. Taylor said.

In reviewing the clean-up program, the city manager also pointed out that city trucks are instructed to haul off everything placed in alleys, and property that is not meant to be hauled off should be moved from the alley onto the premises. "The City of Wellington cannot be responsible for any articles hauled off by mistake," he said.

MRS. B.M. SIMS

Mrs. B.M. Sims Installed as TFWC Second Vice-President

Mrs. B.M. Sims was installed as second vice-president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs for 1976-78 at the 79th annual convention in Lubbock Friday, May 7.

The Honorable Jim Denton, Associate Justice, Texas Supreme Court, Austin, addressed the new leaders of the organization and challenged them to achieve greatness for TFWC.

Other new TFWC officers include President, Mrs. Robert N. Tipps, Denver City; First Vice-president, Mrs. H.B. Bratton, Waco; Third Vice-president, Mrs. Sammie Skiles, Weatherford; Recording Secretary, Mrs. C.W. Roberts, Abilene; Treasurer, Mrs. Clyde P. Trotter, Midlothian; and Junior Director, Mrs. Larry Brandon, Canyon. Mrs. C.A. Bickley, Denver City, will serve as Chairman of the Trustees.

In her inaugural address, Mrs. Tipps stressed the need for a commitment to volunteerism, "the ingredient that has been largely responsible for our (TFWC's) progress." She stated that women in TFWC dream of a better life and that these dreams must be converted into action. She pledged strong support for orderly work through the departments of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

She cited the leadership of the GFWC Public Affairs Department for recognizing the need for work in the area of crime prevention and reduction.

"TFWC and GFWC have joined hands with the Judiciary Department in a national volunteer effort to fight crime through our 'Hands Up' program. This number one problem is being attacked by clubwomen in their own communities in cooperation with local law enforcement and crime reduction officers."

Mrs. Tipps pointed to women's increasing participation in community affairs, church leadership, education and state and national legislation. She emphasized the importance of women becoming involved in ways that will be "productive and pleasant."

"We shall dream of great accomplishments knowing well that we must have action with unity, continuity, dignity and happiness to reach our goals."

Some of the current TFWC projects which will be continued through the upcoming two years include leadership development through summer workshops, maintenance of the Headquarters building, cooperation in the "Hands Up" crime reduction program and support of Poll Power.

TFWC will also aid M.D. Anderson patients in any ways needed. And, clubwomen will become involved with Girlstown U.S.A. by having at least one program on Girlstown and by helping to meet the service needs of girls in the three Texas homes.

In closing, Mrs. Tipps said, "I have chosen 'out of our dreams we join hands in action' as a theme for this Administration. Yes, we dream, even of greatness, but we know that we will not be effective until we have action."

Fix-It Tip

Dirt and moisture are common enemies of a good paint job. Pores in the wood that are supposed to soak up paint are already filled with dirt and moisture. It's impossible for the paint to stick to such a surface, so it peels off.

Peeling is different from flaking. When paint peels, the bare wood is left showing. Flaking occurs at the surface of the paint with some of it left behind on the wood.

When paint peels it generally blisters first. Hot sun causes moisture in the wall to vaporize.

By BILLY MOSELEY President CITY STATE BANK

While a dollar may not buy what it did just a few years ago, Americans pay for goods and services with paper money and think nothing about it.

It wasn't always so. In the early days of the Republic, gold and silver coins (which have since passed from the American scene) were referred to as "specie," the most acceptable form of payment.

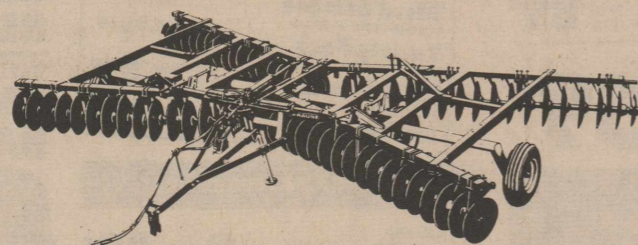

In times of stress, such as the Revolution, or of great expansion, banks often ran out of specie, virtually bringing commerce and industry to a halt for lack of money.

To meet this crisis, and because it was on shaky financial grounds in the first place, the Continental Congress began issuing paper money. Soon, that "paper specie" became virtually worthless, and the phrase, "Not worth a Continental" became a part of the American lexicon.

King Cotton Looks Good For 1976

The Bicentennial year could be a banner one for cotton in Texas and the United States as market prices should remain strong through 1977.

"Good price prospects for cotton are a result of low supplies on one hand and increased domestic and foreign consumption on the other," points out Charles Baker, an economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Both domestic and foreign mill consumption should be up more than a million bales each above the 1974-75 marketing year."

How will production shape up for 1976?

"Overall plantings should be up moderately from 1975. Texas farmers intend to plant 4.67 million acres of cotton as of April 1," notes the Texas A&M University System economist. "However, final plantings could exceed 5 million acres if farmers plant all their available acres for cotton and sorghum. With sorghum planting intentions also down, about a million acres of cropland is uncommitted. These acres will probably be split between the two crops."

In the U.S., Baker expects the cotton crop to total about 11.5 million acres. If the crop produced a bale per acre, the 11.5 million bales would still fall short of the expected domestic consumption and exports. This would reduce of Science and Engineering. He will teach labs and classes and be involved in a research program.

In September, he will enroll in Texas Tech University Law School.

At UT of the Permian Basin, he was chairman of the Student Services Advisory Council and a member of the University Council. He was on the Recruiting Committee.

As part of his degree work he did a project with the Regional Air Pollution Control Board Laboratory in Odessa and as part of this studied the legal cases that have been processed through the state in an attempt to see some patterns of science problems, and the ways problems have been solved.

Ross is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Ross, who attended the commencement.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

Tina Powell will be president of the Wellington High School student body during the 1976-77 school year and Allen Sanders will be vice-president. They were named in student elections recently. Both will be seniors. Tina's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Horace Powell and Allen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sanders.

County Team High In State Contest

The Samnorwood FFA land judging team recently placed fourth in the state contest held at Stephenville, and missed by only four points the opportunity to compete in the National contest.

First five places compete on that level, according to Jimmy Brown, vocational agriculture instructor. The national event will be in Oklahoma City.

Team members were Cindy Coleman, Debbie Oldham, Richard Lee, Johnny Oldham and Mark Tarver. Their total score was 554 points.

The list of high point individuals has not been received, but it is known Samnorwood had at least one high-ranking contestant.

County Pioneer Dies at Edinburg

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Harper left Friday, May 14, to attend the funeral of his brother, Allen L. Harper, 78, of Edinburg. Their son, John Calvin Harper of Bartlesville, Okla., accompanied them.

Allen L. Harper grew up here and entered the banking business in Wellington.

The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Harper, he was born in Delta County. The family came here in 1901, and settled on a half-section of land two and one-half miles east of Wellington. Seventy-five years ago, they moved to the family farm where Mr. and Mrs. John C. Harper still make their home.

Allen Harper attended the Wellington Schools and Texas A&M University, enlisting in the U.S. Army during World War I shortly before he would have graduated.

He returned to Wellington to work for City State Bank. About 1929, he moved to the Rio Grande Valley, where he and two other men established a new bank, the Edinburg National. He was vice-president when he retired three years ago.

Mr. Harper was active in community life and in banking organizations of the state. He was also active in the Methodist Church, a member of the Masonic Lodge and a Shriner.

He was married to Miss Tillie Mahan, a member of another pioneer family.

She survives him, as do their daughter, Mrs. Charles Smith of Edinburg and two brothers, John Harper of Wellington and Henry Harper of Plainview.

THE BIG ONE FOR DRY COUNTRY

IT'S DEPENDABLE

Dependable yields of consistently high quality fiber even in drought years. That's what made LX 571 a long time favorite with farmers here about. And it's nice to know that you don't have to give up something else for drought resistance. Farmers appreciate the good gin turn-out of fairly long staple fiber which makes in the premium range under normal conditions.

At maturity you'll like the looks of LX 571's storm resistant bolls and at harvest you'll appreciate how well it strips one-time-over.

LX 571 along with other Lankart varieties accounts for over 60% of the cotton planted in the Altus Cladding Office territory and have for a number of years... strong testimony from people who know how to grow cotton in this area. If you think this might be a dry year

CHECK THESE LX 571 CHARACTERISTICS:

In the two-year dryland test LX 571 (Lankart) had the top yield with 46 lbs. lint yield advantage over the average in the tests. LX 571 also had 4.0 micronaire and the fiber strength was 84.5 PSI (1000).

• Tipton (Okla)
Dryland
In the two-year average LX 571 had a 20 lb. yield advantage over the average with a micronaire reading of 5.2 and fiber length of 34/32. 1974 results showed LX 571 outyielded the average by 27.6% or 64 lbs. lint per acre.

Irrigated
In the two-year average the lint yield advantage was 27 lbs. with fiber length of 33/32. In 1974 test results showed 12 lbs. lint yield advantage with fiber length 32 and mike 5.5.

PIONEER PARK PLAYGROUND IMPROVEMENT

W.R. Breeding, commissioner from Precinct 4, paints newly installed seesaws at the county's Pioneer Park on Salt Fork at Highway US 83. The park is one of his special projects. Others helped with playground equipment. Samnorwood Lions donated funds for a swing and two seesaws; Wellington Lions a swing; Wellington Kiwanis three seesaws. Clyde Dwight of Lutie, who made the units, gave a seesaw and a chinning bar. Wellington Lumber Co. donated paint and Lynn Carter shaped the seesaw seats. Below, a few feet from where Mr. Breeding worked, two youngsters enjoyed one of the new, but dry, seesaws.

Horses Are Big Business in U.S.

AMARILLO, Tex.--The United States is horse country, as a record 8.5 million horses inhabit this country according to officials of the American Horse Council in Washington, D.C.

The horse population has more than doubled since 1960. It is estimated that the combined investment and annual expenditures of the horse industry tops $13 billion.

Again, from American Horse Council estimates, equine events drew over 107 million spectators in 1974. And there are 3.2 million horse owners in the United States, an all time high.

Why the sudden interest? Part of the growth is explained in an announcement from the U.S. Extension Service, which administers the nation's 4-H program. Wellington has one of these. At the end of 1974, 320,767 4-H members were enrolled in horse projects, compared to 160,846 in beef cattle and 106,526 in swine. This compares to 30,000 horse projects 15 years earlier.

But that's only part of the increase.

The 12 largest breed organizations recorded 36 percent more horses in 1973 than in 1960, reflecting increased demand for quality horses.

Winners Named In Softball League Play

The War Between the States isn't over. In fact, it's heating up. The weapons are money and labor. The stakes are huge. To the victor goes job, capital and people. To the defeated goes economic stagnation, loss of industry and jobs, a shrinking tax base and crowded welfare rolls.

Students of history will remember that what is happening in the U.S. today is what precipitated the 17th Century Wars between Holland and England. Holland was in an economic decline and England was a growing world power. Three centuries later, Germany was the belligerent economic power, forcing England and France to defend themselves in a struggle which flared into World War I.

This country is composed of 50 states, politically bound to a common cause. But, economically, it is as different as night from day. There are massive population moves underway. The South and Southwest have grown six times as fast as the North-Central U.S. and ten times as fast as the Northeast. Areas of different rates of economic growth have different attitudes toward national problems. The seed of the Civil War were sown in economic turmoil, not whether man should be free or slave.

For many years this economic shift in industry and population was moderate, from the rich and prosperous Northeast to the underdeveloped South and Southwest. As long as the shift was gradual, the effect was beneficial to the country. But now the winds of economic change are bitter cold.

A survey by the Commerce Department several years ago estimated populations, personal incomes, and unemployed for each of the states, projecting the figures to 1980 and 1990. Nine states reached their 1980 figures last year. New Mexico has already shot

Plan Work Day For Dodson Cemetery

There will be a work day at Dodson Cemetery Tuesday, May 25, beginning about 9:00 ahead of the 1990 projected figures. The effect on the stagnate states was even worse. New York was projected to grow by over 1 million people from 1970 to 1980. It has lost more than 100,000. Pennsylvania was supposed to gain 800,000 new residents in the 1970's. Instead, it has grown by only 300,000. Illinois was expected to show a population jump of 900,000 during the 1970's. It has grown by less than 50,000.

The second war between the states will be political and economic. It will also be bitter and long.

a.m. and continuing through the day.

All interested persons are urged to bring rakes and hoes to work the graves. Areas outside the curbs can be mowed with a mower, but inside these plots must be worked by hand.

A meeting of the Dodson Cemetery Association was held Monday, May 17, and made plans for this day in order to have it in good condition before Memorial Day. Grover Graham is president of the Association.

Mrs. Bill Langford spent last week visiting her sisters, Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Boyer and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bryant, in Fort Worth. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Langford and family were in Fort Worth over the weekend to pick Mrs. Langford up.

THE WELLINGTON (TEXAS) LEADER
Thursday, May 20, 1976

AUSTIN—Three House committees are working on proposed legislation to curb utility bills following a three-day hearing here last week.

House Speaker Bill Clayton said he is still optimistic something can be agreed on for special legislative session consideration this summer.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe said he has seen nothing yet which would bring about a significant (10 per cent or greater) reduction in gas and electric bills.

Rep. Joe Wyatt of Bloomington, House Ways and Means Committee chairman, said best opportunity appears to be in the area of tax relief.

Wyatt suggested a program of tax credits and elimination of the state sales tax on utility bills to reduce consumer costs 10 to 15 per cent. The governor said he plans to recommend again dropping of the utility sales tax.

House Ways and Means, Energy Resources and State Affairs Committees conducted the hearing last week. Most of the testimony came from oil and gas industry spokesmen.

Clayton said if the legislature doesn't take action in special session, the soaring utility cost issue will face lawmakers in 1977 and spill over into "every piece of legislation we deal with."

Some legislators complained that little was accomplished by the hearings.

Tax Gain

Comptroller Bob Bullock claims Texas may gain as much as $335 million in inheritance tax revenue if it can prove the late mystery-man Howard Hughes was a legal resident of the state.

Bullock believes his office has "turned up fairly-conclusive proof" that Hughes was a resident.

Hughes died last month while being rushed from Mexico to a Houston hospital. He left a fortune estimated at $2.3 billion, and $1 billion of it may go to satisfy inheritance taxes.

Mafia Spotted

Texas Organized Crime Prevention Council reports Mafia figures have been identified in several areas of the state, including five "families" in Dallas.

There is "no conclusive evidence" of how much syndicated crime activity

(if any) centers in Dallas, Houston, Texarkana and Cameron County were identified as other areas where Mafia members were spotted.

Gov. Briscoe said narcotics is the most serious organized crime problem in Texas. The report said massage parlors are increasingly a front for prostitution.

Tourists Spend

Tourists spent $3.5 billion in Texas last year, according to Texas Tourist Council.

About 21.8 million visited the state in 1975. Their spending increased 32.6 per cent over 1974, and they stayed an average of 7.3 days. Their state tax payments totalled more than $311.8 million.

Courts Speak

Texas Supreme Court refused to dismiss Judicial Qualifications Commission removal action against Judge O.P. Carrillo and scheduled a June 2 hearing on charges.

In other cases, the high court:

- Took under consideration the question whether victims of accidents can sue for medical expenses from uninsured motorist coverage when a government vehicle was involved.

- Held Lower Neches Valley Authority was not to blame for injuries of a youth who dived into its canal and injured his head on a clay hump.

- Upheld a Corpus Christi court denial of libel judgment against a San Antonio newspaper in a case involving use of the picture of a child labeled "adoptable." The child had been adopted six years earlier.

AG Opinions

Atty. Gen. John Hill, in a new opinion, said the Texas constitution and penal code prohibit lotteries even though they are conducted for a charitable purpose.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

- Gov. Briscoe exceeded his authority in holding back part of a $4 million appropriation to community care of juvenile offenders.

- The Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation may allocate money to its central office from the reserve fund.

Recreation Steps Up in Wellington This Summer

Wellington will be more than ever a sports and recreation minded town this summer, and that is as it should be.

Taken altogether, there is golf, softball, tennis, the swimming pool, the 4-H Horse program, and for those times when active sports are not called for, picnicking at the park—either Ellison in town or Pioneer on Salt Fork.

Most of those who fish in earnest have among their friends someone with a farm pond.

Hay Camp Country Club's prestigious Darrell Royal Invitational Golf Tournament is the envy of cities, to say nothing of other towns. This is the starter. More tournaments will follow through the summer. Both golf and tennis are among the growing sports, nationally, and if tennis becomes any more popular here, the city will have to come up with additional courts.

The new Marian Ball Park stadium has secured the Men's Softball Association a place in Panhandle action, and it has doubtless caused the upswing of interest among women.

There is a ball game for every member of the family, and for the younger ones, Little League and Peewee organizations are getting ready to play.

The 4-H Horse Club is long established, and it is to be noted that nationally, 4-H is credited with much of the great growth in number of horses in the United States in recent years.

These will not fill the recreation bill for everyone in town, but they will go a long way. We are told repeatedly that when industries look at a town, they look at its recreation as well as the quality of its schools, churches and business.

Road Progress Extended

The nation's ailing highway building and maintenance programs should get some temporary relief from a $17.5-billion Highway Assistance Act recently passed by Congress and signed by President Ford.

It extends major highway programs until the next Congress can decide whether the nation will continue to maintain and improve its highway systems or let them rot.

The signed bill will give priority where it is needed—the completing of intercity routes that will close critical gaps in the interstate system. And responsibility for selecting projects and administering them is being placed where it belongs—in the hands of state and local authorities.

Sound highway construction legislation has encountered difficult going in Congress in recent years, even as costs of building and maintenance soar. What the next Congress will do regarding highway matters is anybody's guess.

But at least the extension will allow highway progress to continue for another two years. Motorists can thank heavens for even small favors.

Comprende, Roger?

American CB radio fans are having fun with their communicating, but the Mexican government has warned them not to carry their fun too far—too far south, that is.

The consul general down in San Antonio said recently that turismo is fine, so long as the turistas don't broadcast in Mexico without a license. The Mexican smokies, that is to say, are liable to confiscate your radio if you use it on the other side of the river.

It may be "10-4" to you, but Mexico sees it as "wilco or out."

The Commissioners Court was making arrangements for construction of a new jail. The present building was a small sheet iron building. Later in the summer, the city health officer had it condemned as unfit for human use.

C.E. Litchfield was elected superintendent of Schools at Harrold.

"The hustling F.O. Hamm Drug Co. have moved their Drug business into one of the handsome new brick business houses on the west side of the square."

Fire broke out about 10:30 "last Friday" in the City Meat Market and owing to the extra high wind blowing from the south spread to and destroyed the four buildings to the north: F. Buerger's Meat Market with $1600 insurance; R.B. Thompson's Bakery, no insurance; W.L. Covey Grocery business, loss $3,000 with $1000 insurance. The lower part of that building was owned by J.A. Wiles with no insurance and the upper story belonged to the K. of P. Lodge with $800 insurance. Next was the real estate office of Royal and Painter. The corner building belonged to S.R. Lowrie and was occupied by his barbershop.

Banquet on Friday Evening Honors That Skyrocket Band

For the annual Banquet of Wellington's That Skyrocket Band, those 145 attending were met with an oasis setting as they entered Bura Handley Community Center for a "Safari Serenade" on Saturday evening, May 15.

A tiered drum table held Jungle Joy, a fresh fruit concoction served from a large wooden bowl by the costumed Jungle Jyls. Helping at the registration desk included a crocodile, birds and elephants. Suspended from the palm trees were colorful and friendly snakes, bears, tigers and birds. A huge elephant led the way to the giant record with gold script of "Safari Serenade".

Next on the safari route was a free-standing bird cage with a jovial hippo. On a carpeted platform between the honors tables were very large, shaggy animals with saucy smiles.

Two awards, both given annually, were presented.

Randall Sims received the Aerion Award, a national award given annually for outstanding work in band.

Freddie Chambers was given That Skyrocket Bandman Award for the second consecutive year.

That Skyrocket Band officers for 1976-77 were announced. They are Larry Adams, president; Suzy Castleberry, vice-president; Kay Coffee, secretary-treasurer; Kim Cannon, reporter; and sergeants-at-arms, Beverly Orr and Tim Cummings.

Debbie Stallings will be drum major and the twirlers will be selected later.

The outgoing officers are Randall Sims, president; Freddie Chambers, vice-president; Linda Coffee, secretary-treasurer; Richard Sims, reporter; Larry Adams and Rance Taylor, sergeants-at-arms; Debbie Stallings, drum major and Linda Coffee and Lana Lacy, twirlers.

Next the new Band Boosters Club officers were introduced: Jerry Nix, president; Bobo Castleberry, vice-president; Mrs. Troy Gene Thomason, secretary; and Mrs. Robert Lacy, treasurer. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Murdock will be in charge of the concession stand.

Retiring officers are Dee Burba, president; John Coffee, vice-president; Mrs. Loyd Vines, secretary; Mrs. Leon Hartman, treasurer; and Howard Murdock, concessions.

Members of the All-Region Band were noted and it was announced that Freddie Chambers, drummer, will be the UIL solo entry in the state UIL solo and ensemble contest in Austin.

Other members of the All-Region band are Robert Burba, tuba; Laura Gragson, percussion; Allen Murdock, cornet; Randall Sims, trombone; Richard Sims, tenor saxophone; Debbie Stallings, flute; and Brenda Willis, clarinet.

Seniors also were recognized: Freddie Chambers, Linda Coffee, Kim Goforth, Karen Jeffrey, Lana Lacy, Richard and Randall Sims, and Pam Vines.

Randall Sims was master of ceremonies and table grace was by Richard Sims.

Mr. Burba welcomed the guests and senior band members responded with a skit.

The color scheme of red and white with dashes of metallic gold and multicolors of the rainbow was dominate in the red and white checked cloths covering the banquet tables. Gold elephants with multi-colored feathers and flowers frolicked amid the red votive lights. Behind the elevated head table were two giant treble clefs, signifying the "Safari Serenade."

Dinner music with the jungle theme had been arranged by Garry Wofford.

Parents had prepared the food which featured excellent beef made possible by City State Bank and Billy Moseley. Other morsels besides the safari steak (beef) were "hot rocks & Sambo's tiger, voodoo beads, white sand, river rapids, chopped everglade, creamy caravan, condensed zebra, sweet zambi and murky lake liquid."

Assisting with the serving were The Jungle Jyls and Jyms, sixth grade band students who also entertained in costume with "Talk to the Animals." Participating were Jannon Thomason, Lisa Hartman, Melanie Pendleton, Brent Long and Timmy Devoss. Pam Vines was the piano accompanist.

GASTROINTESTINAL PARASITES II

The parasites of the large intestine are basically of two types: strongyles and pin worms.

Strongyles being the most pathogenic internal parasite in the horse. The small strongyles are fairly non-pathogenic since the larvae are ingested, travel to the intestines and burrow into the wall to mature. The large strongyles are different in that they migrate through body tissues depending on the species as follows:

Strongylus Vulgaria burrows into the intestinal wall then into the Arteries and travels to the Aorta (the major artery from the heart to the rear portion of the body) where it can cause a swelling or ballooning of the artery leading to possible death from rupture or colic.

Strongylus edentatus these also start by burrowing into the intestinal wall, then migrate through the liver tissues, causing damage.

Strongylus equinus are larger larvae and they also migrate through the liver causing damage.

All of these large strongyles are bloodsuckers and can cause an anemia or bloodloss as well as colic and death.

Pinworms, (oxyuris Equi), are parasites that cause irritation more than tissue damage. The female crawls out of the anus of the horse, lays her eggs, and dies. Her body ruptures and becomes plastered around the anal region of the horse and this along with the eggs causes an intense itching causing the horse to rub his tail. The worms are not blood suckers, health care. Twenty other health-care and hospital related groups will be meeting with the Hospital Association. These also will have programs and workshops on ways to better serve hospital patients.
