New Chicago Mayor "Fires" More Than 2,000

Love Must Win

He was a South African "wild man." She was a circus freak, with lips distended as large as saucers. That didn't prevent them from eloping, as love, you know, laughs at barriers. But what did matter is that they took $500 belonging to the woman's husband, according to grand theft complaints issued at Los Angeles against Jennie Lambezi, shown above, and Caucasus Bird, the "wild man." South Sea Island Joe, the woman's husband, made the complaint—when he missed the $500.

Dismissal Of More Than 2,000 City Employes Holding Temporary Appointments Ordered On Thursday

Order Is Issued

No Vouchers Honored Until Proof Given That Holders Worked For Their Money; Two Appointed

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 9. — Anton J. Cermak became mayor today and immediately swished the brooms that bore his Democratic campaign slogan: "Clean Out The City Hall."

Forty three hours after his election, Tuesday, the successful Democratic candidate, who defeated Mayor William Hale Thompson, Republican, by 194,257 votes took the oath of office as mayor of America's second largest city, and ordered the dismissal of more than 2,000 city employes who held temporary appointments.

Makes Resignation

Effective at once, the new mayor announced his resignation as president of the Cook county board, a post he had held for eight years.

Two civic leaders, advisors of Cermak in his campaign, were appointed to the cabinet: Colonel A. A. Sprague as commissioner of public works, and Francis X. Busch, as corporation counsel. Busch's acceptance was for a sixty day period only.

A. M. Smietanka, defeated Democratic candidate for municipal judge, was appointed city prosecutor.

Several Named

Ranking civil service members in the various city departments were placed in charge pending further appointments.

Dr. Hugh O. Jones, personal physician to Cermak, was made acting

Stabilization Gets Approval In Washington

Program Presented By Advisory Committee Of Ten Oil States Commended By Two National Groups

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 9. — The administration today approved the efforts at stabilization of the oil industry which are being made by the ten principal petroleum producing states.

Both through the federal oil conservation board, composed of four cabinet members, and in a conference at the White House, the president and his aides commended the program presented by the oil states advisory committee.

Headed By Murray

This group, headed by Cicero I. Murray, cousin of Governor Murray of Oklahoma, laid before the conservation board this morning a plan by which it will continue to function as an advisor and guide to both the industry and the states while the latter are working toward enactment of a compact which will make it possible to limit the production of oil in all fields proportionately.

The aim is to bring supply into relation to demand, reduce steadily the present enormous storage of oil and gasoline above ground, restore prices to a point at which the hundreds of thousands of small wells can continue to exist, and through saving of independent operators from bankruptcy, preserve competitive condition in the nation's second largest industry.

Prices, however, were not mentioned at the session.

Texan Asks That Activities Of Company Be Investigated

WASHINGTON, April 9. (AP)—A request by Representative Patman, Democrat, Texas, that an anti-trust investigation be made of the activities of the Procter and Gamble Soap company will receive "due and respectful consideration" from the justice department.

Attorney General Mitchell would not say whether an investigation already was under way or whether a prolonged inquiry would be made, but said Patman's request would be considered.

Managua Earthquake Damage Estimated At $20,000,000

MANAGUA, Nic., April 9. (AP) — Last week's earthquake and fire caused about $20,000,000 damage, it was estimated today. Property damage ran from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000 and loss of merchandise from $5,000,00 to $8,000,000.

Of the total about $2,000,000 was covered by insurance but only about $100,000 by an airthquake clause. Twenty blocks in the business section were razed. The rest of the city was badly damaged but can be repaired.

King Cotton Rules Day At Tech

And Dr. Horn Sports Tech-Made Suit

BY MARGARET TURNER
Avalanche Staff Writer

PRINCESSES in the court of Old King Cotton modeled in a style show at Texas Technological gymnasium Thursday evening and won the favor of a great many Tech co-eds, a few collegians and several faculty members in addition to many town people.

The platform was picturesque with three large cotton bales flanking the corners. This show was the finale to the first "Cotton Day" at Texas Technological college. Throughout Thursday college girls took occasion to wear cotton frocks to classes. They were at the gymnasium last night in prints and voiles, in piques and batistes and from scattered conversations seemed to be enjoying the thrill.

Dr. Horn First

Dr. Paul W. Horn, college president, was the first model and displayed a cotton suit which was grown, woven into material, and made on the campus of Texas Technological college. Cotton picked from the college fields was in turn woven into cloth at the textile mills and later made into a suit by girls in the school of home economics. Actual cost of the suit was estimated by the president to be less than one dollar.

Dr. Horn commended the girls for their stand in wearing cotton dresses during Thursday and expressed the hope that they would continue wearing them.

Girls Introduced

Miss Mabel Erwin, head of the clothing department of the college, introduced the girls and described the material of the dresses which they wore. Some of the apparel was furnished by local merchants, and girls in the home economics school modeled dresses which they had made.

Miss Ruby Rae Williamson, wearing a white poplin school dress, was the first co-ed model, and she was followed by Miss Hazel Arnett wearing yellow linen. Others in this group of clothes suitable for school wear were Misses Lucille Hunt, Fern Spann, Eunice Cone, Ruth Thompson, Helen Winstead, Ella B. Adkisson, Mary Lois Gamel, Frances Gunn, Mona Gowan, and Edith Sanders.

They wore batistes, black and white prints, piques, and voiles. Hats and bags corresponded to the dresses or presented a suitable contrast. Shoes were favored black and white sport oxfords or shantung.

Afternoon Attire

The second group displayed afternoon dresses. Miss Lizzie Belle Clements modeled a yellow voile, and Miss Mildred Runnels was in pink embroidered voile. Others in this group were Misses Louise Garrison, Christova Sawyer, Anna Bass Arnett, Lesey Bullock, Harriett Swain, Adele Goolsby, Harriett Roach, Mildred Price, Ruby Dean, Hazel Gruver and Jean Shelley Jennings.

The final section appeared to meet with the hearty approval of the collegians scattered throughout the audience. This was sports. Miss Vonicle Gilkerson modeled a yellow pique archery frock. Miss Frances Snyder wore a linen tennis dress, and Miss Virginia Bacon appeared in a severe black riding habit.

A printed hiking dress was worn by Miss Doris Ladd Johnson, and Miss Rosemary Leaverton wore a cotton mesh golf dress. Miss Catherine Jameson was attired to play polo.

Only one suit of pajamas was worn, modeled by Miss Jo Caraway, and Miss Erwin predicted that this mode of dress will not meet with favor here because Lubbock is so far from beach resorts.

Music was furnished throughout the evening by Frank Stone's Collegians.

APPEAL FILED

AUSTIN, April 9. (AP)—Appeal for John Rippey, Denton county, who was given a 35-year sentence on charges that he shot to death J. I. Hornsby on July 25, 1928, was filed today with the state court of criminal appeals.

Elinor Smith Is Again Holder Of Altitude Record

(By The Associated Press)

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., April 9.—Eighteen year old Elinor Smith, thrice beaten in her assault on the women's world altitude record, swept down on this field from a twilight April sky tonight with an altimeter reading of 32,000 feet.

She believed she had broken the present official record of 28,418 feet held by Ruth Nichols.

It was a happy Elinor who landed at 6:21 p. m., and was gathered into the arms of her mother, Mrs. Agnes Smith, and her father, Tom.

Forgotten was the terrifying experience of a scant two weeks ago when the young air adventuress dropped 25,000 feet to land in a rough field and turn over, miraculously unhurt, from an attempt to smash Miss Nichols' record.

Graf Zeppelin Takes Off For Flight; Cairo Is Destination

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, April 9. (AP)—Germany's Graf Zeppelin, with Dr. Hugo Eckner in command, took off today for Cairo with 25 passengers, including Commander R. S. Booth, who piloted England's R-100 to Canada.

Two years ago the British government withheld permission for a flight over Egypt, but this time the Graf will land and its passengers will debark.

American Naval Guard Hurt As Chinese Troops Attack

ICHANG, China, April 9. (AP)—A large number of Chinese soldiers said to be government troops fired upon a small American naval guard aboard the Yangtse river steamer Iping today and were repulsed after a short but sharp fight.

Leo Bradley, Indianapolis, member of the naval guard, was shot in the leg and two Chinese aboard the Iping were severely wounded.

Youthful Bus Tragedy Hero Looking Forward To His White House Visit

(By The Associated Press)

LAMAR, Colo., April 9.—Playing, "Oh, Dem Golden Slippers" on a harmonica as he sat with his feet in a basin of hot water, Bryan Untiedt, 13-year-old hero of the Pleasant Hill school bus tragedy, tried to divert his mind yesterday from the pains which raced through his feet and legs.

They were frozen in a blizzard which claimed the lives of five of his school mates and the bus driver two weeks ago.

Bryan spends his time upon a cot in the living room. He is adept on the harmonica and went through a repertoire which included Casey Jones, Three

Fletcher S. Eubanks, Crash Victim, Will Be Buried In Ralls Cemetery; Services At Auditorium

Died On Thursday

Crushed Under Coupe After It Had Plunged Over A 20-Foot Embankment On Highway Near Monroe

FUNERAL services for Fletcher S. Eubanks, 32, Lubbock auditor, who was killed soon after midnight yesterday in a car accident, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the city auditorium at Ralls, John T. Smith, pastor of the Lubbock Church of Christ, will conduct the services. Burial will be in the Ralls cemetery.

Eubanks died early Thursday morning when the Ford coupe which he was driving plunged over a 20-foot embankment on highway No. 9, two miles south of Monroe. Death was believed to be instantaneous.

Part Of Underpass

The embankment was part of an underpass under construction by the state highway department, and when workmen returned to it about 7 o'clock Thursday morning they found Eubanks' body crushed under the steering wheel of the overturned car.

A verdict of death by accident was returned by the coroner.

Survivors Listed

Mr. Eubanks is survived by his wife, a 9-year-old daughter, Betty Jane, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Eubanks of Ralls, four sisters, Mrs. Velma Richardson of Catalina, Cal., Mrs. Alva Morrison, Covina, Cal., Mrs. Blanche Forbis, Ralls, and Mrs. Montie Farrington, Ralls, and one brother, U. B. Eubanks.

Nation Mourns Passing Of Longworth--Great Leader

Valiant Battle For Life Is Lost On Thursday

By MILES WOLFF

AIKEN, S. C., April 9. (AP)—Nicholas Longworth, speaker of the national house and one of the most fascinating figures in American statesmanship, died of pneumonia today.

The 61-year-old congressman fought a valiant battle aided by Mrs. Longworth—"Princess Alice" to millions—but succumbed at 10:49 a. m.

Funeral Saturday

The end came at the colonial home of James Curtis after a three-day siege of the disease.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. C. S. T., Saturday at Christ Episcopal church, Cincinnati, where his body will be taken from Aiken. There will be no state funeral.

His wife was with him when death came. She reached his bedside early Wednesday after it had been learned his condition was serious. After Mr. Longworth's death she denied herself to visitors.

Come By Plane

Her brothers, Archibald and Kermit, hurrying here by plane, arrived several hours after their brother-in-law's death.

Government officials, including President Hoover, have announced their intention of attending the funeral services. The president was expected to take a special train from Washington to pay tribute to one of the outstanding Republican leaders.

The body is to be placed on a train in Aiken tomorrow at 11:30 a. m., reaching Cincinnati Saturday at 7 a. m.

Cold Developed

Mr. Longworth was born in Cincinnati in 1869.

For several years, after finishing his work in congress, he has been coming to Aiken to recuperate. This year he made another visit to the Curtis home, but soon after reach-

"Princess Alice" Is Courageous Under Heavy Blow

BY MARGUERITE YOUNG

WASHINGTON, April 9. (AP) — Alice Roosevelt Longworth bore the blow of sudden widowhood today with the stamina and courage for which she has been noted since she lived in the White House.

"She is keeping up wonderfully," said a close friend who received directions here for the funeral that will close a romance begun with an international political mission more than a quarter century ago.

No State Funeral

It was "Princess Alice" who took charge of the arrangements. She decided against a state funeral. She talked to the office staff three times by telephone, and each time they were impressed with her fortitude.

When Mr. Longworth left for Aiken, S. C., she knew her husband had pneumonia. Those who saw her transacting business matters before leaving said blue hollows showed in her cheeks. But she told them not to worry, and to keep the news from friends, because it would soon pass over."

Expect Come Back

If she comes back to Washington, as her friends are confident she will, "Princess Alice" will begin a new phase. But still important will be her role as a national character.

Those who know Mrs. Longworth intimately do not expect her to follow the example of other widows of public men, and become a candidate for public office. She does not like doing the usual. Her interest in politics is great, but it never has been directed toward active leadership. She has been the vortex of a generation of "Washington politics, but always she insisted upon remaining in the background.

Public affairs were the first common interest of "Alice and Nick." It is likely they were the ground on

Five Are Held In Slaying Of Vivian Gordon

New York's Vice Murder Is Thought Cleared Up With Arrests; Robbery Theory Is Advanced

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 9.—"There is no longer a Vivian Gordon mystery," police exulted tonight as they saw five men safely stowed away behind jail bars.

One of them, listed in court records as a burglar who developed into a petty racketeer, was accused as the actual killer of the titian-haired witness in the Seabury vice investigation. She was strangled with a clothesline and tossed from an automobile into Van Cortlandt park six weeks ago.

Robbery Motive

The alleged slayer, police said, is known as Harry Stein, as Harry Saunders, as Alexander Norse, and as Charles Lubin. He is an ex-convict and narcotics peddler with the instincts of a slugger, detectives said, and his motive was robbery. The mink coat, a diamond ring and the rectangular wrist watch of the victim, trapped him, they declared.

The others, held as material witnesses, are:

Samuel (Greenie) Greenhauser, tailor, described as one of those mentioned in the fat diaries in which Miss Gordon recorded the loves, fears, hates, and adventures of a Broadway demi-mondaine not

Lisbon Assumes Aspect Of An Armored Camp; RevoltSpreads

LISBON, Portugal, April 9. (AP)—Lisbon was assuming the aspect of an armed camp tonight after it was learned the military rebellion at Funchal, Madeira, had spread to garrisons in the Azores, which have repudiated allegiance to the central government.

Armored cars with Republican guards rumbled through the streets of the capital as infantry and marine companies patrolled the streets. All strategic points in the Lisbon were under control of government troops, who had been kept in their barracks throughout the day.

National Women's Commission To Draft Prohibition Report

WASHINGTON, April 9. (AP) — Twenty-one women comprising the National Commission of Women for law enforcement gathered in the capital tonight, prepared to draft tomorrow a composite report on prohibition described by their leaders as a "supplement" to the Wickersham report.

Announcement was made today that this document, "Giving the viewpoint of women on enforcement," will be taken to the White House Saturday morning.

More Than 700 Members Will Attend Affair

Lubbock Today Will Throw Open Its Doors To More Than 400 Out-Of-Town Visitors Expected

Two-Day Affair

First Meeting Tonight With Others Scheduled Throughout Saturday; Breakfast Is Being Planned

LUBBOCK'S doors of welcome will be thrown open today and Saturday to approximately 700 members of the Northwest Texas Teachers association in annual meeting in this city. First session of the conference will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Texas Technological college gymnasium.

Members of the teaching profession from all sections of the Panhandle and South Plains are expected to arrive in the city early today. Dr. A. W. Evans, head of the department of education at Texas Tech, last night estimated that approximately 400 out-of-town visitors are expected here for the two-day affair. In addition about 300 local teachers will attend the sessions. Dr. Evans is the Lubbock member of the executive committee of the convention.

Speakers Scheduled

All speakers on the program have confirmed their engagement, and the sessions of the convention will hear some of the outstanding educators and scholars of New Mexico and Texas.

Prominent among those to be heard are: Dr. J. F. Zimmerman, president of the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque; Dr. L. H. Hubbard, president of C. I. A., Denton; J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State Teachers college, Canyon; Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of the Texas Technological college; Dr. J. L. Henderson, University of Texas; C. E. Davis, superintendent at Quanah; W. A. McIntosh, superintendent at Amarillo; B. M. Dinsmore, superintendent at Electra; I. B. Carruth, superintendent at Canyon; V. Z. Wichita Grand Jury Declines To Return Furl Indictment WICHITA FALLS, April 9. (AP)—The 30th district grand jury today declined to indict Jesse Furl, truck farmer, for the fatal wounding of Pat Davis, former Iowa Park plumber, in a gun duel at a Wichita county country store on March 29. Davis died here three days later from a bullet wound in the chest. Furl is recovering from two wounds. The shooting followed a quarrel started when Furl resented a sniper's shot fired at his car as he passed the Davis home on the night before the duel.

BILLS ARE SIGNED

AUSTIN, April 9. (AP) — Several bills were signed late today by Governor Sterling. Among them was one exempting church property from taxation and another providing for the establishment at Dallas of a psychopathic, cancer and pellagra hospital.

Annual Dairy Show Is Brought To Close With Sale Thursday

He's An "Abider"
Little Water Never Hurt Anyone

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 9. —William Metcalfe is a plumber.

There are many thousands of other plumbers in Chicago and the fact Metcalfe is engaged in that line of work wouldn't have excited much interest if it had not been for the supplemental bill for divorce his wife filed yesterday.

She charged that when a pipe burst in their home last Sunday the place was flooded because he refused to fix it.

"On Sunday?" she quoted him as saying. "It's against the union rules."

Estimated Attendance Given As 30,000; Higher Quality Of Animal Shown This Year Than Ever Before

By J. SAM LEWIS
Avalanche Staff Writer

PLAINVIEW, April 9.—With an estimated attendance of 30,000, and with a much higher quality of animals shown, the fourth annual Texas Panhandle-Plains Dairy show closed late this afternoon with a sale that netted nearly $2,100 for the nine breeders participating.

The sale was attended by more than a thousand people and the prices, while not as large as in former years, were considered good.

Show Much Larger

As a whole, the show was much larger, in attendance, in number of exhibitors, in departments and above all in interest in the affair. Many people from down state who were here for the first time declared they had not believed it possible to stage such an exposition outside the state fairs of Texas.

The number of animals entered in the show was 241, but there were 248 animals taken from the grounds, there being seven calves dropped by show animals during the affair. This in itself was declared to be unusual by dairymen.

Twenty-Four Sold

At the sale the 18 cows brought $1,760 or an average of $97.75, while the six bulls brought $337.50, an average of $56.25, making the average approximately $87.38.

Eight Negroes To Die For Attacks

SCOTTSBORO, Ala., April 9. (AP) —Eight negroes ranging in age from 16 to 20 years today were sentenced to die in the electric chair at Kilby prison Friday July 10, for an attack on two white girl hoboes aboard a freight train March 24.

The negroes showed no emotion as Judge J. A. Hawkins pronounced sentence.

A mistrial was ordered for the ninth negro, Roy Wright, 14, of Chattanooga, after a jury deliberating 19 hours was unable to reach agreement as to punishment.

The negroes sentenced to death were Charles Weems and Ozie Powell, Atlanta; Eugene Williams, Andy Wright, Clarence Norris and Heywood Patterson, all of Chattanooga; Olen Montgomery, Monroe, Ga., and William Robertson, Columbus, Ga.

Dallas Man Kills Self After Shooting Wife; Quarrel Cause

DALLAS, April 9. (AP)—C. W. Love, 52, killed himself today after shooting his wife, Eva, 40. She was expected to recover.

Mrs. Love said she and her husband had quarreled over household expenses. Besides his widow, Love is survived by two children, his mother, three brothers, and three sisters.

An official statement tonight said that the king continues to make slow but satisfactory progress.

Oil Operators To Meet On Saturday With Commission

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 9.—R. D. Parker, supervisor of the oil and gas division of the railroad commission, today called a meeting Saturday of all the oil operators in the new East Texas field. The producers in the Longview and Kilgore areas were asked to meet at Longview at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The Henderson operators were requested to meet at Henderson at three o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Parker said the purpose of the meetings would be to select advisory committees, "which would advise with the railroad commission in connection with the conservation of oil and gas and the pipe line law, commonly known as the common purchaser law."

A meeting of operators had been scheduled for yesterday but it was called off after Carl Estes, East Texas lease and royalty owner, obtained a temporary injunction restraining the commission from enforcing proration.

Mrs. Charles Adams Jr., Is Honored With Reception In Cosby Home

The Woman's Angle

Avalanche Woman's Editor

AND NOW with the various courses which are offered to college girls as an opportunity for learning valuable hints concerning social and personal matters comes an elect which is known as a Course in Charm.

Co-eds of Carroll College in Waukesha, Wisconsin, and those in the State Teachers college at Milwaukee, initiated the course after deciding that of equal importance to them along with dates in history and mathematical equasions was that ever present question — "How Can I Be Attractive to Men?" Details of make-up, dress and manners told by experts, are included in the discussions which are meeting with the approval of the Dean of Women as well as the co-eds.

For instance the girls are maintaining that the way one sits and stands is important. During a recent session, co-eds were impressed with the fact that while sitting in the presence of company a lady most assuredly does not toe in. They are learning the latest approved method of budgeting their personal finances and that a few clothes, tastefully selected, are better than a prodigious wardrobe. The girls of Carroll college have divided all feminity into six classes: the sophisticated type, the cameo type, the Diana type, the taffified woman who should wear simple, tailored or sports clothes and the "button twister"—the ingenue who when talking to a man plays with a button on his coat as she looks up at him with adoring eyes.

One of the topics discussed during the charm course was "Service and Menu Planning." This strikes a responsive note among house wives as well as college girls. That women are intensely interested in this latter phase is evidenced by the number of household magazines that flood the markets and the attendance at cooking schools over the country. A favorite topic of conversation at bridge parties that rivals babies, operations and trips to Europe is often "what on earth do you find to cook these days?"

LOCAL WOMEN INTERESTED

THAT Lubbock wives are interested in matters of modern cooking and table etiquette was proved this week when the repetition of a course in Easy Foods offered by the extension course of Texas Technological college and the home economics school was quickly filled and a waiting list begun. The course may not be given again as this is the second time for it to be given within a month but it did prove popular.

Miss Ella Mae Lyle, teacher of home economics at Lubbock high school, taught the course which was under the direction of Miss Jonnie McCrery, professor of foods at the college. One of the recipes derived from the course will help satisfy that hunger a child brings home with him from school in the afternoon and not impair his appetite for the night meal. This is chocolate chips and the recipe follows:

One-half cup fat, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 2 oz. melted chocolate, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup flour, 3-4 cup nut meats, cream shortening, add sugar and mix well, add eggs and melted chocolate, beat, add vanilla. Sift flour and salt. Add to first mixture. Bake in thin sheets 10 to 12 minutes; while warm cut in squares or oblongs.

FLOWERS ARE OFFERED

THE RECENT cold spell did not damage the clusters of coreopsis that Mrs. E. D. Farris, 1312 8th street, has in her flower beds and she has announced that she still has more than she can possibly use and any one who wants them is welcome. They must be thinned, according to Mrs. Farris and she does not like to throw them away when so many people would like to have them.

WILL DISPLAY WORK

YESTERDAY we wrote about several local artists who plan to send pictures to the art exhibit which will be staged as a part of the seventh district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, spring convention in Memphis next week. Two names of artists who will have work on display were omitted. They are Miss Doris Baugh and Miss Maurine Henderson.

Affair Thursday Afternoon Is Given By Class Members

Glad Girls Are At Home To Mrs. Adams' Friends For Two Hours; Seventy-Five Call

One of the attractive social affairs of the week was given Thursday afternoon when members of the Glad Girls class in the First Baptist church were hostesses with a reception honoring Mrs. Charles Adams, jr., whose marriage was recently announced. The tea was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Cosby, 2009 23rd street.

Guests upon entering were met by Miss Mary Cosby and presented to Mrs. M. L. Shepherd who in turn introduced them to the honoree. Mrs. Shepherd is teacher of the class. Others in the receiving line were Mrs. Charles Adams, sr., Miss Fannie Sue Dunn, Miss Margaret Robertson, and Miss Inez Hensley.

Orchid And Pink Featured

The entertaining rooms were decked with pot plants. A color scheme of orchid and pink featured in the refreshment plate with small bouquets of sweet peas and baby breath given for plate favors. Miss Mary Alice Griggs and Miss Mozelle Mocha presided at the table during the first hour and Miss Robertson and Miss Evelyn Owens presided during the later part of the afternoon.

Others In Party

Others in the house party were Miss Mabel Mimms and Miss Jesse Lee Hensley and Mrs. Cosby. Miss Hensley presided at the guest book.

Miss Bettie Hamilton played piano numbers during the afternoon.

About 75 people called during the afternoon.

"Seven Objectives Of Childhood" Presented Before 100 Attendants At Convention Held In Lamesa

(Special To The Avalanche)

LAMESA, April 9—One hundred delegates of the district Parent-Teachers asociation holding a three-day convention here, met in the high school auditorium tonight to witness the pageant "Seven Objectives of Childhood."

Speakers for the evening were J. A. Hill, president of the West Texas State Teachers college at Canyon, and Mrs. Matt A. McCall.

Members of the convention were entertained today noon by the Lamesa civic clubs with a luncheon at the Dal-Paso hotel. Approximately 200 persons were present.

During Thursday afternoon's session in the Methodist church, Mrs. Stephen Chaviness of Austin, president of the state organization, spoke on the "Parent-Teachers association". J. D. Pace of Tahoka was also on the program.

The district convention of the Parent-Teachers association will adjourn Friday night after they have attended a buffet supper given by the ladies' clubs of Lamesa, it was announced.

Support Of Pure Seed Program Is Urged Of Clubs

Leidigh, of Texas Tech, in short talks before members of the Lubbock Kiwanis club in their regular luncheon program Thursday noon in the Lubbock hotel. W. O. Stevens, local banker, was in charge of the program.

Mr. Jones spoke briefly on the benefits of pure seed and what it does for a community, citing the potential industry of raising pure seeds on the South Plains. He declared it was up to the business men of Lubbock to urge and support the work.

He was followed by Dean Leidigh who spoke of the benefits of raising pure seed also and pointed out the vast need for a pure seed plant somewhere in this area, the construction of which would require about $30,000.

Two new members, Robert S. Rogers and Ralph Bradford were taken into the club during the luncheon. A report of the attendance committee was given by G. E. Danewood, chairman.

A great impetus has been given to the international exchange of highway ideas as the result of the International Highway Congress.

Violation Dyer Act Is Charged

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9. (AP)—James A. Ford, 24, arrested here March 12 on a federal warrant charging him with murder in the death of four prohibition agents near San Antonio, Texas, in 1929, appeared before United States Commissioner A. G. Fisk yesterday on an interstate automobile theft charge.

Although kept in the county jail here on the murder indictment until the arraignment, he was held to answer for violating the Dyer act in transporting an automobile from Texas to Louisiana when the government decided to drop the murder charge.

Ford claimed he was the victim of mistaken identity and fought his return to Louisiana on the theft charge. He was returned to the county jail under $5,000 bond. Fisk continued the case one week. The United States marshal's office said witnesses would be brought from Texas to identiy Ford, alleged to have received seven machine gun bullet wounds in a rum battle.

Bandit Hunt Is Moved To Tulsa

TALALA, Okla., April 9. (AP)—Two youthful bandits who escaped late yesterday after robbing the First State bank here of about $600 were sought in Tulsa today.

After a chase of more than twenty miles in which several shots were exchanged, the robbers outdistanced their pursuers near Skiatook. They were believed to have gone to Tulsa. One was believed wounded.

Noah Whisunhunt, cashier, and Miss Nell Dawson, assistant cashier, were alone in the bank just before closing time when one of the robbers entered, scooped up all cash in sight and rejoined his confederate who waited outside in an automobile.

FOUR KILLED

YAKIMA, Wash., April 9. (AP)—Three girls and a youth were killed and two others were injured in a collision between their automobile and a railroad train at Buena, near here last night.

The dead are Miss Maxine King, Miss Viola Lerge, Miss Thelma Endresen and James Snyder.

Harry "Heck" Clark has been signed as head football coach at Sewanee. He is the first student of the university to be head coach in 15 years. He succeeds Harvey Harman, who goes to Pennsylvania.

Congratulations

On the face of early returns Anton J. Cermak was elected mayor of Chicago by more than 200,000 votes. Mayor Thompson was the worst beaten mayoralty candidate in the history of Chicago. Among the first to congratulate Mayor-elect Cermak was Judge John H. Lyle, who was defeated for the Republican nomination by Mayor Thompson. Photo shows Judge Lyle (left) offering his congratulations to Mr. Cermak.

Police Activities During Month Of March Were Varied; 104 Arrests Made

Lubbock police activities during the month of March ranged from an arrest in a murder case to the investigation of a suicide, according to the monthly report of John Lemond, chief of police.

The murder case was that of Nancy Palmer, 38-year-old negro woman, arrested by local officers following the murder of her husband, Ed Palmer, 43, whose juglar vein had been sereved with a knife.

The suicide case was that of Frederick Raymond Koeninger, 22-year-old Texas Technological college senior, of Plainview.

A total of 104 arrests was made by police here in March, and 13 prisoners were transferred to county custody, according to the monthly report, which lists charges upon which arrests were made and respective numbers as follows:

Disturbance 8, drunkeness 44, investigation 17, vagrancy 9, theft 4, prohibition law violation 4, gambling 12, fighting 3, driving an automobile while intoxicated 1, murder 1, and carrying a pistol 1.

Two-hundred and three traffic law violations resulted in arrests which were distributed as follows:

Exceeding two-hour parking limit 141, all-night parking 17, parking in alley 7, parking in closed zone 20, over-running stop-light 11, speeding 3, making left turn 2, and over-running stop-sign 2.

Wagon calls for prisoners totaled 86 in March. Meals served to prisoners totaled 115 doors found and reported open 18, persons reported missing 4, missing persons found 3, emergency automobile calls 1.

Persons permitted to sleep at police headquarters totaled 155. Texas being represented by 102, Oklahoma by 14, and New Mexico 11. The transients named 14 other states as their homes.

Houston Congressman Ill In Hospital More Than Two Weeks

HOUSTON, April 9. (AP) — Congressman Dan Garrett has been ill in a hospital here for more than two weeks, it became known today.

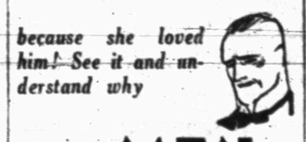

The congressman, suffering what one of his physicians described as a "general let down" should be able to leave the hospital in a "week and a half probably," the doctor said.

The news of the Democrat's illness had not become public and probably would not become had not newspaper men sought him out to seek his comment on the death of Speaker Nicholas Longworth.

Tech Architects Are Constructing Stage Equipment

Stage settings and effects for "The Intimate Stranger," the 3-act comedy by Booth Tarkington, which is to be presented Monday, April 20, by Lubbock Little Theater players at the Palace theater, are being constructed in the architectural department of the school of engineering of Texas Tech, F. A. Klienschmidt is in charge of the work.

Rehearsals for the play are being conducted with excellent progress, Arthur Brown, director reports. Ten persons, several of whom have appeared in previous Little Theater productions, comprise the cast.

In the meantime, plans for an extensive ticket selling campaign for the play are being laid by Wesley Read, chairman of the sales committee. As the play is being produced solely for the benefit of Lubbock charities, a record crowd is expected for the performance. All members of the cast including the director are donating their services in play. C. C. Lindsey, manager of the Palace, is donating the theater for the program.

BILL IS SIGNED

AUSTIN, April 9. (AP)—Governor Sterling today signed the Woodward bill permitting defendants who plead guilty in non-capital cases to waive the right to trial by jury.

The bill also would allow the judge to give a suspended sentence in such cases. The proposal passed the senate by only two votes but it met little opposition in the house.

Welcome Empire Builders!

LUBBOCK is host Saturday to the "builders of empires."

We say "builders of empires" and we mean just that. No class of people on this great sphere have a closer touch and a stronger influence with the youth of today than the teachers in the schools of the land. No class of people do more toward the uplift of civilization than teachers.

So today Lubbock recognizes and welcomes the "empire builders" of northwest Texas in annual convention at Texas Technological college.

May their stay be pleasant and profitable. May they find that Texas Tech is ever willing to aid in the betterment of their problems. May they find new ideas and methods in talks and discussions presented in the convention for carrying on their work.

To the teachers, we feel you're glad of the chance to visit Lubbock but we want you to feel that we're more than glad to have you as our guests.

HOW DO YOU READ?

"Tell me what you eat, and I will tell you what you are," has cried a publicist so often that he has joined a household axiom. Well might another say: "Tell me what you read and I will tell you what you are."

The mind is the house in which we live more truly than is the body. If we furnish the mind garishly we must live in a garish house. If we furnish the mind carelessly, we must live in a slovenly house. If we take our mental furniture only from the past, we shall live in the past alone. If we take it only from the faddish notions of the present we shall live amid fads and foibles, which vanish e'er we know them.

But if, instead, our mental diet is balanced, comprised of the foods tested by time and sauced and spiced by the piquancy of the present, we may live balanced, ordered life.

We can with impunity pour poisons and dark, wild, disordered thoughts into our minds no more than we can day after day find strength and health in spurious foods, hastily prepared, indigestible.

Practical Health Problems

INFECTION OF THE SINUSES

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of two articles by Dr. Fishbein on infected sinuses.

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygeia, the Health Magazine

The public has learned that there are sinuses or air spaces surrounding the nose, and, associated with this knowledge, according to Dr. Lee M. Hurd, there has developed among neurotic types a fixation on the sinuses in which there is not only headache and pain, but also a slight mucous dicharge to lend support to the picture.

On the other hand, there are some phlegmatic individuals with obstructed breathing in the nose and a profuse discharge who wonder why they always feel tired, have no appetite, who wonder why they have pains in the joints and limbs, and who have not realized that the nasal condition is primarily responsible for the trouble.

According to Dr. Hurd, the mucous membrane of the nose becomes deranged either by a bad diet which is deficient in vitamins, by sensitivity to various protein substances, or by some disorders of the glands of internal secretion.

The changes that take place in the mucous membrane make it possible for germs to invade them easily and then the infection has begun. If rats are put upon a diet that is deficient in Vitamin A, the mucous membranes change and infection of the sinus occurs.

In cases when there is sensitivity to various food substances, the mucous membranes swell and are much more likely to be invaded by germs. In the same way, disorders of the glands of internal secretion are reflected by changes in the mucous membranes.

If the underlying cause is removed, the infection may be brought under control, but in the vast majority of cases correct treatment involves not only control of the underlying cause but also treatment of the infection. If the vitamins are insufficient, they may be supplied through giving a well balanced diet. For the sensitivity, it is necessary to make diagnostic tests, which will indicate the special substance to which the person may be sensitive.

Disorders of the glands of internal secretion must be carefully investigated. There are some cases, for instance those in which the thyroid is deficient, in which it is possible to supply the deficiency through proper preparations.

People who work indoors in crowded rooms where the air is bad and the temperature too low or too high are more likely to develop infection of the sinuses. Sometimes when discharge from the sinus becomes blocked, there is swelling of the forehead, dizziness and even ringing in the ears. There are several sinuses, each of which must be studied individually by the physician in order to determine the extent and nature of the infection.

Such study involves a thorough examination through the nose of the openings of the sinuses into the nose, washing of the sinuses to obtain the discharge, transillumination in a dark room which indicates whether or not the sinuses are clear, and the use of the X-ray which indicates whether or not there is thickening of the walls of the sinuses or any amount of material present in the cavity.

May Receive Jolt

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Nicaraguan canal plans may prove to have suffered a severe jolt as a result of the earthquake which destroyed the little republic's capital city of Managua with the loss of hundreds of lives.

Capt. N. H. Heck

If so subject to seismic disturbance, is the route a safe one for the purposed interoceanic connection?

The fact is, however, that the Pacific earthquake belt must be crossed in one place or another if there is to be a new canal at all, for the simple reason, as pointed out by Captain N. H. Heck, chief of the coast and geodetic survey's division of terrestrial magnetism and seismology, that it virtually encircles the Pacific ocean from Cape Horn northward along the western littoral of both the Americas around by way of the Aleutian Islands to Japan, thence southward through the Philippines and Australia as far as New Zealand, with hardly a break except for the lack of any known connecting link across Antarctica.

Captain Heck, to be sure, has no suggestion to make, either for or against the canal proposal.

CAPTAIN HECK does say that next to Panama, Nicaragua's history has been freer from terrestrial shake-ups than that of any of the other Central American countries. Panama—and even that has not been wholly quakeless—is the quietest, or has been in historic times hitherto. Then Nicaragua. Managua, he adds, has been somewhat less stable than the remainder of the country, especially the area to the southward, through which the canal survey extends. The region around the capital is volcanic, and such zones generally are subject to earth disturbances, though ordinarily more limited in extent than those resulting from the slipping and sliding of strata due, presumably, to influences farther in the globe's interior. Nevertheless, says the captain, a volcanic region may have the other kind of earthquakes also.

WOULD a first-class earthquake completely ruin a canal or merely damage it, but not beyond repair? Captain Heck declines to give any guarantee.

"It's impossible to forecast," he said, "whether or not the essential portion of the structural work would withstand shocks of maximum intensity, just as it is impossible to say whether or not there is such a thing as a really quake-proof building."

"What! Isn't even a modern steel building dependably quake-proof?"

"Oh," said the captain, perhaps it might not collapse and kill so many people as other types of construction, but an earthquake can bend a steel building sufficiently to leave it of little use for further occupancy."

"IS ANY CITY, even though in an always previously shock-free area, in danger?"

"Earthquakes," answered Captain Heck, "may occur anywhere, but there is no great occasion for worry by the inhabitants of spots which never in historic times haver been affected."

GONE IS THE PARLOR

Somebody has waked up all at once to the fact that the old parlor is gone. And the queer thing about it is that nobody seems to have seen it go or going. Yesterday it was the core, the heart, the arcanum, the central sanctum sanctorum of every full-fledged house. Today it is no more. Along with the old room of state, the company headquarters where the company put its best foot forward and stood the horsehair furniture around in every solemn posture of the very primmest propriety, there was the drawing room, too. A parlor and drawing room together lifted any house fortunate enough to possess them clear out of the common and gave them caste and rank and glory. If so much architectural grandeur were still further buttressed in relief by a sitting room, dining room and perhaps a first-floor den, there was nothing more needed of mortal distinction.

And now, complain certain elderly romancers, dreaming of times past, parlor and drawing room have gone out and nobody saw them go. Of course, the explanation is very simple. In all the old houses where parlor and drawing room layour remains the same, a new fashion of use and enjoyment has swept in and obliterated the old boundaries. Families gradually got to living all over the house instead of parking in certain restricted parts of it and barring the rest from use except on certain state occasions. In new houses the parlor was simply forgotten and every room made for daily use.

In the beginning the parlor was intended for use. It was the part of the house where the family was to have its private life and pleasure and comfort, safe from every intrusion. Nobody has ever told just how it got away from that simple intention and became the formidable and formal and stuffy and forbidding thing it came to be. In these latter days it has succumbed for the very good reason that houses have shrunk to the actual necessities, and the old-time spaciousness ministering to pride has been outlawed by that master economist known as H. C. L.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

After all, the desire for happiness in this world is the primary object in life of the average man. To attain this condition of happiness man makes the world a better place to live in or to obtain his happiness in, and unless humanity as a whole works together in improving the world the individual members of society fail to find happiness in life. The community is the world in miniature so, like the world, it depends upon the cooperation of all its citizens to make it a better and happier residence for the individual.

There is nothing in the way of community improvement that cannot be accomplished by a proper application of community spirit. Community spirit is merely the uniting and prodding into activity of the desire of individual citizens for a better city.

Petty differences of opinion, prejudices, selfish interests and other barriers to a united community must be overcome by individual citizens before the community can prosper much. It is only when every citizen becomes proud of the home town and puts his shoulder to the wheel of community improvement that the hopes and ambitions for the future of the city take substantial form. By working together for community betterment the people work for the advancement of their individual selves.

A THRILLING MYSTERY STORY + by MILES BURTON

READ THIS FIRST:

On a night of London fog, Thomas Herridge, expert cracksman, stole the famous Hardway diamonds — and yet when he was discovered by the police they were not in his possession. Sir Edric Conway, assistant police commissioner, sets Inspector Brooks on the trail, but the detective's dead body is delivered to Sir Edric in a packing case. Young Dick Penhampton, a friend of Sir Edric's, takes the trail. Disguised as a down-and-outer, Dick visits a hangout known as the Margate Jetty.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER 12

Dick resumed his watchful attitude, scanning the faces of all those who entered the Margate Jetty. Shortly before nine o'clock, two men came in together, and having ordered whiskey, sat down at a table in the corner of the room, close by his own bench. They glanced at Dick and one of the men said something to the other in a low tone. In a few minutes a third man came in, a powerful looking fellow in the blue jersey and coat of a bargee. He ordered his drink, nodded to the first two and joined them at their table, where they sat a while engaged in earnest conversation.

After a while, their glasses were empty, and the last- comer rose to carry them to the counter for replenishment. In doing so, he lurched against Dick, spilling the remains of his gin on the floor. He immediately turned round with a gruff apology.

"Sorry, mate," he said, " 'ere, give us your glass, and 'ave another with me."

"Don't mind if I do," replied Dick wearily. "Gin, it was."

The man refilled his glass and put it on the table where his friends were sitting. "You looks a bit lonely, guv'nor," he said. "Better join us."

Dick shook his head, "No use," he replied bitterly. "I haven't got the price of a round of drinks."

"Bit down on your luck, eh?" said the man. "Never mind, we ain't the chaps to see a pal go thirsty. Come along!"

Dick rose heavily and sat down at the table with the other three. "Here's luck!" he said, lifting his glass and draining half the gin at a gulp. He laid the glass down again and laughed shortly. "Luck!" he exclaimed. " Mine's dead out."

The three men glanced at one another significantly. "Finish that up and have another, mate," said one of the two who had not yet spoken. "Nothing like a glass or two to cheer you up."

Dick did as he was told and another glass was soon beside him. "Lost your job, Guv'nor?" asked the bargee.

"Lost my job!" exclaimed Dick, whose tongue seemed to be loosened by the liquor. "Haven't had a job since I was kicked out of the army, years ago. Had a bit to live on, but that soon went. Since then, I've been staying with my brother-in-law. But we quarrelled over a wad of notes he said he'd lost, and I left his house. Devilish rude he was about it."

Again that significant glance among the three. "Don't find it easy to get a job as would suit you," remarked one of them incuriously. "Any one can see as you've been a dandy, mister."

"Ah, that's the trouble," replied Dick confidentially. "I want a job for my brain, not my muscles and I'm not particular what it is. You don't catch me asking questions, so long as I've enough to live on. I'm not what you might call squeamish. I don't mind telling you fellows that I've done a few queer things in my time."

"Aye, I dessay. We all has to turn our hands to what comes along," said the bargee. "Where are you going to stay when this place shuts?"

"I know a man in Walworth who'll put me up for a night or two," replied Dick. "Decent, honest fellow of the name of Evans. That's been my only stroke of luck today. Met a fellow in Stepney who told me he'd seen him today. He's just moved into a house; 32 Mellin Street, Walworth, his address is."

He leant back in his chair and closed his eyes. The three men whispered together, their voices drowned by the sound of a raucous song played by the gramophone. After some minutes Dick opened his eyes again, to find a newly filled glass at his elbow.

The bargee leant across the table towards him and looked at him fixedly. "See here!" he said, "I don't know anything about you and I don't care. But I'll tell you this. My boss was a-lookin' for a chap like you, what had a head on his shoulders and could keep his nose out o' things that don't concern him. I'll speak to him tomorrow."

"Gad, you're a good fellow!" exclaimed Dick thickly. "Jolly good of you, and all that. Where does this boss of yours live? I'll go and see him first thing."

"Not much you don't!" replied the bargee. "My boss isn't a chap you can just walk up to like that. And I'll tell you this, don't try to play no tricks with 'im, or you'll wish you'd died nice and quick. Now what's your name, mate?"

"Captain Blackwood," said Dick. "Sorry I haven't got a card to give you."

"Right. Now you cut along to this chap Evans in Walworth. If my boss wants to see you, you'll hear from him."

Half an hour later Dick knocked at the door of Number 32 Mellin

Publicity Is Given Lubbock

West Texas Chamber Of Commerce Magazine Sets Aside Several Pages For Use By This City

Several pages are devoted to Lubbock in the March number of West Texas Today, official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

"The Progress of Lubbock" traces the history of the South Plains Hubtown and is accompanied by pictures of an earlyday Lubbock street, the municipal swimming pool and a water-hazard at the Lubbock Country club.

A picture of the Lubbock hotel accompanies an article on the thirteenth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce here May 14, 15 and 16.

Another page of West Texas Today is occupied by articles on the Texas Technological college engineers show, which will be underway during the convention of the regional chamber, and an article on phenomenal growth of Lubbock population since 1920 as "an index to development of the territory." A picture of the Lubbock poultry and egg plant is on the page.

A story on the Panhandle-Plains meat exposition here March 27 and 28 occupies another page. A report of the pageant to be presented on the regional chamber's convention program here, accompanied by a picture of the Hilton hotel, and an item pertaining to Lubbock hotels occupy another page.

"Many Meetings and Conventions in Lubbock During This Year," is the headline above a short story on another page of the magazine.

Six Calves Born At Annual Show

(By Staff Correspondent)

PLAINVIEW, April 9. — With the arrival of a heifer calf to the herd of Dr. S. J. Underwood, Hale Center, on the third day of the Fourth annual Panhandle Plains Dairy show, all previous records for dropped calves at the show were broken.

Six animals on exhibition here, have dropped calves, three heifers and three bulls.

The first calf was to one of the twins of Oscar Stansell, Floydada. It came Sunday and was a bull. A heifer in the Tech college herd had her first calf, a heifer and Bob Smith, Floydada, came in the fourth, a bull.

Joe Vaughan, of Tulia, found a bull addition to his herd Tuesday night.

None of the animals have as yet been named.

"My little heifer came just at the time her mother should have been in the show ring," said Dr. Underwood.

Home telephones are being installed in England at the rate of 6,000 a month.

HARD BUT NOT DIFFICULT

SUPPOSE the water you use is hard. That's no reason why washing should involve extra scrubbing, extra work, extra worry. You'll be surprised to find how little hard water means to White King Granulated Soap. Rich, creamy suds, thorough cleansing and swift rinsing—you can have all these no matter how hard the water may be.

White King Granulated Soap is made from fine vegetable and nut oils good enough to eat. Its purity makes it safe for the flimsiest silken lingerie, effective for the heaviest blankets, kind to the most tender hands. And it contains no "filler" to yellow your white goods.

Try White King today. Its economy will surprise you. A teaspoonful is plenty for the wash basin, a cupful ample for the washing machine. At your grocer's.

DECIDE QUICKLY ABOUT KONJOLA

Let All Who Suffer From The Ills Konjola Is Designed To Relieve Read This

Read every word of these happy experiences with this medicine of 29 ingredients, 22 of which are the juices of roots and herbs; the remarkable medicine for stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels, and for rheumatism, neuritis, and nervousness.

Mrs. Lillie Schulze

See what Konjola did for Mrs. Lillie Schulze, 1307 Center street, San Antonio: "For months my system was out of order; blood was in bad condition and stomach weak. Food did not digest properly, and I had a breaking out of the skin that made me very nervous. In two days I began to get results from Konjola. It is the greatest medicine I ever tried, and I took only two bottles."

Mr. Thomas W. Wilson

And consider the case of Thomas W. Wilson, 2117 San Jacinto avenue, Houston, who says: "I suffered terribly with stomach trouble for a year. Gas formed and I bloated after meals. I was nervous and constipated. But after taking Konjola stomach troubles are over. I heartily commend this medicine to all my friends."

Mrs. E. L. Beliflower

No wonder Mrs. E. L. Beliflower, 824 Euclid avenue, Houston, is enthusiastic about this amazing medicine. She declares: "I am glad that I found Konjola. It is wonderful. For ten years I had stomach trouble, with gas, bloating, and dizzy spells. Kidneys were weak and neuritis troubled me. Then I began using Konjola, and this splendid medicine went right to work. Konjola did all that I hoped it would."

Konjola is a medicine for the aged or the infant; for all the family. That is why Konjola is a household word in tens of thousands of American homes. Get Konjola in any good drug store and do not accept a substitute.

Convention Is Now Underway

Texas Cotton Ginners Hear Annual Message Of President George Hagn; Cities Seek Next Session

DALLAS, April 9. (AP)—The Texas Cotton Ginners' association convened today its 22 annual convention here, delving directly into problems affecting the industry.

Speakers urged reduction of cotton gin fire insurance through education of the ginner to meet fire hazards; presented a plan to prevent "cut-throat" price reductions; and for reducing coton freight rates in the southwest to equalize them with southeastern rates.

George Hagn of Seguin, president, in his annual message, strongly opposed legislative bills which, he declared, if passed would compel reports to the commissioner of agriculture "under oath and penalty." Such reports already are made to the federal government, he said. He also attacked government projects in competition with private business.

Other speakers today on the program were C. J. Crampton, Dallas, counsellor in trade practices; Joseph Leopold, regional director of the United States Chamber of Commerce; J. E. McDonald, Texas commissioner of agriculture; C. C. Littleton, Gainesville.

Lon Smith, member of the Texas railroad commission, will address the convention tomorrow.

Four cities were bidding for the next convention, Houston, Waco, San Antonio and Abilene.

Felony To Tamper With Air Devices

AUSTIN, April 9. (AP)—A bill making it a felony to tamper with airplanes, airports or air equipment was passed by the house today. Should death result from tampering with the planes, ports or devices, the offender could be tried on a charged of first degree murder. The bill was introduced by Senator Purl of Dallas.

Other senate bills passed by the house were:

By Patton: To permit W. S. Hale and wife to sue the state highway commission for alleged damages to his farm as the result of construction on highway 43 in Leon county. Hale claimed his land was damaged $40,000 when water was backed up and held on his farm by a dump.

By O'Neel: To authorize the secretary of state to void brands and trademarks not used for three years.

Charlie Farmer, brilliant dash star of North Carolina, may be lost to the Tar Heels at the southern conference track meet, due to strained muscles.

Dan O'Leary, 92-year-old pedestrian, still is able to hel-an-toe four times around a baseball diamond in three minutes.

More than 5,000,000 tons of potatoes were grown in Spain last year.

COLLEGE COLUMN

By MARSHALL FORMBY, TECH CORRESPONDENT

TO ASSIST IN RELAYS

At a recent meeting of the Tech Chamber of Commerce it was voted to aid in every possible way the Tech athletic department when West Texas and New Mexico high school athletes gather here Saturday. The Tech organization will assist in entertaining the visiting athletes and plans are now being worked out by a committee.

With more than 300 athletes coming here to bid for the valuable prizes offered by the various business concerns of Lubbock, track fans are promised plenty of amusement tomorrow. Five special events precede the relays, according to plans.

RECEIVES PROMOTION

Elliot Powers, 1930 Texas Technological college graduate, is studying at the University of Iowa with a one-half assistanship, according to word received here by Tech geology department officials.

Powers, who majored in geology, formerly was studying with a one-fourth time assistanship.

WEAR COTTON DRESSES

"Prettier than ever" said Tech eds yesterday when commenting upon how the co-eds looked in their new cotton frocks worn to classes.

Many silk and finer dresses were discarded as co-eds joined the movement of other Southern colleges and universities in the "Wear Cotton" movement. The campus movement here was suggested by President Paul W. Horn and furthered by The Forum, organization of campus women. The movement is sponsored in Texas by the Mortar Board of the University of Texas.

Tech women took part in the cotton style show at the gym last night, many of them modeling for local merchants.

WINNERS NAMED

Climaxing a contest in lettering in the department of engineering drawing which was started last winter, announcement was made this week of the winners in the various divisions. Those announced were: Winner in the group of which there were six, Vance Vannoy, Gene Brock, Willet Kuhn, L. E. Parsons and William Luce. Winners in the group of which there were four are as follows: Douglas Ross, Holand Smith, Edward Owen, John Phillips.

Although the class was a freshman engineering drawing class, a few upperclassmen were enrolled. Prizes were given the winners.

INVITATIONS TO BE UNIQUE

A unique design has been worked out for the 1931 senior invitations which recently were ordered by the bookstore officials. Two types of different prices were available, each one containing eight pages.

On the front page will be an engraved etching of one of the towers of the administration building. On the next page will be the 1931 announcement; on the third will appear the list of the senior class officers and list of committees, while the next four pages will be devoted to the list of 1931 candidates for degrees. On the back page will be a Matador in scarlet and also the Matador fight song.

Last date for ordering these invitations was last Monday, according to bookstore officials.

ENTERTAIN TONIGHT

Tech home economic seniors staying in the practice house of the campus will entertain tonight with a bridge party. Five students reside at the practice home and each girl will invite three guests.

Miss Johnnie McCrery, home economics faculty member, also resides at the campus house.

GIRLS ELIGIBLE

Women students in Tech are eligible for the one-act play contest the same as men students, according to Miss Annah Jo Pendleton, acting head of the speech department. Only students who are enrolled in speech classes or are a member of some of the speech department clubs are eligible, however.

Students wishing to enter the play contest should see Miss Pendleton at once in her office on the third floor of the administration building.

VISIT IN PLAINVIEW

Many of the students in the Tech school of agriculture have attended the Texas Panhandle Plains Dairy show at Plainview this week to study the livestock on display there. Professor Ray C. Mowery, member of the animal husbandry department and stock judging coach, assisted in the show and seniors in the animal husbandry department conducted a contest there Monday.

The college placed several animals on exhibit during the show and already has won several prizes.

BOYD TO SPEAK

At a regular meeting of the Pi Gamma Mu, social science organization on the campus, tonight Jack Boyd, Tech Y. M. C. A. secretary will speak on, "Our Interracial Problems, Their Causes and Cures." Following the address, Miss Sylvia Wilson will lead a discussion.

Arnold Carsey is president of the Tech organization. The gathering will be held in room 214 of the administration building at 8 o'clock.

MAKE MERRY TONIGHT

With final arrangements made and a good attendance promised, the future doctors of Texas Tech are preparing for their annual frolic tonight at the Uptown Dance palace. Under the direction of Murray Ballenger, Pre-med club president, all plans for the affair have been arranged.

Bids have been selling and will continue to be sold today for $1 each. These may be purchased from any of the pre-med club members. Special music will be provided by Frank Stone and his Collegians.

STUDENTS HAVE PART

With Maggie Lee Inman and Ena Armstrong taking parts on the program and Dr. E. P. George as principal speaker, an interesting program has been worked out for the Math club meeting tonight in room 206 of the administration building, according to club officials. Dr. George is head of the Tech physics department.

The meeting has been called for 7:30 o'clock.

Spiritualism Exposed By "Mystic"

Nino Pecararo Declares That He Has Never Seen A Ghost And Doesn't Believe Anyone Else Has; "All A Fake"

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 9. — Asserting "people want to be fooled" and that for 11 years he had done just that, Nino Pecararo, "mystic" whom the late Sir Arthur Conan Doyle admitted won him over to spiritualism, has declared his seances were "all a fake."

"I've never seen a ghost and don't believe anyone else ever has," he said. "I'm sick and tired of giving seances and having spiritualism reap the profit. When ghosts appear at my seances they are Nino Pecararo in the flesh."

To prove his point he allowed himself securely bound, then freed himself and wrote two messages. One was "from Doyle" and the other "from Houdini." The handwriting compared favorably with authentic originals of the famous men.

In addition Pecararo passed on two "messages" from dead persons to newspapermen present and also had "ghost hands" play an accordion.

The demonstration was given in the apartment of Joseph Dunninger, chairman of a committee named by scientific magazine to expose fake spiritualists. Dunninger said more than $5,000,000 was spent annually in New York alone on spiritualistic work.

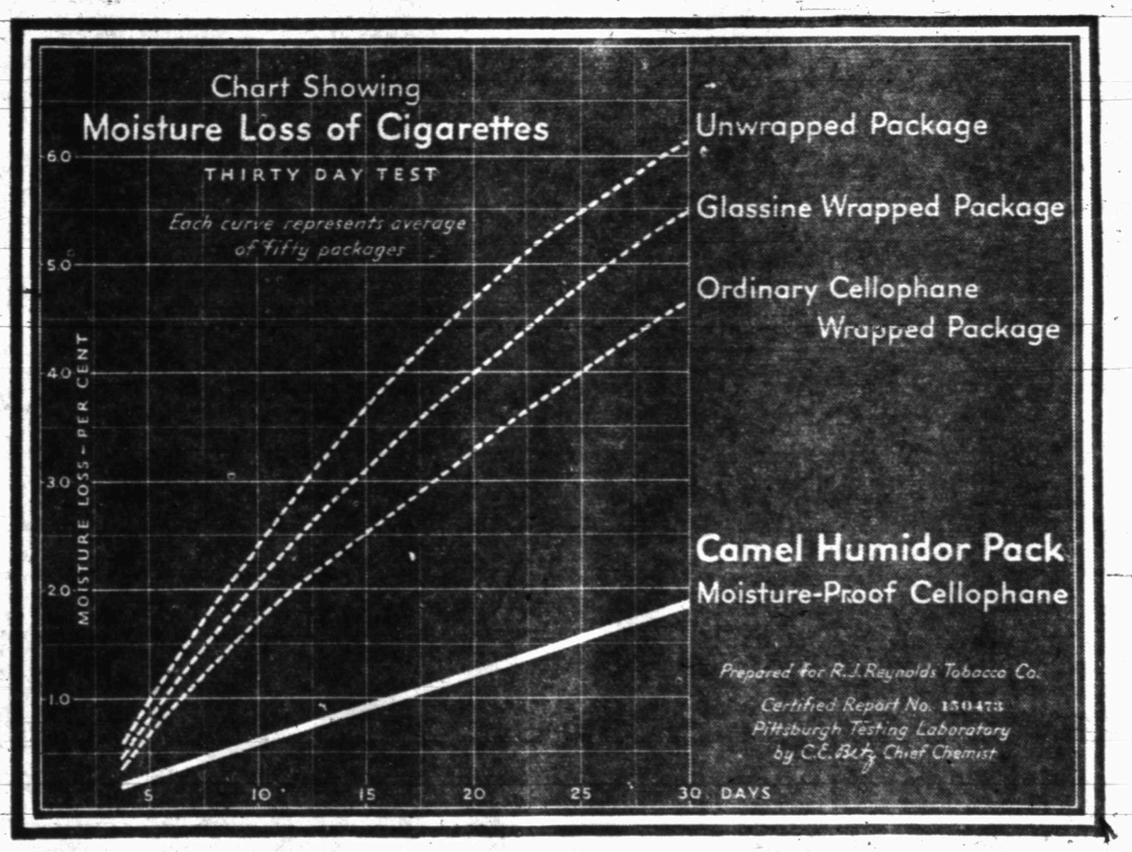

He added, "Conan Doyle had implicit faith in Nino and wrote that "spiritualism rises or falls by him."

Pecararo has made his living by giving more than 2,000 seances in 11 years. He said he would devote himself hereafter to painting and writing with, perhaps a turn at vaudeville.

REPORT GIVEN

WASHINGTON, April 9. (AP)—In a report on world wheat prospects the agriculture department today estimated the domestic surplus of wheat available for export and carryover on July 1 at 290,000,000 bushels.

CAMELS are wrapped Only in MOISTURE-PROOF Cellophane

Cigarettes in prime condition have a moisture content of about 10%. It will be seen by the chart that cigarettes in the ordinary wrapped package lose more than half of their total moisture in thirty days and that only the Camel Humidor Pack delivers cigarettes to you in prime condition.

THE whole country is talking about the throat-easy mildness and the factory freshness of Camel Cigarettes in the new Humidor Pack.

The above chart prepared by the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory tells you why.

Please examine it carefully. It is an unfailing guide to cigarette selection and enjoyment.

As you can quickly see by the three upper curves on this interesting chart, cigarettes that lack the protection of the Humidor Pack lose their moisture rapidly from the day they are manufactured.

And day by day as this moisture disappears, the smoke from these cigarettes becomes harsher, hotter, more unkind to the smoker's throat.

Not so with Camels!

Factory-fresh Camels are air-sealed in the new Sanitary Package which keeps the dust and germs out and keeps the flavor in.

Make these tests yourself

It is so easy to tell the difference between parched dry cigarettes and fresh prime Camels that it is no wonder everybody is reaching for a fresh cigarette today.

Your fingers identify stale, dried-out tobaccos at once. While a Camel is flexible and pliant.

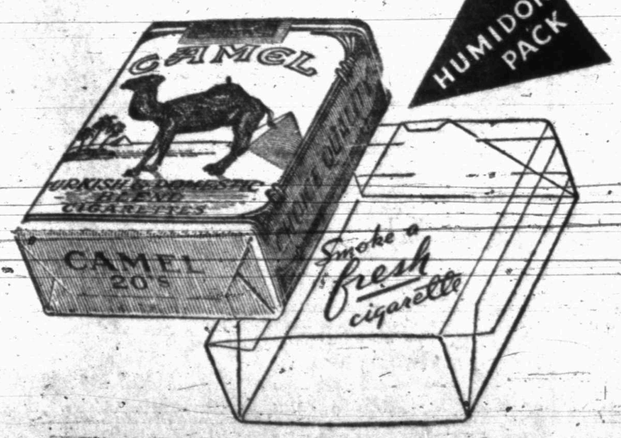

Your ears can tell the difference too. For a dust-dry cigarette crackles under pressure.

But the real test is taste and there is simply no comparison between the rich mildness of a Camel and the hot, brackish smoke from a stale, dry cigarette.

Switch to Camels just for today then leave them tomorrow if you can.

CAMELS

Artificial heat in houses and apartments soon dries the moisture out of cigarettes wrapped the old fashioned way. It is the mark of a considerate hostess, by means of the Humidor Pack, to "Serve a fresh cigarette." Buy Camels by the carton—this cigarette will remain fresh in your home and office.

City Baseball League Is Organized At Meeting Here

Thirty-Nine Schools In Texas Tech Relays

At Least Six Teams Listed For New Loop

"Dutch" Leuenberger Elected President Of New League; To Call Meeting Of Managers On Next Thursday Night

An organization to be known as the Lubbock City Baseball League was formed last night when fifty interested business and professional men gathered at a called meeting in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at the city hall.

Six prospective teams were represented last night and assurance was given that at least that number would be included in the league. Invitations were left open to an unlimited number of teams which might make application for membership in the organization.

J. R. "Dutch" Leuenberger, popular sportsman and sports promoter of Lubbock, was elected president of the City league at its informal meeting last night. Steve Delaney, former Texas League player and sportsman of the city, was unanimously elected secretary-treasurer. Leuenberger, who established a reputation as a sports promoter and player of baseball and basketball at Wichita, Kansas, was manager of the Lubbock Hubbers, local amateur team of the South Plains league, last year.

Schedule To Be Made

A schedule will be drawn up as soon as the number of teams is determined. A meeting will be held next Thursday night at the city hall to which all team managers and officials are inivted. At that time the membership number of the league will be determined and a committee appointed to work out a schedule. It is thought that eight or ten teams may finally compose the league.

While no definite starting date was announced, it was hinted that actual playing will begin not later than the week beginning April 20. Plans for providing finances, uniforms, equipment and a playing field will be announced at the meeting next Thursday evening. Three clubs, the American Business Club, represented at the meeting last night by C. A. Sheffield; the Avalanche-Journal, represented by Bill Davidson; and the Lions club, represented by Rufus Scarbrough, announced that uniforms were on hand already and that the teams were "all set to go."

Other prospective teams represented at the meeting last night were the Rainbow team, local amateur organization, Santa Fe Railroad, and the Cheri Casa dormitory for men at Texas Tech. P. W. Cawthon, representing Cheri Casa, said he was not certain that a club could be organized there that would be permenent, though it is thought that a college men's team will be included in the league membership.

Special invitations were issued to the other civic clubs, Kiwanis and Rotary, to the American Legion and to Bradford's Grocery. All other prospective teams are inivted to apply for membership.

President Leuenberger requested that all clubs meet this week or early next week to organize and elect team managers.

GIANTS FORCED TO BEAT SOX

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 9. (AP)—The Giants were forced to rally in the last of the eleventh to nose out the Chicago White Sox, 7 to 6, today and break a four game losing streak. The win likewise enabled them to take a lead in the barnstorming tour, with seven victories to six for the Sox.

DODGERS WIN AGAIN

MACON, Ga., April 9. (AP)—Putting on one of their typical ninth inning rallies to score six runs, the Brooklyn Robins downed the Hartford Senators of the Eastern league, 12 to 8, in the final of their five game series today. That made it three out of five for Uncle Robbie's sluggers.

Dunlap Wins To Stay In Golf Match

Eugene Homans Goes Down In Quarter Final Play

(By The Associated Press)

PINEHURST, N. C., April 9. — George T. Dunlap, jr., New York golfer and intercollegiate champion, continued his winning stride in the 31st annual North and South amateur tournament here today, but the defending champion, Eugene Homans, Englewood, N. J., fell by the wayside.

Dunlap, the medalist, won his quarter finals match on the 13th hole, eliminating Howard Tryon, Elmira, N. Y., 7 and 5.

Homans, who won the 1930 tournament, was one down to Suffern Tailer, Newport, R. I., at the turn, but the Rhode Islander showed a more consistent brand of golf on the back nine to win five and four. The Newport entry had a medal of 72, one over par, for the round. Homans medal score was 67.

J. D. Ryerson, Coopertown, N. Y., defeated Richard S. Tufts, Pinehurst, 3 and 1.

Forbes K. Wilson, York Harbor, Maine, lost to S. M. Parks, Pittsburgh, 3 down on the 16 hole.

Al Simmons Signs With A's And Mack's Team Is All In

PHILADELPHIA, April 9. (AP)—Connie Mack's ball players now are all signed up and the world's champions are ready to go.

Announcement was made late today that Al Simmons, batting champion of the American League and star outfielder, had affixed his signature to an athletic contract, the last player to agree to terms for the coming season.

Neither Mack nor Simmons would say what the terms were. It was reported around Shibe Park that the contract was for one year at $30,000.

Simmons said he would try to win the league batting honors again and expected the A's to be in the world's series next October.

Special Event Preliminaries Open At 10 AM

Seminole, Woodrow, Turkey And Ropesville Enter At Eleventh Hour For Relays At Tech On Saturday

With approximately 575 athletes entering the various events in the first annual Texas Tech High school Relay carnival here Saturday, it will be necessary for preliminaries in special events to be held Saturday morning, "Dutchey" Smith, director, said.

Thirty-nine schools of West Texas and eastern New Mexico will send teams to compete for approximately $300 in prizes. A total of nearly 300 individuals will be present. All entries are requested to be on the field by 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Preliminaries will be held for the 50-yard dash, 100-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles, high jump and javelin throw. Relays will be staged according to clock time beginning at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

Last minute entries yesterday came from Floydada High school, Woodrow, Seminole, Turkey, Ropesville, Slaton High school and Floyd High school, Floyd, N. M. Other schools who will send teams here Saturday are: Lubbock, Chillicothe, Big Spring, Hardy, Shallowater, Hereford, Hale Center, Levelland, Pampa, Canyon, Plainview, Tahoka, Lamesa, Littlefield, Quanah, Monroe, Amarillo, Brownfield, Snyder, Ralls, Dimmitt, Dickens, Sudan, Matador, Idalou, O'Donnell, Muleshoe, Cisco, Iraan, Buffalo, Bangs, Wilson, Vernon, Benjamin and Munday.

Prizes have been subscribed by the Tech athletic council, chamber of commerce and Lubbock business firms. The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal will give the winning team trophy, a 28-inch silver statuette. Anderson's Jewelry, Helber's Jewelry, Caprock Emblem company, Tech Bookstore and Lubbock hotel are offering trophies to winners and runners up in the meet.

Mustangs And Aggies Lead Southwest Conference; To Continue Schedule Today

Ponies Win First In 19 Starts; Beat Horned Frogs

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, April 9. —With Southern Methodist of Dallas and Texas A. and M. of College Station leading the pennent march, another round of Southwest Conference baseball games are scheduled tomorrow. Southern Methodist plans to invade Waco for a test against the Baylor Bears, while Texas Christian of Fort Worth is booked for a contest with the Aggies at College Station.

Coach Jimmy St. Clair of Southern Methodist saw his Mustangs get away to a flying start last Tuesday with a 4 to 3 decision over Texas Christian, and his cohorts are in excellent condition for their invasion of Waco. When the Mustangs defeated Texas Christian, it marked their first victory in 19 southwest conference baseball starts. The Baylor Bears opened their season by losing to Texas A. and M. 4 to 3, but had enough to come back and trim the Rice Owls of Houston, 6 to 4 giving the Bears a .500 percentage.

The Texas Aggies are favorites over the inexperienced Texas Christian nine. Joe Williams, veteran catcher who has been out of Texas Christian's lineup with an injured hip, is expected to play against the Aggies. It is probable he will replace Dennis at the Backstop position.

Allison, Shields, And Wood Elected Davis Cup Players

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP) — The United States Lawn Tennis association today selected Wilmer Allison, Austin, Texas, Frank Shields, New York, and Sidney B. Wood, now a student at the University of Arizona, to represent the United States against Mexico in their first round Davis cup tie to be played at Mexico City May 1, 3 and 5.

Allison is a veteran of Davis cup play, but Wood and Shields are newcomers to the American team.

REDS WORKOUT IN SUN

CINCINNATI, April 9. (AP)—The first workout of the season on their home grounds was taken today by the Cincinnati Reds under a sun that was much warmer than most of the weather experienced on their southern training trip. Interest of a gallery of fans was centered in the reappearance of Edd Rousch, centerfielder, in a Cincinnati uniform.

Manager Dan Howley put the entire squad through an early spring condition process.

Mrs. Thomas May Trade Franchise With Tulsa Team

TULSA, Okla., April 9. (AP)—Uncertainty continued to hover over the Tulsa Western League baseball franchise tonight after another day had failed to bring any action toward settlement of the muddled situation which has resulted from the inability of Mrs. Lucille R. Thomas, owner of the franchise, to finance a ball park.

Dale Gear, president of the league, returned here from a Western Association meeting at Fort Smith, Arkansas but said there was nothing to announce concerning the Tulsa problem.

Mrs. Thomas, returning from an unsuccessful mission to St. Louis and Kansas City for financial assistance, said she was willing to give up the franchise for an "equitable" consideration.

But, she added, she will oppose any attempt of the league to forfeit her franchise unless she is guaranteed a partial recovery of her investment.

Upsets Figure In British Linksman Invitation Joust

BY FRANK H. KING
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, April 9. (AP) — Upsets and surprises were plentiful at the first spring showing of British golfing styles in tournament play at Roehampton today where 74 invited professionals scrambled to squeeze through a narrow qualifying gate that permitted only 16 to enter match play stages tomorrow and Saturday.

Ordinarily, the invitation event at Roehampton, a suburban course, is not such an important affair, but with all the British Ryder cup possibilities there, along with young Henry Cotton, who won't join the team except on his own conditions, interest was increased. Some of the attraction died, however, when Cotton, with 144 for the 36-hole test, failed by a stroke to qualify for the match play.

Another youngster, Arthur Perry, of the Leatherhead club led the field with a pair of 68's for a total of 136. C. H. Gadd, of the Brancepeth Castle club, and Abe Mitchell were second with 137's. Gadd carded a 67 for the afternoon round to set a course record.

Bruce Barnes Wins Over Junior Coen In Feature Match At Houston Meets

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, April 9. — Bruce Barnes, the blond, wiry Number 1 man of the University of Texas tennis squad, downed Junior Coen of Kansas City late today in the feature match of quarter finals play in the River Oaks Country club's first tennis invitation tournament. The scores were 7-5, 7-9, 6-3.

Meanwhile, the other favorites carried on through.

George Lott of Philadelphia, U. S. Davis cup player last year, was caught napping by Fred Royer in the first set and lost it, 4-6, but went on in the next two to thoroughly defeat the Dallas man, 6-1, 6-0.

Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena, Calif., had small trouble with Jimmy Quick of Dallas, winning 6-2, 6-3.

Clifford Sutter of Tulane University, the national intercollegiate singles champion, defeated Jake Hess of Rice Institute, 6-3, 6-1. Hess was wild at service. His big day came yesterday when he defeated 15 year old Frankie Parker of Milwaukee.

San Antonio Franchise May Be Transferred To Waco Or Tulsa, Hammond Announces

Dutch Baumgarten Elected Texas U. Gridiron Captain

AUSTIN, April 9. (AP)—Maurice "Dutch" Baumgarten was elected captain of the 1931 Texas University football team today, succeeding Ox Emerson, at a meeting of last season's lettermen. Baumgarten, from Schulenberg, is a guard. Emerson resigned the place yesterday when he announced he had decided to press no further his appeal to the Southwestern Conference for a ruling that he would be eligible for 1931 competition.

State Official Denies Ordering Bout Stopped

AUSTIN, April 9. (AP)—William W. Sterling, adjutant general, stated emphatically today he had not ordered the halting of wrestling matches.

The statement was in response to a report from San Antonio that he had ordered a wrestling match there called off.

"The adjutant general's department is not trying to throw a 'wet blanket' on any legal sport," Sterling said, "and wrestling is legal."

BABE IN ONSLAUGHTER

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 9. (AP)—With Babe Ruth adding his second homer in two days to the festivities, the Yankees slaughtered Asheville, 17 to 4, today in the third and final game of their series. The victory gave the Yanks a clean sweep.

Offers Made By Oklahoma City And Waco And Tulsa, Team President Says; May Close Deal At Any Time

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, April 9.—Homer H. Hammond, president of the San Antonio Texas League baseball club, startled sports editors here tonight with the question: "What would you say about the transfer of the San Antonio franchise to Waco, or Tulsa or Oklahoma City?"

Hammond stated that he has offers from the three cities named for the transfer of the San Antonio franchise to any one of these cities and that negotiations for the transfer now are pending.

"The deal may be closed any time," he said, but he would not give the names of the parties with whom he is dealing, neither the price that is offered nor what he asks.

"Lack of cooperation," he replied when asked the reason for his desire to sell, adding: "The people of San Antonio don't seem to appreciate a club in the Texas League and probably would be just as satisfied with amateur baseball."

Last year Hammond was on a deal to sell the club, but it never materialized.

KNOW NOTHING IN OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 9. (AP)—John Holland, owner of the Oklahoma City Western League baseball club, said tonight he knew of no deal on to bring the San Antonio Texas League franchise here.

"Any talk of such a deal misrepresents the situation," Holland said, and added that it was unlikely Tulsa was interested.

Homer H. Hammond, San Antonio club president, said tonight he was on a deal for transfer of his franchise to "Waco or Tulsa or Oklahoma City."

Sale Of Assets Not Contested

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 9. (AP)—S. W. O'Brien, of New York, a member of counsel for a creditors committee, announced today his clients had decided not to contest the sale of assets of the Clarence Saunders Stores, Inc., by the referee in bankruptcy yesterday.

O'Brien made this announcement after confering by telephone with eastern bankers who held $520,000 of the $1,200,000 in claims filed against the chain grocery store system.

The 132 stores of the chain in 19 southern cities brought $445,400 at the sale.

"While we were quite disappointed at the price some of the store units brought," Mr. O'Brien said, "we have decided not to appeal."

The NUT and CRACKER

BY JOE O'GOOFTY
One Time Big League Pitcher

PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—Chuck Klien actually signed a contract the other day to play three years for the Phils for $40,000. I didn't know Klien carried a gun.

I interviewed Klien today to see how he did it, knowing that the Phils wouldn't pay 40 cents to see Judge Landis pitch nine innings. I asked Klien if he had sued the management, and if that kind of money came under the heading of heart balm or personal damages.

"It ain't enough," he finally admitted.

I asked him if he ever had read the life of Jesse James and if he had been following the progress of Killer Burke.

"It should have been more," he finally admitted.

I asked him if he didn't think it was worth twice that much to watch bly balls sailing over the fence in the Phil handbox for one whole summer.

"The terms ain't adequate," he finally admitted.

Klien used to be steel worker, so he ought to be able to stand a little hardship. Of course he still has to learn to take the disappointment of seeing a bunt fall into the street outside the miniature ball park here, but in time he'll get over even that.

Besides there is a United States mint in Philadephia, and if Klien can get $40,000 for three years from the Phils, that kind of a guy ought to have a lot of luck backing up a truck to the front door of the mint some morning before a game and talking them out of a couple of tons of bullion.

CONFERENCE OPENS

LUFKIN, April 9. (AP)—The third annual conference of the twelfth district, Texas congress of mothers and parent-teachers association, convened here today. Fifteen East Texas counties were represented by 101 delegates. Dr. A. W. Birdwell, president of the East Texas State Teachers college at Nacogdoches addressed the meeting here. Mrs. Raymond Robbins, Athens, district president, was in charge.

CHARGE ACTION

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 9. (AP) A minority report of the legislative highway investigating committee prepared today, charged that the action of Sam R. Hawks and J. F. McKeel, Democratic members of the commission, in an attempted private cement contract "whether through ignorance or design" would be disastrous to welfare of the state.

CAPITALIST DIES

CHICAGO, April 9. (AP)—William H. Bush, 80, Chicago capitalist and owner of large deposits of helium, died today after a short illness.

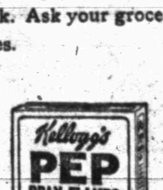

A breakfast delight

EVERY one loves that wonderful flavor of PEP—that sun-brown crispness—that delicious taste. And Kellogg's PEP Bran Flakes are healthful. They're full of whole-wheat nourishment. They have just enough bran to be mildly laxative.

A luncheon treat

And what a cheering lunch they make. With milk or cream and a bit of fruit, they make a splendid dish for the children in the middle of the afternoon. Grown-ups welcome them for a late-in-the-evening treat. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Ask your grocer for these better bran flakes.

Cotton Cotton Advances But Loses Gain Livestock Fair Demand On Killing Steers Grain Continued Fair Demand On Grain

Cotton

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP)—Recent declines were followed by rather sharp rallies in cotton in the early trading today with July contracts selling up to 10.18 on trade buying and covering promoted by the firmer showing of Liverpool and talk of an improved technical position. This made a net advance of 20 points which seemed to attract rather freer offerings and prices later reacted partially under realizing or liquidation. March closed at 10.46 with the general market closing barely steady at net advances of 6 to 10 points.

The early feature was the buying here by houses with Liverpool connections, following the advance in the Liverpool market.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, April 9. (AP) — After advancing nearly three quarters of a dollar a bale in the first half of the morning with active trading the cotton market here quieted down later and lost practically all the early gain. Cables at the opening were much better than due and after opening 3 to 4 points up hardly a full response to the strength of the foreign markets, prices here advanced on prospects for unfavorable weather and on reports that there had been a private settlement in the liquidation of the May option. The advance carried prices up to levels 13 to 14 points above the previous close. This advance attracted some realizing and prices eased off 4 to 5 points in the early afternoon. In the late trading prices weakened further on re-selling by early buyers and dropped to levels 12 to 13 points under the highs finally closing easier with net gains for the day in the general market of only 1 to 2 points.

Young Hero

Blind Mice and Darling Nellie Gray.

"Yes," said Bryan, "that helps. It makes me forget the aches."

The boy, whom President Hoover has invited to be a White House guest, bears his affliction, as well as the unexpected honors he has received, philosophically. An attractive lad, he has regular features and brown hair, including a Lindbergh tuft. His voice is soft. He seems unconcerned over the fact he has become a national hero through giving away his clothing and scuffling with marooned companions to guard them from the lethargy of death.

Bryan smiled at the antics of his smaller brothers and sisters. Virgil, 11, who escaped the bus ordeal because he did not attend school the day of the fatal blizzard, was more active than the other children. They, like Bryan, still are suffering from frozen feet.

"He wouldn't be so fresh if he'd been in the bus," observed Bryan.

"Yes, but I was unconscious nearly two weeks when I was burned with gasoline three years ago," his small brother replied.

Quiet Rally In Main Body Of Stocks Delayed By Selling Of Rail Equities

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP)—A quiet little rally in the main body of stocks was interrupted by selling of the railroad equities today. Weakness in that group, particularly during the last hour, induced professionals who had been supporting industrials and utilities to sidetrack their efforts and closing prices were lower all around. Volume remained small, only 1,900,000 shares.

The conspicuous losses were in the rails, many of which went to new lows for the year or longer on declines of 1 to 7 points. Such stocks as U. S. Steel, American Can, American Telephone, Bethlehem and Radio were down about a point; General Motors, General Electric, Westinghouse, Anaconda and Union Carbide closed firm.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH, April 9. (AP)—Hogs, 1,300, including 772 direct; 10@15c lower; rail and truck top 7.50; medium to choice rail butchers 7.50; bulk better grades 170 to 250 pound truck hogs 7.25@7.40; packing sows steady to 25c higher; mostly 6.00@6.50.

Cattle 2,500, including 500 calves. Slaughter steers and yearlings at week's full declines; packer trade in most classes cattle dull and draggy; bulls very scarce; several sales slaughter steers on order account 5.25@6.25; few good fat yearlings 7.00, others around 6.75 down; butcher cows 3.25@3.65; some low cutter sorts 2.25@2.75; well bred light weight stock yearlings up to 7.75; slaughter calves, weighty averages around 6.50 down.

Sheep 6,500; slow; killing classes mostly steady, some sales 25c lower; good spring lambs 8.00@8.50; shorn fat lambs 6.50@6.75; two year old fat wether 5.00; few aged fat wethers 3.50.

MIDDLEWESTERN LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, April 9. (AP) — There was a fair demand around the eleven market circuit for killing steers at generally steady prices with some strength developing on the lower grades at Chicago. Light yearlings and fat she stock continued to find a narrow outlet with values steady to easier at the week's previous uneven decline. At Kansas City an eight cost string of 1161 lb. slipped horned Texas steers brought 7.25. Plain quality Texas steers at St. Joseph sold at 6.25@6.50. Stocker and feeder trade was slow with limited supplies selling on a steady to weak price basis. Aggregate receipts were estimated at 20,300 as compared with 18,173 a week ago.

Hog trade at most points was slow at prices unevenly steady to 10 higher with several of the river markets showing slight upturns on strong weight butchers. Total offerings numbering around 58,500 were 7,000 short of last Thursday.

Battle Lost

ing the winter resort, he developed a cold.

The cold was not thought serious at first, and no physician was called until after Monday. A second consultation was held by physicians Monday night and it was then determined that he had pneumonia.

Three Physicians

The news, however, did not reach the outside world until Tuesday night and by that time his condition had become serious.

Two Aiken physicians, Dr. R. H. Wilds and Dr. Thomas G. Brooks, were in constant attention, and they were assisted by Dr. V. P. Sidenstricker, an Augusta, Ga., specialist.

Early last night, bulletins given out by the physicians indicated the serious condition of their patient, and this morning Dr. Wilds told newspapermen it was "only a matter of a few hours" until the speaker's death.

By a pre-arranged signal, in order to disturb the family as little as possible, Dr. Wilds had the shade to the bedroom raised at the moment death came and newspaper offices in the nation had the flash before servants of the household knew Mr. Longworth had died.

The special train on which the body will be taken to Cincinnati will be operated at government expense. It will consist of an engine, coach in which the body will be transported, a dining car and pullman space for newspapermen, and the private car of Charles Clark of New York, son of former Senator Clark of Montana, the "Silver King."

In the private car with Mrs. Longworth will be Mrs. Curtis, their host here, Colonel Campbell B. Hodges, military aide to President Hoover and his representative on the funeral trip, Kermit and Archibald Roosevelt, and Mr. Longworth's valet for 31 years.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, sr., Mrs. Longworth's mother and her sister, Mrs. Ethel Roosevelt Derby, are to attend the funeral at Cincinnati. Paulina Longworth, the only child of the late speaker and Mrs. Longworth now is in Cincinnati. She is six years old.

Speaker Longworth is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Annie Wallingford, Cincinnati, and Clara, the Countess De Chambrun, wife of General Adelbert De Chambrun, commander of the French expeditionary forces at Tunis.

"Princess Alice"

which developed the romantic courtship of President Roosevelt's daughter by the "boy representative" from Ohio.

It happened in 1905, on the Pacific ocean.

Alice went along with a mission to the Philippine Islands. "Nick" was a member of the commission.

They had known each other a year in casual social contacts but it was this journey to the Philippines, their friends say, that was the beginning of their discovery of each other. A year later they were married, while the rest of the world gasped at the romantic glamour of the event.

Emperor, president and king sent gifts to the twelfth White House bride, and the crowding guests in the flower-festooned east room comprised one of the most brilliant groups ever gathered there.

Without attendants, Alice approached the altar holding her father's arm. The groom had many attendants.

The cabinet, the diplomats, the socially elect from far and wide breakfasted in the state dining room while the bride and groom and intimates withdrew to a private wedding breakfast. Alice and "Nick" disappeared into an automobile drawn up to the south protico and were off to Europe.

It was on this wedding journey that Alice's name was given to a color. He was fond of a demure blue. Several of her trousseau gowns were of that light shade—ever afterward "Alice Blue."

tramped off in high dudgeon.

Later when he made an excursion across the border at Nogales, he was stopped, like any citizen, by immigration and customs inspectors on his way back. "Old stuff," they told him when he produced a personal card engraved "John D. Rockefeller, Jr." They cast jaundiced glances upon it. "Somebody," quoted the border guards, "tries that every day."

Late in the afternoon Cermak met with the new city council, in which Democrats hold a ten majority, for approval of his bond and organization.

In his first official statement, Cermak ordered the city treasurer "not to honor any vouchers for temporary employes until it can be proved they worked for their money and political work does not count. Under present conditions, unless actual savings can be affected, it will be difficult to carry on the business of the city for the rest of the year."

trict county agent leader, Miss Myrtle Murray, district home demonstration agent leader and A. L. Darnell, dairy specialist for the extension service, were the chief speakers. All three praised the work of the farmers of the South Plains and the Panhandle and the business men of Plainview in their support of the show.

Parade Is Held

This morning the annual parade of exhibitors of prize winning animals was held. There were more than 100 animals in the parade through the downtown streets.

Entries in the milk products department exceeded all expectations. There were 168 entries in the several classes.

A score of leading hardware and implement concerns staged a huge implement show on the grounds. Dealers reported good sales and orders.

The local Ford dealer, with his associates staged a show and this show's check of attendance showed over 28,000 persons passed through the tent.

Following the annual meeting last night a dance was held. Tonight a charity ball marked the close of the week's program.

Wednesday night's program also included a wrestling match between Cal Farley of Amarillo and Billy Londos, Oklahoma City Greek, the former winning easily.

Cold weather today, which followed the rain of late Wednesday and last night, was believed to have slightly reduced the attendance.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, April 9. (AP) — Big export buying of North American wheat, upwards of 2,000,000 bushels, lifted grain prices today, but active profit taking sales wiped out the advance. Moisture scarcity northwest and dust storms both north and south of the Canadian boundary had a noticeable bullish influence. An opposite factor was a correct surmise in various quarters that the government crop report due after the close would prove bearish.

Compared with the average of latest private estimates, the government report on domestic winter wheat condition indicated a yield 25,000,000 bushels larger than expected.

Wheat closed firm, unchanged to 1-4 cent higher, corn unchanged to 3-8 to 1-2 up, oats 1-8 to 3-8 advanced, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents off.

who resides in California.

At the time of the accident, Mr. Eubanks was returning from Childress where he had been conducting an audit. He is a partner in Cormack and Eubanks, local auditing concern. He had lived in Lubbock six years, having come here from Plainview.

Tires Skidded

According to highway officers and members of the sheriff's department who visited the scene of the accident Thursday morning, Eubanks probably attempted to bring the car to a halt before he struck a ditch five or six feet deep about 40 feet from the embankment. Tracks showed the tires skidded several feet in front of the ditch. The car evidently jumped the ditch, and from there until the embankment the tire tracks were plain, showing no signs of the brakes being applied, it was said.

After going over the embankment the car turned completely over, landing on the top and turtle-back of the coupe, witnesses at the scene reported.

Had Been Blocked

The underpass has been under construction for several months and a barricade had blocked the road in front of it until recently, when the highway from Abernathy to Lubbock was closed, detours being marked off at various intervals between here and the Hale county town. The highway is blocked at Abernathy, but lateral roads permit detours and subsequent return to the highway. These roads are marked by satisfactory detour-signs, according to the highway officials.

Following the inquest, a Bynum-Morgan ambulance was summoned and the body was brought to Lubbock.

Active pallbearers at the funeral will be: Cliff Dean, T. B. Duggan, jr., L. C. Ellis, K. T. Thomas, and W. A. Roberts.

Honorary pallbearers are: T. B. Duggan, sr., C. E. Meadgen, H. E. Cormack, John Hainey, France Baker, and John Denman.

ISSUE PASSED

LIPSCOMB, Tex., April 9. (AP) — A goal set by road boosters of the area more than two years ago was attained in northern Lipscomb county today when a highway bond issue for $350,000 was passed by a vote of 506 to 179.

Oil Complaint Being Delayed

Charges Against L. S. Boling Will Be Held Up Until C. C. Julian Can Produce Reports From Auditors

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 9. (AP)—County Attorney Lewis R. Morris today declined to accept at this time an embezzlement complaint against L. S. Boling, Texas accuser of C. C. Julian, indicted oil man.

Morris said Julian first must submit an auditor's report showing the alleged $112,000 misappropriation and also that he would withhold action against Boling until Laredo, Tex., charges of kidnaping and conspiracy to rob against Julian are disposed of.

Julian and his attorney, O. A. Cargill, today offered to allow Morris to examine records of the Julian company as proof of the alleged embezzlement but Morris declined.

Boling was the complaintant in the Texas cases.

As he entered the Oklahoma county court house today to confer with Morris, Julian was served with an order for his appearance in district court April 16 to list properties and assets. The order resulted from $200,000 judgments obtained against Julian by John Salsberry, Los Angeles.

Contract For Pump Will Be Awarded By City Commission

Due to the unavoidable absence of two of its members, no material business was transacted by the City commission in its regular bi-monthly meeting Thursday afternoon, Mayor J. J. Clements announced.

"It will be necessary to call a special session of the commission in the near future," Mayor Clements said, "to award the contract for the new pump at the county park."

John Roach and D. N. Leaventon were the commissioners absent from the meeting.

David Butterman, described by authorities as a man who removed the lining from the murder victim's coat.

Jack Holdcraft, who said he was a former Royal Canadian mounted policeman and former steward on an ocean liner. His connection with the case was not made clear.

The motive for the killing, high police officials said, was not revenge for blackmail suffered, or a desire to still a tongue that threatened to wag about police and "frameups." It was just plain robbery, the police declared.

When Vivian Gordon was slain she had been gathering evidence to support her contention she was "railroaded" to a reformatory on a trumped-up prostitution charge in 1923.

City Employes Charity Fund Collects $351.43 In Lubbock

The City Employees Charity fund has collected $351.43 with which to combat unemployment in Lubbock, Mayor J. J. Clements announced Thursday.

This fund is being used to defray the expenses of painting the street light standards and fire hydrants, Mayor Clements said.

Additional Murder Charges Are Filed Following Death

COLUMBUS, Tex., April 9. (AP)—Two more charges of murder were filed here today in connection with the death of P. V. Greaves, 27-year old Houston salesman, who died at a hotel here Sunday after an alleged fist fight.

Warrants charging Clarence M. Howard, postmaster at Kendleton, J. S. Brooks of Wharton, with murder were issued by Justice of the Peace Henry B. Hahn. Neither of the two had been arrested.

Hung Jury Results In Trial Of Man Charged With Peonage

FORT WORTH, April 9. (AP) — A hung jury resulted in United States district court today in the case of Fred Lindsey, Hardeman county farmer on trial of a charge of peonage. United States District Judge James C. Wilson overruled a defense motion for an instructed verdict before the case was given to the jury.

Five ballots were taken by the jurors, each resulting in a six to six vote and the jury was discharged by Judge Wilson.

Gunshot Wounds Prove Fatal To Rancher; Charge Is Filed

FORT STOCKTON, April 9. (AP)—T. C. Barnsley, prominent rancher man of this section, died today of a gunshot wound received yesterday. Jack Hall, who surrendered to Sheriff Bud Blair yesterday, was held at Crane on a murder charge. Barnsley never regained consciousness after the shooting.

In the last six years 256,000 houses were built in Greater London.

Shell Company Awaits Ruling

President Of Company States That No Definite Plans Are To Be Made Until Fight On Proration Is Ended

DALLAS, April 9. (AP)—Until the fight over oil proration in East Texas has been settled, the Shell Petroleum corporation will put into effect no definite plan for development in that field, U. B. Daly, president, said here today.

Daly spent the morning here studying maps of the East Texas field and geological surveys made by the company's engineers after an automobile tour of the new oil areas yesterday, accompanied by Holst Pellekaan, vice-president of the company.

The Shell executive said his company was a strong advocate of East Texas proration, effective immediately upon 40 or 20 acre units. He expressed the opinion that the 90,000 barrels daily allowable set by the Texas railroad commission in its recent proration order, now being fought in an injunction suit by East Texans, was "extremely fair."

The Shell Petroleum No. 1 Davis has just been brought in as the corporation's first well in East Texas and three others are now drilling but Daly said although Shell owns extensive acreage, it planned to drill only offsets and other wells required to protect its leases.

ABOLISH WINTER

BROWNSVILLE, April 9. (AP) — Citizens of Brownville have decided to "abolish" winter. Leading merchants of the city met today and decided that during next December, January and February, Brownsville people should wear flannel or other light trousers, straw hats and other summer clothing in order to be "in keeping with the tropical atmosphere."

Television Seen

Develop New Tube For Pictures

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP)—A neon tube which reproduces television pictures eight by ten inches in size has been developed by Boston engineers.

The tube contains a plate only two inches square, the pictures being enlarged by means of a suitable viewing lens.

This announcement, made preliminary to the radio trade shows at Chicago in June, at which the development is to be shown, together with a new method of scanning, comes from the short wave and television laboratories. Large holes are used in the scanner, letting though more light for greater detail in the picture.

Because of the large plate in the neon tube, a 250 output tube is required in the receiver, the entire outfit being housed in a regular console.

Tidal Well Completed For A Flow Of Some 5,000 Barrels

LONGVIEW, April 9. (AP)—The Tidal Oil company has completed its No. 1 Lathrop, about half a mile east of the Lathrop discovery well, for production expected to amount to 5,000 barrels daily when the well has been cleaned out. After considerable swabbing, it was flowing at the rate of about 2,000 barrels daily. Gas pressure was light.

The well was the county's nineteenth producer.

Oil men expressed belief the Tidal well was near the eastern edge of the producing area in the Lathrop pool. It had been pronounced by some scouts as dry before a drill stem test revealed 35 fourbles of oil standing in the hole. Flow was expected to be increased as soon as the hole was cleaned out.

Linked In Death

A Grand Jury has been ordered to investigate the mysterious death of Tom Gay Coltrane, of Concord, N. C., whose body was found more than a month ago with a wound in the head. Coltrane, on the evening of his death, was said to have been visiting roadhouses with Mrs. Anne C. Reynolds (above), estranged wife of Smith Reynolds, aviator and heiress to the Cannon millions.

Contract Let On Tech Plant

W. G. McMillan, Local Contractor, Is Successful Bidder On Power Plant Addition At College

Contract for the erection of a reinforced concrete, brick and steel powerplant at Texas Technological college was awarded Wednesday to W. G. McMillan, Lubbock contractor, by Wyatt C. Hedrick company, incorporated, of Fort Worth, offiical architects for the college.

The structure will cost about $35,000, according to Mr. McMillan. Total of $48,650 has been appropriated by the legislature for the power plant building and added equipment. The building is to be completed 60 days after construction is started, McMillan said although work cannot be started until weather permits razing of the temporary powerhouse that now covers the site of the proposed building.

Six bids on the project were taken February 19 but all were believed high, and plans were revised and new calculations made, after which McMillan received the contract as low bidder, he said.

John Van Ryn and George Lott, members of the Davis cup team, are expected to be starters in the thirteenth annual United North and South tennis tournament at Pinehurst, April 13-18.

Flow Of Gas Changed By ...

AUGUSTA, Kans., April 9. A shifting wind today came to the aid of the Frisco railroad when traffic was temporarily halted yesterday by a wild gas well 200 feet from the right-of-way a mile and a half northeast of here.

The wind, shifting to the north, was blowing the gas away from the tracks and railroad traffic proceeded unhampered. The well, estimated at 20,000,000 cubic feet daily, last night and early today defied efforts of drillers to cap it and only late yesterday Frisco officials decided to "knock" fires i the locomotives until trains had passed the well, then stopping to fire up again before resuming the trips.

The well, owned by Blakeslee and ... wents ... and ... well ... test ... of Leon, Kans., and ... kaer of Wichita, is in a ... oil pool and was started ... for oil.

comes from the OLD SOUTH"

Bill Heer
Staley's Master Blender

"It's mighty hard to find a syrup nowadays that has the true, old-time plantation flavor. But you'll recognize it the minute you taste this Sorghum Flavored Syrup of ours.

"This particular blend is one I learned close to forty years ago—when we cooked our syrups in open kettles. It takes the finest of virgin sorghum—blended at just the right times and temperatures."

Just ask your grocer for Staley's Sorghum Flavored Syrup. Delicious with waffles and pancakes. So inexpensive, too! Write for our free recipe book.

Your gasoline MONEY GOES further

Phillips 66

"HIGHEST TEST" at the price of ordinary gasoline

GRAVITY from 60.6° to 71.4° TO MATCH WEATHER

PHILLIPS 66 is made by the world's largest producers of natural high gravity gasoline

Every penny which you pay for gas buys more mileage, more pep, and smoother running, when you fill up with Phillips 66 . . . the greater gasoline.

That is a broad claim. And we expect that many will doubt it. We therefore produce a gasoline so good that the very first tankful will prove Phillips 66 quality. The net result is that, to our knowledge, no motorist who has tried it once has ever failed to come back for more.

They actually feel the difference. Every mile they travel proves the money-saving value of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY, the Phillips principle which makes each gallon you buy match your weather at the time you buy it. And Phillips 66 year 'round gravity, from 60.6° to 71.4°, is always higher test than others. At no increase in price.

It means money in your pocket to stop at the Orange and Black 66 shield. Fill up your tank. Pay nothing extra for the extra high test. Then drive away with better performance guaranteed by the 5,918 members of the Phillips organization.
