Ford's Brother Killed

LEBANON, Tenn. (AP)—Leslie Henry King, President Ford's 53-year-old half brother, was killed today when his car collided head on with a tractor-trailer loaded with pipe, police said.

Ford learned of King's death shortly after 7 a.m. when King's widow called the President, a White House spokesman said. There was no immediate word whether Ford would attend the funeral.

State police Sgt. Ron Hill said King's car was westbound in the eastbound lane of Interstate 40 about 5¼ miles west of this central Tennessee town when it hit the tractor-trailer. King, a resident of Cookeville, Tenn., where he owned an auto parts store, was alone in the car and apparently was killed outright, Hill said.

QE2 Docks In Boston

BOSTON (AP)—The Queen Elizabeth II sailed into Boston harbor today a day ahead of schedule with a three-foot gash below the water line.

A spokesman for the ship's owners, Cunard Line, said in London the liner was damaged in heavy seas when her anchor ripped a hole 3 feet by 1½ feet in her bow.

The damage was not expected to delay the ship's scheduled sailing on Friday, a spokesman for Patterson Wylde & Co., agent for Cunard in Boston, said.

Execution Is Prepared

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—As death peanlty opponents met to map strategy to stop the Monday sunrise execution of convicted killer Gary Gilmore, the Utah state prison warden said today he is preparing to carry it out.

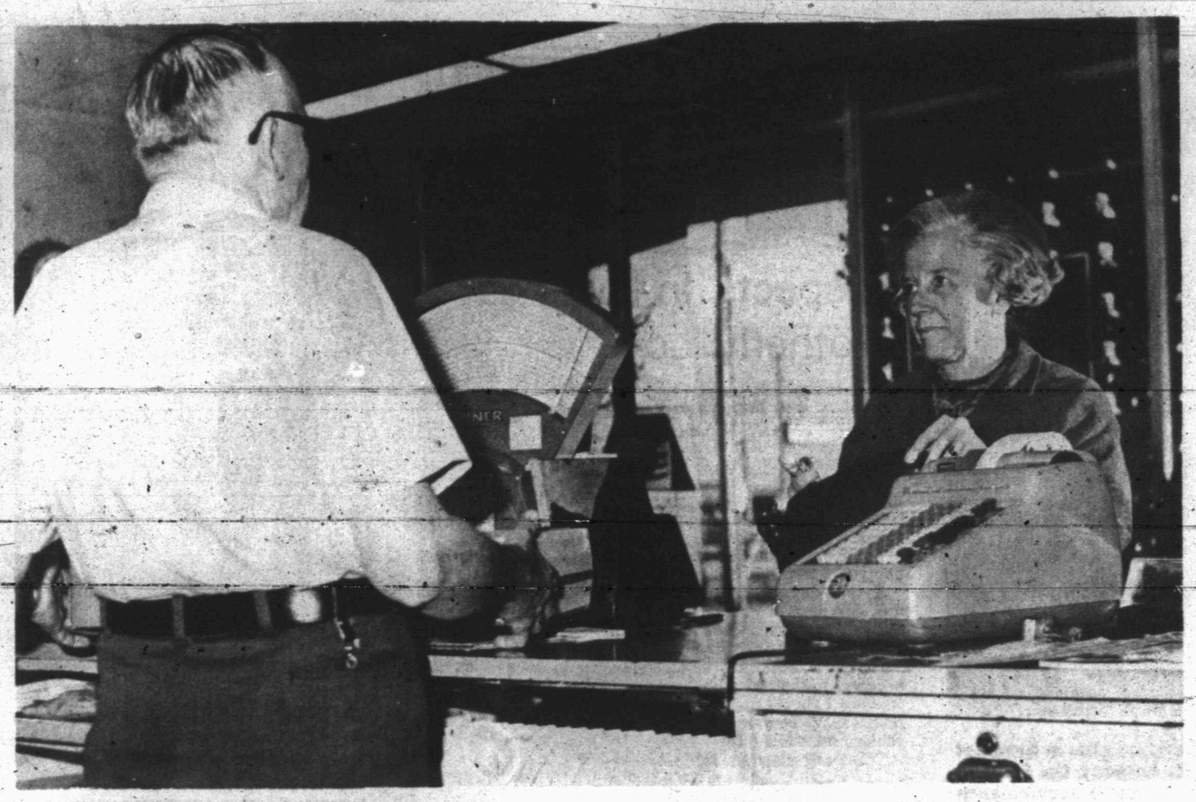
Warden Sam Smith said details of the firing squad execution will be geared to accomplish the execution "in the way most efficient and without complications."

He said he was preparing "whatever detail has to be taken care of. There are a number of details relative to the whole situation."

He would not say whether he would grant Gilmore's request to face his executioners standing and without a blindfold. The condemned men at previous Utah executions have been seated and hooded.

One Last Lib Act?

WASHINGTON (AP)—Before leaving office, President Ford may ask Congress to outlaw sex discrimination in a multitude of federally funded programs that affect almost every American community. Administration officials said Wednesday they are drafting legislation to prohibit anyone receiving federal funds from discriminating against women in employment and any other aspect of their operations.



MAILING ON TIME—Postal Service officials have urged people to mail their Christmas parcels as early as possible, and traffic already has picked up considerably at the Snyder Post Office. Mrs. Malven K. Stevenson is one of those who responded to the plea for early mailing. She is shown mailing a package. Accepting the package was Ordon Benbenek at the Snyder Post Office. The volume of Christmas mail is expected to continue increasing, and there already have been some instances when lines formed at the Post Office here. (SDN Staff Photo)

High Budget Deficit Seen By Director

By R. GREGORY NOKES
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress will be faced with changing its budget for fiscal 1977 or tolerating a poor economic performance next year, the director of the Congressional Budget Office said today.

Without additional spending or tax cuts, "the consensus among forecasters clearly would be for a growth rate below 5 per cent and an unemployment rate in excess of 7 per cent," Director Alice Rivlin told the Joint Economic Committee.

Mrs. Rivlin said that outlook is more pessimistic than the budget office had predicted earlier when the original 1977 budget was prepared and approved by Congress a few months ago.

Like the Ford administration, the budget office earlier had projected unemployment would fall below 7 per cent and the economy should grow at a rate of near 6 per cent in 1977.

The less-than-expected economic performance also will mean a higher budget deficit in fiscal 1977, no matter what policies are pursued, Mrs. Rivlin said.

She said the slowdown in the economy will cut tax receipts by $5 billion-$10 billion, which means a deficit of at least $55 billion-$60 billion instead of the deficit of $51 billion already approved by Congress.

Tax cuts, or spending increases, would add to the deficit, she said.

Mrs. Rivlin testified on projections of the Congressional Budget Office that showed the government could have large budget surpluses by the early 1980s.

But she said these budget projections were prepared without considering the poor performance of the economy in recent months, which would affect the outlook somewhat.

Paul O'Neill, deputy director of the Ford's Office of Management and Budget, told the committee that even if the economy performed satisfactorily, there likely would be tax cuts of some kind that would reduce the potential surplus.

He added that projections at the time of the 1973 budget called for a surplus of $23 billion for fiscal 1977, while the government now faces a deficit of as much as $60 billion.

"I wouldn't bank on that surplus for 1980 and 1981," he said.

The Congressional Budget Office, in a report issued Wednesday, said this year's estimated $50.6-billion deficit could turn into a surplus of as much as $78 billion by the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1, 1980.

That would fulfill a major Carter campaign promise to balance the federal budget by the time his four-year term ends in 1980.

IN LOCKHEED PAYOFF SCANDAL

Investigators Add Fraud Charges

By VICTOR L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Writer

ROME (AP) — A parliamentary commission investigating the Lockheed payoff scandal added fraud today to preliminary corruption charges against two former defense ministers and a former air force chief of staff.

The commission on Wednesday night also lodged preliminary corruption charges against former Premier Mariano Rumor, a fixture in Christian Democratic governments since 1968, and Gen. Duilio Fanali, the staff chief. The two defense ministers charged with them were Christian Democrat Luigi Gui and Social Democrat Mario Tanassi.

The fraud charges reportedly involve what the commission called an unjustified hike in the price of 14 Lockheed C130 military cargo planes to cover some $1.5 million paid to promote the planes' sale in Italy.

All four men have denied receiving any of the money, whose payment was described in a Lockheed memorandum uncovered by a U.S. Senate subcommittee.

All committee members but the eight Christian Democrats backed the fraud charges. On Wednesday night, the two Socialists and an independent leftist joined the seven Communists to vote for the corruption charge against Rumor. Only the member from the Neo-Fascist Italian Social Movement — MSI — voted with the Christian Democrats.

Only the Christian Democrats voted against charging Gui, and the votes to charge Tanassi and Fanali were unanimous.

The committee action was a reflection of the strong position the Communists won in the June parliamentary election. Four days before the voting, the Christian Democrats were able to defeat a demand by the Communists that Rumor, Gui and Tanassi be brought to trial.

The commission also charged Antonio and Ovidio Lefebvre, Lockheed's agents in Italy, with corruption and fraud, and lodged corruption charges against industrialists and others implicated in the Lockheed scandal.

Rumor, Fanali and the two former defense ministers were in office at various times during the late 1960s when the sale of the 14 cargo planes was being negotiated.

Francesco D'Angelosante, a Communist member of the parliamentary commission, reported in June after an investigating trip to the United States that Rumor was "Antelope Cobbler," the code name used in the Lockheed memorandum for an Italian premier involved in the payoff, and Tanassi was the bagman.

Woodcock, Meany To Meet Friday

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock will confer in Washington on Friday with AFL-CIO President George Meany, renewing speculation the two giant labor groups will reaffiliate, the Detroit News reports.

The News said Woodcock disclosed plans for the meeting on Wednesday, adding that he will be accompanied by UAW Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey. There was no immediate comment from the union.

The two UAW officials reportedly will meet with Meany and his possible successor, Secretary-Treasurer Lane Kirkland.

Woodcock, 65, who will retire next May as head of the 1.4-million member UAW, has gone on record in favor of reaffiliation with the 14.2-million member AFL-CIO.

Abandonment Of Line Opposed

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) - The Texas Railroad Commission said today it will oppose the proposed abandonment of 39 miles of the Abilene and Southern Railway Co. line from Abilene to Winters.

The Interstate Commerce Commission will hold a hearing on the firm's application Monday in Winter.

However, if the company can show it operates the line at a loss, the commission, by law, cannot continue to oppose the abandonment, said James Cowden, director of the commission's transportation division.

The SDN Column

We notice that the U.S. Weather Service (that used to be the Weather Bureau) is now predicting that we'll have a hard winter, which is somewhat different from its long-range predictions made earlier this fall.

This has all the earmarks of Monday morning quarterbacking, now that we already have had a big snow and umpteen days of sub-freezing weather. In fact, we have had as much winter already as we got for the whole season during some of our mild years.

Anyway, since winter does not begin officially until Dec. 21, we can say without fear of challenge that we are going to have a cold, hard autumn.

A lot of people were surprised when it was announced that Childress and Ozona had accepted an invitation to play their Class AA quarterfinals football game in Snyder. This, we are told, will tie Snyder's record for hosting playoff games in one season. It will be the third.

Usually, most of the playoff games have moved away from us, but we were well situated geogrphically for this one. And, actually, the selection of Snyder as the Ozona-Childress game site resulted from plenty of advance work by some of our Chamber of Commerce people. They didn't wait until the games of last weekend were played to get the invitation out.

These fans (from both schools) will be travelling greater distances to the game than those attending the previous playoff games here. When you get down to the quarterfinals, you are only a step away from the championship game, which could send teams nearly a thousand miles apart into competition with each other.

Incidentally, one of the two schools playing here Friday night has made reservations to feed 130 students after the game at a local restaurant. They feed their band and football squad on playoff trips.

No Rate Hike For Gas Here

Snyder will be excluded from the list of area cities and towns where Lone Star Gas Co. will seek a rate increase this winter.

Darwin Melton, local manager for Lone Star, said that Snyder and Sweetwater were not up for rate increase requests because of rate hikes that were granted following requests in 1975. Snyder granted a rate increase of more than 38 per cent following the 1975 application.

Cities where rate hikes will be sought this winter had gas cost adjustment clauses in their rate ordinances and were not included in the general rate hikes sought in 1975.

C.C. Elliott, regional manager for Lone Star in Abilene, had announced several days ago that the company would seek rate hikes in a number of cities and towns in this area in the near future.

Lone Star reported no difficulties in providing gas for its customers during the unusually cold weather of the past four weeks, Melton said. Supplies in Snyder were adequate for all customers. Some gas firms curtailed their service to some industrial users during the cold spells of November, including LoVaco, which reduced the gas furnished for electrical power generating plants in Austin.

Kelley Will Not Resign

By MARGARET GENTRY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI Director Clarence M9 Kelley said today he does not intend to resign despite indications that President-elect Jimmy Carter wants to name his own FBI chief.

"I have said many times I am not going to resign," Kelley told a reporter. He said he hadn't changed his mind.

Asked whether he would resign if Carter asks him to do so, Kelley replied: "When that comes up, I'll address it then."

Campaigning in Connecticut in September, Carter said he would have fired Kelley if he had been president and known the facts behind allegations against the FBI director at the time. But Carter stopped short of saying he would fire Kelley as president.

"I will cross that bridge if I come to it," Carter said.

When he first became director of the FBI, Kelley had drapery valances built in his living room by bureau employes. Kelley said the work was done without his knowledge. He reimbursed the governmentt $355 for labor and materials.

President Ford rejected a recommendation that he fire Kelley for the incident and for accepting gifts worth up to $105 on special occasions from FBI executives.

Kelley said today he has not talked with Carter or any of Carter's staff about his job.

Asked whether he would like to arrange a meeting with Carter, Kelley said: "The matter of a meeting is up to him."

Six Spectacular Prizes Remain

Six prizes from last week's drawing in Santa's Snyder Spectacular remained unclaimed this morning at the Chamber of Commerce office.

The numbers of the prize-winning tickets are posted in the participating stores, and those who have tickets should check them against the lists in the stores.

The Chamber of Commerce reported that the $200 prize, two $150 prizes and three $50 prizes had not been claimed this morning. The prizes from last week must be picked up by noon Friday. Those remaining then will be carried over for the next drawing.

A new group of prizes will be awarded in a drawing set for Friday afternoon.

The Snyder Chamber of Commerce Retail Committee is sponsoring the Spectacular. A total of 38 participating merchants are giving away $3,800 in merchandise certificates in the event, which will continue for five consecutive weeks.

The prize list for the past week included some that were not claimed the previous week.

Expert Sees Increase In US, China Trade

By STEPHEN FOX
AP Business Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Will Americans be watching Monday night football on Red Chinese television sets a few years from now?

That's one of the intriguing questions raised by Barry Richman, professor of management and international business at the Graduate School of Management of the University of California at Los Angeles.

Richman, an expert on the economy of the People's Republic of China, thinks trade between the United States and China will increase dramatically in the next few years, with color television sets, transistor radios and other consumer electronics among the possible items being imported by this country.

"You may well see color television sets from China within the next five years," Richman said in an interview. "They're producing them now, but they're talking about producing them for mass markets. If they did, they could undersell the Japanese. In fact, I think you'll see some of the same imports here that you saw after World War II from Japan and Korea."

Richman, who has traveled widely in mainland China, says the recent purge of the so-called "radical" Chinese leaders after the death of Chairman Mao Tse-tung may lead to more rapid industrial growth for China under its new rulers.

"It remains to be seen whether Chairman Hua Kuo-feng — Mao's successor — will abandon substantially the traditional model of self-reliance in favor of a rapid, long-term infusion of foreign capital and technology to meet the pressing economic requirements of modernization," he said.

"But if the moderates can maintain control for the next 10 to 15 years, China would be in a position to achieve a real economic growth rate in the range of 5 to 8 per cent a year."

Richman says this could boost Sino-American trade to the $3 billion to $6 billion level, a whopping increase from the $1 billion figure of recent years.

Some of the products likely to be exported from the U.S., in Richman's view, are chemical plants, agricultural machinery, computers and heavy transportation equipment.

In turn, the Chinese are likely to sell Americans gourmet foods, textiles, sporting goods, musical instruments and minerals, he believes.

China has paid much more for imports in recent years than it has gained on exports and suffers from a balance of payments deficit. However, Richman thinks the vast Chinese oil reserves could reverse that trend.

"China may well have more oil in the ground, and especially offshore, than all of Saudi Arabia," he said. "Exactly how much is there, we don't know.

"But we do know the quantity is very great, and China also has much potential to develop and utilize other sources of energy. So it is highly possible that the export of oil in exchange for technological goods and expertise could turn China's recent balance of payments deficit into a surplus."

Vehicle Is Damaged By Vandals Here

An act of criminal mischief and two minor traffic accidents were logged in city police reports.

An employe at Snyder Janitoral Supply told officers that sugar had been placed in the gasoline tank of one of its delivery vans. Damage to the van has been set at about $200. The incident is believed to have occurred between Nov. 24 and Nov. 29 while the truck was parked at the firm.

A minor traffic accident occurred Wednesday at the intersection of Thirty-seventh Street and College Avenue. Involved in the mishap were a 1975 Chevrolet driven by David Trull of Snyder and a 1974 Chevrolet driven by Phillip Woolverton of Sweetwater. The mishap occurred at 1:09 p.m. yesterday.

Today, at 8:52 a.m., a minor collision occurred at Thirty-fifth Street and Avenue A. A 1975 Mercury driven by Brenda Botts was in collision with a 1968 Ford driven by Bobby Joe King.

New Jail Standards Adopted

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—At least 30 per cent of the space in each Texas jail must consist of single-inmate cells, according to rules adopted Wednesday by the State Commission on Jail Standards.

The rules take effect Dec. 23.

Commissioners said they really would like to see half the inmates in every jail in single cells, although mandating only 30 per cent.

"The purpose of single cells is to separate certain classes of prisoner from others, for their safety, for their health. The more single cells a facility has, the better job it can do for the individual prisoner in protecting him from attacks by other inmates," said Chairman James Greenwood III.

Also adopted was a rule requiring that single cells provide at least 40 square feet of clear floor space. Cells designed for more than one prisoner must have at least 40 square feet for the first inmate plus 18 square feet of clear floor space for each additional inmate.

Dear Abby

Suspects In-law's Brotherly Love

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1976 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Before my husband and I were married, he and his sister not only shared an apartment, they slept together in a double bed! (They were both over 21 at the time.)

I told him I didn't think this was normal. He said nothing happened between them, and I had a dirty mind.

Even today, every time they meet she kisses him on the lips. She is still unmarried, and if anyone asks her how come, she says, "Because I've never met anybody as wonderful as my brother."

Abby, I think my sister-in-law is in love with her brother. Is that possible, or am I jealous for no reason? I suppose I should mention that if it weren't for the strange relationship between those two, my husband would be a perfect husband.

What are your thoughts on this?

ANONYMOUS

DEAR ANONYMOUS: It's possible that your sister-in-law is "in love" with her brother, but you say he is otherwise a perfect husband, so it's obvious that he isn't in love with her. I agree that it was highly irregular for a brother and sister of their ages to be sleeping together, but it IS possible that nothing happened. Forget it.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 20-year-old girl and very nice-looking, or so people tell me, but I've got to be the loneliest girl in Toronto, Canada!

I'm rather shy, and I'm not the type to sit in a bar and make eyes at a stranger. I go to dances with my girlfriends on the weekends, but I always wind up going home with the girls I came with.

The men stare, but they never ask me to dance. Why is it that men don't ask nice-looking girls to dance, Abby? Are they afraid we may think they aren't good enough for us?

I'm sure other girls wonder about this, too. Can you help us?

PRETTY BUT LONELY

DEAR PRETTY: Being pretty has never been a disadvantage, so there must be another reason. How's your attitude? Do you act superior? Or disinterested? If a girl (whether she's pretty or plain) will meet a fellow halfway, she's got it made.

DEAR ABBY: The problem of "adoptive parents" in your column recently was one we faced many years ago.

When we brought home a beautiful little baby girl, many of our friends and neighbors were inquisitive and wanted to know the details. On the advice of our pediatrician, we stood our ground and told them nothing.

When they asked, "Where did you get her?" we looked them in the eye and replied, "She's OURS. And we have the papers to prove it."

Or when they asked, "Do you know anything about her parents?" we replied, "WE are her parents, and we know each other very well."

They may have been momentarily offended, but they understood that to question us further was useless.

MUM'S THE WORD IN KENOSHA

DEAR MUM'S: Another way to handle people who ask questions that are none of their business is to look them squarely in the eye and ask, "Why do you want to know?"

* * *

Q. My church club is sponsoring a contest in which there are cash prizes of $650, $450, and $300. Is the club responsible for reporting any of the prize money?

A. As sponsor of the contest, your club must file Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, with the IRS for each recipient of a prize of $600 or more for a calendar year.

The club must also make out an annual report on Form 1096, reflecting all the recipients for whom the sponsor was required to file Form 1099-MISC.

For more detailed information, see IRS Publication 558, Tax Information for Sponsors of Contests and Sporting Events, available at IRS offices.

Q. My wife and I sold our house at a gain over the original purchase price, but we collected less than half of the sales money this tax year. The buyer will pay the remainder of the money in four installments over the next two years. Can we file our tax return so that we do not pay taxes on money not yet received?

A. Since the sale of your house resulted in a gain and not a loss, and the buyer agreed to make at least one payment in each of two or more of your tax years, and if the payments received in the year of sale do not exceed 30 percent of the selling price, you may use the installment method of reporting this income and thereby relieve yourselves of paying tax on income that you have not yet received. The gain should be treated as a capital gain.

For more complete information, see IRS Publication 537, Tax Information on Installment and Deferred-Payment Sales, available at IRS offices.

Q. I'm a nurse in charge of the private duty care of a shut-in. At the request of my patient's administrator, I had a second phone placed in my home which is used only for purposes of the job. Is the cost of the additional phone tax deductible?

A. Generally, the standard costs you pay to carry out your profession are business expenses. However, these costs should be ordinary, necessary and directly related to your profession.

In your case, the second phone is an expense to you for the satisfactory performance of your job, and you may deduct the expense of installation and maintenance.

YOUR NEIGHBOR'S KITCHEN

Microwave Cooking Is Fast, Safe

By FRAN FARMER

For those of you who are wishing for a microwave oven for Christmas, or perhaps those who received one last year, or those of you who just don't have a lot of extra time to spend in the kitchen, Kathy Roberts, Homemaking Teacher at Snyder High School, has compiled a very good file on the cooking techniques as well as consumer advise on purchasing and using the microwave oven.

"If you are going to spend that much money on an appliance, get to know it and make use of it... Use it!" Kathy advises.

Speed is the biggest difference because microwave cooking times are only a fraction of the time required by conventional cooking. The natural flavor of foods is retained because the speed in cooking helps retain the natural moisture and fresh flavor of the food. "My family has learned to enjoy the natural food flavor more, and we use less seasoning now" she added.

The question many people ask is "What are microwaves" In a brochure put out by Texas Electric Service Company, they say microwaves are invisible waves of electromagnetic energy, similar to radio and light waves. They have the characteristics of being reflected transmitted and-or absorbed by different materials.

Microwave cooking refers to the principle of cooking with electromagnetic energy. Electricity is changed into microwaves by a magnetron tube similar in operation to a light bulb. Just as the light bulb converts electricity into light, the microwave oven converts electricity into microwaves.

How do microwaves cook the food? The food attracts and absorbs the microwaves. When the microwaves enter the food they cause the food molecules to move rapidly; this rapid movement produces heat in the food which cooks it. Microwaves are not heat, they are a form of energy. Only when they are absorbed by the food, do they create heat.

A special brown and sear dish, designed by Corning, will aid in browning meat Mrs. Roberts noted. Foods with a fat covering, such as some roasts, will brown in the microwave oven similar to conventional cooking if cooked more than 15 minutes. Baked foods such as cakes and breads will not brown.

Mrs. Roberts suggested brushing food with butter, steak sauce, soy sauce, worchestershire sauce to add brown color to the food, stressing that eye appeal is a very important part of cooking.

What determines the length of cook time? The moisture content of the food, the more moisture, the faster it cooks. The size of the food. The amount of food to be cooked and the starting temperature of food.

Mrs. Roberts said that small families (up to four people) will get more use from the microwaves because when preparing large amounts of food they will take almost as much time in cooking as the conventional oven does.

When asked if food will burn in a microwave oven, she said that food will dehydrate and dry out before burning, however, it is possible to burn foods which have a high fat content.

Many people feel that microwave cooking is unsafe but all microwave ovens must meet rigid government standards for safe use. "In more than 20 years of operation there has never been any known injury due to microwave ovens," according to Mrs. Roberts.

To determine if the container is all right for microwave cooking she suggests that you fill a one cup heatproof glass measure with water. Place in the microwave oven along with the dish in question. Set the timer for one and one half minutes. If the dish gets hot, it should not be used in the microwave oven. But, if the water is hot and the dish cool, it is okay for microwave oven use.

Several suggested cooking utensils are glass, paper, plastic, wood, straw and some china and pottery.

Mrs. Roberts points out that a microwave oven is meant to supplement and compliment conventional cooking. Some foods require longer, slower cooking to develop full flavor and texture; this can be accomplished more satisfactorily with conventional cooking procedures.

One penny will operate a 1450 watt microwave oven for about 20 minutes. Two pennies will cook a meal on a standard electric range, according to a brochure from Texas Electric Service Company.

Mrs. Roberts says that with their busy schedule, the microwave oven makes it possible for her to prepare hot, nutritious meals, for her family.

She finds many uses for the oven and says it is the "most fun way of cooking she has found." She prepares such items as dips, vegetables, fruits, pastas, cheese sauces, meats, candy, hot punch, warming foods, casseroles and she finds that defrosting foods with the special setting is very handy.

Below are several recipes which she enjoys making, in just a fraction of the time that conventional cooking will take.

MICRO BRITTLE

1 cup raw peanuts
1 cup granulated sugar
½ cup white corn syrup
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon vanilla

Stir together peanuts, sugar, syrup and salt in 1½-quart casserole. Place in microwave oven and cook 7 to 8 minutes, stirring well after 4 minutes. Add butter and blend well. Return to oven and cook 2 to 3 minutes more or until peanuts are golden brown. Add baking soda and vanilla and gently stir until light and foamy. Pour onto greased cookie sheet and let cool. When cool, break into pieces and store in airtight container.

RHUBARB CRUNCH

1 cup flour
¾ cup oatmeal
1 cup brown sugar
½ cup melted butter
1 teaspoon cinnamon
4 cups sliced rhubarb
1 cup sugar
1 cup water
2 tablespoons cornstarch
Red food coloring

Mix flour, oatmeal, brown sugar, butter and cinnamon until crumbly. Press half of crumb mixture into greased 9-inch square pan. Pour in sliced rhubarb (this may be fresh or frozen). Combine sugar, water and cornstarch and micro-cook until thick and clear. Add a few drops of coloring to tint pink. Pour over rhubarb and top with remaining crumb mixture. Micro-bake 12 to 15 minutes. If desired, top with whipped cream or ice cream when served.

PEANUT PATTIES

2 cups sugar
½ cup water
Dash of salt
½ cup light corn syrup
1½ cups raw peanuts
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 to 3 drops of red food coloring

Combine sugar, water, salt and light corn syrup in a 2-quart glass measuring cup. Bring to a boil in the microwave oven (approximately 3 minutes); stir and add peanuts. Return to microwave oven and cook approximately 7 to 9 minutes or until a soft ball stage (234 degrees) is reached. Remove from oven; add butter, vanilla and red food coloring. Cool and beat until creamy. Drop by tablespoon onto greased cooking sheet or make into two large patties.

HOT SPICED CRANBERRY PUNCH

1 quart cranberry juice
1 quart pineapple juice
6 cloves
1 stick cinnamon
¼ teaspoon allspice
½ cup brown sugar
Lemon slices

Combine all ingredients in a 3-quart glass casserole. Heat for 7 minutes. Serve hot punch in mugs, garnished with lemon slices.

When a car's tires are worn to one-sixteenth of an inch or less of tread, they are about 40 times more likely to be suddenly disabled than new tires.

Opening lead — Ace ♥

By Oswald & James Jacoby

The bidding at both tables back in 1930 was the same as it would be today. West's double of one club was made on minimum values, as was North's bid of one spade. When South jumped to three clubs, he played it there.

Both West players got off to an ace of hearts lead and continued with a heart to partner's king. Each East led a third heart and after a little worry each declarer ruffed with the eight of trumps. Then they played ace and queen of clubs and would end up making three clubs as bid.

A simple hand indeed, yet the 1930 analysts felt that North might have tried a three-notrump bid and pointed out that assuming that East made his normal opening lead of the deuce of hearts and that West did not shift to a spade the game would make.

This 1930 analysis was reasonably accurate, but not entirely so. West could also beat North's three notrump contract by playing his nine of hearts aftr a low heart was played from dummy in the South. Then, when he got in he would cash his ace of hearts, dropping dummy's 10 and lead a third heart to give East tricks with the king and eight over North's queen-seven.

Ask the Jacobys

A Canadian reader wants to know if it is ever proper to make a forcing jump response with a four-card suit.

The answer is that some hands such as those with 19 high-card points or more cry out for such action. If you don't also hold a five-card suit, you may want to jump with a four-carder.

(Do you have a question for the experts? Write "Ask the Jacobys" care of this newspaper. The Jacobys will answer individual questions if stamped, self-addressed envelopes are enclosed. The most interesting questions will be used in this column and will receive copies of JACOBY MODERN.)

Rice's Kramer On All-America Team

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Dorsett, Pitt's fabulous running back who made the team as a freshman four seasons ago, was named to The Associated Press 1976 All-America college football team today along with three other great runners in a unique five-man backfield.

Joining Dorsett and rifle-armed quarterback Tommy Kramer of Rice in the offensive backfield were running backs Ricky Bell of Southern California, Rob Lytle of Michigan and Terry Miller of Oklahoma State. Bell, Lytle and Miller were considered so even that it was impossible to separate them.

The only repeaters from 1975 on the first team were Bell and split end Larry Seivers of Tennessee. Dorsett made first team in 1973 — the first freshman so honored in 29 years — third team in 1974 and second team a year ago.

The AP All-America team will be seen on Bob Hope's Comedy Christmas Special on NBC-TV, Monday, Dec. 13, from 8:30-10 p.m., EST.

Coaches Bo Schembechler of Michigan and John Robinson of Southern California, the rival Rose Bowl coaches who each have two players on The AP All-America team, also will appear.

The only other first-teamers from last year's first three teams were linebacker Brian Ruff of The Citadel, up from the second unit, and defensive back Bill Armstrong of Wake Forest, elevated from the third team.

Joining Seivers at end was Michigan's Jim Smith, a clutch receiver and gifted kick returner. The offensive tackles were Georgia's 253-pound Mike "Moonpie" Wilson and Oklahoma's 275-pound Mike "U.S.S." Vaughan. The guards were a pair of 250-pounders, Ted Albrecht of California and T.J. Humphreys of Arkansas State, and the center was 245-pound John Yarno of Idaho, who beat out all the backs and was named Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Sky Conference.

The defensive line consisted of 247-pound Ross Browner of Notre Dame and 224-pound Bob Brudzinski of Ohio State at the ends, tackles Wilson Whitley of Houston, 268, and Eddie Edwards of Miami, Fla., a 250-pounder, and 225-pound nose guard Al Romano of Pitt.

The linebackers were Ruff, Robert Jackson of Texas A&M and Jerry Robinson of UCLA, while the deep backs were Armstrong, Gary Green of Baylor and Dennis Thurman of Southern Cal.

Top-rated Pitt, runner-up Michigan and third-ranked Southern Cal were the only schools to place two players on the first team.

All but four members of the 23-man first team are seniors. Miller, Browner and Thurman are juniors while Robinson is a sophomore.

Dorsett finished the regular season with an NCAA single-season record of 1,948 yards. His 6,082 career yards was another mark, along with his 356 career points.

Bell, who missed setting a single-season record last year by six yards when he finished with 1,875, settled for 1,417 this year although he missed one game and played hurt in a couple of others. He carried 51 times against Washington State for an incredible 347 yards, just three short of the all-time record.

Miller rushed for 1,541 yards, second best ever by a Big Eight Conference runner. He was sensational in league games, gaining 81 against Kansas, 137 against Colorado, 159 against Oklahoma, 228 against Missouri, 149 against Nebraska, 221 against Kansas State and 199 against Iowa State. He had two other 100-yard games outside the conference and was named Big Eight Offensive Player of the Week four times in a five-week stretch.

Lytle, who played both tailback and fullback, is rated by Schembechler as the best running back he has ever had. Lytle was remarkably consistent and went over 100 yards eight times, including 180 against Michigan State, 175 against Indiana, 172 against Northwestern and 165 against Ohio State in the Rose Bowl showdown. His per-carry average of 6.9 yards was the best of the four All-America running backs.

Kramer led the nation in total offense and passing. Although opponents knew Rice was going to throw the ball most of the time, Kramer still completed 269 of 501 passes — 24.5 completions per game — for 3,317 yards and 21 touchdowns. He threw only 19 interceptions, just one in every 26.3 passes, and finished his career by connecting on 27 of 52 for 409 yards against Southwest Conference champion Houston.

Trevino Is Recuperating

HOUSTON (AP) — Golfer Lee Trevino, recovering from back surgery at a Houston hospital, says there is a possibility he could return to the professional golf tour by February or March.

Trevino celebrated his 37th birthday at the hospital Wednesday by sipping champagne and sampling a birthday cake and joking with the doctors, nurses, newsmen and photographers who were on hand.

Trevino, who underwent surgery a week ago for a ruptured disc, is expected to be released from the hospital Friday.

However, he faces two months of physical therapy, visiting the hospital for 45 minutes of exercise each day while staying here with relatives. He will fly to his El Paso home on weekends.

He wasn't sure just how the operation will affect his golf game.

"Maybe I'll shoot better," he said. "I've always been a battler. I've always fought back. I've been an underdog all my life."

He said he had suffered from back problems since he was 14.

"How soon I can start chipping and putting depends on how I feel," he said. "The doctor talks about returning to the tour in February or March, but I don't know."

He said he didn't want to come back too fast.

"I don't want to go out on the tour and start shooting 77s, 82s," he said. "I want to make sure my game is right, yet I can't rush it."

Dusters Host Raiders; Western Hosts Clarendon

There will be a basketball doubleheader in the Scurry County Coliseum tonight when the Western Texas College Dusters host Texas Tech, and the WTC Westerners host Clarendon Junior College. Tipoff in the women's game is at 6 p.m., and the men will play at 8 o'clock.

The Dusters have been hampered by injuries of late. Temi Baker, 5-8 sophomore guard from Knox City, is definitely out of the game. She has a leg injury. Temi is captain of the team and the leading scorer with a 21 point average.

Marketa Sisson also will miss the game. She was in a car wreck over the holidays and just returned to school the day before yesterday. She will not be suited up.

Coach Sid Simpson said Tech has a "real big team" with four six-footers. He expects a close, hard fought game. Sid said the only thing he knows about the Tech team is that they are improved over last year and that Clarendon beat them the other night.

Simpson said probable starters for the Dusters will be Brenda Jurecek, 6-1½ sophomore from Eola, at post; Janice Verden, 6-1 sophomore from Wheeler, at forward; Pam Tatum, 5-8½ freshman from Happy at forward; Rosemary Scott, 5-8 sophomore guard from Slaton, at guard; and, Cindy Luttrull, 5-10 freshman from Laverne, Okla., at guard.

"We'll only have eight girls available for duty," Simpson pointed out. He said Debby McIvor, 5-11 freshman post from Ft. Stockton, and Barbara Denman, 5-9 sophomore forward from Hobbs, Tex., probably would see limited duty. The other girl available is Jamie Branch, 5-3 sophomore guard from Aspermont.

Simpson said the Dusters had the best workout they've had in three weeks Tuesday and that he has high hopes "of getting their game back together."

The Westerners will be meeting Clarendon in the first Western Junior College Athletic contest of the season. Coach Mike Mitchell said he is expecting a tough game.

"They have size and as good a team as they've had in the last three or four years," Mitchell pointed out. WTC is 8-0 for the season and Clarendon is 5-3.

Coach Mitchell said probable starters for the Westerners will be Lawrence Butler, 6-3 sophomore from Glasgow, Mo., and Allen Corder, 6-3 sophomore from Lake Charles, La., at guard; Butch Person, 6-5 sophomore from Brooklyn, N.Y., and Jon Moorehead, 6-8 freshman from El Paso, at forward; and, Darryl Smith, 6-8 sophomore from College Park, Ga., at center.

Other Westerners Coach Mitchell can call on are Wayne Jamison, 6-1 freshman guard from Washington, D.C.; Charles Gipson, 6-6 freshman post from Brooklyn, N.Y.; Lonnie Nichols, 6-6 freshman forward from Buffalo, N.Y.; Larry Orton, 6-8 sophomore forward from Portsmouth, Va.; Doug Worthington, 6-5 freshman guard from Buffalo, N.Y.; Robert Brown, 6-7 freshman post and forward from Baltimore, Md.; and, Walter Benjamin, 6-4 sophomore guard from Richmond, Va.

Probable starters for Clarendon are guards Larry Mackey, 5-10, soph from Miami, Fla., and Don Fee, 6-3 soph from Kendallville, Ind.; forwards Robert Nard, 6-7 freshman from Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Frank Hobson, 6-7 freshman from Cadiz, Ky.; and, center Curtis Constein, 6-8 freshman from Anadarko, Okla.

Quarterfinals Football Match Set Here Friday

Two high-powered football teams will collide here at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Tiger Stadium when the Childress Bobcats take on the Ozona Lions in a Class AA quarterfinals schoolboy football playoff game.

Childress, champions of District 1-AA, has won 12 straight contests this season while tallying 394 points compared to 84 for the opposition. Ozona also has won 12 straight, racking up 334 points to 66 for its opponents.

The Bobcats operate from the Slot I formation on offense, and use a 4-3 defense. Ozona has a Winged T and power I attack. Defensively, they employ a "52" alignment.

Main cog in the Bobcat offensive machine is left halfback Ricky Smith, a 165-pound senior, who has gained 1,296 yards rushing. He's averaging six yards per carry. He made second team all-state last year. Fullback Jeff Smith, a 158-pound senior, has gained 750 yards rushing, while wingback Ricky Anderson is more noted as a blocker. Quarterback Ricky Collinsworth, a 140-pound senior has passed for 743 yards, completing 55 of 113 for nine touchdowns.

The best defensive player for Childress is Rusty Riddell, a 158-pound senior linebacker.

Ozona right halfback Gary Warren, a 170-pound senior, has over 1,100 yards rushing, and he is averaging 4.9 yards per carry. Blake Moody, 170-pound junior left halfback, has 976 yards rushing, and he's averaging over 5 yards a carry. Fullback Orlando DeHoyos, a 170-pound senior, has 500 yards rushing, and he is averaging 7 yards a carry. Quarterback of the Lions is Vaden Aldridge, a 150-pound senior. He has completed 39 of 70 passes for over 300 yards, and he has carried the ball 30 yards for a 4 yard average.

Coach Charlie Johnson of Childress said his team's strong point is offensive balance. They can move through the air as well as overland. He said his main concern in the quarterfinals game is "Just stopping them."

"They have the type of team that can run over you," he said. "They try to keep the ball. It will be a real physical game. They don't do anything fancy, they just run over you."

Coach Rip Sewell of Ozona said defense is his team's strong point. He said his main concern is being able to control the ball against Childress.

"They run a stunting defense," he said. "If we lose our offensive consistency we'll have to do some things we don't like to do like throw the ball."

It should be a close, hard fought contest.

Broyles Could Retire From Coaching Duties

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The president of the University of Arkansas said today he expects Frank Broyles will inform him after Saturday's season finale whether he will resign as head football coach.

The Arkansas Gazette reported today that Broyles will resign as head coach at the end of the season and retain his duties as athletic director.

"That's rumor," UA President Dr. Charles Bishop said. "All Mr. Broyles' options are open. He is free to continue his coaching duties. If he wishes to concentrate on his duties as athletic director, he's free to do that.

"Mr. Broyles has done a great deal for the university and for athletics in the state, and he should be free to do whatever he wants."

Bishop said Broyles has "talked to me from time to time about his options...including stepping down as coach."

Bishop added that he expects "Mr. Broyles will tell me after Saturday's game (against Texas) what he plans to do."

If Broyles chooses to leave, Bishop added, he will — as athletice director — have the power "to screen his successor and make recommendations to the faculty committee on athletics and to me. I would then take the recommendation to the board of trustees."

Bishop said he knew nothing about any search being currently under way to choose a coach to replace Broyles.

Contacted at his home in Fayetteville, Broyles declined to confirm or deny the report, but indicated he had made no final decision.

The Big Ten basketball season closes Saturday, Feb. 19.

Coast To Coast

By Dick Maurice

Have you heard the latest? SHIRLEY BASSEY picked up for prostitution. That was a rumor that was circulating around Hollywood. But the truth is the singing star went out for a late night stroll in Beverly Hills and was questioned by two of L.A.'s finest who thought she was a hooker. When they found out who she was, the two embarrassed cops drove her back to her hotel apologizing all the way.

For some months now a favorite TV personality was conducting all his business affairs under an assumed name, when previously he had been very proud of the fact that he'd never used a fictitious name during his career. Now we know why he disguised himself.

Seems the litigation of the divorce between him and his ex-wife became so bitter that the only way he could assure himself of having something left once the decree was granted was to conceal some of his financial holdings. It may be a strange thing to do, but we do know it worked. However, the actor is holding his breath that his ex never finds out.

LAURENCE OLIVIER is really great in "The Marathon Man." It could very well mean an Oscar nomination for him. It's really a far-out role for him. But would he be considered as Best Actor or Supporting Actor? How does one bill HOFFMAN against Olivier? I don't think Olivier would settle for Best Supporting Actor.

PHYLLIS DILLER said "One more marriage for ELIZABETH TAYLOR-HILTON WILDING TODD FISHER BURTON BURTON and she'll be in the Yellow Pages under 'matrimony'.

And speaking of ELIZABETH, have you heard about The Elizabeth Taylor Diamond Company? Yep, the lady's decided to make some money off her famous pastime and has set up a franchise which will blanket the country in a matter of months. Now you too can have an Elizabeth Taylor rock. Wonder if her move will start a celebrity trend?

Are you ready for this? JOHN TRAVOLTA – the movie star? Yes, and a big budget one at that. Three million dollars is the budget allotted for the upcoming Robert Stigwood flick, "Tribal Rites On A Saturday Night," which is all about "youth in American without purpose" and will star Travolta, earning him well over a million dollars – plus a strong percentage for appearing in the film. Actually, Travolta inked a three-picture pack with Stigwood, the next one being a film of the Broadway fifties musical, "Grease", which John was thrilled to do, since he had co-starred in the stage version awhile back. The third movie has not yet been decided, but we'll definitely keep you up on all Travolta "Activities."

It's not as if JEFF WALD doesn't have his hands full handling HELEN REDDY. Now her hubby-manager has acquired the screen rights to the movie "Limo," which is a contemporary comedy about the television industry. Jeff told me it's his first venture into feature films and it's a bit scary, both because production is expensive and although many movies are made, a lot take "a bath" at the box-office with the audiences staying away in droves. If I were a betting man, I'd bet on Jeff to come up with a winner.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK....PAUL MICHAEL GLASER: "Making a relationship work is all attitude. I never think about how long it will last. I don't understand the pros-and-cons of that kind of discussion. You can search all you want for the answers, but the answer is only in the happening. It lasts as long as it lasts. If you are involved in a relationship that endures, there is no way you are going to know that until it has happened!

Carter's Mom Gives Information

SHEFFIELD, Mass. (AP) — When some fourth grade students here telephoned Jimmy Carter's Plains, Ga., headquarters to find out what the president-elect eats for breakfast, they found out from a very reliable source — his mother.

Student David Smith learned that Carter breakfasts on country ham, fried eggs, grits with sauce, juice, milk and coffee.

Lillian Carter walked into the Plains office as David was speaking with a secretary, and the president-elect's mother took the phone for a chat with the boy.

Teacher Leo Alvarez says he gave his class the assignment as a project on how to obtain information over the telephone.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY C

YOUR CHAMBER IN ACTION

By W. R. (Bill) Henry
Executive Director

BUYING AT HOME

New Snyder Daily News owner and publisher Roy McQueen and general manager Bassett Keller have printed some rather interesting articles proclaiming the virtue of buying your goods in town. There are words which should be digested and repeated.

Local retail and service firms are the city's No. 1 employer, No. 1 taxpayer and No. 1 community philanthropist. Oil production pays the county and school bills but local retail and service establishments pay the city's – and the chamber's – way.

When any local civic group needs money for a specific project or for an entire year's budget, where do they go? To the merchants, banks, insurance companies or utilities. When these same groups need leadership and personal dedication, where do they go? Back to members of these establishments.

Think about the number of community organizations which rely solely on these community stalwarts. Girls Scouts, Boy Scouts, Little League, Boys Club, Lions, Kiwanis, Jaycees, Rotary, Optimist, Garden Club, Women's Club, Chamber of Commerce, FHA, FTA, FFA, 4-H, Shrine, Masonic Lodge, Palette Club, Cancer Society, March of Dimes, Hospital Auxiliary, Scurry County Fair Association, Sheriff's Posse, United Fund are just a few.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Not only do these individuals invest their money into these organizations, but their time. The money donated by these individuals is mind-boggling by itself, but just think if those same people charged for the untold hours they put into community service. Look at all the boards and committees we have and the individuals involved add up all the time they meet with committees geared at helping the community and multiply that just by minimum wage. It's quite a figure.

WHAT'S IN RETURN?

What do these individuals get for the time and effort they put into community service? A plaque, a thank you, a slap on the back for a job well done, a name in the paper or over the radio and public esteem is their reward for hundreds of hours of work. The pay may not be much and the headaches lingering, but our local businessmen are willing to lend a hand.

They do their community service work because they love Snyder and Snyder has been good to them. They are a part of the community and want to see it grow and increase in stature. They want to see a good Girl Scout organization and a good chamber. They want Snyder to continue to be a great place to live, work and grow.

WHAT ABOUT LUBBOCK?

All of us have one time or another been involved in a fund-raising drive for a project we feel is worthwhile. Ever try to raise money at stores you shop in Lubbock, Abilene, Dallas, etc.? Probably not because you know they don't give a hoot about Snyder. They don't care about the Girl Scouts, Chamber, Shrine, Women's Club, or Little League of Snyder.

How many store employes in Lubbock know your name? How many care? How many of them do you know by name or names of their children who might be friends of your children? How many will really take time to help you shop for an item? How many will tell you what you're trying on "isn't" for you? How many can you call and let them pick something out as a present for one of your family members?

HIGHER PRICES?

Are the prices in larger towns really less? Some items, yes. Some items, no. Most are just about the same. If the price on certain items is less, what does it cost you to purchase it? Let's look at Lubbock. You've got to drive there—about 200 miles round trip. You are allowed 15 cents a mile for business off your income tax, so we'll use that figure. It cost you $30 to drive up and back as well as four hours of your time. At least another $10 for a meal for four. You've got to park a half-mile from the store, parade around with 5,000 other shoppers and wonder if they'll take the merchandise back if it doesn't fit or get ruined in the washing machine. Then it takes an act of Congress for them to accept a check from an "out-of-towner."

Where's the best place to shop? At home in Snyder.

The first game warden in the United States was William Alden Smith of Grand Rapids, Mich. He was appointed on March 15, 1887, "to enforce the statutes of this state for the preservation of moose, wapiti, deer, birds and fish."

Drilling Pace Up This Year

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The railroad commission reported Wednesday that 22 wildcat oil wells and 13 wildcat gas wells were drilled in Texas during the last half of November, keeping drilling ahead of last year's pace.

The oil wildcats included eight in southeast Texas, four in west central Texas, three in the Panhandle, two each in South Texas and the San Antonio area and one each in West Texas, North Texas and the Refugio area.

That raised the number of discovery oil wells for the year to 492, an increase of 72 over the first 11 months of 1975. A total of 835 discovery gas wells have been drilled, or 150 more than at this time last year.

The gas wildcats drilled from Nov. 15 through Nov. 30 included seven in South Texas, two in the Refugio area and one each in southeast Texas, the San Antonio and San Angelo areas and the Panhandle.

The commission reported that 6,769 oil wells have been completed this year, 544 more than at this time last year. A total of 3,824 gas wells have been completed, 726 more than a year ago.

Moore Inks Contract

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mary Tyler Moore, star of her own CBS television series, has signed an exclusive long-term contract with CBS-TV, says Robert Wussler, head of the network.

He said Tuesday that under the agreement, Miss Moore will star in at least two specials next season on CBS and star in a new series on CBS during the 1978-79 season.

Dr. Lamb

Boils often will spread

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—Tell me what you can about boils. For a 15-month period I had a boil about every three weeks, then they stopped for a period of nine months. This past week I have had another boil. What causes them and can one person contract them from another?

DEAR READER—A boil or abscess of the skin is usually an infection with staphylococcal germs. A small one, often involving a fair follicle is called a furuncle. A large one - usually a collection of smaller furuncles - is called a carbuncle. The carbuncle usually forms where the skin is thick, as over the back of the neck.

Note the difference between a furuncle (boil) and acne. Ordinary acne is caused by a breakdown of the fatty material secreted by your sebaceous glands and is not an infection. The inflammation is caused by irritation by the broken down fatty material. A furuncle is an infection which may complicate a localized outbreak of acne or it may occur by direct infection of a hair follicle.

A furuncle usually causes swelling and thinning of the skin over the infection. Finally it breaks and drains. Pain is often present until the rupture, then the pain is often relieved. The dead tissue in the center of the furuncle is what some people call a core. More than one may be extruded.

The material that drains out of the furuncle or abscess should be considered highly contagious.

While we all have normal staphylococcal germs on our skin, these are usually "friendlies" while the ones that cause furuncles definitely are not. In fact, one approach to treatment of chronic cases is to innoculate the nasal area and skin with friendly staphylococcal germs. They prevent the development of the unfriendlies.

There are differences of opinion in how to treat furuncles. If the location permits it, incision and drainage speeds healing. Let the doctor do it. In many instances he may want to give antibiotics to speed healing.

Putting antibiotics directly on the furuncle is of no value whatsoever. Hot compresses are commonly used after incision and drainage. Remember the material is contagious. A more extensive incision may be necessary for carbuncles. Some of these may get as large as lemons.

When a person has multiple furuncles or repeated attacks of them some doctors believe in culturing the furuncles and identifying what antibiotic works best to eradicate the germs causing the problem. The next step is to give the individual and all close contacts the treatment at the same time with with full dosage of the medicine used for at least a month.

The fingernails should be scrubbed with an antibacterial cleanser at least twice a day. An iodophor ointment may be applied to the nose and throat area and the public area. The whole idea is to eliminate the offending bacteria that have set up housekeeping. Never exchange towels. Try to isolate the infection.

Treatment of the entire household is usually necessary. Individuals with recurrent furuncles should also be examined for any underlying disorder, specifically diabetes.

Although furuncles are not acne you may want to understand that problem, too, so I am sending you The Health Letter number 8-2, Acne Can Be Treated. Others who want this information can send 50 cents for it with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope. Just send your letter to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 326, San Antonio, TX 78292.

Archibald Cox To Receive Degree

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Archibald Cox, Harvard law professor and former Watergate special prosecutor, will receive an honorary degree Saturday during fall term commencement exercises at Michigan State University.

College Veterans Should Apply Now

Veterans who plan to enroll at Western Texas College for the 1977 Spring semester, and who have never been enrolled at WTC, should make application now for VA educational benefits, Dan Dever, Veterans Outreach Coordinator and Assistant Registrar, said.

Applications should be in the VA Regional Office in Waco by Dec. 15, Dever said. This will allow VA the 30 days required to determine the eligibility of the veteran.

Veterans who enroll for classes at WTC extension centers are also entitled to educational benefits and also need to make applications now.

The Veterans' Education and Employment Assistance Act of 1976 (PL 94-502), signed into law by President Ford on Oct. 15, increased monthly allowances by eight per cent. For example a single veteran taking 12 credit hours will now receive $292 monthly as compared to $270.

The new act also extended training time from 36 months to 45 months for all eligible veterans, and the additional time may be used for undergraduate, graduate or post-graduate work. If a veteran has used his 36 months of eligibility and has not reached his 10-year delimiting date, he may now use the additional nine months. (The delimiting date is determined by adding 10 years to the date of release from active duty. For example, a veteran released from active duty on January 20, 1970 would have a delimiting date of January 21, 1980.)

Necessary application forms are available at the office of the Veterans Outreach Coordinator in the WTC Administration Building. Assistance in completing the application forms will be furnished by the office. The office is open from 8-12 and 1-5 Monday through Thursday and 8-12 and 1-4 on Fridays. Evening hours are 6-9 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

According to "We Americans," a National Geographic Society book, about one out of every four American colonists remained loyal to the British crown during the Revolutionary War.

COLORADO CITY—A total of 1,660 persons in Mitchell County have been immunized against swine flu.

A swine flu inoculation clinic at Wallace Center resulted in 1,060 receiving the flu shots and estimates were that at least 600 others had received the shots earlier from their doctors.

Local volunteers assisted personnel of the Texas Department of Health Resources in administering the vaccine at the clinic at Wallace Center.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You're a little too careless with possessions and resources today. Loss is possible through someone in whom you misplaced your trust.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) It's advisable to rely more on yourself than upon others today. People you think are firmly in your corner could suddenly change sides.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Take care what you volunteer today. Someone could craftily switch an insoluble problem to you and you'd wind up holding the bag.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) If you have a friend who generally fares well in risky ventures, don't throw in with him today. His luck could abandon him.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Goals are destined to elude you today, mainly because the methods you use to attain them are erratic.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Steer clear of pushing plans through impulsively today. It will be far better to think things out and avoid any actions you feel are premature.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Carelessness today could maneuver you so as you'd have to pay for another's mistakes. Weigh the difference between compassion and foolishness.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) One-to-one relationships will be your stumbling block today. The problem could rest with your failure to spell out the ground rules.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Your attention span is very short today. As a result, problems will result that you normally wouldn't anticipate.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Be on your guard in social situations today. Complications arise either from the way friends handle you or the way you deal with them.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You may try to manage too closely the affairs of one who trusts you for guidance. Your advice could hinder rather than help.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) It is wise to heed the words of those who you feel have the knowledge and substance to advise you. Be sure, however, you're not just being swayed by a glib tongue.

English Course Deals With Western Films

An English course dealing with a study of Western movies is planned for evening students at Western Texas College during the spring semester.

Richard Lancaster, instructor for the course, was co-instructor for a similar course offered for day students at WTC previously.

He has arranged for 10 feature-length films to be shown during the new course, the earliest being "Tumbleweeds" made in 1925 starring William S. Hart.

The Course, titled English 233.2: The Western Film, is to be offered from 6:30-9:20 on Tuesday nights. Persons wishing further information may contact Lancaster or the office of the registrar.

New Southwest Routes Okayed

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Aeronautics Commission voted 5-0 Wednesday to allow Southwest Airlines to serve several Texas cities with its "commuter" air service.

The commission granted Southwest's application to institute within one year non-stop flights on these routes: Austin-Corpus Christi, Austin-Dallas, Austin-Harlingen, Corpus Christi-Houston, Dallas-Lubbock, Dallas-Midland and Odessa, El Paso-Midland and Odessa, El Paso-Lubbock, and Midland and Odessa-Lubbock.

But the commission also added three routes that Southwest did not ask for in the first year: Austin-Houston, Austin-Lubbock and Austin-Midland and Odessa.

The commission denied permission for Southwest to institute service more than a year from now on these routes: Corpus Christi-Harlingen, Corpus Christi-San Antonio and Austin-San Antonio.

These three routes should be left open for application by other carriers who might want to serve them within one year, said commission member David Witts.

The addition of routes not asked for in the first year was made, Witts said, because Austin is a large city, has a major university and is the capital.

Fort Worth City Atty. S. G. Johndroe Jr. urged the commission to deny Southwest's application. Southwest flights out of Dallas' Love Field have cost the Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport $1.6 million in landing fees, concessions and parking fees in one year, Johndroe said.

By adding these new flights, DFW will lose another $779,000 a year, he said.

"We keep asking ourselves why in the world you would expand and continue this monopoly (by Southwest)," Johndroe said.

Herbert Kelleher, Southwest's lawyer, said 80 per cent of the passengers who flight to and from the Dallas-Fort Worth market prefer Love Field. DFW is in no danger of defaulting on its revenue bonds, Kelleher said, because the carriers certificated by the federal Civil Aeronautics Board have agreed to underwrite any deficit, he said.

"The truth is that the CAB carriers have stifled air traffic in Texas by their high fares," Kelleher said.

Southwest is not "skimming the cream" off existing markets, Kelleher said. The airline proved by better service and lower fares that thousands of Texans who ordinarily would not fly are using its service, he said.

On the Dallas-Houston and Dallas-San Antonio routes, Kelleher said, Southwest has increased traffic by 135 per cent in only 3½ years, he said. And the increase for traffic to the Rio Grande Valley in only one year has been 165 per cent, he said.

Mother Doctoring Tips Given

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP) — A teaspoonful of brown sugar with a "few drops of kerosene" is just the beginning of Mildred R. Wasson's remedy for a sore throat.

"Then," she wrote, "take your left stocking off and turn it wrong-side out and tie it around your neck."

The letter from the Maugansville, Md., woman was one of many received when the Hagerstown Morning Herald asked for reports from the everday "doctor" in the home — the mother.

For congested lungs, Mrs. M.C. O'Brien, of Hagerstown said her mother used to "render fat from a polecat and rub it on the chest. It will cure a cold but you sure will have a foul odor."

Norman Spencer, a 75-year-old Knoxville man, wrote to say his mother brought him up to eat a raw onion every day to ward off the flu. But he warned that there may be side effects.

"You may lose friends and close contacts with people," he warned, adding that the cure was not recommended "for sweethearts and lovers."

The United States will supply 50 per cent of the wheat and about 70 per cent of the soybeans moving in world trade in 1976.
