Dedication Of The Stadium; Football Game Had Large Attendance

Friends and admirers from remote points of West Texas, joined the legion of friends gathered here, Friday, September 13th, to pay honor to the memory of Charles Adam Jones, when the new Spur High School Football Stadium, named for him was formally opened with dedication addresses and the first football game played in the new stadium between the Spur Bulls and the Roby Lions.

R. L. (Bob) Collier, a pioneer Texas citizen introduced the principal speaker, Judge Charles E. Coombes, of Stamford, a close friend of Charles Adam Jones to his life work and memory he paid a worthy tribute. Beginning with work here twenty-six years ago when he made selection of Spur's location, laid out its town site, built its first bank, and opened the Spur Ranch Farm Lands to settlement. Judge Coombes eulogize Mr. Jones as a husband, a father, and friend, and gave a resume of his life from birth on a farm near Rhame, Georgia, during the Civil War and rough intervening years to the singing chapter life here at his home in Spur.

He also paid tribute to Mrs. Jones, recognizing her many fine traits of character and the contribution of time and the many kind deeds during Spur's pioneer days and said he may, fittingly be called the father of Spur.

He also paid tribute to Hoyle Jones and Clifford B. Jones, who contributed the site of the stadium placed thereon a magnificent bronze tablet in honor and to memory of their father, who is affectionately termed the father of Spur.

Introduced by Alton B. Chapman, District Attorney; George Maule of Colorado City, Congressman of the 19th Congressional District, the dedicatory address. Eulogizing Mr. Jones he made a lasting application in that he likened the building of this magnificent substantial stadium, named in honor an dedicated to his memory to that of the character and of Mr. Jones, a great builder, built his life and his beloved Texas, step by step, higher and higher and on a firm foundation.

Superintendent of Spur Schools C. Thomas, presided at the dedication program, introducing a number of prominent visitors and giving, a number of Spur citizens, including members, both old and new, of the Spur Independent School Board, honorable mention their efforts in securing for this "West Texas" finest stadium.

Jess Mitchell Is Candidate For State Senator

JESS MITCHELL

Jess Mitchell, editor at Muleshoe, in Bailey county, announces his candidacy as State Senator for this 30th Senatorial district, to succeed the late Hon. Arthur P. Duggan, whose death left that office to be filled by an election called by Gov. Allred for September 28.

Mr. Mitchell, in making his announcement, says he is entirely mindful of the opportunity for service and of the grave responsibility this office entails. He considers holding of public office a sacred trust. "I verily believe," he said, "that aside from the duties of the Church there is nothing more serious and more sacred than duties of State."

"I make no pretensions whatever at being a skilled politician; have never held public office and am not interested in politics per se; but I am tremendously interested in the welfare of this great area of West Texas. I have, in years past, as a public spirited citizen been able to accomplish many favorable things for this section, and confidently believe that as an official I can accomplish even more and greater results."

"I am 55 years of age, virtually in the prime of business life, strong physically, alert mentally and sound morally. I am a college and university graduate. While I am now and have been for several years past a newspaper editor, I am also a farmer, owning three farms embracing several hundred acres, one of them being irrigated farm near Muleshoe on which myself and family reside. I was born on a farm, have been an actual dirt farmer and am well acquainted with the farmer's problems."

I was a soldier in the Spanish-American War, served in the secret service department during the World War, and was at one time United States Commissioner at Columbus, N. M. under appointment of President Woodrow Wilson.

"The citizens of this State have spoken in large majority favoring old age pensions, repeal in some sections and abolition of the officer

Tax Exemption Certificates Have Been Received

18,385 bales of 1935 Tax Exemption Certificates were received here last week, as the Dickens County 90 per cent Regular 1935 Allotment. The Regular 10 per cent Allotment, which is set aside for disastrous years, such as hail, drought and so forth did not come in this issuance but will be issued at a later date.

Beginning Thursday, September 19th, I will issue 1935 Certificates from this office to all Producers who has an unsold equity in the 1934 Pool. Before any issuance is made to any Producer in the County he must present to this office the yellow slip that was handed to him at the time he received the last pool check. (Form No. C. R. B. A. 201B). The closing date for this transaction in Dickens County is September 30th.

The 1935 National Tax Exemption Pool was officially opened September 3rd, 1935. Beginning Thursday, September 19th, the Producers in Dickens County may pool their surplus Certificate in the Pool. The 1935 Pool will be operated in the same manner as it was in 1934, with the exception that the Certificates will have a valuation of 5 cents per pound for the portion sold. As a matter of suggestion, it would be best for Producers holding surplus Certificates to take time and try to find a local buyer, before he surrenders them to Pool. This simply means that he would not having to wait so long for his Pool check. All local sales and transfers must be recorded in this office.

At this date we have not heard anything from the 1934 Certificates, which were sent to the Washington Office for replacement of Certificates usable in 1935. We are expecting these at any time and they will come separate from the Regular 1935 Allotment and from the unsold equity in the 1934 Pool.—Wm. W. GREGORY, Asst. in Cotton Adjustment, Spur, Dickens County, Texas.

Wm. (Bill) Evans Is Candidate For State Senator

Wm. (BILL) EVANS

Announces For Senate

"If other parts of the State get a hog, West Texas should at least get a ham—especially when we produce the animal!"

That, in a nutshell, is the campaign slogan of Wm. (Bill) Evans, Lubbock Attorney and candidate for the State Senate from the 30th District in the forthcoming special election on September 28.

Other planks in the Evans platform include, in brief:

Liquor Control

Favors state monopoly and sale of intoxicants in unbroken packages only, so that the maximum revenue from liquor will go into the State Treasury; considers the term "open Saloon" to mean any place where public drinking is permitted and is opposed to any such methods of handling Texas' liquor problem! stands squarely for legislation protecting dry areas against liquor traffic and for legislation which will enable law enforcement officers to arrest and prosecuting officers to convict liquor law violators in dry districts.

For Early Pension Legislation

Old Age Pensions favors early legislation to permit the state to care for its needy aged and to guard against heavy discounts in the payment of pensions; stands for revenue raised from the sale of intoxicants to be diverted to the care of our needy old people; proposes to work for legislation which will protect the taxpayers from pensioning aged who are not needy and who are thus not entitled to a public pension.

Texas Tech

Since Texas Technological College does not yet have a large alumni body to help care for its needs, proposes to foster, day and night, generous state support of the college to permit it continue its phenomenal growth and to become what its founders proposed it to be—the Southwest's leading Technological institution.

For Highway Completion

Will work for and foster continuance of the far-flung West Texas highway program until the 30th Senatorial District has a complete connected system of highways to compare with such systems in the heavier populated sections of Texas.

Spur Experiment Station Field Day Meet To Have A Large Delegation

Possibly the largest delegation of farmers ever to visit Spur will be in attendance Friday. Advance notice indicate large groups as far west as Lamb County; north to Wellington; east to Eastland and south to San Angelo. Practically all of the larger farm people and daily papers will be represented.

Victor Schoffelymyer, agricultural editor of Dal's News says he will be here with "Bells On."

A trip will be made over the Caraway-Armstrong farm in Dockum Valley. Every farmer in Dickens County should drive over this farm—this farm received heavy irrigations out of Dockum Creek in May and June.

Foster Cafe Is Being Remodeled; Enlarged

Workmen are busy at the W. P. (Slim) Foster Cafe, adding additional room and otherwise making building, and interior fixtures and more modern improvements to the furniture, and when finished it will present a very neat appearance.

The property is owned by E. L. Caraway, of the Spur Motor Co., located on the corner of East Fifth and Burlington.

Improvement work is nearing completion and announcement of the reopening for business will be made by Mr. Foster at an early date.

Pink L. Parrish Announces For State Senator

I am announcing for the office of State Senator for the Thirtieth Senatorial district, in the coming special election ordered by the Governor for September 28, 1935.

I served twelve years as county judge of Crosby County, one term as mayor of Lubbock and one term as State Senator.

During that term I made a record, whether good or bad I cannot change. I supported our educational institutions both public schools and our institutions of higher learning. I was sole author of what is known as the Parrish Fee Bill, which became law, placing a limit on what county officials could make and requiring them to make an annual report of their fees collected. I was joint author of the constitutional amendment which was adopted and placed into law exempting homesteads from state taxes up to the value of three thousand dollars.

I believe that, with Mr. Tarwater, Senator Small and myself, we are solely responsible for the law which allows farmers to receive a refund of gasoline tax on gasoline used on their farms. I supported strongly the Sulphur Tax.

Though a life long Democrat and never scratched the ticket in a general election, I opposed the Wirtz Bill to disfranchise our people who had supported Hoover over Alfred E. Smith for president. I voted for and will try to pass again a resolution requiring every member of the legislature to make affidavit as to who he represents or from whom he receives salary or retainer, as attorney or otherwise, because I don't believe you can serve two masters. I think the coming session of the Legislature is one of the most important we have had for many years. I think the constitutional amendment recently voted should be carried out.

I shall favor strict laws in the handling and control of the liquor question. I shall favor the carrying out the amendment abolishing the fee system. I am a strong believer in old age pension and believe the governor should submit the question of revenue and that the Legislature should raise the funds and in good faith carry out the commands of the people expressed in the recent constitutional amendment, and that immediate payment should be begun of the pension to our old people. To do this, of course, somebody must pay the bill, and I shall favor raising money from industries, liquor tax, etc. for they are the ones that will have the money, and in no instance would I favor a sales tax on the necessities of life. If it had to be done I might support a sales tax on luxuries.

You are aware that the office does not pay much. In addition to that I am one of the unfortunates that the depression has hit. If, based on my statements and my record, you can support me, I will appreciate it and promise to ever keep faith with my people. I believe the common man is the one that needs to be looked after; the big boy can take care of himself.

Yours sincerely,
PINK L. PARRISH

Temperatures will be kept below 50 degrees inside the cabinet of your electric refrigerator, which is necessary for the proper preservation of food. If temperatures fall below this safety mark, molds, germs and bacteria immediately cause foods to decay.

Electric refrigeration gives you this necessary food protection and also many other added conveniences. There is a surplus of refrigeration power to quickly freeze ice and desserts for the family's needs.

The health and happiness of the home demands food protection the entire year—summer and winter. You can rest assured that foods will be properly preserved with dependable electric refrigeration.

DEVELOPING PERSONALITY

"To possess a pleasing personality one must be considerate of others, be adaptable, sympathetic, possess a sense of humor, be enthusiastic and tactful," said Lizzie Lou Baxter, Patton Springs club girl, in reporting a lecture on Personality Development given by Mrs. Virginia Scarborough during the recent Short Course.

"In developing the personality we should consider the physical, mental, and social sides of our nature," continued Miss Baxter. "To develop the social being, the greatest thing is to learn to live with others."

DADDY

When the moon is shining over the prairie
And night breezes are drifting by,
Then I'm dreaming of you, dear o'd daddy
and the happy days we've had in years gone by.

We rode the range together
When I was but a boy,
Side by side in all kinds of weather
To be with you was my greatest joy.

And so I grew to manhood
Riding the range with you.
You were always a faithful companion,
Out where the skies are so blue.

Although your hair has turned to silver
And your footsteps are feeble and slow,
You'll always be the dearest friend in the world
To the boy who is wanting to know.

Daddy, are you dreaming tonight of me
As the moon rises over the lonely prairie,
Though miles and miles we may be apart
Dear daddy you're here tonight in my heart.

—Dorothy Merriman

DEMONSTRATOR IS PLEASED WITH GRASS

"We have a solid turf in our front yard now; it does not seem possible when it was just put out the later part of March," says Mrs. T. D. Hale, yard demonstrator in the Prairie Chapel home demonstration club.

"I kept putting soil over the runners or setting runners in the bare or thin places until it is completely covered. We used Bermuda grass and watered it quite a bit during the summer."

"The grass has made the house so much cooler this summer and it has kept sand and dust out. But best of all the grass has made the yard an ideal place for the grandchildren to play," continued Mrs. Hale.

RECIPES ARE FILED

"I find my recipe file very satisfactory," said Mrs. L. B. McMeans Sr. at the meeting of the Twin Wells H. D. Club in her home Sept. 6. Members spent the afternoon working on their recipe files.

Miss Gladys McMeans gave an interesting report on her trip to the Short Course.

Those present were Mesdames Don Merriman, Tol Merriman, C. C. McCombs, Tom Gilmore, L. B. McMeans Jr., Misses Elizabeth Williams, Minnie Fae McMeans, Gladys McMeans and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. C. McCombs, September 20.—Reporter.

CONFESSION

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I the undersigned, have been living a hypocritical life every since I have lived in Spur. But on Sunday, September 8th at 1:00 p. m. (after three and one half months of terrible conviction) I prayed through at the Nazarene Church and God for Christ's sake reclaimed me. So I am asking everyone whom I have met to forgive me for not setting a Godly example before them. I am determined by the Grace of God and the prayers of the Christian people to live a Godly life from now on. I take this means (the press) to reach those whom I cannot reach in person.

Yours in Christ Jesus

Spur Bulldogs vs. Roby Regional Lions in the $25,000.00 brilliantly lighted Spur High School Football Stadium named for and dedicated to the memory of Charles Adam Jones, played a scoreless game.

The stadium's 3500 seating capacity was filled to overflowing with a total gate receipts of $1356.13 which will be applied to the liquidation of indebtedness to the Spur Municipal Electric Light plant for the high power lighting system which turns night scenes into glowing brilliance. This amount, however, is not sufficient to clear the lighting indebtedness and Spur citizens will, no doubt assume this as a personal debt and feel in honor bound to attend every game played in Spur or least until the debt is paid in full.

Spur citizens are behind Spur Schools and will assist Superintendent O. C. Thomas and Coach Blackie Wadzeck and their core of teachers and assistants in making Spur Schools second to none in the State.

Friday of this week the Spur Bulldogs will play Slaton on the field at Slaton, Texas.

Among the distinguished visitors and former citizens of Spur Friday here to attend the Charles A. Jones Memorial dedication exercise and the first football game played in the new stadium were:

Superintendent of Cisco Schools, R. N. and Mrs. Cluck and their little daughter, Mona Lee.

Mr. Cluck was a former superintendent of the Spur Schools, Rev. I. A. Smith, of Floydada, Texas, formerly a pastor of the Spur Methodist Church, Judge and Mrs. Jack Foley, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wigham of Floydada. Mrs. Sam Z. Hall and Miss Julia Maxwell, of Paducah; Messrs. Percy Ralls, A. L. Winfrey, T. A. Tidwell and W. C. McClure of Ralls; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Long, W. A. (Bill) McAlpine, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wilson and son, John Hiner, Lubbock; Miss Nell Collett and Miss Margaret Koon, of Turkey; Postmaster, Martin Guest, of Aspermont; Max Bentley, Editor of the Abilene Reporter; a number of the staff of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, including Collier Parris, Sports Editor of the Evening Journal; Frank Tolbert, of the Sport Staff; Editor Hambright and Editor Chas. A. Guy; Head Coach P. W. Cawthon of Texas Tech College.

Sam Fort, a member of the police force, of Lubbock, accompanied by Misses Ganiella Fort and Miss Clytie Collier, students in Draughtons Business College, spent Sunday night of the past week in Spur guests of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Fort and Mrs. Joe Collier and family.

fee system. As your senator, it would be my privilege and pleasure to do all within my power to enforce these mandates by passing such laws as would grant to the needy aged the financial income and to arrange for its payment; to pass such laws as would regulate the sale of liquor to the best advantage of the State, as well as for the protection of those counties not favoring it, and to use my strongest influence toward enforcing the Fee amendment as authorized by the citizenry.

"I shall be glad to discuss in public or private other phases of governmental matters with citizens, many of which will be taken up in public speakings."

"My one desire is to give consistent conscientious and constructive service to the State in general and especially to this district in West Texas, looking toward eventually making this area the best part of this great Lone Star Empire. My great wish is to keep step with the citizens of this district, to work in unison with them, and to eventually participate with them in the blessings which will come to all of us because we have fought a good fight—we have kept the faith."

"There are innumerable benefits to which this area is entitled, ought to have and could have with proper representation at Austin. Strong, courageous men, men of ability and broad successful business experience are needed for such conquests against overwhelming odds. It will be my supreme pleasure to become the champion of the needs and rights of the citizens of this Senatorial district."

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Watson, of Los Angeles, California, returned Thursday after spending a ten days visit in Spur with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Clemmons Insurance
Agency Sponsoring
An Essay Contest

The High School Departments of the Spur, Patton Springs and McAdoo schools where study of Fire Prevention is mandatory, have entered into a new novel essay contest for a medal offered by the Clemmons Insurance Agency of Spur on behalf of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company. This is part of a great national contest being held in schools all over the country, and the Clemmons Insurance Agency plans to make this an annual contest here.

As a part of the school work the students write essays. For the week of October 6th to October 12th they will write on "How the Principles of Fire Prevention Have Been Applied in My Own Home."

In telling about the coming essay contest, Mr. Clemmons said: "The real purpose of fire insurance is something more than mere telling of policies and the paying of losses. Looked at broadly, the Hartford and its local agents are interested in anything that will make the country safer and prevent the terrific loss from fire—most of which is truly unnecessary and easily preventable. That is why the Hartford and its agents are always looking for ways to teach sound principles of fire prevention. And too, there is, relatively as much need for the study of fire prevention in homes as in the big industrial plants and mercantile establishments."

"So this medal is offered to stimulate their efforts and make them think. The subject of the essay is: 'How Principles of fire prevention have been applied in my own home.' Some really practical fire prevention steps must be taken by every contestant."

"It is possible to conceive that at least one home, perhaps more than one, in each of these three communities, may be saved from damage or destruction because of the thought and study this contest will encourage."

Mr. Clemmons says that the name of the winner will be printed in the paper and recorded by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company. Only one medal can be won by any school in a year. A medal is on display in each of these three communities, the one for Spur being displayed in the window of Clemmons Insurance Agency.

Farmers of the McAdoo Community are interested in Agricultural Problems effecting the county as was evidenced by the number that responded to the announcement that there would be a meeting for the discussion of terracing and trench silo building on Friday the Thirteenth.

In the absence of the chairman, R. R. Wooten, Robert A. Butler conducted the meeting and gave an explanation of the new Wheat Program and stated that on opportunity would be given all wheat farmers to sign new contracts within the next few days. Mr. Butler then called on Mr. Lane, the County Agent, to discuss terracing and trench silo building. Mr. Lane stated that if any country in the world needed a conservation program, both as to soil and water and feed, that this county needs it this year.

Following the discussion Mr. Lane asked for a show of hands of those who intended to terrace their farms this year and seven or one-third of those present held up their hands.

Those attending the meeting were as follows: J. J. Barton, A. J. Allen, Rush McLaughlin, M. A. Adams, J. F. Phifer, C. P. Aulif, T. M. Brantley, J. T. Parker, J. W. Jones, G. W.
