Plans To Open Coastal Strike Sept. 2 Made

Union Demanding One 24-Hour Day Off Each Week

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23. — CIO longshoremen called another 24-hour waterfront work stoppage today and went ahead with firm plans for a coastwide strike on Sept. 2.

The International Longshoremen's And Warehousemen's union announced that 75 delegates from Pacific coast ports had concluded a caucus in San Francisco and were returning to their home ports "to speed preparations" for the coastal walkout.

The CIO said delegates voted to demand one full, 24-hour day off each week at San Francisco, Los Angeles, Long Beach, Portland and Seattle. They want the day off to be uniform, with Sunday preferred.

Members Will Take Off

Longshoremen say they are knocking off in San Francisco from 6 p. m. tomorrow until 6 p. m. Wednesday so members of the union can attend a meeting called to discuss the deadlocked maritime labor dispute.

Employers say the layoff was intended "to demoralize the waterfront," and that its timing—with two large passenger ships due to be handled—was "no coincidence."

There was a similar layoff last Wednesday, work being interrupted for 14 hours while the union had a meeting.

This week's work stoppage is scheduled for only four hours Wednesday. But the union says that crews which normally would work Tuesday night are laying off to "get their sleep."

Ships To Be Serviced

James Kearney, spokesman for the longshore union, said emergency gangs would service two large passenger ships which are docking or sailing during the 24-hour layoff period.

The American President liner President Cleveland will dock at 6 a. m, Wednesday. Matson's Lurline is due to sail at 5 p. m. Wednesday. American President Lines said it had been assured mail and baggage would be handled on the Cleveland.

Frank P. Foise, of the Waterfront Employers association, said the union layoff for contract discussion was completely unnecessary. He argued that other unions hold separate meetings for different shifts, and keep on working.

Foise also criticized the decision of the longshoremen, revealed

Five Burglary Reports Made

Five reported burglaries topped investigations over a weekend that also produced charges of thefts, liquor law violations, gambling, disturbance, and drunk driving.

The sheriff's department arrested one man, A. J. Smelly, 31, of Myrtle drive, who was charged this morning with the Aug. 20 burglary of farm property of L. A. Howard, a Lubbock attorney.

Bond of $1,000 was set by D. W. Robertson, justice of peace, binding the man over to grand jury investigation.

Another Questioned

Another man, 21, was being questioned in connection with the same offense, but had not been charged.

Other burglaries:

Fortenberry-Gammill Tire Co., of 1219 Ave. H, was checking late this morning to determine exactly what loss it had suffered after burglars had forced a rear window, had entered and pried open a safe. Checks and money were taken. Money taken was $113.58. Some checks were removed, but more than $400 worth was left, company officials said.

15 Violent Deaths Reported In Texas

Accident South Of Canyon Sunday Fatal To Tulia Man; Wife Seriously Injured

(By The Associated Press)

At least 15 persons died violently in Texas over the weekend.

A man was killed instantly and his wife seriously injured when their car overturned four miles south of Canyon Sunday.

The victim was C. O. Turner, 24, of Tulia. His wife was taken to a hospital at Amarillo.

Alex Brooks, 20, negro, was fatally shot in a cafe at Dallas Saturday night by a woman employe of the place.

The sheriff's office said Brooks pulled a gun on the woman when she refused to serve him. The woman reached for a gun under the counter and shot him, officers said.

A negro pilot identified as Leroy Preston Tolden, 24, Texas City, was killed Sunday when a cabin monoplane crashed into a rice field near Beaumont.

The body of Elmer A. Blocker of Fort Worth was recovered from Eagle Mountain lake early Sunday. Blocker was believed to have fallen from a boat about 8 p. m. Saturday night.

Antonio Villareal, 54, died in a local hospital three hours after being struck by an automobile on a Houston street.

Mrs. Daisy Marks, 61, banker, died of injuries suffered in an automobile-train collision a week earlier near Houston.

Hulian Barrilleaux, 17, was pronounced dead upon arrival at a Houston hospital after the motorcycle he was riding plunged into a ditch.

The body of a 65-year-old man identified as Ben M. Fussell, Houston restaurant owner, was found in Buffalo bayou Sunday.

A coroner's verdict of accidental death was returned in the case of Dewey F. Larry, 49, Houston pipefitter and construction worker.

DEMO LEADER RAPS REPUBLICANS

GOP Charged With Planning New Tax

(By The United Press)

Democratic campaign headquarters charged today that Republicans plan to push through a federal sales tax if they retain control of Congress in the November elections.

Republican tax leaders were not immediately available for comment.

Democratic national chairman J. Howard McGrath said in a statement that the "lavish" income tax reduction voted by the GOP 80th was "forcing" the government to operate in the red. And, he said, Republicans who sponsored the cut are thinking of a sales tax to get more revenue.

Congressman Named

"They are not likely to insult their rich campaign contributors by suggesting the raising of income taxes," McGrath said. He named chairman Harold Knutson, R., Minn., of the House ways and means committee as one who was thinking of a federal sales tax.

McGrath issued his statement in Washington as President Truman and his Republican rival for the presidency, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, continued work on speeches for their election campaigns, slated to get under way in earnest next month.

Dewey and his aides were conferring at the governor's farm at Pawling, N. Y., on a schedule that calls for about twice as many speeches as Dewey delivered in the 1944 campaign. His 1948 running mate, Gov. Earl Warren of California, will be equally active in the campaigning.

Both Dewey and Warren, it was understood, are confident about

Stalin Joins Parley Staged At Kremlin

MOSCOW, Aug. 23 (U.P.)—Premier Josef Stalin met with envoys of the United States, Britain and France tonight in what appeared to be the climactic meeting of a series seeking to end the East-West cold war in Germany.

The conference, sixth in a series which began late last month, opened at the Kremlin at 9 p. m. (2 p. m. EDT), and less than an hour later speculation that Stalin was attending was confirmed by an official announcement.

Also present for Russia was Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, who has conducted most of the negotiations. U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith, special British Envoy Frank Roberts, and French Ambassador Yves Chataigneau represented the western powers.

Mother, Daughter To Start Radio Series

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and her daughter, Mrs. John Boettiger, will start a series of 15-minute radio discussions over the ABC network on Oct. 4.

The program, tentatively entitled "Eleanor And Anna Roosevelt," will be heard five afternoons a week. The time will be announced later.

ABC, which announced yesterday that contracts had been signed, said the President's widow and the former Anna Roosevelt will discuss national and world events of particular interest to women.

Children, 11, 8, 4 Try To Crack Safe

CINCINNATI, Aug. 23 (AP)—Two little girls and an eight-year-old boy were caught by police last night attempting to crack a safe in an automobiles sales company office.

Motorcycle Patrolman Albert Thiele said he found the children pounding the safe with a hammer and axe.

The oldest of the trio was an 11-year-old girl. Assisting her were an eight-year-old boy and a four-year-old girl.

The children had knocked off two combination knobs when Thiele arrived. They were turned over to juvenile court.

Three Sailors Dead In Fire

GUAM, Aug. 23. (AP)—Three sailors were listed today as killed and a fourth missing in a spectacular fire and series of explosions at a navy gasoline tank farm Sunday.

The blaze was attributed unofficially to sparks from a jeep entering the area to rescue several men overcome by fumes from an over-flowed gasoline tank. The fire broke out about 1:15 a. m. and raged more than five hours.

Casualties Announced

The navy in Washington announced these casualties: Killed, Seaman Fondley P. Hansen, Garfield, Utah, and Chief Engineman David S. Moon, Portland, Me.; seriously burned, Seaman William W. Foster, Brooklyn, N. Y. Other names were withheld temporarily.

Thousands of spectators were attracted by the explosions and towering flames. The scene was five miles from Apra, Guam's principal town.

Two of those dead were chief petty officers, one of whom perished in a vain attempt to rescue the missing man.

28 Dead, 24 Injured In Philippine Clash

MANILA, Aug. 23 (AP)—A dispatch to the Manila Times tonight said that 28 Hukbalahaps were killed and 24 wounded in a two hour clash with Philippine constabulary units in Pampanga province.

The clash took place about 60 miles north of Manila yesterday.

The armed peasant commander the dispatch said, escaped leaving behind a quantity of Communist pamphlets and firearms in his field headquarters.

Women Held In Poison Deaths

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Aug. 23 (U.P.)—A stooped, 72-year-old grandmother and her daughter were held today for the poison-buttermilk slayings of the younger woman's husband and a family friend.

Warren County Attorney William H. Natcher said the poisonings were the results of a long standing dispute between the husband, a well-to-do farmer, and his aged mother-in-law who had lived in the home for 16 years.

Natcher accused the women of putting strychnine in the buttermilk which the husband, Allie Lee, 42, and a neighbor, James S. Croslin, 52, drank at a family dinner on Aug. 14. Natcher said the two youngest of the Lees' four children were present. The men died several hours after the meal.

Victim Feared Poisoning

The grandmother, Mrs. Kate Goad, and her daughter, Mrs. Katharine Lee, 34, were held without bond for arraignment tomorrow on murder charges.

Lee's 17-year-old son, Bruce, told Natcher that his father had feared being poisoned for some time and would not begin eating until other members of the family had started. On the night of their deaths, however, Lee and Croslin drank buttermilk while the rest of the family drank sweet milk, Natcher said.

The feud between the grandmother and her son-in-law began many months ago, Natcher said, when the tiny, elderly woman sided with her daughter in a family dispute over the attentions another man was paying Mrs. Lee.

Explosion Of Plane In Air Is Reported

NEW YORK, Aug. 23. (AP)—The Coast Guard said today it had dispatched two planes from Floyd Bennett field after receiving reports that a plane had exploded in the air four miles south of Quoue, Long Island, N. Y.

The Coast Guard said the information first was relayed by a civilian to the Moriches, Long Island, Coast Guard base and had been confirmed by police near the scene of the reported accident.

There was no information on what type of plane was said to have exploded.

Body Of Solon Is Sought By Diver; Others Recovered

(By The United Press)

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Aug. 23.—Draggers aided by a diver today sought the body of Oregon Legilsator John Snellstrom who was killed with three other state Republican leaders in a plane crash yesterday.

Authorities already had recovered the bodies of State Legislator Earle Johnson, Corvallis, Ore.; GOP nominee for the House H. H. Evans, Lincoln county, and William H. Fluhrer, candidate for the state Senate from Medford, Ore.

The men died when their Beechcraft Bonanza, piloted by Fluhrer, faltered on a take-off. The plane stalled and dived into shallow Lake of the Woods, 35 miles northeast of here.

Similar Accident Cited

Their deaths brought to seven the number of Republican leaders killed in Oregon plane crashes with the the past 10 months. Last Oct. 15, Oregon Gov. Earl Snell, secretary of State Robert S. Farrell, jr., and Senate President Marshall Cornett died with their pilot in a crash of the same type plane 140 miles from here.

The four killed yesterday had come here to Fluhrer's lakeside home with two other politicians, Reps. Frank Van Dyke, Medford, and Douglas Yeator, Salem, for a weekend conference to map campaign strategy.

Van Dyke and Yeator said the party of six boated from the house to an airfield at the lake's north end where the four went up "for a ride."

Woman Dies Trying To Enter Her Home

SHARTLESVILLE, Pa., Aug. 23 (AP)—A young mother attempting to enter her home through a cellar window after forgetting her key was strangled to death when her neck was caught between the window sill and frame, Deputy Coroner Peter Ricker reported.

State Police Corp. Irvin I. Rothermel said Mrs. Gladys Marie Strickller, 22, apparently was crawling into the cellar when the window dropped on the back of her neck, pinning her against the sill.

Dr. John Baer said the young woman apparently hung by the neck for 45 minutes until her body was found by Allent Hartman who was attracted to the scene by the cries of Mrs. Strickler's six-month-old child.

Body Found After Blast At Midland

MIDLAND, Aug. 23. (AP)—The partly nude body of a woman was found in a tourist court apartment heretoday following an explosion which lifted the roof from the building.

Police Chief Jack Ellington tentatively identified the woman as Mrs. J. A. (Joyce) Rawlings of Wilmington, Calif.

The body was aflame when attendants at the court kicked in the apartment door and found it on the floor, the head near an open gas cock.

A handwritten note on a shoebox containing personal belongings said "please send everything to Dorris. I hope you are happier now."

Abilene Gives Aid To Family After Series Of Misfortunes

(By The Associated Press)

ABILENE, Aug. 23.—"It seems a load almost too heavy for one man to carry."

Those were the words of H. M. Tabor, 41-year-old unemployed laborer, yesterday as the people of Abileen tried by their generosity to make up for a series of misfortunes experienced by Tabor.

Saturday night flames destroyed the Tabor home and everything in it. Only two days before his wife, Mrs. Helen Tabor, 36, died in Hendrick Memorial hosptial. This left five montherless children.

After news of Tabor's ill luck appeared in Sunday's Abilene reporter news, radio station KWKC launched a campaign to help the family. By Sunday afternoon Abilene citizens were pouring gifts of clothing, food and money upon the family. Several individuals started one-man campaigns of their own. Churches took up special collections. One man reported he had collected about $200 and intended to outfit the youngest

Tension In Berlin Eased But Border Like Armed Camp

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Aug. 23.—The Russians released today three U. S. military government officials they had seized in blockaded Berlin and in southern Germany.

The British in turn set free Franz Erdmann, head of the criminal division of the Russian-controlled eastern Berlin police. He was arrested at a boxing match Sunday and accused of abduction of western Berlin police and "presumption of authority," charges that still will stand.

Tension Is Eased

While tension was eased a little by the cross-zone deliveries, Russian soldiers crossed into the American sector of Berlin and arrested a German photographer. He was the tenth German seized since Thursday by the Russians and their German police either in the western parts of Berlin or along the border.

The Americans released today were:

Thomas P. Headen, deputy head of the American military government information services division in Berlin. He was abducted yesterday in Potsdamer Platz, where the Russian, American and British zones meet. It was not clear whether he had stepped across the vague boundary.

Seized 18 Days Ago

Lt. Sherman Turner of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Roland Myers of Brooklyn, American military government officers who were seized 18 days ago while on a border inspection. They had crossed into the Russian zone at Mellrichstadt, 75 miles from Frankfurt, apparently by mistake. The Russians tried without success to force Turner and Myers to sign a receipt saying they entered the Russian zone of Germany "without authority" and took illegal pictures of the border.

Headquarters of the western sector German police announced Russian soldiers invaded the American sector of Berlin again to seize the German photographer.

This was at least the fourth reported violation of the western sector police jurisdiction in central Berlin since the state of civil war between rival East and West police forces began last Thursday with a riot in the no-man's land of Potsdamer Platz.

Air Arm Gets More Control

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (U.P.)—The Air Force was given greater control over strategic air warfare at the conference of the joint chiefs of staff at Newport, R. I., Defense Secretary James Forrestal announced today.

The joint chiefs of staff gave the Air Force the authority to decide what weapons it needs to carry out strategic air warfare.

This decision apparently gave the Air Force the right to decide whether the Navy's new 65,000-ton carrier shall be built in quantity and used for strategic bombing.

Meeting Is Secret

But the joint chiefs also decided that the Air Force must take into account "the contributions which may be made by forces from other services."

The joint chiefs of staff met in secrecy at the war college at Newport over the weekend.

The 65,000 ton carrier is considered by many experts to be a major contribution to strategic air warfare. Until bombers capable of flying from here to another continent and returning can be produced, Navy experts believe the 65,000-ton carrier may prove the best method of carrying atom bomb attacks to the heart of an enemy's homeland.

Cotton Ginned This Year 544,406 Bales

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—The census bureau reported today that 544,406 bales of 1948-crop cotton were ginned prior to Aug. 16. Round bales were counted as half bales.

This number compares with 324,110 ginned to the same date last year and 285,222 two years ago.

The ginnings by states this year and last, respectively, included:

Alabama 3,713 and 795; Florida 1,112 and 144; Georgia 5,974 and 2,373; Louisiana 42,965 and 5,274; South Carolina 2,366 and 72; Texas 488,154 and 277,573 and all other states 122 and 2,627.

Luxuries Are "Out" For Average Family

American Housewife Can Barely Stretch Hubby's Paycheck To Buy Necessities

(By The United Press)

The average American housewife can barely stretch her husband's paycheck to pay for food, clothing and housing and usually must dip into the family's savings for any extras, a United Press survey indicated today.

Housewives in cities across the country said they had to trim their budgets of every luxury under today's inflated prices.

A choice steak, a fancy dessert, or an extra suit for dad means they must sell a bond saved during the war or watch that much money checked out of their bank book.

They said the recent wave of buyers' strikes hadn't helped the situation but they were still hopeful that retailers would be forced to mark prices down to hold their business.

The answers given by the women indicated that it doesn't make much difference whether their husbands drive a truck, heave a shovel, or push a pencil. If they are in the moderate income group or below the going is rough.

The Commerce department reported from Washington that prices are getting higher faster. It said the area of soaring prices has broadened and the "pace of the advance has quickened."

And most of the women said the situation is getting worse as the squeeze between income and prices increase.

Some said they were at wit's end

Sailboat Swamped By Sea Off Hawaii

HONOLULU, Aug. 23. (AP)—Richard A. Dole, 40, scion of Hawaii's pineapple pioneer, and three yachting compaions were saved and a fourth was drowned as their 22-foot sailboat was swamped by heavy seas off Diamond Head yesterday.

Mrs. Kathleen Burkhalter, 24, of Tuscaloosa, Ala. and San Diego, Calif., died within a few feet of the shore after Samuel Gilbert, jr., a University of Southern California student, pulled her two miles through the heavy seas.

Dole and Mrs. Marie Akers, 25, of Medina, Wash., both near exhaustion, were fished out of the water by the crew of the yacht Mokuola which was captained by Coast Guard Commander Arthur K. Powlison, Mrs. Barbara Steffee, 25, fifth member of the Dole yachting party, swam to shore.

Woman Fought Rescuer

Mrs. Burkhalter could not swim well. Gilbert, a former life guard, reached her and set out toward the beach. Gilbert said the surf smashed them onto a reef and he was injured.

As Gilbert and Mrs. Burkhalter reached quieter waters inside the reef, swimmers sighted them and drove their surfboards toward the pair.

"All at once," Gilbert said, "she turned purple and collapsed. She fought me all of the way. I guess she swallowed too much water."

After the sloop sank, Mrs. Akers decided she was too exhausted to try to reach shore and Dole said he decided to remain with her. Both merely tried to keep afloat, meanwhile drifting farther from shore.

Powlison reached the area in the Mokuola, which was taking 20 sailors on a Coast Guard auxiliary training cruise.

Shout Revives Swimmer

"We all heard a faint cry for help," Powlison said. "Nearly under our bow were two persons, struggling weakly to keep afloat. We missed them on our first pick-up attempt. The boys wanted to

Texas Sizzles Again In Heat

(By The Associated Press)

Texans braced themselves against the heat again today. There still was no sign of relief.

Heat records were being set as the prolonged torrid spell forced bans on lawn sprinkling, closing of swimming pools, and seared crops.

San Antonio's 102 yesterday marked the 16th day in August during which the temperature reached 100 or more, setting a local record. The 102 reading also set a new San Antonio record in that it was the 32nd day of 1948 in which the thermometer climbed to 100 or higher.

The weather bureau said the heat will continue at least through tomorrow, with scattered relief from widely scattered thundershowers on the upper coast and in the Panhandle and El Paso area.

A localized small twister yesterday struck the home of L. H. Haecker on Salado road near San Antonio, damaging the roof and overturning furniture. Haecker said it sounded "like a freight train going by."

With the exception of some coast points and high-altitude points in the west and Panhandle, all of Texas sweltered in 100 or 100 plus temperatures yesterday.

High readings were 106 at Corsicana and 105 at Mineral Wells and Wichita Falls.

Other sizzlers: Waco 104; Fort Worth, Dallas, Austin, San Antonio, Lufkin, Crystal City, and Abilene 103; Childress and Laredo 102.

Interpretation Of "Cussword" Causes Man To Be Fined

The employer of a hard-working church-going Mexican expressed amazement when he found his employe in city jail this morning.

His 35-year-old employe was under a disturbance charge. He had struck another man with his fist.

"I can't understand it," the employer told City Recorder J. Solon Lea. "He asked to get off early so he could go to church. He's never been in any trouble before."

The defendant was brought out of jail to explain.

"Thees other boy he cuss me," he said.

"What did he call you?"

"He call me Vitamin. I ask heem does he mean it, and he say sure I meant it. Then I heet heem."

"Well, what's so bad about that?" Lea asked.

The Mexican shrugged. "I no like be cuss."

A minimum fine was assessed, and Lea suggested that the defendant familiarize himself more with what is a cuss word, at least what isn't cursing."

Brownfield Defeated By Slaton 15 To 6

SLATON, Aug. 23. (Special)—Slaton cinched a place in the Oil Belt league Shaughnessy playoff by walloping Brownfield here Sunday afternoon 15 to 6.

Each team recorded as many hits as runs, but Slaton "outbooted" the visitors, making eight miscues to Brownfield's four. J. Gray, Slaton second baseman, drove the first ball pitched in the home half of the first inning out of the park for a homer. Clarence Tillery, centerfield, and Catcher Dill, of Slaton club, each lashed our four doubles.

Irish Curt Wilson, on the mound for Slaton, struck out 13 batters, and scored his fifth win of the season.

Score by innings:

School Enrollments To Hit New Record

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—School and college enrollment will soar to a new record of nearly 32,000,000 this fall, despite another drop in the number of veterans on campus.

The office of education, reporting this today, said grammar schools will enroll 22,797,000 students, high schools 6,270,000 and colleges 2,500,000.

All of the increase, estimated at 760,000, will occur in the grammar and high schools.

Ex-GI's, who represented 53 percent of the college enrollment two years ago and 48 percent last year are expected to account for only 45 percent this year. Non-veterans, however, will take the places of the 100,000 or so veterans leaving school.

Various phases of service to war veterans, and correlation of such service with the VA were under discussion. A short introductory talk on purpose of the school, and a pledge of full VA cooperation, was given by Robert W. Sisson, manager of the VA regional office.

Landmark At Troup Destroyed By Fire

TROUP, Aug. 23 (AP)—One of Troup's landmarks lay in ruins today.

The Bridges hotel, a two-story frame structure, was destroyed by fire last night. Damage was estimated at $25,000 by Mrs. Pearl Bridges, owner of the 25-room hotel.

Origin of the fire was not known.

Occupants escaped without injuries. Some lost belongings in the blaze.

F. P. Johnson, a Tyler fireman, was overcome by smoke and flames. He was returned to Tyler, where he was placed in an oxygen tent.

Troup is in Smith county, approximately 18 miles southeast of Tyler.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Elderly Man In Good Health And Twice Wed Is Troubled Because Daughter Snubs His Wife

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am an elderly man in good health and twice married. I had four children by my first wife, with whom I lived in harmony for over 40 years. She died suddenly from a stroke a few years ago.

Thereafter I lived alone for about three years. Then I met Ellen, a very nice woman a few years young than I, with whom I fell in love. She returned my affection and we were married after a few months' courtship.

My children are living in other cities and I visit them occasionally and they visit me; with the exception of Alice, one of the daughters, who is opposed to my second marriage. She says that my wife shall never set foot in her house.

DAUGHTER'S DEAF TO HIS PLEADING

THIS makes me feel bad, of course, and I have tried to explain to Alice that I was lonely and needed a companion, and that I shall never forget her mother and the happy years we spent together, and the love and devotion she gave to me and the children, but that she is gone and there is no way to bring her back.

I feel sure that if Alice were to get acquainted with my second wife that she would love her, as she is a wonderful woman and we get along fine. How can I induce Alice to change her attitude? Thank you in advance for your kindness in answering.

Signed T. M.

DAUGHTER PROJECTS HER MALADJUSTMENT

DEAR T. M.: The old saying "Misery loves company," applies to Alice. Whether she is a spinster or a wife, she is a maladjusted, vengefully unhappy woman who involuntarily feels envious and slighted whenever anybody in her environment or repertory of affiliates discovers some new paen of contentment, some new joy in life.

She is the sort who feels somewhat better when she can think of others, intimately known, who seem in worse plight emotionally than herself—more dejected, aimless and dispossessed of hope. And I daresay that after you became a widower and were living alone for three years, she felt a morbidly gratifying closeness to you, across the miles.

Figuratively speaking, and quite innocently, you broke this connection and left her smarting with neurotic affront when you married Ellen, a wonderful woman, and entered on a fortunate companionship blessed by the approval of the majority.

Her subjective reaction, childishly illogical, was to feel that you were achieving a second helping of happiness in relation to Ellen at the expense of making her (Alice) peculiarly miserable, let down, left out, you might say, and her reflex way of vociferating the muddled outrage churning in her bosom was to refuse to receive Ellen.

SHE IS AIRING CHILDISH RANCOR

THIS SENSELESS thrust had the secondary unconscious aim of hurting both of you, for the purpose of forcing herself on your attention, and though she presents herself as a person with a grievance not to be appeased, basically she is courting a dither of mortified solicitude from you.

It strikes me that Alice is the victim of chronic hostility toward family, which suggests that in childhood she may have suffered convictions of "rejection," and possibly she was a "middle" child who never received the special display of doting homage usually accorded the firstborn, or the eldest son, or the "baby" of a brood.

Indeed, her spite attack or Ellen may embody camouflaged hatred of her own mother; but be that at it may, my advice is to kindly ignore and live above her spoilsport performance, because it's not in your power to straighten out her neurotic kinks at this late date. That's her problem. M. H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of The Lubbock Evening Journal.

SHIPYARD MACHINIST WAS SCARED TO EAT; NOW HAILS RETONGA

Suffered Agonies From Sour Stomach, Loss of Appetite and Strength. Now Eats Heartily Without Fear, Feels Fine and Much Stronger.

"At any price, the relief Retonga brought me would have been more than worth it," declares Mr. James J Wiltzen, respected resident of 202 Saint manuel St. Mobile, Ala. A skilled machinist for 40 years, Mr. Wiltzen has worked in the shipyards for the past several years. He gratefully describes his experience with Retonga:

"For about two years I sufferred from sour stomach and acid indigestion after nearly every meal, no matter what I ate. And I got to where I was scared to eat, I feared the distress afterwards so much. Gas always seemed to fill my stomach and press up against my chest with such force that at times I would double up in pain. I rolled and tossed at night and hardly ever slept soundly. My energy and strength all but left me.

"The relief Retonga brought me was truly great. I now enjoy eating and my food never seems to cause gas or bloating in my stomach, and I never worry about acid indigestion. I've regained much of my strength and energy, sleep good at night, no longer rely on strong laxatives, and just feel fine. Everyone suffering as I did ought to try Retonga."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. If the first bottle fails to give you gratifying relief, your money will be cheerfully refunded. You can get eRtonga at all good drug stores, including Walgreen Drug Store. Adv.

Nancy Stiles, Bride-Elect, Is Honored At Gift Party

A backyard party given Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the F. L. McKee home, 2424 Twenty-second, was another courtesy for Miss Nancy Stiles, who is to marry Cecil Lang. Mrs. H. F. Yant was assistant hostess with Mrs. McRee.

A shower of kitchen articles was presented to the bride-elect.

The refreshment table was spread with a pink checked, full flounced gingham cloth and centered with an arrangement of heliotrope althea. Miss Shirley McRee presided and punch and cake squares iced with the name "Nancy," were served by Misses Rossi Ann Stiles, Margaret Ann Garlan, Mary Duggan, Deborah Decker, Billie Ruth Yant and Jean McRee.

Forty guests called or sent gifts.

Miss Norfleet Is Bride Of Russell Herrington

PLAINVIEW, Aug. 23. (Special)—In a double ring ceremony read Saturday, Aug. 14, at Plainview First Christian church, Miss Mary Hope Norfleet and Douglas C Herrington exchanged marriage vows. The bride, who was attended by Mrs. Russell Herrington, wore a light blue wool crepe suit with black and gold accessories and carried a small white Bible topped with Talisman rosebuds showered with white satin ribbons.

Mr. Herrington served his brother as best man.

After a trip to Colorado, the couple is at home in Levelland. The bride, a graduate of Olton High school and Texas Technological college, is head of the homemaking department at Sundown High school. Mr. Herrington, a graduate of Chickasha, Okla., High school, is a veteran of World War II. He works for the Livermore Oil company in Sundown.

Hubbers And Oilers Play Here Tonight

Between . . . The Lines

—— By JOE KELLY ——

The current issue of Sport magazine carries an article on Babe Ruth, written before his death, that does nothing to add to his memory. We scanned it hurriedly Saturday night and were left with the impression that the writer had dug up some of the old copies of other men's stories, added a few of his own impressions and a touch of an interview with the Babe. It was as disappointing as was Time's last minute story, which obviously made the issue just before deadline time. On the otherhand, Bob Considine's current six article series is much more human, more revealing, while making no attempt to gild the lily.

The Hubbers haven't had a bad road trip, despite losses to Clovis, Albuquerque and Pampa. They won three and lost three, which is, .500 away from home. That's not quite the pace they had been going since they lost three games to Abilene July 24, 25 and 26. After that bad series, the Hubbers began to win and kept up a pace that saw them taking an average of five out of seven. Perhaps, as they come home tonight, they can renew that pace. They are not far behind either Pampa or Amarillo and with a sustained drive in their final 16 games, could easily move up to second place.

Ron Bowen, the first baseman and sparkplug of the Albuquerque Dukes has been sold to the Dallas Rebels for 1949 delivery. The likeable Bowen has been consistently outstanding at the initial sack this year and his sale is his reward for a job well done. According to the latest averages in the West Texas-New Mexico League, Bowen is tied with Bob Crues of Amarillo for the greatest number of hits, 191. He's pounding the ball at a .358 clip, including 45 doubles, nine triples and 23 home runs. He's also driven in 141 runs, while scoring 121.

The Hubbers have signed contracts with the New York Giants and the Cleveland Indians for them to play another exhibition game here next spring. The date, already agreed upon, will be April 5, four days earlier than it was this year. Mrs. Sam Rosenthal is pleased to announce that these two teams will be here again and their return only underlines their treatment here. Both clubs expressed amazement at Rosenthal Field, while praising Lubbock. It means that we will have another chance to see Bobby Feller, Hank Greenberg, Sheldon Jones and, of course, barring unforeseen accidents, the one and only Leo "Lippy" Durocher—if you want him.

J. D. Jenkins and Jimmy Wilson of Lubbock were fishing last week in the Yellowhouse river. Jenkins had a fly and was fishing for trout. A big one hit the line, breaking the leader and taking both fly and hook with him. Jenkins put on a wolly worm and fished in the same area, catching several nice sized fish. A few minutes later he hooked a big trout. Yes, you guessed it, he was the robber who had taken the previous fly from his line. The tell-tale ornament was still in his mouth.

We can't remember whether we answered this query or not, but some daily reader recently wrote in to ask whether the team that won first place in the WT-NM loop was the league winner, or whether it was the team that won the Shaughnessy playoffs. It is the winner of the playoffs who is the league champion. Personally, we've never endorsed the practice. We feel that the team strong enough to win over the course of a season is the real champion. Anything can happen in a short series—and usually does. Such a sudden death series doesn't prove to us that one team, possibly playing over its head, or with the breaks, is better than one that wins a majority of its 140 games.

THE ROUNDUP: Walter Isham returned late last week from a successful fishing trip to Eagle's Nest, N. M. Walt says the rainbow trout are "yea" big . . . Opposing pitchers for Des Moines and Omaha of the Western League Saturday night were Kelly and Keiley. Kelly won! . . . Lamesa players are showing a remarkable consistency in trying to leave the club. I. B. Palmer has chucked everything to go home, joining others. . . . Game Warden John R. Wood of Lake Brownwood predicts that crappie will be the best fishing bet this week, with channel cat angling second best . . . Dell Morgan is anxious to get the football season going which makes his wishes in accord with just about everyone in this area.

Polly Riley Takes Trans-Miss Crown

SAN MATEO, Cal., Aug. 23 (UP)—Polly Riley of Fort Worth, today held the Women's Trans Mississippi golf title for the second straight year. She defeated Margaret Gunther of Memphis, Tenn., 7 and 5, in the final round.

Miss Riley's blazing putter and long, accurate drives paid off as she took a five-up lead at the end of 18 holes, then closed out the match on the 31st. Miss Riley won the same title last year at New Orleans, also beating Miss Gunther on that occasion.

The Lubbock Hubbers climbed back to within .001 percentage point of the third place Pampa Oilers and the Lamesa Loboes stopped their losink streak at 16 straight games yesterday afternoon in featured contests of the West Texas-New Mexico League.

Lefty Bill Jones, showing a return to his 1947 form, stifled Blue Sox bats with seven hits to go the route and snap a losing streak that had been more than embarrassing. The southpaw also drove in the winning run for the Loboes in the fifth, when his double pushed over one of two markers that inning.

EXHIBITION SCHEDULED

Earlybird spectators at tonight's Hubber-Oiler contest will have a chance to see the Lubbock Black Hubbers put on their much-talked-about infield and shadow ball exhibition. James Roy Lewis brings part of his colorful crew to Rosenthal Field at 7:45 o'clock for the series of antics, which includes a rapid-fire display of hitting and base-running—with no baseball.

Miller's Arm Sore

Roland Miller started for Lubbock and hurled three scoreless inning against Pampa before he had to quit the game with a sore arm. Lefty Fred Pollock replaced him and held the Oilers under control.

Yesterday's games found the Hubbers beating Pampa 12-5, Lamesa upsetting Abilene 5-1, Amarillo turning back Borger 10-6 and Albuquerque trimming Clovis 3-2.

Frank Shone held Clovis to two hits to gain his nineteenth victory of the season and tripled home the winning run in the last of the ninth.

Make Game Secure

Lamesa made the game more secure in the seventh on a double, two walks and three Blue Sox errors. Lynn "Rocky" Stone himself made four errors for the losers.

Amarillo had a little trouble turning back Borger's Gassers, although Bob Crues failed to get a home run. The Gold Sox outfielder, halted at 59, has not been able to garner any more in an effort to break the minor league record of 69.

The Lubbock nine lost no time in getting to George Payte, one of the top hurlers in the league. They belted him for 11 runs in the first three innings to gain a split in the two-game road series with the Oilers.

Six runs dented the rubber in the first frame, with Manager Jackie Sullivan's two-run homer the big blow. They added three more runs in the second on two hits and pushed over two more counters in the third on a brace of walks and two Oiler miscues.

White Relieves Payte

Foster White relieved Payte to start off the fourth frame and the Hubber nicked him for only one more run, which was unearned. R. C. Otey, second baseman, finished the game after White was lifted for a pinch hitter.

Miller started the game for the Hubbers but lasted only three innings, when he complained of arm soreness and was taken out. Pollock pitched relatively good ball over the remainder of the route, giving up nine hits and five runs. One of the runs was a homer by Joe Fortin in the eighth. Don Moore also had a circuit clout for Lubbock.

The Hubbers return to Lubbock tonight for a two-game series with the Oilers. The game time has been advanced for the remainder of the season, with play scheduled to start at 8 p. m. Avon Driggers is the probable hurler for Pampa, while either Cotton Russell or Bob Clodfelter is expected to go for the Hubbers.

Sunbeamers Tackle Ragsdale Of Angelo

The Bluebonnet - Sunbeamers softball team, in the finals of the Texas Softball League's Shaughnessy playoffs, will meet Ragsdale of San Angelo in the best three out of five games series for the title.

The local nine won its way into the finals by licking Monahans twice Saturday night at Monahans, while Ragsdale was taking a pair from the Baldridge Bakery of Lubbock.

The championship series will begin Wednesday night and the first two games will be played at San Angelo. After these two contests, the teams will return to Lubbock and Jumbo Webster field, Saturday night, another doubleheader will be played.

If, after Saturday night, additional games are needed, the two teams will flip a coin to see where the other tilts will be played.

The Bluebonnet - Sunbeamers clinched first place in the league several weeks ago and have been waiting to see which teams would clinch the other three berths.

Black Hubbers Win From Slaton, 11-6

Lubbock's Black Hubbers pushed across four runs in the bottom half of the first inning Sunday afternoon at Rosenthal Field, and were never behind during the remainder of the contest, downing the Slaton Mexican Tigers 11-6 behind the eight-hit hurling of Johns and Hutchinson.

The Black Hubbers will be hosts here Thursday and Friday nights at Rosenthal Field to the Central Texas Vocational college Wolves, winners of the Texas State semi pro negro tournament at Waco in July. James Roy Lewis, Black Hubber manager, said that local fans would have a chance to see one of the state's outstanding hurlers in James (Good-Daddy) Brown, Wolves' top moundsman.

Tribe Drops 2 To White Sox

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe McCarthy's rampaging Boston Red Sox owe their amazing uphill climb to their great keystone combination—stortstop Vern Stephens and Bobby Doerr.

Sparked by the brilliant all-around play of this pair, the Red Sox today were in second place in the American League standings, only half a game behind the pace-setting Cleveland Indians.

Stephens and Doerr accounted for three of Boston's four runs yesterday as the Sox whipped the Washington Senators 4-1.

Sox Have Good Sunday

It proved a profitable Sunday for the Sox as the Indians dropped a doubleheader to the cellar-dwelling Chicago White Sox, 8-1 and 4-3, to lose a game and a half to Boston.

The red hot New York Yankees also gained ground, whipping the Philadelphia Athletics, 10-0, to climb within two games of the Indians. The A's, now in fourth place, are three games off the pace.

The White Sox not only whipped the Indians twice, but knocked out Bobby Feller in the sixth inning of the first game. Blasting Hal Newhouser for eight hits in less than five innings, including a home run by Gerry Priddy, the St. Louis Browns walloped the Detroit Tigers, 10-1.

The Boston Braves moved two games ahead of the runner-up Brooklyn Dodgers, coming from behind to win, 4-3, on rookie Clint Conatser's eighth inning home run with one on.

Cardinals Lose Chances

The Pittsburg Pirates ruined the St. Louis Cardinals' chances of taking over second place when they tallied three times in the 10th to win 4-1. Elmer Riddle, credited with the victory, opened the Pirate tenth with a single off Murry Dickson. Hits by Stan Rojek and Dixie Walker, a long fly by Ralph Kiner and errors by Babe Young and Enos Slaughter accounted for the Pittsburgh runs.

The New York Giants moved into a virtual fourth place tie with Pittsburgh by defeating the Philadelphia Phillies twice at the polo grounds, 9-4 and 3-0.

Johnny Schmitz earned his 14th triumph as th Chicago Cubs trounced the Cincinnati Reds 10-3, to move within a game and a half behind the seventh place Redlegs.

I. B. Palmer Quits Lamesa Lobo Nine

LAMESA, Aug. 23 (Special) — I. B. Palmer, third baseman with the Lamesa Loboes, left the baseball club yesterday for his home in Arkansas.

Dan Y. Davis, Lobo owner, said that Palmer told him he was "quitting baseball." He was placed immediately on the suspended list, joining another ex-Lobo who recently packed his things and left without warning.

The Loboes, mired in the West Texas-New Mexico League cellar, have suffered a series of reverses lately. They lost George Sturdivant, former manager, when he decided to quit; his departure was followed by the sale of Chris Haskins to Lubbock; another hurler left saying he was "sick of the town, sick of the ball club"; Tony Fiarito, appointed manager to succeed Sturdivant, was sold to Midland; the club lost 16 straight games before winning yesterday.

All in all, with the club changing hands no less than five times since the reorganization of the WT-NM loop, everything is not rosy in Lamesa.

Coaches, Officials To Gather In City

Two groups will combine their talents Sunday morning, Sept. 5, when the South Plains Officials and Coaches association joins with the Southwest Officials and Coaches association for the annual fall meeting.

The two group will meet at 9 a. m. in the Hilton Hotel with Abb Curtis, veteran Southwest official, as the principal speaker.

The business meeting will be turned over to interpretation of the rules.

Marshall Beats Garrett, 2-1, To Win Plainview Golf Title

PLAINVIEW, Aug. 23. (Special)—Raymond Marshall and Chick Trout, sr., both members of the Lubbock Country club, won the championship and championship consolation flights respectively at the Plainview Country club's invitational golf tournament ending here Sunday.

Marshall fired a torrid 136 to take a 2 and 1 victory from Jack Garrett in the championship 36-hole finals, while Trout blazed a sub-par round in the 18-hole consolation championship to win over Fenner Tubbs, also of Lubbock, 4 and 3.

Marshall's steady game, while never brilliant, was more consistent than Garrett's and he easily stroked his way to victory. He turned in a 35 for the first nine and a 34 for the second nine to leave the course at noon with a three under par 69.

In the afternoon, Marshall returned to fire another 35 over the first nine and, when the match finally ended on the 17th hole, he had a good 32 for a gross of 136. At that point he was five under par for the 36 holes.

A crowd of about 400 persons followed the golfers faithfully over the course, which was in excellent shape for the final under a boiling sun.

Neither of the championship finalists had his putter in too keen shape, but woods and irons worked well for each man. Marshall's steadiness gave him a slight edge and he made the most of it.

Trout Coasts In

Trout coasted to victory over Tubbs, shooting five under par golf for the first 14 holes, where the match ended. He was shooting brilliant golf, the kind that might have won him the championship, rather than the consolation title, if he had performed as smoothly earlier in the turney.

Tubbs, while not shooting quite as good golf as Trout, still toured the course in one under par and, on another day, might have fared better.

Sunday's two championships for Lubbock golfers sent the Hub City degelation away with a majority of the awards. In Saturday's finals, Lindsay Telford of Lubbock defeated A. A. Love of San Angelo in the first flight match, 4 and 3, while Houston Trammel of Lubbock won the second flight from Edgar Winn of Plainview with a 1-up triumph in 19 holes.

Bill Hicks of Lubbock won the third flight title with a 1-up triumph over C. D. Koen of Plainview. Both fourth and fifth flight titles did not involve Lubbock golfers.

D. T. Huston of Lubbock won the first flight consolation crown from Claude Harp of Matador, 2 up, while E. F. McGee of Quanah edged Austin Merriwether of Lockney, 3 and 2, for the second flight consolatin title.

Arlington Man Wins Premier Golf Finals

LONGVIEW, Aug. 23 (AP) — Palmer Lee Lawrence of Arlington won the sixth annual Premier golf tournament yesterday with a 7 and 6 victory over Mike Decesaro of Houston.

Lawrence had downed Bill McMahon, Longview, 5 and 3 to gain the finals and Decesaro had beaten Charlie Coe, Ardmore, Okla., 3 and 2 in the semi-finals.

Oklahoma And Texas All-Stars Will Tangle In Oil Bowl Game

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 23 (UP)—Oklahoma and the Texas All-Star high school football teams will begin practice sessions today for the annual Oil bowl game at Coyote stadium next Friday night.

Coaches Ed Brady of Enid and L. D. Bass of Dewey checked in their 24 Oklahoma athletes Sunday afternoon. Fifteen of the 24 Texas gridders had arrived Sunday night and the others were expected to be on hand when Coaches Joe Golding and Cooper Robbins called for attention this morning.

A Long 100 Yards

Coach Brady remarked that his squadmen had a look at the stadium and that his boys told him it was "the longest 100 yards they ever saw."

Brady recalled that the Oklahoma All-Star teams of the past failed to score in previous Oil bowl games, let alone win.

Both teams will use the single wing formation. The game is being sponsored by the Maskat Shrine temple of Wichita Falls and Oklahoma Shrine bodies, for charity. Kickoff time is 8 p. m. Friday.

Minimum Price Set On Borger Ball Club

BORGER, Aug. 23 (AP)—Officials of the Borger baseball club yesterday recommended that the franchise be sold for an amount equal at least to its indebtedness.

M. C. Kimball, club president, said the club's debt was at present over $8,000.

The five-man board of directors of the West Texas - New Mexico league team is to meet tomorrow to take action on the proposal.

Levelland Takes Oil Belt Doubleheader

LEVELLAND, Aug. 23 (Special)—Levelland's Refiners came from behind in the last inning of both games to take a double header from the Post Millers at Carter field here yesterday in Oil Belt league competition. They took the first game 10 to 9, and the nightcap 4 to 3.

Both were seven-inning games. Post scored three runs in the seventh inning of the first game to take the lead, but a ringing double by Leroy Greywunder, Refiner second baseman, sent three runners across the plate to end the game.

Going into the seventh inning of the second game with the score tied Post did not score, and a single by Pete Trammell, Refiner catcher, sent shortstop Billy Pearcy across for the winning run.

The Littlefield Wildcats play here next Sunday.

Ben Hogan Is Denver Victor

DENVER, Aug. 23. (AP)—Mechanical Ben Hogan was richer in cash today—but not in popularity with Denver fans—as he pocketed the $2,150 first prize from the Denver open golf tournament.

The Hershey, Pa., belter climaxed a poor week in public relations when he failed to show up for the formal presentation of prizes yesterday.

Hogan finished the 72-hole, $12,500 tournament with a 270, which was 18 under par, but at the moment didn't seem good enough to win. For back on the 17th tee was Freddie Haas, jr., of New Orleans, needing only par scores for the last two holes to cop the first prize.

"I can't win," Hogan growled as he came off the 18th green and immediately afterward he left the course and went to his hotel.

But Haas couldn't stand the pressure and went to pieces on the 17th.

His tee shot was in the rough, and approach shot struck a spectator, and he took five blows, one over par.

On the 18th he missed a five-foot putt for the birdie he needed.

Austin Undefeated In Legion Baseball

AUSTIN, Aug. 23 (AP)—Austin and Little Rock, Ark., move into the second round of the region six American Legion baseball playoff tonight undefeated.

Austin yesterday downed Jackson, Miss., 4-1, and Little Rock, defending regional champion, beat New Orleans, 8-3.

The two losers meet tonight in the opening game of a doubleheader. It takes two losses to eliminate a team in the double elimination meet.

JUST 50 years ago, tomorrow, a marriage ceremony was read here for two of the most popular young people of what then was the sprawling frontier of West Texas.

They were George C. Wolffarth, then county and district clerk, and Miss Lottie Hunt, daughter of a pioneer hotel keeper and farm owner.

George Wolffarth, just turned into his thirties, already was an "oldtimer." More than a decade before, he had ridden onto the "high lonesome" from Jack county, a cowboy so young that shaving was a minor problem.

Miss Hunt, younger than her husband, was an "oldtimer," too, for she had been a member of Estacado's Quaker colony before moving to Lubbock—a young resident of the first settlement on the Plains.

The young couple "settled down," as folks said then, to the business of establishing a home, raising a family and "getting a start"—or, in their case, accelerating the "start" already made by young George.

Time rocked along as time is wont to do and before many years there were six children in the family. The Wolffarths had moved into town from their home near where the Country club is now, and were living at 2304 Broadway, in what then was one of the residential show places of the West.

GEORGE Wolffarth, whose high good humor still is well known in Lubbock, had "gone places."

He had extensive ranching properties. He had helped organize the Citizens National bank and was its president. He and his brother-in-law, the late Frank Wheelock, who was Lubbock's first mayor, were among the most active citizens in the building of a new empire and in its every business transaction of importance.

Mrs. Wolffarth, with a fine heritage from the old Quaker background at Estacado, was busy, too, but in other ways.

She was a leader of the women's side of the First Methodist church and she was one of the earliest of those in the forefront of Parent-Teacher organizations. Good wife and good mother, she was typical of the fine women who laid cultural foundation stones in this country while their husbands were building the ranching, the farming, the business structure of the newest frontier.

Throughout many years, the Wolffarths, George and Lottie, gave unstintingly of their best to the new town and the new country—in the home, in the church, in the market place, everywhere.

They gave of their efforts, their thought and much of their substance to help guide Lubbock through its perilous years, into and through the "little town" era, into its status as a rapidly growing, lusty young giant of the Plains.

When the "hat was passed around the square" for money for a railroad, a college, or what-not, into the hat always went George Wolffarth's generous check. When school and church problems arose, along with other cultural matters, Lottie Wolffarth was there with aid, financial and otherwise. She was a worker, a planner, a thinker.

The Wolffarths were sturdy links in the backbone of the community, the area. It was they, and a few other "oldtimers" with vision, who blazed the broad trail into the future. It is they, and a few others like them, to whom today's Lubbock is deeply indebted for what we have and for what we shall have in the days to come.

LUBBOCK wasn't like "Topsy," in that its growth and expansion commercially, sotially, culturally and religiously, didn't "just happen" as a natural thing. Behind its progress has been back-breaking work; courageous stands in the face of apparent disaster; much expenditure of private funds for public welfare, and ceaseless thinking, hoping, planning.

The George Wolffarths contributed much, in every way, to the whole program. They have been worthwhile people. They still are worthwhile people and will remain so as long as they live.

So on this August 24, 1948, as Mr. and Mrs George C. Wolffarth look back over their 50 good years together, many of their neighbors—the few older ones left and a lot more new ones—find themselves thinking of this fine, helpful couple.

Their Golden Wedding Day finds thousands wishing them well. It finds many experiencing a feeling of thanks to them—and to the other oldtimers left—for the tasks they undertook and accomplished to make Lubbock what it is today.

We believe we are voicing the sentiments of countless fellow-townsmen when, incongratulating Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wolffarth on their 50th wedding anniversary, we say:

"May the Lord bless you and keep you;
May the Lord be merciful unto you;
May the Lord make His face to shine upon you
And give you peace—
Now, and forevermore.
Amen."

THE PRINCIPAL trouble with our American form of civilization is that too many people think chasing the dollar and pursuing happiness are identical activities.

ALTHOUGH she had no formal education, had been left a widow early in life and had encountered many difficulties in making both ends meet, the old lady had raised three very fine, honest, dependable sons.

"Aunty," asked a younger woman, "tell me how, despite all obstacles, you have been able to bring up your children so that each one has become so good and dependable a man?"

"Honey," returned the old lady, "that's nuthin'. I had no education and I could only teach 'em three things: their prayers, their manners and to work!"

Not bad.

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN: ROBERT R. YOUNG AGAIN PREPARING FOR RAILROAD WARS

C. & O. Executive Plans To Take Over Railway

(ED. NOTE—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by his old partner, Robert S. Allen.)

WASHINGTON. — Robert R. Young, scrappy head of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, is returning to the wars.

In an exclusive interview with the Washington Merry-Go-Round, the truculent little Texan announced his intention to make a new fight to gain control of the New York Central system, took a lusty poke at the Association of American Railroads, blasted both Democrats and Republicans, and denounced pouring taxpayers' money "down the vast China rathole."

Young was tripped up on his plan to become the leading railroad tycoon of the country when the Interstate Commerce commission, last spring, blocked his taking over the New York Central.

The ICC held the consolidation would be harmful to the Virginian railway. This carrier, a competitor of Young's C. & O., has large contracts with the New York Central. Young now has it all figured out how to meet his ICC objection.

He proposes to take over the Virginian.

"We will refile our application with the ICC," he said, "and include the Virginian in our plans. That consolidation will protect the Virginian's interests, and there certainly ought to be no objection to that.

"The Virginian is controlled by the Koppers company of Pittsburgh, a Mellon outfit. It is my understanding that the Koppers people have felt for some time they are skirting very close to the edges of the Clayton anti-trust act in keeping control of this railroad. If they feel that way, they should be willing to dispose of their stock. We'll be glad to buy the stock, and clear up the situation for all concerned."

Anti-A. A. R. Blast

Young's caustic anti pathy to his fellow railway executives is not new. Time has not tempered it. He denounced the Association of American Railroads with unabated vigor.

"The A. A. R. has only itself to blame for the government's claim to hundreds of millions of dollars in alleged wartime freight rate overpayments," Young declared. "The association could have gone to the ICC during the war and openly asked for higher rates. The railroads could have gotten a 6 per cent profit instead of a measly 3 per cent. Then they wouldn't be facing a demand for reimbursement today when they can ill afford it.

"But, apparently, the A. A. R. wants litigations. It is run by lawyers who prefer to make big fees by litigating rather than working out a sensible settlement. In the meantime, the public reads about the overcharges and feels that fraud has been perpetraated.

"Another example of A. A. R. stupidity is the western rate case, on which a decision is now pending. That's the case in which former secretary Averell Harriman (whose family controls the Union Pacific railroad) was very mysteriously excluded from the list of defendants. I predict that the railroads will wind up by losing this case along with hundreds of thousands of dollars in fees to the lawyers. They always win.

"I know the Justice department would have settled this case on a reasonable basis three or four years ago. But instead of doing that, the A. A. R. insisted on fighting. Now the railroads find themselves caught in an election year between the two parties. Both the Democrats and Republicans are out for blood and the railroads are a nice juicy victim—thanks to their own stupidity."

YOUNG also placed much of the blame for the shortage in railway cars on the A. A. R.

"The shortage is more acute now than it was a year ago," Young asserted. "The A. A. R. says this is due to steel shortages. If that is so, why is it that automobiles, airplanes, trucks and buses are being made in such enormous numbers? They have no trouble getting steel. Why can't the railroads do their same? Certainly, the A. A. R. has as much political influence as the auto makers.

"The real fact is, the association doesn't want to modernize. If it really did, it could get the steel. I charge a deliberate lack of sincerity on the A. A. R.'s part in wanting steel for the railroads."

Plague On Both

As Young sees President Truman, he is a far different man from what he was as U. S. senator. And Young doesn't like Republican representative George Bender, Ohio, any better for what he is doing in charging the railroads with gypping the government on wartime freight rates.

"The senator Truman with whom I once dealt and President Truman seem to be two different people," Young declared. "As senator, Mr. Truman was a vehement critic of Wall street. He displayed a viewpoint which we thought would continue when he became president. Instead, look what he did. He took into his cabinet Averell Harriman, James Forrestal and other Wall street bankers who have bitterly opposed every effort to modernize the railroads, to stimulate competition, and to strengthen the carriers for national defense.

"Congressman Bender's subcommittee is making a political football of the railroads. The carreirs are one of the key economic and defense assets of the nation. They should not be kicked around by politicians for vote-getting purposes."

TO Young, the aid-China program is merely another wasteful political device to avert a recession.

"There is a lot of uneasiness about a recession in a year or two," he declared. "That's why, I think, some of our most conservative legislators are so ardent about giving aid to the corrupt and incompetent Chiang Kai-Shek government. By pouring a couple of billion dollars' worth of so-called relief into the vast China rathole, they think the government can keep production at a high level.

"It seems to me there is a complete lack of integrity in insisting that commodity prices be supported by huge subsidies when conditions are so inflationary and crops so abundant. The politicians can't be too concerned about high prices when they insist that farm prices be supported."

Young did have one item of good news, and one word of praise.

He foresaw no shortage of coal next winter and declared that John L. Lewis, stormy United Mine workers czar, "is handling the coal - production situation pretty well."

Rep. Vito Marcantonio Again Giving Out With His Screams

REP. Vito Marcantonio is in up to his ears again, screaming "Gestapo!" (not "NKVD," though with typical leftist methods, because five of his American Labor Party henchmen were arrested, charged with disorderly conduct.

He was head man Wednesday night at a rally on 110th St., near Fifth Ave., at which was demanded the dismissal of Patrolman Joseph Parrino.

Parrino pinched Marc's pets at 1 o'clock, a. m., at the corner of 105th Street and Madison Avenue. He testified under oath in night-court that noisy bands had been congregating there and he was assigned to break them up; that he ordered the five to be quiet and dispense; that they refused and that they threatened to have him fired; that he then took them to the stationhouse.

* * *

THE principal prisoner is Manuel Medina, 38, of 48 E. 103rd Street, for ten years personal secretary to Marcantonio and now an ALP candidate for Assemblyman; Frank Quintano, 42, of 1651 Madison Avenune, ALP secretary; Albert Mantinet, 50, of 51 E. 91st Street, campaign manager for Medina and for Marcantohio, who is running for reelection to Congress on the ALP line; Jesus Flores, 47, of 2 E. 113th Street, ALP district captain; Francesco Archilla, 47, of 27 E. 111th Street, chairman of ALP headquarters.

Medina was bailed out. The others spent the night in jail. All were arraigned before Magistrate Andrews, who paroled them to their lawyer, Herman Englander, for hearing. Then began the Marcantonio-type tirades. First telegrams to Mayor O'Dwyer and Police Commissioner Wallander, protesting that the arrests were a political plot against ALP demanding dismissal of Parrino. Thousands of broadsides, in Spanish, circulated throughout Marc's district—specious, inflammatory, slanderous. And now that protest meeting . . . All because five noisy radicals are charged with disorderly conduct, are free to do as they please meanwhile, and will get a light fine at worst.

THIS fits in with what I have been writing about the Puerto Ricans who Marcantonio keeps at the boiling point of hatred against their government, though he keeps housands of them on public relief. A sample, quoting from a verbatim translation of one circular:

". . . while our candidate, Mr. Manuel Medina, was in company of his friends near the exit of the American Labor Party club, he was the victim of a brutal attack by the police. (NOTE: Nobody touched Medina, he walked with Parrino to the police station). There is no doubt these attacks were part of a premeditated plan to terrorize the electorate of this community.

"This community has given irrefutable proof of its intelligence and valor . . . but has never permitted itself to be the subject of brutal force by stupid and irresponsible elements. . . . These attacks only serve as a stimulus to our unbreakable resolve to firmly fight for genuine representation. There have been many gratuitous attacks in the past months . . . on men, women and children . . . It is up to you as a Spanish community . . . toward elimination of these unjustified assaunts, unconstitution and vested with inhuman ferocity unknown in modern times." (NOTE: No such cases are quoted).

With this intemperate phraseology the demagogic Marcantonio whips up resentment of his Puerto Rican immigrants and children of immigrants against American law, of which he is a sworn servant. It is a duplicate of the flood of hysterical hyperbole and deliberate fabrication which followed the arrest of a dope-crazy Harlem musician who stabbel a policeman in the station-house, and whose scandalous case was made a political issue. But there were no rallies to protest the slugging murder of the Repuolican Party worker, Scottoriggio, fatally beaten as he was on his way to the polls to support Marcantonio's opponent; that was "nonpolitical," said Marcantonio.

AFTER that outrage, Mayor O'Dwyer cleaned the district of Marc's hand-picked cops, who had replaced many he had ordered transferred with a wave of his then powerful hand. The police of that district are no longer his lackeys. A Puerto Rican name no longer carrier automatic immunity. Voting the ALP ticket is no longer license to violate laws and break police . . . LaGuardia is not Mayor now and some of the silk-glove privileges have been shorn from the busy little beaver whose word was final in his vice-ridden and crime crusted slums.

"The Spanish Community" isn't running the city any more. Parrino will not be kicked out. Marcantonio cannot change his spots. But a lot of spots have been changed around him.

Setting Up The Target

Conservation Of Life-Giving Regions In West Imperative

EDITOR'S NOTE: Marquis Childs, well-known Washington correspondent, is exploring the great new empire of the west. He is analysing first-hand the relationship between this vast new development and the rest of the country, and observing just how politics in this election year will fit into the picture. This is the first of a series.

McCALL, Idaho—Riding along a narrow trail on Sheepeater ridge, we could look off across mountains and valley for perhaps 70 miles and see not a single sign of human habitation. For the city dweller it was a remarkable experience — the vast emptiness of the wilderness country preserved in the Payette national forest.

CHILDS

You could imagine something of what the men and women must have felt who first trekked across the great west. Out of sight and out of sound are the noisy instruments of our so-called civilization. Not a telephone. Not a radio. Not a sight nor a sound of that dubious invention—the internal combustion engine.

We chartered a plane that flew us into a pocket handkerchief landing field—a mountain meadow—tucked away in the valley alongside the Big Creek ranger station in Payette forest. Then a truck took us along a crude road for a few miles.

Horses, Pack Mules Wait

At the end of the road were the horses and the pack mules. Within 10 minutes we were "away from it all," in what is in a sense unexplored country. On the map we carried was a warning not to count on its accuracy, since it was based on inaccurate estimates.

Of course, we were tenderfeet. Because we could hire a good guide and packer, thoroughly familiar with the trails that thread in an out of the mountains and valleys, and a camp cook skilled in the ways of this country, we were in safe hands.

But even so we could get a feeling of what wilderness America was like—its majesty, its grandeur and the sense of hope and promise for the future that thrilled those who first saw this country. And we could have some understanding of the vital importance of guarding what remains of the treasure of the west.

That treasure, far more precious than the billions in gold and silver taken out of western mines, is in the wood slopes of the mountains, the lush grass of the mountain meadows, in streams that run clear glass down to the [illegible]. It is in the trout that the streams and in the of elk and deer the dark forest of spruce.

IN THOSE elements guarantee of permanent the new industries in this oping region. If they are developed, then the base of life is destroyed. Pessimists such as Bern Devoto have said that the west can become a desert in a century if further inroads are permitted in the heartland that supplies life giving water to valley and plain.

Even the tenderfoot can see what it would mean if sheep and cattle in greater numbers were permitted to graze in the national forests of the west. The granitic soils at 7,000 and 8,000 feet are as porous as sugar. The sharp hooves of sheep would push that soil into the creeks and the creeks would be slowed and the high slopes would be eroded away.

That would be the beginning of the end. It happened in the uplands of Spain and China, and we know that the end is desert, abject poverty and blank hopelessness.

Guardian of the high heartland of the west is the forest service of the Department of Agriculture. In administering the national forests, the forest service has one of the stiffest and most exacting jobs in government. It covers a vast physical area and it collides with some of the hottest politics in this region.

Fire Is Constant Enemy

The constant enemy is fire and an enemy harder to combat and equally threatening is the insect pest. On the ride from Fish creek to the Chamberlain ranger station we went through miles of lodge pole pine felled by the timber beetle. It looked as though a tornado had swept past.

This complicates the task of keeping the trails open and it adds enormously to the fire

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

"I WAS amazed," said a fortyish woman, "when I counted up the other day the number of jobs I used to hire done which I now do myself.

"I used to have two permanents a year at my beauty shop. And I went in once a week for a shampoo and manicure. Now I give myself my own permanents, shampoos and manicures.

MILLETT

"I used to have a laundress and a cleaning woman who came once a week to give the house a thorough going-over. Now I take my clothes to a wash-it-yourself place; bring them home and iron them. And, by adding a few cleaning jobs each day onto my daily housekeeping, I'm managing very well without a cleaning woman.

"Also, I used to order all of my groceries over the telephone. But not now. At the price food is today I have to shop around and cut down costs that way as much as I can. Also, if I shop in person I can often change my tentative menus by substituting some special of the day for something I had planned that turned out to be too expensive."

IF this were only one woman's experience, there'd be no point in repeating it. But it is the experience of so many women today.

In order to meet the higher cost of living, without sacrificing their family's living standards, they've taken on all kinds of new jobs.

It's the housewife's own answer to inflation.

Today's Thought

Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?—John 18:11.

Had it pleased Heaven
To try me with affliction:
had he rain'd
All kinds of sores and shames on my bare head:
Steep'd me in poverty to the very lips:
Given to captivity me and my utmost hopes:
I should have found in some place of my soul
A drop of patience.

GENE TUNNEY tells about the conceited little tough who decided to be a prize fighter, and urged his manager to get him a fifteen-round bout for his first professional appearance. "Start slow, kid," advised the manager, and booked him for a four-round preliminary.

The cocky youngster was up flailing his fists at the sound of the bell—but was knocked cold with a single punch by his more experienced adversary. When he came to, he screamed at his manager, "It's your fault! I told you I was no good in a short fight."

CALVIN COOLIDGE story number 46,811: When Cal Coolidge was president, his wife gave him a portrait of himself as a birthday present. It had been painted by a local youth, touted by Northampton savants as "another Picasso—or anythow, Norman Rockwell." Coolidge propped it up on the mantelpiece, where a senator, come to pay a duty call, spotted it a short time later. The senator and the President gazed at it in silence for five full minutes. Then Coolidge remarked, sourly, "You're right."

DELAY IN APPLYING CREDIT-CONTROLS

The Federal Reserve board report that 28 per cent of the American families are spending more than they earn may offer some justification for the credit controls which are to be restored Sept. 20.

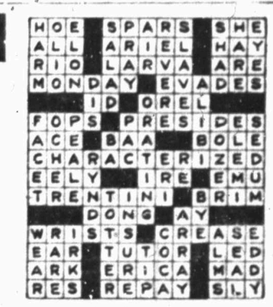

But the board belies itself if the report is intended—as it appears to be—as evidence of a dangerous credit situation. The board either does not consider conditions too threatening, or it is guilty of extraordinary short-sightedness in giving one full month of advance notice that the restrictions are to be imposed. The action already has touched off an installment buying spree which may become the biggest in any month in history.

Sound business men are divided in their opinions as to whether controls are necessary and wise. But surely nothing could be too seriously wrong with the national credit structure. If there was, the Reserve board would be almost criminal in failing to slap restrictions on instantly. The fact that a full month of notice has been given seems convincing evidence that the national financial and credit structure is sound—so sound, in fact, to raise doubt whether the new controls are necessary.

New Rules To Begin Sept. 20
Loans, Installment Buying Affected

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—The government today pulled a brake on free-wheeling credit.
New rules to stiffen "easy payment" loans and purchases covering most consumer goods costing from $50 to $5,000 were posted officially by the Federal Reserve board. They take effect Sept. 20.
Businessmen were divided. Some thought it "fair and reasonable." One furniture executive denounced it as "rationing the poor."
These are the terms—backed up by criminal penalties and the power of the Federal Reserve board to put a violator out of the credit business:
One-third down on automobiles.
A 15-month time limit to complete payment if the article costs $1,000 or less.
An 18-month limit on credit over $1,000, but with a minimum $70 monthly payment.

Death Claims Lynn Pioneer

TAHOKA, Aug. 23. (Special—Horace Wheat Hale, 81, of Tahoka, died at 11:48 a. m. Sunday in Lubbock Memorial hospital from injuries suffered Wednesday in an effort to extricate an infuriated bull from a fence at the farm of a son, Deputy Sheriff Tom N. Hale of Tahoka.

Hale, who with a brother reputedly established the first stage line between Lubbock and Big Spring just before the turn of the century, had been in critical condition at the hospital, suffering from severe lacerations of the head, face and arms, as well as a serious chest injury.

Funeral Set Today

Funeral services will be held at the Stanley Funeral home chapel here at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with Rev. C. T. Aly, pastor of the Tahoka First Baptist church, named to officiate. Interment will be in Tahoka cemetery.

Survivors include three sons, Tom N. of Tahoka, Edward R. of Corpus Christi, and Horace A. Hale of Hot Springs, N. M.; one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Hale Daily of Berkeley, Calif.; three sisters, Mrs. S. W. Sanford of Tahoka, Mrs. J. D. Brown of El Paso, and Mrs. Ross Simpson of Lamesa; two brothers, J. R. Hale of Corpus Christi and Henry H. Hale of Higgins, eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Terry Noble, J. C. Wells, Sam H. Floyd, Marvin Woods, Charles Nelms and D. D. Renfro. Honorary bearers include G. W. Small, Howard Henderson, R. H. Rusk, Bart Reese, B. H. Robinson, T. R. Cathcart, P H. Renfro, C. T Tankersley and Noah C. Rainey.

Born Sept. 10, 1866, in Lockhart, Hale had come to Lynn county in 1908 from Gail, Borden county. He had been visiting with his Lynn county son the last three months, having come to this section from Corpus Christi. He had been observing a habit of "visiting around with various of his sons and daughters" since his wife died, it was explained.

Violent Deaths

Larry's body was found on a Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad track.

A verdict of justifiable homicide was returned by Justice of the Peace Thomas Decker in the death of Hack Morris, 22-year-old negro, who received fatal gunshot wounds from a Houston police patrolman who said the man attacked him as he investibated a prowler call.

Ray Sugarek, 24, of the Olmos community, Bee county, died Sunday morning of gunshot wounds. Justice of the Peace Fred Malone of Beeville is investigating.

Mrs. Lillie Watson, 79, was burned to death early Sunday when her two-room farm house near Yoakum was destroyed by fire.

Raul Florez, 13, was killed shortly after noon Sunday at London gin when he accidentally discharged a 20 gauge shotgun.

Justice of the Peace B. A. Carter returned a coroner's inquest verdict of death from accidental shooting.

Raul Flores, 21, serving a three-year penitentiary sentence for burglary in Travis county, was stabbed to death in a fight at the Harlem prison farm Sunday.

O. B. Ellis, general manager of the prison system, said Flores was stabbed with a homemade knife by Israel Pina, 25, serving a four-year sentence for assault to murder from San Patricio county.

Ralph Joseph Crandall, 40, Amarillo bellhop, was found hanging from an improvised noose made of his shirt and undershirt in an Amarillo hotel yesterday.

Awful Rheumatic Pain Left Man's Body in 8 Hours

"For years I had rheumatic pains in the muscles of my shoulders, legs and ankles, which finally got so stiff, sore and painful that when I walked I would flinch with agony. I got TRU-AID and started taking it, and the rheumatic pains began leaving my body in eight hours. Now the pains are gone from my muscles entirely. I feel like some other person, and I praise TRU-AID to the sky." This is a genuine testimonial from a man living right here in this vicinity.

TRU-AID is the new liquid formula containing three valuable medical ingredients. These Three Great Medicines, all blended into one, go right to the very cause of rheumatic and neuritic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Daily Markets

Stock Market

LOSSES ARE RECORDED

NEW YORK, Aug. 23. (AP)—An early downward move in stock prices speeded up later today and the market closed with losses running from fractions to 4 points.

Oils gave ground readily and weakness soon spread to other groups.

Sales were around 550,000 shares.

Brokerage quarters suggested several reasons for selling in the oil division. They have been in the forefront of most of the market's advance for months past and hence are in a more vulnerable position than stock which have been marked up less sharply.

Superior Oil of California, a high-priced issue, dropped 4 points or so at one time.

Plymouth Oil was another wide loser and smaller declines were posted for Standard Oil of California, Atlantic Refining, Skelly Oil, Richfield Oil, Mission Corp., Standard Oil (NJ), U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Chrysler U. S. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, Lockheed, Distillers Corp., International Telephone, American Smelting, American Can, Du Pont, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Southern Pacific, Atlantic Coast Line, Pan American Airways, and Paramount Pictures.

Among the steadier spots for a while were American Telephone, J. C. Penney, Philip Morris, Lowenstein, and Union Pacific.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 23. (AP)—Cotton futures were easy today under pressure of liquidation and hedging. Selling was inspired partly by Washington reports that the chances are against the administration reimposing production controls in cotton next year.

Nearby months reacted on continued favorable outlook for a large crop and sentiment among traders that prices may sink well below levels when the crop starts moving in volume.

Renewed selling developed in the final hour of trading, coming chiefly from New Orleans and commission houses. Mills were good buyers on the late decline with prices closing around the lows for the day.

Futures closed $1.20 to $2.75 a bale lower than the previous close.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Aug. 23. (AP)—The slump in grains continued on the board of trade today. Practically everything moved lower, which was enough to mean new seasonal lows for a large number of contracts.

Prices dropped at the start on heavy selling. A rally then carried most quotations to around the previous close, corn even going ahead of Saturday's final prices. But the rally did not hold. In the last hour prices fell back to new lows for the day.

Selling was attributed to belief the corn crop will swamp storage facilities, fears over possible revision of the parti-support level next year and doubts as to whether exports will be sufficiently large to maintain prices.

Wheat closed 1¾-5½ lower, September $2.17½-⅝, corn was 2½-3½ lower, September $1.55¼-$1.55, oats were ⅝ to 1 cent lower, September 70⅞-71.

All corn, all oats, all soybeans, all lard and May and July wheat reached new seasonal lows.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Aug. 23. (AP)—Wheat No. 1 hard 2.31½-2.35½.

Oats—No. 2 white 87¼-88½.

Corn—No. 2 white 2.13-2.18.

Sorghums—No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs 2.30-2.35.

Absentee Voting To Be Ended Tuesday

Absentee voting in the Saturday Democratic primary will end at 5 p. m. Tuesday, County Clerk Louie F. Moore reminded the voters this afternoon.

One hundred sixty-seven persons had marked absentee ballots in Moore's office, and 103 ballots had been mailed to voters in cities outside the county, many of them outside the state, an early afternoon check showed.

Election Setup To Be Changed

Recommendations that seven additional voting precincts be established in Lubbock county — making a total of 33—were approved this morning by county commissioner's court, subject to filed notes describing boundaries.

The precincts would be numbered consecutively, 1 through 33. The move was done to promote dispatch in making election returns, and to correct a system that in some instances required too much travel for reaching the polling places.

Assistant Agent Named

The court also:

Approved appointment of James Wayland Bennett, 24-year-old war veteran who will be graduated this week from Texas Tech, as assistant county agricultural agent. He will replace George Elliott, resigned. Bennett was in service three years, during which time he flew in the ATC in the South Pacific and in the China-India-Burma theater, as a radio operator.

Approved a total expenditure of $14,131.70 for road construction, engineering, supplies for precinct equipment, revamping of the election precincts, and lumber to repair the Idalou Club house.

The court planned to continue its business session this afternoon.

County Judge Walter Davies presided. Commissioners are R. O. Short, Ben Mansker, Ottis Isom and Pat Corley. County Clerk Louie F. Moore took minutes of the proceeding.

Berlin Tension

Potsdamer Platz yesterday. He was turned over to the U. S. liaison officers today.

Is Glad To Be Back

"I'm glad to be back, and I certainly don't want to have any part of that any more," Headen commented.

He said the Russians had returned the camera he had with him when he was picked up, before the eyes of his wife and two children.

A western police headquarters statement said charges of abduction and "presumption of authority" against Erdmann, lodged in connection with the arrest of about 20 western zone policemen by eastern forces since the split, still stand.

Erdmann has been the jailer of the arrested policemen. Like his chief, Paul Markgraf, who was dismissed by the anti-Communist city administration but still claims to be chief for all Berlin, Erdmann still claims to head Berlin's entire criminal police force.

Claim Illegal Arrest

The Soviet-licensed German news agency (ADN) said Erdmann was arrested "illegally" and released by comand of Markgraf. The headquarters of Chief Johannes Stumm, who was appointed Markgraf's successor by the city government, however, said in its statement it "wished to emphasize Erdmann's release was not the result of an order by Markgraf or by a military government."

The latest invasion of the American sector by Russian soldiers occurred this forenoon just off the Potsdamer Platz, an area which is being heavily patrolled by Russian, British and American military police.

The photographer "was standing on the American side of the Koethener street (which runs into Potsdamerplatz) when a Russian officer, accompanied by a Russian soldier, approached him and wanted to take his camera away," Stumm's headquarters said.

"The photographer fled into a ruin of the American sector and was trapped there," the German statement continued.

"Two western sector police, who wanted to assist him, were beaten off by blows from the rifle butts of 10 Russian soldiers who had hurried to the scene in the meantime.

"The photographer was then dragged off into the Russian sector."

The square resembles an armed camp. Soviet soldiers with tommy guns held at the ready ride slowly along the square, just inside the Russian sector border. Opposite them, the British have erected a barbed wire barricade. And strengthened American police units are nearby.

Coast Dispute

Saturday, to boycott an election on the employers' latest wage offer.

Board Orders Election

The National Labor Relations Board has ordered the election as requried by the Taft-Hartley act but union spokesmen said the men had voted not to ballot on the wage offer.

In announcing the boycott, union spokesman said a September 2 maritime strike is certain.

Whether the hiring halls will continue to be operated as at present, with a union dispatcher controlling the assignment of long shoremen to jobs as they come up, is a bitter issue in the west coast dispute. A new, $6,000,000 hiring hall was opened yesterday on the Embarcadero.

News Briefs

Organization meeting of the Lubbock Ad club will be conducted tonight at 8 o'clock in the Yaqui room of the Hilton hotel instead of Tuesday night as erroneously announced Sunday. Ira E. DeJernett of Dallas, governor of the Tenth district, Advertising Federation of America, will be principal speaker. Culver Hill, Hemphill-Wells advertising director, is temporary chairman.

Clyde H. Fortune, Lubbock implement dealer, and his daughter, Jackie, of 2408 Twentieth, suffered lacerations and bruises and a son, Bill, and Kay Wiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kell Wiley, 2512 Twentieth, were bruised but not seriously injured in an automobile accident near Olney Sunday morning about 11 o'clock. The automobile, which the Lubbock man was driving, struck a car driven by a Graham man broadside. The Graham car, which was crossing the highway, overturned several times. Fortune and his daughter were thrown out of their car but not seriously injured. A woman occupant of the other car was in an Olney hospital. Fortune was en route to an East Texas city to return another daughter who had been visiting there to Lubbock.

All membres of the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce agricultural committee have been asked by co-chairman Rufus Rush to attend an important meeting at the city hall at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Sgt. Edna Heckman, Womans Army Corps recruiter from El Paso, will be in room 203, Postoffice building, Wednesday and Thursday to interview prospective recruits for either the WACS or the newly created WAFS. Enlistment qualifications include an 18 to 35 age limit and a high school diploma.

Vernon Stewart of Abernathy, an employee of a drilling company, was admitted to West Texas hospital shortly before noon today for treatment of an injury to the right side of his head, believed suffered in an oil field accident. Extent of his injuries had not been determined early this afternoon.

jump in and keep them from sinking but the seas were running too dangerously. We drew alongside and dragged them aboard."

It was Mrs. Akers' call for help that attracted the attention of the coast guardsmen. Dole said her shout revived him as he was virtually going under.

Mrs. Steffee lost her glasses when the boat sank and was unable to see the shore but she said she knew the general direction and started swimming toward it.

"I kept telling myself, just another 10 feet," she said. "I didn't think of anything beyond that."

The three women were room mates here.

Ironically the five had drawn lifebelts at Waikiki basin but Dole said they left them on the dock.

Bullet Hits Woman In Heel; Damage Is Mere Blood Blister

No Achilles heel in this case.

A hospital reported a negro woman had been taken there, shot in the heel.

Police investigators went to the hospital and returned to enter this report:

"The bullet only made a blood blister."

Complimentary Tickets To Be Mailed For Salesmen's Event

Complimentary tickets will be mailed this week to about 400 traveling salesmen and their wives who will be honor guests at the second annual salesmen's barbecue in Mackenzie State park the night of Sept. 3, Irving L. Jones, chairman of the arrangements committee, said today.

The event, sponsored jointly by the chamber of commerce and The Avalanche-Journal, will be an appreciation to the salesmen for their efforts to boost this city and area traveling their territories. The honor guests will include both the salesmen who make Lubbock their home or headquarters and those who visit this area regularly on selling trips.

Jones reminded that the invitation to attend the barbecue also includes business men of the city, their wives, department heads and other key employes. These reservations have been coming in too slowly, the chairman said.

He urged business men to obtain their tickets at once by calling the chamber of commerce, telephone 4666. They are $1 each. This covers all the barbecue those attending can eat and an elaborate program of fun and other entertainment.

Attendance at the barbecue last year approximated 400, Jones recalled. Preparations will be made for a minimum of 600 this year, he said.

was removed. The house was entered and a lock was pried off a trunk. Taken were $55 in money and a woman's watch, officials were told.

The R. D. Erwin residence at 1714 Ave. X apparently was broken and entered, but Marion Sanford, a brother-in-law of 3007 Twenty-second, and a negro yard man said nothing had been "missed" from premises. Further information must await return of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin from New England, where they have spent most of the summer, police were informed.

Several weekend thefts were reported:

Two tires were taken from a burned trailer near Lamesa, officials were informed.

Lloyd Turner of Levelland route 4 said two suits, a pair of trousers and a shirt were stolen from his car here.

A tire and wheel were stolen from the car of J. W. Bently of 520 Seventeenth.

Two persons were fined for "sweating" a dice game, three for gambling with dice, police reports showed.

A bike valued at $30 was reported stolen from Frank Carson of 1118 Eighth.

Juvenile officials were to talk with five youths who were found in the tower of the new First Christian church.

County court officials said the following judgments had been signed in that court by Judge Walter Davies: Willie Dee Hall, 24, of Abernathy, $50 fine and costs for drunk driving; and Shakespeare Harris, 52, a negro, $50 and costs, drunk driving. Officials said Clyde Bostwick, 52, of Lubbock, pleaded innocent of drunk driving and that bond of $600, returnable instanter, had been set by Judge Davies.

Radio Group Gives Luncheon Program

Members of the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting for luncheon today at the Hilton hotel were entertained by the Plains Riders, broadcasting from the Hilton on their regular 12:30 o'clock radio program, and by L. D. Whiteley's brief account of the bi-regional Jaycee convention held in Amarillo Saturday and Sunday.

Allan Todd announced that next Monday's luncheon will be "Ladies Day," with all Jaycees asked to bring their wives or sweethearts.

A. L. (Chuck) Hawkins, jr., and M. C. Robinson were introduced as new members. Robert Carr of Dallas and W. R. McPherson were visitors. Horace Gearhart presided.

BORDERLINE ANEMIA*
CAN TAKE THE FUN OUT OF LIFE!

Are you too pale and pepless to be popular? Are you always too tired and "done in" to have fun? Red blood cells that are faded and weak often cause these conditions. You may have a Borderline Anemia, due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency.

Medical studies show that up to 68% of women—many men and children—have this Borderline Anemia. If you have this Borderline Anemia, you need Ironized Yeast Tablets! They are specially formulated to help build up faded, puny red blood cells to healthy redness and size, and thus permit your color and energy to come surging back. Of course, continuing tiredness and pallor may come from other causes—see your doctor regularly. But in this Borderline Anemia, take Ironized Yeast Tablets. Take them to reclaim your vitality, your healthy color, your enjoyment of life!

*Due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency, a condition for which Ironized Yeast is specially formulated.

to devise ways to make cheap foods tastier and more nutritious or to make a pair of pants handed down from dad to junior now serve as a pair of slacks for little sister.

The wife of an Indianapolis broker, the mother of four children, said her grocery allowance never lasts out the week and she must "borrow" from the family savings every second week.

A Denver woman said the family garden plot helped a lot this summer but things would be tough this winter.

A New York housewife said she had to return to her old job as telephone operator, even though she has a family of five, in order to supplement her husband's salary.

"They say there's a boom," she said. "Where is it? My daughter's school tuition has doubled in the last two years. I spend $35 a week for food alone where $15 used to do."

Mrs. Max J. Rettig, wife of a button salesman at New York, began digging into war bonds a year ago to meet expenses such as medical bills which should be covered by the budget.

Mrs. George J. Wolfe of Cleveland said that even by substituting macaroni and spaghetti dishes for meat she expects trouble if prices rise any higher. Another Cleveland woman, Mrs. Steven Grasson said her family had to give up their vacation trip this year because they've used so much of their savings to cover the ordinary living expenses.

A Los Angeles laboring man's wife said they hadn't had bacon in the house for three months and she has now stopped using any meat at all since housewives started their buyers' strike.

"We had dreamed of buying many things when the war was over," she said. "Now we've given up all hope for them."

hazard. Westerners sometimes feel it is a losing battle and that the cattle and sheep might as well be turned in to get the good out of the grass.

The pioneer spirit is strong even though pioneering days are gone and with them 85 per cent of the virgin timber that was once part of Idaho's "limitless" wealth. The pioneer resents restraints. He wants to fight it through in his own way.

But there is growing up here in the west a body of opinion that recognizes the vital necessity of guarding the heartland. It is strong among sportsmen, farmers, and many ranchers, too, and, of course, among conservationists who have taken part in the fight to save the heritage of the empire of the west.

Rites Pending For W. E. Fletcher, 75

A Bryan McDonald & Son Funeral home coach has gone to Abilene to return to Lubbock for burial the body of Walter E. Fletcher, 75, of 1624 Ave. Y, who died in an Abilene hospital about 9 o'clock this morning following an extended illness.

Fletcher, a resident of Lubbock and vicinity for about 20 years, had been living with a brother here, Raymond L. Fletcher.

Funeral home officials reported that time of funeral services is pending. Interment will be in Lubbock cemetery.

Survivors in addition to the Lubbock brother are three other brothers, H. W. G. Fletcher of Mills, Wyo., Robert Fletcher of Hillsboro, and T. A. Fletcher of Tulia, and two sisters, Mrs. Ella E. Clark of Crain and Miss Eda B. Fletcher of El Paso.

Sudden Fire Causes Damage At Oil Firm

Fire which flashed up suddenly around the loading nozzle of a tank truck being filled from a storage tank, caused damage estimated at $1,500 to $2,500 at the Earl Ince Oil company, 2803 Ave. H at 7:15 o'clock this morning.

A flurry of excitement was caused when an empty storage tank exploded, apparently from heat, but no one was injured and quick response by the fire department was credited with keeping the fire from full fuel tanks nearby.

Earl Ince, owner and manager of the company, placed the loss estimate, but said definite loss would not be known pending further check of equipment. Ince said the flames, possibly due to static electricity, burst out around the loading nozzle of the tank truck and spread rapidly on oil-soaked ground in the dock area.

The truck driver, whose name was not announced, flung the blazing nozzle to the ground and fled from the scene, Ince said. He was not injured.
