Fair Building Is Razed By Blaze

LOSS OF OVER $3,500 SUSTAINED AS FARM STRUCTURE BURNS

Fire of undetermined origin this morning destroyed the agriculture building at the Panhandle-South Plains fairgrounds here. Value of the building was estimated by fair association officials at $3,500 to $4,000, more than half of which was covered by insurance.

After two pieces of fire-fighting apparatus answered an alarm about 8:03 a. m. to 311 east Twentieth street, where a barn owned by a negro was afire, an alarm summoning firemen to the fairgrounds in northeast Lubbock was received. Five trucks answered the second alarm, received about 9:17 o'clock. The two which had gone to the Twentieth street address, where the barn nearly was destroyed, were among those answering the second summons. Origin of the first blaze also was undetermined, firemen said.

The agriculture building, a frame structure with a sheet-iron roof, was 140 feet long and 60 feet wide, its ends to the north and south.

Fire Chief W. E. Twitty said the fire, which originated in the north end of the building, which was closed, had gained considerable headway before firemen arrived. The fire chief was at the fire on Twentieth street when he sighted signs of a blaze at the fairgrounds. Flames had eradicated any clue as to its origin, he said.

Ford Museum To Be Opened Today

DETROIT, June 22 (AP)—Henry Ford's museum of science and industry, product of a dozen years of effort and expenditure of literally millions of dollars, opens its doors to the public for the first time today at Dearborn.

The labored "chug chug" of early apparatus and the high pitched hum of modern machinery will tell in their own languages the development of the dynamo, the automobile, the airplane and even the vacuum cleaner.

The history of the dynamo will be depicted with exhibits extending back to Faraday's first experiments. The incandescent lamp is tracked back past Thomas A. Edison's pioneering work. Other carefully collected exhibits cover developments in transportation, science agriculture and the household arts.

Luther Burkank's spade is there as are articles used by George Washington and a collection of early American furniture running into thousands of rare pieces.

"The Japanese are thereby given unbroken control of the district," the Chinese allege.

CREDIT GROUP SHAKEUP DUE

MORGENTHAU TO MAKE NUMEROUS CHANGES IN FARM AGENCIES

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Numerous changes in organization of federal agricultural credit agencies—and many in personnel—will be made in the next three months by Governor Henry Morgenthau, jr., of the Farm Credit administration.

His goal is to put farm credit on a cooperative basis. Through establishing a limited mutual responsibility he hopes to lessen risks, make saleable at lower interest rates securities backed by farm property and thus make farm credit available at lower rates.

Bank Changes Due

The most important organization changes will be made in the 12 cities were federal land banks are now located—Springfield, Massachusetts, Baltimore, Columbia, South Carolina, Louisville, New Orleans, St. Louis, St. Paul, Omaha, Wichita, Kansas, Houston, Berkeley, California and Spokane.

The federal land banks and intermediate credit banks located in each will be joined by two new credit units, a "bank for cooperatives," and a "production credit corporation."

Jointly the four units will be known as the "Farm Credit administration," with an agent in charge representing Morgenthau. The agent will pass on matters which ordinarily would be referred to Washington.

Each of the four divisions will have a president to be chosen by the board of directors succeeding the group which now has control of land and intermediate credit banks. Morgenthau will select a majority of the board members.

Schoene is a film studio employe.

Two Youthful Slaying Suspects Captured

MITCHELL FREED IN TAX EVASION CASE

BANKING HEAD ACQUITTED ON ALL COUNTS

JURY VERDICT HOLDS DEFENDANT DID NOT CHEAT GOVERNMENT

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 22 — Charles E. Mitchell was acquitted today on all counts in the indictment which charged him with income tax evasion.

Jury which had heard the government charges that Mitchell, former chairman of the National City bank, had cheated the government in 1929 and 1930 of more than $850,000 in income taxes, took the case at 11:25 a. m., E. S. T. yesterday.

It returned the verdict a little more than 24 hours later.

Sham Sales Claimed

The charges against Mitchell, who for many years was one of the most powerful figures in the banking world, were briefly that he had illegally failed to report a payment of $666,666.67 from the National City company in 1929, and that he had made sham stock sales to make it appear that he had suffered such heavy income loss that he owed no tax in 1929 and 1930.

The stock sale in 1929 was to Mitchell's wife, and the one in 1930 to W. D. Thornton, president of the Greene Cananea Copper company.

The jury had been instructed that it could convict or acquit on all the charges together, or could convict or acquit on any one charge.

The jury returned for instructions three times, once yesterday and twice today. It was at the conclusion of the third appearance of the jury in the courtroom that the verdict acquitting Mitchell on all counts was returned.

Mitchell Overjoyed

Mitchell leaped to his feet as he heard the words, "not guilty," pronounced in a low voice by James K. Campbell, foreman, and grabbed the hand of Max D. Steuer, his counsel. His face was fiery red, his eyes filled with tears. With Steur he left the court room while the jurors were still in the box.

Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard requested the jurors not to discuss

PUBLIC WORKS BOARD READY

TO SET HUGE FEDERAL FUND TO FLOWING AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 22—President Roosevelt's public works board today informed the nation that "we are proceeding as rapidly as possible" to set flowing the $3,300,000,000 appropriated for construction activities by congress.

An official statement said "an efficient organization" is being set up to carry out the program for which funds were provided in the industrial recovery bill.

Ickes To Be In Charge

Secretary Ickes, chairman of the cabinet board, will be in charge. Under him will be the public works administrator.

Colonel Donald H. Sawyer, the present temporary administrator, today moved his headquarters into the interior department building, and found dozens of applicants for jobs and projects in his ante-room. To those seeking funds for construction, he said the administrator was not yet ready. The board made clear that the administration of public works would be entirely distinct from the industrial control administration under Hugh S. Johnson.

To handle applications on state, county and city projects, there will be a state administrator and state advisory board to be appointed by President Roosevelt.

"To correct some erroneous current reports," the board added, "it may be said that not a single state public works administrator has yet been appointed."

To Pass On Projects

The state administrators and advisory boards would pass upon pro-

OFFICERS ARE HUNTING FOR TWO OTHERS

FOUR YOUTHS ESCAPE FROM REFORMATORY AFTER KILLING

(By The Associated Press)

MERIDIAN, June 22. — James Anderson and Clarence Raines, two of four prisoners who escaped from the Gatesville reformatory last night after Will Leonard, prison blacksmith, was fatally injured, were captured today on the White ranch 12 miles east of Meridian.

They were tracked down by bloodhounds under the direction of Rufus Burleson, reformatory dog sergeant, and were placed in the jail here. Officers and citizens of the community then renewed their hunt for the other two boys, Willard Scott and Grady Applegate.

Burleson and E. W. Jones, a member of the posse which numbered almost 100 persons, participated in the actual capture, at a place between Meridian and the Brazos river, about 35 miles north of Gatesville.

All Four Sighted

All four of the prisoners were sighted near the White ranch last night several hours after they escaped but escaped, two of them under the gunfire of Tom Gillespie, a constable.

The boys' clothing was badly torn by the dogs and their faces were scratched before the two men could pull the dogs away.

They declined to discuss their escape other than to say that they separated from Scott and Applegate

HUNT IS MADE FOR AIRMEN

SPANISH FLIERS ARE REPORTED DOWN IN PLANE CRACKUP

(By The Associated Press)

MEXICO, D. C., June 22—Civilian and governmental aviators redoubled their search today for two Spanish trans-Atlantic fliers, long overdue on a flight from Havana, after scores of men returned from a fruitless hunt in mountains southeast of here where the Spaniards were reported to have crashed.

President Rodriquez' office received information indicating the fliers, Capt. Mariano Barberan and Lieut. Joaquin Collar, might have been forced south of their course by storms and had continued westward through Tabasco state over the Sierra mountains.

In such a case they might possibly be far from Villa Hermosa, in Tabasco state where they were last seen and the focal point of the search hitherto.

To Extend Search

Consequently, preparations were made to extend the hunt into the states of Oaxaca and Guerrero.

A department of communications official last night said he had confirmed reports that the Spanish plane, Cuatro Vientos, or Four Winds, had crashed on La Malinche mountain, that Lieut. Collar had been killed, and that his companion was seriously hurt.

The Spanish ambassador, Julio Alvarez Del Vayo, declared however, that the reports of the crash in Tlaxcala state appeared untrue, and that he had made numerous attempts to verify the rumors without success.

DEMOCRATS TO OBTAIN JOBS

PARTY MEMBERS LINE UP AT FEDERAL PIE COUNTER

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 22—Deserving Democrats lined up ten deep at the federal pie counter, will see hundreds and thousands of jobs apportioned soon after President Roosevelt returns from his vacation, but to get them for themselves may have to meet an insistent demand that they measure up on the merit score.

Directors of new federal enterprises in which most of the jobs are to be created are declaring that political support will get applicants nowhere unless they qualify as genuinely expert at the tasks to be filed.

Farley Besieged

But James A. Farley, postmaster general and patronage arbiter, is being besieged with increasing pressure by senators and representatives and committeemen whose constituents have until now been stalled off. A special committee of representatives recently set up to push Farley, is exceedingly active scouting out job possibilities both under the new industrial, public works, relief, farm and other emergency acts of the last congress, and in the existing departments and agencies of government.

Estimates of the number of jobs to be available run as high as 25,000 or 30,000.

SEEK REMOVAL OF BARRIERS TO TRADE

DELEGATION DEMANDS ADOPTION OF FDR TARIFF PROGRAM

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, June 22—The American delegation to the world economic conference today made a startling move which the delegates of many other nations interpreted as serving formal notice that the United States will not consider stabilization of the dollar before the conference has adopted President Roosevelt's program for the removal of international trade barriers.

This American move was the introduction of a resolution by Secretary of State Cordell Hull under instructions from Mr. Roosevelt calling for the removal of trade barriers. No mention was made of stabilization and there was no swinging of the big club.

Campaign Answered

The opinion freely expressed in the lobbies, however, was that this was the American answer to the fierce campaign France and other gold standard countries have been waging to force the United States to stabilize the dollar before other subjects are dealt with at the conference.

The stabilization storm, which has been growing apace the last few days, was lashing the conference with its full fury, and there even was revived talk of trying to find a way to adjourn the proceedings pending settlement of the imbroglio.

The Hull resolution was introduced in a sub-committee of the economic commission. As soon as word of it spread the delegates began debating its probable effect.

There was much speculation

MOB THWARTED IN LYNCHING EFFORT

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., June 22. (AP)—A mob of approximately 150 white men and youths congregated about the Tuscaloosa county jail last night and demanded two negroes held in the slaying of a white girl, but dispersed after officers convinced them the prisoners had been spirited away.

Circuit Judge H. B. Foster and Sheriff R. L. Shamblin addressed the group which left after two of their number which said they knew the negroes, Dan Pippen, jr., and A. T. Harden were conducted through the cells and failed to find the prisoners.

The victim of the slaying, Miss Vaudine Maddox, 21-year-old farm girl, was found with her head crushed by a heavy rock in rural Tuscaloosa county, 16 miles from here. The coroner said she had been attacked.

Railways Agree To Delay Wage Slash

WASHINGTON, June 22 (AP) — Railroads have heeded a plea of the administration to postpone until June 30, 1934, a proposed new 12 1-2 per cent pay cut for their workers.

As a result, organized railroad labor until the middle of next year will continue to work on the present schedule—the old basic wage, less ten per cent. By that time government and railroads both hope all need for pay cuts will be passed.

Cotton Acreage Reduction Plan Told To Newspaper Publishers

(Special To The Journal)

DALLAS, June 22—Twenty-three Texas newspaper publishers and two from Tulsa today conferred with C. A. Cobb, head of the cotton production division of the agricultural readjustment administration, in a meeting at which there were "no reporters present."

In explaining the cotton acreage reduction plan of Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, which has received the unqualified approval of President Roosevelt, Cobb told his publisher listeners that details of the plan must be kept confidential until released by the agricultural department at Washington. He said immature publication of the facts in the plan to adjust cotton production to the law of supply and demand might seriously damage this important part of the administration's recovery program.

Cobb pointed out the huge world cotton carryover of twelve and a half million bales must not be continued over into 1934 if prosperity is again to return to the cotton belt. It is to help eliminate this vast carryover that the Wallace plan was devised.

Today's meeting was held at the Baker hotel and was entirely informal, those present interrupting the speaker at will and firing questions at him when in need of further explanation.

Speaking broadly, Cobb characterized the plan as "a business proposition to the farmer" and not an appeal to his patriotism. Farmers will curtail their acreage entirely at their own will and a schedule of protection for cooperating planters has been worked out with the government, making up what is called a "fair portion" of the deficit thus encountered by the individual.

The entire plan, Cobb said, is not one of relief but to take cotton out of production for the year 1933. He said Secretary Wallace and Administrators George Peek and Charles J. Brand expected a generous share of cooperation from cotton growers throughout the belt "from the Caprock of the Texas Plains clear across to Virginia."

West Texas newspapermen present at the conference included E. B. Howard, Wichita Falls Times and Record-News; James M. North, and Charles Benson, Ft. Worth Star-Telegram, and Charles A. Guy, Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, also representing the Amarillo News-Globe.

Georgia Girls Answer Old Question; Three Can Live As Cheaply As One, They Assert; Offer Proof In Expenses

By putting to practice what they learned about home economics, three sisters have spent only $3,000 to complete a four-year course at the Georgia State College of Agriculture. Usually it costs one girl that much. Here are the money-savers in their kitchen—left to right: Ruby, Eddie May and Pauline Burson.

ATHENS, Ga., June 22 (AP)—Three have lived as cheaply as one during the past four years and acquired a college education too.

The Burson girls—Ruby, Eddie May and Pauline—farmer's daughters, put their home economics study to a practical purpose and this year are completing four years of higher learning at a total cost of $3,000.

That's the usual amount required to give only one girl a college education at the Georgia State College of Agriculture, which the Burson girls have attended.

Ruby, the eldest, was teaching before the other girls finished high school. She didn't want to go to college without her sisters, so she waited until they were ready.

Entered Together

Eddie May, a couple of grades ahead of Pauline, had to stay out of school for a while. Pauline caught up, and they were graduated together.

The girls' father, R. P. Burson, well-to-do Georgia farmer, left it up to them to select their school. They chose the college of agriculture so they might study home economics.

They found an apartment and set up housekeeping with the chores equally divided. It was a bit hard on the pocketbook the first year because freshmen don't know so much about managing. The cost ran up to about $800.

Cheaper Each Year

The second year they cut this to $750, the third year it was something like $725, and this year they have managed to hold it to $700.

Included in these amounts are the tuition costs, which totalled $1,080—$90 a year for each girl. Social and athletic obligations had to be met too.

The girls bought their own clothes, but their father gave them a lift on the food problem by coming up weekends with eggs, butter, meat and vegetables from the farm.

Housekeeping didn't detract from participating in school life—they won honors in athletic events and made good scholastic records.

Honors For Father

Papa Burson is distinguished too. Because of his success as a farmer Gov. Eugene Talmadge, Georgia's man-in-the-furrow chief executive, named him a member of the board of regents, controlling all state institutions of higher learning.

He never attended college, and he's the only dirt farmer on the board.

His girls all want to teach.

FOR REAL SPORT, TRY RATTLESNAKE HUNTING, MAN AT POST RECOMMENDS; BAGS FROM 100 TO 300 EVERY YEAR

POST, June 22. (AP)—For "real sport," J. E. Adams of Post recommends rattlesnake hunting.

Every year Adams goes into the rocky hills near Post, where the high Texas plains drop to a lower elevation, forming what is known as the Caprock, and brings out from 100 to 300 of the big reptiles which are feared for their deadly bite.

"It is the greatest sport of all the hunting I have ever done," Adams said.

Markets The Skins

Adams takes the rattlers for circuses, carnivals, laboratories, or anyone wanting live snakes for exhibit or study. He sometimes extracts the oil and markets the skins. He can go into the hills any time and return within two or three hours with from one to a dozen rattlers, according to demand.

Fear of the rattlers does not deter Adams from his hobby. He wears no special clothing, except something heavy and dark. His equipment consists of a seven-foot pole, with a hook in one end and two prongs in the other.

If the snakes are found in rock crevices he pulls them out with the hook, which is not sharp. In the open the prongs are slipped over the snake's head, pinning it to the ground. Adams then picks upthe captive and drops it into a wire cage, provided the reptil's length is no more than six feet. Snakes of greater length are to heavy and strong to handle by hand. These Adams traps by slipping the cage up over their bodies, tail first.

Fangs Grow Back

"I extract the fangs only on request," Adams said. "They grow back in from four to six weeks, and one snake will grow from 12 to 14 sets of fangs.

"They become less vicious after being in captivity for awhile, but I have never kept one that would not strike occasionally," Adams said. "They don't make very dependable pets."

Adams has adopted his own hunting regulations and refuses to take those under four feet. He leaves them to grow up. The young are the ones to be feared by hunters, however, since they are more alert and vicious, Adams has learned.

In 10 years of hunting he has never been bitten, although he has had them brush his hands and even his head when striking. He carries no serum.

"If I were bitten," Adams said, "I would bind the affected part with a cord, then slash open the wound with a knife to let the poison out."

"Don't Always Rattle"

Here are some of Adams' observations: Rattlers can strike a distance equal to two-thirds of their length. They don't always rattle a warning before striking. The strike is faster than the eye. The young are born, and when frightened run into the mouths of their mothers. A rattler will run a few yards, then fight until he is dead.

Adams once saw a whip snake kill a rattler in combat by wrapping its body about the rattler and squeezing it to death.

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

Still Has Place

IOWA CITY, Ia.—The good sound spanking still has its place in this modern world.

In fact, said Dr. Esther L. Richards, professor of psychiatry at John Hopkins university, science has found no substitute for it.

"If you find that your child has scattered the contents of the ice box over the kitchen floor, give him a sound spanking," she said in addressing the seventh annual conference of child welfare.

"There is no use," she added, "trying to reason with a small child. The child will listen because he has nothing better to do, but it is time wasted in telling him why he should or should not do a thing."

Grave Mystery

NOBLESVILLE, Ind.—Motorists drove by the cemetery cautiously because there had been stories of a faint yellow light that glimmered from a tombstone.

Some said it was caused by radium used on the person who lies buried beneath the stone.

A reportrer decided it was time to investigate and found that the illumination was merely the reflection from a street light shining on polished black marble.

Gulls vs. 'Hoppers

WOLFVILLE, N. S.—Farmers of the Grand Pre Meadows turned thankful eyes today on fields white with the gulls of Fundy - - - gulls fattening on millions of grass hoppers which had threatened to ruin the crops.

Last year marked the return of a grasshopper plague after a lapse of 40 seasons. The pests attacked ripened grain and at least half the crop was lost.

This year the grasshoppers are back—but the gulls are also here.

ASKS SUPPORT FOR PROGRAM

COTTON CO-OP CHIEF SAYS ACREAGE PLAN WILL SUCCEED

NEW ORLEANS, June 22 (AP)—U. B. Blalock of Raleigh, N. C., president of the American Cotton Cooperative association, today urged southern cotton planters to give their entire support to the government plan to boost prices by reducing acreage.

He said the government offer of from $7 to $20 an acre for leasing of 10,000,000 acres of cotton producing land was "eminently fair," and will succeed because "it offers greater advantages to the producers who cooperate than to those who do not cooperate."

He said previous plans to reduce acreage failed because the man who curtailed planting "held an umbrella" over the man who did not.

J. H. Youngblood, of Waco, Texas, owner of approximately 10,000 acres of cotton land in Central Texas, said the government plan will be heavily subscribed to by Texas farmers.

OUSTED HIGHWAY BOARD MEMBERS SEEK INJUNCTION

ATLANTA, June 22 (AP)—A federal injunction to keep Governor Eugene Talmadge from running the state highway department under martial law was asked here Wednesday by two ousted members of the highway board, but a date for the hearing was not set.

The petition, filed by J. W. Barnett and W. C. Vereen, asked that Governor Talmadge, Adjutant General Lindley W. Camp and Highway Commissioner Jud P. Wilhoit be required to show cause why the martial law rule of the highway department should not be stopped.

Federal Judge E. Marvin Understood said a three-judge court would be organized and a date set for a hearing on a rule directing the three defendants to show cause why the injunction should not be issued.

Meanwhile several capitol officials, including the governor himself, were assigned personal military guards.

MISTRIAL RESULTS

VERNON, June 22. (AP)—A mistrial resulted last night in the case of Dallas Paschall, 28, of Dallas, charged with burglary in connection with an attempt to rob the First State bank at Oklaunion last April 10. After the jury deliberated four hours it was announced that the panel was deadlocked. The judge then dismissed the jurors. Retrial of the case probably will be in October.

Industrial arbitration was first resorted to in the settlement of labor disputes before the French Revolution at Lyons, when controversies arose in the silk industry.

WOMAN HELD ON PERJURY CHARGE

WICHITA FALLS, June 22 (AP)—Winnie Wolfe, Wichita Falls beauty parlor operator, was arrested here Wednesday afternoon by Rangers L. C. Sport and C. B. Shelton on a perjury indictment in connection with her testimony at LaGrange in the trial of Eugene Odare for robbery of the Carmine bank. The two state officers took their prisoner to Dallas.

Police Chief Dicke Morris revealed that the woman would be questioned at Dallas in an effort to learn if she had received any information concerning the movements of Clyde and Ivy (Buck) Barrow, brothers, wanted on various felony charges in Oklahoma and Missouri, and in Texas for the recent kidnaping of Sheriff George Corry and City Marshal Paul Hardy at Wellington.

Mrs. Wolfe testified at LaGrange that Odare was in her beauty parlor getting a facial and a permanent wave the day of the Carmine bank robbery. Odare was given a life sentence.

LOWER TRAVEL COST SOUGHT

SOUTHERN PACIFIC IS SEEKING TO REDUCE RAILROAD FARE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22 (AP)—The Southern Pacific company launched a move today to reduce travel costs to two cents a mile for coach fare on one-way tickets. The company said this would be a reduction of 45 per cent.

Application was made to the interstate commerce commission and various state authorities for permission to establish the lowered rate on July 1, in six western states.

The request is for a three months trial period. If successful, the plan will be made permanent.

Felix S. McGinnis, vice president in charge of passenger traffic, said the rates would apply to coaches, chair cars and tourist pullmans on through service and overnight rides, on all lines between San Francisco and Ogden, and from Portland to El Paso.

The move is designed to meet the competition of the private automobile, McGinnis said.

Legion Dance Given Wednesday Night

Compilations were being made this morning to determine net receipts of a dance which Allen Brothers post, No. 148, of the American Legion gave as a benefit last night in the Uptown Dance palace. Wiley L. Metcalfe, dance committee chairman, said the crowd was of satisfactory size. A negro orchestra played for the dance.

Students To Make Trip To Santa Fe

A trip to Santa Fe for those students who previously have visited Carlsbad Caverns and who do not care to make the trip July 1, is being arranged by Prof. W. R. Waghorne of Texas Tech. The trip will begin at the same time as the caverns trip.

On this trip a visit will be made to the archeology party in the field near Santa Fe, at Arrowhead canyon, 50 miles east, where Dr. W. C. Holden has a group of students doing excavation work.

Transportation costs will not exceed $5, Professor Waghorne estimates. Incidentals will be small. The first night the party will stop at the excavation camp, with the second day being spent in visiting the historical spots at the capital of New Mexico. A special high mass is to be arranged for Sunday with the new archbishop of New Mexico.

Mayor Gets Thanks And A Horned Toad For Playing Cupid

MACON, Ga., June 22. (AP)—A horned toad and a letter of thanks letter are Mayor G. Glen Toole's rewards for playing cupid.

They came from Lee C. Flewellen of San Antonio, Texas, who asked and received the mayor's help in finding a "Georgia peach" for his bride.

That request came two years ago and Toole promptly arranged for an introduction of the Texan to Miss Ruby Lee Lockhart of Macon.

They were married forthwith and now Mr. Flewellen writes of "love in a bungalow" and his wife's flowers that recently won first prize in a garden show.

The Philippine Islands did not have prohibition but an old act forbidding the sale of intoxicating liquor to the Moros still applies.

Agricultural Work Not To Be Slashed

WASHINGTON, June 22. (AP)—The administration has withdrawn, temporarily, at least, its plan to decrease by 25 per cent the agriculture department's expenditures for cooperative extension work, vocational education and rehabilitation, experiment stations and endowment of agricultural colleges.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, told newspapermen that Lewis W. Douglas, the budget director, and Secretary Wallace had notified him the order would be held up indefinitely.

This action followed protests by senate Republican leaders that the administration was ignoring the understanding reached just before congress adjourned that this work would not be curtailed.

Between the years 1690 and 1720 it is estimated there were more than 2000 pirates afloat off our coast between Maine and Florida.

New motor oil shows America how to get 28½% more miles per quart

MEASURING THE EXACT AMOUNT OF OIL placed in each of the test cars. Representatives of the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association tested Gulf-lube against leading brands of 25c oils in 6 borrowed cars—and Gulf-lube stood up 28½% longer before a quart of oil had to be added.

3 YEARS OLD—One of the cars borrowed for this test run had piled up thousands of miles on its speedometer—yet Gulf-lube cut its oil consumption to the bone!

2 YEARS OLD—Pistons and rings in this car had never been replaced—but that made no difference to Gulf-lube! For Gulf-lube outlasted every competing oil tested in this car by a wide margin!

1 YEAR OLD—This roadster was in good average mechanical shape, with pistons and rings well "broken in" but not worn. And again Gulf-lube carried off top honors against other leading 25c motor oils!

BRAND-NEW—This car's mileage was little over 1000 miles. Rings and pistons were tight and oil consumption was low. Yet even in this almost new car, Gulf-lube lasted 37.4 more miles per quart than the average of the competing oils!

Gulf-lube wins amazing test with borrowed cars of different makes

SIX AVERAGE CARS—from new to several years old—were borrowed from their owners and placed on the Indianapolis Speedway.

In these cars, representatives of the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association tested four of America's leading brands of 25c oils.

In a 4-day grind around the track, at a constant speed of 45 miles an hour, these cars tested each of the competing oils.

And, at the end of the test, Gulf-lube had beaten every oil in every car! In Car No. 2, for example,—when oil "C" was replaced with Gulf-lube, consumption dropped from a quart every 652 miles to a quart every 1447 miles!

And, averaging the figures for all cars, Gulf-lube cut the oil costs on these cars 28½%!

Buy less oil—get better lubrication

Switch to Gulf-lube now. You'll buy less oil. And you'll get better lubrication. Try it! It's the finest motor oil a quarter ever bought. Get it at any Gulf station.

It's West Texas Gas vs. City Hall in the National league and Weiss-Truck Terminal vs. Dee's Coffee Shop in the American league in this afternoon's kitten ball games.

The department offers an apology for an error made by the Morning Avalanche reporter yesterday morning. Story of the kitten ball leagues contained a statement which left the impression that West Texas Gas defeated Texas Utilities last week. It should have been the reverse, as appeared in yesterday's Journal. Some member of the Texas Utilities club wrote a sarcastic note to the department upon discovering the error. A timid fellow, the letter writer didn't sign his name, and we don't take anything seriously which isn't signed.

Take all the cracks at this department and its errors that you want; the more the merrier, but signatures should not be neglected. If you don't want your name published, just say so in the letter, but we'd like to know with whom we are scrapping. We never like to make a stab at an unknown person. For all we know, he, too, may have a charley horse.

Personal note to all soft ball team managers: Please see that a correct lineup, batting order and score of all league games is kept and turned in soon after the game. The sports staff is limited, making it impossible for every game to be witnessed by a reporter. Unless you turn in your lineup, names of your players will not appear in the noospepper. Don't worry about box scores, however.

PLAYER DEALS PROVE TO BE BENEFICIAL

TRADED STARS START HITTING FOR THEIR NEW OWNERS

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Last minute trades by which several National league clubs endeavored to gain strength for the mid-season struggles appear, at first glance, to have panned out well.

Notable among them was the switch which sent Lefty O'Doul to the New York Giants and Sam Leslie to the Brooklyn Dodgers, but the Boston-Philadelphia deal, involving Pinkey Whitney, Hal Lee, Wes Schulmerich and Fritz Knothe also seems to have been beneficial to both teams.

O'Doul Starts Hitting

O'Doul, who wasn't hitting at all with the Dodgers, again made himself an important figure with the bat yesterday when, for the second time since the June 15 trade, he paced the New Yorkers to a victory that helped them hold the lead in the elder circuit. Lefty made two hits as the Giants downed the Chicago Cubs 3-1 in a brilliant mound duel between Fred Fitzsimmons and Pat Malone, and one was a home run that put New York ahead to stay.

Leslie's clouting already has won a couple of games for the Dodgers but he couldn't do much as the St. Louis Cardinals, after giving away five runs in the first inning, came back to win 7-5 and remain a half game behind the Giants.

Whitney On Second

Whitney, the leading figure in the trade between the Braves and the Phillies, got a new job at second base when the veteran Rabbit Maranville was benched and Dick Gyaelman was put in at third. He not only filled the bill afield but walloped three hits and batted in five runs as the Braves took both ends of a doubleheader from the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-5 and 5-3.

The Phils' new acquisitions, Schulmerich and Knothe, batted in six of the ten counters Philadelphia scored in the sixth and seventh innings to beat Cincinnati 10-8.

In the American league, Washington's so-far unsuccessful pursuit of the New York Yankees again furnished the day's high spots as both teams won and remained a game and a half apart.

Sens Beat Chisox

The Senators had little trouble downing the Chicago White Sox 9-0 as they uncorked an 18-hit assault, while Earl Whitehill kept nine hits well scattered. The Yankees, however, had to go 13 innings to beat the last-place St. Louis Browns 5-3 despite Lou Gehrig's 17th home run of the season and Tony Lazzeri's 12th.

The Cleveland Indians continued their winning streak with more flashy pitching as Wes Ferrell limited the Philadelphia Athletics to six safeties while his mates pounded George Earnshaw for an 11-1 triumph.

The Boston Red Sox split a doubleheader, the Sox winning the opening slugfest 10-9 with the aid of a five run rally in the sixth and the Tigers coming back to get a 5-3 victory behind Fred Marberry's good flinging.

LEAD IS HELD BY SPORTS

J. & J. WINS SECOND SOFT BALL GAME TO PACE LEAGUE

The "National" league lead in the local soft ball organizations went at least temporarily, to the J. & J. Sporting Goods company when its team won its second league victory yesterday. The Sports defeated Texas Utilities, winners over West Texas Gas last week, 19 to 12.

In the "American" league, Quicksall-Pryor's team nudged out the Lubbock Compress, 30 to 10, to join Hotel Hilton in the undefeated list of American league teams.

In this afternoon's games, West Texas Gas company takes on City Hall, winners over Kuykendall Chevrolet last week, in the National league, and Weiss-Truck Terminal meets Dee's Coffee Shop in the American league.

May Change Site

The National league game will be played at the Fair Park field, the American league contest at the 22nd Street park. Negotiations are under way to procure a more suitable park for the American league games, and place for today's contest may be changed.

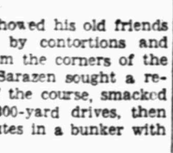

The lineups for yesterday's games:

AMERICAN RYDER CUP PLAYERS PRACTICE ON THEIR ARRIVAL

LONDON, June 22. (AP)—The United States Ryder Cup team hardly wasted a minute between its arrival in England and the beginning of practice for the international matches at Southport next Monday and Tuesday, but the earnestness of Walter Hagen and his crew failed to shake the confidence of the British.

An hour after the Americans reached Waterloo station they had escaped from the welcoming crowd and were practicing on the Addington course near Croydon. After watching their impressive workout, Henry Cotton, British professional said the visitors hadn't given themselves long enough to recover after their long journey.

"Britain Will Win"

"Britain will win the Ryder Cup," Cotton predicted.

There was nothing in the Americans' practice session to convey the idea that it would be an easy victory for the British, however. Hagen, captain of the team, showed himself still a great golfing personality as he gave an exhibition of chipping dead to the pin from 40 yards away a dozen times in succession. Billy Burke, smoking a big cigar—one rarely sees cigars on a golf course here—hit terrific tee shots while the giant Dutra toyed with his irons.

Leo Diegel showed his old friends he still putts by contortions and sinks them from the corners of the greens. Gene Sarazen sought a remote corner of the course, smacked some vicious 300-yard drives, then spent ten minutes in a bunker with his niblick.

The Americans also hesitated about predicting a victory for themselves. In reply to the formal welcome of Southport's mayor Hagen said:

"I think we are in for the biggest fight of our career against your brilliant youngsters."

SHARKEY NEARS END OF TRAINING FOR CARNERA FIGHT; HOPES FOR KNOCKOUT

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

ORANGEBURG, N. Y., June 22. (AP)—With only one idea in his mind, a clear, cold knockout—Jack Sharkey is working down to the close of the training grind for his fifteen-round title defense against Primo Carnera June 29, as keen and fit, and vicious as he ever has been in all his fighting days.

Under a broiling sun the Boston sailor battered three sparring partners—Hans Birkie, Chester Matan and Yustin Sirutis—and finished off with five more rounds of light bag punching and body exercises. Perspiration poured from him, yet at the end of the drill he weighed only 203 pounds, 2 1-2 less than he scaled for the match with Max Schmeling in which he won his title a year ago.

He carried himself meanly, sullenly, about the camp, luring spectators into seats wired with electricity that sent them howling into the air when he touched a button. Carefully he wired the ignition of automobiles lined outside the training grounds, connecting them with a kind of skyrocket hidden under the hood that whistles, pours forth smoke and finally explodes with a great bang when the unfortunate driver presses his starter button.

But most of his venom was saved for his sparring partners, all capable fighters.

He's taking no chances on overtraining this time, the cause he believes of the tiredness that assailed him in the last five rounds of his last engagement with Schmeling.

"From here on I'm coasting. I never felt better in my life. I'll show them how old I am. Ten rounds is about all it will take. I had Carnera down the last time I fought him. He won't get up this time, ten, do you hear me?"

HAMAS BEATEN BY LOUGHRAN

OLD MASTER OF RING STRATEGY BACK IN FISTIC LIMELIGHT

NEW YORK, June 22. (AP)—Tommy Loughran, the old master of ring strategy, is back in the fistic limelight again. He no longer is regarded as a contender for championships of any kind, but after being regarded as "all through" a half dozen times since he was knocked out by Jack Sharkey four years ago, he has returned to the "big time" and big crowds with a decision over his old rival, Steve Hamas.

Tommy staged perhaps the greatest comeback of them all before 10,000 excited fans at the Yankee stadium last night. For eight rounds he barely staved off the rushes of the fiery Wallington, N. J., youngster.

Then in the ninth, bleeding from cuts over eyes and apparently not far from a knockout, Loughran suddenly switched from boxing to fighting. He rocked Hamas' head back with hard rights and lefts, slugged and swatted on even terms and won the last two rounds and a close decision.

Loughran weighed 186 pounds, Hamas 187 3-4.

TULSA OILERS LOSE TWO TO EXPORTERS

TEXAS LEAGUE GAMES EXTEND FAR INTO NIGHT; BUFFS WIN

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

All night baseball sessions dominated the Texas league again Wednesday. Two doubleheaders and the part of a third twin bill featured while the flood lights gleamed and the fans wondered about breakfast.

In the wee hours of dawn, the Beaumont Exporters returned to their hotel with 7 to 2 and 6 to 4 victories over the Tulsa Oilers. Lusty blows by Beaumont and erratic Tulsa pitchers combined to give the Exporters their double decision.

Gets Freak Homer

First Baseman Walters climaxed the nightcap combat with a freak home run. The ball took a bad hop as it hit the ground and rolled off to the fence for a home run. Parker got two doubles and two singles for Beaumont in the second game.

After Houston had won the first game, 10 to 5, the second melee between the pace setting Buffaloes and Fort Worth Cats was called in the third inning to allow Houston to catch a train.

Split Twin Bill

San Antonio and Oklahoma City split a doubleheader. The Alamo City tribe won the first, 12 to 5, but lost the second, 3 to 0. Walkup, the league's leading strikeout artist, started the first game for San Antonio but failed to last when Oklahoma City rallied for four runs in the third frame.

In the second game, Kenny limited San Antonio to four hits to breeze through with his shutout.

Galveston and Dallas held a single game at Steer stadium. It was a free hitting contest that eventually resulted in an 8 to 5 decision for the Steers.

ALLEN "SIGNS" NEW PLAYERS FOR SERIES

HUBBERS TO PRACTICE DAILY FOR KELLY FIELD FLIERS

It's practice every day for the Lubbock Hubbers this week as they prepare for one of the outstanding baseball attractions of the season Sunday and Monday. Uncle Sam's army officers, the Kelly Field Fliers, invade Lubbock Sunday for a three-game series.

Manager Sled Allen is busy this week in efforts to strengthen various weak spots on the lineup, and has succeeded in "signing" several star players for the series.

The Fliers, managed by Sergeant W. E. Newman, arrived here early Sunday and will play two games Sunday afternoon. The third game of the series is scheduled for Monday afternoon.

At College Ave. Park

Popular prices will prevail, and additional bleachers will be erected to take care of a large crowd. The game will be played at the College Avenue park, entrance to which is from 2nd street, where the Hubbers played last Sunday.

In an effort to strengthen his club, Manager Allen has procured the services of Dick Ratliff, professional catcher who played in the Central League last year with Akron and Canton, for the series. Ratliff, unattached this season, resides at Littlefield. Mickey Ratliff, one of the star shortstops of this region, may be brought in.

Nudie Moore To Pitch

Nudie Moore, star pitcher of the South Plains, brother to the celebrated Wilcy Moore, is slated to take the slab in one of Sunday's games against Uncle Sam's army officers.

Efforts are being made to bring "Pus" Ballard, fleet-footed and heavy hitting second sacker, home for the series. He, with Red Gaither also, may be here for the series, rounding out an outfield which Lubbock customers like to see. Ed Hambright and Evo Marshall or Harold Crites will be the other outfielders, or Crites may be positioned at third base.

The Fliers, seventeen strong, are reputed to be one of the strongest independent teams of South Texas. Many of the men on the team are former Texas League players, while others have played professional ball in Oklahoma and in middle west states.

When George Keogan, Notre Dame basketball and baseball coach, took over pitching duties in a varsity-alumni baseball game, he walked four batters in a row.

Sheppard Returns To Oppose Repeal

WASHINGTON, June 22. (AP)—Senator Sheppard, (D-Tex), one of the authors of the Eighteenth amendment, was on his way home today to use his influence against repeal of the prohibition law.

Sheppard will speak at the opening of the convention of prohibition's defenders at Austin, June 27, and close friends of the Texan reported he probably would make a series of other speeches against repeal.

New Mexico's legislature recently passed a tax bill providing a tax of four cents a gallon on motor oil to furnish free text books to students.

AMERICANS IN SIXTH ROUND OF TOURNEY

DUNLAP, SOMERVILLE WIN MATCHES IN BRITISH MEET

HOYLAKE, England, June 22 (AP)—North America's two major contenders for the British amateur championship, George T. Dunlap, jr., of New York, and C. Ross Somerville of London, Ont., forced their way into the sixth round this morning and were to clash later in the day for the right to enter the quarter-finals.

Dunlap, twice winner of the United States intercollegiate title when he was a student at Princeton, recovered from a shaky start to oust the British Walker Cup player, William Lister Hartley of Chislehurst, by the decisive margin of 5 and 4, in the fifth round.

Has Tough Fight

Somerville, holder of the United States amateur crown, had a tougher fight on his hands but eliminated Edward P. Kyle of Scotland, 3 and 2. Kyle had defeated the young Scottish hope, Jack McLean yesterday, 1 up.

All square at the turn in his match with Hartley, Dunlap won five successive holes from the tenth on to end the duel on the 14th green.

The young New Yorker scored birdies on the 10th and 13th holes and matched par on the 11th, 12th and 14th in the finest exhibition of golf he yet has uncovered in this tournament. Against that kind of play Hartley was helpless, especially as his own game collapsed after the turn. He took 23 strokes on the last five holes where orthodox figures are 19.

Fights Off Rally

Somerville piled up a lead of five up in the first 1 holes of his match with Kyle but then had to fight off a spirited closing challenge by the Scotsman that threatened to wipe out all the Canadian's advantage.

Kyle won the 12th, 14th and 15th with pars to cut Somerville's lead to two up but the United States champion finally ended the match on the 16th green when Kyle needed six.

The only other Canadian survivor, Jack Nash of London, Ont., won the first two holes of his match with Rex Hartley, younger brother of Dunlap's fifth round opponent. Nash won the first hole when Hartley was out of bounds off the tee and the second by holing a chip shot for a birdie three.

Roger Wethered, titleholder in 1923, was eliminated by another former champion, William Tweddell, one up in 19 holes, in the fifth round. Tweddell won the title in 1927.

Nash scored a fine victory over Hartley, British Walker Cup player, one up in 19 holes to advance to the sixth round.

Cyril J. H. Tolley, titleholder in 1920 and 1929 and one of the favorites, barely escaped elimination as H. N. M. Fogg, who put out the American Charles Sweeny yesterday, carried him to 19 holes, before surrendering the match one up.

Douglas Grant Wins

Douglas Grant, American resident of London, followed Dunlap into the sixth round with a 6 and 5 victory over J. G. M. Sherlock, of Cheshire.

Results of other fifth round matches:

J. J. Cowan, Carlisle, defeated T. F. Ellison, Royal Liverpool, 5 and 4.

Martin Schunck, Sandiway, defeated Charles Thorpe, Buxton, 1 up.

Michael Scott, Royal St. George's, defeated E. B. Tipping, Ashdown Forest, 2 and 1.

J. E. Gent, Bradford Moore, defeated J. N. Reynard, Troon, 7 and 5.

MINES MORE GOLD

SYDNEY (AP)—The gold production of Australia in 1932 was 710,420 fine ounces, worth $14,682,000, an increase of 118,675 ounces over 1931. A still higher production is expected for this year.

MRS. WILLEBRANDT FREED

NEW YORK, June 22. (AP)—Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, former assistant United States attorney general, was acquitted by a federal court jury Wednesday of a charge of libelling Gus O. Nations, Anti-Saloon league official and former prohibition administrator in St. Louis.

Fore At Two

Billy Delano probably isn't bothered by thoughts of the National Open title as he eyes the little white pellet he is about to smack. The Memphis lad plays golf regularly and often drives 75 yards, not bad for a two-year-old.

Yale to Big League

Turning his back on the campus of Old Eli to become a professional, Johnny Broaca, 23-year-old collegian, will shortly make his debut with the New York Yankees as a pitcher. Broaca wears spectacles and plays in them. The only other bespectacled big league pitcher is Danny McFayden, also of the Yankees.

Recognition Given Art Work At Tech

Texas Technological college art work is recognized in the May number of Parnassus, a publication of the College Art association.

The magazine carried an article on the work done here and also a photograph of the interior of one of the drawing rooms at Tech, showing mural work done by the students. The article praises the work done here as in other colleges of the nation.

A later issue of the magazine is to carry the curricula of fine arts courses offered at Tech.

Prof. F. A. Kleinschmidt, head of the architectural department of the college, recently returned from Chicago where he viewed exhibits and attended sessions of the association. He reported delegates at the convention were surprised at the class of work being done here.

The University of Iowa this spring graduated 29 winners of the major "I" in athletics. Eight are football players.

SPECIAL SESSION WILL BE SOUGHT

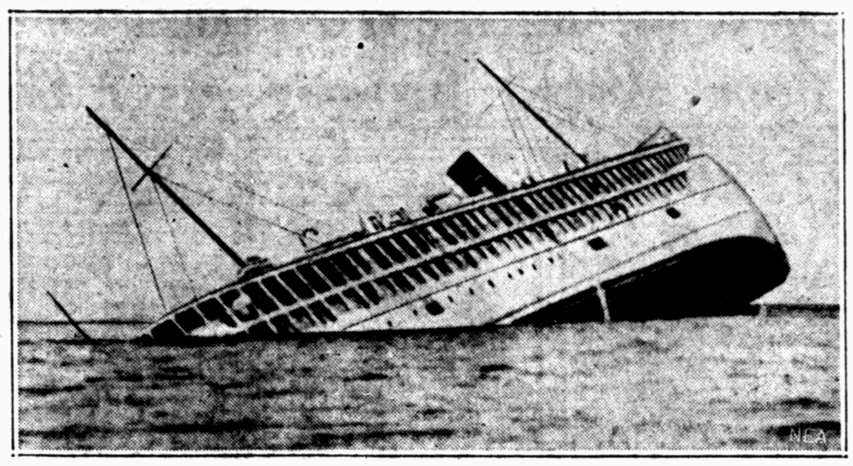

FORT WORTH, June 22 (AP)—A state-wide movement to get the governor to call a special session of the Texas legislature to enact a recovery bill to match that recently adopted by congress will be launched at a meeting of the Fort Worth trades assembly tonight, C. W. Woodman, labor leader announced.

The Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce already has asked the governor to call a special session of the legislature to suspend the anti-trust laws during the recovery period to put business in Texas on an equal footing with that of other states, Jack H. Hott, chamber manager, explained.

What Makes a Safe Tire? . . . I KNOW!

ARE you willing to risk your life on advertising statements claiming blowout-proof and unblowable tires? One manufacturer gives as the reason for claiming blowout-proof tires—the use of one ply of another color—another, a patented "no breaker" construction—a mail order house, high stretch "elastic" cords, etc., etc. Actually the fundamental cause of a tire blowout is the flexing of the tire which causes friction of the fibers in the cord, resulting in heat and causing the rubber to soften and the cords to deteriorate.

There is a reason why Firestone Tires have won the 500-mile Indianapolis race for 14 consecutive years, the most gruelling tire test. The reason is the Firestone patented extra process of Gum-Dipping which saturates every fiber and insulates every cord with pure rubber—which gives strength to the cords and prevents friction and heat in the fibers. This year 42 drivers in this race equipped their cars with Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires and not a single driver had any tire trouble.

Race drivers know why Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires are safer and not subject to blowout and will not risk their lives on ordinary tires. Your life and the lives of your family are often in danger at the high road speeds of today and you should not take greater risks than the race drivers who make sure that they have the best and safest tires they can buy—Firestone.

Racketeers

One of the good things the Senate did in its final moments was to vote a drastic investigation into racketeering in America's biggest cities.

If our "new deal" is to be all that it ought to be, it must find some way of dealing with the racketeer; and although a great deal is known about that problem, no effective correctives can be designed and applied until a lot of definite, detailed knowledge is tabulated. The best way to get such knowledge seems to be by means of a Senate investigation; and the committee members who will study the matter this summer and fall can be relied upon to get it.

Following that there must be new legislation. It is to be hoped that the investigators will find some way in which an aroused nation can strike a crippling blow at the underworld sharpers who have been levying such a heavy toll on legitimate business.

Truth, 'tis said, lies at the bottom of the well.

Maybe that's the reason lawyers always have to pump their witnesses.

THE Plainsman can think of 999 reason why he's glad Tom Blanton comes from the Abilene congressional district, rather than this one, but you do have to give the grandstanding solon a hand for being true to Texas, no matter what the discussion.

At Washington, just before the last session of congress closed, Blanton and Congressman Otha D. Wearin, of Iowa, got into an argument over which state, Texas or Iowa, grew the tallest corn.

The longer they talked the hotter the discussion became and the taller the corn grew. Finally Blanton remarked:

"Why, I remember riding through our cornfields when the corn came up to my shoulders."

"Humph", returned the Iowan. "You must have been on a Shetland pony!"

How about it, Texans?

A Lubbock man was recently vacationing in New Mexico and came upon a turn in a road, one side of which ended in a dangerous precipice.

Turning to a native, he remarked that in such a dangerous place there should be warnings posted to travelers.

"Well," said the old boy as he continued his whittling, "we used to have a warning sign there. But after we kept it there a couple a years and nobody got hurt we decided it wasn't needed and took it down!"

THE best poetry, admittedly, is not written by the rhymsters of the newspaper syndicates.

Occasionally, however, some budding genius will land a syndicate job and use it as a stepping stone—for instance, Edgar Guest, whose homely rhymes have made him an immortal to millions of plain people.

Another promising poet is Helen Welshimer, who writes prose as well as rhymes for NEA, one of the services to which The Journal subscribes. Recently, NEA compiled a list of Miss Welshimer's works, many of which are worthy of praise.

There is one, in particular, which in The Plainsman's opinion ranks with anything in the way of modern poetry and, for the South Plains to read it is being reproduced here.

Can you read it without developing a catch in your throat?

HERE it is, under the title "A Mother Prays", by Helen Welshimer, NEA Service, Cleveland, Ohio.

"The school-bell rang so very long this morning
I thought perhaps it may have wondered why
He did not run, light-hearted, at its summons,
When other children laughed and hurried by.

"If there is school, dear God, in some far Heaven,
Be patient, please—He never could sit still;
He will not wash his hands, he'll tear
his trousers,
He may play truant on some distant hill.

"Oh, all the day he'll be a gay
romancer,
But when night comes he'll turn,
not knowing why
There is no one to hear his prayers or kiss him
The way I did—dear God, don't let him cry!

"Oh, if you see a little boy who's lonely,
A little boy, afraid, when dusk-
thoughts creep,
Please hold his hand and weave a gay, brave story
And stay with him until he falls asleep."

THE greatest thing in life—a mother's love—is in that poem. The belief in God and in heaven, too, is woven 'round the theme to make it touching, even to the most hardened pilgrim of this hustling, bustling world.

Helen Welshimer, who can't be more than 25 at the most, has written a masterpiece there, whether or not the world ever gives her credit for it.

Clip it out and put it away among your souvenirs.

JUST to show you that being wife of a popular president is not all a bed of roses, here's what happened to Mrs. Roosevelt just the other day.

There was a tea on the White House lawn and the First Lady appeared on the porch. That was a signal for a young man in white flannels to begin serenading her in all seriousness.

Warbling first, and very touchingly, about "blue eyes and true blue nature", the young man, (a tenor, by the way) swung into his theme as Mrs. Roosevelt kept getting "embarrasseder" and "embarrasseder".

Finally he ended up, on a series of high notes, with "It's you, Eleanor, we adore" and that was too much, even for a Spartan soul like the spouse of FDR.

"Oh, my goodness", she exclaimed, turning pink, and ran through the protecting portals of the presidential mansion.

Times Have Changed A Little

As Vast As Is Scope Of Industrial Control Plan It Is Only Small Part Of Program For Economic Reconstuction

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
The Journal's Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 22—Vast as is the scope of the administration's plan of industrial control, it is only a vital section of a large, integrated program which contains many other timbers designed as pillars and struts of economic reconstruction.

Butcher

The structure has been built piece by piece, but now appears in complete form, the complementary and supplementary parts dovetailing and interlocking in a legislated offensive ram the like of which has never before been seen in this world.

There is a definite attack, from one or more angles, toward each of the objectives which have long been enumerated by America's "best minds" as essential to business recovery — increased purchasing power among all classes, immediate stimulation of activity higher commodity prices, immediate and long run relief from the burden of debt, confidence on the part of business and the public, plus price stability for both industry and agriculture.

Farms Must Be Helped

The farm relief act, as drastic in its field as the recovery act for industry, is not only aimed at an improvement in the condition of the farmer but is also based on the fact that the rest of the country connot enjoy sound prosperity while agriculture is in a slump.

The economic well-being of the country as a whole is bound up in the government's attempt to restore a price balance between the products of agriculture and the products of industry.

Several immediate stimulants to employment, purchasing power and production have been provided in addition to the provisions for shorter working hours and higher wages.

Most important is the measure for $3,300,000,000 of public works—a great boon to the construction industry, to the producers of cement, steel and many other materials and to labor. The latest official estimates here are that a billion dollars of public works puts a million men to work. Their new purchasing power should give work to hundreds of thousands of others.

Breweries Employ Many

Then there's the restoration of beer which revives a billion-dollar industry besides furnishing new taxes, the employment of 275,000 men on reforestation work, most of whom would otherwise be a drain on relief funds, and the big Tennessee Valley development with its demand for men and materials.

Various inflationary measures already are in effect, apparently bound to raise prices and relieve the debt burden regardless of whether Roosevelt takes recourse to his powers to devaluate the dollar by proclamation or issue billions of dollars in greenbacks. The machinery of credit inflation already is operating.

Measures of Inflation

The $3,300,000,000 for public works and the $500,000,000 federal grant for unemployment relief are distinctly inflationary measures. So are the $2,000,000,000 programs for farm mortgage and home mortgage financing, which lighten debt burdens and release money for purchases.

And it is conceded that the shorter hours-higher wages plan is sure to boost prices. Several other antidotes to deflation are being administered.

Rising prices at least partly indicate that business confidence in the future has been partially restored.

With Barry Under The Capitol Dome

BY R. W. BARRY
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, June 22. (AP)—John Wood, who made his home at Timpson in East Texas before he came to Austin to be one of Governor Miriam A. Ferguson's secretaries will be missed around the executive office.

After the senate of Texas refused to acquiesce in the woman governor's choice of Frank L. Denison of Temple to be chairman of the highway commission, Mrs. Ferguson picked Wood for that place.

Can Handle Crowds

If Wood handles the delegations—most of them from country precincts seeking road aid and other favors—that crowd each commission meeting, as well as he pacified the throngs that sought audiences with Governor Ferguson, capitol observers believe he will be successful in his new position.

Never have such crowds descended on the executive office, seeking audiences with the governor, wanting to tell her their troubles and ask favors, as besieged Mrs. Ferguson. They have continued to press for interviews daily since last January when the new governor was inducted.

It was Wood's job to handle those clamoring persons. He worked at it smoothly and never seemed to get ruffled. He always kept the waiting persons in good humor. He sent many of them away day after day with a "come back tomorrow," and they seemed to like it—coming from Wood.

He was an affable secretary to the governor under trying circumstances. It meant much to her to have a "door keeper" who saved her nerves and at the same time let the place seekers know that their welcome had not been worn out.

Upon reading that a gas explosion in a western town tore up the street, we are inclined to believe that a lot of startled bystanders did the same thing.

PARIS HONORS SAVANT

PARIS (AP)—The house that had the first modern bath tub in Paris has a memorial tablet.

Not for that reason, however, but because Anatole France, author, and Doctor Jean Martin Charcot, the famous neurologist, lived there.

It was Dr. Charcot who put in the bath tub in the late years of the 19th century, creating quite a sensation. All his visitors insisted on seeing it.

Now that the huge public works bill has finally passed, it looks like President Roosevelt is getting ready to give unemployment the works.

Movie couple married in Havana last January will be married all over again in Hollywood in near future. Probably the newspaper photographers weren't on hand at the first ceremony.

the case publicly and dismissed them.

"I can't talk now — I'm too moved," Mitchell said as the crowd pressed around him as he left the courtroom.

With Steuer, he disappeared in the ante-room where he had spent the hours waiting for the verdict.

Steuer made this statement:

Praises Verdict

"This verdict proves that in the state of New York justice can still be had by the verdict of a jury; that neither mob psychology nor emotion will enter the final determination.

"Mr. Mitchell was absolutely innocent of the accusations made against him as a result of what was deemed popular demand.

"After a prosecution which followed a most exhaustive search and the exercise of the greatest diligence on the part of the prosecutor, who presented his case with as great ability as I have ever witnessed, the jury nevertheless saw the truth and decided accordingly."

HUNT CENTERED ABOUT MERIDIAN

(By The Associated Press)

GATESVILLE, June 22—Search for four youthful inmates who escaped from the state reformatory here about the time Will Leonard, reformatory blacksmith, was beaten to death with an axe, centered today around Meridian, Texas.

The fugitives were Grady Applegate, 16, sent up from Wood county for automobile theft; Willard Scott, 17, of Oklahoma City, for burglary; James Anderson, 16, of Fort Worth, for robbery with firearms; and Clarence Raines, 16, of Centerville, Leon county, for attempting to commit murder.

Abandoned Car Found

Other inmates informed J. H. McLellan, superintendent of the institution, that the four youths fled in Leonard's automobile. The car was found abandoned last night at Meridian.

The 48-year-old blacksmith was found in a dying condition in his shop late yesterday and he died without regaining consciousness. Attering battering his head with the axe, his assailants had dragged him into a dark corner and fled, locking the shop door behind them.

Reformatory officials did not find Leonard until more than an hour after he was attacked. They said the four youths had been workers in the shop.

Leonard had been employed at the reformatory for the past 14 years.

Botany Department Plans Field Trip

A score of students of Texas Technological college will leave next week on the first field trip of the botany department, Dr. R. A. Studhalter announces. Objective is Gallinas canyon in U. S. National Forest near Las Vegas, N. M., about 300 miles northwest of Lubbock.

Chartering of a bus for the trip will permit the journey to be made in one day. A tent will be taken along for a dressing room for girls and for shelter. The men will sleep out of doors and the party will do its own cooking.

Plants not found around Lubbock will be studied.

Over Half Million Returned To Work

WASHINGTON, June 22 (AP)—Upward of 600,000 men, says the American Federation of Labor, have gone back to work since March.

But its last monthly survey of business appends this warning:

"Cheerful as this news sounds, there is no evidence yet that it marks the start of recovery."

Any further progress, the federation contends, must depend upon the extent to which the purchasing power of the laborer is increased.

Through April and May, the labor organization finds that more than 620,000 men have been put back at work. That compares, however, with an estimated 12,730,000 still unemployed at the beginning of May.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, June 22 (AP)—Cotton opened steady, 5 to 9 points higher on commission house buying due to higher cables and the sharp advance in sterling exchange. July 9.41; Oct. 9.59; Dec. 9.78; Jan. 9.83; March 9.99; May 10.14.

Liquidation, southern selling and realizing were absorbed and the market was steady during the early trading on Wall Street and commission house buying. Houses with continental and Liverpool connections were buyers here and by the end of the first half hour October was ruling around 9.63 or 9 points net higher.

The advance extended to 9.40 for July and 9.82 for December contracts later in the morning while December sold up to 9.87, making net advances of about 13 to 14 points. Active realizing and some southern selling were absorbed by trade and commission house buying on the advance. Demand tapered off somewhat as prices approached the recent highs, however, and there were partial reactions under realizing. At midday July was holding around 9.82 and December 9.74 or about 8 points off from the best.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, June 22 (AP)—Cotton had a firm and active opening today. First trades here showed gains of 3 to 6 points and the market continued to improve on good trade buying and covering by ring shorts, October advancing to 9.80 and December to 9.75, or 9 points above yesterday's close and within three or four points of the 1933 highs.

Later the market reacted two points on profit-taking but the undertone continued firm on a higher opening of the stock market.

The market was very active the greater part of the morning. There was good trade buying, price-fixing and covering by shorts. October advanced to 9.65 and December to 9.80, up 14 points from yesterday's close to new high levels for the year and season.

Later in the morning, sterling developed a reaction which caused liquidation of cotton and October soon eased to 9.53 and December to 9.67, down 12 to 13 points from the top. Near mid-session the market rallied 2 to 3 points and futures showed net gains of 4 points over yesterday's close.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, June 22 (AP)—Another sharp advance of foreign exchanges against the American dollar received a rather cool reception in financial markets today and stocks and staples, for the most part, idled cautiously in an extremely narrow range. With the British pound up around $4.24, its highest since the gold standard was suspended, there was some fairly spirited advances in stocks in the first hour. The fervor died quickly, however, and prices turned irregular. Wheat, corn, and cotton drifted indifferently.

Oils and rails received the principal attention in early transactions most of the leading shares in these groups showing gains of fractions to around a point. Advances of 1 to about 2 points were recorded by American Tobacco B, Liggett and Myers B and Lorillard, U. S. Steel and Bethlehem got up fractionally to a point or more, but such pivotal shares as American Telephone, Case, American Can, Du Pont, General Motors, Goodyear, General Electric, United Aircraft and Sears Roebuck were disposed to mark time.

Edgar Allan Poe and William Wordsworth occasionally wrote the last stanza of a poem first; Poe's "Raven" and Wordsworth's "We Are Seven" were composed in this manner.

jects in their areas and send their recommendations to Washington. Approval of federal projects would be up to the Washington headquarters.

"Appointments will be made on the basis of character and ability without reference to political affiliations."

Mrs. Floyd Beall and her daughter, Ophelia Mae, have returned from a visit with relatives in Colorado and Abilene.

DUGGAN TALKS TO KIWANIANS TODAY

The new farm home loan relief act is disappointing and offers little relief for farmers of this section, Senator Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield, who recently returned from a conference with Federal Land bank officials at Houston, told members of the Lubbock Kiwanis club at Hotel Lubbock today noon.

"Every application is to be based on its own merit and under same provisions as before," Senator Duggan said. "We are to get about the same values and appraisals under the new act as the old unless we go higher up to Washington for relief. I don't think the new law means what we thought it did and am afraid it will do us but little good out here unless higher values are given."

He said a committee from this area had asked for a $20 per acre value under provisions of the bill.

He reviewed the work of the past legislature briefly and talked for several minutes of the state penitentiary system. He praised the work of Lee Simmons, prison manager, and told of the improvements made in the system.

Dr. D. D. Cross was program chairman for the day.

TRADE BARRIERS

about whether it would force France and her gold bloc allies to abandon their drive for immediate stabilization and proceed with other problems, or whether it would have the effect of hardening gold bloc resistance.

One thing appeared very definite—that the leaders were working hard to find a solution of the crisis to enable the conference to continue. Encouraging word came from a secret meeting of the steering committee. It was said things looked more hopeful as a result of the latest conversations.

Secretary Hull's resolution called for a gradual reduction and removal of tariff barriers. The method contemplated is by bilateral or multilateral agreements. The proposal emphasized that care should be taken to guard against discriminatory features in such agreements.

It was specifically stated that the resolution was submitted in accordance with instructions from the United States government. It declared a policy of extreme economic nationalism and the raising of additional trade barriers are against the common interest. The removal of embargoes, import quotas and other restrictions as completely and as soon as possible was suggested.

French Opposition Seen

High American quarters made it clear that they feel France, the chief protagonist in the stabilization bloc, has thus far indicated no willingness to concede anything in the direction of abandoning its import quota system which, they said, has seriously impaired both American and British trade.

A spokesman for the French delegation, after hearing the Hull resolution read, said "there is nothing revolutionary in it." Beyond this he refused to comment.

In other French quarters some surprise was expressed at the nature of the resolution, as they had been expecting a declaration regarding stabilization. It was understood that the Hull document was considered by the American delegation to be a substitute for the American memorandum, submitted last week, calling for a ten per cent tariff cut.

Kuhn, Loeb Income Taxes Face Probe

WASHINGTON, June 22 (AP)—Senate investigators have scrutinized the income tax returns of members of Kuhn, Loeb and company in preparation for the inquiry next week into the firm's operations, but will give no inkling of what they found.

The investigators said the quest for facts not only will follow the general lines of the J. P. Morgan and company study but also will cover new ground.

Flour Mill To Be Put In West Texas

SHERMAN, June 22 (AP)—Kay Kimbell, president of the Kimbell-Diamond Milling company, announced today plans for installation of a large oatmeal mill here and for a flour mill in West Texas.

The oatmeal plant will be in operation early in the fall and will be the first in the southwest. Location for the flour mill remains to be decided upon. It will have a capacity of 700 barrels.

Santa Fe Seeks To Reduce Train Fare

CHICAGO, June 22 (AP)—Application for authority to establish an experimental passenger rate of two cents a mile on one way tickets in the lines west of Albuquerque will be made by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway.

The Southern Pacific announced yesterday it would try out the rates in six western states for three month beginning July 1. The Santa Fe will apply to the interstate commerce commission and state control bodies to sanction the two cent rates for the same period.

Director Of Night Club Shows Slain

NEW YORK, June 22 (AP)—Harry Lyons, 35, who directed floor shows for Texas Guinan and other noted night club operators, was found shot to death under a street light in the Bronx early today.

Police believe Lyons was walking home with a man, who suddenly drew a pistol, placed it to Lyons' head and fired. Some grudge arising from Lyons' night club contacts may have led to the killing detectives say.

COTTON OIL MILL TO BE REOPENED

Lubbock Cotton Oil mill will reopen Friday for a 10-day run, on a day and night basis, George Simmons, manager, announced today.

"After the run we will close for the remainder of the summer, reopening about October 1," Mr. Simmons said.

About 70 men, the regular force, will be used in the operations. It is understood that those who have heretofore been employed by the plant are being recalled.

Last year's operations were among the most successful and longest in the history of the local plant. The mill began operating late in the summer, approximately six weeks earlier than normal and continued until a few weeks ago.

Heavy demand for cottonseed cake last year, as well as a good market for oil, were factors in the continued operations.

It is understood that the continued dry weather is forcing stockmen to feed more cake and meal, because of poor pasture conditions.

DRY LAW BUREAU PLANS CHANGES

WASHINGTON, June 22. (AP)—Elimination of two prohibition districts and division of one into two parts has been tentatively decided upon by the prohibition bureau as an economy move.

Major A. V. Dalrymple, prohibition director, said one of the districts will be known as district No. 13 and will be composed of Texas and Louisiana, with headquarters at Houston, Texas.

Explaining the situation regarding the fifth district, Dalrymple said it was now so large that it was unwieldy. Texas, alone, he said, was large enough to be a single district, but it would be necessary to include at least one state with it.

He explained that a large number of people connected with the bureau must be furloughed in connection with the effort to economize.

COAST-TO-COAST MOTORING AT AIRPLANE SPEED ENVISIONED BY ENGINEERS PLANNING HIGHWAY

By NEA Service

NEW YORK—Two days from New York to California sounds like airplane speed, but it is only the rate that ordinary motorists will travel if the plans of a group of highway engineers materialize. For two years they have been working out specifications and scientific details of a coast-to-coast super-express highway which would permit 100-mile-an-hour speed with less danger, actually, than now is encountered at half that rate.

The project would involve a four-lane artery without a single crossing or perceptible curve. Cities and towns either would be skirted entirely, or the express lanes would be carried overhead or underground in vehicular traffic tunnels. The road would be as skid-proof as engineering skill could make it, and so resilient that automobiles scarcely would need springs. Motorists would not use their headlights at night. Indeed, they would be forbidden to do so, for the highway would have its own non-glare and fog-penetrating illumination.

Vibration Offered Biggest Problem

A number of outstanding authorities are cooperating in planning the enterprise. Among them are E. Sutcliffe, of the Warren Brothers road laboratories of Boston, who recently completed the 700-mile Carretera Central, a Cuban highway, at a cost of $100,000,000; L. Andrew Reinhard and Harry Hofmeister, associate architects of the $250,000,000 Rockefeller Center, in New York; Captain Malcolm Campbell, holder of the world's automobile speed record of 272 miles per hour; J. E. Pennypacker, former chief of Economics of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads; Foster Gunnison, illuminating engineer.

The chief problem, the experts found, was the development of the road-bed itself to permit 100-mile-an-hour travel. "We understand," said Pennypacker, "that automobile manufacturers can reduce the inherent vibration of a car to a very low figure. But what good is a vibrationless car on a rough road? Even the best highway of today, though it may look smooth as glass to the 40-mile-an-hour driver, would ruin his car at a 100-mile average speed."

Foresees Need of Rigid Cars

Sir Malcolm Campbell declares that the modern high-speed motorist must build his car almost rigid and depend on the road—as Campbell did at Daytona Beach—for the necessary resiliency. To meet such a need, technicians have developed a new surfacing, black in color and unaffected by sun, snow, ice or rain. This would be laid over a rock base. Such high speed as are anticipated would largely solve the problem of overcrowding, so the planners expect to have only four lanes, two of them express and two for slower traffic.

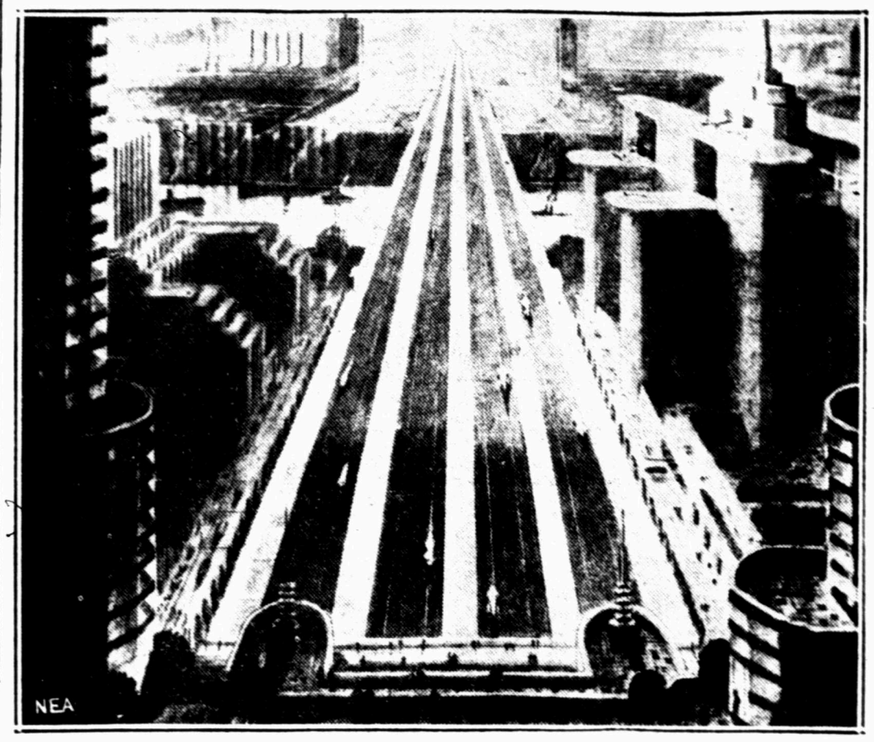

There would be no direct entry from any connecting highway to the two center lanes of fast traffic, Sutcliffe explained. Entry and egress would be accomplished by slanting roads, 500 feet in length, between the outer and inner incoming cars.

Service stations may be built at 100-mile intervals, where corps of mechanics would give each car stopping for fuel a quick inspection.

Night Travel Safe By Lights

Night travel would be as safe as in daytime, the engineers believe, if the highway itself were illuminated and motorists were to drive without lights. To this end they propose parapet walls two feet high and made of opal glass bricks, to flank the black highway.

Imbedded in the walls and spaced perhaps 20 feet apart would be tubular electric lamps shining out on the lanes in the direction of traffic. Such a scheme would eliminate the dangers of overhead illumination on rainy nights. Another safety factor would be central guide strips of white corrugated glass, imbedded in the asphalt.

Here is the artist's conception of the super-speed highway on which automobiles could streak from coast to coast in two days' time. The sketch shows the four proposed traffic lanes, the inside lanes carrying the fastest traffic. The highway would pass under large cities, and be flood-lighted at night.

Secrets Of Early Race Are Unearthed

SAN ANTONIO, June 22. (AP)—Secrets of a forgotten race are slowly being unearthed by the archaeological expedition of the Southwest Texas Archaeological society along the Rio Grande near the confluence of the Pecos, where members of the party are excavating cave shelters once occupied by basketmakers.

George C. Martin, president of the society and head of the expedition, has secured some of the most valuable material yet found, and these rare relics of a lost civilization will be brought to San Antonio and placed in the Witte Memorial museum.

Several burials wrapped in basketry, new types of arrow shafts, atlatls, fishing equipment and other relics have been found.

The party includes Martin, H. Eross, a trained excavator; Jack Davenport, Albert Maverick, jr., Maj. Fletcher Gardner, Harding Black and George Martin, jr.

The "singing tower" in the Bok Bird Sanctuary, near Lake Wales, Florida, contains bells ranging in weight from 12 pounds to 12 tons.

OUSTED BY DACHSHUNDS

LONDON (AP)—The bulldog, symbol of John Bull and once the stalwart guardian of many English homes, is disappearing from this scene.

His decline was evidenced at the Ladies' Kennel Association dog show here in which there were only 11 bulldogs, while German dachshunds, lampooned in many war-time cartoons, numbered 300.

Too much interbreeding and a change in fashion were cited as causes of the decline.

Almost 9,000,000 women were employed in the United States in 1920; in 1930 that number had increased to 11,000,000.

Why shouldn't I say nice things about Luckies?

I must confess that I enjoy smoking more and more. Maybe it's because I started with a cigarette that suits me right. Luckies are so very mild. I like the fine taste of their tobaccos—and because I'm so sensitive to personal daintiness—for, after all, my cigarette touches my lips—I particularly welcome the added assurance of purity which "Toasting" affords. Whenever I hear comments about cigarettes—I always say, "But Luckies are different." And then I would say some nice things about "Toasting". To hear me you'd think that I discovered "Toasting"—but that's just my way. I like to root for things that please me. And certainly—"Luckies Please!"

because "It's toasted"
