Uncle Jim Flays The Grafters

Planting is the order of the day after such good rains.

The health of the community is good.

The T-Bar school closed with a good program of three nights.

The people of T-Bar are preparing a program for the Sunday School celebration which is to be held the second Sunday in June. It will be interesting and instructive. A general invitation is extended to all who wish to attend. Come and enjoy a good time. We especially invite the editor and his family to attend.

I see in the News of May 7 the editor said I wrote some lamentations in answer to a News editorial published in the News. May be the editor did not understand in the way I was lamenting. In the first place I was lamenting because my class, the producer, has been so long lying dormant letting the other fellow do his thinking for him. Talk about classes, all the other classes are organized except the farmer, but, thank God, the farmer is waking up.

The farmer has not in the past stood as intelligence as a dumb brute. Let a fly go to sucking the life from him and he will use his business end. Yet the farmer has stood for being sucked almost to the last drop and he has not opened his mouth, and he ought to be. He will save there is no use to try, we can't do anything. Some will say: "Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things will be added unto you." Yes, that's what we ought to do.

But the idea, after we do that, then sit down and be robbed and wait for God to do something that we can do for ourselves. No, Rule, after he has given us intelligence to do anything and won't do it, if you sit there you can just sit there and he will let you starve to death. Search the scriptures and if you can find anywhere that God did anything for man that he could do for himself, well, I believe I will say eat the book and digest it.

No, I am not lamenting over the grafting class. If I ever cursed, it would be to curse that class. If I did lament for that class it would be for their poor souls in the day of judgment. The 5th chapter of James will be fulfilled. "Then he will laugh at your calamity." When Christ was here he whipped the money changers out of the temple. It looks like he will have a bigger job next time and it looks like the United States will be the whipping ground. Your Uncle Jim.

HURRY UP AND CLEAN-UP

On Wednesday, May 27, the trucks will be around after your trash and tin cans. The boy scouts will load and unload the trucks. Clean up your premises and place the refuse in sacks or boxes and leave them at places easily accessible. Don't wait till Wednesday to do the work, that will be too late. Do it today. Let's clean Tahoka up, as neat as a pin.

SHERIFF'S SALE

THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Lynn.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a certain Alias Execution issued out of the honorable County Court of Lubbock county, of the 23rd day of April, 1925, by Herbert Stubbs Clerk of said Court for the sum of Three hundred fifty and 40/100 Dollars and costs of suit, under a certain judgment rendered in favor of J. B. Colt Company, a corporation, in a certain cause in said court, No. 1135 and styled J. B. Colt Company, a corporation, vs. W. E. Vaught, and placed in my hands for service, I, J. M. Simpson, as sheriff of Lynn County, Texas, did on the 25th day of April, 1925, levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Lynn County, Texas, described as follows, to-wit: An undivided one-half interest in and to all of Lots Nos. 11 and 12 and 1 foot off of the South side of Lot No. 13, all in Block No. 7, in the North Tahoka addition to the town of Tahoka, Lynn county, Texas, and levied upon as the property of W. E. Vaught and that on the first Tuesday in June, 1925, the same being the 2nd day of said month, at the court House door, of Lynn County, in the town of Tahoka, Texas, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M., by virtue of said levy and said Alias Execution, I will sell said above described Real Estate at public vendue for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said W. E. Vaught.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Lynn County News, a newspaper published in Lynn County.

Witness my hand, this 25th day of April, A. D., 1925.

MARSHALL SIMPSON, (seal) Sheriff Lynn County, Texas

J. V. DYER RETURNS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Dyer returned Wednesday from a visit of several months with relatives and friends in Florida and Tennessee. They spent most of the winter in Florida, being there about four months. They were at Panama City on the west Gulf coast much of the time but before leaving went down as far as Miami on the east coast near the southern extremity of the state. From Florida they went to the mountains of Tennessee, where they visited several of Mr. Dyer's brothers and sisters. On Sunday May 3 there was a family re-union at Sweetwater, Tennessee, four sisters and four brothers, including J. V., and their families being present. There were 72 individuals in the company, and a great day they spent together.

Mr. Dyer says that Florida is a wonderful country in which to winter and that Tennessee is good to look at but that old Lynn county is the best place on earth to call home. He is glad he is back, and so are we. He looks hale and hearty and says that Mrs. Dyer gained in health and strength during their visit.

DRAW ELECTS TRUSTEES

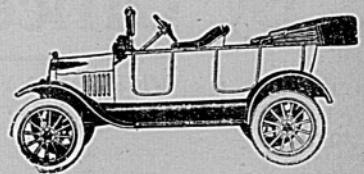

The first trustee election held since Draw was converted into an independent school district was held last Thursday. The three trustees of the common school district were John Berry, C. R. Cargyle, and John Sherrill. As an independent school district seven trustees are required. The three gentlemen above named were re-elected and four others elected in the elections last Thursday as follows: Green Cook, J. Williams, I. H. Parks, and E. Thornton.

The Draw school has made great progress during the past few years. During the past year a piano for the school has been purchased, $50.00 worth of books have been added to the library, individual drinking fountains installed, and other improvements made. Mrs. Hansford Tunnell, Miss Ada Belle Hancock, and Miss Winnie King have constituted the faculty the past school term. The session will last about a month longer.

The family of W. S. Swan plan to move into their nice new residence just north of the city park the latter part of the week.

Family Reunion Is Held In Monroe

A reunion of Dyer family of Monroe county was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dyer at Hiwassee college, two miles north of Madisonville on Sunday May 33.

The Dyer family has been influential in the state since about 1830 when the grand parents bought the land where this meeting was held. From the Indians, it being part of the original Hiwassee purchase.

In 1850 Esq. Wm. Dyer was married to Jane Vaughn, whose family was of Confederate fame, she being a sister of General John C. Vaughn. To this union was born eleven children, eight being present on this occasion. The illness of Mrs. Jennie Dyer Hunter who was in Philadelphia, Penn., in a hospital, prevented her being present. Hon. W. E. Dyer of Chattanooga, Tenn., died July 1921, and Joseph Upton Dyer died in infancy.

The day was spent in honor of J. V. Dyer and wife of Tahoka, Texas, who has been a resident of the Lone Star state for over fifty years. Mr. and Mrs. Dyer accompanied by their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Sanders of Slaton, Texas, have been spending the winter in Florida, and for six weeks have been enjoying East Tennessee hospitality.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Dyer, Hiwassee College, and four children out of a family of eight; Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Dyer, Tahoka, Texas, and one child out of a family of ten; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dyer, Hiwassee College and four children out of a family of five children; Mr. Lee Dyer of Etowah, Tenn., two children out of a family of six; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Browder (Nellie Dyer), seven children out of a family of eight; Mrs. Henry Foster (Mae Dyer) and family of four children; Miss Mary R. Dyer, Lenoir City, Tenn., Mrs. Jennie Dyer Hunter, represented by her only son, Perry Dyer Hunter of Johnson City, Tennessee. In all there were present eight children, twenty-three grandchildren and thirteen other relatives. The dinner was served picnic style in the yard and words cannot describe the eats as to quantity and quality.—Knoxville, (Tenn.) Journal

BRING YOUR QUARTER

The W. M. S. of the Baptist Church will have their meeting next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Shepherd. Each lady is requested to bring a twenty-five cent piece and to tell in rhyme how she earned it. The proceeds will go into the church building fund.

After the Bible Study period, the Society will have a social hour.

All ladies of the church are invited and urged to be present.

R. L. Barrett was here from New-moore Tuesday and told the News man that the goose hangs high over his little city. He claimed they had had nine inches of rainfall there this spring. We don't know whether he was excited or was simply exaggerating, but at any rate they have had plenty of rain. Barrett hasn't been here many years but he is a booster for Lynn county—thinks there is no better place on earth or elsewhere.

B. H. O'Neal, local manager of the Wooldridge Lumber Company began the construction of a nice stucco residence Wednesday morning on the lot on which the Heathcock home recently burned southwest of the High School building.

Uncle Tom Writes The News From Lynn City; Wants the Editor's Shirt

Well, Lynn was visited with a nice shower Saturday evening, which will help bring up what is planted, and Oh! those thistles and careless weeds. They are as thick as they can grow. Farmers, you will have to drive Old Beck and Pete pretty hard for the next few days.

We understand that our mayor, L. R. Bartley, is going to move to Muleshoe to make his home there. We sure hate that. That will call for another election. Besides, we miss him and his good wife out of the community, church, and Sunday School. Uncle Pat, you better stay with us.

We had an argument with uncle Bill Bartley, the Chief of Police, the other day. A young man passed through the city and the Chief wanted to get him for not making the limit. He says the limit is 15 miles and the young man was not making it. We claimed he could come under 15 but not over. Bill says the laws says 15 and it means 15 or it would not have said so. While we were arguing and talking the young man got away, and that put a stop to the argument.

Uncle Shorty Bartley, Uncle Jim Eastridge and Uncle Bill Bartley motored over to Post Saturday and got caught out in the rain. Uncle Shorty and Uncle Jim had no top over them and as they had only one suit they did not come in home; they wanted to keep it dry. Uncle Bill said he had one more suit but no money to stay all night, so he started in but his car went dead eight miles from home and it pouring down rain. So he was in a bad fix. But a young man brought him in home.

Well, our school, I understand, is going to give an entertainment the last of the school.

Our baseball team has won five out of seven games. That is good for a new team. Just pick up, if you think you can carry the boys, and come over.

I see the editor and a gentleman have been discussing who is the backbone of the world, the farmers or the business men of the world. The editor took them all. The gentleman took the farmer. To prove their ideas about it they took up the shirt to prove their points. When you get through with it Uncle Tom will take the shirt, for he needs it badly. I will have to side with the editor; it takes them all to make the world go. So I will ring off.

Come on, Redwine, you have never come up yet to take that ride.

—Uncle Tom.

Louis Conner was brought home from the Lubbock Sanitarium Wednesday. He underwent an operation for appendicitis about two weeks ago and his recovery has been most satisfactory.

TRUSTEE'S NOTICE OF SALE

Whereas, by virtue of authority vested in me as trustee named and appointed in a certain deed of trust, recorded in volume 5, at page 268, records of Real Estate Mortgages of Lynn County, Texas, executed and delivered to me on the 21st day of March, 1918, by R. Wickliffe and wife Ettie Wickliffe, for better securing the payment of two certain promissory notes of the sum of $106.00 each, bearing interest from date until paid at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, described in said deed of trust executed by the said R. Wickliffe and Ettie Wickliffe, payable to the order of J. Long, at Tahoka, Texas, due on the first day of January, 1920, and 1921 respectively, said notes also providing for the payment of 10 per cent attorney's fees if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, and also given in part payment for the following described real estate, situated in Lynn County Texas and known and described as all of the North one half of the North east one fourth of Survey No. 407, Certificate No. 473, in Block No. 2, H. E. & W. T. Ry. Co., original grantee.

And whereas, each of the said notes is now past due and unpaid, principal, interest and attorney's fees aggregating the sum of $363.79; and, whereas, I have been requested by the said W. J. Long, the owner and holder of said notes, to enforce said trust, I will offer for sale between the hours thereof, to-wit: between the hours of 1 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M., at public auction to the highest bidder, on the first Tuesday in June A. D. 1925, the same being the second day of said month, at the court house door, in the town of Tahoka, in Lynn County, Texas, the above described property, with all the rights, members and appurtenances thereto in any wise belonging.

Witness my hand this 12th day of May A. D. 1925.

The W. M. U. met with Mrs. Frank Billman, Monday, May 18, for their Bible Study. After the lesson a business meeting was held, after which they were dismissed. Those present were Mesdames Liles, Briley, Hill, Allen, McDaniel, LeMond, Humphries, Brock, St. Clair, Johnson, Howell, Higginbotham, Shepherd, Billman.

"This is the greatest country in the world," said W. W. Brandon to the editor Monday. Mr. Brandon said that he had been here exactly twenty-two years on that day and he felt competent to testify. While he was orating on the wonderful advantages that this country affords, J. E. Ketter came along. He stated that he had been here nearly 25 years and he fully agreed with Mr. Brandon that this is a wonderful country. We believe both gentlemen told the truth about it. Come to Lynn county.

George Knight says the Connolly Motor Company has had two tractors pulling scrapers over the cotton on the Ford Demonstration farm this week. These scrapers each cover seven rows at a time and George says they scratch seventy acres per day. This is what we call going some.

LARGEST CHICKEN FARM IN WEST TEXAS AT SWEETWATER

Work was started Tuesday on what is expected to be the largest poultry farm in West Texas. The farm will be owned by Geo. A. Lackey, local poultry enthusiast, and work on the farm buildings will begin as soon as the location on a tract of land recently purchased by Mr. Lackey east of town on the highway near the plant of the United States Gypsum Company. The buildings will continue to be built until the fall laying season begins and as long thereafter as there is a demand.

An unusually large laying house will be one of the first buildings to be constructed. The four brooding houses now owned by Mr. Lackey and located on Bowie street will be moved to the new location and a number of other brooding houses will be built soon. Each of these brooding houses care for 1,000 baby chicks.
A house for the keeper, an a number of other buildings such as barns, etc., will also be constructed. Mr.
Lackey now has 1,000 hens.

Mr. Rogers, who recently came here from San Antonio to care for Mr.
Lackey's chickens on Bowie Street, will have charge of the chickens on the farm. Later, Mr. Lackey and his family intend to move to the farm and build them a home there.

One of the purposes of the farm will be to furnish eggs to the local hatchery, the two incubators having a combined capacity of 20,000 eggs.
Thousands and thousands of baby chicks have been hatched at the hatchery this year for poultry breeders of Nolan and adjoining counties.

White Leghorns, Rhode Island Reds, and Barred Rocks will all likely be raised on the immense poultry farm.

Nolan county is one of the best adapted sections to be found anywhere for poultry raising, breeders assert, and the only thing that keeps the county from producing more poultry and eggs is the fact that no cold storage plant is located here.—

LUBBOCK COMPANY AB- SORBS LOCAL INS. CO.

A deal was consummated Tuesday whereby the Lubbock Mutual Aid Association took over all the business and assumed responsibility on all the policies of the Tahoka Mutual Aid Association.

The Tahoka Mutual Aid was organized by John L. Greenfield nearly a year ago. Soon after organizing the company and before many policies had been issued he left Tahoka, going from here to Littlefield and later back to Dallas, where he now resides. Upon his abandonment of the enterprise practically all efforts to build up the company ceased, and it has been in a quiescent condition ever since. Some time ago negotiations were begun with the Lubbock Mutual Aid with a view of having that company take over the business and liabilities of the local company.

The officers of the local company were: F. E. Redwine, Pres., A. L.
Lockwood, Treas., W. B. Bishop and E. E. Callaway, directors.

The officers of the Lubbock Mutual Aid are J. A. Rix, Pres., W. S. Posey,

HALF MILLION SAVED STATE IN BILLS FOR APRIL, IS REPORT

AUSTIN, May 18—A saving of $500,000 in operating expenses of the State for April in comparison with expenses for April 1924, is shown in a statement prepared by F. D. Hardeman, statistician in the Comptroller's Department.

In addition to this saving, the general revenue fund is approximately $2,393,000 better off than it was a year ago, as on May 1, 1924, there was a deficit of $1,634,972, while this year there was a cash balance of $1,228,683.

The operating expenses for April, 1924, were $1,993,339, while for this year they were $1,448,980.

Joe Curry was down in Martin county Sunday and reports that very little rain has fallen in that section yet. The grass is still dry and the prospect far from flattering. It is not thought that this dry area is very extensive, however.

BILIOUS SPELLS

Kentucky Man Finds Relief from Dizzy Attacks.

"I suffered with severe bilious attacks that came on two or three times each month," says Mr. J. P.
Nevis, of Lawrenceburg, Ky.

"I would have dizziness and couldn't work."
"I would take pills until I was worn-out with them. I didn't seem to get relief. After taking the pills my bowels would act a couple of or three times, then I would be very constipated."

"A neighbor told me of Black-Draught and I began its use. I never have found so much relief as it gave me. I would not be without it for anything."

"It seemed to cleanse my whole system and made me feel new. I would take a few doses—get rid of the bile and have my usual clear head, feel full of pep and could do twice the work."

Made from pure, medicinal roots and herbs, Black-Draught is nature's own remedy for such sympoms as the above, when due to a torpid liver.

NEWS SUMMARY FROM OVER WEST TEXAS

Furnished by West Texas Chamber of Commerce

HASKELL—The Green Belt District Convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will hold its second annual convention in Paducah, June 18. This town will compete with a number of towns for the 1926 District Convention of this section.

CISCO—At the State Fireman's Convention at Cisco, the estimate is, that there were more firemen to attend than to any previous convention of its kind held in the state.

COLORADO—Bandmaster Goldman of the Colorado Gold Medal Band has proven his efficiency by winning the position as the Official Band of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for the year 1925.

FREDERICKSBURG—It is estimated that some 75,000 pecan buds will be used this year in budding native pecan trees. This means for Gillespie county farmers, an enormous income for their annual production.

CLYDE—The local chamber of Commerce held their monthly luncheon here recently and pulled a unique stunt by prosecuting banker M. H. Perkins, alleging treason because he purchased a red neck tie and other gorgeous things in Cisco. He was found guilty.

POST—The farmers of this section are getting the land in shape for a bumper cotton and maize crop. The recent good rains have put in the ground a good season and every indication points to a successful crop year.

ABILENE—The races at the West Texas Fair here July 4th, will be one of the largest events in Texas. Prizes amounting to more than 4,000 will be given away that day to the spectators.

PLAINVIEW—This city claims to have the champion high jumper. Raymond Clifford, fifteen years old, cleared the pole at 6 feet one inch in the Interscholastic League track meet at Brownsville.

BRADY—McCulloch county received more than 2½ inches of rain during the past month. This as-ures a splendid planting season and the outlook for a bumper crop is very flattering.

WILSON NEWS

Everybody is busy out this way. Planting is the order of the day. Yesterday has been planting cotton the past week. Guess now we will have to scratch, as the rain Saturday laked the ground so the farmers are afraid King Cotton can't come up.

Walter McAttee was carried to the Lubbock Sanitarium Monday.

Clifton and Marie Hamilton have been on the sick list but are better now.

Miss Beatrice Hill spent Sunday night with Mrs. Lankford.

H. B. Crosby is in Amarillo on business.

Mr. Hamilton dropped a heavy iron on Mr. Schnell's foot a few days ago and Mr. Schnell's foot is very sore.

We are glad to say that the road through Wilson is being graded, and we hope while they are at work they will put it in first class shape.

Hufaker and Evans purchased there a fine mule apiece last week.

We certainly like to read the News, because it is a good paper.

—Aunt Martha.

BRIDGE CLUB

The Bridge Club met with Mrs. Tom LeMond on last regular club day.

Mrs. Miller won high score and Mrs. Turrentine the consolation. The delicious refreshments were made attractive with favors of dainty brightly colored parasols, suggestive of the season.

Mrs. Billie Sanders, whose home is in Lubbock but who is here temporarily while her husband is employed on the construction of the First Baptist Church, called at the News office Tuesday and ordered the paper sent for one year to her sister in Tennessee. She is anxious for her sister, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Dyer, to know what is going on in and around Tahoka.

MISS HALSEY MEETS WITH THE DIXIE CLUB

Miss Millie M. Halsey, county home demonstration agent, met with the club at Dixie Saturday and a good meeting is reported. The club will have its next regular meeting on May 23, and every lady in the community is invited to come.

CONSTRUCTION WORK IS MOVING AT RAPID CLIP

Every unit of the Texas Technological College system of building will be completed and furnished in time for the school to be opened to students as scheduled during the last days of September, C. H. Porter, supervising architect, announced Monday.

Work on all buildings is being rushed under favorable conditions, ample labor being available and no serious shortage of materials has been experienced by any of the contractors.

J. B. Maxey who is erecting the domestic arts building, has practically completed brick work and plastering and carpenters are busy on interior work.

Ramey Brothers, who are erecting the administration building, have a large crew of workmen on every feature of the construction job and will in all probability complete the job on schedule.

Expected progress has been made on the Textile and engineering building by the James T. Taylor Co. Immediate completion of this building is imperative as the matter of installing the machinery, including a great deal of regular cotton mill equipment is a major task and will require a great deal of time.

All equipments and furnishings for the college buildings will be bought by the board of control at Austin on June 11.

Pumping equipment for the college well has been received and is being installed. The well has been completed and has constant pumping capacity of 600 gallons per minute. The elevated water tank will be constructed with the well at once.

J. C. Koriath, of the Koriath Heating & Plumbing Company, of Sherman, who was awarded the contract for the completion of the sewer system, started running survey of lines Monday and will have construction crews on the job early this week.

Excavation work for the power plant, that is located 350 feet north of the Textile and engineering building has been completed and construction work will be started this week. Representatives of the Thor-Montgomery Company who were awarded the general contract on this job, are expected to arrive here at any time.

Boilers for the heating plant have been shipped, Kennison Bros. of Dallas having been awarded the contract for the installation of these features have already started work on this contract.

The Eugene-Ash Electrical Co. of Dallas, who will install the electrical equipment at the college plant, will have representatives here this week according to information received here.—Lubbock Avalanche.

SIMMONS COLLEGE TO GIVE BIG BARBECUE MAY 4

ABILENE, Texas, May 20—An old time West Texas barbecue will be one of the attractions during the thirty-fourth commencement of Simmons College, to be held May 29—June 4, at which time Simmons College will begin its career as a university. The commencement program will begin on Friday evening, May 29 with a concert by the fine arts department. On Saturday evening the fine arts exhibit will be displayed at the art building. The commencement sermon will be preached Sunday morning, the commencement speaker being Rev. C. A. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Cisco, an alumnus of the institution.

T. G. Tredway and family moved Tuesday into their new home just completed, situated just west of the Sunshine Inn.

Ben King's handsome new residence in North Tahoka is nearing completion. When finished it will be one of the best residences in the city.

Judge B. P. Maddox has been elected one of the directors of the Guaranty State Bank to succeed Mr. Dallas of Brownfield who recently sold his interest in the bank to Judge Lockhart.

H. C. Ragland of Lubbock, Nash car salesman, was in Tahoka on business Tuesday.

J. W. Burleson of Lubbock had business in Tahoka Tuesday.

W. S. Swan and son Buford were here from Big Spring Sunday visiting the home folks.

Uncle Jimmie Fleming is able to be up and about again, after several days sickness.

Mr. Speight of the Jones Dry Goods Company says that Tahoka is one of the best towns on the south plains.

Of the thirteen stores operating throughout west Texas by this company only two surpass the Tahoka store in volume of business done during the past few months.

Rev. L. L. F. Parker, who was here to preach the Commencement sermon Sunday, preached to the Baptist congregation in the District Court room Sunday night. An unusually large Sunday night crowd heard and greatly appreciated his good message.

A marriage license was issued Tuesday morning to Earl Stracener and Miss Pauline Harper.

Mrs. J. D. Bacon of Murchison is spending the week here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. W. Conway.

SINGING CONVENTION AT CENTRAL NEXT SUNDAY

We are requested to announce that the Lynn County Singing Convention will meet at Central Church 11 miles east of Tahoka Saturday night and Sunday afternoon. A business meeting will be held Saturday night and some of the best singing you ever heard will begin at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. R. B. McCord is president of the convention and he can always be counted on to make a success of whatever he undertakes. Go out to Central Sunday and help the folks sing.

O'DONNELL MAN MADE DIRECTOR W. T. C. C.

C. W. Mansell of O'Donnell was appointed one of the directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at the meeting recently held at Mineral Wells.

Mr. Mansell is ex president of the O'Donnell Chamber of Commerce and is one of the most progressive business men and citizens of his city.

KESSEL BURGLARY MEETS WITH A SOLUTION

The Kessel burglary has been solved and several Mexicans are under arrest and held for investigation. Sheriff Johnson and Deputy Tom Abel of Slaton worked on the case, and the latter part of last week a Mexican by the name of Bennie Chavez was arrested and was found with some of the goods in his possession. Two suit cases out of five taken from the Kessel store were found in Chavez's possession. Six dresses and three bolts of silk were recovered at this time. Chavez had just returned from Lamesa when taken in charge. The investigation of Chavez was on other matters when the Kessel property was stumbled on, and after that developments have come quick and fast. Two deputies were dispatched to Lamesa where two more arrests were made. The father and brother of Chavez. They were brought to Lubbock and lodged in jail. Bennie Chavez had refused to talk, but after he saw his aged father and brother locked up he began to loosen up. He stated that his parent and brother had nothing to do with the burglary and implicated a Mexican in Lubbock by the name of Manuel, where some of the goods and a suit case was found. He claims that Manuel entered the store while he watched on the outside. Of course Manuel denies any part in the crime, but the fact that he was found with the stolen goods in his possession connects him with the case.

The silk, which was taken in bolts from the Kessel store, had been sold off by dress pattern, and much of it if not practically all that has been recovered, was made into garments. It is said that some of the costly silk was sold to other Mexicans by Chavez as little as 50 cents per yard and after the raid was made last Saturday it was burned. In all Mr. Kessel says he has recovered about two hundred dollars worth of his goods out of his estimated loss of approximately $2,000. That which was recovered is practically valueless to Mr. Kessel.

One suit of clothes was found at Lamesa. All the tags had been removed and only the trade mark of the line which Mr. Kessel handles was left on same, and this was tampered into the cloth and could not be removed. The name J. Chavez was written on the inside pocket. This suit was worn by the brother at Lamesa, that is the coat, the pants had never been worn.

The officers are still working on the case and other evidence and more of the goods is expected to be found. Now that the thieves have begun to talk and one is laying the major part of same on the other it is thought that a full confession will be made.

In the haul made by the sheriff and his deputies in capturing Chavez and his associates an important band of burglars have been doubtless brought to justice.—Slaton Times

O'DONNELL SCHOOL HAS OVER 600 STUDENTS

The O'Donnell public school has enrolled 612 pupils during the past school year, according to Superintendent J. A. Rickard. This is a considerable increase over any previous year. The average attendance for the term was a little more than 500. The District is soon to begin the construction of a $45,000 high school building.

TRUSTED GOD FOR RAIN, SAYS FERGUSON

Silliman Evans, a reporter for the Star Telegram interviewed ex-Governor Ferguson Monday morning while the latter was in North Worth on his way to the Confederate Reunion at Dallas, and after warmly thanking Mrs. Ferguson's pardon record, the ex-Governor talked about the financial condition of the penitentiary system. Because the part of the interview contains much information of interest to the people of Texas everywhere we reproduce it as given by Mr. Evans.

A bullish outlook for the physical condition of the state penitentiary was commented on by Ferguson. No extra session is to be necessary, unless some unforeseen calamity causes a crop failure on the prison farms.

Duplicating his accomplishment in 1914, when, then a rich man, he pledged his own name as security for the penitentiary system and put it on a cash basis, the former Governor has arranged $400,000 credit for the operation of the system until the crops come in. Himself a practical farmer of the "dirt" variety, Ferguson said Monday that the "crops look the finest ever."

When the system was faced with the imperative necessity of a $400,000 appropriation from the Legislature, calling for an extra session, Ferguson called the Prison Commission into his confidence. Only one of them, R. O. Dulaney, of Houston, was his appointee. The others were holdovers. Ferguson tendered the commission the co-operation of the Governor's office. They joined him in a pledge of harmony. They agreed to back him in every effort to carry the system over until the crop, if a crop was made, and materialized.

Ferguson went to Houston and interviewed bankers and business men. A $400,000 credit line, he found, was pretty hard for a man who was known all over the state as being "busted and broke" to arrange. These business men wanted to know if he was going to give the same personal attention to the farms as he did in 1914. He promised them he would.

"You going to hang around down there like one of the farm bosses?" they asked.

"Yep."

"And you'll see to it that the farms are properly handled?"

"Yep."

"All right," they responded and the advance was made.

Ferguson found, however, that his troubles had just begun. The drought was on, and the crop prospect got poorer every day. No cotton had been planted.

"We had bought seed at $2.50 per bushel, he related. "That is lots for seed, but my experience as a farmer and rancher I have learned that pure seed and pure bred stock are the best investment for the farmers to make. Well, the penitentiary system ought to be run just as you would a farm."

"One night at the mansion I was talking over the penitentiary system with my wife, I was nervous, I went out and looked at the sky and could not see anything that looked like a rain cloud even at a long distance. I went back in and told my wife I was going down to the penitentiary."

"When I got there next day the commissioners hardly took me serious. You don't mean to say we ought to plant 30,000 acres in $2.50 seed without any rain, taking the risk of wasting and having to replant," they said.

"Yep," I told them, "my old Mammy used to say for us boys to do our work and depend on God almighty to do the rest. Get every mule out of the barns and get your men ready to hit the fields." We did. We planted that fine seed. I was scared to death for about a week.

"The rains did come, and they were soaking good rains. There wasn't a seed washed up. And I went over there the other day for the life of me I never saw a better stand of cotton in my life, and we are going to have a large yield per acre."

Bond Election Ordered Wed.

The commissioners' court Wednesday afternoon ordered two elections to be held throughout Lynn county on the same day, Tuesday, June 30. One of these is to determine whether or not bonds shall be issued in the sum of $500,000 with which to build highways and improve the lateral roads of the county. The other is to determine whether or not a special tax of 15 cents on the $100.00 property valuation shall be levied and collected annually to work the lateral roads of the county.

The petition for the bond election was presented to the court on Monday, May 11. The matter was reached and discussed on Tuesday but action was deferred until the next day.

On Wednesday, May 13, the matter was again deferred until the court should meet again this week. In the meantime petitions asking for a road tax of 15 cents were prepared and these petitions were presented to the court Wednesday of this week.

Both petitions were acted upon at the same time and an election on both propositions was ordered for Tuesday, June 30.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS

The News is printed on Wednesday so that it may go out on the routes Thursday morning. Communications received on Wednesday arrive have a more extended report of this or the current week. Please mail your communications in time for them to reach us Tuesday afternoon.

TEACHERS GIVEN RECEPTION.

The splendid home of Judge and Mrs. G. E. Lockhart was thrown open to the teachers of the public school occasion is reported and an enjoyable occasion is reported. We hope to have a more extended report of this function next week, since we have been unable to get one this week.

TEACHERS GIVEN BANQUET

The faculty of the public school were tendered a banquet by the ladies of the Baptist Church Thursday night in the Domestic Science room at the high school building, not being a teacher, the editor was not present, of course, and it has been in vain that he has asked for a report of the affair. We understand, however, that it was a most enjoyable occasion.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all of our friends and acquaintances who so kindly assisted us in our recent bereavement in the loss of our son and brother. May Gods blessings rest upon all of them. We wish to thank every one for the beautiful flowers, the kind words of sympathy, and for every act of kindness shown.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Smith.

THE CONFEDERATE REUNION

By W. L. SANFORD, Sherman, Texas

We are going down to Dallas if our lives are spared till May To see the veteran army that immortalized the gray. 'Twill be an inspiration and a priceless boon, we know, To cheer the marching columns that some forty years ago In dazzling deeds of valor gave a deathless theme for song And taught mankind the lesson how to suffer and be strong.

Their brows are deeply furrowed and their heads are touched with snow Their forms are bent with weight of years and some with weight of woe; But their shields are just as spotless and their souls are just as true As when they charged at Gettysburg the bristling ranks of blue. They are coming out to visit us, these old and grizzled men, And we'll give them such a welcome as will make them young again.

We are going to take our boys along that they for once may see The men who in the wilderness fought under princely Lee, And then the men of Shiloh, who, 'mid canister and shell, In pity paused to drop a tear when Sydney Johnson fell. Had Stonewall Jackson ordered, would have stormed the gates of hell!

And who shall write an epic of those days of fire and blood, Nor name the dauntless warriors of Forrest and of Hood; Of Morgan, the bold raider; of that dashing cavalier "Jeb" Stuart; of young Pelham, the immortal cannoneer, And all those knights of chivalry who rest in peace profound In graves which jealous Fame hath blessed and marked as holy ground.

The puny wars which nations wage on nations of today Are but the mimicry of war—the games which children play— When gauged by the gigantic strife, when Southern valor hurled Its thunderbolts against a foe whose ally was the world. Then Avalanche met Avalanche, and loss was reckoned then By squadrons and whole regiments, and not by single men.

The world grown old, had never seen, and never more may see, A host like that whose sabers flashed about the flag of Lee, And when the shrines for which they fought have crumbled into the dust, Aye, when this great republic shall have perished, which it must, When Truth shall make her silent harp to songs of mighty wars, Their names and deeds will blossom with the splendor of the stars.

It was not ours to wear with them the hallowed cloth of gray, Nor share the stress of march, the horrors of the fray; It was not ours to hunger and to thirst on war-swept plain And bivouac on the battlefield 'mid ranks of comrades slain; 'Twas not our fate to hear the jeers and face the victor's frown When Christ at Appomattox wept and pulled the curtain down.

But well we know the story from Fort Sumpter to the end, And on our hearts is laid the charge to honor and defend The cause for which they struggled and for which they bravely bled, To love and aid the living and to reverence the dead; To wreath the sacred mounds where sleep these royal hearts, and true, And while the thread of life holds out, please God, these things we'll do!

Upon your walls three pictures hang—the faces of the three Immortal gods of warfare—Stonewall Jackson, Johnston and Lee. We placed them with the purpose that our little ones may grow

To learn the truth and love the men who in the long ago Surrendered all save honor in a grand unequal fight For home and country and for what they still believe is right. So we're going down to Dallas, those fast-thinning ranks to meet, Which, only when outnumbered thrice, stacked arms in proud defeat. The sun is fast declining, and the march is nearly o'er, And now and then there comes a sound from yonder mystic shore. It is death's bugle calling in some weary form in gray Let's hasten on to cheer them for the last time, while we may.

The above poem was printed in the Dallas News 23 years ago when Dallas entertained the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans. It was clipped and has been preserved by a veteran. Because of its real poetic merit and is a fine tribute to the old soldiers of the Confederacy, many of whom are now meeting in Dallas for the last time, we reproduce it in our columns.

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News, will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

If Providence continues to smile on west Texas and Lynn county we has done the past month, we are going to need ten thousand cotton pickers here next fall. Boys, get your racks ready.

Malcolm Doloff came in Friday from Big Spring, where he has been visiting and working the past few weeks. He expects to be with his father "down on the farm" for the next few weeks.

No better class of people on earth than those who live in Lynn county.
Fine soil, fine climate, fine people; no better place on earth to live. Lots of pasture land yet that ought to be raising cotton and feed and watermelons and garden truck and berries. Cal up the kids, crank up your Ford and come on west, you east Texas "goober grabbers."

According to press reports, a man claiming to be the first convict Mrs.
Ferguson pardoned has been arrested and placed in jail at Vernon charged with robbery. It is said that he is wanted for a number of like offenses, his operations extending from Fort Worth to Amarillo. It is stated that he had received sentences aggregating 83 years in the penitentiary and had served only eleven months when Mrs. Ferguson pardoned him. If these are facts then we are ready to join the other critics of Mrs.
Ferguson in this instance and say that she made a serious mistake. No man in good health who has been sentenced to the penitentiary for eighty years has any business being turned loose on society after an incarceration of only eleven months. None but a hardened criminal is ever sent to the pen for that length of time, and no governor should throw down the bars and tell a known crook to go hence.

The News editor in common with thousands of other residents of west Texas was shocked last week to hear of the death of Jesse Adams, editor of the Plainview News, which occured on Sunday, May 10, at Toulon, France. Mr. Adams left his home at Plainview about January 1 on a sight-seeing tour around the world.
A few days later he sailed from San Francisco, his first stop being at the Hawaiian Islands. Thence he went to the Philippines, from there to Japan, China and then to India where he contracted the fever that resulted in his death. He came to Egypt, from Egypt to Palestine, and thence decided to hasten homeward on account of the serious condition of his health. Death overtook him in France. His remains are being brought to this country for burial. Mr. Adams leaves surviving him an only daughter, Mrs. E. Q.
Perry of Plainview. Her husband has been in charge of the Plainview News during the absence of her father.
Mr. Adams was a man of excellent character and deep convictions. He was in the habit of expressing his views in virile fashion and was one of the best editorial writers on the plains. He founded the Plainview News in 1911 and it has long been one of the best weekly papers in Texas. We esteemed him for his worth and it is with deep sorrow that we learned of his death.
A good man has gone to his reward.

EDITOR HELPS KORRAL A KOW

As editor Smith of the Lamesa Reporter was returning from the Kow pasture the other night, he had a thrilling experience with a kow.
This is the way he told about it in last week's issue of the Reporter:

"Last Saturday night when we returned to our home about 9:30 we heard a voice calling for help down the dark alley between the Methodist church property and our place near the preacher's cow pen.

"Hastening to answer the call I we should find some one under the ponderous pile of old lumber owned by the Methodist church we discovered the City Marshall sitting upon his trussed steed with a most forlorn expression. In answer to our query of what was the trouble he related to us a dismal tale of woe and defeated ambition. Some on Chad called and stated that a cow was deprecating upon the premises and please come and lead her gently to the pound.
Like all good city Marshalls he hurried to answer the call. He had chased this cow through several back yards while he clung to the horn of his saddle to keep from being dragged from his horse by clothes lines numbering from one to ten in each yard as he thought and now very much worse for the wear, he had treed the cow and wanted assistance of the infantry to expell her from the meshes of cloths lines in Brother Watson's back yard. So with our son we began to assist and soon had the enemy on the run and as she dashed by the preacher's front door he rushed to the rescue and we asked him to take a stand in front of the Parsonage while we ran ahead and turned her back with the assistance of the Marshall. She reversed and came back our way when we matched her a race till we struck the ditch by the side of the street where we promptly stood on our head and gave up the chase while the preacher, laying in wait took up the chase and from there to the alley he stayed by her side. But at the entrance of the alley she speeded up in high and deat the preacher in the race and headed again for his lot, when, following her, the preacher looked over in his lot and said, "I believe that is my cow," and it was. We beat a hasty retreat and left the Marshall to explain how he had envagiled us and the preacher in the shadows of the night to try and pen the preacher's own cow in the City pound. We are off that City Marshall.

"He'll have us in trouble with our neighbors if we try to help him out of trouble and next time if he gets under that lumber pile we are hands off. We didn't want that cow no how."—Lamesa Reporter.

ABOUT COOK THE CROOK

You will remember that Doctor Cook, who once lay claim to the discovery of the North Pole, and whose claims were denied by Admiral Perry, and through the efforts of a strong naval lobby Cook was denied the honors and turned out. He drifted to Texas and got caught in some kind of oil deal and is now serving a sentence in the Federal Penitentiary for the fraudulent use of the mails. Now comes the scientists and says that Perry did not discover the North Pole after all. So the inference is that if the Pole was discovered at all it was by Doc Cook. The problem remains unsolved, who discovered the North Pole—Dr. Cook or Mr. Perry, or was the Pole discovered at all. Our feelings have always leaned towards the underdog Cook. We believe he got a raw deal.
—Slaton Times.

If Cook got a "raw deal" what kind of a deal did the women and the children that he robbed get?
That "some kind of an oil deal" in which he got caught was one of the boldest swindles ever pulled off in the oil game. Finding an obscure oil man somewhere in the Northwest whose name was Robert A. Lee, Cook and associates employed him, organized a wildcat oil company of the wildest type, named it the Robert A. Lee Company and then proceeded to sell stock. They prepared and sent out over the United States their literature painting their oil holdings in the most glowing terms, deliberately and fraudulently mis-tating the facts, representing the said Robert A. Lee, whom they made president, to be a relative of the great southern general, Robert E.
Lee, in order to inspire confidence in the integrity of their company and thus make it easy for them to victimize the simple and the credu-lous. By these means they inveigled thousands into their net, some of them widows who could ill afford to spare the hard-earned cash with which they bought Cook's stock, some of them hoary-headed worshipers of the great and honest leader of the armies of the Confederacy, some of them merely simple folks who had more money than brains. Every mail brought its burden of checks from these unsophisticated victims to the office of the Lee Oil Company. When any of these victims showed signs of impatience or restlessness over failure to receive any returns for their investment, Cook would write them the most reassuring letters, depicting the dazzling wealth that lay out just before them if they would hold on; and thus he kept the game working for months and months. At last Uncle Sam got after him for using the United States mail to defraud, he was indicted and tried, and even Jos Bailey, as astute and resourceful and eloquent as he is, could not keep Cook out of the federal penitentiary. Yet, there are a few editors and other good people in Texas who have acquired a habit of cussing the courts for turning criminals loose and who go into spasms several times every week because "Ma" Ferguson has turned a few prisoners out of the pen, but who have been weeping great floods of tears over the sad fate that has overtaken the poor, unfortunate, persecuted Dr. Cook. Like Brother Smith, our sympathies are inclined to be for the underdog, but we have none to waste on this kind of crooks.

By the way, Smith, who told you that "Doc" Cook was denied the "honors" of discovering the North Pole through the efforts of a strong navy lobby.
The evidence at the time proved that Cook was a faker. It also proved pretty conclusively that Admiral Perry had reached the pole. What "scientists" have been denying these claims? We know of none except a man named "Amundson" of Denmark or somewhere over there who has a personal axe to grind. "Doc" Cook is right now where he ought to be.

Any individual who makes a habit of "doing things", of being a success at whatever he undertakes, challenges our admiration. But when a person attains unusual success in the face of almost insurmountable difficulties, then this achievement becomes truly heroic. Down at Baylor College, Belton, is a young woman who is proving herself to be a real heroine. She has been armless since birth, her lower limbs are amasingly short, and though she is now twenty-four years of age she is only three feet and ten inches tall and weighs only 25 pounds. Yet, in spite of the physical handicaps, she has learned to do many things much better than most of us with two perfectly good arms and two good hands can do them. Among other things she has learned to be an expert with the needle, using her toes instead of fingers. She cuts out and makes her own dresses and it is said that she can crochet for hours at atime without dropping a stitch. She holds many premiums for various kinds of needlecraft, among them a first prize for embroidery awarded by the Texas Cotton Palace at Waco. She has learned to paint, holding the brush between her chin and her shoulder, and it is said that she is gaining sizable distinction as an artist. She loves painting above all other arts and says she hopes to be able to teach art some day. She can drive a car and can cook. She writes neatly, holding the pen or the pencil with her toes. And "not content with writing a neat Spencerian hand, we are told "she has of late taken up writing on the typewriter. She combs her own hair, powders her nose, washes her teeth, dresses herself, feeds herself and asks no quarter at the dormitory dining table from the girl in a hurry to get to her dessert. She eats along with the rest of them and finishes about the same time." Her handicaps are not much as to place her in the class with Helen Keller, but her achievements in the face of these difficulties are such as to make most of us feel ashamed of ourselves. And when we remember that she is cheerful and optimistic and happy we feel doubly ashamed that we sometimes are gloomy and feel discouraged and pessimistic. Nanny May Cook of Belton is a real heroine.

We never make a habit of counting the chickens before they are hatched but these fine rains tempt us to prophesy a cotton crop in Lynn county this year of 50,000 to 60,000 bales.

MORE PRINTERS AND LINO-TYPE OPERATORS WANTED

In an interview Mr. C. A. Jay, President of the Dallas Vocational School, Dallas, Texas, pointed out some of the reasons why there is a shortage today of competent linotype operators and all-round printers. In speaking of this matter he says: "The average printing establishment or newspaper plant today represents a unit of very highly organized industry—an industry which represents an investment of many millions of dollars in high class equipment and machinery. Formerly we thought of a printing establishment as a "hole in the wall," with probably one or two men employed. Today when you go into the average high class printing establishment you will find thousands of dollars invested in linotype machines, high powered presses, and other equipment which requires the very highest kind of mechanical skill to operate. The growth of this industry has been so rapid, and the opportunities for training men so few that today the printing industry is faced with a very serious shortage due to the lack of competent linotype operators, competent pressmen, and good all-round printers. Under the present organization of the printing industry, as represented in the average newspaper establishment or printing establishment, it is impossible to train men by the old apprentice method because the investment and overhead expenses are too great to permit the owner to devote the time of this equipment and trained personnel to instructing boys who knew nothing whatever about the business. In my judgment, the young man who is seeking a vocation which offers an opportunity would do well to study the progress which the printing industry has made in the last few years. If he will do this, he will certainly be impressed with the opportunity which printing schools are offering to boys who desire to learn the various trades in the printing industry."

PSALM OF A TOWN BOOSTER

Tell us not in mournful numbers, that this town is on the bum; rouse up from your peaceful slumbers, get out and make things hum. If we get to work in earnest, we can make things go on high, dust thou art to dust returneth, is a song of by and by. All the past is gone forever, you can't call one moment back, and the future may come never this is true so help me Mack. Now's the time to do your boosting, do not wait tomorrow's dawn, in the grave you may be roosting all your boosting chances gone. Lay aside your little hammer, grab a horn and toot a few, squelch the kickers' bad blamed hammer with a joyful blast or two. This old town is sure a pippin and we ought to boost it big. When we hear some growler yippin' we should smite him on the wig. Mighty oaks that flourish, come from acorns plain and small with your boosting you may nourish something that may prove a blessing to the toiling sons of men,—that's the point that I am stressing, boost and boost again. People love the smiling booster and for him they loudly cheer, but they ate the knocking rooster long to pelt him on the ear.
er. Boost the country and your business, boost the people of your town, they will dub you wise and witty, and you will gain wide renown.

BROWNFIELD BAND RE-

CEIVES HEARTY PRAISE

The following writup of the local band appeared in the Whittle Musical Review, published in Dallas, and said to be one of the best magazines of its kind published in the Southwest, in a recent issue. The writ-up also carried a photo of the band as it appeared at Brownwood last year:

"Through the untiring efforts of Mr. John S. Powell, Bandmaster, of Brownfield, Texas, one of the best bands in that part of the State has been developed in less than three years time. Although the band was organized of beginners only, it has made most rapid progress under the efficient teaching and guidance of its leader, who is a well experienced musician. The Brownfield Band gives regular weekly municipal band concerts during the summer months, and to show how well these concerts are liked by the citizens of its little city, their appreciation has been better shown in the building of a magnificent band stand where the concerts are now held. The band is equipped with the best of instruments (mostly C. G.
Conn) and is completely uniformed.
A number of important engagements have been given the band and it yearly accompanies the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce Booster trips—Terry County Herald.

Rev. C. E. Ball, pastor of the Baptist Church at Brownfield, and Rev.
Shepherd, pastor of the Tahoka church were in Sweetwater Monday on their way to the Southern Baptist Convention at Nashville, Tennessee.
While here they made a trip of inspection through the local Baptist church. The congregations of each of these men are building new church buildings in the above mentioned towns.—Nolan County News.

MRS. EDDIE DUNSHIE
WINS POEM CONTEST

SAN ANTONIO TEXAS, April 26

—About 400 entries were submitted in the San Antonio Battle of Flowers Association, Texas' Historical $100 poem prize contest, which was won by Mrs. Eddie Dunshie of Hamphire, Jefferson county, Texas. The winner was announced at the Battle of Flowers luncheon, held here on the second day of the annual Fiesta San Jacinto.

Entitled "Our Own", Mrs. Dunshie's verse follows:

OUR OWN

When'er, in retrospective mood,
We ponder history's pages vast,
Intent to find the brave and good
That speak to us from out the past
We find in fame's most lucent glow
Our martyrs of the Alamo.
No fabled heroes of old time,
Who challenge us through ages long.
From storied page or grabbed rhyme
Or through the music of a song,
Speaks to us in a truer tone Than these, we proudly claim our own.

They offered sacrifice supreme,
They bravely wrought, and fought and died,
Nor knew if true their freeman's dream.
Which by their death they justified,
They died—nor knew their deathless name
Should echo down the halls of fame.

Yet from the ashes of their pyre,
And from their death and from their dream
Sprang up that liberating fire
Where San Jacinto's waters gleam;
When other heroes, not in vain,
Struck koff the dark oppressor's chain.

And when, in ages yet unknown,
The heroes of a later sun
Shall set a record, bright as morn,
Of valiant deeds and bravely done,
Their children then shall say in sooth,

That this is but the simple truth—
That when, in retrospective mood,
They ponder history's pages vast,
Intent to find the brave and good
That speak to them from out the past,
They find in fame's most lucent glow
Our martyrs of the Alamo.

BACK HURT BAD

Lady Had Severe Pains in Back and Got Very Weak.

"I think very highly of Cardui for I have had great benefit from its use," says Mrs. Cora Nicholson, of Ware Shoals, S. C.

"I was in bed quite a while. It looked like my strength would not come back, and I suffered with severe pains in my back whenever I would try to get up. Sometimes I would scream out, my back hurt me so bad.

"My husband got me some Cardui and I took two bottles.
Very shortly after I began to take it I could notice I felt better. I began to get stronger. My appetite was improving and I could see that I was much better.

"After I had finished the second bottle I was able to be up and do all my own housework, so of course I think Cardui is fine. It is the best tonic for women that I know anything about, and I am glad to recommend it. Not long ago I told a lady friend of mine about it, and it did her as much good as it has done for me."

The Woman's TonicNEW CAMEL
BREAKS A COLD
OVERNIGHT

When the purest kind of English Camel was combined with pepsin by a smart young chemist, the world was given an ideal mild medicated laxative for breaking colds.

One night is long enough for this new, mild and non-sickening pepsin treated camel, called "Pepsinated Camel" to break the most stubborn cold. Before breakfast time it vanishes and leaves you feeling fresh and fine.

"Pepsinated Camel" does not sicken, gripe, salivate or upset you, but it does clean you out thoroughly, tone up the appetite, purify the blood, stop dull headaches, relieve stomach and bowel disorders and make you feel like a new person.
Never take the old drastic camel—

DEATH ASCRIBED TO EAST INDIAN MAGIC

Hard Otherwise to Explain Sergeant's Demise.

Mr. O. Rothfield, author of "Women of India," I.Q.S., relates the following remarkable incident, which he does not attempt to explain:

The incident concerned a smart young Sikh sergeant of the mounted police, a strapping fellow, with a great broad chest, the best wrestler on the force. The other part was played by a Mussulman fakir. He was an old, old man with a white beard, of quite unknown age, who beyond the memory of the living generation had crouched on a mat at a corner where two sunken lanes meet. The scene was a village, the poor successor of a dead city of palaces and of mosques not far north of Bombay.

In the midday heat, under the glare of the sun, his eyes half shut, vaguely thinking of home and dinner, the sergeant came cantering loosely along with the reins slipping through his fingers. An overhanging bank hid the fakir at the corner, and the pony slipped before the rider saw him. The sergeant all but went over the horse's head, and pulled himself back into the saddle with an effort.

He was angry, of course, as any one would have been. It is not nice to be brought up with a jerk and feel a fool, when one is hot and tired and hungry and thirsty. So he cursed the fakir, and threatened to run him in as a nuisance.

He was not respectful, certainly, and he was an unbeliever—a Sikh, not a Mussulman. But this does not excuse the old fakir. He—the old fraud—lifted himself up in turn and cursed and cursed in a solemn, dignified way, chanting the words like a communication. And he ended with an imprecation that the officer should die in the sixth month after five months of wasting.

There was little real jauntiness left in the sergeant when the old man was done. But he carried it off well enough and laughed about it that evening with his friends at headquarters, and several times he laughed again during the next week. But it is a fact that he began to lose weight in the second week, that his cheeks fell in and a cough shook him, that he was spitting blood within three months, and that he was dead within six.

Did he die of a suggested fear? and if so, why should it take that form exactly? Or was it really the old fakir's fixed thought, his persistent hate, that held and shook him across space and across time?

Only the old man could have answered, and he was silent.

Militant German Woman

German courts are not very considerate of women who seek damages for wounded affections. Consequently a young woman at Mannheim whose sweetheart had treated her slightly and told her his parents objected to their betrothal, consulted the mother of her halting fiancé and was told by the mother that he had lied to her.

The young woman did not consult a lawyer, but invited her former sweetheart to take a stroll with her. She awaited her opportunity and felled her recreant lover with a blow. Then she boxed his ears and beat him until the blood ran from his nose. Spectators of the affair rescued the chap and held theirate woman while he made his escape. The Mannheim newspapers in warning recreant lovers to beware of flitting also informed them that heroines still live in Germany.

Talkless Phone for Mutes

One of the most recent devices for use in communication between deaf mutes is a "talkless phone" that conveys messages by means of an alphabet printed on electric-light bulbs. As the operator presses the keys of a special typewriter wired electrically, the corresponding letters are lighted, spelling out the message.

The invention is the work of William E. Shaw of Cambridge, Mass., who was stricken deaf and dumb by sickness at an early age. He has been working with electrical and mechanical devices most of his life, and claims that deaf mutes miles apart will be able to "talk" with his device.—Popular Science Monthly.

Eagles Fight to Death

Capt. Hurley Boyd of the fishing steamer Maud J., in port here, reports that when ten miles east of Five Fathom Bank lightship he saw the most exciting air battle of his 20 years' experience as a skipper, says the New York Times.

Two eagles, he said, fought for a big eel, and one of the eagles was killed and the other so badly wounded that it could hardly fly beyond the reach of the steamer, which was stopped long enough to pick up the eel, which, Captain Boyd said, weighed over eight pounds.

The dead bald eagle, he said, measured ten feet from tip to tip of wings.

Wants His Money's Worth

A famous clothes designer, now in Los Angeles, has given up this prize secret for the benefit of the world: "Men are very seldom stingy with their wives on this one point: they are liberal in the matter of clothes, but with this proviso: A man will nearly always dig up $500 for his wife's clothes if she looks like $500 when she gets them on. What husbands object to is paying $500 for clothes in which a woman looks like $250."

Lower First Cost and Upkeep

There is a double economy in the Ford Car that materially lowers the cost of motoring for the millions of Ford owners today.

First—a Ford Car is the lowest priced on the market—the least expensive car the automotive industry has ever produced.

Second—it costs less to operate and maintain. Fuel consumption is low—you get high mileage from tires. Repairs and replacements are infrequent; and charges, even for the labor involved, are small.

The Ford Weekly Purchase Plan makes it possible for anyone to buy a Ford on the easiest of terms. You may pay for your Ford out of your regular earnings. Ask any authorized Ford dealer about the details of this plan or write us direct, using this coupon.

BROWNFIELD FARMER HURT WHEN CAUGHT IN PLANTER

Walter McWilliams, farmer, was brought to the Lubbock Sanitarium late Tuesday for surgical attention as a result of an accident that occurred on the J. W. Turner farm near Brownfield Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. McWilliams attempted to repair a planter while it was moving being pulled by a tractor driven by his son. The glove of his left hand became entangled in the mechanism of the planter, and before his son could stop the tractor his hand was badly crushed and both bones were broken in the lower left arm.

The long ride to Lubbock by automobile served to render the injured member more painful, and when received here Mr. McWilliams was suffering terribly.

LITTLE HOPE IS HELD FOR RECOVERY OF DALTON

District Attorney Parke N. Dalton was reported at eleven o'clock last night to have been in more serious condition than at any time since the operation for the removal of ruptured appendix that was performed at the Lubbock Sanitarium ten days ago.

Little hope for his recovery was expressed by his attending physicians however they have not entirely abandoned hope for him and point to the persistent battle he is making as the strongest threads of life contained in his weakened and exhausting body.

YOUNG COUPLE OF WILSON MARRIED THERE SUNDAY

Walter Hamlett and Miss Yelena Robertson of Wilson were married in that city Sunday, Rev. Graves Darby pastor of the Baptist Church there officiating. They are popular young people of the little city to the north of us.

Either the stork has gone off on a vacation or the doctors have forgotten to report his visits, for the records in Happy Smith's office have might little to say about his recent trips, if any, to this county. They show that he was here on May 5 and left a nice little gentleman in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Hunt, but this is the only visit recorded the past week.

BROWNFIELD GIRL STRUCK BY LIGHTNING SATURDAY

Miss Thelma Hudgens, 14, daughter of M. P. Hudgens, living near Loulynn, halfway between here and Tahoka was struck by lightning Saturday afternoon as she was crawling under a wire fence on her father's farm.

According to a physician who attended the young lady, the bottom wire of the fence was highly charged by a bolt of lightning, when she touched it with her back in crawling under, which not only rendered her unconscious for some time, but severely burned the flesh. With no unforeseen complications the young lady will be up in a few days, the physician stated.

Her father is a brother of L. F. Hudgens of this city. — Brownfield Herald.

Miss Lura Howell, who has been keeping books for a Wilson firm the past few weeks, has accepted a position as assistant cashier at the Guaranty State Bank.

NEW SCHOOL BOARD ORGAN-IZED HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

The new school board met for the first time last Friday night and, as the law provides, reorganized. All new members were present except C. A. Thomas who was confined to his room by sickness. The new members are W. C. Wells, Sam Sanford, C. A. Thomas, and E. I. Hill. The hold-over members are Dr. C. B. Townes, J. C. Welch, and W. L. Tunnell. E. I. Hill was elected president of the board and J. S. Weatherford was retained as Secretary.

Since the Superintendent, principal, most of the high school teachers and six grade teachers had already been elected and since the new members desired an opportunity to better acquaint themselves with the qualifications of other applicants, no teachers were elected at this meeting, but a number of matters pertaining to the welfare of the school were discussed.

Judge C. H. Cain, who is ex officio county superintendent of public instruction, called to discuss some matters with the board assure his cooperation in all matters pertaining to the educational interests of the city and county.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17.—Among the small guard of the U. S. Marines selected to serve on President Coolidge's yacht, the U. S. S. Mayflower, is Weyth O. Wilson, son of Albert C. Wilson, rural route A, Tahoka, Texas. He was recently assigned to duty on that vessel and he will have the privilege of accompanying the President when he makes sea journeys along the Atlantic coast.

The Mayflower has served as the Presidential Yacht for many years, and it is at the disposal of the Chief Executive while he is in office. Beside the regular crew, it carries a detachment of Marines who act as a special guard for the President. The vessel frequently lies at anchor at Washington or makes short trips to Norfolk, Va., and other nearby ports.

Wilson joined the Marines at Little Rock several months ago and was stationed at Parris Island, S. C. for several weeks before being assigned to duty on the Mayflower. Only Marines who are especially qualified are chosen for this important duty.

D. L. McHorse and family are this week moving into the house vacated by the Swan family.

WORK ON SLATON OIL MILL TO START MONDAY, MAY 28th

M. Dean, partner with Mr. Webb, who are promoting the Slaton Oil Mill enterprise was in the city several days this week and in an interview with the Times editor he stated that work on the mill will start Monday, May 18th, and will be pushed to completion. The mill will be completed and ready for operation by the time the season opens on the Plains.

The mill will be a six press and will be modern in every respect. It will be one of the largest cotton oil mills on the plains, and will take care of a large seed production.

Messrs. Dean and Webb are among the biggest oil mill men of Texas, operating a string of mills that are located at Fort Worth and other places of Texas. They have ten cotton gins of their own on the Plains and these gins will be used as feeders for the Slaton enterprise.

The Santa Fe Railway Company will lay the trackage in a few days, and the city will put the water to the mill site as soon as needed or before the work of making the water extension is completed.

Slaton has secured a much needed enterprise of a nature which will mean much to the development of the cotton growing industry of the Slaton country furnishing a market for all the seed grown in this section. We are fortunate in locating men of capital in Slaton and oil mill men of experience—Slaton Times.

OIL NEWS IN GARZA COUNTY

Rigging for building the derrick and drilling in Slaughter Well No. 1, located on Slaughter ranch, was hauled out Tuesday and work will begin at once.

We are informed from a reliable source that if oil or gas is not found in this test, another one will be made at once.

Nothing of importance doing in the Justiceburg field so far as we have been able to learn.—Post City Post.

Prof. C. O. Carmack, who was a member of the faculty of the Meadow public school the past year, is now back on the farm six miles east of town, where he hopes to make a big cotton and feed crop before school opens again.

Mrs. E. Smith is spending a month with her mother at Blum, Hill County.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams report that Mr. and Mrs. Moutie Harder, who were formerly employed at the City Bakery but who have been in Brownfield the past few weeks, are the proud parents of a fine little girl who came into their home two weeks ago. W. B. Bishop made a trip last week to Floyada and other towns of that section of the plains in the interest of a highway from Clarendon to Tahoka. The highway had just been designated to Post, however, but that accomplishes practically the same purpose so far as Tahoka is concerned, for a state highway already passes directly from Post to Tahoka.

NEW CALOMEL BREAKS A COLD OVERNIGHT

When the purest kind of English Calomel was combined with pepsin by a smart young chemist, the world was given an ideal mild medicated laxative for breaking colds. One night is long enough for this new, mild and non-sickening pepsin-Calomel, called "Pepsinated Calomel" to break the most stubborn cold. Before breakfast time it vanishes and leaves you feeling fresh and fine. "Pepsinated Calomel" does not sicken, gripe, salivate or upset you, but it does clean you out thoroughly, tone up the appetite, purify the blood, stop dull headaches, relieve stomach and bowel disorders and make you feel like a new person. Never take the old drastic calomel—insist on "Pepsinated Calomel," for it is better. Prepared by the Pepsinated Calomel Co., Atlanta, Ga. Sold by

The State of Texas
County of Lynn
By virtue of an order of sale issued out of the honorable District Court of Lynn County, Texas, on the 7th day of April, A. D. 1925, by the Clerk thereof, in the case of the City of Tahoka, as plaintiff, against J. H. Pettit and R. N. Hamilton, defendants in cause No. 502 upon the docket of said court, and to me as sheriff directed and delivered, I will proceed to sell within the hours prescribed by law for sheriff's sales, on the First Tuesday in May, A. D. 1925 it being the Fifth day of said month, at the court house door of said Lynn County in the City of Tahoka, Texas, the following described property, to-wit: All the lots, tracts, or parcels of land lying and being situated in the City of Tahoka, in Lynn County, Texas and being all of lots No. Ten (10) and Eleven (11) in block No. Twenty one (21), of the original town of Tahoka, as shown by the maps or plats of said town on file and of record in the office of the County Clerk of Lynn County, Texas to which reference is here made for a more particular description.

Levied on this 7th day of April, A. D. 1925, as the property of the said R. N. Hamilton to satisfy a judgment in the sum of $513.03 rendered in said cause in favor of the Plaintiff, City of Tahoka, for the use and benefit of Wm. G. Morrison and J. P. Colman, partners, composing the firm of the Plains Paving Company and Vance W. Mills trading as V. W. Mills and Company, against defendant, R. N. Hamilton, with interest thereon at rate of six per cent per annum from date of said judgment, and costs of suit, for pro rata share of cost for paving and curb in the improvement of street abutting said property.

Given under my hand this 7th day of April, A. D. 1925.

J. M. SIMPSON,
Sheriff, Lynn County, Texas

DALLAS NEWS AGAIN SPONSORS COTTON CONTEST

The Dallas Morning News and Semi-Weekly Farm News are again promoting a cotton contest among the farmers of Texas. Their object is to encourage intensive cultivation. "More Cotton on Fewer Acres" is their slogan. They offered prizes aggregating $1500.00. The award of the $1,000 grand prize shall be based upon the greatest production of lint cotton on five acres of unirrigated land; award of each of the four smaller prizes of $200.00, $150.00, $100.00 and $50.00, totaling $500.00 shall be based upon the most valuable information pertaining to profitable cotton raising contained in crop records kept by contestants.

There will also be nine supplemental prizes totaling $2400.00 offered by the Dallas Cotton Exchange and the Texas Cotton Association, $800.00 going to each of the three districts into which the state has been divided for the purpose, to-wit: East Texas, West Texas, and South Texas. In each district there will be a first prize of $500.00, a second prize of $200.00 and a third prize of $100.00, for the most lint measuring not less than government inch staple, grown on five acres of unirrigated land.

If it rains anytime soon in this county there ought to be many Lynn county farmers in this contest this year.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Commissioner's Court of Lynn County, Texas, at 2 o'clock P. M. on Monday, the 11th day of May, 1925, for the purchase by said county of one new Tractor of the Caterpillar type and of about ten ton power, county paying the difference in exchange of the ten ton Holt Caterpillar Tractor, now used by the county, for such new Tractor, the county paying the difference in exchange, to be used upon the public roads of said county. Any such bids accepted, shall be subject to 10 days trial of such new tractor upon the roads of said county, and all bids shall be addressed to the County Judge of said county, and shall be marked "sealed bids" and bids not so marked shall not be considered. ICE PLANT READY FOR BUSINESS HERE

The City Ice plant, we understand is completed, and the process of making ice was begun Wednesday. It will probably be Saturday or Monday, however, before sufficient ice will have been made to begin the sale of it.

The plant contains 168 cans, the capacity of each being 300 lbs of ice. Running all the time, the plant will turn out ten tons of ice per day or seven blocks every two hours. City officials say that there have already been many calls for ice, and the indications are that the demand will equal the capacity of the plant.

E. L. Hill Jr. of the News force, Mrs. Hill and Berta Hill were Sunday visitors in Brownfield.

TEST FOR OIL NEAR CEDAR LAKE NOW UNDER WAY

The arrangements for the drilling of a test well for oil near Cedar Lake in Gaines county are being completed, material already being on the ground.

The test will be made on the M. C. Lindsey's ranch about 20 miles southeast of Seagraves. A standard rig will be used in making the test, which contract calls for a depth of 3250 feet if oil isn't found in paying quantities at a lesser depth.

The well will be spudded in the last of the month, and a big barbecue will be staged at that time, particulars of which should be found out and backed by all Gaines county citizens, as the test is on Gaines county soil.—Seagraves Signal.

LAMESA METHODISTS PREPARE TO BUILD CHURCH

Contractor H. C. Allen has a force of workmen busy raising the Methodist Church building. The structure will be torn down and the lumber stacked and probably some of it will be used in the rough places in the new church building.

It was first decided to move the building off the lots that it has been occupying and keep it in shape for use until the new building could be finished, but it was found that it would be unwise to move it and it was then decided to have the old building razed in order to clear the lot for the erection of the new brick building.

We are informed that work will be started on the evacuation for the basement of the brick building as soon as the old house has been gotten out of the way.

The Methodist folk plan to build a house of worship that will be an honor to the God that we all serve and a credit to Lamesa and Dawson county.—Dawson Co. Journal.

SOUTH WARD ITEMS

Miss Allamie Clements the primary teacher, is back again. She was absent from school two days last week on account of sickness. Miss Melvina Inman acted as a substitute.

Miss Loraine Hunt entertained the young folks of this community with a party Friday night. Every one reports a very enjoyable evening and we hope that Miss Hunt will decide to give us another party soon.

Misses Oleta, Clover Nell and Cliffie Dell Snyder are with us again after about two months absence on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Morris and family visited relatives in Lamesa Saturday night and Sunday.

Sunday school and prayer meeting were well attended Sunday and Sunday night. We have a nice Sunday School and fine prayer meeting and we extend a hearty welcome to all to come and join us. We need and want you.

Several people from this community attended church at Midway Saturday night and Sunday morning, also singing Sunday afternoon.

CORRECT DOPE

W. J. Crouch dropped into the News office Monday and stated that he saw this bit of doggerel on a car that passed his home the other day eastward bound:

JACK REAVES IS NOW A BROWNFIELD BOOSTER

Jack Reaves, who resided here for several years, was here from Brownfield Monday on his way to Sweetwater for a few days visit. Jack says that they began raising their old court house Monday morning preparatory to erecting a splendid new building. He also says that Brownfield recently dug a big well and found more water than they know what to do with over there. He declares that the town is growing like an oil town and he has his booting clothes on. Jack is a booster for his home town and Brownfield was another good citizen when he located there. But what we can't understand is why he ever left Tahoka.

Wash Johnson was here from Three Lakes Monday making arrangements to sell the old school building at Three Lakes district. The people of this enterprising district have recently completed one of the best rural school buildings in the state and they celebrated the event with a nice program a short time ago. Judge Maddox of Tahoka was the orator of the occasion.
