Area Harvest Prospects Looking Good

Abundant rainfall for much of the area is resulting in some excellent harvest prospects this year for farmers.

Dropping prices, as usual, mar that picture, as does midge infestation in late milo.

Milo harvesting is just getting started, but early yields indicate as high as 5,000 lb. yields.

Hay producers report better production than in the last few years but damage from drought and bitter cold has still shorted some coastal production.

Cotton and soybeans look excellent, but whether crucial rains during August come or not may well determing the actual production size of those.

Rains, mostly from thunderstorms, have swept the area regularly this year, with more cloudy days and even some very uncharacteristic drizzle during July.

Gardeners, plagued from the beginning this year with a cool, wet spring, have had some difficulty. Peas, however, have done extremely well, okra and tomatoes following close behind. It was the spring garden truck that seemed to fall below par.

Insects have been prevalent, perhaps more so than usual. Midge, the tiny insect that eats tender milo grains, and can almost destroy a crop, are becoming evident.

Cotton insects are said to be no worse than usual. Some army worms have been reported, but not in epidemic force so far.

Grasshoppers, a very serious problem in West Texas, have stayed in usual numbers in this part of the state.

Some areas have not received the benefits of the July thunderstorms, having to watch as the big clouds swept past and dumped their moisture elsewhere. Crops and pastures in those areas are not doing well.

Overall, however, the picture for harvest looks good. If August brings some more of the same, hopes for a bumper crop will be high.

Nichols Worth

By: Nanalee Nichols

Now, when hot weather seems as much here to stay as taxes, it might be nice to quit dreaming of Colorado or other cool states and just think ahead a few months.

Summer is not never-ending...and most folks are grateful for the fact. About the first of October, only a scant two months away, jackets will come out of the closets for the early morning hours. Leaves will begin their last flaming dance, and evenings will have a definite nip to them.

Then, in November, the weather will be ideal for people who like it to be cold.

There will be lots of cold rain and gray skies, providing the perfect opportunity tocurl up with a good book, or a good movie on television.

December will probably show its usual warmup, and then January will blow in with its customary bitter winds and violent cold.

January, for most people, is the month when folks begin to dream just a little bit about warm weather.

That's right, I said warm weather.

Instead of appreciating the lovely fire and the feel of a hot cup of coffee in the palms, the mind goes back to summertime and what a cold glass of ice tea feels like, how the shade is dappled by the summer sun.

By February, we are all positively ready and waiting for the first feeling of warmth.

Seed catalogues spark ideas for summer gardens, and ideas for painting, remodeling or any excuse for it to be warm enough to get outside begin to arise.

Perhaps it is simply that we get too much of a certain kind of weather for too long.

We don't like the extremes...but there are no perfect places to live in this world.

No place has just the exact amount of cold and snow, just the right amount of rain, just the perfect slice of sunshine.

So, as we fan ourselves, or stagger in from mowing the yard one more time, remember, winter really isn't that far away!

And when it gets here, most of us will be ready for the summertime, too.

History To Be Available

Chapman Keeps Democrats In Congressional Seat

In an election win that kept both candidates on the edges of their respective seats until the very last, Democrat Jim Chapman captured the Congressional seat that has been the coveted prize since Sam B. Hall's resignation to assume a Federal Judge's position.

Chapman received 52,670 votes, amounting to 50.9 percent, while Republican Edd Hargett polled 50,737 votes, or 49.1 percent.

Chapman expressed his delight, and expressed his thanks, and faith in the people of East Texas. He claims that his opponent used $1.5 million in the campaign, a record.

Chapman will meet with House Majority Leader Jim Wright and House leadership to discuss committee assignments soon. His duties will begin after the Congress ends it's current recess on September 3.

A thirty-percent turnout was labeled as more than either candidate truly expected.

Chapman carried Lamar County with 56.21 percent of the vote. He also carried Red River County, which had gone Republican by eight votes in the June primary, having 1,887 votes to Hargett's 1,227.

Chapman also carried Titus County with 2,459 votes to Hargett's 2,408. The Democratic votes came from teh rural boxes, for the most part, and the larger boxes produced Hargett's votes.

The Democrats have held this seat for 114 years. But the Republicans note the narrow margin as gains in rural East Texas for their party.

Two Talco Boys Die In Accident

Two seventeen year old Talco boys were killed Monday night, August 5 in a tragic accident 2½ miles east of Talco.

The pair, Kenneth Chane Whitney and Adam Matthew Tucker, were members of the Talco Volunteer Fire Department, and were riding on a motorcycle to what turned out to be a call for medical assistance. Apparently, there were no lights on the motorcycle. The accident occurred around 10:00 p.m.

According to witnesses, Shane Wright, also 17, and driving a pickup, attempted to pass another vehicle. Wright was headed west and the motorcycle with Tucker and Whitney was headed east.

Apparently the lack of lights on the motorcycle kept Wright from seeing the vehicle approaching, and it was struck head on. Both youths were killed instantly.

Other members of the Talco Volunteer Fire Department had already responded to the call for help from an elderly lady.

Wright was not injured in the accident.

Services for Adam Matthew Tucker were held Wednesday, August 7 at the First Baptist Church of Talco at 11 a.m. with the Rev. Terry Barnett officiating and burial following in Talco Cemetery.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bow ser of Talco and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Matthews and two brothers.

Services for Kenneth Chane Whitney were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, August 7 at the First Baptist Church of Talco, Rev. Terry Barnett officiating. Burial followed in a Henderson Cemetery.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Charlotte Goodson and his stepfather, Albert Goodson of Talco; his father, Charles Whitney; two brothers and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Sanders of Henderson, Mrs. Mable Whitney of Humble and Milton Whitney of Winfield.

Cheese And Motion Pictures

By Wm. C. Barnard

In 1911, Dad, Mother and family left Washington to move back to Texas. We traveled by train and occupied berths in a pullman, or sleeping car, because it was a three day trip. We didn't always eat in the dining car because meals were rather expensive.

The train usually stopped at noon to change crews or engines, and Dad would leave the train, find a restaurant and purchase sack lunches. In passing through Utah, we stopped at a place and a cafe wasn't handy, but a delicatessen was.

Dad bought a chunk of Limburger cheese and a loaf of rye bread. Mother wasn't impressed, but she opened the package and started making sandwiches. When the aroma of the cheese began to drift through the coach, people began to look around, wrinkle their noses, clear their throats, and finally leave and go to one of the other coaches. Mother was embarrassed. Dad didn't buy any more Limburger.

Uncle Jim Williams and Aunt Sue, Dad's sister, lived in Shawnee, Oklahoma. We traveled through Oklahoma on our way back to Texas, so we stopoped to visit with them a while before coming on to Deport.

While there, Uncle Jim wanted to show us some of the sites. There was a new thing in town called a Motion Picture Theater. We had never been to one. There were Opra Houses back in Washington, which we sometimes attended, but no Motion Picture Houses. Dad went with Uncle Jim and took me along. The show was about K.C. Jones, the great locomotive engineer. We had seats up close. There was no dialogue, just lifelike motion pictures flickering on the screen, and a player piano going full blast.

Whent he lights wen tout and the picture came on, it showed K.C. Jones as he mounted to the cabin. It showed the engine racing down the track with drive wheels rolling, the piston rods and connecting rods churning, and the black smoke pouring from the stack. It was impressive and exciting, everyone was sitting on the edge of his seat.

The next scene showed the engine in the distance coming toward us at breakneck speed. Steam was blowing from the cylinders at each stroke of the pistons, K.C. with his hand on the throttle, and leaning out the window and looking straight ahead.

Just as the front of the engine and cowcatcher filled the entire screen and it seemed as if we all were going to get killed, someone yelled "Look out!" That's when I ran over Dad and Uncle Jim trying to dodge the engine.

Library News

All of August is Get Ready For School Month at the Red River County Public Library.

Teachers of both regular courses and remedial reading classes tell us that students who read on their own during the weeks before school starts will perform better when school reopens. That makes sense.

Why not encourage your youngster or youngsters to get a head start? The library's special summer programs are ended, so you are on your own.

The Public Library has books that are a pleasure to read for all age groups, at every grade level. There are books of interest to the average reader, to the child who has fallen behind, and to the brainy types who need extra challenges.

Reading is fun, and reading ability is a key to success in all school subjects, maybe even Phys Ed!

So--take your kids to the library, and pick out a good read for yoruself while you're there.

Waddells Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Waddell celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on August 3 in their home on Crawford Lane in Talco. The party was hosted by their children and grandchildren.

The recetion table was covered with a cream lace tablecloth. In the center was a two tiered bride's cake decorated with dainty yellow roses accented by white doves and gold wedding bands. Beside the cake was a large flower arrangement of white mums and yellow roses, one end of the table held the crystal punch bowl and champagne bucket. At the opposite end of the table were crystal dishes holding cookies, mints and nuts.

The registry table held the guest book with a gold plumed pen. A gold framed picture of Mr. and Mrs. Waddell sat beside the book. Above the gtable hung a framed embroidered picture with the couple's names, wedding and anniversary dates stitched in.

Numerous friends and relatives visited during the afternoon. Out of town guests and many congratulating telephone calls completed the happy occasion.

A Look At The 1932 Bogata

In 1932, Bogata put out a neat little booklet about itself. Entitled "The City of Bogata, The Biggest Little Town in Northeast Texas", it proclaimed "Watch Us Grow" proudly. Malbe Trout has shared itn and some other artifacts, with us.

It listed in it's businesses: one bank, financially sound; one furniture and undertaking establishment, with a complete stock an dprices in line with cotton prices.

Three blacksmith shops, three cotton gins, one dry cleaning plant, one shoe repair shop, one beauty parlor, one telephone exchange, one weekly newspaper, four doctors, one dentist, one post office.

One gulf distributing agency, furnishing the area with gasoline. One railroad and one busline. Passenger service ont he two had service six times daily.

Highway 37 and 271 were noted as excellent graveled highways, with asphalt topping being put on 271 for five miles in the Bogata vicinity.

A full complement of churches and schools were listed. The authors of the book proudly proclaimed that Bogata was the best place in Texas to raise chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese, hogs, cattle, truck crops or cotton and feed. These things, it continued, would "Keep money in your pocket every day in the year."

Among the ads in the booklet were those for Hancock Confenctionary, Thedford's Fine Tailoring and Dry Cleaning, Bogata Lumber Company, Texas Louisiana Power Company and Tom Underwod's Beauty Parlor and Thomas Barber Shop.

The rest of the book, along with more ads, contained recipes and a variety of helpful hints on how to care for silver, cleaning wicker furniture and hints for women while touring.

Another book was the Bogata telephone book, extrolling people to please use the phone numbers when calling.

The Bogata numbers were not always consistent, ranging from two digit numbers such as 17 to 127F3.

Instructions as to rules and regulations mentioned to pick up the receiver and tell the operator the number. To always ring off when through talking. To answer your calls promptly. Never to answer a ring on the line that isn't yours.

CONSUMER ✓CHECKLIST

Consumers are buying more poultry products because they are wholesome and nutritious, and the price is right. Retail prices of broilers, turkeys and eggs have remained amazingly low. For example, eggs at $1 a dozen cost the consumer 17 cents for a two-egg breakfast. That's a bargain no matter how one looks at it.

Orientation Scheduled At PJC

Orientation for new students at Paris Junior College will be held August 20 and 21 before freshmen begin registration for the fall, according to Paul Pederson, counselor.

The orientation, which is designed to provide new students with information on college policies, programs and services, will be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday, August 20 and from 8:30 a.m. to noon on Wednesday, August 21, in the Theater of the Williams Administration Building. Topics covered will include college policies, student life, financial aid, career information, library services, counseling and testing services.

Orientation will be offered only at one time this fall, and attendance both days is required. Reservations for the course should be made by August 16 or by writing or calling the Counseling Department, Paris Junior College, Paris, TX.

Students completign the orientation should register for ORN 101 during fall registration. Freshmen registration is scheduled alphabeteically from noon to 4 p.m. Wednesday, August 21; from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday and Friday, August 22-23, and from 8 a.m. to noon Saturday August 24.

ROCKY ROAD PIE
Makes 8 servings

- 16 Honey Maid® Graham Crackers, finely rolled (about 1 1/3 cups crumbs)
- 1/3 cup sugar
- 1/3 cup Blue Bonnet® Margarine
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1 (4 1/8-ounce) package Royal Instant Chocolate Chocolate Chip Pudding & Pie Filling
- 1 1/2 cups heavy cream, whipped

Red River Valley Expo Drawing Near

By John R. Senter

The Red River Valley Fair is just over three weeks away and time is fading fast. The entry deadline is getting close and you need to start thinking about your entries. The fair will run from Monday, September 2 through Saturday, September 7. There will be classes for dairy females, breeding beef cattle, prospect steers, breeding sheep, swine, horses and even a kiddie class and a suck bucket class. The various open breeding beef shows will be held throughout the week.

Entries are $5.00 per head in the junior beef, dairy and steer shows and need to be mailed by August 21. Entries int he sheep and swine shows are $4.00 per head. The horse show can be entered on the day of the show, September 7, with $3.00 per head in halter classes and $2.00 per head in the performance classes.

This may seem a little early but you need to be aware of the deadlines and the fees. If you have questions or need more information, please let me know.

A while has passed since we met! As summer begins to turn to fall before school cranks up again, we need to get together and get on track for a new 4-H year. With this in mind, the next 4-H council meeting will be held on Thursday, August 15 at 7:30 p.m. at Texas Power and Light Meeting Room.

This will be the last meeting for the 1984-85 officer sand delegates and we will miss them. But, we have an excellent bunch of new officers and delegates to take over. But first, we have some very important items to take care of.

The fair, the Achievement Banquet and National 4-H week are not far off and we need to put some thought into these and other things.

Please plan to attend, see you the 15th!

Nellie T. Ross of Wyoming held two important firsts for women. She was the first woman governor in the U.S. from 1925 to 1927 and later was the first woman to serve as director of the U.S. Mint.

News for TEA LOVERS

SPORTS TIME SIPPERS

Warm weather sports can energize you, keep you fit and provide hours of fun. They can also give you a big thirst that calls for something special. The next time you take a break between swings and serves, break away from the usual soft drinks and serve up refreshing Strawberry Smoothie or Crimson Tea Cooler.

Strawberry Smoothie is an easy-to-make combination of Lipton® Lemon Flavored Iced Tea Mix Sweetened with NutraSweet®, plain yogurt and strawberries that mixes up creamy, rich and frothy in a blender. Crimson Tea Cooler is a colorful blend of iced tea, cranberry juice cocktail and fresh fruit that stirs up tall and cold in an ice-filled pitcher.

Lemon flavored iced tea mix with NutraSweet is a terrific refresher on its own, too. With just four calories per 8 ounce serving, the iced tea mix, sweetened with NutraSweet instead of sugar or saccharin, delivers that great tea taste you've come to expect. It will help keep you in shape to play your best game, whatever your favorite sport.

STRAWBERRY SMOOTHIE

1/3 cup Lipton Lemon Flavored Iced Tea Mix Sweetened with NutraSweet
1 pint (16 oz.) plain yogurt
1 cup sliced strawberries

1 cup ice cubes (about 6 to 8)

In 5-cup blender, combine all ingredients except ice cubes; process at high speed until blended. Add ice cubes, one at a time; process at high speed until blended. Garnish, if desired, with whole strawberries. Makes about 4 servings.

CRIMSON TEA COOLER

1/4 cup Lipton Lemon Flavored Iced Tea Mix Sweetened with NutraSweet
3 cups cranberry juice cocktail, chilled
1 cup water
1 medium orange, sliced
1 medium apple, cut into wedges

In large pitcher, combine all ingredients. Serve with ice. Garnish, if desired, with fresh mint leaves. Makes about 4 servings.

THOUGHT FOR FOOD

by GOULD CROOK

PEANUT BUTTER FUDGE

1 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 cup granulated sugar
2/3 cup milk
2 tablespoons light corn syrup
1/2 teaspoon salt

1/4 cup creamy peanut butter
2 tablespoons Butter Flavor Crisco
1/2 cup chopped nuts (optional)

1. Very lightly grease 8x8x2-inch pan. Set aside.

2. Combine brown sugar, granulated sugar, milk, corn syrup and salt in heavy 2-quart saucepan. Heat to boiling over moderate heat, stirring constantly. Cover and boil 1 minute. Uncover. Insert candy thermometer. Cook over moderate heat, without stirring, to 236°F (soft ball stage). Remove from heat.

3. Add peanut butter and Butter Flavor Crisco and do not stir. Cool undisturbed to 120°F. (Bottom of pan is barely warm.) Stir to blend all ingredients. Then beat vigorously with wooden spoon until mixture starts to thicken and lose its sheen (about 2 minutes). Quickly stir in nuts, if used. Spread in prepared pan. Cool until firm. Cut into 1-inch squares.

About 1 pound candy or 64 pieces

NOTE: For a stiffer candy, replace milk with 1 can (5 ounces) evaporated milk. Beating time after cooling will be about 1 minute.

In step 3, cooling the candy to 120° may be accomplished more quickly by placing the hot pan in a larger pan of cold water. Water may be changed, if necessary, during this process.
