COMPANION OF GUN VICTIM ESCAPES

COUPLE ACCOSTED BY ARMED PAIR EARLY THIS MORNING

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, July 7.—Failing to comply with the command of two armed men to "stick 'em up," Rowland E. Lewis, jr., 37, was shot to death at Inspiration Point number 2 at Lake Worth where he had parked with a woman companion about 2 a. m. today.

Miss Lolley Artie, 21, Lewis' companion, tumbled from his automobile after the shooting and fell down a 20 foot embankment into bushes where she cowered as the slayers fled from the scene.

Almost Exhausted

Miss Artie was found in an almost exhausted condition on the new northwest highway nearly two miles from the Point.

The woman said Lewis jumped from the automobile at the first command of the men. As he walked around in front of his machine, Lewis was again ordered to "stick 'em up." Miss Artie dropped to the seat as the men opened fire and did not see Lewis fall or run, she declared. The body was found about 15 feet from the car.

After the slayers drove away, Miss Artie said she scrambled up the embankment to the car. She called twice to Lewis but received no answer.

"I knew he was dead," she said. "I could not bear to look towards him and I was so frightend I hardly remember anything except that I switched off the lights on the car and ran. I ran until I could no longer run and then walked as fast as I could. I continued down the road until the officers picked me up."

Miss Artie said she and Lewis went to Lake Worth about midnight for a motorboat ride. After they returned they entered Lewis' car and she drove slowly to Inspiration Point, she said. As she drove off the

SEEK TO HALT PRISON FEUD

ANOTHER CONVICT IS STABBED TO DEATH AT SING SING

(By The Associated Press)

OSSINING, N. Y., July 7.—The second fatal stabbing of a prisoner within the walls of Sing Sing prison today resulted in the cancellation of all convicts' privileges, while a picked squad of guards made a cell to cell search for hidden weapons.

The latest victim of what Warden Lewis E. Lawes termed an inmates' feud was John De Lucca, 24, of Brooklyn, serving a term for a hold-up. He died last night in the prison hospital.

Convict Accused

John Mulvaney, another convict from Brooklyn, was accused by Warden Lawes of killing De Lucca as a reprisal for the killing of Frank Doyle, another prisoner, last Tuesday. Mulvaney was placed in solitary confinement.

William Hook, a convict, was stabbed last month while in the prison yard. He was not injured seriously. His assailant was not disclosed.

SEIZE BEER TRUCK

TYLER, July 7. (AP)—Confiscation of a truck loaded with 1104 pints of beer resulted in the arrest last night of Sam Davidson and Tom Richman, who were charged with possession. The truck, which had been hired from a Tyler transfer company, was en route to Longview when seized.

Inaccuracy Annoys Robber Of Hotel

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP)—Inaccuracy annoys the robber who has been robbing the Lakeridge hotel.

He walked into the establishment yesterday, pulled out of his pockets a five weeks' old newspaper clipping which said the place had been robbed of $200 and demanded an explanation from the clerk, M. W. Heller, for the error.

"You know I only got $50," the robber said.

"Just a mistake; I'm sorry," replied Heller. Then he handed over the contents of the cash drawer—this time $15.

DELAY ACTION IN ALBERT B. FALL CASE

GOVERNMENT TO ASK FORMER OFFICIAL BEGIN SENTENCE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Justice Bailey of the District of Columbia supreme court today postponed action in the case of Albert B. Fall until Thursday.

Government counsel had announced they would ask Justice Bailey today to order that Fall's sentence of a year in prison be carried out immediately. The hearing was put off because of other cases.

District Attorney Rover said an examination of a report of Fall's physical condition had convinced the government that the former secretary of the interior was able to come here from El Paso to begin his term.

Fall was convicted of receiving a bribe from Edward L. Doheny in connection with the lease of a naval oil reserve during the Harding administration.

Man To Be Returned On Theft Charges

Cecil O. Lebow, charged with theft of more than $50, and held in the county jail at Plainview, was to be brought to Lubbock today.

Lebow is alleged to have stolen copper wire from the Texas Utilities company. Complaint was filed by an employe of the company.

Kansas Town Again Has No City Taxes

CHANUTE, Kas., July 7. (AP)—Chanute city commissioners announced today that, for the second successive year, there will be no city taxes.

They adopted a budget calling for expenditure of $122,610.50, which is $2,000 more than last year, and said the gas, water and electric plants owned and operated by the city will yield $102,560.50 profits. Additional income from other sources than taxes will permit them to balance the budget.

Chanute retired $80,000 of bonds last year and has $220,000 cash in its treasury. Last year also the municipality purchased a $10,000 fire truck and began construction of an underground conduit system for electric power. The water system is the only municipal utility with bonded indebtedness.

No Speed-Limit Law Is Nearing An End

AURORA, Ill., July 7 (AP)—This city's no-speed-limit law, adopted a year ago, is nearing the end of its days, the city council indicated today.

On the motion of Frank Biever, commissioner of streets and alleys the council instructed the corporation counsel to draw up a speed law.

Biever said the present law, allowing automobile drivers to go at any speed according to traffic conditions, encouraged speeding and reckless driving.

Greater London Retains World Population Lead With Over Eight Million

NEW YORK IS CLOSE SECOND AS BERLIN RANKS THIRD

BY CHARLES HONCE

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—The population race of the world's great cities continues at a staggering pace.

London, which has just counted its metropolitan population at more than 8,000,000 retains its world lead, with New York not far behind for the city proper, although far ahead on the basis of its own Metropolitan area.

Berlin Is Third

Berlin remains in third place; Chicago is fourth and Paris fifth, although the metropolitan population of the French capital is larger than that of Chicago.

The five leading cities on the basis of new census figures, are:

Greater London	8,202,818
New York City	6,981,915
Berlin	4,296,000
Chicago	3,376,438
Paris (within walls)	2,871,039

While the cities themselves have added hundreds of thousands of inhabitants in the last decade, even more startling is the growth of the metropolitan areas. For instance, Chicago suburbs are growing at a rate far higher than that of the city proper.

Paris within the walls counts only 2,871,039, but the population outside of the fortifications numbers 2,016,425, or a total of 4,887,464 for the metropolitan district.

Nearly 7,000,000

New York City, restricted to the population of the five boroughs of Manhattan, Queens, Brooklyn, Richmond and The Bronx, trembled on the verge of 7,000,000 in the 1930 census count. The New York metropolitan area, however, included portions of New Jersey and Connecticut and corresponding more clearly to what is known as

MELLON EARNS HIS VACATION

WINS GREAT TRIUMPH IN DIPLOMACY AT AGE OF 76

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—A financial man who turned diplomat at 76 to work for a world debt-holiday today was free for his vacation interrupted by the most tense international negotiations of recent years.

Andrew W. Mellon has handled more millions in private business and more billions in his ten years as secretary of the treasury than the average imagination can conceive.

Worry About Health

But official Washington was worried about the health of the venerable cabinet official as the terrific strain of the Paris negotiations continued day by day with a pressure that was putting a mark on much younger men.

Mellon reached Paris June 25 after numerous conferences with the British government. From that day he has been almost constantly in conferences that often ran well past midnight, and between times, talking to Washington on the trans-

Two Men Are Held For Chicken Theft

Waiving priliminary hearing on a charge of chicken theft, J. R. Thomas and W. M. Phillips, alias A. R. Pierce, were held in lieu of $1,000 and $750 bond, respectively, awaiting action of the Lubbock county grand jury, H. K. Porter, justice of the peace, said today.

Examining trials for the two men were to have been held yesterday afternoon. The men were charged in separate counts.

Arrests were made by the sheriff's department last week.

Two Suspects Are Released In Probe

DALLAS, July 7. (AP)—Baffled in their efforts to solve the mystery surrounding the slaying of Robert L. Roark, federal reserve bank guard, officers today released four suspects after failing to connect them with the case. Roark was shot and robbed Saturday night while walking home.

Officers continued their investigation, working on the belief that Roark's slayer or slayers were the same who shot to death Abe Schreiber and his fiance, Miss Pauline Cormap, a week ago on a suburban

WITH RESPECTIVE DIVORCES, ARNO AND MRS. SMITH DENY WEDDING PLAN

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 7. —(AP)—Peter Arno, cartoonist, and Mrs. Florence Rice Smith, were back home today with respective Reno divorces and avowals they would not marry each other.

Mrs. Smith, former wife of Sydney A. Smith, New York broker, and daughter of Grantland Rice, the sports writer, said:

"I never want to see a wedding ring again."

Mr. Arno, whose marriage to Lois Long, writer, was also dissolved by the courts, told his version of the fiasco with Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr.

"Vanderbilt has a mania for publicity," Mr. Arno said. "He is now writing a play about Reno. He is a completely frustrated human being. His only satisfaction is when his name is plastered on front pages."

Arno denied any kissing episodes with Mrs. Vanderbilt, and said that he took Vanderbilt's threats lightly. There was no gun play.

"He said he was going to train with Jack Dempsey and fight me. I said: "All right I'll train with Jackie Coogan."

Mrs. Smith said she wanted company on the long train ride and was glad Mr. Arno was along. "We are good friends," she added.

EXPERTS WILL TACKLE DEBT AGREEMENT

INVITATION FOR MEET OF WORLD POWERS IS RENEWED

(By The Associated Press)

Negotiations already have started in Paris for a conference of experts to work out the technical details of applying President Hoover's moratorium plan, and the British government has renewed its invitation for a conference of the world powers chiefly concerned.

In all the capitals of Europe and at Washington the agreement between France and the United States was received with great satisfaction. London is to the opinion that much remains to be done, and Rome has announced that it is ready to participate in any conferences regarding operation of the plan.

Germany To Economize

The German government in a proclamation has promised that the money released by the moratorium will be used only to assist the country's economic recovery, warning the German people that they must economize as never before.

At Washington, Mr. Hoover announced the agreement with obvious pleasure and the state department has gone to work on the mass of detail which probably will occupy it for weeks.

Stock markets in all the large cities reacted favorably to the announcement of the accord, with prices rising in Paris, London, Berlin and New York.

TO NAME COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, July 7. (AP)—With all nations agreed upon the principle of President Hoover's moratorium plan, the American government expects quick appointment of the committee of experts that will work out the technical phases of the plan.

Acting Secretary Castle of the state department said today he expected Young plan signatories to appoint their members of the committee at once. The American government already has signified its willingness to co-operate with the committee although it will deal with problems in which the United States has no direct connection.

Castle said the interested powers knew the need for speed and that he expected it would take the committee at least three months to work out the hundreds of technical details which must be clarified before the plan can go into actual operation.

POST AND GATTY REST UP TODAY

NEW YORK, July 7. (AP)—Wiley Post and Harold Gatty returned by train this morning from Washington and after a hasty breakfast went back to bed to rest after the rigors of their reception in the capital where they were congratulated on their world flight by President Hoover.

Their engagements today included a call on the Australian consul, Gatty being a Tasmanian. Tonight they will be guests of honor at a banquet given by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America where they will receive the greetings of leaders of the aviation industry.

May Drop Charges Against Pantages

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 7. —(AP)—Tom Whelan, district attorney, said today conspiracy and moral charges against Alexander Pantages, theater magnate, and three others might be dropped. Retrial of the group is docketed to open next Monday.

Pantages is accused of conspiring with Jesse H. Shreve, a San Diego business man, and Olive Clark Day and William Jobelmann, alleged operators of a Hollywood "girl market," to bring Lydia Nitto, a minor, to a hotel party here for immoral purposes, October 30. At the first trial the urors disagreed, nine favoring acquittal.

Stabbing Scrape To Be Probed By County Officers

ONE NEGRO WOMAN IS KILLED; ANOTHER BADLY INJURED

While Betty Heron, negress, suffering painful stab wounds on her face and chest, was being cared for by a negro physician in servants' quarters in the rear of 2310 Thirteenth street, county authorities this afternoon were preparing to investigate the fatal cutting scrape last midnight near Merrill park which resulted in the death of Bertie Robinson, another negress and the wounding of the Heron woman.

The point of a small pen knife which the Robinson woman is alleged to have used, is missing and J. P. Oliver, negro physician who is waiting on the Heron woman, was expecting to take an X-ray picture to see if he could locate the half inch of blade.

Plan Investigation

Vaughn Wilson, county attorney, was to start an investigation of the case following his return from Slaton. He discussed some of the angles with Sheriff Wade Hardy and Chief of Police John Lemond.

The Heron woman has two stab wounds, Oliver said. One is in the chest and the other on the upper lip. There are said to be several scratches.

Only one wound was found on the body of the Robinson woman. It was located on the right side of the neck and the jugular vein was believed severed.

Chief of Police Lemond, who made an investigation immediately after the trouble, said he was turning the case over to the county for action. He had the knife used by the Heron woman and it is to be given to the county attorney.

Negroes Questioned

Chief Lemond questioned several negroes about the case. They related their stories to the officer. The trouble apparently was a negro "free for all" in which several persons participated. It followed a negro baseball game.

No arrests had been made up to noon today. Two negroes questioned by Sheriff Wade Hardy were released.

H. K. Porter, justice of the peace, made an investigation of the case and will make his report to the county attorney.

The Heron woman said she and the woman who was fatally injured were standing near the entrance of the ball park and were talking

YOUTH ADMITS SLAYING MAN

SLAYER SHOOTS, THEN FIRES HOUSE WHEN LOAN REFUSED

(By The Associated Press)

MONROE, La., July 7.—Dawson W. Crowson, 18-year-old farm boy, confessed to police today that he shot and killed Ira Castles, 60-year-old merchant with whom he was spending the night last night, and set fire to Castle's store after the aged man had refused to lend him $5.00 with which to buy his sweetheart a box of candy.

Crowson fled from the scene after the fatal shooting and firing of the store, but returned later to the smoking ruins to give himself because, he explained, "there was no use trying to get out of it."

Argue About Loan

He said that after he and Castles retired to bed, they began arguing about the $5.00 loan and that he drew Castles' pistol from under the pillow and fired while the merchant begged for his life.

He said he then saturated the place with gasoline, ignited it and left. Neighbors, aroused by the blaze, rescued Castles' body from the store as the place burned and notified the sheriff's office.

Crowson returned to the ruins after walking a mile down the road. Questioned in the Parish jail by Sheriff Milton Coverdale, he readily related details of the crime.

"I don't know what got into me to do all that," he was quoted as saying. "I'll take my medicine, but I sure wish I hadn't done it."

DEFENSE ENDS TESTIMONY IN SUIT

DEFENDANT ON STAND IN ABILENE HEART BALM CASE TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

ABILENE, July 7.—The defense rested late this morning in the Roberts-Keel breach of promise suit, now in the second week, with completion of cross-examination of Louis Keel, the "green, unsophisticated country boy" (thus pictured by his attorneys) whom Miss Madge Roberts is suing for $50,000. Both sides took time out to prepare rebuttal testimony, which will close the bitterly contested case.

On cross-examination today Keel told Harry Tom King, counsel for Miss Roberts, that he kissed her in April 1929, the night he met her. He denied, however, ever telling her he loved her, or that he "felt bound" to her. He said: "I didn't feel myself bound by any one. During that time and up to the present I wasn't crazy about any of them."

Replying to questions by King, the defendant said a picture which he had in his Roswell home of Miss Roberts was destroyed by his wife, soon after their marriage, when he and she were going through his things.

FILLING STATION HERE IS ROBBED

Twenty-three dollars was the loot taken in a robbery of the Logan Service station, Thirteenth and Texas avenue, Joe B. Logan, owner, reported today to police.

It was the second time this month that the station was robbed, police said.

Discovery was made by Mr. Logan when he opened the station this morning. Preliminary examination failed to disclose the method of entrance.

No arrests were reported by police as a result of the investigation of three robberies of local business institutions over the week end. Loot amounted to in excess of $300.

Places entered were the Hodges Grocery, 1716 Avenue H, the Wooten Grocer company and the Bradley Drug store.

LOCAL MAN TO BE SELECTED FOR POST

SELECTION IS TO BE MADE THURSDAY IN DALLAS MEETING

R. J. Murray, Lubbock business man and civic leader, is expected to be named general manager of the Texas Cotton Co-operative association at a meeting of the committee appointed to select that official in Dallas Thursday, The Daily Journal has learned from authoritative sources.

The position was offered Mr. Murray last week.

His connection with the co-op is to start August 1, it was learned. The selection calls for a year's tenure of office.

Mr. Murray was reticent on the appointment today but stated that an announcement would be made Thursday. He indicated he had accepted the post, pending the official announcement.

Williams Resigned

The position, one of the most important co-operative leaderships in the entire south, has been vacant since the resignation of Harry Williams, several months ago. B. G. Pittuck, secretary and treasurer, has been acting general manager since Williams' resignation.

Mr. Murray, one of the pioneer citizens of Lubbock county, is district manager of the Santa Fe land company, a brynch of the A. T. & S. F. railroad company. He is interested in several South Plains banks, including the Slaton State bank, of which he is president. He is also prominently identified in civic work of the South Plains, being a past president of the Slaton and Lubbock Chambers of Commerce.

Former Slaton Mayor

He was mayor of Slaton for eight years, having been a resident of that town when it was organized. He lived there fourteen years before coming to Lubbock six years ago.

Mr. Murray is also identified with affairs of the First Methodist church here and has been prominent in its work, heading the building committee of the recent educational unit addition to the church.

OIL GROUP IN MEET TODAY

ADVISORY COMMITTEE DISCUSSING PLANS AT AMARILLO

AMARILLO, July 7—Seven members of the oil states advisory committee, including Chairman Cleore Murray of Oklahoma, met in closed session here at 10 o'clock this morning.

Chairman Murray said the "general oil situation" would be discussed, and announced that the meeting would be closed to local operators and the press.

To Meet Operators

Members of the advisory committee will meet with operators in the Panhandle field at a noon luncheon, and may remain in session with them most of the afternoon, Murray said. He said the executive session probably would be concluded by noon.

Besides the chairman, those attending were Marvin Lee, Wichita, Kas., representing Thurman Hill of the Kansas public service commission; Walter M. Downing, Denver, Colo.; W. Scott Heywood, Jennings, La.; Robert R. Penn, Dallas; Van S. Welch, Artesia, N. M., and Carl M. Cox, Public land commissioner, Cheyenne, Wyo.

Proration of the East Texas field is still a big problem before the committee, Murray said. He said the price of crude would go up in ten days if Governor Sterling would call a special session of the legislature to curtail production in the field, and that the present price of crude would be a dollar a barrel if the East Texas field had been properly handled.

The grand jury had been summoned by C. A. Wheeler, district judge, at the reques: of the senate investigating committee. Unconfirmed reports had been that the committee had uncovered excessive mileage payments which might lead to indictments of two or three.

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

READING ALOUD

Repeatedly in these columns I have emphasized the value of reading to young children long before the school age. Many parents have written me for guidance in selecting the proper books for the early age, also for the different periods of school age.

Every child expert naturally thinks he has some superior wisdom in relation to such matters. Maybe he has, maybe he has not. Anyway, for the present, I am going to urge my readers to seek the guidance of the American Library association. Your local librarian nearly always is so guided. She will be glad to give you freely of the pamphlets and folders she has on hand. You can write directly always is so guided. She will sociation, 520 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, Ill. State what you are interested in and enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Many of their pamphlets are free. For others they charge a small sum. Since they do not operate for profit, any charge is merely to pay in part for the cost of printing and mailing.

Among their free folders are: "A Boy's Book List," "A Girl's Book List," "Gifts for Children's Bookshelves." The latter gives a graded list: under eight, from eight to twelve, older boys and girls. The name of the book, its publisher and cost are given.

The list was prepared at the request of the library commission of the Boy Scouts of America by the following committee representing the children's librarians section of the American Library association: Elva S. Smith, Carnegie library of Pittsburgh, chairman; Grace L. Aldrich, Public library, Madison, Wis.; E. Gertrude Avery, Public library, Cincinnati; Nina C. Brotherton, Carnegie Library school, Pittsburgh; Clara W. Hunt, Public library, Brooklyn; Elisabeth Knapp, Public library, Detroit; Avis F. Meigs, school librarian, Long Beach, Cal.; Effie L. Power, Public library, Cleveland; Mrs. Caroline Burnite Walker, Syracuse, N. Y., and by E. K. Mathews, representing the Boy Scouts.

"Medical and Health Publications for the Layman" is a free pamphlet issued by the American Medical association, 535 North Dearborn street, Chicago.

When you receive these guides go to your public library and borrow those you are interested in. If the library does not have the ones you want, you and some of your friends, working together, may be able to prevail upon the library to make them available. Public libraries, like other service institutions, are often short of funds, but when many parents borrow the books that are made free and express strong enough demand for more, they almost always get them.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Two pamphlets by Dr. Myers may be obtained by sending 10 cents a copy for each and a self-addressed stamped envelope, to Dr. Garry Myers, in care of this paper, or Control Press Association 1836 East Twelfth street, Cleveland O. The pamphlets are: "Punishments and Rewards" and "Fear."

SUCH CHIVALRY!

LONDON.—Because an unfortunate husband cay owner felt that orders of his wife were superior to those of cops, he paid a fine of $5 for failing to stop on the signal of a traffic policeman. "My wife told me to go on, so I went," was the explanation he gave in court. "It's not ladies first—it's policemen first," said the judge.

Summer Sophistication Is Revealed at Fashion Show

Bond Reduced For E. Ermas, Tahoka

Bond for E. Ermas, 60, Tahoka, charged with possession and transportation of liquor in cases filed in Lynn county, was reduced from $5,000 to $1,000 in habeas corpus proceedings heard by Judge Clark Mullican of the Ninety-ninth district court, yesterday afternoon. Judge Mullican heard the case in the absence of Judge Gordon B. McGuire, Lamesa, in which district Lynn county is located.

Ermas was represented by G. E. Lockhart while O. H. Nelson, county attorney, represented the state, assisted by Vaughn E. Wilson of Lubbock county.

Lockhart's motion to quash one of the indictments because the two covered the same alleged offense, was denied but the court ordered the bond to be cut in half. Ermas was returned to Tahoka late yesterday and up to early today had not made bond.

Here's the true facts about the amazing relief that Herb Extract (for years called Herb Juice) has brought to Tulsa sufferers. Mr. Call, well known photographer, says:—

"So many people came into my studio to have pictures made for the purpose of leaving their names and giving their endorsements in behalf of Miller's Herb Extract, that I began to wonder about the herbal preparation. I, myself, needed something in this medicine. I was a sufferer. I ached all over. I was bothered with bilious attacks, indigestion and improper bowel movement, all of which was due to my constipated condition I believe. The use of the first bottle of Miller's Herb Extract (formerly called Herb Juice) fully convinced me that I had started on the right medicine—to overcome ill health and to once more feel the thrill of a healthy condition. It has done for me all that is claimed in the advertising. I really feel years younger and have a great deal more pep and energy. My ailments are gone and I am feeling fine."

PROBE STATUS OF ALIENS

CITY HEADQUARTERS FOR IMMIGRATION WORK IN AREA

Lubbock was made headquarters of all immigation work for the Texas Panhandle with establishment of an office here for Oscar S. Norling, inspector in charge, R. B. Mathews, El Paso, acting director of the immigration service, announced yesterday.

Mr. Norling is living at 2323 8th street and will make his home his temporary office until the new county jail is ready for occupancy.

The inspector has had six years experience in the work, having entered the service in 1925. He has been stationed at El Paso and has worked along the border during that time.

Mr. Norling's duties will be to assist aliens in the Panhandle. He is prepared to render aid to any and all persons who come under his jurisdiction. Any immigration matters arising in the Panhandle will be turned over to him for investigation.

"He will also conduct general immigration investigations and handle the cases of aliens who desire to have their residence legalized under the registry act of 1929," Mr. Mathews explained. "This particular act provides that aliens who entered the United States illegally, or without proper inspection, prior to June 3, 1921, may have their residence legalized if found to be of good moral character and not subject to deportation, for which a fee of $20 is charged."

Several years ago the service had an officer stationed at Amarillo but owing to need of economy and the fact that immigration matters were not pressing, the office was closed, Mr. Mathews added.

"After the passage of the immigration act of 1924 and the registry act of 1929 it was found that there was considerable immigration work in the Panhandle of Texas," Mr. Mathews explained. "This work was taken care of by detailing an officer from either the El Paso or Presidio offices.

"Last year a survey was made and a recommendation submitted to the commissioner general of immigration at Washington, that an officer be stationed in Lubbock. This city was selected for this purpose for the reason that it is more centrally located for immigration purposes than some of the other cities."

The chamber of commerce, the director said, had agreed to get an office for the inspector in the court house. When Mr. Norling arrived he found the court house full and the new jail not completed. As soon as the jail is ready for occupancy, the inspector will be stationed there.

"Aw, Judge!"

"Vagrancy and disorderly conduct—ten days!" "Half-Pint," a juvenile delinquent of Washington, took the sentence without a murmur, and when this picture was taken he was on his way to serve his time in the District pound for biting 7-year-old Catherine Alsop. "Half-Pint" was not represented by counsel at the hearing, or it might have been brought out that he is still on a milk diet because his teeth are so tiny. However, hundreds of capital residents have sprung to his defense with promises of the $2 bail and a good home when the puppy has paid his debt to society.

Place your finger on your Adam's Apple. You are actually touching your larynx—this contains your voice box—your vocal chords.
From the report of a famous scientist who studied the effects of LUCKY STRIKE'S exclusive "TOASTING" Process—
"During the course of some recent investigations...we became interested to ascertain whether Ultra Violet Rays produced any change in the quality of the cigarettes. It may interest you to know that I was able to detect a very definite difference in the irritant qualities of the treated and untreated cigarettes. Several tests were made, not only on myself, but others as well, and we experienced little difficulty in selecting the treated or irradiated cigarettes as distinctly less irritating to the mucous membrane of the nose and pharynx than the control or untreated cigarettes."
Sunshine mellows—heat purifies—that's why LUCKY STRIKE'S exclusive "TOASTING" Process includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays. Remember—LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette in America that brings you the added benefits of "TOASTING". And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple". Be careful in your choice of cigarettes.

HUBBERS WILL MEET SLATON TIGERS UNDER LIGHTS TONIGHT

HOUSTON HOLDS TO FIRST POSITION

Collier Parris

Baseball tonight at Merrill Park. Hubbers vs Slaton Tigers. Game starts at 8:30 o'clock. Knight probably will hurl for Lubbock.

The Hubbers should go places in the Amarillo tournament next week. If the club was fortified by the addition of two more men, one of whom knew the difference between a curve and a low inside and could throw either, the Hubbers would be off for the races.

Knight is the standout hurler of the troupe but he isn't the only man on the team who knows where home plate is from the pitcher's box. Baine, who drifted into these parts when there were rumors of the Panhandle League, might be developed into a fair tosser. He's not a star by any means and he was almost beaten for an inning or two Saturday night. But Lubbock may have to depend on him and we hope he improves.

Ed Hambright, star centerfielder, is no mean pitcher himself. We've never seen him on the mound and he's too good an outfielder and hitter to send to the hill when there's somebody else that can throw 'em over, but we've heard it noised out, even by Ham himself, that he has a screwy knuckle ball that is hard to fathom. Also a straight fast one. Ray Waller, hefty outfielder and utility first baseman, has been known to turn in some fair pitching exhibitions. Once in a City league game not long ago he hurled a no-hit, no-run game and for a few days he was the talk of the town. He can be used in an emergency.

Willis Knight, by the way, is a fair infielder as well as a hurler. In the last two games he played on the first sack and did a neat job of it, though being charged with a couple of errors in the sandstorm Saturday night. He's no mean hitter, either. When he can't win his game on the mound he has the ability to deliver at the plate, sometimes banging out two and three hits per game. His value to the club is no small item. He came up with two aboard the other night and the man sitting back of this writer said "Knight couldn't hit a watermelon with an ironing board" had to swallow his words the next instant when the hurler blasted a double.

We are told that some of the Amarillo Aviators did not understand the way we marked down hits and errors against and for them in the game here. Well, my dears, we did it in the most orthodox fashion—with a pencil and a scorebook. Shouldn't be hard to understand, even for sandlot players like yourselves.

And as for you Hubbers who sarcastically remark that you never knew how many hits you made until you see the box score in the paper, you're really getting a bargain in paying not more than five cents for the paper, et cetera, etc.

A picture post-card comes this morning from W. L. "Crip" Golightly, until recently and for the past year head basketball coach and assistant football coach at Texas Tech. The card is dated from New York, and has a very attractive picture of the Empire state building, the moon and a section of Manhattan. The picture was made at night and the lights in the towering office buildings, the moon peeking from between hazy clouds and the Hudson river in the background makes pretty stationery. Oh, yes, Crip says he drove through from Houston, leaving Sunday morning and arriving at Harlem on Wednesday night. He will write more later, as all cards impart.

Golightly has a good thing if he'll hang onto it. His roving spirit may claim him for gay Paree or foggy London next, or bring him back to milder circles of civilization, but he has a chance to take over a department of physical education classes at Columbia university, at the same time driving on toward a master's degree at that institution. Crip is a good coach, best at basketball, but he's a better physical education director than coach and if he gets in on the ground floor at Columbia he will have nothing to regret, particularly his leaving Lubbock and Tech.

We're not sure where we got it, but last week the idea came to us that "Jew" Keeling, recently assistant coach at Lubbock High, now head coach at Tivey High, Kerrville, was being or had been considered as a possible successor to Golightly at Tech. It's a great compliment to Keeling if it is true, like Cawthon, Tech's head man in the athletic department, likes Keeling and that is a compliment in itself. It may be that Golightly's position will go unfilled this year but there is a lot of work for three men. Keeling might be the man for the place. He's a capable basketball coach and has had enough football experience, as a player and a coach, to know what it is all about.

VISITORS ARE OUT AFTER REVENGE

WALLER'S NINE MAY ENTER GLOBE-NEWS ANNUAL TOURNEY

Manager J. D. "Dirty" Waller of the Lubbock Hubbers did not know definitely whether or not the Hubbers would journey to Amarillo this weekend to take part in the annual Globe-News tournament which begins Saturday, but he was perfectly certain that the local semi-pro bunch would have all the baseball they could handle at home for the remainder of the week.

Beginning tonight a series of three games will be played between now and Saturday morning. The Slaton Tigers will invade the local precincts tonight for their first taste of night baseball. According to reports from the neighboring city, the Tigers are coming armed with potential base hits and an ambition to gather revenge for a previous drubbing at the hands of the record-making Hubbers. Tonight's game, the third for the Hubbers under their new lights, will begin promptly at 8:30, and promises to be more interesting than the Amarillo-Lubbock games of last week.

To Meet Littlefield

The Littlefield club, which has once bowed to Lubbock this season, is coming over Friday night.

Plans have not been completed but it is reasonably certain that the Lamesa Lobos, who have given the Hubbers more trouble than any other team this season, will be here tomorrow night. It will be the first night game for the Lobos but they will be thinking more of winning than of playing under the synthetic sunlight. Twice they have tasted victory over the Hubbers, the only team to defeat the locals twice this season, and it was sweet. They have lost four times to Waller's nine.

The game tonight will be witnessed by a large crowd of Slaton supporters and it is thought that the faithful of Lubbock will turn out en masse. Fair weather is promised and the lights have been focused properly after three games under them.

PHILLIES WIN OVER ROBINS

PLAYER TRADED FROM BROOKLYN DEFEATS FORMER MATES

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

It still is a matter of conjecture whether the Brooklyn Robins got the better of the deal whereby they parted with Jumbo Jim Elliott and two other players in exchange for Lefty O'Doul and Fresco Thompson.

At any rate, it would appear that the jovial Uncle Robbie made a tactical error in turning Elliott over to a club in the same league. Since joining the Phillies the big fellow has pitched fine ball against all comers, but he has been particularly poisonous to his former mates. But for the treatment they have received at Elliott's hands, the Robins would be in the thick of the National league pennant fight today.

Wins Fifth Time

Facing his former pals yesterday for the seventh time this year, Elliott turned in his fifth victory over the flock, 5 to 3. He held them to six hits, four of which came in the last three innings, and was their master all the way. Hal Lee, who accompanied Big Jim to Philadelphia, also took a healthy slap at his former comrades in the form of a homerun with one on. Buzz Arlett drove in the other three Phillie runs with a homerun and a double.

There seems to be a law, incidentally, against the Robins winning six straight. Yesterday marked the fourth time this season they have met defeat after a run of five consecutive victories. The reverse cost them a virtual tie with the Giants for third place, as rain held the McGrawmen idle at Boston.

The St. Louis Cardinals went into the final inning one down to the Chicago Cubs, but they emerged with a 6 to 5 victory. A walk to Sparky Adams and successive doubles by Jim Collins and Wally Roettger scored two runs and defeated Roy Smith. Five pitchers worked for the league leaders.

Rain Halts Duel

Washington and Philadelphia, meeting in the second game of their important American league series, might have been battling yet but for a downpour that cleared the diamond in the last of the eighth. Neither Rube Walberg, the champions' star southpaw, nor Bump Hadley had allowed a run up to that time, and they were getting stronger all the time.

The Cleveland Indians went on another scoring rampage to square their series with Detroit, 13 to 6.

Vic Frasier, the White Sox rookie righthander, yielded only five hits and struck out nine batters in subduing the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 3. Rain interfered with the Yankee-Red Sox encounter at New York.

Billie Burke Is Victor In Open Over Coast Star

IRONMAN PRO WINS IN BITTER PLAY OFF AT INVERNESS

BY PAUL MICKELSON

TOLEDO, O., July 7. —(AP)—Billie Burke, ironman from Greenwich, Conn., sat on the throne of American golf today, victor of the game's longest and bitterest fought championship marathon.

His mighty, surefire war clubs brought home the big price yesterday when he out-lasted and outshot George Von Elm, big business man of golf from Los Angeles, by a single shot after a 72-hole overtime battle over the sun scorched Inverness layout.

Golf champions will come and go but the stirring battle between the new king and Von Elm never will be forgotten as long as the game endures and the boys gather around the "19th hole," to talk about the old Scotch pastime. It was a battle which lasted 144 holes and was not decided until the last stroke; a fight, which found the two deadlocked for first place with 292's against a field of 142 rivals after regulation holes, another test that found them in a stalemate after 36 holes of overtime with 149's and a thrilling skirmish which ended only after 36 more nerve wracking holes over the sand traps and narrow fairways.

Von Elm, who sank a 15-foot putt for a birdie three on the home green to tie Burke in regulation time Saturday and then rammed home another from 12 feet on the same green in the first play-off Sunday to shove it into another play-off, couldn't duplicate his feats yesterday when the big showdown came, but it wouldn't have helped him anyway. After another ding dong battle which saw one and then the other come up into the lead, Burke went one shot ahead on the 32nd green and extended his margin to two on the 34th. It was too late and too much for Von Elm to make up that time and the long endurance battle ended with Burke freezing him out easily with par golf on the 35th and with safe and sane golf on the final green, where he calmly measured three easy putts for a five to Von Elm's par four.

The final duel was a thriller from start to finish and not until Burke gained his two shot lead and held it to the 36th tee did it break up. In the morning the lead changed hands three times and four times the struggle was in deadlock. Whipping his drives sure and straight most of the way Von Elm finally prevailed when he shelled the 18th for a par four while Burke, wild and short, got a five. The shift in fortunes sent Von Elm to lunch one stroke in front with medal cards of 36-35—76 to Billie's 37-40—77.

Not To Be Denied

But Burke was not to be denied. Back he came with a great burst of golf to shoot the first nine stretch in the afternoon in 34, one under par, to Von Elm's 36 to catch up and pass him by a shot at the three-quarter turn. On the 28th Von Elm dropped his putt, a curling shot 18 feet long for a birdie three to throw the match into deadlock once more. They both missed birdie three's by inches on the next green and the match stayed all even. But it was Burke's turn on the 30th. He steamed in a putt from 15 feet and in to bound one shot in front. But he got tangled up with a trap on the short 31st to take a four to Von Elm's par three and the fight was even again. Then came the beginning of the end for Von Elm. The Prussian, playing a bold game pushed his drive on the 416-yard 32nd hole to the rough and had to play safely, losing the hole to Billie's par four and going down never to come back. He had to take bold chances after that and failed as related, Burke's medal round for the afternoon was 34-37—71, par for the course; Von Elm's was 36-37—73.

Burke, an ex-caddy from Naugatuck, Conn., is rated as one of the steadiest golfers in the game and promises to be a worthy successor to the mighty Bobby Jones, who surrendered the title without firing a shot.

THE TIME MAY COME

LONDON.—Newspapers here are greatly worked up over the opinion of a scientist that mother-love depends on a minute portion of manganese in the woman's blood. Says one of the weekly papers: "The time may come when women who desert their children may be hauled into court and forcibly fed manganese by bailiffs."

TRAIL MILK BOTTLES

LONDON.—The humble milk bottle may be unimportant in the rush of the world's business, but they're so important to the milk trade that it employs 70 detectives and inspectors to track down lost or stolen milk bottles and churns. During 1930 their activities restored no fewer than 8,000,000 bottles and 33,000 churns.

VINES, GLEDHILL WIN IN DOUBLES

ST. LOUIS, July 7 (AP)—Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill, youthful California stars, have added the national clay courts doubles title to their list of tennis triumphs.

Bringing the 21st annual clay courts tournament to a close at the Triple A club here late yesterday, Vines and Gledhill won from Berkeley Bell of New York, a former University of Texas ace, and Bruce Barnes, Austin, Tex., 6-3, 7-9, 10-8, 9-7.

Vines won the singles title Sunday defeating Gledhill in straight sets. Fritz Mercur and Gilbert Hall, who won the doubles title in the 1930 tournament at Kansas City, did not defend their championship. Bryan Grant, jr., Atlanta, Ga., 1930 singles champion, was defeated in the quarter-finals by Barnes.

Vines recently won the Southern California and the California state singles titles, while Gledhill won the recent national intercollegiate tournament. They were the national junior doubles champions in 1929.

The steady all-around play of Vines and Gledhill, together with the nervousness of Bell, usually a steady and flashy performer, won the doubles title for the Californians. In the first set, Bell missed several apparent setups, while Gledhill was especially effective with his "kill" shots.

GALVESTON IS LIMITED TO FIVE HITS

SPORTS END WINNING STREAK WITH LOSS TO FORT WORTH

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Defeating Galveston 3 to 0, the Houston Buffaloes "stayed put" at the Texas league pinnacle through Monday games. Tex Carleton gave the Buffaloes their seventh win in the second half race when he struck out 10 Buccaneers and limited Galveston to five hits. Medwick, Houston right fielder, got his second home run within two days to aid in sending the Buccaneers down to defeat. Black Bill Harris toiled for the Galveston aggregation, and had perfect control, allowing only five hits, but his mates could not get him a single run. It made Galveston's seventh straight defeat in the second half.

Cats Down Sports

The Shreveport Sports, who until Monday had won five out of six games, and had started veteran Texas league critics to wondering about them, lost to Fort Worth 6 to 2. Dick McCabe was the big reason the Sports went down. Ralph Erickson of no run and no hit fame worked a splendid game for the Sports, giving six hits, one less than McCabe, but a four run rampage by the Cats in the third spoiled Erickson's otherwise fine game.

The Beaumont Exporters went into a tie with Shreveport for second place by defeating the San Antonio Indians, 7 to 3. George Maisky San Antonio castoff, twirled against his former mates and let them down with six hits for an easy win. The Exporters mixed timely base hits with some erratic playing by San Antonio to cash in. Hamilton, Edwards and White hit home runs.

Steers Win

At Wichita Falls, the Dallas Steers made it two out of three by winning from the Spudders, 11 to 3. Lester White was chased by a barrage of Dallas hits in the first frame when Dallas scored five runs.

Lefty Fuhr started for Dallas, but the Spudders got to him for three runs in the first, sending him to the showers. Lou Garland went to the rescue and held the Spudders runless the next eight innings. Garland got credit for the win. Cowboy Jones led Dallas' offense with three hits, one a home run.

LEGION-LIONS TO MEET RAINBOWS

The Legion-Lions and Rainbow baseball teams will meet in a regular scheduled City League game this afternoon at Rainbow park. The game will start at 6 o'clock.

The Texas Utilities and Avalanche-Journal clubs are now tied for first place in the City League standings, the latter defeating the Rainbows last Friday in the last contest played.

NO ZOO FOR HIM

PARIS.—A six-foot orang-outang escaped from the Paris zoo and took up his abode in an apartment house. He announced his presence by sitting heavily on the keys of the piano. The noise disturbed him and he grabbed several pictures off the wall and hurled them around the room. Then he sat down until his keeper came. All the choice tidbits the keeper had to offer couldn't induce the animal to quit the house.

SHARKEY PROMISES SCHMELING REAL BEATING IF THEY EVER FIGHT AGAIN

BY EDWARD J. NEIL

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP) — Jack Sharkey, big, brown and bellicose, banged on the dinner table in his hotel so that the dishes rattled and the waiter jumped in alarm.

"I'll keep fighting," he growled, "until I get that Schmeling in the ring with me again. Then I'll give him the beating of a lifetime.

"He doesn't want to fight me again and in one way I don't blame him. He knows he'll get licked. But sooner or later he'll have to meet me again, and when he does—

Eyes Flash Fiercely

The pale blue eyes of the Boston sailor man flashed fiercely. He scowled and glared at his clenched fist. There will never be any trouble for any promoter engaging the Sharkey half of a match with the German who won their first meeting, and along with it recognition as a champion, on a foul in four rounds, after being soundly trounced in the first three.

Sharkey came to town yesterday to sign articles and start training for his 15-round match with Mickey Walker, the former middleweight champion, in Ebbets field, Brooklyn, July 29. A few hours later, Schmeling, hailed as a true champion after knocking out Young Stribling in the 15th round of their title go in Cleveland, sailed for Germany. He will return in August, probably for a September fight with Primo Carnera, the Italian giant.

Picks Carnera

"He'd better not fight Carnera," Sharkey said. "The Italian will pound him down like sauerkraut in a barrel. Schmeling starts slow. Carnera starts fast. He'll club the German down before Schmeling gets going. Anyway, I understand Schmeling is afraid of Carnera and wants to fight Tommy Loughran instead."

Sharkey was not surprised that Schmeling whipped Stribling so badly in Cleveland.

"It was just what I expected," Sharkey said. "I knew Stribling would fold up the first time he was pressed. And that's what he did."

Sharkey, weighing about 202 pounds, expects to scale 196 for Walker, an over-grown middleweight who probably will weigh no more than 170. Sharkey can't see how this bout can even be a contest but there's money in it and that's one of the most interesting things about the boxing business.

"Before I get through this year," he announced, "I want to knock out Walker, Loughran again, and Carnera. There'll be no question then about who's to fight Schmeling next year."

Cotton On Prather Farm Is Blooming

Cotton on the farm of Ross Prather, in the New Hope community, six or seven miles south of Lubbock, is blooming, Mr. Prather said yesterday afternoon when he brought two blooms to the Avalanche-Journal office as evidence of the good condition of his cotton. A count showed ten or twelve well formed squares or blooms on the stalks, each of which were about 12 to 14 inches tall.

Mr. Prather has about 100 acres in cotton, including 20 acres of half and half, from which he had taken the stalks just before driving to town. The half and half was planted the latter part of April, he said.

Normal time for blooms to appear is about July 15, Prather said.

MULTIPLY YOUR "SALES TALK"

by

12,837

If it were possible for you to deliver a five minute "sales talk" personally, to each of 12,837 prospective customers ... it would take more than TWENTY-ONE WEEKS of continuous talking, at the rate of eight hours a day and six days a week ... You could SELL a whale of a lot of merchandise under those circumstances, couldn't you?

Such a talk fest is, of course, impossible, but you can easily reach the homes of every one of those 12,837 prospective BUYERS with your sales message—Not once in Twenty-one weeks but EVERY DAY ... and remember those homes are occupied not by ONE customer but by an average of three and one-half, which brings the actual number of prospective buyers of YOUR merchandise to more than forty-five thousand.

Do you honestly believe you can afford to overlook the sales possibilities of so vast an audience?

Thought For Today

Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially they who labor in the word and doctrine.—Timothy 5:17.

Tell me what you find better or more honorable than age. Is not wisdom entailed upon it?—Shakerly Marmion.

Typical Americans

European travelers have given descriptions of the typical American. For more than a century they have come to this country, looked around a bit and then gone home to tell the folks that the typical American is this, that or the other sort of chap.

Now, however, a visiting Englishman arises to say that there is no such creature as a typical American.

The visitor is H. L. Puxley, an English college student who has been touring the United States on a fellowship fund. He reports that he found no one who seemed to be typical of America as a whole; nor did he find any typical American town or city or countryside.

On the contrary, he asserts that a casual observer from abroad finds so many differences between men and places in varying parts of the nation that he would be justified in supposing that he was traveling through several different countries.

Considering our passion for being exactly like all our neighbors, we may find this verdict rather disappointing; but, really, it is good news. The sectional differences that distinguish one part of the country from another are valuable possessions. It would not be good for us to lose them.

There is little danger that we shall. The Texan and the New Yorker, for instance, live amid entirely different environments; how could they ever grow to look, talk and act alike? Kansas and Massachusetts have almost nothing in common. There is a greater difference between Virginia and Wyoming than mere miles of distance.

Each of these sections has its own virtues. It would be a pity if their inhabitants became identical. There is no reason why New Englanders and Californias should be exactly alike; no more reason than is for wishing that the landscape of the two regions should be similar.

After all, the country has amply proved its solidarity. When the World War came it was demonstrated that the nation could act and feel as a unit. Sectional differences sank out of sight, and no one even thought of them.

That being the case, why should we feel badly over the non-existence of the "typical American?" We don't need him. We have typical Ohioans, typical Philadelphians, typical Oklahoman's, typical Mississippians, typical Georgians. The typical American, probably, would be a mixture of them all. We can take him on faith.

A Fine Memorial

Now that the memorial to Warren G. Harding has been duly decorated, it is worth while to remark that the memorial itself with its stately columns and its classic simplicity, is one of the most beautiful things of its kind yet erected in the United States.

As a rule, the memorials we put up to our public men are not exceptionally noteworthy from the aesthetic standpoint. This is especially true of those erected in the latter part of the 19th century. Apparently, however, a new day has dawned.

The Harding memorial is a fine example of what a memorial ought to be. Its beauty will be a delight to Americans for generations to come.

WAR OF 1812 RELIC

WATERTOWN, N. Y.—Due to low water level in Sackett Harbor, the remains of the little gunboat Jefferson, scuttled in the harbor during the War of 1812, has shown her blackened sides for the first time in 118 years. About 18 inches of the old hulk for a length of 40 feet is showing above the water.

Aristotle was first in so many branches of science and of thought that for centuries he was known simply as "The Philosopher."

The PLAINSMAN Says:

THAT GIRL ON BROADWAY says honesty may be the best policy but telling the truth isn't always polite.

* * *

All of which reminds The Plainsman that it is often charged against newspapers that they do not tell the whole truth—that they are often prone to tell part of the facts and let it go at that.

Well, mebbe so. But as the editor of the Ringling, Oklahoma, paper puts it, "It's a good thing that newspapers don't go into detail all the time" and he proves his point by quoting an Indiana newspaperman, who decided to tell everything and make the folks like it.

The first week after he decided to print the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, his paper sounded like this:

"Jep Oswald, laziest merchant in town, transacted business in Indianapolis recently.

"Oscar Zipp, the local groceryman, is enjoying a lousy business. His store is so dirty and unsanitary that very few people are interested in trading with him and we predict that he'll soon have to close his doors.

"Mrs. Lizzie Smooch entertained the Old Ladies Sewing Circle last Tuesday. Nobody had a good time but those present dished up a lot of dirt on the ladies who weren't invited.

"Mary Scotch and William Zimp were married last week, the Rev. Gordon tying the knot at the parsonage on account of the bride's father being such a generous donor to the church treasury.

"The bride is a very ordinary girl who doesn't know anymore about cooking than a jackrabbit and never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means and has a gait like a duck. Few, if any people like her and prior to her marriage her father and mother had despaired of her ever catching a man.

"The groom is an up-to-date loafer. He has been living at home, off the old folks, all his life and is not worth shucks. It will be a hard life."

* * *

IT was mighty nice of Uncle Sam to dig down into his jeans and give the students at Tech's summer session a free ride through Carlsbad Caverns. This is the first time a flock of customers have been given a 'cavern day,' all to themselves and have been taken through the 'eighth wonder of the world' courtesy of the federal government.

* * *

While it may not have had anything at all to do with it, The Plainsman can't help but believe that Lubbock's unerring support of Carlsbad caverns, over a period of years, must have been taken into consideration. It is an admitted fact that Lubbock and this section of Texas routes more people through the caverns than any other one city and territory.

* * *

But regardless of the underlying reasons, its a fine thing that the Tech summer students have been 'given a break' and there's no doubt but that they will profit thereby. There are few sights to be seen in this country that make the impression the caverns make. Everyone who has made the inspection trip will testify to that.

* * *

That Man on Avenue Q says paying debts is a tough proposition — especially when nobody seems to know just who won the war.

* * *

Whatever became of the old-fashioned fellow who rode skittish horses down the main street to get them accustomed to automobiles?

* * *

THE PLAINSMAN will probably be charged with being chicken-hearted but even so it is hard to see Albert Fall go to the penitentiary when a jury decreed that other parties to the Teapot Dome affair should go scott free.

* * *

To be sure, testimony in the case indicates strongly that Mr. Fall did not keep faith with his country and with the people of his country.

To be sure, his acts, as paraded before the public, smack strongly of treason, if there can be treason in peacetime.

The El Pasoan has no claim upon the nation as he stands today, convicted of accepting a bribe. Yet never-the-less it looks very much like he is being made 'the goat' of a very sorry mess, indeed.

* * *

The thing The Plainsman has never been able to understand is, if there were no bribe given, how could a bribe have been accepted?

There is a question of national scope and importance which has hardly been answered in a way to please most of us.

Those who dance must pay the fiddler—we all know that.

But the payment should be exacted from all the dancers—not only from one or two, the balance of the merry-makers to be permitted to go their way in peace.

There was an accident on a busy Dallas corner and a large crowd of men and women gathered about the doctor as he worked over the unconscious patient.

"Is there a woman present with oldfashioned ideas?" the medico asked as he looked up from the bleeding form on the pavement.

"Why?" asked a bystander.

"Well," was the return, "I need a petticoat to prepare some bandages."

Municipal Doctor System, Giving People Free Medical Treatment, Proves A Successful Experiment In Canada

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second of two stories concerning some of the more interesting discoveries and conclusions of the Committee on the Costs of Medical Care, which is making a series of studies of the economic aspect of illness and medical service.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, July 7. — Some people can have a doctor's care without any doctor bills.

DUTCHER

Not very many, it is true, but the Committee on the Costs of Medical Care located some community experiments of the sort which it considered worthy of exhaustive study.

Thirty-one community physicians to treat their citizens and one large American shoe company for more than 10 years has provided free medical care for its 15,000 employes and their dependents with a medical department employing 100 persons. The report of the committee's experts indicate that both experiments have been carried out with more than a satisfactory degree of success. The reports are especially interesting because of the attention modern sociologists are paying to the inequalities of illness and the committee's attack on the problem of reasonable costs of medical service for its recipients.

Might Try It Here

In Saskatchewan and Manitoba—mostly in the former province—31 rural communities now have community doctors. These rural communities resemble our counties, being about 18 miles square. The community doctor system is 10 years old and it may be applicable to some communities in the United States in view of a recognized tendency for physicians to concentrate in cities because of unsatisfactory incomes obtainable in rural areas. The system has grown in Saskatchewan partly because of complaints of excessive medical costs and insufficient service in rural areas and partly because of the difficulty in persuading physicians to enter private practice where returns were very low. Sometimes local physicians have demanded that they be hired by the community if the community wanted them to stay.

Seven additional communities voted to hire a municipal doctor last December and not one of the 31 which have had a municipal doctor has abandoned the plan.

Physicians are eager for the positions and it is said that from 30 to 50 apply whenever one is open.

Gets $4000 Per Year

The average community served has a population of 1800 and the median salary of the Saskatchewan municipal doctor is about $4000. He may or may not be permitted additional income from certain fees. He serves not only as a general practitioner to the rural municipality but also as to public health officer. In several communities besides the 31 the local physician is subsidized to the extent of $1500 or less in return for public health services and his care of indigent persons.

Usually the municipal physician serves all residents without charge, although sometimes nominal fees are set for certain specified services. Office calls are invariably free of charge. Most surgery is exempted from the "free care" system, although about half of the municipal doctors perform tonsillectomies free, and there is usually a charge for drugs administered.

Make Over 300 Visits

Each doctor has from 1000 to 1500 office calls annually and makes from 300 to 500 visits to the homes of his patients. The committee report finds that the average family expense for medical service of all kinds—including taxes for the physician's salary and any extra fees paid, drugs, nursing and so on—is $20 a year.

Most municipal doctors say they are doing more work now than they would be if they were in private practice but that their income is greater on the same amount of work than if they had to contend with bad debts. General opinion among them is that the "contract" system does not interfere with the important personal relationship between doctor and patient and some of the physicians even admit that the annual salary basis intensifies the doctor's interest in the patient's recovery. It is also believed that the quality of preventive medical service has been considerably improved in the areas served.

Idea In Industry

The Endicott-Johnson Shoe company, operating in New York state, at the time of the committee's survey was spending $900,000 a year for complete medical service for its 15,000 workers and their families. The staff of its medical service included 28 physicians, four dentists, 67 trained nurses and 32 technical and professional assistants. The physicians made 87,000 house calls and received 118,740 office visits in the year surveyed. Besides using its own medical service the company paid more than $300,000 to community hospitals and specialists and consultants from other towns in the same year.

The free medical care includes physical therapy, X-ray therapy, heliotherapy and even the services of a psychologist. Nursing is free and "helpers" are sometimes furnished families stricken by illness.

POISON IVY

In writing about poison ivy a few weeks ago I mentioned only treatment by serum and ether soap.

Dr. Clendening

Several correspondents have been kind enough to send me other methods of treatment which are simple, and apparently effective, and as the subject is a timely one at this season, I will discuss it further.

Our first account of poison ivy comes from Captain John Smith. Whether his actual experience with it was the result of a necking party with Pocahontas in the Virginia woods, I do not know but this is how he describes the results:

"The poisonous weed being in shape but little different from our English yvie, but being touched causeth redness, itchings, and lastly blys'ers, the which, however, after a while the passe awaye of themselves without further harme; yet because for the time they are somewhat painefull and in aspect dangerous, it hath gotten itselfe an ill name, although questionlesse of noe very ill nature."

Several years ago Dr. James B McNair, at the University of Chicago, started out to find the active poisonous substance in poison ivy, poison oak, and pot on sumac, and after considerable chemical work he obtained a gummy brown substance which was very poisonous.

The most practical part of his work was the discovery that iron would neutralize the poison of this substance. Salts of lead and zinc, which have been used as poison ivy preventives for a long time, had a very weak effect in neutralization compared to the iron.

The iron preparation to use is ferric or iron chloride—a 5 per cent solution in half water, half alcohol mixture—if used freely on the hands or face before or immediately after going into a region known or suspected of having poison ivy, will prevent or stop the eruption. The remedy is cheap, the ingredients easily obtained at any drug store, and its preparation "requires no more skill than stirring sugar into a cup of coffee."

Dr. George D. Fuller, a botanist, who was tormented with ivy poisoning so that he could hardly go out on field study with his classes, recommends the iron treatment highly. He has a modification of the ferric chloride, preferring another iron salt, ferrous sulphate, which he puts in solution in water at about any strength up to short of saturation. The sulphate solution is cheaper and keeps better than the chloride solution. The method of use and results are the same.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

W. C. B.: "I hope to be situated this summer so that it will be possible for me to take sun baths, completely exposing the body. Kindly advise me as to frequency, length of exposure, etc. Do you believe sun baths will help to cause a quicker comeback from the prostration due to a serious operation on the appendix and gallbladder?"

Answer: The treatment should be begun very gradually. The Rollier technique is as follows. "Exposure always begins with the feet and legs. The thighs, abdomen and thorax follow. Only a few minutes' exposure is allowed each part on the first day. The treatment is given daily or every other day, depending on the amount of skin change. Finally the patient is able to expose the whole body to the sun for several hours daily." This treatment is certainly efficacious in any forms of debility and convalescence.

SWAN

In New York With Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, July 7—St. Calogero, patron saint of Palermo, might be somewhat surprised to witness his handsomely adorned shrine being carried along Houston and Sullivan streets to the blaring strains of the "Maine Stein Song."

However, the transplantation of old world rituals to New York has produced many an incongruously Manhattanized product. Changing the setting of a typical Italian festa to the cluttered, tenement-filled avenues of the East Side involves a complete surrender to surroundings and a revision of all traditions.

* * *

Thus, upon a recent evening, a replica of the favored saint of New York's Sicilian colony actually was carried through highways, gayly lighted by arches of red, white and blue electric bulbs, while two bands played the more popular march songs.

It was a night of sporadic showers. The shrine that was to contain the saint adjoined a bakery shop. The shrine was of vari-colored bunting. Someone had placed a large bouquet on it.

Just across the street, tenements that ordinarily present shabby fronts, fire escapes and windows in which blink reflected gas lamps now were gay with lights and humans. Heads protruded over every window ledge for a block or more. Fire escapes suddenly became ringside seats at the pageant enacted in the street below.

Festoons of ornamentations glittered with gay lights. Over and under the adornments, the day's laundry flew loosely in the evening breeze. Socks and shirts and undies, like so many pennants on a regatta yacht!

Just across the square a bandstand had appeared overnight, decorated with a tinseled front that mounted to a gilt tyre at the peak.

The street itself had been boarded over by subway workers extending a new artery. The thick planking fell away to a vacant lot where excavators had left a miniature gully and any amount of old machinery, plants, boxes and debris.

* * *

On an ordinary evening, all this would be particularly depressing. But now, the hollowed lot became an arena, with boys and girls climbing upon boxes and machinery and board, turning it into an amphitheater. About midnight there was to be fireworks, and the set set pieces stood at precarious angles waiting for their part in the program.

Along the electric-arched streets, balloon vendors cried their wares. Where pushcarts usually supply vegetables and fruits, were carts laden with cakes and candies and strings of beaded nuts, baskets of confetti, pompons and the pasteles meet favored on a holiday occasion.

* * *

For dozens of blocks the tenements had turned their dwellers into the street. Youngster scampered as at a picnic. The lolly-pop salesmen busily handed out small packages. A lone clam merchant industriously cracked sheels with a blunt jackknife.

Then the band . . . and the shrine born on the shoulders of two dozen attendants . . . little girls in white, carrying candles . . . more paraders . . . and, at the foot of the shrine, a tragic little girl, pathetically crippled, seeking through faith relief from malformations. And since all such festas are for the benefit of the church, the crowds rush up to toss money; bills of all denominations are pinned to the shrine's adornments; more bills are piled high on platters placed on the impromptu altar.

There is singing and the echoing of a thousand voices babbling in friendly conversation—

Thus, through the East Side, are the saints remembered . . . a world of ice cream and toy balloons and play for the tired tenement folk.

THE PLAINSMAN GETS SOME MAIL

DR. GRANBERY WRITES IN DEFENSE OF PLA TO UTILIZE LAND TO AID UNEMPLOYED

Dear Plainsman: It may be that my plan for meeting the local unemployment situation has serious weak points, but if nothing more damaging can be urged against it than the criticism offered by the Plainsman, then it must be pretty sound.

In the first place The Plainsman thinks landowners would not be disposed to offer their land free in consideration of the grubbing and breaking. On the contrary, that has been the custom in this country. To be concrete, I am interested in a piece of excellent land within ten minutes drive of Lubbock, and for several years I looked in vain for some one to take the land for absolutely nothing. The trouble is that there is such a quantity of land available, since big ranches have been cut up into farms, and the worker must have some improvements to start with.

In the second place, The Plainsman says not many of Lubbock's unemployed could operate a farm; that he himself could not do so. Nor could I. It happens that I am one of the few persons not "raised on a farm"; hence I never expe run for office. That is not the p I know I could make and culti a successful vegetable garden p ly for domestic use, for I have so several times. I know I can chickens for domestic consump because I have done so often think I could learn to milk a I know two unmarried boys are construction workers. They h a place within ten or fifteen utes drive of Lubbock. When are without work in town ther plenty to do on the farm. Un any circumstances they have so thing to eat and a home.

The only serious trouble with plan is somebody to work it. It pears that what is wanted is so thing magical that will work it a cure-all or patent-medic scheme: "presto, change!" and all done. I had presupposed a p lic that was deeply concerned ab the situation, and willing to go some trouble, and to cooperate. der such circumstances I have s gested a constructive plan. Bu doubt whether it is wanted.

Very truly yours,
John C. Granbery

Death Non-Partisan In House Struggle

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP) — Death has played a non-partisan role in the political struggle for mastery of the house.

It struck suddenly in Republican ranks Saturday to remove representative George S. Graham of Pennsylvania.

His was the third Republican death among members of the next house. Three democrats have died.

Subject to its unknown path in the next five months and the electorate's choice in filling five vacancies, Republicans 215; Democrats 214 and Farmer Labor one.

This is one less than the margin the administration party brought from the polls last November. Since that time control of the next house has been in doubt with members of both sides forecasting a victory.

Winnipeg, Canada, has a municipal central heating station to heat the homes of its citizens. The plan has been tried out for the past six years and has been so successful that vast extensions are now under way.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Travel Man said, "I think we should take a trip so we can see some natives in the backwoods. It will be a long, long drive. But I can hire a little cart. If you're agreed, we will depart. If any Tiny's sleepy, he can snooze till we arrive.'

"Oh, gee, I think that sounds just great and, frankly, I can hardly wait until I have a chance to sleep. Please get the cart right quick. I must admit I'm all tired out. You'll say it's laziness, no doubt, but if I stand much longer I am sure that I'll be sick."

The others also said that they would like to be upon their way to some place new, so very soon a little cart drew near. The happy Tinies, with a grin, ran up to it and jumped right in. The Travel Man said, "I will drive, so there'll be naught to fear."

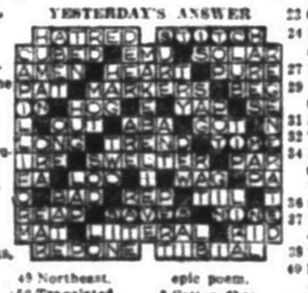

They rode for quite a while and then the bunch jumped to the ground again. "We've reached a native village. It's a pretty sight to see," exclaimed the kindly Travel Man. Then to a hut the whole bunch ran. A dark-skinned native stepped right out, as friendly as could be.

The Travel Man then said, "Won't you show us some of the things you do to spend your time?" The man replied, "Of course! I gladly will. I guess these lads would like to see my bow and arrow. Follow me. I've learned to shoot it very straight. It may bring all a thrill."

He took the limber bow in hand and then said, "You lads kindly stand right back of me where you're see some shooting rare." And then he pulled the arrow back and, with a sudden snap and crack, he let it go. It whizzed out through the air.

(The Tinymites leave for Australia in the next story).

MARRIAGE HAS AN OFF YEAR IN 1930; EXPECT NO IMPROVEMENT THIS YEAR

BY BESS FURMAN

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—Marriage had an off year in 1930, with little improvement expected before 1932, but still cupid frolicked over the gram of this country's forty-nine gretna greens.

Forty-eight of them managed to keep up to census bureau standards for the gretna green status—a marriage rate three times as great as the state in which they live—in 1930 statistics now nearly complete. One was added to the list—Bryan county, Oklahoma.

Miss Alice V. Hagan, marriage and divorce statistician, who has kept a close check on gretna greens, and how they got that way, has roughly classified them into marriage centers of sentiment, of enterprise, of exigency, and of convenience.

An outstanding example of the sentimental gretna green is Chickasaw county, Iowa. Where a choir sings, "Oh, come, come, come, come, come to the church in the Wildwood,' and the couples do come to tell ever after they were joined in "The Little Brown Church in the Vale." Chickasaw's marriages rose from 716 in 1929 to 736 in 1930.

Sentimental also was the appeal of Bowling Green, Wood county, Ohio, described as "a beautiful place to get married."

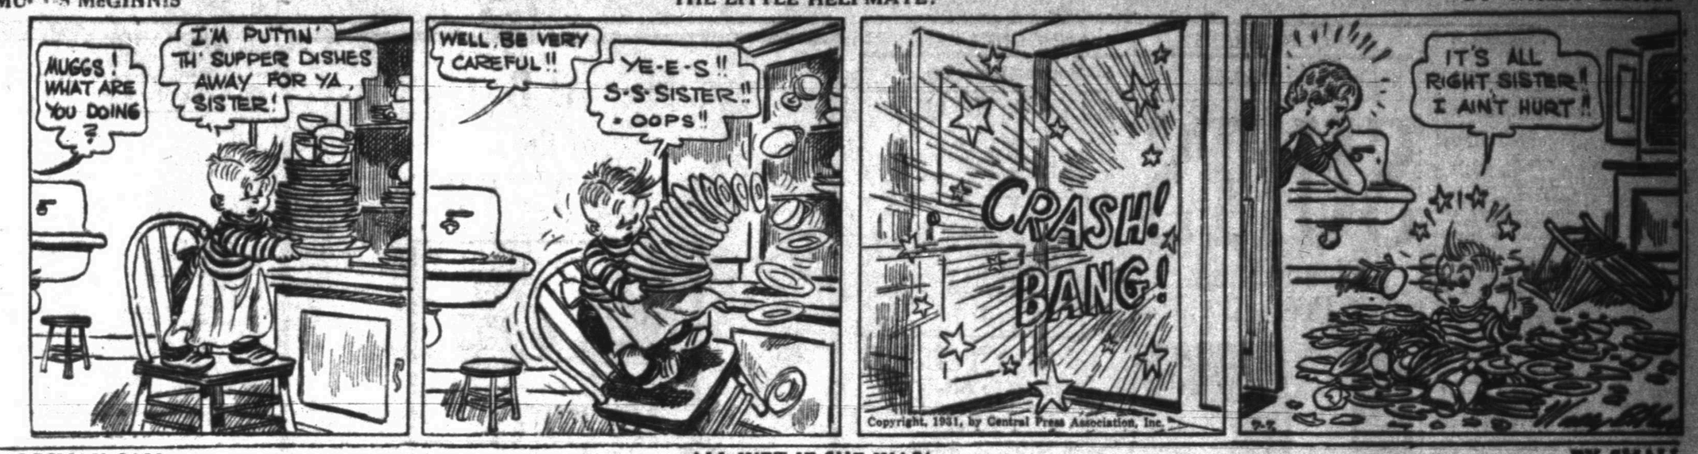

To those much-publicized characters, "the marrying parson" and the marrying judge went the credit for the gretna greens of enterprise. For Clark county, Indiana there was reported "an extensive marriage parlor business at Jeffersonville," mostly couples from Louisville, Ky. St. Bernard parish, Louisiana, had a "marrying judge," friendly to New Orleans elopers. Kent county, Md., kept its marriage license office open after hours, winning some of the wedding emoluments which otherwise might have gone to Cecil county. Liberty, Mo., encouraged bridegrooms to "enjoy one more day of liberty and then honeymoon in Excelsior Springs."

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, July 7 (AP)—Cotton had a fairly active opening today and first trades showed gains of 19 to 20 points owing to higher cables than due and the final agreement on the moratorium proposal.

Prices advanced a little further after the start, October trading up to 10.48 and December to 10.70, or 21 points above yesterday's close.

Later in the first hour, the market reacted slightly, losing ten points from the top on more or less liquidation in advance of the acreage estimate due from the government bureau tomorrow morning.

The market turned easier after the first hour, prices gradually declining on liquidation in advance of the government report on acreage in cultivation July 1 which will be issued tomorrow.

October declined to 10.12 and December to 10.27, or 12 to 25 points down from the early highs and 12 to 14 points below yesterday's close.

At mid-session the market was at the lows with the tendency still downward.

A private authority estimated the acreage reduction at 8.9 per cent.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, July 7. (AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 14 to 21 points higher with October selling up to 10.30 in response to relatively steady cables, the agreement reached in Paris on the debt proposals, trade buying and covering.

Trading was fairly active but the advance met considerable realizing and prices eased after the initial demand had been supplied. There was probably some selling on a theory that the successful conclusion of the Paris negotiations had been discounted so far as the immediate market effect was concerned and also some evening-up of accounts for over the government acreage report which is scheduled for publication tomorrow. October reacted to 10.16, with the general list selling off from 9 to 14 points from the best by the end of the first half hour when July was ruling around 10.03 and December 10.32.

Liverpool cables said the market there had advanced on local and foreign buying on the French agreement and reported a fair cloth inquiry from India and China.

Offerings increased as the stock market eased off and the selling was rather heavy later in the morning, with July declining to 9.81 and December to 10.40, or about 12 to 16 points net lower on the more active positions. Trade interests including brokers with Japanese connections were credited with buying some cotton on the scale down while there was more or less covering which held the decline in check around midday with prices showing rallies of 3 or 4 points from the lowest.

FARM MAGAZINE EDITOR VISITS IN PLAINS AREA

Dr. Clarence L. Poe, Raleigh, N. C., associate editor of Progressive Farmer, one of the well known agricultural magazines of the south, is spending two days on the South Plains with H. L. Atkins, Jr., associate editor of the Texas edition of Progressive Farmer, visiting several farmers and the state experiment stations at Spur and Lubbock.

"I attended the National Educational Association convention in California and I am on my way back home, Dr. Poe said. "We decided to stop off here for a few days to look over some of the farms here and get some data on power farming.

First Visit Here

"This is my first visit here. I am very much impressed with what I have seen. We want to get some information on power farming and the use of machinery on the South Plains."

The two men spent Sunday with Don L. Jones, superintendent of the state experiment station here. They drove with him to Hockley county and looked at several farms and then drove through Lamb and other counties.

They planned to go to Spur to visit the experiment station there.

Monday morning the two men called on D. F. Eaton, county agent, to ask for data on the use of power machines.

Wednesday the two men will visit Hickman Price, wheat farmer, at Kress en route to Amarillo.

Mr. Beville came to Clarendon in 1885, and has played an important part in the city's growth. He started the Clarendon News, of which he was publisher for several years. Common Sense, Quick Wits Of Boys Basis Of Intelligence Test Here On Saturday

* *

SIX WINNING YOUTHS IN U. S. WILL GET FREE TRIP ABROAD

A summer vacation that is a vacation awaits the six high school boys who rank highest in the National Intelligence Test being conducted throughout the United States by the Central Press Association and on the South Plains by the Avalanche-Journal.

For the six lucky boys, one from each of six equally divided sections of the United States, will enjoy nearly two months of travel, first class, to Italy and other points on the Mediterranean, aboard the famous S. S. Vulcania, under personal escort and with all expenses paid.

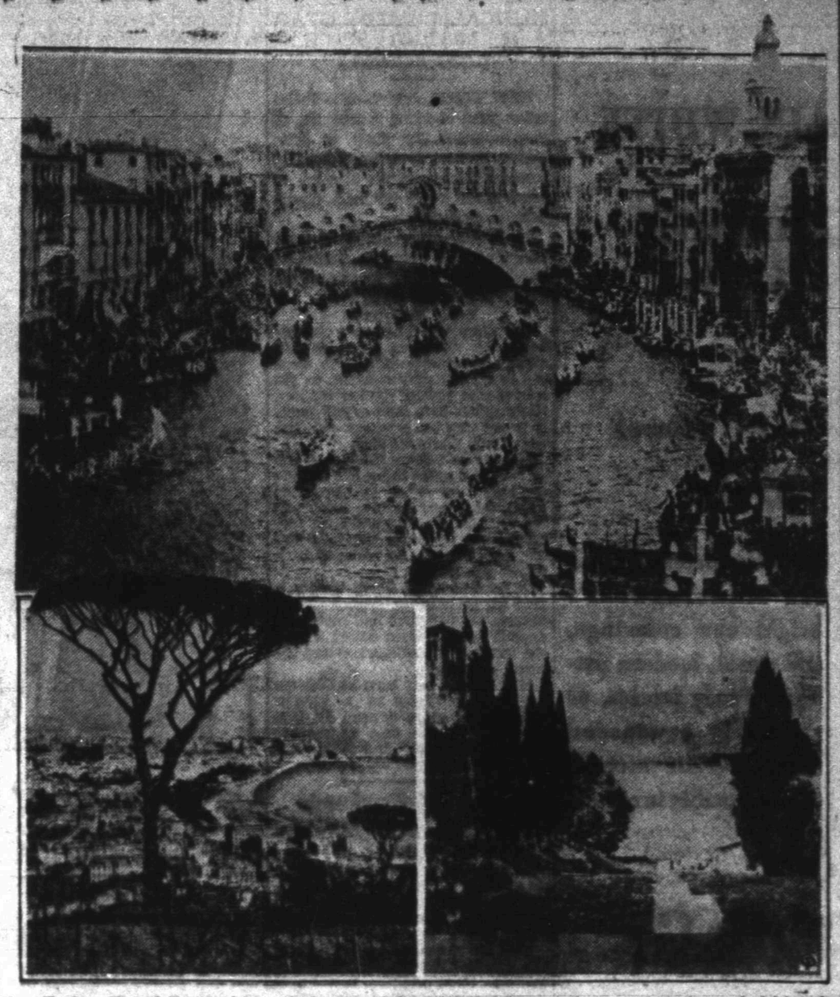

All high school boys are eligible. As announced in this paper yesterday and the day before, examination will be held. All that is necessary for a boy to enter is to fill in the entry blank appearing elsewhere on this page, send it to this paper, and appear for the examination at the specified time.

Tests Common Sense

The examination will resemble somewhat the Edison questionnaire, and is designed to test a boy's common sense and quick wittedness rather than his book learning. It has been prepared by noted American educators and the papers are to be judged by such famous people as Fannie Hurst, well-known author; Dr. Walter Dill Scott, president of Northwestern university, and Professor Clyde Milton Hill, of Yale university.

There are many treats in store for the winners. Among them are the beautiful Italian lakes, Como and Maggiore, a five thousand-foot climb up Mt. Mattarone, Genoa, birthplace of Columbus, with its winding, narrow streets; Milan, the New York City of Italy, with its cathedral which took more than 500 years to build; Turin, the city of porticos and covered streets; Naples and the ruins of Pompeii; Rome, with its churches and art galleries; Florence and the leaning tower of Pisa; Venice and its winding canals. There will be more than three weeks on shipboard and not a dull moment in them all. Shuffleboard and deck tennis, sports in the gymnasium, swimming in the ship's pool, will help while away the time, and for those boys who like reading the ship's library is well-stocked.

All this without a bit of expense awaits those boys ranking highest in the test. It seems rather a challenge to your cleverness, doesn't it? Fill in the entry blank below.

Top, Venice, City of Canals, in carnival array; below w, left, Naples and the Bay of Naples, and right, Lake Como, all scenes which boys will visit on tour.

MELLON

Atlantic telephone.

World financial markets, vibrating to each report from the negotiations, added to the strain of America's chief representative.

From Paris came reports of "admiration" for Mellon's "continued evidence of wiry strength."

Calm, Unexcitable

His Washington friends shared this admiration and had an explanation for it. They said Mellon, calm and unexcitable, probably did less talking and more listening than any other conferee. At least, that's the way he does business at home. A long day is no novelty to the treasury chief, whose years apparently have scarcely slowed his capacity for work. His usual quitting time is 6 o'clock, or an hour and a half after government offices officially close.

In the morning, if the day is fair, he walks from his home, a slim, quiet figure attracting little attention on the capital's streets.

Talks Slowly

Mellon talks slowly and his occasional remarks must have received close attention from French officials awaiting translation by an embassy attache.

The opinion held of him by many Americans seemed to spread abroad during the negotiations, for from a German newspaper came the description: "He is immune from the lure of honors for he is beyond human vanities. They cannot confuse nor bulldose him, for this 76-year-old American is tough as Yankee chewing gum, used to working 12 hours a day and is even fresher at night than in the daytime."

Stimson To Study Foreign Situation

NAPLES, Italy, July 7. (AP)—Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson arrived from Palermo today en route to Rome and other European capitals to observe political conditions with respect to the world economic situation.

He was welcomed by American Ambassador John W. Garrett and Italian officials and was cheered by a considerable crowd. He was expected to leave shortly for Rome in order to begin conferences with Premier Mussolini and others by Thursday.

Peruvian Infantry Captures Cuzos City

LIMA, Peru, July 7. (AP)—The Peruvian government today announced the capture of the city of Cuzco, center of a revolt which has been in progress the past few weeks.

The city was taken by the seventh infantry late yesterday after a defeat of the rebels at Huambutio twenty miles away.

The population of Cuzo, government reports said, hailed the victors who immediately started pursuit of the revolters.

COMMISSION TO MEET

Next meeting of the city commission will be held at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, W. H. Rodgers, city manager announces. Only routine matters are so far scheduled to come up.

when a man came along and invited the Robinson woman into his car.

"The man told Bertie to get out and fight me," the wounded negress said.

"I told him I didn't want to fight, but Bertie came out anyway with a knife. She struck me two or three times and then another man near me said 'don't you kill that woman'.

"Someone struggled with Bertie, but I didn't see who it was."

The Heron woman denied that she had a knife at the time of the fight, or that she inflicted the death wound on the other woman. Her husband was not at the baseball game she said.

Chief of Police John Lemond, who was heading the investigation, said there were two or three other persons he wanted to question before he made a statement regarding the affair.

LUBBOCK GROUPS TO ATTEND SHORT COURSE AT A. & M.

Lubbock county will have between 20 and 25 resepresentatives attending the 22nd annual Farmers Short Course at Texas A. and M., College Station, which opens July 27 and closes August 1, D. F. Eaton, county agent, said.

Seven boys, comprising two judging teams, are expected to make the trip, as well as six girls, members of judging teams in 4-H club work.

Women To Go

"I understand there will be several women representing the home demonstration clubs, that are planning to make the trip," Mr. Eaton said. "I do not know how many men will go but there may be several."

Mr. Eaton and R. N. McClan, assistant county agent, will make the trip with the boys. Miss Ruth Stockton, home demonstration agent, will accompany the girls and women.

Plan Special Train

A special train has been arranged by the Santa Fe to start from Amarillo for College Station. Stops will be made at Canyon, Tulia, Plainview, Lubbock, Post and Sweetwater. These towns will be concentration points for farmers and club members from all over this section.

Lubbock will be the concentration point for counties to the west and also to the east, over the South Plains.

Fare for the round trip, not including pullman, will be $10.95.

WILLIAMS RETURNS

LAMESA, July 7. (Special)—R. E. Williams, local hardware man and president of the Texas Hardware and Implement Dealers association, has returned from a trip to Cincinnati and Chicago, which he won when he was elected president of the hardware group.

POPULATION

Greater London, numbers 11,000,000 souls.

Across the Hudson from New York and in closer communion with the heart of the city than some of the outlying territory of the five boroughs, lies a network of New Jersey communities with a population of more than 2,000,000, while Long Island, outside of the city limits, and Westchester county to the north of The Bronx, and the shore territory up into Conticut, are the homes of hundreds of thousands of commuters. New York City in fact, is a metropolis in three states.

In Three States

Chicago, likewise, is a city in three states—Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin. The great steel towns of Gary, Hammond and Michigan City are suburban outshoots of the midwestern metroplis, while the north shore suburbs string up to the Wisconsin line.

Greater London is composed of the county of London, which is comparable to New York's boroughs, plus the "outer ring" of cities and counties within the metropolitan police district. The county of London now has 4,396,821 inhabitants against 4,484,523 in the last census, but the entire metropolitan district increased 822,619 in the last decade.

New York's increase during the same period was 1,361,909, or from 5,620,048 to 6,981,917, while Chicago has added 674,733 since 1930.

Berlin was credited with 4,013,588 in 1925 against the present day estimate of 4,296,000.

Greater Paris increased 600,000 in the last five years, but virtually all of this growth was in the suburbs outside the fortifications.

To Complete Plans For 4-H Encampment

Details of plans for the annual encampment of Four-H club members, at the county park east of Lubbock, July 17 and 18, will be completed by next Monday, D. F. Eaton, county agent, said today.

Several hundred boys and girls are expected to attend. The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce will be host to the group at a banquet during the encampment.

STUDENTS VISIT FAMED CARLSBAD CAVERNS TODAY

BY BOB McCALL
Journal Staff Writer

CARLSBAD CAVERNS NATIONAL PARK, July 7.—Three hundred students and faculty members of Texas Technological college along with numbers of Lubbock persons today are viewing the wonders of this great natural underground masterpiece. The day has been declared "Tech Day" in the caverns and the Lubbock visitors are guests of the government in the journey down through the scenic wonders. Col. Thomas Boles, superintendent, arranged the visit.

After a six-hour ride from Lubbock Monday, the visitors were welcomed by Carlsbad citizens and escorted to the Carlsbad Municipal beach where an hour or more of bathing was enjoyed.

Up this morning bright and early, the party made its way 30 miles southwest to the park site and entrance into the caverns was made earlier than usual so thatt there would be no conflict with the usual tour of visitors.

At noon lunch was served in the big room and afterwards the party was to make its way along the Texas trail where a sing-song is to be conducted.

SHAMROCK VICTIM EXPECTED TO RECOVER

SHAMROCK, July 7. (AP)—H. A. Schlegel, 50-year-old cattle buyer, was shot through the body twice by robbers who kidnapped him Sunday night, was in an improved condition today. He was expected to recover.

The robbers seized Schlegel at the stockyards, blindfolded and forced him into his own automobile, then drove about four miles out of Shamrock. There they forced him to alight, robbed him of $41 and shot him twice near the heart. Schlegel crawled to a deserted farm house and waited until dawn before being found by a passerby.

TRY TO SOLVE MYSTERY

MUSICAL COMEDY STAR IS MISSING SINCE LAST SUNDAY

NEW YORK, July 7.—(AP)—Police today were checking a long list of men named in the diary of Miss Evelyn Wilson, 22-year old musical comedy actress, in an attempt to solve the mystery of her disappearance Sunday.

At the same time, detectives were searching the girl's possessions in the hope of finding some clue on which to base a hunt for her.

Party In Progress

The diary was found in a pocketbook the comedienne left in her sister's apartment when she went out early yesterday morning to get a headache powder for her mother. Nothing has been seen of her since. A party was in progress at the apartment when she left.

Mrs. Anna Wilson, mother of the actress, told police today her daughter had been living in terror for two weeks because, she said, two "rough looking" men had been following her since she withdrew $2,000 from a bank to transfer to a safety deposit box.

In Evanston, Ill., Harry Wilson, a post office employe, expressed the opinion his daughter had been kidnapped by a jealous suitor whom, she told him in letters, she had refused to marry.

Miss Wilson was born in Chicago and appeared there as a motion picture and stage actress. In 1929 she was in the cast of George White's "Scandals" and later went to Hollywood.

Return Of Business To Normalcy Seen

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—A return of business conditions to normalcy by fall is predicted by 155 editors of trade publications in their annual business outlook survey published today.

Upturns are noted in sections of the automobile industry, chemicals, machine tools, electrical power production, textiles, commercial bakeries, furniture manufacturing, construction, meat packing, shoe retailing and radio broadcasting.

Dr. Stephen I. Miller, executive manager of the national association of credit men, says the upward slant of the stock market will undoubtedly have a stimulating effect on business.

The general tone of business, the editors' survey shows, is in the condition which usually precedes a general improvement.

The description was given by the Illinois Manufacturers' association which said that after a survey it had reached the conclusion that music in industry has the same inspiring effect as it does in a military parade."

Alexander Berkman Facing Expulsion

PARIS, July 7 (AP)—Alexander Berkman, deported from the United States with Emma Goldman in 1919 for radical activities, faces expulsion from France after three months.

The government has issued an order for his deportation but has granted him a suspension in order to investigate his conduct more thoroughly. He has been living in Montparnasse for some time while his former associate has been staying on the French Riviera.

He denied he had been dabbling in political affairs and insisted France had no reason to order him from the country.

CITIZENS URGED TO PRUNE TREES

Complaints have been made to the city park board that many trees have low hanging branches that overhang sidewalks and cause considerable annoyance to pedestrians, with possibility of serious injury, a member of the board said.

Lubbock does not have an ordinance regulating the height of branches above sidewalks, so members of the board are appealing to home owners to see that their trees do not become obstructive.

"I have been told that in some instances the limbs reach to within a few feet of the sidewalk, making it necessary for pedestrians to often take to the streets to get around them," he said. "A little pruning would remedy this condition. The low hanging limbs particularly are annoying at night and when a strong wind is blowing."

It was announced that the city would set an example by pruning the shade trees growing in the parkway in front of the city hall grounds. The work is to start at once.

Broadway and Main were cited as two of the streets where obtrusive trees were to be found.

VICTIM

Of A Faithless Water Supply

The old proverb: "Into each life a little rain must fall" is a bitter truth in homes not equipped with Self-Action Gas Water Heaters. But, instead of rain, it's a stream of icy water that gushes from the faucet labeled "Hot." COLD WATER when you're ready for a warm bath . . . don't you shiver at the very thought? COLD WATER when you must shave . . . a nerve-wracking experience. How often are you a victim of unsteady hot water service?

Your "Hot" faucets will always live up to their promise—once you install a Self-Action Gas Water Heater. There'll always be hot water sufficient for bathing—shaving—dishwashing—or the laundry at the tap's turn. The cost? A few cents a day per person . . . much less than its actual worth to you. Phone or stop in for full details.

WALTER P. CHRYSLER ANNOUNCES $535 AND UP · F.O.B. FACTORY

NEW PLYMOUTH
FLOATING POWER
. . and FREE WHEELING

TO produce in 1931 an achievement in motor car design, engineering and pricing so revolutionary that it transcends every previous standard of quality, performance and value in the field of lowest price is to challenge the world.

That is precisely what the New Plymouth does.

For years, while designing fine Sixes and Eights for Chrysler, Dodge and De Soto, Chrysler Motors engineers have worked unceasingly for the perfected Four.

Now they give you the results of their labors and discoveries—

The New Plymouth, a quality car of lowest price with the Smoothness of an Eight and the Economy of a Four—due to Plymouth's exclusive Floating Power.

Here is power unshackled, yet power as smooth as satin, as soft as velvet. Here is power without vibration—literally floating; power so silken that even experts could not name the number of cylinders under the Plymouth hood, and many guessed the New Plymouth to be an Eight.

Plymouth now also gives you Free Wheeling which makes it possible to shift gears between all forward speeds without declutching.

Besides Free Wheeling Plymouth offers a new Easy-Shift transmission which makes it possible to shift not only from second to high at speeds of 35 or 45 miles an hour but back into second at these speeds, when you need sudden acceleration, without clashing or grinding.

The new Plymouth engine develops 56 brake-test horsepower — with actual stop-watch speed of 65 to 70 miles per hour; pick-up from 0 to 40 miles in 9.7 seconds.

Among all cars in the lowest-price field, only Plymouth has weatherproof hydraulic brakes—simplest and unexcelled for safety and smoothness.

Chrysler Motors engineers have given Plymouth a double-drop frame. Plymouth has a still lower center of gravity, still greater safety, still greater riding ease, still finer style.

We believe the new Plymouth establishes in the field of lowest price a new degree of artistic advancement with new eye-compelling beauty of line and color.

Plymouth challenges with full-size Safety-Steel body, with wire wheels standard, with hydraulic shock absorbers. No feature of comfort, of reliability, of economy has been left out of the New Plymouth.

I am happy to extend to the entire motoring world a cordial welcome to see, to drive and to ride in the New Plymouth, and to invite comparison between this exceptional product of Chrysler Motors engineering and any car in the world at or near its price.
