Hereford Sale To Be Biggest In Four Years

Sixty registered Herefords have been consigned for the fourth annual Registered Hereford Sale of the North Plains Hereford Breeders Association, reports Hood Wills, secretary of the association. This is by far the largest number of animals ever consigned for the sale.

Many new consignors from over the Panhandle have entered cattle this year and the prospects are bright for an outstanding event, Wills said.

The show will be held on February 6, in connection with the annual Junior Livestock Show, and the sale will be held on February 7.

go to Hollywood where the final selection will be made on January 6.

The radio program is utilizing its offices to spur nationwide acknowledgment of the unselfish, devoted activities in behalf of community betterment by club women throughout the country. The campaign is designed to place the spotlight of recognition on women members of local groups, units which ordinarily are overshadowed by the activities of their national, or other high level organizations.

Mrs. LaMaster was honored at a special broadcast from the studios of KEYE Tuesday afternoon. Speaking on the program was Irvin R. Buchanan, KEYE manager and sponsor of the local contest; Mrs. Lonnie Sultor, president of the American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Manse Wood, who submitted the letter nominating Mrs. LaMaster; Omar Truax, Commander of the Perryton American Legion post; and Lee Little, secretary of the Perryton Chamber of Commerce.

LARGEST WHEAT GIFT IN TEXAS—Gus Birdwell, left, gave this car load of wheat to the Christian Rural Overseas Program this year. This was the largest gift of wheat in the state, according to Elmo R. Torn, state CROP director. This is the third year that Birdwell has given a carload of wheat to be used for war stricken countries overseas. Shown with Birdwell is Rev. Lloyd H. Jones, pastor of the First Methodist church, through which Birdwell made his gift. The car was shipped Saturday.

Business Houses to Be Closed Monday

The Herald office will join with most other firms in Perryton in closing Monday, January 2. Although this was not one of the dates set aside for general closing by the retail merchants committee of the Chamber of Commerce last year, a canvas made earlier this week revealed that most firms would be closed for the day. The banks, post office and government offices will observe the holiday. Only those businesses whose closing would cause a serious inconvenience to the public, such as cafes, drug stores and service stations, will remain open Monday.

Laboratories Are State Approved For Blood Tests

Marriage licenses will be easier to secure in Ochiltree county now.

Both the Perryton Hospital and the Sanford Hospital laboratories have been approved by the State Health Department for giving the required serological tests made necessary by the new marriage license law which went into effect October 1.

Until the approval of the local hospitals, the blood tests had to be made in Amarillo, causing considerable trouble and delay. As a result, marriage license applications have dwindled away to practically nothing at the Ochiltree courthouse.

Now it will be practically as easy to secure a license as it was before the new law was passed.

Yearly Report of County Agent Shows Most Farmers Still Concentrate On Wheat Raising

The annual report of county agent Hood Wills shows that Ochiltree county farmers are still concentrating on wheat production, although other lines of agriculture are practiced to some extent. Cattle raising is a steady industry in the south part of the county and is expected to increase under the allotment program which will release wheat land to other crops.

Grain sorghums are raised almost solely for feed purposes in Ochiltree county.

Sheep raising has shown signs of increasing, after a sharp decrease during the war. Swine, which decreased during the war years, is on the increase, although swine are not being produced to any great extent. Poultry production is limited.

New Dodge to Be Shown On January 4

First showing of the new 1950 Dodge automobiles will be held on Wednesday, January 4 at the Collingsworth Motor Co. At least two and possibly more models of the new Dodge will be on display that day. Tip Collingsworth, owner, stated.

The new Dodge has been changed and improved over the 1949 model, making it appear larger and more massive. There is considerably more glass area in the rear windows and vision has been improved throughout the car.

The rear fenders are higher and the grill is lower and more massive.

The new Dodge comes in three lines, the Coronet, Meadowbrook and Wayfarer. Fluid Drive is optional on the Coronet and Meadowbrook models and most of the Coronet models will come equipped with Fluid Drive.

The public is cordially invited to attend the showing of the 1950 models, Collingsworth said.

Booker Equity Lets Contract For New $122,000 Elevator

BOOKER—The Booker Equity has let a contract to Chalmers & Borton Construction Company of Hutchinson, Kansas for construction of a new $122,000 concrete elevator.

The contract was awarded early in December and construction is to start momentarily. The and dairying has fallen off as a major enterprise.

Wheat improvement by sowing good milling varieties continues to show progress in Ochiltree county. Ninety-five per cent of the varieties grown are rated good in this county.

There was over 3800 acres of certified wheat in the county in 1949. Twenty-eight adults, and fifteen 4-H club boys were members of the Ochiltree County Certified Wheat Growers Association. Comanche, Westar, Wichita and Turkey Red were the certified varieties grown.

There was an estimated 75,000 bushels of certified seed sold and this much or more good seed wheat sold in 1949.

Bindweed control continues to be one of the major problems for Ochiltree county farmers. Bindweed continues to spread due to good moisture conditions.

Chemicals such as 2-4-D were used on several hundred acres during the year with every kind of equipment from a hand spray to airplanes. There are approximately 50 farmers with equipment for spraying bindweed with 2-4-D.

Fines Raised By Ordinance For Violations

The new traffic signals on Main street are due to go into operation sometime this week and with the new signals will come some new traffic regulations for the downtown district. Chief among these is the outlawing of U-turns on Main street.

The city council has passed an ordinance forbidding U-turns on Main street in any block north of the 5th avenue intersection. Minimum fine for this violation is $2 and the maximum is $25 under the new ordinance.

The fine for running the red lights at the two intersections with the new signals has been placed at $2-$25, also. Chief of Police Roland Shearer stated Tuesday that citizens would be given a few days to get accustomed to the new signals, but that his orders were to crack down on violators after that.

The two sets of signal lights are at the intersection of Main and 2nd avenues and at the intersection of Main and Brillhart avenues.

Ong had a 1940 automobile which was mortgaged to the Perryton National Bank and he had moved to Oklahoma, neglecting to keep up the payments.

He was indicted by the grand jury in the December term of district court, and is now awaiting trial.

Legion vs. Globetrotters to Open New Gym On January 6

Bobby Grund's Trotters, nationally known Negro basketball team, will play the local American Legion five in the first game of the new Perryton high school gymnasium on Friday night, January 6.

Proceeds of this inaugural game will go into the Veterans Memorial Building Fund.

With a remarkable record over the past 16 years of 1,947 wins and 137 losses, the clowning Negro Trotters have always mixed a superb brand of basketball with court entertainment for the spectators.

Cleo Johnson, the star of the team, maintained a 24-point per game average, against all comers. Other star players are Junior Johnson, Rip Collins, Donald Meredith, Chuck Bowen and Footy Hughes.

This team was booked a year ago for this opening game in the new gym, and spectators are assured of a top notch entertainment attraction.

The American Legion team, while enjoying a successful season, are not expected to beat the Trotters, but have enough material to make it an interesting game. The local five has lost but one game this season, that one an overtime encounter with the Spearman Independents.

Editors Name Medina The Man of the Year

By SHERRY BOWEN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK — Judge Harold R. Medina, who presided at the year-long trial of 11 top U. S. Communists, was "Man of the Year" for 1949. He has been so named by vote of Associated Press newspaper editors.

The court drama started Jan. 17 and did not end until all defendants were sentenced Oct. 21. Defense attorneys helped make headlines by their disruptive tactics. They kept the court in an uproar day after day, refused to heed warnings from the bench and, in the end, won jail sentence for contempt.

Judge Medina won headlines early in the trial for his patience in dealing with the lawyers. But in one hectic session he had to call a recess and retire to his chambers for a few minutes to calm his nerves.

It was not patience alone that got attention for the judge. It was also his firmness in insisting that no one, defendant or attorney, would be permitted to benefit from disorder. Warnings were followed by action. Inappropriate testimony was cut off. Side remarks were stricken from the record.

Before the trial, Medina had not been widely known. When he came to the federal bench in 1947 he gave up a $100,000-a-year practice for the $15,000 job. He was known as a lawyer's lawyer and had written 15 books on federal law.

When the editors voted the leading men in special categories, the found that President Harry S. Truman was first in politics; Dean Acheson, U. S. secretary of state, led in foreign affairs; Philip Murray was top man in labor; Henry Ford II in industry; Vannevar Bush, president of Carnegie Institution, was the leader in science. In literature, Thomas Merton a trappist monk and author of two best-selling books was chosen. Ezio Pinza, opera basso turned musical comedy star, got the nod in entertainment.

As head of the Democratic party, President Truman watched it show new strength in the 1949 elections. He had to deal with no spectacular political problems during the year. But he did face some turbulent disputes between factions. Many observers noted that the President "sat on the lid" without major political disruptions.

Acheson promoted more frankness in dealing with Russia during the year. Sharp comments on matters in the Russian sphere and on the cold war were common.

He took office as secretary of State in January. The Berlin blockade ended in May. This year also saw the Atlantic treaty completed. This gave the United States a defensive alliance with European countries and later Congress voted arms aid for Europe.

During the year, the State Department issued a "white paper" giving the background of the failure of the U. S.-approved Nationalists in China. Also in the talk stage are plans for U. S. aid to backward lands.

Murray won his vote as head of both the CIO and the steel workers. In steel he led the strike that won company-paid pensions for men. In the CIO Murray led the ouster of left wing unions. He also started a drive to replace them with groups farther to the right.

This year the Scotland-born former miner again named head of the CIO, which he has led since 1940.

FORD was forced to shut down his plants briefly during the year when the union struck because it said the company had speeded up assembly lines. But when time came to talk over a new contract, Ford became the first big employer to agree to a company-paid pension plan. It was a similar plan that was won by the steel workers after a strike.

Ford took over the family industrial empire in 1945. His father, Edsel, died suddenly in 1943 and his grandfather, Henry, resumed for two years while Henry II was hastily trained to command.

The young man had not proved brilliant in college. Nor had he shown his grandfather's mechanical genius. But he found sociology to his liking. He followed that idea through, reorganizing the line of command in the business, and working for closer relations with the union. His success in these projects has been praised.

BUSH remained, in 1949, one of the nation's leading spokesmen for science. He has been head of Carnegie since 1938 and has tried to make it an agency to help coordinate U. S. scientific work.

Trained as an electrical engineer, he is also an inventor. He writes on scientific subjects and his speeches get wide attention.

In World War II he was head of U. S. agencies to help weld the work of science to the war machine. This included the early stages of work with the A-bomb. In 1949, his comments on atomic issues still carried great weight.

MERTON has written two best selling books and many poems. The first best seller was "The Seven story mountain." The latest, "Waters of Siloe," came out in October. Merton writes about his faith and tells in simple language of the experience which led him to become a monk. He lives in a Kentucky monastery.

PINZA has been popular as an opera singer in the United States since he went to the Metropolitan Opera Company in 1926. He switched to musical comedy with the opening of "South Pacific," April 7, 1949. Here he found a new audience and more popularity.

Pinza turned to singing when he failed as a bicycle racer in Italy. He was trained as an opera singer before World War I, but his debut was delayed four years while he fought for Italy in the Alps.

Greeks Find Dollars Hard to Get

ATHENS—(AP)—Greek industry and business trying to get EC dollar assistance have to show they're a pretty good risk.

Of 150 applications this year for long term loans, 24 were recommended for approval. Of these, 12 were granted, two rejected because of unsatisfactory accounting reports, while 10 are still pending.

Loans totaling $12,000,000 were made to manufacturers of cements, dyes, fertilizers, diesel engines, paper, leather goods, electric power, steel and copper works, pharmaceutical supplies, oxygen and acetelyne products.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shrader and family, former residents who now live near Arapahoe, Colo., spent the Christmas week end here visiting relatives and friends.

Pearson, Regier Enter Calves at Ft. Worth Show

Max Pearson and Cecil Regier, Ochiltree county 4-H Club boys, are among the first to enter livestock judging in the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Ft. Worth January 27 through February 5. Both boys will exhibit steers in the boys division.

Cash awards at the Ft. Worth show this year total $112,000, largest in the show's 51-year history.

Almost 400 cowboys, including the top hands in the nation, will perform in the world's greatest indoor rodeo.

A new feed building and a second judging and auction arena have been constructed. They are in addition to the six livestock buildings erected recently at a cost of $1,500,000.

Hard to believe but — This Buick costs less than Butter.

MAYBE you never thought of it that way, since you don't buy butter in 3600-pound lots. But pound for pound, this prideful Buick SPECIAL sells today for less than store-bought butter!

Actually, it costs less per pound than some of the cars in the so-called "lowest price" bracket—less than any other straight-eight on the market.

Now that's a pretty important yardstick.

Because cost-per-pound is a pretty stable measure of a car's merit. It takes skillful engineering, careful buying, efficient manufacturing to keep this figure around the half-dollar mark—and that's where it is on the 1950 SPECIAL 4-door Sedan.

The real point, of course, is that this is a Buick at that figure.

ATHENS—More than half of the Greek-owned merchant fleet built up from virtually nothing since 1945 with American aid, today is sailing under foreign flags.

According to ECA figures, of a total of 765 ships, only 317 are sailing under Greek registry, as compared with 338 Greek-registered ships out of 427 in 1939. At the same time, present tonnage has more than doubled over the prewar total of 1,865,146 tons. Down sea shipping today stands at 3,878,787 tons.

An agreement with the United States, prior to Marshall Plan aid, provided 100 wartime Liberty ships to the Greek government, which in turn sold them to private interests for $560,000 each. Most of the ships are registered in Central American countries.

A Tough Job For Santa

CHICAGO—Give the kids Christmas gifts that will make them use their heads and hands, advises Miss Melba Reay, instructor of arts and crafts, at George Williams college, Chicago.

"Because most toys are ready-made, children are learning to expect ready-made answers or printed instructions for all of life's problems, and never have chance to develop the imaginative, creative spirit and skill that are so urgently needed in the adult world," she says. "Children need practice in executing their own ideas with their own hands."

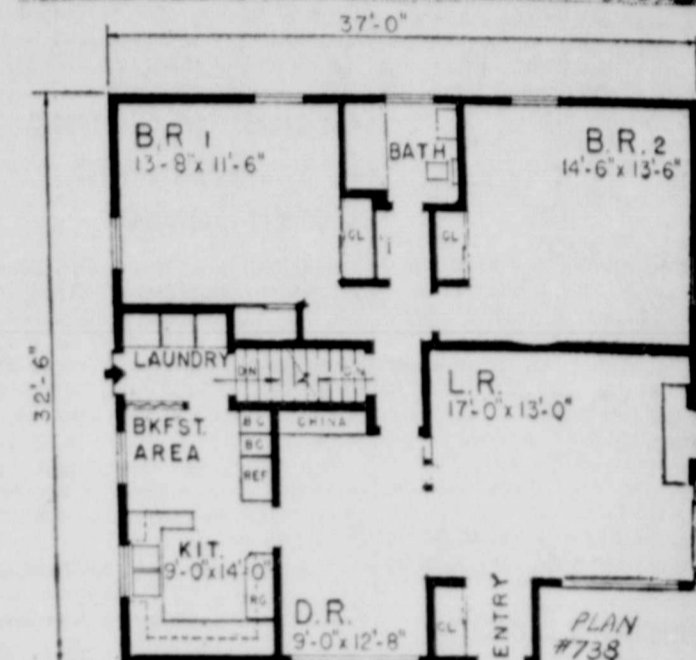

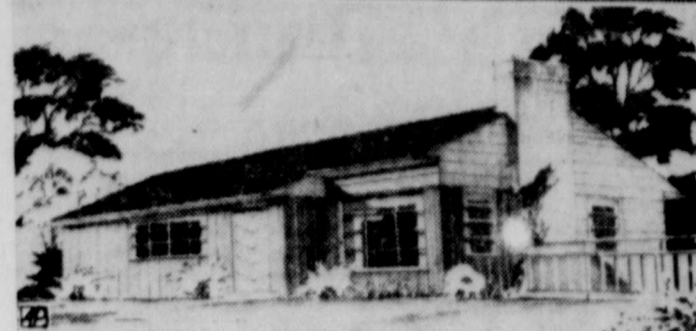

India's Moonshine Good To Last Drop

NEW DELHI, India—A member of the constituent assembly has complained that prohibition enforcement officers in the East Punjab are taking the wrong attitude toward their job.

Sardar Bhupinder Singh Mann told the assembly of several cases where prohibition police had drunk illicit liquor they were supposed to destroy. When asked why they did it, Mann said, the police replied that they did not like to waste "a good thing."

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

AN EFFICIENT PLAN for a five-room house that can be expanded into seven rooms by adding two bedrooms and an extra bath on the second floor. This is Plan 738 by Walter T. Anicka, architect, 617 Forest St., Ann Arbor, Mich. It covers 1,145 square feet. The architect suggests an exterior of gray vertical siding, white trim and a roof of blue-gray asphalt shingles.

'She Wore a Yellow Ribbon' Is Drama Of Indian Warfare

A thrilling story, based on the true facts of early day U. S. Cavalry history in the West, "She Wore a Yellow Ribbon" comes to the Ellis for the New Year's Eve preview and on Sun-Mon., Jan. 1-2. John Wayne, Joanne Dru, John Agar and Harry Carey, Jr., star in the picture.

With the defeat of General Custer on the Little Big Horn on June 25, 1876, Indian tribes throughout the West plan to join in a great alliance to drive the hated white man from their lands. And at Fort Starke, far out in the Indian country, the most experienced Indian fighter of them all, Captain Nathan Brittles, faces compulsory retirement from the service just when he is most needed.

Around this dramatic situation hinges the tense action of the film. The fort's commander sends Brittles with his troop to take the two ladies at the post to safety, but the Cheyennes have already gone on the warpath and wiped out the stage station. Hampered by the presence of the women, Brittles is unable to crush the uprising and angrily

Romantic Racing Yarn Has Horse, Shirley Temple

A heartwarming love story that brings the grown-up Shirley Temple together with Lon McCallister to the screen is "The Story of Seabiscuit," a picture which has as its basis the story of the famed hero of the turf. The film comes to the Ellis on Tues. Wed., Jan. 3-4.

With the inimitable Barry Fitzgerald, Irish character actor and comic, co-starring in a leading role, this film story, which employs as its background the events and racing career surrounding the life of the amazing Seabiscuit, promises more than its share of cinematic thrills.

Booker Kiwanas Win 31-23 Over Canadian Fems

BOOKER — The Booker Kiwanas took an early lead and held it the entire game to defeat the Canadian sextette 31 to 23 last week.

The Kiwanas exhibited outstanding ball handling throughout the game, but it showed up best when they froze the ball for two minutes in the first quarter in order to hold their lead.

Starring on the Canadian offensive was M. Hill who scored 12 points for the losers.

Clarine Meyer was again high scorer for the Kiwanas with 18 points, and Kerns turned in the outstanding defensive performance.

The Kiwanas will see action next against Mobeette on January 3 at Booker.

Services Held In Strawn for Mrs. Margaret Waugh

Funeral services were held in the First Baptist church of Strawn, Texas, on December 25 for Mrs. Margaret Bennie Waugh, mother of Tom Waugh, who died Friday, December 23, while visiting in the home of her son.

Mrs. Waugh had been visiting for about a month in Perryton. She was 69 years of age.

Rev. W. H. Rucker conducted the final rites in Strawn and burial was made in that city.

She is survived by three sons, Tom Waugh of Perryton, M. L. Waugh and E. B. Waugh of Texas City, five sisters and three grandchildren.

Disabled Vets Should Check On Insurance

Disabled veterans of World War II, who may be disqualified for life insurance because of those disabilities, have but two days left to take advantage of a special provision of the National Service Life Insurance laws enacted for their benefit.

This information has been received by county service officer Tom Davis.

Affected are veterans with disabilities incurred in service between October 8, 1940, and September 2, 1945, who have less than the $10,000 maximum of NSLI, and whose disabilities are less than total in degree.

Such disabilities are disregarded in determining eligibility under the health requirements for NSLI if application is made before January 1, 1950.

Until that date, these disabled veterans may apply for new or additional insurance, or reinstatement lapsed policies, up to $10,000 worth of total coverage, and receive the benefit of this special provision.

After that date, all impairments to health, including those which may be due to service, must be considered in determining insurability.

Davis added that application may be made at any VA office and that physical examination, which will be made by VA without cost to the veteran is required.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Smith, Farnsworth, entertained Christmas night. Those present were Mrs. P. L. Hargrove, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hargrove and Lanny, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Hargrove and Michael, Mrs. Billy Jo Sharpless and Julie, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Peckenpaugh, Wendell and Miss Nell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peckenpaugh of Canyon, Marvin Smith, and John Doores.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cartwright, Sr., left last week for the lower Rio Grande valley, where they will spend the winter at McAllen. They are at the Grande Courts and are neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson, who are in the valley for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stiles and daughter, Janey, Miss Suzie Hargrove and Paul Hargrove, Jr., spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hargrove, south of Perryton.

Why Locusts Fly A Hairline

ONDON—A — Locusts have queer short hairs on their heads which give them directions when flying. This discovery is reported in "Nature," the official British science journal, by T. Weis-Fogh, of Gentofte, Denmark. The hairs are queer because they do not vibrate in the wind as do other hairs on a locust. These merely bend. Something in their structure prevents fast waving motions. By the angle at which these hairs bend a locust knows how much he is turning away from a straight line. When he is flying straight the wind bends the hair straight back.

Vets' Round Robin Getting Fat

CHICAGO—A — Joseph Klimas received a ponderous piece of mail. It was a round robin letter that was started in January, 1948, by Paul Hamilton of Illinois. It has circulated since then among men who served in the 829th Signal Corps during World War II. Each wrote news of himself, attached it to the growing letter and passed the dossier along. At latest report it was 30 feet long.

From A Harried Reporter

GREAT FALLE, Mont.—A — Beards grew thick and bristly in the county jail while legal chins wagged. The sheriff had submitted a bill for $10.50 covering razor blades for prisoners.

The county commissioners said that was a sharp question which the county attorney would have to answer. He split no hairs in his opinion — said the bill was all right.

How to Eat Milk

BERKELEY, Calif.—A — Some people need milk for nutrition but for various reasons can't or won't drink it. A University of California research project found that powdered milk mixed into the dough of whole-wheat bread, makes the bread more nourishing, stay fresh longer, less crumbly, and better for toast.

Twin Falls Rarely Seen By Tourists

UPPER FALLS of Carolina's Whitewater spill down the Blue Ridge mountains.
By Alderman Duncan
Newsfeatures
WALHALLA, S. C.—Twin waterfalls, each higher than Niagara, spill down Blue Ridge Mountain fastness along the North Carolina — South Carolina border but surprisingly few people ever saw their beauty. Not many more people know they even exist.
The falls, described by a U.S. Forest Service official as "the most spectacular in the Appalachians," are scheduled in a remote section not accessible to the average traveler.
The falls are on the Whitewater river, which flows from North Carolina's Nantahala National Forest into South Carolina's Keowee river. The upper falls are about one mile north of the state line. The lower falls, three miles down the Whitewater's steep rapids, are well inside this state and are included in the Gen. Pickens division of the Sumpter National Forest.
Both falls are more than 100 feet higher than Niagara. Their exact height is not known but Forest Service contour maps show the lower falls to be approximately 280 feet high and the upper falls possibly may be higher. Niagara Falls' top height is 167 feet.

PLANE WRECKAGE FOUND—Wreckage of a light plane lies in a wheat field near McKinney, Texas, where it was found Dec. 22 by two boys hunting rabbits. Sheriff Levi Brawley said the bodies of the three men aboard were found at the scene. The plane apparently crashed Dec. 19 during a heavy fog. Those killed were H. J. Happel, president of the Happel Construction Co., C. W. Healey, an engineer; and W. J. Crawley, the pilot, all of Tulsa, Okla. (P) Photo

Buick from Stem to Stern

This sturdy looking bumper and grille combination graces the front end of the complete line of 1950 Buick automobiles. Other distinctive features are the full taper-through front fenders, wrap-around bumpers with bomb-shaped bumper guards housing the parking light and direction signal indicators in front, and back-up lights in the rear, and identifying name plates on the front fenders. The cars have completely new bodies, and a new and more powerful engine is under the graceful hood of the new Super sedan shown above.

The lower falls may be reached by a one-quarter mile hike from a small lodge at the end of an abandoned road, or trail, leading from a paved highway about 10 miles away. The upper falls are reached by a mountain road from Cashiers in Jackson County, N. C.

Besides being hard to reach, the falls probably also have been neglected because they were for many years on property of a marginal lumber company. The area only recently has been acquired by the Forest Service, which still is running preliminary surveys.

Residents hereabouts long have known of the wonderful fishing in the Whitewater. Native brook and rainbow trout are reported abundant. General knowledge of the falls goes back to at least 1826. They were described then by Robert Mills, noted South Carolina architect who also was a surveyor and geographer.

The only falls of greater height in the eastern United States are Georgia's Tallulah Falls, about 25 miles southwest.

Among the animals which have corried history are the dog, ox, goat, horse, humped cattle, elephant, goose, honeybee and ass.

Will Wampum Replace A-Bomb?
SANTA BARBARA, Calif.—(P)—American Indians used wampum for more than just money, says Dr. Wilbur B. Jacobs, Santa Barbara College historian. He reports wampum figured importantly in diplomatic relations among tribes.
Jacobs says beads were used to cement alliances, prevent disputes, and also to identify messengers and "ambassadors" to tribal councils.
Judge and Mrs. Dave Shanks spent from Wednesday of last week to Tuesday visiting in the home of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Shanks, Jr., in Austin.

Magnifying A Toothache

NEW YORK—(P)—A magnifying glass, set so that children can look into their own mouths, stops their fears of the dentist, says Charles A. Levinson, of Brooklyn, Mass. He uses the glass when children fear even to have their teeth examined.
"Do you want to see television or movies in your own mouth?" he asks. Invariably the children reply "Yes." And they permit the checkup.

The dog family includes various kinds of dogs, wolves, jackals and foxes.

BIG MEN OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

By JOHN L. SPRINGER
Newsfeatures Writer
So far this Twentieth Century has had more than its share of Uncommon Men.

It has produced Winston Churchill, who took a Britain gasping in near-defeat and carried it by indomitable inspiration through blood, toil, tears and sweat to victory in the greatest war of history. It produced Revolutionist Nikolai Lenin, the father of Communist Russia and the maker of Communist doctrine which under Joseph Stalin has spread and already left its mark upon a quarter of the earth's face. It also produced a house-painter turned dictator — Adolf Hitler — whose dreams of world power may have more devastating effects on humanity than any similar madness in world history.

In almost every field of activity, the first 50 years of this century have produced men of rare genius.

Roosevelt Remembered
Statesman? Historians will remember Franklin D. Roosevelt, spearhead of a pronounced shift in American theory of government, only four-term president in our country's existence, precedent-breaker and leader of the world's forces against Hitler.

Literary lights? Many people — along with George Bernard Shaw himself — wrap the mantle of greatness around that bearded Irish playwright's shoulders. Other critics say that hundreds of years from now the world will read, with reverence, works of this century's French Novelist Marcel Proust and American Poet Robert Frost.

Spiritual Leaders? Mohandas K. Gandhi, slight, non-violent liberator of India's millions who was shot down by an assassin's bullet in 1948, seems destined to live as one of the great martyrs of history.

This has been a half-century of dramatic scientific and industrial change, produced by scores — if not hundreds — of men whose names will be remembered as long as recorded words are kept.

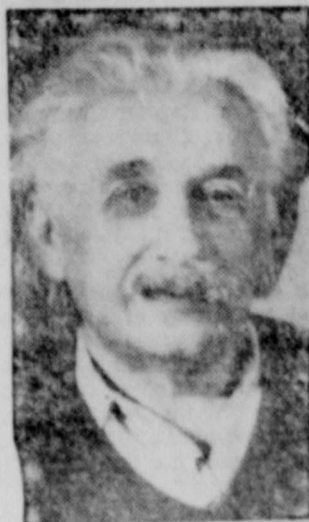

Name after distinguished name could be added to the rolls for the harnessing of atomic energy — a feat which, itself, will make these times forever memorable. Hahn, Meitner, Fermi, Oppenheimer — these and others joined in the greatest achievement of science ever known.

The towering names to live in science may be those of Albert Einstein, who gave the world his sensational theory of relativity; of Sigmund Freud, whose findings have sparked the great field of psychiatry; of Guglielmo Marconi, father of radio; and of Dr. Alexander Fleming, discoverer of penicillin, one of the peace-setters in the life-saving realm of antibiotic drugs.

Edison's Record
In inventive genius, a 20th Century name stands alone, the name of Thomas Alva Edison, of the incandescent lamp, the motion picture, and hundreds of others.

Nor will tomorrow forget Henry Ford, who developed the assembly line of production which put America in the forefront of the world's powers. Nor Wilbur and Orville Wright, who in 1903 sent a plane into the air at Kitty Hawk, N. C., for 59 seconds and began an era of flight. Nor the Polish chemist Casimir Funk, who isolated the first vitamins, nor the Canadian doctors, Banting and Best, who isolated the first hormones which already have saved the lives of millions.

It does not necessarily follow, of course, that the names of those most noted today will live the longest in the future. Among 20th Century Greats may be a worker in an obscure laboratory, a writer of books unknown to the critics, a preacher in little-traveled fields. Some of the greatest figures of the past were not recognized in their own time on earth.

But there is no doubt, as of now, that when the half-century's story is told it will be done in terms of men deserving a place with the legendary figures of the past. We have seen greatness in our time.

Accidents Kill More Children Than Disease

AUSTIN — Take all deaths among children from 1 to 4 years old caused by the so-called childhood diseases, and they would total a little more than half the child deaths caused by accidents.

Figures released by the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Texas State Department of Health, show accidental deaths in 1948 killed 593 children under 4 years of age, 218 of them under one year, while the combined deaths from diseases of childhood — scarlet fever, whooping cough, diphtheria, measles, poliomyelitis, and epidemic meningitis — killed only 324 children in the same age group. The report shows one of every three deaths in the 5-9 age group is accidental; four of ten deaths in the 10-19 age group is accidental, and very little decline is noted in that rate through age groups under 30. State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox said, "State and local health officials can prevent epidemic diseases, and safeguard food and water supplies, but it is up to the individual citizen to protect himself from untimely death by accident."

According to the report, of 100 accidental deaths, 30 involve motor vehicles, 12 are due to falling or crushing, 5 are due to drowning, and 4 are due to burns.

And despite frequent reports of death resulting from "not knowing it was loaded," only three of every 100 accidental deaths involve firearms, the Health Department report revealed.

The state health officer pointed out that only diarrhea and enteritis, and pneumonia exceeded accidents as a cause of death in the first four years of life.

"We've made remarkable progress in prolonging life during the last decade," Cox asserted. "But apparently we've prolonged it only to have it snuffed out in accidents — mostly foolish accidents."

Handle Girl In Europe

By KATHERINE SHARP

Through Europe is traveled several times through the U. S. A. when we went through four countries one afternoon recently.

We have to admit that we found travelling a bit more wearing than it used to be in the U. S. A. when we went through four countries one afternoon recently.

Our intentions were basically simple: To go from London, England, to the Hague, Netherlands on a day when there was no boat directly to Holland from a Channel port.

Forty miles by boat and less than 200 by car. Clearing England was a simple task of but four hours. Of course, that includes clearing customs, emigration, etc., twice. We missed the Dover-Belgium boat because we had allowed only 40 minutes for clearing the car. It takes a full hour.

Then, of course, all papers made out to show we had left Dover had to be cancelled, before we tried to catch the boat from Folkestone to France.

The Folkstone customs would want to know what it meant if our paper still showed we had left England from Dover an hour earlier. "How did you get back in," they would ask if we didn't cancel the Dover "clearance."

We caught the second boat, and found it has only taken from eleven to three to leave Dover, not leave Dover, and leave Folkestone.

The fact that food and drink could not be served on the boat until it was at sea hardly bothered us; we were facing international problems — five more sets of customs.

At five we entered France from the docks at Calais, with the mearest customs routine. The car was checked of course, by several uniformed officials searching for the engine number, or perhaps a concealed Japanese beetle.

Except for the road signs and roads our driving through France was effortless. After circling the same church three times, searching for a Dunkirk sign, a passing French woman announced we were indeed in Dunkirk.

We were too intent on the next four sets of customs to do much sightseeing at this historic spot. When the French-Belgian border — and two more sets of guards — was reached complicated financial calculations were involved.

Fortunately, we had some odd thousands of French francs and Belgian francs left over from previous visits to the sovereign states.

The question was whether gasoline, or benzine, was cheaper in French or Belgian money. Whipping out our slide rule, always in the glove compartment for just such occasions, we calculated the dollar price.

Gas was cheaper per liter — who knows about gallons — in Belgian money. Therefore we abandoned plans of eating in Belgium, and spent our little pile of Belgian money for gas.

After being lost in the medieval city of Ghent, in which we always get lost among castles of the Counts of Flanders, fine Gothic cathedrals, the Flemish language and neon movie signs, we speeded on to the Dutch border.

This was achieved, and our second encounter of the day with Belgian customs and our first with the Dutch was entirely uneventful. (We had enough Dutch to say distinctly, "I have nothing to declare.")

Then only a dense fog stood between us and the Hague, which was reached some twelve hours after starting out from Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Little and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zundel spent Christmas in Strong City, Okla., with Mrs. Little's mother, Mrs. C. R. Cochran. The Littles returned to Elk City Sunday night and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson came to Perryton with them and spent Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Acker, Barry and Ann spent Christmas in Dallas with Mr. Acker's parents.

Census Taker Will Ask For Your Income During Year 1949

The census takers in 1950 will ask you what your income was in 1949.

By what authority does he ask the question? By none whatsoever, Congressmen are protesting the inclusion of this query. The census department says that it is necessary to get this information. For whom? Well, they have not disclosed this information.

We do not know yet who will be selected to take the census in Randall county. They will probably be selected as in the past, by precincts. But when they come around, do not throw a fit and refuse this information. The census taker will have no choice in the matter.

And you will have no choice. You will either answer the census taker or go to jail. Not much of a choice. Oh, yes, you can demand the right to mail this information directly to Washington, if you like, but this is little choice, after all.

It just happens that the census department includes this question on the ground that there is nothing in the law to prohibit the question. A survey was made in Washington a few years ago which revealed that there are many large bureau operating, spending the taxpayers money, which have grown and grown, simply because their growth was not prohibited by law. Once established, they continue to expand, simply because some one has never taken the trouble to put a stop to their activities. —Canyon News

Christmas Is Still Worthwhile

Do you think the meaning of Christmas has been lost through commercialization?

The above question appeared Thursday as The Brand's "Question of the Week" and out of several answers four were "Yes" to three of "No". Actually, it is a most difficult question to answer in one word. There is no doubt that Christmas has become commercialized to such an extent that it has been in many cases abused by some merchants and mostly by people. On the other hand, the fundamental idea of presenting gifts upon the occasion of Christmas did originate with the Wise Men, and to condemn the procedure entirely is not consistent with the occasion.

Besides, when you ponder the situation, there is really very little fault to be found with the custom, even in its present day commercialized form. Most people rush madly about in the process of living and too seldom pause to remember or to recognize the merits of loved ones. Each of us, upon reflection, can recall some small gift which has at some time truly meant more to us than any of the large ones and, so long as this condition exists, it is not logical to say that the spirit of Christmas no longer exists.

Christmas cards have also become big business, but can you recall any other custom which, more thoughtfully brings back memories of friends and friendships?

Another item worth considering is the fact that many of the finer things of life come to us as Christmas gifts. Some of these things we would never have without a commercialized Christmas and many of the more definitely worthwhile.

The one big point that affords criticism of commercialization of Christmas, however, is the fact that the people truly like Christmas as it is today. Customs, like laws, cannot be made to continue or to flourish unless the people endorse and approve them.

Besides, it is fun to give and to receive. —Hereford Brand

Q — I intend to apply for a GI loan to go into business. Is there any limit to the period in which I must repay such a loan?

A — If your GI loan is a non-real estate business loan, it will have to be repaid in 10 years or less; a real estate business loan may run up to 25 years.

Q — Why do I lose all the money I paid in premiums on my term insurance when I convert to a permanent plan?

A — While your term insurance was in force, you received insurance protection against death at a very low rate for that period. Term insurance was intended to provide no more than that.

Q — I am receiving compensation from VA for a service-connected disability. My dependent parents reside in a foreign country. In event of my death, who should they contact to get the compensation to which they may be entitled?

A — They should contact the U. S. Foreign Service in the country in which they reside. The U. S. Foreign service cooperates with VA in the administration of benefits available to veterans, their dependents or beneficiaries in foreign areas.

Q — I was honorably discharged without disability after World War II service. Since my discharge, I was partially disabled in an automobile accident which prevents me from holding down a full-time job. Am I entitled to any VA benefits for this disability?

A — No, but if you should become permanently and totally disabled for reasons not traceable to your service in the armed forces, you may be entitled to a pension, providing your income does not exceed $1,000 if you have no dependents, or $2,500 if you are married or have a minor child.

Wolf Creek Philosopher

Won't Do Better In 1950 Than In 1949

(Ed. note: The Wolf Creek Philosopher seems to be starting the new year off about like he finished the old one, his letter this week reveals.)

Dear editor:
 I was out here yesterday trying to get over Christmas and get back down on leaner rations after a steady diet of turkey and candy, and tryin to collect my thoughts for the comin year. Lots of folks I know spend a lot of time gettin their farmin equipment ready for a new year, get their combines and tractors and one-ways all tuned up, but neglect tunin up their minds, although a man that relies on his brain as much as I do to keep from relyin on farm equipment needs to get his mind in shape, let the other equipment look out for itself, and I got to thinkin...

With 1950 already on us, a man who is broad-gauged and looks beyond the immediate future needs not only some resolutions for the new year but also some for the new half-century, unless he's plannin on usin the same ones.

As for me, I figured out the resolution business a long time ago and under my system a man don't have no trouble at all keepin his word.

For example, in 1950 I don't expect to put in no more wheat than I did in 1949 and I blamed sure ain't gonna work it any harder, and if some government is settin up a acreage control program for me, it can save its time. It doesn't take an act of Congress to get me to work less. Moreover, I don't expect to have any less bindweed at the end of the year than I started with and I got bindweed in every direction now. I know when I'm whipped and bindweed and me buried our differences two years ago when I seen which one had the most energy and as far as I'm concerned there's room for both of us out here. Don't know whether capitalism and communism can live together in the same world, but me and Johnson grass can.

Also I don't expect 1950 to be any better than 1949. People are always excusin themselves and sayin next year will be better, but it generally ain't and besides I ain't got many complaints against last year anyway. Pretty good year. Started out nip-and-tuck, wound up nip-and-tuck, and my observation is that most people find most years the same way, and my policy has always been to enjoy the situation at hand, regardless of the economic index.

In short, I don't expect to do no better in 1950 than I did in 1949, and I expect to enjoy no doin it.

Yours faithfully,

THE TEXAS POLL

Teaching of Christianity Is Best Way to Lasting Peace

By Joe Belden
Director, The Texas Poll

AUSTIN, Texas—What is the most important that can be done to bring about lasting peace? To weary statesmen groping to find the answer, here it is as a Christmas present from the people of Texas: the most important this is to pray and observe the teachings of Christ.

This prescription for peace topped every other idea offered by a representative cross section of adults in a statewide survey by The Texas Poll. It was the feeling of one out of every three that prayer, trust in God, living according to the precepts of Christ were the real road to peace.

Less than one out of every ten suggested strengthening the United Nations or military preparedness as "the most important thing."

Thus, while other polls have shown that Texans favor the United Nations and a strong national defense establishment, this survey points out they have greater faith in religion as a war preventative. This appeal of religion, moreover, appears consistently among all classes, men and women alike, of all educational levels.

But in spite of everything that is being done to insure peace, most Texans believe the world is moving toward another war. This view is held by a majority of men and women, and by the upper educational level as well as the lower level. It is more pronounced, however, among women and the less educated.

In the tables below, opinions are compared by sex and educational levels. The "more educated" group includes persons who graduated from high school, while the "less educated" group is limited to those who did not finish high school.

"The way things look to you, do you think the world is moving in the general direction of peace or another war?"

A Tonic For The Missus

The missus came marching in with a new hat yesterday. She was as happy as a circus poster.

I've learned one thing about the hats she buys. A hat is a tonic to her. If she's feeling blue, nothing gives her a lift like a new hat. Now, I could trade in my old grey fedora without raising my blood pressure a notch. But I'll admit that more than once I've bought a new briar pipe I didn't need—just because life was getting a little bit monotonous.

With Buck Howell it's something else again. When Buck is feeling low, he gets over it by blowing on a broken-down clarinet he hasn't mastered in twenty years.

From where I sit, different people are always going to respond to different things in different ways. So let's keep a friendly understanding of what other folks get out of a new hat, an old clarinet, a chocolate soda or a temperate glass of sparkling beer or ale now and then.
