Work Already Started On New Rodeo Arena

Penny Pennington arrived here Monday from Menard and with the help of Commissioner Kinser, staked off lines for the rodeo arena.

Tuesday morning saw Horace Linthicum and Pennington operating a post hole digger for the fence around the arena. When asked about material, Pennington said there was plenty of pipe on hand for the arena and pens, but more material will be needed when time comes to start work on a grandstand.

Linthicum and Kinser both said offers are being received for much more pipe, both from oil companies as well as ranchers.

Pennington has been driving over each day from Menard, but said he would like to rent a small furnished apartment here while construction is proceeding.

Fence posts will be 7½-foot steel pipe set in concrete. A ready-mix outfit from San Angelo will be here to run the concrete. Perhaps in a day or two visitors will be able to see the outlines of the large arena.

School Classes Set Two Days Next Week

School administrators have announced that there will be just two days of classes next week. Students will go to school Monday and Tuesday, and Tuesday afternoon will dismiss for the remainder of the week.

Also on Tuesday afternoon the kindergarten and first three elementary grades will have their Easter egg hunts.

Wednesday the Eagle trackmen will host the District 8A track meet. This is more fully described in an article on page 5.

The remainder of the week will be Easter holidays. Students will go back to classes on Tuesday morning, April 8th.

Post Script

The Abilene Wrestling Club is still talking about the attendance they had here in Eldorado last week.

Sunday night I tuned in on their wrestling program on Channel 3 from Abilene. They had several matches which again included the Infernos and Ricky Romero who were on the card here.

Several times during the program the announcer mentioned the terrific crowd they had had at Eldorado. Apparently the Abilene Club was surprised and pleased with the show here, and no doubt they will be willing to come here again if invited.

The day after the match here last week I heard from some of the JC's that they were enthusiastic too about the show and some were speculating about a return match some time in the summer where it could be held out of doors—and provide unlimited space for spectators.

The old gym could only hold 1,000 and it was filled to capacity. Some are wondering if it could be staged on a football field or perhaps on the new future roping arena.

The JC's here are already talking about it.

—ps—

And speaking about the new roping arena, I learned last week that Penny Pennington would be here Monday to start work on the facility.

About 5:30 Monday evening I drove out to the old football field and I found that stakes had been driven in all over the grounds and that work had already been started that day. What I don't know about roping arenas would fill many volumes, but Monday night I talked with County Commissioner Weatherly Kinser, a chief booster for the arena, and the way he said it was that they are planning on the "best-dam" arena anywhere in this part of Texas!

I'll buy that, and I heartily endorse their plans.

We have devoted considerable space on this page to the three separate local elections coming up on the first Saturday in April.

We'd like to point out to city voters that when you vote at the fire hall, don't forget to go across the street to the Memorial Building and vote for the hospital directors.

There is no contest in that election—just three directors who are up for re-election. These three will be legally elected if they were to receive no more than a dozen votes. So you might wonder why should you go to the trouble to stop by and vote at all.

But if you are proud of our new hospital then you should show your appreciation to these three who have already given two years of unpaid time to it.

A 250-vote endorsement would be much better than 25.

—ps—

In next week's Success issue we will carry Easter greeting ads from a number of local merchants.

Also, church pastors and their reporters are invited to turn in news of their plans for Easter.

Such things should be turned in no later than Monday.

Interest Being Generated In April 5 Local Elections

In contrast to most local elections where a slate of candidates are unopposed, the coming April 5th elections are providing several options which are beginning to generate interest and may bring out a respectable vote. In the city election there is a race for the office of Mayor, and in the county school trustee election there is a lively write-in campaign under way. This should be enough to bring out a good vote as there is a considerable amount of quiet politicking already going on. If you registered to vote in January and expect to vote April 5, following are the three places you must go to exercise your privilege:

City

City election will be held at the fire hall building Saturday, April 5 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. The major contest here is for the office of mayor in which Eldon Calk is running for re-election, with R. V. Sheppard as his opponent.

Also two, Granvil Hext and Jimmy Doyle, are on the ballot for aldermen without opposition.

Judges for this election will be Margaret Frost and Ethel Etheredge, who may select one or more assistants.

Absentee voting is being provided ed in this election up to and including Tuesday, April 1st, at the City Hall. (Not at the County Clerk's office).

The school election will be held in the high school building on Saturday, April 5 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Judges will be Bob McWhorter and W. R. Bearce, who will select their own assistants.

In this election it is important that the voter understands he is voting for TWO separate sets of trustees. One is for trustees for the Schleicher County Independent School District, and the other is for trustees for the County School Trustee. Voters will be handed three separate ballots.

Independent School Dist.

The names of Jimmy Martin, Robert Bradley and Bob Sykes are on the ballot for re-election as trustees for the Independent School District. They are unopposed.

County Trustee

There are two separate ballots—one for "County Trustee At Large" and another ballot for "County Trustee from Precinct One."

Ballots were printed the day after the deadline for filing. Ballot for Trustee at Large contains the name of Mrs. Edwin Jackson, Sr., while ballot for Trustee Precinct One has Raymond Hall as candidate.

Write-Ins

Since then in paid notices in this paper Henry Speck Jr., and Jim Cawley have come out as candidates on the write-in route.

Both claim they were denied place on the ballot due to a misunderstanding about deadline for filing.

Speck who is the present incumbent is asking to be returned (by write-in) to his present spot as trustee from Precinct One.

Cawley, a former member, has announced his write-in candidacy for member-at-large.

In the resulting confusion, Mrs. Jackson has decided to withdraw as a candidate and this paper carries her public notice to that effect. But her name remains on the ballot.

Hospital

Election for three directors for Schleicher County Hospital District will be held in the Memorial Building during the usual hours from 8:00 a.m. until 7:00.

Three directors, Elton McGinnes, Oran Enoch and Ed Meador are on the ballot for re-election.

T. R. Spence will be election judge and will select his assistants.

Absentee

Anyone wishing to vote absentee in these races can do so at the County Clerk's office up through Tuesday, April 1st.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

The other morning on my way in to town I had a little car trouble. A clamp on a water hose came loose and I steam sprayed the highway for about a half a mile before I saw what was going on through the rear view mirror. No red light came on but I knew better than to risk anything so I pulled up off the pavement and settled down for a waiting spell. It was one of those cold mornings and I really wasn't exactly snug.

I waited and waited. Finally Vera Fay Bradshaw and her little one came by, stopped and offered help but I didn't want to freeze my neighbor so I waved her on, with many thanks.

I waited some more and then started really looking hard in the rear view mirror. Finally out of the mist appeared a white pick-up; good Bob Joyce in a good Northern Natural Gas pick up.

Bob stopped, of course, checked the trouble and said he would go for water. I was at the intersection of Farm to Market and Number 29 and Bob had to go all the way back to the plant for containers which would hold enough water to do any good. He was even thoughtful enough to find a plastic jug, cut the bottom out and make a funnel because he knew half the water would blow away during the pouring process. As you have already gathered I was glad to see Bob and very grateful for his help.

Actually this is an open letter to Northern Natural—please don't automate. I never have seen a machine that will fix a clamp, go after water, and fill a radiator with a home made funnel.

Not too many weeks ago I invited readers to share with you their slick tricks for house keeping chores. I had some replies and about the most clever came from a friend whom I shall not identify. (I have not cleared with her the right to use her name.)

She says that for a long time she has done well by following Phyllis Diller's advice on ironing: If you leave any item in the basket long enough it will be outgrown and there goes the need to iron it. Or, if that doesn't work, she suggests burying it in the back yard.

My unidentified correspondent with a tremendous sense of humor ends her note with, "I need all the help you can offer."

I doubt it. I would not want to spoil a system going so well by offering some kind of dry, uninspired suggestion that would possibly be calculated to dry up a wonderful imagination.

Mrs. Lewis Stockton of Sonora offered this excellent idea and said that it was one of her favorite time and work savers.

Mrs. Stockton keeps a flat box of facial tissue in a kitchen cabinet drawer. Marvelous for greasing muffin tins, cookie sheets, or for wiping excess fat from cooking utensils and other small swiping jobs.

Is a vitamin a day insurance of good health? Not necessarily.

Vitamins are needed for good health, but excessive amounts can be dangerous. When daily food intake is adequate, Frances Reasonover, Extension nutritionist, says you don't need to take vitamin pills.

Individuals differ in the amounts and types of vitamins needed and a doctor can prescribe the type to suit individual needs. The Texas A&M University specialist advises seeing a physician if you feel you need vitamins.

Excess amounts of Vitamins B and C are easily disposed of by the body without harm. However, too much Vitamins A and D can be dangerous because the body has no way of getting rid of excess.

Good food sources of Vitamin A are liver, egg yolk, dark green and yellow vegetables, deep yellow fruits, whole milk, cheddar-type cheese and ice cream. Miss Reasonover notes that most people do not get enough Vitamin A.

Symptoms of excessive intakes of Vitamin A include fatigue, abdominal discomfort, bone and joint pain, loss of body hair, headaches and yellowing of skin.

Excessive Vitamin D leads to nausea, frequent urination and diarrhea. It can also cause weakness and depression, explains Miss Reasonover.

Foods high in Vitamin D are fish liver oils, egg yolks, liver and milk fortified with Vitamin D.

A well-balanced diet is the best insurance for good health, emphasizes the Extension specialist.

The man was more than a little annoyed when a neighbor telephoned at 3:00 a.m. and complained, "Your dog is barking so loudly I can't sleep." The neighbor hung up before he could protest.

The following morning at 3:00 he called his neighbor and said, "I don't have a dog."

died in a Dallas hospital Friday at age 78. Survivors include 6 sons,

Attend Firemen's Meet
In Boerne Recently

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer West were in Boerne, Texas Sunday, March 23rd for a Winter Garden Firemen's Association meeting.

It was the first convention for Boerne to have ever had, and was an exceptional one, in all phases,
with the entire town and community cooperating.

Memorial services under the direction of Chief W. E. (Bill) Zorn
of Del Rio was most impressive, being held at Benedictine Convent with the choir of sisters and members, and the Boerne Fire Dept. Chaplain, Msgr. Gus Staff, participating. Many state officers from the Association and Auxiliary were present. Palmer and Blanche are past presidents of the Texas
State Firemen's and Fire Marshals
Assn. and the Texas Firemen's Auxiliary.

Austin, Tex.—Gov. Preston Smith
called on the Legislature to patch up a $71 million hole in his $261 million new revenue program by raising the cigarette tax to 15 cents a pack and placing a one-half of one per cent gross receipts levy on chemical producers.

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin's opinion holding unconstitutional Smith's proposal to apply most school land mineral lease income to current educational operations
made supplemental recommendations necessary.

While suggesting alternative revenues, Smith made two other points:

—He is having nothing to do with
"one-year budgeting" as recommended by former Gov. John Connally in 1967 as a device to postpone a tax bill.

—"Serious talk" is being heard in favor of a corporate profits tax, and the day when one will be necessary may not be too long off, although he is not urging one now.

Smith's revenue package calls for placing alcoholic beverages and personal services (like laundry, repairs, parking and cable TV) under the 3% state sales tax. He emphasized he is dead serious about slapping a $10 state surcharge on moving traffic violation fines, and he would raise the tobacco products tax to ratios of a decade ago.
He also recommends the state sales tax be applied to each lease of rental equipment as well as the original purchase price.

Smith originally asked a three-cent a pack hike in the cigarette tax. Now, he wants to go to four cents (which would raise an additional $26 million). The gross receipts levy on "those producing chemical products" is estimated to bring in $45 million.

Reaction to the alternative proposals varied widely. Smith was commended for adding a business tax to his all-consumer program of last month, but some lawmakers didn't like singling out one industry.

House Speaker Gus Mutscher
said he is hopeful of early hearings by the Revenue and Taxation
Committee on a "major" tax bill.

Legislature Plows On

At the half-way mark of the 61st
legislative session, the House
speeded up and the Senate slowed down.

Among major measures advanced by the House were bills to strengthen the governor's power to quell riots and to create a new University of Texas branch in San Antonio.

Other measures increased teacher retirement benefits, broadened resident tuition privileges to college students from military families, provided for distributing state available school fund money
on the basis of scholastic population (instead of average daily attendance), changed the name of James Connally Technical Institute
near Waco to Texas State Technical Institute and authorized procedure for dissolving 492 inactive water districts.

Creation of a separate commission for rehabilitation services now has approval of both houses, as have bills to place West Texas State University under a separate board of regents and to permit certain types of metal-studded snow tires on highways. A House resolution would make blue topaz the official Texas gem and petrified
hardwood the official stone.

Senate passed 53 local bills on a special calendar for non-controversial matters with limited application, but bogged down for hours
over the measure to create a state commission to administer a memorial to the late President John F.
Kennedy. Senate gave tentative approval to allowing city bus drivers taken under municipal transit systems before 1964 to retain collective bargaining benefits they had as union members.

Governor Smith signed half a dozen measures including a campus riot control bill and major improvements in workmen's compensation legislation.

Committees At Work

Senate Labor and Managment Committee gave three-to-two approval to $1.25 an hour state minimum wage law. Senate Jurisprudence Committee endorsed the bill to authorize radio and television to carry official legal notices and advertisements—but not those involving land descriptions.

Senate Youth Affairs Committee heard testimony on SB 281 by Sen. Jack Hightower of Vernon that would up the age state courts could declare children dependent from 16 to 18. His bill also forces parents of children under 18 to provide support.

In the Senate Water and Conservation Committee, the $3.5 billion Texas Water Plan was voted favorably, with little debate and less ceremony. The plan is included in eight Senate bills sponsored by Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells.

American Indians appeared before the Senate Affairs Committee to favor a bill to help them retain their right to use peyote in their religious rites. Bill was sent back to the Senate with a favorable report.

Senate Jurisprudence Committee
heard bills to increase maximum punishment for murder with malice and a trespass bill; both sent to subcommittee.

Senate State Affairs Committee
heard Sen. Charles Wilson's bill to create a Texas Public Utilities Commission to regulate public utilities.
More testimony is to come on that bill.

Sen. Don Kennard's package of eight conservation bills got consideration from the Senate Parks & Wildlife Committee. Three were sent to the Senate and the rest were sent to a subcommittee.

House State Affairs Committee
gave a favorable ear to a bill that would turn over the Texas State Exhibits Building at HemisFair '68
to the University of Texas System.
Another bill to force the building and its approximate $850,000 annual upkeep on the City of San Antonio got a cold reception. Both were sent to subcommittees.

Forty members of the Ft. Worth Preservation Committee appeared before the House Parks and Wildlife Committee to favor a bill that would force the highway department or any other state agency to hold a public hearing before going ahead with any condemnation proceedings of historic or park lands.

In the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee, HB 72 by Rep.
Glenn Kothmann to raise the penalty for possession of LSD to a felony offense was sent to subcommittee.

House Governmental Affairs and Efficiency Committee sent to subcommittee HB 584 by Rep. Dave Finney to give domestic companies an advantage over foreign firms in acquiring state contracts.

In the House Judiciary Committee, HB 581 by Rep. C. L. Ray, Jr. of Marshall that requires non-profit agencies dealing in education to give full disclosure of the way they use money annually was sent to subcommittee.

Oil Allowable Up

Railroad Commission set for April the highest oil allowable
since the Mid-East crisis of 1967—49.9% of potential.

This action gave substance to the optimistic predictions of "a good year" for oil industry.

Market demand next month will permit maximum production of 3,588,447 barrels a day, 220,279
more than for March which operated under 45.6% allowable.

Eight of 13 major producers asked for bigger output, four were satisfied with the March level, and only one requested less.

Attorney General's Opinions

Bill to authorize cities to pay dues to Texas Municipal League is constitutional, Attorney General Martin has held. He added that the expenditure would be for public purpose and therefore proper. In effect, most cities already contribute to the league.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

—Former Governor Connally's reappointment of Randall Jackson of Abilene as a member of the State
Securities Board was premature.
His term expired when Connally's term expired. Governor Smith said he will make a new appointment,
or reappoint Jackson.

—Held unconstitutional taking of royalties from state-owned submerged lands for current school operations. (Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association replied question is so technical as to be "esoteric" and urged Martin to reconsider.)

—Informed Calhoun County it has no authority to levy local tax on shell taken by permit from state public waters and removed to another county. Only tax possible, he said, is ad valorem levy on shell sold but remaining in county on January 1.

Welfare Change Explained

State Welfare Department is busily explaining its new system of calculating aid grants (mainly to needy families with dependent children). Adjusted formula goes into effect May 1. It is being presented to beneficiaries in meetings over the state.

Commissioner Burton G. Hackney said the switch had to be made because voters last year turned down an increase in the welfare ceiling from $60 million to $75 million.

Program contemplates calculating "total recognizable needs" of beneficiaries and allotting state payments of about half this amount to AFDC families. Aged, blind and disabled will be little affected.

Preliminary estimates indicate about 11,000 families will get more money, 20,000 will get less, and 2,500 will be cut off altogether.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Ting Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Part of spring planning includes checking farm equipment and machinery for needed repairs before the planting season starts.

You can avoid production headaches and prevent accidents if you make the needed repairs and replace worn parts before planting starts. Not only is it dangerous to operate faulty equipment, but sometimes a breakdown will indirectly lead to a serious accident.

Inspect, repair, and service implements you plan to use this Spring. Check your tractor, plows, disks, cultivators, and planters to be sure that seats, brakes, clutches, bearings, and other parts are in good condition.

After replacing worn parts, be sure that all exposed, revolving parts, are properly shielded. Make sure hitches are in good condition. Provide lighting on equipment if you plan to move implements on public highways or work at night.

Check fuel lines and the wiring system. Equip trucks with fire extinguishers. Remove grease, dirt and trash from platforms and steps so that you have safe footing when you operate your equipment.

Every minute you are angry, you lose sixty seconds of happiness.

Home vegetable gardening can be profitable as well as enjoyable. But, it's a good idea to follow a plan if you want maximum production and the best possible use of the space available.

A plan not only helps you determine the size of the garden, but also is a big aid in selecting the kinds of vegetables which will give the longest harvesting season.

The size of the garden will of course depend upon the space available and also upon the number in the family and the amount of time which can be devoted to caring for the garden. Another factor will also be the amount of vegetables you plan to can, freeze or store.

As an aid to home vegetable gardeners, my office has available a planning guide which not only lists vegetable varieties recommended for use in Texas, but also information on planting dates, planting suggestions, expected production and an approximation of the plantings required to meet the needs of an individual for both fresh or stored vegetables.

Let us be thankful for the courage that was always ours, and pray for the wisdom that we never had.

Whether building a flower bed, establishing a lawn, or filling in low spots in the yard be sure you know the source of the soil being used. Soil from an unknown source while low in price can be costly in the long run.

Many homeowners have found that bringing in topsoil adds to their gardening problems with the addition of unwanted weeds, insects, and diseases. Rich looking lake-bottom soils are frequently infested with nutgrass, bermudagrass, and other hard-to-kill weeds as well as being a source of nematode infection.

These pests may completely destroy lawns, flower beds, and other garden plants. The homeowner is then forced to spend extra money for chemicals to control the pests and re-establish the plants.

Investigating your soil source can pay big dividends in the future.

To err is human, but if the eraser wears out before the pencil you are over doing it.

The Annual Sheep Field Day is set for April 3rd, one week from today, at the Experiment Station south of Sonora.

Morning inspection and tour of station facilities will be from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon, at which time barbecue will be sold by Sutton County 4-H Club.

The afternoon session will be held 1:00 to 2:30 p.m. Included will be Jimmy Powell, president of the American Wool Growers Association, who will give a talk on A Look at the Sheep Industry.

It will start with the chili and bean supper at 5:30 in the cafeteria. At 6:30 the queen and king winners and talent show will be in the auditorium. Each class and grade will have a king and queen and a talent contestant. Prizes will be given to the top talent. The king and queens will be wearing dress clothes. Some suggestions already made have been risors for the choral and band groups, a marquee for the school activities.

Dr. Tracy To Preach Sunday For Baptists

Dr. Nat Tracy, professor of Bible at Howard Payne college at Brownwood, will preach this Sunday at the 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. services at the First Baptist church.

The Rev. Kenneth Vaughan, pastor, will be preaching at Revival Services at the Vine Avenue Baptist Church in Odessa.

Mrs. John Kempsey and son of Lometa, Texas were week end visitors with Mrs. Bertha Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wimer spent the week end at their cabin at Lake Buchanan, and were met there by the Kenneth Pennington family of Austin.

Invoking Federal laws against those who engage in campus riots and other disrupting tactics, was promised last week by President Nixon.

The President—who recently commended the president of Notre Dame for saying he would suspend or expel any student who violated state laws or campus rules—let it be known that hereafter any student who takes part in a violent action on a college campus will forfeit any right to student loans and/or grants. This has been in the law two years, but has not been enforced.

At the same time, the Attorney General promised to use all facilities at his command to prosecute trouble-makers who cross state lines to incite riots or other violence.

lence. That's been in the law for two years.

In the meantime, on scores of campuses student radicals and black militants continued their senseless battle against organized authority. Thus far only a few of the school officials involved have shown any courage or willingness to crack down on the culprits. All they have to do is expel them and then if they hang around, have the police come in and drag them off.

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), with chapters in many of the colleges, harbors anarchists and spearheads a good many of the campus disruptions. That group has the hammer and sickle written all over it. The SDS is the most recent—and the most brazen—of a long series of pro-Communist student organizations, committed to the destruction of the American educational system and to other reddish objectives.

More of the states, including Texas, are beefing up their laws to better deal with these crackpots. In Wisconsin the University's Board of Regents recently cut the percentage of nonresident students from 25 to 15% of their enrollment. They hope this will keep some of the radicals out.

Black Power and other radical student behavior has been likened to the conduct of the blacks in the Conco after Belgium gave them their independence four or five years ago. For a time wholesale criminal activity was the order of the day. Observers at the time claimed that outburst revealed ignorance and low-level advancement in a civilized society. We wonder how those same observers would explain Berkeley, Columbia, Rutgers, Howard, San Francisco State, and scores of others where civilization is supposed to flourish.

Notice of Write-In Candidacy For County School Board of Trustees

I hereby solicit the support and votes of the residents of Precinct 1 of Schleicher County on April 5, 1969, on my bid for the position of trustee on the County School Board.

As a result of a misunderstanding as to the final filing date for placing the names of candidates on the ballot, I am unfortunately forced to submit my candidacy on a write-in basis.

The fact that I am now a member as well as president of the present County School Board, the voters will have the opportunity to return an experienced and well qualified official to the County School Board for another term.

SPRING JUBILEE NEW APRIL 12-20 FEATURE AT FAIR PARK IN DALLAS

A BLACK-EYED MARTHA (Dawson is this flower child's last name) peers from underneath an outsized sunflower while Dana and Deborah Millet simply look at the camera—all in anticipation of the Spring Jubilee April 12-20 at Fair Park in Dallas. The entirely new nine-day spring event will combine the annual Flower and Garden Show, opening of the big summer Midway season, Jubilee Nights in the Cotton Bowl, free shows and exhibits, concerts and entertainment, ice skating, classic and antique automobiles, Artists' Market, an exciting bake-off with big prizes to winners, all activities in addition to specially planned spring landscaping and lighting throughout the park.

New Furniture Idea Adds Practical Elegance

Designed for apartments, homes and even offices, wall system furniture particularly is popular among young homemakers who may start with a basic unit and expand it as needs suggest and income permits.

These space savers can be tucked into a cozy corner or expanded across a wide wall. Four from the Wallmakers Division of David Page, Inc., Los Angeles, have exterior and interior surfaces covered in Tartan-Clad vinyl veneer.

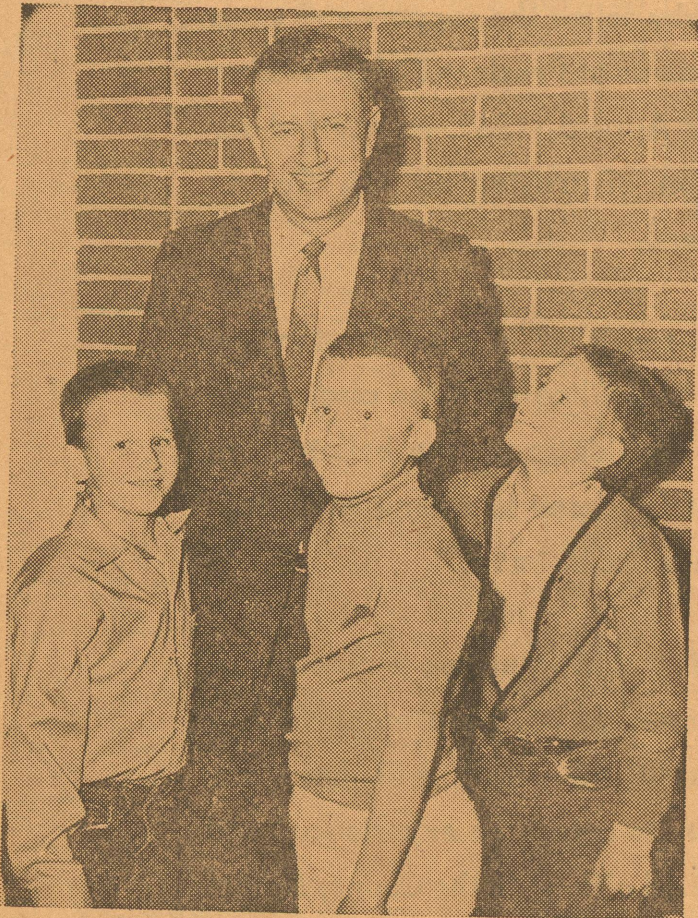

Scratch resistant, this finish is impervious to most household chemicals and may be cleaned with soap and water. Equally as important, says furniture designer Bruce Bertz, it brings quality woodgrain and other decorative patterns within budget range of many more homemakers.

Since color and pattern are controlled scientifically, and the finish resists fading, this means that "a piece purchased five years from now will look like part of the original set," says Bertz.

Wallmaker groups include Campaign Chest, finished in an exotic teak pattern and styled with sharp, military lines and brass accents; Spanish, dark oak pattern with elegantly carved doors and cabinet fronts; Bamboo, yellow or white brustones in a subtle mixture of antique and Oriental styling, and Contemporary, crisp lines finished in walnut pattern.

System pieces include book and magazine shelves, desks, cabinets and dressers. Only imagination limits the combination, Bertz says.

State Senator Jack Hightower of Vernon visits with children at the Masonic Home and School in Fort Worth following his talk during Public Schools Week. Senator Hightower, who has served as Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of Texas, has sponsored visits by the Masonic Home children to the State Capital each year. Senator Hightower is serving on the Senate Education Committee and the Committee on Youth Affairs. He talked to several hundred persons on "the crisis in public education," and urged that citizens take a full-time, active interest in the affairs of the public education system.

Notice of Write-In Candidacy For County School Board of Trustees

In announcing my write-in candidacy for Member-At-Large of the Board of County School Trustees I would like to state some of the reasons why I am a candidate.

1. Due to an APPARENT lack of proper communications a public notice of the election was not placed in the local paper AS CUSTOMARY and therefore I was unaware of the required filing date.

2. I believe, as do many of the rural tax payers who have asked me to consider being a candidate, that a majority of the board members should reside outside the city limits since the major duty of the County School Board is to route the school buses and such routing directly affects the parents and children who ride the buses each day.

3. Although her name will appear on the ballot, it is learned that Mrs. Edwin Jackson, Sr., has since withdrawn. I feel that in view of my past experience on the County School Board I am qualified and will do the job to the best very best of my ability.

Therefore I earnestly solicit your write-in vote and support.
