Winds Ranging To 100 Miles Are Reported

United States Is Sweltering Again In Wave Of Heat

(By The United Press)

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 26—A tropical hurricane with winds at about 100 miles per hour howled in the direction of the United States mainland from 1,200 miles at sea today.

An 11 a. m. advisory from the Miami hurricane warning service said the storm was centered 360 miles northeast of Puerto Rico. It was moving toward the South Florida coast at the rate of 13 miles per hour.

A Navy "hurricane hunter" plane over the storm area reported it was "increasing slowly in size and intensity."

Caution Is Advised

The new warning placed the storm at latitude 21.8 north, longitude 62 west.

Winds near the center were estimated at 100 miles per hour with hurricane force winds covering an area 50 to 60 miles outward from the "eye." Gale winds were measured within a radius of 125 miles.

First Of Season

The first hurricane of the 1948 season was moving northwestward along the path followed by previous storms born in the doldrums of the South Atlantic ocean.

The first warning, issued at 2:45 a. m. CST today, located the storm 400 miles northeast of San Juan, capital of Puerto Rico.

HEAT WAVE SUBSIDES SOME IN MIDWEST

CHICAGO, Aug. 26 (AP) — An August heat wave subsided slightly today in the midwest. But intense heat continued in the Ohio valley and the lower Great Lakes, and it was hotter in northeastern states.

The weather bureau said no general relief from the heat is expected until the weekend. Higher humidity wiped out any comfort gained by lower temperatures.

High temperatures ranged from 92 to 96 today in most sections hit by the hot weather. It was a little cooler in Iowa, Missouri and the Great Plains states. The mercury approached 100 in some

Mild Weather Greets State

(By The United Press)

Comparatively mild temperatures and thundershowers greeted Texas today after all but the extreme southwest portion along the middle and upper Rio Grande got relief from a lengthy heat wave.

Skies were clear to partly cloudy in West Texas and along the length of the Rio Grande this morning, while North, East and South Texas had considerable cloudiness and scattered showers. Light showers also were reported from the Panhandle.

San Antonio Drenched

A post-midnight thunderstorm which dumped 4.42 inches of rain on San Antonio in less than six hours gave that city the title of being the wettest spot in the state. A total of 5.58 inches has fallen there in the 48 hours ending at 6:30 a. m. today.

Other rainfall figures included 2.59 inches at Trinidad, 1.49 at Mineral Wells, 1.13 at Smithville, .46 at Beaumont, .30 at Columbus, .36 at Tyler, .02 at Van Horn, .20 at Wharton, .14 at Lufkin, .28 at Dallas, .13 at Fort Worth, .26 at at Houston, .37 at Galveston, .40 at Brady, .33 at Fredericksburg and .08 at Texarkana.

Yesterday's highs ranged from 81 at Brady to 102 at Presidio with most readings near 90 degrees, while today's minimums fell between 61 at Marga and 80 at Galveston.

TEXAS SECOND IN FATALITIES

Polio Death Toll Hits 420 In U. S.

(By The United Press)

Infantile paralysis has taken more than 420 lives this year, a state-by-state survey showed today.

The number of cases reported throughout the nation totaled almost 9,000.

Health officials of most states reported that the incidence of the disease was "normal." But many reported more cases than last year, indicating that the dreaded cycle of poliomyelitis was on the upswing in many areas.

California reported 91 deaths so far this year, more than any other state. Texas was second with 83 deaths and North Carolina was third with 83.

But on the basis of population North Carolina's outbreak was the worst. Cases reported there totaled 1,670, compared with 1,728 in populous California and 1,186 in Texas.

The epidemic was the worst in North Carolina's history. During the peak of the outbreak, heavily stricken towns closed all theaters, churches and public gathering places.

In many towns children still were not admitted to public places, and a fourth of the state's schools plan to postpone opening. About one-fourth of the North Carolina cases were of the deadly bulbar type.

Milwaukee Has Outbreak

Wisconsin was far down the list with only 127 cases reported this year, but the city of Milwaukee was in the midst of its most deadly outbreak. The city reported 100 cases, 14 of them fatal. Health officers said the bulbar type caused most of the deaths.

Milwaukee health commissioner E. R. Krumbiegel warned parents to keep children at home. He said the highest incidence of the disease was among children under 12.

The Milwaukee county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile paralysis voted to buy hospital equipment, three oxygen trucks and a respirator. It also voted to pay the costs in bringing 10-out-of-state nurses to Milwaukee and accepted the offer of the musicians union to play a benefit concert to raise funds.

In addition to North Carolina,

Wrote the police officer on his night report: "Remarkable. This woman was really the man's wife."

Prison Parole Plan Assailed

Assailing "the damnable parole system which in Texas has turned loose thousands of criminals to prey upon the public," Homer Hill, Fort Worth attorney, told the Kiwanis club luncheon at Hotel Lubbock today that "it is time the people are waking up" to their duties as citizens.

One of a score of Kiwanians from three Fort Worth clubs presenting a program here as part of the organization's inter-club relations effort, Hill charged that people are more interested in pleasure than in good citizenship.

Not Room For Them

He said criminals are turned loose under the parole system partly because there is not room enough in the penitentiary system to take care of them. And this, he said, is a matter in which it is time the people are showing some interest.

Speaking on "Kiwanians in Public Affairs," Hill enumerated a number of things in which he believes the public should take an

Rancher Asks Court To Let Him See Son

WAXAHACHIE, Aug. 26. (AP)—Henry Ford White, Midlothian rancher today asked a court order to compel his estranged wife, Mrs. Mollie O'Daniel White, and her parents, Senator and Mrs. W. Lee O'Daniel, to let him visit his year-old son, Henry Ford White, jr.

Mrs. White filed suit for divorce early in July.

White, in applying for a "show cause" order today in Judge A. R. Stout's 40th district court, said he had been denied the right to see his son since Mrs. White sued for divorce. His petition said he had reason to believe the child was in the household of Senator O'Daniel at Fort Worth.

Cut In Farm Funds Rumored

Price Support Plan Proving Costly To U. S.

1949 Production Program Now Is Being Drafted

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (AP) — Talk of possible cuts in farm price suports was heard in government circles today. It stemmed from the prospect that the Agriculture department may have to put up around $1,500,000,000 to keep prices on 1948 crops from falling below levels fixed by law.

Any changes would have to be made by Congress, however, and the lawmakers are not due back until January.

Program Is Mapped

Discussion of the price support problem was heard anew at the Agriculture department where officials are mapping out a 1949 farm production program. Its goal is to get farmers to start cutting back from high wartime levels in some crops—particularly wheat, potatoes, oilseeds, and possibly corn.

A proposal that 8 per cent less land be planted to wheat already has been announced. But reports from the field indicate that growers plan to ignore the department's recommendations and plant another big acreage.

To Ignore Suggestions

The action of Congress in June in extending the wartime price supports for basic crops another year was said to be influencing the farmers' wheat plans. Officials said growers of other crops also are likely to ignore suggestions for smaller output of crops already listed as surplus.

The Truman administration had urged lower price supports for next year's crops.

No responsible department official is willing to be quoted by name, but many say privately they believe the next Congress will find it advisable to trim the support levels in order to prevent an accumulation of big surpluses.

Total To Be Costly

They already are estimating that it will take around $1,500,000,000 in commodity loans and government purchases to carry out supports on this year's crops. These estimates include: 3,000,000 bales of cotton for a total of between $450,000,000 and $500,000,000; 1,000,000,000 bushels of wheat at $200,000,000; 400,000,000 bushels of corn at about $600,000,000; and $250,000,000 on other commodities, including eggs and potatoes.

Officials said present support

General American Oil company No. 1 E. M. Carmicheal is to be a new exploration for the Arick field in southeast Hale county, about three miles north of Petersburg. It is outside the proven area of that field.

The location is 660 feet from north and 330 feet from west lines of the General American lease in section 8, block K, TTRR survey. It is to dig to 6,000 feet to explore into the Pennsylvanian lime. Operations are to start immediately.

Streamlined Draft Procedure Will Expedite Registration

Plans Outlined For Selective Service

Lubbock County To Register Men For Draft At One Office

When the Selective Service Act of 1948 goes into operation in Lubbock county on Aug. 30, there will be only one place of registration for all residents of the county, and that will be at 1108 Fourteenth street.

Shallowater, Idalou, Slaton and Wolfforth will not have registration centers, according to a recent decision of officials of Texas local board 88, serving Lubbock, Garza, Crosby and Lynn counties.

John G. Harvey of Crosbyton, will be in charge of Crosby county registrations, and according to information issued this morning by Mrs. Viola Younger, clerk of the board, there will probably be separate registration places set up at Crosbyton, Ralls and Lorenzo.

Mrs. Younger also indicated that Lynn county will probably have two registration places — at O'Donnell and Tahoka. Registration in that county will be under supervision of J. L. Schooler.

State selective service headquarters this morning notified Mrs. Younger that L. W. Dalby of Post will be in charge of Garza county registrations. Registration centers for that county were not known here early this afternoon.

Local draft officials have emphasized the importance of filling in line two on the draft registration form correctly. They explained that no matter where a person registers, his card will eventually go on file at whatever draft board center is indicated on line two.

Registrations from all four counties will come to the Lubbock board for classification, Mrs. Younger explained.

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Selective service said today that the draft registration starting next Monday will be a lot more "painless" than the last one.

"The machinery for registration appears to be much better organized than it was during the prewar days," an official said in an interview. "Now we have 18 days in which to register an estimated 9,500,000 men.

"Last time we had to do the job of registering 16,500,000 men in just about 24 hours."

That was on Oct. 16, 1940, when registrants lined up day long, and through the night, to get their names on the line for the war that was coming.

Completion Date Set

The coming registration of all male citizens and residents who are 18 through 25 years of age will be greatly simplified over the 1940 procedure. For example, only one age group will register at a time, starting Monday with those who are 25. On succeeding days, those who are 24, 23, 22, and down to just 18 will register.

All this will be completed by Sept. 18.

The men to be registered in any one of the 20,000 stations established by the 4,000 local boards in the states and territories, will line up single file between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. local time.

Right then and there, they will be separated in two lines. One will be for veterans. This line will move fast, because most former G. I.'s will not be called for service. Neither will 18 year olds. But they have to register.

Procedure Explained

A second line, longer and slower, will line up the non-veterans.

Both lines will sign a tally sheet listing individual names and addresses. Then each line will pass on to the registrars, who will ask 16 simple questions pertaining to age, place of birth, occupation, marital status and the like.

"We believe that with such a registration system worked out, the procedure will be far less painful than it was during the prewar registration," a selective service spokesman said. "Of course, the veterans themselves can simplify the whole operation by bringing with them the proof

BUYERS' STRIKE BOOSTS SUPPLY

Cut In Meat Price Forced By Surplus

(By The United Press)

Some big meat markets in the East slashed prices today in an effort to move backlogs of meat clogging the coolers.

Market analysts said the heat wave and consumer resistance wave had reduced demand so that meat supplies were beginning to pile up in warehouses.

At Pittsburgh, one market cut prices on steaks to 69 cents a pound, lamb chops to 65 and sliced bacon to 55.

Government Loss Seen

However, price cutting was not general. Small stores held their prices steady rather than take a loss to keep stocks moving.

At Washington, meanwhile, it was predicted that the government would have to underwrite a support program of more than $2,000,000,000 to hold farm prices at high levels this year.

Actually, the government will spend only a fraction of the total guarantee but it could be obligated for a considerable sum if a major farm slump developed.

Market analysts at Chicago denied, however, that the government price support program caused the inflation in food prices. They pointed out, for example, that the support price on hogs is only about $16.83 and that hogs are selling between $27 and $30.50 a hundred-weight.

Steers would be supported at about $12.24 if a price support

Indians Given Right To Vote

AUSTIN, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—Attorney General Price Daniel ruled today that the Alabama and Coshatti Indians are citizens of the United States, residents of Texas and legally qualified to vote in a state election.

The question of whether the first Americans are Americans arose when J. S. Holleman, district attorney of Montgomery county, asked whether Indians have to pay a poll tax.

The attorney general said they do.

Housed On Reservation

Members of the tribe in question are housed on a reservation in Polk county.

The attorney general set out that "we are of the opinion that the Alabama and Coshatti Indians in Polk county are eligible voters in Texas to the same extent as members of any other race. Those between the ages of 21 and 60 who do not come within other general exemptions must have paid a poll

New Gaines Field Indicated In Test

SEMINOLE, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—A new oil field for Gaines county was seen as a certainty today on results of a drillstem test in the Fullerton section of the Permian at Shell's No. 1 Hawkins wildcat, 2½ miles southwest of the Robertson field.

On a two hour drillstem test, the Hawkins well recovered 5,100 feet of clean 39 gravity oil from 7,103-7,240 feet.

Shell was reported drilling ahead toward the Ellenburger, the original objective of the test.

The Robertson field produces from a shallower zone than the Fullerton and Shell's well was listed as a new discovery. Some pay was reported when the wildcat went through the Robertson's producing horizon.

Pilot Is Killed In Crash Near Giddings

GIDDINGS, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—One man was killed today in the crash of a light plane in an open field six miles east of Giddings.

The pilot was not identified immediately. He was flying a national guard plane believed to have been flown from Camp Hood as a part of training maneuvers, said M. F. Kieke, Lee county attorney.

The plane crashed at about 10:10 a. m. Kieke said the pilot's watch was stopped on that time.

Angry Tirades By Pro-Soviet Groups Heard

Crowd Of 10,000 Or More Surging Outside City Hall

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Aug. 26—Backed by a howling crowd, pro-Communists forced their way into Berlin's city hall today and took over the assembly chamber for a propaganda barrage against the anti-Communist city government.

While 10,000 or more persons shouted and surged outside, some 500 pushed through police lines into the building and took seats in the third-floor assembly hall. They remained there long enough to hear tirades against the city government and then left to join the huge crowd outside.

In Russian Sector

The city hall is in the Russian sector of Berlin. The Socialist party announced it is planning a counter-demonstration outside the burned-out German Reichstag building, which, though it is in the British sector, is only a stone's throw from the Soviet sector border.

During the wild demonstration, Communist leaders shouted demands for "an end to this bankrupt city government." They called for formation of an administration in Berlin "which will work hand in hand with the great Soviet union and countries of eastern Europe."

Scheduled To Vote

Berlin's city parliament (council), predominantly anti-Communist, had been scheduled to vote today on a resolution to send a Berlin delegation to western Germany's constitutional assembly at Bonn Sept. 1. They called off the session when it became known that the Socialist Unity party (SED), sponsored by the Russians and dominated by the Communists, planned the demonstration. Two SED members of the nine-man senior parliamentary committee voted against postponement.

While the Communists met inside, the crowd outside chanted the Red anthem, the "Internationale." In the hall, Karl Litke, SED member of the senior committee, demanded a voice for his party in ruling the city. The SED was defeated soundly in the October, 1946 elections, in which the Socialists emerged as the strongest party.

Litke did not say how he pro-

Suit Filed In Water Dispute

AUSTIN, Aug. 26 (U.P.)—Attorney General Price Daniel today filed suit against the city of Denton seeking enforcement of a 49-year-old agreement which would force the city to furnish free water to the North Texas State Teachers college.

The city has threatened to cut off all water to the school after Aug. 28 if a charge of $1,511.95, covering water furnished during July, is not paid before that date.

The suit, filed in 98th district court and asking a declaratory judgment, was filed by Daniel in the name of the members of the school's board of trustees.

Ed J. Williams, chairman, and the six other members of the city commission were named defendants.

Under an agreement, entered into between the city and the 26th legislature in October of 1899 the city contracted to furnish free water to the school.

The state has held that the agreement was in perpetuity.

However, the city has argued that the act by the 26th legislature was unconstitutional, and the agreement is void.

Democrats Forecast Big Labor Backing; GOP Disputes Effect

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26—Democrats jubilantly forecast today top-heavy labor backing for the Truman-Barkley ticket in November. But Republicans disputed its effect.

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) predicted to a reporter that the CIO board meeting here next Monday will join AFL leaders in backing the President's bid for a full term in the White House.

But Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) contended that even if this occurs, it won't keep the country from electing Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the GOP nominee.

The 51-member CIO board will have before it the question of endorsing Mr. Truman's candidacy. There is not much doubt in any politician's mind that it will do so, but not by a unanimous vote. Some CIO leaders are backing Henry A. Wallace's Progressive party.

AFL Leaders Back HST

The AFL leadership acted at a meeting in Chicago yesterday to back Mr. Truman. While the labor organization decided to hold to its traditional role of not endorsing candidates, President Green said a separate committee will be formed to work for the Truman-Barkley ticket.

A day ahead of the CIO meeting, the once anti-Truman Americans for Democratic action will hold an expanded national board session in Chicago—also to discuss the matter of political endorsements.

Chairman Leon Henderson, the former price control boss, declined ay prediction. He noted, however, that the ADA has a "big constituency from labor unions" and added:

"If you know what they are going to do you probably know what we will do."

As for the AFL committee to plug for the Truman-Barkley ticket, George M. Harrison, head of the brotherhood of railway clerks, said it will be made up of as many international presidents of AFL unions as want to join. He said that probably all but one or two will come in.

O'Mahoney said this means that the Democrats will have strong, active labor support in the campaign that may well result in victory for Mr. Truman.

"The AFL yeaders have displayed strong confidence that Mr. Truman will be elected," O'Mahoney said. "I don't think there is any doubt that the CIO will take the same stand."

As examples of what organized labor already has done for the Democrats, O'Mahoney pointed to Tennessee and his own state of Wyoming.

He credited labor with a vital part in helping Rep. Estes Kefauver, who has been friendly to the Truman administration, win the senatorial nomination away from Senator Tom Stewart.

In Wyoming, O'Mahoney said labor's turnout caused the Democrats to register a higher vote total in their primary than the Republicans.

Bricker said the AFL leaders' decision to back Mr. Truman was expected, adding that it "doesn't mean anything."

Teamsters Union Uncertain

Harrison didn't say which AFL union presidents might balk at falling in line for the Truman-Barkley ticket.

But Dan Tobin of the powerful teamsters union let it be known some time ago he disagreed with a statement by Green that the AFL would never support Dewey.

Tobin's union supported the late president Roosevelt in 1944. In fact it was Roosevelt's ridicule of Dewey's candidacy at a teamsters' dinner in Washington that year that led the New York governor to take off the gloves in what previously had been a quiet campaign.

Harrison said the AFL group backing the President "because he is against the Taft-Hartley law and is for the principles of freedom."

Green said the AFL is condident of electing 11 and possibly 13 labor supporters in the 33 senate races this year.

He predicted that AFL-backed aspirants will win in Louisiana, Maine, Rhode Island, New Mexico, Montana, Colorado, Wyoming, West Virginia, Oklahoma, Minnesota, Illinois, Idaho and Michigan.

There was no comment forthcoming immediately from the Dewey camp on the AFL action But the GOP nominee took occasion to slam back at some of the critics of his educational policies.

Asserting that New York's teachers' salaries are the highest "in the entire world," Dewey said the state's support for common schools had been increased 80 per cent over what it was when he took office as governor six years ago

After Date In London Comic Wants Vaudeville To Return

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 26.—Danny Kaye is campaigning for the return of vaudeville, and if anybody can revive that long-dead art form, it's Danny.

"I'd like nothing better than to see a whole chain of vaudeville houses open up across the country," dreamed the fast-tongued, wild-haired comic. Would he play them? I asked.

"Would I play them!" he emphasized. I took this to mean yes.

Danny's enthusiasm for vaudeville stems from his recent date at the Palladium in London, where he seems to have created one of thet most noted minor revolutions since Guy Fawkes. The comic glows with such tales as being acknowledged in the English press as "our Danny."

Out Of This World

"It was out of this world," he continued in his "Happy Times" dressing room. "Only in England could I have found audiences like those. They were mature, comprising those who go to legitimate theaters as well as young people. I could play anything for them."

American film theater audiences are different, he said. Primarily a younger crowd, they are not given the higher-brow Kaye routines.

He cited other differences. In England he was often on stage for an hour; here he is limited to 25 minutes (he often takes more) to provide a turnover of attendance. Over there all seats are reserved for the two daily shows at 6 and 8:30 p. m. A performer doesn't see some of the same faces show after show, as often happens in U. S. film houses.

Today's feature: Laughton's ten best.

Want to know a distinguished actor's opinion of the ten best films of all time? I hope so, because I have put Charles Laughton to the trouble of selecting his ten favorites.

It's interesting that he picks only one of his own pictures, "Ruggles Of Red Gap." His reason: "Because of that unbeatable team—Leo McCarey and Abraham Lincoln."

Here are his other choices:

"The Gold Rush" and "The Kid."
"39 Steps."
"Best Years of Our Lives."
"Vaudeville."
"Great Expectations."
"Smiling Lieutenant."
"Broken Blossoms."

Leisure Readers Are Largest Group Using Limited Facilities Of County Library Here

When staff members of Lubbock County Library check in books returned by readers, a quick flip-through of a volume's pages is likely to reveal such things as hairpins, nail files, toothpicks, money, letters, bills, combs and grocery lists.

But from long experience, they don't look on the borrower as a great transgressor, nor are they likely to refuse to loan him a book next time he comes in, for such occurrences are common, and the staff has found it in no way reflects on the readers. They're just forgetful.

Besides, it's a better way to mark one's place in a book than to tear off corners or turn corners down.

The library, of which Mrs. J. A. Humphries is librarian, is located on the second floor of the courthouse. It is maintained for all Lubbock county residents, and all ages and classes of people use its facilities.

The group to make the greatest and most frequent use of the library and its facilities, however, are those who might be called "leisure readers," which is likely to include housewives, teen-agers, and youngsters. Such readers are, in short, those who read books for pure entertainment or vicarious pleasure, as contrasted with others who come in for the latest best-sellers to "keep-up" or those who consult books in order to write a term paper or make a review. The latter two groups usually have one objective in mind, and hence are more selective, while the leisure reader group is not so selective and is likely to devote more time to reading.

Fiction Most Widely Read

Library staff members report that books of fiction receive wider circulation than any other general type book. Travel and history volumes are next in demand, and other non-fiction is last.

To be able to withdraw books from the county library, a person must first fill in an application form, which, if he or she does not own property in the county, must be signed by some person who does.

A membership or identification card then is issued, and this card must be presented each time books are withdrawn or returned. The card is valid for four years from date of issue.

A limit is imposed by the library on the number of books a borrower may check out at one time. An adult may withdraw four books on his card at one time, while children may take out three books.

Limit Set On Time

Books are loaned for 7 and 14 days. Current volumes—best sellers and others currently in demand—may be kept out for seven days only, while those not so much in demand are returnable in 14 days. All volumes in the library, with the exception of reference books, which may not be withdrawn, are for circulation. There are no rentals; all books are for use without charge.

For books kept out beyond the loan period, a fine of three cents per day is imposed on the borrower. He cannot withdraw more books until the overdue book is returned and the fine is paid.

Mrs. Humphries estimates that not more than $20 or $25 per month is collected in fines. This is used to help defray operating expenses, and goes toward the purchase of such things as ink, postage, pencils, and the like.

Library Is Growing

Approximately 21,095 volumes were in the library as of last January 1, of which 14,557 were adult books and 6,538 were juvenile books. Since that time, about 1,200 volumes have been added, which brings the total to almost 23,000 volumes. However, these figures do not include books which are lost or withdrawn from circulation.

Incidentally, Mrs. Humphries and her assistants report that book losses are very, very small.

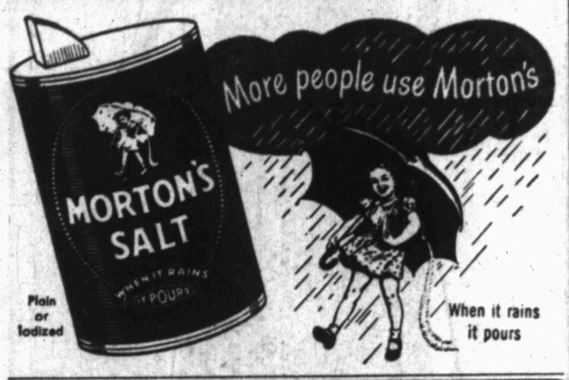

The library is maintained by a budget made up from tax maintenance which, in turn, comes by direct levy from the county general fund. The rate of the tax levy for the fiscal year is .03 per $100 valuation.

The library was begun before 1908 by Lubbock County Library association, which solicited gifts of books, and was housed in various places, including Dupree school. The library movement was taken over by the Twentieth Century club after that club's organization, and was sponsored by it until the county assumed the responsibility.

It was in February of 1923 that the first public library was opened with Mrs. J. J. Smelser serving as paid librarian, her salary being met by the sponsor club. Mrs. Humphries assumed the duties of librarian in June of 1938.

Two assistant librarians, Mrs. Virgie Mae Beard and Mrs. Elvie Ford, assist Mrs. Humphries in the main library.

There are also five branch libraries at various places in the county, including Slaton, Idalou, Monroe, Shallowater, and Wolfarth. Each branch acts as an independent unit in that custodians circulate books and impose fines on negligent borrowers. The main library takes care of business matters, including the purchase of all books, and formulates rules for the branches to follow.

Blind Boy Receives Shipment Of Books

"I was so excited I couldn't eat my dinner," Charles Ray Isbell, blind boy of 418 Ave. C, said Wednesday after receiving the second of two shipments of Braille books including a total of 31 volumes, purchased with funds given by Lubbock residents.

Included were "Our Neighbors Near and Far," "Our Continental Neighbors" and "How Our World Lives and Works," all of which are in the "Our World and Ourselves" series. Each includes a work book and a textbook.

He also received a dictionary.

Another book in the "Our World and Ourselves" series was not available and is to be shipped when available. A Concordance also was ordered, but is out of print at present. The American Printing House for the Blind is to notify W. C. Cole, manager of Texas Technological college book store, when the Concordance is available. Cole ordered all of the Braille books as a courtesy to the boy.

Money had been received at the Avalanche-Journal to buy the books, with the remainder being given to the boy to purchase needed items. He received a total of $208.60 in money, a radio and record player and numerous records.

Boy's Club Chorus Will Be Organized

A Lubbock Boys' club chorus, composed of members of the club, has been approved as a regular activity in the club and plans for the chorus will be started within a short time, John W. Wilson, Boys' club director, announced Wednesday.

The chorus is sponsored by the Lubbock chapter of the SPEBSQSA.

Dick G. Richards was appointed director of the chorus and rehearsals are to start the second week in September, Wilson said. Plans call for a chorus of from 75 to 100 voices, he added.

Luncheon Is Given Today

Mrs. Charles Whitacre and daughter, Sylvia, gave a luncheon today at the Talley Tearoom, 1510-B Ave. M, to compliment Miss Reuby Tom Rhodes, bride-elect.

A hostess gift marked the honoree's place.

Guests were the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Spurlock Rhodes, Mrs. Albert Fortenberry, Mrs. G A. Nystel, Mrs. Rex Webster, Mrs Al O'Brien, Mrs. Alfred Crosby. Miss Imogene Webster and Miss Aileene Turley.

Honored At Reception

Lavender and blue asters were floral decorations at the formal tea given by Mrs. J. R. Weiss and Mrs. Alfred Crosby Wednesday night in compliment to Miss Rhodes.

Ninety-five guests called at the Weiss home, 2404 Twentieth, between 5 and 7 o'clock.

The honoree was presented with a hostess gift of pottery.

Mrs. J. Ralph Grant and Miss Grace Padley alternated in presiding at the refreshment table.

Assisting in hospitalities were Mesdames J. A. Fortenberry, Ivy Savage, Jim Holt, A. T. Cocanougher, D. M. Howell, R. S. Wilkinson, Rex Webster, Gordon Treadway, Chester A. Hubbard, Misses Aileene Turley, Imogene Webster, Arlette Arnett and Sylvia Whitacre.

Coffee Is Held

As a Wednesday morning courtesy to Miss Rhodes Mrs. James Vickers, Plainview highway, entertained with a coffee with calling hours between 9:30 and 11 o'clock.

Yellow and white decorations were used, and a blanket in the bride-elect's chosen colors, orchid and blue, was presented as a hostess gift.

Calvary Baptist Circle Has Afternoon Social

Helen Leech circle of the Calvary Baptist Woman's Missionary society entertained with a coffee Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Clem Simpson, 604 Ave. S.

Guests were served from an antique, 105-year-old silver service belonging to Mrs. J. H. Comer. Mrs. Gerald L. Schantz presided at the coffee service, assisted by Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. James W. Ray. Emphasizing the WMS colors, lavendar and white, asters in those shades decorated the lace covered table.

Old Settlers To Stage Reunion At State Park

Old settlers of Southland and and surrounding communities are to attend a reunion of the "Model T club" at Mackenzie State park Sunday beginning at 3 o'clock.

The Party house in the park has been reserved for the occasion, according to Bryan Shaw, president of the association. Members are asked to bring watermelons.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Married Couple Wonders What Social Policy To Adopt Toward Paramour Of Man's Brother

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: My husband and I would like your advice on a very difficult situation. Here are the incontrovertible facts, well known to all who are acquainted with the persons involved.

My husband's brother Ned has been married for 14 years to a lovely wife, Mary, whose conduct has always been above reproach. They have two children.

About a month ago Ned left home to further an affair begun a year ago. At the time the affair started, the other woman was fully cognizant of Ned's marital status.

DESERTING HUSBAND INTENT ON DIVORCE

WE live in a large city where Ned is quite well known and has been seen in public with her by innumerable people, both in and out of town. They have taken several trips together and are in general living in adultery.

Ned's present plans include divorce and remarriage, which will take several years. Thus we, his only close relatives, are placed in the position of having either to accept or reject the girl—I'll call her Stella. The thought of accepting her is repellent to me; the more so because we are friendly with Mary and the children, who live very close by.

What should be our attitude to the girl now, and also later, if Ned marries her? Jim and I wish to do what is right; and it is hard to think clearly on a subject about which we are naturally so prejudiced.

Signed: R. D.

POLICY MAKING SEEMS PREMATURE

DEAR R. D.: Unless and until Ned marries Stella, you won't be "in the position of having either to accept or reject" her. And if there isn't a chance of her marrying into the family for several years, then surely it's false to proclaim that the hour of decision is upon you now.

Inasmuch as Mary, an exemplary character, is your near neighbor and close friend, and Ned has deserted her and the children to further a liaison with Stella, it isn't likely that he and his paramour will be fishing for advocacy in that vicinity during the indeterminate period when they may be consorting on terms that are flagrantly outside the law and offensive to public mores.

Yet assuming they had the effrontery to do so, it would be in a brash spirit of gambler's risk, certainly. They would be half-prepared for rebuff and privately surprised if it weren't forthcoming from you, I should think.

LETTER SIGNIFIES MORBID CURIOSITY

UNLESS they are morons or psychopaths, adult-age persons who violently break with orthodox patterns of decency don't expect right-living citizens to back them up, even though some of these bad actors may have the daring to test the mettle of group resistance to their misconduct by blandly elbowing their way into test-situations after defying the social code.

Incidentally, the odd thing about your letter is its implication that you have no inherent moral convictions, no firmly held ethical concepts to guide you in process of trying to "place" Stella in your scheme of things. Which makes your busy preoccupation with the question all the more curious.

It occurs to me that possibly, unconsciously, you are deriving emotional relish from pondering Mary's predicament and Ned's hijinks, also entertaining a morbidly fascinated curiosity about Stella, with the result that you are imaginatively conjuring future meetings (or dealings) with her that may never come to pass. In any event, my advice is not to encourage friendship with Stella, as matters stand; and to stop fretting the question as one of importance to you and Jim.

M. H.

Women Are To Assist In Lubbock Palsy Center

Rotary-Anns, many ot whom attended a weekly luncheon meeting of Rotary club at Hilton hotel Wednesday afternoon, remained after the program and organized to help fill the need for help at the Lubbock Cerebral Palsy-Treatment center, which is cosponsored by the civic club and the Crippled Children's council here.

Mrs. J. Ben Cole was named chairman of the group, contingent on acceptance when she returns to Lubbock; Mrs. Walter Howard, co-chairman and Mrs. Joe Bryant, secretary.

They and others present will help to recruit women workers to volunteer for the making and collection of therapeutic toys for the center; in helping to test children to determine improvement or to do secretarial and office work.

Harwell P-TA Plans For Neat Year's Activity

Chris-Harwell Parent-Teachers association met Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock to plan their work for the coming school year.

The first meeting of the P-TA group will be on Sept. 16, in the form of a tea to introduce teachers and new officers. In Wednesday afternoon's discussion a procedure course was planned which will be open to the public. Those interested in the course may contact Mrs. George Long, telephone 2-9956.

A program for the coming year was recommended.

Athalene Allen Honored With Shower Courtesy

Teachers and workers of the Primary Department of First Methodist church gave a shower as a courtesy to Miss Athalene Allen, bride-elect of L. D. Ballard, in the home of Mrs. George Box, 2712 Thirtieth, Tuesday between 8 and 10 p. m.

Mrs. Harvey Allen, mother of the honoree, is a teacher in the department.

Tech's President-Elect Will Address Federation

Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president-elect of Texas Technological college, will be speaker for the first fall meeting of the City Federation a luncheon to be given Sept. 23

Plans were made Wednesday afternoon when the executive board of the Federation attended a luncheon at the home of the president, Mrs. L. D. Marshall, 2322 Twentieth, with Mrs. Russell Denison as co-hostess.

Fifteen attended.

Shower Is Courtesy For Mrs. Mantooth, Bride

Mrs. Earl Ince, jr., 2006 Thirty-second, gave a miscellaneous shower Wednesday afternoon honoring Mrs. Melton Mantooth, the former Miss Bonnie Ruth Nichols, who was married Aug. 8 in Clovis, N. M.

Mrs. Ince was assisted in receiving guests by Mrs. Doy Nichols and Mrs. G. W. Nichols, jr., sisters-in-law of the guest of honor.

After a series of games, refreshments were served to Mesdames Frances Batsell, Foy Johnson, Claxton McCrummen, H. D. Waller, Ollie Bush, J. E. Orr, Milton Orr, Forrest Bell, Dee Stevenson, Floyd Alderman, W. L. Avery, Jimmie Holdery, Josie Chaney, G. W. Nichols, mother of the bride, Miss Jenny Avery and Miss Ola Chaney.

The decorator's art was not applied to making clocks ornamental as well as useful until the 17th century. France was the first country to manufacture fancy timepieces.

Rehearsal Dinner To Honor Miss Lewis And Mr. Click

Miss Jackie Lewis and Bob Click of Henderson will be honored with a rehearsal dinner to be given tonight by the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. R. C. Douglas, jr., and the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Sam Click.

The Chimayo room of the Hilton hotel will be the scene of the event with the table's main decor an arrangement of pink and American beauty roses, lighted with white tapers. The couple will present their attendants' gifts at this time.

Covers will be laid for the honor guests and for Dr. and Mrs. Jack M. Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Click, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hardey, Rev. and Mrs. William F. Rogan, Mr. and Mrs. Fray Smith, Misses Pat Fain, Elizabeth Schmidt, Martha Lively, Peggy Click of Henderson, Jane Burns of Fort Worth, Ann Douglas, Mrs. C. M. Trout, Mrs. H. E. Schulze of Navasota, Mrs. Reeder of Haynesville, La., Messrs. Royce Blankenship, George Wilmoth, J. R. Callahan, Clint Formby, Barton Willingham, Ernest Perry of Dallas and Jack Lewis Douglas.

No formal invitations were issued to the Click-Lewis wedding which will take place at 8 o'clock Friday night at the First Presbyterian church. All of the couple's friends are asked to come to the wedding and to attend the reception that follows, the bride's parents have said.

Wedding Date Told At Tea

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Teal, 2202 Twenty-ninth, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Bettylu Teal, and Clarence Ray Drake, son of Mrs. Lena Jo Drake, 2405 Fourteenth, which was solemnized Thursday, Aug. 19, at the Tahoka First Methodist church with Rev. C. A. Holcomb, jr., officiating at a ring service.

The bride wore a royal blue crepe dress with gold accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Honored At Party

Mrs. Teal gave a backyard coke party Monday afternoon to announce the marriage of her daughter. The serving table, which was placed among honeysuckle vines, was centered with an arrangement of pink carnations and fever few and pink satin streamers were lettered in gold with "Betty and Buster" and the wedding date. Tea napkins also carried the news.

Guests were members of Las Cresas and Sub Deb clubs and rushees, neighborhood girl friends of the bride and Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Wesley Witt and Mrs. Boyd Roberts of Littlefield.

Misses Skeet McLain and LaJuana McWhorter were in charge of serving.

Session Of British Cabinet Held Today

LONDON, Aug. 26 (U.P.)—An unexpected session of the British cabinet was called late today, with Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin presiding in place of Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee, who is ill.

No reason for the meeting was disclosed, but Bevin had conferred earlier with U. S. Ambassador Lewis Douglas regarding the latest developments in the oMscow talks.

It was understood here that no four-power meeting regarding the Berlin currency problem will be held in the German capital unless the Moscow negotiators decide upon such a meeting. Informed Whitehall quarters said no such decision has been reached yet.

There is a good chance, however, that the Moscow talks might result in such a decision, it was said. In that case, the announcement developments in the Moscow the informants added.

Man Fined On Liquor Charge

A fine of $100 and costs was assessed in county court late yesterday against Magnus Walker, Lubbock negro, on a plea of guilty of possession of beer for purpose of sale.

The charge resulted from a raid by police and Liquor Control board personnel in the negro quarter early in the afternoon when a large quantity of alcoholic beverages was taken, along with the negro.

Police said three automobiles were required to haul the contraband.

County Attorney John Steele, following up the raid by a petition filed in the 72nd district court of Judge Dan Blair, asked forfeiture to the state of 2,880 cans and 48 bottles of alcoholic beverages. The bottles were identified as whiskey and gin.

Fugitive Warrant Issued

The county court complaint was sworn to by Charlie F. Fuller, deputy supervisor and commanding officer of the Lubbock district of the liquor board.

The seizure was in 2400-block East Ave. G, officials said.

Captain of Detectives Pat Davidson made affidavit that Ernest Croy, 25, had fled to Lubbock county from Georgia where, he alleged, Croy had been charged with forgery.

D. W. Robertson, justice of peace, issued a fugitive warrant. He set bond of $1,000 returnable instanter for Croy, who was reported under arrest.

The county attorney said that, after a jury had been selected to try Dale Cope on a charge of drunk driving that the defendant changed his plea from innocent to guilty and was fined $50 and court costs. The jury was dismissed for the week after Judge Davies was informed that another defendant who was to be tried probably would plead guilty before the court later this week.

"Tokyo Rose" Is Arrested On Charge Of Treason In War II

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Aug. 26—Mrs. Iva Ikuko Toguri D'Aquino, accused of being one of six dulcet-voiced Japanese radio disk jockeys known to American service men in the Pacific as Tokyo Rose, was arrested today.

The specific charge against the American-born Japanese wife of a Portuguese was treasonable activities during World War II. She will be tried in San Francisco after she lands there about Sept. 28 from the U. S. Army transport General H. Frank Hodges.

During the war, six English-speaking Japanese women regaled American service men from Alaska to Australia and Hawaii to Kunming with a spicy radio program of records plus propaganda and sometimes sexy patter. The nickname Tokyo Rose was applied to all six.

The program was popular with GI's for its inaccuracies in detailing military operations, its good selection of records and the sexy remarks It first became popular during the Guadalcanal and Aleutian campaigns.

One of the highlights of the program was a campaign to persuade GI's not to take atabrine in the jungles. Tokyo Rose told them in a confidential tone that the anti-malaria drug would make them sterile. Service doctors found a lot of men believing her, too.

The 32-year-old Los Angeles born Japanese woman was arrested on orders from U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark. She was lodged in Sugamo prison from which she was released last October after authorities had investigated her.

When she sails for the United States and her San Francisco trial next month none of her relatives will be allowed to accompany her. Repeatedly since the end of the war she has told Americans that she wanted to clear up her status.

Mrs. D'Aquino came to Japan shortly before the war started. She married here.

Watchman's Trial Is Set For Today

William F. Tarpley, 65, veteran nightwatchman here, was called to trial at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon in Judge Dan Blair's 72nd district court on a charge of theft of over $50 from Hemphill-Wells company.

The case had been postponed on order of the court yesterday following a lengthy motion by Burton S. Burks of the law firm of Burks and McNeil, in which a longer continuance was asked.

The defense attorney noted an exception to the court's ruling of the one day delay, contending that the state had made it impossible for the defendant to prepare for trial by refusing to supply a list of witnesses subpoenaed in the case.

Tarpley, night watchman for the store for several years, is charged in two indictments with theft of merchandise from the company A Lubbock woman is charged similarly in two indictments, and her trial is pending.

Minor Violations Are Reported Here

Law enforcement circles reported a relatively quiet night last night, with what was described as only routine violations that included several arrests for drunkenness, vagrancy, and other similar complaints.

City police docket showed a report by Walter Nelson of 1401 Ave. E, of theft of a tire and wheel valued at $15.

Indicating a continued drive against idleness several more arrests for vagrancy were shown on dockets of police and the sheriff's department. More than a dozen such complaints had been filed yesterday.

Thieves In Houston Take Powerful Stuff

HOUSTON, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—James F. Sidebottom would like to offer a friendly bit of advice to thieves who broke into his pharmacy last night and took $150 and 80 bottles.

Sidebottom figures his unwanted visitors were looking for narcotics. They passed up $200 worth.

Captured Reds Willing To Work For Nazi Prior To Stalingrad

By THOMAS A. REEDY
Associated Press Staff Writer

NUERNBERG, Ger., Aug. 26 Before the Stalingrad campaign, captured Russians were willing to work for the Germans as spies against their own people, an American war crimes court was told today.

After the debacle of Gen. Friedrich Von Paulus' sixth German army, the turning point in the eastern war, the Soviet prisoners changed their attitude and stubbornly refused such assignments, the court was told.

Reds Trained By Germans

This was brought out in a trial brief submitted by Alexandre G. Hardy, against Walter Schellenberg, former confidant of gestapo chieftan Henrich Himmler.

Schellenberg, on trial for war crimes, was the instigator of "operation Zeppelin" in which the Russians were trained to act for the German spy corps.

The plan to use Russian prisoners for messengers and in communication work, in addition to espionage, was inaugurated by Schellenberg in 1942.

In the beginning, he said, many Russians were willing to quit their prisoner status and take the jobs because "they were treated extremely well. They were shown the best possible kind of treatment."

Spies Sold On Nation

The Soviet spies were taken around Germany, shown industry and farms and super highways to impress them with German might.

At that time, the Luftwaffe dropped hundreds of the renegades behind Russian lines.

After the reversal in fortune along the Stalingrad front, Schellenberg said "volunteers" had to be chosen from only the most carefully screened Russian prisoners and the reliable ones were few and far between.

The operation entered into Schellenberg's trial because of what happened to some of the Soviet spies. The prosecution introduced evidence to show that the Russians, after their missions were accomplished, were taken to Auschwitz and killed.

Rites For Father Of Lubbock Woman Set

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. today in Cooper Funeral home chapel at Bonham for William Price Bullard, 78, of 709 Ave. F, a resident of Lubbock for about two months, who died about 4:30 p. m. Wednesday in West Texas hospital. Interment will be in Bonham cemetery.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. J. E McElfresh of Lubbock, Mrs. Eva White of Tule Lake, Calif., Mrs. Ethel Hicks of Windom, and Mrs. Lois Young, Dodd City; one son, Capt. C. P. Bullard of the U. S. Army; and a brother, John Bullard, West Plains, Mo.

State Senator Sterling Parrish declared Wednesday that if elected to a second term in the Senate he will again oppose any water legislation except such as may be approved by the farmers of West Texas, acting through the High Plains Water Conservation and Users association of which W. O. Fortenberry of Monroe is president.

Parrish made his statement after visiting Fortenberry at Monroe and inspecting one of his irrigation farms.

Parrish said a bill had already been prepared for submission at the next session of the Legislature giving complete control of underground water in Texas to the State Board of Water Engineers. Parrish said that if the bill becomes a law every farmer who has an irrigation well in the Plains area will be subjected to regulations and autocratic controls.

He declared he vigorously opposed a water legislation act that was not acceptable to the farmers of West Texas during the past session and that he would continue to do so until a bill is drawn that meets the approval of the people he represents.

Mayor Seeks Defeat Of Representative

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Mayor William O'Dwyer has sent out word that Tammany Hall must defeat Rep. Vito Marcantonio, left-wing American Labor party congressman, at the Nov. 2 election.

The mayor, it was reported at city hall, declared yesterday that he would not tolerate any Democratic support of Marcantonio by Tammany district leaders who have aided the American Labor party chief at times in the past.

Simple-Living Junk Dealer Of Iowa Leaves $175,000 In Will

ORANGE CITY, Ia., Aug. 26. (INS)—The unusual thing about the little old junk dealer was that he left nearly $175,000 when he died.

Henry Van Wechel, 56, who made his living picking up old car bodies along western Iowa farm roads, then selling them to metal buyers, was killed in an auto accident last June 29.

Then his will was filed for probate.

He was an unpretentious little guy who used to wear old overalls in his travels.

His junk yard and brick house to employee John Westra;

$7,500 apiece to employees Henry Westra and Andrew Sorgers;

$2,500 and a house to employee Harry Tienersma;

$10,000 each and a life interest in large tracts of land to his sister Winifred and his brother John;

$5,000 each to the Trinity Reform church, its domestic mission and its foreign mission;

An estate consisting of 160 acres in Sioux county, 80 acres in O'Brien county, three Orange City residences, nearly $75,000 in cash and bonds, $15,000 in scrap parts, and $8,500 in annuities.

Take Off Ugly Fat With Grape Fruit Juice Recipe

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of Liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves: if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back allluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears — how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active. 4d•

Hubs Clinch First Division Berth In 6-4 Win Over Lamesa

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

Any doubts that the Lubbock Hubbers would fail to get into the Shaughnessy playoffs in the West Texas-New Mexico League are as good as voided today. The Hubbers clinched no worse than a tie for fourth place with both Abilene and Borger last night and any combination of a Lubbock victory, or an Abilene and Borger loss, would put the Hubbers over the top. They are in and don't take any bets that they might not finish higher than fourth place.

The Hubbers clinched their victory with their two biggest guns, Virgil Richardson and Jackie Sullivan, on the sidelines. Virgil has had a mean, racking cold for the last three or four days and has felt terrible. Jackie received a deep gash in his leg while sliding across the plate Tuesday night and the leg was extra painful last night. It was not any worry over Umpire Brockwell that kept him out of the lineup. He definitely had a cut that went down to the shin bone and it hurt. It takes a lot to keep the Hubber manager out of the lineup.

They may talk about their American and National League races all they want to, but they are little, if any, more interesting than the one right here. Nine and a half games separate the current fourth place team from the top, but that margin could be cut down tonight. Amarillo is only four and a half games out, while holding the same edge over Lubbock. The season still has several games to go and anything could happen. Certainly it is beginning to shape up as a good, tight race.

We don't hope to be classed as a prognosticator, and we don't want to give anyone any ideas, so don't read this too closely; Albuquerque might not wind up in first place. Not that two consecutive lickings for the first place club mean anything, but it is the size of the scores that astounds. First, Clovis takes a 21-6 decision and then, Amarillo follows with an 18-3 pasting. It's true that two defeats don't mean much, but 39 runs in two nights, even in this league, is over par.

The Dukes have a well run club and Herschel Martin has proven to be a smart manager. It might be hoped that the Dukes were going into a tailspin, but the odds are against it, on the basis of Martin's managing. He has done an astute job with his pitchers; he has operated the club in first rate shape. It seems unlikely that such a smooth machine would suddenly crack. However, better teams in high leagues have suddenly fallen to pieces and the best baseball minds have been unable to do anything about it. It is possible, but not probable.

At any rate, we take heart over the two recent defeats and if we smell blood, we can thank the Gold Sox and Pioneers. Those two big scores show that Albuquerque hurling is not invincible, that they can be whipped like any other club. We almost saw the Hubbers come from way behind and nose out the Dukes here one afternoon not so long ago. In fact, with any kind of a break, they would have done the trick. Don Cantrell will never know how lucky he was Richardson grounded to first, rather than smacking one of his usual singles or better. Little things like that show that the club is under pressure and indicate that it might not take much to put them out.

Incidentally, the Hubbers are going all out to make the two-game series with Amarillo here Sunday and Monday the biggest series of the season. If both teams continue to win for the next three days, there ought to be no trouble in packing over 3,000 persons in the Rosenthal Field stands for those two games. They will be crucial games, too, for both Lubbock and Amarillo need them and if one team should take both, its chances of finishing higher than third would be bettered. The Hubbers have put reserved seats on sale at the Hub Clothiers and any fans wishing to buy them now, thus avoiding the long line and crowds at the park Sunday and Monday, can pick them up through Saturday.

Dukes Again Are Walloped

The Lubbock Hubbers last night, by beating Lamesa 6-4, clinched a first division berth in the West Texas-New Mexico League, the Hub City crew being able to get no worse than a tie for fourth place in the remaining games of the season.

Any combination of one Hubber victory or one Abilene loss will end even a mathematical possibility of the Hubbers being tied for fourth place in the league by either Abilene or Borger.

Abilene Licks Pampa

This eventuality became apparent despite Abilene's 10-9 licking of Pampa, which enabled the Hubbers to go into third place. Amarillo kept pace by trouncing the Albuquerque Dukes 18-3, while Borger toppled Clovis 7-3.

Albuquerque, showing signs of a possible crack under the strain of first place, now has lost two games in a row and both by whopping scores. Clovis licked them Tuesday night 21-6 and the Gold Sox triumph was convincing.

There is a remote possibility that the Dukes might begin a slide, which could be fatal at this point of the pennant race. They have a bare four and a half game lead over Amarillo, while the Hubbers are nine games out. Even the Hubbers or Pampa might overtake the current leaders, if they went into a bad spin.

Anything Could Happen

Albuquerque has 15 games left to play, Amarillo has 14, Lubbock has 13 and Pampa has 16. Anything could happen during these final, closing, hectic days.

Last night's victory for the Hubbers was achieved without the services of the ailing Virgil Richardson or the lame Manager Jackie Sullivan. In their place, Don Moore and Royce Mills proceeded to belt the cover off the ball and bring the locals another tight victory.

Moore smacked a game-tying home run in the seventh and, after Lamesa went ahead again that inning, Moore came up and slapped a game-tying single in the eighth. Jackie Wilcox broke up the game with a long fly that scored Frank McAlexander with the winning run.

Mills Gets Three Hits

Mills, batting behind Gene Hixson, poked out three hits during the fray, while Moore had three for four including a single, double and home run. With some other timely hits, this was enough to hand Stan Grzywacz his 15th loss of the season, while Bob Clodfelter, who relieved Roy Larue in the sixth and didn't give up a hit in the remaining time, won his 11th game of the year.

Lamesa pulled a triple steal in the seventh for their short-lived lead. Sam Malvica was on third, Jim Skidgel was on second and Chet Zara occupied first. As Clodfelter began his windup, Malvica streaked for the plate and beat the throw so easily that no possible play could be made. Both the other runners advanced, but Grzywacz, who had doubled in two runs in the fourth, grounded out.

Tonight at 8 it probably will be Cotton Russell for the Hubbers against Lefty Bill Jones, last year's leading loop hurler.

Warren Spahn In Comeback To Aid Boston's Braves In Race

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The comeback of Warren Spahn and the ability to win on the road have been primarily responsible for keeping the Boston Braves on top in the five-team National league pennant race.

No more striking example of this was given than last night when Spahn hurled the Braves to a 2-0 shutout triumph over the Cardinals in St. Louis. The victory put the Braves four games ahead of the second place Dodgers and four and a half in front of the Redbirds.

Off To Poor Start

Spahn, who has won only 11 games, got off to a poor start this year but he has pitched brilliantly the past two weeks.

The victory was Boston's 36th on the road compared to only 21 losses.

Cleveland rebounding Indians regained first place in the torrid American league race, pushing the Boston Red Sox down into second place with a 9-0 lacing. The defeat dropped the Red Sox half a game behind the Tribe.

The third place New York Yankees moved within a game and a half of first place, knocking off the Chicago White Sox 8-2.

Freddy Hutchinson gained his fourth triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics, pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 10-4 victory.

Unleashing their biggest attack of the season, the Washington Senators hammered out a 14-6 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

The Dodgers moved into second place, half a game in front of the Cardinals, as they outslugged the Pirates, 11-9, in Pittsburgh.

Scoring eight runs in the top of the ninth, the New York Giants came from behind to defeat the Chicago Cubs 9-4 and take over undisputed possession of fourth place.

Howie Fox pitched the Cincinnati Reds to a 5-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Phils.

Publinx Club Will Hold Session Here

A special meeting of Meadowbrook Publinx Golf club members will be held Friday night at 8 in Sled Allen's arena it was announced last night by Golf Pro Paul Jones.

Jones urged all members of the club to be present for the special meeting, at which time plans for the proposed South Plains Open golf tournament would be discussed. The tourney is not definite and will not be staged unless members are in favor of it.

Jones also declared that qualifying rounds in the annual club championship tournament would be fired Saturday and Sunday. W. G. McMillan, local contractor and sportsman, has put up a tournament trophy that will be perpetual. An additional, smaller trophy will be awarded each year to the winner.

First round matches will begin Monday and succeeding round matches will be played for the following three weeks, with the finals scheduled for Sept. 26.

Cup Matches Start Today

Ten of Lubbock's top golfers will battle a visiting links team in singles competition of the annual Kattmann Cup matches which will get underway early this afternoon at Lubbock Country club.

The Cup matches are usually held in conjunction with the club Invitational tourney, but are being conducted as a separate event this year.

Marshall Is Captain

Representing the Lubbock Country club in the play today will be Chick Trout, sr., Lofton Burnette, Melvin Best, Lindsay Telford, Ted Tipps, Don Mitchell, Kay Bradshaw, Raymond Marshall, Murrell Tripp and Dr. W. A. Schaal. Marshall is the team captain.

Alternates include Jack Markham, A. H. Howard, Tom Murphy, Hugh Anderson, Charles Townes, Roy Cooper, L. Cooper, Bruce Kattmann and John Bell. Personnel of the visiting squad will not be announced until today.

A special feature of the matches will be a foursome which will include George Aulbach of Amarillo, Herb Schroeder of Lubbock, Warren Cantrell of Midland and Shorty Hornbuckle. All matches will be 18-hole competion.

Doubles play in the Cup bracket will be unreeled at the club Friday, Schroeder announced.

All members of the visiting team will be the guests of the Lubbock squad at a dinner at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the club.

Schroeder also announced that Mrs. George Soash copped top honors in the regular Wednesday competition for the club's women golfers, with a win in the 18-hole flight. Four women tied for first in the nine-hole flight — Mrs. E. H. Holcomb, Mrs. Tom Duggan, Mrs. Oscar Slaton and Mrs. Bill Honey. Mrs. Horace Humphries won the nine-hole beginners flight.

Favorites Win In All-Star Tourney

Favored nines chalked up top-heavy triumphs in opening tilts in the Lubbock Boys club All-Star baseball series Wednesday afternoon at the club diamond.

The Pee Wee league "A" nine, which includes players from the regular season Red Sox, Yankee and Dodger clubs, trounced the "B" group — players from the Cardinals, Tigers and White Sox —by a 24-10 tally.

Bobby Welch slammed out three singles and a double in six official times at bat for the winners, while Jerry Shipp paced the losers with a double and a single. Donald Dunnigan was the winning hurler.

In the Junior loop tussle, the American Business club — Exchange club combination pounded out a 6-2 victory over the Jaycee-Methodist Men lineup.

Bobby Tollison and Bobby Craig topped the winners at the plate with a single and double, while Billy Presley and Mikie Brady each collected two singles for the losers. Truman Jones was the winning pitcher.

The same four teams will clash again today at the club in the second games of the two of three tilts playoff series.

Teams Are Unbeaten At Baseball Tourney

WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 26 (AP)—Only four teams still were undefeated today in the national semi-pro baseball tournament after 12 days of play.

They are the Fort Wayne, Ind., Electrics, last year's champions, the Golden, Colo., Coors, the Jacksonville, Fla., Terminal Railroaders and the Elkin, N. C., Chathams. Each has three victories.

Tonight's schedule (Central Standard Time) includes:

Final Matches For Junior Titles Set

The finals in the older age group of the Junior Golf tournament at the Lubbock Country club this morning will bear more than a mere resemblance to a former final round.

Both the golfers involved, Ross Mitchell and Billy Tatum, clashed last year, for the championship, with Tatum coming out on top. But this year may be a reverse of last year's decision. Mitchell has shown steady improvement during the year and is favored to cop the title.

The tournament is sponsored by Walter Granberry and the Holsum Bakery, with a large final field pared down to two finalists in each division. Tatum gained the right to play in the finals by downing Tommy Mills 8 and 7 yesterday morning, while Mitchell was tripping George Canon 5 and 4.

Tatum defeated Tommy Mills, 8 and 7, and Mitchell downed George Canon, 5 and 4, to earn the right to enter the finals this morning.

In the 13 to 15-year-old division, Teddy Black bested John Tatum, 4 and 3 and Roland Adams defeated Frank Mitchell, 6 and 5, for the right to play in the finals.

Players in the 12-year-old division had to play 36 holes Wednesday in order to decide who plays in the finals this morning. They went out in the morning and played wrong opponents and had it all to do over yesterday afternoon.

James McDoe and Carlos Hedgcoth meet in the finals; McDoe having downed Richard Hill, 2 and 1 and Hedgcoth winning from Tommy Mandrell, 3 and 2.

Softball Race Tied, One-All

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 26. (Special)—The initial clash in the Texas Softball League's Shaughnessy playoffs last night ended in a deadlock, Bluebonnet-Sunbeamers of Lubbock winning the first game of the twin bill 9-0 and dropping the second to Ragsdale 1-0.

Jackie Neel was terrific on the mound for the winners in the opening tilt, fanning 13 batters, walking only one and giving up only three scattered safeties.

But Curly Hays matched this performance in the nightcap, giving up only four hits, one of which was a triple, and keeping the visiting club away from the plate.

Hester Hits Homer

Bert Hester, losing hurler in the first game, took matters into his own hands in the second game. Both teams went scoreless for the first three and a half innings, but with one out in the fourth, Hester poled a long home run over the rightfield fence.

That was the ball game, even though the visitors kept trying. The only time they really threatened, however, was in the second inning with two out. Boyd Watkins tripled, but Wally Fowler grounded out to end the danger.

Willis James was the batting star for the visitors, driving out two singles and a double in four trips to the plate. He also drove in the first two earned runs, after one counter had come across in the first on an error.

San Angelo threatened momentarily in the first when Don Allen led off with a triple. Neel tightened immediately and fanned the next three batters. After that he was never in rouble.

Roy Butler and Wally Fowler were the big guns in the fourth inning, along with G. W. Warden. The latter blasted a homer with one on and the other two players each drove out doubles.

The two teams will meet Saturday night in Lubbock to continue this best three out of five game Shaughnessy playoff series in the Texas Softball League. A crowd of 2,000 persons watched the two games.

Chick Evans Plans Surprise For Pals

CHICAGO, Aug. 26 (AP) — Two-time champion Charles (Chick) Evans, jr., who hasn't missed playing in the National Amateur golf meet since 1907, will be swinging extra-long clubs in "a stubborn experiment" at the 1948 amateur at Memphis next week.

The 58-year-old Evans left on his "sentimental journey" to Memphis today with a bagful of 4-foot woods and irons — five inches longer than average—and smilingly conceded he would be "a surprise or an awful flop" in his 35th tourney appearance.

The only reason this isn't the 41st straight year Genial Chick, 1916 and 1920 winner, has played in the blue-ribbon amateur event is that two world wars knocked out six tournaments. Chick's crowning golf feat happened 32 years ago, when he swept the U. S. Open and U. S. Amateur in 1916.

Evans admitted that his experiment this year with extra-long sticks—"everybody is laughing at it"—is a concession to old age.

"Everybody over 50 ought to play with longer clubs," said Evans. "Since I started with them this April, I haven't even had a twinge of my old back trouble."

Evans, playing in five competitive events this year, has been shooting between 72 and 76.

He didn't cause any of the favorites to lose sleep in the North-South, U. S. Open, Western Open, Tam O'Shanter All-American or the Chicago Amateur, but Chick says that's because he was polishing up with his lanky sticks.

The long club idea isn't new. Joe Kirkwood, Henry Cotton, and Bill Fownes, 1910 U. S. Amateur champion, among others, gave 50-inch clubs a try at one time or another without too much success.

"Old stubborn, me, though," chuckled Evans, "I'll give 'em a whirl like nobody else."

Austin Legion Team Wins Region Title

AUSTIN, Aug. 26. (AP)—Austin, victor by an 8-5 score over New Orleans in the region 6 American Legion junior baseball tournament, leaves tonight for the sectional tournament at Charleston, S. C.

The buddies scored five runs in the seventh inning as they captured the first regional title ever won by a Texas team.

Tiny Jackie Brinkley held New Orleans to one hit in the first five innings and held on for a seven-hit job for the night and his third victory of the tournament. Sports writers voted him the most valuable player of the playoffs.

Three singles, two walks, and a triple by Richard Robertson accounted for Austin's five-run outburst in the seventh.

Kirkpatrick Scores TKO In The Fourth

JAMAICA, N.Y., Aug. 26. (Spl)—The local boxing fans still were discussing the impressive showing made here last night in the Jamaica Arena by J. D. Kirkpatrick of Lubbock, Tex., when he scored a technical knockout over Cliff Mann of Daytona Beach, Fla.

Kirkpatrick had little trouble in scoring his TKO and might have had another knockout to his credit, had not the referee stopped the fight at 1:53 of the fourth round. Kirkpatrick weighed 173. Mann, 180.

It took the Texan only one round to solve Mann's defense. Kirkpatrick floored his opponent in the second with a right cross to the jaw and Mann took a nine count. He rose slowly and Kirkpatrick sent him back to the canvas with another right for a count of five.

In the third Mann was rocked by a series of overhand rights and left jabs, but he stayed on his feet.

At the start of the fourth, Kirkpatrick shot a short right to Mann's head and sent him sprawling for a count of eight. He got up and Kirkpatrick immediately sent him down with a flurry of rights to the head.

At this point, Referee Teddy Martin stopped the contest.

Kirkpatrick showed a good looking right which he appeared to know how to throw with good timing. He jabbed his bigger opponent at will.

Mann had little to offer, spending most of his time trying to stay away from Kirkpatrick.

Cats Enjoying Longest Lead

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Fort Worth's Cats, who have held a tight-fisted hold on first place in the Texas league except for one brief period this season, enjoy their largest margin today.

The felines are seven games ahead of second-place Tulsa and can be considered shoo-ins to lead the full campaign and thus win the Jake Atz memorial trophy.

Last night the Cats whammed Beaumont 6-1 for their sixth victory in seven starts. Big Chris Van Cuyk gave up only six hits.

Meanwhile San Antonio and Tulsa were splitting a doubleheader while Shreveport, in a battle for fourth place with San Antonio could make no gain. Shreveport's game with Dallas was rained out Today San Antonio still boasts a game and a half lead.

Oklahoma City rose up to knock down third-place Houston in both ends of a double-header.

San Antonio edged Tulsa 2-1 in the first game of their twin bill on George Grant's ninth-inning home run. Tulsa took the night-cap 8-5 with a four-run splurge in the sixth inning.

Oklahoma City edged Houston 9-8 in the opener of their double-header, getting seven runs in the last inning with John Hernandez clouting a double that scored the tying and winning tallies. In the after-piece, which the Indians copped 11-1, Hernandez hit two homers.

Contract For Ball Team May Be Signed

BORGER, Aug. 26 (AP) — Dr. Marshall Dykes was expected to sign a $10,000 contract for purchase of Borger's class C West Texas-New Mexico league baseball team franchise sometime today.

The city park board yesterday approved rental of Huber baseball park to Dykes for a five-year period.

QUIJANO WINNER

EL PASO, Aug. 26 (U.P.)—Adolph Quijano, 178, Texas light-heavyweight champ, easily defended his position as top man of the border punchers last night by knocking out Lotario Ramirez, 193, of Juarez, in 19 seconds of the third round.

1948 Pro Football Season To Be Launched On Friday Night

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—The 1948 professional football season, which opens tomorrow night, may be the most important in pro-grid history; for this campaign has been designated by the All-America football conference as the "convincer."

Commissioner Jonas H. Ingram and the owners of his eight AAC clubs are determined that this season's brand of play and size of attendance shall convince the rival National Football league of two facts:

Is Here To Stay

(1) That the comparatively new AAC is a permanent organization—here to stay, and (2) that it's silly to continue the "hot war" between the two circuits, when it would be much more profitable for both to join hands and to co-operate as the major baseball leagues have been doing since 1903.

Since previous overtures from Ingram were rejected by Commissioner Bert Bell and his established National Leaguers, the AAC has vowed to "say it with figures"—not words—this season.

In 1947, the AAC's second season of play, the clubs finished as follows: Western division—Cleveland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago. Eastern division—New York, Buffalo, Brooklyn, Baltimore.

For the league championship, the Cleveland Browns defeated the New York Yankees.

Three Are Reorganized

During the off-season three clubs were reorganized to insure greater financial stability—the Brooklyn Dodgers and Baltimore Colts in the east, and the Chicago Rockets in the west.

Moreover, apparently weaker clubs were strengthened by many deals that yielded them seasoned players or rights to standout rookies. Such deals were encouraged by Ingram's office in order to give the circuit a better balance.

Hopes of the AAC will be riding with reorganized or bolstered clubs during the campaign. For that reason, everyone connected with the pro game will watch closely the results and attendances at the two opening games tomorrow night—the Los Angeles Dons at Chicago, and the New York Yankees at Brooklyn.

New Coaches Seen

The Dodgers, playing their first seasonal game under the new ownership of Branch Rickey and the Brooklyn baseball organization, will be using the single-wing formations of their new coach, Carl Voyles, formerly of Auburn.

Similarly, at Chicago, the Rockets that face Los Angeles will be playing their first seasonal game under new ownership of a civic group and under a new coach, Ed McKeever, ex-pilot at Notre Dame, Cornell, and San Francisco U. He used the "T" formations.

The Rockets, who won but one of their 14 games last season, have been strengthened by the acquisition of five seasoned players from the Yankees and of three rookies, by way of Cleveland, including Center John Rapacz of Oklahoma.

Fenton And Detton Battle To A Draw

Rod Fenton of Edmonton, Canada and Dory Detton of Amarillo battled to a draw in the feature setto of a double grapple event at Allen's arena Wednesday night. The lively bout was characterized by the two wrestlers throwing each other out of the ring and into the arms of ringside fans.

Fenton grabbed the first fall in 24 minutes with a straight leg crab. Popular Dory Detton came back to win the second fall in nine minutes with a knee lift and a series of body pins. The third session ended as a draw after they had thrown each other out of the ring with a series of body lifts and spinners.

In the second half of the main event, George Curtis of Vicksburg Miss., decisioned rowdy Pat O'Dowdy of Big Spring, by winning the second and third falls with a series of drop kicks, body pins and a rope rebound. O'Dowdy copped the first fall with a body lift and full crab.

Karl Gray, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, won the preliminary bout over George Lopez, Tampico, Mexico, in 17 minutes by utilizing a single leg crab.

Arena manager, Sled Allen, announced that he is trying to secure the Masked Marvel for the main event on September 15 when former world's heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey will act as referee for the main go.

Sanders, Economy Mills Are To Play

Sanders Motor and Economy Mills nines will tangle at 7:30 o'clock tonight at Jumbo Webster park in the final round of the city softball leagues Shaughnessy playoff.

The Motor team moved out in front in the post-season series by defeating Economy Mills, 7-2, in the opener of the championship two of three game series Wednesday night at Jumbo Webster park.

Earlier, in the first game of the twin bill last night, the Millers had entered the final round with a 6-5 victory over the First Methodist church nine.

Leeman Branch pitched a one-hitter for the Motormen in the clash with the Millers, and John Vandeventer also notched a one-hit triumph in twirling the Millers to the initial win over the Methodist crew.

Husbands are reported to snore about 300 per cent more than wives. Husbands also, according to The American Magazine, are more inveterate sleep talkers.

SWC To Study Applications Of Tech And H-SU At Friday Meet

DALLAS, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—The Southwest conference membership committee meeting in Dallas tomorrow will consider the applications of two West Texas schools into the seven-member conference, executive Secretary James H. Stewart said today.

Formal application for membership was filed yesterday by Hardin-Simmons university of Abilene, now a member of the Border conference.

Texas Tech, also a Border conference school, has had an application for entry into the conference on file for several years.

First Formal Session

The committee, headed by Stewart, was appointed by the conference at the spring meeting and tomorrow's get together will mark its first formal session.

Tech usually plays several conference schools each year and this fall will meet four of the seven members—Texas A & M, Southern Methodist, Baylor and Rice. Hardin-Simmons does not have a game scheduled with any Southwest conference team this year, but has played them in the past.

No action was likely to be taken by the committee tomorrow, but it will consider both applications, probably investigate the two schools further and make its recommendation at the winter meeting of the conference faculty committee.

"SAFE" MONTH

May is the only month of the year in which a president of the United States has not died. Seven have died in July and 13 of the first 24 died either in June or July

Black Hubbers Will Tackle Waco Team

The Waco Central Texas Vocational college Wolves will play a two-game series with the Lubbock Black Hubbers today and tomorrow, with the first game starting tonight at 8 p.m. at Rosenthal Field.

The visiting Wolves are considered one of the best teams in the state, winning the Texas semi-pro championship and going to the semi-final round of the national tournament in Wichita, Kans. The Wolves were runners-up at Wichita, winning three games before their elimination.

Moore has three of the best hurlers in Texas on his mound staff in James (Good Daddy) Brown, Willie Lee Irvin and George (Schoolboy) Walker of Mexia.

Against this strong nine, Manager James Roy Lewis will send a strengthened Black Hubber aggregation. Louis Schaenz of Mexico City, will do the catching, and Calvin Rodgers of Lincoln, Nebr., will be in the infield. One of the hurlers will be Frank Barnes, a speed ball pitcher with the Detroit Senators, while an outfielder will be Curtis Searcy, also from the Senators.

Barnes will hurl one game for the Black Hubbers and Alexander Johns will do the mound duties in the other game.

"THE IRON CURTAIN"

Soviet Propaganda Machine Powerful

By IGOR GOUZENKO
Ex-Russian Agent In Canada
INSTALLMENT 11

When I arrived in Canada, I was surprised to learn that large numbers of Jews are staunch supporters of pro-Soviet campaigns. I was amazed also at the wide credence which was given to the idea that Jews are the mainspring of Communism both here and abroad.

Hundreds of thousands of Jews were "purged" in Soviet Russia long before the Nazi pogrom started. Besides those shot, thousands were sent to concentration camps in Siberia.

During the war years, we heard frequent reports of the shooting of Jews at the front, and it was said that the Jews were beginning to fear the Russians more than the Germans. Such reports could have been a natural outcome of the calculated U. S. S. R. government policy to blame all the shortcomings of the Soviet system on the Jews.

In the summer of 1945, Aleksashkin, chief of the secret division, arrived from Russia in Ottawa and told us that the Central Committee of the Communist Party had sent "confidential" instructions to directors of all plants and factories to remove Jews from responsible positions.

Secrecy Is Explained

"The secrecy of this action," remarked Aleksashkin, "is prompted by a desire not to alienate the loyalty of those Jews abroad who espouse our cause."

A Jewish engineer named Levinetz had worked with my wife's father for some years and was regarded as highly skilled. He invented a compound against poison gas. For some reason, the Civilian Commissariat of Coal Industry expressed keen interest in the compound and Levinetz turned the formula over to the bureau. The Commissariat rewarded him with a generous amount of rubles, which the engineer turned into vodka for a party. According to Anna's father, NKVD agents had been trailing him and deliberately worked themselves into the happy man's confidence; in fact, he invited them to the party, during the course of which he proudly related why he had received a reward meriting such a party. The NKVD agents arrested him immediately.

Sentenced To Prison

Levinetz was sentenced to ten years in prison and all his possessions confiscated. His wife came to Anna's father and begged him to try to use some influence. Anna's father finally reached a high authority who undertook an investigation. Some days later, Anna's father was summoned by the high authority, who said suggestively:

"If I were you, I'd keep my nose out of this. Didn't you know that Levinetz is a Jew?"

Almost immediately afterwards Levinetz was sent to a concentration camp in Siberia.

It is significant that Jews are under no circumstance assigned to permanent work abroad. When Ilya Ehrenburg, one of the top-ranking Moscow writers, toured Canada and the United States, much favorable comment was aroused among his fellow Jews on this side of the ocean. Which was precisevly why he was allowed out of the Soviet but, as a wise friend of mine remarked:

World Refused To Believe

"They were careful not to let him get away alone. He has two other writers with him constantly."

But, you may ask, how can such atrocities as I have cited happen without arousing the outside world? In reply, I can only point out that the Nazis' sins against humanity embraced at least a dozen years before the startled Allies saw and photographed the horror camps in Germany. Occasionally, some individual exposed the conditions but the "outside world" refused to believe such fantastic things could be happening in this day and age.

In the free world, one cannot possibly appreciate the vital importance of press freedom because the citizens have never had to do without it.

In all fairness, the Russian people have sufficient intelligence to look with distrust on their papers. But you would have extreme difficulty convincing even the most intelligent Muscovite that there is such a thing in the world as a free press; especially in the capitalistic world where all presses and all writers are supposedly allied by monied owners to lie about all things Communistic.

Freedom of the press is a boon you must think about to appreciate. The people of Russia today don't miss it because they are not aware of what they are missing.

"Troublesome" Army Veterans

In the late stages of the war against Germany, the shrewd Soviet officialdom apparently had been doing some serious thinking about the returning army veterans. It also became apparent that the thinking was not directed as much toward rehabiliating the veterans as preventing them from causing any trouble.

One day in the mess, a group of us were introduced to a Party executive member named Ozerov whose work dealt with veteran's problems.

"Do you anticipate any trouble from the veterans after the war?" somebody asked.

Ozerov shrugged. "We have militiamen to handle such troublemakers.'

I recall feeling that there was something wrong about turning rear-line soldiers against our victorious Red Army veterans.

All Had To Do Duty

As if he had read my thoughts, Ozerov continued:

"We all had to do our duty during the war years. Because one man's duty kept him at a post in Moscow there is no reason why another man, who was good for no other job than shooting with a rifle or driving an ammunition truck, should consider himself an exalted person with special privileges over the other. Whenever one of those troublesome veterans starts talking that way, I crack dow on him. Usually I have militiamen throw him out of my office."

The identical technique began appearing on all sides, so I could only conclude it was the carrying out of an official government policy passed on to all engaged in handling veterans. Overnight the praise for "our heroes" shifted to brisk discussions of the big job lying ahead and how it was every soldier's duty to make himself useful in peacetime, too.

Vets Resent Treatment

One night in the Metro I was awaiting a train when two drunken veterans began talking laudly.

"We fought four cursed years and what do we get?" the first soldier growled.

"Nothing. Not a stinking thing. Nothing at all," the second soldier replied in equally loud tones. Then turning to the other people waiting for the train, he continued: "They have us trussed up tighter than ever and will bend us into the shape of a ram's horn. A ram's horn, I tell you!"

A militiaman pushed brusquely by me and up to the soldiers.

"Drunken soldiers are not allowed in the Metro," he said sternly.

The soldiers paid no attention to him. The taller one who had been speaking to the crowd was still talking, telling something about waiting for weeks for some promised allowance. The militiaman finally took him by the arm.

The tall soldier looked down at him. "And who might you be?" he laughed sarcastically. "Sitting safely back here while we were shedding blood, eh? Now you're trying to teach us how to behave. Get away from me!"

Sympathies With Soldiers

He shook the militiaman's hand loose and turned to the other soldier. But the latter was getting under full steam also.

"Go bury yourself—you dog's life!" he yelled, and the crowd chuckled. The people were becoming interested in seeing how the militiaman would make out. Their sympathies were obviously with the soldiers.

Two policemen appeared and each grabbed a soldier. The militiaman, now beside himself with rage hit the taller soldier, whose arms were now pinned by the policeman.

The crowd roared in indignation and surged forward.

"Leave them alone!" They've suffered enough!" "Quit bothering them!" they yelled.

The militiaman whipped out his revolver. The crowd hushed, abruptly aware of flouting authority.

"These men are anti-Soviet!" the militiaman barked. "They were carrying on propaganda."

The tall soldier shrieked back: "If you'd been at the front, you would be singing a different tune!"

"Do you hear what he is saying? Do you see what I mean?" the militiaman yelled.

Words Choked Off

"Listen . . . Listen, Russian people . . .! the tall soldier began, but he was choked off by the arrival of more militiamen.

Within a matter of seconds, the two soldiers were dragged out of the Metro and we stood there in silence, not daring even to discuss the scene.

As the numbers of discharged or about to be discharged veterans increased, a new wave of arrests started throughout the Soviet Union.

The only press recognition given the situation was in the form of a "drive against hooliganism." There was talk of a large new concentration camp established in Siberia to "cool off" hot-headed veterans.

Within a comparatively short time, the ingenious Soviet propaganda in press and radio had achieved a really remarkable change in public opinion toward their Red Army "heroes." Constant pounding home of the idea that "shirkers in peace are as bad as shirkers in war," began to register.

Closing Of Consulates Brings More Isolation For Russians

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26—Government circles were convinced today that a big factor in Russia's shut-down of her consulates here was a desire to lessen the exposure of her people to western ideas.

Although Moscow's official motive was something else, it was said, the net result will be fewer Russains in contact with the western world—and less chance of "desertions" that would embarrass the Soviets.

Several Desertions

There have been several such "desertions" in recent years. The most recent, of course, was the case of the three Russian school teachers in New York, the incident that led to the consulate shutdown.

Previous cases were those of Victor Kravchenko, one-time member of a Soviet purchasing commission who later wrote "I Chose Freedom," and Igor Gouzenko, cipher clerk at the Soviet legation in Ottawa, Canada.

Officially, Russia's decision to close her consulates in New York and San Francisco, and to demand closing of the U.S. consulate in Vladivostok, was a retaliatory step. It came in reply to the American demand that Jacob M Lomakin, Soviet consul general in New York be recalled because of his conduct in the case of the three school teachers.

Seek Greater Isolation

However, the Russian action fitted in closely with what diplomats here see as a concerted Soviet drive for greater isolation of the Russian people.

The first striking evidence in this direction came last spring when Soviet officials announced that New York and Washington schools for Russian children were being closed. Similar action reportedly took place in Iran and elsewhere.

By returning the children to Russia, it was pointed out, Moscow would be in a better position to discourage their fathers from any idea of renouncing the Soviet regime. This was done by the three Soviet school teachers—Mrs. Oksana S. Kosenkina, and Mr. and Mrs. Mikhail I. Samarin.

Reply From Stalin

According to one informant, Soviet Premier Josef Stalin was once asked by a western diplomat to explain why Russia did not allow free exchange of persons and ideas. Stalin reportedly replied it would be allowed when Russia's living standards matched this country's.

Against this background, Secretary of State George C. Marshall said the United States had not been surprised by the Soviet decision on closing the consulates. The move was described by Marshall as regrettable but not serious.

Shortly thereafter, President Truman formally revoked Lomakin's consular credentials for his "highly improper" conduct in the Kosenkina case. Stripped of his authority by the President's action, Lomakin plans to start home Saturday.

Berlin Mob

posed to set up a new city administration. The SED already is on record against new elections this fall.

No casualties were reported. By midafternoon, a large part of the crowd had dispersed. A 10-man SED delegation met with acting Mayor Ferdinand Friedensburg.

Police reserves were called up to handle the crowd, estimated to total more than 10,000 persons.

They forced their way through a police line, led by men who shouted:

"Down with the capitalists!"

"Down with the splitters!"

After bursting into the building, which is located in the Soviet sector of the city, they rushed upstairs to the city assembly chambers.

Carry Red Banners

Red banners carried the words: "One Administration, One Currency," "We Want Potatoes," "Down With the Enemies of the Workers," "Down with the Agents of Monopoly Capitalism."

Police sought to reason with the crowd, telling them there was no point to a demonstration since the assembly meeting was put off. But the demonstrators charged ahead.

"I don't think they planned a real putsch to try to seize the city hall building," Dr. Friendensberg told reporters. "But they aimed at panicking us and scaring us out of the building, then they could say that we deserted and could not be relied upon to run the city."

level were established on them. Actually, steers are selling from $38.50 to $40.50 at stockyards.

Milwaukee named an official city committee to investigate the high cost of living. The committee will meet once a week for five weeks to study the price of meat, potaotes, bread and other baker goods, milk and coal.

In San Francisco, competing butchers Edgar Ruggiero and Frank Lafata were fined after they pleaded guilty to adding chemicals to hamburger to make it look fresher.

Indian Ruling

tax the same as other voters."

In a legalized, historical discussion of the origin of the tribes in Texas, the attorney general's department cautiously noted, "we are of the opinion that the Alabama and Coshatti Indians in Polk county are citizens of the United States and residents of the state of Texas . . . We find nothing in the assistance given them by the state or federal government which renders them "paupers' or otherwise disqualified to vote."

Daily Markets

Stock Market

UNDERTONE IS STEADY

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—A few rails took off on a zig-zag course while other stocks plodded along a narrow price line in today's market.

At the final bell most quotations had budged only fractionally from the previous close. The general undertone was steady to firm.

Turnover for the day was in the neighborhood of 850,000 shares.

Rail stocks were affected by several factors, including a stream of favorable earnings reports and divident action that didn't measure up to expectations.

Higher most of the time were Nickel Plate, Illinois Central, Southern Railway Great Northern Preferred, U.S. Steel, General Motors, Goodyear, International Harvester, Commonwealth & Southern, General Electric, Union Carbide, Owens-Illinois, Mission Corp., Eastern Airlines, and Philip Morris.

Balky spots included Bethlehem Steel, Sears Roebuck, Douglas, Consolidated Natural Gas, American Woolen, and Central of N.J.

Santa Fe dropped more than two points at one time.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Cotton futures were steady in slow trading today. Continued favorable crop reports and cautious buying of spot cotton by mills discouraged activity in futures.

The trade was the principal buyer, credited mostly to mill account. Local traders and New Orleans were on both sides of the market.

Washington trade reports said that the army may soon use part of $150,000,000 revolving fund for additional cotton purchases for Japan.

The trade was asked for their views of the cotton supply-demand situation by the secretary of agriculture to help decide whether marketing quotas should be proclaimed for the 1949 cotton crop. The majority trade opinion was that there will be no quotas.

Futures closed 10 to 70 cents a bale higher than the previous close.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Wheat and corn added a couple of cents to their values in a firm grain market today. Trading was less active than in recent sessions.

Corn drew its strength mainly from the lack of moisture in important parts of the corn belt, although some traders felt the current hot spell would help along corn in areas where the grain was planted late.

Cash houses gave support to wheat. The weather also was an influence on this grain. A general frost was reported in the peace river section of Canada overnight. There were no reports on possible damage to wheat.

Wheat closed unchanged to 3½ higher, September $2.35½, corn was 1½-3½ higher, September $1.62½-¾, oats were ½-⅝ higher, September 72¼-72.

Four Attack Planes Seized By Customs

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., Aug. 26 (UP)—Four A-20 attack bombers, camouflaged for desert fighting and allegedly bound for Israeli forces in Palestine, were impounded here today by U. S. customs officials.

Chester A. Emerick, supervising customs official, said the planes were ferried here from Tulsa, and had been detained since Friday for lack of export licenses.

He said no arrests were made although the owner of the planes was known to his department. The owner had exported three B-17 bombers to Palestine via the Azores and Czechoslovakia last June, he said.

U. S. Reopens British Base

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (AP) — The Air Force is reopening a large wartime repair base in England to handle the increased sky fleets operating in Europe.

Some 2,500 maintenance men will leave Sept. 1 for the new overseas assignment, it announced late yesterday. They will help keep the Berlin airlift transports shipshape as well as the 100 superfortresses temporarily based in England.

Large War Center

Headquarters for the maintenance group will be at Burtonwood, Lancashire, a major World War II repair center.

Lt. Col. Walter O. Ott, of Osyka, Miss., is commanding officer of the depot group. It will be composed of men from the 59th air depot unit at Griffis Air Force base, Rome, N. Y., and the weather and communications service of the military air transport service.

County Urging Extra Session

PALO PINTO, Aug. 26 (UP) — The Palo Pinto county commissioners court has passed a resolution asking Gov. Beauford Jester to call a special session of the state legislature, it was learned here today.

Among reasons advanced for the special session were: (1) need for increasing inadequate salaries of county officials; (2) a state appropriation for counties to pay expenses "in providing quarters and utilities to all representatives of state government, such as highway patrol, employment service, county agents."

Form Resolution

County Judge J. Pat Corrigan explained the resolution was "a form resolution submitted by the state County Judges and Commissioners association." The resolution calling for the special session was introduced by Commissioner Sid Wheeler of Garford.

It was pointed out that the general fund of the county "has been depleted long ago, and the state has a big surplus of more than $60,000,000 in its general fund." State appropriations for county expenses in providing quarters and utilities for all state government representatives then was suggested.

active interest. These included participation in political affairs, and concern with public issues. Others he listed as jury service, because "even the law precludes or exempts nearly everybody but an ignoramus" from jury duty; and public school affairs.

A musical program preceded the address, which Hill called "the first speech he ever made to a civic club in his 19 years of legal practice."

Musical Program Given

Victor Akers, accompanied at the piano by Miss Imogene Webster, sang "Asleep in the Deep," "Master of My Fate," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Two piano numbers, one of Chopins waltzes and Rustle of Spring were rendered by Dr. Carl Jordan, member of the downtown Fort Worth club and director of the Tarrant county health department.

Roy Lovelace, of the downtown club, was the day's program chairman, assisted by Harry Delaney, chairman of the host club's inter-club relations committee. Invocation was by W. B. Henderson, president of the downtown club.

Others from the downtown club were Norman Earle, Dr. R. L. Rogers, Ray Jose, Joe Herman, Charles Cotton, Pat Crowell, and Bob Hoyt.

From Fort Worth's West Side club were Luther Gillespie, Ray Earl, jr., Lee Williams, and Bill Joyce. From the North Side club were Jessie Prewitt, Fred Davis, C. E. Brown, W. Dickerson, and Dutch Winters.

Also visiting the luncheon "to see that Fort Worth Kiwanians do not go too far with things," were four members from Pampa. They were Ed Weiss, lieutenant governor of division 6; E. S. Vicars, Joe Gordon and Bob Curry.

Club President L. E. (Jack) Davis presided.

levels might encourage big crops again next year which would involve another $1,500,000,000 in price supports.

Would Have Products

Of course, the government would have commodities to show for the bulk of its financial outlay. Whether it would lose money would depend on future crop and market developments. It could come out even if crops fell short and prices rose later.

Officials say they doubt that there will be "too much" farmer opposition to lower price supports next year. Most of the major farm organizations favored the cuts when the legislation was pending in Congress.

$7,100,000 Loss Of Timber Is Reported

LUFKIN, Aug. 26 (UP)—A loss of $7,100,000 worth of timber has been reported by the Texas Forest service as a result of this summer's drought and fires in the piney woods of east and south Texas.

J. O. Burnside, chief of the service, yesterday estimated the drought did damage of $4,500,000 and the outbreak of fires cost $2,600,000.

"On the face of it, it would seem that drought is more costly," he said. "But I think it isn't true. What doesn't show in the estimate of fire damage is the heavy loss of young timber."

The fires which have ravaged the area now are nearly all but extinguished. Rain in many sections quenched the blazes. Only two small fires were reported last night, both in the Woodville district, five miles southwest of Chester in Polk county.

Assistant County Agent Post Filled

James Wayland Bennett, summer semester graduate at Texas Tech college has been named assistant county agent on the staff of County Agent David W Sherrill, it was announced yesterday by W. N. Williamson, district agent.

Bennett is to assume his duties Sept. 1, to fill the place recently vacated by resignation of George Elliott. His home was in Mitchell county.

New Mother Suffers Polio And Pneumonia

MORGANTON, N.C., Aug. 26. (AP)—A new mother lay critically ill of infantile paralysis and pneumonia today while her day-old son was described as "doing nicely."

The woman, who was not identified by attending physicians, was deivered of the 6½ pound boy in Grace hospital here yesterday.

A caesarean section was performed on the 34-year-old Burke county woman as she lay in an inoperative iron lung. A physician described her condition early today as "very, very, critical."

Fort Worth Airport Plans Are Approved

FORT WORTH, Aug. 26 (UP)—The initial step in construction plans of the $11,000,000 Midway airport stood approved today by the Fort Worth city council.

It authorized the city manager to seek bids for grading and drainage. The city manager also was authorized to execute contracts with American airlines, Braniff airways and Delta air lines for their operations on the airport site.

Final Moscow Meeting Seen

MOSCOW, Aug. 26 (AP)—The three western envoys prepared today for what may be their last meeting here in this phase of four power talks over Germany and other East-West differences

There is a good chance that the meeting will take place today, although there has been no official announcement. There also is nothing definite on the release of a four power announcement of the results of the Moscow talks. That may come today, too.

None of the envoys arrived at his office early, indicating that the American, British and French representatives may be preparing for a long evening. They met for four hours and 40 minutes Monday night with Prime Minister Stalin and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov. A highly informed source said Tuesday that a general area of agreement had been reached and that further lengthy negotiations would deal largely with technicalities.

Conference Proposal Rumored

(Informed diplomatic sources in London said Stalin had proposed a Berlin conference of big four financial experts on the currency tangle in the former German capital.)

Considerable time and consultation may be required by technical experts in various fields to solve these technical problems

Many persons agree that progress has been made in the talks. No one is totally optimistic or pesimistic obout the overall outcome of the negotiations which began here July 31.

Faculty Of New Deal Schools Announced

A. L. Faubion, superintendent of the New Deal schools, today announced the complete faculty list for 1948-49, and stated that prelliminary plans for the academic year will be drawn at an 11 a.m. meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 1, with all board and faculty members and other employes asked to attend.

All New Deal school teachers will attend a meeting at 8:30 o'clock the same morning in room 3 of the high school building, Faubion said.

Students are not expected to arrive until Thursday, Sept. 2. Busses will leave the school at 7:30 a. m. that day and follow the same routes used last year. Thursday's scheduled activities include registration, scheduling and issuance of books. The lunch room will be open on Thursday, Faubion said.

Permits Granted For New Radio Stations

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (UP)—Three new Texas radio stations were granted construction permits by the Federal Communications Commission today.

They were located at Shamrock, Midland and Brownsville.

The Shamrock Broadcasting company was granted a permit to construct a 250-watt, daytime only, station to operate on 1580 kilocycles. Among the partners in the company are Albert Cooper and Arval Montgomery, who operate several West Texas newspapers including the Shamrock Texan and the Wheeler Times.

Snowden Radio enterprises was granted a permit to build a 1,000-watt, daytime only, station to operate on 980 kilocycles at Midland. William Snowden, a Dallas oilman, also received construction permits for new stations at Jennings, La., and Winfield, Kan.

Clovis Permit Granted

Brownsville Broadcasting company was granted a permit to erect a 1,000-watt, daytime only, station at Brownsville to operate on 1600 kilocycles with a directional antenna. Among the six partners in the firm are Minor J. Wilson, a National Broadcasting company engineer, Chicago, and Herbert L. Dewalt, with Pan American airways, Brownsville.

Among other construction permits granted were Plains Broadcasting company, Clovis, N. M., for a 250-watt unlimited time station on 1450 kilocycles, and Deming, N. M., broadcasters, for a 250-watt, unlimited time station on 1230 kilocycles.

The Big Spring Herald Broadcasting company, licensee of KBST, requested consent to transfer control of licensee corporation to Big Spring Broadcasting company.

Atlantic Storm

northeastern areas.

Cooler weather was reported in the Rocky mountain states. There were showers in southern Florida, the West Gulf states, and at a few points in Kansas, Missouri, the Dakotas and Minnesota.

The temperature at noon was 99 in Boston, 96 at Philadelphia, and 95 at Portland, Me., and higher readings were expected. At Fitchburg, Mass., it was 100. Pittsburgh expected 99.

In Pittsburgh and New Haven, oCnn., the intense heat forced judges and jurors to shed their coats. Some government and industrial workers were sent home early.

Send Out Mercy Car

In Chicago, where it was 95 yesterday, the Chicago Herald-American sent out a "mercy car" loaded with gallons of ice-cold orangeade to relieve thirsty policemen, firemen, mail carriers and any other workers who needed cooling off.

The heat belt extended from the Dakotas to the New England states, as the oppressive heat moved into the eastern seaboard yesterday. The nation's weather map yesterday showed readings of 90 and above in all parts of the country except the mountain and Pacific coast states. New high marks for the date were set in many cities. Thousands of workers in Detroit auto plants left their jobs because of the oppressive heat.

No Immediate Danger

There appeared no immediate danger of crops in the midwest which has felt the full effects of the blistering heat since last Sunday.

Federal weather bureau officials said the nation's bumper corn crop is maturing rapidly and is almost past the danger point. Rain is needed in some sections of the corn belt but forecasters said none was in sight immediately.

There was some hope that cool air masses from the Canadian northwest would move across the border over the weekend and bring a drop in temperatures to some sections. But forecasters said the cool air was "moving very slowly."

The North Atlantic and New England states got some of the high temperatures yesterday. Hartford, Conn., sizzled as the mercury zoomed to 105. In Huntington, W. Va., thermometers registered an even 100, the same hot mark reported at Alpena, Mich.

New York and Boston got a scorching 96 reading while Philadelphia felt no cooler with a mark of 95. Chicago's 95 was the hottest Aug. 25 in the weather bureau's history and the fourth consecutive day of 90 or above.

Detroit's high was 98 and Cincinnati wilted under the same torrid temperature. Cleveland was in the same condition with a high of 97.

There were a few cool spots. San Francisco's 66 was the country's lowest reading and most of the Pacific coast enjoyed temperatures slightly below normal.

In Detroit, more than 20,000 auto workers were made idle directly or indirectly by "heat strikes." After 9,500 workers at the Briggs Manufacturing company left their jobs 2,000 employes at Chrysler corporation's Plymouth plant were laid off. An additional 700 workers walked out in Chrysler's Dodge truck and Chrysler division plants and forced the layoff of 8,000 other workers.

It got so hot at Hillsboro, Wis., that Lillian Pisba almost had to abandon her wedding plans for the day. She passed out twice at the altar and was carried out of the church by the bridegroom. She made it on the third try.

Inauguration Plans Discussed For Air Parcel Post Service

Plans for inauguration of air parcel post Sept. 1 were being discussed by John A. Smith, cargo sales manager for Continental Air lines, of Denver, here today with Postmaster Amos Howard, airline officials and A. B. Davis, manager of Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Smith said five per cent of the total volume of mail sent last year is expected to be carried by air when the new air parcel post service opens. That would increase the total to 10 times the weight of air mail carried last year.

Service To Be Available

The new parcel post service will be available to cities, towns and rural routes, by a combination of air and surface transportation.

Smith said the beginning of domestic air parcel post would be the realization of a goal long sought by all the scheduled carriers of the United States. "The large increases in cargo ton miles flown this year, compared to 1947, is a true indication that air cargo services are satisfying a business want and performing a badly needed public service."

It will supplement air mail, freight and express phases of air shipping now in effect.

Rates Are Provided

Domestic air parcel post will provide the following rates, effecting Sept. 1: First and second zones (up to 150 miles), 55 cents for the first pound, 4 cents for each additional pound; third zone (150 to 300 miles), 60 cents for the first pound, 8 cents for each additional pound; fourth zone (300 to 600 miles), 65 cents for the first pound, 14 cents for each additional pound; fifth zone (600 to 1,00 miles), 70 cents for the first pound, 24 cents for each additional pound; sixth zone (1,000 to 1,000 miles), 70 cents for the first pound, 33 cents for each additional pound; seventh zone (1,400 to 1,800 miles), 75 cents for the first pound, 45 cents for each additional pound; eighth zone (over 1,800 miles), 80 cents for the first pound, 65 cents for each additional pound.

Action To Keep Election Returns From Public Gets Cold Shoulder At Houston

HOUSTON, Aug. 26 (UP)—Attorney Thomas E. Lichenstein, who said his unnamed client was interested in keeping newspapers and radio stations from getting election returns before the polls close, got the cold shoulder from the district attorney's office.

Assistant District Attorney Ed Duggan said yesterday that a criminal statute forbidding "divulging how any person has voted" applies only to an individual voter and not to the number of votes cast.

Judges To Be Informed

Linchenstein, who said his client was not a politician, said he would send registered letters to all Harris county election judges before Saturday's election, citing civil statutes covering elections and asking that they be followed.

The civil statutes make it mandatory for an election judge to give out returns "immediately upon the closing of the polls and at intervals of two hours thereafter." They also direct that returns not be given out earlier. No penalty is provided.

East-West Consulate Clash Is Shower Which Helps Clear Air

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The American-Soviet consulate clash is the sharp, quick shower which helps clear the air, rather than the cloud-burst which does heavy damage.

When Washington several days ago asked Moscow to recall Soviet Consul General Jacob Lomakin, for "highly improper" activities in the case of the three refugee Soviet school teachers in New York it was a foregone conclusion that the Muscovites would dramatize the situation to save face. Thus it occasions no surprise to see them close not only their big New York consulate but their San Francisco headquarters as well. It was equally certain they would retaliate by closing America's lone consulate in Russia—that at Vladivostok.

Neither Country To Suffer

Actually neither country will suffer much materially through the transaction. Consulates deal mainly with trade, and there has been a heavy drop in Russo-American business since U. S. export controls were imposed last March. So far as concerns Uncle Sam's consulate in Vladivostok, it was so hamstrung by the Reds that it didn't amount to much. They even threw brilliant floodlights on the building to make sure that callers at night could be identified.

The break affects the field of commerce rather than diplomacy. Both countries continue to maintain their embassies so that affairs of state will be transacted as heretofore. As a matter of fact the embassies also can handle business matters, and moreover Moscow still has in New York a branch of its big trading concern—Amtorg.

Arcos Was Thorn

Speaking of Amtorg, the origiginal Soviet trading organization known as Arcos was a thorn in the side of England during the early years of the Soviet regime. I was in London and watched the development of a knock-down fight between the British authorities and the "trade" agency which was as much concerned with political matters as it was with business—maybe more so. Anyway the British police were forever raiding Arcos headquarters, looking for proof of alleged subversive activities.

Finally in 1927 the British made a sensational raid during which documents were found showing, the government claimed, that the Reds had been carrying on spying to secure military information. Britain then severed political relations with Moscow.

Little Effect Expected

But to get back to our mutton in America, diplomatic quarters in Wahington don't expect the consulate imbroglio to have much effect on other relations between Moscow and the U. S. A. There is no sign at this writing that there will be a suspension of the negotiaitons among the Big Four looking to a solution of the German issue. In fact an informed diplomatic source in London says Stalin has proposed a Berlin conference of big four financial experts to work out an agreement for control of the German capital's currency —a red-hot issue.

True, authoritative allied sources in Berlin see little hope of success for such a currency conference, unless there is a prior agreement on principles by the governments of the Big Four. Still, any conference which keeps the peace ball rolling is all to the good.

Maybe things will move more smoothly as the result of the Soviet-American consulate affair. Washington's firm stand is calculated to inspire some degree of Russian respect. Maybe it will — who knows?

The United States at least retains its self-respect.

Seagraves To Join Firm's Celebration

SEAGRAVES, Aug. 26. (Spl)—Seagraves businessmen and the Seagraves Chamber of Commerce are joining in plans for a Saturday celebration to observe the beginning of the tenth year of operation of the Western company, an oil well acidizing and service organization.

From the time the concern was started on June 1, 1939, until recently, headquarters of the company were at Seagraves. Recently H. E. (Eddie) Childs, owner and operator of the company, moved the headquarters to Midland.

The company will continue to maintain a treating station and its main mechanical shops at Seagraves. It also operates treating stations at Levelland, Odessa and Eunice, N.M. It employs a total of 134 persons.

Childs will be in Seagraves for the anniversary celebration. Morris track is chief engineer at the Seagraves offices of the concern.

Old Settlers Hold Reunions

Thousands To Attend Events

RALLS, Aug. 26. (Special)—More than 2,000 West Texas pioneers and settlers are expected to gather here today for the 19th annual West Texas Old Settlers reunion, which continues through Friday.

Events and entertainments at the two-day gathering include basket lunches at noon both days, rodeo performances both nights, fiddler's contests, square dancing, and a carnival.

Old timers, including former residents now living in a half-dozen or more states and in many parts of Texas, registered Thursday morning, after which they were to attend a basket lunch.

A parade, sponsored by the Ralls Rodeo association, and in which the Will Rogers Riders of Amarillo are scheduled to participate, is to follow. A 2 p. m. meeting is to be held in the city auditorium, with Cong. George Mahon as main speaker.

A rodeo performance is scheduled for 7 p. m., and square dancing will begin at 8 p. m. at the auditorium. Modern dancing will begin at the same time at the American Legion hall.

Friday's initial event is a fiddler's contest, with prizes amounting to $18 or more. A basket lunch will follow.

At the Friday afternoon session, principal speaker will be County Judge Tom Garrard of Lynn county. A business session will follow.

Later in the afternoon, a pilgrimmage will be made to Emma cemetery, where many pioneer settlers are buried. Rev. J. F. Matthews of Lubbock, pioneer preacher, will give a memorial address.

Dancing is scheduled again at 8 o'clock Friday night.

MOTLEY-DICKENS PIONEERS TO OPEN REUNION TODAY

ROARING SPRINGS, Aug. 26. (Special)—More than 5,000 persons are expected to gather here Thursday and Friday for the 26th annual meeting of the Motley-Dickens counties Old Settlers association.

A parade at 10 a. m. Thursday, from which all motor vehicles are barred, will open the two day program. Memorial services will be held from 11 a. m. until 12 noon at the old settlers pavillion.

A highlight of the session will be the free rodeo which will begin at 2 p. m. on each of the two days. A full program of rodeo activities will be presented each day. A carnival show also has been obtained for the reunion.

C. C. Haile, Afton, is president of the association. John Russell, Matador, is in charge of parade arrangements.

MRS. L. R. DAVIDSON, JR., EMPLOYED AS PHARMACIST

Young War Bride From Philippines Says Life Too Fast Here But She Is Happy In Her Work

By OPAL DIXON
Journal Staff Writer

The majority of pharmacists in the Philippines are feminine, with few boys entering the vocation, said Mrs. L. R. Davidson, jr., friendly, soft-spoken native of the Philippines who married a soldier from Lubbock and now is one of the two women pharmacists in Lubbock.

Mrs. Davidson has two licenses, one of which was issued by the Philippines board of pharmacy and the other by the Texas board of pharmacy.

She received a degree in 1939 from the University of the Philippines.

Likes Work Very Much

"I like it very much," she said of pharmaceutical work. "You have to be confined in the store most of the time." That, she said, is one of the reasons the vocation is chosen by girls and that most boys in the Philippines prefer other work.

"I think it is the best vocation for girls," she said.

She is employed at Mark Halsey Drug store No. 4.

Mrs. Davidson, the former Cecilia Torrijos, met her husband-to-be in a yard beside her home, where the Corps of Engineers of the United States Army had set up equipment.

Davidson, who was stationed in the Philippines about six months, now is a chemical engineering student in Texas Technological college.

Were Married Here

The couple was married in March, 1947, at St. Elizabeth's Catholic church in Lubbock.

Method of instruction in pharmacy at the University of the Philippines is based on United States methods and textbooks used are from the United States, said Mrs. Davidson. She found few major differences in pharmacy here and that she learned in the Philippines.

She has become accustomed to differences in information on labels. There, all of the ingredients in a prescription are listed on the label, along with the doctor's name, the patient's name and the date, while here the ingredients are not listed.

"In the United States, you use more of the patent medicine, while in the Philippines we have a lot of compounding," she said.

Now Used To U. S. Money

She has become accustomed to use of American money rather than the peso and centavo. Dollars and other American money were used in the Philippines following the liberation, so she had used them to some extent before coming to the United States. The American government now has ordered the treasury to collect American money in the Philippines.

She long had been accustomed to speaking English before coming here. About 80 per cent of the Filipinos speak English; about 10 per cent, native dialect, and about 10 per cent, Spanish, she said. In her own home, all three were spoken at times.

Her father operates a general merchandise store in Vigan I Sur and owns homes in that town and in Manila. During the war, until after the liberation, the family had lived in Manila and Mrs. Davidson had lived there prior to that while attending the university.

Life Is Different

She finds life here different in many ways from that in the Philippines.

"Life here is too fast for me," she said, smiling. "The people just work and work and work, and then when they play, they play hard."

Bitter Note Is Sent Romania By Yugoslavia

By RICHARD S. CLARK
United Press Staff Writer

PRAGUE, Aug. 26—Yugoslavia broke into open diplomatic hostilities with Romania today with a heated note accusing Romanian officials of advocating the overthrow of the Tito regime.

Press dispatches said the Yugoslav note was handed to the Romanian ambassador in Belgrade. The note was the latest flare-up in the mounting cold war between Marshal Tito and the Cominform.

It was delivered against a background of recent reports that many high Yugoslav army officers have fled to Romania to set up an emigre government dedicated to Tito's destruction.

Relations Disturbed

It demanded that the Romanian government put an end to attempts to evoke resistance against Tito in Yugoslavia which, it said, "essentially disturbs relations between the peoples of both countries."

It was expected that other Yugoslav notes would be handed to Czechoslovakia, Poland and Hungry, all of which have been carrying out a rising press campaign against Tito.

The note indicated Yugoslav fears that continued pressure and propaganda from Moscow-dominated countries on her eastern frontier might have extremely damaging effects on Tito's regime.

"Responsible state officials in Romania in their speeches and articles in the press call upon the citizens of Yugoslavia to revolt and overthrow the legal goevrnment of Yugoslavia," the note said.

Hostile Acts Listed

"Thus, for example, Mrs. Ana Pauker, foreign minister of Romania, openly calls for elimination of the present state leadership in Yugoslavia."

The note went on to list a long series of allegedly hostile acts by Romania which Yugoslavia claimed were in violation of customary international relations and the Yugoslav-Romanian treaty of friendship, cooperation and mutual aid.

It attacked Romanian officials for trying to depict Yugoslavia as a renegade from iron curtain solidarity "in which anti-Soviet propaganda is supposedly being conducted."

Legs Are Found At Dump In California

SANTA ANA, Calif., Aug. 26 (AP)—A woman's legs were found today, wrapped in newspapers in the Orange county dump.

The sheriff's office reported doctors at county hospital said the amputations were not professional. Two boys found the legs.

Globe-Circling Couple Picked Up In Atlantic From Army Duck

NEW YORK, Aug. 26 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Carlin, who started around the world in a converted army amphibious duck, have been picked up by a tanker after drifting in the Atlantic for ten days.

The couple now is bound for Halifax, Nova Scotia, on the tanker New Jersey instead of for the Azores, their first planned stop.

The tanker radioed the Coast Guard last night that it had picked up the seafarers 270 miles from New York. There was no mention of what was done with their craft.

The last previous word of the Carlins was on Aug. 11, shortly after they sailed from here. At that time a navy destroyer sighted their craft about 150 miles at sea.

Carlin is an Australian mining engineer who was a major in the Australian army during the war. His wife is the former Elinore Arone, 28, of Boston. They met in India where she was a Red Cross Nurse.

When they started, the Carlins figured they could ride and sail around the world in about six months.

NEW DATA TO BE PRESENTED

Ex-Aggies Backing Tech's SWC Bid

New data supporting Texas Tech's admission to the Southwest conference will be presented to an informed caucus of conference officials in Dallas Friday, it was revealed at a meeting of Central and South Plains members of the Texas A. and M. Former Students association in Mackenzie park last night.

W. G. McMillan, chairman of a South Plains Aggie committee supporting Tech's application, told the 52 ex-Aggies that the new data has been prepared into briefs and air expressed to conference officials. No decision will be made at the Friday meeting. The "yes or no" will come from a conference Dec.5.

Briefs Are Factual

McMillan said the briefs contain only factual information on financial and geographical problems related to Tech's application and do not attempt to point out any public sentiment other than the desire for maintenance of regular athletic relations between Tech and Southwest conference schools.

McMillan said some of the strong points of the briefs were Tech's enrollment, consisting of 6,869 students from 228 of Texas' 254 counties, 17 states and seven foreign countries; the new stadium, which can accomodate 20,000 fans; the history of Texas Tech's years of cordial grid relations with Southwest Conference schools and the need of Tech athletes for competition with other important schools of the Southwest.

Points To "Apprenticeship"

"Tech has served a 23-year apprenticeship," McMillan said, "and it's time the third largest state supported school in Texas is allowed to stand on its own merits and prove its worth."

Both Tech and A. and M. officials declined to comment on the latest development in the conference enlargement agitation. Hardin-Simmons University, bitter foe of Texas Tech in Border conference competition, had yesterday formally asked for a spot in the conference.

Bill Carmichael, athletic director at A. and M. said he was not in a position to state any views on the latest development while Dr. J. W. Davis, chairman of the Tech athletic council, was equally non-committal.

During the meeting, the members also heard reports from Dick Hervey, College Station, executive secretary of the ex-students association, George R. Smith, Houston, new president of the association, and E. E. McQuillen, past secretary.

All speakers cited the need for continued cooperation of former students, particularly in the fellowship fund division, which McQuillen heads. They cited the 96 boys who will enter A. and M. this fall under the Opportunity Award scholarship plan and the new Endowed Scholarship plan, the first in the school's history. Both plans are supported by former students.

Three Soldiers Face Charges Of Robbery

BAIRD, Aug. 26. (AP)—Three Kelly field (San Antonio) soldiers were charged here today with robbery with firearms in an assault on Earl Freeman, 20, Abilene college student, who gave them a lift in his car.

They were Charles Wilkerson, 18, Newton, Ill.; Donnen Leflar, 17, Heber, Utah, and K. R. Graves, 18, Tyler, Tex.

Sheriff S. S. (Nick) Nichols, who swore out the warrants, said Freeman was attacked yesterday three miles east of Putnam on U. S. Highway 80.

Bond in each case was set at $5,000.

Candidates In Senate Chase Are In Dallas

(By The Associated Press)

Senatorial Candidates Coke Stevenson and Lyndon Johnson today were working the same city, Dallas, in their next-to-last chance to sway the voters before Saturday's runoff primary.

Stevenson, who made a radio speech in Dallas last night, had another scheduled tonight. Johnson planned a mid-day radio broadcast, plus a conference with precinct managers.

Will Double Back

Stevenson planned to remain in Dallas tomorrow, while Johnson was to double back south to San Antonio.

Thirty-seven election supervisors to keep watch over voting in Webb county were selected yesterday by Stevenson. He said he was invoking a legal provision under which a candidate may choose supervisors sworn to "mention and notice" any voting irregularities.

Johnson led Stevenson in Webb county by 6,476 votes to 531 in the first primary.

Commenting on Stevenson's action, the congressman said in a statement at Austin:

"I believe the election judges of Texas are honest. If my opponent thinks they are not, then, of course, he is entitled by law to have supervisors. That is his legal right."

He Should Answer

In his statement, Johnson said Stevenson should answer a few questions "while he's so busy asking questions."

The congressman said his opponent should state whether he favors the Taft-Hartley law or would vote to repeal or amend it.

"Why," Johnson asked, "did he straddle on the Texas labor law known as the Manford act, refusing to sign or veto it? Does he favor the Marshall plan or does he still have those reservations raised by isolationists like Congressman Taber and expressed by my opponent in his Jan. 1 speech?

In Stevenson's radio speech, the former governor referred to what he described as a "scandal sheet . . . put out in the interests of the other candidate."

He said one headline in the paper read: "Communists Favor Coke."

"I know that nobody can ever convince you that Coke Stevenson is a Communist or runs with the Communists," he said.

Young Readers Take Talked-About Books

HOUSTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—A survey released today indicates the young no longer care for "Little Women," or even "Tarzan."

A poll of 591 students at Reagan senior high school put "Hop-A-Long Cassidy" a poor 40th on the favorite book list.

"Forever Amber."

What-The-Hell Attitude Must Be Overcome, Churchman Says

By RICHARD TOMPKINS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands, Aug. 26.—A British churchman told the World Council of Churches today it must combat a growing "what-the-hell attitude" to bring order to human society

Dr. John William Charles Wand, bishop of London, told newsmen he advised his fellow church leaders in closed sessions here that "our actual difficulty is the apathy people show today, which accounts for much of the world disorder."

The British people, for instance, have become escapists seeking release from the monotony of an austerity-ridden life, Dr. Wand said. He added he had no quarrel with escapism if it is not carried too far, but "it's this what-the-hell attitude that we have to overcome if we are going to do anything about the disorder of society."

Seminary Head Reports

Dr. John Alexander Mackay, president of the Princeton theological seminary, also reported on a closed discussion group, said "the church cannot be the true church if it becomes self-centered" and fails to meet human needs He added that one of the greatest faults of the Christian church is its failure to become united.

A U. S. churchman said a majority of American churches will support the growing movement for world-wide Christian unity.

There is "rising concern for cooperation and ecumenical (world-wide) fellowship" in American churches today, said the Rev. Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert of New York, in a paper prepared for a visitors' conference in conjunction with the assembly of the World Council of Churches.

Unity Concern Remarkable

"That this concern for unity should exist and be gaining in strength is all the more remarkable in view of our historic emphasis for freedom and diversity," said Cavert, who is general secretary of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America and a consultant at the World Council of Churches.

He said that although there are church groups in the United States in which the sectarian spirit is marked, the outlook for a world church has begun to capture the imagination and loyalty in most American churches.

Neither the Roman Catholic nor the Russian churches are represented here, nor are the Southern Baptist convention of the United States and the Missouri synod of the Lutheran church.

Refused Volunteers To Be Given Cards

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (AP)—Cards carrying the official army and air force seals will be given as tokens of appreciation to volunteers rejected for physical reasons.

This innovation was ordered by Secretary of the Army Royall and Secretary of the Air Force Symington. The first ones will be given out about September 1.

The card will carry the name of the applicant and say:

"In appreciation of his patriotic intent in offering her services to his country. Although his tender of service in the air force (or army) could not be accepted under current regulations, he may again apply for enlistment should regulations or conditions causing rejectment be changed."

Mother, Daughter Travel On Scooter

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26. (AP)—Mrs. Johanna Majewski, 34, and her 12-year-old daughter, Dotsy, were en route to Chicago today on their own motor scooter which has a sidecar. They had two suitcases, two raincoats, a gas can, $50 in cash and a lot of determination.

"I've had two ambitions, to own a motor scooter and to visit my father, and I figure we can make 45 miles an hour and 200 miles a day, so with three weeks' vacation, we should make the round trip okeh," said Mrs. Majewski as she took off yesterday.

VOTING ENCOURAGED

MUNCIE, Ind. (U.P.)—County officials offered added incentive for persons wanting to register as voters. Parking spaces in front of the county clerk's office were provided to make it easier for voters.

AMAZING RESULTS WITH MERTOX TONIC

Mrs. Ben Grossman of Houston writes us as follows:

"For a long time I have had occasional bilious spells. My head would hurt and I would vomit my food. My last spell was very severe and I just thought I would die. My appetite was poor and I couldn't sleep at night. I was so troubled with my limbs stiffening just before I would have a spell of gas and bloat. I would be dizzy and I would have a severe headache. My food soured and it just seemed as if everything was wrong with me. To anyone suffering like I was, I recommend Mertox highly."

Fall Festival Set At Sudan

SUDAN, Aug. 26. (Special)—Major and minor events crowd a busy schedule for the third annual Sudan Fall Festival, September 3 and 4, as announced by Ernest C. Minyard, general manager. Quarter horse racing, a high school band contest and an American Legion rodeo and dance are among features added to the celebration for the first time.

Levelland, Muleshoe and Morton bands are slated to compete for $125 first prize money Saturday afternoon. A total of $1,695 cash prizes will be awarded during the two-day continuous program, including prize money at the Legion's amateur rodeo performance for both nights. Ernie Fields and his orchestra from Tulsa, Okla., will play for dance at the new Legion hut on Friday and Saturday nights following the rodeo.

The opening football game of the season, Sudan vs. Springlake, will get underway at 5 p. m. Friday. A home towners' parade, managed by Raymond Nix, will be the Saturday morning attraction.

Horse races Saturday afternoon, special games for children, a baseball tournament and old fiddlers' contest will be sandwiched in with events already listed. Joe Salem, Simon Hay, Reed Markham and Drew Watkins form the executive committee assisting Minyard.

Permission For Oil Developments Sought

GALVESTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—Stanolind Oil and Gas company is seeking blanket permission to develop oil companies in six Gulf of Mexico areas.

The application was sent to the army district engineer here yesterday.

The company applied for permission to erect drilling platforms and derricks, dredge channels, lay pipelines, construct storage tanks and build other necessary structures for development of the fields.

The areas requested are five miles south of High island, 18 miles east of Galveston, 18 miles southeast of Galveston, 15 miles south of Galveston, 25 miles southwest of Galveston, 15 miles south of Galveston, 25 miles southwest of Galveston, and 25 miles east of Galveston.

The proposed drilling would be in water 24 to 60 feet deep.

Stanolind recently announced plans to build a $300,000 Gulf drilling headquarters here.

Blind And Crippled Remembered In Will

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26. (AP)—Mrs. Mary Bryant Lamb Walton talked often of wanting to help the blind and crippled.

When the Philadelphia woman's will was offered for probate yesterday, half the residue of her estimated million dollar estate was bequeathed to "The Seeing Eye, Inc.," at Whippany, N. J.

The Seeing Eye bequest stipulated that it be used "only for the purchase and training of dogs to be given to blind persons."

Mrs. Walton, stepchild of William H. Bryant, wealthy coal merchant, died July 22 at the age of 53.

Late President's Grandson Is Victim Of Polio In California

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26 (AP)—The late President Roosevelt's grandson, Curtis (Buzzy) Boettiger, is in a hospital suffering from poliomyelitis.

The 18-year-old son of Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dall Boettiger by her first husband, Curtis Dall, was stricken last night and taken to the county hospital's communicable disease ward in West Hollywood. He was to be transferred today with 100 other polio patients to the naval hospital at Corona.

Case Believed Mild

The lad's physician said his condition is "not serious but definitely a mild case of polio."

Buzzy's grandfather was stricken with polio in the 1920's and, although he recovered, was crippled and walked with a cane. In his latter years Mr. Roosevelt frequently used an invalid's chair.

A special ramp always was carried aboard presidential special trains for Mr. Roosevelt's use, or an elevating device would be used to enable him to board trains or the presidential plane, "Sacred Cow."

Foundation Set Up

Mr. Roosevelt's will, however, enabled him to surmount the handicap. It was his intense interest in the disease that led to founding of the Georgia Warm Springs foundation for polio victims, and establishment of the "march of dimes" fund honoring the president's birthday.

The Georgia institution became known as the "Little White House" because President Roosevelt spent so much time there and it was the place he died, not of polio but of a cerebral hemorrhage in 1945.

Picnickers Warned Of Food Poisoning

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 26. (U.P.)—Picnickers are warned to be careful.

The chances are, according to University of Nebraska bacteriologists, they may suffer some sort of food poisoning from a dish that neither smelled nor looked spoiled. The mistaken belief that cooked food will keep for several hours in a warm place has been responsible for many an upset stomach, the bacteriologists said.

Cream-filled pastries and pork products such as mild-cured ham cause the largest number of food poisoning cases. Other offenders include custards, cooked salad dressing, gelatin mixtures, stuffed eggs or egg salads, and cooked meat, poultry and fish.

The specialists recommend packing the picnic lunch in iced, insulated containers.

Most tornadoes in the United States occur between noon and 6 p. m.

Father Offers Eye To Support Family

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Aug. 26. (INS)—A Woonsocket father today offered to sell his right eye for $10,000 to "provide for my kids."

The father, Victor St. Cyr, 38-year-old carpenter, has seven children ranging in age from one year to 12. He said he and his wife have been evicted twice in the past four years and now face a third eviction.

He said if he can get the $10,000 he'll buy a farm in Vermont for his family. His wife, he said, had agreed reluctantly to his proposition, which he emphasized "is a genuine offer."

"I don't want my kids to go to orphanages," he said, "but I just can't support them."

Without Painful Backache

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Jap Papers In Rare Criticism Of Police

TOKYO, Aug. 26 (AP)—Japanese newspapers today criticized police for the first time in history for their handling of a prisoner.

Sadamichi Hirasawa, 56, a Hokkaido artist, was arrested as a suspect in the Jan. 26 robbery of a Teikoku bank. The robber posed as a public health official and killed 12 persons by giving them a poison potion before he robbed the bank.

The newspapers said Hirasawa was handcuffed to two policemen who brought him down from Hokkaido. The policemen, the newspapers said, told everyone the artist was the robber.

But when survivors of the poison plot looked at Hirasawa they were unable to identify him. Then police admitted they might be wrong.

Hirasawa has not been released or cleared of the charge. But his family indicated the police might be sued for damages.

Governor Announces Conditional Pardons

AUSTIN, Aug. 26. (AP)—Gov Beauford H. Jester today announced these conditional pardons as recommended by the Board of Pardons and Paroles:

Luther Fuller, jr., convicted in district court of Taylor county, 1943, sentenced to 12 years in state penitentiary for robbery.

Grover Cleveland Dearman, convicted in district court of Harris county, 1947, sentenced to three years in the state penitentiary for theft.

Lee Shelton, convicted in district court of Bexar county, 1944, sentenced to seven years in the state penitentiary for assault with intent to rape.

Acting Head Of A. & I. Named

KINGSVILLE, Aug. 26 (AP) — Ernest H. Poteet will become acting president of Texas A. and I. college here, relieving Dr. E. N. Jones, whose resignation becomes effective Sept. 1.

The board of directors appointed Poteet yesterday.

He has been director of the Texas A. and I. teacher training division since January. He came here from Harlingen, where he had been superintendent of schools for six years. Before that, Poteet was superintendent at Mercedes for 15 years.

A special committee was appointed to make recommendations for appointing a permanent president in the near future.

Cancer Laboratory To Open At Baylor

HOUSTON, Aug. 26 (AP)—Baylor university's college of medicine here will open a new cancer study laboratory Sept. 1.

The laboratory, sponsored by the United States Public Health service, will use a new method of diagnosing cancer and predicting its course.

The health service has granted $25,000 to the laboratory, the third of its kind in the nation.

$10,000 Worth Of Marihuana Seized

HOUSTON, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—Federal and Houston officers seized $10,000 worth of marihuana at the Greyhound bus station last night

Alvin F. Scharff, customs agent in charge of the Houston area, said three men, a 20-year-old Cuban, a 37-year-old Panamanian and a 39-year-old Puerto Rican, are being held.

The Cuban and Panamanian were arrested at the bus station, each carrying a suitcase of freshly-cut marihuana. The Puerto Rican was arrested a few minutes later in the Southern Pacific station with the keys to the suitcases and a ticket to New York.

Scharff said the suitcases were smuggled across the border near Brownsville. The raw marihuana was worth about $1,500, but when made into cigarets would be valued at $10,000, he said.

University Is Host For Fraternity Meet

AUSTIN, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—The University of Texas will be host to the national convention of Tau Beta Pi, a national engineering fraternity, Oct. 14-16, it was announced today.

Lee Hudson Matlock, university instructor and convention chairman, said delegations are expected from 83 chapters.

Open House Is Set For Plant

DENVER CITY, Aug. 26. (Spl)—Open house at the recently completed generating plant of Southwestern Public Service company east of here will be conducted Friday, and visitors from a wide area of the South Plains are expected to tour the plant during the day.

The 50,200-horsepower plant is equipped to serve an area extending as far as the Pecos valley of New Mexico on the west, Borger on the north and through lines of Texas Electric Service company to East Texas points.

Construction of the power plant was begun in 1941. It went into operation in July, 1942, with a capacity of 7,500 kilowatts, and expansions have been made almost continuously since that time.

Output Is Given

The plant now has a capacity rated at 37,800 kilowatts and 50,200 horsepower. Its 24-hour daily output is 1,200,000 horsepower hours. The plant uses 8,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas daily to generate the steam power necessary, and 1,200,000 gallons of water are used every 24 hours.

Open house at the plant will be from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. said Pete Renfro, manager of the plant. Renfro formerly was at the Tuco plant near Abernathy.

Many company officials and employes from the South Plains-Panhandle area are planning to be present. Among them are Jack Cunningham, president, George Ausman and A. R. Watson, vice presidents, and Bill Knight, head of the advertising department, all of Amarillo; and Hubert L. Allen, vice president and manager of the company's southern division, of Lubbock.

Student Sentenced On Homicide Charge

HOUSTON, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—Simon Adams, student at the Texas State University for Negroes, today faced a year in prison on a negligent homicide charge in connection with an Apr. 24 traffic accident.

Adams was sentenced by Judge John Snell, jr., yesterday. The accident occurred when a car driven by Adams collided with one driven by George Michael Conner, 39, who later died. Also killed was George Taylor, who was riding in the car driven by Adams.

Adams' attorneys said they would ask for an appeal.

Among the unique new inventions is a hat that can also be used as a rain-catcher by thirsty men adrift at sea or afoot in the wilderness.

Candidate Receives Second Endorsement

McALLEN, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—Lloyd M. Bentsen, jr., of McAllen today had the endorsement of the second of two candidates for the 15th congressional district Democratic nomination who lost out in the first primary.

The endorsement came from J. T. Ellis, of Weslaco, who bowed out of the heated race along with Augustine Celaya.

Said Ellis:

"It is my sincere belief that Mr. Bentsen will render faithful and efficient service in the entire district."

Bentsen previously had received the endorsement of Celaya.

The McAllen man seeks the Democratic nomination in the runoff primary with Philip A. Kazen, Laredo attorney, in a spirited contest.

Last night, Kazen spoke in San Benito. Bentsen spoke at Mission.

Spy Investigating Committee Opens Strategy Session In Drive To Discover Lying Witness

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (U.P.)—House investigators called a closed session today to map the next step in their drive to find out whether Alger Hiss or Whittaker Chambers is the "Damnedest liar" in America.

As the House un-American activities committee began its strategy parley, Rep. Richard M Nixon, R., Cal., told newsmen every effort would be made to trace the full history of a 19-year-old Ford roadster involved in the case. He said it may prove the key to who told the truth—the boyish-looking Hiss or the pudgy ex-Communist Chambers.

Hiss Is Accused

Chambers, now a senior editor on Time magazine, has accused Hiss of being a member of an "elite" corps of pre-war Communists on the government payroll. Hiss, a former State department official, denied the charge

The committee brought the two face-to-face yesterday in a 10-hour public hearing in an effort to resolve the contradiction. But each stood firmly by his story.

Accuser and accused contradicted each other on almost every essential point in their stories about their relationship in the 1930's. So conflicting were their testimonies that Rep. F. Edward Hebert, D., La., told them:

"One of you is the damnedest liar ever to appear on the American scene."

Perjury Case Promised

Chairman J. Parnell Thomas, R., N. J., warned the two men that the one found to be lying will most certainly be prosecuted for perjury.

There was no indication what new steps the committee would take. It may decide to issue an interim report on its general inquiry into Communist espionage in government. In any event, it was a foregone conclusion that it would stay atop the Hiss-Chambers case.

Hebert told reporters he was in favor of making an independent check of each point of their stories to determine the truth.

In his testimony yesterday, Hiss raised the question of Chamber's sanity. He said he had heard admittedly second-hand reports that Chambers had spent part of the last four years in an institution. Chambers flatly denied this.

Hiss Once Owned Car

The 19-year old Ford involved in the case is a model once owned by Hiss. Chambers testified that Hiss, in a "romantic mood," gave the car to the Communist party for the use of "some poor organizer in the middle-west or elsewhere."

Hiss testified that he either gave it to Chambers, or sold it to him at a nominal fee.

Committee investigators produced a transfer of title dated July 23, 1936, showing that Hiss transferred the car to a Washington dealer, who in turn sold it to an unidentified "William Rosen."

But they said no William Rosen ever lived at the address listed. Committee members said the location of Rosen and discovery of the Ford's whole history may "break" the case.

Committee To Trace Car

Nixon said the committee has the motor number of the car and "we are going to trace it down."

"It might take a year but we will do it," he said.

During his six hours of testimony yesterday, Hiss assailed his accuser as a "self-confessed, liar, spy and traitor."

Chambers took the stand after Hiss had completed his story. His eyes brimming with tears, he told the committee he was testifying against Hiss "with remorse and pity."

"I was very fond of Mr. Hiss," he said. "He was certainly the closest friend I ever had in the Communist party. But in the moment of historic jeopardy in which this nation now stands, so help me God I cannot do otherwise."

REBELS IN FLIGHT

RANGOOD, Burma, Aug. 26 (AP) Reports said today that Hmawbi, 30 miles from Rangoon, on the main road to Prome, was the scene of a large-scale battle yesterday. Dispatches said the skirmish ended at sundown with Communist-led rebels in flight, after sustaining heavy losses.

Organizations Share In Oklahoma Estate

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Aug. 26. (U.P.)—The 25th anniversary of the accidental death in France of a Muskogee couple was observed today with the distribution of $336,000 to six Muskogee character-building organizations.

The estate of Alexander and Eudora Bondheimer had been held in trust by the First National Bank and Trust Co. here for a quarter of a century. Bondheimer, a fur merchant, and his wife were killed in a bus accident at Nice in 1923 during a tour of Europe.

The couple's will provided that after 25 years their estate should be divided into unequal shares among the local organizations. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. each received $109,800, or 30 per cent, while 10 per cent or $36,000 each went to the First Presbyterian church, the Beth Ahaba Temple, United Charities and Boy Scouts.

The distribution order was signed yesterday by District Judge E. A. Summers. The estate was valued at $106,000 in 1923, but had since grown steadily through investments

Mechanic Is Killed In Automobile Crash

FORT WORTH, Aug. 26 (U.P.)—A 32-year-old Fort Worth auto mechanic was listed today as Tarrant county's 38th traffic fatality of the year.

He was Floyd Fry, was was injured fatally last night when his car crashed into a pipeline excavation north of Fort Worth. His vehicle plunged through wooden barricades surrounding the ditch, which was about four feet deep and three feet wide across the west lane of the highway.

Contempt Hearing For ITU Scheduled

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 26. (AP)—Federal Judge Luther M. Swygert today ordered officials of the International Typographical union to appear at 10 a.m. Sept. 15 to show cause why the union should not be held in contempt of court.

The National Labor Relations board's attorney's petitioned the court yesterday to cite the ITU for contempt, charging that the ITU had violated an injunction issued last March 27 by Judge Swygert.

It charged the union had continued to insist on what he said amounted to closed shop conditions in negotiations with newspaper publishers.

In his order, sent to the clerk of the southern Indiana district court, Judge Swygert also gave the union until 10 p.m. Sept. 7 to file an answer to the NLRB petition.

INTEREST RATES CUT

NANKING, Aug. 26 (AP)—The government economic committee today ordered monthly interest rates on bank loans cut to 10 per cent after Sept. 1 and to five percent after Sept. 15.

When the inflated old Chinese currency was in use interest rates on speculative loans ranged up to 150 percent a month.

Farming Improvements Will Be Discussed At Meeting In City

Challenges to agricultural education workers involved in cotton mechanization will be discussed by two of the Cotton Belt's foremost agricultural authorities at the National Cotton Council's Belt-wide cotton mechanization conference here October 14.

Mechanization problems faced by the Agricultural Extension Services will be told to more than 500 representatives of agriculture, industry, and government by P. O. Davis, Auburn, Ala., director of the Alabama Agricultural Extension Service. Ray L. Chappelle, Lubbock, head of the department of agricultural education at Texas Technological college, will discuss problems facing vocational agriculture departments.

To Aid Cotton Costs

The educational side of mechanization has long been recognized by researchers and economists as one of the big issues in achieving les costly cotton production, the Cotton council says.

"It is not enough to tell the farmer what machines are available to him," a council representative declared. "The farmer must also know how to use these machines to the best advantage, the requirements for properly maintaining them, and a great deal of other necessary information. This offers a real challenge to the educational worker."

Final plans for the three-day meeting are currently being made by council representatives and members of the staff of the Lubbock Agricultural Experiment substation, where important parts of the program will be held.

The steering committee for the conference, headed by Ransom E. Aldrich, Michigan City, Miss., cotton producer, and president of the Mississippi Farm bureau, is working in close cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Experiment station, Texas Agricultural Extension service, Texas Statewide Committee for Cotton, and the Plains Ginners association

Boy's Match Playing Causes $85,000 Fire

MANCHAC, La., Aug. 26 (U.P.)—An eight-year-old boy, playing with matches while his father was away, was blamed today for starting an $85,000 fire that destroyed two buildings yesterday.

The boy, "Buddy" Rottman, was striking matches in the bathroom of a restaurant owned by his father, Dennis Rottman, who is active in political circles and was in Baton Rouge, La., to see Gov. Earl K. Long.

A basket filled with waste paper in the bathroom became ignited and within seconds the entire room was filled with flames which quickly spread to the rest of the building. The boy escaped unhurt.

The Ponchatoula and Hammond fire departments finally extinguished the blaze after several hours' battle. Destroyed were the Rottman Seafood cafe, valued at $45,000, and the Middnedorf cafe, adjoining, valued at $40,000.

Peak In Polio May Have Been Reached

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—The Public Health service, noting a drop in reported cases in Texas, California, and North Carolina for the week ended Aug. 21, says its "quite possible" that the peak of this summer's infantile paralysis outbreak has been reached.

It said increases may be expected in some of the states in the northern areas within the next few weeks, but "unless epidemic proportions are later reported in those areas" it is "quite possible that the peak of the disease has been reached for the country as a whole."

New cases for the week ended Aug. 21 totaled 1,307, compared with 1,409 the preceding week and 1,816 for the same period in 1946, which proved the second worst polio year on record. There have been 9,743 cases this year compared with 3,221 for the same period last year and 8,841 for the same time in 1946.

California dropped to 206 cases last week from 241 the week before; North Carolina to 159 from 192 and Texas to 54 from 90.

Services Set Today For Plains Resident

PLAINS, Aug. 26. (Spl)—Funeral services will be conducted at 4 p.m. today in Plains Baptist church for John V. O'Neal, who died about 3 p.m. Tuesday in a Brownfield hospital. Rev. C. M. Ryan, Methodist pastor from Plains, will officiate, and interment will be in Plains cemetery under direction of Bryan McDonald & Son Funeral home of Lubbock.

O'Neal, a retired road contractor, had been a resident of Plains for the past 41 years.

Survivors include his widow; three sons, James A. O'Neal, John S. O'Neal and Shelby O'Neal, all of Plains; three daughters, Mrs. W. N. Hollis of El Paso, Miss Winnie O'Neal and Miss Eddie E. O'Neal, both of Dallas; and two grandchildren.

Union Able To Use Labor Law

BALTIMORE, Aug. 26. (AP)—In what may be the first case of its kind under the Taft-Hartley act, a labor union has used a $750,000 damage suit as a major weapon to win a wage dispute.

The settlement re-opened 17 seafood packing houses which had been shut down since April 12, and will affect from 300 to 400 workers in and near Crisfield, center of Maryland's eastern shore fishing industry

Company Action Arbitrary

A union filed suit against members of the Crisfield Seafood association, after the latter served notice they would reduce pay for crab-picking from $1 to 90 cents a gallon. A contract extending to last June 30 provided for the $1 rate, but contained a wage re-opening clause. The employers had been unable to reduce the rate by negotiation.

Local 543, alamgamated meat cutters and butcher workmen of North America (AFL), contended the unilateral rate reduction amounted to a lockout, breach of contract, and failure to bargain in good faith.

Suit To Be Dropped

Yesterday Jacob J. Edelman, counsel for the workers, said he would ask dismissal of the suit. He said the packers have re-opened their plants, agreed to new contracts at the $1 rate, and will pay court costs.

Under the old labor relations act the case would have been handled by the National Labor Relations act. However the new, year-old law gives gives federal courts jurisdiction over labor contract disputes and enables employers and unions to sue one another.

Report Shows Americans Seem To Be Cutting Out "Luxuries"

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (AP) — Americans seem to be backing away from some "luxuries" in the face of climbing living costs.

This showed up today in an Internal Revenue bureau report on tax collections for July, the first month of the new fiscal year.

Revenue Is Less

That meant $3,635,000 less revenue for the government, although it still took in $32,718,000 from the 20 percent levy on retail prices of those goods.

The amusement business also appeared to be feeling the pinch.

Taxes on admissions to theaters, night clubs, concerts and the like dropped off $2,649,000 from a year ago although the government collected $37,583,000 from that source.

Taxes on bowling alleys and pool rooms declined $134,000, but still yielded $1,430,000 for the month.

Federal tax collections as a whole were off $323,254,000 for July this year. They totaled $2,360,000,000 for the month against $2,683,000,000 for July, 1947.

Police Will Enforce Airport Regulations

HOUSTON, Aug. 26. (U.P.)—A policeman today is stationed at municipal airport to prevent double parking of airliners and to limit the time planes can remain on the ramp.

The move was made after threatened action by the Civil Aeronautics authority.

Paul Koonce, airport director, said the time limits would be half an hour for planes starting or ending flights here; one hour for domestic through planes, and an hour and a half for international planes.

TICKETING BUSINESS BRISK

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., (U.P.)—Patrolman Christopher Aspall, who handed out 30,000 traffic violation tickets last year, says business is even brisker this year. "I'm running about 2,000 tickets ahead of a year ago," he reported.

Astoria, Ore., was the first white settlement in the Pacific northwest when fur trappers established a fort there in the early 1880's.

Former Stage Star Claimed By Death

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26. (AP)—Death has taken the wan, faded Helen Lee Worthing, who in the golden twenties was a bright star with the Ziegfeld follies and acclaimed by Mary Pickford as one of America's most beautiful girls.

She was found dead in bed last night of natural causes. She was living in the three-room home of Jerry Oro, 39-year-old Filipino, who said he had been her friend for 10 years. She was 47.

The former Louisville, Ky. girl had gone from the Broadway stage to the movies when she married Dr. Eugene Nelson, Los Angeles negro physician, in Tijuna, Mex., in 1928. Seven years later they were divorced. After that she was arrested many times on liquor and narcotics charges.

In her tiny room were yellowed clippings depicting the rise, and quick fall, of the madcap dancer. On the wall beside her bed were pitiful attempts at water color painting. On the living room wall was a single large silver framed portrait of her, taken more than two decades ago, which reflected the beauty that made her the subject of many a toast.

Bees In Bathroom Found Not So Good

LANCASTER, Wis., Aug. 26. (U.P.)—Bees in the great outdoors are all right but bees in the bathroom are not so good.

Dr. H. W. Carey, city health officer, discovered that when he tried to evict a swarm that had set up housekeeping between the studding and an outside wall of the bathroom. Sections of the roof and wall had to be opened.

The Carey family decided the bees had to go during a recent heat wave, when honey began to drip down the door and window frames and to run across the floor.

It took two carpenters and an old-time beekeeper to remove the bees. But the Careys could point to more than 200 pounds of honey to balance the expenses.

Kansas Swindle Death Expected To Involve Victim's Partners

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 26. (U.P.)—Kansas Attorney General Edward F. Arn said today that warrants will be issued "in due time" for everyone invovled in the financial manipulatiosn of the City Finance Co. of Emporia, Kan., which was headed by the slain Herbert J. Kindred.

The Kansas Corporation commission has been investigating the dealings of the company since Kindred's bullet-riddled body was found near Florence, Kan., Aug. 18.

Several Creditors Swindled

Preliminary examinations of the firm's books indicated that several creditors of the firm had been swindled of more than half a million dollars.

"It is hard to conceive that one man could have done it all," said Arn.

Earlier, authorities had said they believed two or three other persons were involved, but would not name suspects.

After hearing testimony yesterday, the commission ordered the firm's state charter revoked.

Dewitt M. Stiles, commissioner who conducted the hearing, would not give details but said there were "a number of grounds" for the action.

Suspect Still Held

Carion county authorities still held William Gayer, 27-year-old Emporia truck driver, for Kindred's murder. Gayer, who was arrested shortly after the body was found, said Kinded offered him $1,000 to kill him but denied that he went throught with the execution.

Sheriff Lloyd Davis of Marion county said today he was undecided whether to give Gayer a lie-detector test. He said evidence "is piling up" against Gayer, but wouldn't go into details.

Police believe Kindred wanted to be murdered so his family could benefit from his extensive insurance coverage, which would have been uncollectible had he committed suicide.

BIRD TRAINER—A 5-week-old opaline-colored shell parakeet receives its early training from Rudy Staska of Chicago as another bird waits its turn. Staska says birds soon learn to mimic voices and never forget phrases taught them.

Police Hold Man On Bad Check Charges

DENVER, Aug. 26 (INS)—A 41-year-old man who claimed he is a contractor from Raton, N. M., was held by police today on charges of passing nearly $2,000 worth of worthless checks in Denver.

Detective Capt. James J. Pitt said the New Mexico man, Delbert Carl Hamilton, admitted circulating the bad checks, but contended he had made good about $300 of the checks with money obtained from a loan.

Pitt said he learned in a telephone conversation with officials at Raton that Hamilton is wanted for questioning there for passing $5,700 in bad checks there.

BETTER FORGOTTEN

NEW YORK (U.P.)—An indictment by a grand jury in 1903 against the Dundee Water Power Co., for blocking navigation on the Passaic River with its dam was discovered in a dusty pigeon hole in the county clerk's desk. Though never moved for trial, the 45-year-old document is still valid if the county prosecutor wants to use it.

Women Planning To Invade VFW Ranks

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26. (INS)—The V. F. W. may have to install powder rooms in meeting halls and add afternoon teas to its schedule of regular affairs.

Women are planning to invade its sacred ranks.

A former WAC Pfc., Amanda E. McQuay, of Wilmington, Del., announced today that she wants to join the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

So do a lot of other women who served overseas, she told Joseph Nagel, chairman for the 49th annual national encampment which opens in St. Louis next week.

Miss McQuay is going to carry her campaign right to the 1,500 delegates expected to attend the encampment. She is establishing headquarters in St. Louis.

VFW membership presently is limited to men who earned service ribbons on foreign soil or hostile waters in time of war.

Crime Is Confessed By Burglar "Friend"

TOKYO, Aug. 26 (AP)—Yasukichi Hashimoto, 22, was in jail on a burglary charge when he heard his home had been robbed of 12,000 yen and a quantity of rice.

Button Businessman Desires Bigger And More Elections

By RUTH CONSTAD
United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 26—In this city of characters there is one character who thinks we ought to elect a president every six months and governors and mayors every three.

Or maybe even oftener, said Emanuel Ress, who can't possibly find anything wrong with elections and the more the better. The reason why was proclaimed from his coat lapel. Pinned thereon was a big blue and yellow button which read:

"I don't care who wins. My business is buttons."

The button business has been good for Ress since 1940, when he went in for political buttons in a big way. He made Willkie and Roosevelt buttons that year. This year has been his best one since.

Plays No Favorites

This year so far he has made Eisenhower buttons, Stassen buttons, Taft and Truman buttons and Wallace buttons.

"I wish the Dixiecrats well," Ress said. "If they succeed with a new party, then they'll need some buttons."

His newest order is for buttons reading: "Start packing Harry. The Deweys are coming." It succeeds order for "We Want Wallace" and "Be True to Truman."

Before that he had a nice run of buttons saying: "Me Likee Ikey."

Buttons are pinning him down, the red-headed button king said happily. He's got so many orders to fill he doesn't know where to begin.

Wallace Helps Out

"Why, in 1940 alone," he said, "I sold 10,000,000 Willkie buttons. Of course, I voted Republican."

His largest order this year came from Henry Wallace supporters—1,000,000 buttons. Before the Eisenhower boow fizzled, he sold Ike's boosters half-a-million.

Most of the slogans Ress thinks up himself. Occasionally, he said, his French wife comes up with a tricky one and it immediately gets immortalized on a button.

In between elections, his Empress Novelty Company turns out buttons for schools, clubs, fraternal groups, and some "just for fun." Among the latter are such whimsies as "Ain't I Cute?," "Tell it to the Marines," "I'm Looking for a Thrill," and "We Need a Wage Increase Now."

THERE'S ALWAYS A WAY

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (U.P.)—A mother found a way to keep her three energetic children out of mischief. When she parked the family car to go to the grocery, she left them behind to put pennies in a parking meter each time a violation registered. She says they enjoy themselves and are well behaved now.

Man Killed, Woman Wounded In Avenging Of Rude Advances

ELKHART, Ind., Aug. 26. (INS)—Valton Burda, 28, shot and killed one man and wounded an innocent bystander in avenging "ungentlemanly advances" to his pretty 15-year-old child bride.

Dead was Charles Prugh, 38, of Elkhart. Ciella Thorne, 40, of Elkhart, was slightly wounded in the fray.

Police said Burda was able only to give an incoherent story of stopping Prugh from "bothering my wife."

Six Shots Fired

Police said witnesses told them that Bruda, an automobile plant worker, confronted Prugh as the latter entered the Smith corp., plant, where both were employed, today, and demanded:

"Who you looking at?"

Assault Charge Cited

Last year, Burda and his wife, Marilyn, accepted a ride to Kentucky from Prugh so they could get married.

Burda said:

"I learned that he made advances tc her while I slept.

"That ended our friendship, but it didn't end Prugh's rudeness."

Police said that last May Prugh offered Mrs. Burda a ride home from a shopping trip and instead drove to a secluded lover's lane. They said Mrs. Burda fought off his advances. Prugh was arrested and fined $11 for assault and battery.

"LIGHT" AND "DARK" MOONS

The terms "light of the moon" and "dark of the moon" have no scientific significance. "Light moon," according to the more popular conception, is the phase between new moon and full moon, while "dark moon" is that period between full and new.

Albino Frogs And Other Pale Creatures Meet Public At Aquarium In Washington

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 — Straight off, I almost fell in love with Harry and Esther.

They keep fat, jumpy and sassy on Japanese beetles, those nasty little pests which have been raising ned with my rose bushes and sassafras tree.

Harry and Esther were introduced to the public—and to me—today at the fish and wildlife aquirium in the cellar of the Commerce building. They are strange critters, indeed—Albino bullfrogs. Rare as black-eyed peas in Maine, too, according to John C. Pearson, director of the aquarium.

Where the speckled hide of the lily-pond variety of frog is forest green or brown, these freaks are sort of anemic lemon-yellow. Where others have gray or brownish eyes, my bleached pals wear buggy pink ones, which don't see very well, even on a clear day.

Frogs Pay Little Attention

Harry and Esther, wild little things recently promoted from the tadpole school, didn't notice me. They didn't even pay much attention to the ornery Jap beetles, and one of the bugs became part of a frog meal only when it came within smelling range. I reckon that proved a frog can smell. It also just happened to prove an albino bullfrog can croak like a frog, which both Harry and Esther did when they scored a direct hit on a beetle.

The oddities were presented to the Aquarium by Federal Tresselt, a boldfish breeder of Thurmont, Md.

But all of the freak specimens in the aquarium don't come free. Mr. Pearson recently got a communication from a Louisiana fur trapper. He said he had caught a pair of albino turtles. The trapper said he wanted two bucks apiece cash in advance for them.

Pays Own Money

Mr. Pearson, who detests making out government forms in triplicate even though he has a budget for same, feared he might lose the prizes. So he paid the money out of his own wallet and got the pets, by return mail. They're about the size of a poker chip and have caused a lot of ohs and ahs from sight-seers.

"I got my money's worth," Mr. Pearson said.

The odd frogs and turtles are keeping company with doubtless the biggest collection of albinos in any aquarium in the world.

In that marbeled cellar in the Commerce building there are a dozen pale channel catfish. They were caught in the James river in Virginia. And it was a lucky day for the poor fish. Wildlife doesn't live long in field or stream without nature-given camouflage. The albinos, though, get along famously in a man-made tank among their own kin.

Trout Included In Group

There are 300 albino brook trout which came from a rare strain kept for fish generations by the Wild Life service hatchery at Saratoga, Wyo. These, too, are delicate creatures which feed by instinct.

Mr. Pearson would rather take care of a fish than hook one in a stream. Also, he never eats the things.

Mr. Pearson is strictly a steak man.

Seeds of many troublesome weeds retain their ability to germinate as long as 20 years, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Soil Conservation Leader Will Speak

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 26 (AP)—Waters S. Davis, president and district manager of the Texas Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors, will speak tonight at the awards dinner of the Texas state grange meetin ghere.

Delegates were told yesterday that the producer's share of the food dollar is steadily getting smaller, although prices of farm commodities are still high.

Arthur F. Leesch, state grange master, said the farmer's loss of profit is due to increased costs of equipment and labor.

Reds Executed By Greek Army

ATHENS, Aug. 26. (AP)—The Greek army won skirmishes with guerrillas in four separate areas in the north, a communique said today. Elsewhere thirteen Communists were executed, including one woman.

In the Mount Kaimaktchalan area, northwest of Salonika, the army launched a new offensive This mountain lies astride the Greek-Yugoslav border.

Reds Executed

Government troops took one height from the guerrillas in the only action reported from the Vitsi area. This was a local attack northeast of Kastoria. A sharp battle was fought in the Roumeli sector, and in the Souli area the army took heights from the rebels, the communique said.

Three Communists were executed in Athens and 10 in Lamia. One of these executed in Athens was Ismini Sidiropoulu, a woman who was a former minister of justice in the so-called "Free Greek" government.

Albania Offers Refuge

In London, the Soviet news agency Tass said in a dispatch from Tirana that Albania is offering refuge to Greek guerrillas and "all foreign citizens who are persecuted for their democratic activity."

The Greeks complained at Lake Success that Albania is continuing her alleged aid to Greek guerrillas despite United Nations appeals.

The guerrillas, claimed to have won a "great victory" in the Grammos campaign and to have inflicted 25,000 casualties on the Greek army. The claim was made in guerrilla chieftain Markos Vafiades' order of the day, broadcast by the "free Greece radio" and relayed in London by the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug.

RAPID EXTINCTION

The northern sea cow became extinct in just 27 years after man first saw it. The huge creature, 30 feet in length, was never seen anywhere but in the waters around Bering Island, and Steller was the only naturalist ever privileged to see it in life.

SALESMAN SUFFERED FOR YEARS BEFORE HE FOUND RETONGA

MR. HOYT C. STATON

Famous Gastric Tonic Brought Prompt Relief From Distress Due To Acid Indigestion, Gas On Stomach, Restlessness, Has Regained 10 Pounds

"No one can be more grateful for Retonga than I am," declares Mr. Hoyt C. Staton, highly respected resident of 435 Hudson St., Gainesville, Ga., and widely-known salesman. A native of Hall County, Ga., Mr. Staton is a member of the Baptist Church. He gratefully goes on:

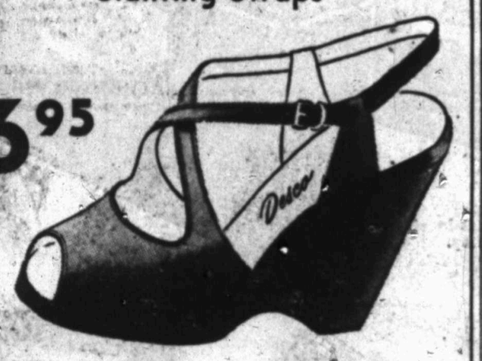

"It's hard to see how anybody could have suffered more distress from acid, indigestion that I did over a period of years. I just about lived on soft foods, cereal and milk, and even they seemed to sour and cause cramping gas pains and bloating, which at times was so bad I could hardly get my breath. I felt weakened and rundown and lost so much weight I was worried. Strong laxatives seemed necessary nearly every every night my elimination was so sluggish. I felt high-strung and on edge much of the time and I slept so little I was worn out to start the day. I spent hundreds of dollars seeking relief, but it looked like I would just have to go on suffering.

"The relief Retonga brought me is the only reason I'm making this statement. I have a good appetite, my food agrees with me and I now eat anything I want. I've left off those strong laxatives, sleep sound and restful at night, and no longer dread for the time to come when I have to go to the store. I have regained 10 pounds of lost weight and feel more like my real self again. I've told many of my friends what Retonga has meant to me and I feel that everyone suffering as I did should know about Retonga."

The active ingredients of Retonga are purely herbal, combined with Vitamin B-1. Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. If the first bottle fails to bring relief, your money will be cheerfully refunded. You can get Retonga at all good drug stores, including Mark Halsey Drug Stores.—Adv.

Berlin Graveyard Of Battle, War Swept Just As In Tokyo

(Editor's note: The following dispatch, a look at the postwar scene in Berlin by a man just arrived, was written by Associated Press correspondent Rich K. O'Malley, who compares the war-battered German capital with Tokyo, which he saw shortly after Japan's surrender.)

By RICHARD K. O'MALLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, Aug. 26—The pattern of military defeat has a deadly monotony the world over.

Berlin, 1948, could well be Tokyo, 1945.

A simple walk through the streets is a journey through a graveyard of battle, just as it was in Tokyo. At night the moon shines dully through skeletons of once-great buildings which housed the Nazi regime.

Forces Show Defeat

Where the swift black Mercedes sedans of the Nazi party chiefs once rolled before cheering throngs, weary Berliners now pedal bicycles or drag tiny woodcarts. Everywhere war still taps the passerby on the shoulder.

The harsh lines of defeat are clearly etched on the faces of the people. Everywhere they carry the mysterious small bundles which seem to be the badge of a defeated people.

In Germany they are most likely to hold a precious pair of patched pants, a hunk of dark bread or a down-at-the-heel extra pair of shoes.

To both the German and the Japanese, however they represent ownership. And with possession a man is a man again.

Winter Fuel Sought

The same formless old women who combed the fields for edible weeds along the road to Tokyo's Atsugi airfield can be found in Berlin's suburb grubbing painfully in the shrubbery. The same old men haul their little woodcarts with a handful of fuel to store against the winter.

They don't look up as cars pass. That, too, is a mark of the defeated. The beaten are not curious. They have had the big answer.

The big, and practically only, topic of conversation in Berlin right now is the Soviet blockade of the city. Just mention the word "blockade" to a German and then sit back and soak up fact, fancy, information and theory.

An older man says:

"I hear the Russians are giving big butter and cheese rations in their sector of Berlin."

"Propaganda," says a former Luftwaffe man. "How do you know a thing like that? Have you been there?"

The older man grins.

"I won't go there, don't fear."

It is not reassuring to live in a city where a usual warning to a newcomer is:

"Don't wander into the Russian zone. They probably will throw you in jail for a day or two and you'll have trouble getting out."

That warning, coupled with the specter of ghostly, bombed-out buildings, the apathetic Berliners trudging along the rubble, the drone of military aircraft overhead and the dark streets at night, all make the war seem very near again.

"Wari" Finals End City-Wide Playoffs

City-wide playoffs were concluded Wednesday, when "Wari" playoffs were held at Burns park, with top-ranking players from the various city parks participating. The event was sponsored by the City Recreation department.

Bobby May of Carlisle park was named winner at the playoff, and runner-up was Sheila Green of Wagner park.

Other players were Helen Tollison and Orville Lightfoot, both of Burns park; Mary Beth Oliver of Wagner; and Shirley Fullerton and Doris Lee Vest of Pioneer.

Dayton Couple Held In Canada Slaying

KIMBALL, Neb., Aug. 26. (INS)—A Dayton, O., couple was held by Kimball authorities today for questioning in the slaying of John McComas, 52, also of Dayton, at Dawson Creek, British Columbia, Aug. 9.

Kimball County Attorney Kenneth C. Fritzler identified the man as Gustav O. Wiegner, 24, and the girl as McComas' 13-year-old daughter.

Fritzler said that Wiegner admitted he shot McComas accidentally after McComas had engaged him to drive his car on a trip to Canada.

Wiegner declared he was hunting squirrels in woods near Dawson Creek when McComas stepped in the way of the gun.

The youth said that he and the victim's daughter, who had accompanied them on the trip, fled after the shooting, without burying the body.

They returned to the U. S. and came to Bushnell, where they opened a restaurant.

Freshmen At Tech To Be Orientated

An orientation and counselling period will be held at Texas Technological college Sept. 13, 14 and 15 for all entering freshmen, freshmen who entered during either of the summer sessions, and transfers with less than 15 semester hours, Dr. Ernest Wallace, summer executive has announced.

"All freshmen must report to the gymnasium at 1:30 p. m. Monday, Sept. 13, for this orientation. Those who do not take part in the entire program will be delayed in completing registration," Wallace said.

Students will meet in the gymnasium, where they will be sectionized and put into the charge of faculty members who will act as counsellors. Monday afternoon, Tuesday and Wednesday will be devoted to explaining the college in general, degree programs, academic regulations, campus life, and individual conferences to assist in the preparation of a trial schedule for each student.

Music and voices can now be sent over the air waves by a method which closely resembles telegraphy.

Scranton Given New Look As People Invest In Own Future

By BILLEE WHEELOCK
Associated Press Staff Writer

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 26—Two years ago this mine scarred city wallowed in a mire of declined business, population and faith in the future.

Today, because its citizens refused to let the ghosts take over, Schanton hsa boosted its population and owns 11 new industrial plants, each of them either leased or spoken for by new industries.

The buildings were built with bonds, bought by housewives, miners, janitors, bankers, newsboys and the other 140,000-odd citizens, big and small.

The industries these new plants have attracted here have helped to swell the population of Scranton and surrounding Lackawanna county to 300,100, pushing the figure over the 300,000 mark for the first time since pre-war days.

Scranton Has Evil Days

World War II didn't improve conditions. More than 50,000 residents left Lackawanna county before the war ended.

But let Willis W. Jones, general secretary of the Scranton Chamber of Commrece tell the story:

In March, 1946, a small group of businessmen got together to talk about an economic blood transfusion for Scranton.

Out of that and subsequent meetings were born "Scranton Plan, Inc.," and "The Scranton-Lackawanna Industrial Building Co."

Kitty Is Built

Selling first mortgage, four per cent bonds in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000 and $10,000, they built a kitty of more than $1,000,000 and went out and bought a $3,500,000 defense plant from the government for less than half the cost.

The plant, used by Murray Corporation of America to turn out B-29 wings during the war, is now headquarters for the Scranton plan and Murray, with a five-year lease, is producing stoves, kitchen cabinets and sinks.

Out of the Scranton-Lackawanna Industrial Building Co. bonds, also four per cent, came the money to build new plants.

All but three of the buildings have been completed and occupied. But the other three under construction either have been spoken for or are getting the once-over from out-of-town industries.

Into Scranton with new payrolls have rolled the W. L. Douglas Shoe Co., Brockton, Mass.; Harris-Hub Bed and Spring Co., from Cicero, Ill.; Trane Co., of LaCrosse, Wis., manufacturers of radiators; the M. J. Billig Shoe Co., and the Golo Footwear Corp., just to mention a few.

And the United Shoe Machine Co., has opened up a service plant to take care of the shoe manufacturers needs.

"Everybody."

To see what he means, the questioner needs only to look over a list of the bond holders who laid their cash on the line for their own home town.

Tribute Is Paid To Gonzales Official

GONZALES Aug. 26 (U.P.)—The Gonzales county courthouse was closed today in respect of Calvin C. Baker, county treasurer for 24 years, who died unexpectedly yesterday of a heart attack.

Baker had been confined to a wheel chair for 44 of his 59 years ever since he fell from a tree when he was 15.

He was first elected county treasurer in 1924 and had been re-elected continuously without opposition. Funeral services were scheduled for today.

Highway traffic in Oregon increased 50 per cent between 1941 and 1948, according to the state highway department.

Smirk Of Engineer In Court Is Costly

RENO, Aug. 26. (INS)—Gerard H. Caye, Brooklyn construction engineer, was granted a divorce, had his alimony upped and received a tongue lashing in a short space of time at Reno today.

Caye obtained a divorce from Olivia J. Caye, formerly of Detroit, on the grounds of three years of separation.

Judge A. J. Maestretti at first set Caye's alimony payments at $60 a month. However, the judge, after saying he observed the "smirking" countenance of Caye following the award, increased the payments to $60 a week.

Mrs. Caye had filed a cross-complaint, asking for separate maintenance, in which she charged her husband with desertion, cruelty and adultery.

Judge Maestretti said he would have awarded a divorce decree to Mrs. Caye if she had asked for it instead of separate maintenance.

The judge told Caye that his conduct toward Mrs. Caye was "reprehensible." And he added:

"Your smirking smile when you looked up indicated to me that you had the same contempt for this court that you have had for your marital obligations."

Patience Of "Job" Would Have Failed

SHANGHAI Aug. 26 (AP)—Miss Chang Yun-Shiu told police she suffered long and silently.

When Ma Shih-Li fell in love with her at the municipal statistics bureau she paid no attention.

When he got fired she ignored him.

When he wrote her a letter in blood she ignored him.

When he climbed through her bedroom window she threw him out.

When he climbed through the window the next night she threw him out again.

But when he climbed through the third night she had enough—she had him arrested.

Firm Will Drill On Gulf Ship Channel

HOUSTON, Aug. 26 (AP) — Port Director W. F. Heavey says Gulf Oil corporation has been granted permission to drill for oil on the Houston ship channel near Spillman's island.

Heavey said yesterday that Gulf is posting a $2,500,000 bond to apply to any possible damage to navigation. The company will not be permitted to drill closer than 1320 feet to the channel center line.

Dredging of a channel for the company will begin Monday, Heavey said, the special channel to hold a floating barge from which the well will be drilled. The channel will lead into San Jacinto bay.

FULL HOUSE

PAID POLITICAL ADV.

Mexico Chief Plans Speech

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 26 (AP)—President Miguel Aleman goes before Congress next week and is expected to reassure this rumor-beset nation and ask teamwork to get Mexico back on its feet.

The occasion is the reading of his annual report. Aleman is expected to ask the people to halt luxury spending and to emphasize the need of diminishing corruption, which is privately and publicly said to exist. He probably will announce some cabinet changes, too.

These gestures to reassure the nation come amid an atmosphere of uneasiness in many quarters. People do not fear an armed uprising but they wonder if there isn't some dangerous political undercurrent responsible for loose talk.

Rumors Float Around Capitol

Wild rumors of shooting and resignations have floated around the capital since devaluation of the peso stirred enemies of Aleman and his associates into feverish activity.

The main rumor was that a man shot at Aleman Aug. 9, wounding him and killing his chauffeur. Yesterday, a spokesman for Aleman said he was authorized by the president to say "there is no foundation whatever" for rumors of an attempt to kill the president.

At the same time, the Bank of Mexico announced that it is minting five-peso silver pieces at capacity to stiffen confidence in the country and its money. The bank said it is turning out 4,000,000 coins this month, 400,000 more than in July. The peso, devalued June 21, now is around 6.80 to the dollar. For eight years it was pegged at 4.85.

Nazi Broadcast Produced Visions Of Home For Enemy

During African Campaign British Soldiers Pictured Axis Sally As Oomph Gal Of Radio

By DON WHITEHEAD
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON—All during the war years, Allied soldiers thought they were listening to a young, beautiful woman when they tuned in on "Axis Sally" broadcasting from Berlin.

Axis Sally had that kind of voice—the kind that weaves an illusion for tired and lonely men who have been months and years away from home.

I remember the first time I heard Axis Sally. Montgomery's Eighth army was chasing Rommel's Afrika Korps across the western desert toward Bengasi and defeat in Tunisia.

One night at Halfaya (hell fire) Pass, tired British soldiers gathered around a radio after supper. A signalman tuned in a BBC program. It was a boresome discourse by a Mr. Heathstone Witherington, or somebody with a like name, on dahlia culture in Kensington.

"Hell, Jock," a highlander growled, "let's hear Axis Sally."

Jock spun the dials and in a few moments the soft, pulsing strains of an American melody floated across the desert.

When the music ended, a throaty woman's voice whispered words intended to stir longing and desire and homesickness in the hearts of those who listened. The voice talked of home and wives and sweethearts—and how foolish it was to fight the Germans.

It was a voice that tried to seduce and break the hard spirit of the Desert Rats so far from home.

Oh, they liked Axis Sally—those tough men of the desert. They liked her American brand of music and her warm voice that made them forget for a moment the cold winds of the desert night—just because it was feminine.

The government says she is American-born Mildred Elizabeth Gillars—a tired-looking, graying woman of ordinary figure and features who is nearing the half-century mark in age.

If Mildred Elizabeth Gillars is Axis Sally—then a lot of men around the world are going to haul down that mental pin-up picture.

Korea Bids Farewell To American General

SEOUL, Aug. 26 (AP)—The Korean assembly today expressed "deep gratitude and appreciation" to Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge who will leave tomorrow for the United States.

General Hodge has commanded South Korean U. S. occupation forces since 1945.

At the end of a day long round of farewells, General Hodge was presented with a 700 year old Japanese saber by Prime Minister Lee Bum Suk at Seoul stadium.

Former Minister In Japan Is Sentenced

TOKYO, Aug. 26 (AP)—Takeo Yanaka, former Japanese transportation minister, was sentenced to two years in prison today and fined 700,000 yen ($2,592) for running a black market restaurant.

Yanaka's assistant in running an exclusive place drew a year in prison.

Londoners have an average life span of 50 years.

STEVENSON'S RECORD OF GOVERNMENTAL ECONOMY WILL BE CONTINUED WHEN ELECTED YOUR U. S. SENATOR

There are 96 United States Senators in Washington, a majority, or 49, can stop this Federal spending and giving our money away. It is going to take new faces in Washington to do it. We need 49 Coke Stevensons in the United States Senate, who will save the people's money, reduce our Federal taxes, and pay our national debt. If we do not pay this huge debt today while the dollar is highly inflated, today's children will have to pay it tomorrow when times are hard. There is not much left today for the average wage-earner after he pays his city, county, state and federal taxes, all of which are still climbing, and will continue to climb until the people elect men of the Coke Stevenson type to public office. Coke Stevenson made Texas a good Governor, saved the people's money and reduced their taxes. What he did in Austin he will do in Washington. Let's promote Coke to the United States Senate with the biggest majority any candidate ever received. He will protect my pocketbook; he will protect yours.

Why Is The Political Action Committee Of The CIO Supporting Lyndon Johnson For U. S. Senator?

CIO BLACK LIST--of U. S. Senators and Congressmen from Texas who voted for the Taft-Hartley Law:

W. LEE O'DANIEL (D)
LINDLEY BECKWORTH (D)
J. FRANK WILSON (D)
OLIN E. TEAGUE (D)
W. R. POAGE (D)
WINGATE LUCAS (D)

MEMO: Why Didn't This CIO Black List Include Congressman Lyndon Johnson?

THE Political Action Committee of the CIO is not known as a benevolent society. It never forgets a friend or forgives an enemy. When it wraps its hairy arms around a candidate and tells its members to support him—it does so for a good cause. Why has the Political Action Committee of the CIO wrapped its hairy arms around Lyndon B. Johnson?

COULD it be possible that Lyndon Johnson has been talking out of one side of his mouth to the people of Texas and out of the other side of his mouth to the Political Action Committee of the CIO? Could it be possible that he has made certain secret commitments to the labor bosses of the North?

FROM the Record: Remember the murders of Dr. and Mrs. Roy Hunt in Littlefield? Well, among the hundreds of convicts pardoned or paroled by Coke Stevenson when he was governor was Jim Thomas, thrice convicted of Doctor Hunt's murder, but now free again due to a ruling by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

At the time of Thomas' parole by the then Governor Stevenson, he had a criminal record (including bank robbery) as long as your arm and was serving a prison sentence growing out of his attempt to murder Baxter Honey, resnected Lubbock citizen and longtime peace officer here.

HEARTY congratulations to Police Chief Lewis Kittrell and others responsible at City Hall for the recent institution of a traffic light at Nineteenth and Texas. As noted here some weeks ago, the "T" intersection of those busy thoroughfares had drivers slugnutty, trying to negotiate their ways in all three directions.

Most people will note with satisfaction, too, the traffic light standards put up at the intersections of Seventeeth and Eighteenth on Texas, indicative of lights at those corners in the near future.

Texas is getting to be a very busy street and will continue to get even busier as time goes on.

Along the traffic line, Lubbock is getting more and more serious bottlenecks at various points. This means that the city is going to have to have more East-West and North-South "through streets" than it now has.

Sometimes cars are held, bumper-to-bumper, for more than a block at such points as Nineteenth and College, Sixteenth and Q and College and Main. Nineteenth and Q is another bad spot much of the time—especially at morning and evening rush hours.

Sixteenth, only East-West "through street" (and it is just a partial one) between Broadway and Nineteenth, is so narrow as it moves into Q from the East that when cars are parked along its side a traffic snarl is inevitable at many times during every day.

COMPLETION of the new highway traffic dispersal system may be helpful—probably will be—to some of Lubbock's bad intersections. However, 2-will-get-you-6 that we're going to have to widen some East-West and North-South streets anyway—if proper relief is to be achieved.

As has been suggested to the City commission by various groups, Lubbock should have a Traffic commission—similar to our Water and City Planning commissions—to constantly study our traffic needs. Stay on top of the problem and make recommendations to the City commission for changes and corrections.

Dallas, for instance, has found such a traffic study group invaluable to the solution of its problems.

M. D. (Dunleath) Fanning, the popular little guy who used to be A. B. Davis' right-hand man at the chamber of commerce here, is really feeling his oats these days. Now manager of the chamber of commerce at San Angelo, Dunleath has just finished spearheading a campaign which has assured San Angelo of a fine, new, modern office building

The new downtown building will have 12 stories, over all—including a penthouse on the top for some rich guy to live in, or for some organization to use as clubrooms.

Extremely modern in design, the structure is being built in a way that it can be considerably enlarged, should the future demand.

Nice going.

We drove through Midland the other day and saw that city's downtown section for the first time in several years.

Midland has the best skyline in West Texas—including Lubbock—and for its size has more modern office space than any city we know of.

Work is going on down there on a new five or six-story office building, even though another of about 10 stories was completed not too long ago.

It's too bad we can't do something here along the line of a downtown office building, instead of constantly spreading further and further from the center of the city.

CITY Policeman M. V. McCurry asks us to tell the people that there's nothing to the story that Seeing Eye dogs can be secured for blind people through the saving of tinfoil, empty match folders, empty cigaret packages, or even the red cellophane strips off of cigaret packages.

Mr. McCurry says several people on his beat are saving such items for friends who are blind as the result of false rumors. He says he and Mrs. McCurry were doing the same thing to help a blind friend in Tahoka until they learned, officially, that the rumors were false.

Henry A. Colgate, president of the Seeing Eye Dog company, of Morristown, N. J., has issued an official statement in the matter and Policeman McCurry gave us a copy of the statement.

So don't fall for any "cigaret deal" on Seeing Eye dogs. To do so will only cause you a lot of trouble and disappoint some blind person.

This tinfoil, cigaret package rumor is not the first one of its kind.

It is one of those things that crop up every once-in-awhile, either craftily planned by someone seeking to profit thereby, or by someone whose imagination is wilder than it should be.

To have these things happen is pretty bad—and a poor commentary on human nature.

Mr. Colgate's characterization of the rumor as "a cruel hoax" is correct.

NOTING our recent comment on Lamesa's parking meter policy which encourages, instead of discourages, out-of-town visitors; and further comment about Lubbock's meter policy, David Nicholson, manager of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, takes typewriter in hand to hit a lick for his city.

Mr. Nicholson points out that Brownfield has the best parking meter policy known to man, namely, no parking meters at all. He takes pride, and we think justly, in the fact that Brownfield is one of the few cities of its size that hasn't fallen for the slick line peddled by the meter boys.

Being the No. 1 unreconstructed parking meter rebel in all this section, we thank Mr. Nicholson for his note. We also join him in giving three cheers for the Brownfield City commission for being smart enough not to be flim-flammed by the meter salesmen and thus refusing to saddle still another tax on the automobile owner!

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN: U. S. STILL SENDS WAR MATERIEL TO RUSSIAN SATELLITES

Pay Hike Backed For Services Except Brass Hats

(ED. NOTE—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by his old partner, Robert S. Allen.)

WASHINGTON—The U. S. is still shipping vital war materiel to countries behind the iron curtain.

And these shipments are still being made with the approval of the Commerce department's office of international trade. This is the agency of which William Remington, leading figure in the Russian "spy" disclosures of the House un-American activities committee was formerly an important official.

This astounding trade is still going on despite the administration's announced policy of banning it despite the warlike aggressions and provocations of Russia, and also despite the world-wide furor over the congressional revelations and their attending fantastic ramifications.

This column has definitely established the following facts regarding the continued export of war potential to Communist-ruled countries:

The OIT has secretly issued a license for the export of a large quantity of ball bearings and steel balls (for the manufacture of bearings) to Czechoslovakia. This license was issued to the Overseas Mercantile company, N. Y.

Further, ball bearings are a key essential in the making of war goods. Two of the most costly Air Force raids into Germany during the recent war were for the purpose of knocking out ball-bearing plants.

An official of the Overseas Mercantile company admitted to this column that the ball bearings being shipped to Czechoslovakia could be used in war production.

The concern's export license was signed by both Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer and Francis McIntyre, acting OIT head. Neither, however, would admit this when questioned about the matter.

Sawyer refused to talk at all. He sent back word through a press aide that information regarding export licenses is "confidential." McIntyre gave the same answer, plus the claim that he "couldn't remember" this particular case.

"Isn't it odd that you can't remember a thing like that?" he was asked.

"Well, I'd have to consult the files and they are not available at this time," McIntyre replied. "It's late in the day and most of our people have gone home. Besides, as I said, those files are confidential."

Miffed

Argentina's thin-skinned dictator Juan Peron is in a huff at Brazil.

The grand-standing ex-colonel is so furious that Brazilian newspapers should have dared to criticize him that he has angrily cancelled plans to visit beauteous Rio De Janeiro.

The Brazilian government invited Peron and President Berres of Uruguay to be guests of honor at its gay "independence week." Both accepted. But, now, Peron has reneged. He is very wroth at what the free Brazilian press has been saying about him.

The dictatorial Agrentinian isn't used to a free press. He has virtually suppressed it in his own country. He is peeved, apparently, because President Dutra hasn't done the same in Brazil.

As a result, Uruguay's President Berres will have the spotlight all to himself in glamorous Rio.

FORMER Sen. Burt Wheeler had an unusual experience at a recent dinner in Paris.

One of the guests was Eduard Daladier, premier of France at the outbreak of the war. He made it a special point to talk to the tall Montanan.

"When the Germans threw me into prison," Daladier said, "they would occasionally let me read magazines. In one of them, an American publication, I read an article by you that gave me the feeling that as far as you were concerned I could remain in prison the rest of my life. Never did I dream that some day I would be breaking bread at the same table with you."

Surprise

High-ranking officers are in for a surprise when the report of the advisory commission on service pay is published.

The commission will recommend increases for enlisted men and junior officers, but none for the top grades. In fact, they may actually face a pay cut in the recommended elimination of tax deductions and certain allowances.

The commission was set up by Defense Secretary Forrestal to make a comprehensive study of service pay schedules. The body consists of Charles R. Hook, former head of the American Rolling Mills company, Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, president of the University of Notre Dame, Keith S. McHugh, vice president, American Telephone and Telegraph company, and Lawrence E. Whiting, head of the American Furniture Mart Building co., Chicago.

A previous committee of generals and admirals had recommended pay boosts for all ranks, with the top echelons getting the biggest increases. Forrestal didn't even bother to send this report to Congress. Instead, he appointed the civilian commission to make a new report.

One of its recommendations will be the elimination of the temporary system of family allowances for enlisted men. This amounts to $175,000,000 a year. Another recommendation will be a drastic curtailment of allowances for flying and overseas duty.

THE executive board of Americans for Democratic action will plump for President Truman at its forthcoming meeting in Chicago.

The new dealers are still only lukewarm toward him. They are no more enthusiastic about the President than they were before the Philadelphia convention when they clamored for either General Eisenhower or Supreme Court Justice Douglas. But, now, they have no other place to go. They like Dewey even less than Truman.

So at their meeting, the ADA leaders will go through the motions of endorsing Truman. But in the campaign, they will concentrate their funds and efforts on congressional and state contests.

Saw an interesting experiment in film shorts. Dan Morgan, Jr., son of the wise "Dumb Dan," boxing manager, has produced for trial his first "Speak Up," applying with speech and motion the "Inquiring Photographer" idea. It is spontaneous, fresh and natural. Morgan, a walloping husky with a terrific combat record and many decorations, operates the Newsreel Theatre in Grand Central Terminal. Something Must Be Wrong in Paradise

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

A GROUP of young, busy mothers were discussing an older woman of their acquaintance.

One young wife said: "She is so serene it does me good just to sit and talk to her."

Another said: "I wouldn't dread growing old, if I thought I could become the kind of person she is."

MILLETT

So the comments went. Beneath them all ran a tone of surprise that an older woman could be such a happy, gracious, helpful person.

Perhaps the surprise existed because these younger women are so used to seeing older women unhappy.

SEEDS FOR MISERY

THIS particular older woman has many of the things in her life that are supposed to make an older woman miserable, a problem to her children and a duty to her friends.

Her children are grown and gone from home. Her husband is no longer living. She is all alone in her home.

But, because she has refused to feel sorry for herself, has declined to make her children feel responsible for her, and is going about the business of living her life to please herself, she is a happy woman.

Just by being that—a happy, older woman—she has become an inspiration to all the younger women who know her.

Any older woman who can do that has a real place in the world.

"Try And Stop Me"

A TIPSY gent dropped a nickel into the telephone coin box, dialed a number with great deliberation, and cried, 'Hello! Hello!" A voice at the other end of the wire called back, "Hello yourself." The inebriated one banged the receiver down, and bellowed to the world at large, 'Confound it! This phone has an echo!"

BUD ABBOTT, of Abbott and Costello, reports this girl has embarked upon an ambitious project. She is reading the Encyclopedia Britannica.

"I can't wait for her to get to Volume Two," says Abbott, smacking his lips. "That's the one that tells about the bees and the birds."

Prosperity Of Farmer Group Is Base For GOP In Oregon

EDITOR'S NOTE: Marquis Childs, well-known Washington correspondent, is exploring the great new empire of the west. He is analyzing first-hand the relationship between this vast new development and the rest of the country, and observing just how politics in this election year will fit into the picture.

PORTLAND, Oregon—This state on the farthest edge of the American continent is more Republican than Maine or Vermont. The Republicans cite figures to prove that Oregon has now moved into first place, ahead of the two states that remained loyal through all the enticements of the Roosevelt new deal.

CHILDS

There are, for example, 90 members of the Oregon state legislature. 83 are Republicans. The seven Democrats are a token to show that the two-party system still exisits if only in theory.

In view of this remarkable degree of Republicanism, it was fitting that Oregon, with only six electoral votes, should have decided the Republican nominee and, as most observers believe, the next president of the United States. Thomas E. Dewey's intensive month-long campaign defeated Harold Stassen and gave Dewey the necessary edge for the nomination at Philadelphia.

The broad Republican base in this state is conservative, but not reactionary. It was no accident that the voters chose Dewey over Stassen who argued for outlawing the Communist party. After all Oregon Republicans sent Wayne Morse, one of the most outspoken defenders of civil liberties, to the Senate.

Base Rests On Prosperity

The GOP base rests on the long continuing prosperity of the rich Williamette valley. The farmers in the valley were never more prosperous than today when they are getting record prices for everything they grow.

From the political standpoint, the rural section is rapidly becoming the tail that wags the dog. In the Portland area today are a half million people, roughly one-third of the population of the state. Most of Oregon's astonishing growth of 40 per cent in the past seven years has been here where hopeful newcomers from the east have found jobs in developing industries.

Yet Portland with a third of the population has only one-sixth of the members of the legislature. The little group that dominates the GOP in Oregon has successfully resisted all attempts at reapportionment which would give the city a fairer representation.

Republican National Committeeman Ralph H. Cake is head of the Equitable Saving & Loan association which has just built a handsome new office building faced with aluminum from Oregon's new aluminum industry. Cake's law partner, Lamar Tooze, is also a power in the party. Tooze put Gov. Earl Warren in nomination as vice president at Philadelphia.

THE dominant group is careful to keep things under control. Following the tragic Vanport flood, which made 19,000 people homeless, there were demands for a radical solution of the desperate housing shortage aggravated by the disaster. But the Portland Housing authority is dominated by conservative real estate interests and the radical proposals were quickly sidetracked.

On the Democratic side the story is like that in many states. The organization, what there was of it, has decayed. The candidates for state and congressional offices this year—there is no senatorial contest in Oregon—are for the most part a motley crew. There seems to be no leadership.

Yet a rebirth of the party may be possible in the near future. It is heralded by the rise of younger men with ability and integrity. An example is Monroe Sweetland, weekly newspaper publisher at Newport, who has recently become national committeeman. Another hard-driving younger man, Nicholas Granet, is chairman of the Multnomah county (Portland) Democrats.

Reapportionment Desired

These emerging leaders believe they would have a greater chance to make a showing if, through reapportionment, a fairer balance could be struck between the city and the country vote. But this

Today's Journal Editorial

JUST "GOOD, COMMON SENSE"

The decision of Lubbock and Amarillo City officials to submerge rivalries in a joint effort to obtain investigation and development of the water supply possibilities of the Canadian river was the only one that self interest would have allowed.

Controversies doubtless can be expected over the disposition of some, or much, of the water if the Canadian development proves feasible and is completed. No matter how much water might be conserved there, the supply will be far short of enough for all who want it.

But bickering over water before it is secured would be the height of absurdity. The effort to get the supply is the first job. It is big enough to challenge the utmost efforts that Lubbock, Amarillo, and all other interested communities, can put into it.

The sensible course is to try to get the water before worrying too much about the details of the division. It is encouraging that Lubbock and Amarillo are following the sensible course. Joint effort will not assure them success. But friction and working at cross purposes almost certainly would insure failure of the whole enterprise.

Marquis Childs

Significantly the Wallaceites are aiming their fire at these new liberal leaders who would deshape the Democratic party and make it a really effective political instrument. Thus they have entered a candidate against Howard Morgan, a young navy veteran who whipped the Communists in the local American Veterans Committee and now is running as a Democrat for the lower house of the legislature.

Communists and fellow-travelers form the hard core of the Wallace party in Oregon and they are working hard to get out a sizeable third party vote. It is believed they will draw strength from church groups and other ardent advocates of peace. But the third party is a tiny sideshow alongside the big Republican tent. And so, too, for this election at least is the Democratic party.
