

PLYMOUTH SAVOY FOR 1962—T. W. Pollard of Pollard Motor Co. looks over a 1962 Plymouth Savoy which will be on display tomorrow at the local firm.

New Plymouth On Display Tomorrow

The 1962 Plymouth automobiles with a whole new look which sets it apart from all its predecessors among low-priced, standard-size automobiles, go on display tomorrow at Pollard Motor Co., 2102 Twenty-fifth Street.

And Plymouth's crisp new look is design concept and construction delivers a completely new feel to ride, handling and performance, with valuable new savings in fuel economy and low-cost operation.

The 1962 Plymouth is so totally new and different in so many ways and so far ahead of any other car we've ever introduced, that it's impossible to compare it with anything we've ever known before.

C. E. Briggs, vice-president of Chrysler Corporation and general manager of the Chrysler-Plymouth Division, declared: "Entirely different forward fair design and proportion of the new Plymouth produces a new center of balance that has opened the way for spectacular built-in advantages that go far deeper than Plymouth's new beauty."

The 1962 Plymouth has produced substantial gains in performance and handling qualities.

A new three-speed automatic transmission for V-8 models, 60 pounds lighter in weight, has 10 per cent more torque capacity.

Plymouth's efficient manual transmission for 6-cylinder models features a new increased low gear ratio at 2.94 to 1 for improved breakaway performance and hill climbing ability.

An entirely new starter with built-in timing gears for positive engagement is simpler, quieter and lighter and provides greater starting torque at low cranking speeds, with less current requirements under heavy loads.

Improved Torque-Aire suspension gives an even smoother, quieter ride with its redesigned rear springs and new improved shock absorber mountings.

Advances in Plymouth's Sure-Grip differential deliver improved performance under slippery road conditions.

Cotton Gin At Ira Back In Operation

IRA—The cotton gin here, destroyed by fire in October of 1956, has been rebuilt and is now back in operation.

The gin has processed five bales of 1961 cotton so far. Mr. Roy Dunlap, W. O. Smith, Jr., reported.

Trade Limits Get Backing

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Southern governors strayed still further from Dixie's traditional free trade stand today as they demanded protection for domestic industries against foreign imports.

Two resolutions calling for limits on "excessive" imports were up for adoption as the governors concluded their four-day annual conference. Both had strong backing.

Director Of Camping In Scout Council

Wes H. Klusmann, national director of camping for Boy Scouts of America, today began a two-day visit to the Buffalo Trail Scout Council.

He is studying camping facilities and properties of the council and making recommendations for long-range planning. Today, he is visiting the Buffalo Trail Scout Ranch in the Davis Mountains, and tomorrow he will visit Camp Ed Murphy on Lake J. B. Thomas.

There will be a meeting of the camping committee and the council properties committee tomorrow night at Camp Ed Murphy. Purpose of the session will be to discuss the long-range camping program and plans for capital improvements of all council properties over years ahead.

Klusmann has served as national director of camping for Boy Scouts of America since 1941. He served as assistant national director of camping and activities for three years and 10 years with the Los Angeles Council.

New Chapter, Zeta Lambda Holds First Meet Monday

The Zeta Lambda Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society met in the home of Mrs. Wayne Boren, 2701 Thirty-second Street Monday evening at 7:30.

This was the first meeting of the newly organized chapter.

Maydell Burns, president, presided at the business meeting and gave the program focus. A song was held at which time favorite songs of the society were sung with Zaida Brown as song leader.

A panel consisting of Virginia Grove, Laura Holladay and Lida Rhoades, gave the program, "The Long Look," emphasizing the newly created theme of the organization as presented during the three day conference held at Phoenix, Ariz. in August. They gave a short, but concise report of each days happenings.

Virginia Grove gave the introduction of the work to be studied and reported on the president's breakfast. Moderator, international executive secretary, was guest speaker. She said:

"God's greatest gift to mankind was the gift of the mind. No force can stop the mind from thinking. She also said that only 5 per cent think, 15 per cent think they think, and 85 per cent get mad if you ask them to think."

At this point Laura Holladay, gave a report of the second days activities which included a report of the "All State Breakfast", in which Dr. J. Marie Pierce of Calif., was guest speaker. She challenged the 80,000 members of the Society to be faithful to the key which they wore, and which symbolize their willingness to go forward into "Tomorrow's World".

The closing day of the conference was given by Lida Rhoades. She stated: "The Founders dinner was the highlight of the meeting. The march of the presidents and the tribute to the 12 founders charmed the audience. Zora Ellis, international president, gave the address and chose for her topic "From These Peaks". She reviewed the past achievements of the

Sacred Image Of Motherhood Takes Beating From Author

BY INEZ ROBB

Before the advent of television, reading and books were the opiate of the masses. Apparently some of us still can't kick the habit, because books continue to pour out of presses like water over Niagara. And it stands to reason that publishers aren't in the business for the public weal.

There is nothing particularly new in the thought that follows: It has simply walked up and slugged me with renewed force since I waded through—well, almost—"A Matter of Life and Death" by Virginia Peterson.

Miss Peterson, a sometime teevee panelist and untiring, cross-country lecturer before women's clubs, hated her mother with such a pure and unadulterated passion that it has taken her 334 printed pages to pour out her venom.

Miss Peterson bears eloquent testimony to the inextinguishable literary blessing of an unhappy childhood and the pot of gold in unswerving destitution of Mummy. Not since Philip Wylie worked over the poor old American mom with a spiked club some two decades ago has the sacred image of motherhood taken such a stonking as it does from Miss Peterson.

And let's make no mistake—Miss Peterson just didn't dislike Mummy; she hated and still hates her with such a passion that by page 100 her obnoxious has become embarrassing and by page 334, deadly dull.

A third of the way through this tome, I was rooting for Mother: now gathered to her fathers, and wishing she were alive and equipped with a hailpoint pen to give her side of the case. Boy, will she!

printed page, because as a spoiled brat, Virginia was surely no bargain in the home. For 334 pages, everyone is out of step except the author. And nothing, not even the author's experiences as a soiled dove, are spared the reading public.

As one reads the Peterson dissection preferably without anesthesia of Mummy, the conviction is borne in that the author came directly home from the analyst's couch, seated herself at the typewriter and polished up what she had just told the head shrinker. The pity is that after getting it all out of her system, the patient didn't burn the manuscript. The jacket blur compares "A Matter of Life and Death" to Rousseau's "Confessions," but this is just jacket blur, hyperbole. There is something more than a little sickening about a book cast in the form of a letter—a veritable hymn of hate—to a dead woman.

It is not what the book reveals about her mother but what it lays bare about Miss Peterson, that is so deadly.

Oddly enough, just before reading Miss Peterson's opus, I had reread Samuel Butler's "Way of All Flesh," a bitter indictment of a bigoted Victorian family that, literary history says, is autobiographical. Butler cast his indictment in the form of a novel that wrings the reader's vitals, and leaves him agast at such familial cruelty.

I would like to make a small wager that long after Miss Peterson's 334 pages of distasteful reminiscences against Mama are forgotten, the world will still be reading "Way of All Flesh."

To take the dark-brown taste out of my mouth after "A Matter of Life and Death" I picked up Honor Tracy's new book, "A Season of Mists," one of this hilarious Irishwoman's bitter conceptions. Miss Tracy is a joy in a world in which there really isn't very much to laugh about.

"Kidnap, The Story of the Lindbergh Case" by George Waller is a consummate retelling of that case. As one who has heard every reporter who worked on the case—from Adelaide Rogers St. John to Alison to Grace Robinson—tell and retell the story, I thought no new recap of it could possibly interest me. But "Kidnap" is a ten-strike, if you're in a mood to curl up at home with a good book. And Mr. Waller doesn't seem to hate his mom.

enough, just before reading Miss Peterson's opus, I had reread Samuel Butler's "Way of All Flesh," a bitter indictment of a bigoted Victorian family that, literary history says, is autobiographical. Butler cast his indictment in the form of a novel that wrings the reader's vitals, and leaves him agast at such familial cruelty.

I would like to make a small wager that long after Miss Peterson's 334 pages of distasteful reminiscences against Mama are forgotten, the world will still be reading "Way of All Flesh."

Work, More Work On Tap For Tiger '11'

"From now on we're going to work," Tiger Coach Horace Bostick informed Snyder Quarterback Club members here last night during the club's weekly session, "and any boy who doesn't want to work can turn in his stuff."

Bostick, despondent but not despairing over the team's three opening losses, announced the stepping up of workout procedures, and gave the assurance that the staff was planning to "pour the leather on" for a three-hour period every day "until we get to playing better football."

One quick and tangible revision centers around Thursday workouts, which have traditionally been light conditioning affairs without pads. "We've never worked out on Thursdays," he specified, "but we're going to start this week. I'll tell you for sure."

Concerning last week's opponent, he mentioned that, "I don't think Big Spring is going to win many more ball games. I've looked at the game film five times," he continued, "and every time they looked a little worse. And we looked worse than they did."

During the entire second half of the game one side of the Tiger line was weakened by the absence of two mainliners—Jackie Stewart, who suffered a broken leg and will be out for the season, and William Robinson, who bruised a thigh and is on the "doubtful" list for this week's game against Kermit. "They kept hitting us at that weak spot," Bostick related, "and we just didn't have the experienced boys to stop them through there."

The club applauded his remarks concerning the acceleration of workouts and gave him a resounding vote of confidence.

Business of the organization included the adoption of an awarding system which will be incorporated as a weekly highlight, with a certificate being presented each week to the specified lineman and back of the week as chosen by vote of team members themselves.

The players and only the players will choose the boys they consider to be the most deserving for the awards, and no players will be limited as to the number of times he may receive the designation. At the conclusion of the season both a lineman and back of the year will be named.

The club voted unanimously to make the weekly presentation to the boys concerned at the regular Tuesday night meetings of the organization.

Coach Bill Hartsfield, who scouted the Kermit club, briefed the club on the Yellowjacket offense which the Tigers will face here Friday night.

"They're pretty small," he advanced, "but don't let the size fool you, because they hit hard. He gave a position rundown, also, which showed that the "Jacket" backfield men are "medium" in size, while the small but mobile starting linemen range in weight from a guard who scales out at 139 pounds to a tackle who hits 176. "They use lots of formations,"

ESCAPE SERIOUS INJURY—John McHale, president of the Milwaukee baseball club, and his wife, escaped serious injury when a foul ball hit off the bat of St. Louis pitcher Roy Washburn broke the glass of the private booth occupied by the McHales adjoining the press box. The shattered window is in the background. (AP Wirephoto)

Hartsfield added, "We counted 12 last week against Lamesa. They are also like to use lots of wings and flankers and a variety of plays such as traps, drive plays, and the statue of liberty. Number 41 (Cantrell) does most of their running," he continued, "while the quarterback can be counted on to 'keep' a lot, too."

Another point that he brought out is that Kermit shapes up as a strong second half club, as they outplayed both Lamesa and Denver City during second half play although losing by 6-21 and 0-20, respectively. The only other game in which the Yellowjackets have engaged was in their opener against Hobbs, New Mexico, in which they fought to a 7-7 deadlock.

Coach Jim Gafford commented on Kermit's defensive aspects, specifying that it is customary for the team to employ wholesale shifting and rotating of linebackers and other personnel, and that their defense shapes up as being as varied as its offense.

He also warned that they possess a "real scrappy ball club."

In other miscellaneous comments concerning the Tiger eleven, Bostick made note of the fact that a fullback Eddie Kirby will not be able to play Friday due to scholastic difficulties.

Also, both Bostick and Coach Speedy Moffett, Travis 9th mentor, praised the moral caliber of the boys with whom they're working. Bostick stating that, "We don't have a kid down there who's not a gentleman." Applause greeted both his and Moffett's testimonials concerning their teams.

The meeting was concluded with the showing of the Snyder - Big Spring game film, along with narration by Coach Bostick.

Maris Clouts No. 60; Reds Clinch

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Roger Maris, 27-year-old New York Yankee outfielder, and the Cincinnati Reds, a pennant-starved team for 21 years, both have realized their season goals—Maris a little late and the Reds in plenty of time.

Maris blasted his 60th home run Tuesday night to equal Babe Ruth's record output of 1927. It will go down in the books as a separate record by order of Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick because Maris wasn't able to do it in 154 games.

This season, the American League schedule was lengthened to 162 games and Frick ruled that Maris' efforts—even if he hits more homers in the final four games—will be listed in a separate category from Ruth's.

The Reds, who finished sixth last year and were not rated any better than fifth by the experts this season, won the National League pennant with a big assist from the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Reds defeated the Chicago Cubs Tuesday, 6-3, in Chicago, then headed back to Cincinnati to await the results of the Los Angeles-Pittsburgh two-night doubleheader in Pittsburgh.

The Dodgers, the only team that had a mathematical chance of catching the Reds, won the first game, 5-3. The Pirates, who had won the pennant and defeated the New York Yankees in the

NEW YORK (AP)—The college football coaches swung into action this weekend with the result that predicting becomes tougher too. Last week there were 30 correct ones among the 30 games that reached a decision for an average of .788.

Iowa over California. The Hawkeye quarterback, Wilburn Hollis, can call on too many guns. Notre Dame over Oklahoma. Neither is up to its par of several years ago, as the TV viewers will discover, but the Irish have more experience in the backfield.

Mississippi over Kentucky. That speedy Mississippi line will be too much for Kentucky's youngsters. Ohio State over Texas Christian. TCU upset Kansas last weekend and Coach Woody Hayes of Ohio State got the message. He's got All-America fullback Bob Ferguson primed.

Michigan over UCLA. Michigan's first team rates with any in the Big Ten. Alabama over Tulane. You can't win if you can't score—and that Alabama defense is rugged. Syracuse over West Virginia. Syracuse has football players. West Virginia only has dreams of yesterday's greatness.

Elsewhere: Baylor over Pittsburgh; Penn State over Miami; Texas over Texas Tech; Duke over Virginia; Georgia Tech over Rice; Washington over Illinois; Kansas over Wyoming.

Friday night: Detroit over Xavier, Richmond over Virginia Military, Southern California over Southern Methodist.

SATURDAY

EAST: Army over Boston University, Columbia over Brown, Cornell over Colgate, Dartmouth over New Hampshire, Harvard over Lehigh, Holy Cross over Villanova, Navy over William & Mary, Penn over Lafayette, Rutgers over Princeton, Yale over Connecticut.

SOUTH: The Citadel over Davidson, Clemson over Maryland, Florida over Florida State, Georgia Washington over Furman, Georgia over Vanderbilt, Louisiana State over North Carolina, Tennessee over Auburn, South Carolina over Wake Forest.

MIDWEST: Colorado over Oklahoma State, Minnesota over Missouri, Nebraska over Arizona, Northwestern over Boston College, Wichita over Cincinnati.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bolger of 3100 Hill Avenue, he was born in McKinney, but has never attended school in any city other than Snyder. The elder Bolger is Bolger Funeral Home director here.

Malcolm has one brother, Perry who is 23.

Following graduation next year, he has his sights set on the University of Texas, where he plans to pursue the study of English as his major subject.

NEW CHRYSLER NEWPORT—This 1962 Newport being inspected by Marsene Holt and T. W. Pollard at Pollard Motor Co., 2101 Twenty-fifth Street, is one of the new Chrysler models which will go on display tomorrow. C. E. Briggs, vice president of Chrysler Corp. and general manager of Chrysler-Plymouth Division, said the most important change in the Chrysler line-up is the expansion of the 300 line of high performance cars, which now become available in a lower price range than previous 300 cars.

West Virginia will have a balanced football schedule in 1962, playing games at home and away on alternate Saturdays.

HERE ARE THE RULES OF THE CONTEST

In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played in the country this week-end. Get an entry blank from one of the merchants who are helping sponsor this contest and whose message is on this page. Fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only — opposite the name of the firm on the entry blank. Then send your complete blank to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, THE SNYDER DAILY NEWS. Entries must be in the hands of the editor by 12 o'clock noon, Friday. Games ending in a tie score must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.

If there is a tie for first place the winners will divide the cash money of $12.50 and no second prize will be given. If there is a first place winner and a tie for second place, the second prize winners will divide the money for the place. If more than two persons tie for second place, no second prize money will be awarded and the cash will be added to next week's prize. Tie for perfect score will split $25.00. There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted from any one person. More than one will disqualify all of the person's entries. Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing on the choice of the winner. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number — and watch for the story on next Wednesday's front page for the winners. Dodges For '62 Show Tomorrow

New Dodge automobiles for 1962, including a new addition to its compact Lancer line, a redesigned Dart and a brand new high-performance, high-style Polara '500' in the luxury sports car market, will go on display tomorrow.

The new Dodges will be shown in Snyder at Wellborn Motor Co., located on the Big Spring Highway near the Cogdell Memorial Hospital, during the showing tomorrow.

"Coffee and doughnuts will be served throughout the day at Wellborn Motor Co. during the showing tomorrow."

The new addition to the Lancer line is a prestige sports model called the "Gran Turismo."

The GT, a two-door hardtop, has distinctive exterior styling and a luxurious, all-vinyl interior which features bucket seats.

"We are introducing the Gran Turismo to meet the growing demand for compact cars with luxury styling," said Dodge General Manager Byron J. Nichols.

The GT represents an effective blending of both economy and distinctiveness.

Besides the jaunty new GT, the Lancer line for 1962 includes two-door and four-door sedans and a four-door station wagon in both the low-price "170" series and the deluxe "700" series.

The Lancer, introduced last fall, begins its second year with styling changes and a wide variety of basic engineering advances.

Weight has been reduced and gear ratios modified to give the Dodge compact improved performance and greater economy.

Dodge engineers have used new materials and new designs to reduce maintenance costs and add years to the Lancer's life.

The Lancer for 1962 was designed and engineered to provide greater quality, greater ease of servicing and maintenance, greater reliability and smoother, quieter operation," Nichols said.

The popular-priced Dart features a new, classical, functional styling and an impressive series of engineering advances.

"There is no useless weight in this car," Nichols said. "All of it has been engineered out by taking advantage of new materials and new design techniques."

As a result, the 1962 Dart is slightly shorter and lighter than the 1961 models, but both headroom and legroom dimensions have been increased.

The new design also provides significant increases in performance, economy and maneuverability.

In Darts with the standard V-8 engine and automatic transmission, for example, acceleration from 0 to 60 miles an hour has been improved approximately 7 per cent and gasoline economy by about the same percentage.

With the six-cylinder engine with manual transmission, 0-60 acceleration has been increased about 11 per cent.

Six Counties Due Emergency Feed

AUSTIN (AP) — Six coastal Texas counties have been designated to receive livestock feed from the federal government under the Disaster Feed Program, the governor's office has announced.

The counties receiving assistance are Brazoria, Calhoun, Chambers, Galveston, Jackson and Matagorda, all damaged by Hurricane Carla.

Until recently El Salvador was a one-crop land, depending on coffee as its "golden grain." But other money crops, especially cotton, have been developed.

It's a 'Beau' . . . the new 1962 Ford. We have already had a good look at the new models and we can hardly wait to show them to you. Be sure to come out when we have our showing of the new Fords, Falcons and Mercurys.

GRADUATES — Sgt. Kenneth F. Hunter, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunter of Snyder, graduated recently from the Seventh U. S. Army Non-Commissioned Officer Academy in Bad Tölz, Germany. A squad leader in the 13th Ordnance Battalion's Headquarters Detachment in Kirchheim-Boland, Hunter entered the Army in 1957 and arrived overseas on this tour of duty in February, 1958. He attended Snyder High School.

JFK To Push For Four Big Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy apparently is going to stake his political standing on four explosive issues in the next session of the Congress.

The prospects of passing a general school aid bill at the next session are regarded as less than even. The issue of aid to parochial schools is one that many members would like to avoid in an election year.

Administration hopes for action on medical care for the elderly are much better. If the House clears a measure financing this program through Social Security taxes, the Senate is almost certain to go along.

The creation of a department of urban affairs involves the matter of Kennedy's obvious intention to name Robert C. Weaver, housing administrator and a Negro, to the Cabinet post if it is set up.

The reciprocal trade agreements extension cuts across political lines because of the economic threat of imports to industries in all sections of the country. The continuance of the program may well provide the biggest controversy of the next session.

Fire Touches Off Blasts On Tanker

By NOEL M. YANCEY

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C. (AP) — Fire possibly starting from a fisherman's dropped lantern, raced across oil-capped water and set off a series of explosions aboard a Navy tanker discharging aviation fuel Tuesday night.

The explosions and flames killed at least one person, injured 21 and for many hours threatened to touch off seven storage tanks containing more than 10,000,000 gallons of aviation fuel.

Crewmen of the Navy tanker Potomac leaped into the burning water or scrambled frantically down the gangway.

The Potomac's paymaster, P. C. Newton, said he was certain that some of the 18 men aboard were trapped on the vessel.

It was a tremendous explosion, like dynamite going off, or an atomic bomb," said Wade Stanley, 51, of Four Oaks, N. C., who was fishing about 800 yards from the tanker with two companions.

Ed Early, a circulation representative of the Winston-Salem Journal said witnesses told him that a fisherman dropped a lantern from the bridge spanning the Newport River between Morehead City and Beaufort. The witnesses said the lantern sent fire speeding across the water to the ship, which was discharging aviation fuel to be used at the Cherry Point Marine Air Station, 20 miles away, and Seymour Johnson Air Force Base at Goldsboro.

State Ports Manager Walter Friederichs could not verify the report of the dropped lantern but said it appeared that the fire did begin near the bridge.

An unidentified commercial fisherman piloted his craft through a wall of flaming gasoline to rescue seven crewmen who had leaped from the Potomac.

Long after the burning tanker had settled into the water, apparently broken in half, the flames threatened the storage tanks on Radio Island.

Mayor George Dill identified the dead man as Clyde V. Leonard of Norfolk, Va.

Nixon To Reveal His Plans Tonight

By MORRIS LANDSBERG

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Richard M. Nixon steps before a televised news conference tonight to answer the big question — will he run for governor of California next year?

Even his closest advisors professed not to know in advance whether it would be yes or no. At least they weren't talking.

Everything seemed to point toward a campaign by the 1960 Republican presidential nominee to dump Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

There was the careful staging of the announcement, the steady buildup of a "draft Nixon" clamor within the state GOP, little hints here and there.

But, just as easily, puzzled guessers could make out a sound case for a decision by Nixon, 48, not to chance his political future with state voters who are better than 3:2 Democratic.

Republicans themselves are divided on Nixon's course. Some have told him that he needs the governorship to build a platform for another national race in 1964 or 1968.

The governor's term is four years.

Others have argued that Nixon, with his national party stature, doesn't need an office to keep in the public eye. They have warned, too, that he faces a stubborn battle for the state nomination, particularly from former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight.

Four Los Angeles stations will televise the proceedings locally, and ABC will beam the program to other California outlets. All three networks planned to offer excerpts nationally.

Rice's Bill Cox and Baylor's Bobby Ply threw two touchdowns passes each and came out one-two among the passing leaders. Cox completed 6 of 8 attempts for 101 yards.

Bert Tate of Baylor had the best rushing average, 14.6 for four efforts.

TCU's Buddy Iles, runner-up in the conference last year in number of passes caught, and Charles Talbert, a University of Texas sophomore, each snagged three passes to lead that department.

Action Is Withdrawn

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army today withdrew disciplinary action it had taken against two officers in connection with the filming of a Jack Paar television show at the Berlin barrier. It said re-investigation showed the two had done nothing wrong.

Army headquarters here issued a statement released in Europe by Gen. Bruce C. Clarke, U.S. commander there.

A formal admonition against Col. John R. Deane, Jr., of San Francisco, was withdrawn.

Clarke also said he had ordered removed from the files of the case anything referring to Lt. Col. Dallas W. Hoadley of Baltimore.

Deane will be continued in command of the 2nd Battle Group, 60th Infantry, in Berlin.

Hoadley, who was public information officer there, was transferred to Heidelberg after the Paar incident. He will continue his new assignment in the information division at his headquarters in a position I consider to be of equal importance to the assignment he had in Berlin," Clarke said.

Victors Rake In Spoils

DALLAS (AP) — The four victors among Southwest Conference teams last Saturday — Baylor, Rice, Texas Christian and Texas — monopolized the greatest gains and the longest plays.

First-week statistics showed that Baylor ran up the most yards on offense with 442 Texas was close behind with 419 yards.

The Bears also completed the most passing yardage, 150.

Texas' 30 rushing was tops, and Rice averaged 10.6 yards on punt returns.

Two losers, SMU and Arkansas, got into the picture also. SMU had the best punting average of 44.2 yards and Arkansas turned in a 24-yard kickoff return average.

Texas' Jerry Cook and James Saxton emerged as the top ball carriers. Cook carried 13 times for 110 yards for an average of 8.5, while Saxton averaged 83 in 10 carries.

Rice's Bill Cox and Baylor's Bobby Ply threw two touchdowns passes each and came out one-two among the passing leaders. Cox completed 6 of 8 attempts for 101 yards.

Bert Tate of Baylor had the best rushing average, 14.6 for four efforts.

TCU's Buddy Iles, runner-up in the conference last year in number of passes caught, and Charles Talbert, a University of Texas sophomore, each snagged three passes to lead that department.

traffic crashes through the steady expansion of driver education classes in Texas public schools." "Since 1957, when our present statewide traffic safety crusade began," the governor said, "a total of 265,028 students have completed full driver education courses, an increase of 80,091, or 43.3 per cent, over the preceding four-year period."

From me to you A-DAILY VIEW

By Rev. R. Charles Spivey

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment."

How desperately Christians need to understand what this verse says. Our world is full of those who are hungering for righteousness but they do not know where or how to be filled. And the tragic thing is that the Christians have the answer, but because they don't know what it means to love God with all heart, soul and mind, they can not give life giving spiritual food to the hungering world.

What is this kind of love? It is this to be so concerned with God and His Kingdom, that you dream of it at night and work at it in the day-time; that you judge people, things, events, books, conversations, all, by what effect they have on the Kingdom of God. And if need by you would even die for His sake.

Now, if a hungering world could see Christians with that kind of love, they would be fed.

INTRODUCING FOR 1962 THE NEW LEAN BREED OF DODGE

COMPACT DODGE LANCER GT

FULL-SIZE DODGE DART 440

The black car above is the 1962 Dodge Dart 440. First of the Action-Economy cars. A low price, full-size Dodge that will outrun, out-economize most any car around. Accelerates seven percent faster on five percent less gas than a comparable '61 model. Reason? Less dead weight. For instance, its automatic transmission (with V8 engine) has an aluminum case, weighs 60 pounds less than last year's. The '62 Dart 440 is more comfortable. Has chair-high seats, a fold-down center armrest in front for bucket seat comfort.

The white car above is the Lancer GT, America's first Sports Compact. It carries five. Corners flat. Handles neat. Really goes. Bucket seats, all-vinyl interior, full carpeting are standard.

Full-size or compact, every 1962 Dodge is rust-proof. Has a smooth Torsion-Aire Ride. Goes 32,000 miles between grease jobs. As always, the name Dodge is your assurance of complete dependability.
