By MILO FARNETI
PANMUNJOM (AP)—Another 136 Americans and 264 other U. N. prisoners of war streamed back to freedom today but the Reds said 400 of the POWs still in stockades may not come back because they have chosen Communist rule.

A 30-man U. N. Red Cross team returning today to Munsan from three weeks in North Korea said the only prisoners the members were allowed to interview about conditions were hand-picked by the Reds.

Ike To Visit Texas Oct. 19 To Dedicate Dam

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower will meet with President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines of Mexico on the Texas Border Oct. 19 to dedicate Falcon Dam on the Rio Grande.

Eisenhower's vacation headquarters also will go to the Lower Rio Grande Valley, where he will go to the Future Farmers of America. Two days later, Oct. 17, Eisenhower will speak in New Orleans at the Louisiana Sesquicentennial Celebration.

The summer White House said President Jose Antonio Remon Centeno of Panama will visit Eisenhower in Washington Sept. 28. Eisenhower's meeting with the President of Mexico will take place about 75 miles downstream from Laredo at Falcon Dam. Eisenhower will speak there.

The return of the Dutch soldiers was a surprise. The Reds had claimed they didn't hold any prisoners of that nationality. Delivery of eight Canadians raised to 24 the number returned, six more than the Communists had said they would give back.

The dam, which will serve the Lower Rio Grande Valley, was constructed jointly by the U. S. and Mexico under supervision of the International Boundary and Water Commission, under the 1944 water treaty.

The Reds gave no explanation for the additional returns. The nine American officers—four infantry or field artillery—returned today were of low rank and there was no indication when the Communists would hand over top Allied officers held captive.

Bar Committee Urges Banning Of Communist Lawyers

BOSTON (AP)—No Communist should be permitted to be a lawyer in the United States, an American Bar Assn. committee said today.

The group headed by Herbert O'Connor, former Democratic senator from Maryland, filed a resolution with the ABA House of Delegates recommending that both the U. S. attorney general and state authorities with jurisdiction be asked to act against lawyers who are Reds.

The resolution, which will be acted upon later in the week, said it has been "thoroughly established that Communism x x x aims to overthrow the government of this country x x x by force and violence and that Communist activities in this country are dominated and dictated by a foreign power."

Perkins denied on cross-examination, however, that he had had Laughlin "personally" with gunmen at a Jim Wells County polling place in that election.

Reds Charge U. S. Precludes Success

LONDON (AP)—A Russian commentator charged today that the United States position on the projected Korea political conference "excludes all possibility of success."

Perkins insisted on an answer. "He expressed some fear," Perkins said. Small inquired if it were not usual for officers to stand around polls.

U. N. Urged To Forget Korean Boycott Threat

New Zealand Seeks Indian Parley Seat

UNITED NATIONS (AP)—New Zealand's Leslie Munro called on the U. N. today to ignore South Korea's threatened boycott and recommend the inclusion of India in the Korean peace conference.

Munro addressed the General Assembly's 60-nation Political Committee as more countries lined up in support of India. South Korea Foreign Minister Y. T. Pyun said yesterday his government would find it impossible to sit in the conference with India unless India was seated with the Communists.

Among those lining up behind Britain and her Commonwealth partners for India were Iraq, Ethiopia, Mexico and Syria. The Communist bloc also favors India.

Pyun and Col. Ben Limb, South Korea's permanent observer at the U. N., declared last night: "The Republic of Korea finds it impossible to collaborate with India on the same side."

BEVERLY MEADOR ... queen candidate

Beverly Meador Is Candidate For Queen

A major in plano at Texas Tech a year from now is one of Beverly Meador's most immediate goals, but at present she's concentrating on the county Farm Bureau Federation queen contest for which she is one of four candidates. Judging will be Aug. 28 at the City Park.

Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Meador, who live 15 miles northeast of Coahoma. As a senior at Coahoma High School next year she will edit the school paper, the Bulldog Bark, of which she has been co-editor for the past two years.

Last fall she was football sweetheart and she's been cheerleader for two years also. Her interest in sports is not merely from the grandstand or the sidelines, however, as she likes to play basketball, tennis and volleyball and is a member of the girls' teams at the school.

Five years' participation in 4-H work, a term of office as secretary-treasurer of the freshman class and an enthusiasm for reading round out Beverly's interests and accomplishments.

Deadline for applying for the queen contest is Thursday noon. Candidates must be at least 16 years old by Sept. 1 and under 22. Each must be the daughter or sister of a Farm Bureau member.

Colorado City To Be Home For Palmers

COLORADO CITY (Sp) — Mr. and Mrs. Melburn W. Palmer will make their home in Colorado City following a wedding trip to Carlsbad, N. M.

The couple was married Sunday afternoon in the home of Floyd Spivey, minister of the Church of Christ, who read the double ring ceremony. The bride is the former Coleen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colyn C. Smith of Colorado City and granddaughter of Mrs. Stella Morrow of Rotan. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Palmer, Route 3.

The bride wore a street length dress of white nylon. Her jewelry included a locket made from a ring belonging to her great-grand uncle, and she carried a blue handkerchief borrowed from Margaret Williams of Memphis, Tenn. Her corsage was of lavender orchids.

Dolores Smith, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of aqua nylon and carried white carnations. S. K. Palmer Jr. of Borger, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Colorado City High School and attended Texas Tech. He is now employed by the S&J Drilling Co. The bride was also graduated from Colorado City High School and is employed by the Chamber of Commerce.

DATE DATA

By Beverly Brandow

Respect—What Is It?

Dear Beverly:

Since I began dating I've heard people talking about boys respecting the girls they date, but I've never quite understood this. Just what do they mean by respect, how can you tell if a boy feels it toward you, what can you do to lose it, and how can you tell when you've lost it?

Pretty Confused

Respect is an illusive word to try to pin down to a definite definition. Webster says to respect is to consider worthy of esteem. The closest synonym to respect that comes to mind is admire. Suppose your boy friend had a chance to win some high class office by creating a scandal about his opponent.

Perhaps you knew that, under the circumstances, this would be very easy to do.

Now suppose your boy friend, thinking such tactics wrong, decided to take his chances strictly on his own merits. Deep inside you would think, "There's a fine boy!"

You would be proud of him, and admire him. —Or in other words, you would have a great deal of respect for him.

Okay, if you have certain admirable virtues, he will respect you. Most boys prefer girls who are ladies, and as feminine as the word itself. That's not so unusual. Opposites attract. That's why there are two sexes. You're attracted to the masculine type boy, aren't you? Well, it works both ways.

A boy can respect or admire you for your high ideals, your neatness, your ability to cook, sew, play the piano, or keep a conversation going. Particularly they respect the girl who does not chase them, telephone them, or encourage them to pet.

Society has set aside certain ways in which a boy can show a girl he has respect for her. For instance, he can rise when she enters a room, give her his seat on the bus, open doors for her, etc. On the other hand, many polite men go through these motions for women if they do not inwardly respect or admire.

Yet, all in all, these little courtesies are a pretty good measure of how well you are succeeding as a woman. If you lose a boy's respect, it becomes obvious in his lack of interest in your welfare. He will no longer think of you as a person, but selfishly consider how you can best afford him pleasure regardless of what happens to your reputation.

Parents Can Get Children Off To Good Start In School

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Parents can get their five- and six-year-olds off to a good start in school if they prepare them well in advance for their first experience. A booklet, "Happy Journey," tells them how to make youngsters ready physically, mentally and emotionally to enter that new world.

"In this booklet, parents will learn about the skills, experiences, the health habits each child should have before his school days begin," says Mrs. Newton P. Leonard, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, in an introduction to the 46-cent booklet published jointly by the Congress and the National Education Association.

"Here parents will see that nowhere in the whole field of human life an endeavor does their power for good count for more than in the guidance of young children."

The 32-page booklet is intended to help parents get their children ready at home for such things they will learn in school as how to get along with others, how to share, explore, play, listen, use new words, to care for themselves and their belongings, and how to express themselves, how to write, count, eat with others and take care of themselves.

"At school your child will learn more about safety," the booklet says, "but before he comes to school he should have learned his own name, name of parents, address and phone number, and be willing to give them when asked," and he should have learned "to go some places alone before he goes to school."

"Happy Journey" stresses the importance of taking a child to the family doctor and dentist for a "topknot-to-toenail" physical examination. It also suggests that as opening day nears it's a good idea to walk to the school building with him several times. "When he knows the route, and you know it's safe, turn him loose—let him go alone on foot or by bus," it says.

"If you must go with him to protect his safety, stop at the school steps, cheerfully tell him good bye, and leave him to get acquainted with his class mates. At school he should feel that he's on his own."

You may obtain a copy of "Happy Journey" by sending 40 cents in stamps or coin to: The National Education Association, 1201 16th Street NW, Washington 6, D. C. Please do not write this newspaper.

THIS IS GOOD EATING

JESSIE'S PEACH COBBLER

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 1 teaspoon double-action baking powder, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 1-2 cup sugar, 3/4 cup butter or margarine, 1 egg, 3 tablespoons milk, 1-4 teaspoon vanilla, 2 1/2 cups sliced fresh peaches.

Method: Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut in butter until no more fat particles can be seen. Beat egg until thick and ivory colored; beat in milk and vanilla. Stir egg mixture into flour-butter mixture until combined; do not overbeat. Arrange peaches in greased 8-inch round layer cake pan (about 1 1/4 inches deep); spread batter over peaches, then spread evenly. Bake in moderate (375 F) oven 35 to 40 minutes, or until top is browned and cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Serve warm with hard sauce. Makes 6 servings. A good dessert with this menu.

Convent Sister Now Skilled Woodworker

TORONTO (AP) — This fall, thanks to Sister Marguerite Louise, boys at the Notre Dame convent school on Prince Edward Island will be able to learn woodwork.

Sister Louise was one of 125 teacher-students graduating from the five-week industrial art training course at the Ontario College of Education here. Examples of her woodworking handicraft were on display with the work of fellow students.

She admitted that her long robes hampered her work, but said it didn't bother her too much because she was not doing advanced work with machines. Says she:

Paint Protection

Protect wallpaper while you paint woodwork by using an old yardstick as a shield. It is easier to hold if you fasten a screen-door handle to it. This helps to keep paint off your hands, too.

Oil, Gas Use Brings Coal Mine Trouble

WASHINGTON (AP)—A crisis is building up in America's coal fields today even while the huge bituminous coal industry is on the doorstep of a glowing future.

It's one of the paradoxes of our times. Coal is in deep trouble just when there is promise of vast growth ahead. Coal is in trouble while industry in general rolls along at boom-time speed.

The collapse of war-swollen markets, increased mechanization of mines, competition with oil and gas, has shaken an industry sprawling across 31 states with its heart in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky.

Some union leaders say the industry is too big and that the steady trend toward mechanization will force out the high-cost and inefficient producers. They say frankly they would prefer a smaller industry with high wage standards to a big industry with low pay.

This situation may well produce a climax in October when the present wage agreement is open for review. Against this picture of immediate hardship, there is the contrast of a bright future seen by coal's own economists.

These forecasts are based on the expectation that U. S. population will climb from today's 154 million to 190 million by 1975—and that industrial production will double by 1975 to meet the demands of this population.

Much of coal's future is expected to lie in supplying fuel to fire the steel plants and electric utility steam plants. It is estimated steel production will rise from 85 million tons produced in 1951 to 150 million tons in 1975. Electric energy production is expected to rise from 373 billion kilowatt hours to 1,400 billion.

So far, no one is bold enough to guess what atomic power may do by 1975.

Tehran Still Slowly Progresses Toward Normal Business Today

By DON SCHWIND
TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Iran's capital continued its slow progress toward post-Mossadegh normalcy today.

Shops in the big native bazaar again were open, the new government was reported cracking down on Communist and Nationalist backers of the ex-Premier and there was talk of new parliamentary elections.

The new Prime Minister, Gen. Fazollah Zahedi, announced his government would continue negotiations with the Soviet Union 12 days ago.

Zahedi told newsmen Iran would go slow, however, in resuming diplomatic relations with Britain. The break by Mossadegh last October followed collapse of negotiations over the nationalized properties in Iran of the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Co.

"This matter needs more study; until these studies are carried out," Zahedi said.

But Zahedi said he would not renew a law Mossadegh pushed through six months ago offering Iran's oil at half the world market price. The law is about to expire.

The government cracked down yesterday on bazaar leaders who had ignored Zahedi's call for a return to normal business and had kept the shops closed.

Seven of the quarter's 12 top men were arrested. The other five brought flowers to Police Chief Mohammed Dafaari, promised him their support and were received by the Shah.

Soon after, the shops reopened. Despite the protection of hundreds of armed soldiers, however, little business was transacted.

The government also was reported to have raided centers of the outlawed Communist Tudeh party, seizing stamps labeled "Iranian Republic" and vast quantities of Red propaganda.

Iran's most potent religious leader, Ayatollah Kashani, predicted last night that the new government would hold elections for 57 new deputies to give Parliament's lower house, the Majlis, a quorum.

Zahedi said the negotiations with Russia would reopen "soon" and his Cabinet "will continue the attitude taken by the former government."

The talks began Aug. 13 but bogged down after two sessions over Russia's refusal to discuss revision of her 1921 treaty with Iran.

The treaty gives the Soviets the right to move troops into Iran if any foreign power makes the country its "base for aggression" against the Russians.

The Iranians also are seeking 11 tons of gold they claim for services given to Russian troops during World War II and settlement of their long-time claims to various pieces of land along the Russian-Iranian frontier.

McMichael Record Sent To Brownell

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee said yesterday it has sent to the Justice Department the record of its hearings on the Rev. Jack McMichael, to determine if anyone should be prosecuted.

Chairman Velde (R-Ill.) said in a statement the hearings clearly indicated that someone had committed perjury, and that the department should be able "to ascertain where the perjury lies."

McMichael, 36, is minister of a Methodist church at Upper Lake, Calif. At hearings here last month, he termed "liars and perjurers" four persons who described him to the committee as a one-time associate of Communists and as an attendant at Communist party meetings.

Fishermen Almost Caught By Fish

HOUSTON (AP)—Three Houston fishermen who went angling off Matagorda Peninsula came back with a story of how the fish almost caught them.

Joseph Woods, Walter Allen and Milton Derrick were anchored in the Gulf Sunday when a giant manna ray struck the bottom of their boat, almost overturning it.

Then the ray either became entangled in the anchor or picked it up and started out for the open sea, dragging the boat with it.

"We were badly frightened," Woods related, "and we thought of cutting the anchor line. Instead, we started the motor and pulled against the ray. Then it either freed itself or left off. But we saw it no more."

Air Force To Drop 6,600 Reservists

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force will have to drop about 6,600 reserve officers, it says, regardless of whether some of them may be inconvenienced by early return to civilian life.

About 12,500 reserve officers will be let out in the next 60 days, with an estimated 6,000 ending their service voluntarily, to make way for young men coming out of the Reserve Officers Training Corps program.

The Air Force announced several weeks ago that the action would be necessary.

Air Force spokesmen said last night they have received reports that an undetermined number of the reserve officers being dropped will be put to some personal inconvenience. But they said no way out of the difficulty has been found under current strength ceilings and the obligation to make room for ROTC graduates.

Near Riot Occurs As Wives Banned While Vets Return

ALAMEDA, Calif. (AP)—A near riot was touched off at Alameda Naval Air Station yesterday when the Navy barred wives, sweethearts and other relatives from welcoming three shiploads of returning Korean War veterans.

A restraining line of Marine guards held back some 200 greeters as 2,340 soldiers debarked from the attack transports Enrico, Lenawee and Begor.

The crowd became angry and forced its way past the Marine line. Then it ran into another group of Leatherneck sentries.

Finally the Navy—after blaming the Army, then retracting that—reported it had erred and the relatives could visit the troops.

But by that time hundreds of troops had passed on toward Camp Stoneman and processing for leaves, leaving many relatives stranded without a greeting.

To See Eisenhower

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—Viet Nam's Premier Nguyen Van Tam said today he will call on President Eisenhower in Washington in September to discuss the future of his Communist-harassed country.

THEY REALLY 'DROPPED' ON IN

BOONVILLE, Mo. (AP)—Relatives dropped in at Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Rennison's cafe yesterday. The impact shook the brick building.

A house trailer being pulled through town broke loose from its tow car and smashed into the cafe's front.

The Rennisons rushed out and discovered that the trailer's owners, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Pursley, were their cousins from Minnesota.

The damage? Pursley's father, a stonemason, was in the party too, and he volunteered to replace the dislodged bricks.

Disastrous French Strike Wave Wanes

PARIS (AP)—The disastrous wave of French strikes appeared on the wane today. More railroad trains were running, mail and telephone communication improved and the government garaged most of the army trucks that had replaced Paris' tied-up bus and subways.

The Communists, however, were doing their best to keep the walkouts rolling. They threw a new traffic block into the groggy Parisian public by calling out the city's taxi drivers.

The series of massive walkouts—now in their 21st day—subsided sharply after the steering committee of the National Assembly decided last night against calling the deputies back into special session.

The government had opposed the demands advanced at the peak of the strikes when some four million workers were off their jobs protesting government degree trimming public payrolls and upping retirement age limits for civil servants.

Average Crude Oil Production Is Up

TULSA (AP)—Daily average crude oil and condensate production in the United States increased 21,500 barrels during the week ended Aug. 22, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

The total daily average was 6,575,850, bringing to 1,509,334,300 barrels the cumulative 1953 production, compared to 1,438,150,250 a year ago.

Gains were reported by Oklahoma, up 5,300 to 557,500; Louisiana, 400 to 696,675; and Arkansas, 100 to 78,100.

Production was unchanged in New Mexico, 199,950; and Texas, 2,884,575.

Finder Too Old To Meet Specifications

LUDINGTON, Mich. (AP)—Danny Egbert, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Egbert of Lansing, Mich., found a bottle washed up on the shores of Lake Michigan.

No one could tell how long the bottle had been in the water. Inside was a note which read: "If the finder of this bottle knows anyone about 12 years old, please ask them if they would like to become pen pals."

It was signed by Connie Rigdon, 7401 Nottingham St., St. Louis, Mo.

Elaborate Plans Made To Catch Slump In Business If It Comes

By SAM DAWSON
 NEW YORK (AP)—A business slump may be no more new than a gleam in a statistician's eye. But rarely, if ever, have such elaborate plans been made to pounce upon one if and when it tries to sneak in.
 Businessmen have been salting down their plans with caution. The government is setting up a system of economic detectors. Spotters are to report the first signs of a slump. They will act much like a network of radar stations.
 One thing these economic spotters will report to Walter Williams, undersecretary of commerce, will be any drop in the length of the work week in their areas. This is one of the first indicators of a slump.
 News reports are filled with accounts of prosperity. Almost all the figures being released tell of good times, of record highs being set in employment, in sales, in personal income, in total production of goods and services.

 But these governmental reports tell us where we've been. They show how things were in the first half of the year in most cases. In some cases they show the state of business in July. But it will be some weeks yet before the data shows how things are now—and, of course, they give only the faintest indication of how business will be later on.

 The stock market has been trying to guess. The traditional summer bull market never got off its knees this time.
 Instead of cheering that steel production hit new highs the first half of the year, bearish stock traders have been looking at reports that before long steel supplies will top demand.
 Instead of concentrating on the huge flow of cars out of Detroit, they've noted forecasts that output is about to slow down.
 Traders look also at the record high business inventories.
 These inventories, well supported so far by sales volume, would look even bigger, however, if new orders don't keep flowing into the factories.
 It is to spot the first signs of such things that the Eisenhower administration is setting up its network of businessmen, bankers, politicians and organized labor leaders in the leading cities to report on every day changes.
 If a slump should start, several things could lessen its impact.
 Tax cuts such as those already scheduled for next year would offer a quick relief. The supply of money and credit could be eased. Government spending could be channeled to areas and to industries most affected.

POW Says A Third Were Progressives

TOKYO (AP)—A freed American sergeant said today that one third of those in his company of 200 at a Communist prison camp became listed as "progressives" but most of them were just "playing along" to avoid trouble.
 Sgt. Frederick Bakkey, Clementon, N. J., said only two stayed behind as believers in communism.

That Must Have Been Some Motor Scooter

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A truck loaded with eight tons of stone collided with a small motor scooter yesterday.
 The truck driver suffered a mashed foot.
 The motor scooter driver was not hurt.

Gen. Dahlquist New Army Field Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lt. Gen. John E. Dahlquist was named yesterday to be chief of Army field forces, with headquarters at Ft. Monroe, Va. He has held the post on an acting basis since June 30.
 In other shifts announced by the Army:
 Maj. Gen. Fylyd L. Parks, Army chief of information since 1946 with one brief interruption, will take command of the 2nd Army at Ft. Meade, Md.
 Lt. Gen. I. D. White, former commander of the 10th Corps in Korea, will take command of the 4th Army at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.
 Parks will be succeeded as chief of Army information by Maj. Gen. Gilman G. Mudgett, now deputy chief of staff of the Far East Command.

Cpl. Beck Took No Chances With Tattoo

FREEDOM VILLAGE (AP)—Cpl. Edward F. Beck was making no predictions how long he would be a Red prisoner of war—neither the year nor the decade.
 When the 21-year-old soldier from Cincinnati walked to freedom today, he displayed a tattoo on his arm reading:
 "POW, North Korea, 1950-19-"
 "I knew I was going to get out sometime but I was going to believe it when I see it," he explained.
 "I'll fill in the 53 now."
 Proved reserves of natural gas in the United States were 199.7 trillion cubic feet in 1952.

Soldier Thought Dead Is Among Freed U. S. POWs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department told a Montana father today that his son, Cpl. Henry H. Kern, whom he had mourned for a month as dead, is alive, free and soon to come home.
 Jake Kern, a farmer living near Hardin, Mont., felt more bewildered than hopeful when he was told his son's name appeared on the 21st list of returned American prisoners of war in Korea, made public last night.
 He said he had been officially notified July 19 that the 25-year-old corporal had been killed in one of the last actions of the war.
 "We had received his Purple Heart," he said.
 Defense officials doublechecked and a spokesman said there could be no doubt that it was Cpl. Kern who was released yesterday—serial number and unit assignment identified him.
 There was no doubt, either, that the elder Kern was notified his son had been killed. The spokesman said that came about in this way:

 Eyewitnesses from Kern's own squad told of seeing him killed by the burst of an enemy artillery shell in the Chinese Communist offensive at Sangjin-Ni. They said they were unable to recover his body.
 The evidence went through the regular channels, 8th Army to the Adjutant General and was considered conclusive. The grim telegram of notification to next of kin went out.
 Today the Adjutant General's office hurried to dispatch another official notifying Kern that his son is alive and will soon be on his way home to his family, which includes five brothers and a sister.
 "I hope this is right and the other wrong," the father told the Associated Press.

Proud Papa Wants All To Know About It

CHICAGO (AP)—Felix Tavolino, 25, is a proud new papa and he wants everybody to know about his first baby.
 Tavolino, a truck driver, was so happy about his new daughter, Janice, born Saturday, that he plastered signs all over his automobile giving the baby's vital statistics. He hung balloons from the car calling attention to the signs.

Philadelphia Police Make Nickname File

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Skinny George, Joe the Boob, Siggy the Dip and Pretzels are due for special attention from the Philadelphia police department.
 For the first time in its history, the department is compiling a nickname file of criminals and criminal suspects. About 300 nicknames already are known. The file, when completed, is expected to exceed 1,500 names.

Chiang Tightens Formosa Defenses

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—The Chinese Nationalists today tightened their defenses against possible sneak air attacks by the Chinese Reds—within six minutes jet-flying time of Formosa.
 Government officials said both civil and military planes which fail to get clearance to land in Formosa and which fail to contact ground stations are liable to be intercepted and shot down.
 The new measures are in line with those enforced by the American air defense in Japan, Okinawa and the Philippines.
 The U. S. 7th Fleet and the Nationalist armed forces just completed five days of exercises in which planes from a U. S. aircraft carrier simulated attacking planes.

$40,000 Damage

ADRIAN, Tex. (AP)—Fire that followed the explosion of two 12,000-gallon gasoline tanks caused damages estimated at more than $40,000 here yesterday. Four persons were injured slightly. They are Mrs. Frankie Shaw, Alma Mosteller, Twilla Story and Lester Huston.

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—The new director of the Pueblo City-County Health Unit will be Dr. R. E. Johnson, director now of a similar unit at Lubbock. He will take over the job about Sept. 15 at $11,800 a year. Dr. B. E. Marks resigned Jan. 1.

Barber Gets In And Out Of Deep Water

DETROIT (AP)—A 56-year-old barber got in and out of deep water yesterday in a campaign bid for the Detroit mayor's chair in the fall elections.
 Don Taylor donned a parachute and life vest and jumped about 3,200 feet from a plane into the Detroit River. It was his first jump.
 When he was pulled from the water by friends waiting in a boat, Taylor told a reporter he pulled off the stunt for "publicity, that's all son, publicity."

Crash Kills Two

A man and his wife were killed while asleep in a first floor bedroom of their home at Havana, Ill., when a big trailer-truck crashed into the structure, virtually demolishing it. Dead were Charles LeRoy Milner, 45, his wife, Virginia, 33. Four children in an upstairs bedroom were not hurt. (AP Wirephoto).

Stenographer Sought In Slaying Of 14-Year-Old Mary Di Rocco

SOMERVILLE, Mass. (AP)—A 25-year-old "very pretty" stenographer was sought today for questioning in the slaying of 14-year-old Mary Di Rocco, whose bullet-punctured, slashed and partially burned body was found in the cellar of her home yesterday.

Police identified the girl they are seeking as Miss Mildred McDonald, an employee of the State Unemployment Compensation Division.

They said she kept company with Joseph Di Rocco, 25, the victim's brother, for about three years until he married another girl last April.

Medical Examiner Andrew D. Guthrie said five slugs from a .22-calibre target pistol entered the Di Rocco girl's body—in the head, the head, jaw, abdomen and left wrist.

In addition, he said, there was a slash on the girl's throat as if made by a razor or a sharp knife.

Heavy motor oil had been poured over the girl's body and newspapers and a magazine, placed around it, had been set ablaze.

Police said the motor oil did not catch fire because it burns only under extreme high temperature. The burning papers caused only a slight scorch on the girl's side before the fire was extinguished by Robert Di Rocco, 17, another of the victim's brothers, who was attracted to the cellar by the smell of smoke when he arrived home.

Robert said he passed Miss McDonald on his front steps and chatted a few minutes before he entered his family's modest two-family house.

He said she was just leaving the house and appeared calm as she strode away.

Angelo Di Rocco, the slain girl's father, said he went home to lunch and found Miss McDonald there with his daughter.

He told police he asked Miss McDonald what she was doing there and said she replied: "I just came over for a while."

The father said he advised her to leave and that she answered: "I'll go after I have another cigarette."

He said he left to turn to his job as a truck driver after having a sandwich. He said his wife was out shopping at the time.

The slain girl was a niece of Gabriel Piemonte, a Boston City councillor and former president of that body.

Police said discovery of a sixth .22-calibre slug in the mattress of a bedroom leads them to believe the attack on the girl began in the apartment and that she was slain from point-blank range when she ran to the cellar.

A police check showed Miss McDonald left her job two hours before she was seen in the Di Rocco home. She had told her superior she was not feeling well.

Her father is a teacher at the Northeastern Junior High School.

Democrats For Ike Leader Is Penalized Under Hatch Act Rule

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Civil Service Commission has penalized a former lieutenant governor of Mississippi, Sam Lumpkin, because it found he was a leader in the "Democrats for Eisenhower" movement while holding a federal-state job.

Lumpkin resigned by request last Nov. 10 as director of the Mississippi Employment Security Commission, a job paying $9,350 a year. The Civil Service Commission announced yesterday that he has been declared ineligible for re-employment by the state of Mississippi for 18 months from Aug. 21.

The commission found that Lumpkin had violated the Hatch Act, which bars certain political activities by federal employees and state employees whose principal duties are in connection with activities financed in whole or in part with federal funds.

The Employment Security Commission, a job placement agency, is financed in part with federal money.

The Civil Service Commission also said four employees of the Internal Revenue Service at Aberdeen, S. D., have been dismissed for activities found to be in violation of the Hatch Act. AM were accused of soliciting Democratic party contributions from fellow employees.

The announcements were made in line with a new commission policy of announcing action in all Hatch Act cases deemed to be of general interest. Heretofore, the commission has released such information only upon inquiry about specific cases.

Lumpkin, now city attorney of Tupelo, Miss., was the first Mississippi Democrat of any prominence to support Eisenhower for the presidency.

The Civil Service Commission charged that, while a state employee, he was a candidate for presidential elector, made speeches for Eisenhower and served as a delegate and chairman of the Resolutions Committee at the Democratic State Convention in Jackson, Miss. It said also that he led a state delegation to Denver, Colo., in August 1952 and conferred with Eisenhower, then the GOP presidential nominee, "for political purposes."

Lumpkin has been mentioned recently for the post of U. S. Attorney for northern Mississippi. There was no official word as to whether the Hatch Act case would bar such an appointment. A commission spokesman said the Hatch Act case is a civil charge, punishable only by dismissal and ineligibility for re-employment by the state for a specified period of time.

The four employees discharged in Aberdeen are Verna D. Anderson, bookkeeping machine supervisor; Laurence F. Kirkgasler, returns co-ordinator; Al Kraft, chief field deputy, and Verne E. Kelley, head of the Wage and Excise Division.

The commission also announced that the separation of Theodore W. Mueller as an internal revenue cashier at Aberdeen will be recorded as having been for violation of the Hatch Act. Mueller had resigned voluntarily in 1951.

An investigation by the commission and the Internal Revenue Service found that Mueller and the four other employees solicited contributions for the Democratic party from co-workers.

The commission said all five are barred from re-employment in the same positions or in any position paid under the same congressional appropriation.

W. Wallace Layton of Houston will preach tonight at 8:00 in the Open-Air Gospel Meeting at the corner of Birdwell Lane and Eleventh Place. He will also be heard tomorrow morning at 10:15 over Radio Station KBST.

Taken Into Custody

Alfred Mancuso of Rochester, N. Y., is questioned by Patrolman James A. Smith after he and three companions were taken into custody at 41st Street and Second Avenue in New York City after a battle with police. Lying on the ground in foreground is Peter Fazio, one of the quartet, who was knocked out by police. Police said the quartet had robbed a restaurant in the vicinity a half hour before they were captured. This exclusive picture was made by Harold Mathewson of the New York Daily News. (AP Wirephoto).

Tales Of Red Cruelty Increase As Nine More Texans Are Freed

By The Associated Press
Tales of Communist cruelties increased Tuesday from nine more Texas soldiers among men freed by the Reds.
Cpl. Leonard Wilmeth of Fort Worth told how a lagging prisoner was struck with a rifle so hard that the rifle broke.
Wilmeth, Cpl. James Burdett of Baltimore, and Cpl. John Beaudry of Willimantic, Conn., said prisoners who fell along a 300-man death march were bayoneted by the guards.
The young Texan and his buddies endured a march of almost ten weeks to a Communist camp at Pyskton.

Cpl. James H. Sweeney, 22, of 2028 Ethel St., Waco, and two other prisoners from Camp 3 told how they tormented their Chinese captors by riding imaginary motorcycles, playing non-existent pin ball games and pretending to catch fish without hook or bait.
"With the guys all acting crazy," said a Michigan sergeant, "the Chinese would get so mad they couldn't talk."
"Some of the fellows would fish in the drainage ditches—just stand there with a pole in hand but no hook," said Sweeney.
The Chinese would take some of the jesters to a cave and keep them there until they "confessed."

"The guys signed the confessions and went back to raising hell," Sweeney added. The Texan came through Freedom Village in Korea with a pet magpie, Oscar. He brought him out for a friend who is to be freed later.
"One fellow had a crow," a pal of Sweeney's said, "but the other guys ate him."
Sweeney and his companions were captured in late 1950 and spent four months in a mining camp called "Death Valley." There 1,000 Americans died in one winter, he said.

This Hitchhiker Had Over $1 Million In School Bonds

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Carrying more than a million dollars worth of school bonds, Kern County Treasurer Frank Wilkison hitchhiked a ride into Los Angeles in a truck yesterday after his car broke down.
Wilkison was on his way here with the bonds which he exchanged for a $1,363,822.68 check at the Bank of America. The money is to be used to build the joint grammar and high school of Maricopa, which was damaged by earthquakes last year.
When his car broke down at Gorman, Wilkison was offered a ride by the driver of a huge truck and trailer rig. He accepted and arrived in time for his noon appointment with bank officials.

Besides Sweeney and Wilmeth, the seven other Texans freed were Pvt. Rueben Ortega, Alpine; Cpl. Carl Peterson, Hermleigh; Cpl. Lindsey Slaten, Texas; Cpl. Theodore Boudoin Jr., North Texas City; Sgt. Henry Valencia, Dallas; Cpl. Evelyn Perkins, Longview; and Cpl. Johnnie Jayroe, Furdon.

Mrs. Carmen Valencia, mother of Henry, said Monday night, "We have been getting a few letters from Henry, but they wouldn't let him write much. He always did say he was getting along fine. But still we worried. We never did feel he was safe as long as he was in the hands of those Communists."
Valencia was captured late in 1950, wounded three times.
Mrs. Isidra Pacheco awaited her returning son Tuesday in Laredo after American Legion post officials escorted her across the Rio Grande Monday.

Mrs. Pacheco, a native of Mexico, was deported for illegal entry even while her son was in a Communist prison camp. She had lived most of her life in San Antonio but has never been naturalized.
Her son, Cpl. Felipe Pacheco, arrived in San Antonio Monday and was due for a reunion in Laredo Tuesday with his mother.
The Texans freed Tuesday brought to 12 the number released in 21 days of prisoner exchanges.

Safety Council Man To Be Here

A representative of the National Safety Council is to be in Big Spring Thursday for a review of local traffic safety activities and discussion of other possible safety measures.
Don Hill, of Chicago, area representative for the safety council, will speak at a public meeting called for 2 p.m. in the city auditorium. His appearance here is being sponsored by the local Citizens Traffic Commission. He will be accompanied by Clay Bedner, Lubbock, district safety officer for the Texas Highway Patrol.

Anyone interested in traffic safety is invited to attend the Thursday meeting, said George Oldham, executive secretary of the CTC. Traffic commission members are urged to be present.
Oldham said Hill is to review Big Spring's 1952 traffic record, basing his discussion on reports filed with the National Safety Council by the police department. Recommendations for an expanded traffic safety program probably will be offered.

The safety council representative is to arrive here Thursday morning from Lubbock and is to confer during the morning with police, city, county and other officials.

CTC Due To Get Safety Vehicle

The Citizens Traffic Commission expects to have a "safety car" in operation by the latter part of the week, George Oldham, CTC executive secretary, announced today.
Arrangements are being made with a local automobile dealer for use of a car. The machine will be used in connection with various CTC programs.
Traffic commission officials have pending before the city commission a request that the city maintain and furnish fuel for the safety car. City officials are expected to act on the request as soon as they are furnished with details of the arrangement CTC is making for use of the vehicle.

South Texas Gets Showers To Add To Weekend Rains

By The Associated Press
Showers added to bountiful rains of the weekend in South Texas Tuesday.
Jubilant farmers on both sides of the Rio Grande were hoping for increased winter and fall vegetable yields after the burgeoning Rio Grande started storing water behind Falcon Dam and promising an abundance of irrigation water.
Near Weslaco, the old Rio Grande channel was 45 feet deep Monday night. Saturday you could have waded across it. Southwest Texas rains that ranged up to more than 5 inches and heavy downpours in Mexico rejuvenated the border river.
A flow of 18,000 feet per second was recorded at Del Rio. South at Rio Grande City the flow was 2,800 second feet. For the first time the almost-finished Falcon Dam, south of Laredo, was backing up water, a promise of brighter days in the valley.
Over most of the rest of Texas, most skies were clear early Tuesday. Some scattered showers were falling. Temperatures were expected to be hot in the daytime and cool in the evenings.

A tornado sighted near Burk Burnett Monday was sighted also in Wichita Falls. Apparently the twister never touched the ground. No violent ground level winds were reported from any point.
At dawn Tuesday, Laredo was getting more rain added to more than 5 inches received since Saturday night. Alice had a shower. Houston had very cloudy skies. It was foggy at Junction with visibility down to two miles. Fog at Lufkin and near Dallas during the early morning hours had lifted by daylight.
Dawn temperatures ranged from Alice's 77 to 62 at Junction. It was 64 at Marfa, but most of the state had readings in the upper 60s.
The death rate from disease among U. S. Navy and Marine personnel in the Korean War was lower than during the peacetime years 1946 to 1949.

Jane Russell, Howard Hughes May Split Up

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The long and fabulous association of Jane Russell and Howard Hughes is due to end in December and the chances are it won't be renewed. "We've been talking," said the brunette beauty, "so far they made an offer, which we thought was fantastic. Then we made an offer, which they thought was fantastic. Now we're both simmering and nothing's happening."

Home Town Sees Little Of Mamie

DENVER (AP)—Mamie Eisenhower is having "a wonderful rest" here in her home town, an old friend reports, but Denver is seeing very little of the First Lady. So far as is known, the President's wife has been away from the 750 Lafayette St. home of her mother, Mrs. John S. Doud, only once since she arrived there with the Chief Executive Aug. 6. The next morning she attended services at the nearby Corons Presbyterian Church, where she went to Sunday school as a girl. A girlhood chum who asks not to be named says the First Lady has been turning down all sorts of invitations to social affairs and to friends.

But she has been doing a lot of talking on the telephone to friends she has known for years, and some of them have been dropping by in the afternoons to talk over old times. It's no secret that Denver's attitude — they call it the mile high city — bothers Mrs. Eisenhower, as it does some others. It tires her, so she has been sleeping late in the mornings and generally getting to bed quite early at night. During the day when she isn't visiting with her mother or friends, there is the usual big stack of mail to sort through and answer. Last week Mrs. Eisenhower was joined here by her White House secretary, Mrs. Mary Jane McCaffree, and together they have started planning for the Washington social season this winter.

Four Germans Sentenced As Russian Spies

BIELEFELD, Germany, Aug. 24 (AP)—Four Germans, including a telephone girl, were convicted by a British high court today of spying for Russia and sentenced to prison terms ranging up to five years. The four were convicted of collecting information on British military installations near the Soviet zone frontier and relaying it to the Russian intelligence from 1951 until their arrest last July. Werner Berg, 43, a traveling salesman, received a 5-year term. Presiding Judge Sir Norman Edgley described him as the leader of the ring. Erika Krueger, 33, the telephone operator, was sentenced to four years. The judge said she was "an intelligent woman and a very dangerous ring member." Two others, Eberhard Donatuk, 28, and Karl Kelms Dej, 23, drew terms of four and two years respectively. All four had pleaded innocent. They testified they worked for the Russians in fear of Soviet reprisals against relatives in East Germany, but that they supplied only false or distorted information.

Colorado Gunman Tries, Tries Again

DENVER (AP)—Denver has a persistent gunman. He returned three times to rob an East Denver gasoline station last night, once by the attendant while telephone police and again while police were closing in. The first time the robber appeared, Miron J. Ritchie, the station attendant, grabbed for a pistol. The weapon discharged, grazing his finger. The bandit fled, Ritchie said, after he grappled with the man. As he phoned police, the bandit came back, picked up his cap, pointed a gun at Ritchie and scooped up $25 in the cash drawer. A few minutes later, as police and nearby residents converged on the station, the bandit came back again. This time he only waved his pistol and fled.

Sooner Children To Go To School In Tent

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—The Oklahoma City school board has found another way to make going to school almost painless for protesting youngsters. The board voted to use a giant circus-type tent as an assembly hall for the 500 students at the new U. S. Grant School. The new building is still under construction.

Not Intoxicating

DENVER (AP)—The Colorado Supreme Court upheld yesterday a lower court ruling that 3.3 beer is not intoxicating. It was the first time the state's highest court has ruled on the question.

Justice Jackson Warns Freedoms Are Endangered

BOSTON (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson says the nation's traditional freedoms are in danger of being lost through "being gradually bartered or traded" for security. He told the American Bar Association last night that individual freedom is threatened by the philosophy "that all else must give way to the interests of the state." "In this anxiety-ridden time," Justice Jackson said, "many are ready to exchange some of their liberties for a real or fancied increase in security against external foes, internal betrayers or criminals." "Others are eager to bargain away local controls for a federal subsidy. Many will give up individual rights for promise of collective advantages." "The real question posed by the Fascist and Communist movements . . . is whether, today, liberty is regarded by the masses of men as their most precious possession. Certainly in the minds of many foreign peoples our type of individual liberty has been evaluated by promises of social welfare and economic security, which they want too passionately to be critical of the price." "If this indifference to traditional values should spread to us, it would be the greatest threat to our liberties."

The justice spoke to the Bar Association's annual dinner for the judiciary, concluding the first day's activities of the organization's 75th anniversary convention. Earlier the House of Delegates elected William J. Jameson of Billings, Mont., to succeed Robert

Washingtonians Doubt Poll Figures On Travelers There

By ED CREAUGH
WASHINGTON (AP)—What's this? Only 35 million grownup Americans have been to Washington? That's what the latest Gallup Poll says. The number seems incredibly small to anybody who lives here all year round. Most of us would guess there must be 35 million a day.

Don't get us wrong—we love tourists. We take it as a personal compliment when they admire the Jefferson Memorial or the White House aglow with yellow lights in the summer twilight. Our hotelkeepers and restaurant proprietors love tourists too. And there's a feeling the constant presence of peering strangers has a good influence on people in government—reminds them the United States is made up of flesh-and-blood Americans, not just stizags on somebody's statistical charts.

But these days—in these last two weeks in August, when everybody and his brother-in-law is on vacation—is it possible there is a living American who doesn't come to Washington? Tourists, in the opinion of old settlers here, fall generally into four main classes: 1. Honeymooners. You see them everywhere, strolling hand in hand. It is doubtful if they see you, however. From the sightseeing standpoint, they'd be as well off at a cabin in the woods. 2. High school kids. They come in the spring, mostly, but they're

THE BIGGEST BARGAIN YOUR BUDGET CAN FIND!

TOP BARGAIN NOW!

You get today's Mercury with years-ahead looks in every line. You get the best trade-in of the year on your old car, worth more right now than it will ever be again. For proof, see us. You can't beat a Mercury deal.

BIGGER BARGAIN LATER!

The same smart styling, the same advanced design that makes Mercury look so good right now means more trade-in value later. Independent market reports prove that Mercury tops its class for trade-in value.

Mercury sets new marks in production and sales —now offers you bigger selections, a better deal, and top trade-in value for the future!

Figure it any way you want to. Real car value begins and ends with smart style. That's why people buy Mercury new—and why more and more people want used Mercurys, too. And when you back great style with still greater performance, it means you've got the car you want now—and the car most used car buyers will go for later. One look tells you why. Take a fresh long look at Mercury's lines of tomorrow. You'll see the smooth, crisp design that sets it apart from other cars—way out in front of them all. Take a demonstration drive and you'll learn more. You'll learn about Mercury's matchless performance—with its proven V-8 engine, most advanced in Mercury's exclusively V-8 history. You'll learn about Mercury's easy handling (be sure to try a Mercury with optional power steering, power brakes, the 4-way power seat, and Mero-O-Matic Drive). Take five minutes to get the story on the bargain! When through looking and testing, you'll get a big surprise. That old car of yours is probably worth a lot more than you figured. And we'll show you how Mercury's high future trade-in value brings your true car cost down even lower. It's by far the biggest bargain your budget can find!

Country To Live In Consideration In Appraising Costs Of Defense

On August 8 Georgi Malenkov made the quiet announcement that the United States no longer enjoyed a monopoly on the H-bomb. Precisely four days later Russia set off a hydrogen explosion, a fact announced by the Kremlin on August 19 and quickly substantiated by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

a manner almost offhand, that the U. S. no longer enjoyed a monopoly on the A-bomb. The remark attracted practically no attention at all, but two months later President Truman announced that Russia had just set off an atomic explosion.

Administration Thinks Soviet Break From Within Is Probable

WASHINGTON - The conflict in Berlin over the free food offered to the hungry from East Germany is out of the headlines. One reason is that the hydrogen bomb, Iran and other shattering events have replaced it.

strategy. It is known that detailed and far-reaching blueprints have been in existence for at least two and a half years, based on the assumption that East Germany was the weakest point in Russia's satellite empire.

Others, however, took out of the headlines telling of riots and strikes the hope that the East German Communists' regime was about to collapse and that the East Germans would be liberated from their hated Communist masters.

But all indications are that a basic conviction within the Administration is that a breakdown in the Soviet empire is not only possible but probable. This helps to explain the reluctance to consider the proposal made by Sir Winston Churchill on May 11 for a meeting of the Big Four powers to survey the possibility of a settlement of some of the issues long outstanding between East and West.

Perhaps Barnum's Theory Has Been Substantiated By Kinsey

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald.—Editor's Note.

Know what I think of this Kinsey Report? Or maybe you don't care. Anyway, I think it's the greatest literary hoax ever perpetrated on the world; that it's about as reliable as an old pepper-box pistol, and that if it proves anything at all that one thing is the gullibility of the wire editors, the newspaper editors and the magazine editors who have given it more free and for-nothing publicity than could be won by the Statue of Liberty if she should do in a buck-in-the-ring dance on a Spode dinner plate.

rose higher and higher. "People wonder where I get my money," he confided, "but I've never told any of 'em. Only the banker knows. There's my money mill," and he pointed to an old-beat-up Olivetti typewriter and a stack of cheap paper on a table across the room.

His "report" reminds me of a fine old gentleman I met in a small town in Arkansas back in the days of Volstead's Noble Experiment. This old man dressed about like a livery stable porter, had lost most of his teeth, smoked a corn cob pipe, and got a shave about once a week.

If the Headless Horseman of Sleepy Hollow had ridden into the room I wouldn't have been any more surprised. He crossed the room to a cabinet, opened the door and started pulling out magazines of the "confession" type, no two alike, and pointed out his stories. In some of those magazines he had as many as two or three different stories. I glanced through a few of them. They were all written by the first person and in each of them he was the betrayed virgin of sweet seventeen, or the young wife who had double-crossed her hard-working husband, with the delivery boy from the grocery store, or something of that sort.

Grants Of Half A Million Made By Polio Unit

DALLAS—The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis today announced that through June 30, 1953, it had made 28 grants to eight Texas organizations totaling $500,307.10 according to Robert J. Smith, state March of Dimes chairman.

The eight institutions still have in operating funds some $93,454.92 of the $500,307.10 granted since 1938, Smith pointed out.

Largest of the grants was $137,751.14 to Baylor University for virus research and medical care with the second largest grant, $116,859.57, going to the University of Texas for virus research.

The other six organizations participating in the polio program are Southwestern Medical College in Dallas; Crippled Children's Hospital in Marlin; Texas Scottish Rite Hospital; Jefferson Davis Hospital in Houston; Southwest Foundation for Research and Education in Dallas; and the Southwestern Poliomyelitis Respiratory Center in Houston.

Of the 28 grants, 17 for a total of $189,419.83 were for virus research; four were for $13,486.05 for treatment aftereffects; one for education in the amount of $4,224.00 and six for medical care for a total of $190,722.30.

"It is of special interest to note that for the period January 1, 1949, through December 31, 1952, in the March of Dimes campaign in Texas have netted a total of $6,579,024.40 of which $6,316,972.57 or 96 per cent has been spent in the state," General Smith said.

"However in 1952, the Texas March of Dimes campaign netted $2,181,624.57 while the Foundation spent $2,488,938.73 in Texas for polio epidemics; resulting in a state deficit of $307,313.86," he added.

"This means that we in Texas require $307,313.86 more than we donated to the March of Dimes campaign," General Smith declared.

He said that the 1952 campaign collections was the equivalent of 2829 cents per person in the state; the 1953 contributions 3418 cents per capita. In 1954, we have set a target of only 50 cents per person.

Margaret's Beau Due Back In London

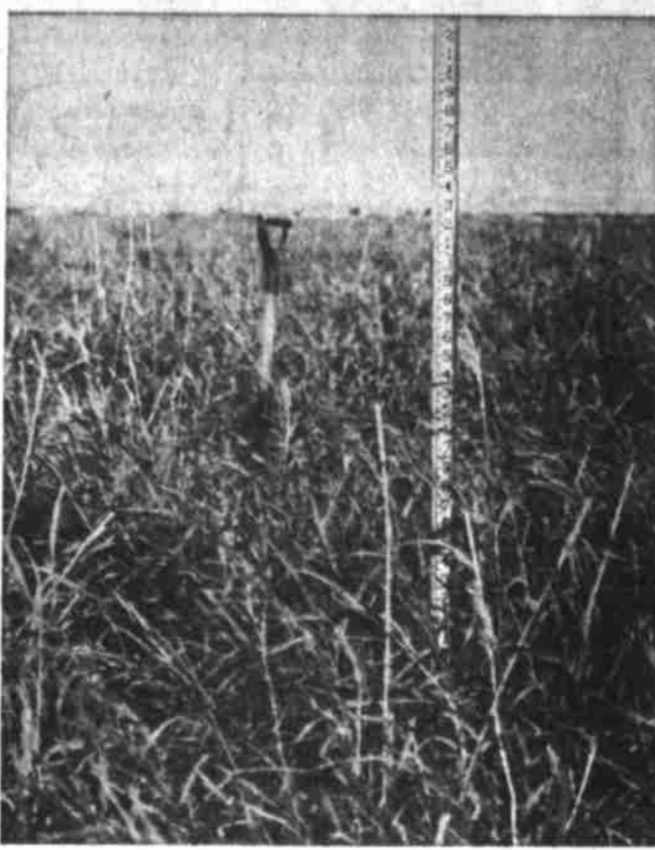

LONDON (AP)—RAF Group Capt. Peter Townsend, 39, the divorced war hero whom Princess Margaret is reported to want to marry, is due back in London in a few days.

He was appointed air attache in the Brussels embassy last month amid newspaper cries of "exile."

The Air Ministry said the handsome officer is coming home for a conference of air attaches stationed in Britain's European embassies Monday. The ministry said it is up to Townsend just when he arrives.

Margaret, 25, is with the royal family at Balmoral castle in the Scottish Highlands. Palace officials say she is due to stay there at least another month.

The air attaches' conference is expected to last two or three days. After that Townsend is to attend an aircraft show before returning to Brussels.

Ready To Graze Again

By June 1, when the cattle were taken off, this Blue Panic Grass on the Cecil Hyden farm had been grazed down to the ground. Re-growth started with 1.5 inches of rain Aug. 4 and, as is shown by the surveyor's rod, it has made a re-growth from the roots of approximately one inch a day since then standing well above the two-foot mark on the rod. Some of the grass on the high spots in the field has not made such a tall re-growth, however, although none of it is estimated to be less than from 12 to 15 inches high. Most of it approximates the situation shown here.

Riding THE GRUB LINE With Franklin Reynolds

Blue Panic Grass making a re-growth of one inch a day following recent rains is reported by Marion Everhart on the Cecil Hyden farm about 17 miles north of Big Spring.

Everhart, SCS work unit conservationist here, says the grass had been grazed down to the ground by something like a dozen head of cattle that had been on it all winter and up until June 1, this year, when they were pulled off. On Aug. 4, this grass received 1.5 inches of rain and the re-growth got underway. This re-growth, Everhart estimates, has been at the rate of at least one inch a day.

Last week when Everhart and the Grub Liner went into the field to make the above picture there were still some spots so wet, from more recent showers, it wouldn't have been to the best interest of the grass to have then turned the cattle back in.

Hyden planted 20 acres of Blue Panic in 1950 and that year harvested 2,000 pounds of seed from it that he sold for $1.50 per pound. In 1951 he grazed 18 cows and their calves on it without any supplemental feed, from April until September, and when he pulled them off the calves averaged 535 pounds with the highest just a little under that figure.

In 1952 this was the only green grass on the Hyden Farm, Everhart says, and it carried about 16 head of cattle. During all of 1952 it only received eight inches of rain.

Now, as the picture proves, it is ready for grazing again.

As far as Big Spring is concerned this year's Lasso del Llano, the world championship steer roping event held annually at Clovis, New Mexico on the Sunday before Labor Day (Sept. 7), will be headlined by our favorite cowboy, Toots Mansfield.

Toots won the first of these big nationally-attended events several years ago and may be repeat this time.

Since Clovis has gotten in the habit, these last few weeks, of occasionally getting a rain, plans have been made to hold the roping on Labor Day (Sept. 7), if it rains out on Sunday. If it rains again on Monday, which is not at all likely, they haven't said what they will do.

This show, which was established by Homer Bennett, and which has been sponsored by the Curry County Mounted Patrol since its second edition, is held in an arena that was built especially for the event. A Calcutta pool is sold in connection with it starting about 1 p.m., Mountain Standard Time.

This year there will apparently be 13 ropers contesting. These in-

FBI Head Says He Views McCarthy As Earnest, Honest

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—J. Edgar Hoover said Monday he looks upon Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) as "a vigorous individual who is not going to be pushed around."

The director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and McCarthy are registered at the same seaside hotel. McCarthy came here for a rest after hearings of his Senate investigating group in Los Angeles.

The FBI chief said: "I am not passing on the technique of McCarthy's committee, or other Senate committees. That's the senators' responsibility. But the investigative committees do a valuable job."

At another point Hoover said of McCarthy: "I view him as a friend and believe he so views me. Certainly, he is a controversial man. He has enemies. Whenever you attack subversives of any kind, Communists, Fascists, even the Ku Klux Klan, you are going to be the victim of the most extremely vicious criticism that can be made."

"I know. But sometimes a knock is a boost. When certain elements cease their attacks on me, I'll know I'm slipping."

Edda Ciano Says Report She'd Wed Red General A Joke

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Aug. 24 (AP)—Mussolini's daughter, Countess Edda Ciano, said today she had told reporters in Brazil she would marry a general from the East side of the Iron Curtain as a joke "just to give them something to write about."

The countess, widow of Il Duce's Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano, arrived here today for a month's visit with her brother, Vittorio, whom she hasn't seen in seven years.

When she arrived in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Thursday from her home in Italy she was reported to have announced she was going to marry a "Polish general," but refused to disclose his name.
