Ernesto Chavira, 29, was found guilty of the murder of Luis Martinez of Eldorado and sentenced to life imprisonment by a Schleicher County jury Wednesday June 4. The verdict was returned after only two hours of deliberation Wednesday night.

The killing took place in Eldorado February 10 when Chavira and Gilberto Gander knocked on the door of Martinez's home. When he came to the door Chavira shot him down with a .45 calibre pistol later found on the highway between Sonora and Eldorado.

judging teams participating in the judging events is not known but indications are that at least 13 or 14 teams will be on hand to take part.

Every year since 1959 the Sutton County Club has received the trophy as the best all-round club and has four times been over-all high team. In 1950 the team of John Mittel, Edward Valliant and Oscar Carpenter won the award and in 1953 Carlos Loeffler, Tommy Love and Preston Love composed the high team. In 1955 Turney Friess, Joe Friess and George Ed Hill tied the Crockett County Club for the honor and in 1956 Jack Baker, Gene Brodhead and Rodney Davis formed the winning team.

Over-all high individual awards were won by Oscar Carpenter in 1950, Carlos Loeffler in 1953, Gene Brodhead in 1956 and Claire Jones in 1957.

Junior championships for bags of wool have stayed consistently in the county since 1959 with Connie Mack Locklin, Nancy Hunt, Claire and Cleve T. Jones, Curt Schwiening, Jr., and Dick McMillan showing the championship bags.

As for wool single fleeces, junior championships have gone to Nancy Hunt in 1950, Rodney Davis in 1952, Connie Mack Locklin in 1953 and 1954, Jan Vander Stucken in 1956 and Anna Rose Glascock in 1957.

Since 1959 when Joe David Ross exhibited the junior grand championship mohair fleece, the award has gone out of the county, four time to Menard County, twice to Kimble County, once to Bandera County and Harper.

Judging team winners for the past four years have been: Livestock: Schleicher 4-H, Crockett 4-H, Sutton 4-H (Gene Brodhead, Rodney Davis, Jack Baker) and Bandera 4-H.

Wool: Junction FFA, Upton 4-H, Crockett 4-H and Upton 4-H.

Mohair: Junction FFA, Sutton 4-H (Turney Friess, Joe Friess, George Ed Hill), Sutton 4-H (Gene Brodhead, Claire Jones, Jack Baker), Upton 4-H.

Range Management: Menard 4-H, Sutton 4-H (Turney and Joe Friess, George Ed Hill), Eldorado FFA, Ozona FFA.

Last year's adult championship awards went to Glen Hay for the mohair fleece, to Elsie Earwood for the wool fleece and to Armer Earwood for the bag of wool.

Other teams for this age group in our area are at Ozona, Mertzon, Eldorado and Big Lake and it is hoped that games can be arranged between these teams.

Explorer Scouts Home After Week Spent On Beaches Of Padre Island

(Editor's Note: The following account of the Sonora Post of Explorer Scouts' seven-day camping trip to Padre Island was given us by Ralph Finklea who was one of the six adults accompanying the eight Explorers.)

Leaders were Finklea, Harold Saunders, Jr., Tommy Smith, W. A. McCoy, Earl Smith and Glen Hay. Explorers were Charlie Smith, Adrian McCoy, Bill McClelland, Johnny McClelland, Hank Hull, George Roberson, Douglas Woods and Joe Wess Hill.)

In addition to this the boys learned about animal life on the island which includes coyotes, but no snakes were sighted. They also learned a lot about marine life in the area, finding shrimp up to six inches long in the channel. These were easily caught but mullet was found to be somewhat harder to catch. Crabs were abundant and easily caught.

We were well-equipped for vehicles, having two pickups belonging to Earl Smith and Harold Saunders, Glen Hay's car, and Lem Earle Johnson's jeep which he loaned us. We found, though, pano, whitefish, bluefish and red drum. Large redfish were taken by Tommy Smith, Harold Saunders and Joe Wess Hill.

The section of the island near the channel is approximately 3 miles wide but the island cannot be crossed by vehicle at this point. Tents were pitched in the sand dunes and we started living in the sun, sand and wind. We swam and fished in the surf and the boys learned to use a cast net like those used in the South Sea Island and soon became proficient at it.

Eight adventurous Explorers and six grown men left Sunday, June 8, for the southern part of Padre Island via San Antonio, Pleasanton, Alice, Harlingen and Port Isabel. The advance party reached the camp site at the Port Mansfield channel 28 miles up the island at 11:30 p.m. Sunday night. The remainder of the party arrived about four o'clock Monday afternoon.

Fishing began immediately. Game fish and skip jack were plentiful as were small sharks, killer sharks, sand sharks, pom-four-wheel drive was of no use. Once we had to pick up the jeep bodily and lift it out of the sand and another time we had to lift one of the pickups over onto plants. Our four vehicles stuck a total of 12 times on our way back to the mainland.

Our second day in camp found the eight Explorers tanned and the six leaders sunburned. The men rotated on cooking meals with the Explorers helping out and doing dishes. The best meal of the trip was prepared by Glen Hay and included fried steak and potatoes, English peas, salad, iced tea and sliced peaches.

A part of our group, stuck in the sand, met up with a reporter from the Dallas Morning News who was on an expedition to uncover a lost city on the island. We didn't know about the city or we would have joined the expedition.

We arrived home, right on schedule, at six o'clock Saturday night. And it's a good thing. If we'd stayed one more day, we'd have had to be carried out!

Devil's River Philosopher Amazed To Find Senatoring Like Ranching You Spend More Than you Take In

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-sweet ranch on Devil's River probably is confused this week, but it's not the first time.

Dear editor:

According to an article I read yesterday afternoon while I was sitting under a tree out here on my ranch—I could have said while I was resting under a tree but I have never felt that a man had to be tired before he could sit down in the shade of a tree in the summer time and I sat down under this tree because I wanted to—the high cost of campaigning for office has become a serious problem and the two major political parties are trying to do something about it.

As I understand it, it sometimes costs more to run for an office than the job pays. One U. S. Senator said it costs between $150,000 and $200,000 to run for that office, while the job only pays $135,000 for a full six-year term.

You mean to say Senatoring is no better job than ranching? I can understand how a farmer would spend more making a crop than he gets, it happens all the time, but I always figured a Senator was smarter.

However, what interest me about the things is that the two parties are going to do something about it. A drive is now underway to get individuals all over the country to contribute more money. Doesn't make any difference which party you give it to, give it to the one of your choice, but give something, and the money will be taken and distributed around to cut down on the high cost of campaigning.

This way a candidate will be obligated to a loss of people instead of a few.

I think we ought to get behind this program. It'll keep politicians interested in their jobs. Anybody can see if a man has to pay more for his job than his job pays, it won't be long until he gives it up and tries something else, and how could the United States face the world if it came up with half the seats in the U. S. Senate unfilled?

It's one thing for a rancher to give up and move to town, but the United States would be the laughing stock of the world if the half its Senators and two-thirds its Congressmen threw in the towel because economically speaking, they were marginal politicians, no more able to justify their existence than marginal ranchers.

Personally, I think we need the U. S. Senate and Congress too and people who say if the job doesn't pay they ought to give it up and try something else are taking a mighty short-sighted view of the matter. If you'll tell me where I'm supposed to send my money to keep the Senate filled, I'll think it over.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

O. C. Fisher's Letter Mostly About Sonorans

By Congressman O. C. Fisher
Foreign aid for the next year got Senate approval last week, following House approval a little earlier. The total authorization will be about $3 billion. But actual appropriation must come later and the real test will then come on how much money will be funded. It will probably be somewhat less than the $3 billion figure.

Half of all imports to South America last year came from the USA. Our Latin neighbors paid $4.7 billion for the purchases, mostly in cash. In turn, we bought $3.7 billion worth of goods from our southern neighbors. To pinpoint it, we buy 44.2 percent of their products, and 48.8 percent of their imports came from us.

This trade with Latin America is almost as large as our trade with Europe, reports Congressman Omar Burleson of Anson, an Authority on South American affairs. Our neighbors to the south buy 35 percent of our auto exports and trucks, a third of our exports of chemicals and electrical machinery, iron and steel mill products, and 17 percent of our exports of foodstuffs.

This record accentuates the importance of our relations with our neighbors in the western hemisphere.

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

COUNT THE COST

By Rev. W. L. Brown
"And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?" Luke 14:27-28.

Man is not a mere creature of circumstances, like a plant. Christ expects us to act as reasonable men and to sit down and count the cost before starting any serious undertaking. This "tower" referred to stands for beauty, safety and prospect, and is applicable to all "Character builders" (ver. 27). No wise man desires his life to end like the tower of Babel, in shame and confusion. To live the Christian life is indeed a great and solemn undertaking. Many begin this tower and seem not able to finish, nora. Robert Hardgrave, of Sonora, a Junior in Texas University, is spending the summer recess in Washington, working in the Capitol Building.

Clay Puckett, also of Sonora, graduated last week from the Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary in nearby Alexandria, Virginia, formerly publisher of Sonora's "Devil's River News". Puckett switched to ministry three years ago when he entered the Seminary. In spare time he worked as a Capitol policeman. Attending the graduation were Clay's mother; Rev. Brown and Dick Copeland. My office staff and I also attended. Rev. Puckett and family will depart soon for Corpus Christi where he has accepted a call from an Episcopal Church there.

bringing themselves into ridicule, and the tower into a laughing stock.

The cost of being a Christian is so great although early training and environment may influence greatly. Whatever the price, it must be paid. We must count on GIVING UP ALL SIN. Christ gave Himself for us that He might "redeem us from all iniquity" (Titus 2:14) Sin is the worst of all investments. Every scheme in which it has a place is rotten. SURRENDERING THE WILL to God, "What wilt Thou have me to do?" Must be the attitude of the soul. We must count what it will cost the self life to put Christ first in everything, and to seek first His Kingdom. SEPARATION FROM THE WORLD is Christ's command. We are to go after Him bearing His cross (ver. 27) By His cross the world is to be crucified unto us, and we to the world (Gal. 6:14) When we find our all in Christ, it is easy to give up all for Him. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

Christ counted the cost when He came forth to live the life of the Father among sinful men. As the Father sent Me, so have I sent you.

Greatest Problem In Texas Today—Traffic Accidents

No state problem looms so great, yet in no state problem is the solution more evident than in that of traffic accidents and congestion. While scientific research forges tirelessly in search of preventatives and cures for cancer, heart disease and other dread killers, progress is comparatively slow in controlling traffic accidents—where oddly enough, more knowledge is available.

We know many of the facts. We have already developed the "vaccines" which will protect us from much traffic tragedy and strangulation of traffic movement.

It is understandable that the public's heart goes out to victims of disease and that the public supports national fund-raising campaigns, contributing millions of dollars to scientific research for prevention and for care of those struck down by the diseases. But why does the same public remain relatively apathetic to traffic accidents—accepting death and injury with a fatalistic attitude?

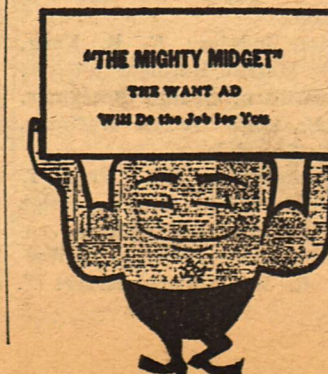

No one has the complete answer. Yet the solution is at hand. Tested and proven methods have been used successfully in many communities and often the results have been immediately apparent.

Community support for rigid traffic control, traffic engineering, public education, efficient traffic courts, active safety councils with a local program geared to a statewide campaign or national movement. These are the "vaccines" for traffic protection.

Locally, or on a statewide basis, we cannot endure the annual drain on our manpower and resources exacted each year by traffic accidents and congestion. More than 122,000 injuries, 2,539 lives and the staggering cost of over $277 million, not to mention the untold misery and suffering left in the wake of traffic smash-ups, are too much to endure.

There is not one among us who can honestly say to himself: "There's nothing I can do." There is plenty we can do! And must do!

We cannot stay out of it and we cannot be undecided—as an individual or a city. If we don't become part of the solution, we are part of the problem! There is no other choice.

Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District News

By E. B. Keng
Soil Conservation Service

Unfavorable moisture conditions continue to plague a re-cord acreage of land seeded to grass in the Edwards Plateau SCD. Below normal rainfall in March, April, May and June-four of the fields were seeded to side-oats grama, blue grama, blue panicum, KR bluestem, and buffelgrass.

Several of the early plantings received showers in May, causing seed to germinate. Lack of normal rainfall, plus a heavy weed crop, has prevented germination on most of the acreage.

Seeding on some 3,000 acres of root plowed land on nine ranches has been completed. Blue panicum was used as a base grass, with sideoats and blue grama, KR and buffelgrass added in some instances. Buddy Mayer has some blue panicum up on land which was root plowed and seeded this year. Blue panicum failed to germinate on land that was plowed and seeded last fall. Buddy recently overseeded this area with two pounds of blue panicum per acre, by airplane.

Leo Merrill, at the Ranch Experiment Station, recently root plowed and ripped some 65 acres of stony hill land. The area was planted to a good mixture of native and introduced grasses for observation. Those who witnessed the plowing thought it remarkable that a root plow could tear up a hillside so thoroughly. The extremely rough, broken surface will trap all of the water, and seeding results may be surprisingly good. It is a worthwhile trial for ranchmen and others to watch.

Though excellent results have been obtained in many areas from rootplowing, the success seems to depend primarily on receiving a heavy rain soon after seeding. The root plow thoroughly loosens the soil to a depth of 12-14 inches, and a heavy rain is required to wet the area. Small rains of one to two inches, or less, tend to dry out rapidly before the grass can get started.

New Fawn Crop Now Being Seen In Hill Country

This year's fawn crop is coming on two weeks early, according to the Director of Wildlife Restoration of the Game and Fish Commission.

"Jim Teer, our Biologist in the Edwards Plateau area, brings in reports that many young deer are already being seen in the Hill Country," the Director said.

So far worms have not been as serious a problem as last year. We have a heavy survival of does from last year, and there should be a bountiful crop of fawns this season. Full scale nesting of turkeys also is underway. No broods have been seen by the biologists as yet, but they have found nests indicating a favorable hatch can be expected.

Ample rains during the spring have put the range in fine condition, according to all reports from the deer country. Deer census lines also are being set out in some of the country south of San Antonio in preparation for counts early this fall before the hunting season.

STATE NEWS

A new court house is about to be erected at Belton, which will cost over thirteen thousand dollars.

The Quitman Herald, of the 19th says the health of Wood county is remarkably good.

The same paper also says, for weeks past there has hardly been a day that we have not seen some one hunting a home in Texas.

We learn from the Bonham Independent that the rust is doing great injury to the oat crop in many portions of Washington County.

The Jefferson Gazette of the 29th inst., mentions the discovery of silver in the upper portion of Cass county, which has created considerable excitement in that region.

Great numbers of sheep are annually raised in Northern Texas and shipped to the New Orleans market, where they are sold readily at from four to five dollars a head.

We learn from the Pioneer that the crops in Freestone county are backward, owing to the excessive rains. Wheat and rye look tolerably well; but the oat crop it is said will be an entire failure.

Nine persons, it is stated have recently been killed by the Indians, about twenty five miles from Weatherford, Parker county. On Keechie Creek in that county, the people are building forts for protection.

A large drove of sheep, numbering 1,200, passed through town yesterday. They were purchased in Mexico, at one dollar per head, we were told; we did not learn their destination.

In a letter received by Geo. W. Glascock, esq., from the Assessor of Williamson county, we find the following interesting statistics:

Number of acres planted in Corn, 10,908.

Number of acres planted in Wheat 10,278.

Number of acres planted in Cotton 1,208.

Number of acres planted in Other things 983.

Seems there is no fear of starvation. All we now need is capital to build railroads, which a large emigration will certainly furnish.

YEAR 'ROUND AIR CONDITIONER

Scientists have known for years that enough natural heat exists in outdoor air, even in the coldest weather, to heat every home in the world. If this heat could be extracted... concentrated... and brought indoors—what a solution to everyone's heating problem!

But that's just what a summer air conditioner does... in reverse. It extracts and concentrates indoor heat and moves it outdoors.

The All Electric Heat Pump Air Conditioner is an air conditioner that can reverse itself automatically to cool or heat as needed to maintain indoor comfort at an even level. An improved reverse-cycle valve, sensitive to indoor temperature changes of even a few degrees, switches from cooling to heating and back again automatically... to maintain the comfort level at which you set the thermostat.

COMPLETELY AUTOMATIC

The Electric Heat Pump is completely automatic. During changeable weather, even if it is within the hour, the Heat Pump will switch from heating to cooling and back again as the temperature changes require.

You do not need to change the temperature dial, you just set the thermostat for the temperature you desire and forget it. The Electric Heat Pump is the ONLY completely automatic Air Conditioner.

QUALITY THE PRESCRIPTION PHARMACY SERVICE

IT NEVER WAS NECESSARY TO
"Enjoy" POOR HEALTH...

Many people seem to "enjoy" poor health. They would not care to be without a cupboardful of odd medicines for self-treatment—some of which may not be in keeping with competent medical advice.

The better way is to enjoy good health—by careful planning. Consult your Doctor at regular intervals; more often if required. He will prescribe only the preparations that you need—preparations of the highest quality, such as those from the laboratories of Parke, Davis & Company—prescriptions which we will be pleased to compound for you. The necessity for medication will pass; and life with abundant health can become a pleasure indeed.

In a Home-Town Store ... Is Just Like*

Putting Money in the Bank

... a bank you can draw on for customers, a job, friends in time of trouble, schools for your children, churches for spiritual help ... and the good life in this community ... where everybody is Somebody

Every time you spend a dollar in this community for goods and services, a substantial part of that dollar automatically becomes an investment in an enriched social and business life for YOU and your family and friends.

It's an investment you can draw on every day of your life ... an investment that pays big dividends in happiness and prosperity, as it strengthens and builds up the vitality of this area in which you live ... and in which YOU are important.

Contrast this with what the community-building and supporting part of your dollar does for you when you spend it away from home, send it to some mail order house, or surrender it to some migratory peddler.

It's gone. To support some other area ... to build up wealth that YOU can never draw on ... and to strengthen those who aggressively drain off the trade of your community ... to weaken your business, your schools and churches, to eliminate your job, and devalue your property.

New Bread Law Goes Into Effect July 1 In Texas

New bread standards go into effect July 1, to assure that you get the kind of bread you pay for. After that date, if you buy a loaf of cinnamon-raisin bread and it doesn't have raisins in it, the baker is subject to action.

The standards will require all bread and rolls to be properly labeled so as to truthfully reflect their ingredients and nutritious qualities.

Patterned after federal food standards, they will be administered by the State Health Dept's Food and Drug Division. A majority of the baking industry fully supports the standards.

Labeling means much more than a colorful wrapping around a loaf of bread. It includes, among other things, the advertising claims made by the baker for his product.

A food is misbranded when its labeling is false or misleading in any particular, if it is offered for sale under the name of another food, or if it is an imitation of another food (unless its label bears in prominent type the word "imitation" and immediately thereafter the name of the food imitated.)

Bread is also mislabeled if it purports to be or is represented as a food for which a "standard of identity" has been described and it fails to conform to that standard.

Standards not only protect consumers in the marketplace; they also protect honest manufacturers by assuring fair competition. The consumer may select and serve standardized foods with complete confidence in their composition and integrity.

The law's basic requirements for clean handling, informative labeling and no adulteration gives consumers an insight into the purity, wholesomeness and nutritious quality of the product.

Bread labels must show net weight or numerical count of the product, such as "net weight, one

While there is no specific requirement as to type size, the standards do provide that the label shall be considered false if the information is not prominently displayed in such a manner that it can be easily read.

You, as a consumer of bread and rolls, can help make the new standards work by carefully reading the label on the bread you buy.

Airport News

By Hollis E. Moore

Shades of gloom or joy prevailed at the airport last week. The Gooney Bird is gone. Yes, as the muffled roar of the engine slowly faded away as she climbed into the blue you could hear sighs of sorrow from the members of the club, or was that a sigh of relief?

R. M. McCarver has recently completed installation of an auxiliary UNICOM radio at his residence. This will enable him to give service to incoming aircraft even at night.

Buddy Mayer has donated a magazine rack to the airport for its use in keeping our various publications presentable. Thanks, Buddy.

Billy Shurley of Marfa was recent visitor in a Tri Pacer. "Pop" Fullwood of Kerrville flew in a Cessna 170. Don Davol, Champion distributor of Florence, Texas, flew in a Champion. R. A. Senior of Fort Worth came by in a Bell helicopter representing Hawk Helicopters. Riley Jackson flew his Tri Pacer in for an overnight stay. Dunn's Cessna 310 has visited our airport twice in the last few days.

Recently released figures by the Civil Air Board and the American Automobile Association reveal that flying is safer. In 1957 the scheduled airlines had four accidents for a total of 67 casualties. Unscheduled airlines had no accidents. Automobile accidents accounted for over 38,700 deaths in 1957.

For the sixth straight year airlines had a fatality rate of less than one for every 100 million passenger miles. The rate for 1957 in air travel was 0.1 per 100 million passenger miles. Automobile fatalities for the same period worked out to nearly 6.0 per million passenger miles. Be careful driving to the airport. IT IS SIXTY TIMES SAFER TO FLY THAN TO DRIVE.

The foremost quality of a leader is one who can discipline himself. Does this sound like you? I can jaywalk here and save those extra steps down to the corner, or if I speed up a little I can cut across in front of that car coming and not have to stop and wait for him. Psychologists tell us that if we do these seemingly trivial things that violate known rules or laws of safety that we are guilty of immaturity in our development. The mature individual and one who has great self control is the one who resists these impulses and does what he knows to be right at the sacrifice of a few minutes of personal inconvenience.

Remembrance of the time when we used to play marbles brings to mind an apt name for these seemingly trivial violation of safety—FUDGING. Check yourself and see if you are guilty of fudging.

Fudging in this sense means to go beyond an accepted limit.

Ye Olde Instructor, in light of the above reminds you to heed this slogan: IF YOU FLY, DON'T FUDGE.
