Honorees For Day

Door of First Presbyterian Church is as familiar to Mrs. John Brown, left, and Mrs. Essie Dolman, as to church pastor, Rev. Jack Parse. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Dolman are being honored by church congregation today for 60 years of continuous active service.

Saturday Voters • Citizens Will Find Balloting Places at New Locations

Mitchell County voters are going to find several changes in their voting next Saturday.

That's because of re-alignment of voting precincts and revamping of commissioners precincts which went into effect the first of this year.

Seven voting precincts have been designed for Saturday voters, according to T. L. Rees, County Democratic Chariman, including a newly created precinct which covers part of West Colorado City and an area west and northwest of the city.

Voters in each precinct will have an opportunity to vote on individual precinct officials as well as state and county nominees.

Ballots will list nominees pertaining to their particular precinct plus candidates at state, district and local levels.

Races developed in three county offices - judge, clerk and treasurer.

Bill F. Carter opposes incumbent, Elmer Martin, for county judge. Office of county clerk drew three opponents following the announcement by Gilbert Leach that he would not be a candidate. They are Dennis Walding, Henry C. Doss and Marie Bassham.

In the race for county treasurer are Mildred Mann Boyd, Pearl Rhodes and Mary T. Hart, incumbent.

Austin O. McCloud, currently district judge, drew opposition by Roger Q. Garrett Jr., in his bid for chief justice of Court of Civic Appeals Eleventh Supreme Judical District.

Other races with local interest are that of United States Senator with Lloyd Bentsen and Ralph W. Yarborough, opponents, and State Representative (63rd District) with Dee Jon Davis, Ralph L. Mahoney and Roy Ford, opponents.

Voting precincts, places of voting and precinct areas are as follows:

Voting Precinct 1 (part of commissioner precinct 1) - O. B. Trulock Jr., election judge; George Witten, alternate. Area includes east part of Colorado City east of Vine Street to 10th Street and east of Austin Street north to city limits. Voting box will be at courthouse.

Voting Precinct 2 (part of commissioner precinct 2) - Doug Barber, judge; Keith Williamson, alternate. Area includes Westbrook Community bordered on east by west side of Lake Colorado City. Lake area is a new addition to the precinct. Voting box will be at Westbrook School.

Precinct 3 (same as commissioner precinct 3) - R. B. Baker, judge; Trevlyn Kelley, alternate. Now includes east side of Lake Colorado City, Spade Community as in previous years and center of Colorado City between west side of Vine Street to east side of Oak Street. Voting box will be at Civic House.

Voting Precinct 4 (same as commissioner precinct 4) - Ted Lefevre, judge; Mrs. Frank Crownover, alternate judge. Voting box will be a County Agriculture Barn in Loraine.

Voting Precinct 5 (same as commissioner precinct 5) - Thurston Smith, judge; Murrell Blassingame, alternate. Area includes Buford community with voting box at Buford Coop Gin.

Voting Precinct 6 (part of commissioner precinct 2) - Mrs. J. C. Womack, election judge; Mrs. R. E. McMillian, alternate . Precinct covers Cuthbert areas as in previous years with voting box at Fairview Baptist Church.

Voting Precinct 7 (part of commissioner precinct 1) - Max Caswell, judge; Mrs. Vivian Ruddick, alternate judge. Area is a newly created precinct from west side of Oak Street South to Seventh Street, Colorado River then borders the precinct on north, Highway 80 is boundary on south. Precinct extends to lake road on west.

Absentee Voting Slow

If absentee balloting is any indication of voter turn out in Saturday's Primary Democratic Election the going may be slow.

That's the way it's been thus far in absentee voting.

With two days left before Tuesday deadline Mitchell County Clerk Gilbert Leach reported only 38 absentee votes registered.

Thirty-four voters had marked ballots in county clerk's office. Four ballots had been received in the mail as of Friday afternoon.

Teachers To Hear Tech Professor

Dr. Gerald Skoog, Assistant Professor of Secondary Education at Texas Tech University, will speak Monday to members of Mitchell County Unit of Texas State Teachers Association.

Dr. Skoog will be principle speaker for the 7 p.m. meeting in Westbrook School Cafetorium.

He will discuss continuous teacher training.

Dr. Skogg , who has been in the teaching profession since 1958, became associated with Tech in 1969. He received a bachelor of science degree in education from University of Nebraska, a master of arts degree from University of Northern Iowa and and education doctorate degree from University of Nebraska.

Leroy Scott, superintendent of Loraine Public Schools, has been elected president of local teacher group for the 1970-71 school year.

Frank Brownfield, vocational agriculture teacher at Colorado High School, will serve as vice-president.

Mrs. Gerald Gordon, current president, will preside in the Monday night session, the last meeting of the organization

Church Pays Tribute to Mmes. Brown, Dolman

First Presbyterian Church today (Sunday) will pay tribute to 120 years of continuous church service.

The years are divided equally between Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Essie Dolman who have both actively served their church in various positions ince 1910.

And they will be recognized for their faithfulness in morning worship services and will be honorees at a church luncheon at noon.

Reviews of the two womens church association will be recorded in Presbyterian Church History at Historical Foundation, Montreat, N. C.

Mrs. Dolman first joined the First Presbyterian congregation with her mother-in-law March 27, 1910, after moving here from Paris, Tex. The late Dr. W. M. Elliott was pastor of the church then located at Second and Locust Streets.

Her two children were born in Colorado City and baptized in First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Dolman, who lives at 204 West Sixth Street, has been involved in Sunday school and Women of the Church since that time and is still active in women's group and church circle.

She taught the 4L Class (a women's group) from 1963 until last year and continues to attend Sunday School and church regularly.

Mrs. Brown, whose home is at 532 Elm Street, became a member of First Presbyterian congregation April 24, 1910, 28 days after Mrs. Dolman.

Mrs. Brown, the former Flora Bozeman, was reared in Cuthbert Community and moved to Colorado City after her marriage. All members of her family became active church workers.

She has taught in all Sunday school and vacation church school areas, teaching continually for the past twenty years.

After teaching the Couples Class from 1958 through mid-1969, she became teacher of 4L Class and continues to teach regularly. She is active in Women of the Church, Circle, Church World Service and regular Sunday worship.

Forget Time Change?

Know what time it is?

In case you forgot to set your clock up last night before you went to bed, you're already an hour late.

And if you're planning to attend Sunday School at 9:45 this morning and didn't run the clock up, you'll probably get there just in time for church.

The hour lost at 2 a.m. today will be picked up again in October when people will have the pleasure of running the clock back one hour.

Texas will have an extra hour of daylight from now until the last of October, making morning work hours come an hour sooner, but quitting time will give us an extra hour before sun set.

3 Choirs To Present 21st Annual Concert

Twenty - first annual spring concert of vocal music departments of Colorado High and Colorado Junior High schools will be presented Tuesday evenning in Colorado High School auditorium.

Vandalism

Another Home Is Hit

What kind of persons unlawfully enter another's home and within five hours time create havoc that leaves the owner's small dog huddled outside in fear?

Local police are investigating one of several similiar incidents in recent weeks.

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McGuire, 1137 Locust Street, was latest to be hit by vandals who entered the home sometime Thursday afternoon while the McGuires were at work.

Intruders carried in their own doughnuts and cigarettes, but left remains of both crumbled and strewn over the house. They emptied all chest of drawers and left clothes scattered, tore linens from beds, struck matches on walls and stamped out burning cigarettes on floors.

Evidentally hungry for more than doughnuts, the vandals used the coffee pot and toaster, not bothering to unplug either when they left, and spilled liquids on cabinet tops, floors and stoves.

Drinking all the Cokes and orange juice in the refrigerator, they left bottles and glasses where they pleased. Threw pieces of toast through the house which was remodeled last September, scattered human waste in various rooms. They broke the deep freeze lock and used several rolls of Polaroid film. Closest to anything good in the whole mess was the fact nothing was missing except a small amount of change.

Mrs. McGuire returned home about 6:30 Thursday afternoon to find her French poodle, Fifi, huddled by the front door and the house in disarray.

Wednesday, the day before the McGuire home was enter-

CAP Gets $21,000

$8,000 Short of Proposed Budget

Mitchell County Community Action Program has been approved for $21,000, short $8,031 of its proposed 1970-71 budget.

The cut was made Thursday night in a meeting of local CAP representatives with Abilene Community Action Agency.

The allotted figure, though, is still almost $5,000 more than last year's appropriation, according to Mrs. Robert Shamburger, CAP coordinator here.

Mitchell County shares in an approved $282,786 OEO Fund for Abilene CAP Agency announced Friday by Congressman Omar Burleson.

The Abilene agency serves CAP delegate agencies in Taylor, Mitchell, Haskell and Stephens Counties.

In a telegram to Record Congressman Burleson explained OEO Fund will be used for "program administrations, planning community organization, family planning, general services and special summer programs for low income residents."

A revamped program with in the $21,000 budget will be presented to local CAP board of directors for approval during a special called meeting May 4, the coordinator said.

Druing the same meeting officers for the 1970-71 year will be elected by a newly organized board of directors.

Five new directors were elected in a Monday night meeting in Wallace Neighborhood Center.

They are Rev. Jack Parse, minister of First Presbyterian Church; Mrs. Larry Kinard, Anastacio Alvarez of Loraine, Drew Ballard, owner of KVMC, and Bob Reily, local insurance agent.

Holdover directors are Mrs. John Chinn, Mrs. Kenneth Cowan, Mrs. Martha Lewey, Judge Elmer Martin, L. C. Devorce, Abel Alvarez, Rev. Weems Dykes, Dr. Bruce Johnson of Loraine, Manuel Rivera, and L. M. Dawson of Westbrook.

Board of directors for CAP is made up of five who represent the low income population, five interested citizens and five community government representatives.

Mental Health Workers Care For All Mitchell Countians

Someone cares, someone wants to help, and someone will help, if people will look for the light in the building at 136 East Third Street.

This seemingly insignificant building houses hope, kind words, and professional psychiatric care for the mentally ill, the depressed, despondent, and the retarded, who are never turned away for inability to pay.

Here since the establishment of the Mitchell County Health Center, eighty seven persons have found this aid and care they needed.

One doesn't have to be a certain age, sex, race, or creed, democrat or republican to receive services rendered by those associated with the new county office complex formerly housing the ASCS and FHA offices.

If a person fears hospitalization in a mental institution, by making a few trips to the Center, he may avoid it. If he has already been in a hospital, he may come for outpatient care.

There is always room for one more and even more than that. Concerned parents and troubled children are also welcome at the clinic which is in partnership with Big Spring State Hospital.

People with troubles who need help straightening out their lives and their minds, help in learning new skills, and how to communicate with others--these people are the reasons the Center is here in Colorado City.

There is not another building in town like the Mental Health Center.

Many Mitchell Countians do not realize the work being done and are not aware of the facilities at the clinic.

Medications, consultation room for patients and Dr. Miler, hospital bed, and other facilities are already there, and occupational therepy equipment is to arrive soon, is time for Mental Health Month in May.

Mrs. Bernice Hilliard is Mental Health full-time case worker, Mrs. Guy Burson is clerk, and Mrs. Jewell Richter is volunteer clerk. Mrs. Ruth Payne, R. N., is clinic coordinator from Big Spring State Hospital.

Mental Health Center also has vocational rehabilitation counselor, Raymond Bennert who is at the Center every second and fourth Tuesday during the morning.

Colorado City is in a forty-two county Mental Health district from north of Lubbock down to Abilene in the east and extending to El Paso in the west.

Working in conjunction with the Center are the Circuit Riders who do volunteer work for the aged.

Mitchell County Mental Health Center has a "thing" about helping people and it's a real "hang-up"--after all, isn't that what it's all about--helping people!

He died early Thursday morning in York Memorial Hospital after a long illness. He was a theatrical booking agent and long-time radio announcer.

Survivors include his father, John Groff of Elizabethtown, Penn.; his wife of York; one son and a three-week old granddaughter, Anne Marie Groff.

CONVERSATION CORNER

HAVE NEVER, heaven knows, had the slightest desire to live to be 100 years old.

People who do manage to live that long or longer usually get their pictures taken and as sure as the sun rises get asked the old "To what do you attribute your long life?"

No two people who have seen a whole century come and go ever answer that stupid question in the same way.

One will say, "Well I never smoked and never touched a drop of anything stronger than tea." Another will say "I think hot toddies morning and night have kept me going."

Read about an old man who celebrated his 103rd birthday by announcing to the nosey reporters, "Heck, I'm too mean to die young".

* * *

HAVE NO wish to stick around all that long--not that wishes have much to do with longevity. Hate having anybody take my picture because they never make me look like Myrna Loy or Greer Garson.

And unless the situation improves, would never be able to think up any pure or noble or virtuous reasons to account for any advanded old age.

Even so, there are some strong reasons for wanting to be here for some time to come. Those reasons come under the heading of the department called, "Just hope I live to see the day."

* * *

HOPE I live to see the day when Daylight Saving Time is ruled unconstitutional by the Supreme Court.

Hope to live to see the day when all great- or great-great-grandchildren everywhere can listen in awe to tales of how people used to tamper with time every April and every October.

The kids, yet unborn, will never believe it, no matter who tries to explain how ridiculous Daylight Saving Time was. If they're not all talking teen-talk via telephone-television hookup by then, they'll just say "Aw, Grandma!" and imply you made the whole thing up.

* * *

HOW WOULD you go about explaining Daylight Saving Time unless you'd lived through it, anyhow?

You go to bed at 11 p.m. on Saturday, April 25th. Only it's best to remember to run the clock UP one hour to make it immediately midnight or when you get up at 8 a.m. Sunday, April 26th, it's going to be 9 a.m.

The puzzling thing is why the high school and college rebellious elements have not staged confrontations about it.

After all, when they get called to breakfast Monday morning and from now until next October, it will not be 7:30 a.m., really, is all. It will be 6:30 a.m. by any sensible rule of reasoning.

* * *

HUSBANDS who have been coming home at 6 p.m. will be showing up at 5 p.m. by the same process of figuring.

If you eat lunch at 12 noon you will be sitting down at what your stomach knows very well is just 11 a.m.

Very young children who get put to bed at 8 p.m. will lie awake yelling for one solid hour because 8 p.m. is now 7 p.m. and still in the broad daylight.

Everybody, everywhere, will be adjusting, adjusting, adjusting. Then when everybody, everywhere, gets properly adjusted, the whole thing is reversed. In October people have to run their clocks BACK an hour and it's one hour earlier than you think for days and days and days.

* * *

HOPE I live to see the day when high noon is still high noon and midnight is midnight and supper stays the same time, too.

There are just so many hours of daylight, depending on the season, anyhow. Daylight Saving Time serves only one purpose. It confuses people.

If you forget to set the clock UP one hour last night you'll get to church in time for the final "Amen". 'Cause church begins at what is really 10 a.m. today.

Hope I at least live to see the day when every clock in this country goes on strike all during Daylight Saving Time.

SEEN LATELYS included Betty and John M. Worrell, Sr. at a refreshment break. Betty is just about to discard that cast for a broken wrist.

Did you know that Betty, Viola (Mrs. Jim) Hale, and Elna (Mrs. Jinks) Powell all suffered fractured wrists the same week?

Coffee time brought out Bob Reily, Anita and Porter Richardson, and Lovess (M.s. Tandy) Curlee. Saw Mrs. B. B. Lee. . .Pauline Hammack. . . Mary Hart (Mrs. Bruce) on the campaign trail. . .Ditto Bill F. Carter who says he was bitten on the leg by a dog who must have thought he was the postman.

* * *

FAMILIAR FACES, various places, belonged to Lucy (Mrs. Luke) Thomas block chairman for the Cancer Crusade again this year. Luke and Lucy were hosts last weekend to their son Terry Thomas and his bride, Judy, here from Dallas.

Say Sam L. Majors, Jr., who lives in Odessa now, visiting with old friends in City National Bank.

Lunch hour, Central Standard Time, brought glimpses of Mrs. Earl Brown, Mrs. R. P. Ware... Clem and Frances Myers. . . Mae and Glenn Dunn. . .Howard and Elizabeth Cox. . .The T. D. Wimans who were saying they were headed for Dallas where Mrs. Wiman's mother expected to meet her son for a visit.

Exchanged waves with Drew Ballard of KVMC. . .and had a telephone visit with Mrs. Linden Solomon, the former Lujuana McMillan. Lujuana was expressing her personal version of the "capacity for joy". She had just finished making a new formal for first daughter Peggy. The Solomons also have a younger daughter named Phyllis.

HEAR TELL that Gloria Richardson, junior student in Hendrick Memorial Hospital's nursing school, was elected president of the student nurses organization, recently.

Gloria, daughter of the Porter Richardsons and granddaughter of Mrs. J. E. Richardson, is also a member of the nurses' choir which is on a fourday tour for programs in high schools in the Dallas and Brownwood areas. The girls will spend two days at the "Dude Ranch" near Mineral Wells.

WANT to hear something extra-special nice? Pick up any paper, tune in any station, and you'll hear how wicked and irresponsible are the youth of this age. Nothing much about the good and sweet things some girls and boys do ever gets into print.

Did you know that a group of high school girls cooked supper--fried chicken, vegetables, salads, and homemade cakes for Glenn, Lillian, and Dick Thomas? Lillian is recovering from surgery. Then the next night the same girls prepared a feast for Curtis Baker and his son Dana because wife and mother Alice has been very ill.

Girls who thought up and accomplished the good deeds were Mona McCarley, Melissa Weaver, Dixie Martin, Denise Bertl, Marilyn Ellis, Rhonda Dockrey, Paula Wright, "ring leader", and the Owens twins, Sherry and Terry.

FURTHERMORE, three C-City college students donated blood to replace that needed while Bennett Scott was hospitalized.

Their names are Pat Graham, Carey Campbell, and Doris Jean Mickey. Hope to live to see the day when all the kind and generous things done by young people with loving hearts make headlines they deserve.

Cotton, Fuller Wed Saturday In Double Ring Ceremony

Vickie Arlene Cotton and William Patrick Fuller were wed Saturday at 4 o'clock in double ring rites in Calvary Baptist Church, Colorado City, Rev. Charles Jones officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, Tom A. Cotton of Hermleigh, the bride wore a gown of organza accented with Viennese lace on empire bodice, high neckline, and Victorian sleeves. Gown was styled in A-line skirt, with chapel train accented with Viennese lace, topped with satin bow. Bridal veil of silk illusion was held by tulle petals edged with lace.

Bridal bouquet was a cascading arrangement of gardenias, gladioli, and Stephonitis flowers.

An arch covered with lemon leaves and white daisies, flanked on either side by candelabras holding crystal votive candles and tapering trees adorned with white magestic daisies, stood in front of the altar.

Satin streamers marked family pews.

Wedding music before and during the ceremony by organist and cousin of the bride, Don Feaster, included "Love Theme From Romeo and Juliet", "Twelfth of Never", "As Long As He Needs Me", "Only You", "Somewhere My Love", and "Let It Be Me".

Sally Pritchett of Colorado City was maid of honor, and Carolyn Moore of Colorado City was bridemaid.

Flower girls were Julie and Melinda Fuller, sisters of the groom.

All four wedding party members wore gowns of yellow crepe designed with empire bodice and short sleeves. Small white daisies outlined the bodices. Veils were of yellow flowers and illusion. Flower girls carried white lace and satin baskets of petals with love knot streamers of satin.

Candlelighters and ushers were Alton Patterson of San Angelo, and David Feaster of Lubbock.

Jay Adams III of Midland was bestman, groomsman was Allen Kuss of Hermleigh.

Following the ceremony, the brides parents were hosts to a reception in fellowship hall.

Bridal table was covered by a white satin floor-length cloth. Silver candelabra with yellow candles, bridesmaids bouquets of white daisies and avacado velvet streamers, and crystal and silver appointments adorned the table. Wedding cake of three tiers separated by five Grecian columns trimmed with filigree, topped with a miniature bride and groom was trimmed in yellow roses and surrounded at the base by a silver ruffle.

Houseparty members were Mrs. Don Goss, aunt of the bride, Miss Wilma Currie, Miss DeLynn Grisham, Miss Debra Erwin, Mrs. R. A. Moore, and Mrs. Everett Haggerton.

Now's your chance for a big change. Elect

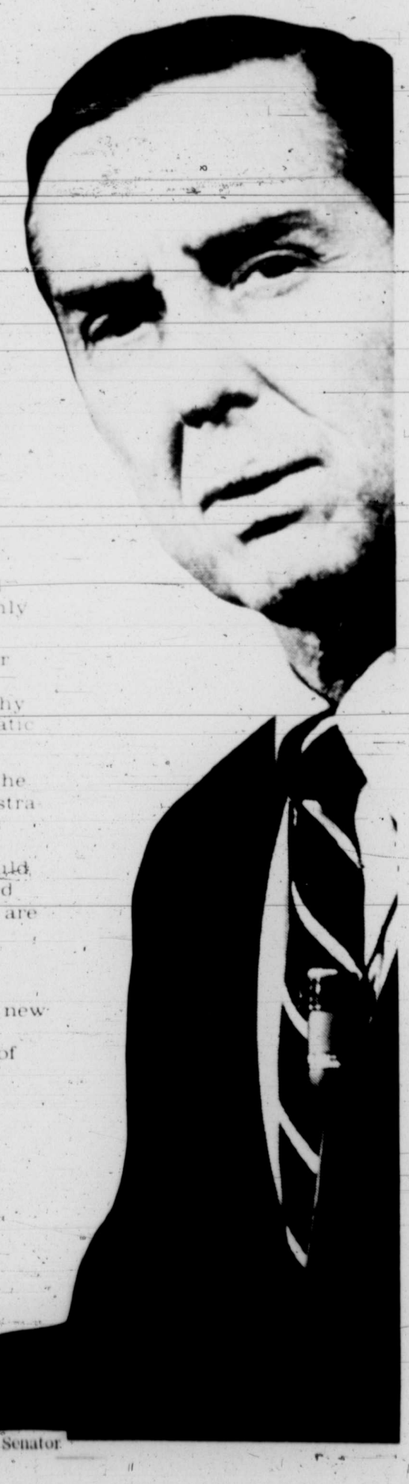

Lloyd Bentsen U.S. Senator.

Ralph Yarborough should be retired from office. He does not represent the viewpoint of the majority of Texans. He has aligned himself with the ultra-liberal element of the Democratic Party – that group commonly called the "radical left."

For example, did Ralph Yarborough represent your views when he backed Senator Eugene McCarthy for president in 1968? Many of the supporters of McCarthy were among those who set out to destroy the Democratic Convention with riots and violence.

Did Ralph Yarborough represent your views when he endorsed and supported the War Moratorium demonstrations last fall? These demonstrations, where radicals waved the Viet Cong flag, erupted into violence and bloodshed. Can you support a public official who would lend the prestige of his high office to those who would demonstrate on the streets of America while our men are dying on the battlefields of Vietnam? Do you think Ralph Yarborough helped the cause for peace by his actions?

It's time to retire Ralph Yarborough. Time to turn a new page. Time to send a youthful, energetic man to the United States Senate to represent the majority views of the people of Texas. It's time for Lloyd Bentsen.

Bentsen. Senator for the Seventies.

DEDICATED TO THE PEOPLE!

That's Another Good Reason To Vote For County Judge Elmer Martin

Elmer Martin is not a talker. He moves quietly. . .but effectively with an aim for progress through cooperation. He is dedicated to sound County government, to pay-as-you-go progress that does not soak the taxpayer. This dedication for "progress together" is one reason why Mitchell County has no net bonded debt, enjoys a low tax rate, but still has a new paid-for library, paid-for remodeled courthouse, paid-for Fair Buildings, paid-for County Ag Annex, paid-for Community Buildings in Loraine, Westbrook and Spade and paid-for 42 miles of new paved roads. That kind of dedication is a good reason to vote May 2 . . .

OTHERS PRAISE OUR COUNTY!

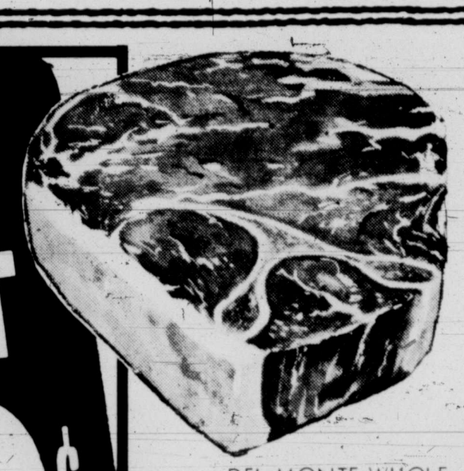

That's Another Good Reason To Vote For County Judge Elmer Martin

Statewide acclaim has come to Mitchell County for leading all Texas in redistricting commissioner precincts. Abilene Reporter-News, one of several major newspapers praising the action, wrote that Mitchell County Judge Elmer Martin and Commissioners "set an example of what can be done on the initiative of a commissioners court itself to bring about better efficiency and more economic use of tax dollars and equipment, and to enhance respect and support of the citizens at large who know they are getting a fair shake in representation." So, for a truly 'fair shake' in government, vote May 2 to. . .
