Top Athletes to Regional Meet

Some of Wellington High School's top athletes will be in Regional UIL competition in Lubbock Thursday and Friday, April 24 and 25.

In tennis, two boys doubles teams and the singles champion will represent Wellington. These include Lee Templeton, who defeated a young man from Memphis to win the District 2-A title.

Wellington High School had both the first and second place boys doubles teams, and both will play in regional. The 2-A championship team is made up of Sammy Gonzales and George Brewer. The runners up are Richard Sims and Randall Sims.

Six young men qualified for the regional UIL track events. Running the 440 yard relay will be Dan Ford, Jessie Davis, Paul Hanna and Shane Tarver. They placed second in district competition, behind Memphis. Their time was 44.3.

Cliff Pennon, second in the 2-A 120 High Hurdles had

Cablecom Asks Renewal of Its Franchise

The City Council Monday night, April 21, heard a request from Cablecom General, Inc., for a renewal of its franchise to furnish cable television to Wellington for a 15 year period.

At the same time, Wilbur Hammack, area manager, explained the three additional cable-channels that will be added, including an educational channel.

Also in the Monday night meeting, Mayor Billy Hatch and council members Tom Wilkins and Gus Barton were sworn in for second terms in office. Paul Spillman administered the oath of office.

Mayor Hatch also announced the resignation of Policeman Mike Gilmore effective at the end of a week's vacation due him. Mr. Gilmore is going to work for West Texas Utilities Company at Matador, the mayor said.

Manager of the swimming pool this summer will be Ronny Glenn, member of the Wellington School coaching staff. City Manager Glen Taylor told the group. Marian Airpark Pool will open about June 1, it will be cleaned up and repairs will be made, the city manager

Quail Baptist Opens Youth Revival Thursday

The Youth Revival at Quail Baptist Church will be held Friday through Sunday, April 25, 26 and 27, the Rev. Darrell Feemster, pastor, has announced.

Services Friday and Saturday will begin at 7:30 p.m. with fellowship for the youth afterwards. Sunday services will be at 11:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Wiley Harwell of Dalhart will be the visiting evangelist. He is currently a student at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview.

Gary Wilcox, minister of youth and music at First Baptist Church, Lazbuddy, will direct the music. He is also a student at Wayland. He and his wife are members of the touring group, "Spirit of America Singers."

The public is invited to attend.

JOHN ROBERTS AND HIS PENNIES

Fifty-Thousand Pennies Go To Bank in a Wheelbarrow

When Johnny Roberts made a $500 deposit in City State Bank Tuesday morning, April 22, it was not quite the conventional transaction.

The money, all in pennies, arrived at the bank in a brand new wheel barrow, which Mr. Roberts pushed up to the teller's window.

He has collected these pennies, all 50,000 of them, in 10 months, from June 20, 1974 to April 20. They were neatly packaged in money wrappers he had acquired at the bank—one thousand rolls.

The wheelbarrow-load of pennies weighed 375 pounds. Mr. Roberts intended to push them from his house on East Avenue to the bank. To his surprise, the weight was such that he couldn't do this. He had to bring them part of the way in a pickup.

He also discovered that $100 of pennies weighs 75 pounds.

"I had a lot of fun," Mr. Roberts remarked. The pennies were collected at Ft. Worth, Dallas, Wichita Falls, Plano, Childress and Shamrock as well as Wellington.

Mr. Roberts retired a few years ago as station agent for the Fort Worth and Denver

Railway, a company he had worked for since he was a young man.

He came here in the mid-1930s from Chillicothe, where he held a similar position. He and Mrs. Roberts live at 1306 East Avenue.

Girls Softball Group to Meet Saturday at 2:00

County women interested in playing slow-pitch softball this summer will meet for a second time Saturday, April 26 at 2 p.m. at Ellison Park, Vicki Black, spokesman for the group said.

Two teams of young women were organized at a meeting last week. Teenage women who wish to play on a team should contact Carol Ann Daves by Saturday.

Commissioners Up Tax Valuations 20 Percent

The commissioners court voted Monday night, April 21, to increase property tax valuations for taxing purposes for the coming year, hoping to relieve to some extent the tight financial situation the county is in.

Announcement of the action was made by County Judge Zook Thomas Tuesday.

"We have been using 25 per cent of the fair market value to set tax valuations. We will raise this to 30 per cent of the fair market value," said Judge Thomas.

This will amount to an increase of about 20 per cent and should bring the county an estimated $22,000 additional revenue, according to the county judge.

The county tax rate of $1.25 per $100 valuation is already the maximum allowed by law.

The increase in valuation was necessary because of the increased cost of materials and supplies, Judge Thomas pointed out.

"We just can't operate on the money we have been taking in. Even with this additional money, we will have to curtail some of our spending next year," he declared.

As an example of increased expenses, Judge Thomas said the cost of parts and repairs have more than tripled; fuel prices have doubled or more. "We are on a fixed income, and it has become impossible to pay our bills," he declared.

The current property valuations for the county are approximately $11,600,000. Judge Thomas said Tuesday morning that there had not been an opportunity to set up the new valuations.

It was also pointed out that the drop in oil and gas production each year cuts revenue, although this is offset somewhat by the increase in value.

"We definitely need the money the increased valuation will bring. This year we will exceed our budget, although we may have a surplus in some of the funds that can even this out," the county judge explained.

Top Ranking WHS Graduates Named

Betty Burba is the valedictorian of the 1975 Wellington High School graduating class, Melvin Cardwell, principal, announced this week.

The salutatorian is Sallie Tarver.

Betty, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Burba, had a scholastic average of 96.156, while Sallie, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tarver, is graduating with an average of 92.975. Both girls carry on a number of extra curricular activities relating both to the school and the community.

The remaining students who make up the top quarter of the class also were announced by Mr. Cardwell. These are listed alphabetically, Jenny Earnest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fulcher; Kathy Kersten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kersten; Geney Morrow, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Gene Morrow; Jim Bob Nall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nall; Lucy Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sullivan; and Robert Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf.

There are 29 students in this year's graduating class, one of the smallest in many years. It is followed, however, by a junior class that presently numbers almost 50.

School Bands To Be Heard in Pops Concert

Four Wellington High School bands will be heard in the fifteenth annual Pops Concert Tuesday evening, May 5, the Director, Gary Wofford, announced.

It will be presented in Bura Handley Community Center at 8:00 p.m.

Participating will be That Skyrocket Band, the Junior High Band, the Elementary School band and the High School Stage Band.

The conventional pops format will be carried out, Mr. Wofford said. Sandwiches and pop will be sold, with tables set up so the audience can eat while they listen. The usual cake auction will again be featured.

Mr. Wofford added that complete plans will be announced next week.

Banquet Will Honor That Skyrocket Band

The annual banquet honoring That Skyrocket Band will be given Saturday, April 26, by the Band Parents Club. It will be in the Elementary Cafeteria beginning at 8:00 p.m., according to Gary Wofford, director.

Following the dinner, new band officers will be introduced, as will incoming officers of the Band Parents Club.

Winners of the two highest awards given band students will be announced.

First of these is the Arion Award, a national honor which goes to only one band student in each school. The recipient must be a senior and have an outstanding record in all subjects as well as in band. Leadership qualities are considered.

That Skyrocket Bandsman, a local award, will be given. Juniors and seniors are eligible and qualifications are similar to those of the Arion Award. Mr. Wofford said.

Ping Pong Tourney Entry Deadline Set

The first ping pong tournament to be held here is scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, May 12 and 13, starting at 5:00 p.m. each day. Beta Club of Wellington High School is the sponsor.

This will be held in the school gymnasium.

There will be divisions for both men and women. In addition, there will be three classes, fifth through eighth grades, ninth through 12 grades, and the adult division. An entry fee of $2.00 per person will be charged and entry blanks can be secured at the high school.

"Anyone from the entire area is invited to participate," a Beta representative said. The deadline for entering is Friday, April 25.

All those participating must wear tennis shoes while playing. Due to existing UIL rules, trophies cannot be given, but ribbons will be awarded to first and second place winners, Beta members said.

Norwood Lions to Hold Volleyball Tournament

Samnorwood Lions are sponsoring a four-day volleyball tournament in which approximately 30 teams will participate.

Voters Approve Both Proposed Amendments

Collingsworth County voters approved both proposed constitutional amendments by almost two-to-one margins Tuesday, April 22.

The first amendment, which would consolidate state and local retirement systems and programs, carried 238 to 129.

The second amendment, proposing a pay increase for members of the Legislature, was approved 224 to 144.

Voting was unusually light, with only about 375 people appearing at the poles.

Both amendments failed to carry in two boxes, No. 7, Bura Handley Community Center, and No. 8, Quail, although the vote was close.

Kenneth Martindale, Lions president, announced plans.

The tournament will get under way Tuesday, April 29. There will be no games Wednesday, but play will resume Thursday and continue Friday and Saturday, May 1, 2 and 3.

Games will start at 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, Thursday and Friday and continue until about 10:30 p.m.

Finals play Saturday will start about 4:30 and run until approximately 11:00 p.m., Mr. Martindale said.

Trophies or plaques will go to winners of first, second third and consolation places in both the men's and women's divisions.

Norwood Lions Club members will be in charge of all phases of the tournament, running the clock, judges, the gate, concessions, etc.

Wellington men's teams due to play include the Six Shooters, No Names and Yoyos. Women's teams will be Wellington State No. 1, Wellington State No. 2, Wellington Livestock Dollies and the Rookies.

Other county teams will include the Samnorwood Jokers and the Lutie Bunch, both men's teams. Women's teams will be Samnorwood Rickracks and Samnorwood Grannies.

The remaining teams will come from Shamrock, McLean and other near-by points.

Bellringer Drive Planned at Dodson

Mental Health Chairperson for Dodson, Mrs. B.B. Martin, announced that Bellringer workers will go house-to-house during May.

"We are looking forward to a highly successful drive this year," said Mrs. Martin. Donations will benefit the Texas Association for Mental Health, a voluntary organization working to promote mental health.

Mrs. Martin offered these facts about mental illness:

* Mental illness affects more Americans than any other disease, yet most cannot get adequate care.

* Mental disorders can be cured, but more research is needed.

* Most health insurance does not yet cover psychiatric treatment.

Volunteers in the Mental Health Association are working to promote mental health in the state.

Bellringers collecting in Dodson during May, Mental Health Month, are Mrs. Ross Swift and Mrs. B.B. Martin.

CITY OFFICIALS SWORN IN

Three city officials, recently re-elected, took the oath of office for new terms at the regular meeting of the City Council Monday, April 21. Paul Spillman, left, administers the oath to Gus Barton, Mayor Billy Hatch and councilman Tom Wilkins.

Truck Industry Earns $2,659,947 in County

AUSTIN --- Trucks and buses are big business in Collingsworth County, and figures recently released by Texas Motor Transportation Association prove it. In 1974, in this county alone, 317 persons were employed by the trucking industry. They earned $2,659,947.

According to TMTA, the state association representing the truck and bus industry in Texas, truck registrations in Collingsworth County in 1974 were 1,538 and the total value of trucks in use totaled $2,107,060.

Statewide, trucks and buses give employment to 677,800 - that's one out of every six non-farm paychecks. Obviously, the truck and bus industry is a big one. And no other business more directly affects the daily lives of all Texans than do these two forms of motor transportation. The clothes people wear, the food they eat, the items they use in making a living --- all come at least part way by truck.

In fact, Texas needs trucks more than do most states because 63 percent of the communities in the Lone Star State depend entirely on trucks for transportation. They have no other kind of shipping service. This number includes 49 county seats and 21 entire counties. And many of the communities which have other transportation service depend on trucks for the smaller shipments which railroads cannot handle.

The industries in Texas which are linked to the truck and bus industry are many. For example, trucks are irreplaceable in the movement of Texas fruits and vegetables.

More than 262 million in cash receipts were received by Texas farmers in 1973 for their production of fresh fruits and vegetables. Approximately 1.6 billion pounds were shipped to the nation's principle markets -- of this amount, 1.4 billion pounds, or 83 percent, arrived by truck.

And trucks not only transport Texas fruits and vegetables to the dining rooms of the nation, but also they fill the markets and restaurants of Texas with fruits and vegetables from throughout the country. For instance, in 1973, 94.3 percent of all fruit and vegetable shipments arriving in Dallas from other parts of the country were shipped there by truck.

Trucks are also partners with the petroleum industry, and oil field motor carriers experienced an upsurge in traffic due to an increase in petroleum drilling activity. A total of 202 oil field carriers moved drilling rigs 16,988 times during 1973. These carriers operate more than 6,000 motor vehicles and employ more than 36,000 persons whose average annual income per person is $10,550.

Tank trucks transporting chemicals and refined petroleum products, still another segment of the industry, have made possible the development of today's Texas petroleum industry. They are the carriers who get the product to its ultimate destination --- the Texas consumer.

The trucking industry and Texas are also partners in the transportation of livestock at major markets. In 1973, 99.9 percent of the cattle, 98.8 percent of the calves, 99.9 percent of the hogs and 99.1 percent of the sheep and lambs were transported to market by trucks.

Products manufactured in Texas are other items which are often shipped by truck. In fact, according to the 1967 Census of Transportation by the U.S. Department of Commerce, 54.9 percent of the inter-city tonnage of Texas-manufactured products was moved by truck. This figure includes 90 percent of all apparel and 97 percent of all furniture and fixtures.

Another contribution which the truck and bus industry makes to the economy of Texas is that it spends millions of dollars annually on new equipment, in taxes and on truck and bus registration fees.

Though Texas trucks and buses represented only 24 percent of total vehicle registrations in 1974, they paid 48.2 percent, or $110,679,848 of all registration fees in the state.

And in 1974, the industry spent $1,296.1 million for new trucks, buses and trailers; 166.2 million for parts and accessories; $791.4 million for fuel (tax not included); and $97.2 million for lubricating oil.

In addition, truck and bus owners purchase large numbers of replacement tires and tubes annually, as well as invest large amounts of money in terminals and related equipment.

The Texas truck and bus industry, after purchasing $1,296.1 million worth of new vehicles in 1974, had a total investment in vehicles in excess of $2,487,000,000.

In fiscal year 1974, the Texas truck and bus industry paid a total of $515,772,016 in state and Federal highway taxes. This contribution is equivalent to 47.7 cents out of every dollar spent for the construction and maintenance of state administered highways; or 1 out of every 2 miles of highway constructed; or $1.4 million per day in special taxes. One large Texas truck combination pays more annual state road taxes than do 32 passenger cars.

Mr. Hammack said the cable stations to be added KTVT, Channel 11, Fort Worth and KXTX, Channel 39, Dallas, both independent stations; and KETA, Channel 13, the public Broadcasting Service station from Oklahoma City.

Mr. Hammack said hopefully these will be in operation this summer, although the specific date will depend on the delivery of materials. The company is also asking an increase in rates from users of 50 cents per month, which would bring it to $7.50.

Cablecom is ready to increase its franchise payment to the city to 3% net operating receipts (money collected from customers of the service) Mr. Hammack told The Wellington Leader Tuesday. The company has been paying 2%.

The City Council will act on the Cablecom request for franchise renewal at a later meeting. Mr. Hatch told the council the city has received its sales tax check for approximately $1,600. In the future, these checks will come monthly instead of quarterly, as in the past. As some businesses pay state sales tax quarterly and others monthly, the city will receive two small and one larger sales tax checks each quarter.

REGIONAL UIL COMPETITORS

Club Makes Seed Flowers

The Friendship Club of Quail held its regular meeting in the Quail School Homemaking Cottage Thursday, April 17.

Mrs. Monty Mitchell conducted the business meeting, and Mrs. Mary Clay read the minutes of the last meeting.

Mrs. Pat O'Hair gave a demonstration making seed flowers. Each member made a flower as Mrs. O'Hair gave assistance.

The hostesses, Mrs. A. L. Robinson and Mrs. June Hayne served refreshments to Mrs. Ira Young, Mrs. Pearl Hayes, Mrs. Orbie Hartman, Mrs. John Bishop, Mrs. O'Hair, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Clay, Mrs. Ira Morgan and Mrs. Roy Peggram.

Ten Million Acres of Cotton Planned in '75

Growers intend to plant 10,000,000 acres of all cotton in 1975, 9.9 million to upland and 67,200 to American Pima, according to the USDA's Crop Reporting Board. If realized, this acreage will be down 29 percent from the 14.0 million acres planted in 1974 and the lowest since 1967.

Texas and Oklahoma upland growers intend to plant 4.7 million acres, five percent more than was intended January 1 but 20 percent less than 1974 plantings. Planting has started in southern areas of Texas.

time of 15.7 and will compete in that event.

Dan Ford tied for first place in high jump, 5'8", and this will be his slot at regional. A Shamrock athlete tied with Ford.

Joe Baumgardner, who placed in the 440 yard dash, will go as an alternate and will compete should the winner not be able to.

Coaching the tennis team is Ronny Glenn, while track coaches are Phil Bailey and Bruce Dollar.

A large contingent of Wellington fans are due to be in Lubbock to cheer the athletes, and students at Tech, Wayland in Plainview, and West Texas State also will be there if their classes permit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray of Hedley were Wellington visitors Monday morning.

Rules on Interstate Stock Movement Cited

Recent changes in Texas' Animal Health Commission regulations covering interstate transportation of livestock were called to attention of Collingsworth producers by County Agent Don Reeves.

"All livestock entering Texas from any state, territory or foreign country must be accompanied by a health certificate issued by a veterinarian authorized by or recognized by the Texas Animal Health Commission, except animals or poultry approved for interstate shipment for immediate slaughter by the veterinary services, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service and the United States Department of Agriculture," said Mr. Reeves.

Official health certificates must be issued within 10 days prior to the date the shipment enters Texas.

Periodic check points will be set up by the Texas Animal Health Commission in the county within the next week or two.

Violations are subject to fines of $10 to $200 per head. Cattle or horses taken from Texas to Oklahoma are

Norwood Seniors Will Graduate On May 23

Close of school activities for Samnorwood seniors were announced this week by the principal, Kenneth Martindale.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday, May 18 at 8:00 p.m. Graduation for the seniors will be Friday, May 23, while the elementary promotion program will be Thursday, May 22.

The junior-senior banquet will be held at Hay Camp Country Club Friday, May 16.

what was at one time a country school house but is now an art gallery, located 6 miles west of Arnet, Oklahoma, just off US-60 near the Texas-Oklahoma state line. The school house, which has been restored and redecorated, houses the Westerner Art Center and Gallery, operated by Dord Fitz, well known artist and art teacher in the Tri-state area.

The occasion is the twenty-third annual art exhibit of student artists from the three states. Between 350 and 400 persons are expected at this annual art event.

For the artists and their families there will be a dinner on the grounds, starting at 12:30 p.m., with each artists providing their own picnic basket and supplies. Each student also will be responsible for hanging their own work. There will be no judging, nor prizes awarded.

The show will be open to the public starting at 2 p.m. Visitors will be able to view the works of over two hundred artists, students of Mr. Fitz. The exhibit will include the work of advanced, intermediate and beginning art students of oil, water color painting and sculpture. Also on display at the center will be the works of Mr. Fitz and other recognized artists.

The gallery is the former Beum School House. It has been painted red with white trim. The gateway to the gallery is decorated with sculpture by Dord Fitz. It is located at the intersection of highways 46, 283 and US-60. The building is 1,000 feet off highway 60. It is six miles west of Arnett, Okla., nine miles south of Shattuck and eight miles east of Higgins.

Thomas Family to Give Gospel Concert Here

A gospel music program will be presented Monday, April 28, at First Assembly of God Church, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Christ's Messengers, a quartet from Tulsa, Okla., will be singing along with the Rev. Carl McKinney, their son, Bryan, and Elvis Sain.

Christ's Messengers are a professional singing group consisting of the Rev. and Mrs. Don Thomas and their two teen-age daughters.

Before his conversion, Rev. Thomas played guitar with the Buck Owens band and has appeared in shows with Johnny Cash. The daughters play banjo and bass guitar.

"If you enjoy good gospel music, don't miss this concert," said Rev. McKinney.

MISS DIANE PERKINS

Early June Wedding Planned For Diane Perkins, Mr. Hiett

Mr. and Mrs. James Perkins, Odessa, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Diane, to Donald Hiett of Richardson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E.P. Hiett of Wellington.

The couple will be married at 7:30 p.m. Friday, June 6, in the Parkview Church of Christ, Odessa. Officiating at the ceremony will be Ron Thrift of Garland and Buddy Fritz of Odessa.

Miss Perkins is a teacher at Odessa Christian School. Her fiancé is employed with the Richardson school system.

UMW Dorotheans Seek to Expand Social Services

Dorotheans of First United Methodist Women met at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, April 10 in the home of Mrs. Jim Boswell.

Mrs. Guy Owens opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. Jack Davis conducted a short business meeting. She reminded those present of the revival April 20-24. Each woman was given names to call and remind all the church members to attend the services.

Mrs. Boswell discussed her responsibility as chairman to find volunteers to help with social services. Volunteers are needed to care for abused children over night or for a few days, to help mothers plan a balanced diet, teach them to cook and sew, Mrs. Boswell said.

Mrs. James Sullivan read the scripture and Mrs. Nita White was in charge of the program entitled "Being Single." It was presented in the form of a discussion between two married women, Mrs. George Henry and Mrs. Guy Owens; a divorcee, Mrs. Nita White; a single woman, Mrs. V.K. Orr, Jr. and a widow, Mrs. Virginia Gholson. When they finished discussing their various problems and feelings, the discussion was opened to all.

BYW Study Held Tuesday

B.Y.W. of First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. John Barton, Tuesday, April 15.

Mrs. Roy Collins, Jr. presided over the business meeting and led in the Bible Study.

Mrs. Ralph Owens read the prayer calendar and prayed for the missionaries. The meeting was closed with the women leading in intercessory prayer.

The associational meeting will be held May 6 in Shamrock.

Refreshments were served to Miss Mary Bearden, Mrs. John DeVoss, Mrs. Joe Wood, Mrs. Larry Waters, Mrs. Benny Kilgo, Mrs. Denzil Lacy, Mrs. Rodney Myrick, Mrs. Bill Billington, Mrs. Eddie Maxwell, Mrs. Billy Wilkerson, Mrs. Linda Garner, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Owens and the hostess, Mrs. Barton.

Mrs. Dee Anna Morgan visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. T.H. Roberts in Livingston. Then the three of them attended the wedding in Houston of their son and brother, Wendell Roberts.

Mrs. Keith Jesse, Darrin and Dana of Amarillo visited last week end with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Waters and Mrs. Buford Riley.

Mrs. D'Ett Creed visited her brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Farrar in Amarillo this week end.

"Happy Days" is Theme as Eighth Grade Holds Banquet

"Happy Days", the theme for the 8th Grade Banquet, centered on the television series of the same name about teens in the "fifties". This banquet honored 8th grade students, their sponsors, and guests at the Bura Handley Community Building, Club Room, April 19 at 7:30 p.m.

Greeting the guests in the entry area was a large red and white autograph hound which each guest signed in red ink. The area was brightly decorated in the traditional school colors, with hit records and red crepe streamers. The guests were served cokes from a marble and gold soda fountain authentically topped with fountain accessories. The soda fountain displayed an array of ice cream confectios. Multicolored teen figures covered the north wall. A large standing record with a red and white label featuring "Rock Around The Clock" by Bill Haley and The Comets, served as the background for the photographer. A drive-in movie mural created by 8th grade students covered the east wall. The focal point was the movie screen, centered by a large monster, with the title reading "The Monster That Ate Wellington". Hot rod cars, containing teenage couples, were parked facing the movie screen. "Happy Days 1975" in gold lettering covered the wall behind the headtable.

Students and guests were seated at tables for four, decorated with sundaes, parfaits, banana splits, cherry cokes, and 7-up centerpieces. Large records served as placemats and place cards. Napkins and red program covers featured black musical notes. A wave of red, crepe covered the ceiling of the banquet area. Black musical notes, records, and clusters of red and white balloons hung from the ceiling. Sweet sounds of "the fifties" flowed from the juke box throughout the banquet period. The 7th grade servers, who were dressed in short red felt circular skirts, red and white checked undershirts and blouses, white organdy aprons trimmed in red and white check, red and white headbands, and white anklets, presented their version of drive-in car hops from the "fifties".

Ricky Jones gave the invocation. David Baumgardner, master of ceremonies, called for a station break during which guests enjoyed "sizzlin' steer, smashed spuds, busted beans, jivin jelly, bum bread, sly spread, wacky water, and shady squares", served by the 7th grade servers: Susie Chandler, Melanie Watts, Karen Goforth, Wanda Thomas, Sharee Bailey, Jennifer Pendleton, Ranessa Cardwell and Kandi Ford.

Following the meal, the 8th grade girls presented a song, "Happy Days", accompanied on the piano by Kloette Camp. David Baumgardner welcomed guests to the "Land of T.V., 1955", in which he described the first black and white television set in Wellington, and tuned the set to Channel 3, where Kim Judd and Robert Burba gave the "History of the Grooviest Class in Town". David switched to Channel 7 for a movie presentation of "Cute Chicks and Cool Cats", by Pam Ingram and Erminie Nevarez, in which the members of the 8th grade class, 1975, were introduced, individually. David turned to Channel 11 in time to see "Wolf Man Jack" (Mike Ray) and "Nanette" (Kathy O'Rear) will the 8th Graders Record Collection to the 7th graders. The set was then switched to Channel 10 for a view of the "Steppin' Sizzler" (7th grade servers) version of "Rock Around The Clock". David turned to Channel 6 to hear "Pansy" (Beverly Orr) and "Kookie" (Carl Taylor), present the "Prophecy From 77 Sunset Strip". The 8th grade girls signed off the evening with a song, "Morning Side of the Mountain", and Jon Sessions closed with the benediction.

The 8th Grade Class of 1975 was led by the following officers: David Baumgardner, president; Jon Sessions, vice president; Ricky Jones, treasurer; Teresa Hodges, secretary; and Pam Ingram, reporter; and sponsored by Mrs. Rufus Sweat, Mrs. James Williams, Miss Irene Martin and Mr. Bruce Dollar.

MR. AND MRS. W.A. ALLEN

Mr., Mrs. W.A. Allen Observe Phipps Hold Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary Get-Together

Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Allen celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at a reception given in their honor at their home, 1401 Ennis Street, Saturday, April 19.

Hostesses were their two daughters, Mrs. A.D. Payne of Amarillo, and Mrs. Jack Roach of Shamrock.

Guests were received by the couple and registered by Lynette Spillman.

The reception table was laid with a white hand-crocheted cloth with an underlay of gold. An arrangement of gold chrysanthemums and matching candles formed the centerpiece.

Guests were served by Mrs. Payne; Mrs. Cathy Paulk of Kerrville, a granddaughter; Mrs. Paul Spillman and Miss Leigh Ann Jeffrey.

Karen Jeffrey presided at the gift table.

The former Irene Harrington, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harrington of Canadian and W.A. Allen were married in the chapel of St. Anthony's Hospital, Amarillo on April 18, 1925. There was not a priest at the Catholic Church in Canadian at the time, so they traveled to Amarillo to be married by the Rev. Bartholomew O'Brien.

was Mrs. J.E. Shewmaker of Shamrock, now 88 years old and living in San Diego, Calif., who also came for the Allens' golden wedding anniversary.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Allen were born in Oklahoma. She attended school in Canadian and West Texas State Normal at Canyon, now West Texas State University.

Mr. Allen came with his family as a youngster to Mobeetie, where he attended school several years, and later at Gageby, between Wheeler and Canadian. Afterwards the family returned to Oklahoma, and he attended school in Pauls Valley and Draughn's Business College in Muskogee.

He was employed by Lone Star Gas Co. for many years before retiring in 1967. Shamrock was their home for 26 years before coming here. His great interest, besides his family and work, has been the Boy Scout movement, in which he was active for 25 years.

This began while the family lived in Shamrock, where he was a Scoutmaster 13 years. He followed this with 12 years as Scoutmaster and Explorer Advisor in Wellington. Trips to New Mexico and outings closer home were some of the opportunities he made possible for the youths.

At the end of his quarter-century of service, Mr. Allen was presented a diamond studded pin in appreciation of his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen are members of Our Mother of Mercy Catholic Church. She was president of the Altar Society at St. Patrick's, Shamrock, and later the Alter Society of Our Mother of Mercy Church.

Out of town guests attending the anniversary celebration were her sister and niece, Mrs. Shewmaker and Mrs. Alma E. Drane of San Diego, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Westherford and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eckle of Canadian; Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Martin of Borger; Miss Cecilia O'Gorman, R.A. Nichols and Mrs. Clara Garrison of Shamrock; Mr. and Mrs. G.R. Jeffers of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. C.V. Johnson of Childress; and Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Prater of Wheeler.

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

If your husband does a lot of outside work in all sorts of weather, suggest that he rub his boots down with petroleum jelly to make them moisture-proof and it will keep his feet dry.

When packing a box of things to send via mail, use paper napkins to fill in spaces. They are light in weight, can be compressed to almost any desired thickness and can be used so the postage being paid is on something useful and not just old scrap paper.

Mrs. Catherine Newman was hostess for the Phipps family get-together Saturday night and Sunday, April 19 and 20.

Those visiting from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phipps, Friona, Mr. and Mr. George Aaron, Dallas and Mrs. I.E. Emmert, Gainesville.

Others from Wellington joining in the visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Buford Chandler, Jack Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Phipps, Rev. and Mrs. Ervin Emmert and Mr. and Mrs. David Phipps.

Mrs. Henard UMW Speaker

The Esther group of United Methodist Women met Friday, April 18 in the home of Mrs. W.F. Vaughan.

Mrs. R.L. Karnes called the meeting to order and asked Mrs. S.L. Lindsey to lead in prayer. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Mayme Somerville, secretary.

Mrs. Earl Alexander gave the devotional, "Two Ways of Life". She used Phillipians 2:14 as a reference and discussed grumbling versus cheerfulness. Mrs. Alexander left three important thoughts with the listeners - comment on something good every day, look for some thing beautiful every day and do a good deed every day.

Mrs. John R. Henard, Sr. presented the program on nine different women in the bible. She told of the character and life of Miriam, Deborah, Hannah, Ruth, Naomi, Lydia, Dorcas and Timothy's mother Eunice and his grandmother, Lois.

Mrs. Henard closed with a prayer of Peter Marshall.

Those present were Mrs. W.E. Brewster, Mrs. Walter Franks, Mrs. Lindsey, Mrs. John Holton, Mrs. Beatrice West, Mrs. J.B. King, Mrs. Cecil Masten, Mrs. Somerville, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. Henard, Mrs. Emma Jones, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Karnes, Mrs. Cal Hurst and the hostess Mrs. Vaughan.

O.V. Johnson Tells DAR of Pioneer Park Development

La Paisana Chapter, DAR, met Monday, April 21, for a dinner meeting at Cherokee Inn Restaurant. Hostess for this meeting was Miss Maudie Coffee.

The guest speaker was O.V. Johnson, resident engineer of the Texas Highway Department, who discussed Collingsworth County Pioneer Park. He traced the development from the beginning to its present status. Mr. Johnson drew up the plans and specifications.

Everything about the park is up to state specification, so it will be eligible for federal funding. Cooperation between the state and county has been excellent, Mrs. Johnson said by way of congratulation.

He displayed the park blueprints, explaining there is still work to be done.

Mr. Johnson told the women that the more he got into the project, the more enthusiastic he became. He told the group that apparently everyone in the county was pleased with the location and people of all parts are happy about this.

A formal dedication of the park is planned for late June or early July, it was explained, depending on completion of work on Highway US 83.

By way of explanation, Mr. Johnson said the county had also bought a tract on the south side of the river several years ago, and this is being used by Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and developed by them.

Mrs. W.L. White, regent, called the meeting to order and led the ritual opening. Mrs. Dan Langford gave a program on national defense, speaking of developing events in the news. She urged members to write the State Representative Phil Cates to use his influence against House Bills 18 and 21, which concern the dispensing of drug prescriptions.

During the business meeting, members decided to continue collecting coupons for the chapter, with the proceeds to be used in various ways.

Cold water rinsing is best for dishes with particles of eggs, milk, cheese, rice or oatmeal remaining. Hot water would cook these foods onto plates and utensils, reminds Mrs. Lillian Chenoweth, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Mrs. White appointed a finance committee composed of Miss Coffee, Mrs. Jennie Holcomb, and Mrs. Hubert Bowen.

Program committee members appointed were Miss Hattie D. Wells, chairman, Mrs. Melvin Seale, Mrs. Richard Fourmentin and Mrs. Dan Langford.

Reports of the DAR state conference in Amarillo March 18-20 were given by Mrs. White and Mrs. Bowen.

Attending were Mr. Johnson, Mrs. White, Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Seale, Mrs. Holcomb, Miss Rita Lowrie, Mrs. Richard Fourmentin, Miss Coffee, Mrs. Louise Templeton, Mrs. John Hendard, Mrs. Dan Langford, and Mrs. Frank Fourmentin.

Delegates Named to State FHA Convention April 17-18

Representatives of the Wellington Future Homemakers of America Chapter attended the 1975 state meeting of the Texas Association of FHA, along with over 5,000 members and advisors from across the state.

"Pass It On - Reach Out and Touch" is the theme of the 1975 meeting, which was held in the Convention Center in San Antonio, April 17-18.

Attending from Wellington, were Lee Ann Sessions and Janice Ford from the freshman chapter, and Mrs. P.M. Scott, advisor.

The senior chapter was represented by Beth Derryberry and Pam Vines, along with their advisor, Mrs. Gary Killian.

Linda Coffee attended and sang in the state chorus.

Horns Host Guests Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horn's guests this week end were their son, Dr. and Mrs. Joe Horn, Nancy and Holly of Plainview.

Roxann Kirk, of Plainview, was also a guest. She is the granddaughter of Rev. Luther Kirk, former district superintendent of the United Methodist Church. Miss Kirk is also the niece of Rev. Davis Eden, a former Wellington pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holton of Wellington and their family, Mrs. Sallie Jo Busby, Rod Busby, D-Nan

Busby and Edge Jo Busby of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Kane and Tracey of Dodson;

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holton, Tom, Jr., and Dana of Greenwich, Conn.;

Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Darrow, Lesa and Chris Darrow of Shamrock.

Other members of the family joining them were Mrs. Holton's daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Crutcher and Kirk of Archer City and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Caldwell, Tommy, Karen, Gene and Julie.

Kin Visits Joe Simpsons

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Simpsons had several grandchildren and great-grandchildren visiting them this past week end.

Coming from Muleshoe were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harrison and Greg. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Harrison, Kelly and Allan, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Harrison, Polly and Amy.

Mrs. W.F. Harrison from Arkansas has been visiting her parents several weeks.

Also joining the group were Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Wade and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Black, Michelle and Shane of Wellington.

Mrs. Virginia Gholson and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Curry, are visiting with Mrs. Gholson's grandchildren in Deming, N.M. From there they will go to Phoenix, Arizona, to visit a niece, Mrs. June Curry Thompkins, who grew up here. They will be away about a week.

Guidelines for selection include an educator's talents in the classroom, contributions to research, administrative abilities, civic service and professional recognition.

The 1975 Outstanding Educators at Clarendon College are Beryl Clinton, Lee Roy Jackson, Terry Scoggin, and Kern Pigg.

Clinton, presently Dean of Instruction at the College, has spent the major portion of his life working in education. Born in Merkel, Texas, his background includes teaching positions at Childress, Clarendon, Amarillo Jr. High, Amarillo Palo Duro, and Stanton, prior to joining Clarendon College in 1966. Clinton is active in the Baptist Church, Boy Scouts of America, and Lions International.

Jackson developed and started the Radio and T.V. Repair School of Clarendon College in 1973. A native of Lelia Lake, Jackson graduated from the Vocational Radio and T.V. School of Amarillo College in 1953. Prior to joining Clarendon College, Jackson worked in the electronics field for 20 years. His experience and contributions to his profession have developed the Radio and T.V. School of Clarendon College into one of the top schools of the area. Mr. Jackson is an active member of Lions International.

Terry Scoggin received his B.S. and M.A. degrees in English from West Texas State University in Canyon, where he taught for two years as a graduate assistant. A graduate of Pampa High School, Scoggin joined Clarendon College in 1972. As well as being a teacher, he is also Minister of Music at the First Baptist Church in Clarendon.

A native of Wellington, Kern Pigg received a Bachelor of Music Education Degree from North Texas State in 1960 and completed his Masters Degree in 1962 at W.T.S.U. Prior to joining Clarendon in 1972, Pigg held positions at NTSU, Galveston I.S.D., W.L. Yancy State Jr. College, Alabama, and Meridian Jr. College, Mississippi. Mr. Pigg is presently Chairman of the Fine Arts Department of Clarendon College.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Vaughan have returned home from Ft. Collins, Colorado, where they visited their son, Dr. and Mrs. Michael Vaughan and children, Lisa, Cynthia and Dalton. Dr. Vaughan teaches in Colorado State University.

New VA Home Loan Policy For Veterans

New GI loan policies that apply to all veterans with military service since the start of World War II make more than 20 million veterans eligible for the Veterans Administration guaranteed home loans.

Among them are more than four million veterans whose GI loans have been paid in full, VA Regional Director, Jack Coker, said today. Those who have never used their eligibility are still eligible even though they might have been out of service more than 30 years. Also potentially eligible for new loans are those veterans with current loans outstanding. The only condition for restored eligibility is that the first loan be paid off and the home be disposed of.

In addition to broadened eligibility rules, new legislation approved by the President on December 31, 1974, raised the maximum portion of a loan VA is allowed to guarantee from $12,500 to $17,500 and made it easier to buy mobile homes and condominiums.

Changes affecting the purchase of mobile homes were a provision for loans to purchase lots on which to place mobile home units already owned by veterans. - an increase in the maximum permissible loan amounts to $12,500 for a single-wide unit and $20,000 for a double-wide unit.

- Liberalized rules for guaranteeing loans on used mobile homes.

Spree®

The Effortless Pen

THE MOST REMARKABLE ADVANCE IN PENS SINCE THE BALL POINT AND FELT TIP.

Over 14,000 perfectly round beads are found in the tip of every SPREE. This creates a capillary action that feeds just the right amount of ink to the tip. The result: smooth effortless writing from the moment SPREE comes in contact with the paper.

The SPREE ball tip is made of super-tough, tungsten carbide. Unlike felt tips, it never gets blunt. Like a ball point, it makes carbons.

SPREE uses the thinner, cleaner, more vivid, free-flowing type of ink found in felt tips.

DOUBLE TENNIS TEAMS TO REGIONAL UIL

These two Wellington boys doubles tennis teams met in the District 2-A UIL finals at Clarendon recently, and when it was over, all four young men qualified to go on to regional competition at Lubbock this week. From left they are Sammy Gonzales and George Brewer, first place team, Richard Sims and Randall Sims, second place team.

One-Fourth of Cancer Funds go to Research

How is the money spent? "The public has an absolute right to know the answer to that question," said Mrs. Pauline Masten, chairman of the American Cancer Society 1975 educational and fund-raising Crusade now taking place in Collingsworth County.

"In these days of inflation and the shrinking dollar, I want to assure everyone that money given to the ACS is budgeted in such a way that it furthers the cancer fight on many different levels."

She explained that in the most recent budget, 25 percent of all ACS income went to support a wide variety of cancer research programs. "But while we are waiting for basic answers from research, we are also trying to teach people how to recognize cancer's Warning Signals and the importance of early detection and prompt treatment. There are many lives that could be saved without learning anything new from the research if people understood that. Hence, the public education programs which took another 22 percent of our budget.

ACS services to the cancer patient, which include rehabilitation activities, required another 29 percent of ACS income. Professional education for physicians and nurses on the front lines of the cancer fight took another 11 percent. This includes cancer detection programs and periodic screening projects.

"I am proud to say that we keep our management costs to 5 percent and fund-raising to 8 percent. We are able to do that because of the energetic and dedicated people who volunteer to do much of the work of the ACS," she said.

Mrs. Kelly Pigg Receives U. S. Treasury Card

Mrs. Kelly Pigg has received her United States Treasury Card which enables her to practice in tax courts or before the Department of Internal Revenue.

She took the required IRS examination in September 1974. She was notified earlier this month that she would receive the treasury card.

It is not necessary for a person who makes out income taxes to have a card, Mrs. Pigg pointed out, however, a treasury card is required of anyone not a lawyer or certified public accountant who wishes to practice before the tax courts.

Work Progresses With Cemetery Documenting

LaPaisana Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is progressing in its work of cataloging Collingsworth County cemeteries, Mrs. Jack Davis, overall chairman, said this week.

Two more cemeteries have been documented, Needwood, one of the oldest burying grounds in the county, and Plymouth.

"We need the help of the public in identifying graves," said Mrs. Davis. The one to contact for these is Mrs. Hubert Bowen, who is serving as chairman of both plots.

Needwood cemetery is located 9 miles east of Lurie at the end of FM 1439. Eighty-five graves were found here, including 10 that are unmarked. There are two other possible sites of graves.

The oldest marked grave dates to 1894.

Plymouth Cemetery is at the end of FM 1548, south and a little west of Samnorwood.

Here are to be found 191 graves. Eleven are unmarked and there apparently five more graves.

"We are hoping that people will begin to put up markers at unmarked graves for identification purposes, using small, inexpensive metal markers," Mrs. Davis continued.

Completed documentation has been turned in on three of the nine county cemeteries, Mrs. Davis continued, and work is progressing quickly. Work has begun on the large cemeteries in Wellington.

Elaine Purkey Distinguished HS Student

Margaret Elaine Purkey, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.A. Purkey, has been selected to represent Samnorwood High School in the Society of Distinguished American High School Students, the nation's leading high school honorary.

With the assistance of high school principals and officials throughout the country, the Society honors only America's most distinguished students, those who have achieved academic excellence and have displayed leadership in extracurricular and civic activities. Elaine, because of her outstanding record, qualified for this high national honor.

All members are to be considered for scholarships through the Society's National Awards Program. This year over $800,000 in grants will be offered to members.

A senior in Samnorwood High School, Elaine has served as class officer four years, Future Homemakers of American officer two years, a member of the office club four years, the basketball team two years and volleyball team four.

She was nominated for inclusion among Outstanding Teenagers of America, Who's Who, and served as co-editor of the school annual.

Elaine was a contestant in the 1975 Miss Irish Rose contest at the Shamrock St. Patrick's Celebration.

Thomas Nursing Center News

Spring brings lots of activities to the Thomas Nursing Center. A lovely Spring theme was carried out at the monthly birthday party. A basket of spring flowers decorated the table and the residents were served cake and ice cream cones. The residents honored at the party were Ceburn Wade, Alpha Adcock, Susie Horton Lizzie Stewart and Ruby Thorne. Special music was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Rob Isbell.

The joy of springtime has brought many other activities to our home. The FHA girls entertained Monday evening. They sang several old time favorites. This performance ended with the FHA girls serving cookies and punch to the residents.

Tuesday evening Rev. Fuller and Mrs. Fuller entertained by singing songs and a special message. Saturday night we had a very special music program presented by the County Officials of Wheeler County.

We would like to extend our appreciation to those who have provided special entertainment this week.

We would like to extend a warm welcome to our new residents. They are Mrs. Osie Hanley, Mrs. Lula

Cards of Thanks

To all the many friends, relatives and loved ones of Mrs. W.E. Thomas who contributed so much during her illness and death, we can only say thank you.
The Olan Thomas Family

I want to thank all the parents, accompanists, teachers, seamstresses who made all the costumes, and all others who co-operated with me during the Talent Show.

I appreciate the opportunity to work with you in making the Wellington School events something to remember.

Also I want to thank those who presented me with gift certificates and gifts.

Margaret Pendleton

Words cannot express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the many kind and sympathetic deeds shown during our bereavement. We will always remember with thankfulness the visits, flowers, cards, memorials and prayers.

We want to thank Dr. Holcomb and the staff and nurses of Thomas Nursing Center for the love and care Rox received during her stay.

We pray God's blessing and loving guidance for each of you.

Deck's Didactics

—by Deskins Wells

TEXANS approved the amendment making the increase in teachers benefits permanent by a two to one vote and the increase for public employees carried by sixty per cent. The increase was something that was greatly needed by those teachers who retired several years ago. Their benefits were based on salaries that were low even at that time.

BOTH this increase for teachers and the one for public employees seemed certain of passage so the voters stayed away from the polls in droves. Early returns indicate that only 10% of the qualified voters cast a ballot in this election. It is a shame when people become so indifferent or cynical or busy that they do not take the time to exercise the most priceless right that is left to a people who still govern themselves to a certain extent.

THE FACT that there are many injustices and inequities in our system of government is no excuse for not trying to make it better. The only way we can exert an influence for better government is to go to the polls each time an election is called.

REV. ROY COLLINS has a letter in this issue of the paper that is thoughtful and timely. It was prompted by the extreme discomfort suffered by those who attended and those who participated in the recent talent show held in the High School Auditorium. This is a letter that needs neither explanation nor amplification. You will find it on the editorial page.

FIRE ANTS may seem to be far away on the Gulf Coast and Louisiana; but it has not been too many years ago that their habitat was South America. Now the U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced that it will suspend the fire ant control program on June 31, 1975. The USDA says that continued controls on pesticides used to control fire ants has made their program unworkable.

PRESENT regulations of the EPA permit only one treatment a year. The Department of Agriculture says that once a year treatment will not even control the ants much less eradicate them. Until this controversy between the bureaus is resolved, we may see these dangerous ants which destroy the value of rich farm land come nearer and nearer.

THERE IS a continuous conflict between the various national bureaus that is bewildering to the average taxpayer who wonders where all his tax money goes.

THE TEXAS Water Development Board has issued a report on the "Major and Historical Springs of Texas." The state originally had 281 major and historically important springs not counting saline springs. Sixty three of these 281 pure water springs have disappeared due to increased pumping of groundwater. Of the four largest springs with over 100 cubic feet per second only the springs at San Marcos and Comal remain.

Seventh Grade Wins Two-A Track Meet

Wellington seventh grade track team won the District 2-A Junior High track meet in Shamrock Monday, April 21, racking up 130 points.

Shamrock placed second with 90 points. There was added excitement for the relay team, as they also had the season's best time in the 440 yard relay, 53.1 seconds. Members were James Thomas, Tommy Stewart, Marty Warrick and Jessie Garcia, Coach Ronny Glenn reported.

There were several other first places, along with enough second and thirds to put the Wellington boys far out in front.

Coach Glenn listed other winnings.

The 1320 yard relay team was second, made up of Stewart, Joe Garcia, Chris Lynch and Jessie Garcia.

James Thomas placed first in the 100 yard low hurdles, second in high jump, second in the 60 yard intermediate hurdles, and third in the long jump.

Dane Dodge was first in the shot put and second in discus.

Baldo Nevarez came in first in the 1320 yard run.

Tommy Stewart added to his hurdles record with a fifth in the 330 yard dash.

Jessie Garcia placed second in the 220 yard dash.

Lynch was fifth in the long jump.

Haskell Bonaparte placed sixth in the discus.

pumping out water and the hardening of the underground clay and the inroads of the water from the gulf as the land lowers. You also read of the constantly declining water level on the South Plains. Water has always been a problem in Texas and it continues to be a greater one with each passing year.

CLIFF CAMPBELL reports that John Brim's system of terraces works so perfectly that sometimes he has too much water in certain of the wetter parts. Mr. Brim has an overall syrup pan system of terraces with the farm divided into bench level terraces. In one of the wetter portions of the farm, he has an 80 inch measuring hole to determine the depth to water. It now stands at 50 inches from the top of the ground.

FOR DECADES John Brim has been demonstrating that comfortable living can be made by farming only a quarter section of land. How he cultivates it is the answer. It is a gem of a farm, but I can remember when it was not considered of any more value than many other similar sized farms.

THE MOISTURE continues to be favorable for gardens and now that May is nearly here, the people have been cleaning the dealers out of bedded plants such as tomatoes, peppers, cabbage, etc. and inroads are being made on the supplies of bulk seeds.

IT IS TIME for people like me to start getting seed and plants in the ground. But the real gardeners are already enjoying looking at their rapidly growing plants. J.B. Stevenson says that his garden is growing at a tremendous rate.

THE STEVENSONS provide an inspiring example of a couple growing old gracefully. So do the Earl Yarbroughs and the George Lewises. A more fitting expression might be—growing old courageously and graciously.

Mike Thomas was fifth in the 100 yard low hurdles.

Robert Powell was third in the 60 yard intermediate hurdles and fourth in the 100 yard low hurdles.

Timothy Anderson placed sixth in the 100 yard dash.

Junior high students do not go beyond the district contest.

Band Receives "Excellent" Rating in UIL

That Skyrocket Band, which competed recently in the University Interscholastic League contests, received an Excellent rating in both sight reading and concert playing, the director, Gary Wofford, said.

This is one of the higher ratings a band can receive in UIL competition.

That Skyrocket Band, along with others of the Panhandle, had competed in the UIL marching contest earlier in the school year.

FHA Members At Convention

Lenora Oatman and Kathy Guthrie, members of the Quail Future Homemakers, and their advisor, Mrs. Audean Downey, attended the state FHA convention in San Antonio Thursday and Friday, April 17 and 18.

Both were chapter delegates.

Two keynote convention speakers were Dr. William Purkey, psychologist from the University of Florida, and Jerry Clower, humorist from Mississippi.

The trio also visited the Alamo, San Antonio Zoo, Tower of the Americas, and other points of interest.

Pastor's Widow Dies at Cleburne

The widow of a Wellington pastor of half a century ago, Mrs. S.B. Culpepper, 97, died recently in Cleburne.

Her husband, Dr. S.B. Culpepper, was pastor of First Baptist Church during the 1920's. At one point, he and the pastor of First Methodist Church, Rev. Browning, took over the administration of the Wellington schools, about 1924 or 1925, friends here recall. Dr. Culpepper also served as pastor of churches at Cleburne and Stephenville, and in Mississippi.

Funeral services and burial were at Cleburne.

Mrs. Culpepper is survived by two sons, S.B. Culpepper, Jr., of Ft. Worth and John P. Culpepper of Cleburne; a daughter, Mrs. Marguerite Dillon of Cleburne; two grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

May 15 Set For County Wide Census

Thursday, May 15, has been set as the day to count noses in Collingsworth County.

The Commissioners Court, which a week ago approved a county census, has set that date and it is believed the count can be completed in half a day or less, County Judge Zook Thomas said.

At least one person will be contacted in every block of Wellington and asked to name all other residents of that block.

In rural areas, each county commissioner will work in his own precinct.

This is a joint venture of the county, City of Wellington, Chamber of Commerce, Community Action Program and a number of interested citizens.

Judge Thomas said that a number of volunteers are needed.

The census was called for after commissioners noted dropping revenue sharing funds and benefits for which population is one consideration, and after it became known that long-range projections show a continuing drop in population for Collingsworth and all other counties of the area.

The agencies taking the census believe that instead of a drop, there has been an actual increase in population within the last year or two.

Billy Thomas Visits Family

Billy Thomas of Canadian visited during last week with his mother, Mrs. Beatrice Thomas and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Thomas, before leaving for Fairbanks, Alaska.

He will work with a construction company laying utility lines for the next six months.

Mr. Thomas had been with the Texas Department of Public Safety six years, three at Canadian and prior to that three at Houston.

Mrs. Clubb Hosts Group

Mrs. Ray Clubb entertained the Good Neighbor Club Friday, April 18 at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch presided over a short business meeting and asked each one to answer roll call with their favorite garden vegetable.

Mrs. Clubb gave the program on "The Life of Mrs. Nita Bryant."

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Earl Alexander, Mrs. Ruby Ball, Mrs. Leonard Karnes, Mrs. Willie Smith, Mrs. Merritt James, Mrs. Ethel Britton, Mrs. Barjenbruch, Mrs. R.L. Karnes, Mrs. Violet Potter and the hostess, Mrs. Clubb.

"Texas" Opening Will Honor Early Supporters

CANYON -- The Gala Opening of "Texas" in 1975, on June 18, its tenth year, will honor those who gave their support in the first days of the project. The Canyon people who helped bring Paul Green to the Panhandle for his first visit and who met on the seventh of May 1961 to organize; and the members of the Development Board throughout the area from whom the first Board of Directors came.

When a theatre in the Palo Duro Canyon to house a musical drama of panhandle history was first proposed; it seemed like a fantasy. There was a misprint in a large heading of one early brochure which read: "This is an imaginary project" and so it seemed to many. There were no similar undertakings within many thousands of miles and most people in the Panhandle had never heard of one. However, there were enough interested who decided to help to make the theatre possible, and then the show, and these first backers will be recognized in special ways on opening night.

Appropriately, the third annual Art Competition for 1975 will feature "Openings" from eyes, ears to tunnels and caves or doors and windows. As before, the competition will be held in conjunction with the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum and the winning canvases will be displayed at the Gala Opening first and then for some weeks in the museum.

Membership in the Foundation is open and all interested people are urged to join and range from $5 a year to $100. For each $5 invested, a member will receive a Souvenir Program, a ticket to opening night performance and to one other night during the season in June, July or Wednesday in August.

RSVP Group to Sing at Faith Baptist Church

A Senior Citizen Group from RSVP will have music program at Faith Baptist Church Sunday, April 27, at the evening service, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Jack Lowry will be in charge of the program of gospel songs. Others due to participate are Mrs. Malcolm Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bledsoe, Mrs. Marie Gollighugh, Mrs. Morris Barton, Mrs. C.D. Damron, Mr. and Mrs. R.H. Isbell, Mrs. Rufus Sweat, Mrs. Haskell Manuel and possibly others.

The public is invited to this service, said the Rev. Elvis Pitts, pastor.

Family Fetes J.H. Simpson

Mrs. Leon Roberts, her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Patricia Ford and Kandii, were in Hereford Sunday, April 20, to observe the 91st birthday of her father, J.H. Simpson.

Most of his descendants were present for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson farmed here about 27 years before moving to Hereford 30 years ago. He retired from farming a few years ago and he is now in fair health, Mrs. Roberts said.

The three children were present, Mrs. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Simpson, and Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Simpson. Grandchildren and great-

BURS FOR FERTILITY

Through the years that the Salt Fork SCD has been organized, returning cotton burs to the land has been a popular practice. As a soil building practice, it antedates by many years the organization of the district, but more emphasis was placed on this practice after the creation of the SCD.

Salt Fork SCD Organization Took Up Much of Year 1946

"Soil and water conservation districts have grown beside the Soil Conservation Service, bringing a better life and future to everyone," declared Douglas Coleman, chairman of the Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation District. The SCS has been giving technical help to the landowners here since 1946, he added.

The Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation District, now in its 29th year, was created to help the landowners in Collingsworth County develop needed conservation measures. SCS assists the district under a jointly-signed agreement.

"The Salt Fork District covers 575,360 acres, with 1,014 operating units," said Tommy Powell, district conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service. "About 938 landowners are planning and apply conservation practices on their land with the technical assistance of the Soil Conservation Service," he said.

SCS conservation professionals assisting the district are Mr. Powell; James Herring, soil conservationist; and Dwaine Binford, range conservationist. Neil Davis works part time as conservation technician.

Of the five soil conservation district directors (formerly called supervisors) one is elected each year. The present board is made up of Mr. Coleman, chairman; Dan Henard, Jr., vice-chairman; Otis Emmert, secretary; Earl C. Patterson and John Brim.

Through the years, many other leaders in soil conservation have held these offices.

Each director is elected for a five-year term on a rotating basis, with a director being elected from one of the five zones each year.

The original board was composed of Jake Tarter, W.R. Coleman, R.R. Kellison, Alfred Knoll and Frank Coleman. W.R. Coleman was the father of the present board chairman.

The U.S. Soil Conservation Service was only a few years old when concerned Collingsworth County landowners began to talk about organizing the soil conservation district that was to become Forty years ago, the country faced tremendous problems brought about by erosion, floods, land damage, and violent dust storms.

On April 27, 1935, a new agency, the Soil Conservation Service, was created to combat the forces that threatened to lay waste to millions of acres of cropland. The Soil Conservation Service began working with landowners by demonstrating means of erosion control, but it became apparent that really effective conservation work was done better when landowners led the job themselves.

In 1937, President Roosevelt recommended that each state legislature enact laws permitting landowners and land occupiers to form units to be called Soil Conservation Districts. Rallying to the call, all the states, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, enacted laws permitting formulation of districts.

Soil and Water Conservation Districts set out to focus attention on land and water problems on all privately-owned land, develop annual and long-range programs designed to solve the problems, and to enlist all the appropriate help available from public and private sources.

Now, over 3,000 conservation districts, covering 97 percent of all privately-owned lands, have formed in mutual concern to protect, conserve, and improve the world we live in.

Typically, a conservation district has five supervisors, elected by local landowners. The supervisors work with the Soil Conservation Service District conservationist and other agencies in helping the landowner apply conservation measures on his land.

More than two million landowners are voluntarily planning and applying conservation measures in local soil and water conservation districts. They are helping to control erosion, improve water supplies, prevent floods, curtail pollution, and develop recreational areas.

The National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts (NACD), organized by district leaders in 1946, is the means by which the districts make their cause known and voice heard.

George R. Bagley, cotton farmer and real estate developer of St. Joseph, Louisiana, is president of the NACD.

"This land is more than a place to live," Bagley said. "It holds our future. How well we treat it will

Terracing Retains Popularity in SCD

Salt Fork SCD co-operators are just as concerned in carrying out conservation practices as in the early years of the district, but the practices themselves have changed somewhat.

Tommy Powell, district conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, points out that through the years, terracing has probably been the most popular of all practices in this county.

But even terraces have a different look. For many years, in all parts of the country, terraces followed the curvature of the land sweeping in graceful curves over a field.

SALT FORK SCD

At the same time the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District has completed 29 years of highly successful work in conserving and improving our most PRICELESS RESOURCE - THE SOIL. Congratulations and Best Wishes for the Future.

OUR LAND IS OUR FUTURE!

Tomorrow's prosperity in Salt Fork Soil Conservation District depends on what we do with our soil today!

Frankly, this bank is looking ahead. It is to your interest and to our interest that every farmer and rancher is more prosperous. We believe that greater participation in Soil Conservation practices by every landowner is the answer to this.

Salt Fork Soil Conservation District, through its planned programs and the technical assistance it makes available through the Soil Conservation Service, has been an important factor in the success of our agricultural structure. Practice of sound conservation practices, with the help of Salt Fork SCD, and sound financial practices, with our help, spells out a brighter future.

We Salute Soil Conservation Service

As Soil Conservation Service observes its 40th Anniversary, and Salt Fork Soil Conservation District is almost 29, we salute you for your contributions to the fertility of Collingsworth County. The warm spirit of cooperation between you and our farmers and ranchers is seen in our richly productive land. We believe it is one reason our young people are coming back to our farms.

Warrick's, Inc., has been closely associated with Soil Conservation Service since the day it came to Collingsworth County. It is a pleasure to review your remarkable achievements and to congratulate you.

First Story Tells of SCS Organization

(Following is the first news release ever made of the Soil Conservation Service, dated April 27, 1935. It was issued by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. In observance of the 40th anniversary of this event, the story is reprinted in full.)

WASHINGTON--In an atmosphere of national emergency resulting from violent dust storms in the south and midwest, President Roosevelt today signed Public Law No. 46, directing Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace to establish an agency to be known as the Soil Conservation Service to provide for the protection of land and water resources.

Under the new legislation, the Secretary of Agriculture has broad authority to conduct surveys, investigations, and research for the control of erosion by wind and water. He is authorized to conduct demonstration projects, to carry out a wide range of preventive operations and to give aid to private persons and public agencies.

Secretary Wallace immediately issued a departmental memorandum establishing the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) in the Department of Agriculture. He named Hugh Hammon Bennett, Director of the Soil Erosion Service, Department of the Interior, Chief of the New Agency.

Bennett has led a dedicated campaign for several years for a national program to control soil erosion. He has traveled and spoken throughout the country to make professional workers, farmers, and the general public understand the dangers of soil erosion on agricultural land.

A native of Anson County in the Piedmont North Carolina, Bennett is a graduate of the University of North Carolina. He joined the USDA Bureau of Soils in 1903, and was made director of the Soil Erosion Service, Department of The Interior, in 1933. He is the author of several technical papers, including the USDA Circular 33, "Soil Erosion, A National Menace."

"Conservation and wise development of our natural resources have never been more important. Soil, water, forests, fish and wildlife, open space, and natural beauty are threatened by misuse and waste. Our total environment is under pressure."

"But more than agriculture is involved. Many district programs are directed toward meeting problems of suburban expansion, districts are cooperating in site location, sediment control, beautification, economic development, and land use planning," Bagley continued.

The principal source of technical assistance to the districts is the Soil Conservation Service. SCS provides a district conservationist for each district to help carry out conservation programs.

The scope of the Soil Conservation Service program has expanded since establishment 40 years ago. And the Soil and Water

But it was not until 1946 that the mechanics of district organization were completed. In the meantime, shelterbelts criss-crossed many parts of the county in the late 1930s, set out under the guidance of Soil Conservation Service.

A few local farmers had co-operated with the Childress-Hall County SCD. Through the Extension Service, a considerable amount of conservation work had been done.

Through the spring and summer of 1946, the first after the end of World War II, there were discussions of a conservation district. Jake Tarter, who is credited with running the first terrace lines in Collingsworth County, was one of the leaders, along with County Agent Lefty Thomas, the men who were to become supervisors, and a number of others.

In July 1946, petitions were circulated requesting that a soil conservation district be established, and a large number of signatures were entered. Interest was growing rapidly.

As the next step, the State Soil Conservation Board called for hearings at Wellington and Quail on August 20, 1946. If there was any opposition, it is not recorded.

However, a series of Conservation Districts have grown beside it, bringing a better life and future to everyone.

educational meetings were held at Wellington, Samnorwood, Quail, Lutie, Dodson and Rolla. Through these weeks it was emphasized time and again that a soil conservation district could not issue any bonds nor could it levy any taxes. It could not force a man to do anything with his land that he did not want to do. Cooperation was voluntary. It did make available certain services through Soil Conservation Service, AAA, Bureau of Reclamation and the State Board of Water Engineers.

In the election held Saturday, October 5, Collingsworth farmers and ranchers voted 255 to 21--a margin of 12 to 1--approval of the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District.

Friday night, one of the heaviest rains of the year had fallen, and conservation leaders estimated this cut the vote in half.

Some 30 farmers who could not get to a polling box because of the mud called Jake Tarter and asked him to vote for them by proxy. He explained he couldn't do this, but the fact was forwarded to the State Soil Conservation Board along with election returns to show the interest.

Since area supervisors for two districts had to be appointed at once to conform to the state law, Mr. Tarter was named for Area 2 and Wood Coleman for Area 4.

The State Soil Conservation Board approved the district, as everyone had been sure they would.

Quail '65 Graduates Recount Activities

Three former Quail High School students, now living in Korea, Alaska and Wyoming, recounted by letter their activities for classmates at the recent reunion of the class of 1965. Their letters came to Mrs. Joe Harris, one of those planning the event.

GARY WHITE

Laramie, Wyoming
"Are you still ranching, Joe. I hope you aren't having as tough a time as the ranchers are up here. Some are just barely making it. It's been a very mild winter so far and this has helped a little.

In 1973 we moved here in January and I taught a remote rural, one room school. I had four students. My family and I lived in a trailer house rent free. It was a rough winter. Last year and this year I've taught the fifth grade at Washington Elementary here in Laramie, Wyoming.

My wife and I have a boy almost four and a girl about three and one-half months old.

The thought of possibly seeing everyone after 10 years is rather intriguing. If I were within the boundaries of the "lower 48" I think I'd make it. From here it's a little out of the question.

It seems kind of funny to write my own "10 year report" but here goes:

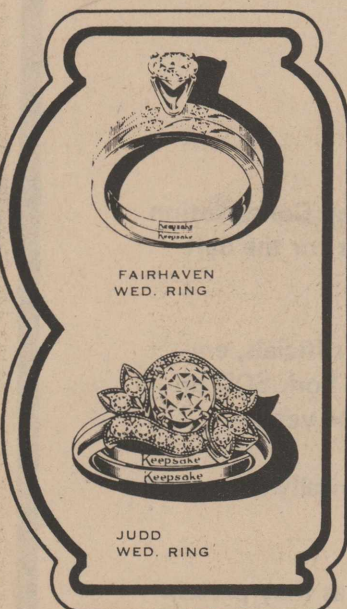

1970: B.S. Electrical Engineering, Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri; mercury miner in Nevada; Electrical engineer in Thule, Greenland.

Returned to U.S. in 1972, entered graduate school at U. of Arizona in Tucson. Masters Degree in Urban planning in 1974. I'm currently working as a planner for the State of Alaska in Juneau.

I spend most of my free time back-packing and cross-country skiing and have been into photography off and on, depending on inspiration and my finances.

My grandparents (Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop of Quail) golden anniversary is in June. I'll make it at least to Amarillo for the celebration. Hope to make it to Quail, too. There's lots of memories on the farm and in that yellow brick building with the flag

BICYCLE SAFETY

Riding a bicycle is great fun. Kids do it. Adults do it. In fact, today there are over 60 million bicycles in use in America. And the "biking rage" isn't expected to slow down anytime soon.

Bike riders, however, should be aware that serious accidents do occur. Crashes, injuries, and even deaths are on the upswing, despite stronger federal regulations on the manufacturers for additional safety equipment on bikes. In 1974, the Texas Department of Public Safety reported a 25 percent increase in bike-related fatalities in Texas. Statistics reveal over 2,500 persons were injured in bicycle crashes in 1974. As of November 1, 1974, 50 people were killed as a direct result of bicycle related traffic collisions. This is an increase of 10 lives over 1973 statistics.

While it has been found that 89 percent of all bicycle-auto crashes occur in the daylight hours, most nighttime crashes tend to produce more serious injuries.

The Texas Medical Association have Nike-Hercules missiles, and a great deal of communications. We have microwave telephone and data circuits, tactical multi-channel equipment for the same purpose, AM and FM radios, telephones, and almost all communications available to the Army, including teletypes. We are supposed to get tactical satellite communications terminals in a year or so.

Parents are urged to teach children to acknowledge yield situations, stop signs, and turn signals of automobiles. Other common violations include riding in the middle of the street or too fast for conditions. Children and adults alike should have fun, but should also remain constantly alert while bicycling!

Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Wilbur and Bryan visited in the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Wilbur and Lukas of Lubbock, this week end.

Jim Forrester began his duties recently as financial worker for the State Department of Public Welfare. He succeeds Mrs. Auvarie Dodson who retired January 1.

His appointment brings to three the welfare department staff for the county.

His office is in Room 10, second floor, of the courthouse.

He administers two programs, Medical Assistance, only serving nursing home patients in Collingsworth and Wheeler counties, and the Families with Dependent Children Program.

Late last year, Tom Vermillion was appointed to be in charge of the child welfare programs and John Alf Thomas the food stamp programs.

Mrs. Donna Martin, stenographer with the department 14 years, will work with Mr. Forrester and Mr. Thomas. Mrs. Joy Belew has joined the staff as stenographer for Mr. Vermillion's office, which remains on the first floor of the courthouse.

Reared here, Mr. Forrester was on the coaching staff of Wellington High School five years, then farmed last year. Prior to this, he coached in Portales and Tucumcari, N.M. four and one half years. Mr. Forrester is a graduate of Eastern New Mexico University.

He is a director of the Collingsworth County Farm Bureau, Chamber of Commerce, and with his wife, is active in First Baptist Church. He formerly belonged to teachers and coaches associations and the Jaycees.

Mrs. Forrester is the former Judy Forbis. The couple has three children, Alfred S. Lyndy, three, and Brenda, two.

Soil Conservation Service Observes 40th Anniversary

Sunday, April 27, will mark the 40th anniversary of the establishment of the Soil Conservation Service. It is safe to say that no agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture has done so much to change the face of the country, especially the broad heartland that extends across vast prairies and valleys from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

Its mark, through the SCS office and Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation District, is on almost every farm and ranch in Collingsworth County. SCS helped us to tie down our land in those early years when wind erosion cut scars across the land, as well as in later years when rain was less than sufficient.

It has helped us add fertility to our soil, year by year. We can safely say that the soil conservation movement has added to the quality of life in Collingsworth County. It is a factor going into the present movement of our young people back to the farms.

Soil conservation is a continuing thing. Terraces, for example, must be rebuilt from time to time, incorporating new developments, new facts proven. Like science or technology, conservation of the land advances and changes and grows.

We in Collingsworth are people to whom conservation has meaning. To us, it is as much a part of farming as plowing and harvesting.

On this 40th anniversary, we would congratulate each person who has been a part of the Soil Conservation Service in this county and each one who has provided leadership in Salt Fork Soil Conservation District.

Coin Preference

Silver dollars long have been popular in the American west. Nickels remain the most favored coins in Baltimore, while quarter-dollars are most sought after in the state of New York.

Mile Apart

George Washington felt that the U.S. Capitol and the White House should be geographically separated as a means of separating the executive from the legislative branches of the government — hence they were built a mile apart.

Ski Expert

The inventor of the "two-pole" technique in downhill skiing as well as the ski cable binding, the rucksack, and climbing wax was Georg Belgeri, a Hungarian colonel who lived about the turn of the century.

Sabbatical

The term "sabbatical year," meaning a leave of absence every seventh year, came from the Old Testament. The Jews directed that every seventh year the agricultural land should be allowed to lie fallow or to rest on the seventh year.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Dear Mr. Wells,

Recently I received a newspaper clipping from Carl C. Wood, ("Uncle Zeb") of the Claude News, Claude, Texas. The article was dated March 13, 1975, and was devoted to the unusual advantages of an east panhandle town. "Uncle Zeb" noted the good stores, daily home deliveries, nice hospital, doctors that still make house calls, nursing home, low rent housing, mail delivery, pick-up and deliver laundry, and the wonderful churches in this town. He mailed me a copy because he had Wellington in his mind as he wrote. How very much we have to be thankful for in our town -- "Wellington."

Last evening (April 17) I sat beside another gentleman from Amarillo as we, along with several hundred others, watched the annual "Talent Show" in the High School Auditorium. He had driven the distance to see his grandchildren participate in the school function. We talked about many things over the one and one-half hour performance -- but mostly we talked about the unbearable heat.

I'm thankful "Uncle Zeb" was not present else his next article would probably have reflected that one east panhandle town is surely 50 degrees hotter than any other.

It seems to me the high school auditorium is the best illustration around for a "hell and brim stone" sermon for any local pastor, but perhaps we should be somewhat concerned about that impression given to everyone who attends these community affairs.

May I suggest that a community wide effort be undertaken to air condition our auditorium immediately. If funds are not available, then perhaps a surcharge should be made at every function for those in attendance. I would gladly pay an extra dollar to sit in comfort and enjoy the hard work of the various groups rather than suffering the endurance contest to show respect for their efforts.

Wouldn't a community wide effort to air condition the High School Auditorium be in order before graduation?

Sincerely,
Roy D. Collins, Jr.

AUSTIN — Statistics and common sense indicate the 64th Legislature is heading for a wild and crowded finale, and that more bills will die than survive.

This is inevitable with more than 2,200 House bills and joint resolutions and nearly 1,100 Senate bills and joint resolutions introduced.

The system is overloaded, and the tabulations of unfinished business on legislative computers effectively turn on the warning lights.

Of about 2,400 House and Senate bills referred to House committees, fewer than 500 have emerged.

About 900 bills and important resolutions have been referred to Senate standing committees, and some 500 have come out.

With the exception of constitutional revision, which was effectively and promptly disposed of, most of the session's key business remains unfinished.

Budget bills are still in the Senate Finance and House Appropriations committees.

School finance reform measures are in sub-committees, and seem likely to stay there awhile. Agreement is far from reached on public utility regulatory legislation. Legislators have their hands full in the next six weeks, and the facts are stacked against any easy way out.

STANDARDS COSTLY
Federal water quality standards may cost Texas cities, towns and industries more than $6 billion before 1983, according to a Texas Water Quality Board inventory.

Federal requirements call for complete elimination of pollution discharges into waters by that date.

The Federal Water Quality Act specifies that every river, stream, creek, lake and coastal area is to be fit for swimming, boating and fishing in eight years.

Texas Water Quality Board estimates the cleanup of city wastewater discharges would cost cities $400 million a year if their part of the deadline is met. Industries would have to come up with another $3 billion, TWQB estimated.

CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED

Final concurrence by the Senate in House amendments to a proposed constitutional revision resolution sent the issue of a new constitution for Texas to a November 4 statewide ballot.

Campaigns already are shaping up for the eight-section article-by-article rewrite proposals, which are virtually identical to the final recommendation before the 1974 Constitutional Convention. Funds will be provided by the legislature for advertising the document and "educating" voters on its provisions.

ALLOWABLE WIDE OPEN

The Railroad Commission again set the oil allowable at 100 per cent for May in spite of a minor decline in crude requests from national buyers.

Next month will be the 38th of wide-open production. East Texas Field, restricted to 86 per cent, is an exception.

COURTS SPEAK

The Court of Criminal Appeals, by a 3-2 vote, upheld the 1973 Texas death penalty law which permits execution for several categories of murder. Thirteen men are on death row at Huntsville prison.

Texas Supreme Court held that a man who lost an eye in an oilfield accident can collect disability insurance only for that specific injury unless he can prove that other physical problems (including traumatic neurosis) are direct results of the eye loss.

AG OPINIONS

A county clerk has authority to issue a marriage license even though it appears applicants have been divorced less than 30 days, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

A bill permitting veterans to defer paying tuitions and fees at colleges while awaiting federal benefits is constitutional.

A county can spend money to maintain and operate parks without holding an election to levy a park tax.

An investigative report of the Texas Real Estate Commission is public information and must be disclosed.

The College Coordinating Board and Vocational Education Board may refuse to renew approval of out-of-district junior college course offerings.

A statute which bans bringing a child into the state for purpose of placing him for adoption is an unconstitutional infringement on right to travel.

APPOINTMENTS

Gov. Dolph Briscoe appointed Tolbert Thurman Crowder of Port Arthur to the board of regents of Lamar University to succeed William Samuel Monroe of Port Arthur who resigned.

Briscoe named Durwood A. Sutton of Grand Prairie to the Texas Turnpike Authority board of directors.

Truett Smith of Wylie was elected chairman of the Texas Industrial Commission and John Turner of Houston vice-chairman.

Briscoe reappointed Houston H. Harte of San Antonio, Raymond M. Holliday of Houston and Joseph Zeppa of Tyler to the East Texas State University board of regents.

Nelson A. Clare is a new assistant attorney general in Attorney General Hill's San Antonio regional office, and John H. Richards is assistant chief of the AG anti-trust consumer protection division.

SHORT SNORTS

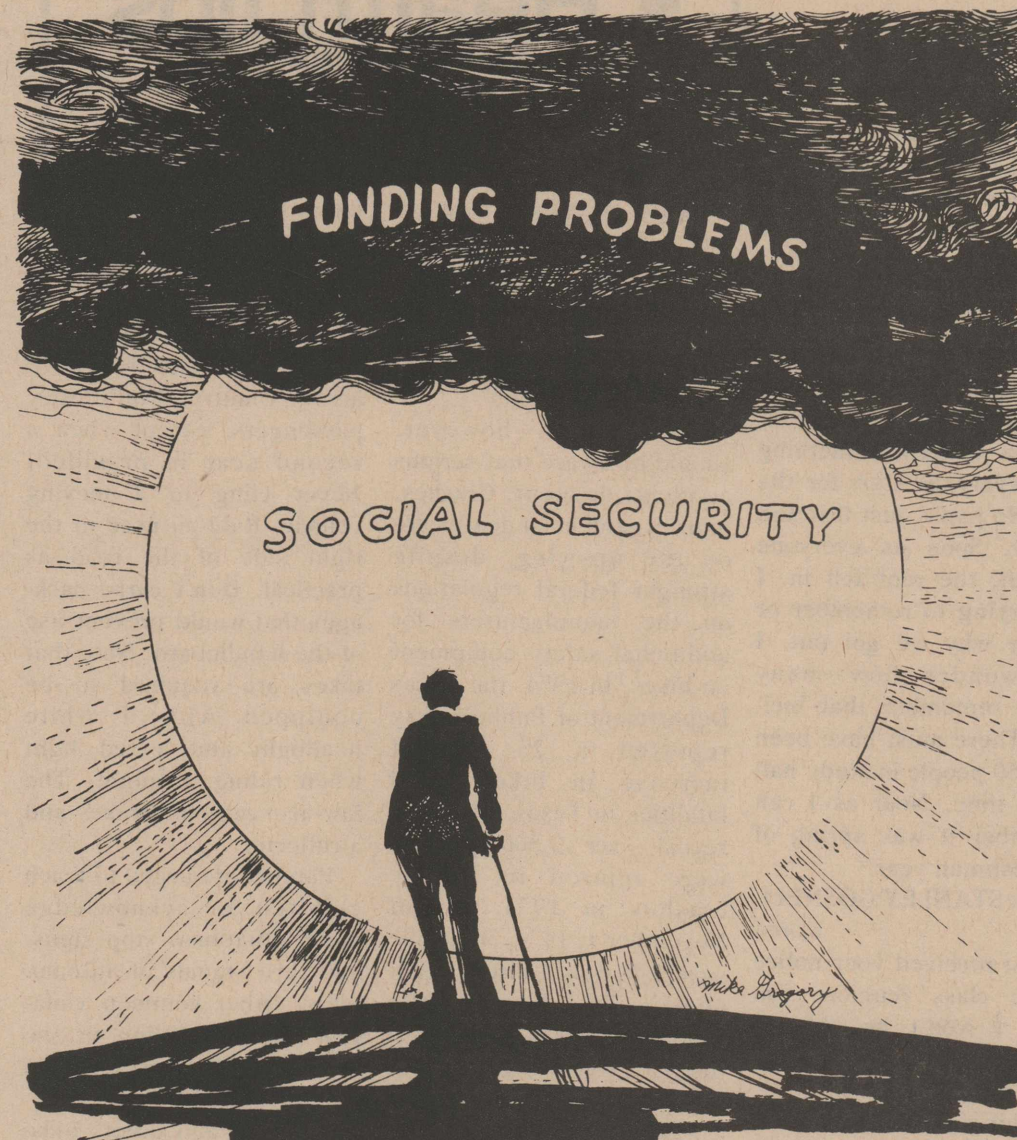

The Senate again passed a bill calling for a study to determine if state agencies are doing adequate jobs and if they should be continued.

A multi-million-dollar alcoholic treatment and rehabilitation program also received Senate approval.

A $150,000 rural development loan went to Corsicana Industrial Foundation to help finance a tool and rubber company expansion.

Amber's Origin

Amber is actually a fossil tree resin that has achieved a stable state through loss of volatile constituents and chemical change under pressure beneath the ground. Largest and most significant deposits occur along the shores of the Baltic Sea.

Big Store

R.H. Macy & Co., Inc., covering 46.2 acres on a block in New York City, is the world's largest store: sales of the company for 1972-73 exceeded one billion dollars. Rowland Hussey Macy's sales on his first day at his "fancy goods store," October 27 1858, amounted to $1,000.

Sign of Waste

Replacing and restoring defaced traffic signs costs an estimated $16 million of the nation's yearly $110 million maintenance bill for signs.

Tribute

The tomb of King Mausolus of Anatolia (Turkey), built by his wife Artemesia, was so magnificent and renowned in the ancient world that his name has become identified with tombs - mausoleum.

Expensive Bulbs

The first tulips arrived in Europe from Turkey in the 1500s. By 1634, the Dutch were buying and selling the fashionable flowers in operations similar to those of a stock market. Bulb fanciers have been known to inflate the prices to $10,000 for one bulb.

Short Takes

Ah, the Limelight

Thomas Drummond in 1825 invented limelight. He produced a steady intense white light by directing an oxyhydrogen flame on a cylinder of lime. This system of lighting before electricity was quickly adapted for theatrical use, and concentrated on a particular point of the stage, became known as the spotlight.

Seaweed Garden

The Sargasso Sea, stretching almost halfway across the North Atlantic, is covered for miles with huge patches of seaweed. Slow circular currents tend to keep the seaweed — Sargassum — congregated there.

Each depositor insured to $40,000

This is the 40th Anniversary of the start of Soil Conservation Service in the United States and the 29th year for the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District.

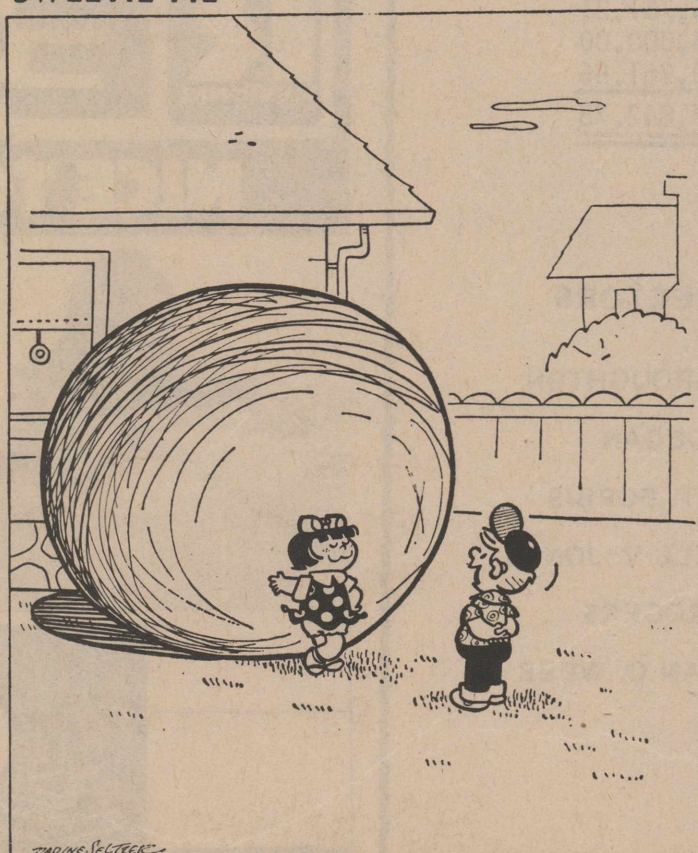

We extend our sincere congratulations to the officials, employees and all of the cooperators of the Salt Fork SCD on the splendid work they have done through the years.

This bank is an agricultural bank and we are vitally interested in preserving the fertility of our soils.

We invite you to visit us with your problems as they pertain to farm financing.

Several Hundred Youngsters Show Talent at Two-Day Event

Big talent from tiny tots-impressive talent from older students entertained a standing-room only crowd for the annual junior talent show Thursday and Friday nights, April 17 and 18.

Most of the youngsters performed as groups, most in colorful costumes or special dress. They were featured in songs and routines.

Mrs. Gary Brewer, a junior sponsor, was overall director. Mrs. Dick Pendleton assisted with the elementary school numbers Thursday evening, joined by teachers and older students. David Null was master of ceremonies.

A twirling routine, "Stepping Out", opened the Thursday performance, with ten little girls in line-green twirling costumes. They were Belinda Crelia, Karen McDanel, Cathy Crelia, Renee Daniel, Leslie Birkey, Lori Lacy, Brenda Baker, Cynthia Shrubs, Carla Nunnelley and Karen Whitten. Lana Lacy was the director.

A solo, "I Can't Say No," was given by DeJon Lindsey. Youthful railroad men, wearing engineers striped overalls, caps and red bandana handkerchiefs around their necks, and girls in period dresses, took the stage to sing "Down by the Station."

Members of this group, the morning kindergarten, included Rosa Hernandez, Rita Massey, Genia Davis, Kristie Keller, Robi Lou Mabery, Tressa Dolloff, Sophia Hobbs, Ashley Williams, Penny Wilkins, Christie Whitten, Tracy Aguilar, Jeff Ray, Wesley Reeves, Jimmy Carroll, Curtis Nash, James McIntosh, Tony Jett, Derek Seal, Tim Hartman, Marty Felts, Lee Langford, Brian Van Pelt and Timmy Collins.

Christie Whitten was the announcer, Timmy Collins gave a poem, Spencer Seal was the conductor. Mrs. Jack Campbell was accompanist and directors were Mrs. Pendleton, Mrs. Joe Tarver and Lydia Rogers.

Five Little girls in yellow dresses, trimmed with lace and ruffles, sang "I'm a Little Puppet." They were Soni Clement, Carrie Langford, Laura Campbell, Paula Nunnelley and Janna Nunnelley.

Boys dressed identically in red and white tank tops, and girls in sailor dresses, all enrolled in afternoon kindergarten, presented "Puff the Magic Dragon". Included in this group were Kenny Peeks, Deanna Snell, Kelly Goforth, Marvin Brown, Kaylynn Bartlett, Linda Lacy, Jeffrey Powell, Vonda Fitzgerald, Andrea Moore, Marshal Sutton, Dearon Munn, Steven Moore, Milisa Needham, Leigh Ann Barton, Angela Watts, Cliff Campbell, Leah Turnstall, Al Forrester, Pepe Martinez, and Wayne Ward.

Raquel Neeley's song was "Free the People."

Dressed in sailor suits and dresses, and singing lustily, the first grade told the crowd, "Here Comes the Navy." In this number were Tim Moore, Scotty Hale, Taber Dean, Victor Garza, Michael Mackey, Tony Gonzales, Johnny Molina, Kendall Harris, Johnny Branch, Shawn Davis, Raquel Moore, Frank Granados, James Patterson, Charles Brown, Christopher Guajardo, Kacy Davis, Rene Herrera, Amanda Massey, Lesa White, Carla Caison, Sherry Throne, Dana Thomas, Suzanne Floyd, Leticia Visiting Mrs. John Henard, Sr. over the week end was her sister, Mrs. Roy Vaughan of Amarillo.

Guerra, Sandy Henard, LaSondra McIntosh, Vanessa Thomas, Trena Archie, Rhonda Heisler, Gina Barnett, Kim Castleberry, Nicole Keller, Karen Mote, Patricia Fourmentin, Betty Vernon, Hope Thomas, Elaine Downs, LaSonya McIntosh, and Kristy Settle.

Marianne Morgan, high school student, sang "Come Saturday Morning," and "Hide Away," accompanied by Mrs. Gary Archer.

The scene changed to Hawaii, as ten petite hula girls in grass skirts danced onto the stage, to the music of "To Your Sweetheart." In this number were Tina Bawcom, Mischelle Black, Lori Lacy, Marcey Lindley, Mindy Morgan, Debra Pepper, Stacey Scott, Deeda Seale, Stephanie Snow and Vanda Wood.

The third grade set a jubilant note with "High Hopes," and "Ain't We Got Fun." Making up this routine were Amy Williams, Dee Ann Williams, Lyn Bartlett, Brian McKinney, Darvin Nix, Todd Roberson, Chad Holland, Jay Warrick, Cindy Barton, Barry Long, Ronnie Ward, Aaron Barton, Michael Breedlove, Drea Felts and Bill Reeves.

Featured in a solo role was Brian McKinney, singing a medley of gospel songs. His mother, Mrs. Carl McKinney, was the accompanist.

In the closing number, the fourth grade tipped its hat to the Lone Star State with "Deep in the Heart of Texas." Boys were in colorful cowboy dress, complete with hats, boots, and red velvet chaps! The girls wore western dresses and cowboy hats. Performing were Kathy Crelia, Belinda Crelia, Renee Daniel, Karen McDanel, Leslie Birkey, Carla Nunnelley, Quency Weatherly, Scott Cochran, Matthew Hanna, Robert Pepper, Eddie Langford, Dru Lacy, Jay Jones, Ricky Martinez, Darren Hall, Jim Warrick and Vincent Fitzgerald.

Music was presented from time to time by That Skyrocket stage Band, directed by Gary Wofford. Members were flutes: Jean Ann Owens, and Debbie Stallings; clarinets: Brenda Willis, Geney Morrow, Sonya Scott, and Penny Morgan; alto saxophones: Steve Emmert, Kay Coffee and Robby Murdock; Tenor saxophone: Richard Sims; baritone saxophone: Larry Adams; cornets: Suzy Castleberry, Kim Cannon, Allen Murdock, Rhonda Hernandez and Susie Patrick; trombones: Randall Sims and Terry Anderson; tuba: Tim Cummings and Robert Burba; piano: Betty Burba; and drums, Freddie Chambers.

Bales of hay were the stage props as fifth grade students opened the Friday night performance. Boys wore western clothes and the girls old-fashioned long dresses as they sang "Down the Ohio," "Pick a Bale of Cotton," "Open Up Your Heart," "Matchmaker" and "Hay Ride."

Those taking part were Eva Martinez, Melanie Pendleton, Timmy Harris, Stephanie Judd, Lisa Hartman, Ed Campbell, DeeDee Heisler, Lynette Spillman, Venita Shrubs, DeAnna Sherwood, Danna Jameson, Anthony Porter, Renee Owens, Johnny Mote, Lisa Nix, Georgia Ellifritz, Valerie Van Pelt, Gaylon Cochran, Michael DeVoss, Margaret Johnson, Maria Cortez, Ruby Munn, Scott Tarver, Monica Foster, Jeff Barnett, and

Home Management

BY MRS. ARLA FELTS CO. EXTENSION AGENT

Americans are using more freezers now than ever before -- and this is because of changing lifestyles.

Home gardening, microwave appliances and using frozen convenience foods have increased consumer demands for freezers. Homemakers who work outside the home find that they have less time to shop and fix meals.

Frozen foods -- whether home frozen or commercial products -- make those homemakers' lives easier

Two piano solos followed, Jeffrey Camp playing "Lazy Picanny," and Valerie Van Pelt with "Baby Elephant Walk."

"M*A*S*H," taking its name from the popular television series, was three short skits, each ending with a punch line. The cast from the junior class included Randy O'Hair, Jeff Hanaa, Mickey Vassey, Don O'Rear, Paul Hanna, Jimmy Saied, Evelyn Gragson and Debbie Ford. The voice was that of Richard Sims.

Patti Page and a friend from Clarendon presented "What do you get when you fall in Love."

Dressed in patriotic red, white and blue, sixth graders gave a march drill as they sang "You're a Grand Ole Flag." Participating were Elizabeth Brewer, Lori Watts, Barbara Reynolds, Thomas Wolf, Beverly Ellifritz, Mary Jane Gonzales, Sylvia Hunnicutt, Margaret Seale, Jerry Lee, Touni Archie, Mark Fourmentin, Toni Isaacs, Maria Langford, Harold Baker, Scottie Ingram, Craig Ingham, Clinton Bergvall, Lori O'Rear, Cody Anglin, Molly Aguero, Ninfo Martinez, Steven Vassey, Renee Lacy and Nita Hernandez.

Juniors returned with "Bonnie and Clyde" a fast-paced take-off of the 1930's, wearing clothes from the period. In the cast were Jimmy Saied, Karen Jeffrey, Lana Lacy, LaDonna Jones, Britt Pauls, Danny Brown, and meals more manageable.

Rapid increase in backyard gardens has spurred consumers to buy freezers so they can take full advantage of homegrown produce.

Another appliance -- the microwave oven -- has contributed to consumers' demands for freezers. Homemakers have found that this appliance defrosts frozen foods quickly -- then cooks them rapidly. This makes the best use of convenient frozen foods.

Sherri Peaks, Jackis Black, Alicia Terey and Edward Thomas.

Two twirling numbers were directed by Linda Coffee. Wearing red checked gingham, "The Entertainers" were presented by Lynette Spillman, Lisa Hartman, Renee Owens, Jannon Thomason and Stephanie Judd. Colorfully attired, the six girls presenting "Sweet Gypsy Rose," were DeeDee Heisler, Becky Saied, Kathy Whitten, Valerie Van Pelt, Debbie Bergvall and Angela Watson.

Wearing patriotic red, white and blue, with top hats, this group presented "U.S. of A." "You're a Grand Old Flag," and "Yankee Doodle Dandy." Renee Owens, Lynette Spillman, Stephanie Judd, Jannon Thomason, Lisa Hartman, Johnny Mote, Ed Campbell and Brent Long.

Three clowns from the sixth grade did acrobatics as their classmates sang "Jolly Old Clown," and "Huckleberry Finn." They were Verita Simon, Stacy Weatherly, Bonnie Howard, Delmar Turner, Wanda Chambers, Josie Martinez, Eva Martinez, Mary Ann Clark, LaDonna Murdock, Cathy Cantu, John Morris, Sidney Herring, Juan Granados, Lennox Archie, Taylor Pauls and Kloette Camp, pianist.

A contingent of scrubwomen appeared carrying mops, buckets and wearing patchwork aprons, to explain why they believed they were "Second-hand Roses." They followed this with a song and dance routine. Included were Melanie Pendleton, DeeDee Heisler, Stephanie Judd, Lisa Nix, Valerie Van Pelt, Becky Saied, Sandy Seale, Kim Morgan, Kathy Whitten, Leigh Myrick, Catrina Atkinson, Kathy Tate and Jannon Thomason.

A western skit, "Gun-smoke" was staged by Bart Patterson, Randall Maxwell, Bill Havens and Stacey Neeley.

A monologue, "A scene from my childhood," featured Freddie Chambers.

A bop routine straight from the 1950s "Rock Around the Clock," featured ten girls in red and white, Kandi Ford, Melanie Watts, Wanda Thomas, Sherri Bailey, Karen Goforth, Jennifer Pendleton, Susie Chandler, Renessa Cardwell, Molly Gonzales, and Terry Thomason.

Among the adults who assisted Mrs. Pendleton in many of the presentations were Mrs. Joe Tarver, Lydia Rogers, Mrs. Jack Campbell, Mrs. Vernon Peters, Mrs. Sam Thompson, Mrs. Gary Archer, Mrs. Farris Wood, Mrs. Don Lacy, Earl Lynn Bartlett, Mrs. Carl McKinney, Mrs. Don Reeves, Mrs. Lynn Carter, Mrs. J.I. Morgan, Mrs. Leon Hartman, Mrs. Chester White, Kloette Camp.

The stage band played for both evening's entertainment.

Miss Ann Smith spent last week visiting relatives in the Lubbock area. She was a guest in the home of her aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David Armstrong. While there she visited her cousins, Lisa Bowden and Sherrill Herring, Texas Tech students, and Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Wilbur and Lukas.

Edith Black was home from Clarendon Junior College visiting her mother, Mrs. Elmer Black.

40 Years of Conservation Have Changed the Face of Our Land

Perhaps no organization has changed the face of Collingsworth County--of America--as has the Soil Conservation Service in its 40 years. We salute SCS and the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District which has served us almost 29 years.

We have worked hard to conserve and increase the fertility of our land. SCS and Salt Fork SCD have worked with us to provide information and technical assistance we could not achieve alone. This firm is proud to have been a part of the soil conservation movement in Collingsworth.

Former County People Hold Annual Reunion at Ft. Worth

The Wellington reunion for the Fort Worth area was held at Jetton's Cafeteria Saturday, April 5. This is the second year the event has been held for former Collingsworth residents.

"We plan to do the same thing about this time next year but plan an evening or late afternoon meeting hoping to attract a few more people," said Dr. Dick G. Ellis of Ft. Worth, one of those in charge of arrangements.

"We hope that those who plan to attend next year will make an individual effort to contact members of their own graduating class who might live in the Fort Worth area."

"Quite a few of our group do read The Wellington Leader as indicated by a show of hands at the meeting. We hope all is well in Collingsworth County."

Those registering included Patsy Smith Bowden, Tanya Smith Herring, Mr. and Mrs. Quince Fulton, Dr. and Mrs. James Frederick Lederer, Dr. Tommy Bryant, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Coleman and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Young, Jr.,

A/C Thomas to Elmendorf AFB

A/C Ronald D. Thomas, son of Mrs. Sam Thomas, has been reassigned to Elmendorf Air Force Base, Anchorage, Alaska.

Airman Thomas is a 1972 graduate of Wellington High School. He will be assigned to the 1931 Communication Group for a two year tour of duty.

His wife, the former Jodi Skinner of Shamrock, and daughter, Rochelle, will join him later.

A/C Thomas was previously assigned to Altus Air Force Base, Altus, Oklahoma as an Inventory Management Clerk.

It will have in the late 1970's.

ANOTHER TAX CUT

The $23 billion tax cut of 1975 is the largest tax cut in U.S. history. It was passed with breakneck speed by the Congress in order to get the economy rolling again. Now economists are saying another tax cut will be necessary in 1976, because the 1975 tax cut doesn't pack enough wallop to help the recovery through 1976. They fear that the effects of the 1975 tax cut will fizzle by the end of the year.

Of the $23 billion of tax cuts, only $100 million extends past December 31, 1975. The increases in the standard and minimum deductions, the $50 bonus for Social Security recipients, the $30 payment per personal exemption, the earned income credit for low-paid workers, and the tax rebate are all one year items. When the $19 billion in personal tax cuts phases out at the end of this year, withholding rates will be adjusted upward and the Treasury's take will actually increase in the first two quarters of 1976.

The reason a two-year tax cut wasn't proposed by President Ford was because of the effect of a two-year cut on the government deficit, already so huge that economists are worried about the inflationary effect
