Reds Find Ammo For Propoganda

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China suggested today that the Negro "struggle against police violence" and the anti-Viet Nam war movement in the United States "are influencing each other and alternatingly coming to the fore."

Commenting on the march on Washington two days ago, the official Peking People's Daily said of the two movements: "They are gradually merging into one tempestuous tide, pounding more and more heavily at the reactionary regime of the American monopolists."

The Chinese, who have in recent weeks repeatedly sounded the theme that the United States is divided into "good people" and "bad rulers," said: "In North America there have always coexisted two United States: one represented by Morgan, Rockefeller, John Foster Dulles, Dwight Eisenhower, John F. Kennedy, Lyndon B. Johnson, Robert S. McNamara and their like, and the other by the American people."

The paper said the distinction between the two becomes clearer as the Viet Nam war is extended and there is "harsher exploitation of the working people and fascistization at home."

It asserted that there had been a sharp growth of "contradictions" and a tremendous change in the United States in the past year as "massive struggles of the Negro people against police violence rocked the industrial centers of Los Angeles and Chicago in August."

Having broken away from the "control of the right wingers," the paper went on, the Negroes at the top "repudiated the doctrine of nonviolence."

The Chinese organ saw the anti-Viet Nam war and Negro movements as now entering "a new phase."

The march was an indication of the "enormous strength" of the American people, Peking People's Daily said in an editorial, quoted by New China News Agency.

"The march shows that the American people have begun to feel that they can no longer tolerate the Johnson administration's policy of escalating the war of aggression against Viet Nam," it said.

"More and more American people are beginning to see that their interest is in agreement with the interest of the Vietnamese people who are the victims of the aggression.

"The present antiwar movement in the United States is quite different from the peace campaigns of the past. It does not stop at demanding peace in general terms, but clearly directs its fire at the U.S. ruling circles' policies of aggression and war.

"That is why Washington is so alarmed over the steadily growing antiwar movement of the American people."

Protesters Consider Additional Marches

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH

WASHINGTON (AP) — A leader of the weekend peace march on Washington, in which thousands protested American involvement in the Viet Nam war, said today that "a demonstration doesn't convince anybody."

Despite this, Sanford Gottlieb said in a telephone interview, more demonstrations are being considered by the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy — SANE.

Gottlieb is political action director of SANE, which sponsored Saturday's march and picketing of the White House in protest of U.S. policies in Viet Nam. March officials estimated the turnout at 40,000 to 50,000; police placed it at 25,000.

"We were definitely pleased with the turnout," Gottlieb said, "despite the bus drivers who wouldn't drive people from New York and also from Baltimore."

Future marches are being considered, he said, because "at a time when a dramatic event is needed to publicize your point of view, there's nothing like a large demonstration.

"But a demonstration doesn't convince anybody," Gottlieb said.

March leaders issued a leaflet during the protest titled "What to Do Next." SANE advised protesters to write letters to newspapers, support politicians who favor a peaceful solution to the war and urge clergymen to discuss the moral issues of the Viet Nam battle.

"None of us has any illusions about the effect of any single march or even about marches as a form of action," Gottlieb said. To get results, recommendations such as offered in the leaflet "must be carried out week by week."

The SANE marchers carried signs urging an end to bombing in Viet Nam and negotiated settlement of the war. They were joined by more dissident groups, including one carrying the gold-starred flag of the Viet Cong Communist guerrillas.

March leaders had arranged for protesters carrying American flags to quickly surround the Viet Cong banners. Despite this, some of the 13 arrests during the march were prompted by the Communist flags.

At one point, two men were arrested by police after wrestling a Viet Cong flag to the ground. "There are people dying over there and you let them fly that thing," said one as police led him away.

The bulk of the protesters, however, were well-dressed, quiet and good-humored.

"This movement is not controlled by beatniks and extremists," Gottlieb said. "But a lot of young people of a more radical view than my own were not pleased."

Road Fatalities Set New High

By The Associated Press

The nation's Thanksgiving weekend traffic toll reached 602 today, the highest death tally for the period in eight years of record-keeping.

Until this year, the highest count was 554 in 1964. With some states still to verify final figures, it appeared this year's record for the 102-hour period which ended at midnight, local times, might go higher.

Forty traffic deaths were reported in New York State, 39 in California and 36 in Texas. Ohio counted 33 deaths.

Traffic death tolls have been recorded for the four-day Thanksgiving weekend period since 1958.

The Associated Press tally, started at 6 p.m. local time Wednesday.

Although most of the traffic deaths were single fatalities, several involved multiple death, such as this year's high.

Three members of a Norman, Okla., family and a teen-age girl riding in their auto as they drove to church. Three persons were seriously injured in the mishap.

A collision Saturday near Radcliff, Ky., killed two brothers and their sister on their way to the funeral of a relative.

Three persons lost their lives Thanksgiving night near Punta Gorda, Fla., in a head-on collision. The same day near Dayton, Tex., five persons were killed in a crash.

Snow made driving conditions hazardous in some parts of the nation over the weekend.

Viet War Escalation Seen By McNamara

By EDWIN Q. WHITE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara ended his visit to Viet Nam today by declaring that the United States would throw in as many fighting men as needed to wage the war against the Communists.

McNamara told newsmen at Saigon airport after his 3½-day factfinding tour that his most dramatic impression is that "we have stopped losing the war."

He added that the increased ferocity of Viet Cong and North Vietnamese attacks in recent weeks indicated "a clear decision by Hanoi to escalate infiltration and raise the level of the conflict."

He said these acts must be countered, adding: "The South Vietnamese government will further increase its military strength."

On the eve of McNamara's arrival, four Viet Cong battalions with North Vietnamese support troops handed the South Vietnamese one of their worst setbacks of the war. In an attack on troops holding an abandoned rubber plantation 45 miles northwest of Saigon, the Communists knocked out an entire government regiment as an effective fighting force. American advisers also perished.

It was feared the casualties, when finally totaled, might be the highest of the war to date.

McNamara declined to speculate on the total U.S. forces that will be required but his comments heightened speculation that he will advise President Johnson to increase American ground forces in Viet Nam from 165,000 to 300,000 men and step up air attacks on the North Vietnamese jungle supply routes.

These were believed to be the minimum requests of U.S. military commanders during their talks with McNamara during his whirlwind tour.

Before heading back to Washington, McNamara made a quick trip to U.S. 1st Cavalry. The air cavalry's Airmobiles Division headquarters, in the central highlands 260 miles north of Saigon. He met some of the men who fought the Communists in the bitter Ia Drang Valley battle two weeks ago and flew over the battle scene.

McNamara received first-hand briefings on the Ia Drang fighting, praised the division's achievements and said: "Without question there will be other air cavalry divisions formed."

The air cavalry's 16,000 men rely on the division's more than 450 helicopters for speedy transport into combat.

No significant ground action was reported today, but U.S. Air Force and Navy planes hammered Communist targets from the tip of South Viet Nam to north of Hanoi. A spokesman said they knocked out railroads and supply installations.

A Communist regiment that wiped out a South Vietnamese regiment on an abandoned rubber plantation Saturday 45 miles northwest of Saigon apparently disappeared without a trace. Searching Vietnamese and American troops failed to make contact with the Comunist force Sunday or today.

Radio Cambodia reported that two American prisoners held since November 1963 by the Viet Cong arrived at the Cambodian frontier Sunday and were granted transit visas to the United States. The Viet Cong announced over the weekend that the two men — Sgt. George E. Smith of Chester, W. Va., and Spec. 5 Claude E. McClure of Chattanooga, Tenn., had been freed.

The Communists captured another American Sunday, the pilot of a Navy F8 Crusader shot down over North Viet Nam about 15 miles north of Thanh Hoa on an armed reconnaissance mission. The pilot ejected and was seen landing in an open field near a small village.

Search and rescue aircraft failed to find him, and he was presumed to have been captured. Another Crusader was shot down in the same area earlier Sunday. But the pilot was rescued.

An Air Force F4C went down near Pleiku, in South Viet Nam's central highlands, apparently because of Viet Cong gunners. The two crewmen ejected and were picked up.

Other Air Force planes and Vietnamese Skyraiders splahsed heavy bombs and machine-gun fire on a large Viet Cong force in Tay Ninh Province northwest of Saigon, the spokesman said.

Six Airforce F100 Supersabre jets hit three Viet Cong companies camped in Kine Hoa province, 75 miles south of Saigon, with bombs and rockets, the spokesman reported.

First Frost Here Today

Scurry County finally got its first killing frost of the season early Monday.

In fact, it was a full-fledged freeze as the thermometer dipped to 27 degrees at daybreak and remained below the freezing mark for several hours.

The cool spell brought to an end a period of unseasonably warm weather that had endured for several weeks over most of the state.

The freeze line extended from Bowie in North Central Texas to Abilene to the west and then to Alpine in far West Texas.

The lowest temperature was 17 at Dalhart in the northwest Panhandle.

Cool to cold temperatures will continue through the night, with Tuesday expected to be a little warmer.

Scattered showers developed in South Texas but were only transitory.

British-Soviet Talks Begin

MOSCOW (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart arrived in Moscow today for talks with Soviet leaders on Viet Nam and the nonproliferation of nuclear weapons.

Pravda said it hoped Stewart's four-day visit would contribute "to the normalization of the international situation." British sources here held little hope of major results.

Accompanied by Lord Chalfont, Britain's minister for disarmament, Stewart was scheduled to meet with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko Tuesday. Stewart also was expected to meet with Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and Communist party Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev.

The result of the talks will be a main topic when British Prime Minister Harold Wilson meets with President Johnson in the United States next month.

Observers said Stewart would try to get a clearer idea of the Soviet price for a treaty to stop the spread of nuclear arms. The Soviets have said no agreement is possible unless the United States abandons its proposal for a multilateral nuclear force for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The Soviet Union maintains this would give West Germany access to nuclear arms.

There have been signs of American and British flexibility on the touchy question.

Britain has indicated it considers a nonproliferation agreement more important than a NATO nuclear force.

The United States has proposed a consultation committee that would give other Atlantic Alliance nations some participation in nuclear policy. Some observers say the committee proposal could provide a compromise between the West German desire for a greater voice in the nuclear policy and the Soviet demand that no German finger touch the nuclear trigger.

The atmosphere for Stewart's mission was improved somewhat by a front-page article today in Pravda, the Soviet Communist party paper, welcoming him with a friendly comment.

"The Soviet people express the hope," Pravda said, "that the . . talks will be a further step toward the strengthening of friendly relations between the peoples of the Soviet Union and Great Britain."

Power Unit May Delay Gemini 7

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Experts replace today a power unit in the Gemini 7 spacecraft guidance system, hoping the move will not delay Saturday's scheduled launching.

Testing of the new unit could cause postponement for a day or two. A decision was expected later today after initial tests.

Astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr. will ride Gemini 7 into space for a 14-day endurance flight. Nine days later Gemini 6 astronauts Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Thomas P. Stafford will take off in pursuit in an attempt to rendezvous within a few feet of Gemini 7.

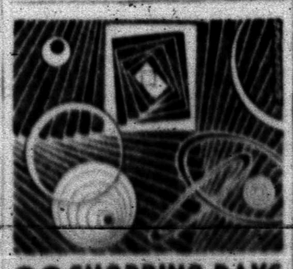

The trouble cropped up Saturday during a daylong flight rehearsal when a surge of unexplained electrical current appeared in the Gemini 7 spacecraft computer, preventing it from receiving accurate commands.

Technicians spent Sunday trying to isolate the source of the current, called a "voltage spike." They traced it to an auxiliary power unit associated with the inertial guidance system in the spacecraft.

A space agency spokesman noted that similar trouble occurred a few days before the Gemini 5 launching in August. The unit was replaced without delaying the firing.

There was a possibility, however, that officials will want to test thoroughly a new Gemini 7 power unit before flight, because of the necessity of having everything in perfect working order so that Borman and Lovell can remain aloft for two weeks.

Borman and Lovell planned today to practice in a spacecraft simulator several phases of their marathon flight.

Steady Flow Of Cubans Expected

By THEODORE A. EDIGER

MIAMI (AP) — About 800 Cuban refugees will be added to the U.S. population every week starting Wednesday and possibly continuing for years. From Miami, they will scatter throughout the nation.

The Cuban Refugee Center, which will coordinate the vast distribution program, will steer refugees to relatives who preceded them.

Otherwise, the program shapes up largely as a speedup of resettlement that since 1961 has sent nearly 100,000 exiles to more than 2,000 cities in the 50 states, a center spokesman said.

"Under a change of procedure, resettlement now will be largely on a relative-to-relative basis," said Marshal Wise, director of the government-operated center. "Cubans will look for jobs in areas where they have relatives."

That means popular areas such as New York, Chicago and Los Angeles, where refugees already are concentrated, will receive more, a center spokesman said. It dos not mean, however, that points now without a Cuban population will be left out.

A community wishing to attract refugees or employers with job openings for some, should contact a church in their hometown or the refugee center in Miami, or both, the spokesman said. Most churches are prepared to relay the requests to settlement agencies, he said.

Under the new phase of the migration movement, relatives of Cubans already in the United States will be flown from Varadero, Cuba, to Miami. There will be nine flights weekly, with Uncle Sam paying the fares.

Applications for evacuation of 174,000 persons from Cuba have been received by the refugee center from 83,190 relatives in this country. It would take more than four years to bring that number here at the rate of 800 weekly. The U.S. and Cuban governments must join on the basis of applications.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: "SKIP MY NAME" advised the wives of servicemen who were "on their honor" to send support money home but failed to do so, to write to the Adjutant General's office, and send copies to her husband's commanding Officer, chaplain, her minister and heaven knows who else. And you told her she could accomplish the same results with only one letter—to her Congressman. Abbe, no matter to whom this woman writes, her letter will eventually end up on the desk of her husband's Commanding Officer.

I am the C.O. for over 4,000 troops, and I assure you I would rather read any letter to a letter from the Adjutant General's office, or from a Congressman, than from the writer by the wife of a serviceman in financial difficulty. I wish you would have told her to give the Commanding Officer a chance to act first.

L. D. MARLOWE JR., COL.
C. O., INFANTRY CENTER
FORT BENNING, GA.

DEAR ABBY: About that woman who griped because the government no longer sent allotment checks to wives of men in the service, but put them on their "honor" to send support money home.

She said that unfortunately some men didn't have much honor, and she included her husband. I would like to point out that in cases where the allotment check automatically went to the wife, plenty of G.I.'s got a dirty deal, and cutting it out was one of the best things that ever happened to servicemen. Women used to marry a G.I. just to get her hands on his allotment check regularly, and she'd refuse to even go to where he was stationed. Now she has to either live with the guy or take it up with the civil courts. Believe me, it's better this way.

IN THE SERVICE

DEAR ABBY: I read that letter from "SKIP MY NAME" in which she stated that servicemen are "on their honor" to support their families since the old allotment system has been discontinued? Is she talking about AMERICAN servicemen, Abby? She must be nuts or something. My husband has been in the Infantry of the U.S.A. for almost a year now. I started getting an allotment right from the beginning, and I still get it. Please explain this.

BAFFLED IN VIRGINIA

* * *

DEAR BAFFLED: There are "grades" (rank) in the military. Men in the higher grades who have reached a certain rank are not required to submit allotments for their dependents. They are "on their honor" to support their families, and it's the rare bird who doesn't meet this responsibility. Allotment checks are sent to dependents of servicemen in the "lower" grades, however.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Holy smokes! Of all the advice to give a woman who's having trouble getting support money from her soldier husband. Write to your Congressman, you tell her. Congressmen have enough to do without handling complaints about the servicemen. Taxpayers could save themselves a load of dough if you would educate them on WHERE to send their complaints instead of just piling everything on their Congressmen. All that stuff has to be sorted and sifted and then rechanneled to the proper places.

Very truly yours,
TAX PAYER

DEAR ABBY: Re that letter from "SKIP MY NAME."

The U.S. Army does not condone irresponsibility on the part of its members, and considers support of dependents a serious responsibility. Failure on the part of a service member to meet his obligations tends to cast discredit upon the military service, and is grounds for disciplinary action and even elimination from the service as undesirable.

Sincerely,
D. L. R.

No Smoking Order To Be Tested

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A no-smoking ban goes into effect today for the 2,000 employes at the Samsonite Corp. plant here. It forbids no smoking anywhere in the plant at anytime, lunch breaks included.

"I don't know what's going to happen," said Charles Griffin, president of United Rubber Workers Local 724 and a smoker. "We're going to present a grievance and see what happens."

The order came from Jesse Shwayder, 81, founder, chairman of the board and a nonsmoker for the past 15 years. It applies to coffee breaks and lunch hour in the plant's cafeteria.

"It's for the benefit of the employes," Shwayder said. "I know it's going to make me unpopular."

Shwayder cited insurance company statistics saying that $16 billion is lost to American families annually because of the premature deaths of wage earners as a result of smoking. He said he hopes the regulation will help employes break the smoking habit.

Griffin said his members are angry and the union will file grievances if dismissals are made because of the new rule. He wouldn't say whether he was taking a pack of cigarettes to work with him.

"It's unfair, unjust and discriminatory policy, alien to this country's tradition. Next we will be told what we can eat or drink. If he wants to protect his health by not smoking, that's his prerogative," Griffin said. "But we feel he has gone overboard in protecting the health of the employes."

Snow Heavy In Northeast

By The Associated Press

Residents of parts of New York and Pennsylvania trudged through heavy snows today as drifts piled up along the eastern and southeastern shores of the Great Lakes.

The port city of Erie, Pa., was digging out of 13 inches of snow and looked forward to a continuing fall of 6 more inches. The snow covered a belt extending about 16 miles along the Lake Erie shore.

Drifting snow in the Erie area —piled up by winds up to 32 knots — hampered highway crews. Snow deposits measured up to 12 inches just northeast of Cleveland.

About 1,000 travelers were forced by blowing and drifting snow to find emergency shelter Sunday night in Dunkirk, N.Y., and three other Chautauqua County communities.

President Seeks Ways To Curb High Interest Rates

By JACK BELL

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson hopes to bring pressure to bear against what he believes are unjustified profits being rung up by the nation's lenders from overly high interest rates.

If he has found no way to curb the money changers in his temple of economic stability, the President is ready to give them a hard time about the mounting interest rates they are charging the government when it is forced, as it is continually, to borrow more and more money.

His first move in the direction of easier money could come in the naming of a new member to replace C. Canby Balderston, expected to retire about Jan. 1 from the Federal Reserve Board of Governors.

However, William McChesney Martin, the Federal Reserve Board chairman whom critics have blamed for high interest rates, still has more than four years to go on his present 14-year term. A proposal by the late President John F. Kennedy to make the chairman's term coincide with a presidential term went nowhere in Congress and the Johnson administration has no plans to revive it.

The board is maintaining a 4 per cent rediscount rate at the point which tends to boost interest charged by banks and other lending institutions.

The White House has figured out that the cost of short-term borrowing by the Treasury has gone up 72 per cent since 1961. In that year the Treasury was renting money for an average of 2.378 per cent interest; this month, the rate has been 4.097 per cent.

Long-term Treasury bonds cost the government about 12 per cent more than in 1961 because of an increase in the average interest rate from 3.90 per cent to 4.36 per cent.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler, in a speech at New Orleans Sunday night, said any further increase in interest rates as a brake against possible inflation growing out of the long economic boom would be "premature and unwise."

As he did in the controversy over aluminum and copper prices, Johnson is staying in the background of the campaign to ease the increased borrowing costs which Budget Bureau experts say will add about $400 million this year to the January estimate of $11.6 billion interest charges on the national debt.

This is one of several reasons given by White House officials to explain why the new budget Johnson will send to Congress Jan. 17 will go over the $100-billion mark — and possibly to $105 billion or more. It is also a factor in the administration's estimate that the deficit for the current year will range from $7 [illegible]

The President took time out Sunday from a weekend spent working on the budget to study documents prepared for a series of meetings with heads of state in mid-December and to make a personal appearance at Dr. Billy Graham's evangelical crusade in the Houston, Tex., Astrodome.

This was Johnson's personal observance of a national day of dedication and prayer for U.S. forces and their allies in South Viet Nam.

Thinks Meg's Expenses 'Outrageous'

LONDON (AP) — A Laborite member of the House of Commons, William Hamilton, says he has heard Princess Margaret's 20-day visit to the United States cost the taxpayers at least $140,000 and he thinks it is "an outrage."

Hamilton said he opposed such an expenditure "particularly at a time when workers are being urged to increase their production and curb their wage demands."

He said he will ask the government to reveal the exact cost and show how the money was spent.

Holidays Are Ahead: Operation 'Skin Care'

Have you taken a good look at your calendar lately? It's hard to believe, but the holidays are almost here. Just enough time left to work on complexion problems to have them cleared up in time for the parties, dances and other good times ahead.

The basis for all skin beauty is cleanliness — and scrupulous cleanliness is required for a skin that tends to be blemished. A bacteria - fighting skin cleanser helps this problem considerably.

Your own persistence is the key element. And, remember—hard scrubbing is not the answer; in fact it can be injurious to skin. Instead, you can copy a technique developed for surgeons and nurses who must keep their skin "hospital clean."

Thorough but gentle washing with an antibacterial skin cleanser, is beneficial to all kinds of complexions, and can help prevent skin eruptions.

Infection plays a prominent role in acne and related conditions. Therefore, pHisoHex is often recommended for daily skin care because it cleanses thoroughly and is highly effective in combating the germs that infect acne "bumps." It also protects the skin surface by leaving on it an emollient film containing hexachlorophene. The film continues to fight germ growth on the skin for hours after washing and rinsing. Routine use builds up and maintains this antibacterial action.

For best results, wash face thoroughly for about three minutes, rinse with care, first with warm water, then cold, and pat dry with a soft towel. Showering and shampooing with this creamy cleanser is also helpful in acne control.

Severe cases of acne should be seen by a doctor. He may institute a number of medical methods known to help even stubborn conditions.

But whether or not you have problem skin, you can help avoid trouble by remembering never to go to bed without removing makeup; to apply fresh makeup whenever possible, to use a clean powderpuff or piece of cotton; to keep hands away from face and to wash them often (hands carry germs, and lots of them). And remember, above all, not to be discouraged.

If you start on your skin improvement program now, by the time Christmas is here, and possibly before, you will reap the rewards of your extra efforts—when you notice your cleaner, clearer, smoother complexion.

Emotions Heightened

FAMILY By Margaret Mead and Ken Heyman.

Primarily this is a book for the eye, and as such it is a powerful stimulant to the mind and emotions.

Between 1957 and 1964 photographer Heyman took highly intimate pictures of people in 45 countries - people of all ages and conditions - not in their attitudes of rank, occupation or endeavor, but almost always in their private, personal moments within the delicate webs of human relationships.

The pictures have been grouped in chapters — mothers, fathers, families, brothers and sisters, grandparents, the children, friends and adolescents.

Dr. Mead, the renowned anthropologist, has written a brief text for each of these chapters, summarizing in laymen's language what the anthropologists and sociologists have learned about family relationships in all parts of the world, and the many changes which these relationships have undergone.

Her prose is clear, terse and illuminating. But it is the pictures that register the strongest impressions. If there is any omission in this enterprise, it might be the idea of a family as a family unit — and the Kennedys would have been a perfect subject for a chapter on that theme.

El Feliz Club To Hold Party

The El Feliz Club met recently at 2 p.m. with Mrs. E. J. Richardson Sr. as hostess at Sallie's tea room.

In the absence of the president Mrs. A. C. Martin vice president, presided over the business session. Plans for a Christmas party were discussed with final plans to be made at the next meeting. Mrs. Alice Northcutt will be hostess on Dec. 3 at the tea room.

Progressive forty - two was enjoyed by members and one guest, Mrs. Henry J. Brice. The traditional Thanksgiving theme was carried out in a delicious refreshment plate served by the hostess.

... will remind many viewers of the famous Steichen photo exhibit, "Family of Man," which was seen by millions and was published as a book, without text, in all parts of the world. This volume is on the same high level.

The sea floor has been called the world's biggest junkyard. Ocean explorers report that empty cans, bottles and waste of all kind litter the floors of the Atlantic Ocean, the Red Sea and the Indian Ocean. Capt. Jacques - Yves Cousteau, whose expeditions are supported by National Geographic, said recently that he would never forget his first deep dive in a bathyscaphe: "I landed in front of a spread - out newspaper."

US Is Paying Penalty For Underestimating Viet Cong

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)— Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, now in Viet Nam on his seventh visit, expresses surprise at the "intensity and scale of attacks by the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces in recent weeks."

He didn't have to be surprised. Those forces are probably the toughest in Asia. In their eight-year war with France they killed and wounded over 130,000 of the French forces, suffered perhaps more than 200,000 casualties themselves.

McNamara's "surprise" could be taken as an example of how this country and France underestimated the spirit of those Vietnamese who get and got their leadership from the old Comunist, Ho Chi Minh, leader of North Viet Nam.

During the first two years of President John F. Kennedy's administration. McNamara kept coming back from Viet Nam full of optimism and only slowly, after Kennedy's death, began saying the war might be long and hard.

This country is paying the penalty for having failed to understand the quality of its opponents and for having failed to do more to defeat it.

Now Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr., historian and special aide to Kennedy, writes of the late president's reaction when he heard that South Viet Nam's President Ngo Dinh Diem, had been killed, not by Comunists but by his own people.

Diem, backed by this country for eight years, was assassinated Nov. 2, 1963, along with his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, just three weeks before Kennedy's death.

In his book just out, "A Thousand Days," Schlesinger says Kennedy was "somber and shaken.

"I had not seen him so depressed since the Bay of Pigs. No doubt he realized that Viet Nam was his great failure in foreign policy, and that he had never really given it his full attention."

The failure to understand what was happening in Viet Nam, and what was needed to offset the Communist thru t, began long ago.

The French, holding Viet Nam as a colony since the 19th century, were driven out by the Japanese in World War II. After the war the French returned.

They had done so little for the Vietnamese that at the time of the war 90 per cent were illiterate. Under Ho Chi Minh the Vietnamese, and not all of them Communists, resisted. Full war began in 1946 and lasted until 1954.

Then, crushed, the French had to quit. They were so weak that from 1950 to 1954 the United States had to help them with arms and supplies.

Since the French couldn't have carried on the war without U.S. help, this country could have insisted, but didn't, that the French begin to grant the Vietnamese the independence they were waiting for.

After the French pull-out, Viet Nam was divided into the Communist North and the non-Communist South. This country began helping the South.

But in President Diem this country supported a dictator who was loathed and finally killed by his own people. It was after his death, when South Viet Nam began to disintegrate under Viet Cong pressure, that this country gradually got into the war itself, directly.

When a recipe calls for a "dash" of a seasoning, add less than ¼ teaspoon.

Junior Editors Quiz on VOLCANOES

QUESTION: How are volcanoes formed, and are there any in the U.S.A.?

• • •

ANSWER: A volcano is formed around an opening in Earth's crust which reaches down to where there is hot, melted rock called magma. Gases in the magma expand and exert tremendous pressure. Since the gases can't go down or sideways, they push up. When they find weak spots in Earth's crust, they blow violently, hurling molten rock into the air. Cooling, this turns to lava and is dropped to the sides; so, a cone is built up, such as the one at upper left. Volcanoes may relieve the pressures below and cool down or they may go on erupting. Most of them are located in belts close to mountain ranges where there is weakness in Earth's crust. Our map shows one such chain. Notice that the map locates three important active volcanoes in U.S. territory: Katmai in Alaska (shown erupting in upper picture), Lassen in California, and Kilauea in Hawaii, lying on the slopes of Mauna Loa, another volcano which erupts occasionally. Our artist has illustrated an old Hawaiian legend that Pele, goddess of fire, sometimes bursts out of Kilauea in the guise of a young woman with blazing red hair, hurling rocks and smoke in all directions.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Make Pele look like the legendary picture of herself by coloring her hair a brilliant red and use oranges and yellows for the flames. The Alaskan picture should be given cooler and bluer colors. 11-29

Graham And LBJ Draw Record Crowd

HOUSTON (AP) — A record throng of 61,000 persons spilled over onto the playing field of the Domed Stadium Sunday to hear evangelist Billy Graham and see the President of the United States.

It was the finale of the 10-day crusade by Graham, and the President and Mrs. Johnson flew to Houston from the LBJ Ranch outside Austin to attend.

Johnson previously had promised the evangelist he would attend one of the services.

He picked the day which he had proclaimed as a day honoring the men and women of South Viet Nam, the United States and other countries "who are risking their lives to bring about a just peace in South Viet Nam."

In welcoming the President, Graham referred to Saturday's demonstration in Washington, D.C., against the administration's Viet Nam policy.

Graham called on the audience "to join me in pledging our loyalty to America. . ."

The crowd, including those in the plush box high above the right field bleachers where the Johnsons sat, gave the President a standing ovation.

Graham spoke on "The Great Judgment Day," taking his text from Acts 17:16-34, which is an account of the Apostle Paul's sermon to the Athenians on the nature of their "unknown god."

Paul had accepted an invitation to speak to the university at Mars Hill in Athens, Graham said, because "he knew that a nation stands or falls by what happens at the university."

"Modern man is even more perplexed by the quest to know himself than the philosophers of the past," Graham said.

And if Paul walked the streets of America as he did the streets of Athens, Graham said, "he would see imorality, crime and even more idols than in Athens.

"Our idols today are not made of marble and wood, but are chromeplated and ultramodern. There are idols of fashion, fortune, feast, ambition, self-seeking and entertainment.

". . . Whether we know it or not, we are becoming more and more a secularistic nation, where man himself is becoming an idol. We are humanizing God and deifying man."

The President listened carefully to Graham's sermon.

At the end of the service, Graham went up to the presidential box and stood talking with Johnson for several minutes. They are old friends. Graham flew to the LBJ Ranch after his sermon of Nov. 20 and conducted a religious service.

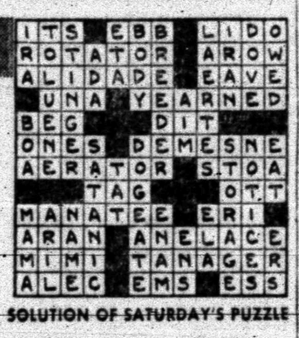

Graham drew a total of 380,-19- persons for the full crusade. The 1,662 "inquirers" who responded to his invitation to come forward at the end of the service raised the number of those who had taken that step to 13,103.

Crimson Tide Made Great Comeback

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Alabama's Crimson Tide, counted out of everything two months ago but named to a bowl a week ago, has completed one of the biggest comebacks of the 1965 college football season and now turns its attention to Nebraska.

"We haven't turned a wheel on Nebraska," Alabama Coach Bear Bryant said. "We haven't looked at them, haven't scouted them, haven't thought about them."

But the Tide, ranked fifth in the country and headed for a Jan. 1 Orange Bowl date with Nebraska, 10-0 and No. 3 nationally, undoubtedly will be thinking about the Cornhuskers a lot this week.

They have nothing else to do.

Bryant, one of the toughest task masters in the business, gave the team the week off after Alabama closed its regular season with a 30-3 triumph over Auburn Saturday.

"I'm proud of them," Bryant said, "more so than any team I've ever been associated with. They had to come from so far back."

'Bama was counted out of everything, and knocked out of the nation's No. 1 spot when they lost to Georgia in their opener. Only a tie with Tennessee mars their record since then.

They finished at 8-1-1 and, by beating Auburn, took the Southeastern Conference title. Steve Sloan threw three touchdown passes.

Georgia Tech, headed for the Gator Bowl, was upset by Georgia 17-7, while the two big ones — Army vs. Navy and Notre Dame vs. Miami, Fla. — ended in ties.

Army and Navy struggled to a lack-lustre 7-7 tie before 102,000 in Philadelphia, finishing off a mediocre season for each team. Mighty Notre Dame, No. 1 in the country, apparently suffered a let-down after the previous week's loss to Michigan State and was held to a scoreless tie by Miami.

The other ranked teams in action won handily. No. 9 Tennessee, taking Vanderbilt 21-3 and No. 8 Southern California routed Wyoming 56-6.

Brigham Young wrapped up the Western Athletic Conference title with a 42-8 romp over New Mexico while Texas Christian filled out the major bowl line-up, accepting a spot in the Sun Bowl after beating Southern Methodist 10-7.

That makes the bowl line-up look like this:

Rose Bowl — Michigar State, 10-0, vs. UCLA, 7-1-1.

Cotton Bowl — Arkansas, 10-0, vs. Louisiana State, 7-3.

Sugar Bowl — Missouri, 7-2-1, vs. Florida, 7-3.

Orange Bowl — Nebraska, 10-0, vs. Alabama, 8-1-1.

Gator Bowl — Georgia Tech, 8-1-3, vs. Texas Tech, 8-2.

Bluebonnet Bowl — Tennessee, 6-1-2, vs. Tulsa, 8-2.

Liberty Bowl — Auburn, 5-4-1, vs. Mississippi, 6-4.

Hiskey, Wysong Split Cajun Pot

By BEN THOMAS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus hit his second shot to the green on the 18th hole at Oakbourne Country Club course and left himself a 12-foot putt for a brdie, which would have given him a 68 for the final round of the $32,000 Cajun Classic, final PGA tourney of 1965.

The Golden Bear, a slight smile on his face, walked to the scorer's table to check the results of earlier finishers.

"Who?" asked the Masters champ. Then he laughed and said, "I'm only kidding."

The 25-year-old Ohio strongboy's putt slid two feet past the cup and he had to settle for a 69.

The three-under-par score on the 6,555-yard course meant big Jack was one stroke shy of the leader after the regulation 72 holes.

Babe Hiskey and Dudley Wysong did have it and Hiskey, who was born on the edge of an Idaho golf course, canned a fast putt from 20 feet out to win the title on the second hole of the sudden death.

Nicklaus knew who Wysong was. He had beaten the Southern Methodist graduate in the finals of the U.S. Amateur in 1961. He's seen Hiskey's name near the bottom of the list of also-rans in other tourneys.

Neither Hiskey nor Wysong, each 26, had ever won an official tourney.

After Hiskey, an ex-Houston University golfer, sent his putt charging toward the cup successfully, Wysong who earlier had been gripping his stomach tightly when he got butterflies, missed one from 15 feet away that would have sent the playoff into another hole.

Nicklaus tied for third with $1,900 and it boosted his earnings to a record $140,752.

Lakers Sink Detroit Five

By The Associated Press

For 42 minutes of their National Basketball Association game Sunday night, Detroit and Los Angeles matched point for point. It was the six-minute span midway through the first quarter that left the Pistons on the short end of a 128-110 decision.

Los Angeles was leading 19-15 with 6:11 left in the first period when the Pistons hit a scoring famine that lasted for almost the rest of the period. The Lakers spun off 19 straight points before Detroit's Bill Buntin finally scored another basket just before the end of the quarter.

After that, the two clubs matched almost point for point but that six-minute jump was too much for Detroit to overcome. Jerry West and Rudy LaRusso paced the Laker attack with West netting 28 points and LaRusso 24. Red Thorn had 21 and Don Kojis 20 for Detroit.

In the only other NBA game Sunday, Baltimore stood off a late St. Louis rally and whipped the Hawks 110-102.

3 SWC 11's Bowl Bound

By The Associated Press

Except for three teams—Arkansas, Texas Tech and Texas Christian—the Southwest Conference football campaign was at an end today.

Those three will start soon preparing for bowl games. Arkansas is host team in the Cotton Bowl, Texas Tech is in the Gator Bowl and Texas Christian is in the Sun Bowl.

Arkansas and Texas Tech will receive $123,125 from bowl receipts. Texas Christian will get $83,125. Texas A&M, Baylor, Rice, Southern Methodist and Texas each will get $23,125.

This year conference bowl teams can keep $100,000 from their take and split the remainder with their fellow members. The Cotton Bowl will pay about $225,000 the Gator Bowl about $150,000 and the Sun Bowl about $60,000. Where a team does not get as much as $100,000, it will pay the conference $10,000.

The conference campaign wound up with three games last week, with Arkansas, the champion, and Texas Tech, a second place team, not playing.

Texas Christian beat Southern Methodist 10-7 to tie Texas Tech for second.

Texas beat Texas A&M 21-17 and Baylor trimmed Rice 17-13 and Texas, Baylor and Southern Methodist all tied for fourth place.

Rice and Texas A&M wound up in a tie for the cellar.

The conference campaign drew its largest attendance in history. A total of 1,659,336 paid admissions were recorded for 43 home games. This was 154,333 more than were reported in 1963 when the previous record of 1,505,004 was set.

The average this year was 38,589 per game, also a record. The previous high was 35,833 in 1963.

Kathy Sets Record At Titleholders

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Kathy Whitworth of San Antonio, Tex., won the Women's Titleholders Golf Tournament unday with a 71 for 287 and a tournament record.

Finishing 10 strokes behind in second place was Peggy Wilson of Mereidian, Miss., her highest finish on the professional tour.

Marilynn mith, who had won the tourney two years in a row, slipped to third place with a 298 for the 72-holes — nine strokes off her record-beating pace of last year.

Colts Want Big Randy

DALLAS (AP)—Two of the Texas collegians drafted by professional football over the weekend already have signed contracts but it's a little too early for Randy Matson, the famed Texas A&M shot-putter who was taken by Baltimore of the NFL with two years of eligibility left.

Baltimore drafted Matson, who hasn't yet played football at Texas A&M and who is only a junior, with the statement that he has a year of eligibility remaining although his class graduates next June. He was taken as a future.

In view of the fact that Matson's class won't graduate until June of 1967, Baltimore's draft appears quite premature.

Randy Johnson, Texas A&I quarterback, has already signed a contract with Atlanta of the NFL although he also was drafted by Denver of the AFL.

Martin Kahn, North Texas State tackle, also signed with Atlanta. He had not been drafted by the AFL.

Six Texans were drafted by both leagues, including Johnson. They were Tommy Nobis, Texas linebacker, by Atlanta and Houston; George Allen, West Texas State tackle, by Dallas and Houston; Wilbur Ayler, Southwest Texas State tackle, Pete Lammons, Texas end, by Cleveland of the NFL and New York of the AFL, and Ken McLean, Texas A&M end, by Green Bay and Buffalo.

Other Texans drafted by the NFL were: Bob Sanders, North Texas State center, and Jim Vining, Rice guard, by Atlanta; Diron Talbert, Texas tackle; Jake David, Lamar Tech back, and Joe O'Brien, Arlington State end, by Los Angeles; Jerry Lovelace, Texas Tech halfback, by Washington; Jerry Stokes, Corpus Christi back, by Minnesota; Randy Winkler, Tarleton State tackle, by Detroit; Phil Harris, Texas halfback, by New York; Willie Walker, Baylor end, by San Francisco, and John Roderick, Southern Methodist flanker, by Green Bay.

Texans drafted by the AFL were: Bill Bonds, McMurry, defensive back, by Kansas City; Phil Scoggin, Texas A&M kicker; Jerry Oliver, Southwest Texas tackle, and Don Lorenz, Stephen F. Howe Scores 600th Goal

By The Associated Press

Gordie Howe keeps picking on Gump Worsley and Worsley keeps taking it out on the rest of the National Hockey League.

Howe scored the 600th goal of his fabulous 20-year NHL career Saturday night and Montreal Goalie Worsley was the victim — just as he'd been when the indestructible Detroit star reached two other milestones. Howe bagged No. 500 at Worsley's expense three years ago tied Maurice Richard' former all-time mark of 544 goals against Gump the following season.

This time, however, Worsley shrugged off the big Red Wing's third-period tally and beat Detroit 3-2, then checked the Chicago Black Hawks 2-1 Sunday night, leading Montreal into first place in the NHL race.

Toronto moved up to third, five points behind Chicago, with a come-from-behind 4-2 victory over New York and the Red Wings rebounded against Boston 5-3 in other Sunday games.

The 37-year-old Howe, who had not scored a goal in two weeks, took his record-maker in stride. "It wasn't like when I was going for Richard's record," he said. "The pressure was really on then."

Won 9 Of 11 Races

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Buckpasser, who won nine of his 11 races and established a money winning record for 2-year-olds with earnings of $598,596, was named today as the champion 2-year-old colt of 1965 by the Thoroughbred Racing Associations.

Ponies, Tech Lost Classic

EL PASO (AP)—It's Texas Christian and Texas Western in the Sun Bowl football game Dec. 31 as the post-season classic gets a Southwest Conference team for the third straight year.

Texas Christian finished with a 6-4 record by beating Southern Methodist 10-7 Saturday and immediately accepted an invitation to play here.

Texas Western wound up a 7-3 season by trimming West Texas State 38-21 Saturday, with Billy Stevens passing for 355 yards and two touchdowns.

Sun Bowl officials expect Texas Western to give Texas Christian a good game because of Stevens, who passed for 2,500 yards and 21 touchdowns during the season.

Texas Christian, incidentally, will be after the first victory by a Southwest Conference team in the Sun Bowl. Southern Methodist and Texas Tech dropped decisions in 1963 and 1964.

The game will be played in a stadium seating 30,000 fans but there will be no television because of a conflict in dates with the TV people. It will be resumed next year.

Football Fans Are Fickle?

By W.B. RAGSDALE JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I sure am glad the fans let me stay in long enough to show what I could do."

There was a twinkle in his eye and a broad grin on his face as quarterback Sonny Jurgensen of the Washington Redskins said this Sunday.

He could afford to kid about the boos. It wound up as one of the best days in his nine years in the National Football League as Washington overcame a 21-0 deficit to beat Dallas 34-31 and move into a three-way tie for second place in the Eastern Division. Washington now has a 5-6 record. Dallas is 4-7.

In rallying the Redskins for three touchdowns in the fourth quarter — two in the last four minutes — the red-haired veteran connected on 26 of 42 passes for 411 yards, including three touchdowns.

It was the fourth time in his career that Jurgensen had gone over the 400-yard mark in passing in a single game. He is the only NFL player to do it more than once.

Is Graustark Best Colt?

By The Associated Press

Remember Graustark? He's the 2-year-old colt who had thoroughbred racing circles buzzing with superlatives last summer. He was rated better than Buckpasser who went on to become the top 2-year-old of the year.

Graustark, a son of Ribot-Flower Bowl, won three straight races in Chicago for John Galbreath's Darby Dan Farm before he suffered a shin splint on his left foreleg and was retired for the year.

Graustark now is reported bedded down at Hialeah and being pointed for the 3-year-old stakes during the Florida winter season that are stepping stones to the triple crown events, the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness and the Belmont takes, and a possible meeting with Buckpasser.

While Graustark has been out of the headlines his jockey, Braulio Baeza, has been bringing home winners with regularity and is the leading rider at Aqueduct. He had four winners at the Big A last Saturday although he finished out of the money with Going Abroad in the $57,100 Gallant Fox Handicap. Choker, running without blinkers, came from far back to win by 1¾ lengths over Brave Lad.

Swift Lady won the $73,200 Marguerite Stakes at Pimlico.

Bruins May Take Third Cage Title

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The go-go Bruins of UCLA are heavy favorites to make college basketball history this season by winning an unprecedented third straight national collegiate championship.

UCLA, only the fifth team in history to win consecutive national titles, was the top choice in the Associated Press pre-season poll.

Oklahoma A&M, Kentucky, San Francisco and Cincinnati also won two in a row, but all failed in quest of a third straight.

Coach Johnny Wooden's Bruins, favored to again dominate the Pacific Athletic Conference despite their exhibition defeat by the UCLA frosh Saturday night, open their season this weekend at home against two Big Ten opponents, Ohio State on Friday and Illinois on Saturday.

The Bruins landed 22 first-place votes in the preseason balloting by an AP panel of 30 sports writers and broadcasters and piled up an aggregate 287 points to beat out the Michigan Wolverines. Michigan, favored to again win the Big Ten crown, got four first-place votes and 248 total points.

UCLA and Michigan also dominated the preseason poll a year ago with the exception that Michigan was No. 1 and UCLA No. 2. It was UCLA, however, that beat Michigan in the NCAA Championship final last March.

Duke, of the Atlantic Coast Conference, finished third in the poll released Sunday. Duke just edged St. Joseph's, Pa., 154-150 in the balloting and each got two first-place votes.

Vanderbilt, the Southeastern Conference defending champs, landed fifth place with 133 points. Then came Providence with 97, Minnesota with 82, Kansas with 80, Bradley with 74 and Kansas State with 46 to round out the preseason Top Ten.

TOP SCHOOLBOY STRUGGLES SLATED

Texarkana, Dumas, Iowa Park and Three Rivers led the way today into quarter-finals of the Texas schoolboy football race but their position was precarious in the face of an accumulating array of smashing upsets.

Texarkana, the championship favorite in Class AAAA, faces a tough hurdle in the once-beat Dallas Hillcrest team that has come on like the wind.

Dumas, the heralded power of Class AAA, runs into Brownwood, a team rated in some parts as superior to the Dumas Dandies. It's the battle of undefeated, untied and from it is expected to come the finalist from the eastern bracket.

Iowa Park, which has rolled undefeated, untied teams two weeks in a row, appears to be the strongest bet for the upper bracket of Class AA as the Hawks throw their perfect record on the line against the likes of Fredericksburg.

The only other undefeated, untied team in Class AA, Edna, has begun to look like the team to beat from the south.

Three Rivers just rolls along like the old man of the song, with Joe Gutierrez passing and running the Bulldogs squarely at the Class A tandem Friday night. Three Rivers risks all against Smithville, an embattled outfit that has only one loss but two ties.

Odessa Permian meets Lubbock Monterey at Lubbock Saturday afternoon. Hillcrest clashes with Texarkana at Texarkana Friday night, Houston Jones hosts Freeport Brazosport Friday night and Corsicana tackles San Antonio Lee at Austin Saturday night in quarter-finals of Class AAAA.

Monterey, paced by Tim Horn and with a defense good enough to handle the great Bub Deerinwater of Wichita Falls Rider, will be favored over Permian.

Texarkana gets the nod over Hillcrest, Brazosport should beat Jones and the Corsicana-San Antonio Lee battle will be just that a tossup to boot. Pat Sheehan of Lee is a one-man team but it may take more than that to top the fast moving undefeated, untied team from Corsicana.

Dumas and Brownwood tangle at Abilene Saturday afternoon. Weatherford clashes with Nacogdoches at Waco Friday night, Bridge City takes on Bay City at Baytown Saturday night and San Marcos hosts Del Rio, also Saturday night, in the Class AAA quarter-finals.

Dumas, Weatherford, Bridge City and San Marcos are the favorites although each faces a tough situation this week. San Marcos, for instance, plays a Del Rio team that was able to topple the likes of Donna, which had been rated highly in the state playoffs.

The Class AA quarter-finals match Iowa Park with Fredericksburg at Abilene Saturday afternoon. Bellville at Commerce Friday night, Bellville and Needville at Rosenberg Friday night and Edna with Bishop at Refugio Friday night.

With considerable uncertainty Iowa Park, Plano, Bellville and Edna are installed as the favorites.

In Class A White Deer, favorite from the upper bracket, runs into another undefeated, untied team—Coahoma—at Plainview Saturday night. Keller meets Forney at Mesquite Friday night, Wills Point takes on Rogers at Hillsboro Saturday night and Smithville meets Three Rivers at Seguin Friday night.

White Deer, Forney, Wills Point and Three Rivers are all favorites.

We go to all the trouble of redesigning our interiors, improving our handling, and refining our Wide-Track ride, and some people buy us just for our looks.

Our new Executive Hardtop Coupe.

Just once we'd like to have people fall in love with the inside of our cars before they flip for the outside. Why, this year alone we've made available brand-new wraparound buckets. Profile bench seats. More rich, genuine walnut paneling. And nicer instrument clusters you've never seen.

We even had our engineers take our test cars apart piece by piece to come up with improvements that, incredibly enough, make our Pontiacs smoother, quieter, more enjoyable to drive.

Really, though—we don't care which feature gets you inside a new Pontiac, as long as it gets you there. And it will. At least judging by the number of Pontiacs you see on the road.

Everything's new in tiger country. Wide-Track Pontiac/'66

Farmers Now Must Woo Nation's Migrant Worker

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — This was the year "The Grapes of Wrath" revisited American agriculture.

But unlike John Steinbeck's 1939 novel about the tragic plight of the U.S. migrant worker, most of the 1965 wrath descended on the head of Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, who was carrying out a policy laid down by Congress.

Also in contrast with 1939, the welcome at was out in 1965 for American migrant harvesters. This year, when Wirtz forced big farm interests to slash their imports of foreign farm laborers from 200,000 to 37,000, the American workers never had it so good.

And his future looks even better as growers woo him with better wages, housing and working conditions to replace the flood of Mexicans, British West Indians and other foreigners who used to pour in to harvest the nation's crops.

The wrath came from big agricultural interests and their spokesmen in Congress, whose protests could be heard all the way from the tomato fields to the White House.

"Tremendous" crop losses due to labor shortage were reported by Ruth Wedgeworth, one of Florida's biggest growers.

"Disaster," cried Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., chief spokesman in Washington for California's farm interests.

The Labor Department denied any crop losses due to labor shortages.

"We got the crops in with fewer workers than ever before," said a department spokesman. And prices actually declined despite higher labor costs, he added.

Steinbeck's fictional 1939 farm migrant chugged from state to state in a rattletrap jalopy, barely earning enough to feed is carload of hungry children.

But in 1965, U.S. workers averaged about $2.25 per hour in the fields, and in some cases as high as $3.50 where piece rates are paid. Mexican braceros last year averaged only $1.37.

Many growers argued that Americans would not stoop to the backbreaking labor of harvesting such crops as lettuce, tomatoes, strawberries, potatoes — and the grapes of Steinbeck's novel title.

But Wirtz, pushing an all-out drive to recruit U.S. farm workers, was equally adamant in his argument that Americans would be sure to reopen the gates wide to foreign laborers.

In one such case, Wirtz authorized several thousand foreign workers to prevent a propaganda disaster that might have wrecked his program to switch from foreign to domestic workers.

But so successful was Wirtz in blocking the importation of foreign workers that 18 of the 29 states which used foreign laborers last year used none in 1965.

2 Satellites Orbit From Single Shot

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Two new satellites — the Canadian Alouette 2 and the American Explorer 31 — raced side-by-side through space today, placed in orbit by a single booster.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said initial data from Sunday night's launch at this West Coast base indicated that the satellites reached a near perfect orbit.

The spokesman said the satellites will circle the earth once every two hours and four minutes, reaching an apogee or high point of 1,980 miles and a perigee or low point of 315 miles above the earth.

The double launch went off at 8:48 p.m. atop a Thor-Agena B rocket combination.

The satellites were the second in a series of five Alouette satellites Canadian Defense Board and NASA's Direct Measurements Explorer.

The program, first of a two-part international Satellites for Ionospheric Studies, has been dubbed ISIS-X for short.

Panel Seeks 'Moon Code' To Assure Peaceful Uses

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson was advised today to seek international agreement on "a code for human activity on the moon" to prevent the earth satellite from becoming a military base for any nation.

The proposal for a moon code, made by a citizens committee of scientists, space experts and educators, was one of several put before a White House Conference on International Cooperation opening here today.

Another panel proposed that the United States undertake a three-year program costing up to $100 million a year to help other nations develop and carry out birth control programs to check population expansion.

In a related proposal, another group said world food production must be tripled by the year 2000 to feed an expected seven billion people on earth. It urged the United States to assist other countries in increasing food production as rapidly as possible.

In proposing a moon pact, the committee took note of the space race between the United States and the Soviet Union and said that "with multiple manned landings on the moon in prospect within the next several years," rules for its use could be negotiated through the United Nations Committee for Peaceful Uses of Outer Space.

Essential provisions of such a treaty, the committee said, would be "suspension of sovereignty claims, free access by all for scientific purposes, exclusion of military maneuvers and weaponry and a verification procedure."

"Such a convention," the committee report said, "would give substance to the principle, already adopted by the U.N. General Assembly, that celestial bodies are not subject to national appropriation. It would become, in effect, a code for human activity on the moon."

In a speech prepared for the opening session, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey told the conference, composed of some 5,000 distinguished Americans, that in the search for world [illegible] years and [illegible] program, "we need the blueprints and ideas."

Humphrey, who is conference chairman, urged early action to bring the nuclear arms race under control and applauded a United Nations call last week for a world disarmament conference to be held by 1967.

"Although the hour is now late," he declared, "it is never too late to face frankly the risks of continued nuclear competition. Althugh there is no certainty that all nations will respond (to the disarmament conference proposal), there is certanty about the validity of the initiative."

Inquiry Is Resumed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Coast Guard investigators, fresh from a tour of a sister ship of the Yarmouth Castle, resume their inquiry today into the sinking of the cruise liner with the loss of 89 lives.

Hearing sessions were suspended last week so that Rear Adm. Louis M. Thayer and his panel could re-enact the moves that Capt. Byron Voutsinas testified he had made at the time of the sinking Nov. 13 in the Bahamas.

Thayer, heading the three-man inquiry panel, declined to say after touring the S.S. Yarmouth, whether Voutsinas would be recalled to testify.

Mother Finds Daughter In Bangkok

By ROBERT LIU

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — A news dispatch from the United States and a newsman's memory reunited a worried American mother and her runaway 16-year-old daughter in Bangkok today.

The girl, Mary Wilson, had slipped away from the Encino, Calif., home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Wilson, on Nov. 19. They believed she had gone to Bangkok to work for an orphanage.

Mrs. Wilson arrived in Bangkok early today to try to pick up her daughter's trail. Meanwhile, Alan Darby, a newsman at the English-language Bangkok Post read an Associated Press dispatch about the girl's disappearance and recalled a recent article about the Pierra Foundation, a Bangkok orphanage.

Darby called the orpanage and learned that Mary had been working there for a week. He called the U.S. Embassy, by chance found Mrs. Wilson there and told the embassy where Mary was.

"I'm so thankful that she's safe and sound," said Mrs Wilson after the reunion with her daughter. "She's a do-gooder and rather religious girl."

Dark Is Guiding Light

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Alvin Dark promises to provide Kansas City with an exciting new look in 1966 when he attempts to guide the Athletics out of the American League cellar.

The new manager of the A's, operating in the American League for the first time after a star-studded career as a player and manager in the National League, says Kansas City will "run and run and run."

Dark says he considers the opportunity to take over a last-place club "a real challenge" after managing San Francisco to four first-division finishes in his only other managerial stint.

The naming of Dark a few minutes after the announcement that Haywood Sullivan was quitting as manager of the A's to join the front office of the Boston Red Sox highlighted the opening of the annual meeting of major and minor league baseball officials.

Drafting of minor league players was scheduled today with Kansas City getting the first draft choice and the New York Mets the second.

Most clubs indicated they hoped to pick up one or two young prospects.

Dark was given a two-year contract at $40,000 a year by Kansas City owner Charles Finley, who last Aug. 28 hired Dark away from the Cubs where he had spent the summer coaching.

Dark was released as San Francisco manager a year ago after the Giants finished fourth in the National League, their worst showing under the 43-year-old former All-Star shortstop.

Dark managed San Francisco to the pennant in 1962 but the Giants lost the World Series in seven games to the New York Yankees.

Pacifists Rile Viet Fighting Men

By GEORGE ESPER

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — "That's really bad when you have to fight an enemy behind your back," said Le Roy Hensley, a Seabee in Viet Nam who received an "Oppose the War" leaflet.

"Even an animal don't turn on his own kind," Hensley said. "Them people, the head of the organization, they're a real enemy."

Californians in two Seabee companies received pacifist leaflets over the weekend issued by an organization known as the Vietnam Day Committee at Berkeley, Calif. A member of the committee in Berkeley acknowledged that the group issued the leaflets but said the committee didn't mail them to U.S. troops in Viet Nam.

Windrim Smith, Jr., said the committee printed about 30,000 of the leaflets, which call on all military personnel to oppose the war as "criminal and immoral."

Smith said the leaflets were distributed to peace organizations and various individuals in he United tates, but not as far as he knew to servicemen, either at home or abroad.

"I got three of them in one envelope," said Hensley, 21, of Lodi, Calif. "I told the fellows, 'I got me one of them goofy letters. Anybody want to read one and have a good laugh?'"
