THE METHODIST CHURCH

M. D. LOWRY, Pastor

THE PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

Many thousands of our Methodist people who join the church fellowship when girls and boys, and grow up in the Sunday School cease to be members of that Sunday School when they reach physical maturity. Eighty percent of the people, most of them adults, who are members of The Methodist Church, are not in the Sunday school, and many of them do not participate in any of the church's activities. Add to this figure the vast number of adults who have no relation with the Church whatsoever. Then we can understand why God's power is limited in today's world.

GRADE SCHOOL DISTRICT MEET AT SAN SABA LAST FRIDAY

The Goldthwaite Grammar School placed in every event we entered at the District Meet in San Saba last Friday.

We competed with Burnet, Marble Falls, Fredericksburg, Mason, Llano, Lampasas and San Saba. We felt very proud of the record our children made, as we were one of the smaller schools.

Billy Joe Farris of the second grade won first place in story telling.

Martha Carolyn Graves and James Gilliam of Grade Five placed third in declamation. Marjorie Whitt and Rachel Elders of the Seventh Grade ranked first in their spelling division.

In arithmetic Billy McNutt of grade eight won first place and John Weaver of the eighth won fourth place.

Dorothy Cline represented us in the Ready Writers Contest but we have not gotten a report from this contest as the papers were sent away to be graded. But we feel sure Dorothy did well.

EAGLES WIN THIRD AT DISTRICT TRACK MEET AT MASON

The Goldthwaite Eagles, led by Herman Anderson, carried off third place in the District Track Meet at Mason Saturday.

Several of the potential first place winners were on the injured list the week previous to the meet, so were far from top form Saturday.

Anderson won first in the 220-yard dash and first in the 440-yard dash. He set a new district record in the 440. The mile relay team won second and Wayne Wilcox, the Eagles' outstanding miler, won second in that event.

After having been sick all the previous week, Jackie Gerald won third in the pole vault.

Anderson and Wilcox will go to the Regional Meet at Abilene the 24th; from there they have hopes of continuing on to the State Meet.

The Goldthwaite Eagles' baseball team will journey to Burnet Tuesday, April 13, to open their district schedule against the Bulldogs. The starting battery for the Eagles will be Heath pitching, Wesson catching.

WASHINGTON
Letter

JOHN L. LEWIS AGAIN

Overshadowing our stepped-up preparedness program which includes the good news of prospects for a greatly enlarged air force, is the current coal strike called on March 12 by old John L. Lewis. On that date he wrote a letter to all the coal unions advising them that the coal operators had "dishonored" their contract to set up a pension program for miners. The next day 340,000 miners failed to show up for work. Lewis says the stoppage was a "coin-idence", but a fact-finding board appointed by the President found that the letter from the Mine Union Dictator amounted to a strike order.

What are the facts? The Taft-Hartley law requires that in case of welfare funds for union members, such funds should be administered by a joint board of trustees comprised of three men—one appointed by the union, one by the employer, and the third to be agreed upon by the other two. That was done, and Lewis was selected to represent the miners, Ezra Van Horn to represent the coal operators, and one Thomas E. Murray was chosen for the third member of the board. But Murray resigned in January and Lewis and Van Horn haven't been able to agree on a successor.

Lewis demanded of Van Horn that he agree upon a pension of $100 per month for 60-year-old miners with 20 year service records. Van Horn objected, saying that would more than deplete the $32,000,000 welfare fund and nothing would remain for sickness or accident benefits provided for in the current contract. So, an impasse was created and Lewis called the strike because Van Horn would not let Lewis dictate the terms of the pension program. In an attempt to settle, Van Horn offered to go with Lewis to a Federal Judge and let the latter name a third trustee so they would not be deadlocked. But Lewis was not interested. He preferred to strike.

New what has happened. Up to the time of this writing the miners out on strike have lost approximately $100 million in wages. This is about three times the total amount of the accumulated welfare fund which is the pretended basis for the strike. The miners lose $4½ million in wages every day they don't work.

So it becomes very evident that the alleged reasons for the strikes are phony. Lewis has refused to bargain or negotiate, and as I pointed out on the floor of the House the other day, he is now "evidently engaged in one of his periodic Public theatrical exhibitions put on for the purpose of showing the power and control he holds over the 400,000 members of the Mine union".

I have urged additional laws to curb such irresponsible conduct by a union leader. An injunction proceeding is now going on, but that is a treatment of the symptoms rather than the disease. Until conduct such as Lewis engages in is brought under our anti-monopoly laws, just as business monopolies in restraint of trade are controlled, and the industry-wide power Lewis now uses is controlled, the public welfare will continue to be subject to the whims of irresponsible labor bosses. And not only the public suffers but the members of the unions and their families take a terrific beating.

The House last year passed a bill to bring Lewis under the anti-monopoly laws and to curb his industry-wide monopolistic power, but those provisions were stricken in the Senate. That sort of a law is badly needed at the present time.

THE SPIRIT OF JAN MASARYK

The "Give me liberty or give me death" philosophy of the late Jan Masaryk, Czechoslovakia's martyr to the cause of freedom, is the true incarnation of true patriotism. It was he who not long ago advised the United States to "get tough" with Joe Stalin.

"If I were an American", he said, "I'd go all out for a tough the only way for you to keep her in line; get tough."

Masaryk was a devout Christian. It is believed these words of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians were in the mind of Masaryk in the moments before his death:

"Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage."

NO-SMOKING SOCIETY
ORGANIZED AT ACC

Eight hundred students enrolled in Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, have organized the first collegiate Anti-cancer Anti-heart Disease Society ever founded in the United States. The society is in effect an anti-smoking group. Its purpose is to show, through the results of scientific research, the effects of tobacco on the human body and thus discourage the use of products. Such research shows that 80 malconditions of the body are caused or aggravated by the use of tobacco.

MILLAND, DIETRICH IN DARING ROMANCE

A film romance very much on the daring side is in the offing for patrons of the Melba Theatre
when, beginning next Tuesday Paramount's "Golden Earrings" makes its appearance with co-stars Ray Milland and Marlene Dietrich.

According to word received via the movie grapevine, the love story of the seductive gypsy and the British man-of-the-world is definitely off the beaten film path. Based on Yolanda Foldes' best selling novel of the same name, "Golden Earrings" concerns the adventures of a top-ranking British officer who, in eluding his Nazi pursuers in the Romy forests, comes upon a Hungarian gypsy woman. The woman offers to him, disguises him as a gypsy, complete with pierced ears and stained skin, and then proceeds to make him fall in love with her. Considering the fact that her ragged, unkempt appearance is offensive to the fastidious Englishman, the ultimate accomplishment of her purpose is a monumental achievement.

Self Culture Club

On Saturday, April 10th, Miss
Love Gatlin and Mmes. Harold Yarborough, L. E. Miller and H.
E. Patton were hostesses to the Self Culture Club at a beautiful appointed luncheon at the Hangar.

The blue bonnet motif was carried out in the table floral arrangements, and dainty place cards were used. Covers laid for twenty-five. Miss Fannie Jack Baldwin of Dallas being the only guest not a club member.

Annual reports of officers were read during the business session, and the club was happy to re-instate Mrs. E. T. Fairman as an active member.

Mrs. J. C. Evans, in her gracious manner presented the retiring president, Mrs. Wm. G.
Yarborough, with a lovely gift from the club, in appreciation for her splendid work during the past year.

Mrs. O. H. Yarborough read a beautiful poem, "The Texas Bluebonnet" by Dr. J. W. Tor-bett, and then introduced Mrs.
J. A. Hester, who installed the new officers, who will take their seats at the next meeting.

In her talk, Mrs. Hester spoke on "Reflections," with life symbolized as a mirror. She stated the object of the club as encouraging education and culture with co-operation in any work to advance welfare and culture in the community.

Each of the members, she said, are a part of a mirror reflecting to the world genuine concern for others and a desire for improvement of self.

Mr. Hester said there can be no great service or organization unless it be based on principles taught by Christ. Each officer must reflect her spirit in doing tasks, in living a life of service and fellowship.

Mrs. H. E. Patton is the new president and will be assisted by the following officers: Mrs.
Walter Summy, Vice-President;
Mrs. J. H. Saylor, Secretary;
Mrs. O. H. Yarborough, Treasur-

MESSAGES of HOPE by

Dr. T. A. Williams

The current issue of the Saturday Evening Post (April 10, 1948) carries an article by Steven N. Spencer entitled

"THAT FANTASTIC GLAND, THE THYROID"

We would urge you to read it. It is most ably presented and the facts (as he understands them) interestingly dealt with.

Mr. Spencer states that causes of hyperthyroidism are among the unsolved mysteries. He goes on to describe cases that developed after severe shock and mentions one which was involved in an auto accident. Also that hyperthyroidism increased 500 or 600 percent in Denmark during the German occupation. As a chiropractor, I can easily understand why this would be true. It is shocks, stresses, strains and otherwise out of the ordinary things that set up conditions which interfere with the normal function of the nervous system, upon which the thyroid as well as the rest of the body is dependent for its delicate regulation.

Nature has provided you with a wonderful and efficient organ in the thyroid but it does get out of order. Mr. Spencer's information came to him from America's best medical authorities. From his article, one would gather that they agree the CAUSE is a puzzle to them, but disagree on the merits of different treatments. Chiropractors all agree that the trouble is due to an interference to the nerves that supply the thyroid, and also all agree that when you remove the interference, that "FANTASTIC GLAND WILL WORK NORMALLY."

Case Report:—Lady, 41 years of age. Very nervous; always tense; headaches; indigestion; no appetite; backache; pain between shoulders; constipated. Been sick 10 years. Although this patient has been coming to us less than three months, she reports that she feels good all the time.

Mills County Veterans' Vocational School

The distributive educational classes are making news this week, owing to the fact that a new building has been placed on the ground which will be used for classrooms for these classes. Mr. Robertson called Mr. Williams and Mr. Swindle into his office on Monday morning of this week and informed us that he would have a building on the ground that afternoon. So it was up to the instructors to get the place ready. To make a long story short, we went to see our commissioners, who were in session, and asked for help. They were willing to give us the aid but all their men were working out of town. Mr. Tullios suggested that he had a maintainer not in use and if we could find someone to run it just to go ahead. We looked it over and cranked her up. Mr. Williams took the wheel and drove that machine out of there like a "bat out of Center City". He zipped that thing across the lot a few times and there it was level and smooth as a pancake. What that Williams guy doesn't know about a maintainer would make a book.

The vocational teachers' conference at Houston last week was well attended by teachers over the state and enjoyed by all of us. The D. E. section which met on Friday was, of course, most interesting to us. Plans are being made by the state supervisors and other officials for new and more comprehensive courses which will go into operation July 1. We hope to have a much better system of training for veterans after that time.

The agriculture class at Star, under the supervision of Mr. Carothers, has been making a special study of sheep for the past week. They are studying various breeds and types of sheep and methods of cross-breeding some of the better English breeds of coarse wool and mutton types with the fine wool sheep for the purpose of producing a good mutton type with fine wool. Wool grading is also one of the projects for this week. Mr. Hollis Blackwell, a local wool dealer, met with Mr. Carothers and his pupils one day this week to give information on grading and classing wool, proper methods of sacking, storing, shipping, etc. This should be of great help to wool growers.

Mr. White, instructor for the Goldthwaite class, has been engaged in similar projects as those at Star. But in addition he has been making a special study of goats. The sheep and goat industry is one of the leading agricultural projects for this region and most every farmer is interested in some phase of work pertaining to better breeding and handling of these useful animals.

Several new pupils have been added to the rolls this week and others have changed from part time to full time classes. We are always glad to welcome these new students and to enroll old ones in full time work, as we think that they can accomplish more in these classes because they can devote more time to study and receive more instruction in the classroom. Next regular enrollment date will be May 4. But anyone interested should not wait until the last day to enter. One may enroll at any time but the billing and classes start every four weeks. Get information at the coordinator's office about requirements.

D. N. Waggoner, of the Center City Conservation Group, notified that on a field where he had oats and vetch following wheat and vetch, the oats had a growth of from 4 to 6 inches and was scarcely affected by the late freeze. Another field where Mr. Waggoner had oats following clover he noted that the oats had very little growth and most of it was killed by the freeze. On the third field, Mr. Waggoner had oats following oats and noted that the oats did not make enough growth to graze and all were killed by the freeze. These three patches were all sowed in October.

W. A. Tripplett, of the Pompey Creek Conservation Group, last week shaped a natural drain and seeded it to King Ranch Bluestem. This drain will be used to empty terrace water into. Terraces will be constructed when drain has a good protective cover of grass.

W. W. Boykin, of the Star Conservation Group, recently constructed 100 feet of diversion terraces, while W. W. Clary of the same group constructed 1400 feet of diversion terraces. These were built around cultivated fields to keep outside pasture water from running through the fields. Lee Parker did the construction work.

J. E. Smith, of the Prairie Conservation Group, recently constructed 2 miles of large ridge type terraces. This field will later be planted to small grain. The drain built by Kyle was a whirlwind owned by

Will be hearing about foot and mouth disease month in and out for some time now we suppose. Comes now one of year to think about the types of invaders—the insects and the kind that store wheat. Warm weather gives impetus to the inspection and fumigation of stored grain may save you money.

As for cotton insects, there is now plenty of good, easy-to-read literature telling how to handle them—in case you can't collar the county agent or someone else long enough to have him tell you.

Also, you can learn to identify the insects, and know what kind of poison to hit them with, and how much and how to do it.

You can learn to make a "count" too, so you can figure the percentage of infestation. Sometimes the infection may be so small that poisoning wouldn't be economically sound. But if it's as much as ten percent you'll probably find it worth while to give battle.

In Mexico City newspaper we see a picture of the fence which is being built in Mexico to help hold the quarantine lines. It appears to be a seven strand barbed wire fence, with sturdy, square posts about ten feet apart. Trees and brush have been cleared back several yards. The paper says that the fence, when finished, will be longer than the Great Wall of China.

People who manufacture things out of cotton and cottonseed are encouraging increased acreages of cotton again this year, as always. Only this year there seems more incentive for growers to step up their plantings because of the good outlook for price. This is fine, provided we don't lose sight of some of the things we have learned about the value of rotating cotton with soil building crops to keep the soil fertile and productive.

Livestock feeders may be interested in a new WBAP 820 feature. It's "The Feed Bin," heard every weekday at 6 p. m., featuring music and comments by Ted Gouldy, WBAP's market editor. Ted reports that his appetite at 5 a. m. is in fine fettle.

When ex-King Michael of Rumania visited the King Ranch in Texas, he saw there a "kingdom" almost as big as the one he left in Europe a while back. And world conditions being what they are, we imagine most folks would rather own this one.

Do rattlesnakes ever commit suicide by biting themselves? Folks at Jacksboro say they do. Snakes will crawl over ropes, too.

Talking with farmers and ranchmen of west Texas lately, we have learned to rub our chins and look mournful right along with them when we discuss the prospects for a drouth this year.

Their views are based on "hunch" more than science. They figure the time is ripe for a dusty year, and it's getting started off that way.

Bryant Edwards, Henrietta, new president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association is one who won't be much surprised if 1948 is dry. He remembers, (as who doesn't) the powdery 1934 with its clouds of dust rolling east from the Panhandle.

The Soil Conservation Service tells us now that the source of dusters we've had this spring is 14 countries south and southwest of Lubbock, where the covering of grass and grain is too sparse to hold the soil down when the drying, blowing winds come.

And from South Africa we hear that the desert is moving forward at the rate of a mile and a half per year there. That is pretty fast for a desert to be on the march.

The House of Representatives turned down the proposal that the foot and mouth disease research laboratory to be built on Ling Island. They said it must be located on an island that isn't connected to the mainland by a tunnel. There are subways, tunnels, etc., under the East river connecting Manhattan and Brooklyn, which is on Long Island.

B. F. Vance, state director of the Production and Marketing Administration, now on leave with the Aid to Greece program, writes from that country that the worst eroded parts of Greece are the locations of most of the guerrilla warfare. He says fertile soil, healthy, well-fed, intelligent people are the best enemies of communism that we have.

April 14, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is Pan American Day. We have much in common with the other nations of the western hemisphere, but we have spent centuries looking at Europe and overlooking our neighbors. Maybe if we treated them more as good business men and good neighbors, they wouldn't 'pan' us so much.

Someone has figured out that it takes fifty gallons of water to grow a bushel of corn. Well, we haven't consumed near that much while writing this column.

John Hendrix, well known writer in southwestern magazines on Texas, cattle and horse subjects, has lived all over most of the state and knows nearly everyone. We've traveled considerably with John and enjoy his running patter about people and things identified with every farm and ranch house and landmark we pass.

Admittedly, he is no authority on grand opera but if you need background on some old time cattleman, ask John.

WEATHERFORD
JERSEYS WIN
HIGH RATINGS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 29.—Two registered Jersey cows owned by C. O. Norton of Weatherford, Texas, have completed production records of merit as announced by the American Jersey Cattle Club, whose headquarters are here.

Noble Gloria Annie 1143282 produced 13,052 pounds of milk and 626 pounds butterfat at the age of 10 years. The record of Gloria Annie was made on 305-day test and qualified her for the Gold Medal award of the American Jersey Cattle Club. In addition she has also been officially classified for type by the cattle club with the high rating or good plus.

Miss Jean Mercury 1441153 produced 11,956 pounds milk and 642 pounds butterfat on 305-day test at the age of 3 years which qualified her for the gold and silver medal awards of the cattle club.

In compiling the above records these Jerseys produced more than three times each the butterfat of the average daily cow in the United States. All tests were verified by both the Texas A and M College and the American Jersey Cattle Club.

CARD OF THANKS

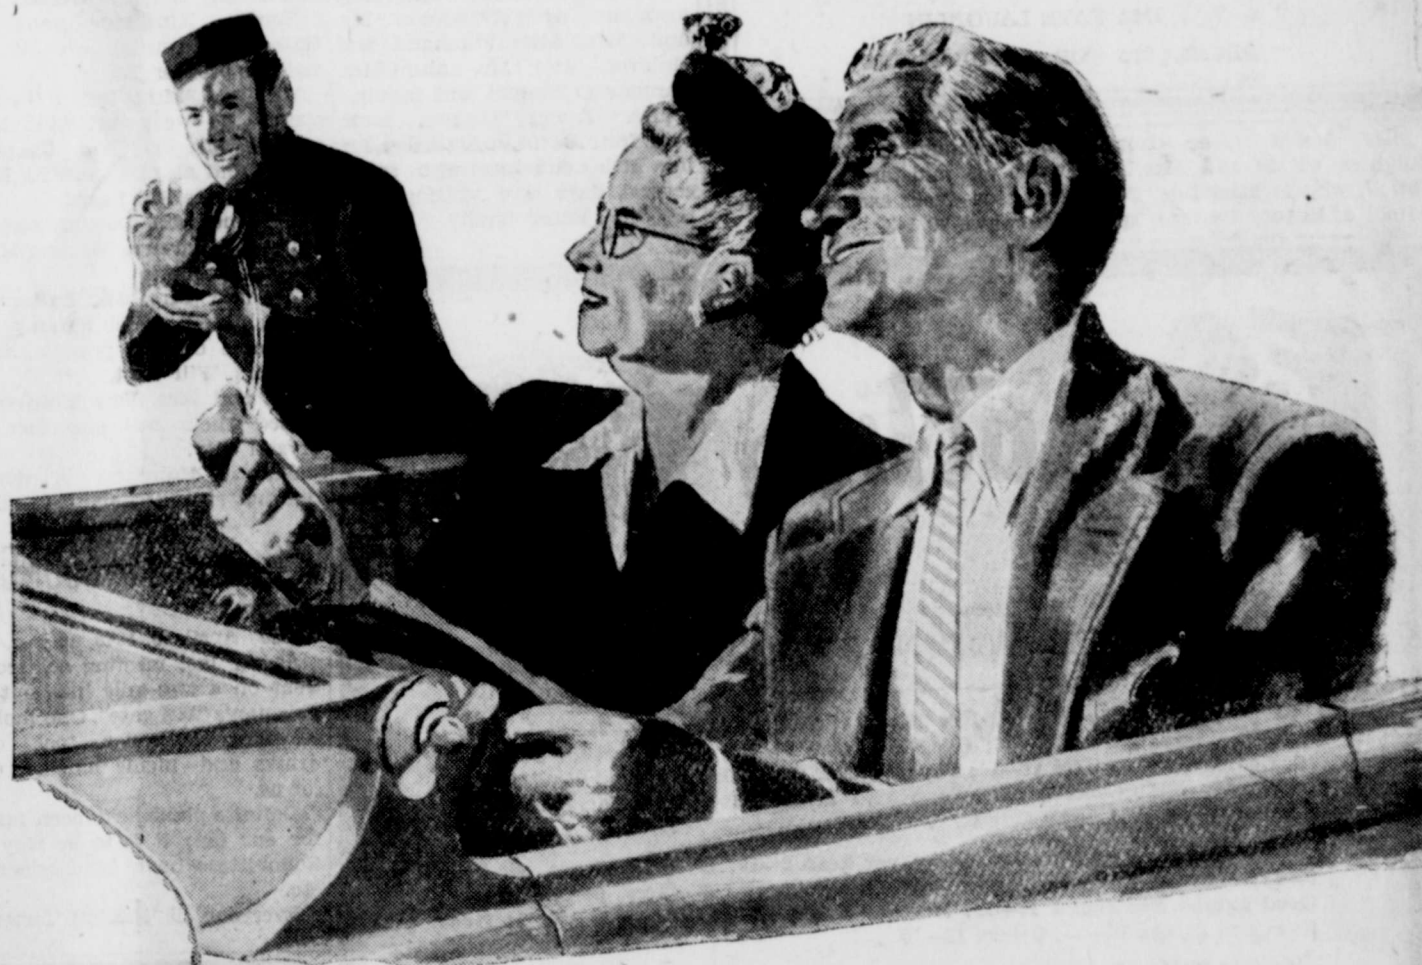

We wish to express our thanks and appreciations to our friends and neighbors for the many deeds and words of sympathy rendered in our recent sorrow including the American Legion. May God's richest blessing abide with each of you.

Good tip for any trip!

Take it from those who know travel and travelers best . . . before any trip, drain out that dirty old winter oil and OIL-PLATE your engine with fresh, new Conoco Nth!

Miss Melva Gene Nowell, the week-end at home after a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy week of mid-term exams. On Nowell, who is attending Texas her nine-weeks exams, her average was 98 1-3.

SCALLORN

By MRS. ORA BLACK

From out our way comes happy glee of children, blating of lambs, hum of tractors and the cluck, cluck of old biddy calling her brood from the snares of danger, for certainly she and her babies are having trouble with the pole cats. The first neighbors to lose was Mrs. John Harris, 42 left out of 50. Mrs. Frank Hines lost several and Mrs. John Kuykendall had 12 left out of her 50. The writer so far has been lucky by placing poisoned eggs in suspicious places. So far as we know, six of the tribe have been victims of the poisoned eggs.

Bety Gene and Glen Hale were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Burk were luncheon guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Johnson.

SCRIPTURE: Ezra 1-6; Haggai. DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalms 134: 1-4.

The Return From Exile

Lesson for April 18, 1948

COWPER'S lines come to mind as we study the dramatic return of the Jews from their exile in Babylon to Jerusalem in the first year of the reign of Cyrus, king of Persia, 536 B. C.: "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform; He plants his footsteps in the sea And rides upon the storm."

And yet it is not altogether strange, for if you will turn to Jeremiah 29:4-14, you will find a prophecy given 50 years before the event that this very thing would occur.

There were two other deportations of the Jews from Babylon, prior to the incident in our lesson—the return led by Daniel, 606 B. C., and the one led by Ezekiel, 597 B. C.

PROCLAMATION OF CYRUS

THE proclamation of Cyrus, Ezra 1:1-3, records the happy word to the Jews that they would not only return, but that the temple would be rebuilt. Cyrus called upon all the people who would to make offerings by which the temple might be restored. Cyrus was acting under divine impulse in this gracious and generous proclamation.

"The Lord God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah," said Cyrus, Ezra 1:2.

Fifty thousand Jews, their hearts rejoicing at the thought of returning to the land of their fathers, set out on the trek of 600 miles, laden with gifts from the Persians for the restoration of the temple in Jerusalem. They could now sing the song of the Lord, and no longer did their harps hang silently on the willow trees.

THE DECREE OF ARTAXERXES

THE fourth chapter of Ezra brings us to the halting of the work on the temple, after they had raised the magnificent sum of approximately $400,000, and had laid the foundation for the temple, with imposing ceremonies.

This delay was occasioned by the jealousy of the Samaritans, who went to Artaxerxes, through employed counsel, and convinced him that it would be dangerous to allow these Jews to rebuild Jerusalem. At first, the Samaritans proposed that the Jews let them use the temple in joint worship, but the Jews feared the Samaritans and refused their offer. It was then that the Samaritans effected the delay in the building of the temple by the space of 14 years. Meanwhile, the Jews went forward with the building of their homes and re-establishing themselves and their civilization in Jerusalem.

STICKING TO ONE'S PURPOSE

WE come now to the part Haggai played in summoning the Jews to their duty and obligation to God to restore the temple. It was in the second year of the reign of Darius that Haggai received the word of the Lord. "Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste? Now therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Consider your ways."

It was enough. The people rallied to the call of Haggai, and the temple was completed. Men can always do what they ought to do, if they will to do it.

GOD'S PURPOSE FULFILLED

THE message of Haggai was heeded. The temple was completed, Ezra 6:13-18, and God's purpose was fulfilled. Read Psalm 126.

This brings us to the golden text: "No man, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God." Luke 9:62. When once the returned exiles felt the iron of God's purpose surging through their veins, they quitted themselves like men, and God's power was everywhere manifest. So may it ever be with us!

As We Achieve

The degree of success which we achieve in making effective our Christian education program in the life of this generation will determine whether future generations will be able to enjoy a society free from the distrust of religious intolerance, the vindictiveness of race prejudice, and the bitterness of class hatred.—Walter W. Head.

JERRY AND WALKER GARAGE

Out Of 4 Pedestrians Killed Traffic Contribute To Own Deaths

By JULIEN H. HARVEY
Manager, National Conservation Bureau.

The second of a series of articles on street safety, written by recognized accident specialists and published in this newspaper, has come when all need laws to control as well as automobiles of us are pedestrians of the time. There is more in our own element when we are walking, and as a group we fail to understand the limitations of the automobile. Even experienced drivers forget these limitations when they become pedestrians. Year after year the records continue to show that nearly three out of every four pedestrians killed in motor accidents were either committing an unsafe act or violating a traffic law. Crossing against a signal was reported in approximately 18 per cent of the accidents involving adult pedestrians. Playing in the roadway and crossing between crossways accounted for three fifths of the child pedestrian accidents. Unless we mend our ways, the same tragic story will be repeated in 1948.

An effective solution to the problem of pedestrian accidents can only be obtained through firm use of the three E's of safety: namely, education, engineering and enforcement. Pedestrian laws should be designed not only to control the walker, but to inform the automobile driver as to his area of responsibility. They should provide for the following:

1. Crosswalks should be clearly defined at all intersections in urban areas and pedestrians prohibited from crossing streets between crosswalks or where traffic signals are in operation, against the signal.
2. Walking in the roadway in both urban and rural areas should be prohibited when sidewalks are provided.
3. Walking in the roadway while under the influence of intoxicants should be prohibited.
4. When it is necessary to walk in the roadway, because of the absence of sidewalks, pedestrians should be required to walk facing traffic.
5. When it is necessary to walk at night, pedestrians should be required to carry a light and walk facing traffic.
6. Crossing highways on which there is heavy traffic should be permitted in rural areas only at points where the pedestrian has a clear view of the highway for 300 feet in either direction.

7. Pedestrians crossing intersections at designated crosswalks under appropriate signal, should have the right of way over automobiles turning right or left.

The final criterion to be used in judging whether or not pedestrians should dispute the roadway with an automobile is this—there is no equal competition between a 150-pound pedestrian and a 3,000-pound automobile!

HUMBLE OIL NET INCOME

Houston—Humble Oil and Refining Company today reported to stock holders that the Company's net income in 1947 was $124,106,900, equivalent to $78,000,000 in purchasing power of 1935-1939 dollars.

Earnings for the year were $6.90 a share and dividends were $3.00 a share, the annual report stated. The Company retained more than half of its earnings in the business to help finance record capital investments of $96,000,000 in new facilities during 1947. Humble has previously announced plans to invest $14,000,000 for expansion and improvements in 1948.

HILLSIDE MISSION

By LIDA BYRNE
"Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

And behold at eveningtide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of these that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us." Isaiah 17: 12, 13, 14.

HEALTH NOTES

"Too much emphasis cannot be placed upon the need for reading labels on drugs and medicines before taking them," says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "Frequent reports are received of accidents, some of them fatal, affecting people who have formed the hazardous habit of taking medicines without carefully reading the labels."

Equally dangerous is the habit of taking medicine after the directions on the label have become obliterated, which many people do, thinking that they can remember what the bottle contained. Reaching for a bottle and taking medicine in the dark is another dangerous practice. It is important to remember that the law requires labels to be attached to drugs and Utilization of livestock by-products is important to all farmers and ranchers. Of the total dollars received by Swift & Company for lamb, 15% to 25% comes from by-products. Cattle by-products amount to 10% to 20%. With hogs it is 2% to 5%. When bidding on live animals, Swift & Company's buyers estimate the yield and grade of edible meat. In their estimate they figure, too, the value of all by-products, including hides and wool.

Livestock by-products have greatly increased the value of your meat animals. Since earliest times, man has used hides and wool to make clothing. But only in the past half-century has research found the present great variety of uses for by-products. Fats, and lanolin from wool, are the base of many cosmetics, healing creams and beauty aids. Photographic film is coated with a gelatin compound. Other uses of gelatin and glue are almost endless. Animal fats are the main raw material of toilet soaps.

Life has been lengthened for people with diabetes, anemia and other diseases. They are helped by drugs such as insulin, liver extract, pepsin, adrenalin. These are all made from the glands of livestock. But for the painstaking care of meat packers, these glands would go to waste. This happened during the wartime "black market" in meats, and the supply of insulin ran low.

With the growth of meat-packing plants, the war on waste began in earnest. Science found new ways to use by-products of your animals. Bristles make brushes. Bones make knife handles. Hair makes upholstery padding. Bones, blood and scraps go into animal and poultry feeds. Yes, we find use for every valuable part of cattle, hogs, and lambs.

Each new use for by-products adds value to livestock... and directly benefits producers.

Phenothiazine Stands Up

by Dr. I. B. Boughton
Texas Substation No. 14, Sonora, Texas

Ample proof that sheep roundworms can be controlled in West Texas by free-choice feeding of phenothiazine-salt mixture, with no danger of poisoning, is revealed in a 4-year test at this station.

The test was made to find the answers to two specific questions: 1) Whether phenothiazine-salt mixture, fed to sheep free choice, would control stomach and other roundworm infections. 2) Whether long time use of such a mixture would be poisonous to sheep.

Answering both questions, it was effective and it was not toxic.

Sheep used in the test were fairly heavily infested at the start, showing an average of 1180 worm eggs per gram of manure in ewes and an average of 1700 in lambs. The count decreased steadily to 60 for ewes and 30 for lambs by the fourth year. The worm eggs in the manure did not hatch, an important point since the failure to hatch shows that the infestation of the range was being reduced.

But don't throw away the drench gun. In 8 Minnesota flocks, where sheep were given a phenothiazine drench and had free access to phenothiazine-salt mixture, the lambs weighed 93 to 104 pounds. They dressed out 47.4 to 48.9%; and over 90% of the carcasses graded AA.

On the other hand, in flocks where the sheep were given the phenothiazine-salt mixture but were not drenched, the lambs weighed 87-99 pounds; they dressed out 46.6 to 47.4%; and 11% to 40% graded AA.

Speaking of By-Products

Here's a movie about just the film to complete your community or school program: a 16mm. sound, color cartoon, "BY-PRODUCTS." It runs 10 minutes—and tells the story of livestock by-products and their uses. You may also want to show "MEAT BUYING CUSTOMS," another 10-minute cartoon. For a history of the livestock-meat-packing industry, you'll like "LIVESTOCK AND MEAT"—49 minutes, black and white. "A NATION'S MEAT" is a shorter version—30 minutes—full of information on the American meat supply. Then there is "COWS AND CHICKENS... USA," a story of diversified farming—the dairy and poultry business in a nutshell. Please give us at least a month's advance notice to handle bookings. We can ship by express or parcel post. Only cost to you is payment of express or postage one way. A 16mm. sound projector is required. Order from Agricultural Research Dept., Swift & Company, Chicago 9, Illinois.

A Steer is NOT All Beef

Let's take a look at this steer. It weighs 1,000 lbs. It's not all steak. In fact, only a little more than half is salable beef.

Hanging in Swift's cooling room, our steer has become two sides of beef. Together they weigh 543 lbs. What happened to the rest?

Modern meat packers save everything of value from the steer—heart, tongue, liver, sweetbreads and other fancy meats. Hides for leather; bones, blood and scraps for animal feeds. Glands for medicines. All told, 161 lbs. of the steer is saved in by-products. But 296 lbs. is shrinkage and material of no value. Only the meat and by-products can be sold.

What happens to the money the meat packer receives? It is used to buy livestock and other raw materials. It meets the expenses of slaughtering, dressing, refrigerating, transporting and selling. It pays rent, insurance, taxes—all the costs of doing business. The amount remaining after all of these expenses are paid is the meat packer's profit. Over a period of years, Swift & Company's profit has averaged a fraction of a cent a pound on the products we sell.

That's the explanation of the "spread" between livestock prices and wholesale meat prices.

SWIFT & COMPANY
UNION STOCK YARDS
CHICAGO 9, ILLINOIS

We All Want the Top Dollar

You, as a producer of livestock, want to get the best price for your animals—"the top dollar." As a salesman for Swift & Company, selling the products which result from these animals, I, too, want to get the top dollar.

The meat packer's buyer has to judge the grade of the animals and estimate how they will yield. He then makes his bids in competition with buyers for many meat packers and other commercial slaughterers. To get the animals, he has to offer going prices. Otherwise he just won't get them; somebody else will. And that "going price" which he must pay depends on the number of animals on the market and the demand for them.

After Swift & Company has made the animals which it has purchased into meat and by-products, we must sell them, again in stiff competition. If we don't offer meat at the going price, retail meat dealers will buy from somebody else who does. This competition in both buying and selling is so keen that we have to operate on a margin of profit which averages but a fraction of a cent per pound of product handled.

In our business, as in yours, it takes hard work and good management to come out with money ahead on a year's operation. Our efficiency in selling meat and by-products results in important economies and savings. Only through such savings can we earn our profit—and help increase the value of your livestock.

team back in 1904, and they don't remember the exact score. Goldthwaite was ahead some up to the end of the 7th, when the Sioux Chief blew his whistle, and we never saw first base again. The Sioux advertised they had lost 278 games, and won 1,331 before the game, but changed it to 1,332 games won after it was over. Oh yes, here's the Sioux Indian lineup: Yellow Feather, Short Tooth, Little Cloud, High Hawk, Thank Himself, Rolling Thunder, Good Voice Elk, Pine Bird, Walking Smoke, Fleet Wing and Swift Water. Advertisers on the score card in 1904 were D. H. Trent, Banker, Goldthwaite National Bank, Goldthwaite Mercantile Company, Jackson-Hughes Company, Higginbotham Lumber Company, Goldthwaite Bottling Works, Hudson & Rahl Meat Market, C. D. Hammond, and P. H. Clements Insurance. Oscar Burns thinks the score was 13 to 3 in Goldthwaite's un-favor. Old timers here also remember that the same summer the Goldthwaite team played the Boston Bloomers, another traveling ball club that featured women in bloomers, which was a great sight around here then. Old Hunnert remembers our boys got purty excited playing them purty women with pants on, but thinks maybe they won anyway.

MR. METHUSELAH—Now Old Hunnert had been hope-er-thinking maybe Old Man Mr. Methuselah had gone off sommers and died, but was disappointed last Sunday when he found out that Mr. ME had sneaked in and sneaked out of Goldthwaite and had a long talk with the Boss about Old Hunnert's spies found out about Mr. ME: He still has good teeth (he bought and paid for 'em himself), and he walks without a cane. He also told a funny (?) joke while here, as per to-wit: Two sons were sitting beside their father's deathbed arguing about the funeral they'd give him and the money he'd leave them. One son said let's hire ten carriages and ten automobiles for the funeral, and the other one argued strong for five. When they finally got down to just one carriage, the old man raised up and said: "Quit your squabbling, sons; I'll get up and walk to the cemetery."

CANT PRINT EVERYTHING—Now there's been several "friends" this week, told Old Hunnert the new joke that jest hit here about the two flappers that visited the tattoo artist, and wanted it printed in the Old Man's column. Now, Old Hunnert already goes in the hole every week trying to keep the 7th satisfied on his 11 duiler salary and can't take no chances on the Boss firing him. The Boss' first rule is: No dirty jokes a-tall.
