Cambodia To Cut US Tires

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — The national radio announced today Cambodia has decided to break diplomatic relations with the United States.

The radio said Prince Norodom Sihanouk, the chief of state, reported his decision to the Cambodian people in an official message. Contents of the message were not immediately available.

Foreign Minister Koun Wick received the U.S. charge d'affaires to announce the decision, the broadcast said. It was added, however, that a consulate-general could be established at Phnom Penh, if the U.S. governmant so desires.

No reasons were announced for the break. However, relations between Cambodia and the United Sates long have been tenuous, chiefly because of raids along the border with South Viet Nam. Cambodia blames the attacks on U.S.-Vietnamese forces. Saigon charges Viet Cong guerrillas use Cambodia as a refuge.

Hostile feelings also were aroused in Phnom Penh by a reference in the magazine Newsweek to the Queen of Cambodia

Cambodia objections centered on this portion of a two-page article on the country in the April 5 issue:

"Still there is an undercurrent of criticism leveled by young intellectuals at (Prince Norodom) Sihanouk's private life and at his mother, who is said to be money-mad and reportedly runs a number of concessions in town, plus a string of bordellos at the edge of the city."

The U.S. Embassy in Phnom Penh, attacked twice in the past year, has maintained only a skeleton staff since 1963.

In a speech last September, Sihanouk said he had rejected suggestions from Cambodian leftists that he sever relations with the United States.

Sihanouk said "Cambodia sells a lot of rubber to the United States which pays in strong currency." He added that if the leftists found another market for Cambodian rubber he would break ties with Washington.

Dependents of U.S. Embassy personnel were removed last November because of deteriorating relations. Most of them entered neighboring Thailand.

El Salvador Shaken By Earthquake

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Central American nation of El Salvador was shaken by a severe earthquake early today and one report to Washington spoke of fatalities among villagers living near San Salvador, the capital.

There were no known injuries to U.S. citizens.

An amateur radio operator in San Salvador said the quake "caused a few deaths, possibly three or four, according to reports."

The operator identified himself as Ken Morris.

"As quakes go, I would say it was not too severe," Morris reported in a transmission heard by a ham operator, Charlie Schiffer in Miami, Fla.

"From reports, the damage was not too extensive, but we won't know definitely for a number of days. Quite a few walls caved in, but this was only in the older houses in the poorer districts."

The U.S. embassy in San Salvador advised the State Department that the earthquake, described as severe, struck about 4:05 a.m. CST.

The embassy said the shock had an intensity of 7.7 on the Richter scale.

Some buildings in the capital were described in the initial report as having suffered minor damage.

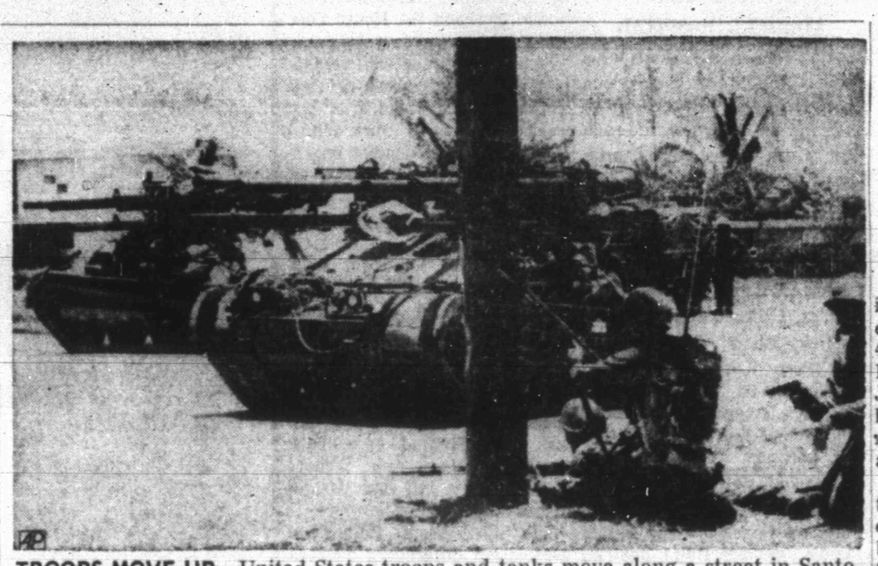

The State Department was informed that the suburban villages of Santo Tomas and San Marcos had been hit by the shock.

The embassy report did not speak of fatalities.

The tremors are continuing, the report said.

Earlier today, Pan American Airways in Miami received a report from the pilot of an Aviateca Guatemalan Airlines plane. The pilot said he overflew the airport at San Salvador because the runway had been torn up by an earthquake.

US Buildup Is Continuing

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The United States began rushing another 4,500 troops to the Dominican Republic today after President Johnson said the rebel uprising had been taken over by Communist conspirators directed from abroad.

The President's declaration that a military buildup was necessary for security on the Caribbean island, came as rebel fighters made a new attack Sunday night on U.S. troops despite the declared cease-fire.

Rebels hurled grenades at American positions and hammered away with fire from automatic weapons. The outburst lasted about an hour.

No new casualties were reported on the American side. It was uncertain whether answering fire by U.S. forces caught any of the rebels.

The Defense Department in Washington has reported two Marines and two paratroopers killed, and 21 Marines and 21 paratroopers wounded since American forces began landing last Wednesday.

Addition of the 4,500 fighting men ordered in by the President will bring the total of U.S. Marines and Army men to 14,000.

Rebel groups broke the cease-fire after American units took over the front lines from weary troops loyal to the new military junta.

Dominican Gen. Jesus de los Santos said his forces were pulled back because they were exhausted after a week of skirmishes.

The rebels charged the American troops actually were moving in on them slowly.

A U.S. spokesman said American forces were maintaining a strictly impartial attitude. He said they are safeguarding an international zone of refuge and in that sense they are in the "front line."

U.S. Marines held positions to the west of the rebel stronghold. They moved into the strongpoints from their original positions at the seaside Embasador Hotel and a neighboring polo field which has been used for evacuating refugees.

U.S. paratroopers are east of the rebels, with a defense perimeter at San Isidro air base and defenses at the Duarte Bridge, the only means of reaching the air base from the capital.

The rebels are entrenched between the two American forces in a low-income residential section called Ciudad Nueva in the southeast section of Santo Domingo. This area was the center of insurgent movements against the Rafael L. Trujillo regime and was a stronghold of extreme left-wing agitators.

The area of rebel operations reportedly covers about 15 blocks, a zone which constitutes the entire commercial section of the capital.

Among the most frequently mentioned known Dominican Communists said to be operating with the rebels are Fidelio Despradel, a leading figure in the old 14th of June Movement, a Castroite organization; and Asdrubal Dominguez, former president of the University of Santo Domingo student body.

SEATO MEET

Wilson Appeals For Viet Peace

LONDON (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Wilson opened the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization's ministerial conference today with a call for "an honorably negotiated settlement" of the war in South Viet Nam.

He appealed for the same sort of settlement of the explosive Indonesian-Malaysian dispute.

"Both situations constitute a serious threat to peace and both urgently need to be ended," the British leader said.

Wilson said the countries of Southeast Asia, once colonial but now independent, "should be left alone to follow their own path toward peace and freedom."

"Independence means more than freedom from British rule or from the rule of any other former colonial power," said Wilson. "It means freedom from aggressive outside interference."

Britain is supporting the new Federation of Malaysia against Indonesia. Wilson pointed out that the British government has more soldiers in Southeast Asia today than any other non-Asian country.

But he said if Malaysia and the Asian members of SEATO told Britain that they no longer needed her help, "nobody would be more pleased than the British government and the British people."

"We must work for negotiated settlements that will bring lasting peace to the area, to Viet Nam, no less than to Malaysia," said Wilson.

The U.S. delegation, led by Undersecretary of State George Ball, intended to press for further Allied assistance to prevent a Communist takeover in South Viet Nam.

"We have no territorial ambition in South Viet Nam." Ball told the council. "We are not there for economic gain. We seek no military base.

"South Viet Nam is the victim of deliberate aggression—a Communist 'war of national liberation.' The Communists have sought to present their attack as a civil war. But this is a hollow disguise."

Ball said the United States had provided assistance to South Viet Nam for one purpose only—"to help the South Vietnamese people resist aggression and maintain their independence."

Vet Sneezes At Business

MIDDLETOWN, N.J. (AP) — When business booms, Dr. Cecil Sprung wheezes and sneezes, his eyes water, his nose gets clogged and he has difficulty breathing.

Dr. Sprung is a veterinarian who is allergic to cats and dogs. Still, he's sticking to his job.

The doctor's allergy came to his attention three years ago when he brought a kitten home from his office as a pet.

"Then my eyes started tearing, my nasal passages started swelling and my lungs became congested. I was really puzzled," he recalled.

The 33-year-old veterinarian went to an allergist who informed him he was allergic to cats. Worse yet, a few months later he learned he was allergic to dogs too.

Plans Submitted For Community Center At Hermleigh

The Scurry County commissioners court this morning gave tentative approval to the preliminary plans for the Hermleigh community center.

J. D. Hinton, who presented the plans, was told to continue work on the plans with no major change in the basic plan. Detailed plans are expected to be ready in about two weeks.

A letter from Mrs. Carl Voss, president of the Pony - Colt League mothers, was read by the court in which Mrs. Voss thanked the court for their building of a new concession stand at the leagues' baseball diamond in Towle Park.

In other business the court approved April bills for the county, and also gave permission to Snyder National Bank to release certain securities which were no longer needed to cover the county's deposits.

Paratroop Units To Boost Viet Forces

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The advance unit for 3,500 American paratroopers arrived in Saigon today. The balance of the three airborne battalions was expected within a few days.

The paratroopers are the first U.S. Army combat ground unit assigned to Viet Nam. U.S. and Vietnamese officials said they would "increase security at key installations and press the war more effectively."

Sixty men were in the advance unit. U.S. officials declined on security grounds to say when the main force would arrive. But they said they would be stationed at Bien Hoa, a big air base 12 miles northeast of Saigon, and at Vuntay, a coastal city 40 miles southeast of Saigon.

The new arrivals comprise most of the 173rd Airborne Brigade stationed on Okinawa.

U.S. officials said the airborne contingent would bring the total U.S. strength in South Viet Nam to around 36,000 men. There already are 8,500 U.S. combat Marines in South Viet Nam.

Commanded by Brig Gen. Gen. Ellis W. Williamson, the airborne contingent includes two infantry battalions, one artillery battalion and the equivalent of one battalion of various support units.

Stationed in "defensive roles at these installations," a U.S. spokesman said, the American paratroopers "will free Vietnamese combat troops for offensive operations."

U.S. officials announced that three new Army helicopter companies of 260 men and 25 helicopters arrived over the weekend. There are now 12 Army helicopter companies in Viet Nam, two Marine squadrons and several Vietnamese squadrons.

After being idled Saturday by unfavorable weather, U.S. jets Sunday resumed air strikes against Communist North Viet Nam.

U.S. Navy jets blasted a railroad siding and three boxcars 100 miles south of Hanoi. Groundfire was light and all the planes returned safely to their carrier.

Other American aircraft bombed suspected Viet Cong positions in South Viet Nam, including a heavy attack on a Communist-infested zone north of Saigon.

Mrs. T. C. Goss Dies; Rites Set Tuesday

Mrs. Johnnie Callaway Goss, 56, 3701 Avenue V, died suddenly about noon Sunday in Uvalde.

Mrs. Goss was visiting her sister, Mrs. H. B. Love, when she was fatally stricken. She had been in poor health for some time.

A native Texan, Mrs. Goss was born Mar. 12, 1909, and had lived in Scurry County for the past 18 years.

The funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the First Baptist Church of which Mrs. Goss was a member. Dr. A. B. Lightfoot will officiate. Burial will be in Hillside Memorial Gardens under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Mrs. Goss is survived by her husband, T. C. Goss; two daughters, Mrs. Jo Alice McMullen of Snyder and Mrs. Shirley Browning of Texline; and three sisters, Mrs. Alton Taylor of Odessa, Mrs. R. G. Lee, Sr. of Abilene, and Mrs. Love of Uvalde.

Court Rules US Can Ban Cuba-Travel

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today the secretary of state has the constitutional power to bar American citizens from traveling to Cuba.

Chief Justice Earl Warren delivered the 6-3 decision. There were three separate dissents.

Said Warren for the majority: "The questions for decision are whether the secretary of state is staturily authorized to refuse to validate the passports of U.S. citizens for travel to Cuba, and, if he is, whether the exercise of that authority is constitutionally permissible.

"We answer both questions in the affirmative."

The court ruled on an appeal by Louis Zemel, a Middlefield, Conn., ski resort operator. He wanted to go to Cuba, he said, to become a better - informed citizen.

The State Department refused permission for the trip under a travel ban imposed in January 1961. Zemel sued, but a special U.S. District Court in New Haven ruled against him in a 2-1 vote.

Rosary Recital Set For Spike Jones

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rosary will be recited tonight for Spike Jones, the bandleader who introduced washboards, cowbells and cannon as musical instruments and arranged songs that kept people listening to them.

Jones, who once termed himself the dandruff in long hair music, died in his sleep at home Saturday. He was 53. A spokesman for the family said death was caused by emphysema, a respiratory affliction.

US Asks Latins To Thwart Reds

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — With 4,500 U.S. troop reinforcements pouring into the Domincan Republic, President Johnson pressed a diplomatic drive today to win Latin-American support for his newly announced determination to prevent "Communist conspirators" from turning the embattled Caribbean island country into a second Cuba.

"Our goal, in keeping with the great principles of the inter-American system, is to help prevent another Communist state in this hemisphere," the President told the nation Sunday night in a historic policy pronouncement.

"And we would like to do this without bloodshed or without large-scale fighting."

He declared that Communist leaders, "many of them trained in Cuba," had captured the rebel movement that began "as a popular democratic revolution."

Even as the President spoke, two special envoys were meeting with officials in Latin capitals. Other American representatives here and in Santo Domingo, center of the civil war, were working with the Organization of American States for an end to bloodshed and a Dominican future which would, in Johnson's words, be free of "Communist dictatorship."

Johnson announced in his televised speech that the multiple tasks of protecting lives, distributing food and medical supplies, and assisting U.S. and other refugees to leave the country were more than the 9,500 U.S. Marines and Army men already in the island could handle. He said he had ordered 4,500 more to land at the earliest possible moment raising the total to 14,000.

Since the Marines first landed Wednesday night, he said, they have evacuated more than 3,000 persons from 30 countries. Some 5,000 others, including 1,500 U.S. citizens, were waiting to come out, Johnson reported, adding: "We must get on with that job immediately."

No official here would say how long U.S. forces would remain in the Dominican Republic. The United States has told Latin-American leaders it would welcome troops from their countries. Such contingents, internationalizing the force, might mean early withdrawal of some U.S. units.

Bovine Social Status Isn't Altogether Bull

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Cows worry about their social status in the herd, says a University of California professor of animal husbandry.

"Age, weight, aggressiveness, agility and timidity are important factors that influence a cow's social rank," says Prof. Kennety A. Wagnon.

If the self-feeder accommodates eight cows, rarely more than four will eat at a time, he says, because dominant cows keep the timid ones away. The timid ones wait around and eat later.

Such insecurity problems prevent some cattle from gaining weight, says Wagnon. Grouping them according to age seems to result in better eaters, he reports.

SHS Musicians In Sweep; Choir Is Tops In Festival

The Snyder High School band and choir swept to a sweepstakes award and the A Cappella Choir captured the biggest honor of all at the Buccaneer Music Festival in Corpus Christi.

The Snyder High A Cappella Choir, directed by Tom Adams, was named the outstanding choir in the entire festival, including 40 choirs of all classes. Only one such award was made.

The A Cappella Choir rated division one in both concert and sight singing, as did the Snyder High Boys Choir. The Snyder High Girls Choir rated division two in both contests.

The Snyder High Band was the only class 3-AAA band in the festival to rate division one in both concert playing and sight reading. The band is directed by Melvin Montgomery, who is assisted by Charles Shaw.

In solo competition, two Snyder High vocalists were rated first division. They are Bill Gordon, bass, and Virginia Jackson, soprano. Second division vocal soloists include Teresa Meador, Jerry Tatum, Carolyn Lane, Robert Clinton, Surry Gillum, Anita Holt and Donna Stephens.

A Snyder High madrigal group rated first division and two others rated second division. In the first division group were Beth McCloskey, Terry Meador, Kay Pitner, Rose Ann Lemons, Jerry Tatum, David Lester, Robert Clinton and Robbie Wesson. One of the second division madrigal groups was composed of Carolyn Lane, Virginia Jackson, Camille Curry, Donna Sellars, Larry Walton, Larry Tatum, Gary Worley and Billy Wilson. The other included Glenna England, Anita Holt, Laura Arnold, Jeannie Minton, Surry Gillum, Garry Sutton and Bill Gordon.

In instrumental solos, Janie McBeth and Connie Reynolds rated first division, both playing tenor saxophones. Second division instrumental soloists included Robert Clinton and John Burton, both French Horn; Leroy Guillen, baritone, and Jimmy Way, percussion.

First division ensembles included Connie Reynolds and Jodi Snyder, clarinet duet; Janie McBeth, Tommy Sue Williams, Gary Perser and Judy Land, saxophone quartet; Connie Reynolds, Jodi Snyder, Doug Pitner and Judy Land, clarinet quartet.

Second division ensembles included Mark Clark, Bill Gordon, Alvin Lockhart and Tom Lowe, trombone quartet; and Robert Clinton, Mark Clark, Leroy Guillen, James Hamblen, Keith Krop and Dennis Phariss, brass sextet.

Panel Readies New Bill On Redistricting

AUSTIN (AP) — A congressional reapportionment bill, with districts varying not more than 6 per cent from equal population, was ready today for House committee action.

The House Redistricting Committee scheduled an afternoon meeting to decide whether to send the measure out for debate.

Rep. Gus Mutscher, chairman, said 80 per cent of the 23 districts vary from equal population by not more than 4 per cent, with 6 per cent the biggest deviation.

Districts of equal size would have 416,508 people. The Supreme Court has decreed that congressional seats be apportioned on an equal population basis—the "one-man one-vote" principle—and a federal court in Houston gave Texas until Aug. 2 to do the job.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am tired of reading articles on how women should "treat" men. The women were told to diet, get new hair-dos, wear feminine clothes, get interested in sports, always smell fresh and sweet, and flatter a man's ego. Baloney! We women have pride, too, you know. I am a lot more attractive in many ways than most of my married friends, and I have a lot of love to give. But here I sit — starving for affection. Men are the dumbest animals in the world.

PROUD IN LOUISVILLE

DEAR PROUD: The only way to get love is to give it, and pride has nothing to do with who makes the first move. The dumbest animal in the world is the one who has a bale of hay in front of him, but starves to death because he's too proud to eat it.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I had better prepare you for a problem you never had before. Our 19-year-old daughter is getting married next month and we are giving her a church wedding with all the trimmings. I hope you won't think we are terrible, but my husband and I have never been married legally. We have lived together common law, but no one knows this. I know I will feel guilty in that church when my daughter is being married if my husband and I don't get married before she does. My husband says I should forget it as this state recognizes common law marriage and, besides, it is too much red tape. I'd like your opinion.

NOT MARRIED

DEAR NOT: It will be worth the "red tape" which, in reality, is "mending" tape. Talk to your clergyman about a quiet ceremony for you and your husband. And don't worry about shocking him. He's heard everything.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I recently flew from Florida to New York just to see "HELLO DOLLY." I had purchased my tickets six months in advance. The play was everything I had anticipated, but a man sitting behind me knew the entire score and he sang along with every number. It was maddening.

The next evening I paid $5 to see "MY FAIR LADY." I had never spent that much on a movie in my life. Would you believe it, Abby, again a man sitting behind me sang all the numbers with the cast. That this happened two nights in a row was really too much. Won't you please say something in your column to silence such songbirds?

MARION

DEAR MARION: With pleasure. Now will everyone who knows the score please refrain from voicing it?

• • •

CONFIDENTIAL TO BETTE S.: You are right. I have yet to come across a "new" problem. All the problems people face today can be found in the Bible, complete with the solutions — if only pople were wise enough to read and heed.

• • •

Problems? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Guest Directors Work With Clinic Choir At Lamar

Four guest directors are assisting in work with a specially selected clinic choir at Lamar Junior High School, J. D. Smith, the Lamar choir director, has announced.

The clinic choir was selected from 7th, 8th and 9th grade students in the school, and the guest directors are giving attention to all phases of choir work.

Dr. Robert Clinton, superintendent of schools and former director of choral music at Snyder High School, was the guest director on April 27, and Mrs. Bob Womack, former Lamar director, was the guest director on April 28.

On Tuesday, Bill Denton, music and educational director at First Baptist Church, will direct the clinic choir, and on Wednesday the guest director will be Tom Adams, choral music director at the senior high school.

Texas Plans Test Pattern For Gemini

HOUSTON (AP)—When Astronauts L. Gordon Cooper and Charles Conrad Jr. make the third manned Gemini flight they will be trying to spot 12 land targets to be laid out in Webb and Dimmitt counties.

A $67,295 contract to construct the 12 targets has been awarded to H. B. Zachary of San Antonio by the U.S. Navy Bureau of Yards and Docks at New Orleans.

The test, designed by the Navy for the third Gemini flight scheduled for August, to determine what an astronaut can see on the ground from about 100 miles in the sky.

The contract calls for preparation of the 12 ground sites, plowing and clearing spots for the application of white gypsum coating for test patterns.

The patterns, consisting of solid white rectangles up to 100 by 400 feet, will contrast with the reddish colored soil of the area.

The patterns will be located on the Gates Ranch, about 65 miles north of Laredo, a spokesman for the Manned Spacecraft Center here said.

Quake Fails To Flip Capitol's Lid

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—The earthquake which jarred the Pacific Northwest last week shook up the 15,300-ton dome on Washington's state Capitol, but the lid stayed put.

It was the second beating from an earthquake for the massive concrete, stone and steel structure. It took its first in the temblor of April 13, 1949.

That quake loosened the 180-ton cupola — or birdcage — atop the dome, threatening to send the stone missile plunging down through the Capitol rotunda.

The building was evacuated for nearly two months while the cupola was removed. It took $180,856 and nearly two years to rebuild and strengthen the cupola and replace its heavy stone cap with a metal headpiece 70 tons lighter. The new cap emerged unscathed from the quake last Thursday.

The quake did an estimated $12.5 billion in scattered damage throughout western Washington and directly or indirectly caused the deaths of seven persons. Three were injured fatally by falling rubble and four suffered fatal heart attacks.

The quake registered 6.6 on the Richter scale of magnitude, compared with a reading of 7 for the 1949 quake.

Heroic Lad Dies In Rescue Try

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — A 14-year-old boy, who escorted his three brothers from a flaming two-story house early today, died with two children when he returned to the house to assist them.

He was Robert Gardner. Others who died in the fire were Ronnie Donald, 4, and Deborah Harvey, 7. Their bodies were brought from their second-story apartments by firemen.

Miss Joyce Jones, who lives near the brick building where the fire occurred, said young Gardner led his brothers — Ernest, 12, Lonnie, 7, and Irvin, 5 — from the blaze and then reentered the house.

Fara Donald, 29, the Donald youth's mother, was injured seriously when she jumped from a second-story window. Officers said the Harvey girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Harvey, were not at home. Mrs. Harvey also is the mother of the Gardner youth.

FFA Team Places 9th In State Meet

The meat judging team of the Snyder High School Future Farmers of America placed 9th in a field of 40 teams at the state meat judging contests Saturday at Texas A&M College.

A total of 120 contests participated in the contests. The Snyder FFA team was composed of Jimmy Ray, Linden Terry and John Zalman.

In 37 World Series games, Yankee shortstop Tony Kubek has hit only two home runs. Both came in his rookie season of 1957, both were hit in the same game and before his parents in Milwaukee.

Solons Take Final Look At Spending

AUSTIN (AP) — Budget writers take a final look behind closed doors today at their month-long work on the 1966-67 $3.6 billion general appropriations bill.

The 10 legislators on the conference committee made their final decisions last week, but they want to be sure the state spending in the bill does not exceed the $630 million projected for the general fund by the state comptroller.

The item is one of several major for lawmakers as they begin the last month of the regular legislative session.

The House Redistricting Committee's congressional reapportionment bill, already termed by Republicans as gerrymandering, is due to reach the House floor today.

Senators charged with remapping the upper house's districts worked on districting after last week's failure to work out a House-Senate agreement on expanding the Senate from 31 members to 39.

Copies of the appropriations bill will be ready for lawmakers' inspection later this week if today's review shows the bill can be financed by available revenue.

Some senators were surprised to learn, after they had approved their version of the spending bill, that the measure was about $3 million above available state income. Writers of the Senate bill had thought it left a $14 million surplus.

The Conference Committee worked out differences between the House spending bill, which left a balance of about $25 million, and the Senate bill and worked on new problems such as financing of new welfare programs under recent congressional acts and paying for the new Waco state vocational school, which was created after the appropriations bill was sent to a conference committee.

Pleasure Patio

Many homemakers are finding that surfacing a patio with a warm shade of quarry tile adds an extra measure of pleasure. Quarry tile is easy to keep clean; all it takes to reveal its natural beauty is a squirt with the hose and perhaps a whisk of a broom.

Next time "the girls" come to lunch, you might serve Spoon Bread with bacon and broiled tomatoes. Add a tossed green salad and you'll have a wonderful menu.

Ever add a tablespoon of chocolate syrup to a glass of iced coffee? Good in all weather!

PRESENTING A STRONG ARGUMENT

AP Writer Recalls End Of Continent's Bloodiest War

EDITOR'S NOTE — Twenty years ago peace broke over Europe; the Continent's bloodiest war was over. From Normandy to the steppes of Russia the lucky ones celebrated, each in his own way, and thought of the comrades who hadn't made it. Here's the way it was on the battlefield on historic May 7, 1945, as recreated by an Associated Press writer and two-time Pulitzer Prize-winner, who was there.

By RELMAN MORIN
AP Special Correspondent

The soldier sat on the river bank, looking at the water but not seeing it.

He had been cleaning his rifle and now it lay across his knees and he stared at the Mulde River, sparkling in the May sunshine. Someone had just yelled, and he never could remainder who it was, "The war's over. The Krauts have quit. This time it's official!"

This was when Pfc. Fenton Rowe of Bellflower, Calif., stopped cleaning his rifle. Some things are too big, too numbing, to take in right away.

After a long moment, Pfc. Fenton Rowe sank back, with his face to the sky, and murmured, "I made it, I made it, I made it."

That same night, Lt. Eberhard Schaube-Kuffler, erstwhile commander of a special "auffangkommando" unit — which rounded up stragglers — was on a river boat on the Stoer Canal, near the village of Banzkow. He was now acting as an interpreter for the Americans.

The boat was tied up on the west bank. On the east bank, Siberian guardsmen were firing rifles into the air.

The lieutenant and some other Germans on the boat had a bottle of schnapps, "liberated" from the German medics. Presently, four GI's joined them, bringing a nearly-full bottle of whisky. They sat talking about the end of the war.

Suddenly, they heard tapping on the boat's hull.

There in the water, in uniform, were four Siberian soldiers. Speaking German, they said they would like to join the party. Also, they had a bottle of vodka to contribute.

The party lasted until midnight, Americans, Russians and Germans toasting each other and the end of the war.

But on the whole, there was little celebrating, little dancing in the streets or drunkenness, on any of the fronts where the fighting ended.

This was the week of May 2-8, 1945, just 20 years ago.

"The eleventh hour seems about to strike."

On Feb. 1, 1945, Joseph Goebbels, Nazi minister of propaganda, sounded this warning in the magazine, Das Reich. His purpose no doubt was to spur the German armed forces and the people to even greater efforts. Yet his statement was more accurate than the crafty Goebbels could realize.

On March 7, American troops made the first crossing to the east bank of the Rhine. Two weeks later, American, British and Canadian forces, in strength, breached that formidable obstacle at several points. The heart of Germany now lay open before them.

On March 3, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Allied supreme commander, issued a proclamation calling on the Germans to surrender.

Thus, but for one man, the war in Europe might well have ended on or before April 1. He decreed that it must continue to the bitter end, which only came five weeks later.

This was Adolf Hitler's last crime.

Why didn't Hitler capitulate early in 1945, when all possibility of victory had vanished, instead of holding on until Germany had been utterly crushed and nothing was left to him but suicide?

Among the many factors, three main considerations influenced his thinking. They were:

1. His expectation that his new weapons — jet fighters and the V-bombs — could turn the onrushing tide.

2. His conviction that the coalition between the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union would break up, opening the way for him to obtain a negotiated peace.

3. His assertions that the Allied doctrine of "unconditional surrender" meant that Germany would cease to exist.

The V-bombs, raining down on England and some Channel ports on the Continent, killed several thousand people and injured many more. But they failed to crack British morale, as Hitler expected, much less to seriously impede the flow of men and material to the Continent.

As for the jet fighters, if they had appeared in fleets rather than driblets, they might have seriously imperiled the Allied command of the air. The deadly planes were on the way in numbers.

Air Study Shows Drink Big Problem

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal aviation officials fear they may have a bigger drunken flying problem among private pilots than they ever suspected.

The basis for the concern, a House Appropriations subcommittee was told, were the findings of some 50 autopsies conducted on crash victims.

"To our great surprise, there has come out of these autopsies a much more serious drunk flying problem than we understood there to be before," said Najeeb E. Halaby, in testimony March 2 before he resigned as Federal Aviation Agency administrator. The testimony has just been made public.

Halaby stressed that he was talking about private pilots, not airline pilots.

"The problem on air carriers, as far as we can ascertain, does not exist. The airline pilots do not drink," he said.

For the past several years, he explained, there have been about 500 fatal crashes each year killing 900 to 950 persons in general aviation.

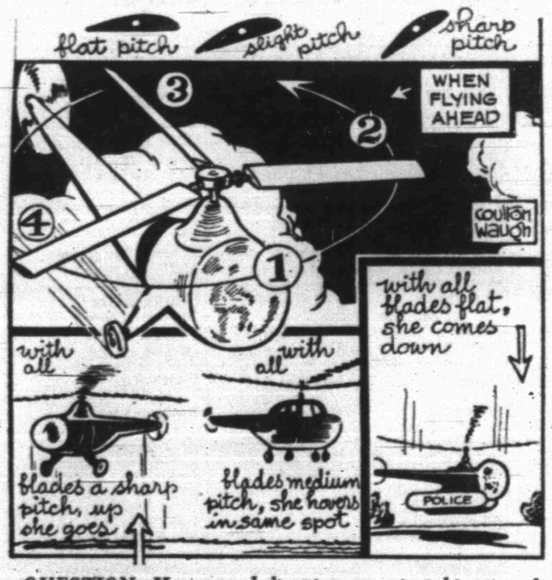

"We thought that the average pilot, with the amount of experience he had had and the respect he had for the elements, just would not drink before flying," said Halaby. "We now find that one-third of the sampling we have taken of these fatal accidents in the year 1963 were probably under the influence of alcohol."

What to do about it?

Halaby said: "The airplane does not know whether the driver of the airplane is drunk or sober. We cannot build into the airplane a sobering device or an overcontrol that will take over when the pilot is being a damned fool."

He said the agency was considering some tougher regulations. The FAA, he said, now has a rule against pilots flying under the influence of alcohol. But, he added, it is considering a rule to prohibit any pilot from going up within eight hours after consuming any alcohol.

Junior Editors Quiz on HELICOPTERS

QUESTION: How can helicopters go straight up and down and hover, as well as fly forward?

• • •

ANSWER: The cross-sections of a helicoper's blades, shown at the top of picture, resemble those of an airplane's wing and both allow aircraft to fly for the same reason. Moving air takes longer to pass over the upper curved part, creating lesser air pressure above. The greater air pressure on the bottom exerts a lifting force. Of course, a helicopter's blades revolve while an air plane's wing remains still. The secret of why the 'copter can perform so many tricks in the air is that the angle or pitch of the blades can be changed—which has an effect similar to that of changing the angle of a paddle while padding a canoe. Blade angles are controlled by the pilot, who uses the "cyclic pitch stick" to guide the copter forward, backward and sideways, and the "collective pitch stick" to fly up and down. When flying ahead, the pitch of blades changes as they beat around. In position (1) the pitch is flat; with (2) it is beginning to turn and by (3) has a sharp angle or pitch. In (4) the pitch is decreasing and in (1) it is flat again. These different pitches are what the word 'cycle' means. In the other movements, all blades have the same 'collective' pitch; the small drawings show how different movements are made.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Use your imagination a bit—dream of a little one-man helicopter just big enough to fly by yourself when you're old enough to get a pilot's license. These little one-man jobs have been actually built; we may see them in the skies some day. 5/3

Tigers Hike Loop Lead

The Brownfield Cubs rapped four hits in the first inning to take a 2-0 lead, but couldn't get another safety all day as the Snyder Tigers came from behind to take a 4-2 District 3-AAA baseball decision Saturday afternoon on the Towle Park diamond.

J. N. Wall, who came on in relief of Bobby Clardy after two were out in the first inning, handcuffed the Cub hitters. Meanwhile, Brownfield's play in the field paved the way for the Tigers to overcome their first-inning deficit.

The Bengals evened the score in the third inning when Drew Bullard followed up a walk to Mack Galyean with a single and a Brownfield wild throw opened the gates to the plate. Snyder got two more in the sixth when singles by Wall and Kenny Gay were followed by another Brownfield throwing error.

Wall fanned eight batters and walked two during the six and one-third innings he worked. The Cubs got only two runners as far as second base while he was on the mound.

The victory was Snyder's seventh against no defeats in district play. Five games remain on the conference schedule and the Tigers now have a three-game lead over second place Lamesa.

A battle of the top two clubs in the district is booked for tomorrow in Lamesa when the Tigers go there to face the Tornadoes. A victory for the Bengals could clinch a first place tie.

LINCOLN GIRLS AWARDED TITLE

Lincoln High School has been notified that it won first place in the girls track and field meet on April 24.

At the conclusion of the meet it was announced that Munday had placed first with 12 points. A re-check of results, however, showed that Lincoln's 10 points was tops, with Memphis, Floydada and Munday finishing in a tie for second with 8 points each.

Johnnie Goosby scored all of Lincoln's points, placing first in the baseball throw and the 50 yard dash, making her the top individual in the meet. It is the first state championship for the Lincoln girls tack team.

LUCKY DEBONAIR LEADS KENTUCKY DERBY PARADE — With Lucky Debonair, ridden by Willie Shoemaker, charging first to the finish line, this is how the horses lined up at finish of the 91st Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs in Louisville, May 1. Debonair ran the mile and a quarter in 2:01 1/5 and paid $10.60; $5.40 and $4.20. Second place Dapper Dan, a long-shot, returned $26 and $12.60. (AP Wirephoto)

Thinlies Expect A Big Challenge

The Snyder High School Track Team, with a big slice of relay competition under its belt at Hobbs, N. M., Saturday, turns its full attention to preparation for the state meet this week.

Coach Jim Stehley was anything but pessimistic over the performance of his team at Hobbs, but expressed fear that a super challenge would await the Bengals in Austin this weekend.

The Tigers won one relay and placed third in two others at Hobbs. They wound up with 21 points, but they managed to set two school records. The sprint medley relay mark fell when the Snyder quartet turned in a time of 3:35.4 to lower the oldest local record on the books, a 3:38.3 set in 1954. However, the 3:35.4 was good enough for only a third place finish at Hobbs.

The local won the 880 yard relay with a time of 1:28.2. The old mark of 1:32.4 had been tied in the Canyon Reef Relays this spring. The 440 yard relay team placed third with a 42.6 but was only two yards back of the front runners.

Phillip Floyd placed fifth in the broad jump with a 20-8.

Due to the excessive relay competition, Snyder had no entries in several events at Hobbs. The Hobbs meet included 18 events, four more than Texas high school meets.

Hobbs took the title with 81½ points, while Odessa Permian was second with 61, followed by Roswell with 42½, Midland and Monahans with 22 each, Snyder and Big Spring with 21 each, Andrews with 15, Fort Stockton and Jal with 10 each and Levelland with 9.

Hobbs scored heavily in the distance events, placing 1-2 in the two mile run, an event that is not even carded in Texas high school meets.

Stehley expects sizzling competition at Austin from Liberty, San Marcos and Monahans. Also, Breckenridge is expected to field a strong team in the state meet.

The Snyder Coaching staff was particularly impressed with San Marcos' mile relay team which ran a 3:17 at the Corpus Christi meet Saturday. Snyder's best time in that event is 3:18.6 turned in at the regional meet. Liberty has a 3:17.4 logged in preliminaries at an early-season meet.

Snyder was handicapped in some of the individual events at Hobbs because of concentration on relays. Since he ran in three relays, Paul Tidwell did not enter the 440 yard dash and Tom Kincaid did not compete in the 220. Leon Smith qualified for the finals in the 220 with a time of 22.5, but the finals were run immediately following the sprint medley in which he ran a 220 leg, and he finished out of the point circle.

Albuquerque Keeps Rolling

By The Associated Press

Albuquerque beat Amarillo 14-6 Sunday to roll on as the team with the best percentage in the Texas League.

The Dodgers not only top the western division but have lost fewer games than Dallas-Fort Worth, the leader of the eastern division, although each has won 10.

Dallas-Fort Worth played a doulbeheader Sunday, which got the Spurs into trouble. They lost to El Paso 8-5 in the first game and won the nightcap 6-0. This meant they had lost more games than Albuquerque.

Dallas-Fort Worth had the longest lead, however, moving 2½ games ahead of second place Tulsa in the eastern division when the Oilers took a 2-1 thumping from Austin.

Arnie Happy Over His Narrow Win

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — It developed into something less than a rout, but golfer Arnold Palmer was quite satisfied with his narrow victory in the 13th annual $75,000 Tournament of Champions.

The end of the tournament Sunday came when Palmer posted a one-under-par 71 and a lead that had mounted to seven strokes dwindled to two at the finish.

Winds up to 35 miles an hour swept over the Desert Inn Country Club course as the largest gallery in the history of the event, 17,275, hung on to watch the dramatic windup.

Palmer's total score was 277 and second place went to Chi Chi Rodriguez, who had a final-round 70 for 279.

It was the first victory for Palmer since the Oklahoma City Open May 18, 1964, and gave Arnie a distinction few people can enjoy. He left Las Vegas richer than when he came—$14,000, in fact.

Palmer and most of his fellow pros headed for the $100,000 Colonial National Invitational at Fort Worth this week.

Three years ago Palmer won the Las Vegas tournament and also the Colonial. Arnie has no objection to repeating history.

Doug Sanders had a 72 for 281 and third place.

Sam Snead, a youngish 52, and Australian Kel Nagle, 44, the two oldest players in the tournament, each shot a 70 and tied at 283 for fourth place.

Jack Nicklaus, who had hoped to win the event for the third straight year, finished worse than he started. He had a first-round 74 and a final 78 for 290.

"I just got started bad and never could get my game going," Nicklaus explained.

The University of Mississippi will have 27 lettermen back for football next season.

Shoemaker's Strategy Pays Off With Surprise Victory

By KELSO STURGEON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — His name is Willie Shoemaker but they should change it to Jesse James for the way he stole the 91st Kentucky Derby with an almost forgotten colt, Lucky Debonair.

Shoemaker, often not at his best in the Kentucky Derby, outrode, out-foxed and out-thought every jockey, owner and trainer Saturday in the 1¼-mile classic to gain, what was to him, his greatest victory.

"Shoemaker was great," said Lucky Debonair's trainer, Frank Catrone. "If he can ride like this and get that many breaks in the rest of them, it will be all right. This guy just out-thought everybody in there."

"It was about time," Shoemaker said, "I was getting tired of getting beat in this race."

"I didn't give Shoemaker any instructions before the race," Catrone said. "I knew he'd done a lot of studying and knew what he had to do."

Actually things were made a lot easier for Shoemaker when Flag Raiser, who usually starts like a bolt of lightning, didn't break so fast. This meant that Lucky Debonair wouldn't have to work too hard to catch him.

Saving his horse's power, Shoemaker moved Lucky Debonair into perfect position coming out of the first turn. Tis strategy now was not to push Flag Raiser, who was on the front end, too hard and thus keep the pace slow.

Down the backside they want, Flag Raiser on the front and Shoemaker holding his breath, hoping that no one would catch on to his strategy until it was too late.

They were at the half mile in 47 1-5 seconds, at six furlongs in 1:11 4-5 and at the mile in a slow 1:37. Shoemaker was breathing easier with every stride, and when they hit the final eighth he turned his horse loose.

In four strides Lucky Debonair was two lengths in front and full of run. Shoemaker went to the whip and held on to nip fast-closing Dapper Dan by a neck for the $112,000 first-place money.

Tom Rolfe finished third, Native Charger fourth, Hail to All fifth, Mr. Pak sixth and Swift Ruler seventh. The others in the order were Flag Raiser, Carpenter's Rule, Bold Lad and Narushua.

Shoemaker, who was winning his third Derby, brought Lucky Debonair to the finish line in 2:01 1-5, compared to the track record of 2:00 set last year by Northern Dancer.

Catrone said Lucky Debonair probably will leave Tuesday for the Preakness at Pimlico May 15. If all goes well there, it will be on to the Belmont Stakes, the third jewel of the Triple Crown, at Aqueduct June 5.

Other Derby horses definitely headed for the Preakness are Dapper Dan, Hail to All, and Native Charger. Trainer Frank Whiteley Jr., will decide later whether to start Tom Rolfe.

The experts were still puzzled about the performance of the 2-1 favorite, Bold Lad, who stopped cold just before the field hit the stretch and beat only one horse.

"I'm just as confused as you are," trainer Bill Winfrey said. "He came out of the race in fine shape but jockey Bill Hartack said he didn't warm up like he did for the Derby Trial last Tuesday.

"I doubt very much if we will start in the Preakness," Winfrey said. "We are going to give him all the time he needs...I just don't know the answer."

The $112,000 Lucky Debonair received from the Derby purse of $154,500 boosted his bankroll to $237,450. As the third choice in the betting, he paid $10.60 and $2.

The race was delayed for one-half hour by a fire that swept through the box seats in the fourth floor of the clubhouse, causing the evacuation of 3,500 of the estimated crowd of 100,000.

Ags, 'Horns In Showdown

By The Associated Press

Texas and Texas A&M decide the Southwest Conference baseball championship Friday and Saturday, and Texas is in the best position to win it.

The Longhorns, leading the Aggies by a full game, have only to take one of the engagements to sack up the crown.

Baylor beat Texas A&M in one of two contests last week while Texas was sweeping a series with Texas Christian and that made the difference.

The Aggies can win the title by taking both games at College Station Friday and Saturday and if they do, it will mean a repeat championship.

Baylor beat Texas 4-1 but couldn't stand prosperity. It dropped a 6-4 game to the Aggies to fade from contention for the championship.

Baylor and Rice play their final series Thursday and Friday at Houston. Texas Christian and Southern Methodist close out Friday and Saturday at Fort Worth.

King 'Pops' Senators To Double Win

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim King hit the pop that enabled the Washington Senators to edge Cleveland 3-2 in the first game of a doubleheader Sunday. The feat so exhilarated the 32-year-old pinch hitter that he drove in the decisive run with a single in the Senators' 4-2 second-game triumph.

Now in his ninth major league season, the last five with Washington, King hadn't had much success this season. Before Sunday's doubleheader, he had only two hits in 28 trips to the plate for an .071 average.

But Manager Gil Hodges selected the outfielder to bat for Ken Hamlin with one out and the bases loaded in a 2-2 game in the eighth inning. King quickly became involved with another original Senator, Cleveland first baseman Chuck Hinton.

He lofted a pop fly into foul territory just beyond the Indians' dugout near the stands. Hinton caught the pop but flopped when it came to keeping Ed Brinkman from scoring from third with the winning run.

Brinkman made it, and King had his fifth run-batted-in of the season. It was in the eighth inning of the second game that he got his sixth, again being called to the plate as a pinch hitter with the bases loaded and one out.

This time, batting for Joe McCabe, he popped a single to center field that scored Don Lock with the run that snapped a 2-2 tie.

Elsewhere in the AL, Minnesota edged Chicago 3-2 in 10 innings before losing 5-4, Baltimore swept New York 4-2 in 10 and 5-3, Boston took two from Detroit 2-1 and 10-3 and Kansas City defeated Los Angeles 9-5 after losing 10-8.

In the National League, Chicago stopped Houston's 10-game winning streak 6-3, San Francisco trimmed Los Angeles 4-2 in 10, Philadelphia swept Milwaukee 6-0 and 10-7, St. Louis stopped Pittsburgh 9-5 and 5-4 and Cincinnati knocked off New York 9-4 and 10-8.

Only a few minutes before King's winning pop in the opener, Max Alvis tied the game for the Indians with a two-run homer. McCabe had homered for the Senators.

Ken McMullen's two-run blast gave Washington a 2-1 lead in the nightcap, but Cleveland tied it in the seventh on Vic Davalillo's single and a pinch hit double by Al Luplow.

A member of the old Senators and the majors' defending home run champion, Harmon Killebrew, finally clouted his first homer of 1965, a two-run blast in Minnesota's eighth inning that tied the game 2-2. Then, in the 10th, he beat Chicago with a run-scoring double.

The White Sox won the nightcap behind Floyd Robinson's first-inning homer and a two-run shot by Don Buford in the third. The decisive run came in the seventh on Ken Berry's double and a single by Danny Cater.

Veteran Robin Roberts stymied the Yankees on six hits for his third victory against no defeats. He allowed only one Yankee to reach third while the Orioles wrapped up the second double, a four-run third, game on Paul Blair's homer in the third and Luis Aparicio's run-scoring triple and a balk in the fifth.

Run - producing singles by John Orsino and Jerry Adair in the 10th inning won the first game for Baltimore. New York, stung by Curt Blefary's two-run homer in the second, had caught up in the ninth on doubles by Joe Pepitone and Tony Kubek.

Boston edged Detroit in their opener on Felix Mantilla's bases-loaded sacrifice fly in the sixth inning. The Red Sox had an easier time in the nightcap as Dalton Jones and Mike Ryan combined for seven runs batted in. Ryan hammered two homers, his first in the majors.

Los Angeles rookie Paul Schaal clubbed a pair of homers in the Angels' opening-game victory against Kansas City, but the Athletics struck back in the nightcap, breaking their seven-game losing streak.

Bill Bryan drove in three runs with a homer in Kansas City's five-run first inning while Tom Reynolds delivered a two-run

Netters 4th At Seminole

The Snyder High School Tennis Team picked up four points and placed fourth in the Seminole Invitational Tournament Saturday.

In boy singles, Gordon Stokes won his quarterfinals match over Terry Thomas of Levelland, 6-3, 6-2, but was defeated in the semifinals by Dickie Zimmerman of Brownfield, 6-3, 6-1.

In boys doubles, Ronnie Detrich and Milton Reilly who had been seeded No. 1 won in the first round over Worley and Stern of Levelland, 6-1, 6-3, and then won their semifinals match over Malone and Bailiff of Seminole, 6-2, 6-4. However, they lost in the finals to Parker and Borders of Levelland, 6-1, 9-7.

Jerry Bell and Aubrey Jones won over Averding and Williams of Plains, 6-1, 6-4, but lost in the quarterfinals to Parker and Borders, 6-2, 6-3.

In girls singles Emily Kincaid lost in the first round to Linda Horton of Meadow, 6-0, 6-2. Miss Horton placed second in the tournament.

Brownfield won the tournament with 16 points, while Seminole was second with 7 and Levelland was third with 9.

Snyder netters will go to Plainview for a dual match Thursday.

Tony Kubek of the Yankees played only 99 games at shortstop last season.

Redlegs Win Over Lamesa Team, 6-2

The Snyder Redlegs defeated the Lamesa White Sox, 6-2, at Lamesa Sunday afternoon.

Lupe Lopez was the winning pitcher. The victory is the third against one loss for the Redlegs this season. The White Sox will come to Snyder for a return match next Sunday on the North Park diamond.

Polo Team Downs Ralls Riders, 11-8

The Snyder Polo Team went to Ralls and won an 11-8 decision Sunday.

Next game for the locals is set for 8 o'clock Saturday night on their home field. The Spur team is scheduled to come here to oppose the Snyder team.

Diamond M Foundation Presents Emily Guthrie Smith

THE NEWEST ADDITION to the Diamond M Foundation's art collection is this picture of a group of children "Going Fishing." The artist, Emily Guthrie Smith of Ft. Worth is at left. With her are C. T. McLaughlin and visitors from Abilene who are Mrs. W. J. Fulwiler, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fulwiler, Jr.

COMING FROM AMARILLO to view the Diamond M art exhibit were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Taylor, shown here with Mrs. Smith. The artist specializes in pictures of children, and behind her is a picture entitled simply "Girl With A Cat." "Paper Flowers" is the title of the picture behind Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

IN ADDITION to the paintings of Emily Guthrie Smith, the entire collection of the Diamond M Foundation was open to visitors at the art show. C. T. McLaughlin, founder of the Foundation is shown in the N. C. Wyeth Room along with Ft. Worth visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Bert J. Niver as they viewed Wyeth's painting of "The Carpetbaggers."

OFFICERS OF THE LUBBOCK ART ASSOCIATION are pictured along with Mrs. C. T. McLaughlin during the Sunday afternoon showing. From left they are Louis Murfee, Jr., Mrs. Conny Martin, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Murfee and Thelma Clark Griggs. They are pictured in the room which was devoted exclusively to paintings by Emily Guthrie Smith.

LUBBOCK VISITORS to the show enjoyed chatting with Mrs. Smith, the artist, whose work was featured in the five-day show. From left the are Mr. and Mrs. Retha Martin, Mrs. Roy Furr, Mrs. Smith, and Mr. Furr. Mr. Martin is chairman of the board of Dunlap's, and Mr. Furr heads the food store chain.

Plan To Aid Southeast Asia Opposed By James Byrnes

By JACK BELL

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes supports President Johnson's policy of air strikes against North Piet Nam but opposes his proposal to provide $1 billion in aid to Southeast Asia.

A former member of the House and Senate, a former Supreme Court justice, an "assistant president" to Franklin D. Roosevelt, secretary of state under Harry S. Truman and a former governor of his own state, Byrnes marked his 86th birthday here Sunday. It was also his 59th wedding anniversary.

In an interview with The Associated Press he:

— Recalled some of his own difficulties in dealing with Russian leaders but counseled continued talks with them.

— Said the Supreme Court is invading the field of legislation usurping the powers of Congress and changing the Constitution improperly.

— Called Johnson's voting rights bill "terrible" and said the eventual ruling on it would show how far the court is willing to go "in attempting to dictate the policies of government."

Here are some questions put to Byrnes and his answers on international issues:

Q. Do you support Johnson's Viet Nam policies?

A. I heartily support his statements as to his willingness to discuss the cessation of hostilities and settlement of our controversies. I am sorry that he added his willingness to have the United States contribute a billion dollars to the rehabilitation of Southeast Asia.

Q. Do you support the air strikes against North Viet Nam?

A. I enthusiastically support the air strikes. The only way we can hope to convince the war lords of North Viet Nam is by a demonstration of our power. I do not believe, however, that you can buy the friendship of people. That is true of individuals, and it is true of governments, which are an assortment of individuals. I do not believe that the money we gave (Indonesia President) Sukarno will accomplish any good. I understand that (Egyptian President) Nasser told us we could take our money and go to hell. I dislike to have the well-intended efforts of the U.S. government depreciated by such little people in a big world.

Q. You dealt extensively with Russians as secretary of state. What is your estimation of what the Russians are up to now?

A. What is their immediate goal I do not know, but I always stop and think what has been their goal ever since the end of World War II. I have no doubt that it is the same goal. They want to dominate the world. They would prefer to do it by negotiations, but if that is not possible, they would do it by force. There has been no change announced as to the policy of the Politburo. I remember a dinner given to the three foreign ministers Bevin, Molotov and myself on Christmas Eve in 1945, at which dinner the Politburo were guests. Those men determined the policies of the Soviet government and I know of no one who would suggest that there has been any modifications of the views of the Politburo. Mr. Stalin passed from the scene, so did Mr. Khrushchev, but the policy of the Soviet government remains the same.

Q. You don't believe that peaceful coexistence offers much hope?

A. I don't, unless and until there is a change in the Soviet policy. The U.S. should realize that the Soviets recognize only power and we have to have military power superior to that of the Soviet government.

Stalin did not like the ruling forces in China. He had no confidence in them. I recall that after the war, when Stalin was questioning how many troops we had in China, and I told him the exact number—some 40,000, and that we wanted them home as soon as possible. He seemed quite amazed and asked where did we have stationed an army of a million? On the table between us I took matches and showed as accurately as I could where our troops were, according to the latest information from the Joint Chiefs of Staffs. I finally convinced him. He threw his head back and said, "I believe you, Mr. Secretary, the Chinese were always the damnest liars in the world." I think he is right, I thought so then; I was right, and I think so now.

Q. What are the chances, in your estimation, that the Chinese will intervene directly in the Viet Nam war?

A. I must confess that I have no fixed opinion. It is uncertain always as to what the Chinese will do. Again, they are impressed only by the military power of the U.S. government. Negotiations with China are very much like negotiations with the Soviets. I found in dealing with them (the Russians) for almost two years, they are what the Orientals are supposed to be — traders.

Q. Do you think talks with the Soviets should continue?

A. Yes. As a matter of fact, I think President Johnson was extremely right in stating in his John Hopkins University speech that he was ready at any time to talk with the Soviets or any other government, because we cannot hold the support of independent governments if we refuse to confer with those who are opposed to us.

Pentagon Reveals Expenses Of Protecting Marchers

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — It cost the Defense Department $510,000 to protect the Seima-to-Montgomery civil rights marchers, the Pentagon said today.

This raised to nearly $13 million the cost of using federal troops and federalized National Guardsmen in five major civil rights crises dating back to Little Rock in 1957.

The Pentagon said the $510,000 figure covered pay and allowances for $1,860 Alabama National Guardsmen called into federal duty, plus transportation and other expenses in connection with measures taken to protect the voting rights march in late March.

The figure did not take into account th pay and allowances for about 1,000 regular Army military policemen who also were used. The Army has taken the position that these men would be drawing such pay and allowances regardless of what duties they were performing.

Also excluded were the expenses involved in use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department.

The Alabama National Guard was federalized from March 20 to March 28.

In response to inquiries, the Defense Department also listed the costs of past Defense Department involvement in civil rights crises.

In September 1957, President Dwight D. Eisenhower called up 10,500 Arkansas Air and Army Guardsmen in a clash with Gov. Orval E. Faubus over admitting Negro pupils to Central High School in Little Rock. Federal troops were used.

The operation, extending from September 1957 to May 1958, cost $4,898,000.

In October 1962, the late President John F. Kennedy called out about 8,000 Mississippi Guardsmen during the riot-marked integration of the University of Mississippi. Here, too, sizable regular federal forces were used.

The Pentagon said this federal military operation, which lasted until June 1963, cost $4,364,000.

In June 1963, Kennedy ordered 17,000 Alabama Army and Air Guardsmen into federal service before Gov. George C. Wallace allowed Negroes to enter the University of Alabama.

Three months later, Alabama Guardsmen were back in federal service, this time in a federal-state dispute over public school integration.

The Army spent $3,171,000 for these operations of Alabama National Guardsmen. Other expenses, including communications, transportation and the like, are not included in this figure. The Army said it did not have cost data on these elements.

Director Of Job Center Dies

SAN MARCOS, Tex. (AP) — Memorial services were to be held Monday for Ogden Baur, director of student life at Gary Job Training Center.

Baur, who had held the post since February, died Saturday. He was 49.

Funeral services will be Tuesday in Austin.

Baur is survived by his widow, a son, two sisters and his father.

Armed Police Clear Beach At Galveston

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Thousands of youths reveling in an unofficial splash day in this island city were driven from two beaches Sunday by officers armed with clubs, shotguns, rifles and tear gas.

Lawmen from the Galveston police, the sheriff's office and the Texas Rangers cleared the East and Stewart Beach areas in less than an hour, ending an unofficial celebration that began Friday when boys and girls from nine states started streaming into thie Gulf of Mexico resort center.

No injuries were reported during the clearing operation, but 53 persons were treated and released at Galveston hospitals during the three-day period.

Galveston Police Chief W. J. Barnes ordered the beaches cleared when several girls complained they had been robbed and stripped of their bathing suits on East Beach.

The young crowd, which included many college students, hooted at officers as they left in their cars.

One youth yelled to Barnes, "I guess you know this will end splash day."

The officer replied: "That's fine. You might as well get in your car and go home. We don't want you here."

In years past Galveston has had an official splash day to mark the opening of the beach season. The annual celebration was discontinued after several years in which officers had trouble maintaining order.

But the thousands observed their own splash day over the weekend. Officers estimated that the crowd on the beaches Sunday numbered between 5,000 and 30,000.

About 350 charges were filed between Friday midnight and 6 p.m. Sunday police said. Most of the charges were for minors drinking, drinking during prohibited hours on Sunday, disturbing the peace and littering of beaches.

Boyle Seeks Uniform To Join Viet War

By HAL BOYLE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — This is a strange war indeed.

It is the first war I've been in which a reporter has to get his uniform custom made by a Chinese tailor. I don't believe even Richard Harding Davis, the most glamorous of war correspondents, went to that length.

But out here patronizing a Chinese tailor isn't a luxury, it's a necessity.

So far, the government doesn't officially issue combat clothing to reporters nor will it sell it to them. They sometimes can buy it, however, on what is euphemistically known as "the gray market."

The leader of the den of thieves to whom I was referred has his headquarters in what looks like an abandoned warehouse, just as do American gangs on television programs.

When I explained what I wanted, the chief thief, who shall remain nameless — in fact he said he preferred it that way — offered me all the opium I wanted, but said he was all out of government uniforms.

"This has been a very bad month for stealing," he explained.

So I went to see Luong, the Chinese tailor, who is known as the fastest needle in the Far East. In 36 hours he whipped together a bush jacket and trousers that made a fellow look like the white hunter on an African safari.

"Luong, you made the pants too long," I objected.

"Not too long," he lied with a bland saffron smile.

"After first monsoon rain, pants fit just right."

My quest for a combat cap proved to be the best free entertainment of the day. Apparently no one with a size 7½ head had been in town for some time.

Grinning crowds collected in every shop and broke into giggles as the proprietors fruitlessly perched Vietnamese jungle caps atop my dome. As fast as they were put on they fell to the floor.

Giving the hat search up as a bad job, I stomped off again to the gray market. This time I managed to buy a used pair of boots about two sizes too large and a weathered rucksack which some French Legionnaire must have dropped at the battle of Dien Bien Phu back in 1954.

It was so heavy that merely carrying it back to my hotel made me break into a sweat.

My last port of call was the post exchange. No American ever goes off to a war zone without a farewell call at the PX for a box of chocolate candy bars, some boxes of hard candy, a pushbutton can of shaving lather and a bottle of insect repellent.

The post exchange here is stocked with an assortment of goodies not particularly useful in jungle fighting. They include hi-fi sets, classical phonograph records, expensive cameras, and several sets of golf clubs. Just looking at them made me feel homesick. Then I saw something that really fascinated me. It was a bean bag priced at 85 cents. I bought it. At that price I felt it was too good a bargain to pass up, and I thought it would be nice to be the only guy in the war with a bean bag of his very own.

Besides, it may come in handy if I need something to throw at the unfriendly Viet Cong. I'd rather play bean bag with them than any other game I can think of.

Firemen Battle Blaze In Freighter

HOUSTON (AP)—Almost 100 firemen fought a blaze in the number one and two holds of the SS Billiton, a 7,400-ton Dutch freighter, for two hours in the Houston Ship Channel Sunday before bringing it under control.

The cargo, burlap bagging and crated plastic toys, still was smouldering late Sunday night, however.

Several firemen were overcome by smoke, but none was seriously injured.

Eucalyptus trees adapt to a wide range of soil conditions and temperatures.

BUSINESS and INDUSTRIAL NEWS

NEW AND BEAUTIFUL — Les Francis, owner of Les Francis Chevrolet is pictured with Chevrolet's new Caprice Custom Sedan — the most elegant and luxurious of the 1965 Chevrolets. The new model demonstrates Chevrolet's practice of giving the motoring public what they want when they want it — regardless of the time of year. Any car purchaser's need can be filled at Les Francis Chevrolet.

Les Francis Chevrolet Offers Wide Choice To Fill Every Motoring Need

It sure would be simple for automobile manufacturers if everyone liked the same kind of car.

But of course, it isn't that way at all. Almost everybody has a little different idea of what he wants in his car.

The folks at Chevrolet know this, and that's why they offer to practically custom tailor a car for each and every motorist.

And, when the Chevrolet folks find out that there's something people want, they don't wait until the new model is out just to have something to talk about. No, they go ahead and give it to people whenever it's ready.

For example, this year, since the '65s came out, Chevrolet has added one brand new car to the Chevrolet line-up. It's the top-of-the line Caprice model — a luxury automobile that people said they wanted.

But further than the introduction of a new car, Chevrolet this year has come out with a 3-speed completely synchromeshed transmission, and soon, probably even before the '66 models are announced, Chevrolet will market a dual - range turbo hydromatic automatic transmission.

That's not all. Delivery is expected soon of the new "396" Chevrolet engine — an engine that's a completely new design, and has been called by a popular automotive magazine "the nation's raciest non - racing powerplant."

The "396" (from its 396 cubic inch displacement) is a 325, 375, or 25 horsepower engine, depending on the compression ratio.

This potent high - performance engine joins the Chevrolet stable of engines which run all the way from a 95 horsepower Corvair engine to the "396." In all, Chevrolet offers five separate 6-cylinder engines, and five V-8s.

And what do you put these engines in? Chevrolet has three models of Corvairs, starting with the lowest priced Chevrolet of them all, the Corvair 500. There are also the Corvair Monza and Corsa models.

Then there are Chevy IIs. Any of the three series, the 100, the Nova or the Nova Super Sport can be had with a choice of engines up to 300 horsepower.

Then there's the Chevelle series with four models to choose from, and engines up to 350 horsepower.

Then in the full - sized Chevrolet, the customer has a choice of Biscayne, Bel Air, Impala, Impala Super Sport, and now the Caprice models.

But that's still not all. For the buyer who wants a true sports car, Chevrolet builds the Corvette — the only true sports car built today in the United States.

Then, after deciding on the basic car and model, Chevrolet will tailor that car for the customer. He can choose the rear-end ratio. He can add an AM-FM stereo radio; a black vinyl roof cover; tinted glass; air conditioning; four-speed shift; seven-position Comfortilt steering wheel; sintered - metalic brakes; tachometer; even a special suspension if the customer likes.

Les Francis Chevrolet has a book listing everything. They like to show it to people so they can custom tailor their new Chevrolet.

So it's like ordering a suit from a wonderful little old tailor who hasn't heard what those shops with the fancy names are charging for the same thing. . .

Shopping Time Is Pleasure Time For Shoppers At Bennett Office Supply

Shopping for gifts is a real pleasure, especially if the shopper knows that the gifts he chooses will be welcome and appreciated.

Right about this time of year, folks can have the pleasure of shopping for gifts for the graduate, and for Mothers Day too. And shopping is a pleasure for those who shop for those gifts at Bennett Office Supply.

Several items offered by the store are suitable for either occasion. For example, stationery by Montague; a Buxton billfold, suitably styled for a Mother, a young man, or a young lady; picture albums; scrap books; or address books, including the loose-leaf style.

For almost all graduates, the most wanted gift is a portable typewriter. Most of them have studied typing, but the typing skill, like most skills, must be constantly be used or it becomes forgotten.

So the graduate who receives a portable typewriter from Bennett's receives not only the machine, he receives the gift of the continuing skill of typing.

Whether he goes on to school, or goes to work, that typewriter will be a helper and a prized possession for years to come.

Friendly salespeople at Bennett Office Supply will gladly explain the various advantages of the different Smith - Corona portable typewriter models.

Many other welcome gifts for the graduate are at Bennett Office Supply. They suggest fountain pen and pencil sets, dictionaries, and billfolds.

For Mother, Bennett's suggest the Hallmark Thoughtfulness Album — an assortment of greeting cards for all occasions. Also for Mother Bennett's suggest dainty feminine desk assessories and pretty little memo pads, complete with pen, or the lighted model with its own tiny electric light bulb.

Bibles, of course are welcome gifts as well as are the inspirational books, "Leaves of Gold" and "The Greatest of These Is Love."

The selection is large, the price range is wide, and a gift from Bennett's is sure to please. Wise shoppers have found that what they want, either for Mothers Day or graduation giving, is at Bennett Office Supply, on the north side of the Snyder Square.
