Half county and slat are here, practically unopposed today, their days being scheduled for today.

PLANE FORCED TO LAND AFTER ENGINE BREAK

FLIGHT TO U. S. VIA THE ORIENT IS RESUMED BY KOENNECKE

BEIRUT, Syria, Sept. 28.—The mystery that surrounded the whereabouts of Lieutenant Otto Koennecke and the "Germania" after his hop-off from Angora on Sturday in continuation of his flight to the United States by way of the Orient, was cleared today by news that his plane came down because of engine trouble in the neighborhood of Moslemiyer, north of Aleppo.

After repairs by members of the French air force in Syria, the Germania took off again yesterday at 7 a. m.

Lieutenant Koennecke said that his delay in reaching this place had been due chiefly to the instructions given him by the Turkish authorities on leaving Angora as to the route to be followed.

The German aviator, who is en route to the United States by way of the Orient, said that the instructions involved a wide detour, the Turkish idea apparently being to prevent foreign aviators from flying over certain areas of Turkish territory.

Lieutenant Koennecke who was accompanied by his financial backer, Count Selms-Laubach, and Johannes Hermann, radio operator, said that he had halted at Aleppo and then had deferred his departure for Bagdad in order to avoid flying in the hottest parts of the day.

Planes Take Off From Washington

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 28. (AP)—Leaving at 7 minute intervals, contestants in the Spokane-Portland class B air derby started their flight at 8:15 a. m. today.

Gerald F. Smith of Tacoma, Washington, in his Eagle Rock biplane was first away, followed by Jack Parshall of Portland in an Eagle Rock and Paul E. Richter, Jr. of Los Angeles, also flying an Eagle Rock.

Two Fliers Close In Aerial Derby

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 28. (AP)—Only twenty seven seconds separated first and second place planes in the Spokane-Portland air derby for class B planes yesterday. C. W. Holman of St. Paul, with a time for the 231 miles of 2 hours, 35 minutes and 32 seconds, barely missed out. E. E. Ballough of Chicago.

Norman Goddard, San Diego flier who failed to arrive, is thought to have landed safely near Boardman, Ore., on an island in the Columbia river. Darkness halted an investigation as to the identity of a plane reported by villagers.

First Aid Station Maintained At Fair

With two nurses from local hospitals and the sanitation on duty each morning and afternoon, a first aid station has been opened at the fair grounds under the supervision of the local chapter of the American Red Cross and will be maintained throughout the week.

Brother Of Auto King Dies Today In Fordson Home

DETROIT, Sept. 28. (AP)—John Ford, 62, a brother of Henry Ford, died suddenly of heart disease at Fordson, a suburb last night.

Mr. Ford, a real estate dealer, president of the Fordson city council and a member of the Michigan state fair board, was enroute home from a council meeting when he was stricken. When he failed to reach his home, Fordson police started a search, finding him dead in a house he recently had acquired.

Besides two brothers, Henry and William Ford, he is survived by his widow and three children.

Few Blocks from Home

The house, only a few blocks from Mr. Ford's home, was unoccupied except for a few articles left by a family which moved out three weeks ago. Police believe Mr. Ford either drove directly to the place from the council meeting, intending to make an inspection, or that he was stricken with a heart attack while driving and decided to stop and rest. His body was found lying across a bed.

There was a mattress on the bed, but no sheets or other covering. According to Robert W. Ford, a son, his father had been suffering for several weeks from heart attacks, but seemed to be feeling well yesterday.

Position of Body

The position of the body when found indicated that Mr. Ford had sat on the side of the bed and then, feeling ill, roped to a reclining position. He had removed his coat and vest and loosened his other clothing in an effort to obtain relief. In his pockets were found $72.22, a gold watch and chain, a gold knife and various papers.

Man Paddles Way Across Ocean In Small Sail Boat

MADRID, Sept. 28.—Advices from Las Palmas in the Canary Islands, reported the arrival there from Funchal of a small boat manned by Hugo Hoahna who said that he had come from the United States.

His only companions were a dog and a cat. He has a wife and several children in Las Palmas.

Hugo Hoahna set sail from Providence, R. I., on June 15 of this year for the Canary Islands to return to his wife and three children awaiting him in Las Palmas. He was provisioned for a possible three months at sea. The lone mariner estimated that the voyage would cover more than 4,000 miles and he did not inform his family of his undertaking lest they should become alarmed. He was told that he would never arrive at his destination as the ship, which he bought as an abandoned hulk for $75, and refitted, was regarded as too small to weather ocean storms.

When he sailed out of Providence he carried a puppy and a tiny kitten, sent aboard by friends.

Seeking to "pull a fast one" on officials of the Panhandle-South Plains Fair, about 25 people are minus their season tickets today, it was announced at police headquarters last night.

The tickets were confiscated by officers guarding the fence when ticket holders attempted to pass them through the fence to friends outside who sought to enter the fair grounds free of charge. Fair officials issued a warning today that such practices must stop or else they would be prosecuted.

NEGRO SOUGHT IN ATTACK ON WOMAN MOBBED

BODY FOUND HANGING TO TREE RIDDLED WITH BULLETS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 28.—The bullet riddled body of Thomas Williams, negro, alleged to have attacked a 50 year old white woman near Barrettsville, this county, yesterday morning, was found today in Pleasant Union church yard two miles from the scene of the crime.

AR day yesterday and far into the night hands of moon searched for Williams, but none reported to have been found and there was no clue to the persons who shot him. A coroner's jury returned a verdict that the negro died from "gun shot wounds inflicted by unknown parties."

Williams was said to have attempted to attack the woman in a potato field near her home. He approached her seeking employment and then attacked her she told officers, but soon was frightened away.

New York Man Is Riddled In Auto

NEW YORK, Sept. 28. (AP)—The bullet riddled body of a man, was found today slumped over the steering wheel of a parked automobile in west 11th street.

The fact that the body was still warm led to the belief that the man had either been shot where he was found or driven there dead and left while scores of children were passing nearby on their way to school.

Legion Is Greeted By Cheers In Rome

ROME, Sept. 28. (AP)—Marching between cheering lines of Italians, 250 members of the American Legion good will party, headed by Commander Howard P. Savage, proceeded to the tomb of the Unknown Soldier today to pay their tributes to the one who represents Italy's sacrifice in the World War.

Release Of Asylum Inmates Is Ordered

AUSTIN, Sept. 28. (AP)—Release wherever practicable and possible, of state insane asylum inmates only on physicians affidavits, was ordered today by the state board of control but efforts will be made to give a jury trial to determine sanity or insanity of each patient temporarily allowed to go free.

The board acted because of a ruling by the attorney general's department advising that a physician's commitment is not sufficient to keep patients in the institutions indefinitely.

New Season High On Steers Is Recorded

League Assembly Adjourned, Aided World Peace, Held

GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 28. The eighth assembly of the League of Nations, just closed, is regarded by practically all the delegates as having materially advanced the cause of peace.

The most striking manifestations were the branding of war as an international crime, insistent upon conciliation and arbitration, a determination to construct some machinery of security to ally the forces of nations subject to attack, and expressions of an abiding faith that the masses of people everywhere will encourage and support the leaders of governments in forging an anti-war machine.

Resembled Big Family

More than any other assembly, observers say, the one which adjourned yesterday resembled a big family, with the delegates, drawn from over fifty nations, actuated by a common motive in patiently striving to organize the fight against war and seemingly convinced that the fight can never be won unless it is universal in breadth.

Repeated references were made in the speeches of a movement among the American people to outlaw war by the extension of arbitration, and many expressed the hope that the United States would participate not only in the disarmament preliminaries but in the security negotiations even if it were unable to become a signatory to the treaties.

Any world meeting to brand an aggressor state as an outlaw, it was asserted, would fail unless the United States would tacitly accept league decisions concerning the identity of such an outlaw and waving certain neutrality rights, would consent not to trade with or help the aggressor nation.

INCAPABLE OF WRONG, ROGERS SAYS ON STAND

OTHER WITNESSES SAY "FLAPPER BANDIT" MENTALLY WRONG

GEORGETOWN, Texas, Sept. 28.—Rebecca Rogers, former University of Texas co-ed, on trial in district court here for arson, was mentally unbalanced at the time the vacant house in Round Rock was burned. Otis Rogers, her husband testified on the witness stand today.

The charge of arson is in connection with the burning of a vacant house in Round Rock last December on the day before the Panhandle National bank of Buda was robbed of $1,000 and for which Mrs. Rogers also was indicted.

"Incapable of Wrong"

Rogers talked with his wife on the day of the fire and he believed her "incapable of wrong" he testified.

The state has been trying to prove the theory that Rogers' 23 year old wife set fire to the house to get officials of a nearby bank to run to the fire and leave her unmolested to loot the bank.

Ruth Gafford, stenographer, testified as a defense witness that she worked under Mrs. Rogers when the latter was connected with the Texas Historical association in Austin. Miss Gafford said that a salary check for $245 she received from Rogers was "hot" and that one for $300 Mrs. Rogers gave another stenographer also was worthless temporarily.

"Hot Desk Craze"

Prosecutor Dolan asked Miss Gafford: "You don't think she (Mrs. Rogers) is crazy because she gave hot checks, do you?" The question was unanswered.

Dr. Max Handman, professor at the University of Texas and criminologist, in testifying concerning the condition of Mrs. Rogers declared she is a victim of dementia praecox and when a student in one of his classes "had no sense of right and wrong."

Campbell Beard, instructor of political science at the university testified she was suffering with large egotism, and cited that as an indication of dementia praecox.

Tariff Publication Halted By French

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—Publication of the French American tariff question previously arranged for tomorrow, has been deferred until Monday at the request of the French government. Indications are that the French reply to the most recent American request for negotiations of a most favored nation commercial treaty will not be formulated by the Paris authorities until late in the week and probably will not be transmitted to Washington before next week. In the meantime the Paris government is averse to the publication of the notes already exchanged although the Washington authorities have been anxious to make these communications public with as little delay as possible.

New Process For Preserving Fruit Found In London

LONDON, Sept. 28—Cold storage and refrigeration are likely to become obsolete if claims put forward in connection with an invention for preserving fruit, eggs, butter and other foods, are justified. The method, known as "Stabback's Process," is more a preservation than a preservation. It consists of a harmless solution which is said to enable a housewife to keep 100 to 400 eggs for an indefinite period. The English National Utility Poultry Society treated dozens of eggs by coating them with the solution and stored them in an ordinary place. At the end of several months they were still absolutely fresh. On two occasions consignments of apples after treatment were sent as deck cargo to Tasmania, and they arrived fresh. It is claimed that the process will reduce the cost of imported fruit, as the freightage will be halved, and it is hoped that many tropical fruits will be introduced into England which have never before been imported.

Need For Railroad Underpass Is Felt

With thousands of autoists and pedestrians traversing the railroad right-of-way coming to and from the fair, the need of an underpass at the intersection of Broadway and the Santa Fe tracks is more apparent now than ever before, according to citizens who were held up for fifteen minutes or longer yesterday afternoon when a switching freight train blocked the crossing. Two men are stationed at the crossing to advise autoists and pedestrians of the proximity of trains but they are only on duty at times when a fair or circus draws heavier crowds than usual across the track. The city commission, B. C. D. and civic clubs have been boosting underpasses at the rail crossings on both Broadway and Avenue H for some time but thus far the railroad company has failed to signify its co-operation for early action, officials said.

Parisian Originality Is Seen In Cloth Coats, Finds Germaine As She Tours The Shops In Fashion Capital

developed in my favorite shade of beige with an inset on the skirt of beaver fur and beaver on the collar and cuffs, distributed with nice discrimination. That Satisfying Silhouette Each of these coats has the satisfying narrow silhouette but have plenty of material under the laps so that each one covers you when you sit as well as stand. I cannot see why, in your prohibition country, you should be so interested in cocktail costumes but they tell me here that they are created particularly for you. Eminent has a cocktail outfit with a cocktail coat that seems to me to justify the whole cocktail proposition. The dress is a six-sleeved frock of black chiffon with circular dots, made up over black satin. The skirt has points, and is very full. The light bodice comes just a bit below the natural waistline. Over this goes a close-fitting, very elegant, long-sleeved jacket of transparent black velvet, that ties at the neckline with a simple little tie and follows the neckline line where the two different fabrics join. There is a chemise of shell pink chiffon beautifully hand hemstitched. Jacques is calling for you, and about to take me to tea and I must not keep him waiting. He is too popular. GERMAINE

PIRATES, TWO GAMES IN LEAD, APPEAR AS CERTAIN WINNERS

BUCS CLING TO LEAD AS CARDS BEAT OUT REDS

RUTH GETS 57TH HOMER SCORING THREE MEN AHEAD OF HIM

(By Associated Press)

When the world's series opens next week from today, Pittsburgh will represent the National League unless there is a great sensation.

The Pirates cling to their two-game margin at the top on a home run drive by George Grantham that scored a runner ahead and beat out the Chicago Cubs, 2 to 1. Meanwhile the ace of the American League champions, Babe Ruth, smashed out his 57th home run of the season in the sixth inning against Philadelphia. The bases were loaded and the four runs were more than enough to win for the New York Yankees by 7 to 4.

Cubs Get Five Hits

Pittsburgh had trouble solving Hal Carlson's shots but the Cubs had more trouble with a trio of Pirate pitchers—Meadows, Hill and Kremer. The Cubs were held to five safeties and the Bucs made seven off Carlson.

The Pirates have three games to play and can clinch the pennant by winning two of them while the St. Louis Cardinals are taking all of their three games still on the schedule. St. Louis can win the pennant by three victories if the Pirates lost three games. The best the Giants can get is a tie.

The Cardinals stayed in the running by winning Cincinnati, 4 to 1. Grover Cleveland Alexander held the Reds at his mercy, allowing only three hits, one of which, a triple by Critz with none out in the sixth was converted into a score on Hargrave's long sacrifice fly. Chick Hafey knocked the ball out of the park in the eighth with Douthett on base. Donohue was struck for 11 hits.

Freddie Fitzsimmons turned back the Phillies and the Giants won a romp, 6 to 2. New York hit the ball hard, getting 18 safe blows off Scott and Sweetland. Hornsby led the way with four singles.

Where Is Shirley?

COVINGTON, Ky., Sept. 28.—Has anyone seen little Shirley Johnson of Berlin, Ky., who was adopted by a passing tourist three summers ago?

Jokey Floyd Johnson, in a hospital here fighting for his life with injuries received in an accident at Saratoga a few weeks ago, needs Shirley.

Nurses and doctors attending Jokey Johnson want her—the lad, suffering from an injury, to his brain, is having his march to recovery retarded by anxiety for his missing sister.

A year after Johnson's mother had died, while he was away trying to earn funds to take care of himself and little Shirley, a passing tourist persuaded a neighbor, who was taking care of Shirley, to let him adopt the girl.

Who he was, where he lived—nothing was learned of this tourist.

The racing game has given me many hard knocks, but losing my little sister has been the hardest of 'em all," means Floyd here. "I am able to take care of her now, and I do wish whoever adopted her would return her."

And his plea for his little sister's return is also the plea of attendants who want to see him recover.

Buffaloes Meet Daniel Baker In Home Lair Friday

CANYON, Sept. 28.—The West Texas Teachers College Buffaloes meet the Daniel Baker Hill Billies at Brownwood Friday, Sept. 30, and the game will have an important bearing on the TIAA race. In the game Friday the Buffaloes conceded to be much the weaker of the two teams will be the under dogs and the Billies are hoped to run over them for a decisive victory.

The recent defeat of the Billies by the T. C. U. Horned Frogs will not be any help to the Buffaloes in their hopes of winning from the Greys as the reaction will be one of distinct advantage to the playing of the Billies. It will be their grim determination to avenge the defeat by running roughshod over the weaker Buffaloes.

But the Thundering Herd, which has not thundered so loudly the past few seasons, seemingly came to life last Saturday and thundered in mad glee over the Clarendon College Bulldogs and ran up a score of 44 points and on a muddy field at that. This feat has caused everyone to have renewed hope that the Herd will be able to make the most respectable opponent for the vaunted Hill Billies.

Rain and cold winds threaten to limit the Buffalo practice to a minimum but the weather man has promised warmer weather for today and the coaches will be out for a stiff workout on each of the days until the game.

London Girl Again To Attempt Channel

CAPE GRIS NEZ, France, Sept. 28. (AP)—Miss Mercedes Gleitz, London typist, abandoned her attempt to swim the English Channel at failure. She was twelve miles off Calais when she gave up after having been in the water since 9:40 a. m.

CAPE GRIS NEZ, France, Sept. 28. (AP)—Miss Mercedes Gleitz, London typist, who has failed in five attempts to swim the English Channel, entered the water here at 9:40 o'clock this morning for another try. Sea and weather conditions were good. She made slow progress for the first hour.

ing a chance, stick to their veteran lineup while the recruits who have reported sit around for a month, more or less, as spectators.

Of course the new players are looked over in morning practice, but after all there is no way one can get a better line on a player's real value than seeing him perform in actual competition.

The Washington club is one of the few in recent years that is experimenting with some of the youngsters on hand. Regardless of what effect it may have on where the club finishes, Manager Bucky Harris is throwing some of his promising young infielders into the lineup.

Dramatic action is needed in the American league on this score. If the reign of the New York-Yankees must be halted, a number of clubs must start rebuilding at once.

LAMESA TAKES OPENING GAME ON FAIR CARD

SPUR DEFEATED AFTER EARLY OFFENSIVE GIVES GOOD LEAD

Lamesa high school won their opening contest of the football season here yesterday by defeating the Spur high school team by a score of 7 to 0 on the fair ground field.

Beautiful runs by alternate members of the Lamesa backfield in the early stages of the game resulted in the only score made by either side, though twice the Spur line held like a wall when but a few yards separated the Lamesa Golden Tornadoes from a touchdown.

Lamesa took the offensive in the first quarter, starting with a spectacular 20-yard run by Freeman, ratty half-back. Two plays through the line placed the ball on the Spur 22-yard line. Hill, Lamesa quarterback, and Cook, full-back, drove the remaining yardage for a touchdown, Cook kicking goal for the extra point.

Spur showed great determination and flut in the latter part of the game, but lacked the necessary punch for score. Lamesa made nine first downs during the game, while Spur made only two. Neither side attempted passing frequently.

Both teams were well represented by delegations from their high schools in spite of the weather. Muddy roads, however, kept the Spur band from attendance.

Hill and Cook Star

Hill at quarterback and Cook at fullback for the Tornadoes were the offensive stars for the Lamesa eleven, while the work of Edmonds at fullback for the Spur team was impressive.

This afternoon the second high school game on the fair schedule will be played with the Slaton Class B Tigers meeting the Plainview Class A Bulldogs.

Last week-end the Bulldogs, coached by "Duckie" Allen, were defeated by the Floydana crew, but expects to gain revenge at the expense of the Tigers. Coach Allen has eight lettermen returned from last year, and has them in excellent condition for the game today.

Coach Odus Mitchell of the Slaton Tigers showed a good team here yesterday with his eleven held the Lubbock Westerners to a scoreless tie. Since then he has been drilling an offense by which he hopes to drub the Plainview boys.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Sept. 28 (AP)—The first game of the little world series here between Toledo and Buffalo called off this afternoon on account of rain.

TOLEDO, Sept. 28.—With the reserved seats all sold out Toledo baseball fans, in the ardor of their first winning experience struggled for possession of 10,000 general admission and standing room tickets to the opening game today of the little world series between Toledo of the American Association and Buffalo of the International League.

The mound selections for the first game of the series were Jess Barnes, the Mud Hen hurler who took part in many major league campaigns, and Leo Mangum, one of the leading pitchers in the International League this season.

Football In High Schools Must Be Controlled And Contribute Part To Education Program, Henderson Says

BY ROY B. HENDERSON
Athletic Director, Interscholastic League

Football can not be defended in the high school unless it is subordinated, controlled and made to contribute something definite in the cause of education. There is nothing inherently good or bad in high school football. It is good or bad depending upon how the superintendent or principal allows it to be used in his school. It is a matter of leadership. If the leadership is right, the activity is of great value in developing character. If the leadership is wrong, it would be far better if there were no football.

Leadership Important

Because leadership is so important in this connection, we see that the coach is one of the most important men on the faculty. For this reason he should be selected with great care. The first requisite should not be ability to win games; it should be moral character. The coach who is given to understand that he must win games will win by fair means if possible but by foul means if necessary. He is dealing with boys in an important formative period of their lives. What he teaches them will follow them through life. The mental process that work out dishonorable acts in athletics are the same that account for dishonorable acts after school days are over.

In speaking of the opportunities and responsibilities of the coach, Dr. Joseph E. Raycroft, Princeton University, after depicting the experience of the coach of low ideals, said: "The continued tolerance of the presence of men of this sort as teachers in educational institutions is a serious reflection upon the ideals and standards of those who are responsible." This is evident to anyone who will think about the matter. It is hard to understand why parents and school boards in some places will continue to employ men to fill positions of this kind whose influence upon the boys with whom they come in contact is anything but elevating. The explanation must be that little attention by those of high ideals is given to this important activity in those towns.

Coaches Not Rapped

Because this matter is discussed here the reader should not get the impression that Texas high schools are full of coaches of the wrong sort. Seven years' experience in dealing with hundreds of coaches from one end of this state to the other has convinced the writer that the coach of this type is the exception rather than the rule. At least ninety per cent of our coaches are men of high principles, honest and earnest. They are doing good work and the influence that they are exerting in their respective communities is good.

Must Observe Rules

It is certainly true that football can not be carried on inside the building. It is an extra-curricular activity pure and simple. Schools that participate in the Interscholastic League must observe the scholarship rule which requires that each player must be taking four studies and, furthermore, he must be making passing grades from the beginning of the semester in three of them. Another provision makes a boy ineligible to play who failed to pass three courses his last semester. These two rules sufficiently safeguard the work on the inside of the building and they assist the principal in his efforts to preserve the sport for the bona fide student and to keep out the "ringer."

Moral Education

In the Bureau of Education Bulletin, 1917, the following appears on moral education: "First in importance is actual performance of the pupils themselves. It is one thing to hear right conduct praised or see it exemplified; it is quite another thing (and more necessary) for the boys and girls to do the acts.

"Character is essentially a matter of action, the habitual performance of certain kinds of deeds rather than others; and the only way of learning how to do these deeds is to do them, just as tennis is learned only by playing it.

"The better schools realize that pupils take to activity much more readily than they do to the relatively passive business of listening or reading. They are eager for athletics, to publish a paper, dance, act, plays, etc."

Behavior and Emotions

Psychologists tell us that our behavior is the result of our emotions. If this is true, it is extremely important that we learn how to control our emotions. Where do our emotions receive the greater appeal, in the class room or on the football field?

It is not my purpose to belittle

TUNNEY SEEKS TO AID YOUTH IN CLEAN LIFE

WELFARE OF YOUTH IS AIM IN HIS LIFE, CHAMPION SAYS

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The New York Evening World today prints a copyrighted interview with Gene Tunney in which the heavyweight champion said his aim in life was to teach youth the value of right living.

"What I want to do more than anything else is to consecrate my life to the welfare of youth," he told Ed Van Every of the newspaper's staff.

Plan Is Given

Asked as to what his plan was, Tunney said: "To teach our youth the value of clean living. It is hard to talk about these things without seeming preachy, and my work in the ring has put too much demand on my time and my strength to give full thought to just what I have in mind. I know it will take much deep-thinking before I can arrive at a plan for the thing I have in mind, and I would rather not talk about it until I have ended my ring career. From present indications this will not be for years.

"But I feel that there is something missing in our educational system. That this last should help youth to advance spiritually and I mean this more in a physical than a religious sense, as well as mentally. Maybe, I am hitting at

Billy Evans Says:

Every reform has its good and bad features.

Some years ago the powers that be in baseball decided on a drastic change in the sharing of world series receipts. It was agreed that the first four clubs would cut in on the melon.

Prior to that shift, only the two pennant winning clubs, the real contenders, had any interest in how large the crowds might be. And if the race was a lopsided affair such as the American league campaign has been this year, there was little or no incentive for the other clubs to keep going at top speed.

It was hoped that the rule permitting the first division clubs to get a share, in keeping with their position, would make for continued effort on the part of all the clubs having a chance to finish inside the money.

Since finishing second ordinarily means about $1,000 to each player and fourth place means about $900. It is easy to understand why the athletes would battle for the money positions to the very end.

In this respect, the rule has worked out fine. It has kept the teams with a chance on their toes while the clubs outside of the money seem to get a keen delight in knocking the others off.

However, in another way, the rule has worked to the detriment of the best interests of the game. It has, in a sense, retarded the chances and development of the rookies. Since baseball is sadly in need of new material of merit, that angle is unfortunate.

In the old days, when only the pennant winning clubs had any interest in the gate receipts, the moment a club was mathematically out of the race for the flag, it began to experiment with most of the talent the scouts had picked up during the summer.

It was not at all unusual for clubs to present an entire new line-up during the month of September. The veteran stars, whose ability was well known to the manager, would be permitted to sit on the bench, while the unknown, promising rookies would get a chance to perform.

This system had two distinct advantages. First it gave the clubs a chance to get a pretty good line on the minor league material purchased, and second, it provided the fans with new faces, thereby keeping up interest.

Now it's different. Even if a club is definitely out of the race its first place but has a chance to finish in the first division, the rookies are just out at luck.

Rather than throw a bunch of youngsters, who might jeopardize the chances of finishing in the money, the manager of the clubs have

CHILDREN GET BENEFITS FROM SCHOOL EARLY

KINDERGARTEN WORK IS STRESSED IN EFFORTS OF ASSOCIATION

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—More than 200,000 children throughout the United States have received the benefits of kindergarten training as a result of the efforts of Jessie Locke, executive secretary of the National Kindergarten association, whose life work has centered in securing kindergarten education for all of the nation's children.

Back in 1902 Miss Locke, who at that time was connected with the New York Kindergarten association, saw the need for a national organization. Its object, she felt, should be to arouse interest in the subject of kindergartens, to persuade the people in each state to work for better state kindergarten laws, and to induce the various boards to open kindergartens in the public schools.

Association Started As a result of this vision the National Kindergarten association was organized at the home of Mrs. Henry Phillips of New York City and incorporated during the same year. In 1912 the association affiliated with the National Kindergarten and Elementary school division of the United States Bureau of Education.

Since its formation the National Kindergarten association has taken the initiative in arousing men's and women's organizations to work for better kindergarten legislation. Through their combined efforts improved laws have been passed in Nevada, Maine, Texas, Arizona, Wisconsin, Kansas, Pennsylvania, Illinois, New Mexico and Iowa.

Petition By Parents These laws provide for the establishment of kindergartens on the petition of parents. Most of them require that the petition be signed by the parents of twenty-five children of kindergarten age, residing in the same neighborhood. Some of these laws are mandatory and some merely permissive. These mandatory laws were passed in 1927.

Many Not Served

"Despite this progress record, which we are trying to present to mothers at the Women's Art and Industries exposition," says Miss Locke, "there are still 4,000,000 children of kindergarten age in the country for whom no kindergartens have been provided. Perhaps this is due to the fact that the association is entirely supported by voluntary gifts and it can not afford field workers in every state and city."

At present, the association has field workers in California, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Mississippi, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Texas, South Dakota, Utah and Wisconsin. The work is being carried on in other parts of the country directly from the main office in New York City.

Mexican Bandits Shot And Hanged In Clean-Up Plan

(By Associated Press) NOGALES, AZIZ, Sept. 28.—Bullets and hangman's knots have been adopted by the Mexican government in teaching law obedience to some of its most refractory pupils—bands of bold bandits who for years have raided railway trains, towns and mining properties in the state of Nayarit.

Dispatches to the Nogaes Herald yesterday told of the summary court martial of 16 federal prisoners charged with banditry. The men, who had been captured in fighting near Acaponeta and Tepic, faced a firing squad in the plaza at Tepic. Residents of the Mexican town gathered in the plaza to witness the spectacle and later the bodies of the executed men were swung from the limbs of trees.

Picards On Breasts Bandit activity, other reports to the Herald said, has spread to the state of Puebla. The chief of military operations in that state charged reported in the war department that, fighting in that state during the week had resulted in the death of 20 bandits and the wounding of a rebel leader, Galindo Zepeda, a former colonel in the Mexican army. Ammunition was seized and several bandits taken prisoner.

WOMEN ARE A BIG FACTOR IN U. S. LIBRARIES

SIGNAL SUCCESS FOR MANY PLACE THEM AMONG LEADERS

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Women truly have won their place in the sun in directing American library work. The far-flung activities of the American Library association are supervised principally by women. From the big, sunny executive offices in Chicago to the scattered branches of the organization in this country and abroad, women sit in executive positions.

Carl R. Bowen, librarian of the Chicago Public Library, is president of the association, and the ruling executive, Carl H. Milan is secretary, but from these down, women predominate. Executive Assistant The executive assistant of the board of education for librarianship is Harriet E. Howe. Effie V. De Rose is editor of the association's publications, and the ruling executive, Julia Wright Merrill heads the library extension department. Her territory is the whole United States and her special task helping develop library service for the estimated 50,000,000 people in the country without it. Miss Helen Burling edits the "Reading With A Purpose" courses of the association. Miss Jessie Van Cleave is the specialist in children's books.

An interesting tale of the efforts of American women abroad is the story of the founding of the Paris Library school as Miss Sarah C. N. Bogie, assistant secretary and district representative in France. Called As Trainer After signal success in establishing libraries throughout this country, Jessie Carson, head of the library department of the American Committee for the Relief of Devastated France, was called to Paris to train librarians. The American Committee advanced funds to maintain a school for two years. Miss Bogie was called from her Chicago headquarters to direct the effort and she spent several months in Paris in 1924.

The school, she said, has won universal commendation from virtually all countries. Its directors plan to maintain it with endowed funds for another year. After this five-year effort it will be made into a permanent institution.

Mystery Of Black Bag In Death Of Girl Cleared Up

(By Associated Press) CHILDRESS, Sept. 28.—The mystery of the black bag reported found near the shallow grave of the buried and haired girl near Childress, Tex., has been cleared up by Sheriff John Compton.

Compton received a long distance call from Austin and went to the residence of an unnamed farmer near Childress, Texas. The owner of the bag is said by Compton to have been readily admitted. The man declared that he and his wife were driving from south of San Antonio, past Childress, to Childress a few days before the tragedy was discovered. They noted that the bag was missing from their car and turned back to find it. Soon they met several bands of Mexicans on their way to Snyder to pick cotton. One Mexican admitted having seen the bag and the others denied it. The man believing it hopeless to continue the search further, headed his car around and come to Childress county. Sheriff Compton says the story is straight-forward and that he believes it.

Amarillo Visitors Arrive For Fair

A number of visitors to the fair from Amarillo had reached Lubbock by Wednesday morning, according to the register of Hotel Lubbock. Among those from the north Texas city are: R. B. Dick, R. T. Lobb, J. E. Wilhite, M. W. Merry and James H. Scott.

Parents Of Pupils Join In Race Fuss

(By Associated Press) GARY, Ind., Sept. 28.—Nine hundred pupils of Emerson high school, backed by their parents, were in a deadlock today with the board of education on the subject of returning to classes, which 24 negroes are attending. A mass meeting, attended by virtually the whole membership of 1,400, broke up with the strikers still refusing to return unless the negroes were sent to another school.

How To Stop A Headache

Use the improved method—two teaspoonfuls of Capidine in a little water. Being liquid, it acts almost instantly—much quicker than tablets or powders—saves a half hour of suffering. CAPIDINE relieves pain by soothing the nerves—not by deadening them. Contains no opiates. At your drugstore, 60c and 30c boxes. Also trial size. (adv.)

Pope Greet U. S. Legionnaires In Vatican Session

(By Associated Press) ROME, Sept. 28.—Pope Pius today received the American Legion party visiting Rome and gave them a most cordial welcome to the Eternal City.

The reception of the American veterans at the Vatican was most picturesque. A great crowd gathered in St. Peter's square despite a hot sun to see the Legionnaires pass, applauding the men as they entered the Apostolic palace.

Military Honors When the flags of the Americans reached the courtyard of St. Damiano, the papal gendarmes and the Papal guard rendered military honors. Led by the Papal master of ceremonies and preceded by Monsignor Burke and Vice Rector Boslin, all mounted the snow white staircase with the Swiss guards in their multicolored uniforms standing on either side with their halberds at present arms.

Monsignor Burke presented the leaders of the Legionnaires with whom the pope exchanged kind words, speaking especially with Howard P. Savage, retiring commander of the Legion. The pontiff took great interest in the flag of the Legionnaires, examining it and repeating the words printed on it.

Pope Addresses Visitors The pope then sat on the throne and delivered a short address in which he thanked the Legionnaires "not as a military but as a paternal review," he continued. Smiling he added, "thus making the personal acquaintance with each one of you representing millions of Americans so dear to my heart."

The pope said he was indeed gratified that such a large representation of Americans should come to Rome as a distant country. He said he was also pleased because their presence recalled two facts of particular interest in the history of the world—"First, the World War second, the contribution given by young America—still young luckily for her—in that decisive moment for the future of old Europe and of the whole world."

Osborne Pleads Guilty In Charge Of Mask Flogging

(By Associated Press) GILMER, Texas, Sept. 28.—By withdrawing his plea of not guilty and entering a plea of guilty to accept a sentence of one year in the penitentiary, DeWitt Osborne of Marshall, charged with violation of the anti-mask law in connection with floggings in Harrison county June 8, abruptly terminated his trial late yesterday. In entering his plea of guilty Osborne made no reference to the guilt or innocence of others involved.

Indicted Last June Cain Anderson, wealthy farmer near Marshall, and Osborne, Anderson's employe, were indicted last June in connection with the flogging of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richardson, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. A. Strupe tenants on the Anderson farm.

Anderson's trial at Tyler recently resulted in a mistrial. In the case of Osborne at Gilmer, expert defense lawyers said they realized that the direct evidence of the victims of the flogging would be hard to overcome and only at the hands of a master mind.

LINCOLN FOND OF GOOD FOOD WOMAN CLAIMS

MEMORY OF HOSPITAL PATIENT GOES BACK TO U. S. MARTYR

(By Associated Press) MISSOURI, Mont., Sept. 28.—A 72-year-old patient at St. Patrick's hospital here recalls Abraham Lincoln, not as a statesman, but as a lover of good food, especially chicken.

Mrs. W. W. Johnson's view of the martyred president goes back 67 years to a day when he was not president but merely "Uncle Abe"—a friend of her father, G. B. Gano. Gano and Lincoln had gone to school together, not far from Bloomington, and remained much in each other's company until the day came for each to choose his manner of life.

"Guess I'll be a farmer," said Mr. Gano. "Think I'll be a lawyer," replied Lincoln. According to Mrs. Johnson's first recollection of him, "Uncle Abe" was accustomed to drop in on Sunday for chicken dinner with his old school mate and his family.

"A long shadow coming down the road on Sunday meant a chicken dinner," Mrs. Johnson recalls smilingly. "One day 'Uncle Abe' came into the yard, put his hat on a tree trunk and said he reckoned he ought to contribute something by catching a chicken, anyhow. But he didn't," continues Mrs. Johnson. "He was too awkward and when we children tittered at him, he gave up. But he stayed for dinner."

Her next recollection is of "Uncle Abe" when he was in Washington. But he wasn't away very long. One afternoon, an older, grayer man than they had known before came in for dinner. That night, he and her father sat on the porch facing the prairie, and talked far into the night. "Uncle Abe" answered freely and frankly to all her father's questions. "He was troubled, all right, but it was like a touch of old times when he took me on his knee the next morning and said, 'be a good girl now for Uncle Abe. Whatever your father says, be a good Republican for your Uncle Abe,'" says Mrs. Johnson. "I guess you can tell how I've always voted."

Remembers Death

Recollection of the announcement of the death of President Lincoln remains vividly with Mrs. Johnson. On a day in April in 1863 when the midwest prairie was teeming with life again, she ran across the field to her father who was plowing. She handed him a paper. After a glimpse at the headlines Mrs. Johnson remembers her father crying, "Here he lies, tie them up. Lincoln's school mate then burst into tears while the child wretchedly obeyed.

"Like children," declares Mrs. Johnson, "men stood crying the next day—crying as though they had lost a father."

Pennsylvania's Paul Revere Dies Today

(By Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 28.—Edward R. McDonald, 66, who emulated Paul Revere by dashing through the valley on horseback to warn residents of the approach of the flood that wiped out Johnstown in 1889, died today.

Lindsey Burns His Court Records

Judge Ben Lindsey, retiring from his colorful Denver juvenile court after years of service, held a bonfire in one of the city's parks the other night. It was a fire, the judge said, that would "save homes." Denying that the great pile of records that he burned were court records, the former juvenile judge put the match to the documents that bore tragic stories of many Denver homes. "Do you think I want homes ruined in Denver?" he said, explaining to the crowd that the records were not court records. "All the young people who have given me their confidence may know now that their secrets are safe."

Finis Written In Colorful Career Of Former Texan

(By Associated Press) OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 28.—Finis has been written to the career of Frank Canton, born Joe Horner, whose deadly aim as a law officer won him a prominent place in fiction and the authentic annals of the west. Canton, whose love of adventure made him a United States marshal in Alaska during the Klondike gold rush, adjutant general of Oklahoma during the turbulent days of early statehood and led him always to the outposts of civilization, died peacefully last night in his own bed from illness growing out of the infirmities of age. He was 76 years old.

Shooting Episode Although Canton was reticent regarding his change in name, it was generally known that he assumed the name he bore until his death following a shooting episode in Texas. He killed a negro army officer and whipped two others after they had become angry because of his refusal to drink with them. Although he was convicted of murder, he escaped and never served time. Returning to Texas in after years, Canton persuaded former Governor Hogg to issue a pardon to Horner and then revealed himself as Horner.

Migratory Birds Showing Increase

Federal protection, bolstered by laws that conform in 41 states, is believed the U. S. Biological Survey to be responsible for an increase in migratory birds, principally wild geese, canvasbacks, mallards, redwings, wood and black ducks, whistling swans, pintails and coots.

It is feared the woodcock would have been early extinct had it not been for federal protection. Biologists say that wherever it appears these birds are decreasing, the situation is usually traceable to change in habits and feeding grounds.

Parole Of Gordon Campbell Approved

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Parole of Gordon Campbell, convicted at Helena, Mont., of using the mails to defraud, has been recommended by the parole board, conditional on dismissal of the pending indictment against him. Attorney General Sargent is expected to pass on the board's recommendation as soon as it is determined whether the United States attorney who tried Campbell will dismiss the pending indictment.

ROTARY HEADQUARTERS GOOD PROGRAM

PROVENCE, DICKINSON AND JONES ARE FEATURES

Byron C. Dickinson's wit, the hard business sense of E. W. Provence and the good advice of Don L. Jones were features of the weekly luncheon program of the Lubbock Rotary club today when that organization gathered at Hotel Lubbock at noon.

The program, in charge of Warren Clement, of the Tech faculty, included a talk by Mr. Dickinson upon his club classification, another on the spreading of college athletics and the program of Texas Tech along this line by Business Manager Provence, of the college, and an urge by Mr. Jones, superintendent of the state agricultural experiment station, for members of the club to attend and take particular interest in the livestock exhibits of the fair.

New Members Came In Dr. Sam G. Dunn, of the West Texas hospital medical and surgical staff, and Leslie C. Houston, of the E. W. Axtell, wholesale plumbing and hardware company, came into the club as new members. J. A. McCreary, instructor at the Lubbock State Normal, and Class A. Guy acted in a similar capacity for Doctor Dunn.

The talk delivered by Mr. Provence was the principal feature of the program. He spoke at length upon the spreading of public interest in inter-collegiate athletics, upon the great crowds and financial attention that attend the football games already held to expand the athletic program of Texas Tech. He particularly urged Rotarians to attend the coming game with Texas A. and M. on October 28.

A number of visitors from out-of-the-city were present, including several principal exhibitors of the fair. Many local men were also numbered among the guests. Mr. Walter P. Jennings, president occupied the chair.

Silliman Evans Is Here For The Fair

Silliman Evans, staff correspondent of the Fort Worth Star Telegram and widely known as a newspaper writer, arrived in Lubbock this morning to attend the 1927 Panhandle and South Plains fair. Mr. Evans, upon his arrival was immediately taken in fair grounds where he inspected the various departments. He expects to renew a number of old friendships while in Lubbock, he said. Mr. Evans is the only out-of-town newspaper man covering the fair.

NEW STUDENTS ENTER CANYON

353 FRESHMEN ENROLL IN WEST TEXAS NORMAL

CANYON, Sept. 28.—Three hundred and fifty three freshmen have already enrolled at the West Texas State Teachers college. Most of these boys and girls have never been away from home before. The average age is between eighteen and nineteen.

In this class of 1928 there are representatives from 54 counties in Texas, Brazos county being the greatest distance away; it is represented by Miss Iris E. Bullock of Bryan.

All Counties Represented. Every county of the territory commonly known as the Panhandle Plains region has more than one representative in the class, several counties having 25 or more. It is observed that freshmen usually come in groups of two or more from the same place.

The freshman who is farthest from home is Howard Bateholder of Billene, Massachusetts.

New Mexico, Oklahoma, Kansas and Illinois are other states having representatives in the freshman class.

Most of these freshmen are graduates of recognized high schools but 45 of them took entrance examinations. These had done their high school work in unaffiliated schools.

The football team which refused to report for practice yesterday afternoon when protest meetings and parades were held, agreed to show up on the field today.

Children Walk Out In School Race Row

GARY, Ind., Sept. 28 (AP) — Approximately 200 Emerson high school pupils were absent from school today following demonstrations against the attendance of twenty four negroes. Officials took no action in the hope they would return after the excitement had worn off.

The spring-lastering of the door held, though the cage rocked beneath the impact of the lion's body. "I had a premonition," said Delano huskily, "and I was watching." Camille, springing up the steps, embraced Jack. "Thank heaven Raoul was here to open the door!" she half-sobbed, and the boy felt her arms quivering about him. "But it was your nerve that saved you, Jack."

Red Saunders, still and ghastly, was carried out on a stretcher. A doctor examined him and stated that the fall had broken his neck, and that he had died almost instantly.

The deputy-sheriff, followed by Jack, appeared before Duke Saunders and Lizard Wattles in the lock-up. "You're a pair of lucky young rascals," said the officer.

"I've had a telegram from Brick Judge," explained Jack. "He bought Obediah Tuttle's motor car, which you ran away in, and no charge will be pressed against you. Your uncle fell and broke his neck, Buks. You are free to go anywhere, but I promised to bring Lizard back to the camps at Indian Lake, and I'm going to do it." "I'm ready to go back," said Wattles eagerly. (The End.)

NEW BUILDING AT CANYON IS DECIDED UPON

EDUCATION STRUCTURE FOR W. T. S. T. C. TO BE BUILT SOON

CANYON, Sept. 28--Final changes in the detailed arrangement of the plans of the education building which is to be immediately erected at the West Texas State Teachers college are to be made today. Architect E. T. Hittenthorpe is in Canyon in consultation with members of the faculty at this time.

The new building will be 200 feet in length, 35 feet deep and three stories high, and will be one of the best training school buildings in the United States. Besides 17 classrooms, there will be an auditorium seating 450 people, a gymnasium which will serve the students from grade one to eleven, a grade and high school library, ample store-rooms, several offices and a well equipped lunch room for students who remain at school during the noon hour. The building will cost $350,000.

In appearance the education building will be very similar to the administration building; it will face south and will be located west of the administration building. It has been placed as far as possible from the street in order to reduce the probability of accidents to small children.

NEW EGG PRESERVATIVE

Co-operative eggs and poultry interests in the west coast have developed a method of sealing egg shells with paraffin oil to segregate the contents from deterioration and the absorption of undesirable odors. This protected eggs have been shipped from Seattle to Alaska for distribution in Nome, St. Michael, Teller, Golovin, Akutan and Umanak.
