

It's Been Said, But Let's Say It Again!

By Nanalee Nichols
It's Thanksgiving. Again. So soon. As usual. Right? Right. There just doesn't seem to be much new to say about the holiday. It's Turkey Day (a name which seems to rapidly be replacing Thanksgiving). There will be good food, family gatherings and football. It's a time when we are supposed to count our blessings. It's all been said before. But some folks still don't listen, and some people (probably most of us) need reminding again.

No nation in the entire world has so many blessings to count as America. There are problems, so many they sometimes tend to obscure that fact.

But when the cold wind blows and the heating bills are high, instead of complaining...take a moment to be thankful for the opportunity to PAY that bill...for it means that warmth IS available. In many parts of the world, that opportunity simply doesn't exist.

When the food bill seems high, and puts a strain on the budget, think about this. In many parts of the world, food isn't there to be bought...money isn't any help, the food just isn't there!

Americans travel as they wish, move, seek jobs, gather, hunt, have families, protest and live lives pretty much as they desire.

In various nations, all of the above listed freedoms are denied the average citizen.

This is not necessarily in third world countries, either. In Europe, the average German, Brit or Swede knows that he will probably never own his own home, much less build a new one to his specifications.

Dishwashers, telephones (much less extensions), and hot water all the time are luxury items, reserved for those of a much richer status.

VCR's, cable television, new cars, two vehicle families, decent medical care, indeed, even blue jeans, are simply beyond the means of most of the world.

Americans are so very, very lucky.

The Pilgrims had so little to be thankful for, yet they gave that thanks willingly and gratefully.

Smothered in abundance as today's citizens are, can we not take a moment to send out our own thanks, to give thought to just what a wonderful world we do live in?

Thanksgiving...not turkey day...let's try to give it a touch of the original meaning.

NICHOLS' WORTH

By: Nanalee Nichols

Every week I hear complaints from people about the mice and rats this year. They are about to eat down houses around people's ears. Traps, glue traps and poisons are being pressed into service.

But I don't understand the problem. In 17 years, we have never had a mouse or rat inside our house. That is because we keep cats, one inside, several outside. They have nice side benefits like deep purrs and pleasant attitudes.

Now, before someone groans and shakes their head, I'll point out that our cats catch rats and mice at an astonishing rate. They are also fed all they can eat. The old myth that a well-fed cat won't hunt, simply doesn't hold up. Our felines have a heaped bowl of cat food in front of them 24 hours a day, yet hardly a day passes without them presenting us with a gory little carcass as proof of their hunting skills.

But D.J., the Siamese cat we have, who isn't even grown yet, tops them all. We've had competent ratcatchers for years...but "the deeg" takes the cake. I mean, this cat is the Rambo of mousers! He can kill more mice and rats than Chuck Norris can kill karate experts!

It is a pleasure to him, a carefully honed skill. He doesn't really seem to care for the taste of the little fellers, just the pleasure of the hunt.

He hasn't missed a night in two months making a kill of some sort, and on many nights has wiped out two or three rodents. (Sometimes it's a little hard to tell, I don't try and reassemble all the pieces.)

We have a walkway from the house to the garage. It has a cat door in it to keep the dogs away from their food, and through this swinging door, like a gunfighter of old, explodes D.J. with his latest trophy.

He doesn't kill them outside anymore...he brings them through the door and then proceeds with his personal vendetta. I mean, the mafia could learn from this cat's cold technique!

After he has killed the mouse or rat, perhaps nibbled on it just a tad, he carefully lines up the body right by the back door. There is no chance of missing...his grisly prize every morning. Apparently, he wants us to be VERY sure we appreciate his accomplishments. (we do, oh, we DO!)

Some of the rats he has brought in have been frightening in size! Some of the mice have been very tiny, these he usually brings in in multiples...as if to make up for the lack of size.

D.J. is totally in a class by himself when it comes to hunting. Unlike our other cats, he is a specialist. He doesn't display interest in birds, frogs or bugs...he is a rodent catcher and that's it!

Do we mind...no...is he for rent, sale or trade? Absolutely NOT!!

Newspaper Sale - Plus Chance To Win Cash!

The Deport Times, Bogata News, Talco Times and Blossom Times will hold their annual month-long subscription sale all during December, and this year there will be an added opportunity...the chance to win cash prizes!

The paper will be on sale for $2.00 off the usual yearly rate. That means that a whole year of the paper will cost only $8.00 in Lamar, Red River and Titus Counties, $10.50 in Texas but not in the above-mentioned counties, and $13.00 for out of state subscriptions. In spite of severe increases in postage rates, the papers have not had a price hike in two years, and hope to continue to be able to bring savings to their customers.

Plus, anyone renewing their subscription, or a subscription for someone else, will automatically be entered in a drawing for $50.00, $30.00 and $20.00 in cash!

Now, in addition to a year of local news, school news, public information, great savings and entertainment, plus a television guide and photographs of local people, readers have the opportunity to collect some cash...always much needed after those Christmas shopping sprees!

If one does not wish to renew, all they have to do is clip the coupon from the paper and mail it back with the appropriate box checked in order to enter the drawing. No purchase is necessary and one does not have to be present to win.

The cash will be presented the first week in January.

Come on, December's the month for savings and the chance to win money!

Because of the huge number of renewals during December, post card notices will NOT be sent...so renew before the sale goes off!

Patriots Win, Lose, Lady Patriots Looking

By Eric Foster

The Prairiland Patriots lost their season opener to the Rebels, 62-48, Tuesday night at Rivercrest. The Lady Patriots were also dealt a loss Tuesday as the Rebelettes defeated them 39-29.

The boys just couldn't seem to get the lid off the goal as they made only 39% from the field. The leading scorer was Ricky Minter (13), with 14 points, followed by Steven Johnson (35) with 11 points and Robbie Fults (15) with seven points.

The ladies had the same problem as the boys, as they just couldn't get the ball to fall in the basket, only shooting 32% from the field. The defense however picked up the slack and kept the game close throughout. The feds were led by Tosha McCarty (22) with eight points, followed by Erin Morgan (31) and Jenissa Baker (24) both with six points.

In the second meeting of the two teams Friday at Prairiland, the Patriots defeated the Rebels 53-42.

The Patriots, in a game that was closer than the final score showed, never trailed throughout the game. The first quarter ended with Jack Kindle (23) shooting two three throws and a score of 12-9.

During the second quarter, both teams played excellent defense. With 5:02 left in the quarter, the score was 17-17 and it stayed tied for almost two minutes. The half came to a close with another two points from Jack Kindle from 15 feet out, and a score of 26-22.

The second half started where the first half left off and both teams played some more excellent defense. The offenses, however, started putting the ball in the hoop. The third quarter ended in a 40-40 tie.

With 5:48 left in the game, the Patriots started to pull away as they caused turnover after turnover and the game ended with an exciting 53-42 victory.

Coach Dan Harris said, "I'm more pleased with tonight's game than I was Tuesday. The team started playing like we want and are able." Harris also expressed his feelings of the team as being "hard workers".

The Patriots were led by Robbie Fults with 19 points, followed by Jack Kindle with 10 and Glen Dobbs with eight points.

The ladies fell to the Rebelettes again Friday, 38-43, because of the lack of offense and mental mistakes in the early parts of the game. The defense, however, kept the game close throughout.

During the first three quarters, the teams answered each other's buckets with ones of their own. The third quarter ended with a bucket from Jana Pomroy (32) and a score of 24-31.

With 4:07 left in the final period, the feds looked as they were going to come back as a shot from Melissa LaRue (25) pulled them to within four, but the defense that had been so good during the first of the game just couldn't hold back the Rebelettes.

"We made some mental mistakes, but I believe the girls just need some time to gel as a team. The experience is out there, but it will take some time," said Coach Rick Johnson.

The Lady Patriots were led by Jenissa Baker with 12 points, followed by Jana Pomroy and Melissa LaRue each with six points.

Both teams play at Roxton next.

Should You Inspect Your Christmas Lights?

We're here to Help

Now that the holiday season is fast approaching, make sure you have done everything possible to have a safe holiday by inspecting all of your holiday lighting. Never assume that your holiday lighting is all right. Make it a standard practice to inspect all lighting each year.

Carefully check all of your lighting for worn or decayed insulation and for cracked or broken bulbs and receptacles. Inspect the electrical connection. When it comes to holiday lighting, if in doubt — throw it out. It is much better to replace old or worn holiday lighting than to take a chance of spoiling the season with an accident.

We're here to help you have a safe holiday season. For more information, call our office today.
