Friends and Relatives Honor Mr. and Mrs. J. L. King on Golden Anniversary of their Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. King celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday, August 19 at their home, 410 West Tennessee Street.

At 2:30 an impressive re-enactment double ring marriage ceremony was read before the family and relatives by their son-in-law Rev. J. W. Burgett. Little June Marble and Leora King, granddaughters, were ring bearers.

Open house was held from 3 until 6 o'clock. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. King's children, R. P. King, Mrs. J. W. Burgett, Mrs. C. W. Byars, Mrs. H. L. Marble and Mrs. Billie L. Pace.

Miss LaJuana Burgett presided at the guest book, which was graced with golden gladioli. Mrs. G. Scott King received and opened the gifts.

Wedding Cake Graces Table

Mrs. R. P. King ushered the guests to the dining room, where they were served punch from a beautiful garnished punch bowl, by Mrs Clerence Lows, Mrs. Quentin Burgett, Miss Elaine Burgett, all granddaughters, and Miss Doris Cornelius. The punch bowl, surrounded by marigolds, fever-few and ferns, centered the lace covered table with gold tapers on either side of the bowl. In the center of the service table was the three tier wedding cake trimmed in white and gold. On each side were tall golden tapers with marigolds floating in the holders and around the cake. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs Lottie Bingham, Mrs. Jack Rose and Miss Alice Rose.

The guests were served squares of the cake with the golden punch. Plate favors were white and gold wedding bells.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Carl Muench played soft organ music. Mr. Muench sang, "When You and I Were Young, Maggie."

Seated with Mr. and Mrs. King were Mr. King's sisters, Mrs. R. A. Taylor and Mrs. Mollie Rose and his brother, E. C. King.

Children, grandchildren and great grandchildren present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. R. P. King and family, Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Burgett and family of Santa Anna; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Byars and son of Weatherford; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Marble and family of South (See King Anniversary, back page)

Lyndale Dairy Store Will Open Monday Morning

Announcement that the new dairy products store of Geo. B. McAllister and his brother, Dr. R. L. McAllister, will be opened for operation on Monday morning of next week, September 1, was made here this week by Geo. B. McAllister. They have named the store, (which will also be a factory and freezing plant) the Lyndale Farm Dairy store.

It is a model in appearance of neatness, cleanliness, good taste and efficiency. It is equipped with machinery and appliances which have met the requirements of the State Department of Public Health, said George B. McAllister. An inspection of the building has not been made yet but it has been laid out and constructed to meet suggestions of the Texas State Department of Health.

Adjunct to Fine Dairy

The dairy store will make and sell only grade A products and sooner or later it will earn the title of a grade A establishment, according to the plan of the owners.

The dairy store will be a marketing adjunct to the Lyndale farm, which George B. McAllister established 10 years ago. A large herd of registered Milking Shorthorn dairy cattle will make an assured source of supply which the McAllisters will control and supervise from (See Lyndale Dairy, back page)

Annual Providence Re-Union Sept. 6

The 3rd annual Providence reunion will be held at the school Saturday, September 6, at 7:30 P. M., according to announcement made this week by Joyce Ooley Wood, secretary.

All former pupils of the school as well as neighbors are invited to come and bring a picnic supper.

John R. Gray Will be Scott Gin Manager

Announcement is made this week by West Texas Gins of Quanah that John R. Gray, former manager of the McCoy Gin, will be manager of the Scott Gin in Floydada this year, and will open for the season when cotton harvest begins. Mr. Gray has had 20 years experience in the ginning business.

Most important addition made to the Scott gin for the new season is a Murray dryer. The gin is completely over hauled in readiness for the season to open.

Fifth Sunday Singers Plan Meeting Here

Six counties will be represented at the Fifth Sunday Singing convention to be held Sunday evening beginning at 1:30 o'clock in the First Baptist church. Singers from Floyd Hale, Briscoe, Dickens Hall and Motley counties are expected to be present.

The new Stamps-Baxter and Frank Stamps books will be used. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy a session of good gospel singing.

C. M. Lyles is president of the organization and Mrs. Lucy Dean Record of Lockney is secretary-treasurer.

Geo. B. Marshall In Temple Hospital

Geo. B. Marshall, reported ill three weeks ago and enroute to Scott & White sanitaruim for a check-up and treatment, is in the hospital at this time.

His brother Carl of Lubbock said Tuesday that George B. is putting up a good fight. Mr. Marshall, former assessor-collector of Floyd county, became too ill to continue handling the business of a cooperative near Pampa and put himself in care of physicians.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Marshall, father and mother of the ill man, returned to Texas from California early this month to take care of the Geo. B. Marshall children and attend to his business affairs. Two doctor brothers, Ira J. and U. S. Marshall, of Roswell, New Mexico, also have spent a part of their time with the stricken member of the family.

High School Registration Makes Ready for School Opening Mon.

With registration in high school under way this week and the first pre-school meeting of the faculty due to be held Saturday morning, school authorities are doing their final work preparatory to the opening of the school year Monday morning at 9 o'clock, except for the North Ward school where the opening will be on September 8.

Superintendent Graves said the Monday session in both high school and Andrews Ward school would be from 9 o'clock until 12 o'clock, when the student body will be dismissed.

After Monday the same daily schedule will be followed as last year.

1023 Scholastics in School

Scholastic enrollment of the district this year, including the regular enrollment of both colored and white, of districts which have transferred and of contract transfers, is 1,023 scholastics, Mr. Graves announced, and registration todate indicates attendance will be heavy. Registration will be finished tomorrow when the freshmen are due to register.

Harmony school district trustees have completed final plans for the students there to come to Floydada schools this year. This increase made it necessary to employ another teacher in Andrews ward. Mrs. Johnnie Hollums has been named there. She will teach in the primary department. Mrs. Hollums has a B. S. degree from West Texas state. She taught four years in the Amarillo school system.

Working on School House

The North Ward school cannot possibly be made ready for opening on Monday and the date for the opening there has been set for September 8. Installing plumbing, and doing odds and ends in finishing the school house will take all next week. An enrollment above 50 is expected, calling for an additional teacher there. For this place Mr. Graves said Wheeler Hardeway has been secured and he will be principal of the school, with Mrs. Annie Taylor assigned the primary department. Heretofore Mrs. Taylor has carried the load of all the grades.

Hardeway has a B. S. degree from Prairieview university. He is former principal of Garland High school, a 12-teacher school, and incidentally the largest colored school system in Texas. He has had 12 years in school work. North Ward will teach the full high school course.

North Ward will run several weeks and then turn out for cotton picking. It will have an eight-month term. It will be an unaccredited school

Gresham Expects 45 Candidates For Football

When the first whistle of the 1947 football training campaign of the Floydada Whirlwinds football squad is blown at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, Coaches L. F. Gresham and A. E. Baker expect to have at least 40 candidates out and there may be as many as 45 of the boys.

Included in this list will be 12 lettermen, six of them regulars from last year, and of the six an all-district tackle.

What the coaches will be able to put into the field against Crowell at Crowell two weeks hence they are due to find out, but their boys are coming out with enthusiasm, and the coaches know the boys are going to see what they can do to defend the district championship the squad earned last year.

Twelve Returning Lettermen

Returning lettermen this year are Lester Nixon, all district tackle; Thomas Amburn, regular center; Leonard Grigsby and Robt McGuire, regular ends, (McGuire also took backfield half as needed); Kenneth Hart regular guard; Tom Jarboe and Fred Conner, guards; Claud Parrish tackle; Eugene Mayfield, center; and Travis Jones, Sammye Hale, Carrol Womack, backs. This gives the coaches a first string squad of regulars with one to spare and if the new material is as good as pre-season prospects indicated the team will have depth at all positions.

Coach Gresham announced this week for the first time that this year's team will be suited out with new uniforms, new headgear and new shoes. The new uniforms headgear and shoes will make it possible also to suit out other squadmen acceptably, an impossibility in previous years.

Gresham Is Not Predicting

In spite of the fact that the team has 12 lettermen returning Coach Gresham is not making any predictions on his team's prospects for another district championship. "We have lost three backfield spark plugs and how much of the load our remaining regulars can carry and how much help they are going to get from our new material is all a ques- (See Football Plans, back page)

Meteor Re-Union Amarillo Sunday

Third annual reunion of the Floyd County Meteor School pupils will be held next Sunday in the Amarillo Municipal Auditorium.

All-day meeting is planned, with a picnic lunch at noon, Mrs. Clark Hancock, who will preside announced. Mrs. Vaughn Allen is secretary-treasurer of the group.

There will be a business meeting in the morning followed by a short program in the afternoon. The reminder of the afternoon will be spent in visiting.

The second reunion, was held in Plainview last Sept 29. Mrs. Ed Whitfill presided. Mrs. Emmet Thornton was secretary. Both are from Lockney. Approximately 200 invitations have been mailed to members in Washington, Colorado California, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Illinois. Most of the pupils who attended the school still live in Texas.

Between 200 and 300 former pupils are expected to attend the meeting. Former teachers are especially invited to attend, and special guests will be those who lived or are now living in that community.

Highway Tragedy Claims Henry B. Wesley of Happy

Highway tragedy which claimed the life of Henry B. Wesley, 60 Happy farmer-rancher, on Highway 66 four miles east of Tucumcari Friday afternoon, affected three Floyd county homes as well.

Wesley in company with S. N. Carruthers, a brother-in-law, of Dougherty, was enroute home from the Quay County, New Mexico, posse celebration and rodeo when the car driven by Wesley, over-turned and killed him instantly. Carruthers escaped with minor injuries. The car belonged to Carruthers. Witnesses of the accident behind the vehicle which killed Wesley, said they were making about 40 miles an hour when they hit a rough place in the road and the car overturned in the bar ditch.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Baptist church at Happy, Rev. Clint Malone of Tulia and Rev. H. S Shaw of Happy officiated. Burial was at Wayside cemetery.

The surviving widow is a daughter of George Carruthers and a sister of S. N. Carruthers. A son, Woodraw Wesley, of Amarillo, four brothers and a sister, also survive.

Mr. Wesley was born on September 5, 1887, in Potter county, the first white child born there, and (See Highway Tragedy, back page)

Local Showers make Hit and Miss Pattern Over County to Aid Row Crops, speed up Stubble Plowing

Showers mixed heavy and light, that fell during a day of overcast Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning left many row crops and stubble fields with ample rainfall, while others were by-passed with light sprinkles and showers.

Trying to draw the crazy quilt pattern of the paths the showers took around over the area leaves the reporter still in doubt whether or not he is reporting what happened to whom and where. Sore need was evident in the dry land areas and hopeful waiting on the irrigated farms.

While Floydada had two big inches of rain, a small area around the Moss, Terry, Sanderfur farms toward Blanco canyon had three to four and a half inches, and part of Campbell district had two and a half.

On westward the north part of Starkey, most of Blanco and most of Sand Hill had three-quarters to an inch and a considerable part of Allmon had enough rain to help a lot.

Southeast of Floydada the rains varied out as far as the "Four section" pasture from a quarter to an inch of rain. Lakeview had an inch of rain. Eastward, however, through Pleasant Hill and on into Dougherty and the Antelope country the fall was too light to help. This also was true north of Dougherty along the caprock for several miles.

The north part of Fairview reports two inches or so and about an inch fell on Randall King's farm adjacent to Rushing Chapel. Lindsey Graham, four miles north of Floydada had two inches but some of his neighbors eastward did not fare so well through Center district.

Lockney had a shower. Aiken has practically none, and sizable showers helped out in a part of Lone Star. South Plains and Sterley reported light precipitation and the north part of Cedar district had a light rain. Rain east from Floydada on Highway 70, played out past the (See Local Showers, back page)

Tournament Hits Fast Tempo In Hectic Contests

Tonight's bill of fare in the invitation softball tournament will have Petersburg and Paducah all-stars appear for their first game of the week in the 8 o'clock opener, and two Floydada teams -- Phillips and Hagoods -- at each other's throats at 9:30.

Both games will be battles for places in the semi finals.

Monday afternoon's rain delayed the whole procedure one night on account of wet grounds and required the re-arrangement of the schedule for teams which drew first night assignments.

Tuesday night Phillips 66 opened the tournament with an easy win over Cap Rock 14 to 4, and Farmer took VFW 10 to 8 before the season's biggest crowd.

Wednesday night Hagoods thrilled the local fans with a 12 to 11 win over Plainview All stars when a sixth inning rally was followed by a seventh inning clincher to come from a long way behind to cinch one more try and to eleminate a strong contender.

Crosbyton on a Binge

The Crasbyton All-stars went on a ball-playing binge in Wednesday night's second game. They slaughtered the popular Lions of Floydada 11 to 1 to the accompaniment of groans from the stands.

Play will be continued Friday night and, barring further weather delay the finals will be played Monday night. First place winner will receive $100, second place $75 and the third rating team will draw down $50.

Admission to the games is 25c for adults and 15c for children. An error in last week's announcement had some youngsters unhappy when they learned that the printed price of 10 cents was incorrect and they'd have to go home and get another nickle. The Hesperian gets credit for this error.

Sherman Says Pipe Will Roll First Week in September

The Birmingham steel mill has promised the Sherman Machine and Iron Works that the pipe order for the Floydada water system mains and extensions will be shipped in its entirety the first week in September. So says Ernie Sherman, head of the Oklahoma City concern, who was here yesterday afternoon and last night.

Also said Mr. Sherman a crew is being assembled and will be here the first week in September as well as the machinery and equipment to do the work and a superintendent. Allen Mealer will be the superintendent.

The sewer extensions and changes will have to wait another three months for pipe, but the waterworks job definitely is in line for early work, Mr. Sherman told city officials.

Sherman's company has done every waterworks building job the city has contracted since the city was incorporated in 1909, and the present head of the concern is more like an old-timer to the folks here than an out-of-town contractor.

Tax Rate Set by County at 87c on $100

There was an attendance at the county's budget hearing Monday morning at 10 o'clock, just a few which is better by that number than the attendance was a year ago and two years ago. With all members of the court present the budget was gone over and it was adopted as prepared by the county judge.

County tax rate following the hearing, was adopted by the Commissioners court at 87 cents applicable to valuations on the current rolls.

Re-Allocation At Work

For the first time in the history of Floyd county the general fund levy exceeds 25 cents on the hundred dollars and for the first time, also, the county road and bridge fund levy exceeds 30 cents. It comes about through re-allocation of the levies voted by the people of the county last spring. The set-up as adopted by the court, will help the hard-hit general fund and the hard-hit road and bridge fund. Following is the levy:

General fund	30c
Road and bridge fund,	22c
Special road and bridge fund,	15c
Jury fund,	5c
Permanent improvement fund,	15c
Total,	87c

School District Routine

Floydada school district's budget hearing also followed the pattern of recent years, the board meeting waiting awhile for any citizens to appear who wanted to be heard then adopting the budget as planned setting the tax rate and adjourning. The school rate is $1 on the $100 valuation. The district, has valuations higher than those of county on which the taxes are based.

Water and Sewer Men Hold Meeting

The Caprock Water and Sewer Men's association, representing municipalities over the plains and lower panhandle, met last night in Plainview.

Attending from Floydada were Floyd Johnston, water superintendent, who is secretary of the association, and F. C. Harmon, mayor.

Over the Hump, Thinks Johnston of City Water Supply Situation

The most pleased persons in all of Floydada over the big "town section" rain Monday afternoon, are the personnel of the City Water department.

Superintendent Floyd Johnston speaking for his crew, was still mopping his brow and puffing hard, but was all smiles when he declared belief that the fine watering the lawns, shrubs and gardens got had the monkey off the water department's back. "We'll sure make it through now," said Johnston.

Trouble was Johnston's department was selling every ounce of water they could pump around the clock and this had been going on for 70 days with the customers crying for more water. Some industrial and institutional users having trouble getting water they needed to carry on their business. Domestic users, Johnston estimates, would have used twice as much water as the city afforded them. "Bad enough to have to lose the volume of business, worse to have them telling you you were letting their lawn suffer, worse still to have night mares over possible breakdowns," said the water man.

Cooler Days Are Expected

Cooler days for the remainder of the season on top of the good soaking rain will go a long way in helping the water man take care of lawns and gardens for the remainder of the growing season. And surely by next spring all the new equipment and the new well will be in and the water department will be out hunting business instead of hiding from the customers -- unless the city outgrows them again.

Meetings Study Hard Surfaced Road Problems

When the present federal and state Farm-to-Market road program in Floyd county is completed with the construction of the seven-mile stretch of highway from 70 southward already provided for, what will Floyd county do toward continuing the road building program to include nearly 80 miles of much needed hard-surfaced roads?

The question is being discussed in current meetings at communities over Floyd county and will be discussed in others.

It is brought to the fore by the offer of the State Highway department to "side" local taxing authorities on continuing the program and taking over the maintenance of the roads so built. The proposal of the State Highway department is that the local authority pay 75 per cent of the cost, the state furnishing 25 per cent of the money, all engineering and supervision and maintenance. The proposition of the State Highway commission is made to all counties in the state alike, with a limit of $100,000 per year to be spent in any county.

Floyd county does not have and will not have this year or next any money to put up to continue the program without borrowing and this raises the question of whether it is wise to issue bonds to finance the program on the county's part, and if so on what kind of a program of building?

Additional Program Outlined

With 26 miles already in the program, the county has outlined for development in the county farm-to-market system the Sand Hill road, the Lone Star and Sterley road, and the Cedar Hill road. The first two of these had approval of the highway department and the third was being urged when federal funds were blocked in the last Congress. Would these and a road south from Lake- (See Road Program, back page)

Floyd County Vote Against College Plan

Floyd county registered more than 10 to one against the constitutional amendment last Saturday that its proponents declare will be the solution of the need of 14 state schools for more buildings and will provide $15 million for the University of Texas and A. & M. college buildings in the period of the next 30 years.

Whereas the majority in the state gave the amendment the green sign with a substantial majority of an estimated 18 thousand out of an estimated 160 thousand votes, Floyd county voted only 44 for and piled up 542 against.

The total vote in the county was about as forecast before the election, with some 20 per cent of the county's voting strength represented in the balloting. One precinct, Aiken, did not hold an election. The vote by precinct in the county:

Matched Roping For Next Week-End

Floydada Roping club will have their four-county matched roping on Saturday night of next week. The date is September 6.

Teams of five men each from Briscoe, Floyd, Crosby and Motley, will tie five calves each for a pot of $100, with $25 added for individual with best average. Floydada Rodeo association will furnish 250-pound calves for the event. Jack Johnson, president of the club made the announcement last spring when the four teams met. The Floyd county ropers took first place, with Crosby second.

FLOYDADA GIRLS ATTENDED STATE YOUTH CONVENTION OF CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

Mary Maxey and June Powell are among the young people of Texas Christian churches attending the State Youth convention in Austin this week.

They left early Monday morning in company with a group from Lubbock to attend the planning conference at Round Rock, Texas, and will go from there to the state capital.

EDITORIALS

As predicted here three weeks ago The Hesperian managed to be on the losing side of an election again Saturday. There seems to be no doubt the College bonds won out. The final figures will likely give an even bigger majority than the unofficial incomplete figures give at this writing. If you are inclined to be a betting man wait before you lay your money until you find out the way The Hesperian is leaning. Then bet the other way on a cinch and it won't be gambling.

Note about the dove season: It opens up too late for all practical purposes for dove hunters in this part of the world, like it has for a good many years. Texas is pretty big and the State Game, Fish and Oyster commission which tries to make a little pattern fit a big boy, encourages violations of the law by making impractical rules. Doves have been leaving the high plains and even the rolling country below the caprock for sometime now. By the opening of the season there'll be none and the hunter who must have his fling at doves will have to travel as far away as the deer country to do his shooting.

About as sorry a looking thing in a town are travel-worn markers on the pavement. Trying to comply with the rules of the State Department of Public Safety for marking streets the city is spending quite a bit of money for paint and for putting it down. That should start a regular program. The markers will need to be renewed and they need to be provided for in the budget.

They say you can't throw nature out of balance without having a reaction that is the opposite of the end you accomplish. As for instance the state and its subdivisions at the behest of the people in general and live stock men in particular have fought a winning fight against the prairie dog. Nobody knew of any good they ever did. They ate up the grass that the stock should have, they made dog holes that were hazards to live stock. But it came to light that the prairie dog for one thing was the antidote provided by nature to keep the mesquites in check. Now many a section of land in Texas that was good grazing 20 years ago is being taken by the mesquites. What the cost will be to rid the lands of them is rather a high figure, probably greater than the cost of getting rid of prairie dogs. Now we see the country fighting a winning fight against the ordinary filthy fly. Three doesn't seem to be any doubt that anybody who wants to be rid of flies cannot do so. This includes horn flies and heelflies as well as the domesticated kind that invades the household. What good a fly has ever done we can't imagine. We do not say they have had no economic value. Imaginably they could have. It will be a great thing for the plains to be rid of the fly once more. There are portions of Texas, some cities at least, where they have had no screens on windows and doors. This was true on the plains once upon a time. They say people hung beef on the windmill tower and left it there to be used as wanted. But that was a long time ago. Perhaps the time is not too far away when such can be once again. In what way could flies have operated to the benefit of mankind. How in the world can it come to light that, after they have been reduced to approximately zero, it will come about that we will be needing them back?

Floyd county people are wondering what turn the search for oil in this area will take next. Not knowing what sort of story the repeated efforts to find the black gold has left on the maps and in the records of the various companies we wouldn't be able to forecast which trend will be followed next. The Fisher No. 1 in southeast Hale county, it seemed, was due to open a big play but although that well is a good one the other developments have been disappointing. We can't go along with those who seem to think that the oil people spend $150,000 on a test for oil and then plug the hole after finding what they are looking for. And if and when the oil play around Lakeview develops into a drilling venture in that vicinity and it turns out bad then all hands will be worried sure enough. In here somewhere the geologists' maps and the seismographs indicate, there must be oil, because the formations are right. And oil companies will keep on trying. They'll pour more fortunes into the effort to find the pocket or pool (or pockets and pools) the Wichita mountain chain must surely have trapped somewhere hereabout. Meanwhile other efforts in adjacent counties a bit further west continue to get the desired result. And watch the towns grow. No doubt about it, oil sure makes business pick up. Oil is more like cotton. It does a lot of folks good. Wheat and all wheat makes a few rich and the rest move somewhere else to find a way to make a living.

New Tractor Tire Explodes, Damages Tractor Mechanism

Saturday the unusual happened when a tire on a new tractor located at Oden Chevrolet Co. exploded. A number of people heard the explosion as far away as the commercial hotel and drove by to investigate.

The damage was not confined to the tire alone. It also tore the spot welded fender away at the top and punctured it in several places. The other damage was the breaking of the throttle and tearing the exhaust cover off.

Fortunately no one was near as it was agreed by several persons present that anyone on the tractor could have been seriously injured if not killed.

The cause is assumed to have been from over inflation plus a bright, hot, Texas sun which could very easily have caused expansion to the explosive point.

FLOODS TAKE TOLL

Thousands of weary Mid-western families have been shoveling silt out of the homes they fled as flood waters rose to record heights. But the loss they suffered was the smallest part of the flood toll. For the silt they must clean out is the top-soil from millions of acres of some of the richest farm land in the world. Hugh H. Bennett chief of the Soil Conservation Service, places the annual loss from soil erosion in the U. S. at 500,000 acres of farmland and one billion dollars. The Mississippi alone, at flood crest, carries the equivalent of one 40-acre farm to the sea every minute and in the course of a year transports enough soil to put a layer an inch thick on more than 5,000,000 acres. When soil conservation practices are more widely adopted, Bennett estimates future flood crests may be cut 20 percent. —Farm Journal.

NO WORK HORSE SHOW

Notes on the passing of the horse and mule:

For the first time in the 41-year history of the Oklahoma State Fair there will be no class for work horses and mules this year, according to Farm Journal. But there will be one of the biggest displays of farm machinery in history.

Michigan riding clubs are urging farmers to breed their mares to army remount stallions or thoroughbreds and raise riding horses, which sell for two to three times the value of draft stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Whitaker, of Big Spring, were here Sunday, guests of Mrs. Whitaker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKinney.

HORSE MEAT OR PORK CHOPS JAPANESE DON'T CARE WHICH

When it comes to choosing the kind of meat he'll have for dinner, the typical Japanese apparently would just as soon eat horse meat as any other kind, according to Colonel O. H. Dixon Jr. of the Army Veterinary Corps.

Slaughter Methods Below Standard

While serving as General MacArthur's veterinary chief for the occupation forces in Japan, Colonel Dixon observed that the quality of Japanese slaughter cattle is very low, practically all being in the "cutter" and canner" grades. Worn-out draft animals and old dairy cows constitute the bulk of the supply. He also observed that careless handling of all types of slaughter animals results in much contamination after processing. Hogs are skinned rather than scalded and scraped.

Although the Japanese authorities have made good headway in controlling animal diseases, such as blackleg, anthrax and swine erysipelas, their methods of handling and processing meat at slaughterhouses leaves much to be desired, the Colonel says. Since Japan has no large packing houses, all slaughtering is performed locally in 712 small plants where sanitation ranges from excellent to poor. Present national laws for the sanitary control and veterinary inspection of meat were adopted in 1906—laws that seem to condone the use of cold water for cleaning purposes. Refrigeration facilities are seldom found in the vicinity of cinity of packing plants.

Statistics compiled by Colonel Dixon's staff showed actinomycosis (a fungus disease of cattle) and tuberculosis to be the main causes for condemnation at slaughter.

Shortages of Materials at Dairies

Japan's dairy industry, confined mainly to small-scale operations in the vicinity of large cities, compriser 36,000 farms and 150,000 dairy cattle, with not more than 50 head on any farm. Land is so scarce that cow yards are practically unheard of and, as a result, cows never leave the stall. Practically all are underfed and undergroomed, the Colonel says.

American standards and methods have been adopted by dairy farmers, and Holstein-Friesian cows are imported. Colonel Dixon noticed that thqugh many of the establishments have up-to-date equipment, it is not in use because of shortages of power, spare parts and raw material. Plant sanitation, he says, is generally below standard.

SHAKE TREES WITH TRACTOR

Flailing nuts out of trees with poles at harvest time, long has been an expensive chore for pecan growers.

But this year many growers use a mechanical "tree shaker," which allows three men to do the work of ten, and does the job more thoroughly, reports G. H. Blackmon, Florida Experiment Station orchardist.

A 50-foot wire cable attached to in the tree connects with an off-center shaft on the farm tractor. The tractor is backed away to tighten the cable, and the off-center shaft is thrown into gear with the tractor pulley. The vibration brings the pecans down in a shower. —Ex

...ew Law Applies ...ood Sense on ...exas Highways

...y Col. Homer Garrison, Direct... Department of Public Safety)

...here is no reason why anyone ...uld be confused by the new traf... ...afety law that goes into effect ...ember 5. The law itself is long ... legalsounding, but it boils down ...good, sound horse-sense.

...re just getting rid of the old ...ulations, passed back in 1917 in ... Model T days, and bringing ...m up to date. Ninety per cent ...the things required by the new ...are already being done by the ...rage good driver -- and the other ... per cent are things he knows ...ught to be doing but isn't.

...the fewest posible words, here ...the highlights of the Uniform ...ffic Code, as the law is called: ...ople walking are required to ...e streets and highways at desig...ed cross-walks where these are ...vided; to use sidewalks where ...y can, or to walk facing the ...ffic on the left side of the road, ...re there is no sidewalk. A ped...an in a cross-walk has the right-...y over all vehicles. These are ... first real pedestrain regulations ...ave ever had in Texas, and the ...erance of them will keep a lot ...eople from "walking themselves ...death."

...rivers are required to stay on the ...t side of the road, with certain ...able exceptions; dangerous man...ers in passing are outlawed; right-...way rules are set out; teeth are ...t into the stop-sign law; the safe ...ner of making turns and stops ...designated, and uniform hand-...-arm signals are required for ...se manuvers.

...llowing radiator-to-bumper is ...idden, and so is racing trains to ...ssings. Parking on a highway is ...wed except when the vehicle ...t of order and can't be moved. ...ers are required to dim their ...hts 500 feet form an approaching ...icle at night.

...riving while under the influence ...drugs is about the same as driving ...le drunk under the new law, even ...the drugs were given by a dent... ...r doctor.

...One part of the law that will ...ke it rough on deliberately dan...ous drivers is the new reckless ...ving clause. As it is now, a man ...t drive reckless without violat... ...any specific law, such as speed... ...t and the officers can't do any...ng with him. But under this ...w clause the reckless driver has ...special noose to stick his head ...

AT LAST!

We will be open for business September 1st! Our long delay has been due to our being unable to get delivery on the latest and most modern equipment. We were determined to provide the people of Floydada with the very best dairy products possible, and for that reason we would not accept sub-standard equipment that did not meet all Federal and State Health regulations.

We are proud of our plant and, while it is not yet complete, we cordially invite you to visit us and see the very latest in pasteurizers, homogenizers, ice-cream machines, etc.

But—a modern up-to-date plant does not mean good dairy products unless the milk is good to begin with, therfore, it is our pledge to the people of Floydada to produce and process only the very best whole milk products, FRESH and STRAIGHT FROM THE COW! We are "nuts" about cleanliness and will promise you that we will not knowingly offer you at anytime a bottle of milk that we would not drink ourselves.

For your added protection, we have selected the Handi-square bottle with the Covertite cap. We chose the paper caps in preference to a metal cap, as paper caps will not dis-color the milk or leave any unpleasant flavors. We will add more equipment as received until we can furnish you with "everything but the cow," but just now we will have only milk, buttermilk, cream and—AND —real Ice-Cream!

NOTE: Until we receive delivery equipment we will be unable to make home deliveries, so look for it at your favorite grocery and call for it when you eat out!

Remember these colors on our caps:

WHITE—Raw milk

RED—Pasteurized

BLUE—Pasteurized and homogenized.

Urges Program of Better Wheat For Southwest

Warning that "our big export demand for wheat (which has absorbed most of America's low quality grain in war years) will fold up some time and wheat buyers will be forced to discriminate or go out of business," Keats Soder, director of the Texas-Oklahoma Wheat Improvement association, said last week.

Particularly interested in new varieties of wheat, Soder is heading a campaign by the milling industry to acquaint growers with what they assert are much improved qualities in the new strains.

Gluten Strength

"Wheat quality," he said, "means gluten strength, meaning that it will stand the pummeling of the commercial bakery where a single batch of dough weighs up to 1,000 pounds.

"Other varieties may have the same amount of protein yet their gluten will be weaker, or "mellow" as the baker calls it, and thus be suitable for family-use flour that will be kneaded by hand." Wheat varieties in this category, he said include the new Triumph and Wichita, and the old Early Blackhull.

Among the strong gluten varieties listed by Soder are the old Turkey and the new Comanche and Westar. He said principal offenders among varieties with a weak gluten are the beardless Chiefkan and Red Chief.

Yield Also Higher

Soder said the new strong-gluten varieties also yield higher, and that producers like them because they are early and stand up better for combining.

He emphasized that millers and the grain trade generally know where the poor quality wheat is raised, buf that so far they have been in position to buy it all and export the wheat that cannot profitably be used for the American housewife. This year, however, he added, buyers stayed out of certain areas almost entirely rather than fill their bins with undesirable varieties.

Soder insists that it will cost little or no more to plant a wheat variety that will be in demand at the mills, and thus prove profitable both to the producer and to the milling industry.

Dinner to Honor New Federal Judge September Sixth

Every lawyer in the Amarillo Lubbock areas of the Northern district of Texas will be invited to attend a dinner honoring U. S. District Judge Joe Dooley of Amarillo at the Amarillo Country club at 7 o'clock on the night of Sept. 6, B. L. Morgan, Amarillo attorney on the arrangements committee announced Friday in a letter to District Judge Alton B. Chapman.

The dinner will be a stag affair as space at the club is limited, Morgan said in his letter. Personal invitations will be mailed to attorneys.

Morgan also revealed in his letter that Judge Dooley had been designated to hold court at Lubbock and Amarillo and to try a portion of the civil cases at Fort Worth.

Safety Tips For 'Long' Week-End September First

Labor Day—Sept 1—is just ahead. Marking the close of the summer vacation period for millions of Americans, the "long" week end will find main highway arteries and other transportation facilities pressed to the limit, and resorts crowded to overflowing.

But be forewarned, the American Red Cross points out. The 1947 Fourth of July week end brought death to more than 560 persons throughout the nation. Of these, 259 died in traffic accidents and 167 by drowning.

Don't view the Labor Day traffic problem lightly, the Red Cross advises. Over-the-holiday driving will require alert attention every minute. Proper courtesy to other drivers is a primary requirement. Highway signs, particularly on hills and curves, should be heeded for your own safety as well as that of the other fellow.

Holiday safety measures apply also to pedestrians. Wait for lights to change and streams of cars to pass. Don't walk between lanes of slow moving cars or step from behind parked vehicles.

Operating approximately 2,000 highway first aid stations and 10,000 mobile first aid units, the Red Cross is cooperating with other national safety organizations in a country-wide effort to reduce the number of accidental deaths and injuries.

You can help by using common sense both as a driver and as a pedestrian—on Labor Day, Sept. 1.

MOVING TO NEW FIELD, THE RICES WRITE APPRECIATION OF FLOYD COUNTY FRIENDS

As we take our leave of this region, and move into another state, we wish to express our deep gratitude to all our friends throughout this part of the country.

We have never lived under more pleasant conditions, nor among more friendly people. It has been a real pleasure to associate with you in many different activities. You have always made us feel welcome and at home. There was no objection to the community that influenced our decision. There will remain only pleasant memories of our happy days here.

On the part of the congregation with which I have been laboring, I would like to say that the people have done more for me than I asked or expected. Wife and I have never found, in all our travels, a more congenial group, nor do we have more loyal friends anywhere.

Call To Melrose, New Mexico

We are leaving because first, there was a call from the congregation at Melrose, New Mexico, offering us an opportunity in a new field. They were needing a minister badly. There is a new challenge there, and with it a new interest in the work of the ministry.

Second, I felt that I had reached the climax of my service here, and desired to make a change before the interest began to decline.

Third, I guess I am just a wandering Jew, a rolling stone, a restless spirit that will not stay anywhere long at a time.

We take our leave with a feeling of complete good will, and leave with you our best wishes and prayers for each one, and for the peace and progress of the entire community.

With highest regards and best wishes we remain your friends,
Mr. and Mrs. J. Loyd Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Willis this week are moving to Olton, where Mr Willis will go into the carpenter business with Boughton-Marr, contractors. The Willis family has been living at Lakeview, where Mr Willis engaged in farming.

Mrs. Bob Ewen, of White Deer, is here this week visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Waller and with other relatives.

IS SENTIMENT NECESSARY?

There are those who scoff at sentiment, saying it is unnecessary. Perhaps they are correct, technically.

The world could get along without circuses but the heart of boyhood would miss something. And the world could do without music and buildings could be flat surfaces and blank walls and straight lines; ornamentation is not necessary. And we could do without paintings and statues.

By the same cold reasoning, we could do without dogs, too.

But why, may I ask these practical individuals? -- Why do birds sing and why do flowers have a hundred colors and why are the wings of butterflies dusted with gold and why do the stars glitter with silver fire?

Could it be that nature is wiser than these gentlemen?

For is it not true that man does not live by bread alone?

There is need for beauty in the world and is the man who having eyes, sees it not is a pauper though he has millions.

Thoughts of the old home, of school days, of loving deeds of friends -- all these we treasure; ideals, the little church in the dale and the old songs, the memories of mother and dad, these are sacred; and the hope of a happier life when this brief span is over -- sentiment, you say? Yes, but who could live, who would want to live, without these treasures?

Sentiment is to the heart what springtime is to the earth. —Boyce House.

I WANT to thank the wheat growers of Floyd and adjoining counties for the nice hail insurance business given the Panhandle Mutual Hail association through the Ed Holmes agency and glad to announce that they have paid all losses in full and gave as fair adjustments as was possible. In most cases even gave the farmer the benefit of the doubt. This was a full coverage policy with no deductible so we feel that we have saved the farmers that had losses quite a nice sum, for the losses have been rather heavy this year. We can now face the issue with pride, with assurance that we can furnish the farmers of Texas safe and sound insurance for their growing crops against hail--grain of all kinds and cotton--with a saving to them. Let's patronize our own Texas company, always ready to serve you.

Youngsters Shouldn't Drink Says Owner of Stork Club

Sherman Billingsley, above, owner of the famous Stork Club, believes it is not smart for teen agers to drink. He declares that young people who drink when they are not supposed to are only displaying their adolescence and immaturity.

"Don't drink because you think you are expected to," he states in an article which he wrote for July Good Housekeeping. "There is nothing particularly adult or sophisticated about drinking—it is something very juvenile and adolescent about drinking when you aren't supposed to."

During the period of the past two years the new plant has been in process of assembling. McAllister has turned down several opportunities to "get going" with equipment which he anticipated would not meet the requirements, and has waited for one piece of machinery alone(a stainless steel pasteurizer of a certain type) for 19 months.

Loading and unloading shed, refrigeration and deep freeze departments, washing department, pasteurizing and homogenizing, ice cream making, operations all are arranged for as well as sales room, each easily accessible to the other but all under control separately as to sanitation and segregation when in use. Stainless steel, white walls, plate glass, shining equipment all are being installed. Mr. McAllister said additional equipment will be installed from time to time. The pasteurizing, homogenizing and ice cream making machinery plus the refrigeration vaults now ready puts the basic plant in readiness for operation. The week-end will be spent putting the final touches on the interior of the plant.

Location of the establishment is at 118 West Missouri street, where the building of the Cavanaugh Printing company was bought two years or more ago and its capacity practically doubled. To this has been added a lot lying immediately west bought last year to give space for delivery equipment, loading and unloading space.

Formal announcement of the opening plans for Monday together with plans and aims for the future are given on another page of this issue of The Hesperian over the signature of Lyndale Dairy Food Store.

George B. McAllister's partner in Lyndale Farm Dairy store is his brother, Dr. R. L. McAllister, a practicing dentist in Lubbock. The fine herd of dairy cattle and Lyndale farm itself, an irrigation project assuring ample pasture, hay and feed, have been built up through severa' years of trial and error and study on the part of Geo. B. McAllister.

Road Program

view to the county line, road to Harmony from Sand Hill, and a road from Dougherty southward, possibly others, get approval of the taxpayers for further road building on the basis of the county paying three-fourths of the first dollar cost? With state supervision of bid-letting, engineering and supervision? Their construction would make a program three to five years in extent of time, the cost would be $75,000 per year to the county. The alternative is for the hard-surfaced road program to terminate when the Lakeview seven mile road is built.

Discussions of the possibilities have been held at Sand Hill, at Lockney and at Harmony. The last-named meeting was held last night the Lockney meeting Monday afternoon, the Sand Hill meeting last week. James F. Potts, resident engineer of the State Highway department, has been asked to these meetings and has outlined what the proposal of the department is. He is appearing solely to give what information he can. Any official connection he might have with any plan would come after, and when and if, the taxpayers decide to undertake a program.

Talks now indicate a $300,000 bond issue bearing interest not to exceed 3 per cent, maturing before 25 years is being favored. No petitions have been circulated asking the Commissioners court for an election. Such an action will await reaction from various parts of the county. The various communities are calling their own meetings and making the study from their own angles. No meeting had been scheduled at Floydada as late as yesterday noon and none may be held here. A meeting is being talked to be held at Cedar soon, possibly Friday night but definite date had not been set at noon.

Local Showers

Leonard elevator a short distance

In Crosby county a part of Mt Blanco had a nice rain and Crosbyton and Ralls both reported good rains with dry areas spotting the county, however, in a pattern somewhat like Floyd.

Marvin Stiles who was east of Cedar near the caprock said it rained a good rain under the caprock east of him Monday afternoon, also all the way home on the route from the caprock east to McCormick's store on highway 207.

Randall King said it did not rain as much at Rushing Chapel as at Floydada.

C. O. Spence was in the rain four miles south on the Ralls highway where it rained the middles full before it rained any at all at Floydada.

Wiley Rogers, meter reader for the Rural Electric cooperative, was reading at Providence and Lone Star Monday afternoon and said nice showers fell in those communities, but it was still dry at Aiken.

Rains hit his crew as they were coming into Floydada near Muncy Monday afternoon, said Bob Crowell of the Soil Conservation service.

A nice shower fell around Lakeview and below at the Four Sections Sunday afternoon, enough to leave water around in low places, said M. C. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. La Von Rainer left two weeks ago for San Diego, California, where they plan to make their home. They were accompanied on the trip by Mr. and Mrs. C. M Lyles, who visited in Artesia, New Mexico with Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Boteler and family and in San Diego with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lyles. Mr. and Mrs. Lyles returned home by train Saturday.

A week's rest in the grind will be followed on November 21 with a game against Crosbyton Chiefs on Wester field and on November 27, Thanksgiving day, it will be the Spur Bulldogs on the home field.
