High Court Extends Term To Rule On War Papers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court did not rule on the Pentagon papers case today but extended its term in order to decide it.

The Court was to have adjourned today until the fall term. But Chief Justice Warren Burger announced from the bench that it would continue sitting to hand down further orders.

In a highly unusual Saturday session over the weekend, the high court heard arguments on government suits seeking to stop the New York Times and the Washington Post from publishing parts of the secret Pentagon history of the Vietnam war.

The fact that the case was heard on Saturday was seen as an indication that the court considers the case of urgent importance. However, Burger made no comment whatsoever about the case today.

In other actions today, the court:

—Agreed to rule on the constitutionality of the death penalty.

—Upheld program of construction grants to church-affiliated colleges. It struck down Pennsylvania and Rhode Island assistance programs, however, on grounds they involve excessive entanglement between church and state.

Until the court reaches a decision the newspapers will continue to be banned printing material from the history which the government says is too sensitive.

At issue, say the Times and Post, is the constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press. The Justice Department contends publication of excerpts from the war study will endanger national security, damage U.S. relations with other countries and prolong the Vietnam war.

The dispute began June 13 when the Times published a story saying the Pentagon study indicated the Johnson administration secretly planned escalation of the war while President Lyndon B. Johnson was campaigning for re-election in 1964.

On June 15 the Justice Department was granted a District Court injunction barring the Times temporarily from continuing the series.

Three days later the Post began its own series based, it said, on the same 47-volume study dating back to the end of World War II. Again, the government moved to halt publication, but Dist. Court Judge Gerhard A. Gesell refused the request for a restraining order.

The Justice Department appealed within the hour. And early on June 19, two judges of the Court of Appeals blocked continuation of the Post series.

Last Wednesday night an appellate court gave the Times the right to publish new stories about the study-provided the court selected the documents from which the articles were prepared.

Walkers' Safety Urged

By VERN HAUGLAND
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the nation's annual pedestrian death toll nearing 10,000 the National Transportation Safety Board today called on the federal government to put more emphasis on walkers' safety.

The board said results of a study conducted within the Department of Transportation showed little being done to improve pedestrian safety.

"Efforts directed specifically to pedestrian safety vary between one-eighteenth and one-nineteenth of the effort that would be in proportion to pedestrian fatalities," the board said.

Although several agencies within DOT are involved in pedestrian safety, no office or individual is responsible for their coordination, the study said.

"The absence of any organized national pedestrian interest groups and the absence of authorized programs which seek to expand facilities for pedestrian traffic or to improve the efficiency of pedestrian movement are serious drawbacks to pedestrian safety," it stated.

The report cited the "almost total lack of facilities for pedestrian traffic on and across the interstate highway system . . ."

During the 1967-1969 period there were 29,000 pedestrian deaths, 72 per cent more than the combined total of all aviation, marine, railroad and grade-crossing fatalities, the board said.

Of all the persons killed in highway accidents during the period, 18 per cent were pedestrians.

The board said more than 53 per cent of pedestrian deaths are in age groups deserving additional protection because of immaturity or advanced age - children below 15 and the elderly above 64.

"Although pedestrian safety is specifically named in the Highway Safety Act of 1966 . . . there has never been a public clamor for pedestrian safety comparable to that in other modes of transportation," the report said.

The safety board urged Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe to insure pedestrian safety technology and regulatory actions are coordinated by the two agencies primarily concerned, the Federal Highway Administration and the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

PLEADS GUILTY

Ellsberg Surrenders

BOSTON (AP) — Dr. Daniel Ellsberg surrendered to federal authorities today and told about 150 persons that he provided the New York Times with secret Pentagon papers and said "I am prepared for all consequences."

Ellsberg is charged in federal warrants with unauthorized possession of top secret documents and failure to return them.

Ellsberg told a group of cheering well-wishers outside of Boston's federal court building that in the fall of 1969 he presented the Senate Foreign Relations Committee "information contained in the so-called Pentagon papers."

Arm-in-arm with his wife and carrying a briefacse, Ellsberg said "after 9,000 more Americans had died, I could only regret that I had not at that same time released that information to the American public.

"I have done so now.

"I took the action on my own initiative. I felt as an American citizen—as a responsible citizen—I could not longer cooperate with concealing this information from the American people. I am prepared for all consequences."

Ellsberg, 40, a former Pentagon researcher and currently a research associate at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge, had been sought unsuccessfully by the FBI during the weekend.

His attorney promised Saturday that Ellsberg would surrender today.

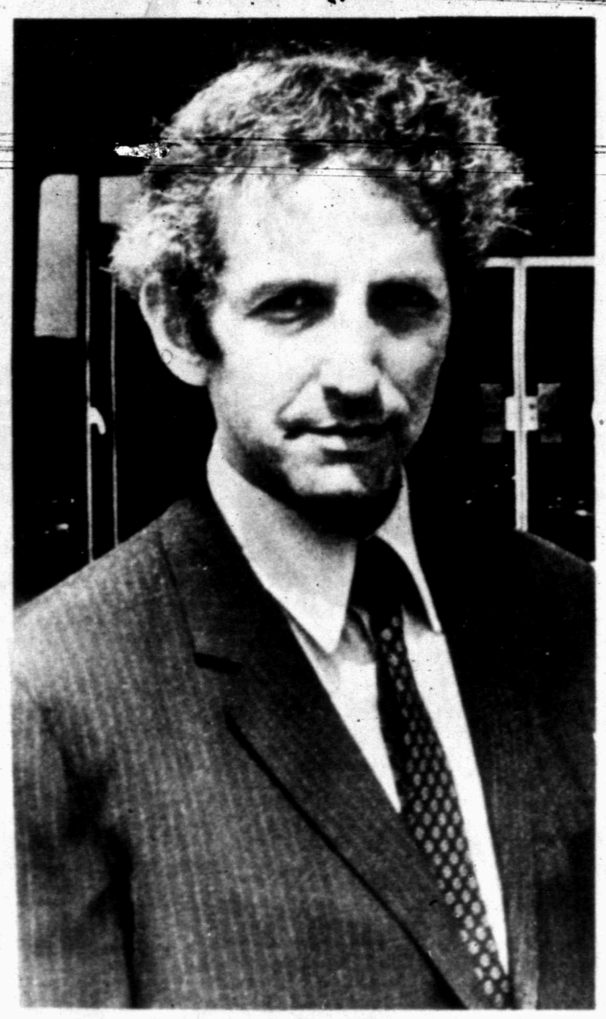

At an hour-long hearing before U.S. Magistrate Peter Princi, Ellsberg was ordered released on $50,000 nonsurety bond.

Princi set July 6 for a probable cause hearing.

Ellsberg, who addressed the court briefly, assured Princi that the decision to appear was his and that he would appear at a later hearing.

Ellsberg was not asked to enter a plea at today's proceedings.

He and his wife had been missing from their Cambridge home since a former New York Times newsman said on a radio talk show June 16 that Ellsberg was the Times source of the papers.

House May Set Spending Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — If it sticks to its rigid announced schedule, the House will have set a five-day spending record when it leaves next Thursday for a long weekend recess.

It will have passed in five legislative days five appropriation bills whose $41-billion total in so-called new obligational authority also will be a record for nondefense measures.

Two bills that cleared the House last Wednesday and Thursday appropriate $12.4 billion for the Department of Agriculture, environmental protection and consumer services, and $3.68 billion for the State, Justice and Commerce departments and the federal courts.

Their combined total is $240 million below funds requested by President Nixon.

Scheduled for House passage today, Tuesday and Wednesday are bills to provide $18.1 billion for the Department of Housing and Urban Development, Veterans Administration, National Science Foundation and the space agency; $4.48 billion for the Treasury Department and the Postal Service, and $2.35 billion for the Interior Department. Their combined total is $373 million more than the President requested.

County Accepts Bid On Tractor

County Commissioners this morning accepted the apparent low bid of $3,221.70 from C&W Service Co. for a tractor and mower to be used at the airport.

Two other bids had been submitted. Key Brothers had a bid of $3,413.81, and Snyder Truck and Tractor Co. bid $4,051.18.

Desegregation Plan Ordered

AUSTIN (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge Jack Roberts today ordered the Austin school district and the federal government to conduct further desegregation talks and try to write a plan "minimizing busing."

Roberts' decision had been awaited by other school districts because he received the first case in which the Nixon administration sought to impose busing as a desegregation tool.

But Roberts confined his seven-page opinion almost exclusively to the Austin situation and apparently issued no guidelines that might apply in other desegregation cases.

The judge gave the school district and the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare until July 16 to file a common desegregation plan.

If they fail to agree, Roberts continued, each party must file desired changes in either the HEW or school district proposals by July 16.

HEW issued its plan, requiring extensive cross-town busing, several weeks after the U.S. Supreme Court upheld busing as a means of further desegregating Southern schools.

The school district also proposed some busing, but only to get children from neighborhood elementary schools to "companion schools" where they would have "inter-cultural" learning experiences with pupils of other races from 25 to 32 per cent of the time.

A major issue in the case was whether the school district had deliberately kept Mexican-Americans apart from anglos.

HEW said this had, in fact, happened and recommended that each school in the district have the same racial and ethnic composition as the entire city. Roberts found the district's 54,970 pupils are 64.6 per cent anglo, 20.4 per cent Mexican-American and 15.1 per cent black.

"Taken as a whole, the testimony of the witnesses ... conclusively shows that at no time during the existence of the AISD has there been de jure (official) segregation against Mexican-Americans, and this court so finds," Roberts said.

But he also declared he would "consider the effect upon this ethnic minority of any plan" submitted.

2 Wounded In Shooting Early Today

Two men received gunshot wounds in an altercation in the southeast part of the city about 3:45 o'clock this morning.

Ramon Quintanilla, 2814 Emory, Lubbock, and George Barrientez, Snyder, both were treated at Cogdell Memorial Hospital for gunshot wounds. Quintanilla was released after receiving treatment for a wound in the upper left thigh. Barrientez remains in satisfactory condition after receiving treatment for a wound in the lower adbomen.

City Police arrrested a 26-year-old woman in connection with the shooting. She was charged in Corporation Court with disorderly conduct and other charges are pending.

SEVEN SURVIVORS

Sixteen Killed In Plane Crash

EUREKA, Calif. (AP) — A chartered DC3 airliner carrying 23 Californians, 19 of them real estate salesmen, crashed into rocky coastal waters during takeoff. The Coast Guard said seven persons survived.

Ten bodies were recovered after the Sunday night crash about 50 miles south of here. High winds and rough seas with four-foot waves hampered the search for the six missing persons, the Coast Guard reported.

The twin-engine plane, chartered by the Shelter Cove Co. of Los Angeles, was carrying 19 company salesmen, an unidentified woman and the pilot, copilot and stewardess, who were returning home after a weekend at the Shelter Cove land development-resort. The flight was headed for the Los Angeles area with a stop en route at San Jose, airport spokesmen said.

The survivors included the stewardess and six salesmen, the Coast Guard said.

The plane clipped the roof of a sewage treatment building below the bluff at the north end of the runway and hurtled toward the ocean, striking a rock about 50 yards offshore.

The rocks and high seas prevented small boats from getting to the plane wreckage. But Tom Wallace, 21, of Redway, used a surfboard to help two of the survivors to safety, Mrs. Machi said.

Dave Zebo, Humboldt County aviation director, said the aircraft appeared to dip on takeoff before hitting the sewage plant roof about 10 feet below the runway, then shot off a low bluff to the ocean.

Some 30 local fishing boats converged for the rescue work, until Coast Guard aircraft and the 82-foot cutter Point Ledge arrived from Fort Bragg, 75 miles south of here. A large spotlight truck on shore illuminated the area for divers and boat crews.

The survivors who were injured were identified by the Coast Guard as:

Elizabeth Deauville of San Francisco, the stewardess, in satisfactory condition; Joel Du Plain of Encinitas, Calif. and Herbert Huber, 37, of Fairfield, Calif., both in serious condition after leg surgery.

Anthony Sanchez, 61, of San Diego and Irving Grossman, 36, of Los Angeles, both in serious condition. And two San Diego men, Billy Nelson, 29, and Steven Reed, 41, both in good condition.

Joseph Colombo Shot In Head

NEW YORK (AP) — Joseph Colombo Sr., reputed New York City underworld boss, was shot in the head today at an Italian-American unity rally he helped organize, police reported.

A spokesman for Roosevelt Hospital reported him in critical condition.

Session To Discuss POWs Here Tonight

A meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. today at the Steak House to plan a community-wide project to voice concern about American prisoners being held i n North Vietnam.

Scheduled by the Kiwanis Club of Snyder, all other service clubs have been asked to have representatives at the meeting, and interested individuals are invited.

The proposed project here is to join the efforts of others over the country in demanding that names of all Americans held prisoner be released; that impartial inspections of all POW camps be permitted; that the sick and wounded be released, and to impress upon the communists in Indochina that the American people and others in the world cannot consider the captors as responsible, civilized people as long as they torture helpless men and their families in a brutal display of disregard for human life.

Guzman, Lopez Plead Innocent

BELTON, Tex. (AP) — Two men pleaded innocent today when formally arraigned in the murder trial erupting from the shooting of three deputy sheriffs on a bank of the Trinity River in Dallas last Feb. 15.

Rene Guzman and Leonardo Lopez, both of Dallas, are on trial on charges that they murdered Ellis County Deputy A. J. Robertson, one of the three officers slain.

The state is seeking the death penalty.

Ellis County Deputy Wendell Dover, who survived a chest wound in the shooting, was the first witness called to the stand.

Stamp widow out of luck

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: Please tell "STAMP WIDOW" she's lucky. Unlike sports widows who wonder if their husbands really went to the game, or TV widows whose husbands ignore them for hours on end, stamp widows always know where their husbands are. And there isn't a stamp collector alive who doesn't like to talk about his hobby. Even to his wife. Ticket stubs and programs from sports events only add to the nation's pollution, but a stamp collection is like money in the bank. Think of the legacy the stamp collector's wife will have, if she outlives him.

ISRAEL I. BICK: BEVERLY HILLS

DEAR MR. BICK: And what if she doesn't outlive him? She's given the best years of her life to a man whose biggest thrill is finding a 1923 airmail stamp with the airplane upside down. And his second wife winds up with a valuable stamp collection.

DEAR ABBY: I could have written that letter from "STAMP WIDOW." My husband is an avid stamp collector and we had the biggest laugh over it. My Montie doesn't drink, smoke or chase women. His home is the most important thing in his life—after his stamps, of course.

LORRAINE RUMSOWER: LOWDEN, IA.

DEAR ABBY: You told "STAMP WIDOW" she was lucky because her husband had the one hobby she could "lick." Shame on you, Abby. Anyone who collects stamps knows that to lick a stamp is blasphemy. Stamp collectors use stamp hinges or protective mounts.

ED SUSMAN: HARTFORD TIMES

DEAR ED: Okay, I'll take a good "licking" with a Scott catalog.

DEAR ABBY: Stamp Widow doesn't know how lucky she is. My husband is a stamp collector and I have to go to all the stamp shows and auctions with him. And I'm the "soaker off" from envelopes and cards that friends give him. Yes, my house is a mess with stamps drying off all over. But I'm lucky. He could be in a tavern, gambling, instead of in his stamp corner.

I've gone to work with stamp hinges clinging to my clothes, inside my shoes, and you don't ask where else. For Christmas, birthdays, Father's Day, what does my man want? Stamps, or supplies for his albums. LILLIAN

DEAR ABBY: Words cannot adequately express my appreciation for the wholesome hobby of stamp collecting. My husband was forced to retire before 60 so he turned to his stamp collection, added to it, bought and sold stamps and found a fascinating hobby that required no physical effort.

We exposed our children to stamps early. As they brought in the mail they would announce, "Betsy Ross Flag!" Or "Another Mr. Lincoln!" They learned history thru observing stamps. To this day I never throw away a canceled stamp. I cut, soak and dry. And they're saved for my grandchildren. STAMP WIDOW: MPLS.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-Agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069.

Two Mishaps Logged Here

City Police investigated two motor vehicle mishaps Sunday.

The first one occurred at 1:40 a.m. on U.S. 180 west of El Paso. Involved was the 1969 Model Plymouth of Johnnie H. Knight, Route 1. Officers said his car struck a fence and overturned 1½ times. Damage to the car was considerable. Officer Ronald M. Brown investigated this mishap.

The other one occurred at 4:50 p.m. in the 3900 block of Avenue S. Involved were the 1965 Model Ford of Allen Earl Grimmett, 4401 Houston, and the 1965 Model Ford of Irma Giddens Haddox, Route 3. Officers said damage to Grimmett's car was considerable. Officer Brian Blair investigated this mishap.

Teacher Strikes Predicted

DETROIT (AP) — The president-elect of the National Education Association predicts that teacher strikes will increase in the 1971-72 school year.

And he believes that the NEA's 109th annual convention delegates will stand firm against public aid to private schools.

Donald E. Morrison, San Diego, Calif., social science teacher, made his observations Sunday in an interview, five days before he will assume leadership of the 1.1 million-member teacher organization.

"I look for more strikes and they will come in areas that will surprise a lot of people," he said when asked about the possibility of such action.

He said strikes would not necessarily be over wages but "over reluctance of school boards to negotiate and reluctance to give teachers a voice in decision making."

He said that the NEA modified its position in 1965 to support the elementary-secondary school act which permitted private schools to participate in some federal programs. But in 1970 at San Francisco the delegates, overriding the leadership, voted to oppose all aid to private schools and called for a halt in their participation in existing programs.

"I don't think it will be changed at this convention," he said.

Talking about federal assistance to private colleges, Morrison said, "I personally support complete separation at all levels-private funds supporting private schools."

Insofar as President Nixon's statements supporting assistance that will help private schools survive, Morrison said:

"For the President of the United States to talk about public funds to private schools and the voucher system is the most irresponsible action ever witnesses in this country."

LBJ Mum On War Papers

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — Former President Lyndon B. Johnson had nothing to say about the Pentagon's controversial Vietnam papers and he declined to talk with newsmen during a brief talk Sunday.

He appeared at Odessa's Library of the Presidents, to which he donated four books and promised more during a brief talk.

Mrs. Johnson accompanied him here and dedicated the library collection, which is in the privately financed Ector County Presidential Museum.

Her husband said he presented the volumes "as my part of giving something back to West Texas, that has been so good to me, something that might be used by future presidents.

"I am going to come back every year that I can, bringing a few more books and money for the Presidential Museum."

Johnson gave the library a volume titled "The Johnson Years," which is a collection of articles dealing with his administration; others titled "Mrs. LBJ" and "A More Beautiful America," and one about the proceedings in 1964 at the Democratic national convention.

During their visit the former president and his wife inspected the Theater of the Great Southwest and Mrs. Johnson was taken to see the first building at the new University of Texas in the Permian Basin.

William Noel, head of the El Paso Natural Gas Products Corp., and his wife were hosts to the Johnsons at a private social gathering Sunday evening.

Agent Is Retiring

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secret Service Agent Rufus Youngblood, whose name vaulted into history one day in Dallas, is retiring and wants to see the world.

Youngblood, 47, says he has been around the world numerous times, but all he remembers are the inner rooms where matters of state are decided.

He's been to Bangkok five times, "but all I know about Thailand is an airport, a hotel and the palace," he said.

Youngblood's unannounced retirement May 31 would have gone unnoticed except for his name as related to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Lyndon B. Johnson, whom Youngblood threw to the floor of a limousine and shielded with his body, singled out the moment and it made a hero of Youngblood.

Steelers Seek 31% Pay Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United Steelworkers of America will press for at least a 31 per cent pay hike over the next three years, I.W. Abel says.

"I certainly wouldn't even consider asking for less in steel" than the recent 31 per cent hike gained in the can and aluminum industry, said Abel, president of the union.

Speaking on the NBC television-radio program "Meet the Press" Sunday, Abel said such an increase would not be inflationary but an attempt to catch up with inflation.

"We are practically, buying-powerwise, at the same level today as were were in 1960," he said.

Abel said the industry could pay the increased wages by stepping up production. He conceded, however, this could only be done if the economy pulled out of its current slump.

The union and nine steel companies are currently involved in negotiations in which, Abel said, "we are making good progress." The present negotiations concern only local plant issues, he said, with the money package to be negotiated later.

Jobs Scarce

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A high school instructor is looking for out-of-state jobs for his technical-vocational pupils. Letters to 100 local contractors failed to turn up any jobs.

Snyderites On ACC Honor Roll

ABILENE— Wesley Bishop and Joe Coronado of Snyder have been named to the dean's honor roll for the 1971 spring semester at Abilene Christian College.

They were among 426 students who met the minimum requirements of 12 semester credit hours and a 3.45 grade average on a 4.0 system.

Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bishop, 3209 Avenue A, is a freshman biology major and 1970 graduate of Snyder High School.

A junior social work major, Coronado is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pablo Coronado, 1904 Scott. He was valedictorian of the 1969 graduating class at Cherokee, Tex., High School.

Addicts Playing "The Game"

MENLO PARK, Calif. (AP) — They call it The Game.

The players are young veterans who are drug addicts, most hooked in Vietnam.

They sit in a circle in an austere room in building 324, ward B-1 at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Menlo Park, south of San Francisco.

The object of The Game is to kick drugs.

And it's not easy, because The Game can be frighteningly brutal. It makes you look at yourself. For an addict, that's always painful.

The Game has rules. No physical violence. No limit on verbal violence. All must participate. Once someone verbally attacks another, everyone must support the attacker. The person attacked must defend himself.

The program's founders, [illegible] Daly, a psychiatric social worker, and Bill Dunn, a former addict, say The Game is the main reason they have cured more than a dozen addicts in just a year of operation.

But the program wouldn't work without companion features such as the addicts living together in a ward, educational and employment assistance for those rehabilitated, and a cohesiveness that centers around each participant's desire to help his fellow addicts.

And for those who need it, methadone—a drug that substitutes for heroin to ease the pain of withdrawal—is available.

A form of verbal confrontation and attack, The Game is not new. It's been used for several years by civilian groups. But Petty and Dunn believe they are among the first in the Veterans Administration to use it. Many other programs rely on out-patient clinics administering methadone and providing counseling.

Petty and Dunn say that eight of the veterans they have cured are employed by the VA as drug counselors in an expanded version of the Menlo Park program that begins next month with a $140,000 appropriation.

Taxes Higher

WASHINGTON (AP) — Taxes took a 6.1-per cent bite out of the U.S. food marketing bill in 1967, compared with 5.3 per cent a decade earlier, says an Agriculture Department report.

The bill for marketing domestic food products to U.S. civilian consumers increased in the decade from $39.9 billion to $57.5 billion, according to a study by the department's Economic Research Service.

Income and business taxes paid by food marketers in the same time moved from $2.1 to $3.5 billion. Processors paid 48 per cent of the industry's tax bill in 1967; wholesalers, 9 per cent; retailers, 23 per cent; and eating and drinking places, 19 per cent.

The report shows that biggest tax payment increases for the period were by eating and drinking places, which in 1967 paid out 116 per cent more than in 1957. Food wholesalers paid 74 per cent more in total taxes, while processors and retailers each paid 56 per cent more.

Highest income taxes per dollar of sales were paid by processors, lowest by wholesalers. The differences were largely the result of variations in the amounts, kinds and units of values of services provided, the report said. Variations in business taxes among the four groups reportedly depended largely on taxable property and Social Security taxes paid per dollar of sales.

Dr. Campbell Nominated For AAUW Head

DALLAS (AP) — Dr. M. Anne Campbell of Lincoln, Neb., was nominated for president Sunday night as the American Association of University Women opened its biennial convention.

She heads a single slate of candidates on whom the 1,500 delegates will vote Tuesday. Results of the election will disclosed Wednesday.

Other nominees are Marjorie Bell Chambers of Los Alamos, N.M., for second vice president; Mrs. C.L. Gilliatt of Shelby, N.C. for recording secretary, and five for regional vice presidents—Adelaide H. Stegman of Annandale, Va., South Atlantic; Mrs. Rolland S. Abrahams of Nashville, Tenn., Southeast Central; Maxine Bailey of Clarion, Iowa, Northwest Central; Mrs. Francis Connor of Rawlins, Wyo., Rocky Mountain, and Dorothy B. Shimer of Kaneohe, Hawaii, South Pacific.

Delegates heard the AAUW's general director, Alice L. Beeman of Washington, D.C., discuss the social and ideological conflicts in today's society.

This nation has become "accustomed, if not injured," she aaid, "to the thought that there may be a 'bomb on board.' the divisions and differences which confront us are not going to disappear overnight and we are not suddenly going to arrive at a new national consensus.

"We will have to learn to accept and to live with a wide spectrum of opinions and a great variety of life styles. One meaning of democracy and of freedom is the ability to make choice — and the willingness to permit other people also to make their choices."

Uniform Building Codes Are Needed By Cities

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Literally hundreds of city building codes rigidly enforce today the use of products and methods better suited for a century ago.

Written in the 1800s, they ignore discoveries, inventions and improvements of the most technologically advanced nation in the world. There is little logic and less consistency to them. They differ more than they agree.

As a result, innovation is thwarted, inferior products are used and time consuming techniques are used at the cost of quality and efficiency. It is more than coincidence that there is at the same time a housing shortage.

The clamor is rising for uniform codes, but that doesn't mean we'll get them. Vested interests will work hard to maintain their privileges.

Unions will insist that certain work-saving procedures be banned. Materials suppliers will lobby to have the code specify their product. Local "stick" builders will fight to keep out factory produced homes.

Nevertheless, a model code that could guide the modernization of city building regulations is to be published next month by four large code organizations:

The American Insurance Association, International Conference of Building Officials, the Southern Building Code Congress and the Building Officials and Code Administrators.

The code will still be only a suggestion. There is no edict that says a town must abide by it. And, in fact, it is expected that lethargy will cause many to ignore it.

How, therefore, is the problem to be resolved? Seven states have established mandatory codes, and a good many large builders—especially makers of factory or industrialized housing believe a federal code is needed.

"Industrialized housing will require national markets," said Dr. George Smith recently in a speech to the Modular Housing Symposium here. And a national market, of course, requires that what is built for one town is acceptable in another. Smith, president of McKay-Shields Economics, added: "In order to compete effectively, and to produce efficiently, developers and users of construction systems need to know that they can operate on a more or less equal footing throughout the national market.

"The only way a national market can be developed is to override the present atomized system of regulation."

Missy Takes In Strays

GARLAND, Tex. (AP) — Missy, part poodle and part terrier, is a great believer in the foster parent plan.

As owner of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Tanner, she exercises her authority by taking in stray animals regardless of who—or what—they are.

Her first bid as a foster mother came several months ago when two tiny Doberman Pinscher puppies were abandoned by their mother.

As in most cases, the kids soon outgrew mom until they were completely out of her control.

Next came a stray cat with eight kittens—which is almost enough for two mothers. Now the kittens are almost hlaf grown and Missy finds herself in somewhat of an unusual position at times.

Often she must defend the kittens from the Doberman Pinschers, who feel they are free game.

But that's only part of her problem. As it is with most families, once you adopt, along comes one of your very own. Missy is expecting a litter herself.

Junior Editors Quiz on PEPPER

QUESTION: How is pepper made?

ANSWER: Pepper is made from the fruit or berry of the pepper vine. This vine is a trailing or climbing shrub grown in Indonesia and other tropical countries. The vine grows 8 to 12 feet tall and is trained to climb on tall poles. The vine is first covered with minute flowers, clustered on catkin-like spikes. Then this blossom is followed by a small green berry about the size of a pea, which turns red when it ripens. The berries are gathered just when they begin to change color. They are then cleaned and dried. They are usually dried in the sun or before a slow fire. In drying, the berries turn black. Then the berries are ground and sifted, and form the black pepper, which is one of the most popular spices.

White pepper is made from the ripe berries of the same plant. These are bruised and then washed to free the pulpy matter and bits of stalk from the berry. After drying process, they are ground. White pepper is much milder than black pepper.

When pepper is ground and stands for considerable time, it often develops a rancid taste from the oily content. For this reason, pepper mills have gained favor. A gourmet usually prefers freshly ground pepper, and uses the pepper mill to grind the pepper corns at the table.

Bulletins From Hal's Mailbag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The human heart is one of the sturdiest things on earth. [illegible] will beat 2½ billion times at a rate 70 a minute. Generally, the larger the animal the slower the beat. An elephant's heart—it weighs about 48 pounds—beats only a third as many times, that of a mouse from 600 to 700 times.

George Washington, the "father of his country," never sired any children of his own. Washington had many distinctions, among them this almost forgotten one: he was America's first mule breeder.

One of the basic needs of a handicapped child is special education. But only 40 per cent of the seven million handicapped children in the United States now get it.

Finding a diamond is almost as difficult as finding a needle in a haystack. Miners sometimes have to sift through 250 tons of ore to come across a gem stone only caret in size.

Quotable notables: "It's a terrribly hard job to spend a billion dollars and get your money's worth."— Former Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey.

Safety question: Are "hot pursuits" by police worthwhile. Some safety experts doubt it. The result in 300 to 400 deaths annually, the victim in many cases being the pursuing policeman. The culprit who initiates the pursuit, 90 per cent of the time, is only a fleeing traffic violator. Of those arrested, a survey showed, 75 per cent were drivers under 24 with a poor record.

Worth remembering: "Never marry a beautiful girl. She might leave you. If you marry an ugly girl, she might leave you, too—but you won't care."

Folklore: If your shoelace comes undone, that means someone is thinking of you. Spitting into a hearthfire brings bad luck. When a friend gives you a knife or a pair of scissors, you must give him a small coin return or your friendship will be broken. Find a four-leaf clover and you'll be married within a year.

It was Joseph Addison who observed, "Three grand essentials to happiness in this life are something to do, something to love, and something to hope for."

Queen's Pay Hike Opposed

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II's loyal subjects are as loyal as ever but are against giving her the pay hike she has asked for, a public opinion survey said today.

The survey made by National Opinion Polls for The Daily Mail says 54 per cent of the population believes the $1,140,000 the queen gets from the nation every year should stay the same or be cut.

Another 38 per cent said the monarch should get the increase now being considered by an all-party committee of legislators, and eight per cent had no opinion.

Estimates of what her pay should be ranged from $240,000 to $2,160,000.

Although a majority was opposed to any pay increase, 78 per cent said they still believed Britain needed a queen, 19 per cent said it didn't and three per cent didn't know.

Gov. Louie B. Nunn of Kentucky has appointed a five-member council of economic adviser to collect and interpret fiscal data. It is similar to the federal version.

UT Award To Ransom

AUSTIN (AP)—Dr. Harry H. Ransom, chancellor emeritus of the University of Texas System, has received the Santa Rita Award, highest honor granted by the UT System Development Board.

The award is made to individuals who demonstrate concern for higher education generally and who give unusual personal assistance to the UT System.

The previous winners of the Santa Rita Award are Miss Ima Hogg of Houston, Eugene McDermott of Dallas and Hines H. Baker of Houston.

The Santa Rita Award derives its name from the first producing oil well on UT-owned lands.

Ransom joined the English faculty at UT-Austin in 1935 and rose through the teaching ranks to full professor before taking on administrative assignments.

He became chancellor of the UT System in 1961 and served until Jan. 1, 1971, when he became chancellor emeritus.

Book Offered On Small Businesses

Career Corner

by Joyce Lain Kennedy

what job would you like to see explored in this column?

Dear Joyce: My wife has always been crazy about jewelry and has studied it as a hobby for a long time. She has been working as a part-time salesgirl in a clothing store for 2 years. Now, she wants to open a small jewelry store with her girl friend as a partner. I've got a little money saved but before we invest, I'd like to know more about the jewelry business. Where can we write to find out? – T.A., Memphis

The U.S. Small Business Administration has a new publication, "Starting and Managing a Small Retail Jewelry Store (starting and managing series, number 21)." At this writing, it was still in the process of being printed, but orders may be placed by sending 40 cents to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D.C. 20402. The book will be mailed to you as soon as available.

Dear Joyce: Please advise where I can obtain a list of schools or institutions offering home study courses in nursing which are recognized and accredited by the Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners. – T.R., Houston

An LPN is a licensed practical nurse in all states except California and Texas, where the title LVN (licensed vocational nurse) is used. The National Federation of Licensed Practical Nurses knows of no state board of nursing which accepts graduates of home study courses as eligible to apply for licensing examinations.

Speaking of nurses, here's an idea for male early retirees. New York's Bellevue Hospital School of Nursing has begun a new 2½-year training program for working firemen, policemen and selected other adults, to prepare them to be registered nurses (RN's). Many of the enrollees can retire after 20 years of service, and nursing is a way to add about $9,000/year to their retirement checks.

The 54 firemen, 36 policemen and 4 policewomen in the first class attend 12 hours of instruction each week. If this seems like a promising idea to you, check with area hospitals and 2-year colleges to see what programs might fit your plans.

A booklet, "Nurse – Husband/Father/Humanitarian/Specialist" is a 16-page discussion of the male nurse, and is available for 25 cents from the National League for Nursing, 10 Columbus Circle, New York, N.Y. 10019.

Dear Joyce: I recall you once wrote about legal aides, but said the career was just getting started. I am a bookkeeper now, but once I was a legal secretary and I think I might like to look into a job above a secretary on the career ladder, but below a lawyer. Are legal aides becoming more common and where is training available? – V.M., Washington, D.C.

The use of legal assistants to do administrative-type legal work is still rare in this country (Britain has an estimated 30,000 legal assistants). Until recently, only Meramec Community College in St. Louis offered a program (2 years). Now the U. of Minnesota will offer 4-year liberal arts students a variety of law courses to prepare them to be legal technicians.

A new private school in Philadelphia, the Institute of Paralegal Training, offers a 3-month program to college graduates for $500 (the first class has graduated and 14 girls are working at salaries averaging $8,000). Less specialized American Bar Association-sponsored programs to train legal paraprofessionals are in the planning stages for Cleveland, San Francisco and Minneapolis. Call your local bar association – perhaps a law firm in town will train you; I've heard of a few in various cities that will. This field is still a good bet for substantial growth.

For The Birds

DUNDEE, Scotland (AP) — To increase the variety of birds in Dundee, the parks department is breeding gold and silver pheasants, partridges and other birds, and releasing them in the parks.

The birds roam all over the city, where the rule is "Don't interfere with them or try to catch them."

Hixon-Led West Triumphs, 33-28

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Imagine how Chuck Hixson felt if you will.

The Southern Methodist ace is a backup quarterback to Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett of Stanford. Plunkett is the No. 1 draft choice for 1970 in all of professional football.

And after a slow start, Plunkett is sizzling Saturday night in the 11th annual Coaches All-America Football Game.

Trailing 21-7 to the underdog East, Plunkett hurls a 34-yard touchdown pass to Otto Stowe of Iowa State, directs a drive climaxed by Joe Orduna's 17-yard run and sneaks over from a yard out for a 19-point third period and a 26-21 West lead.

The East rallies with Alabama's Scott Hunter going three-yards for a touchdown and a 28-26 lead with 2:14 left.

Hixson is kneeling on the sidelines. He has played only one series in the first half although he holds numerous NCAA passing records. It's obviously Plunkett's game, do or die.

Or is it?

West Coach Bob Devaney and Plunkett are in conference on the sidelines.

"We were debating who to go with and Plunkett said that he'd played a lot and Chuck hadn't so why not put him in," Devaney said.

Plunkett said "I just think that he ought to have a chance because he'd played so little. After all, there isn't any difference between us."

So Hixson, a low draft choice of the Kansas City Chiefs, is summoned off the sideline.

He converts a crucial third down and 10-yard situation with a 22-yard pass to J. D. Hill of Arizona State to the East 23. The time is waning. Hixson drifts back and finds Nebraska's Orduna alone over the middle. Hixson wings the ball and Orduna grabs it on the 17 and runs over three tacklers like a Mack truck on his determined flight to the end zone. Thirty-one seconds show on the clock.

Orduna wins the most valuable player award. Hixson gets plaudits.

"I thought Hixson's performance was one of the finest jobs of clutch quarterbacking that I've ever seen," said Devaney. "On the winning touchdown, he went to Orduna, who was a secondary receiver."

Hixson, who will be fighting for a job with the Kansas City Chiefs, said "I didn't have any special instructions when I went in. I was thinking of getting two first downs to get within field goal range."

The game, which drew a record crowd of 43,320, is expected to be back in Lubbock next year.

Charley McClendon, East coach who was the sideline general in a 34-27 East victory in 1970, said "I didn't know we could duplicate last year's game, but we did. It was a rerun of last year.

"I pity the coaches who have to come in and try to follow this act next year."

A's Shell Indians 4-2

The Athletics shelled the Indians 4-2 in an American Little League makeup game held in Towle Park Saturday night.

Each team collected eight hits. D. Hobbs received credit for the A's while D. Sikes was charged with the loss.

Hitting singles for the A's were G. Snyder (three), R. Crayton (2), R. Corbell, M. Mueller and D. Hobbs. B. Browning and B. Waller each hit two singles for the Tribe while D. Vaughn, D. Fleming, L. Jeffery and F. Lopez each stroked one hit for the Indians.

Braves Nip Cubs 8-3

The Braves beat the Cubs 8-3 in a National Little League make-up game Saturday night in Towle Park.

The Braves made the most of several walks and errors since they were outhit by the Cubs 8-1.

Tracey Rollins singled for the only Brave hit.

The Cubs received a single and a double from Tim Burnett, the losing pitcher and singles from Lee Allen Jarrell, Billy Wood, Danny Neel and Jeff Reed. Kerry Young was the winner.

Conviction Of Ali Is Reversed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today reversed the conviction of former heavyweight boxing champion Muhammad Ali, who was sentenced to five years imprisonment for draft evasion.

In an 8-0 decision, the court said the record shows that Ali's "beliefs are founded on tenets of the Muslim religion as he understands them."

The 29-year-old black boxer, also known as Cassius Clay, was reigning heavyweight champion when he refused to take the traditional step forward at draft induction ceremonies April 28, 1967, in Houston.

The following month he was convicted by an all-white jury of six men and six women.

Ali had contended throughout his long legal battle that he should be draft-exempt on grounds that he was a Black Muslim minister.

In the unsigned decision, the court said the government has now fully conceded that Ali's beliefs are based upon "religious training and belief" as set out in previous conscientious objector cases.

Yanks, Giants Win In FL

The Yankees beat the White Sox 8-6 and the Giants blanked the Braves 12-0 in two makeup games in the Farm League, Saturday night. They were held in Towle Park.

The Braves collected only two hits—singles by Randy Starnes and Jimmy Pate. The Giants got 10 hits, including two singles by M. Ray and Ricky Baucom. Other hits—all singles—were registered by Cochran, D. Benitez, Jerry Martin, Kip Riley, Keith Wortham and Travis Ainsworth.

The Yankees garnered five hits—singles by Joe Melendrez, Rodney Glass, Marvin Hammon, Ronnie Wooldrige and David Campbell. The White Sox got four hits—singles by Jack Fulford, Randy Strodel, David Fulton and Richard Schulze.

Astros Rip San Francisco, 5-2

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It never rains inside the Houston Astrodome but it generally pours from the San Francisco Giants anyway.

Sunday was no exception as the Giants lost to the Astros 5-2, making it 20 setbacks for their last 25 ventures inside the Dome.

Elsewhere in the National League, Pittsburgh edged Philadelphia 10-9 after dropping the opener 8-4, Montreal trounced the New York Mets 12-4, Los Angeles trimmed San Diego 7-2, the Chicago Cubs down St. Louis 4-1 and Cincinnati held off Atlanta 7-5.

In the American League, Boston took Baltimore 3-1, Cleveland shaded Detroit 3-1, Washington swept a pair from the New York Yankees 2-1 and 8-0, Oakland blanked Kansas City 3-0 but lost the nightcap 6-3, Minnesota edged Milwaukee 2-1 and the Brewers won the second game 8-5 and California whipped the Chicago White Sox twice 2-1 and 12-3.

The Giants jumped off to a 2-0 lead Sunday against rookie Ken Forsch, but the Astros took a 3-2 lead off Steve Stone in the fifth on RBI singles by Bob Watson and Roger Metzger around Doug Rader's sacrifice fly. Jim Wynn singled a pair of runs across against Jerry Johnson in the seventh.

The Pirates, meanwhile, blew a five-run lead against the Phillies and then had to overcome a four-run deficit before winning their nightcap on Roberto Clemente's pinch homer in the eighth. Willie Stargell, who hit his 28th home run in the opener and broke Tony Perez' NL record for most homers through June 30, struck out as a pinch hitter just before Clemente connected.

Earlier, Jose Pagan hit two homers and drove in five runs for the Pirates while Deron Johnson homered twice for the Phillies.

Roger Freed's game-tying home run and doubles by Denny Doyle and Willie Montanez keyed a four-run seventh inning that enabled the Phils to win the opener.

The Mets dropped four games behind Pittsburgh in the NL East when Montreal exploded for seven runs in the first inning against Charlie Williams and Jim McAndrew on six hits and two errors. Ron Fairly and Stan Swanson each drove in three runs as the Expos ended New York's four-game winning streak.

John Strohmayer, subbing for the ailing Carl Morton, pitched his first complete game in the majors despite Art Shamsky's three-run homer.

Richie Allen clouted a two-run homer and Bill Buckner and pitcher Don Sutton also had two RBI as the Dodgers whipped the Padres and chopped a game off the Giants' lead in the NL West. They now trail by 6½.

The cubs moved past the Cardinals into third place in the East by handing St. Louis its 20th defeat in 27 games this month. Don Kessinger's two-run single in the sixth broke open a pitching duel between Ferguson Jenkins, who won his 11th, and Steve Carlton.

Flames Win Doubleheader

The Flames won a doubleheader from Carlsbad, Texas Saturday night in Winston Park. In the first game, Evelyn Wesley led the hitters with three hits. Kathy Weber was the winning pitcher. The score was 17-2.

The Flames won the second game with a 20-8 score.

Evelyn Wesley led the hitters with four hits; Luther Thompson, and Kathy Weber each had three hits and Sue Jane Sullivan got a triple and a home run. Nell Henry was the winning pitcher.

Tuesday night the Flames will play the Roadrunners from Lubbock at 7 p.m. There will be a second game and the Roadrunners from Lubbock will play Hamby. Merline Nichlos will pitch for Roadrunners and Brenda Jackson will pitch for Hamby. Both of these pitchers are considered the best and this will be a real pitcher's dual.

Gary Dicovitsky of Elizabeth, N.J., will captain Dartmouth's basketball team next season.
