Amend Tenure?

WASHINGTON AP — Sen. Russell B. Long says Congress should consider amending the Constitution to end life-tenure for Supreme Court justices if the court does not heed directives in the new anti-crime bill.

The Louisiana Democrat suggested a Constitutional amendment that would require periodical review by Congress to determine whether a justice on the basis of record, age "and other relevant considerations" should continue to serve.

Long said he would vote no on Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justice William O. Douglas if such a system were in effect now.

"Based on the way Justice William J. Brennan and Justice Abe Fortas are going," Long said, "I would have to say no to them, too."

He made the proposal in a broadcast prepared for showing over the weekend to his Louisiana constituents.

The recently - passed anti-crime bill includes provisions intended to overturn Supreme Court decisions on use of confessions and eye witness testimony at criminal trials.

Reds Resume Attack

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The Viet Cong resumed their rocket attack on central Saigon today, killing another 10 civilians and wounding 35. Fifteen 100-pound Russian rockets landed on the capital.

The missiles set several houses afire and narrowly missed the Buddhist pagoda which once was the headquarters for Saigon's militant Buddhist faction.

The attack early today raised the civilian death toll from more than five weeks of rocket and mortar barrages on Saigon past 100.

In 22 days of shelling since the preliminary peace talks opened in Paris May 5, at least 109 civilians have been killed in Saigon and 413 wounded.

U.S. officers say the aim of the enemy attack is:

—To undermine the South Vietnamese government of President Nguyen Van Thieu by spreading fear among the 3 million inhabitants of Greater Saigon.

—To disrupt the capital.

—To give the impression of an army that can strike anywhere, any time, and that the Communists are bargaining in Paris from a position of military strength.

South Vietnamese military headquarters also reported three Viet Cong mortar attacks within a 20-mile radius of Saigon.

In fighting elsewhere:

More than 200 North Vietnamese soldiers attacked U.S. Marines in night defensive positions eight miles south of the Khe Sanh combat base at the western end of the demilitarized one. Twelve of the enemy and seven Marines were killed and 41 Marins wounded in the 90-minute fight.

The enemy troops were driven off by helicopter gunships and dive-bombers.

Four miles west of Khe Sanh, North Vietnamese troops using satchel charges and rocket-propelled grenades ambushed a Marine supply convoy. Twelve Marines were killed and nine wounded. Again with the help of tanks and dive-bombers, the Marines overran the ambush positions and killed 12 of the enemy.

In the Mekong Delta 44 miles southwest of Saigon, infantrymen from the U.S. 9th Division reported killing 61 Viet Cong in a 12 hour fight. Three Americans were killed and 17 wounded, U.S. headquarters said.

The U.S. Command said two more Air Force fighter-bombers were downed Saturday and Sunday above the demilitarized zone by heavy ground fire, but all three men aboard the two planes were rescued. This brought to 850 the total number of U.S. planes lost in combat over the North.

U.S. Air Force planes smashed 13 North Vietnamese antiaircraft sites just above the DMZ and hit two railroad cars loaded with surface-to-air missiles and launchers, military spokesmen said.

Ray Planning To Fight Extradition

LONDON (AP) — James Earl Ray made a two-minute appearance in Bow Street Court today and indicated he would fight the U.S. government's attempt to seek his extradition in connection with the charge that he killed Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

London's chief magistrate ordered Ray held without bail for another court appearance on June 18.

There was no mention during the brief preliminary hearing of extradition. But Ray asked the court to appoint an attorney for him, and this was taken as an indication that he would fight being returned to America.

American legal officials said they were going ahead with the extradition process and hoped to return Ray to the United States "very soon."

The 40-year-old escaped convict who had been on the run since the Negro civil rights leader was killed April 4 in Memphis Tenn. was arraigned under the alias of Ramon George Sneyd and was charged with carrying a false passport and a loaded revolver without a license.

A heavy police escort brought Ray secretly to the court three hours before the preliminary hearing was to begin. A crowd of about 300 laid siege to the courtroom later and everyone entering it was searched for weapons.

Ray had been under heavy guard since his arrest Saturday.

Ray's dark hair was flecked with gray at the temples and his face was tanned.

A government prosecutor asked that Ray be held in custody and the judge granted Ray's application request that the court appoint a lawyer for him. Then he was taken away by a large force of plainclothesmen and uniformed police.

Ray had been in Canada Portugal and Britain before the two-month hunt ended with his arrest at London airport. Informed sources gave credence to reports that he had been hiding out in London since mid-May.

One report was that when picked up he was bound for Brussels hoping to contact recruiters for mercenary forces in Africa.

Ray is wanted on a Tennessee charge of murder a federal charge of conspiring to deny King his civil rights and a Missouri charge that he escaped from prison there on April 23 1967.

U.S. Asst. Atty. Gen. Fred M. Vinson Jr. flew to London and spoke with Ray in his cell Sunday but in Washington Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark said Ray had made no satement.

Clark said he could not estimate how soon Ray might be returned to the United States. It is possible he said that Ray might waive extradition or that he might be deported.

If extradition is necessary legal sources in London said the Bow Street Court would require material evidence showing a case against Ray. The procedure normally would take two or three weeks but if Ray fought the case it could take much longer.

Evidence Against Sirhan Gathered

LOS ANGELES (AP) — With Sirhan Bishara Sirhan behind bars top prosecutors are meeting daily in hopes of closing holes in Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. A233421.

That case contains the murder charge against the 24-year-old Jordanian immigrant accused of slaying Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Sirhan is to enter a plea to the charge June 28.

Although Sirhan was arrested at the scene of the fatal shooting early Wednesday and identified by several witnesses as the New York senator's assailant the case presents unanswered question.

Not the least of them is whether there was a conspiracy behind the shooting.

Police haven't been able to produce the dark-haired 'girl in the polka-dot dress." Sandy Serrano, 20, a Youth for Kennedy worker reported seeing the girl run from the Ambassador Hotel after the shooting and say "We shot him."

Three young women, the latest a 19-year-old belly dancer have claimed to be the girl in the polka-dot dress, all saying Miss Serrano misunderstood their words as they ran from the hotel. But Miss Serrano says none is the girl she saw.

"You've got to be color-blind to think that's the girl" Miss Serrano said of the belly dancer, Kathy Fulmer, who had told police she was wearing a polka-dot scarf and a blonde wig the night of the murder.

Meanwhile, Pasadena police are keeping a 24-hour guard at the home of Sirhan's family although the family reportedly has not been staying there.

In Chicago, a Jordanian grocer was shot to death Saturday in his store and police speculated his killers, described by the victim's wife as two Negroes, may have been seeking revenge for Kennedy's death.

Abder Rayyan 55 father of nine was shot in the head as he bent over a vegetable bin. His assailants left without saying a word.

Of five other persons wounded during the Kennedy shooting three have been released from hospitals and the other two are reported in good condition.

In the citly of Tayieba in Israel-held Jordan, Bishara Sirhan, father of the one-time racehorse exercise boy, accused in the assassination, said Sunday that childhood memories of killings in the Arab-Israeli war of 1948 could have disturbed his son.

Demos Argue Unit Rule Procedure

By GARTH JONES

DALLAS (AP) —Arguments over contesting delegations to the state Democratic convention Tuesday began today with a threat of legal action against the traditional unit rule procedure.

Times change, attitudes change, particularly in view of the U.S. Supreme Court one man-one vote rule—said Maury Maverick Jr., San Antonio lawyer and former state senator.

"If some of the delegates of one area want to vote for Sen. Eugene McCarthy, there is no reason to instruct all of them to vote for Gov. John Connally," he said.

The unit rule binds all of a political delegation to the wishes of the majority.

Maverick spoke for Bexar County Senatorial Dist. 19, whose 99 delegates were named by a pro-Connally county convention.

A similar contest concerned 112 delegates of Bexar County Senatorial Dist. 126.

John Peace, San Antonio lawyer, said the delegates were named on the basis of the majority rule.

"There is nothing in the Constitution that says the majority cannot control the election processes of his country," he said.

Peace said his San Antonio senatorial convention ignored the wishes of a large broup of Mexican-Americans in the balcony—a segment which makes up 40 to 50 per cent of San Antonio's population.

"Someday, these people are going to come swooping down out of the balcony and by God, you are the ones who will want the one man-one vote then," Maverick said.

"The Democratic Party is not a private club that can deny constitutional principles of liberty."

Tom Gordon of Abilene, chairman of the credentials subcommittee, asked Maverick if "we can assume all this is a precedence for legal action down the line."

"Yes, you certainly may," Maverick answered.

July 4th Plans Shaping Up Here

Plans are shaping up for the annual Independence Day Celebration in Towle Memorial Park.

Bill Dryden, who heads the Chamber of Commerce July 4th Committee, met with Chamber officials and some activity chairmen this morning. Following the session, Dryden urged that organizations who wish to operate concession stands in the park on July 4 to notify the Chamber of Commerce office not later than June 20. Space for the concessions area will be allotted at that time.

Also, it was announced that a beauty contest will be planned again at the Towle Park pool. This contest was suspended last year because of insufficient entries. However, it is hoped that more entries will sign up this year. The age bracket for entrants in the beauty contest is 16 through 20.

Also attending the planning session this morning was Mr. La Verne Lee, who is chairman of the July 4th Art Show. The art show annually is one of the more popular features of the Independence Day observance in the county park here.

A number of other activities will be on the day's program, which will come to a climax with the traditional fireworks display in the evening.

GOVERNOR CONNALLY'S SECOND TRY

Legislators To Study Liquor Plan

By LEE JONES

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. John Connally's second try at bringing leglaized public sale of cocktails to Texas gets its first open formal scrutiny by legislators today.

His miniature bottles liquor by the drink bill combined with certain changes in present alcoholic beverage laws was scheduled for a 2 p.m. hearing by the House State Affairs Committee.

No legislation was out of committee and many lawmakers were away today for Tuesday's Republican and Democratic state conventions.

The State Affairs Committee already has started work on liquor legislation. It heard a bill to provide sweeping changes sponsored by committee Chairman R. H. Cory of Victoria and another miniature bottles bill by San Antonio Rep. Frank Lombardino Friday.

Both bills are now in a subcommittee also headed by Cory. That subcommittee consists of the five House members who studied the Liquor Control Act this spring at Speaker Ben Barnes' request. Its recommendations form the substance of Cory's bill. Two committee members are among the three co-sponsors of Connally's bill—Reps. C. A. Davis of Houston Roy Garwood of San Antonio and Dick McKissack of Dallas. McKissack is not on the subcommittee.

Connally's bill is expected to go to the same five-man subcommittee after its hearing today.

The governor failed to get the 1967 legislature to pass a liquor by the drink bill somewhat more sweeping than the present measure.

This new bill would legalize

DEAR ABBY: My brother's widow has taken up driving a motorcycle — at age 61.

She was married to my brother for 30 years and has always been a sensible woman, so naturally when she started with this motorcycle business I became concerned.

She says it's great fun, much safer than riding a horse, and she has met a lot of interesting young people thru her new hobby.

Have you or any of your readers ever heard of a 61-year-old woman taking up the motorcycle just for the fun of it?

If this woman is getting a little nutty, her lawyer ought to be advised because my brother left a sizable fortune to which she is the sole heir. Please advise me.

CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED: If you suspect that your brother's widow is getting "a little nutty," watch for other evidence. Are you sure you aren't more interested in the rocks in her safety deposit box than those in her head?

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I take issue with your advice to 'DISTRESSED," who wanted her husband to leave graduate school and take a job so she could raise a family.

I have seen too many impatient wives drive their husbands out of graduate school so they could enjoy their 'dreams" of color TV, two new cars, a family, and a home of their own — right now. These girls don't realize that their husband's potential income is immediately reduced as is his ability to advance in his profession. He is apt to be frustrated professionally in middle age, and if he is unhappy in his work, his home life will also suffer.

The couples who are willing to scrimp and work harder a few additional years in order to complete the husband's education to the fullest will reap benefits many times over in terms of income, professional and general satisfaction for the remainder of their lives.

Sincerely yours,
I. E. DAYTON
Vice President for Academic Affairs Montana State U., Bozeman, Montana

DEAR DR. DAYTON: Thank you for your fine letter. What you say is true, but my correspondent complained that her husband was a 'professional student," who preferred the security of remaining in school indefinitely to getting out and supporting his wife and starting a family. In other words, her man was losing his ambition by "degrees."

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am 16 and a junior at Shattuck school in Faribault, Minn., and I would like to get something off my chest.

Sometimes I get very angry with a few of your generation for leaving the world in such a mess for my generation to clean up. I also get mad at some of my own frieńds at times for being so childlike and cowardly. When I see "hippies" I thank the Lord there aren't more of them. I mean, who would mind the store while we were freaking out somewhere if we were all like that?

I also get frustrated with draft - card burners. Imagine what our men in Viet Nam who are fighting and dying must think of that? If a man isn't willing to fight for his freedom, he doesn't deserve to be free. As far as I'm concerned, my draft card is my deed to freedom, and if I were to burn it, I would no longer be free.

Sincerely yours,
BILL HUMLEKER

Japanese Oldtimer Marks 116th Birthday

KAMAISHI, Japan (AP) — Jubei Nakamura, Japan's oldest resident, celebrates his 116th birthday today.

A physician said Nakamura was in the best of health, although he has complained of some weakness in the legs.

Nakamura retired as an active fisherman when he was 75.

He neither drinks nor smokes, and attributes his longevity partly to his taste for sea urchins.

sale of alcoholic beverages in sealed containers— miniature bottle—of no more than two ounces. The little bottles could be sold only by places that do half their business in food. Permits would be required and the small bottles would be legal only where voters have said so in local option elections.

The governor offered the miniature bottles plan to the legislature as a way to raise $14.5 million of the at least $125 million in new taxes they must pass this summer.

Later, however, it developed that his mixed drinks bill could account for only $8.2 million—$7 million by bringing the liquor in the miniature bottles under present alcoholic beverage taxes and $1.2 million from drink permit fees. The remaining $6.3 million would come from a 10 per cent private club gross receipts tax on receipts from storing and serving members' liquor. The private club levy is in his tax bill scheduled for hearing by the House Revenue and Taxation Committee Wednesday.

Connally also wants tighter controls on private clubs and tougher penalties for places that sell liquor to minors.

A separate bill by Rep. Vernon Stewart of Wichita Falls, dealing with minors' drinking, also is up for hearing by Cory's committee today.

Since a majority of Texas voters said they favor liquor by the drink in a poll conducted in the May 4 primaries, Connally's office has been checking the county returns to see if mixed drinks also have a legislative majority.

In the House, a majority of more than 80 of the 150 members either backed liquor by the drink last year or come from districts whose voters favor it, said Bill Cobb, Connally's budget officer.

"It's tight in the Senate. We sure don't have the two-thirds to put it into immediate effect. But it's awful close. There are some we're not sure about," he said.

Canine Hit By Prowler

Four Snyder boys surprised a prowler in the grandparent's house of one of them Friday afternoon, and the suspect left without taking anything but he conked a pet dog on the head with a big stick.

City Police said Brad Brown, Jackie Simpson, Herman McAnelly and Jay Martin went to Brad's grandparent's house at 2607 Avenue U to get out of the rain.

One of the boys saw the shadow of a man in the hallway coming from the kitchen. Shortly thereafter, the back door slammed and the boy saw a man about 5-8 with black hair and a gray or white shirt flee north in the alley behind the house.

The boys discovered the pet terrier dog of the grandparents — Mr. and Mrs. Landis Herrin — on the back porch with a bump in the center of its head. The suspect was carrying a big stick.

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York eulogized Sen. Robert F. Kennedy today under strict new security regulations prompted by the senator's assassination.

Secret Service men with walkie-talkies patrolled the campus and the platform where Rockefeller delivered the commencement address for Allegheny College graduates.

A half-dozen Secret Service men flanked Rockefeller as he walked, garbed in mortar board and gown, to the podium.

A uniformed policeman with binoculars looked from the roof of an old brick 3½-story building across the lawn where the ceremony was held.

In his speech, Rockefeller said that Kennedy was "someone special to young people" who are seeking new leadership.

"Perhaps the greatest service he performd was that he became a bridge between the generations and between different groups within our nation," Rockefeller said.

Rockefeller, who is seeking the Republican presidential nomination, eulogized the slain New York Democratic senator who conceivably could have been his opponent in November's general election.

He said "all generations were stunned and saddened by the tragic death" Thursday, some 28 hours after Kennedy was shot in the brain by an assassin while campaigning for the Democratic presidential nomination.

"We know," Rockefeller told the 370 Allegheny graduates, "that he was someone special to young people. He moved and inspired them. We know, therefore that your sense of loss is especially deep and painful."

Further eulogizing Kennedy as one who "became a bridge between the generations and between different groups within the nation," Rockefeller said "Such is one test of the leadership we desperately need in American society today."

Rockefeller became the first to use new security arrangements for presidential candidates in the wake of Kennedy's assassination. President Johnson ordered Secret Service men assigned to all major presidential candidates after Kennedy was shot Wednesday at a Los Angeles rally. He was there celebrating his victory in the California primary.

Secret Service agents assigned to Rockefeller have been in Meadville for days, although officials soft-pedaled talk of security measures, describing most of them as routine.

Meadville's 25-man police force has been alerted for duty. And a dozen Pennsylvania state troopers were standing by. They were in addition to those who normally accompany Pennsylvania Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, an Allegheny Alumnus who also was here, and the New York troopers who regularly travel with Rockefeller.

The governor was fulfilling a commitment made to Shafer over a month ago to deliver the commencement address.

Meat Costs Plunge

Today, annual meat expenditures for a family of five take less than five percent of total disposable income, for which they can purchase 885 pounds of meat, 250 pounds more than in 1938. And in 1938, meat purchases took a larger percentage of annual income.

More Meat: More People

Twenty years ago, 145 million Americans spent more than six per cent of their disposable (after-tax) income for an average of 145 pounds of beef, veal, pork and lamb per person per year, or a total of more than 21 billion pounds of meat.

Today, 200 million Americans spend less than five per cent of their disposable income for a record-breaking average of 17 pounds of beef, veal, pork and lamb, or a total of more than 33 billion pounds of meat.

The livestock and meat industry today produces 12 billion more pounds of meat than 30 years ago to provide an additional 31 pounds of meat per person to a population that has increased by 55 million people. And it's done for a smaller proportion of their after-tax income.

IN WAKE OF ASSASSINATIONS

Turn-In-Guns Movement Begins

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A turn in your guns movement has started in the nation in the wake of the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

And there have been calls — from public officials, groups and individuals—for stronger gun-control legislation at federal, state and city levels.

"I don't feel like killing anything any more," said Alan E. Schoening as he turned in two hunting guns to police in Lancaster, Pa. "Enough people have been shot now," he said. "I want to give you these guns so you can destroy them. I hope this gesture will encourage others to do the same."

A chain of discount stores in Columbus, Ohio, said it would stop selling guns and turned over its stock of small arms, hand guns, ammunition and related items to the police dpartment. J-Mart president Marty Rosen said he took the action "to remove the possibility of supplying anyone with the means to cause bodily harm, inadvertently or intentionally, not only to our dedicated public leaders, but to anyone . . ."

An Indiana-based chain, Wonderland stores, discontinued the sale of ammunition. It stopped the sale of guns two years ago. The store president, Sanford Friedman, said the ammunition sale was being stopped "to help preserve public safety and sanity."

In Dallas, store owner E. O. Crawford discontinued the sale of toy guns the day Robert Kennedy died. "We teach our children love of a gun and love of killing by giving them a toy gun as soon as they are able to walk," he said.

John E. Fletcher of Denver urged gun owners to take "all firearms in your possession to the steps of the state capitol next Sunday (Father's Day) to be destroyed and disposed of."

He said the gesture would be "a sign of our intention to kill no more . . . and as a fitting remembrance—to a fallen martyr—Robert F. Kennedy."

Gov. John A. Volpe of Massachusetts said he will tell his colleagues in the New England Conference that strong gun controls are long overdue. The conference will meet in Stowe, Vt., June 27, and the issue is expected to come up then.

Volpe, chairman of the National Governor's Conference, plans to propose tighter gun laws when that group meets next month in Cincinnati.

A Gallup Poll report, released Sunday in Princeton, N.J., said that a special survey conducted on the day that Sen. Kennedy was shot found that the public advocates registration of all firearms as the best way to curb such violence.

A letter appeared in the Miami Herald, signed by a man who called himself "an avid owner and user of guns," and urging a 90-day jail sentence for possession of any firearm. 'I know this means ending the sport of hunting," he wrote, "but our first obligation must be to mankind and the perpetuation of society."

Mayor Joseph Alioto of San Francisco proclaimed the seven days beginning July 4 a "Amnesty Week," and asked all citizens to turn in their guns—with no questions asked. Last Friday, Alioto had urged a city gun control law "with teeth in it."

Not all the action came from adults.

A group of junior high and high school students in University City, Mo., formed an organization called Students for Action Committee to work to eliminate gun sales.

"The adults don't do anything" said Sharon Liebermann, a member of the group. "They mourn and say they'll do something and then they seem to forget."

Circuit Judge Max Raskin of Milwaukee urged passage of a law under which firearms would have to be drawn out of a local arsenal, somewhat like books out of a library. Raskin said the borrower would sign out the weapon, state his purpose for needing it and sign it back in after a specified time.

The crime-control bill which the U.S. House of Representatives passed Thursday includes a ban on mail-order sales of handguns, but President Johnson has asked for even stronger curbs. He urged the legislators to reinstate an original provision of the bill—banning the mail-order sale of rifles and shotguns as well—and to insert a new provision prohibiting the sale of rifles, shotguns and handguns to anyone under 18.

Cambodia Frees 2 US Soldiers

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Prince Norodom Sihanouk today released two American soldiers as a gesture of homage to the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The two soldiers, Jerry A. Tester and Ronald J. Lehrmann of the 560th Military Police Company, were aboard a Philippine tug that strayed into Cambodian waters in the Mekong Delta.

They were turned over to the Australian Embassy, which has represented the United States in Cambodia since Sihanouk broke relations with Washington.

There was no immediate indication when or how the men would leave Cambodia.

In a message of sympathy to Sen. Kennedy's widow, Cambodia's ruling prince said:

"The royal government, the Cambodian people and I want to express our admiration and our respect to the Kennedy family whose sacrifices for the cause of peace, justice and liberty for the oppressed must not be vain for the honor of the American people and the future of humanity."

Sihanouk's announcement made no mention of releasing the tug or its eight-man Filipino crew. Phnom Penh newspapers had reported they would be treated leniently and would be released.

The U.S. government had protested the detention of the men and said the tug intruded inadvertently into Cambodian waters due to a navigational error.

The Cambodian government rejected the protest, saying the boat passed a "clearly visible" Cambodian border post on the river bank and ignored signals ordering it to turn back.

Earlier the Cambodian government had offered to release the two men in exchange for two bulldozers. Washington made no reply to that offer.

No Sign Suez To Reopen Soon

SUEZ, Egypt (AP) — The Suez Canal, closed to international shipping for a year now, occupies a paradoxical position in Egypt's modern history.

Many of the country's political difficulties and a large degree of its economic fortune center on the 107-mile link between the Mediterranean and the Red Sea.

The blocked canal now serves as a cease-fire line separating Egypian and Israeli forces. Silt drifts into the canal bed and beneath its calm waters lie traces of the 1967 Middle East War.

Sunken obstacles between Port Said and Suez make the canal unnavigable. On the east bank, Israeli troops control all the territory of the Sinai Peninsula.

Across the canal Egyptians dig trenches and install defensive positions. There is no sign of an Israeli-Arab settlement that will reopen the waterway once called the "jugular vein of international trade."

Each summer in past year's Egypt celebrated the anniversary of the 1956 nationalization of the Suez Canal. But this year there was no celebration, only an atmosphere of agony and danger along the waterway.

Except for a few small districts, the whole Suez Canal Zone is almost totally deserted. Barbed wire fences, winding trenches and troop encampments have replaced the lush fields and the public parks. Occasionally, the thud of cannon and the rattle of machineguns seem the only indication of continuing human existence along the canal.

Fishermen are gone. Schools are closed. Factories are stilled.

Some estimates say Egypt loses $650,000 a day with the canal closed. Transit fees are cut off, service facilities earn no money and the tourists don't come any more."

Six inches of silt accumulate on some sections of the canal bed each year and it must be dredged from the canal to return to full capacity. It will cost millions to clear obstacles.

Egypt insists the canal will remain blocked until the Israeli troops evacuate the east bank. Israel is unwilling to withdraw its forces until the two countries can negotiate a peace.

Fifteen foreign ships were caught in the canal June 5, 1967 when war broke out and they are still stranded. The skeleton crews manning the ships celebrated the first anniversary of their plight with sports events and a lifeboat regatta.

For Egyptians the silent canal is a reminder of Egypt's shattering defeat in the Arab-Israeli War and a symbol of economic woe.

Casper Wins By 1 At Indianapolis

By PAUL PETROTTA
Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Billy Casper trained his eyes on a third U.S. Open title today after a one-stroke victory in the Speedway Open Golf Tournament Sunday.

"If I can eliminate the mistakes I made here, I'll do well in Rochester," Casper said. "I had a two-week layoff since Memphis and hadn't played much but I feel good now."

The PGA's leading money winner, raised his earnings to $124,243 with a $20,000 first-prize for his fourth victory of the season.

Casper admitted Mike Hill, a 28-year-old rookie, made him play more boldly than he had wanted in the final round.

Hill, of Jackson, Mich., was playing only his second pro tourney.

Hill tried to tie Casper when the veteran bogeyed the par-5 18th hole. Hill blasted a drive and iron shots to just off the green, then chipped to three feet from the pin.

His putt attempt for a birdie curled around the cup but failed to drop and Hilf ended with a par.

Casper finished with two-under-par 70 and a 72-hole score of eight-under-par 280. He had won the Speedway Open in 1962 and 1966.

Hill, with 75, and Speedway defending champion Frank Beard, who rallied with 68, tied for second place at 281.

Two oldtimers tuning up for the U.S. Open—Sam Snead, 56, and Dutch Harrison, 58—were in a five-way tie at 282 with Lou Graham, R. H. Sikes and Fred Marti.

Snead shot 73 and Harrison 72 in the final round. Graham had 70, Sikes 71 and Marti 71.

There was a brief service before the start of the final round in memory of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy as part of the national day of mourning.

Tulsa Ready For Grid Franchise

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A Texas Football League franchise in Tulsa has been assured for the upcoming season, league officials announced Sunday.

The Tulsa team is in the process of reorganizing and was given until June 24 to raise funds for its commitment. If Tulsa doesn't raise the amount desired, the league will operate the franchise for the 1968 season.

Victor Ellis, a Tulsa lawyer who is spokesman for the group reorganizing the franchise, said the team had sufficient money to operate for the current year, but they wanted to raise enough to insure operation over a period of years.

Directors of the league said they wanted to keep a franchise in Tulsa, a charter member of the league, and would not seek another city.

Dark Strategy Works For Tribe

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Introducing . . . Alvin Dark's two-catcher offense, a new wrinkle designed to battle the Great Hit Famine of 1968.

Dark used both Duke Sims and Jose Azcue, Cleveland's regular catchers, Sunday against the Detroit Tigers, stationing Azcue behind the plate and Sims in, of all places, left field.

Naturally, it paid off with Sims doubling and scoring on Azcue's single in the fifth inning and then homering in the seventh for the Indians' other run as Luis Tiant blanked the Tigers 2-0 on a four-hitter.

Only three other games were played in the American League Sunday. Washington pounded Minnesota 7-4 and New York swept a doubleheader from California 8-1 and 3-2. Chicago's game at Boston and Oakland's doubleheader at Baltimore were postponed out of respect to the memory of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

In the National League, Los Angeles edged Philadelphia 4-3, Atlanta split a doubleheader with Chicago, winning 4-0 before losing 6-5, St. Louis split with Cincinnati, winning 10-8 and then losing 7-6 in 12 innings, and San Francisco swept the New York Mets 5-4 ad 4-1.

"I decided on Sims in left field because of this ball park," said Dark, who last week employed another catcher, Ken Suarez, at both third base and second base against Chicago.

"I figure if Willie Horton can play left field here, Duke can," Dark continued. "I just told Sims to let (Jose) Cardenal catch all the balls he could reach."

Sims caught two flies and defended his outfielding.

"I can catch fly balls and any ball in my area I'm going to take," he said.

Washington erupted for seven hits and six runs with two out in the fourth inning and whipped the Twins. Pitcher Joe Coleman, who had only two hits all last year, matched that total Sunday and contributed a two-run double to the big rally.

Mike Epstein started the rally with a two-out single and Paul Casanova and Bernie Allen followed with singles. Coleman doubled and Fred Valentine and Ed Stroud singled. After Frank Howard walked, Ken McMullen singled for two more runs.

Harmon Killebrew had a two-run homer for the Twins.

Stan Bahnsen pitched the Yankees to their first game victory over the Angels and then Charlie Smith's pinch single drove in the winning run in the bottom of the ninth of the night-cap, completing the sweep.

Roy White drove in two runs with a pair of early singles and Jake Gibbs' two-run single keyed a five-run Yankee uprising in the sixth inning that wrapped up the opener. Bahnsen won his sixth, although he lost his shutout when the Angels bunched three singles with two out in the ninth.

Some shoddy Yankee fielding cost Steve Barber two runs in the nightcap and the game was tied 2-2 going into the botom of the ninth. Errors by Bobby Cox and Joe Pepitone had set up one run and a dropped throw at first base by Ruben Amaro on an attempted double play allowed the other to score.

But Bill Robinson opened the Yankee ninth with a single and moved up on Cox' sacrifice.

First Sacker Inks Pact

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Larry Mansfield, who was selected by Houston in last week's professional baseball draft, came to terms with the Astros Sunday night.

The 6-foot-8, 240-pound first baseman signed for what is believed one of the largest bonuses ever offered a Class A draft choice. Full terms were not disclosed but the bonus reportedly was in excess of $25,000.

"We think he's a lefthanded Frank Howard," said John Jemison, who signed Mansfield for Houston.

Mansfield, 18, was due to leave Memphis today for the Appalachian Rookie League training camp at Covington, Va.

Mansfield's signing made it official that he will no longer play basketball for the University of Tennessee. As a sophomore this year, he started with the Vols at forward for much of the season.

Facts From Boyle's Mailbag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Cost is one of the numerous factors limiting the number of heart transplant operations. The theoretical price tag on a new heart is about $50000.

No wonder bus seats seem to be getting smaller. It's because people are getting bigger. The average young or middle-aged man today weighs 15 pounds more than his counterpart a generation ago.

If you feel you should reduce, climbing stairs may be your answer. It takes up to 15 times as much energy to climb stairs as it does to stroll on the level.

Remember when one man could push an airplane around? Well, the world's largest aircraft, the Lockheed C-5 Galaxy, has a cargo compartment so large an 8-lane bowling alley could be built in it. Hey, that's not a bad idea, is it?

Did you know that your body is far more intricate than the federal highway program? Inside you are some 100,000 miles of nerve fibers along which messages zip at speeds of 300 miles per hour.

The most famous outdoor clock is probably Big Ben, which keeps the British parliament on time. But the world's largest indoor clock is in New York City's Grand Central Station. It has a 15-foot face and a minute hand seven feet long.

Quotable notables: "If a nation values anything more than freedom, it will lose its freedom —and the irony of it is that if it is comfort or money it values more, it will lose that, too."—W. Somerset Maugham.

Are you looking for a new status symbol? Well, to keep the conversation going, why not serve your guests tea brewed from pomegranate blossoms? It is reported to have mild tonic qualities.

Prosperity note: Foods look better today than ever, and that's one reason why they are so expensive. Out of every $20 you pay for groceries, from $1.50 to $2 goes into the packaging that makes them appear so attractive.

Dumps used to be found at the edges of cities. Now every road has become a dump. Surveys reveal that a typical mile of highway in America the Beautiful yields three cubic feet of trash consisting of 2,665 items ranging from bags of garbage to empty beer cans. It is amazing how few full cans of beer are thrown away.

One of the catch phrases of youth today is, "Don't trust anyone over 30." This brings up a rueful thought: Thomas Jefferson had reached the ripe and presumably untrustworthy age of 33 when he drafted the Declaration of Independence.

Pouring money into a hole: Lester B. Dill, the nation's leading chain cave owner, says the financial problem of caves isn't their overhead but their upkeep. He says he spends $150,000 a year to keep his famed Meramec Caverns in Missouri 'up to date."

Worth remembering: "The best way to kill time is to get busy and work it to death."

Folklore: A necklace of amber beads will help an infant develop good teeth. Bad luck will follow if you disturb a robin's nest. The carrying of a peacock outside a home signals coming death soon to one who dwells therein. People who blush easily tell lies poorly, for blushing is a sign of lying.

Tidbits: Londoners use more shoe polish than New Yorkers. Our word 'golf" comes from a Dutch word, "kolf," which means a club. Americans ate 275,000 tons of strawberries last year. Whatever you do in life don't just stand there—standing still too long may give you varicose veins.

It was the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy who observed "Today as it was in the beginning it is the truth that makes us free. Our future may lie beyond our vision but it is not completely beyond our control."

Africans Plan To Intensify Warfare

By DENNIS LEE ROYLE
Associated Press Writer

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanzania (AP) — Africa's black leaders, frustrated by growing economic and military might in white-ruled southern Africa, plan to intensify guerrilla warfare against what they term "the white cancer on this black continent."

At a recent summit meeting, 14 independent nations urged continuous and relentless attacks on white minority rule by black "freedom fighters."

They envisage a front line extending 2,000 miles from the humid jungles of Angola on the Atlantic seaboard, through arid bushland plains of central Africa to the palm-fringed shores of Mozambique.

Three major African rivers form the demarcation line between Black Africa and the white south.

On Africa's west coast, black guerrilla units have been crossing the wide Congo River for more than seven years, waging war against Portuguese rule in Angola.

More recently in central Africa, terrorists crossed the crocodile-infested Zambesi River from staging camps in Zambia. They are met by tough black and white Rhodesian troops, backed by paramilitary police units from South Africa.

On Africa's eastern seaboard, well trained guerrillas under Africa's foremost revolutionary leader, Dr. Eduardo Mondlane, canoe across the coffee-colored Bavuma River to harass Portuguese troops in Mozambique.

Few significant military or territorial gains have been achieved by black liberation forces.

Their impact is measured by the number of white troops killed, trucks ambushed and roads mined. Their tactics have, however, forced Portugal to spend millions and deploy 80,000 troops in Angola and Mozambique.

The Rhodesian white minority government of Prime Minister Ian Smith is the top target now. Black leaders believe that only by crushing the Rhodesia regime can they eventually come to grips with their most hated enemy—South Africa.

Zambia's President Kenneth Kaunda, whose copper-rich, landlocked country continues to rely on white-ruled Rhodesia for electric power and coal for the copper smelters and a rail outlet for essential exports and imports, wants an early overthrow of the Smith regime.

But liberation movements are riddled with discord. Some draw money and supplies from Red China, others from Russia and Cuba.

Frequent brawls between rival movements often end in bloodshed.

Calling for escalation of guerrilla warfare against the Portuguese, Rhodesians and South African whites, Kaunda said: "Unless the independent African states work in unison for the overthrow of the white regimes, freedom fighters face defeat.

"There is growing military cooperation between the white southern states who are becoming increasingly powerful.

"The liberation war was in full spate, it was a continuous struggle and nothing could stop it. But the liberation forces must be given the unflinching support of all African states if they are to win.

Trowbridge Is Selling Management

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Now almost fully recovered from a heart ailment that forced him to resign his 16-hour-a-day job as secretary of commerce, Alexander Trowbridge, Jr. has embarked on a new career selling professional management.

"I note a tremendous clamor for assistance in management development by city and state governments, by educational institutions and others," said Trowbridge in an interview. "It strikes me as an area of need we can fill to a degree."

Trowbridge, 38, is in his third week as president of the American Management Association, a nonprofit, 54,000-member association of individuals and organizations seeking to discover, develop and apply management techniques.

The task is a bit more formidable than it seems, for a stubborn stereotype stands in the way. For many years, it seems, the word "management" has been identified only with business, and its broader definition as "the organization of human affairs in any endeavor" has been overlooked.

Trowbridge feels that religion, education, the home, medicine, labor, government—name almost any area—can benefit from learning the techniques of long range planning, organizing and carrying out plans to attain objectives.

Although it is not necessary to go outside the business community to find poor management—Wall Street, for example, is smothered in paper—there is little question that a great area of need has arisen in endeavors other than business.

Educators and government officials, for instance, fret about too much administrative detail. Clergymen complain that their daily duties cannot be handled in 24 hours. Taxpayers are angry over inefficiency in city management.

Trowbridge's hope is to find the expertise in these areas and make it available to those who need it, mostly through AMA's usual channels of publications, seminars and classes.

As a result of his plans to broaden the knowledge of management, Trowbridge etimates the AMA will grow swiftly, doubling its $25 million a year income in four or five years, assuming that the high quality of its work can be maintaned.

This also will carry AMA more into foreign fields, where a deep and growing interest in American management methods exists, especially since the opening of the so-called technology gap.

The resulting competition with American firms wouldn't necessarily hurt this country. Instead, it could produce greater commerce among nations, with benfits to all. American business, Trowbridge feels, can take care of itself.

Another area of special concern for the AMA and Trowbridge is the part of private enterprise in the public sector, or solving the problems of educaton and urgan bght and pollution by profit-making methods.

Junior Editors Quiz on MAGNETS

QUESTION: How can one make a magnet?

* * * * *

ANSWER: The magnets you use are generally of the bar or curved type. Magnetism is caused by the arrangement of the tiny iron molecules. A molecule has a different kind of electric pole at each end. In electricity, opposites attract each other; similar poles repel. With an unmagnetized bar, the molecules are all jumbled around. But when magnetized, the molecules snap into neat rows like soldiers, all poles of the same kind pointing the same way. This creates a magnetic force which can reach out beyond the bar and attract an object like an iron nail, which it can pick up. A piece of steel makes a lasting magnet. You can magnetize it by stroking with a bar magnet. Our picture shows another way to make a magnet. Line a metal bar up with a compass so that it lies north and south. Hold the north end on a table and hit the south end with a hammer. The bar becomes a magnet because the molecules have been jarred into position to pull together. The pictures at top show what happens when you put a piece of paper covered with iron filings over two magnets and tap the paper. The filings are rearranged along electric lines of force.

State Republicans Ready For Meet

By JACK KEEVER

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — Texas Republicans mix business and pleasure today on the eve of their state convention, which was expected to endorse Sen. John Tower as a favorite son candidate for president.

Paul Eggers, 49, party candidate for governor, was up early to meet with newsmen before the state Republican Executive Committee went into session.

A decision was expected on a Harris County argument which centered around whether to support Tower all the way at the national convention in Miami Beach, Fla., this August or to switch the delegates' votes after the first ballot.

Tower, the first Texas Republican U.S. senator this century, wants the 56-vote delegation's backing until the delegates decide to throw their support to someone else. He said it will put Texas in a better bargaining position.

At issue in Harris County was which delegates to recognize from senatorial District 11. One group claimed it walked out of the district convention May 11 because it was not treated fairly. The other, favoring a one-ballot pledge to Tower, denied this. The other four Harris County districts endorsed Tower for one ballot only.

The Harris County argument were heard Sunday by the temporary Credentials Committee.

Also Sunday, as about 1,200 delegates began to register for the Tuesday convention, the temporary Resolutions Committee agreed to a resolution honoring Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., who was assassinated last week in Los Angeles.

Jack Cox, Austin businessman and former GOP governor candidate, aid the vote on the Kennedy resolution was unanimous.

FOR NEW NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

French Campaigning Begins

By LOUIS NEVIN
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — France's 13-day election campaign opened officially today with more than 2,000 candidates in the field for the 487 National Assembly seats to be filled June 23 and June 30.

Nominations closed at midnight for the election President Charles de Gaulle says is the most vital in France's history. De Gaulle dissolved the Assembly on May 30 at the height of the worst crisis of social turbulence France has known since World War II.

Although the campaign did not open officially until today, De Gaulle fired the opening gun Friday with a radio-TV appeal to his countrymen to rally around him in defense of the Republic.

"Everything, truly everything, depends on it," he declared. "Everything is at stake."

The president had previously tried to make the central issue of the campaign his regime vs "totalitarian communism." But since then all political leaders outside the Gaullist camp have been hotly disputing this.

The political leader of France's ultrarightists, former Premier Georges Bidault, urged Frenchmen Sunday to vote against both the Communists and the Gaullists.

"The spectacle of present-day events shows that Gaullism is no alternative to communism," Bidault told a news conference after his return from six years in exile.

There was no sign of a break in the strike tying up most of the country's big metallurgical factories although the Peugeot auto plants were to reopen today.

High schools and universities also were still closed by strikes of both students and teachers.

Premier Georges Pompidou warned university students they would have to re-establish relations with his government if they wanted the educational reforms they have deen demanding. The students and the teachers union so far have refused to have anything to do with the government and called for the overthrow of De Gaulle's regime.

Tito Pledges Reforms To Students

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Part of the rebellious student movement at Belgrade University agreed Sunday night to return to classes after President Tito promised them educational, political and economic reforms.

Representatives of the Communist party youth and student organizations joined with leaders of the student action committee in adopting a proposal to return to classes. They had given sufficient guarantees that the students' demands would be carried out.

In an effort to end the weeklong students' strike, the 76-year-old president said students occupying the university had brought up questions that had bothered him.

"This time . . . I will wholeheartedly endeavor for solutions, and students must help me in this," he said. "If I am not able to settle these issues, then I should not remain in my post."

Tito acknowledged that the government and the ruling Communist party were responsible for much of the unrest among the 40,000 striking students.

He said the party will be purged and that efforts would be made to bring greater unity among party leaders.

The president also promised that those responsible for police attacks on the students last week would be punished.

Tito admonished the students, however, to go back to their studies while the government and party worked out a solution.

Late RFK's Driver Beaten, Robbed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lee E. Morrow, personal driver for the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, was beaten and robbed in the early Sunday hours after being on duty for 24 hours with the grieving family.

Police said Morrow, 45, was stopped by seven juveniles a block from his Northeast Washington home. They hit him in the face with a stick and took his wallet, containing 50 cents and three gasoline credit cards in Kennedy's name.

Morrow was not seriously hurt, police said.

The youths fled.

Seadrift Duo Leads Safari

VICTORIA Tex. (AP) — Robert Sanders and Ben Morgan of Seadrift left on another leg of the Texas Water Safari today with a two-hour lead over the closest competition after setting a record pace in the first three days of the race.

Sanders and Morgan took the lead on the first day of the week-long endurance test Saturday at the starting point in San Marcos and rolled into Victoria Sunday afternoon with only 30 hours elapsed time—a record for the San Marcos-Victoria segment.

In second place at the start of today's run were Patrick Oxsheer and Don Dixon of Angleton.

Simple Things Scarce In Soviet Stores

MOSCOW (AP) — Country stores in the Altai region in central Siberia have no shoe laces or hairpins.

Farmers of the region which has about three million inhabitants must go to the cities to buy these and many other simple goods needed for daily life.

Their plight is typical of that of much of the rural population of Russia. That means half the people.

Under the Soviet plan system with its emphasis on quantity factories prefer to deal with the bigger outlets in the urban centers.

A poll taken in the Altai village of Grishino showed that people most wanted little but indispensable things like spoons, forks, glasses, metal cups, buckets and basins.

Commenting on the situation one official in the Altai retail trade organization said "If you'd like to get a big welcome in any village in this region just take along 10 or 20 hairpins."

The organization which distributes to the country stores cannot get orders filled that would end the shortages.

It asked for 1.9 million aluminum spoons—and received half a million less than that. The orders for forks and glasses were cut in half. Bread knives arrived but 30,000 not the 210,000 asked for.

The Moscow Institute on Consumer Demand after a study of 16 regions reported 70 per cent of all farmers questioned said they had to go to cities to shop.

There is no such thing in this country as a mail order firm that would ease the lot of the rural consumer.

The newspaper Komsomololskaya Pravda said there is an "unsatisfied demand" in the Soviet countryside.

"Wouldn't it be simpler to send the goods to the villages instead of making the villagers go to the cities?" The Communist youth paper asked.

Sun Kings Gain Fast

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If the Albuquerque Dodgers were to look over their shoulder, they'd see the El Paso Sun Kings kicking up a cloud of dust and gaining fast.

A week ago, the Dodgers were perched atop the western division standings in the Texas League with a comfortable three-game lead over El Paso.

But that was before a six-game losing streak and the current four-game series with the Sun Kings, in which the Texans have taken a 2-1 lead with a 7-6 victory Sunday night.

If El Paso wins the finale tonight, they'll move into a tie for the lead.

In other games Sunday, Amarillo swept a doubleheader from San Antonio, 4-1 and 2-1 Arkansas nipped Memphis 5-4 and Shreveport blanked Dallas-Fort Worth 4-0.

Catcher John Olerud provided the winning push for El Paso swatting a wind-blown two-run home run in the ninth inning to pull the Sun Kings from a one-run deficit.

LAST OF THE KENNEDY BROTHERS

Edward Now Stands Alone

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Still so young to have come so far to have grieved so much Edward M. Kennedy stands alone—the last of the Kennedy brothers.

Six years in which triumph and tragedy have followed one another in terribly swift succession have thrust him at 36 into leadership of a fabled political family.

A family with a quest that by its logic he must take up.

His brother John was a senator from Massachusetts when he expressed it.

"Just as I went into politics because Joe died, if anything happened to me tomorrow, my brother, Bobby, would run for my seat in the Senate and if Bobby died, Teddy would take over for him."

So it was that while many still mourned Robert, eyes and thoughts turned to Edward.

While the nation watched him rise to his new role—comforting the widow, delivering a moving tribute to his brother, greeting the crowds that gathered along the route of the funeral train—many wondered when and how he would take up the quest.

But in New Orleans Sunday, Archbishop Philip M. Hannan, who presided at graveside ceremonies for Robert, said in an interview that close friends of the Kennedy family are urging Edward to withdraw from political life.

The prelate told the New Orleans Times-Picayune that one consideration is that Edward is the only adult son in a large family which now has many fatherless children.

But he added that he could not predict what the last Kennedy brother's decision will be.

"Teddy now has an assuredness and a sense of mission that he could not have had before the tragedies," Archbishop Hannan said.

Young Teddy Kennedy, the handsome youth in a hurry to join his brothers in Washington, is gone forever.

It was March 1962. Teddy had just turned 30, minimum age for U.S. senators. The youngest of the three surviving sons of financier Joseph P. Kennedy announced his Senate candidacy.

"If your name was simply Edward Moore," his primary election opponent taunted, "instead of Edward Moore Kennedy, your candidacy would be a joke."

But his name was Kennedy. And he had a glorious smile and an easy manner that reinforced the magic of his name and made victory seem easy.

"The best politician in the family," brother John called him.

Teddy Is Urged To Leave Politics

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Close friends of the Kennedy family are urging the last living brother Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., to withdraw from active political life, the archbishop of New Orleans said Sunday.

Archbishop Philip M. Hannan who presided at graveside services for assassinated Sen. Robert F. Kennedy in Arlington National Cemetery Saturday night said the natural reaction of the family and friends has been to discourage Ted Kennedy from pursuing his career.

To be considered said the prelate is that the Massachusetts senator is the only adult son in a large family which now has many fatherless children.

But he added "We must all bear in mind that Ted is the final legatee of a great American political tradition."

Archbishop Hannan who also played an important role in the funeral of assassinated President John F. Kennedy in 1963 said he could not predict what the last Kennedy brother's decision will be.

"Teddy now has an assuredness and a sense of mission that he could not have had before the tragedies" the churchman said.

Management Mum On Absence

HOUSTON (AP) — Management for the Houston Astros remained silent today on possible action against Rusty Staub and Bob Aspromonte, who skipped Sunday's game with Pittsburgh to honor the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

"I haven't made any decision," said General Manager H. B. "Spec" Richardson. "Anything that happens will be between the ball players and myself."

Maury Wills, player representative for the Pirates, also was absent from the game, which Pittsburgh won 3-1.

Aspromonte said he spent two hours in church during the morning, then returned to his apartment.

"I had definite strong convictions about it," he said. "This was a day of national mourning set aside by the President for a family that has done so much for this country."

Astros' player representative Dave Guisti said the team had voted on a third ballot to play only because of "very definite economic pressures from General Manager Spec Richardson."

"They were extremely stiff," Guisti said of the possible fines. "The boys said they didn't wish to reveal what it was. It was very, very steep."

When Richardson was asked about a reported $3,000 fine to absent players, he replied "That's not my comment."

The Astros voted twice not to play Sunday before changing their minds on a third poll after Saturday's game.

"I met Robert Kennedy and his family as my state senator in New York," said Aspromonte, who lived in Brooklyn. "This was two and a half years ago at the baseball writers' banquet.

Negro Is Named Superintendent

LAKE JUNALUSKA, N.C. (AP) — The Rev. James C. Peters, a Negro, has been named superintendent of the predominantly white Winston-Salem-Forsyth District of the United Methodist Church.

The appointment of Peters, 43, of Greensboro, was announced Sunday by Bishop Earl Hunt Jr. along with other assignments for ministers of the Western North Carolina Conference.

Charge Is Filed

Barbara Thomason, 19-year-old housewife was assaulted at her home 1910 Coleman at 5:45 p.m. Sunday, according to City Police who apprehended an 18-year-old female suspect.

She was charged in Corporation Court with simple assault and bond was set at $100.
