Great Britain Launches First Pressure Against Italians

Broadcast By Baron Aloisi Is Choked Off

Italian Claims He Wished To Explain Mussolini's Case To America; United Kingdom Refuses Relay

Warning Is Given

Spokesman Declares That If Nations Try Naval Blockade To Back Up Sanctions It Is Sure To Mean War

BY WADE WERNER
Associated Press Foreign Staff

GENEVA, Oct. 11. (Friday)—Great Britain, supported by the verdict of half a hundred nations in placing the war guilt in Italo-Ethiopian hostilities against Italy, began applying sanctions against Mussolini's government today, commencing on the radio front.

The British government acted swiftly after an historic assembly meeting, to choke off a broadcast to the United States by Baron Pompeo Aloisi, Il Duce's chief representative at Geneva.

Relay Is Refused

The United Kingdom postoffice, at the last minute, refused to relay his words from Geneva via an English station to the United States.

In his radio speech, Aloisi asserted he wished merely to explain Italy's case in the Ethiopian situation, and desired to give the American people a realistic conception of Premier Mussolini's East African campaign.

Preparations for the enforcement of sanctions were launched immediately after the League meeting when 50 nations, with a deliberate silence, indicated that the war guilt must be placed squarely on Italy's shoulders.

Hookup Was Arranged

An American radio hookup had been arranged for Aloisi's broadcast, and he was ready to present Italy's case to the American public in the form of a chatty dialogue with Edgar Mowrer, United States newspaperman and author.

They had finished their rehearsal and were on the verge of beginning the broadcast, when a telephone message came from England with the information that the United Kingdom postoffice had refused to handle any broadcast by Aloisi or any other Italian spokesman. The broadcast was abandoned.

Blockade Means War

Shortly after the historic meeting, an Italian spokesman told the Associated Press if the nations try a naval blockade to back up sanctions, "it means war."

Italy, he disclosed, plans to get

Prisoner Admits Slaying Of Girl

MONTICELLO, N. Y., Oct. 10. (AP)—Trooper William Leins, of the New York state police said tonight that Glenn Brasser, of Rochester, captured near here tonight, confessed that he strangled Muriel Hall, Rochester High school girl.

Trooper Leins said Brasser, son of a Rochester dairy operator, admitted strangling the attractive Rochester girl in her Rochester home last night because she had refused to marry him. The girl was found dead on the floor of her home in the exclusive residential section of the city.

"He told us he choked her about ten minutes and then ran out of the house," Trooper Leins said.

"He said he was in the house when she returned from school and they had an argument," the trooper added.

South Plains Temperatures Warm Despite Cold Forecast

South Plains residents Thursday went about their affairs in shirt-sleeves, for the second consecutive day not disturbed by cold weather forecast by official observers.

Influence of Wednesday's shower of hail and rain was felt, however, maximum temperature Thursday being 15 degrees under that for the day before. Minimum of 54 was recorded at the state experiment substation.

NEGRO SENTENCED

NACOGDOCHES, Oct. 10. (AP)—K. C. Forney, negro, was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary today for failure to stop and render aid after the automobile he was driving caused the death of four persons and injury to two others when it crashed into a crowd of church-goers a few weeks ago.

Tax On Chain Stores Voted By Senate; Liquor Up Next

Matador-De Paul Game Will Start At 2 P. M. Saturday; Tech Band To Play For Avalanche-Journal Party

MINOR revisions of plans for conducting a play-by-play report of the Texas Tech-De Paul university football game Saturday afternoon at Soldier field, Chicago, in Lubbock have been announced.

Announcement of the game in front of the Avalanche-Journal, 1211-13 Texas Avenue, will begin at 2 p. m., rather than at 2:30 as had been announced.

Tech's band of 105 members will parade in the downtown business district and will stop at the Avalanche-Journal and play before the game.

The battle in its entirety will come to you over leased wire direct from the playing field. A special amplifying system will be used by this newspaper to insure perfect hearing of all who gather.

The party is free.

If rain should be falling, the party will be given in the gymnasium at Tech.

Plan For Sales Tax Is Defeated By Small Margin

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 10. — The senate tonight passed finally, 17 to 5, a house bill imposing graduated taxes on chain stores and placed the house liquor regulatory bill next in line for action.

Further action by the house in accepting senate amendments was necessary to send the bill to Governor Allred, who urged its passage and ranked it with liquor regulation and salaries for county and district officers in his "must" program.

Exemptions Provided

Senate amendments exempted voluntary chains, oil well supply houses, filling stations, utilities paying gross receipts on merchandise sales, dairy products processing plants, lumber yards and wholesale and retail units of manufacturers handling their own porducts.

Amendments proposed by opponents to levy a three per cent sales tax and a two per cent gross receipts tax were defeated, the former 15 to 13. Other amendments to reduce the annual license fees on stores in larger chains and to exempt those grossing less than $30,000 annually also were killed.

License Fees Imposed

Annual license fees imposed on each unit of chains would be:

One store, $1; two stores, $6; two to five stores, $25; five to 10 stores, $50; 10 to 20 stores, $150; 20 to 35 stores, $350; 35 to 50 stores, $500, and in excess of 50 stores, $750.

An attempt to place voluntary chains under the tax failed, 18 to 9. Opponents charged that exemption and the one applicable to retail units of manufacturers would leave loopholes permitting widespread evasion.

Governor Allred's advocacy of the bill prompted criticism by Senator W. K. Hopkins of Gonzales and Roy Sanderford of Belton.

Proponents, who did not answer charges of the opponents, passed the

Fall Of Aksum Is Announced; Guardian Monks Scurry Out Muttering Maledictions On Fascist Troopers

BY JAMES A. MILLS
(Copyright, 1935, by Associated Press)

ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 10.— Hordes of savage warriors marched out of the mountains and deserts of Ethiopia tonight to throw a vast wall of fighting men about this proud capital.

They marched by tens of thousands, under the command of Emperor Haile Selassie's most trusted generals, as their government announced a new rain of Italian bombs in the south had killed many of their countrymen.

Aksum Has Fallen

The fall of Aksum, ancient capital of the queen of Sheba and storied shrine of the holy ark of the covenant, was announced by the Italian minister, Luigi Vinci-Gigliucci, who got his walking papers from Selassie.

Muttering maledictions on the fascist invaders, Aksum's guardian monks scurried out, bearing many of their sacred relics, these reports said.

It was to mystic Aksum, legend has it, that Menelek, son of Sheba and Solomon, fled from Jerusalem bearing the true ark of the covenant and the ten commandments. There, eerie monolithic obelisks, once sacred altars, dot the valley and line the trail to the sacred mountains.

Other Points Bombed

Nine Italian planes, said a government communique, bombed Gorahei, near Geriogubi, on the southern front, and rained lethal projectiles on the Ethiopian posts of Taffarikatama and Jialmo, killing many. (The latter two towns are not shown on maps.)

(A delayed dispatch from Harar, timed at 9:15 p. m. Wednesday, said the governor of that key city in the southeast had ordered wide breaches cut in the walls to facilitate evacuation, in the belief an Italian drive from the north is imminent.

(The dispatch said 10,000 Hararites, mostly women, already had fled to the hills.

Fierce Drive Expected

(The Ethiopians there believed a fierce Italian drive, employing tanks, airplanes and heavy bombs,

Pecan Growers Ask Federal Loan For Price Protection

BROWNWOOD, Oct. 10. (AP)—Representatives of Texas pecan growers today asked a government loan arrangement for protection of the price on their crop and sought a tariff increase on competitive nuts.

They also suggested that growers form pools for storing half of this year's crop.

They sought a loan of 8 cents a pound and asked that the duty on cashews be hiked.

Quick Justice May Be Given

Man May Be On His Way To A Prison Cell As Result Of Confession That He Tossed Children In Lake

(By The Associated Press)

PONTIAC, Mich., Oct. 10.—Ferrin Rowland, 36-year-old farmer-woodsman, may be en route to prison within the next 24 hours officers said late today, for the confessed slaying of his two small stepdaughters who "just got in my way."

Rowland calmly repeated for officers here his account of taking the girls, Katherine Woodin, 6, and Virginia, 2, to lonely Bloat lake near here the night of Sept. 17, twisting a wire weighted with a plow point around their necks, and "tipping" them into 25 feet of water. The bodies were recovered last night.

Repudiates Statement

Theodore G. Bowler, Clare county prosecutor, said the prisoner had repudiated his assertion to officers who arrested him in St. Louis yesterday that his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Rowland, did not know the children were dead, but believed they had been given to a family in Flint, Mich., for adoption.

"She knew they were in the lake, but thought they drowned accidentally," Bowler said Rowland told him on the way from St. Louis where Rowland was traced through letters written to relatives in Michigan.

Rowland has insisted that the only motive was that the little girls hampered his plans to spend much of his time hunting and fishing with his wife.

Plenty Of Excitement From Lightning; Fire Is Put Out

MOBERLY, Mo., Oct. 10. (AP)—That bolt of lightning which struck Fred Peake's home started a fire—and a few other things.

A piece of plaster, falling from the wall, caused a cut on Peake's head. Neighbors tired to telephone a fire alarm but the bolt had cut down their lines. Finally Fireman Joe Parrish was located. He sped away in his motor car—and hit a train, emerging with a piece of steering wheel in each hand and some bruises.

Yes, they got the fire out.

Drive To Halt Strike Starts

Heavily Armed Guards Sent To Guard Railroad Bridges In Milkshed Area; Tension In Section Mounting

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—The government launched a new drive to halt milk strike vandalism today by assigning deputy U. S. marshals to guard bridges in the danger sectors.

Marshal William McConnell dispatched heavily armed forces to protect 25 Chicago and Northwestern railroad bridges in the metropolitan milkshed. Two were set afire and tracks were dynamited last week in what Federal Judge John P. Barnes termed a "rebellion."

FIGHTING RENEWED

CHICAGO, Oct. 10. (AP)—Violence flared anew tonight on the milk war front at Harvard, Ill., potential powder keg of a producers' strike, despite the presence of a score of officers.

One member of the non-striking Pure Milk association was beaten and another struck by a rock as pickets and farmers determined to market their product concentrated their forces for a showdown at the Bowman dairy plant.

Tension Growing

Violence was checked in a great degree but tension grew in a day that witnessed these developments:

Gov. Henry Horner threatened to declare martial law if necessary to keep the roads clear.

Charges were hurled that outside radical farm groups were attempting to gain a foothold in the Chicago market—the richest in the midwest.

Peace Moves Started

Independent peace moves were begun after the breakdown of arbitration efforts by Gov. Horner and GAINESVILLE, Oct. 10. (AP) — Larry J. Ducote of Louisiana and Glenn Davis of Ardmore, Okla., were assessed penitentiary sentences totaling 19 years each today after they pleaded guilty to charges of robbery with firearms, kidnaping for extortion, and theft of more than $50.

Intimation Of Agreement On Rates Offered

Resolution To Continue Work On Plans And Specifications For Municipal Gas System Adopted Thursday

Schedule Proposed

Commissioners Declare That Any Proposition For Compromise Must Come From Officials Of Gas Company

CALLING a special election for Thursday, Nov. 7, City commissioners yesterday afternoon accepted the resignation of George E. Benson, finance member of the group, and adopted several significant resolutions. Intimation was given during the meeting by a local citizen that he would approach the West Texas Gas company on a compromise rate.

Resolutions to continue work on plans and specifications for a municipal gas system, to approve tax rolls for 1935, and to change the city's PWA application for a loan and grant for municipal light plant improvements to a grant application only were passed.

Voluntary Intermediary

Foreshadowing what may come before the group, a compromise rate to be struck with the gas company, a discussion was held with commissioners by George W. Pickle, apparently a voluntary intermediary between the commission and the gas company.

Pickle sought from the commissioners a basis for opening negotiations with the gas company and proposed a preliminary rate schedule, which he said had not been presented to the gas company.

The rate was: minimum of 2,000 cubic feet, $1, with each additional 1,000 feet, 40 cents to domestic users; an industrial rate beginning at 10 cents per 1,000 feet and decreasing to 6 cents with increased amounts; and a commercial rate between the domestic and industrial figures.

Up To Gas Company

Commissioners refused to go on record on any statement, agreeing that any proposition for a compromise must come from the gas company, and that it was up to them, not the commission, to start the action.

The mayor had been requested to "make some statement to give authority when a proposed rate was presented to the gas company."

Motion to accept the resignation of Benson, tendered in a letter last Friday to Mayor Ross Edwards, was

Greek Monarchy To Be Restored

ATHENS, Oct. 10. (AP)—Greece kicked her 11-year-old republic into royalist coup d'etat, capped by a royalist coup d'etat, capped by a rousing vote of the national assembly restoring the monarchy.

Amid scenes of wild rejoicing in the national assembly building—once the royal palace—the nation's lawmakers decreed the return of dapper, monocled King George II from exile in England.

Farmer Of Near Idalou Is Claimed By Death Thursday

Several months' suffering of a mastoid condition was terminated in death at 3:30 p. m. Thursday of C. M. Clark, 54, farmer who lived three miles north of Idalou. He had lived there seven years.

Funeral services will be held today or Saturday from Church of Christ at Idalou, with burial there. Definite time for rites was pending communication with relatives at San Antonio, said Sanders Funeral home, Lubbock.

Survivors are: The widow, two sons, Ray and Walter, the mother, Mrs. Emma Clark, and a sister, Mrs. R. L. Kelly, all of Idalou, and eight brothers.

Man Declares He Offered To Gain Liberty

Father Of Fugitive Claims He Wanted To Talk To His Son And Tell Him What A Fool Thing He Was Doing

(By The Associated Press)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 10. — Thomas H. Robinson, sr., father of the fugitive hunted as the kidnaper of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, testified in his own defense today that he offered to go from Nashville to Indianapolis to liberate Mrs. Stoll without payment of ransom.

Both Robinson and Mrs. Frances Robinson, wife of the fugitive, testified in federal court today that they were not connected in any way with the plot that led to Mrs. Stoll's abduction by Thomas H. Robinson, jr., and her $50,000 ransoming.

Offered Services

"I just wanted to go and talk with my son and tell him what a crazy fool thing he was doing," Robinson, sr., testified. "I offered my services in any manner the government agents saw fit, but they would make no suggestions whatever. I didn't know what to do."

The first we knew of the abduction of Mrs. Stoll, Robinson testified, was when government agents told him that she had been taken from her suburban Louisville home by his son, and that he had been named as the intermediary in the ransom note. That was on Oct. 11, the day after the kidnaping one year ago today, he asserted.

Mrs. Robinson, collapsing once under the government's cross-questioning, recovered her composure and told the jury her sole purpose was to protect Mrs. Stoll from harm.

Griggs Is Chosen As County Director Of Education Unit

County Superintendent Joseph R. Griggs has been named by W. C. Darnell, Abilene, district supervisor of adult education, as Lubbock county director, he said yesterday.

Lubbock county probably will have 15 to 20 teachers eligible for relief under this program, Mr. Griggs said. The main requirement is that a teacher must actually be on relief, before becoming eligible for the work.

"Teachers must be approved by Miss Parker, at the relief office, before they can be considered," he added.

National Poll On Criticism Being Staged

U. S. Chamber Of Commerce Is Mailing Ballots To 1,500 Member Organizations; Seek Attitude On Report

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Seeking a general "yes" or "no" stand by business on New Deal legislation, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States today mailed ballots to its 1,500 member organizations across the nation.

Its carefully-prepared questionnaire, posting four questions, was based on a sharply critical report by a committee which recently surveyed federal legislative trends.

No Action On Report

Directors neither approved nor disapproved the anti-New Deal report when presented at a recent meeting by John W. O'Leary of Chicago, committee chairman.

A statement by the board accompanying the referendum said that the purpose of the survey "was to have consideration of all the (administration) legislation, rather than concentration upon particular measures, respecting many of which the chamber had been given specific positions."

Contains Full Report

In an effort toward impartiality, the questionnaire not only contains the full committee report, but prints it on alternate pages with what are called "arguments in the negative"

Negro Woman Is Given Three Years In Crosbyton Hearing

CROSBYTON, Oct. 10. (Special)—Three years in the penitentiary was assessed Rosalee Holland, negro woman, tried in 72nd district court here today on a charge of assault with intent to murder Irene Nash, another negro woman in a Ralls theater in August.

Evidence showed the Nash woman had been cut in two places.

The jury was out three and a half hours.

Murder charge against Jim Hart, negro charged with slaying his sweetheart, will be heard Monday. A special venire of 50 men has been summoned.

Other criminal cases will be tried this week.

Prosecutors in the Holland case were Daniel A. Blair, district attorney, Burton S. Burks, assistant district attorney, both of Lubbock, and County Attorney Watson of Crosbyton.

Texas Strike Starts Today

More Than 3,000 Men Vote To Quit Work; Citizens And Interested Officials Will Try To Keep Ports Open

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Oct. 10.—The strike of the International Longshoremen's association is scheduled to become Gulf-wide at 8 o'colck tomorrow morning.

Members of the I. L. A. in Texas and at Lake Charles, La., more than 3,000 in number, have voted to quit work at that hour. I. L. A. members at the east Gulf ports have been on strike since Oct. 1. Union longshoremen at Texas ports say they will not return to work until ship operators contract with the I. L. A. at New Orleans and include Lake Charles in a new labor agreement for this district. Ship operators are willing to meet their wage demands so far as Texas ports are concerned but they have no control over New Orleans and Lake Charles.

Police To Be Alert

Officials and interested citizens of the various port cities were making arrangements today to try to keep the ports open. Policemen were instructed to be on the alert in an effort to prevent a recurrence of the violence of the summer of 1934, when several persons were killed and many injured in dock disturbances in Texas and at Lake Charles.

Indications were that ships entering the ports affected by the strike might be tied up for a few days until operators complete plans for working the vessels with non-union labor.

Tenth Wedding Anniversary Of Bruno Hauptmann Observed In Death House

(By The Associated Press)

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 10.—Bruno Richard Hauptmann and his wife Anna, marked the tenth anniversary of their wedding today in the death house while his lawyers mapped the preliminary strategy for the supreme court fight they will wage in an attempt to save him from the electric chair.

Unless he wins this fight or the court of pardons commutes his sentence to life imprisonment, the latter a question of grave doubt, he will probably go to his death, one of his lawyers, Egbert Rosecrans, said. No application for clemency will be made, Rosecrans said, until all legal moves are exhausted.

The promise of further fight, and the visit of his wife brought back to Hauptmann today some of the confidence he manifested throughout his long trial and his eight months in death row before the court of errors and appeals sustained his conviction in a unanimous decision yesterday.

Coincidental with the visit of Mrs. Hauptmann, the warden of the prison, Col. Mark O. Kimberling, released Hauptmann's autobiography to his attorneys, Rosecrans and C. Lloyd Fisher. They had striven for months to have the manuscript released in order to sell it to help finance Hauptmann's appeal.

Competition Ends When Race Begins; Winners In Dog Show Are Announced

THE competition ended when the race began.

Approximately 55 dogs were shown to more than 500 persons Thursday afternoon at the first annual dog show sponsored by Dupre fourth grade students on the school grounds.

When a race began the dogs wandered off in varied directions, one dog finally trotting leisurely to the goal.

Ribbon prizes were given. Dr. F. G. Harbaugh was judge.

A four and one-half hour old dog owned by Jack Shell was given a prize for being the smallest dog. A dog owned by William Pollard was the largest.

The show was planned entirely by students as part of an activity project, which included reading about dogs and drawing pictures of dogs.

Part of the $47.67 taken in perhaps will be used to build a kennel at the school and to purchase a registered dog, said Mrs. Guy L. Trow, Dupre school principal.

A loud speaker was used in announcing names of dogs.

Much of the show went on after dogs left the platform and children gathered around to exclaim. Several small pups entered by Marjorie May drew

MULTITUDES VS. DOUGLAS

ONE writer at least disagrees with the bourgeoise that Lloyd C Douglas is the inspired-writer of the decade. In other words John Erskine regrets that the reading multitudes are turning to the former minister for spiritual guidance, rather than going back to philosophers and the Bible. Mrs. W. C. Holden told about it at the Bookman unit gathering Wednesday night.

Future generations will size us up by the type of literature that appeals to us, Mr. Erskine believes. The good omen about the popularity of "The Green Light," current best seller written by Douglas lies in the evidence that we are turning to spiritual quests, Mr. Erskine told a class in Columbia university last summer.

AN EXPENSIVE LESSON

REMEMBERING past accounts of John Roosevelt's inclination to jam the accelerator to the floor board when he gets on a public highway, it's hard to accept his version of 15 to 20 miles an hour just before his crash out from Boston Wednesday night. We are more inclined to believe that he was riding hell-to-breakfast and unable to stop when he saw the train.

Whatever the speed, his quick thinking saved his life and that of his brother, James, and perhaps the near tragedy will influence him to more cautious driving in the future.

TEXANS AND GUNS

EASTERNERS still think we Texans are barbarians and fast riders and quick on the trigger. Witness one certain Roosevelt, son of the late "T. R.," who W. G. McMillan met when he was on a hunting trip in Alaska in August. Mr. Roosevelt wanted to know if every one in Texas could shoot guns after Bill McMillan had put on an exhibition with a .22 rifle.

We'd like for Mr. Roosevelt to know what Mr. McMillan was too reticent to admit and that is that few Texans or marksmen from elsewhere can shoot with more accuracy than the local man.

Meetings Of Three P-TA Units In City Are Of Interest

B And PW Has Business Meet

Mrs. Floe Swenson Presides; Miss Ruth Ford Is Named Vice-President; Miss Rozzell Is New Parliamentarian

Mrs. Floe Swenson presided for a business meeting of the Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club Wednesday evening at Hilton hotel.

Miss Ruth Ford was elected vice-president to succeed Miss Irma Claye and Miss Lola Mae Rozzell was appointed parliamentarian to succeed Miss Hazel Bratley.

Three new members were received into the club. They were Miss Fleta Baker, Miss Sylvia Robb of Tahoka and Mrs. Albert Walker.

Four Objectives

Mrs. Swenson outlined the objectives of the organization for the coming year, which are to coincide with those for the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs. They are: Security for employed women and greater rewards for their labor; provisions for living quarters at retirement age; an economic order that will enable women to invest their earnings in reasonable surety and freedom from discrimination.

The club voted to endorse the drivers' license bill.

Attending were Misses Ford, Ruth Craig, Lavenia Williams, Marie Gooch, Myrtle Porter, Mesdames H A. Welmaker, J. J. Smelser, R. E. Wylie, W. S. Posey, A. C. Sanders, Lottie B. Hilton, Grace Moore, Ray Jackson and Bonnie Dillehay.

Twelve Women At Needlecraft Club

Mrs. Cliff Elliott was hostess to Needlecraft club members at her home, 818 Avenue L, Thursday afternoon. After a short business session, a refreshment plate was served. Sewing was enjoyed.

Guests of the club were Mesdames Lilla Ford and Chester Wright of Amarillo. Others attending were Mesdames Scott Hollingsworth, Alfred Parrack, Arthur Wright, H. H. Hughes, Lloyd Bentley, Maurice Scott, Tom Cox, Everett Price, Bob Cooper and T. S. Cranford.

Mrs. Cooper will entertain the club October 24 at 3 p. m. in her home, 714 Avenue M.

Mrs. Evans To Be Delegate To Meet

At a state meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in San Antonio late this month, Mrs A. W. Evans, incoming president of the Lubbock chapter, will be a delegate. This was decided when the chapter met at Hotel Lubbock Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. John LeMond was named alternate.

Mrs. Evans discussed the life of Sam Houston and Mrs. Edgar T. Neal proposed a toast to Texas Rangers.

Mrs. J. R. B. Cooper, historian, was program chairman.

Methodist Philathea Class Entertained In Giles Home

The First Methodist Philathea class was entertained by Mesdames Ann Groth and Christine Fanning and Miss Carrie Little in the home of Mrs. J. P. Giles, 2517 Twentieth street, Wednesday eevning.

Members brought clothing to be sent to their "orphan" at the Methodist orphanage near Waco. Games were played and Beverly Ann Giles and Beverly June Fanning sang and gave tap dances.

Guests were Misses Flora McGee, Ruth McCormick, Ouida Buzbee, Verna Crump, Dimple Watson and Ruby Hill, Mesdames Winnie Wheat, Alvin Brown, T. A. Rogers, Tom Turner, Floe Swenson and Ethel Terrell.

Sub-Deb Mexican Supper To Be Given By New Members

New members of the Sub-Deb club will entertain with a Mexican supper, honoring other members, at the Glorieta this evening. It was reported erroneously in Thursday papers that the supper would be that night.

Round-Up Club Will Begin Dance Season This Evening

The Round-Up club will have a first-of-the-season dance at the Auditorium this evening, beginning at 9 o'clock. Ross Edwards' orchestra will play.

Study Courses Are Organized

Senior High Mothers Club Is To Study Vocational Topic; Central Ward And Sanders To Have Classes

Three parent-teacher associations had meetings Thursday afternoon to organize study programs and projects for the year.

The Senior High Mothers club met with the high school assembly for a program on fire prevention and songs led by W. C. Watts. Mrs. E. W. Trotter played piano accompaniments.

Afterward, a regular meeting was conducted in the auditorium. Dan Powers, dean of boys, and Mrs. Ethel Terrell, dean of girls, at the school discussed their work.

To Study Vocations

The club decided to have "Vocational Guidance" as the main study topic for the year. The project of the year, buying and installing a radio system and loud speaker for the school, will be furthered with a tag sale, October 26, the day of the Pampa-Lubbock football game. Plays, teas and other entertainments are being planned to raise funds for the project, Mrs. W. S. McDonald, committee member has announced.

Forty-six mothers and several teachers attended.

Central Ward

The Central Ward P.-T. A. met at the Church of the Nazarene. The Rev. R. M. Hocker, pastor of that church, gave the devotional and Mrs. Tom Carter's room presented a fire prevention play.

Miss Sannie Callan, director of home and family relations, explained her classes and a committee was appointed to decide upon a study course which the group will have with her.

Mrs. Vera Rankin's room was presented with a picture for having the most mothers present. Forty-four were present.

Cigarettes give a lot of pleasure to a lot of people.

More cigarettes are smoked today because more people know about them—they are better advertised.
But the main reason for the increase is that they are made better—made of better tobaccos; then again the tobaccos are blended—a blend of Domestic and Turkish tobaccos.
Chesterfield is made of mild, ripe tobaccos. Everything that science knows about is used in making it a milder and better-tasting cigarette.

Two Texas Banks Included In List Which Have Completed Liquidation Of Receiverships In September

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10. (AP)—Two Texas banks were included today in the list of 18 which Comptroller of the Currency J. F. T. O'Connor said had completed liquidation of their receiverships during September.

One was the Provident National bank of Waco and the other was the First National bank of Mathis.

The Waco bank had been in receivership since March 26, 1927, the liabilities of the institution having been assumed by another bank. A receiver was appointed to collect an assessment against stockholders to cover a deficiency in assets sold. Disbursements during the receivership including offsets allowed, O'Connor said, totaled $281,643, or 93.333 per cent of the total liabilities.

The Mathis bank went into receivership Oct. 15, 1931, the comptroller said. Disbursements, including offsets allowed, to depositors and other creditors totaled $67,777, or 84.35 per cent of total liabilities. Unsecured depositors received dividends amounting to 84.18 per cent of their claims.

O'Connor reported that the national average return to depositors in banks where receiverships were finally closed was about 72 per cent. Unsecured depositors over the country received dividends of about 61 per cent of their claims.

Captain Of Ship Claims That Italian Soldiers Are Dying Like Flies Of A Tropical Disease In Africa

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 10. (AP)—Italian soldiers are dying "like flies" of tropical disease in Africa, Captain John Smith, master of the motorship Cingalese Prince, said today upon his arrival from the far east.

The disease has blinded hundreds of others, he added, and shiploads of fever victims have been sent back to Italy incapacitated.

Captain Smith said he saw the returning fever casualties as he came through the Mediterranean.

From doctors at Port Said and Massaua, point of embarkation for the Roman legions, he said he learned that men in full health in the morning died of the fever that afternoon.

Department Of Agriculture Sets Wheat Production At 598,935,000 Bushels

Slight Boost Now Expected

Indicated Corn Production Is 2,213,319,000 Bushels For Year; Figures On All Other Crops Are Given

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10. (AP)—The department of agriculture announced today its preliminary estimate of this year's wheat crop as 598,935,000 bushels and indicated corn production at 2,213,319,000 bushels.

Wheat production was indicated at 595,000,000 bushels a month ago. Last year's production was 497,000,000 and the 1928-32 average production, 861,000,000.

Is Under Average

Corn production was indicated as 2,184,000,000 bushels a month ago. Production last year was 1,377,000,000 and the 1928-32 average 2,562,000,000.

Total wheat production this year includes 432,000,000 bushels of winter wheat, compared with 406,000,000 last year and 618,000,000, the five year average.

All spring wheat production is placed at 167,226,000 bushels, compared with 163,000,000 a month ago, 91,400,000 last year and 242,000,000, the five-year average.

Durum wheat production is 27,965,000 bushels compared with 27,800,000 a month ago, 7,100,000 last year and 54,000,000, the 5 year average.

Other Figures Given

All other spring wheat production is 139,261,000 bushels, compared with 135,000,000 a month ago 84,300,000 last year and 188,000,000, the 5-year average.

Production of oats is placed at 1,183,870,000 bushels, compared with 1,218,000,000, the 5-year average.

Total production of other crops, (in bushels except where otherwise noted) with production indicated a month ago and last year's production, follow:

Barley, 290,000; 283,000,000 and 118,000,000.

Rye 52,200,000; 52,200,000 and 16,000,000.

Sweet potatoes 69,000,000; 68,700,000 and 67,400,000.

The condition Oct. 1 and indicated production of principal crops in important producing states include:

Corn:

Oklahoma, condition 24 per cent of a normal, and indicated production 29,172,000; Texas 81 and 111,326,000.

Oats: (acre yield and production) Oklahoma 26.0 and 38,870,000; Texas, 23.0 and 40,181,000.

TEXAN IS NAMED

SELFRIDGE FIELD, Mich. Oct. 10 (AP)—Ten Selfridge field pilots were named today to compete in the army air corps' 11th annual renewal of the Mitchell trophy race here Oct. 19.

Alternates included Capt. Walter E. Todd, Gonzales, Texas.

Pastor Faces Theft Charge

Mrs. Annabel Lee Gatlin Is Indicted In Three Cases Of Cattle Theft; Husband Also Is Named

MENARD, Oct. 10 (AP)—Mrs. Annabel Lee Gatlin, militant evangelist and pastor of Christian churches in Menard and Rochelle, was under indictment today on three cases of livestock theft.

Her husband, Cecil Gatlin, likewise was indicted for cattle thievery.

Mrs. Gatlin, free under bond, was accused of stealing cattle from W. T. Noelke, John Kennedy and Dan McClain. She explained her husband had bought some stock that had been stolen and unaware of that fact, had sold it at the Fort Worth livestock yards.

Some of the animals were recovered at the Gatlin's San Saba county ranch.

The evangelist came here three years ago to hold a revival at the First Christian church. She baptised more than 60 persons in a three weeks revival and later conducted revivals in several West Texas towns.

Mrs. Gatlin claims to have converted more than 2,000 persons in the three years of her ministry.

She was divorced from her husband after coming here but they later were remarried at Melvin.

Illness has prevented her from conducting services here during the church said.

Gatlin and D. Brown, indicted as an accomplice, are still in jail.

MAN IS JAILED

FAIRFIELD, Me., Oct. 10. (AP)—Sheriff Martin J. Gallant said today a man who gave his name as David Roy, 43, a Fairfield carpenter, had been lodged in the Somerset county jail in Skowhegan in connection with the assault-slaying of 12-year-old Annie K. Knights.

The girl's body was found yesterday in a wood patch.

President Goes Ashore At Island To Have Dinner With Officers Of Ships

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WITH PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AT COCOS ISLAND, Oct. 10. (AP)—President Roosevelt rode through pounding surf off the narrow, sun drenched beach of Cocos island today for a shore dinner with the officers of the cruisers Houston and Portland.

The tiny, green clad island, relief in adventure drew the chief executive for the first landing of his trip on the Pacific.

Mr. Roosevelt yesterday caught a 110-pound sailfish nine feet three inches long after a 40-minute struggle with a light rod.

Watches Search

From his launch he watched a trawler under the command of a former British naval officer which is searching for sunken treasure.

Dressed in old clothes and wearing a khaki shirt the president paid little attention to the tropical showers as he fished from the open end of the launch.

Around him birds swooped at his bait and an occasional shark and porpoises edged up to the presidential boat.

More Rural Schools Added To List Of Those Closed

More rural schools have been added to the list of those closed for cotton picking, said County School Superintendent Joseph R. Griggs.

Union, New Hope, Estacado, and Becton have closed. Posey, Idalou and Liberty previously had shut down.

Animal heads are displayed atop a staff by street butchers of Taormina, Sicily, to advertise their wares.

Junior Class Sponsors Are Chosen At Thursday Meeting

Lubbock High school junior class sponsors were selected and president and secretary nominations made by a committee which met Thursday in the office of R. W. Matthews, principal.

Sponsors will be Mrs. Waldo Trotter, Miss Glenys Honey, C. H. Willingham, E. M. Barnett, E. J. Lowrey and Miss Velma McCandless. Each sponsor will be in charge of a group of between 25 and 50 junior students.

Jowil Triplitt and Othie Upton were nominated for president; Cathryn Dykes and Marguerite Broiles, secretary. Nominations were made by a committee elected in balloting at the school this week. Committee members automatically become vice-presidents.

They are Fern Newton, Lenora Shaeffer, James Long, Orville Stewart, Ina Bacon and Othie Upton.

Election of president and secretary will be conducted Tuesday morning at 8:50 o'clock in the auditorium by open ballot.

Lubbock Lady's Health A "Wreck" Until The Gly-Cas

Stomach Distress, Nervousness and Kidney Trouble Had Caused Her Constant Suffering—Now Enjoying Good Health Again; Husband Received Great Benefit Also

There have been many medicines introduced here in Lubbock in past years but never before has any medicine received such widespread and sincere praise that absolutely refused to die-out—but continues to grow with each day—as is that being accorded this new Gly-Cas at the Mark Halsey Drug Co., 1219 Broadway;

MRS. G. W. MAY

Just recently, Mrs. G. W. May, 1611 18th street, Lubbock, well known and highly respected local lady, made the following statement lauding the action of this new medical discovery in restoring her to good and glorious health that her many friends and acquaintances might learn of Gly-Cas and profit from its use as she has;

"After every meal I ate I was sure to suffer severely," said Mrs. May, "Regardless of my diet I would vomit my food almost as soon as I would leave the table. It seemed I could not keep anything on my stomach at all. I was so nervous I could hardly stand it at times and often I could not quiet my nerves to sleep at night. My kidneys were out of order too and what little rest or sleep I could get was disturbed by night risings. My bowels were irregular too, dizziness was frequent and headaches were continually bothering me. In spite of all I tried I could not find anything to help me until I began Gly-Cas—it was the one real medicine of them all."

"Gly-Cas went to the very source of my health troubles," continued Mrs. May, "and today I am feeling the best I have in sometime. I am enjoying the blessing of good health again, my stomach, kidneys and bowels have been regulated until I can eat and sleep good, my nerves are quieted and those dreadful headaches are at an end. It is wonderful that suffering people can get a medicine to give such outstanding results. My husband was actually confined to bed with rheumatism when he began Gly-Cas and it freed him of all that cripling suffering until he is now up and around and he too is enjoying good health again. We join in lauding this new Gly-Cas—it gave us the results we had been searching for."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Co., 1219 Broadway, and by all leading druggists in surrounding towns.

Gly-Cas $1.00 per box—6 boxes $5.00. Add 2c postage for each box ordered. Send money orders made payable Mark Halsey Drug Store. Don't send cash. Checks not accepted—no C. O. D. mail orders.—Adv.

Fate Of New Wheat Contracts Believed Resting In Hands Of Gods Of War

Developments Are Watched

United States Already Importing Wheat And Planters Of Vast Grain Belt Likely To Refuse New Program

TOPEKA, Kas., Oct. 10. (AP)—Whether new wheat control contracts will be signed by Kansas farmers under the AAA apparently rested largely today in the hands of the war gods hovering over the old world.

The Italo-Ethiopian war and the tense European situation were being watched as closely by the farmers as domestic political matters.

Wheat Imported

The fact the United States already is importing wheat due to reduced domestic supply led to speculation whether the planters of the vast grain belt would consent to follow a new curtailment program.

An increased demand on world wheat sources due to the African war and the possibility of other European nations becoming involved drew close attention.

The favorable price, with spot and future quotations in most cases well above $1 a bushel, and the unusually favorable weather and moisture outlook, also were regarded as important factors.

Observers Anxious

Political observers were frankly anxious to learn the results of the sign-up program, which got under way this week with the passing out of contracts covering the ensuing four years.

Observers also pointed out a marked decrease in signers could be interpreted as a belief in prospective higher prices as well as a reduction in support of the Roosevelt farm program.

AAA officials predicted fully 95,000 farmers would sign up.

Former Lubbock Resident Is Claimed By Death At Dallas

Funeral services were read at the First Methodist church in Dallas for Rev. D. D. Warlick, 83, former Lubbock resident who died at 8:40 a. m. Monday at Methodist hospital there Dr. W. C. Martin, church pastor, and Rev. Joe Warlick officiated.

A daughter, Mrs. Vincent Carr, her husband and children have returned from Dallas, where they attended rites. They left Lubbock late Sunday, when informed the minister's conditon was critical.

Mr. Warlick formerly lived at 1906 Twenty-seventh street here.

NEWS BRIEFS

Directors of the Lubbock Kiwanis club will meet at noon today in the Hotel Lubbock for a business session, Dr. Allen T. Stewart, president, announced yesterday afternoon. Important matters are to be discussed.

Group 3 corn-hog contracts of Lubbock county have been returned from College Station and are being checked and signed, County Agent C. C. Jobson said yesterday afternoon. The contracts were adjusted by the state allotment board. They are to be returned, probably Saturday night, to Austin.

Two Woodrow community farmers are installing trench silos, County Agent C. C. Jobson said after a visit to that community. H. L. Bradford, who is milking 30 cows, has constructed a 150-ton capacity silo. Frank French, milking 10 cows, Friday was working on his 110-ton silo.

State rural aid applications for Lubbock county schools are being worked over in the county superintendent's office. The applications will be checked to G. D. Holbrook, district deputy state superintendent of schools for approval.

Fifteen-minute talks to boys and to girls of the fourth and fifth grades of Central ward school were made Thursday by Dr. J. B. Jackson, dentist. To boys he impressed value of health and consequent athletic prowess; to girls he said that health and beauty develop together.

Plans for a banquet which will be given during the Texas Technological college decennial celebration, Nov. 9-11, will be made this evening when the banquet committee meets at 7:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Wilbur Pearson, 2313 Fifteenth street.

Steady improvement in condition of C. J. Herbstreit of 1605 Avenue R was apparent late Thursday at Clark and Key clinic, where operation for ruptured appendix was performed Wednesday.

Application for probation of the will of her late husband, Claude A. Burrus, was filed in the county clerk's office Thursday by Mrs. Margaret M. Burrus, said Ed D. Allen. The will, written and signed March 20, 1924, named Mrs. Burrus executrix without bond. A fund of $2,000 was set aside for Maxine Burrus, a daughter, to be paid upon her becoming of age. Remainder of the estate goes to Mrs. Burrus.

E. L. Pitts, Lubbock county judge, will attend a 9 a. m. joint meeting today at Austin of executive and legislative committees of the County Judges and Commissioners association of Texas. He is president of the association. Recent acts passed by the legislature will be discussed.

Dismissal of the suit of J. L. Griffin against Wm. Levine and others, filed recently in district court here, will be made at request of plaintiff's attorneys, Vickers, Campbell & Evans, it was said Thursday. Wm. H. Evans said he had learned that Wm. Levine and others did not own the Levine store at Tahoka, where plaintiff charged he was injured in 1929 when employed there. Suit was for $10,000.

Program for 8 p. m. services Saturday at Salvation Army headquarters here, 1510 Avenue H, was announced Thursday as: Opening song; prayer by R. M. Carter; duet, Melrose and Lavelle Horton; quartet, arranged by Jim Turney; reading, George Gaddy; instrumental music, arranged by Capt. John Churchill; solo, Mrs. Clarence Love; duet, Mrs. M. Allen and her daughter; quartet, arranged by Mrs. L. H. McCullock; duet, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Love; reading, Bessie Bowley; song, Verna Mae and Pearl Whitaker; reading, Homer Highley; quartet, arranged by P. O. Brock; announcements, Captain Churchill; closing song, and benediction by Mrs. B. B. Rhodes. George Gaddy will be in charge.

Chesley Manley, Washington correspondent for the Chicago Tribune, left Amarillo Thursday afternoon by airplane for Chicago after visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Manley, 1623-B Tenth street, and his parents, Mr and Mrs. J. P. Manley at Post since Sunday. He will sail from Seattle, Wash., Wednesday for a two months' stay in the Philippine Islands.

Lubbock Production Credit association directors will hold an all-day meeting at Hilton hotel today, beginning at 10 o'clock. Directors are Sep Smith, chairman, Crosbyton; E. R. Davis, F. L. Winn, Lubbock; Roy Fitzgerald, Plains; Roy Sherman, Seminole. Dr. Virgil P. Lee of Houston will attend.

Work is to be started on a girl's dormitory at Eastern New Mexico Junior college, Portales, N. M., this week, according to word from that city. O. R. Walker, Lubbock architect, is the architect who drew the plans and who is supervising the work. With PWA funds, total cost is estimated at $50,000.

Belief that a middle-aged Lubbock man Tuesday had been saved for a second time from self-destruction was debunked Thursday when a physician who attended the man in a hospital ward at county jail said he "found no indication" of poison in the man's system. No impairment of appetite was noticed. The man had been rushed to a hospital Tuesday after saying he had swallowed a strong antiseptic tablet. Recently he had been jailed after threatening to swallow acid. Petition for lunacy hearing has been filed.

Failure to observe traffic requirements resulted in 3,216 fines being paid in Lubbock since April 15, 1932, C. E. Luce, City recorder, found after a compilation. Until two years ago minimum fine for traffic law violation was $2, and there were numerous speeding fines, ranging from $5 to $50.

Bond of $500 set by J. T. Trigg, justice of the peace Wednesday for Ed D. Martin, charged with assault to murder, was posted Thursday.

Fine of $25 and costs was assessed a Lubbock woman Thursday in trial before J. T. Trigg, justice of the peace. Late Thursday she was held in lieu of payment.

Decision to stage a parade incident to a Texas Technological college decennial Nov. 9-11, subject to final decision of a committee of the alumni and Ex-Students association, was voted Thursday evening by student council of the college. M. G. Pederson, in charge of decennial plans, spoke, asking aid of students in the coming celebration. The meeting, first for the organization this term, will be followed by another at 7 p. m. next Thursday.

Funeral services for Tom Harbert, 61, who died here Wednesday night, will be read at 4 p. m. today at Sanders Funeral home by Rev. Grover Cleveland, who recently conducted revival services at Grace Gospel hall. Burial will be at Memorial Park cemetery.

A. L. Parker of Galveston, vice president of the National Hotel company, expected here several days in connection with awarding of a contract for remodeling and additions to the Lubbock hotel, has arrived. Awarding of the contract had not been announced Thursday.

A New Star Flames

Hollywood's glamorous feminine stars rose to the heights by different methods. Some crashed suddenly . . . Others gradually. Jean Harlow became an overnight sensation through "Hell's Angels." Joan Crawford and Norma Shearer achieved stardom bit by bit. Grace Moore after one failure was made by "One Night of Love." Proper pictures plus natural charm elevated Myrna Loy. Ginger Rogers' ability was not recognized until Fred Astaire came along.

All of which brings us to the personage we think will be the most sensational star of the year . . . . Eleanor Powell who makes her appearance in "Broadway Melody" at the Palace Prevue, Saturday Nite.

We want Lubbock to "discover" her, although the fan magazines and the critics are rapidly beating us to the punch. A protege of Broadway, a Shubert star, in her own right, Miss Powell created such enthusiasm in Hollywood that Metro has already signed her to a long-term contract. In this picture with her are Jack Benny, Robert Taylor and Sid Silvers.

Chatter—

ANN DVORAK is the first Hollywood player in years to become a recognized song-writer.

Two national music publishers are dickering for Miss Dvorak's new song, and one of the major phonograph companies wants first option on a record with Miss Dvorak singing her own composition.

The song is one entitled "I'm Writing A Love-Song For You." It is of the torch ballad type. Miss Dvorak wrote both the words and music.

"Dr. Socrates," at the Palace today and tomorrow, is a story of a medical outcast who put gangdom on the operating table. This story was written by W. R. Burnett and appeared in the Collier magazine. The screen version promises to be as good as the magazine story. Passes in the Palace box-office, good for today and tomorrow; for Elizabeth H. West 2309 10th; Dutch Wiginton 1643-A 13th; W. O. Court Of Civil Appeals Rules That Marble Machines Are Illegal Gambling Devices In Waco Case

WACO, Oct. 10. (AP)—The tenth court of civil appeals ruled today that marble machines are illegal gambling devices.

The opinion was handed down by Justice J. P. Alexander in the case of Sheriff Will Adams vs. W. S. Antonio, on an appeal from an injunction granted by Judge F. H. Kirby of Limestone county, restraining Sheriff Adams and others from interfering with the operation of machines in that county by Antonio.

The appellate court held that it was not only the right but the duty of law enforcement officers to confiscate such machines and to prosecute owners when armed with a proper order from a court of competent jurisdiction.

Warning Is Given

The court found, however, evidence that the appellants "had at least contemplated such action against Antonio without proper order," and warned against this.

Marble machine operators may ask a rehearing and, if this is denied, may appeal to the state supreme court in this case.

The tenth court said that the question of whether marble machines were games of skill or chance was immaterial, but, if it were necessary to rule on this, the court is of the opinion that the element of chance outweighs the element of skill.

War Background Given Kiwanians

Local Kiwanians yesterday were given a background of the present state of war between Italy and Ethiopia by Dr. W. A. Jackson, head of the department of government at Texas Tech, in a talk on the present situation. Fire Prevention week also was observed.

Dr. Allen T. Stewart, president who attended the recent Texas-Oklahoma convention at Sherman, made a brief report. The six Texas clubs were reduced to five, most of the changes being in South and Central Texas. New clubs formed and revival of disbanded clubs will be two of the major projects for the year, he said.

Brief Summary Given

Charles Read, local insurance man, gave a brief summary of Fire Prevention week. "Lubbock's record this year so far is good," he added. "If it remains good for the year, it will be reflected in the future rates." Present maximum credit is 15 per cent; next year it probably will be raised to 20 or 25 per cent.

Dr. J. T. Krueger, program chairman, introduced Dr. Jackson. Using a map of Africa, the speaker showed some of the important economic aspects of the continent and their relation to the seat of war.

The history of Ethiopia, sometimes called Abyssinia, does not extend back of the fourth or fifth century, he explained, except by legend. Mohammedans destroyed the previous history as recorded, in a raid in the third century.

Population Mixed

Population is mixed, about 2,000,000 being classed as Christians; 2,000,000 to 2,500,000 as Mohammedan and the remainder as mixed. "Contrary to belief, the Ethiopians are not of the negroid race," he explained. "There are about 35,000 of the pure negroid race in the country. They do not have a census and estimates place the population at from 5,000,000 to 10,000,000."

Italy invaded the nation in 1896 and was defeated, the army being almost wiped out. Italy favored admission of the nation into the League of Nations, holding it was a sovereign power. Great Britain opposed admission. "Now their positions are reversed," he commented.

Some time last year Ethiopia warned an Italian armed force at a water hole to leave; the commander refused; natives then used force to eject the Italians. This was considered by Italy as an act of war; hence the present trouble.

Right Is Claimed

Ethiopia has 430,000 square miles of territory, with a population of around 6,000,000; Italy, 135,000 square miles and 43,000,000 population. Mussolini claims the "right to expand." Base of operations in Africa is 3,000 miles from Rome.

English, French, German and other nations, are watching developments. The French stand depends upon what Germany does, Dr. Jackson said; Germany is playing a waiting game; the United States has a "hands off" attitude; the League of Nations is expected to take a stand, but whether it will enforce or attempt to do so, is unknown.

Bit Pounding Below 2,668 Feet In Slaughter's Well

Bit of C. C. Slaughter No. 1 oil test in Cochran county was pounding below 2,668 feet, in anhydrite, said latest reports.

The test is located in labor 136, Armstrong county school land. It is south and east of Bledsoe and south and west of Lehman. At present it is the only active oil drilling operation in the county.

Reliable reports indicate a possible drilling campaign, in the near future, as several companies are said to be negotiating with large land holders for drilling contracts.

HAS FRONTIER KEYS

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Two keys, used more than a century ago in locking and unlocking doors to officers' quarters at the frontier post of Fort Gibson, Okla., are owned by W. A. Cummins of Tulsa. The keys, both brass, were given to Cummins by his father, who was stationed at the post in 1849.

5 P.M. is a test of how you FEEL

'How do I feel.... Swell!—why do you ask?'

IT is all so simple, too! That tired, run-down, exhausted feeling quite often is due to lack of a sufficiency of those precious red-blood-cells. Just build up these oxygen-carrying cells and the whole body takes on new life... food is really turned into energy and strength ...you can't help but feel and look better. S.S.S. Tonic restores deficient red-blood-cells... it also improves the appetite and digestion. It has been the nation's standby for over 100 years ... and unless your case is exceptional it should help you, too. © S.S.S. Co.

Right Of PWA To Make Loans To Cities To Be Questioned

Seven Alabama And Texas Municipalities Are Included In Action; Temporary Injunctions Are Sought

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10. (AP)—The right of the Public Works Administration to make loans and grants for municipal power and water projects will be questioned again tomorrow in District of Columbia supreme court suits involving seven Alabama and Texas cities.

The Alabama Power company, the Texas Utilities company and the Gulf States Utilities company will contend the proposed projects would injure existing business and involve illegal acts under the NRA enacted by congress.

Seek Injunctions

They will seek temporary injunctions to restrain Secretary Ickes, PWA administrator, from making loans and grants.

The government, at the same time, will ask that the complaints be dismissed on the ground the plaintiffs have no legal right to bring suit and the PWA is acting well within its authority.

The Alabama Power company seeks to halt loans and grants for plants to these Alabama cities: Guntersville 87,262; Hartselle, $60,000; Russellville, $125,454. The Gulf States suit involves a loan and grant of $200,000 to Huntsville, Texas. The Texas Utilities is opposing these loans and grants: Littlefield, Texas, $126,361, power plant; Post, Texas, $154,000, power plant, and Plainview, Texas, $150,000, water supply and equipment.

Are Closely Related

These cases are closely related to the suit filed by the Oklahoma Utilities company seeking to restrain Ickes from granting a $150,000 loan and grant to Hominy, Okla. John W. Scott, assistant to Attorney General Cummings, said there was sufficient dissimilarity, however, to warrant continuing the litigation in the Alabama and Texas cases.

Attorneys anticipated that the district court of appeals would reach a decision next week in the Hominy case. The Oklahoma company lost its fight in the district supreme court to obtain a temporary injunction against Ickes and appealed to the higher court.

Attorneys anticipated that, no matter what the decision, an appeal will be carried to the United States supreme court.

Others Are Filed

The PWA legal counsel, meanwhile, received notice of suits filed by the Texas Power and Light company against the municipalities of Sulphur Springs, Texas, and Plano, Texas, seeking to restrain them from receiving PWA loans and grants. The counsel said the suits involved in the implication that the PWA had "enticed" the cities away from the power companies now serving them and expressed concern lest "alienation of affections" be charged in an equity case.

PWA officials pointed out they had done nothing more than submit an offer to many communities over the country whereby they could obtain funds more easily than customary and could erect municipal plants which might improve power and water at lower rates than those charged by the private utilities companies.

Road Hearing Is Started Thursday

DALLAS, Oct. 10. (AP)—The Texas highway commission today began a two-day hearing here, explaining at the outset that it could consider lateral road applications only, as funds for other types already have been exhausted.

Approximately 200 representatives of commissioners' courts and chambers of commerce in Northeast and Northwest Texas counties were at the hearing.

Commissioner John Wood explained that the regular federal aid funds already have been pledged. He added that $8,000,000 of state funds also have been pledged, and that the highway commission's treasury is at a lower ebb now than it has ever been.

The United States contains approximately 12,000 secondary schools serving about 750,000 children.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness.

Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS—which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get DOAN'S PILLS.

You can't look, feel or act happy with tired eyes. But you do look, feel and act natural when Dr. Anderson fits you with lenses and frames that are most becoming to you.

Salesman Faces Assault Charge

WACO, Oct. 10 (AP)—Deputy Sheriff T. R. Pierce of Hill county, said today a charge of criminal attack had been filed against G. Rubia, 35-year-old artificial flower salesman, in connection with a brutal attack upon a 70-year-old woman near Abbott last night.

Rubio, sought by officers, could not be found.

A man answering his description went to the aged woman's home while men of the household were working in the field, Pierce said. He asked for money and when the woman refused, attacked her.

She suffered a bruised arm and a dislocated finger in a futile attempt against his advances.

Officers pursued Rubio in the direction of San Marcos and San Antonio.

Minnesota Man Is Crushed To Death In Car Accident

DENTON, Oct. 10. (AP)—Fred Heincke of Appleton, Minn., was crushed to death late yesterday when the automobile he drove collided with a truck on the Fort Worth highway south of Denton.

The 78-year-old victim's companion, William Scheinke of Sisseton, South Dakota, was painfully cut and bruised.

Fred Bush of Denton county driver of the truck, escaped with minor injuries.

Man Wanted In Texas Said To Be On His Way To State

JANESVILLE, Wis., Oct. 10. (AP)—Clifford R. Hamilton, wanted in Texas on charges of armed robbery, kidnaping and jail-breaking, was en route to Houston today in the custody of two deputies to whom he was turned over yesterday by Sheriff James Croake.

The 25-year-old Austin fugitive was arrested at Janesville on a forgery charge and his fingerprint record revealed a long list of jail and prison terms.

Westerners Play Snyder Tonight; Tornado Whirls Over Cowhands, 24 To 6

Ranking Stars Back In Shape For Exhibition

Game Is Second Home Appearance For Locals; Snyder To Bring Formidable Crew Here For Contest

The rollicking Lubbock High Westerners, the enigma team of the District 1 race who ironed out the powerful Abilene Eagles in a 7 to 7 deadlock last week, play Snyder High's eleven on Matador Field tonight, 8 o'clock.

The game will mark the second home appearance of the Lubbock light-brigade. Tonight, with ranking athletes back in shape, the Westerners will whirl their swift, swivel-hipped backfieldmen at the Class B club, who are reviving after a slow start and who may provide spirited opposition.

Piercey Injured

Coach Red Moore, former Hardin-Simmons football star, brings his squad of Tigers to Lubbock early this morning. No information has been received as to Snyder's starting lineup. Weldon Chapman, head coach of the Westerners, announced yesterday that he will start the same team that played most of the Abilene game with the exception of Wilburn Piercey, capable right guard who injured his leg this week in practice.

Piercey's assignment will be taken by C. L. Storrs, utility forward who can handle any position on the Westerner line in the approved fashion.

The wings will be Primo McCurry, who covered the wild punt that led to the touchdown at Abilene, and Marshall Hendryx, 160-pound "death-driver." Co-Captain Dixie White and big Babe Ritchie at tackles, Red Sanders at left guard, and 200-pound Rafe Nabors at pivot, round out the forward wall.

His Fourth Game

Harold Ingley may start at one of the wingbacks tonight. Ingley has seen three football games during his life-time—he's played in all three. Tonight's his fourth, and his high-geared, stutter-feet may carry high into the Tigers' end zones. However, Ingley will not get the first call if Murray Venable is in running order. Venable sustained an injury at El Paso two weeks ago that would have most athletes on crutches. Last Friday he whirled through a dizzy welter of Abilene tacklers on Coach Chapman's "free-wheeling" touchdown play for score.

The right wingback will be held down by Co-Captain Othie Upton, and either Upton or Joe McClinton, in the fullback spot, will call signals. Herschel Maxey, one of the best first-year line-backers ever to play on a Lubbock team, completes the backfield.

Joe "Chief" Jones, replacement quarterback, may call signals a portion of the game. Jones turned in excellent performances at El Paso and at Abilene.

Navy Defeats Virginia, 26-7

Daring Offensive Maneuvers Of Southerners Shocks Tar Eleven Into Action In Last Half Of Game

(By The Associated Press)

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 10. — Shocked by the suddenness of Virginia's daring offensive maneuvers and trailing at the intermission, Navy's Sailors rallied briskly in the second half today and, bringing their biggest guns into action, routed the Cavaliers 26 to 7.

A crowd of 15,200 jammed Thompson stadium to help the Tars celebrate the founding of the Naval academy 90 years ago.

Tosses 45-Yard Pass

The battle hardly had begun when Martin tossed a 45-yard "sleeper" pass to Connor, who was in the clear and romped to Navy's five before stopped. The Sailors held and Martin's place-kick failed.

After Navy had marched 35 yards to within five yards of the goal, Virginia stiffened and took possession.

Martin, back behind his goal, shot a pass to Male who when tackled around Virginia's 40, tossed a lateral to Captain John Leys. He outran his pursuers 60 yards across the goal.

The Sailors came roaring back to score their first touchdown, Pratt passing to Fellows. Cole missed the placement and Virginia led 7 to 6 at the half.

Schmidt put Navy ahead when he returned the third period kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown.

Navy scored twice in the last period.

High School NOTES

By FRANK TOLBERT
Avalanche Sports Writer

BABE RITCHIE, the Westerners' towering tackle, may receive two football letters this season if an announcement from Dewey Mayhew, Abilene High coach, is to be taken seriously. Mayhew said Ritchie played enough in the Eagle backfield during the Abilene-Lubbock game last week to earn an Abilene letter.

CONTRASTING SCORES

COMPARATIVE scores are about as helpful in doping the football wars as a tip from a Mexican race-track tout.

But District 1 clients will have a grace of comparative scores to use in mental gymnastics after the hulking Harvesters' game Friday night with the aerial-minded Capitol Hill Indians of Oklahoma City. Last Saturday Amarillo's gridiron sprites wrung the Redskins, like a kitchen biddy wrings a mop, for a 27 to 18 decision.

This week, however, the disgruntled schoolboy champions from Oklahoma may be a far more formidable eleven when they start cudgelling at the big Pampa team.

The Oklahoma City-Pampa brawl has the spotlight, but the other district clubs are to see spirited action. Lubbock's Westerners may have considerable trouble with the reviving Snyder Tigers. Plainview has a tough assignment at Quanah Friday. The Golden Sandstorm sweeps into Fort Worth for a contest with Paschal Friday night at the same time the Borger Bulldogs contend with the Spearman Lynx.

TAHOKA PLAYS POST

FIRST conference games of the season are to be played in District 5, Class B, today.

Tahoka's Bulldogs, who have lost only to the powerful Littlefield Wildcats, invade Post tonight for a struggle with fast but light and inexperienced Antelopes.

Post is weakened by the loss of Jimmie Hundley, halfback, and Bob Evans, end. Hundley has a broken rib, and Evans painful but not serious injuries, Coach Jess Cearley said. Newest addition to the Antelope squad is Ralph Carpenter, a wingman, who reported for practice a couple of weeks late. Post and Tahoka are southern division teams.

In the northern half of the district, Ralls plays Olton at Olton this afternoon; Crosbyton is pitted against Levelland on the Loboes' new field tonight. Ralls and Levelland are heavy favorites.

Slaton, of the southern half, goes to Littlefield, northern half, for a non-conference game tonight. Slaton is undefeated and holds victories over Floydada, Spur, and Snyder. Littlefield lost heavily to Brownfield two weeks ago, but the squad was weakened by the loss of three lettermen, out with the mumps.

Anton plays at Morton, and O'Donnell goes to Wolfforth for Class C conference games.

MATADOR, FAVORITE

CONFERENCE competition in District 4, Class B, gets in full swing this week, with all the teams playing district games except Floydada.

The Floydada outfit last night met a college team, Price Memorial, of Amarillo, in the first night game of Floydada's football history. Lighting equipment and other improvements have been installed recently at the Floydada field.

The Matador Bull-fighters have firmly established themselves as the team to beat in District 4. In their games thus far this season, the Matadors have scored 115 points, while their brilliant defense has held their opponents scoreless, and has allowed no penetrations past their 15-yard line.

Silverton meets Matador Friday in a conference battle. In other district games, Turkey goes to Lockney, Quitaque meets Paducah at Paducah, and Flomot collides with Spur in Charles A. Jones Memorial stadium at Spur.

Here's the conference standings in District 4:

Team	W.	L.	Tied	Pct.
Matador	1	0	0	1.000
Turkey	0	0	1	.500
Flomot	0	0	1	.500
Silverton	0	0	0	.000
Paducah	0	0	0	.000
Floydada	0	0	0	.000
Spur	0	0	0	.000
Lockney	0	0	0	.000
Quitaque	0	1	0	.000

Scores of last week's games: Matador 56, Quitaque 0 (conf. game); Floydada 48, Tulia 0; Turkey 6, Flomot 6 (tie) (conf. game); Paducah 6, Crowell 18; Lockney 21, Estelline 13; Spur 12, Colorado City 6.

FRIONA MEETS HAPPY

FRIONA, Oct. 10. (Special) — The Friona Chiefs meet their first conference game Friday evening, October 11, with Happy. The Chiefs will go into this, their fourth game, without having been scored upon.

Although heavily outweighed by the Texico team Friday evening, the Chiefs won, 44-0. The line and running attack shown by the Chiefs was responsible for the one-sided victory.

You Don't Have To Smoke Opium To Get This Way But It Helps; Upsets On Grid Seen This Week-End

BY BOB CAVAGNARO
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 10. (AP) — You don't have to smoke an opium pipe to get this way, but Saturday provides more room for major upsets than probably will come along again before the end of the college football season.

Consider a few of the chances for reversals.

Nebraska To Beat Minnesota

Nebraska to beat Minnesota (The Gophers are star-studded like last year and the Cornhuskers have Lloyd Cardwell who looks and acts like Minnesota's 1934 backfield rolled into one).

Auburn to take Tennessee (The Vols will be fighting mad to recover prestige after taking a drubbing from North Carolina and may be a bit too eager, while Auburn's hopes have been soaring since shutting out Tulane.)

Fordham To Best Purdue

Fordham to give Purdue her first eastern intersectional defeat in nine years (The Boilermakers will miss Halfback Cecil Isbell, who helped them down Northwestern's Wildcats; Fordham has a rugged line and an assortment of versatile backs that ought to check the invaders' winning ways in this section.)

Manhattan to conquer Louisiana State (Chick Meehan has been "building up" the Greenies for a couple of years and they appear ready and are due to crack down on a major opponent, but L. S. U. is well fortified and probably will uphold the dopesters.)

Here's Long Shot

Wisconsin over Notre Dame (The longest shot. Notre Dame's backfield talent is rated the best in the country but the Irish line isn't as well finished by any means; Doc Spears' Badgers haven't won a game yet but there's always that chance they may snap back into form Saturday and make it plenty tough for Layden's legion).

Vanderbilt's Commodores to sink Temple (Like all Ray Morrison-coached elevens, Vanderbilt has a powerful and perplexing passing attack that may shove Warner's Owls back on their heels. It won't be a fluke if Vandy wins.)

Oklahoma over Texas (It's Biff Jones' first big test in his new job and next to Nebraska his team is rated the best in the Big Six conference; Texas dropped an 18-6 decision to L. S. U. last week and the Longhorns are famous for their recuperative powers.)

U. C. L. A. to stop Stanford (U. C. L. A. appears to have come into its own with walloping victories over Utah State and Oregon State; maybe Tiny Thornhill hasnt turned the throttle wide open yet but his unsuccessful Rose Bowl Indians seem headed for a rough afternoon.)

Paul Runyan Fires 160-Yard Approach Into Cup To Take Lead In Louisville Open With A 67; Victor Ghezzi Second

(By The Associated Press)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 10. — Blasting a 160-yard approach straight into the cup for an eagle 2 on the 16th hole, Paul Runyan, White Plains, N. Y., national P. G. A. champion, scored a 67, four under par, to take the lead in the $5,000 Louisville Open golf tournament here today.

Runyan missed a two-footer for a par four on the 18th hole, losing a chance to tie the course record of 66. Runyan scored 34-33—67.

Ghezzi Is Second

Second place was occupied tonight by Victor Ghezzi, Deal, N. J., who put together rounds of 33-35—68. Ghezzi blew a golden opportunity of leading the field by taking a five on the par three seventeenth.

Terl Johnson, Winterhaven, Fla., and Al Zimmerman, Portland, Ore., trailed Ghezzi by one stroke with 69's.

University Of Mexico Puts In Hurried Call For "Referee Of National Reputation" Saturday

BROWNSVILLE, Oct. 10. (AP) — The University of Mexico put in a hurry call here today for a "football referee of national reputation."

The good offices of Pan-American Airways were enlisted in the hunt, the call coming through that organization's Mexico City station. Guy Bevil, traffic manager here, made tentative arrangements to send Lieut. P. E. Yeomans, Fort Brown officer and one-time star West Pointer. Final arrangements hinged on getting the officer back by Monday when he leaves for El Paso to take part in a horse show at Fort Bliss.

No explanation accompanied the call for an impartial outsider to officiate at Saturday's game.

Sam's Already Got It All Figured Out

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10. (AP)—Happy Sam Breadon, boss of the St. Louis Cardinals, looked down the Red Bird roster today and saw, with a minor change here and there, another National league pennant over Sportsmans park in 1936.

"Certainly I was disappointed," he said of the Chicago Cubs spectacular stretch drive last month, "but we'll beat out the Cubs easily next year, and we'll beat out all the other contenders.

"We can't miss. The Cardinals are the best club in the league."

Breadon was enthusiastic about a handful of rookies who moved in from the Cardinal farms at the close of the last season, especially Bill McGee, a right handed pitcher from Houston; Lynn King, a Houston outfielder, and Lyle Judy, a base stealing specialist from Springfield, Mo.

The Cardinal president was reticent to discuss changes, if any, scheduled for the upper bracket of his roster.

Lubbock Football Player Is Injured In Thursday's Game

Right Halfback C. J. Griggs, 16, of the Lubbock Cowhands, was in Lubbock sanitarium after Thursday night's game with the Lamesa Tornadoes, suffering of a fractured right shoulder.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Griggs had plunged three yards over tackle in the closing minutes of the third period and was tackled hard.

He possibly will be out of the lineup for from six to eight weeks.

Class B Champions Trounce Lubbock Outfit To Stretch Victory String To 28 Games

Cowhands Hold Lamesans For Three Quarters; Then Wilt Before Attack; McKinnon Heads Tornado Drive

Lamesa High's football team stretched their unbroken victory string to 28 games last night at Matador Field.

The Class B champions rammed their golden helmets through the broken ranks of the battle-pocked Cowhands of Lubbock High for a 24 to 6 decision.

The Cowhands held the big Tornadoes well in check for two-thirds of the game, and at the first of the third quarter the score was knotted, 6 and 6. Then the "B" squad backs began fielding punts with their chins, losing the ball down their pants during the shifts, and the tacklers were slipping off the Lamesa backs like food shot from guns.

End Sweeps

The Tornadoes are a difficult club to analyze. They used only three or four plays last night—sweeps around the end with the fleet Kirk McKinnon bearing the ball, and sneaks through the center of the line by bale-bodied Co-Captain Gene Boswell or little Braswell Gilbert. The end runs were tremendously effective against the Cowhands. Gilbert an Co-captain Jordon would cut down the Lubbock ends with four-point cross-blocks, and McKinnon would be off for the races.

McKinnon sprinted 41 yards for the first touchdown before the first quarter had reached the mature stage. Jordon failed to convert.

In the second period both teams went scoreless. Lamesa was penalized three times in this quarter. The Tornadoes were punished with eight penalties for a total of 90 yards dur-

STEP UP, MEN, AND HEAR ABOUT THE BIGGEST OFFER EVER MADE TO THE ROLL-YOUR-OWN SMOKERS OF LUBBOCK!

UNUSUAL YOU-MUST-BE-PLEASED PLAN EARNS INSTANT ACCEPTANCE HERE!

THE PLAN: Roll yourself 30 swell cigarettes from Prince Albert. If you don't find them the finest, tastiest roll-your-own cigarettes you ever smoked, return the tin with the rest of the tobacco in it, and we will refund full purchase price, plus postage.

(Signed) R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, Winston-Salem, North Carolina

5 REASONS WHY PRINCE ALBERT CAN MAKE THIS OFFER:

1 Choicest, top-quality tobacco is used in Prince Albert.
2 Prince Albert is "crimp cut" for easy rolling and slow, cool burning.
3 Mild, mellow flavor assured by special "bite-removing" process.
4 Packed right—in tin. No bother—no waste. Tobacco keeps in prime condition.
5 Two ounces in every tin.

"You Must Be Pleased"

Above is printed the most attractive offer, we believe, that has ever been made to roll-your-own smokers.

It is made to show the true satisfaction of smoking the best. And to show the added enjoyment of rolling a tobacco that admittedly is at the top in mildness—coolness—and fragrance.

Already, changing to Prince Albert has become a state-wide movement!

What you do—Simply go to your dealer and get Prince Albert. Roll and smoke 30 cigarettes. If you don't say they are the best roll-your-own cigarettes you ever had, the makers of Prince Albert will return your full purchase price, plus postage, just like it says above.

What to expect—Here's the reason such a straight-from-the-shoulder no-risk offer can be made. We know that in Prince Albert we've got the quality—the taste and aroma—the top-of-the-morning flavor that men are looking for. Men who have once tried Prince Albert are satisfied with no other brand.

So now we ask that you, too, try Prince Albert. Test Prince Albert under our positive you-must-be-pleased guarantee. Note the special "crimp cut." That makes Prince Albert so easy to roll—assures you a fine firm cigarette. And, thanks again to the "crimp cut," Prince Albert burns slower and gives a cooler smoke.

The big 2-ounce economy tin—Prince Albert is packed right—in tin. No fuss or bother. No untidiness or waste. Your tobacco always in prime condition. And you are assured of your full money's worth in the big red economy tin of Prince Albert... around 70 of the finest roll-your-own cigarettes you ever made.

So start today to roll Prince Albert. And remember, Prince Albert is a mighty fine, mellow smoke in a pipe too.

Southwest Conference Teams Play One Conference And Five Intersectional Games This Week-End

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The seven Southwest conference football machines are ready to roll into another week-end of one championship and five non-conference games.

Topping the list will be the night game at Waco between the University of Arkansas and Baylor university. Arkansas left Fayetteville Thursday for Waco where Coach Fred Thomsen plans to send his Razorbacks through a night practice session on Carroll field. It will be the first night game in Arkansas' football history.

Arkanses must win to escape elimination from the championship race. Arkansas lost last week to Texas Christian and another defeat would put it out of the race. It will be Baylor's initial 1935 conference joust. The Bears boast an uncrossed goal line in three non-conference battles. Carl Brazzell, promising sophomore fullback, and Lloyd Russell, who won fame last season for his elusiveness, are in top condition.

Steers Meet Sooners

Second in importance will be the annual intersectional clash at the Dallas Fair Park bowl between the University of Oklahoma and the University of Texas. Saturday will mark the thirtieth meeting between these two teams since the opening of relationships in 1900. Over the years Texas holds the edge with 19 wins to nine by the Oklahomans. The 1903 game ended in a 6-6 tie.

For the first time in several years the Oklahomans are favored. Texas' loss to Louisiana State last week while the Sooners were defeating New Mexico with comparative ease served to establish the Sooners as favorites. Oklahoma will show a versatile backfield and a big line composed of juniors and seniors.

Jones Features Aerial Game

Coach Biff Jones has built his offense around an aerial game that features double and triple laterals as well as effective forwards. The phase of attack is expected to give the Longhorns trouble.

Coach Jack Chevigny will show the Sooners a powerful backfield in Hadlock, Gilbreath, Pitzer and Mittermaier, but Chevigny's forward wall is not expected to equal Oklahoma's front line.

Rice Meets Creighton

The other Saturday game on Texas soil will pit the Rice Institute Owls against the Creighton Bluejays at Houston. The 1934 Southwest conference champions are in good condition and strongly favored to take the Bluejays. Bill Wallace, all-American halfback, did not play last week because of an injured knee but is ready to go against Creighton if Coach Kitts finds it necessary to use him.

In the other non-conference games, Southern Methodist goes to St. Louis to battle Washington University; Texas Christian invades Tulsa for an engagement against Tulsa university, and Texas A. and M. goes to Shreveport to play a strong Centenary college team.

Longhorns Hopes Soar As Johnston's Injury Improves

AUSTIN, Oct. 10. (AP)—University of Texas hopes to defeat the University of Oklahoma in an intersectional game at Dallas Saturday soared today when Coach Jack Chevigny said he believed Charley Johnston, star quarterback, probably would be ready for action.

Johnston sustained an arm injury in the L. S. U. game and it was feared he would be unable to play. Henry Mittermaier, a fullback who was hurt in the L. S. U. tilt, also will be in condition.

The Longhorns will entrain tomorrow morning for Dallas and will work out in the afternoon at Fair Park stadium. They topped off heavy practice with a long signal drill on plays especially developed to meet the Oklahoma type of defense.

Aggies Work On Pass Defense For Centenary

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 10. (AP)—The Texas Aggies worked over their pass defense, practiced the blocking of punts and went through dummy scrimmage in a comparatively light workout today. It was their last home drill before Saturday's game with Centenary at Shreveport.

A squad of 33 players will leave by bus tomorrow. The Aggies plan to reach Shreveport in time for a light afternoon practice.

Frogs To Flash Varied Attack Against Tulsa

FORT WORTH, Oct. 10. (AP)—A varied attack will be flashed against the Tulsa university Hurricanes when the T. C. U. Horned Frogs meet them Saturday afternoon at Tulsa, Coach L. R. Meyer announced before departing tonight.

Forward, backward and lateral passes are on the program of the Frogs to shoot against the Golden Hurricanes along with their powerful running game.

There will be four changes in the traveling squad over that which made the trip to Arkansas last week. Alan House, Melvin Diggs, Lincoln Walker and Charles Peavy have replaced Vernon Brown, Paul Snow, Tiny Godwin and Lacy McClanahan. Injuries will force Godwin and McClanahan to remain at home while Snow is turning his place over to Diggs, making his first trip with the Frogs since an ankle injury forced him out early in 1934.

Floydada Field Dedicated With Win Over Price

(Special To The Avalanche)

FLOYDADA, Oct. 10.—The Floydada Whirlwind dedicated the new Wester field here tonight with a 19 to 6 victory over Price Memorial college, of Amarillo.

A crowd of about 1,000 attended the game.

The field is named in honor of J. C. Wester, of Floydada, former coach and superintendent of schools at Floydada High school. Principal address of the dedicatory ceremony was made by A. J. Folley, Floydada, 110th district judge. Representatives from Matador, Spur, Lockney, Ralls, Plainview, and Plomot, made short speeches. Music was furnished by the Plainview High school band. A. D. Cummings, superintendent of Floydada schools, was in charge of the program.

Lider Scores

Malcolm Lider, Floydada quarterback, made all three of the Whirlwinds' touchdowns, scoring in the first, second, and third quarters. Price scored in the last period when Floydada's reserves had entered the game.

Outstanding Floydada players besides Lider were Fullback Matthews, and Guards Jones and Golightly.

The starting lineups:

Price: Ends, Brown and Earsaugh; tackles, Dressler and Gilbert; guards, Kuehler and Dees; center, Hughbuck; quarterback, Turner; halfbacks, L. Schenck and B. Schenck; fullback, Daugh.

Floydada: Ends, Mooney and Eudy; tackles, Woods and Ward; guards, Jones and Golightly center Rainer; quarterback, Lider; halfbacks, McClung and Allen; fullback, Matthews.

Cowhands Game

ing the entire game.

Kerr Scores

The Cowhands' drive for score started in the third quarter after alert Wayne Sullivan, Cowhand center, intercepted McKinnon's pass on the Tornadoes 39 yard line. Griggs, Lubbock wingback, bucked for short gains; a pass Ince to Kerr put the ball on Lamesa's 14. And from here Clendon Kerr, swift Lubbock wingback, scored on a double reverse.

The Lubbock kick-off carried only 20 yards. On the first play, McKinnon wheeled off right end, almost got away, but was hauled down by Worth Bulls, Cowhand halfback, on Lubbock's 25-yard line. From here Boswell plowed for a touchdown in three shoves through the slippery-handed Cowhands. Jordon missed the goal posts in the conversion attempt.

Cowhands Crumple

The Cowhands crumpled before the truck-horse charges of the Lamesa ball-bearers in the final quarter. Sometimes McKinnon or Boswell would hop like buck-and-wing dancers among the swarming but futilely grasping Lubbock forwards. Gilbert scored on 43-yard sprint around Lubbock's right end, and Boswell made the last counter with a 23-yard charge through the center of the Cowhand line. Jordon and McKinnon missed the two conversion attempts for a .000 percentage in this department.

The Lamesa line was led by the veterans Dude Gaines, Homer Cozzins, Othello Adams, and Harold Lambeth. They found their most effective opposition across the line of scrimmage in Bob Ritchie and Sullivan. Ince and Kerr, of the Cowhand backfield, turned in excellent defensive exhibitions.

Special Election To Select Settle's Successor Rumored

One Candidate Has Decided To Toss His Hat Into Ring And Another Is Being Mentioned As Likely Aspirant

AUSTIN, Oct. 10. (AP)—A special election to choose a successor to Rep. J. Doyle Settle of Abernathy should he resign appeared probable tonight.

Settle announced in Lubbock he would become a director in the National Youth administration after resigning as representative at the end of the current legislative session.

Lyndon B. Johnson, state director for the youth administration, said he had offered Settle the position, but believed he could not accept without resigning from the legislature.

In the past, Governor Allred has called elections promptly to fill vacant legislative seats, holding districts should not be without representation.

Several Candidates Are Being Expected

Decision of one candidate to toss his hat into the ring, rumored plans of another to enter and expectation of still other politically-inclined contenders, gave answer Thursday to the question of a successor to the legislative seat to be vacated by resignation of J. Doyle Settle of Abernathy.

Tom H. Carter, linotype operator of Lubbock, who was defeated on the fifth ballot for state commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars at a recent state encampment at Corpus Christi, said he would seek the post, either at a special election or in the Democratic primaries next year. He finished third in the legislative race in 1932.

The name of Robert S. Rodgers, jr., of 2211-A Seventeenth St., assistant secretary-treasurer of the Lubbock National Farm Loan association, was associated with the race through rumor. Mr. Rodgers, a licensed attorney who never has practiced, said he had been asked to run but declined to make for publication a statement as to his plans.

The 119th district representative could not be reached late Thursday night. He had announced Wednesday night he would resign at the close of the special session. District office of NYA was opened here Thursday morning with Calvin Hazelwood, assistant director in charge. Mr. Settle had said his assistant would handle affairs of the office until the representative resigns and his appointment becomes effective.

Official sources in Austin ruled unofficially Thursday that the representative could not serve as district director of the NYA and as a member of the legislature simultaneously. Such opinions were given by Speaker Coke Stevenson and Attorney General McCraw, the Associated Press reported.

Settle's term will end with 1936

Must Call Election

Whether Settle resigns during the current session of the legislature, or afterwards, a special election will be necessary to choose his successor. The law requires that if a vacancy exists, notice of the election must be given immediately. When the vacancy occurs during a session of the legislature, the election shall be conducted 20 days after the notice. Otherwise, the election shall be conducted 30 days following the notice.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

A cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. You can relieve them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery that aids nature to soothe and heal the infected membranes and to relieve the irritation and inflammation as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Medical authorities have for many years recognized the wonderful effects of Beechwood Creosote for treating coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations. A chemist worked out a special process of blending Creosote with other ingredients so that now in Creomulsion you get a real dose of Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and can even be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children. Thousands of doctors now use Creomulsion in their own families and practice, and druggists rank Creomulsion top because in this genuine, original product you can get a real dose of Creosote so emulsified that it goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles, especially those that start with a common cold and hang on and on. Get a bottle of Creomulsion right now from your druggist, use it all up as directed and if you fail to get satisfactory relief, he is authorized to refund every cent of your money. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

Traffic Program Staged By P-T A

Discussion of traffic and its problems, one of the projects of the group, was basis of a program of the Junior High school Parent-Teacher association in the library of that building Thursday night.

Approximately 50 attended, including speakers and husbands of members.

Chas. A. Guy, publisher of the Avalanche-Journal, directed a discussion of traffic problems, and described the safety commission setup and its purposes.

Rev. R. M. Hocker, pastor of First Church of the Nazarene and president of the Ministers association, spoke of the traffic problem from standpoint of the citizen and asked cooperation with enforcement officers.

C. E. Luce, City recorder, spoke of the problem from standpoint of the police, and read figures relating to Lubbock and to the United States.

A program of violin, piano and vocal numbers was presented.

Mrs. C. Luker, president, was in charge.

PLAN CEREMONY

DALLAS, Oct. 10. (AP)—Governor James V. Allred will come to Dallas Saturday to officially start construction of the $1,200,000 State of Texas Centennial hall at fair Park. A formal ceremony will take place at 10:30 a. m.

Projects Are Facing Threat

Possibility That Many Under Reclamation Program Will Be Lost Through Failure To Meet Deadline Seen

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10. (AP)—Possibility that projects totaling $31,860,000 in the $80,000,000 reclamation program may be lost through failure to meet the Dec. 15 contract requirement of the president was admitted today by a bureau of reclamation spokesman.

Eleven of the 30 projects which make up the program, for which $81,150,000 was obtained from the works relief appropriation, still are in the formulative stage and may not be completed in time to be under contract by Dec. 15, the deadline date set by President Roosevelt. It was pointed out the law requires that bids be advertised for 30 days and that it requires at least the same amount of time before contracts are executed.

Projects which are in the clear were listed as including Colorado river, Texas $2,000,000 (work starting).

Army Planes In Rehearsal For War Games On Saturday

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Oct. 10 (AP)—Army airplanes flew over Ft. Leavenworth today in rehearsal of a demonstration on how the war game is played, scheduled for Saturday morning.

Twenty-one pursuit planes and three huge bombers from Barksdale field, Shreveport, La., and 13 planes from Langley field, Va., arrived last night.

Real Politics In Idaho

SOME will argue that Senator William H. Borah tentatively opened his presidential campaign in his recent address on the American constitution. And, perhaps, he did.

But as The Morning Avalanche sees it, the senator the other day did more than denounce those who—Republicans or Democrats—put party interests above the fundamental lasting law of the nation when he gave free merry-go-round rides to the children of Parma, Idaho.

Maybe you don't know Parma. Out in Idaho, however, everybody knows it, for it is the birthplace of Governor Ross. Now serving his fourth term, Governor Ross is to be the Democratic senatorial nominee in 1936 against Senator Borah, if Borah seeks another senatorial term rather than the presidency. Anyhow, that is the plan according to the reported planning to date by the governor and Chairman Farley.

So Parma, with its 750 inhabitants, is a place of no little political strategy in Idaho. One would not say that Senator Borah appreciates this fact. It happened quite by accident, no doubt, that the senator found himself in Parma when the fall festival was on and the children were gathered around the merry-go- round, waiting for an angel to appear. Circumstances, after all, are the only really great dictator. The United States senate's most quoted authority on the constitution bought a roll of tickets, distributed them and promptly became among the younger generation of Governor Ross' birthplace, "the greatest man on earth."

It is pleasant to know that the great minds of the senate are not always so filled with affairs of state that they can not distinguish between a condition and a theory when it is a condition that confronts them.

And maybe austere, dignified Senator Borah has human qualities, too, as well as those of great statesmanship!

WITH OUR CONTEMPORARIES

"Friday night is scheduled to be a banner evening for Abernathy Antelopes, when they clash with their age-old athletic foe, the Hale Center Owls, in Abernathy's new $15,000 gymnasium," Buford Davenport says in his column, "All About Nuthin'!" in the Abernathy Review.

"Lubbock isn't such a big town after all," John Price notes in the County Wide News at Littlefield. "We inquired of a business man there where a certain establishment was located. 'Go down the street next to this one until you come to a two-[illegible] building with a windmill on top of it—that's it' he replied. And we found it. But we weren't exactly looking for something that a windmill puts out." (Maybe not, but you probably used its product.)

"While Texas appears headed inevitably toward the adoption of a sales tax to meet its heavily increased tax load, reports from other states indicate the novelty of the sales tax has gone and in its place has come the graft and grief that are inevitable in the collection of the tax, the administration of the law," Homer Steen notes in the Floyd County Hesperian.

"Anton water system approved by PWA," H. G. Richards headlines in the Anton News. "City tax rate lowered" is another headline.

"There are many disappointments in politics," consoles E. I. Hill in the Lynn County News. "We never witness a struggle for office, whether it be by election or appointment, that we do not sympathize keenly with the loser, especially if he is a clean, worthy gentleman."

Today's One-Minute Sermon

"But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,

"Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

"And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other: and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.

"Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

"And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise."—St. Luke, 6:27-32.

NEW RIVER

The New River at Lauderdale, Florida, "shortest, deepest and most beautiful narrow winding river in the United States" was created in a single night, according to an old Seminole tradition which is worthy of belief. The site of the river was formerly a tropical jungle. One dark night the Indians were startled by a thundering noise. Emerging from their huts the following morning they found that a mighty river had burst forth overnight to flow majestically through the jungle. Subterranean rivers have been known to burst to the surface suddenly to assume a surface course henceforth.

SILKEN SPINDLES

by Laura Lu Brookman © 1935 NEA SERVICE, INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

GALE HENDERSON, pretty and 23, works in a silk mill. She and her 19-year-old brother, PHIL, support their invalid father.

STEVE MEYERS, who also works in the mill, asks Gale to marry him. She delays giving her answer.

Gale goes skating, breaks through the ice and is rescued by BRIAN WESTMORE, whose father, now dead, built the mill. Brian has come home after two years in Paris, ready to take his place in the mill.

VICKY THATCHER, daughter of ROBERT THATCHER, general manager of the mill, schemes to captivate Brian. She sees him with Gale and is furious. Contriving to meet Gale, she tells her that she (Vicky) and Brian are engaged to be married. Gale, believing Brian has been amusing himself at her expense, is deeply hurt. She refuses to see him again.

Phil loses his job. Brian, trying to forget Gale, turns to Vickey.

Gale and JOSIE GRIDLEY discuss the mill workers' attempt to organize. LEOTA BOLLER, believed to be a company spy, appears and they fear she has overheard.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXXIX

Joe Gillaspie faced the men and women crowded into the small room. His dark hair was tossed, unruly, and his eyes were shining.

"Fellow workers," he began in a hoarse voice, "you know what we're here for tonight. You known that the bosses are trying to break us in a new way. They've tried firing us. That wasn't enough. They found out they couldn't starve us, so now they're turning us into the streets."

A gruff voice interrupted. "We got rights the same as other people—"

"Yes," Gillaspie answered, "we got rights, but what difference does that make? Do you think Thatcher cares anything about your rights? Work and go hungry, that's what he says, so he can live in a swell house with a lot of servants and ride around in a big automobile. Work and go hungry and live in the streets so him and the rest can pile up more dividends. Is that fair?"

"No!" Every voice in the room seemed to answer.

"Are you going to stand for it?"

"No!"

Gillaspie's voice rose louder. "You all know what happened to Mary Cassidy—a woman with two little children to support, thrown out of her job and then out of her home. Two more families got eviction notices today. They're goin' to put them out in the streets, too. And they'll put the rest of you out if they get the chance!"

"We ain't goin' to give them the chance!"

It was a girl with flaming red hair who spoke up. Others joined in: "You bet we ain't!" "No, we ain't goin' to give them the chance!" "You said it!" "We'll show 'em—!"

"All right." Joe Gillaspie's eyes flashed boldly. "I'm glad to know you feel that way. I thought you would. But you folks know, don't you there's only one way to get what's comin' to us? We've got to fight for it!"

"That's the stuff, Joe!" The voice came from the rear of the room, high-pitched, emotional.

"You can lie down and take it, slave and take your cuts and be kicked out when the bosses are through with you, or you can stand up and fight. Which are you goin' to do?"

"We'll fight!" The chorus grew louder.

Gillaspie raised a hand for them to hush, went on: "If we're goin' to fight, the first thing we've got to do is get some more members. One of the rights the bosses forget belongs to us is the right to organize for collective bargaining. They don't admit we got the right to form an organization at all. Because they found out about it, four of us lost our jobs."

The girl with red hair was leaning forward. She cried out, "We're with you, Joe!" Somebody else added, "They can't scare us that way."

The speaker went on. "It's goin' to be hard work," he warned. "You all know the mill is full of stool pigeons. You've got to be awful careful who you talk to!"

A small man with a scar on one cheek said, "I got a report to make Joe. It's about something that happened in the shipping room. Can I make it now?"

Gillaspie said, "Sure. Go ahead." He moved back and the man with the scarred cheek got to his feet. He said, "Fellow workers—" His voice droned on for half an hour.

It was the following afternoon. Gale tilted the umbrella against the wind and walked more rapidly. She didn't mind the rain; she rather liked it. It smelled fresh and clean and spring-like. Almost any other evening she would have enjoyed the walk to the drug store. It was a long walk—10 blocks in a neighborhood that was almost deserted. That was why Gale was hurrying. She wanted to get home before darkness settled down; the sky would darken early on account of the rain.

"If I'd only thought to tell Phil—!" Gale scolded herself. Phil could have taken the prescription for her father's medicine to be refilled. But she had forgotten and the bottle of medicine was empty.

Mary Cassidy was cooking the Hendersons' evening meal, so that Gale was able to slip away on the errand. Mary was trying so hard to be helpful. And she had been helpful two Ava Edit Friday Oct. 11 ... ful, too. In a house Mary knew exactly what to do and how to do it. Gale thought, "She ought not to work in a mill. She ought to be home, taking care of those children."

Well, Mary wasn't working in the mill now—

Mary's troubles, during the last few days, had made Gale think much less about her own. Mary wasn't much older than Gale, but she looked years older. Alone in the world except for two helpless children—without money, without work, without anything to look forward to except a struggle that would grow harder as time went on. Where was Sid Cassidy, Mary's husband? Why wasn't he there to help her?

No one in town knew what had become of Sid. Mary never mentioned him. It had been more than two years since his sudden disappearance. It wasn't such an uncommon thing for husbands to disappear that way. They lost their jobs or got into debt and became discouraged. Some of them, doubtless, expected to come back for their families or send for them after times were better, after they got on their feet again. Maybe they thought that when they left. Few of them ever came back.

Gale thought, "I suppose Mary was in love with Sid once—or thought she was." Hard to imagine tired, care-worn Mary as a moonstruck young thing, blushing, sighing, primping in front of a mirror before a date. Hard to reconcile that picture with Mary as she looked today. Gale put the thought from her. She didn't want to think about love. That was something she was through with.

She had come to a brighter district. The drug store was just a few steps ahead. "Schonebaum's Drug Store," the sign read. There was a display of small articles—shaving cream, tooth paste, hair tonic—in the window and behind them a brightly printed poster showing a pretty girl in a red dress, holding a glass of some beverage. Schonebaum's was a small place but the proprietor was friendly. He would let Gale have the medicine and wait until next week for the money.

She lowered her umbrella and pulled the door open. There was no one in sight but a young man who was inspecting something inside the glass counter. He wore a trench raincoat and a brown hat. Even before he turned, Gale recognized that raincoat. It was Brian Westmore's!

There was no time to do anything except stand there, feeling her heart pound wildly, knowing the color had risen in her cheeks, hating herself because of it.

Brian looked surprised, too. He said, "Hello," and then, a moment later, "The proprietor seems to have gone out."

The store looked strange without Mr. Schonebaum with his round, red face and shiny, bald head. He should have been behind the counter, peering at them over the rims of his spectacles, clearing his throat

The National Whirligig

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

CAMPFIRE strategists agree that the 1936 presidential issues have started to jell. The Democrats plan to ask reelection on the theory that they produced recovery out of chaos. The GOP's big guns will warn of a day of heavy financial reckoning.

But the Farleyites have devised a scheme to throw the Republicans off balance. They will ask GOP candidates and orators to specify the Rooseveltian reforms which they will scrap if they capture the White House. You will soon listen to Democratic speeches extolling the AAA, TVA, labor legislation, social security safeguards, bank deposit guarantees, the SEC, the CCC. And the speaker will wind up with the question: "Do our opponents intend to repeal these laws? Answer 'Yes' or 'No'!"

The political planners welcome Herbert Hoover's entrance into the pre-convention campaign. They are actually concealing their joy for fear it may frighten him back into silence. Though they grant the effectiveness of his attacks, they prefer that he make them instead of a GOP-er not associated with 1933's black days.

BOGGED: The administration's $400,000,000 program for elimination of grade crossings has been halted temporarily, though nobody will talk about it. In their frank moments they blame this widely heralded move to reduce fatalities on the batch of regulations originally framed by Harry Hopkins.

Engineers report they can't remake the railroad landscape under Hopkins' low man-year costs. Railroads warn that WPA hour schedules and wages can't be fitted into a program under which reliefers and union employees would have to work on the same job. The types of labor—and laborers—differ too much for the scheme to pan out. Local communities and railroads are squabbling over which will furnish—or finance—land that must be acquired.

Another difficulty lies in the fact that all contracts must be cleared through government agencies by December 15. It isn't probable that any real start can be made now, with winter so near. And if heavy industries improve without this additional push, the project may be pigeon-holed for a long while.

FAITH: Although President Roosevelt has promised to leave business and industry alone if they abide by code standards—which also means if they carry the reemployment load—his advisers are cooking up several new dishes. They intend to be ready for any new emergency.

Financial and industrial experts are making a real study of the possibilities that lie in formation of a National Emergency Council. The idea has been advanced again and again, but it made no headway while NRA seemed to offer a substitute control of industry. Senator Bulkley of Ohio introduced an NEC measure at the last session to which nobody paid much heed. It provides for a council to study and solve, if possible, some of industry's worst problems.

Now it develops that several sets of government sharks are exploring the plan in some detail. In addition, there are other industrial checks and changes being surveyed by Commerce economists and surviving NRA advisers. Half of the 17 Congressional investigations now under way touch this problem at some point. It all means that the administration has great faith in the NRA kind of planning and control, even though it's soft-pedalling its underlying ideas.

TIMING: State Department insiders think the President outsmarted critics at home and abroad by his swift action in blacklisting Italy and Ethiopia. Although it is not generally known, the British have privately shown resentment at our seeming indifference to the threat of war. And hostiles at home would have pounced on a misstep.

Many missed several significant features of the presidential move, though they astonished State Departmenters. First, Mr. Roosevelt proclaimed that a "state of war" existed at a time when only Emperor Haile Selassie seemed to agree with him. Secondly, his unexpected proclamation prevented "irreconcilables" and "keep-out-of-Europe" factions from charging that he was playing copy-cat to the League of Nations. Both had their hammers out.

Although our diplomats protested against the neutrality resolution because it deprived the President of discretion in imposing an embargo on belligerents, they are secretly glad now. Mr. Roosevelt, they noted, was careful to point out that he acted under Congressional compulsion—even though it necessitated extremely awkward phraseology to get the alibi into the record.

NEAT: Unforeseen blowups may dynamite world diplomats' plans but certain wise people in Washington look for no spread of the Italo-Ethiopian war. There appears to be more dickering behind the scenes than spokesmen at Geneva, Rome, London and Paris let on.

These reports say that the conflict around Adowa is a planned and planted affair. When Mussolini has achieved sufficient glory to cater to the martial spirit he has aroused in Italy, he is expected to halt. Then he will fly to the scene of an Italian defeat, proclaim the vindication and valor of Roman arms. Next, if the arrangement goes through, he will be given either a semi-protectorate over Ethiopia or valuable concessions and the loan.

Premier Laval of France—Washington remembers him as a shrewd bargainer—is credited with having proposed this scheme. It may be hard on the Emperor and his people, but it's smart diplomacy. It will save the face of Il Duce, preserve the League—a major French objective—and allow Britain to claim the credit for having engineered Europe out of a hole.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

WAR developments are panning out exactly according to informed New York predictions (reported here before Mussolini cut loose.) Il Duce now has his military triumphs to crow about. The Ethiops put up just enough resistance to enable him to stage a good show. Adowa is avenged—now for a compromise settlement with Britain camouflaged as the fruits of victory.

Both England and Italy are understood to be anxious to reach an agreement. France will naturally do everything possible to help it along and restore a strong allied front against Germany. England will be glad to help Il Duce solve his economic and colonial problems if only he will tone down on the Roman Empire stuff. As for Mussolini, he can talk all he likes about the Italian people having the courage to stand up under the League's economic sanctions—but these wouldn't help his difficult domestic situation at all. Further deprivations might lead to an explosion—and he knows it. So he is expected to welcome an excuse to get out from under the penalties—and to escape from the complex military problems that have Italian army officials so hot and bothered.

Well-posted observers see the only serious obstacle to an agreement in the possibility that England or Italy may still try to play too stiff a game of poker. Of course, what Ethiopia thinks about peace terms doesn't count unless the British decide to back her to the limit—which is very unlikely. There's better than an even chance that a mutually agreeable formula will be found to kill the spector of a general war.

DETERRENT: A hidden factor in the European tangle that carries much weight behind the scenes is the communist menace. Communists and other radicals have been pushing the idea of League sanctions applied to Italy for all they're worth.

Their strategy is simple. Italy is the outstanding fascist state. If economic pressure can force an end to fascism there it would discredit fascist movements elsewhere—and thus facilitate the progress of communism as an alternative.

New York learns that the radical undercurrent is causing a good deal of nervousness in official circles all over Europe—and is a chief deterrent from war.

TARZAN AND THE FIRE GODS, No. 17

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Dusk fell gloomily as the solemn cortege, with the screaming boy in its van, entered a ravine and came to a massive, rock-hewn temple, dismal, mysterious, terrifying. In dark corners, flickering lights danced fantastically before pagan idols. Lady Beth shuddered.

Followed by Niarchus and the people, Arbela led her up an ascending ramp. The boy was no longer with them. Soon the throng came out upon a stone balcony that overlooked another section of the ravine. In the distance a giant monolith rose from the floor of the chasm.

Behind it stood a colossal image of the hideous Baal. Toward these symbols all eyes were turned in silent, wondrous awe. Niarchus called out in a loud voice that echoed through the mystic canyon: "Uncover the Fiery Pillar and let us behold the glory of Baal!"

He raised his hands on high in pious supplication: "O Baal, may the sacrifice we are about to give thee prove pleasing in thine eyes. And may it be pleasing to thy heavenly messenger." He looked at Lady Beth. Then from below came the pitiful screams of the child.

KANSAS CITY REPORT
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 10. (AP)—Steady to strong values were generally posted on beef steers and yearlings, some centers showing higher trend around the mid-western circuit today. The market ruled fairly active. Best fed steers in Chicago reached 12.10, and 1109 lb. long yearlings 12.50. Cake and short fed westerns ranged from 8.00@9.50, some Oklahoma meal and bull-fed steers at 7.20 and bulk of grassers of common to medium grade turning 5.75@7.25. Stockers and feeders ranged from 3.50@7.75. Receipts of 33,600 were around 1,000 in excess of a week ago and a year ago.

A sharp trade prevailed in hogs, generally 10 to 25 lower, prices being paid. Lighter weights 200 lbs. down showed nearly steady prices. Chicago and St. Louis both reported a top of 11.15. Receipts numbered around 17,000, more than last Thursday but 36,000 less than a year ago.

Fat lambs ruled unevenly steady to 25 lower while sheep and feeding lambs were steady for the most part. Best range lambs to several points cleared at 9.75, natives showing a top of 10.25 in St. Louis. Range ewes brought up to 4.50. Receipts estimated at 20,500 against 61,-727 last Thursday and 65,000 a year ago.

FORT WORTH REPORT
FORT WORTH, Oct. 10. (AP)—Hogs 500; mostly 10c lower; top 10.45 paid by packers; bulk 180-285 lb. lots 10.40@10.45; packing sows steady, mostly 9.50.

Cattle 2,300; calves 1,300; market active and strong; spots slightly higher on steers and she stock; most short fed steers and yearlings 6.25@7.50; good fat cows 4.25@4.75; good slaughter calves 5.75@6.50; heifers 6.50 down.

Sheep 3,000; aged fat wethers steady to 25c higher; other classes steady; fat lambs 8.00@8.50; fat yearlings 6.00@8.50; aged fat wethers 4.25@5.00; feeder yearlings 6.50@7.50.

Stocks

WALL STREET REPORT
NEW YORK, Oct. 10. (AP)—In the widest upward swing since June the stock market today broke sharply out of its recent narrow price groove.

Many leading issues advanced 1 to 3 or more points, with a number, especially in the industrial category, at the best levels for 1935 or longer as inflation talk was revived.

The advance was on a broad scale, with plus signs outnumbering the minus marks in quotations by more than 4 to 1 at the finish. Some 1,861,870 shares changed hands, the highest in about a week.

Gauged by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks, the day's advance was 3 of a point at 40.4, with the 30 industrials rising 1.3 points to 60.3.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 10. (AP) — Cotton fluctuated narrowly today and at the close was 1 to 3 points lower. Futures held within a 10 cent range during the entire trading.

Early firmness was based on reports of rains in Texas and other inclement weather in the southwestern crop region which was considered bullish at this time. But light hedging was sufficient to wipe away small net gains and steep the market lower for the rest of the session.

Dec. closed at 10.90, Jan. at 10.92 and March at 10.97, while May dropped back through the 11-cent level again to finish at 10.99. Spots were unchanged for the second consecutive day with middling at New Orleans quoted at 11.16 on sales of 4,856 bales.

Foreign markets were disappointing.

Port receipts 37,807; week 176,146; season 2,011,661; last season 1,533,436. Exports 14,926; week 89,260; season 960,630; last season 986,597. Port stocks 2,587,664. Stocks on shipboard at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston were 72,897; last year 88,387. Spot sales at southern markets were 49,456; last year 29,853.

NEW YORK REPORT
NEW YORK, Oct. 10. (AP)—Cotton eased a little today under southern selling and scattering liquidation. Buying by the trade seemed to be mostly on scale down orders. At the close the market was steady at net declines of 3 to 7 points.

There was a sagging tendency from the start, October selling down to 10.90 and May to 10.99 for net losses of 6 to 9 points. The close was slightly up from the lowest on covering.

The news from abroad had no perceptible effect on the market.

Exports today, 17,998, making 863,627 so far this season. Port receipts 43,825. U. S. port stocks, 2,132,998.

TICKER NEWS
Courtesy Norman Mayer & Company
NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Clevenberg says: Secretary Wallace says the general domestic cotton situation has shown material improvement and in the light of existing conditions a carry-over of 9,000,000 bales August 1, 1936 should be realized against 9,000,000 August 1 this year. Davis of AAA says cotton control plan may be suspended if war abroad is continued higher prices. Secretary Wallace hinted that cotton exports this year may show an increase of 1,500,000 over last year. Trade buying absorbed moderate hedge selling in a rather dull market yesterday.

Liverpool cables — Continental buying absorbed hedge selling in cotton but later market reacted on Bombay long liquidation. Poor offtake. Short sales still discouraged by Geneva developments and unfavorable weather.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Europe seeks export loan to buy United States cotton. Applications from spinners of party a dozen nations being considered. Negotiations with Poland and Czecho Slovakia governments are reported in the active stage. Grant of Polish credits may be announced within three weeks.

Youth Bleeds To Death As Gun Is Accidentally Fired

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 10. (AP)—Roy Clifton Owens, 20, bled to death today from a gunshot wound in the knee received as he attacked a grounded hawk with the butt of his gun.

Owens and a nephew, Jimmie Owens, had shot the hawk and it was flopping on the ground. Owens' gun discharged when he attacked the bird and an artery was severed in his leg at the knee. He died en route to a hospital.

AUSTIN, Oct. 10. (AP)—Dr. R. L. Irving of Fort Davis was elected moderator of the synod of Texas of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., at an annual session held here tonight with 150 delegates attending.

Grains

CHICAGO REPORT
CHICAGO, Oct. 10. (AP)—Stirred by reports of increased war tension in Europe, wheat prices ran upward 2 cents a bushel today, but later lost much of the gain.

Uncertainties associated with the United States government crop report were the principal category, at the best levels for 1935 or longer as inflation talk was revived.

The advance was on a broad scale, with plus signs outnumbering the minus marks in quotations by more than 4 to 1 at the finish. Some 1,861,870 shares changed hands, the highest in about a week.

Gauged by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks, the day's advance was 3 of a point at 40.4, with the 30 industrials rising 1.3 points to 60.3.

FORT WORTH REPORT
FORT WORTH, Oct. 10. (AP)—Moderate demand for grain continued today. Estimated receipts were: Wheat 5, corn 33, oats 2 and sorghums 6. Cars inspected Wednesday were: Wheat 13, corn 19, oats 3 and sorghums 3. Price quoted:

A 24-year-old Lubbock woman paid a $15 fine in corporation court after being charged with vagrancy Thursday, following an early morning arrest. An Alabama man charged her with taking $50 from him in a hotel room.

Two men, one from Littlefield, paid fines in corporation court Thursday as result of a fight in Hilton hotel Wednesday night.

necessaries from Germany through Austria and does not fear economic sanctions. Oil, he added, can be obtained "from some other nation" which could send it to Italy through the reich.

Fifty of the 59 members of the assembly went definitely on record in favor of economic and financial sanctions. A "general staff" was formed for the enforcement of the pressure against Premier Mussolini's nation and will hold its first meeting tomorrow.

Five Are Absent

Five nations were absent, Germany (which officially leaves the League Oct. 21), Paraguay, Salvador, Guatemala and the Dominican republic. Austria and Hungary, friends of Italy which has protected them, opposed sanctions, and the votes of Italy and Ethiopia were not recorded. Although on record in support of economic sanctions, Switzerland made reservations concerning military ones.

A furious protest against the latest sanctions move was made by Baron Pompeo Aloisi, head of the Italian delegation. A spokesman said the Italian delegation, still awaiting orders, would probably leave for home tomorrow.

This informant said Italians are enraged and depressed over the assembly's stand against their nation.

"Why will the world not recognize Italy is stifling unto death and needs to find an outlet?" he asked. "Why doesn't it realize it must remove the causes of war and give Italy some great open spaces where Italians may breath?"

would come from the north when sufficient enemy forces had been concentrated in the vicinity of Jiliga).

The Ethiopian communique also said an Italian plane had crashed at Garaalta, in the north, with two fliers killed and two dying.

Italian infantrymen were reported advancing in the Webbe and Shibeli region, but it was claimed 1,000 native Eritrean soldiers had deserted to Ethiopia and were nearing Makale with Italian planes in pursuit.

Thousands On March

Fifty thousand Ethiopian troops, equipped with modern arms, were marching to the defense of Addis Ababa under Ras Guetatcho, governor general of Kaffa province. Twenty thousand more were on their way under the command of Dedjazmatch Apte Mariam, another provincial chief who wears half moon earrings to proclaim his prowess as a soldier and elephant-hunter.

Forty thousand soldiers under one of Selassie's relatives, Makonne Demissi, governor of Wallega province, likewise were moving on the capital. Dedjasmach Mechancha, of Kambata province, already had arrived and was encamped with his 15,000 troops.

Other armies, from various sectors, also were coming.

City Election

made by Commissioner A. J. Richardson, seconded by J. C. Royalty, who were the only two commissioners present. Commissioner W. B. Price was out of town Thursday, in South Texas.

Thursday His "Lucky Day"

Richardson had urged Thursday as the day for the election to fill the chair vacated by Benson. "Thursday's my lucky day," he said. The bond issue was voted on Thursday, Oct. 3.

W. E. Ballew, R. B. Smith and J. A. Hughes were named election judges in the resolution calling the election for Nov. 7.

Authorization to go ahead with plans and specifications for the municipal gas plant was given the city manager. Revenue bonds in the sum of $1,200,000 had been approved at the last election for establishing the municipal system here.

Payments Are Accepted

Assuming that the commission would approve city tax rolls, 1935 payments were accepted beginning Wednesday on arrival of receipt sheets at the city tax office.

Change in the PWA application was for the loan feature only of the proposal submitted in December, 1933. The grant is for $33,750 of a loan and grant of $112,500 originally sought.

The commission authorized purchase of a carload of 2-inch cast iron pipe to replace galvanized pipe conveying water on streets which are to be paved under the Works Progress administration program. It also authorized the taking of bids for placing office partitioning in the space now occupied by rows of seats in corporation court at City hall.

bill to third reading 18 to 8 and, failing to suspend rules, adjourned the senate for one minute to place it on final passage.

Senator Clint Small of Amarillo called up the liquor bill and, although it was temporarily displaced for final action on the tax bill, it obtained priority on the calendar.

Overnight recess made the bill pending business when the senate resumes tomorrow.

Vienna's Birds To Remain Safe

VIENNA, Oct. 10. (AP)—Whatever happens to Austria, so long as there are Viennese the birds and animals may be sure someone will look after them.

Slot-machines vending bird-seed in the city's parks have been well patronized by friends of the feathered folk all through the depression.

And on a busy day recently the fire department was called out twice: to feed some canaries which had been left behind when a flat-dweller departed on his vacation, and again to rescue a young deer from the suburbs which had lost its way in the underground canals of the city.

Jap Liner Beats Boycott At Port

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 10. (AP) — Boycotted by the International Longshoremen's association at Houston, whose members refused to discharge Brazilian cargo for Houston because she also carried cargo for New Orleans, the Japanese liner Buenes Aires Maru arrived in New Orleans today and began discharging cargo for New Orleans and Houston at this port.

The Buenos Aires Maru was working four hatches containing more than 40,000 bags of coffee, part of which had been intended for discharge at Houston. The wharf swarmed with activity as 180 longshoremen were busy unloading the coffee in the face of I. L. A. picketing.

Elsewhere along the riverfront work also continued. The New Orleans Steamship association reported 16 ships loading or discharging with 1,268 men at work today.

The Buenos Aires Maru, one of the largest liners plying regularly out of Gulf ports attempted to discharge at Houston Monday and Tuesday, but International Longshoremen's association members declined to work the cargo because there was some cargo for New Orleans and the ship left for New Orleans.

Popular Band To Play In Lubbock

Frank Ormsby and his New Yorkers will be at the Auditorium Friday night, Oct. 18, for a dance engagement that promises to attract big crowds from throughout the South Plains.

On tour after playing at large hotels and night clubs in the East and after filling Lowe and RKO vaudeville engagements, the Ormsby orchestra will be here for only the one night.

The dance and radio band is one of the most popular musical organizations of the East.

National Poll

prepared by the chamber's legal staff. The report takes up 13 1-2 pages; the "arguments in the negative" 14 pages of finer print.

The questions, based on the report:

1. Should there be extension of federal jurisdiction into matters of state and local concern?

2. Should the federal government at the present time exercise federal spending power without relation to revenue?

3. Should there be government competition with private enterprise for regulatory or other purposes?

4. Should all grants of authority by congress to the executive department of the federal government be within clearly defined limits?

The balloting will close Nov. 25. The chamber explained that trade associations hold 32.17 per cent of the voting strength, and local chambers of commerce and boards of trade the remainder.

Milk Strike

Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago.

Enough milk to insure continued operation was brought into Chicago—mainly through the vigilance of 1,000 men, "flying squadrons" of non-striking farmers, sheriff's deputies, private guards and county and state highway patrolmen who convoyed the supplies through picket lines.

Heavy Dust Storm Strikes In Oklahoma Late Thursday

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 10. (AP)—A heavy dust storm struck Muskogee tonight about 8:30 o'clock Flying high, the dust partially obscured the moon, then disappeared after two hours.

Muskogee residents reported that the dust was "almost as bad as it was here during the Panhandle storms last year."

Thieves Are Given Warning To Return Part Of Railroad

BENTON, Ill., Oct. 10. (AP)—If the thieves who stole a mile of railroad from the Illinois Central system don't bring it back they are apt to get into trouble with the authorities.

They not only took all of the track, but they carted away the ties as well, leaving only the roadbed.

The stolen property was a spur of the road near Cambria.

Officers said it was the first time they had been asked to recover part of a stolen railroad.

Approval Of Plans For A Negro School Voted Here

Approval of architects' plans for a negro high school building, construction of an athletic field house, addition to the Mexican school, construction of a little warehouse, repairs to Junior High school and of electric wiring at K. Carter school, was voted at 5 p. m. Thursday when the board of education of Lubbock schools system met at Lubbock sanitarium.

Discussion was made of plans based on an announced PWA grant of $23,000 for landscaping of school grounds and for purchase of playground equipment.

Auditor's report for the fiscal year ending Aug. 31 was approved as were current bills.

Present were Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, president, W. B. Atkins, R. F. Bayless, W. G. Alderson and Dr. Alle. T. Stewart.

County Officers In Organization

DALLAS, Oct. 10. (AP)—Officials of 25 counties in meeting here today organized the North Texas County Judges and Commissioners' association, elected officers and adopted by-laws.

Judge J. J. Lay of Grayson county was elected president. Other officials were:

Judge Robert Ogden, Dallas; Judge L. M. Seay, Limestone county; Commissioner G. T. Elliott and Commissioner Mrs. Roy Dunagen of Lamar county, and W. C. Stephenson, Ellis county, vice-presidents; and Judge J. F. Harrington, Coryell county, secretary-treasurer.

Montgomery Rites To Be Read Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Ben F. Montgomery, 73, of Carlsbad, N. M., who died here early Thursday morning, will be read at 2:30 this afternoon at Carlsbad. The body was taken there Thursday by Sanders Funeral home. Rev. W. H. Jorden, pastor of the First Methodist church there, will officiate.

Mrs. Montgomery, one of the pioneer settlers of the Lubbock area, died shortly after 2 a. m., at the home of a niece, Mrs. Joe Baldridge of 2105 Seventeenth street, her death being attributed to heart attack.

She came to Lubbock Wednesday from Tahoka, where she and her husband had been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Clark. Feeling ill, she underwent examination at a hospital and was confined to bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery and family had resided on the east Hockley county line, when that county was a part of Lubbock county, beginning in 1900 for 14 years. After residing in Lubbock for the next two years, they moved to Tahoka, leaving there in 1922 for Carlsbad.

Six nieces reside here, Mrs. Baldridge, Mrs. Claude H. Burrus, Mrs. R. I. Tubbs, Mrs. O. A. Sandlin, Mrs. L. G. Haynes, and Mrs. J. T. Trigg.

Immediate survivors are her husband; three sons, Sam and Ben, of Hobbs, N. M., and Carl of Carlsbad; and two daughters, Mrs. Paul McClung, Kerrville, and Mrs. Will Laswell, San Antonio.

Turkey School Opens Friday

Only Grading School In Texas And First Of Nine Slated In Nation To Start Today At Plainview

PLAINVIEW, Oct. 10. (Special)—The only turkey grading school in Texas, and the first of nine to be held in the United States, will be opened here Friday and be continued through Saturday. Leading turkey growers from the Panhandle-Plains territory are expected to attend.

Cooperating with the U. S. department of agriculture is the extension service of Texas A. & M.; Texas department of agriculture; the Plainview Chamber of Commerce; Plains Cooperative, Inc., and Plains Turkey Improvement association.

To Be At Hotel

Preliminary work for the local school was being done today at the plant of the Plains Cooperative, Inc., where Roy B. Davis, manager, and his force were killing and dressing a number of birds. The school is to be held at the Hilton hotel.

Thomas W. Heitz, marketing specialist, division of dairy and poultry products, U. S. D. A., Washington, is conducting the school. Assisting will be: George P. McCarty, College Station, extension service poultry husbandman; Roy B. Davis; County Agent W. W. Evans and his assistants; O. G. Tumlinson, district county agent leader; J. T. Hoggins, Kress, president and J. C. Eiring, Plainview, secretary of the local association of turkey growers.

Schools are to be held in other states, as follows: Salt Lake City, Utah; Phoenix, Ariz.; Seattle, Wash.; Billings, Mont.; Thermopolis, Wyo.; Greely, Colo.; Minot, N. D. and one in Minnesota.

Northwest Texas is given recognition as a turkey producing area through the meeting.

Boost In Prices Of Potatoes Seen

WASHINGTON Oct. 10. (AP)—With difficulties over compulsory tax-control of potatoes far from solved an authoritative source disclosed today that the AAA is drafting a tentative plan to increase price of the 1935 crop at once.

The tax-control law affects only potatoes harvested after Dec. 1, 1935, and consequently would apply first to next year's production. This law would place a tax of three-fourths of a cent a pound on all potatoes sold in excess of a national allotment.

The plan to increase present potato prices, it was learned, calls for heavy purchases of late potatoes by the government for relief distribution. The purchase program would be placed in effect in connection with a marketing agreement for western states.

The marketing agreement would be set up for producers in Colorado, Nebraska, Michigan, Wisconsin and other states in that area. The producers would agree to withhold from the market potatoes classed as "culls."

Baxter Bardwell Is Chosen President Of Senior Class

Balloting at Lubbock High school this week instated Baxter Bardwell as president and Miss Sara Beth Fox secretary of the senior class.

Five vice-presidents were elected recently when the class elected a nominating committee, members of which automatically became vice-presidents.

and saying, "Ahem—what can I do for you?" No, Mr. Schonebaum was no where in sight.

Gale said, " I wonder where he's gone?" She tried to make her voice sound natural but the effort wasn't entirely successful.

"I don't suppose he can be far away," Brian went on. "He'll probably show up in a moment or two."

Gale caught a glimpse of herself in the mirror behind the counter and saw that her cheeks were shining. She tugged at a wisp of hair blown from beneath her hat, pushing it into place. Meeting Brian anywhere was bad enough. Meeting him like this, with her face red, her clothes wet and limp from the storm, was a calamity.

They stood there, each waiting for the other to speak.

Gale thought, "This is ridiculous. I won't stay any longer. I'll make an excuse and get away—anywhere."

And yet she lingered.

HAZELTON, N. D. (AP) — October 24 is always a big day in the Reinhold Werner family. The three Werner children were all born on that date—Herbert E. in 1929, Beatrice in 1931 and Lila Jane, 1932.

Missionaries To Remain At Posts

ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 10. (AP)—American missionaries in Ethiopia remained at their posts today, ignoring advice from Washington that they leave.

A dozen mothers, children and sick persons have departed, but the missionaries say they consider the missionary call supreme, and that disregard of it in Ethiopia's hour of greatest need would be unworthy of Christians.

The Rev. James Rohrbaugh of Youngstown, O., at the interior Sudan mission, told the Associated Press he not only would despise himself if he deserted Ethiopia, but hoped to go to the front where there is the greatest need of his services.
