ANSWERLINE

Q-Is it legal in rural areas to spray a mixture of old oil on a driveway to keep the dust down?

A-No, it is also unsafe. The same state law that prohibits pouring used oil into rivers or lakes or down storm drains also specifically prohibits the use of used oil for dust suppression.

1993 cotton crop

Uniform planting date set for May 17, moisture needed

The uniform, delayed cotton planting date for Mitchell County has been set for May 17.

This was decided when members of the County Producers Board and members of the County Extension Field Crops Committee met Thursday.

"Many farmers are concerned that boll weevil numbers will increase this year due to another mild winter," said County Extension Agent Bryan Limmer.

The uniformity of the planting date in a situation like this year is even more important than the actual date. An early planted field can sustain boll weevils long enough for them to survive after emergence and cause damage to other fields later in the season.

The peak emergence of overwintered boll weevils is usually the last of May through early June. The weevils will die about 18 days after emergence. Cotton planted in mid-May will produce 1/3 grown squares after the first week of July.

By that time, most of the boll weevils will have died.

Another concern for the 1993 crop year is the lack of moisture available.

"We have had a very dry spring. The fields have very little top soil moisture with the deep moisture not much better," said Limmer. "The rain we had on Tuesday night and Wednesday will help somewhat for those who got an inch or better, but it had little effect on most places."

The moisture in the top six inches of soil is critical at planting time so the seed can germinate and start growing. Once the plant is established, moisture must be available at the 3 to 12 inch range in order to sustain root and plant growth.

Limmer added that pre-planting rains will be needed not only to get plants growing, but also to soften and break up some of the hard and cloddy soil. The soil in some areas is not ready to plant because of its rough and coarse condition in the rows.

The 1993 cotton season has started out dry and potentially insect infected. Rain will be needed to improve conditions and attitudes of producers said Limmer.

He urges all producers to observe the uniform planting date of May 17 in an effort to keep boll weevil problems to a minimum this year.

During budget workshop

Council looks at deficit dollars in '93-94 budget

The City Council is considering some $356,500 in capital expenditure requests from various city departments for the fiscal year 1993-94.

Requests from the general fund total $89,500 and the water and sewer department is proposing expenditures of some $267,000.

Requests from the general fund include $10,000 for replacement vehicles for the Police Department; $3,000 for a mower for the cemetery; some $73,000 for the street department including $60,000 for street improvement and $10,000 for a used pickup; and, $3,000 for a new water treatment unit at the swimming pool.

Projected water and sewer expenditures include: $20,000 for replacing water mains; $5000 for upgrading the fire hydrants throughout the city; $7000 for water line valves; $50,000 for repairing the water towers; and $55,000 for a water pressure system to increase the pressure in low-pressure areas; and $60,000 for heavy duty equipment.

The budget summary being considered shows a deficit of some $104,495 with revenues projected at $2,962,225 and expenses projected to be $3,066,720.

The largest deficit will be in the water and sewer fund where revenue is projected to be $946,950 with expenses tabbed at $1,489,453. This item includes interest payments to Mitchell County for construction of the water line to the prison and of course no income will be generated until the facility opens.

The cemetery fund is projected to have income of $14,400 with expenses tabbed at $22,121 and the Civic Center income is projected to be $56,100 and expenses for the budget year are projected to be $65,345.

Income from the solid waste facility is projected to be some $330,400 with expenses tabbed at $280,000.

Volunteers still needed

The Christmas in April program is putting out another call for volunteers to help Saturday, April 24th. The one day blitz will involve several hundred volunteers who will be working on homes in Colorado City, Westbrook and Loraine.

The organization's officials remind those interested in working, the following guide-lines must be followed in order to meet insurance requirements:

*Ages 12 and 13 are welcome to work on site, with their parents.

*Ages 14 through 17 may work if they fill out a volunteer form and sign a waiver.

*Ages 18 and up need only to sign a volunteer form.

Volunteer and waiver forms will be available at each site on April 24th and may be filled out at that time, if it has not been done in advance.

Those persons working on homes are asked to bring whatever tools they might be able to bring. Among the items suggested are: paint scrapers, brooms, rags, paint brushes, paint rollers and pans, ladders, stools, hammers, rakes, hoes, shovels and crowbars. Also, extension cords and adaptors, caulking guns, cans for paint, cleaning materials, lawn mowers, flood lights, pickup trucks and trailers and gloves. All equipment should be identified with the owners name on each article for identification purposes.

There is still a real need for more volunteers and anyone who can help in anyway is asked to contact any board member, Jan Lemons or Kent Womack.

CAREER DAY STUDENTS VISIT THE LIBRARY: Librarian Nancy Mayo visits with Colorado High senior students Jaime Rivera and Crescent Ross during Career Day this week. The two students plan on going into the field of medicine while Mrs. Mayo is preparing for special events during National Library Week.

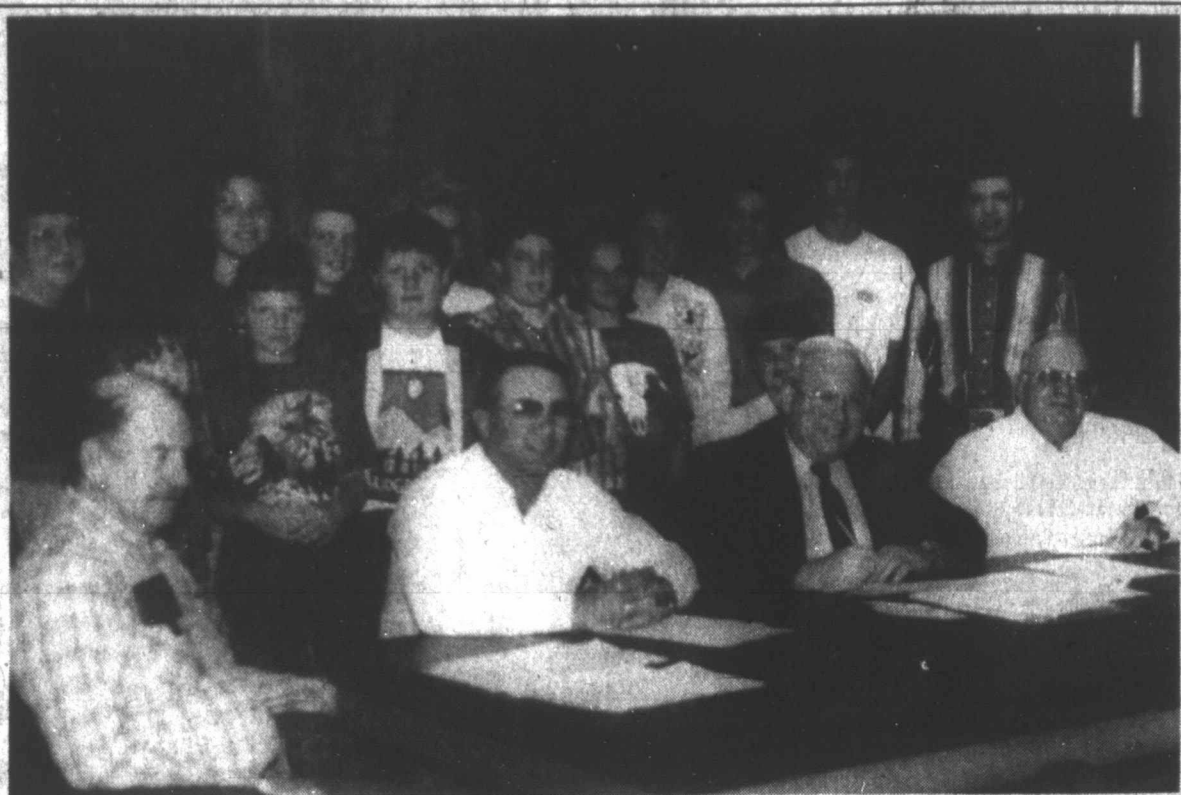

Local library notes special week here

In 1958, National Library Week was observed for the first time. Since that time, the libraries in America and Mitchell County have observed National Library Week each year.

Just as many areas of life in America are changing, libraries are also changing. Libraries are no longer just warehouses for books but are becoming more and more information resource centers for communities. Information is available not only in books but also on audio tapes, videos, microfilm, in magazines and newspapers, and through Inter-Library Loan.

Along with other libraries across the nation, the Mitchell Co. Public Library will be observing National Library Week during the week of April 18-24. The Friends of the Mitchell Co. Library will host a reception on Tuesday, April 20 from 2:30-5:00. Refreshments will be served during that time.

Also during the week, the Colorado City Brush and Palette Club will have their annual spring art show in the Hesperian Room at the Library.

"It is difficult to get an application to everyone who might want to join the Sheriffs' Association of Texas as an Associate Member," Sheriff Toombs said. "Anyone who does not receive an application by mail, may come by the Sheriff's Office at 320 Pine Street, or send your name, address and check-$20 for individual membership to the Sheriffs' Association of Texas, Post Office Box 4488, Austin, Texas 78765-4488."

Membership dues are used to upgrade, professionalize, and train Sheriffs and other law enforcement officers to protect the men, women and children of Texas. North Loraine Extension Homemakers hold meeting

The North Loraine Extension Homemakers met at 2:00 p.m. on April 7th at the Loraine Senior Citizen's Building. Pat Carter was the hostess.

Wanza Graham, club president, opened the meeting, and the club prayer was recited in unison. Due to the visitors that were to bring the program, the business session was conducted later.

Mr. Gary Buckingham, Loraine School Superintendent, updated the groups on the amendments pertaining to school finances in Texas, that will be voted on in May. It was a very informative discussion that brought to mind the importance of voting. Our own school will benefit in some areas if the amendments are passed.

Following Mr. Buckingham, we were privileged to hear Mrs. Vicki Atkins give her experience in Atlanta where she had gone to witness the Lady Red-Raiders win the NCAA Basketball title. Her daughter, Michi Atkins was one of the key players in the game.

During the business continuation of plans were made regarding the Gazebo and Mini-Park.

The club will also be active in the C.I.A. program in Loraine on April 24th. Drinks, sandwiches, cookies etc. will be made available to the workers. The Dairy Queen will furnish cups and napkins. Members planning to go to Ballinger on April 22 as their Educational Tour, are asked to leave at 10:00 a.m. from the courthouse.

The clubs regular meeting, April 21 will be cancelled due to the trip to Ballinger on April 22.

Those present were: Billie

Ruth Abernathy, Margaret Brame, Pat Carter, Wanza Graham, Darlene Hamrick, Doris Henderson, Elaine McMichael, Mildred Rose, Billie

Shroeder, Bessie Ann Vaughn, Eva Wells, Effie Wheeler and the three guests, Mrs. Atkins, Mr. Buckingham and Iris Preston.

Energy saving tips for this summer

Everyone would like to save money on energy bills, but in the scorching heat of a Texas summer, staying cool is a priority, too. With a little preventative maintenance to your air conditioning system this spring, you can stay cool and still save money. The following tips from the Texas Energy Extension Service will help you prepare your air conditioning system for the summer.

A good way to start is to insulate the air-conditioning ducts. Before you begin, tape any cracks or gaps and all the joints in the ductwork with duct tape. Then, wrap the ducts with two-to four-inch thick R11 insulation and secure with tape. Be sure the insulation has a vapor barrier. This prevents vapor from condensing on the cold duct.

Have your air conditioning unit inspected by a professional cooling service person before the warmest weather arrives. A thorough inspection and checkup by a professional should include: oiling the condensing unit fan motor, cleaning the condensing coil fins and condenser fan, checking the condensing unit for refrigerate leaks, inspecting the compressor start and run capacitors for leaks, cleaning the supply-air fan motor housing and oiling the motor, and checking the fan-control switch. The cost of an annual maintenance check is usually between $25 and $50.

You also should change the air filter seasonally and then once a month during the summer.

Another way to save money is to protect the outside portion of your air conditioning unit from the sun's rays. Shrubs or lattice work can effectively shade the unit and help to lower cooling costs.

If you are buying a new air conditioner, look for an EER rating of 10 or better to save money and energy for years to come.

For more information on how to maintain your air conditioning unit or other ways to stay cool this summer, call the Texas Energy Hotline at 1-800-643-SAVE. The Texas Energy Extension Service is a public service program of the Governor's Energy Office.

Lotto Texas to computerize

"Lotto Texas players who don't have their own set of lucky numbers will soon be able to let Lottery computers select those six figures at random by the end of May-the anniversary of the first year of Texas Lottery operations," State Comptroller John Sharp announced.

"We haven't announced the so-called 'Quick Pick' feature until now to allow Lotto players a better chance of learning how the game is played," Sharp said. "But the long lines of players waiting to buy tickets during Wednesday's record-breaking sales day convinced us that the time for 'Quick Pick' has come."

Lotto sales in anticipation of the $14 million jackpot on Wednesday, March 31, were $9.8 million, the largest single day of sales since Lotto began on November 7. Sales volume grew throughout the day Wednesday, peaking at a rate of more than $26,000 per minute from 7 to 8 p.m.

Lotto Texas is a computerized game in which players pick six numbers from 1 through 50 and pays $1 for a ticket on which those numbers are printed. The Lottery holds televised drawings at 9:59 p.m., central time, every Wednesday and Saturday to pick the six winning numbers. Players' winnings are determined by how many of the numbers they match and by the size of the jackpot.

"This 'first anniversary present' should make our retailers and many Lotto players very happy," Sharp said. "Of course, those players who want to select their own six numbers from 1 through 50 can continue to fill out their own Lotto play slips."

Over the next six weeks, the Lottery will: Write the software that will allow the computer to generate the random numbers; Train retailers on how to use the "Quick Pick" feature for their customers;

Print and distribute new labels for the in-store Lotto terminals; and Develop an advertising campaign to educate Lotto players about the new feature.

Through the first five months of operations, Lotto ticket sales have totaled nearly $300 million, averaging nearly $7 million for every Wednesday and Saturday drawing.

"After just nine months of operation, the Texas Lottery already has produced more money for the State Treasury than originally projected for the entire two-year budget period," Sharp said. "And Lotto Texas sales certainly have helped us reach that goal-six months ahead of schedule."

"The new 'Quick Pick' feature should make it even easier for Lotto players to enjoy the fun and excitement of the Texas Lottery, helping the state Treasury at the same time."

The Telephone Companies Are Talking Out Of Both Ends Of Their Receivers.

The Texas Telephone Companies Are Asking The Texas Legislature To Deregulate Their Industry.

A Presentation Of Their Claims And The Real Facts:

Telephone Claim: "We are not making enough money to really invest anything back into the Texas telephone infrastructure."

FACT: They made record profits last year. They say they can't afford to invest in Texas, yet they invested in Mexico's telephone system, bought an overseas cable company and are one of the brand-new owners of the San Antonio Spurs basketball team.

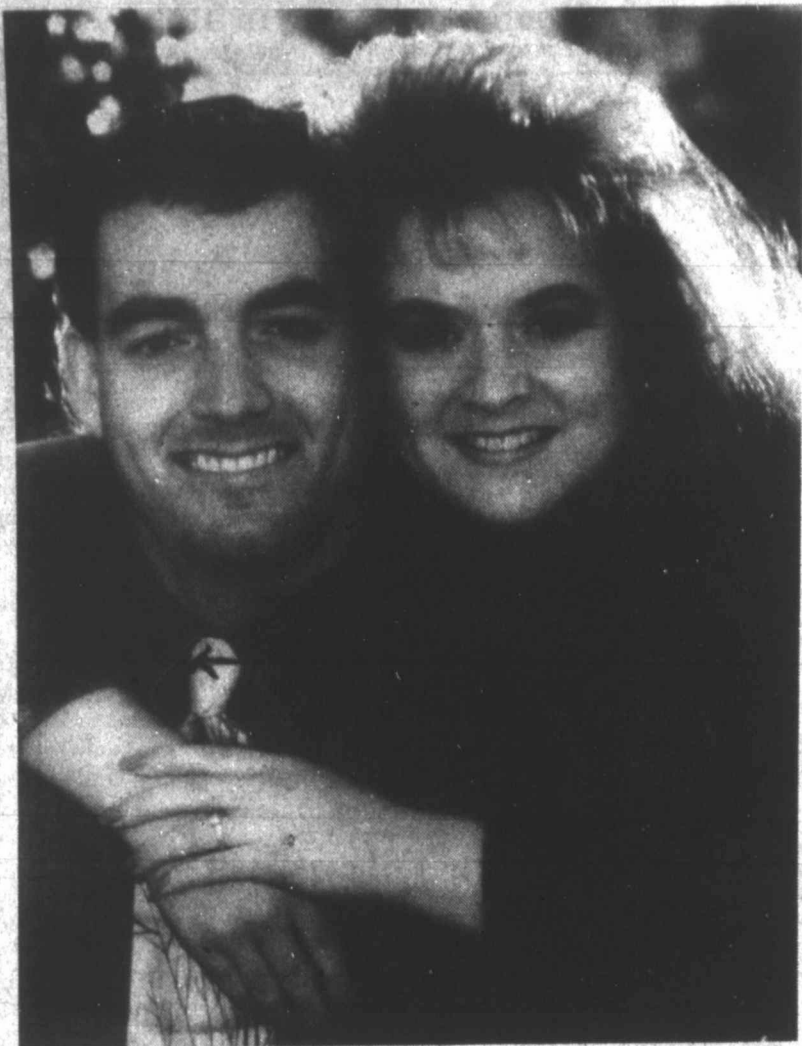

Telephone Claim: "We want deregulation so we can be competitive. It really has nothing to do with the rates we will charge customers."

FACT: The telephone companies under their proposal will be able to increase consumer rates as much as 10 percent a year (25 percent in some cases). Their bill is all about money - more for them, less for the consumer.

It Is Time To Hang-up On The Telephone Companies.

Call your legislator and say NO to telephone deregulation

APRIL 1993 CHILD ABUSE MONTH

Sports are very important to children and can help them develop physically and personally. But, simply placing children in a sports situation does not guarantee that they will benefit.

How can parents help their children have a positive experience in organized sports?

The kind of support parents give their children can make sports fun and rewarding or the source of varying degrees of stress. Here are some ways parents can help their children-whether 6 or 16-enjoy their sports experience and benefit from it. By following these principles, parents can both motivate their young athletes and help them develop a healthy, positive self-

*Keep in mind the two major reasons kids play sports - to have fun and to feel worthy, competent and successful.

*Teach your son or daughter that success in sports is more than just winning. Help them feel successful when they are improving or mastering skills, giving maximum effort, and striving to win. In this way, parents can help their athlete accept disappointment, and not see losses as personal failures or blows to self-worth.

*Help your athletes set realistic, achievable, yet challenging goals. Offer to work with them to meet these goals. When a child's skill level improves, she/he will feel a sense of accomplishment.

*Reward and encourage skill improvement, good plays, and good behavior. Remember to praise effort-not just perform-to motivate a child to try hard. The best way to reward is verbally or with a physical response like a smile or thumbs-up sign. Try to avoid money or other material rewards.

*Mistakes are part of learning a sport, and young athletes will make plenty of them. When your child makes a mistake, give encouragement and, if needed, ideas on how to correct the error. Be sure to do it in a positive way. Avoid criticizing and punishing for mistakes. Criticism teaches athletes to fear failure, causing them to worry that they will not perform well and to dread the possible disapproval of their parents, their coach, and teammates. Being negative or punitive hurts rather than improves performance.

Some words of caution...Though it is perfectly natural to identify with your children and want them to be successful, be careful not to live out your own dreams through them. Seeing a child's performance in sports as a reflection of one's own self-worth and success, can cause parents to set unrealistically high goals for their children and place pressure on them to perform, a major cause of stress in sports for kids.

Loraine golf places in District

Chris Phillips will now compete in the regional golf tournament on April 26 & 27 at the Maxwell Municipal Golf Course in Abilene. The girls team of Amber Blair, Crystal Butler, Kayla Lamb, and Sheryl Webb will also compete in the regional tournament in Abilene.
